MASTER NEGATIVE NUMBER:

CNP 225

MICROFILMED BY
MERRITT IMAGING CO., INC.
VERNON, CT

REEL 155
NORWICH BULLETIN
(NORWICH, CT)

SEP 1, 1925-
OCT 31, 1925

BIBLIOGRAPHIC HISTORY

TITLE:	NORWICH BULLETIN
OCLC NO.:	8766538
ON SUNDAY PUBLISHED AS:	NORWICH SUNDAY RECORD, <JULY 1, 1934>-MAY 12, 1957
	NORWICH BULLETIN-RECORD, MAY 19-26, 1957
	NORWICH BULLETIN RECORD, JUNE 1957-MAR. 15, 1981
	SUNDAY BULLETIN, MAR. 22, 1981-
VARIANT TITLES:	MORNING BULLETIN, WEEKLY COURIER, <JUNE 18, 1896-JULY 5, 1900>
	MORNING BULLETIN, <AUG. 30, 1900>-JUN. 7, 1904
	NORWICH BULLETIN AND COURIER, JAN. 8, 1904-NOV. 19, 1930
	NORWICH BULLETIN, NORWICH COURIER, NOV. 20, 1930-MAY 30, 1944
BEGAN PUBLICATION:	IN 1895
PLACE OF PUBLICATION:	NORWICH, CT
FREQUENCY:	DAILY (EXCEPT SUNDAY), 1895-NOV 1, 1930
	DAILY, NOV 2,1930-
EVENING EDITION:	NORWICH EVENING RECORD, NOV. 1927-JUNE 27, 1952
SEMIWEEKLY EDITION:	NORWICH COURIER, <MAR. 12, 1901>-OCT. 1927
WEEKLY EDITIONS:	NORWICH WEEKLY COURIER, <1895>
	NORWICH BULLETIN, NORWICH COURIER, COOLEY'S WEEKLY, NOV. 5, 1927
	NORWICH COURIER-COOLEY'S WEEKLY, NOV. 11, 1927-OCT. 1930
PRECEDING TITLE:	NORWICH MORNING BULLETIN
ABSORBED:	NORWICH COURIER - COOLEY'S WEEKLY, OCT. 31, 1930
	NORWICH EVENING RECORD, JUNE 1952
	NEWS (GROTON, CONN.), APR. 1978

CONDITION NOTE

Reel # 155

The following flaws or defects occur in the original newspapers on this reel of microfilm. The existence of these problems means that some text is missing or may be difficult to read.

Occurs		Condition	Explanation
Rarely	Often
		Mutilation	articles cut out or portions of pages or text missing
✓		Print cut off edge	portions of text cut away along margins
		Printing creases	blank streaks across portions of text
		Wrinkled pages	uneven page surfaces may somewhat distort appearance of the text
✓		Previous repairs	old tape or other repair covers the text
		Blurred print	portions of text difficult to read or illegible
	✓	Light print	light or faded ink is hard to read on the original
	✓	Bleed-through	heavily inked words or images are seen through the back of the page
	✓	Dark print	dark or heavy ink is hard to read on the original
	✓	Aged paper	exposure to light and air causes paper to turn brown, especially along the edges, making portions of text difficult to read or illegible
✓		Stains or spots	portions of text are obliterated or may be difficult to read

FROM THE ORIGINAL NEWSPAPERS OWNED BY:

CONNECTICUT STATE LIBRARY

FILMED AS PART OF THE CONNECTICUT NEWSPAPER PROJECT, A PARTICIPANT IN THE UNITED STATES NEWSPAPER PROGRAM

FUNDED IN PART BY:
THE NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES
AND
THE CONNECTICUT STATE LIBRARY

COPYRIGHT STATEMENT

The copyright law of the United States - Title 17, United States Code - concerns the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or other reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copy order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

SEP

1925

Norwich Bulletin

1706 1925

VOL. LXVII—No. 209. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1925. TEN PAGES—74 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

GOV'T NOT ALARMED BY THE SUSPENSION IN COAL MINES

President Coolidge and John Hays Hammond Discussed Briefly the Anthracite Situation—All of the President's Conferees Agreed That There is No Cause For Apprehension Over the Cessation of Work in the Anthracite Fields—Call For Special Session of Congress to Deal With the Matter Not Warranted.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Aug. 31.—(AP)—The suspension of the anthracite fields today attracted the attention of President Coolidge today, although little discussion was given the situation was reported at White Court.

The matter was discussed briefly the president with John Hays Hammond, chairman of the federal coal commission; James L. Richards of Scranton, and Henry Lyons, both of Boston, interested in the bituminous field. Mr. Hammond urged the president to demand congressional approval of the recommendations of the coal commission, that the government regulate the coal industry. The commission has investigated both the anthracite and bituminous mines two years ago and reported also that the government should do nothing about fuel distribution in time of emergency.

Under the plan of the commission the government regulate the coal industry through its powers of control over interstate commerce.

The president's conference with Mr. Hammond was by no means the only cause for general discussion of the prospective suspension of operations in the anthracite fields. Mr. Hammond did not believe a special session of congress before the regular December session would be warranted for the purpose of enacting legislation. Both Mr. Richards and Mr. Lyons declared that this section of the country, at least would not suffer from a coal famine even should a strike go on for some time. Production facilities are adequate to move what they term the plentiful amounts of coal now on hand.

Mr. Hammond accepted today an invitation to speak before the American Bar Association convention to be held in Boston October 5, to 9. The exact date which he will appear has not been determined. The invitation was extended by Alton T. Roberts of Marblehead, Mass., chairman of the committee to receive guests at the convention.

OWNERS DEPRECATE THE SUSPENSION OF MINING

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—W. W. Inglis, president of the Girard Anthracite Coal company of Scranton and chairman of the anthracite coal operators' committee, in Scranton tonight declared the suspension of mining unnecessary and unnecessary. Mr. Inglis said:

"I do not believe that the anthracite miners will strike this morning and more than 10 per cent will quit work in wages. The miners, I am told, are well satisfied with the present wage agreement."

"Not only will miners and mine operators of all kinds will suffer this unfortunate action upon the part of the miners' leaders refused to allow the mines to keep going while a new contract was being made."

STATEMENT MADE BY PRESIDENT OF MINERS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The closing hours of the anthracite wage contract, the expiration of which at midnight goes down in coal history as "zero hour" for a suspension of labor, was marked by a parting blast at the mine owners by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

Mr. Lewis charged that the operators had capitalized public apprehension of a suspension to boost their sales of coal and enhanced prices. He said the miners had no choice in the present wage deadlock except to wait until the operators "having effected a maximum public exploitation, will be ready to discuss sanely the problem on a new contract."

The miners will present a 100 per cent solidarity in the present demonstration, according to Mr. Lewis, who pledged that the public need have no fear of disorders in the mine communities.

STRIKE-BREAKER APPLIED TO LEADER OF UNION MINERS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Mistaking the headquarters of the United Mine Workers in the Bellevue Stratford hotel today for the offices of the anthracite mine owners, a laborer seeking work in the coal fields during the coming suspension tackled John L. Lewis, international union president, for a job.

Mr. Lewis on seeing the stranger enter the lobby, collarless and somewhat ill at ease, mistook him for a mine worker, and asked if he could do anything for him. The man explained that he supposed there would be wage premiums at the times because of the industrial condition, and that he was ready to "sign up" and leave at once.

The man apparently failed to see a change come over the face of the miners' leader, and proceeded to offer as credentials that he was a man of experience, and had served for some time as a "strike breaker" during the last strike of railroad shopmen.

The comment of Mr. Lewis upon his application soon appraised him of his error, and he left the hotel without delay.

WALKOUT IN DISTRICT 1 WILL BE 100 PER CENT

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 31—"The walkout of anthracite miners in District No. 1, will be 100 per cent. by midnight," Rinaldo Cappellini, president of the district, said tonight at his headquarters in this city. Approximately 70,000 members of the United Mine Workers in the Scranton area will have taken their tools from the mines, and will be prepared for what observers declare will be a cessation of hard coal operations for about six weeks at that time. No disturbances occurred today during the steady cessation of operation throughout the entire valley and none are looked for with the miners under instruction to do no picketing during the period of suspension. More than two-thirds of the miners in this section had left the mines by nightfall and the remainder followed during the intervening hours until midnight.

About 5,000 maintenance men will constitute the emergency force in the Scranton district and will protect the mines from floods etc. during the tie-up. Instructions were issued to these men by district officials at meetings throughout the valley tonight.

Miniature mountains of coal, stored by the coal companies to insure a continuous supply of anthracite to the consuming public, dot the valleys of this section. Exact figures on the amount of coal in storage are not available but it is estimated that there is enough to supply the regular winter consumption if the tie up does not last over three months and there are few officials of either the union or the larger coal companies who look for a suspension of longer than two months although none will make definite statements.

Although railroad officials remain silent it is considered that the "embargo" order which becomes effective Friday in the shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad in the city and Keyser Valley, throwing 4,200 out of employment, is a direct result of the coal suspension.

BLIGHT CAUSEES STUNTED GROWTH OF DAHLIAS

HARTFORD, Aug. 31—Reports from the state in general coming in to the State Horticultural society are discouraging as to this season's dahlia crop. A blight, which until now has only affected a very small percentage of the crop has come upon the plants in such force as to spoil this year's yield and cause the growers much worry. The blight causes stunted growth, yellow leaves and retards the growth of the blossom. The Little Martha, a popular variety in one nursery has been so affected that the flowers which are generally double are coming as single. Plants in the same field which have received the same care and even planted from the same tuber vary greatly, some grow to the average size and produce well, some are very small and without flowers and some do not come at all. Plants grown upon soil this year do not show the effect of the blight.

This is the worst the situation has been in years but with clear weather now a good crop is expected for next year.

NEW MEXICAN BANK WILL OPEN IN NEW YORK TODAY

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Banco De Mexico, the new Mexican national bank of issue, will come officially into existence tomorrow. Arrangements were completed today for formal filing of the charter.

The bank will issue paper money, backed by both gold and silver reserves, although the new notes actually will be gold-certificate. The government will retain 51 per cent. of the stock, offering the remainder for general subscription. The bank is capitalized at 100,000,000 pesos (normally $49,800,000).

Probably a fortnight will elapse before the new paper money actually is in circulation. Bills are held in readiness for issue up to 10,000,000 pesos, but the first issues probably will be small. Mexico has had no paper money in general circulation since 1920 and little since 1916. Only gold and silver coins have been used, and the handicap of handling big business transactions by payments in metal coin have curtailed trade, experts say.

In addition to issuing paper money, the bank will assume the functions of the present Mexican monetary commission. It is authorized to handle rediscounts and do a general banking business as well as act as agent for the Mexican treasury. The new bank is not to be confused with the National Bank of Mexico.

There are two classes of stock: "A," that held by the government, and "B," that held generally subscribed.

DAMAGE BY RAIN, HAIL AND WIND NEAR DANBURY

DANBURY, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—A heavy rain storm, accompanied by hail and high wind, did considerable property damage in this vicinity between 4.30 and 5 o'clock this afternoon, and delayed traffic, both by motor and trolley.

The worst damage was done in the immediate vicinity of the Danbury fair grounds. The roofs of six large cattle barns within the grounds were lifted off by the wind. Innumerable trees were toppled over, tearing down light and power wires. Danbury, Brookfield, Bethel and Newtown, supplied with light and power by the Danbury and Bethel Gas and Electric company, were without either from 4.30 until 6 o'clock. Reports from at least fifteen different places that falling trees had ripped down wires were received by the company.

A large section of the roof of a Danbury foundry company building near the fair grounds, was torn off. Traffic on the main highway from here to New York, was delayed because of trees across the road in many places.

During the severest part of the storm, William Montesi, 9, was struck by an automobile as he attempted to cross a street. His right leg was broken in two places and he received several bruises about the body.

ABANDONS ATTEMPT TO SWIM ENGLISH CHANNEL

DOVER, Eng., Aug. 31.—(AP)—G. B. Brewster, 24 year old London Doctor, who started from here at 11:45 o'clock this morning in an attempt to swim the English Channel, abandoned his efforts when about seven miles off shore. He had gone about 13 miles. The wind was troublesome and the sea lumpy.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

Edition of Roma Paper seized

ROME, Aug. 31.—(AP)—One of the editions of the newspaper Tribuna was seized today by order of the prefect because it contained an editorial attacking the rigid policy of repressive discipline on the part of the fascists imposed by Roberto Farinacci, secretary general of the party. A few copies of the censored edition escaped seizure.

PLANES FLYING FROM FRISCO TO HAWAII

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Two giant naval seaplanes, the PN-9, No. 1 and the PN-9, No. 3, departed out of San Pablo Bay, a northern arm of San Francisco Bay shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon and flew into the Pacific Ocean bound for Hawaii, 2,100 nautical miles away.

An hour later the planes were flying easily, at a height above 500 feet, and had established radio communication with shore stations. All was well at last report. Officers at naval headquarters considered everything favorable for the success of the non-stop flight estimated to require 24 hours.

The PN-9 No. 3, in command of Lieutenant Allan P. Sneely, left the water at 2:42. The PN-9, No. 1, the flag plane, took the air at 2:55, piloted by Commander John Rodgers, in command of the flight unit. By 3:11 both craft had passed over the Golden Gate and headed for the open sea.

Report to Destroyer

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—At 5:04 p. m. today the two naval seaplanes bound for Hawaii were 42 miles from the destroyer William Jones, the first of the guard ships. The destroyer is 200 nautical miles from San Francisco.

400 Miles Out at 8.40.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—The naval sea plane PN-9 No. 3 passed the destroyer McCauley 400 miles out at 8.40 o'clock tonight. A report from the PN-9 No. 1 was expected momentarily from the McCauley.

MONTHLY REVIEW OF BOSTON FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—The various industries of New England have recently faced much better than the same industries in other sections of the country. For example, New England mills consumed more cotton in July than in June but the mills in the cotton-growing states consumed less. The woolen mills in the district increased their consumption of raw wool quite noticeably in July but competing mills in the middle Atlantic states showed a further decline in activity. Even the New England shoe industry, which has been so adversely affected by trade conditions in the past two years, had a greater production in July than in June, contrary to the usual seasonal trend. A slight decline in the number of shoe factories in the state is noted, however.

New York state food products shipments are showing to trace the entry of the record 25 cases of liquor as required as medicine prepared with cotton drug was said to have been alcoholic content.

Charges against the arrested men include failure to procure the entry of the liquor, through false declarations of the goods and bonds, and smuggling. Smuggling was going on

A SUIT FOR $50,000 FILED AGAINST HENRY O. KING

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 31—Linus G. Beers, manufacturer and inventor of golf clubs, brought suit for $50,000 today against Henry O. King, of Norwalk, in obedience to a writ of attachment issued to perform an agreement aimed at re-organization of the Glover Specialties company, the value of the stock in which is the concern became worthless. The property, to the value of $40,000 has been attached by Deputy Sheriff Joseph Reilly. King is secretary of the Lassick company, of this city.

At issue to Read the action is the result of an attempt to re-organize the Glover Specialties company, situated at 225 John street, and of which the golf club expert is president, controlling seventy five per cent. of its stock. John Barnes, noted golf professional was one of the chief enthusiasts in the original enterprise. Its failure was due largely to the fact that the world in everything in their power to bring this about.

TRAL OF 91 CHINESE IN BOSTON POSTPONED

BOSTON—12 MAY "SAW NOTHING" Of 91 Chinese arrested in the spectacular raid made by 139 Boston Police yesterday in which guns, drugs and gambling implements were seized were granted an extension to Thursday when arraigned today so that they might be represented by attorney Joseph D. Leary, counsel for the Hip Long Tong here, who is now in the White Mountains.

Meanwhile, John H. Jensen, head of the Chinese division of the Boston Immigration Bureau, with four interpreters and four Chinese interpreters continued his investigation into the credentials of the prisoners to determine whether their entry in the country was legal.

A new wave of food products was sweeping to trace the entry of the record 25 cases of liquor as required as medicine prepared with cotton drug was said to have been alcoholic content.

Charges against the arrested men include failure to procure the entry of the liquor, through false declarations of the goods and bonds, and smuggling. Smuggling was going on

MONTHLY REVIEW OF BOSTON FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—The various industries of New England have recently faced much better than the same industries in other sections of the country. For example, New England mills consumed more cotton in July than in June but the mills in the cotton-growing states consumed less. The woolen mills in the district increased their consumption of raw wool quite noticeably in July but competing mills in the middle Atlantic states showed a further decline in activity. Even the New England shoe industry, which has been so adversely affected by trade conditions in the past two years, had a greater production in July than in June, contrary to the usual seasonal trend. A slight decline in the number of shoe factories in the state is noted, however.

New York state food products shipments are showing to trace the entry of the record 25 cases of liquor as required as medicine prepared with cotton drug was said to have been alcoholic content.

Charges against the arrested men include failure to procure the entry of the liquor, through false declarations of the goods and bonds, and smuggling. Smuggling was going on

STEAMER CRASHED INTO ROCK OFF HALIFAX COAST

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—(AP)—With leaks in hold and bunker, the U. S. Shipping Board Steamer Kearney bound from Baltimore to Glasgow was steaming at reduced speed to this port tonight after she crashed into a rock near seal Island, off Halifax.

The details of the crash were not included in the radio report which Captain George J. Breedon, commander of the vessel sent to Rogers and Webb, Boston agents for the Oriole line of Baltimore, which operates the ship.

Officials of the line stated tonight that they had been advised that the Kearney struck before daybreak this morning, resulting in leaks in number two hold and in a bunker.

The Kearney sailed from St. John N. B. last night after adding 600 head of cattle to the 4400 ton cargo taken on at Baltimore.

The steamer was built in 1919 at Kearney, N. J.

She is expected to reach Boston early tomorrow and arrangements have been made to float her into an East Boston Dry Dock for a survey of her bottom.

DISCHARGED MILL EMPLOYE SHOOTS OVERSEER, KILLS SELF

AUGUSTA, Maine, August 31.—Oscar Johnson, 50, overseer in the Edwards Manufacturing Company cotton mill here is in the hospital in a critical condition with two bullet wounds in his abdomen fired by Morris Devine today. Devine then fired one shot in his own temple, dying almost instantly. Devine was about sixty years old and had been employed in Edwards mill since he was 9 years of age. The wounded overseer discharged him this morning and the shooting occurred when Devine returned to the mill and started an argument.

Rival Chinese Tongs Abandon Warfare

A New Treaty to Cover All Possible Developments Ready For Ratification.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Enduring peace between the Hip Sing and On Leong Tongs, whose recent renewal of an ancient feud cost five lives in the United States seemed assured tonight after a conference among Tong leaders, district attorney Banton and Kee Lee, president of the Chinese Benevolent Society. District attorney Banton decided that there were numerous loop holes in the present peace treaty and Tong leaders agreed that a new one should be drawn at once.

A call was immediately sent to all officials of both factions throughout the country to meet in New York at the earliest moment possible to draw up and ratify a new treaty which will be iron clad. In the meantime the truce that has existed for nearly a week will continue in effect. Warnings also were sent to branches of the Tongs to guard against any posible resurgence of the recent outbreak.

Two leading Chinese business men will form a Board Arbitration to pass upon the phrasing of the New Treaty. These men will be chosen one by each Tong with Kee Lee sitting as the third member to cast the deciding vote in case of deadlock.

Police were confident tonight that further Tong outbreaks have been averted permanently. Leaders of both Tongs assured Mr. Banton that the same no reason why peace should not reign in Chinatown hereafter and that the world in everything in their power to bring this about.

MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN IN NEW YORK GROWS BITTER

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The white-robed Empire of the Ku Klux Klan invoked the Governor Smith bogy Thursday in its Brooklyn speech in support of Senator James J. Walker, Tammany's designee for mayor, held the center of the political stage today. The governor mentioned the klan when he said that Mayor Hylan had conferred with a klan leader during the democratic national convention last year.

The question of whether he opposed of "the governor's action in coming to New York and injecting the religious issue into the primary contest" was asked in a letter to George W. Olvany, Tammany chief, by former Surrogate Cohalan, democratic campaign manager in Manhattan.

The Tammany circles were excited today when Mrs. Henrietta Schroeder, co-leader in the first assembly district of Queens, declared allegiance to Walker. Mrs. Schroeder has a partial leadership over 4,500 democrats.

Senator Walker, speaking in Brooklyn on Heights Avenue tonight promised that as mayor he would "furnish the best transit system that the resources of the city can provide." Later he made a speech in Brooklyn.

Mayor Hylan spoke to a large crowd at the City Hall.

Frank D. Waterman, the republican-citizen candidate, visited the republican district clubs, getting acquainted and outlining his program for "a business administration at the City Hall." He has so far ignored the attacks of his adversaries in the republican primaries, John J. Lyons and William M. Bennett.

RUMANIA PREPARING TO SEND DEBT COMMISSION

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Rumanian government has officially notified the American legation that its debt commission is proceeding to the United States at an early date, probably the beginning of October to seek a settlement.

OBITUARY

Frederic Gregory Mather

STAMFORD, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Frederic Gregory Mather, 81, journalist and author, died at his home here today. Deceased had been editor of a number of New York state newspapers at different times, including the Albany Evening Journal and the Binghamton Republican. He was at one time a special representative of the United States bureau of education in Canada. Mr. Mather was author of several historical books, and contributors to a number of magazines. He was president of the Stamford Historical Society; former director of the Stamford Yacht Club, and a member of the corporation of St. John's Church house, Stamford.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Evans S. Kellogg of Schenectady, N. Y.

Almon Blake Phelps

HARTFORD, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Almon Blake Phelps, owner of the New Gate prison for 20 years, died at his home in New Gate, East Granby this morning. He was 58 years old.

Mr. Phelps, a republican who represented the town of East Granby in the legislature in 1901, where he was a member of the committee on temperance, now obsolete, at different times held nearly all the public offices in the town. He had been school director, selectman, three times assessor and three times a member of the board of relief. He had been a farmer all his life and leaves two large tobacco farms and one dairy farm. He also dealt in commercial fertilizer.

Mr. Phelps leaves a widow, Mrs. Lena Hoyt (Giddings) Phelps; two daughters, Mrs. Nellie King and Mrs. Mary V Phelps; six grand children, one brother, Drayton Phelps, of Edgerton, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Lucy Hamlin, of Lakeville.

Court Martial Finding Has Been Disapproved

Captain Andrews Has Ordered Corporal Chantos Restored to Duty.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. Aug. 31.—(AP)—Disapproving the findings of a summary court martial, Captain Adolphus Andrews, commander of the Mayflower, late today ordered Corporal Andrew Chantos of Cleveland, one of the marines charged with going to sleep on guard duty, restored to duty.

MISS EDELE'S CHANNEL SWIM AGAIN POSTPONED

CAPE GRIS-NEZ, France, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—Aided and abetted by a strong southerly breeze, rising suddenly about 2 o'clock this afternoon, the old English Channel went on a rampage and foiled Miss Gertrude Ederle's determination to enter the water at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning on her second attempt to swim from France to England.

The date for the American girl's next great effort was tentatively fixed for Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, but every day's delay is a point scored for the channel against the girl who would conquer it.

With the water getting colder, the nights foggy and damp, the channel more unruly as the season advances, the prospects for a successful channel swim in 1925 appear rather dim. Miss Ederle must make her next effort soon, if at all. After September 10 it becomes quite a task to cross the channel on mail boats without being seasick let alone swim it.

The temperature of the water has gone down to a degree since Sunday and now stands about 60 degrees Fahrenheit. When the American Charles Toth swam the channel in 1923 the temperature of the water at times during the night was as low 58 Fahrenheit.

The announcement that Mr. G. G. Brewster, of London, had entered the water at Dover this morning, and attempt to swim the channel was received here at 5 o'clock this afternoon when waves were ten feet high driven by half a gale were sweeping against the cape cliff. Mr. Brewster, however, was not able to complete the journey.

Wind and sea would be of great assistance to a swimmer coming from England, as he would have both either officials admit or not the disaster but it is the opinion of Burgess Helper and Miss Lillian Harrison, 20 channel swimmers that no swimmer could live in the sea which is churning in mid-channel just now.

A SUIT FOR $50,000 FILED AGAINST HENRY O. KING

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 31—Linus G. Beers, manufacturer and inventor of golf clubs, brought suit for $50,000 today against Henry O. King, of Norwalk, in obedience to a writ of attachment issued to perform an agreement aimed at re-organization of the Glover Specialties company, the value of the stock in which is the concern became worthless. The property, to the value of $40,000 has been attached by Deputy Sheriff Joseph Reilly. King is secretary of the Lassick company, of this city.

At issue to Read the action is the result of an attempt to re-organize the Glover Specialties company, situated at 225 John street, and of which the golf club expert is president, controlling seventy five per cent. of its stock. John Barnes, noted golf professional was one of the chief enthusiasts in the original enterprise. Its failure was due largely to the fact that the world in everything in their power to bring this about.

SOME INCOME TAX FIGURES IN CONNECTICUT FOR 1924

HARTFORD, Sept. 1.—(A. P.)—Some income tax figures paid in Connecticut in 1925 on 1924 incomes are:

Hugh M. Alcorn, Suffield, $6,464.08.

Sir Douglas Alexander, Stamford, $104,926.96.

Joseph W. Alsop, Avon, $2,454.80.

Eugene Atwood, Stonington, $76,-081.60.

Simeon E. Baldwin, New Haven, $6,137.68.

Hiram Bingham, New Haven, $4,91.

Mrs. Hiram Bingham, New Haven, $3,966.93.

Lillian K. Blake, New Haven, $157,-582.97.

Arthur K. Bourne, Greene Farms, $162,753.60.

F. E. Bossom, Hartford, $9,010.53.

Clarence P. Bradley, Meriden, $74,-404.51.

Morgan B. Brainard, Hartford, $16,205.78.

Charles F. Brooker, Ansonia, $22,-882.24.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED THROUGHOUT NICARAGUA

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Martial law was declared throughout the republic of Nicaragua today. President Solorzano has requested the resignation of General Alfredo Rivas, who is in charge of the fortress and garrison in Managua, in order to avoid a repetition of dictation to the president by military officials.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

General Primo de Rivera, Spanish chief embarked at Algeciras, Spain, on the Spanish cruiser Extremadura bound for Ceuta, Morocco.

Fifty automobile accidents were recorded to Motor Vehicle Commissioner John F. Griffin, of Concord, N. H., during the week on Aug. 24 to 29, two of them fatal.

Stephen J. Nichols and John Wilson, of Bridgeport, were drowned off Calf Pasture Island, between Norwalk and Westport, when a small boat in which they were riding overturned.

The United States eventually will receive 2,054,000,000 gold marks of 84,-623,000 of the billion gold marks paid by Germany during the first year of operation of the Dawes plan, the world peace foundation announced.

The board of directors and the industrial relations committee of the Manufacturers' Association of Connecticut will hold a business meeting at the Hotel Taft, New Haven, Wednesday noon following luncheon.

Mrs. Caroline Wenge, 25, of 751 Brewster street, Bridgeport, reported to police that her husband Frank had deserted her and her year and a half old child last Thursday and had not been seen or heard from since.

The Prince of Wales has arrived at Zarate, Province of Buenos Aires. He inspected the frozen meat plants and other semi-establishments today, then continued his trip to Mercedes, Province of Corrientes.

The total number of arrests by the Hartford police department for all causes for the week-end beginning at 8 a. m. Saturday and ending at midnight Sunday was 85 or 28 less than the number arrested last week-end.

The hospitals and police of New Haven were kept busy on automobile duties the week-end when accidents in which automobiles and motorcycles took part, resulted in injuries to seven persons and in damage to motor vehicles to the result of collisions.

Ms. Delia Kunz, of 620 Baker avenue, New York City, died in the Stamford hospital this morning from injuries received in an automobile accident on the Boston Post road in Greenwich on Aug. 23 when the car in which she was riding collided through the guard rail.

The body found in Newport harbor Monday was identified by relatives and friends in Meriden, that of Ernest Lucien Gilbert of Pawtucket, not Mr. Meriden as the victim.

Acting Governor Brainard issued a requisition on the Governor of New York for the extradition of Isaac Goodhand who is wanted in Bridgeport on the charge of theft of motor vehicles.

Announcement was made that the Boston & Albany railroad locomotive repair shops in West Springfield, Mass., would close today and remain closed until after Labor Day. No reason is given for the move.

King Haakom of Norway, has made Janice Giacomini di Bonaga, a resident of the city of Milan, Italy, a knight first class of the Royal Order of St. Olaf for a scientific work of the polar expedition of Roald Amundsen.

The Lithuanian Socialist Federation issued a call for workingmen to join the Communist Federation, some 50 of whose men, in the employ of Ford Motor Co., at Highland Park, were discharged from property on Linwood boulevard, and its headquarters.

An investigation was started into the killing saturday night of A. H. Pike, Windsor, Conn., manufacturer and republican politician, who was shot while asleep on a bench at the Southern Railway station.

The shoe workers protective union gave formal notice to the Haverhill shoe manufacturers' association of their desire to annul the present working agreement with the manufacturers on Dec. 31, 1925.

Sale to private interests of all Philippine government owned operative properties was urged by Governor General Wood in a message to the legislature on the grounds that the holdings show a deficiency in every operation.

Fred P. Dean, advertising manager for the Goldstein Brothers Amusement company, Springfield, Mass., owners of a string of theatres in New England, was found dead in the wash room of the union railroad station in Springfield.

Reports of the disappearance of Roderick B. Malcolm, Yale Divinity student, caused the Buffalo police to recall that the mysterious death of Kenneth Losey, chum and former roommate of Hallock has never been satisfactorily explained.

A hearing on the advisability of extending to Maine, Rhode Island, and the state of Washington the quarantine against the satin moth was set by the federal horticultural board for September 28 at the department of agriculture, Washington.

Mrs. Mary Murray, 75, of 144 East Main street, evicted from her home a week ago, for failing to pay rent, told Judge Ralph T. Beers in city court today that Sheriff William Jackson threw a crowbar into the street in the process of eviction.

Judge Qua in superior court, in Boston denied the motion of the defendant for a new trial in the $6,000,-000 suit brought by John B. Bolton of Philadelphia against John N. Van Deusen of Boston regarding patent rights in a process for manufacturing soft roll collars.

ACTRESS FRITZI SCHEFF IS SETTLING $5,682 SUIT

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 31.—(AP)—A suit against Fritzi Scheff, stage star, for $5,682, brought in the New Haven county superior court here by Stein and Blaine, New York furriers and tailors, was virtually withdrawn today when attorneys handling the case announced that Miss Scheff was settling the matter.

Attorneys for the complainants said today that proceedings to settle the suit began immediately after a deputy sheriff served papers to levy an attachment against Miss Scheff's country home at Wolcott.

A few years ago Fritzi Scheff appeared in the same court here and secured a divorce from her husband.

HANEY DECLINES TO RESIGN FROM THE SHIPPING BOARD

President Coolidge Had Demanded Resignation of Bert E. Haney of Oregon—Action Was Taken Because the President Considered Haney an Obstructionist—President Coolidge Has Lost Patience With Attempts of Haney to Have President Palmer of the Board Removed From the Service.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. Aug. 30—(A. P.)—Taking a hand in the continuing dispute between the shipping board and President Palmer of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, President Coolidge has demanded the resignation from the board of Bert E. Haney of Oregon, whom he considers an obstructionist to the Palmer program.

Advised by Mr. Haney that he will not resign, the president so far as could be learned here today has not determined what his next move will be.

Mr. Coolidge has tired of the controversy centering between the board and the fleet president and has definitely taken the side of the latter. While no one has asked only for the resignation of Haney, it is no secret that the executive is displeased with the general action of the board. He is reported as having reached the end of his patience in the factional fight which came to a head by the attempts of Haney to have President Palmer removed from the service.

The president has been kept informed by Mr. Haney that not only would Mr. Palmer not relinquish control over operation of sales of the American Merchant Marine by the president and congress, but that the president actually would have a majority on the board on this control.

TROUBLE OF FLEET CORP. AND SHIPPING BOARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—Recommendations of the fleet corporation and the shipping board that Admiral Palmer also be relieved of his duties as president of the fleet corporation, and that Admiral Benson be appointed to succeed him, were considered at a conference at the White House today with the president and Admiral Benson present.

Admiral Benson was reported to have developed a question as to his relations with the shipping board and to have asked that he be relieved of his duties as president of the fleet corporation, and that Admiral Palmer be appointed to succeed him. Admiral Benson is a member of the shipping board by virtue of his position as chief of naval operations.

Admiral Palmer was appointed president of the fleet corporation by President Harding in June, 1923, in succession to Former Senator George E. Chamberlain, Democrat, of Oregon, resigned. Upon the expiration of time to be given of reappointment by Mr. Coolidge last June.

CAILLAUX APPEALS TO THE PEOPLE OF FRANCE

PARIS, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—M. Caillaux, the finance minister, tonight appealed in words which were broadcast throughout France, to the holders of short-time treasury bonds to exchange them for the new four per cent bond, with a guarantee against exchange, and to capitalists to accept bonds and transform them into the new issue.

"Between the two negotiations on which Frances liberty of action depends" said Caillaux, "I ask you to listen to me once more."

The appeal was sent through the air from the wireless stations at the Eiffel Tower, Lyons, Toulouse and Marseilles.

The minister announced that the time for accepting subscriptions to the new loan would be extended from Sept. 3 to Sept. 30, as demands for an extension had been reaching him from city dwellers who were away from home on vacation and from workers on the land who were absorbed in the harvesting and from those, too, who were inconvenienced by "the regrettable conflict between the bank employes and the employed."

FINAL MEETING HELD IN OPIUM AND DRUG TRAFFIC

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The declaration of the American consul, S. Pinkney Tuck: "It is the desire of my country to continue co-operation with other nations on the basis of the Hague convention of 1912 for the suppression of the traffic in opium and other drugs," was greeted with applause at the final session of the league's advisory committee on opium and drug traffic today.

Mrs. Hamilton Wright, of Washington, who, it is reported, may lose her place as American adviser to the permanent opium commission, presented to the committee a cablegram from General Leonard Wood, governor general of the Philippines, referring to opium shipments from North Borneo to the Philippines the cablegram declared: "Reports indicate very small amounts."

Mrs. Wright, commenting on this retracted her recent statement before the opium commission that a large amount of opium was sent from British North Borneo into the Philippines.

Mrs. Wright came into conflict with the British delegates when she made her original statement.

PLANS OF NEW NATIONAL PROHIBITION OFFICERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The new national prohibition enforcement unit, which is scheduled to begin functioning in most sections tomorrow, will direct its energies toward the elimination of the illicit trade in alcoholic beverages by destroying marketers of such supply and eliminating the market.

Lincoln C. Andrews, in charge of the reorganized enforcement unit, in a letter today to B. Ewing, acting director of the Chicago district, defined the elimination of the "outlaw business" as "the main objective for the federal forces."

COMPLAINED OF ABDUCTION ON EVE OF HER WEDDING

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Charles Dobra, of Detroit, and three other men were arrested here this afternoon on complaint of Mary Bruten, 17 years old, who complained Dobra had abducted her on the eve of her wedding. She alleges that Dobra and his friends spirited her away from a party at her home in Detroit last Saturday night.

Dobra, she says, is her former husband. She is 22 years old. She says they were married two years ago but that her parents had the marriage annulled.

CHINESE ABDUCTORS OF HOWARD ARE IN HIDING

HARBIN, Manchuria, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—Dr. Harvey J. Howard, American eye specialist of the Pekin Union Medical college, who was captured by Manchurian bandits on July 20, is now being held for ransom by a group of his captors whose numbers probably have been reduced to less than ten who are unmounted and in hiding near the Sungari river, closely followed by mounted militia.

This information reached Harbin today in a message from Roger S. Greene, general manager in China for the Rockefeller Foundation, who is at Fuchin, Manchuria, working to secure Dr. Howard's release.

According to Chinese who have arrived at Fuchin from the bandit area, the brigands who captured Dr. Howard split into two bands when they crossed the Sungari river, fleeing from pursuing Chinese forces, the Chinese troops attacked one of these bands consisting of nineteen men on August 27 and killed the chief. The Chinese who brought this word to Fuchin witnessed the fight, Mr. Greene reports.

Chinese civil and military searching parties are combing both banks of the river, better co-operation in the search for Dr. Howard has been achieved by the authorities of the Manchurian provinces of Kirin and Holungkiang, it is indicated in the daily reports received by Mr. Greene at Fuchin.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE IN PICKWICK CLUB CASE

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—(A. P.)—Manslaughter in having caused the death of Edith Jordan on July 4, was charged against Nicholas Corrangelo, foreman of a construction gang when he was arraigned today on an indictment brought in connection with the collapse of the Pickwick club which cost the lives of 44 members of a night before the Fourth party. Corrangelo pleaded not guilty and gave bail in $3,500.

His indictment followed three others brought recently against an official and an employe of the Charles R. Gow company and a city concrete inspector. Twelve persons indicted previously were acquitted. In the course of the trial of those first indicted, evidence was presented to the effect that the collapse of a pier composed of "rotten" concrete was accountable for the five-story building's collapse with its 125 or more dancers.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

Automobile fatalities decreased in the four weeks ending August 15.

Thomas P. Cooper of Kentucky, was sworn in as chief of the bureau of economics.

Read Admiral Lucius A. Bostwick was appointed chief of staff of the United States fleet.

"Resignation of Bert E. Haney of Oregon, shipping board commissioner was asked by President Coolidge and refused.

United Mine workers officials assured Secretary Davis that lives and property would be protected during the anthracite extension.

The senate recount of the Iowa election contest was concluded with decision left to challenged votes.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS IN CONVENTION

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Conciliatory tactics employed tonight by leaders of the veterans of foreign wars prevented a number of delegates from leaving the convention city. Their rooms at the Mayo hotel were raided by a force of [illegible] police officers under the [illegible] of Henry Beard, United [illegible]

MAR 12 1926

WILLIMANTIC

Burglars believed to have operated in four other places within ten days, in a radius of a quarter of a mile in the city were caught, about 1:30 o'clock Monday morning, by Supernumerary Officer Leo Piche. The officer has been doing special duty of his own volition in order to nab the burglars who have kept the police restless through a series of breaks. He was rewarded when he noticed a man sitting on the step of the Temple street entrance to the Bacon grocery store, in the Hanover block, corner of Temple and Union street. The man proved to be Henry Beaudry of Temple street. When asked what he was doing out in that particular spot at that hour Beaudry answered "Oh, nothing." The officer noticed that the side door of the store leading from the steps on which Beaudry was sitting, was open. He entered and in the room found Alphege Potvin of Union street, prowling about with a flashlight in one hand and handling some of the goods with the other. Potvin could give no explanation for his presence in the store. Both men were taken to the police station and locked up. The men were quizzed but denied having been implicated in the three previous breaks the last one of which was in St. Mary's church. In police court Monday morning the charges against the men as read by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Frank P. Fenton were of breaking and entering the Bacon store. Potvin stated that he had no idea as to how he happended to be in the store and a plea of not guilty was entered on his behalf. Beaudry pleaded not guilty. Judge Foss found probable cause and bound the men over to the next criminal session of the Windham county superior court, under bonds of $1,000 each.

A reward of $500 was offered Monday by Agent Don H. Curtis of the local mills of the American Thread Company for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties responsible for the setting of fires at two of the company tenement houses on Ives street, about four o'clock Sunday morning. The state police are conducting an investigation of the attempted arson. The district where the fires were set is known as "New Village" and the Ives street section consists of twenty-two houses totalling fifty-four tenements. Following the serving of summary process notices on former operatives of the American Thread Company, who are now out on strike, several of the families were evicted and others vacated. The tenements are now occupied for the most part by new employes of the company who came to this city from Lowell, Mass., Manchester, N. H., and Rhode Island. Some two months ago while most of the tenements were unoccupied about a thousand panes of glass were broken. This act was proven to have been committed by boys. The attempt at arson, however, bears all the earmarks of being the work of grown-up persons.

Timothy McCruhan and John Daley, pleaded not guilty to assault on Arthur Dion, in the police court Monday morning. The stories as told by the accused and the complainant varied considerably. Arthur Dion stated that he and his brother Napoleon Dion were walking along the railroad tracks, near Chapman street, late Sunday afternoon. In front of them were three men two of whom he recognized as the defendants, the third being unknown to him. At a point opposite the S. C. S. Box shop the three halted and when the Dions were near them they struck Arthur Dion knocking him down and kicking him, according to his testimony. He offered no defense and his brother Napoleon, unlike the warrior of the same name, ran from the battle and escaped injury. Arthur Dion displayed a blackened eye in police court as a result of the fray. Napoleon Dion's testimony corroborate that given by his brother.

McCruhan took on an offensive attitude when called to the witness stand. He attempted to cross words with Prosecuting Attorney Gaucher but later submitted to cross-examination. His story was that he and Daley and another man who he did not know were sitting on a bank near the tracks, when the two Dions came by. Arthur Dion, he said, sneered at him and said aloud to his brother, "There are two nice looking————," using a vile epithet. McCruhan and Daly then stepped up to him to make him take it back and gave Dion a push. Dion stumbled over the tracks and to "That is how he got his shiner" said McCruhan. The witness refused to divulge the name of the third man. Daley's testimony was similar to McCruhan's. Prosecuting Attorney Gaucher called the attention of the court to the fact that assaults [illegible] and in order [illegible] the necessity [illegible] law he requested [illegible] penalty. Judge [illegible] found both defendants guilty and imposed fines of $25 and costs on each. Appeals were taken to the next criminal term of the Windham county superior court and bonds of $100 each were named and furnished by Mrs Nora McCruhan, sister of Timothy McCruhan. The real truth of the case as given by those who investigated the complaint is believed to lie in a case of mistaken identity. McCruhan, Daley and Arthur Dion are all on a strike at the present time, but Napoleon Dion is an employe of the American Thread Company. It is believed that the defendants had set out to cause trouble to Napoleon Dion but in some manner chose the wrong man. In either case Napoleon Dion felt that he was the one who was due for punishment and he lost little time in taking speedy leave, when trouble started.

Eleven cases tried in the police court Monday morning brought the total of cases tried during August up to 67, an unusually large number for the local tribunal.

Albert Kelley of this city was charged with speeding and pleaded guilty after making explanations to the court. Motorcycle Officer Bombria said that Kelley drove by in his car on Main street, Sunday morning and that he was traveling at the rate of thirty miles an hour. As the officer was starting on a chase he saw Kelley's car zigzag in the road opposite Bridge street, after the fender had just brushed a man who had been crossing the street and was then in the center of the road. Kelley's car traveled sixty paces before it was brought to a stop. The man who was nearly run down refused to prosecute Kelley and the charge of speeding was brought by Officer Bombria. Judge Foss imposed the maximum fine of $25 and costs amounting to $30.15.

In the police court Monday morning, Charles Robert Knight, 16, was charged with violation of the automobile law in operating an automobile without a driver's license. Prosecuting Attorney Gaucher stated that an investigation of the case had been made and he asked for a nolle of the case upon the payment of the costs of $5.15. The court granted this. Knight legally held a driver's license in the state of New Hampshire, where they are issued to persons 16 and older. When the boy and his family came here Saturday from Milford, N. H., a complaint was made to the police that he was under eighteen. His arrest followed.

Albert Huard and Arthur Smith, formerly of Manchester, N. H., now residents of this city were charged with intoxication. Both pleaded guilty. Judge Foss imposed a fine of $10 and costs in each case, the assessments of $12.15 being paid.

Andrew Schelera of 27 Yellow Row pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication. Officers Arthur Hurley and Leo Piche made the arrest late Sunday night upon complaint of Schelera's wife. A fine of $5 and costs, amounting to $11.15, was imposed and paid.

The case of Henry C. Russell, charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, continued from Saturday was once more continued Monday until this (Tuesday) morning. Russell is charged with owing board bills and having purchased groceries by false representation.

A settlement has been reached in the case of Edgar Lavoie, charged with non-support of his wife and three minor children, it was announced when the case was called in police court Monday. The couple have reached an agreement and are now living together.

Mrs. Abbie A Searles, 67, wife of Henry L. Searles, died at her home 21 Church street Sunday. She was well known and highly respected here. She was born in Vernon, January 26, 1858, a daughter of Charles A. and Myra Fuller Ladd. Besides her husband she is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. Sullivan of Vernon and a nephew, Charles Andrews.

Funeral services for Herman A. Darling, were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Chaplin Congregational church; Rev. John H. Knott officiating. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and beautiful floral forms were sent. The hymns during the service were sung by Mrs. Winslow B. Gallup, Burton M. Welch and Wilbur Lanphear. Miss Florence Hunt was at the organ. The bearers were Winslow B. Gallup, Burtin M. and Merritt Welch, Wilfred Burdick, Harry Storrs and Tyler H. Hamilton. Burial was on Monday in Smithtown, L. I., cemetery. Avery and VanZandt had charge of the arrangements.

In preparation for the opening of the winter season the Al-Pierre Tabarin is undergoing alterations and general renovations. A re-arrangement of the gallery and the catering rooms to give more floor space is being carried out. The managers, Albert J. Piche and P. J. Laramee are negotiating for the services of a high class orchestra for the season.

The swimming and race at Lake Wangumbaug, South Coventry Sunday afternoon by John Killourey, manager of Lakeside Casino, was witnessed by a large crowd.

The Boy Scouts Band will go to Norwich this (Tuesday) evening to parade from Preston Bridge to the grounds, where the St. Patrick's parish lawn party will be held.

Four local boys who engaged in a fistic encounter with the 14-year-old son of a family of new employes of the American Thread Company Sunday afternoon, have been released with a reprimand.

Miss Olive Green, of Mansfield, and not Miss Alice Sullivan as stated Monday, has resigned from the R. W. Lighting Company office here to become a student nurse in Boston.

Briefs and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Donohue of Windham Road recently had as guests, the Misses Mary King and Irene Donohue of Brooklyn, N. Y., Irene and Mary Kane of Springfield, Mass., and Mary Cook, of Uxbridge, Mass.

Miss Evelyn Thompson, of Hartford, spent the week-end with local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Byrd Freeman have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman of Sherburne, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shea and daughters Eleanor and Betty have returned to Providence, after spending a week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Moriarty.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hills and Misses Elsie Gilman and Elizabeth Peterson of The Ridges have returned from a six-day motor trip in the New England states.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith have as guests their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Maurice Smith and infant son James, of Elyria, Ohio. Mrs. Smith will join his family in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Kenney entertained Sunday Justus Fenner of Stamford.

Miss Elaine Bronson of Springfield, Mass., returned home this week after a visit with Mrs. G. W. Morrison who will accompany her for a return visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hodgson [illegible]

His pet candy

—and best for him, too

IT'S a great thing to discover a candy that is really good for youngsters—a candy with which you can be generous.

This you have in Life Savers, those delicious candy mints with the hole—six wonderful flavors and only 5 cents for a package of 14 mints.

The new Vi-o-let flavor is the great favorite today with children.

Good for little tummies. Safe for tiny teeth

LIFE SAVERS

WESTERLY

Officer C. Wilson Brown was called to investigate the report that a man lay on the New Haven railroad tracks near the West Broad street railroad bridge. The officer visited the spot and found that an elderly man had fallen across the tracks due perhaps to heat or other causes, had been stunned and lay in the right of way. His predicament had been reported and a passerby had the man removed from his dangerous position before the arrival of the police officer.

Bento Casserius, a workman on the new highway, being constructed on High street by the Rhode Island State Board of Public Roads, was struck Monday morning by the automobile operated by Joseph McGrow, of Carolina. Dr. Crandall was called and found that the workman had sustained a fracture of the right leg. He was removed to the new Westerly hospital for treatment. Patrolman George Madison was called and investigating, found that when the automobile was operated down Vincent Carr hill on High street the brakes failed to work, causing, it was said, the auto to dash upon the sidewalk and hit Casserius. McGraw was taken to the Westerly police station where he was held upon a reported charge of reckless driving and the operation of an automobile not equipped with at least two powerful brakes.

A special town meeting for the Town of Stonington for those who have a right by law to vote was held in Borough hall, Stonington, Monday evening and was called to order by John Fribance of Mystic of the board of selectmen, the other members being Arthur F. Babcock of Pawcatuck and Joseph A. Vargas of Stonington.

After reading of the call the first business considered was the petition of Alexander Marr and fifty-seven others, asking for the draining of William street, Courtland street and adjacent territory in the village of Pawcatuck and that a sufficient sum of money be appropriated to complete the work according to the plan submitted.

The petition of W. H. Gray and twenty-five others asking for the building of a cement road from the corner of East Main and Willow streets in Mystic to join cement on Broadway was taken up.

Received from C. H. Cowan and 249 others, a petition was presented asking for the cementing of Water street in the Borough of Stonington from the south side of High street to the cement state highway, corner of Water and Williams street and the appropriation of a sufficient sum of money for the purpose.

For the taking of some action regarding the White Rock Bridge across the Pawcatuck River, the following resolution was offered by Albert G. Martin of Pawcatuck:

"Whereas: By a communication dated August 6th A. D., 1925 and addressed to the Selectmen of the Town of Stonington by Robert W. Perkins, of Norwich, Receiver of the Groton and Stonington Electric Railway Company in which said receiver unconditionally and without reserve offers to convey by deed to the Town of Stonington, all that piece of highway approach to the White Rock Bridge (so called) including that portion of the Bridge lying and being in said town of Stonington, free and clear of all incumbrances; therefore, Resolved

"By the Electors of the Town, in town meeting assembled this 31st day of August, A. D., 1925 that said offer is hereby received, approved and accepted, it being understood that no financial obligation is hereby incurred by the Town by this transfer.

"Resolved—Further that in appreciation of this most generous offer by Receiver Perkins that the thanks of the town are due him, and are so voted at this time. Dated at Stonington, Ct., Aug. 31, 1925. (signed) Albert G. Martin."

The resolution for Pawcatuck Improvement, calling for an appropriation of $25,000 was the subject of a considerable discussion, so a paper ballot was called for. C. C. Potter of Mystic and Albert G. Martin of Pawcatuck were named as tellers. The total vote cast was 208, yes, 116, no, 88. The improvement was voted.

The Mystic improvement called for an appropriation of $9,000 and this was voted.

The Stonington Improvement appropriation amounted to $16,000 and was carried also.

The taking over of the White Rock bridge by the town was voted favorably. The meeting adjourned at 9:30 o'clock. The total amount of appropriations voted was $50,000.

Police Commissioner Benjamin S. Moulton returned to Providence Monday morning, after a week end visit in Westerly and Charlestown.

Ralph Bliven and George McKinley left Westerly Monday afternoon for Lansing, Mich., to return home by automobile.

Donald Fancher, of the Lyric Theatre, is a visitor for a week with a radio friend, Walter Ostman, "20 M", in Richmond, N. J.

Miss Gertrude C. Tuite and Miss Catherine Commiskey of Westerly are on a vacation tour through the Canadian provinces.

Miss Bernice E. Whipple and sister, Miss Mary M. Whipple, returning from a two months trip through the Panama Canal and down the west coast of South America, coming by way of Montevideo and Rio Janeiro, arrived by the United States government steamship Pan America, of the Munson line in New York Monday morning. Monday afternoon they arrived at the Westerly home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Whipple, 65 Elm street. A delightful trip through the Canal and down the west coast of South America with three extra stops was reported. On the return home a delay was caused by stormy weather.

Mrs. T. Edward Peabody and daughter Thelma and son Donald of Pawcatuck are guests of Mrs. Peabody's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Downing, in Wakefield for a week's vacation visit.

The annual outing and clambake of the Rhode Island Ones, Steam Fire Engine Company of Westerly, and guests to the number of more than forty, will be held at Barnes Point, Brightman's pond, Sunday next.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lester and daughter Gladys of 161 Oxford street, Hartford, summer cottagers at Pleasant View beach, are taking an automobile tour to Cape Cod.

Miss Marion M. Kelsey of Cambridge, Mass., is expected to be the week end guest of relatives and friends in Westerly.

NORWICH MAN'S CAR BUMPED BY LOCAL MACHINE

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Aug. 31—H. R. Brunche, 26 Mohegan road, of the Royal Stamp Co., of Norwich, was in a collision Monday forenoon about 10 o'clock on Liberty street, when driving into Westerly. The Ford suburban car driven by George Champlin, was operated out from behind an ice wagon near the sidewalk in an attempt to pass, when the collision occurred. Both automobiles were more or less damaged, the suburban car having bent right fenders and demolished hub caps. The accident was investigated by Day Policeman C. Wilson Brown of Pawcatuck and it was reported that an agreement for settlement for damages was reached.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Funeral services for Mrs. Orrill Ellis, 70, widow of William G. Ellis, who died at Johnson Memorial Hospital Friday evening, were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock, at the Ellis home on Church Street. Rev. E. A. Legg, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. Burial was in Stafford Springs Cemetery.

Mrs. Ellis was injured in a fall in the kitchen of her home Saturday, August 22nd. She was taken to the Hospital for treatment but grew weaker until her death last Friday.

She was a native of Ansonia, Conn. and was born June 29th, 1855, the daughter of James B. Weden and Jane (Parker) Weden. She had been a resident of this town for several years, where her husband had been a prominent business man.

Mrs. Ellis is survived by a son, Richard W. Ellis, of the Department of State Agencies and Institutions of this town, a daughter, Mrs. George Gordon, of Hazardville, and three grandchildren, two of Hazardville, and one grandson, William G. Ellis, of this town, a student at Princeton University.

In an automobile accident on the Monson road Sunday evening Ernest Zollett, his wife and their two months old baby were injured slightly. Zollett was driving toward the borough when his machine collided with an automobile operated by Frank E. LeDoyt, of Thayer Street, Amherst Mass. Zollett sustained a cut above the right eye, and Mrs. Zollett was injured about the head. The baby was bruised and shaken up. The injuries were cared for the office of Dr. John P. Hanley. LeDoyt was not injured. Both machines were damaged. Officer Edgar S. Ahlid of the local station of the State Police investigated the accident and ordered Zollett to appear in Borough Court Wednesday morning, charged with failing to give the right of way.

As a result of an accident on Church street Sunday evening Ernest Calchera of West Main Street was summoned to appear in Borough Court this week, by Special Constable Frank Mason, near whose home the accident occurred. Calchera made the turn from Prospect Street into Church Street, when the machine he was operating overturned, throwing him and a companion out into the street. Neither was seriously hurt, but the machine, owned by Otto Horan of Rockville, was damaged considerably. Calchera will probably be charged with reckless driving.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sheppard, Jr. and daughter, Meredith, have returned home, after a vacation spent at Bethlehem, N. H.

Mrs. T. Fred Mullen and daughter, Ruth, who have been spending several weeks at Wells Beach, Me., have returned to their home in Crown Street.

Mrs. Oliver Caron and son are guests of Mrs. Caron's sister at her home in Pittsfield, Mass., this week.

There is to be a meeting of the Catholic Daughter of America at the K. of C. club rooms Wednesday evening.

Miss Florence Guilty of Springfield was a guest at the Fitzpatrick home, on West Main Street, over the week-end.

George J. Gary was a visitor at his summer home at Watch Hill, R. I. over the week-end.

Officer Edgar S. Ahlid has returned to his duties at the State Police station. Officer James Finegan of Bridgeport, who was stationed at the local barracks during the absence of Officer Ahlid, has returned to the Westport station.

WESTMINSTER

Mrs. Laura Combs has returned home, after visiting her sister in Paterson, N. J., also visiting in New York.

Olwald Olsen is visiting her father Salve Olsen.

Eleven new members joined the Band of Mercy recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Tennell, of Manchester spent the week end at Rose Cottage.

Benjamin Davis has returned home after an automobile trip to Fall River and Boston.

Roger Combs has returned from a trip to New York.

Charles Robbins and daughter Addie visited Danielson this past week.

Representative Andrew Clark and Mrs. Clark were callers on the hill this past week.

Mrs. Byron Bingham and Mrs. Agnes Woods visited Willimantic recently.

Arthur MacLeod is having a new garage built.

The Band of Mercy held its meeting on the lawn at Mrs. Allen Moody's Wednesday afternoon. A number of out of town members attended including Mrs. C. Gallup and two children Miss Rose Vilano and three of her brothers and sisters, also a number of local residents were present. There were thirty nine in all. Refreshments were held at the home of Miss Doris Greenman September 7th. A letter was read by Mrs. Allen Moody from Mrs. W. Sinnell, in behalf of her family thanking the Band of Mercy for the handsome wreath sent to Mrs. F. Sinnell's funeral.

Mrs. Herman Stephen, Jr., is entertaining a number of relatives from New York.

Friends of Mrs. Everett Moulton are pleased to know that she is doing well after undergoing a serious operation at the Backus hospital, Norwich.

William Williams has finished his contract of carpenter work at the parsonage.

School will open September 8th. Miss Gold will teach this year.

A number of local residents are still picking blueberries. There was a big crop in this vicinity this summer.

NOANK

Miss Nellie Steele has returned to her home in Boston after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacDonald.

Bert Hopper has left for Orange, N. J., after a few days' visit with friends in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gauthier have returned from a visit with relatives in Chicago.

Miss Emma Gauthier has returned to Westerly where she is employed.

John Fitzpatrick has gone to Stamford to supervise the building of a large yacht, which will take about three months.

Mr. LaBounty of Westerly has secured employment with the Interstate Transportation Co.

William Nash is spending a few days in Norwich.

Harold Jones was a recent caller in Moosup.

Loneoln Wilcox of Taftville, was home for the week end.

Elbert Rathbun was visiting in Jewett City over the week end.

Mrs. Charles Smith is ill at her home.

Alfred Crowell is visiting relatives in North Stonington.

Mrs. Etta Main has returned to her home in the village after two weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sheffield, of Saybrook.

Mrs. Annie Dennis has returned from Westerly.

Alden Bockey was at Woods Hole for the week end.

Elihu Rathbun has been at Point Judith.

Miss Jennie Carney has returned to Boston after a visit here.

The cycle club held a week end race, the start being from the waiting room. When Robert Frances fired the pistol and the racers were off. The course was to Mystic and Fort Hill, then back to the waiting room. The sidewalks were crowded with spectators. The race was won by William Crewell; Rachel Mosher was a close second. The judges were Sam Main, John Ashly and L. Thomnson. The winner received a five dollar bill.

Raymond Sistaire has gone to Newark, N. J., for a few days.

George Martin of Providence is visiting in the [illegible]

OLD MYSTIC

The Old Mystic Social Circle composed of Mystic Grange members held its second picnic Saturday at the home of Amos Gallup. A delicious clam chowder was made by Mrs. Dealey, Mrs. Pollard and Mrs. Allen and was ready at 1 o'clock when the members arrived. After the chowder was eaten pie was served. The afternoon was spent in playing volley ball and baseball. The corn bake was ready at 6.30 and some who were unable to be present at dinner arrived later in the afternoon and enjoyed the cornbake and roast wienies, rolls and cake.

Several cases of soda water were provided. Special guests present were Assistant State Steward and Mrs. Charles M. Adams and son Morgan of Groton. Other guests were two former members, Mrs. Adelbert W. Carter and son of Wethersfield and Mrs. J. Hamilton Smith and four children of Waterbury. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pollard and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Allen son and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Austin and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Desley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Colver and two children Kenneth Buddington, Mr. and Mrs Fred Wiemann, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Houschild, Frank Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Avery, Allen Avery, Mr and Mrs. Leslie Haley, Mr. and Mrs Wallace Phillips, Mrs. Bessie Medbury and three sons, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Roy Tift and two children, Mrs Clifford Holmes, Mrs. Perry Eldredge, and Misses Louise Schroder, Agnes Austin, Rachel Buddington, Sarah Steadman, Helen Allen, Florence Johnson, Mrs. A. O. Waldo.

Rev. and Mrs. L. P. MacLennan, Mrs. Prentice Williams, and grandson Allen, Misses Delia Williams, Ruth Barnes and Sarah Steadman have returned from Willimantic camp ground.

Mr. and Mrs. John De Graw and daughter Gertrude returned Saturday to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carter and son have returned to their home in Wethersfield after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Eldredge. Mrs. Clifford Holmes accompanied them for a week's visit.

Miss Agnes Austin has returned from a visit with her aunt Mrs. C. H. Wainright, in Stoneham, Mass., near Boston.

Mrs. Enoch Montgomery has returned to Boston after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Colver.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Williams, Miss Edith Austin and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith of Mystic are camping at Lantern Hill.

NIANTIC

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Main of the Fair Haven district were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duerr and daughter of Norwich, William Button and family of Coventry, Mrs. Annie Coon and son Everett, Mr. and Mrs. William Coon and daughters, Misses Frances and Annie, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon accompanied by their grandson and granddaughter of Bradford, R. I., also Morris Main, of Mystic.

The Woman's auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal church held a food sale and fancy article sale Saturday afternoon on the lawn of Mrs. D. L. Gates home on Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Goff of East Hampton spent the week end at their Pine Grove cottage.

Mrs. Charles Thompson has returned to her home in New York after several days' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalf, at Pine Grove farm.

The auxiliary of Niantic chapter, Order Eastern Star met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Flora Meigs on Pennsylvania avenue.

Milton Maxwell of Brooklyn, N. Y. left Sunday evening for his duties in that city after a week's vacation who have been here through the summer will leave Labor day for the Metropolis.

Merton Stoddard of Boston was in the village Tuesday, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Morgan.

Travis Morgan of the village was in Pine Grove Saturday evening, calling on friends.

Turner Harding has returned from a few days' trip to Essex and Deep River.

Miss Lillian A. Lee of York avenue spent the week end in South Manchester, the guest of the George Chapman family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dellbridge of Bridgeport spent the week-end in the grove, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron G. Eddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Brockway of Hartford, former local resident are in the village for several days, renewing acquaintances.

Mrs. Joseph Perrino, Mrs. Patsy Belmont and Miss Mary Perrino motored to Saybrook and Branford on Thursday and while at Branford were guests of Mrs. Belmont's mother, Mrs. Mary Cipriani. The trip was made in Miss Perrino's car.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church is to hold a meeting in the vestry Wednesday evening after prayer meeting.

Henry E. Smith and Albert Brown of New Haven spent the week end at the Smith cottage in Pine Grove.

Edward House of New Britain is spending several days visiting in Pine Grove.

Mrs. George Neuschafer of Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending the season in Pine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Jennings of New York, former residents of New London were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalf.

Victor Beebe of Hartford is spending a week in the village the guest of friends.

HOPKINTON

William L. Burdick, D. D., Rev. A. L. Davis, Annie Langworthy Waite, M. D., and Elizabeth Kenyon gave reports of the sessions of the S. D. B. conference recently held at Salem, W. Va., at the Saturday morning service in the First Hopkinton, S. D. B. church. The conference will send Dr. Burdick, its corresponding secretary to China, Abyssinia, India, and Australia to inspect the missionary interests of the denomination.

Mrs. Charles N. Kenyon and son Grant attended the conference of Grange lecturers at Storrs Agricultural College last week.

Mrs. Emily Clarke of the shore road, spent last week at the home of her brother, Alonzo P. Kenyon.

The Stillwater Mills, formerly known as Bethel, is improving its borading house by the addition of verandas.

Clarence White and family of Wakefield, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Joseph T. White.

New cattle sheds are being erected in the grove at the Ashaway Grange fair grounds.

Rev. E. P. Mathewson and family spent Wednesday at Atlantic Beach casino.

The mercury has fallen perilously near the front line in low ground, the past week, at least on two nights.

Leo Cohn Cohn and Gandolofo Librizzi, of Norwalk, today filed an appeal with the court of common pleas in Bridgeport, from the decision of the Norwalk city court, by which slot machines taken from them in a raid were ordered destroyed as a "nuisance."

There are 800,000 beekeepers in the

Never Spoils a Baking

Because it is exactly compounded, of exactly the proper ingredients in exactly the right proportions to insure even and complete leavening.

RUMFORD

THE WHOLESOME

BAKING POWDER

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN NORWICH

Building in Norwich has been on the increase during the past few weeks and a number of the houses which are in process of construction are rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy within the present month.

Fire Marshal Chief Howard L. Stanton has issued 30 building permits during the past month, the value involved amounting to $145,119. The largest single contract signed for during the past month was for the new Sheltering Arms building at a cost of approximately $120,000.

The permits issued during the last two weeks of August numbered 15, of which nearly half were for alterations to present building, and a majority of these being for verandas. Garages continued to run strong and there was also one permit issued for a new frame house of the bungalow type.

Permits issued during the past two weeks by Fire Marshal Stanton were as follows:

To Joseph Wojculemics, add porch, 6 1-2 ft. by 33 ft. to present frame house at 143 Hickory street.

To Anthony Yeznach, frame garage next to 68 Roosevelt avenue, 13 ft. by 20 ft., frame structure.

To Mrs. Mary McCarthy, 245 West Thames street, addition to present house, cement foundation, hard pine lath and plaster, slate roofing, 12 ft. by 14 ft.

To Mrs. Abbie S. Briggs, to add a frame veranda to present house on Talman street.

To Zachue Bros., to add frame verands, 7 ft. by 20 ft., two stories, to present house on Maple street.

To Christopher Busch, frame garage, 10 1-2 ft. by 16 ft. on Sturtevant avenue, wood and brick with Phoenix tar paper for covering.

To George E. Geer, alterations to present house on Fourth street, shingle house all sides with green creo dipped shingles, new veranda, 8 ft. wide to be built.

To F. S. Armstrong to erect frame garage 40 ft. by 20 ft. on Otis street, floor and rear wall concrete, ends of wood, front wood and roof slate roofing.

To Walter Podolak to add frame porch 5 1-2 ft. by 16 ft. to present building on West Thames street.

To William Kurdziel to add frame porch 6 ft. by 17 ft. to present house on Rose street.

To Adam Muskus to add hall and porch to present frame house on Rose Street, Hall 6 ft. by 8 ft., porch 6 ft. by 10 ft.

To Andy Laako of Plainfield, to erect frame house, bungalow type on Howard St. Size 24 ft. by 31 ft., materials lumber, brick and cement.

To Frank Sumieski, addition, 7 ft. by 7 ft. to present frame house on Mohegan Park Road.

To Charles W. Burton, to add to present building on North Main street, stone and cement blocks.

To Nora E. Driscoll to erect frame garage 12 ft. by 20 ft. on East Cliff street, stone foundation, cement floor, wood shingled sides, asbestos roofing.

REAL ESTATE SALES AND MORTGAGE LOANS

During the past week there were 14 sales of real estate in Norwich the same number as in the corresponding week last year. Mortgage loans were $33,805 as compared with $45,375 in 1924, in New London the sales were 9 as against 5 in 1924 and mortgage loans were $31,275 as against $51,175.

The Situation

August is not the best time in the year to make a critical analysis of business conditions, for if one is pessimistically inclined it is too easy to translate mere vacation inertia into business dullness, but August is a good time to take stock of past and present business developments and their bearing on the outlook for fall and winter. From this angle present business conditions are most interesting and encouraging. The coal situation, while serious is not hopeless and the average citizen, disgusted alike with the attitude of the miners and operators, has faith that the pressure of public opinion, or at the most, governmental action, will bring forth a settlement before general business is generally affected. The public has faced this same situation before and knows that with so many substitutes on the market and the ways of using them well known, the operators and miners will probably give these careful consideration before operations are definitely suspended.

Perhaps the most pronounced turn in business affairs of late has been the increased competition in the industries that have been prospering markedly the first half year, notably oil and motors. Price cuts, now, are the order in both lines.

Building Prices Lower

A study of building material prices reveals the fact that the material cost of construction is lower than at any time since the early part of the war period. This tendency to lower prices has, in Connecticut, been the means of an ever-increasing amount of new construction work. With apartment house construction at a low level, it is noted that the volume of building is kept above a year ago by the construction of homes, this being noticed to a great degree in the larger cities of the state. In New Haven, where what looked like a very serious strike has been settled, the building inspector in a recent report paid particular attention to this fact. Mr. Austin in his report stated that he looked for very little apartment house construction during the remainder of this year and next, that the building of one and two-family houses was going on at a very encouraging rate. The same is true of the other leading cities of the state.

Building

Building permits were issued this past week in the cities of the state reported in The Commercial Record to the number of 262, comparing with 357 in the like week of 1924 and 305 in 1923. The cost of new construction this week amounted to $1,286,325. Last year $1,194,890 was expended on new construction work and in 1923 $941,249.

Real Estate

Sales of real estate during the past week by warranty deeds filed in the cities of the state reported in these columns numbered 610, as compared with 507 in the same week of last year. Mortgage loans for the week totaled $3,823,172, comparing with $2,364,357 loaned on mortgages in the corresponding week of 1924.

Willimantic

The contract has been awarded to The Peck-McWilliams Co., of Norwich for the erection of two additions to the present building of the S. N. E. Telephone Co., here. The buildings will be of tapestry and hollow brick construction, three stories high, with North River Blue stone, artificial stone and terra cotta trim. In the basement will be toilets and shower baths. The first floor will contain offices and the operating room. And the second floor will have a ladies' toilet room and shower baths, a cloak room and a cafeteria. The heating will be a vapor system.

Rockville

The contract has been awarded for an addition to St. John's P. E. church in this place, and work on the contract has been started.

BLACK HILL

Miss Fanny E. Brown has returned from a visit at Worcester.

Miss Abbie Medbury and Miss Armstrong motored the past week to Marblehead and toher points in Massachusetts.

Stanley and Roger Brown motored last week to the White Mountains and other parts of New Hampshire and to Maine.

Charles Kinne of Brooklyn called on the hill recently.

Lucius Exley has returned to his school in Ohio.

Amos Cornell has been working the past week at Woodlands.

Miss Esther Brown of Worcester is visiting her uncle, H. Beecher Brown.

Elbridge Kinne attended the Stone auction Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Brown received a call from their old Pomfret neighbors, Misses Lena and Clara Averill.

Some 400 creditors of the Dorsen Dry Goods Company of Bridgeport, which concern failed in June 1918 with liabilities of $141,000 and assets not determined, may receive about 25 cents on the dollar.

New Bryant & Stratton Building Absolutely fire-proof Fountain Street at Union Providence, R. I.

Save 2 Years' Time Gain 2 Years' Pay

To be Bryant & Stratton trained carries prestige in Business

THE BRYANT & STRATTON Course in Business Administration, Accounting, Finance and Executive Training, offers nearly as many credit hours in two school years as the average university does in four years, due to a longer school year, fewer vacations, and more credit hours per week. Particular emphasis is placed on the practical side.

This course is endorsed by the National Association of Credit Men.

Leads to State-authorized degree of Bachelor of Business Administration. 1000 Calls for graduates annually. Degree courses also offered in Higher Accountancy, Secretarial Science and Normal Commercial Training; also regular Business School and Finishing Courses.

63rd Year Day School begins Sept. 1st: Evening School begins September 8th in all courses except Business Administration and Higher Accountancy (evening groups) which begin September 21st.

The Executive Offices are open daily from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.; Saturdays from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. for interviews and registration. Visitors are invited to inspect our beautiful new home.

TELEPHONES UNION 7580. 7581. 7582

For Bulletin of Courses, address the Registrar

BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

FOUNDED 1863

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Monday morning, at half past seven the marriage of Miss Aldama Desnoyer, of this city and Harry Parker, of Springfield, Mass., was solemnized in the St. James' Church by Rev. Father Joseph Deschaut. The best man was Frank Parker, also of Springfield, a brother of the groom; while the bridesmaid was Miss Wilda Henault of Danielson. After the ceremony the guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rosario Warner of Carter street for a reception and breakfast. The guests included relatives and friends from Connecticut and Massachusetts. Mrs. Parker received many gifts including electrical articles, cut-glass and linen. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Springfield, where Mr. Parker is employed. The bride is well known in Danielson where she was employed in a millinery establishment.

In a session of the town court, held Monday morning by Judge William Fenner Woodward, Fred Courtiere of 2.2 Main street New Britain was fined $100 and costs coming to a total of $116.74. The accused was arrested early Sunday morning by Officers Andrews and Gebert for driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. The officers received a number of complaints about a man bossing the road and when Courtiere came in sight he drove up Main street in a manner that did not meet with the approval of the policemen and he was then placed under arrest.

Archie Hutchins of New London, was a visitor here Monday.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jessup, of Killingly Centre on a recent evening in honor of their seventeenth wedding anniversary. Music and games provided entertainment and refreshments were served. Guests were present from all parts of the town.

Louis Francouer of San Francisco, spent last week visiting A. Proulx on Mechanic street.

Miss Annie Hutchins recently gave a pleasant afternoon to her music pupils and their mothers. Some of the members of the class played. Those present included Miss Mary Musgraves, Miss Inez Reynolds, Miss Beatrice Pluze, Miss Esther Ware, Misses Janet and Mayette Paine, and Miss Emily Pike. Refreshments were served.

Harry Back, Jr., Harold Tayntor and Franklin Crosby spent last week at the Back Cottage, at Lake Mashapaug, town of Union.

Miss Sadie Fulton, Mrs. Helen S. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fulton and Robert Fulton are spending this week at "Snotsyek" cottage, at Crescent Beach.

Canova M. Chase who died at his home in Hamville, early Saturday morning, leaves one daughter, A. Laura, three brothers, O'Meara G., of Sterling, David of East Orange, N. J., and Cassius of Hartford; and a sister, Emma of Lynn, Mass. The statement in Monday morning's Bulletin of his leaving four children was an error.

This (Tuesday) evening there is to be an interesting Community Missionary Meeting for women in the vestry of the Baptist church. Pete Edward Kinnington Smith, a native of Norwich Town, for a number of years a missionary in China, will be the speaker.

Miss Agnes White and brother, Charles and James, of Brooklyn, N. Y., have been guests of Mrs. Mary Monahan of Furnace street, for the past week.

Felix Lemieux of the store of George O. Thomas, is on two week's vacation.

The laying of a new concrete floor in the lobby of the Orpheum Theatre was begun Monday. After this is completed it is planned to rebuild the sidewalk in front of the building.

The condition of Letz Keech, who was injured in an automobile accident at the Chepachet Four Corners is practically unchanged. He had has a fracture of the jaw and a bad cut on the forehead. He is still in the Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

Monday was one of the hottest and most oppressive days in some time. For a while during the afternoon it looked as though there would be a shower but it did not come.

John M. Dane, proprietor of a store on Main St., was awarded the first prize and $25 for the best decorated show window in a contest run by a popular magazine. The letter of congratulation from the magazine and a photograph of the prize winning window is poste din the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland R. James, Mr and Mrs. Benjamin E. Rapp, Jabez Bowen, Harry Beers, Mrs. L. S. Ingalls and Miss Lillian E. Bailey comprised a party who visited at Oakland Beach and were very pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Vine R. Franklin and their daughter, Mrs. Crosby.

PUTNAM

Mrs. William Falter has returned from St. Vincent's Hospital, in Worcester, Mass., where she has been under observation for the past two weeks. The surgeons though it best to postpone an operation for a time and she will return to the hospital later.

Edward Kowalski, a sailor station-ed on the submarine tender Camden at New London was in car which was badly damaged in a collission at North Grosvenordale. The four occupants in the damaged car were on their way to a dance at South Woodstock when the accident occurred. Kowalski was the only one hurt. He was taken to the Day Kimball Hospital where his injuries were attended and he was able to return to his ship at New London.

The Windham County Guernsey As-sociation has arranged for what will be a very instructive field day trip for Wednesday. The trip will be visits to Hartford county farms where large Guernsey herds and farm crops, especially alfalfa can be seen. The trip will probably be made by bus. Everyone interested in Guernsey is privileged to attend. Alexander Maitland at Thompson, or Frank T. Anderson at South Woodstock, will give information regarding the trip.

Mrs. William Beadle of Charlotte, N. C. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Harry Mann on Grove street. Mrs. Beadle has been spending the summer at Gales Ferry.

Clayton Shead and family and William Diggins and family have returned from a trip through Vermont.

Mrs. E. O. Hopkins has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Prescott Warren, at Willimantic.

Miss Lucy Ellis and Miss Alice Stevens motored to Echo Lake, Pascoag, R. I. and spent the week-end.

Mrs. Dwight Pease and son Raymond of Burlington, Vermont are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Pease and family at their home on Fremont street.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin S. Greene and Mrs. William H. Richardson are spending this week at Apponaug, R. I.

Eudore Bouthillette of Hartford, who has been spending the past two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Regis Bouthillette has gone to New York for a visit. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Rita, who will make a visit at Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gaucher of Church street with Mr. and Mrs. Zoel Gaucher, of Baltic, are making a three weeks' motor trip through Canada.

Mrs. Louis L. Lorillard, of Newport will arrive from Europe this week and will spend the autumn months at the parsonage in Pomfret.

Mrs. Annie Edmonds of Hampton has been visiting Mrs. John Sabin at her home on School street.

Mrs. Andrew Frost has returned from a week's stay at the Wigwam, Pleasant View.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kent are at Alton Bay, N. H. for ten days' outing.

Miss Blanche Welch of New York has bene the guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Lizotte.

Miss Alice dams, of the Putnam Light and Power Company, is spending her vacation with friends and relatives in Worcester and Springfield, Mass.

Miss Christine Ryan of Webster, Mass. has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells.

Superintendent Ellis, of Putnam Trade School, Mrs. Ellis and family have returned from a visit with relatives in Portland, Maine.

Miss Mary Potvin is visiting friends at Fitchburg, Mass. for two weeks.

Russell Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Vincent's Hospitla in Worcester, is making a good recovery.

Mrs. Bella Kohler of Nashville Tenn. has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Rose Obletz and family on Providence stret.

Mrs. Anna Cohen and family have moved from Wilkinson street to Boston to make their home.

Mrs. John Perrin and two children of Worcester, Mass. have been spending a week with Mrs. Perrin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brownie of Bolles street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Haviland and little daugther Margery leave today (Tuesday for their home at Cartright, Labrador, after a month spent with Mr. Haviland's sister, Mrs. Justin S. Greene of Center street and his mother, Mrs. Haviland of Ballouville.

Miss Leosa Magnan, a student nurse at St. Vincent's Hospital, Worcester, Mass., has been spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Magnan of Bridge street.

Miss Ada Bosworth, daughter of Mrs. O. C. Bosworth, is now employed in an insurance office in Providence.

Miss Berthe St. Pierre of Mount St. Joseph's Convent, Hartford, is visiting at her home on Church St.

Miss Laurenda Ravenells bookkeeper at the Diamond store has returned from a trip to Canada.

Miss Emma Benoit has returned from several weeks spent in Boston.

Miss Helen Mary Wheaton is the guest of friends at Ossipee, N. H.

Mrs. Frank Stanton and three children are at Cedar eBach, Milford, Conn. for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bravo and family have moved to Norfolk, Va., where Mr. Bravo is now engaged in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Saul Gordon of Wilkinson street are entertaining friends from New York City.

Mrs. Ada Webster, who has been living in Southbridge for the past six months has returned to Putnam and is residing on Centennial street.

Mrs. Fannie Burton of Woodbury, Conn. has been the guest of her son, Rev. N. B. Burton and family at the Methodist parsonage.

Miss Alice I. Byrne of Providence is the guest of her grandmother Mrs. Mary Byrne.

Miss Ada Maynard has returned from a three weeks' visit to Lashway Park, Brookfield, Mass. Miss Delia Gaucher of Boston returned home with her for a visit to Putnam Friends.

COUNTY SEC. CORBETT TENDERS RESIGNATION

PUTNAM, Aug. 31.—At a meeting of the county committee of Y. M. C. A. held here Friday night the resignation of John H. Corbett as county secretary of the Y. M. C. A. was presented and accepted. The acceptance was reluctantly agreed to, after Mr. Corbett had made it plain that it would be impossible for him to remain under the smaller compensation that the current budget renders necessary. Harry Richardsom, of Moosup, president of the Windham County committee, was directed to confer with the state officials to invite their aid in securing a successor.

Mr. Corbett has been county secretary four years and has been largely instrumental in building up the work in the county and in the purchase of Camp Woodstock and making it a permanent summer camp.

A resolution were presented and adopted; that the Windham County committee of the Y. M. C. A. expressed appreciation of the work done in Windham County by County Secretary, Corbett, since the Association was started, four years ago.

Under the able leadership of Mr. Corbett the work of the Association has grown each year in extent and influence. He has generously given of his time to the various "Y" activities. A large share of the credit for the success of Camp Woodstock and of outstanding institution life in this state properly belongs to Mr. Corgett.

It was with genuine regret that the conty committee accepted Mr. Corbett's resignation.

Resolution was signed by, E. C. Morse, R. C. Jenkins, A. E. Smith, Committee on Resolutions.

HYDE SMITH INJURED IN WORCESTER ACCIDENT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Aug. 31.—At Worcester today Hyde Smith, president of the S. & A. Amusement Co. of this city had his shoulder-blade broken and was badly bruised about the body, as the result of an automobile accident. He was on his way to a hospital in a taxi-cab to keep an appointment with a physician. The cab collided with another car and Mr. Smith was injured. He was taken to the same hospital for which he was bound, an X-ray taken of the break which it is not believed will prove serious and he was sent to his home at Worcester.

JEWETT CITY

Monday afternoon for a few hours there came a period of excessively high humidity, during which several flocks of chimney swifts were noted, doing their evening insect hunting only a few feet above the ground. As a general thing they get their supper in a much higher altitude.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ryan of New York are making two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, on the East Main street highlands.

The attention of many was attract-ed to an exceptionally long freight train of over 100 cars that went through the town, bound noth, Sunday afternoon. It was stated that when the locomotive stopped to take water at Plainfield that the rear brakeman got off the buggy at Bishop's crossing and filled his pockets with green apples from a nearby orchard.

For the first time this summer the local section is beginning to feel the need of rain.

Mt. Vernon Lodge opens 3:30 D. T. Funeral, Calvin H. Lee.—Adv.

It remained for the fair, one day recently to set some of the wise male ginks in their marks and show them the locality where they might alight.

A party of local golfers went to the Pomfret links the other day for the favorite game. While there, a visiting player, exhibited a new iron of some sort connected with the game. There was some little speculation among the company, in reference to the sort of metal of which the striking part was made. One young woman allowed that it was Al-u-min-i-um. Not long after, during the process of the game, there was some allusion to aluminum, whereupon the young woman informed one of the tender youths, that in educated countries, in fact in her native country, aluminium was the proper word. Arriving in Jewett City, dictionaries offered substantiating proof as to the correctness, and altogether proper character, of the young woman's pronunciation claims.

Calvin H. Lee, 75, died in Need-ham, Mass., Sunday morning at five o'clock. Mr. Lee was born in Voluntown August 21, 1850, the son of Henry and Melissa Chesebro Lee, both of Voluntown. He held a number of positions in the mill business and was superintendent of the B. B. and R. Knight mill at Readville, Mass., until he retired from business. He was a member of Mt. Vernon Lodge, No. 75 F. & A. M. of Jewett City, and requested a Masonic burial, which will be given. He leaves his wife and Lewis, of Voluntown.

Le Claire's haberdashery will formally open September 15. New fall hats on sale early next week. Will carry full line of latest gentlemen's fall furnishings. Also will handle Duxbak's products.—Adv.

It seemed strange Monday, that while the members of one family were feeling badly because the pet cat had caught a baby cedar wax-wing, a neighbor should enter to say that their family pet had caught a black and white creeping warbler. The wax-wings as is their custom have not yet finished the season's housekeeping, and have young birds unable to fly. This notwithstanding the fact that bobolinks, and some swallows that summer in Jewett City, have left on their southern journey of migration.

The black and white creeping warbler, known as the Mniotilta Varia, should have been able to take care of himself some weeks ago. Any how the facts are that two of the handsomest birds in this section met an untimely end, and in neither case by stray vagrant cats. Both are household pets, but the law of the wild is not changed.

The Gilbert Cottage at Beach Pond is famous for hospitality, and this last week end was no exception. Prof. Gilbert is famed all around this section as a dance prompter. Now the fame of his culinary ability has gone abroad throughout the land. For he prepared, baked and served a toothsome clambake Sunday. Near his cottage, is a beautiful section of white birch woods through which a brook runs, and here Mr. Gilbert prepared the bake. The day was ideal as was the spot, and the guests thoroughly enjoyed the chowder, clams, green corn, tomatoes, cucumbers, brown bread, pie and watermelon. Guests were made to sit down, while the hospitable chef waltzed around to his own prompting and served the dinner alone. The guests arrived on Saturday bringing their supper with them, and late in the evening there was dancing and a weenie roast. The party comprised Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Jeffers, Gladys, Marian and Grace Jeffers, Mrs. Grace Webster, Miss Ethel Thompson Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cheney, Gustave Greenwood, Martin Kraus and Tyler Gilbert.

A part of the programme at the Community Club meeting was omitted. The numbers were, reading by W. B. Truesdell, recitation by Miner Welsh and solos by Mrs. William La Liberty, accompanied by Miss Boule.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Prior leave for Boston this (Tuesday) morning for a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins and sons are at Pine Grove for a week.

Miss M. A. Burdick and Miss Ethel Roode returned Monday after a month's stay at Groton Long Point.

Duncan MacKay remains in a criti-cal condition at Backus hospital.

The swan which took the first prize in the big Fourth of July parade here, and was later sold to a Norwich florist, was a feature of the American Legion parade in New London Saturday, its picture appearing in a Hartford paper Sunday.

Mrs. Edmond Jodoin and daughter Catherine and Miss Catherine Barnett returned Sunday from a week's stay at Lakeville.

The 1925 exhibition of home indus-tries, gardening, cooking, sewing and needlecraft in competition for the David Hale Fanning prizes, conducted under the auspices of the Worcester public schools, with Frank Andrews in charge, is to be held in Mechanics hall, Worcester, Friday, Sept. 18, from 7:30 until 9 p. m., and Saturday, Sept. 19, from 10 a. m., until 6 p. m.

This display of work done in the public schools by the children throughout the school year was originally started years ago by Miss Thayer and was carried on first in connection with the New England Fair and later with the schools. Finally the interest of David Hale Fanning, a native of Jewett City, was aroused and in consequence he has created a fund which permits the sum of $600 to be used annually for prizes and divided among the different departments.

The competition is open to the pupils from fourth to eighth grades and including first and second year pupils of the Junior High School, as enrolled in the Worcester Public Schools between February and June, 1925.

The purpose of the Fanning Exhibit is a dual one. First it is to promote interest on the part of the children in the occupations of the home and second to instill within them a loyalty to their own particular school.

BOROUGH SETS HYDRANT PRICE WITH JEWETT CITY WATER CO.

(Special to the Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 31.—A specially named meeting of the freemen of the borough of Jewett City was held Monday evening, relative to the purchase of the works and franchise of the Jewett City Water Co. Warden Matthew Geary was in the chair.

It was voted to make a contract with the Water Co. to supply force for the hydrant system of the borough, for the period of ten years, for the price of $40 per hydrant per year. No action was taken relative to the purchase. The price fixed by the Water Co. is $200,000, they not agreeing to be bound to sale at that price. Attorney John T. Barry was present and explained to the meeting that the first contract was made by the water company with the Twelfth school district. That contract gave power for the purchase by the Twelfth school district under certain legal conditions and agreements. This contract expired in 1915 and was renewed with certain charges, with the borough of Jewett City. The contract made last, which expired this year, carried no power whereby the purchase of the water company's franchise and works could be accomplished, except at such figures as the water company saw fit to demand.

The only way today to bargain about the price, is to have an act passed by the next general assembly giving the power to the borough of Jewett City to appeal to the superior courts, praying that a disinterested committee be appointed, to adjust and arrange a suitable price, which should be made agreeable to both the borough and the Water Co.

The motion relative to the $40 hydrant contract, was made by G. H. Prior and was seconded by first selectman of Griswold, Maxcy Seymour.

The service given by the Water Co. is adjudged excellent and Attorney Barry, believed that their small increase in revenue was altogether right and in no way exorbitant.

Leipsic Concerts Curtailed

LEIPSIC, Aug. 31—(AP)—For the first time since the founding of the Gewandhaus concerts in 1781 a visiting orchestra, the Saxonian state, will be included in the season's program. The extraordinary duties imposed upon the Gewandhaus orchestra by the reconstruction of the Leipsic municipal opera has caused the city council to curtail the concerts.

The Gewandhaus orchestra will be available for only 18 concerts during the season, while the Saxonian state will be heard in two.

PAGEANT DEPICTD BLACK HILLS GOLD RUSH

DEADWOOD, S. D., Aug. 31—(AP)—A reproduction of the early gold rush in the Black Hills of South Dakota was staged here in Deadwood's annual celebration of "The Days of '76" on August 12, 13 and 14.

A duplicate of the mining settlement that existed in the seventies at Deadwood Gulch has been fashioned and in it a pageant, typifying the characters and life of the frontier days, was presented. The reproduced mining settlement included dance halls, saloons and gambling dens, while persons representing the leading characters of the frontier mining town Wild Bill, Calamity Jane, Colorado Charley, and California Joe, figured prominently in the pageant celebration.

Pioneers of the frontier days assisted the directors of the celebration in making an accurate reproduction of the life of that period.

Army Division Mobilizes Quickly

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., Aug. 31—(AP)—The third army division here can mobilize and be ready to entrain in one hour and 45 minutes. This was determined recently in a test mobilization ordered by Major General William H. Johnson, camp commander. The mobilization plan was kept secret until the orders were issued. Every unit in camp packed up and was at the railroad station within the time stated.

GERMAN RAILWAY MAKES ITS REPARATIONS PAYMENT

PARIS, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Seymour Parker Gilbert, Jr., agent-general for reparation payments, today announced that the German railway company has made payment of 80,000,000 gold marks, the balance of the interest due September 1, on its reparation bonds.

"This completes the payments due from Germany," said Mr. Gilbert, "on the first year of the operations under the experts' plan, which commenced September 1 a year ago."

"In the total these payments have amounted to 1,000,000,000 gold marks, of which 800,000,000 were derived from the proceeds of the German external loan issued last fall. The remaining 200,000,000 were paid by the German railway company as interest on 11,000,000,000 gold marks of bonds, which it has given under the plan for reparation purposes.

"The railway company made its first payment February 28, 1925, in the amount of 100,000,000 gold marks.

The second payment, due September 1, 1925, was in part anticipated during August, in accordance with an agreement made between the agent-general for reparation payments and the railway company, whereby, partial payments may be called for in advance of due rates subject to discount at the rate of six per cent. per annum, for the purpose of providing funds for the smooth flow of reparation deliveries and payment.

"The amount paid today, 60,000,000 gold marks, this completed the second payment of 100,000,000 gold marks for the year."

HELPED THROUGH CHANGE OF LIFE

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during this Critical Time

Baltimore, Md.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to help me through the Change of Life and for a broken-down system. I had been complaining a long time and dragging along had tried other medicines which did not help me much. I read in the newspapers of the Vegetable Compound and after taking a bottle I felt better. I did not stop with one bottle, but took it through the whole critical time and am now practically a well woman. I have two daughters whose health was very bad before they married and I was worried about them. I got the Vegetable Compound for them and it helped them, and after they married it also helped them in bearing their babies. This is a great and good medicine for all complaints of women, and I recommend it to all."—Mrs. L. GINGRICH, 1575 N. Gilmor St., Baltimore, Maryland.

The Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for women of middle age. Let it relieve you of nervousness, that feeling of strain and those annoying hot flashes so common at this time.

Faster and Safer Washing

STOP all that bothersome hand rinsing and bluing, all feeding heavy soaked clothes, piece by piece, to a wringer! Stop standing and straining over steaming tubs, lifting heavy clothes, or parts of a washer.

Instead, let the marvelous Savage wringerless, and the Savage "Spin-Rinse, Spin-Dry" innovation put your clothes on the line ahead of all your neighbors—without slightest injury to clothes or yourself.

Savage "Spin-Rinse, Spin-Dry"

is the name of the newest, fastest method of laundering ever devised. NOW, you spin out all the soap and softener—then SPIN the clothes dry, an entire load at a time. No other washer in the world has this feature.

Have a Free Home Test of The Wonderful Wringerless Savage Washer

Prove the Savage the fastest, and safest in the world, in your own home Now. We'll help you. No obligation.

O'NEIL ELECTRIC CO.

FRANKLIN SQUARE, NORWICH.
NEW LONDON FUELITE GAS CO., 13 UNION STREET, NEW LONDON.
THE ELECTRIC SHOP, MOOSUP, CONN.
HOURIGAN FURNITURE CO., JEWETT CITY, CONN.

SAVAGE WASHER & DRYER With the Exclusive Spin-Rinse, Spin-Dry

Summer Colds cause Headache

When you cool off suddenly and when you sleep in a draft, you get a Slight Cold, causing Headache, Neuralgia or Sore Muscles.

To Stop the Headache and Work off the Cold

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine tablets

The box bears this signature

E. W. Grove

Price 30c.

Chopmist Hill Inn

(Open All Year)

NORTH SCITUATE, R. I.

12 Miles East of Danielson, Providence Pike.

Chicken, Steak and Lobster Dinners.

Accommodations for Clubs, Lodges, Associations.

Private Dining Rooms on Application.

LARGE DINING HALL

Seating Capacity 400.

The Largest Sport Field in Rhode Island.

FLY-TOX

Every Bottle GUARANTEED

FLY-TOX was developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by the Rex Fellowship. In a simple, easy and thoroughly effective way, FLY-TOX kills flies, moths, mosquitoes, fleas, ants, roaches and other insects. It's so convenient to saturate the air with clouds of FLY-TOX. Flies, by merely winging through the mist, become affected with the strange action of FLY-TOX, and die. This mist lingers just long enough to do its work. It then evaporates and leaves only a pleasant, clean odor. Wall paper or drapes are not stained. FLY-TOX is harmless to humans. Thus easy, elusive flies that invade the most carefully screened homes, are quickly and easily eliminated with FLY-TOX.

Half-pints, 50c; Pints, 75c; Quarts, $1.25

Help That Aching Back!

Is a bad back wearing you out? Are you lame and achy, nervous and depressed? Do you suffer headaches; dizziness and disturbing bladder irregularities? Then you should know that these are often signs of kidney disorder and kidney trouble is too dangerous to neglect. Your kidneys keep the blood stream pure. Once they slow up in their work, poisons accumulate and cause an upsetting of the whole system.

Why, then, risk neglect? If you have reason to suspect your kidneys, give Doan's Pills a trial. Doan's have been used successfully for over thirty-five years. They are recommended by thousands. Ask your neighbor!

HERE IS NORWICH PROOF:

MRS. JENNIE L. SPAULDING, 21 Tanner St., says: "Exertion seemed to make my back tired and weak and I felt worn out. Dizzy spells and headaches were frequent too. I used Doan's Pills and they cured me."

ALMOST FIVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Spaulding said: "Doan's Pills cured me sound and well and I haven't needed a kidney remedy since."

Doan's Pills

Stimulant Diuretic to the Kidneys

60c all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfg. Chemists, Buffalo, N.Y.

155840

1790 1925

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

129 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 50c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-3.

Willimantic Office, Main St., Telephone 1131.

Norwich Tuesday, Sept. 1, 1925

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 29, 1925:
12,909

DOING HIS DUTY.

When the office of controller general was created it was regarded as an important office. This is to be gathered from the fact that the person filling that office is named for a period of 15 years and he cannot be removed without the passage of a joint resolution by congress. There was created an office the holder of which was intended to have a close check upon government expenditures.

When J. R. McCarl was named as controller general it was possible for him to so administer the office that he would cause no opposition. He could diplomatically sanction all outlays or easily bring about compromises and in so doing being a good fellow without regard for the duties it was intended he should perform. Doubtless he recognized that such an avenue was open to him but he also must be given credit for knowing what duty means and in being able to perform it without regard for Tom, Dick and Harry. He recognizes the importance of his job and he is living up to it. He is standing up to his task and in doing so there are those who will insist that he is standing up so straight that he is leaning backward. He is giving attention to the little as well as the big things. He is blocking some of the practices that have been going on unrestricted for a long time and some of them are regarded as so small as to cause considerable criticism of his stiff necked policies.

It is invariably the case that those who do their work and refuse to do the bidding of those who shirk and try to get something for nothing arouse the ire of those who cannot get away with their old practices or who are not permitted to institute new ones.

There is an administration at Washington that is committed to economy. It is working for and getting results that please the people who provide the government funds. Controller General McCarl is in office to aid in the accomplishment of that very result. He is unquestionably taking his office seriously and it is to the gratification of the country that there is such a man in office and actually doing what is expected of one occupying such an office.

ZONING ORDINANCES.

Some idea of how long it takes for a good idea to make such a favorable impression that others employ it is furnished by the progress which has been made in regard to zoning.

Zoning isn't brand new but there were only 48 cities and towns which had adopted it in 1921. They were for the most part sizable communities however, for they had a total population of 15,000,000, and it is in the larger communities, cities rather than towns, that the good effects of such a regulation are the more noticeable and resorted to.

The good impression made by zoning ordinances in 48 communities is indicated by the increase of zoned cities until now, according to figures compiled by the department of commerce, there 366 zoned municipalities with a population of 26,000,000. This represents a gain of more than 700 per cent in the number of communities and of 130 per cent in the population living in zoned cities and towns.

How it appeals to the big cities is shown by the fact that 27 of the 33 largest cities are now operating under zoning laws and we have no doubt that the number, will continue to increase as study is made of city problems and the relief that is furnished by this method is understood.

It is inevitable that every community must sooner or later have much the same difficulties concerning its business and residential districts, its building lines and the height of structures. Zoning anticipates these very things and serves as a preventive. It works in advance for those instances where it is frequently exclaimed "something ought to be done about this or that." Too often there is a helplessness when such situations arise, but the community that has adopted a zoning ordinance has made provision to meet such conditions which are often annoying and decidedly troublesome. Zoning has proven its worth.

TWO DOLLAR BILLS.

Not so long ago the treasury department was urging the use of more silver dollars and the abandonment of that idea that there is something unlucky about the two dollar bills.

The purpose of this was to bring about some relief for the one dollar bills and the saving of a million or more through reducing the necessity for printing so many of this denomination. Dollar bills last but about seven months on an average. Because of the large demand for them it is necessary for them to be put into circulation before they have seasoned after printing. The consequence is that they show the effects of wear much quicker and the life of them is shortened. With silver it would be different, while with more two dollar bills in use there would be much less need for the smallest denomination of paper money.

The silver dollars do not appeal to the public in this part of the country. It is much preferable to carry about paper than silver or gold and the people have not been willing to inconvenience themselves to any degree for the sake of helping the government to save a million or more.

But the bureau of efficiency of the government is making another endeavor in this direction by urging the more general use of the two dollar bills. In doing so it is bearing down heavily on the foolishness of that old superstition that a two dollar bill is unlucky.

Just how extensively that belief exists is not known. It seems to have been given a generous circulation in recent years whether it existed to to any extent previous to that time. Just why any piece of paper money should be unlucky is beyond comprehension, barring the fact that it resembles in color the dollar bill, and might at times be mistaken for it. But those who are disposed to pass out money without looking at it might well be regarded as being so well supplied that anything like that would make no difference, while those who are obliged to make every dollar go as far as possible are not going to be so careless with their money.

The appeal for the use of more two dollar bills is a reasonable one. Anyone who can get them will be glad to comply.

HUGGINS OR RUTH.

From all indications it is a case whether Manager Huggins is going to handle the New York American baseball team or whether the power behind the throne in such management is going to be a player by the name of Ruth.

The former has fired Ruth and fined him for insubordination off the ball field. Ruth is reported as issuing an ultimatum that he will not play with the Yankees any more if Huggins continues as manager, that he is going to talk with Baseball Commissioner Landis and with Owner Ruppert of the Yankees. The impression given is that Ruth is going to be allowed to do just as he pleases regardless of the club rules and the orders of the manager, or he is going to quit.

As far as the quitting is concerned he is already out and may not play again this season and there seems to be no reason why he is entitled to any sympathy. He has defied the manager and given the impression that he is to be considered in a different class from other players and must be treated accordingly. Rules amount to nothing with him. Personal judgment must govern his case and conduct.

Such a spirit in any organization simply leads to demoralization Manager Huggins is demanding no more than should be expected of Ruth and we have no doubt that he will be fully supported by team owner and all others who recognize the important of adequate managerial control if results are to be accomplished. The position of the Yankees in the standing has nothing to do with question of whether Ruth should live up to the rules. There are no reasons why he should dodge the rules of conduct imposed upon the team any more than the rules of the game.

CABINET CHANGES AGAIN

From time to time it has been reported that Secretary Weeks was going to resign from the cabinet. This was heard previous to the time he was taken sick. It was renewed thereafter and now it is at the front against with one report having it that it will be placed in the president's hands the last of this month to be effective the first of October.

Secretary Weeks has been a valued member of the cabinet and it is no secret that he was desirous of getting away from such duties before there was any intimation of illness. Because of the importance attached to his services he was prevailed upon to remain. He made a good recovery from his illness only to be obliged to go through an operation and there is no question but what both have severed to sap his vitality. Thus if it should prove to be the case that the report is correct in this instance and he has actually made up his mind to relinquish his post as secretary of the navy there will be no surprise. It is a step that can be regarded as a logical outcome of events since it docsn'tappearthat the secretary will be able to resume his fulr duties since his health at the present time would not justify it and it doesn't appear that he is likely soon to regain the robust condition which the holder of a cabinet portfolio would require.

While many rumors that had no basis have been circulated concerning cabinet changes, until it is wise to liberally discount them, it seems not improbable that poor health will force the secretary to make a decision in this instance which might not otherwise have been forthcoming.

EDITOR NOTES.

September morn.

The gasoline war is one of the conflicts which the consumers are satisfied to have continue for some time.

When young LaFollette promises to continue his father's policies he doesn't seem to have grasped the full meaning of the last election.

There are already indications that General Pershings supervision of the Tacua-arica plebiscite isn't going to be all milk and honey.

There's nothing to prevent the debtor nations from settling their obligations before the 62 years are up if they desire, but no one expects it.

The man on the corner says: Perhaps the best illustration of determination is the mosquito which insists on drilling a door knob.

If the Worcester hold up man is looking for new aides to replace those eliminated he might be able to make arrangements with Dutch Anderson.

How much sympathy will the Dayton business man get who planned and carried out the holdup of a bank in order to tide over his bad financial condition?

There's much ado about the word "obey" in the marriage ceremony. Considering the attention it gets now it apparently makes little difference whether it is removed or not.

FROM LUCILE'S DIARY

Polly Gray telephoned me in great haste on Thursday morning that she had been called out of town by the illness of a relative. She wished me to take her place as chairman of a Dix Amies committee.

"I'm asking you Lucile, because I know you will have time to give the matter your own attention," she said. "So many of the girls are so occupied with their families or with business that it's hard to get anybody in a hurry. You weren't at the last meeting of the Dix Amies, were you?"

"No, you see I had an invitation for the opera, and I—"

"Well, we decided to decorate the church for Madge Warren's wedding. You know it's to be a rather simple affair in her own church, and we told her not to give the decorations a thought, for the Dix Amies would consider it a privilege to take care of them as a tribute to a well-loved member. Of course it won't interfere with our individual gifts, as we are to pay for the decorations out of the club treasury."

"And you wish me to attend to it, Polly? I'll do the best I can," I answered amiably.

This morning, Saturday, the day of the wedding, I called up George Requier, asking him to meet me at the Church of the Beatitudes, if he possibly could, and give me "first aid."

"What's doing?" he asked.

"I'm decorating the church for Madge Warren's wedding, and I need some good able-bodied help," I returned, and he said he would come at once as he is an old friend of George Winship, the bridegroom. I had arranged with the florist to have the palms, ferns and flowers at the church, and I found the truck there when I arrived.

"We can't get in, miss," said the driver. "The church isn't open."

"Dear me, how strange!" I said. "The wedding is to be this afternoon. I wonder what we can do."

"Call up the sexton," suggested the driver. "His house and telephone number are on the sign there."

Just at that moment George appeared in his car, and I told him my trouble and he said that he would "buzz" around to the sexton's house and bring him back toute de suite, which he did. I reprimanded the sexton, and he said crossly that he had had no orders. George gave him some cigars, and his humor changed pleasantly, and in little more than an hour we had the church beautifully adorned.

"May I come around here at 4 o'clock to take you to the wedding?" asked George when he dropped me at my house. "The ceremony is to be at 4:30 isn't it?"

"Yes," I said, "and I'll be ready."

I was ready and waiting when George came for me. He was a bit late, so we drove rapidly to the church and we were astonished to see no signs of a wedding there.

"Perhaps," I said, "the Warrens didn't feel like spending the money on an awning," but there were no people about, and to our intense dismay the church door was locked.

"Great Caesar!" exclaimed George "do you suppose the wedding is off at the last moment, without due notice, as it were? Poor old Winship."

"Oh, George," I gasped, "could we have made a mistake?"

He thrust his hand into his pocket and drew forth a crumpled invitation from which he solemnly read. The Church of the Benefactions. Well, what do you think of that? Can we get there in time?"

"No, it's miles off and besides, George, I don't want to go now. I just couldn't," I said tearfully.

He saw how dreadfully depressed I was and he took me for a drive. Then we dined downtown and went to the theater.

I was afraid mother would be waiting up to reproach me, but she wasn't, thank fortune. I suppose that tomorrow all the Dix Amies will call me demanding to know why there were no decorations for Madge's wedding. I shall simply have to say that so much responsibility was shoved upon me at once that it was not strange that I was confused.—Chicago News.

From Small Beginnings

Anton Dvorak, the Inn-Keeper's Son, a Great Musician

The Humoreske by Dvorak is a musical composition that no one who hears it will forget. In it is the full spirit of the Slavic race, the love of life and color, the dash and fancy and strange vigor, the almost barbaric spirit of the Slav, and at the same time of the expression, and many others that likewise breathe the same spirit are the work of Anton Dvorak, a Bohemian who fought his way upward from obscurity into fame. When Anton Dvorak died in 1904 he was known throughout the civilized world, and the greatest musical artists were playing his compositions in all the important cities.

Like so many other great musicians Dvorak had to endure years of struggle with poverty. Perhaps his happiest days were those when he was little more than a child, when he sat in his father's poor inn, in Bohemia, that was half a meat-market and half an inn, and played on his violin pieces that he had learned in the village school of the little Bohemian hamlet where he had been born. Bohemia is the land of violinists, and there were violin players who came to smoke and talk and play in the village inn. These bearded men taught the boy the old tunes that they knew, the music that had been handed down to them from their forefathers. This was the school of music in which the great composer began his work. In spite of the fact that later in life he went to trained masters and studied in various places, Dvorak drew from his memory of those boyhood pieces much of the inspiration of his music. He became an exponent of the folk-spirit of Bohemia, so that in his work we hear the laughter and music, and see the picturesque whirlings of the dances in the little inns of Bohemia. Indeed, boyhood experiences and boyhood memories give to a great many the greatest inspiration.

In spite of the remarkable ability that the boy showed, his father was not willing to let him give his time to the study of music. He preferred to have him help in the work of the inn and the market. Various kind-hearted people saw to it that Anton Dvorak gained opportunities to learn music and musical composition. In spite of all help, however, the boy for he was only a boy still in his "teen," was hard put to it. He played for several years in a small orchestra in a theater, taught pupils and sat up nights to compose music. He was so utterly poor that he all but starved. At 32 he was fortunate enough to write a national song that had such popular appeal that it brought him popularity and increased opportunity. As he gained more money, and thereby more time for serious work, he tried to write operas and symphonies. By the time he was between 40 and 50 years of age he had made himself well known in England and in the United States. His iron will had led to success.

Today's Anniversaries

1851—Gen. Narciso Lopez, the daring fillibuster, died in Havana. Born in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1799.

1858—A mob destroyed the quarantine hospitals on Staten island, N. Y.

1870—Beginning of the series of engagements between the French and Prussians round Sedan.

1873—"Molly" Maguires" murdered two miners at Raven Run, Pa.

1883—The state agricultural department of Alabama came into existence.

1888—Steamer Owego reached Chicago from Buffalo in 61 hours 22 minutes, the best record up to that time.

1891—Seven masked men held up a Denver & Rio Grande express train in Colorado and escaped with $3,600.

1923—More than 100,000 lives lost in earthquake, followed by fires and tidal wave, which almost destroyed several of the chief cities of Japan.

1924—Dawes Reparation plan went into effect.
Fifth Assembly of the League of Nations met at Geneva.

Today's Birthdays

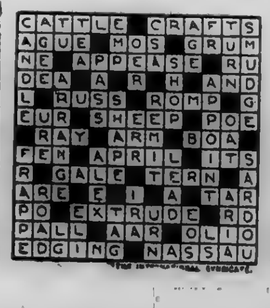
Lord Methuen, one of the twelve field marshals of the British army, born 80 years ago today.

Senator Sir James Lougheed, veteran Canadian statesman, born at Brampton, Ont., 71 years ago today.

Henri Bourassa, Canadian journalist and apostle of Franch nationalism, born in Montreal, 57 years ago today.

Rex Beach, author of many thrilling stories of adventure, born at Atwood, Mich., 48 years ago today.

James J. Corbett, well-known actor and former champion pugilist, born in San Francisco, 59 years ago today.



IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Dr. Henry C. Taylor, whose removal from his position as chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture may be made the subject for a congressional investigation, is a celebrated agricultural economist who was connected with the Agricultural School of the University of Wisconsin before his services were enlisted by the Federal Government. Dr. Taylor is a product of the great agricultural region of the Middle West. Born in Iowa in 1873, he attended Drake University at Des Moines and then entered Iowa State College, from which he received his M. S. A. degree in 1898. To perfect himself for his chosen profession he went abroad and spent several years in special studies at universities in England and Germany. Upon his return in 1901 he began his career as an instructor at the University of Wisconsin and in 1908 he was made head of the Department of Agricultural Economics at that institution.

CHILD TRAINING

SAND TO PLAY WITH Bonnie Worley Wright

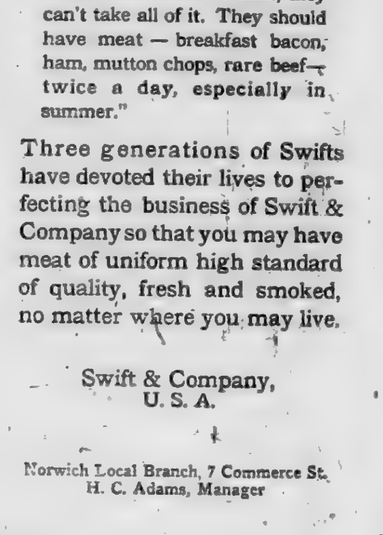
Anyone who has ever watched children play in the sand at the seashore or at the lakeside knows what an absorbing and never-ending source of delight it is to them. They make innumerable wells and allow them to fill up with water, build tunnels carefully and painstakingly bored through them, forts, castles with moats around them, farms fenced in with sticks or shells and populated with marvelously shaped animals. They seem never to grow tired of it, either, returning each morning, carrying their little spades and buckets, with just as much enthusiasm as ever. It is always there, and its possibilities are never exhausted.

The secret of the popularity of sand as a plaything is, of course, that it lends itself so readily to molding. There is nothing so amusing and engrossing to children as the making of things, and the putting into actual form the fancies and figures that their own imaginations conjure up. Children will desert the most splendid and costly toys to play in sand, or even in mud, for while the toys may take their attention for a time, in the long run they prefer the plaything with which they can do something. This has been recognized by educators, and in most schools the sand table is one of the most important and effective pieces of equipment. At the sand table children may make maps and diagrams, illustrate history and geography lessons, and in many ways gain a clearer and more lasting conception of their work than they would acquire through any number of book lessons. They learn, too, the lessons of working together, of collaborating, of putting into form their own ideas but making them conform to the ultimate purpose of the work as it is being done by the class.

Sand is also used as a plaything in the home but not to the extent that it should be. For the price of almost any ordinary toy that is given children at Christmas time, a sand table or an outdoor sand box could be constructed and filled with sand enough to last through the whole year.

As far as the expense is concerned it can be just about what you care to make it. One may have a box or table that will be finished and beautiful and an ornament to the yard, and may make the cost run up to a high figure, but the children will not enjoy it any more than they would the plainest and least expensive arrangement that can be made to hold sand. A good table can be made by setting a flat box on legs of the desired height, and an outdoor pen by cutting a large box down or by nailing boards together in a square or a rectangle for a fence and using the ground for a floor. Of course all boxes and boards should be planed smooth and the sharp corner covered for small children.

The best sand to use is that known as fine beach sand, although ordinary bank sand is very satisfactory except that it is not so clean. Children, however, are not at all prejudiced against dirt, and when this is the only kind of sand obtainable, they should certainly not be deprived of its use. Soap and water will overcome the drawback, and the contentment and pleasure of the youngsters are quite worth the trouble. Try it for a while and you will never let your children be without sand to play with. Plan on next birthday or Christmas to put their gift money, or some of it at least, into sand, and see what returns you will reap in the hours of amusement it will furnish them.



Meat for Health

The eminent Woods Hutchinson, M. D., is the author of a recent article entitled "Eating to Fight Heat." In this Dr. Hutchinson says:

"Though children can take a considerable share of their meat ration in the form of milk, they can't take all of it. They should have meat — breakfast bacon, ham, mutton chops, rare beef — twice a day, especially in summer."

Three generations of Swifts have devoted their lives to perfecting the business of Swift & Company so that you may have meat of uniform high standard of quality, fresh and smoked, no matter where you may live.

Swift & Company,
U. S. A.

Norwich Local Branch, 7 Commerce St.
H. C. Adams, Manager

Stories That Recall Others

A Trusting Father

Where are you boys going? asked a father of his 23 year old son and companion at eight o'clock the other evening as they got into the automobile in front of the house.

"We are going to get some minnows to use in fishing tomorrow."

"I believe I'll go along," said the father. "A little ride will do me good."

To make a long story short the young men drove to a stream about four miles distant stopped their car in a lot and left "father" to protect it. It was eleven before they returned with their minnow buckets full and father swears literally and figuratively that he will never trust them again.

Suiting Action to the Word.

The accused appeared before the justice of the peace, accompanied by his attorney. After the defendant had told his story, the justice cleared his throat, spat a stream of tobacco juice looking sharply over his reading specs said in a commanding voice:

"Young fellow you are sentenced to a year in the pen."

"But, your honor," objected the attorney, "you have no authority to sentence a man to the penitentiary."

That was something the justice had failed to take into account. "I know I aint," he replied "but I've already done it."

Itching is entirely unnecessary

Are you suffering from eczema or some other itching, burning eruption for which you have tried various treatments in vain—then given up in despair? Thousands whose skins are now clear have gone through this same experience. At last they tried Resinol. This soothing, healing ointment stopped the itching at once and soon all trace of the disease was gone. Let Resinol rid you of your skin trouble!

Resinol

The Norwich Savings Society

Incorporated 1824.
"A Century of Service."

DEPOSITS MADE ON OR BEFORE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, WILL BE ENTITLED TO INTEREST OR DIVIDENDS FROM SEPTEMBER 1.

LIBERTY BOND COUPONS DUE SEPTEMBER 15, WILL BE ACCEPTED ON DEPOSIT AS CASH.

BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, DIVIDENDS WILL BE CREDITED QUARTERLY—OCTOBER 1, JANUARY 1, APRIL 1, JULY 1.

POETRY

A Song of the Friendly Road

There's many a time, on the tollsome road
Of life, where but once we pass,
When a fellow breaks down, from an overload,
Or finds that he's out of gas;
And then, it's up to the man whose sad
Still hits on all six, to help,
And a guy that refuses, or makes a fuss,
Is an ornery sort of a whelp.

For the best of men may meet hard luck,
And the best of engines die,
And the best of drivers, may fail to buck
Life's hills, that are steep and high;
So never refuse a brother's call,
For only the high gods know
How soon it may be your turn to fall;
How soon you may need a tow.

Oh, life's road is full of ups and downs,
And broken by "thank you ma'ams",
And it's long and lonely between the towns
So there's need for the gracious alms
Of the friendly word, and the human smile,
And the drink, or the drop of gas,
That will help him over the last hard mile,
Of the pilgrim we meet and pass.

And perhaps (who knows) we may meet at last,
At the end of the [illegible]
With the hills and the [illegible]
all past,
There will greet us
The fellows with whom [illegible]
Or helped with a friendly tow,
And they'll give us "a hand", in the friendly land
Where all good motorists go!
—Tom Withrow in Tourist and Camper.

Homesick

Sometimes I grow so homesick for the old hills of home,
The high hills, the green hills, that wait there for me yet;
I never have forgotten them, though far my feet might roam—
The blue hills, the true hills—how could my heart forget?

Here in the loud-voiced city there are no kindly hills—
Only hills of iron, great honeycombs of steel
That sing no song for my worn soul like the happy rills
That gush below the hills of home—dear hills that bless an heal.

Oh, for a day in the ancient hills! Oh, for an afternoon
To lie upon their velvet side and watch the clouds of foam,
And twilight, and pale evening and then the solemn moon—
But I am pent in the city; ye far blue hills of home!
—Charles Hanson Towne.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"I understand that there has been an addition to your family," said the friend.

"Addition!" cried the father of triplets. "Multiplication!"—The Progressive Grocer.

Student—Could you tell me in round numbers what I made in the test?
Prof.—Yes, zero.—University of Washington Columns.

Chief of Police: How did the yegg get away?

New Policeman: He ran through a door marked "No Admittance;" so, of course, I couldn't follow.—Good Hardware.

"Professor Frugis has the most terrible enumeration—"

"Oh, he's not to blame. His father was a train announcer and his mother was a telephone operator."—Lafayette Lyre.

"Why did you cut down the cherry tree, George?"

"Well, you see, pa, I know that the country was going dry and that cherries wouldn't be needed for cocktails."—Twice Told Tales.

Roommate—"So your father refused to send you money? I supposed he's forgotten that he spent money when he went to college."

Blinks, Jr.—"Not a bit of it. And he hasn't forgotten what he spent it for, either."—American Legion Weekly.

Big Sister: "Willie, don't you think you had better go to bed now?"

Willie: "No I want to see Mr Spooner explode before I go."

Mr. Spooner: "Good gracious! What does the child mean?"

Willie: "I heard sister tell mother you were about ready to pop."—Boston Transcript.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Slavery was abolished in New York state in 1797.

Banana flour is now used as a substitute for graphite.

Last year of 100,000 stolen cars, 70,000 were recovered.

Giant bees in India build honeycombs 18 feet high.

Oil from the shark's liver is said to equal that of the cod.

One-third of Sweden's farm lands is worked by electrical power.

The value of furs taken annually in Pennsylvania reaches $2,500,000.

Air which contains plenty of carbon-dioxide gas makes plants yield better.

The water buffalo of the orient can draw a load weighing more than a ton.

For the use of travelers, a hatbox has been invented that folds flat when empty.

The United States and Canada use one-half of the world's total output of electric lamps.

Refuse from bobbing hair in barber shops is being used in the making of rugs at Denver, Col.

The navel or seedless orange was first found growing as a sort variation in a grove in Bahia, Brazil.

The largest warehouse in the world is that belonging to the United States army base at Brooklyn, N. Y.

The first American patent for an envelope making machine was granted to J. K. Park and C. S. Watson, January 25, 1849.

Exports of negative film for the last 11 months reached a total of 5,466,647 feet for the corresponding period last year.

Nearly $200,000,000 worth of metal was recovered in the United States from scraps, ashes, skimmings and other material discarded in the manufacture of metal articles in one year.

The manufacture of glass was started in Pittsburgh in 1797 and now it provides the United States with more than half its window glass, a third of its plate glass and one-eighth of its bottles.

The Chinese control 58 per cent of the retail stores in Manila, the Filipinos 36 per cent and the Japanese 6 per cent figures compiled by the bureau of commerce and industry show. There are in Manila 1,955 retail stores, known as Sari-Sari stores, where articles necessary in the household are sold.

Total attendance at Calgary's big stampede and jubilee, which closed recently, reached more than 150,000. Visitors from all parts of the continent were in attendance, including many special writers and motion picture men to record the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of Ft. Calgary by the mounted police. A historical pageant more than five miles long was the opening feature of the jubilee.

NEVER GROWS OLDER

He feels Like a Boy at Forty

Whenever Constipation troubled him Beecham's Pills brought certain relief

"For over a year I suffered from headaches and constipation, other remedies having failed. I told someone at my club, who suggested that I try Beecham's Pills. I tried them, and they relieved me. I'm only forty and I feel like a boy again after taking Beecham's Pills.

"Anyone with common sense should take Beecham's Pills for constipation, biliousness, and sick headache."

Mr. J. G., Yonkers, N.Y.

This man gives good advice. Follow it, and see how quickly digestive disorders, constipation and biliousness, are overcome by Beecham's Pills.

FREE SAMPLE—Write today for free sample to B. F. Allen Co., 417 Canal St., New York City. Druggists sell in 25 and 50c boxes for Better Health, Take

Beecham's Pills

ASKS ALIMONY WITH HER DIVORCE SUIT

Divorce from Horace H. Babcock of Stonington, alimony and the custody of four minor children are sought in a suit brought against him by Elisabeth F. L. Babcock of Stonington, which is returnable before the superior court in September. She alleges intolerable cruelty since September 1, 1923. They were married October 6, 1919. The plaintiff alleges that her husband is the owner of real and personal property to the value of $10,000.

For Week at the Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. William McMahon and daughter Elizabeth and their son Billie McMahon of 10 Kinney avenue, left by automobile Sunday afternoon accompanied by relatives from New Britain, to pass a week at Groton Long Point, having rented a cottage there.

Today (Tuesday.) Mr. and Mrs. McMahon will observe their tenth wedding anniversary.

Initiate on Snapping Turtle.

Harold Babbitt, of 196 Boswell avenue found a big snapping turtle at Cold Spring, Thamesville, Monday evening. The turtle had the initials "E. W." and "O" burne into its shell. Mr. Babbitt would be interested to find out who put these initials on the turtle and how long ago it was done.

Will Speak to Luther League.

A special meeting of the Luther League on Wednesday evening at the German Lutheran church is to have for a speaker Ernest French, a national representative of the league. His coming will doubtless result in a large attendance at the meeting.

Motor Trip to Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Montie and Mrs. Margaret A. Wakefield of Woodmansee avenue left Monday morning by automobile to visit Portland, Rockland and other points of interest in Maine.

The coal fields of Washington, Montana and Wyoming produce annually over $50,000,000 worth of fuel.

No Need To Worry About Coal Strikes

WHEN YOUR HOME IS EQUIPPED WITH

WILLIAMS OIL-O-MATIC HEATING

OIL-O-MATIC is a new type of perfected oil burner which has demonstrated its superiority as the most perfect and most efficient oil heating system manufactured.

It is entirely automatic. You never have to touch it! It automatically starts when heat is needed and automatically stops when the desired temperature is reached.

It burns any kind of fuel oil, maintains at all times an even healthful temperature and is quiet and odorless.

It is unlike any other device that burns oil. Install an OIL-O-MATIC and put an end to your heating problem this winter and every winter to come. Every installation guaranteed.

FOR SALE AND INSTALLED BY

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

Everything for the Home

135-143 Main St., Norwich.

Strike on at the Mystic Worsted Co., and all Weavers requested to keep away.

Per Order of Committee.

Mystic, Conn., Aug. 28, 1925.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

WANTED—Dishwasher. Apply Mohican Restaurant, 337 Main St. aug31d

1784 1925

Norwich Tuesday, Sept. 1, 1925

VARIOUS MATTERS

It is daybreak now at 3:17.

Light vehicle lamps at 6:32 (S. T.) this evening.

The moon is full tomorow, the 2nd. at 2:53 p. m.

This is the first day of the first month of the Autumn season.

The best moonlight nights during September will be from the 1st to the 6th.

Lawns are no longer beautiful, being strewed with burned and unsightly leaves.

Bobbed Hair looks wonderful with the tiny tint of Golden Glint Shampoo. —Adv.

Mrs. C. C. Lassen of Glastonbury is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Michael Larsen, of Tolland.

Justin J. McCarthy, signal maintainer, has left Saybrook for a two weeks' automobile trip to Maine.

More than 250 members of the Goff family met in Rehoboth, Mass., last week for their annual family reunion.

Wild cherry trees in many places are infested with caterpillars, no effort having been made to burn out the pests.

Miss Jeanette Nichols of New London is at Willington, visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols.

Quonochontaug grange meeting September 12, is to be a vacation meeting, and will be in charge of Alice Saunders.

Noted among recent guests at The Wigwam, Pleasant View are Mildred E. Beebe and Nancy R. Beebe, of Storrs, Conn.

Regular meeting of White Cross Council K. of C. tonight at 8 o'clock. Nomination of officers.—Adv.

The first of the wild grapes were selling in Norwich stores Monday at $1.35 per basket. Tacy came from Gardner Lake.

Relatives of Mrs. Harvey Colburn met with her at Westford and held a reunion recently at the Maples, thirty-two being present.

The New London Association is to meet in the Central Baptist Church, Norwich, Wednesday, September ninth, with an all-day program.

A Pendleton Hill correspondent mentions that Mrs. Arthur Frink of Jewett City is at the Chapman homestead for an indefinite stay.

St. James Lodge, No. 23, F. & A. M. works the first degree at Masonic Temple tonight at 7:30 d. s. t.—Adv.

Miss Ida Tripp, who has been spending several weeks in South Coventry, at the home of Edward Stanley, has returned to her home in Jewett City.

There was such a heavy dew early Monday morning that it was almost like a light rain. However, it was not sufficient to wet up the parched earth.

Richard Hetherson has started work for the state highway department, at Plainfield, having resigned a position in Norwich to take up his present work.

The Caswell brothers have brought into the Mystic river a 10 ton sloop auxiliary yacht from New Haven and her future home port is to be Old Mystic.

Afternoon Garden Party, for St. Patrick's church; 2 to 5 today, K. of C. grounds, Broadway. Doll carriage parade, with prizes. Other features. Evening at 7:30.—Adv.

A Thompson student, Merrill Munyan recently was awarded a two hundred dollar scholarship for general excellence at Mt. Hermon. He is also president of his class.

Prices of furs are said to have risen 20 per cent. on the average in recent weeks, but this advance has not served to bring out stocks to the desired extent, dealers here learn.

United States Senator Hiram Bingham, a Salem summer resident, will be the guest of Rocky Hill Grange at the dinner which will open a Harvest Carnival Thursday, September 10.

Mrs. Nellie Carmichael, of Shannock, who six weeks ago had her arm broken and was injured as the result of a fall while shopping in one of the stores in Westerly, is still confined to her home.

The Tolland County Dairymen's Club took a two days' judging touring of the state, the past week. Those attending from Tolland were Lathrop West, R. Eldred Doyle and Elmer Doyle.

The large electric light which the city of Rockville plans to place in Henry Park on Fox Hill, overlooking the city is expected to be a guide to the aviation service which passes over Rockville.

Three new "parlor car" buses for the New England Transportation Co., with a seating capacity of 25 persons were at Ocean Beach during the American Legion exercises, leaving later for Providence.

September 23 at 1:44 p. m., Greenwich civil time the sun will cross the equator going south in the constellation of Virgo. Autumn then will begin in the northern hemisphere and spring in the southern hemisphere.

During August, the thousands of members of the Apostleship of Prayer in the Catholic churches prayed as their special intention for the supression of blasphemy. The Holy Name Society was started for this purpose 650 years ago.

A former Norwich Town resident, Mrs. James A. Atwood, Jr., now of Providenre, was listed among the society guests at Watch Hill Saturday for the wedding of Miss Anita Lihme and Prince Edward Joseph Lobkowicz of Vienna, Austria.

Rev. W. H. Robinson, rector of Grace Episcopal church, Old Saybrook, has returned from a 26-day hike covering 526 miles. He went to the Cape Cod section and decreased his weight 18 pounds. He averaged 20 miles a day. He makes several trips during each year, but not as long as this one.

The camp at Marlborough owned by the Good Will Club of Hartford will not be occupied by members of the club this season. This is the first summer since it was established more than twenty years ago, that it has not been occupied for one or two weeks in August by thirty or forty boys.

PRESENTS HIS RESIGNATION FROM FLANDERS PASTORATE

At the morning services of the Baptist church in Flanders Sunday the pastor Rev. P. S. Collins surprised his congregation by reading his resignation, to take effect September 28. Mr. Collins has served the Flanders church for less than two years. Ten members have been received by baptism, and the church has been thoroughly renovated at an expense of nearly $700.

Before going to Flanders, Rev. Mr. Collins was pastor of the Baptist church at Lemingwell.

Elks Plan Social Session.

The Norwich Elks will combine a social session with their first meeting in September which will open the fall season of business and social events at the Elks' Home.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Ruth Bough of New York, has returned after visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Deneault was the week end guest of Mrs. Waltz at Groton Long Point.

Letter Carrier Silas N. Sandberg is back on his route, after fifteen days' vacation.

Miss Cassie Barker of New London is ill at Fern Cottage on Willimantic Camp Ground.

Wilfred Robitaille who has been visiting friends in Montreal, Can., has returned to his home in Baltic.

George H. Monty of New York, formerly of Norwich is visiting with Mrs. E. N. Monty of Riverside, Taftville.

Miss Dorothy Farr of Marblehead, On Thursday August 27, at Atlantic and Mrs. Eugene W. Austin of Yantic.

Mrs. Joseph E. Marshall and two sons, Courtney and Paul, are at Pleasant View for a fortnight's stay.

Peter Hussey of Worcester spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hussey of High street, Baltic.

Jesse J. Maine, Jr., of Norwich is visiting at the home of his grandfather, George Randall, of North Stonington.

Rev. and Mrs. F. S. Robbins of Preston City, have been visiting in New York. Mr. Robbins is pastor of the Second Baptist church in Shunoc Valley.

Mrs. Bessie Coulopoulos and children Euthemia and William of Cliff street and Miss Viola Coulopoulos are spending two weeks vacation with relatives in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Coughlin, who have resided at 71 Church street, are leaving Norwich to locate in Florida. Mr. Coughlin has been employed as a moulder.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bouchard and Mrs. Joseph Holmes who have been on a three weeks' motor trip to New Hampshire, have returned to their home in Baltic.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nolan and family who have been spending two weeks' vacation with Baltic and Norwich relatives, have returned to their home in Chicago.

The Misses Louise and Gladys Deneault and Gertrude Platt have been the guests of Miss Grace Walts at Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch and children, Mary and John, with John Edwards and family, also Edward Edwards of Norwich, have been in Westerly for a few days.

Mrs. Mary E. Boglisch has returned to her home in Hanka Hill after spending the week at the home of Mrs. Charles Wheeler in Storrs. Her daughter Mary Storr has been staying at Wildfern.

Charles Day, who is 83, his grandson and the latter's wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert and his little great grand daughter, Jane Gilbert, 2 years old of North Attleboro, Mass., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Davenport of East Great Plain.

OBITURY

Charles Northam Lee

Charles Northam Lee, 76, of 471 Park avenue, New York and Hartford, Conn., died suddenly at the Hotel Essex and Sussex, Spring Lake, N. J., Sunday morning. Mr. Lee was born in New York in 1849, the son of William Henry and Laura Northam Lee. He was for many years the senior partner of the importing firm of Lee, Tweedy & Co., of New York until its discontinuance in 1903. In recent years Mr. Lee had been living at Farmington, Conn. He was a member of the Farmington Country Club, the Hartford Club and the Hartford Golf Club. For almost half a century Mr. Lee had been a familiar figure at the Union League Club of New York city.

Mr. Lee is survived by his widow, Ann L. Lee of New York, and two daughters, Mrs. Maitland F. Griggs of New York and Ardsley-on-Hudson and Mrs. Lee Johnson of Canterbury, England, formerly of Uncasville.

JURY GIVES VERDICT AGAINST LAFAYETTE MAIN

The case brought by Lawyer Thomas M. Shields of this city against Lafayette F. Main of North Stonington came up for hearing Monday morning in a justice court presided over by Justice John H. Barnes. The case was tried for the purpose of settling a claim which Mr. Shields had brought against Mr. Main, and a jury of six men, after hearing the evidence, brought in a verdict of $48 for Mr. Shields. Attorney Henry H. Pettis, represented Mr. Shields while Mr. Main acted as his own attorney. Mr. Shields brought suit for $75 for services rendered Mr. Main during legal actions brought against Mr. Main. Mr. Main claimed that the claim brought by Mr. Shields had been paid.

It was testified at the hearing that Mr. Main gave Mr. Shields two checks, one for $25 made out for himself, and the other for $24.50 to pay for stenographic work done during a justice trial in North Stonington. A second $25 Mr. Main claimed was received in settlement of another case when Mr. Shields took $25 more than was agreed upon. Mr. Main also entered a claim of $3 against Mr. Shields for apples sold to him.

Mr. Shields claimed that the $25 received at North Stonington was for services rendered in the justice hearing and had nothing to do with the common pleas court work done by him for Mr. Main. The $25 which Mr. Main claimed Mr. Shields took beyond the price agreed upon was taken because the case took three days instead of one and that, with Mr. Main they agreed that $25 was a fair price for the two extra days. Mr. Shields admitted that the charge of $2 for apples was just. The trial took about 2 hours and the jury was given the case in the afternoon, returning about 3:45 o'clock with a verdict of $48 for the plaintiff. It is understood that Mr. Main will appeal the case to the court of common pleas.

REUNION FOR "FIGHTING 56TH" AT NORWALK

Labor Day has been set as the time and Norwalk as the place this year for the 6th annual reunion of the 56th C. A. C. association, which has a number of members in Norwich.

As planned to date the schedule of events is as follows:

8 to 10 a. m.—Registration at Norwalk Armory; 10 a. m.—Parade of military, fraternal and industrial organizations. (All 56th veterans in a body); 11 a. m.—Exercises at Union Park, Norwalk; 1:30 p. m.—Meeting of 56th C. A. C. Association at Norwalk armory; 3:00 p. m.—Annual dinner of 56th Veterans at Schultze's Farm, Westport Ave., Norwalk; 8:00 p. m.—Free military ball at the armory.

A note on the circular of invitation states that there will be no inspections.

Motored Back to Worcester.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Vander Pyl motored back to their home in Worcester, Monday morning following a visit of a week at the home of Mrs. Vander Pyl's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Byron H. Evans, of Court street.

TWO NORWICH GUN PLAY CASES TO COME UP IN SUPERIOR COURT

Two Norwich gun play cases from which the victims still carry the bullets are on the docket of the September term of the criminal superior court which comes in here this (Tuesday) afternoon at 1 o'clock, standard time, with Judge Leonard J. Nickerson on the bench.

John Carbray of this city stands charged with assault with intent to kill for shooting his divorced wife, Anna Weltin Carbray, and Herman Greiner, when he found the two in the aparement in the basement of 652 Main street, East Side, on the night of May 29. The woman was shot twice and Greiner once, both spending some time in the hospital where their injuries were treated. Carbray was arrested several hours after the shooting as he was coming across the Eighth street bridge, presumably to get towards his home on Boswell avenue, Officer Luke Riley making the arrest.

The other shooting case is that of Paul Stenkewitz of 569 North Main street, charged with assault with intent to kill John Bosko of the same address whom he shot on the Preston City road in the course of a fight on the night of June 26. Stenkewicz was arrested the next day about noon by Officers Charles Smith and Michael Carroll near the tannery in Greeneville. Bosko recovered from his injuries after spending some time in the hospital.

Other Norwich cases in the nineteen new cases on the docket are the following:

John G. Driscoll, charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor on June 7.

Mrs. Dora Maraille of Uxbridge, Mass., and Owan Wood, accused of adultery, being arrested in a house on the West Side.

John P. Murphy, charged with uttering forged instrument, having collected the pay of a man named Rodgin, who worked for the Norwich street department.

Joseph Simboraki, accused of statutory burglary, having been arrested on the morning of August 15, when he was found in the goat house of Antonio Siragusa on High street, among a flock of about ten goats.

Ralph Yazo, alias Ralph Yelts, accused of statutory arson in setting fire to his house on the East Side.

Andrew Zawacki, accused of statution of the liquor law.

New cases on the docket from other towns are the following:

Francis Antoniack and Charles Laskey of New London, charged with aggravagated assault upon Prohibition Agent Harry Avery in Montville.

Charles Filosi, East Lyme, rape, and Tony Gaul, Sprague, statutory rape.

John Burns, Griswold, manslaughter, Delphis St. John and Rose Savigney, Griswold, adultery; Agnes Landsberg Stone, New London, bigamy.

Joseph Savitsky and others, Colchester, aggravated assault.

State Attorney Arthur M. Bown will handle the presentation of the cases before the court and it is not yet known whether there will be any jury trials for this session of the court.

DRIVER'S STORY CONTRADICTED BY INJURED MARINE

George Tragi, the U. S. marine who was injured late Sunday night while riding in a Ford roadster which crashed into a telegraph pole on Laurel Hill, is suffering from a fractured pelvic bone, it developed Monday. Late Monday night he was reported as resting comfortably at the W. W. Backus hospital where he was taken in the police patrol following the accident.

Tragi, who is attached to the U. S. S. Camden, now at the submarine base, Navy Yard, tells a different story as to how he came to be in the roadster than that told at police headquarters by George J. Keenan, of New London, driver of the Ford. Tragi states that the driver and his two companions offered to pick him up at the foot of Lake street. He accepted but wanted to get off at Franklin square but the others in the roadster insisted upon his remaining in the machine and continued to drive onward the submarine base. Near the Laurel Hill school house the machine struck the telephone pole.

Keenan, the driver, stated Sunday night after the accident that Tragi had hailed him on Laurel Hill and asked for a ride to the sub base and that he took him into the machine and had proceeded but a short distance when the machine skidded in the trolley tracks and hit the pole.

BALTIC METHODIST MEN PREPARE BOWLING GREEN

The members of the Mens' League of the Baltic Methodist Episcopal Church have just completed the construction of a wooden building in which they have installed a new ¾ horsepower engine of the latest type which will be used to pump water from a branch of the Beaver Brook river to spray the Bowling Green on the southerly side of the church.

The league members have at different times gotten together and worked with a determined effort to make their bowling area one of the finest in this section. The work of digging the foundation on which the new suction pump has been placed, the concrete work and other labors were carried out by the members who spent their spare hours collectively, until the work was finished. Members from out-of-town bowling teams who visit Baltic are complimenting the Baltic men on having labored so steadily to bring the "Green" up to its present high standard. The Baltic bowlers have purchased new lawn mowers, iron rollers and other modern implements to be used in keeping the velvet carpet in A-1 condition.

Jesse Greeneough of Baltic supervised the construction work.

MORTON OTIS, OF POMFRET WEDS SOON AFTER DIVORCE

A cable Monday from London said: The marriage of Morton Otis of Pomfret, Conn., and Baroness Louise von Schuch of Vienna took place in London August 7, according to formal announcement published Sunday night.

Announcement that Mr. Otis and the Baroness were to be married was made July 23. Shortly before the announcement came the news that Mrs. Otis had received a divorce from her husband by a French court.

For many years Mr. Otis and his first wife had a home at Pomfret Center, and several years ago they bought a winter home at Dinard, France. The first Mrs. Otis, who was Miss Helena V. Gilliat of Pomfret, is returning to America this autumn and will go to Pomfret.

Mr. Otis is a member of the Piping Rock, New York Yacht and Turf and Field clubs of Manhattan.

Visited at Fort Wright

Mrs. Lafayete E. Evans and daughters, Lucretia Imogene and Lorena Rebecca Evans, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron H. Evans for ten days recently, left last week to spend a few days at Fort-Wright Fishers Island, where Mrs. Evans' husband Major L. E. Evans has been stationed in charge of the 242nd Coast Artillery corps, (Harbor Defense,) of Bridgeport. Sunday afternoon, when the Bridgeport company returned on the government boat The Baird, from two weeks stay at Fort-Wright, Major Evans was accompanied by his wife and daughters. Other officers wives were also included among the passengers. When the big parade took place at Fort Wright, Thursday last, besides his family, Major Evans had as his guests, his mother, Mrs. Byron H. Evans of Norwich, also his grand-mother, Mrs. Rebecca Moriarty, of Worcester, who is visiting at her daughter's home.

CANTERBURY PLAINS GIRLS INJURED NEAR BALTIC

The Bulletin's Canterbury Plains correspondent writes:

Gertrude Hanson and Emma Eastlund met with an accident Saturday evening on their way to Scotland. They were near Baltic when the front wheel of the automobile caught between the cement road and trolley track. The tire was ripped off and the automobile overturned and pinned the girls under the car. Miss Eastlund has several cuts and bruises on her body and a badly injured eye. Miss Hanson has minor cuts and bruises, but her trouble is internal. She remains at the doctor's office in Baltic unable to be moved at present. Miss Eastlund was brought to her home.

FOUR NORWICH BOYS ATTENDED C. M. T. C.

The four Norwich boys who have been spending August at Citizens Military Training camp, Fort Terry, Plum Island, New York, returned home on Sunday afternoon, following a delightful time spent in camp activities. The boys were George Gulie, Alfred Blake Denny Madio and Denny Grieco.

Lieutenant Colonel J. R. Musgrove Eleventh Coast Artillery was commander of the camp.

Leaving Norwich Saturday morning, August 1st, at six o'crock, the boys after reaching New London, were transferred to the island on the government boat, General John McE Hyde, stopping en route at Fort Wright, and Fort Michie, to take on additional recruits.

Upon arriving at Fort Terry at 10:30 the entire company of boys marched to the quartermasters supply house where they underwent a second physical examination, the first having previously taken place before arriving at the island. Here they received their army clothing and entire equipment for the training, their own personal belongings being placed in a separate locker until they were again needed at the expiration of training.

Following this came mess then the boys were set to work cleaning barracks and arranging bunks for the night. After the night meal the boys were given their liberty for the evening, all lights being out at (tattoo) 9:30. Taps were blown at ten o'clock, which meant everything absolutely quiet. Several detachments arrived all during that night, until 3:30 the next morning, as all physical examinations had to take place before the late arrivals could turn in for the remainder of the night. This completed the first day of camp life.

On the days that followed the regular routine consisted of reveille, at 6 o'clock; mess, 6:45; first formation, consisting of infantry drill 7.45; from 9 to 9.45; talk on Citizenship; intermission until 10 o'clock; second formation of infantry drill, which lasted until 11:30; mess, 12 o'clock, in the afternoon, infantry drill from 1 to 2 o'clock, at which time the boys were privileged to engage in all kinds of athletics, concluding with a swimming period from 3:30 to 4:30. At 4.45, came first call for retreat, which meant make ready for parade at 5 o'clock, when the boys passed in review on the parade grounds. Mess was again served at 5.30, from which the boys were free until 9:30, when taps too again took place. This was the schedule for the basic or first year course, except on Saturday, afternoon and all day Sundays.

Each Sunday religious services were held for the Protestant boys by the chaplain of the post, and a priest from New London conducted mass for the Catholic boys.

In addition to the regular daily routine, the C. M. T. C. students fromed a regular guard mount for protection of the camp.

The second day after the camp was settled, all the boys were formed in two batteries, these being divided into platoons and again into squads. The advanced students according to rank took charge of the batteries and different detachments.

Several times during the training the boys were given instructions in first aid treatment, by the camp hospital physicians. Good substantial food was provided, different squads taking turns on K. P. (kitchen police).

The swimming was mentioned as being excellent. Rifle practice was indulged in twice during the stay.

On Several occasions, all the boys at the camp enjoyed some fine outings, averaging about one each week, usually on Saturday afternoons. Of special interest was the visit to the Submarine Base, when they were shown over the entire base, also privileged to go under in a submarine. This experience was most interesting. When visiting Fort Michie, a sixteen inch gun, one of the largest in existance was displayed. This 16 inch shell travels a distance of twenty-five miles.

The C. M. T. C. boys paid a visit to Fort Wright last Thursday and participated in the big parade which was reviewed by United States Senator Hiram Bingham.

After the C. M. T. C. had given a special parade, the Connecticut National Guard which was in camp at Fort Wright, passed in review.

While at Fort Wright, a game of baseball was indulged in the C. M. T. C. boys being victorious over the Fort Wright team.

When passing in review each night at retreat, the military band from Fort Wright, led the several detachments of the C. M. T. C.

Twice during the stay special inspection took place and special parades were formed for General Britt.

Automobile Trip to Florida.

Early this Tuesday morning Officer Charles Smith of the local police force, Jeremiah Casey of this city and Edward Broks of Boston will leave for an automobile trip to Orlando, Fla. Stops will be made at New York City, aWshington, Baltimore, Richmond and other cities along the way. Mrs. Casey and Mr. Brooks are planning on making their home in Florida. Officer Smith, who expects to be gone several weeks, will make the return trip by boat to New York.

Employed at Valley Falls

Thomas Hussey of Baltic is employed as track foreman for the New Haven road at Valley Falls, R. I.

NEW TRAIN STOP SYSTEM ON NEW HAVEN ROAD

The New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company has completed the installation of a train stop system between Cedar Hill, New Haven and Springfield over the Hartford division route. The system installed under the direction of C. H. Morrison, signal engineer, functions in every way as contemplated by the originators, and the results of operation are not only extremely gratifying but justify the hope that the system may provide a successful solution for the problem to automatically correct any human failured which might result in train collisions.

Over a year was required to obtain the necessary apparatus and make the installation; in fact, the apparaus has been modified considerably since the initial installation was made, the changes involved being improvements accruing from experience of the earlier tests which were conducted between Cedar Hill and Wallingford. The system as finally installed was under test operation between Cedar Hill and Berlin for a period of six months preceding the completed work, which officially went into service between Cedar Hill and Springfield on July 1.

All of the road engines operating between New Haven and Springfield are now equipped with the train stop device which protects the movement of both freight and passenger service. The only engines not so provided are the switchers used for yard service only.

System Has Two Branches.

The system installed consists of two branches, the wayside and engine equipments. The wayside equipment is that part of the apparatus along the road and in connection with the existing signal system and which provides for the control of the electric current to the rails. The engine equipment consists of an electrical and pneumatic combination so arranged that the presence of electrical energy prevents the application of the brakes, and any interruption to the electrical energy would cause an application of the brakes. The construction of the wayside and locomotive equipment is brought the medium of induction. By this means electrical energy in the rails creates energy in the locomotive which prevents the application of the brakes, and the absence of energy in the rails, therefore, would result in the absence of energy in the locomotive and the automatic application of the brakes.

The application of the automatic train stop system to the existing equipment is for the purpose of making it impossible for accidents to occur by train collision, either resulting from misinterpretation of the signals by the engineman, or disregard of the signals, or the improper display of a semaphore from the failure of the signal apparatus itself. The presence of a train on a track section, the opening of a switch or the improper isplay of a semaphore signal will stop an approaching train on the track involved unless the engineman, having received the danger signal in the cab, forestalls the application of the brakes, which he can do if alert and takes necessary action at the proper moment.

Engine Equipment

The engine equipment consists of electrical apparatus governing electro-pneumatic valves, which in turn control the air brake system. The electrical apparatus is controlled by current in the rails through the medium of induction, as outlined above. This, it is understood, provides for transmission of power without actual contact with the track. The current thus picked up by induction is increased in power amplification through vacuum tubes somewhat similar to the method used in amplifying current at connection with radio receiving apparatus, although, of course, the volume of current and energy involved is very much greater than used in radio receiving apparatus. In the operation of a train it is, of course, necessary that provision should be made so that trains will not be forced to make unnecessary stops. This would seriously disarrange schedules. Therefore, provision is made in the locomotive equipment so that if the engineer is alert and takes necessary action at the proper moment he can forestall the application of the brakes, in which case he is responsible for the control of the speed of the engine until the engine has passed another signal. The passing of another signal automatically restores the engine equipment to the normal state so that if an obstruction still exist the engineer must again acknowledge the signal or forestall the application of brakes in order to prevent the stopping of the train. It is, therefore, obvious that any failure on the part of the engineman to perform at the proper moment the necessary action in connection with the control of his train will cause the apparatus to immediately function and stop the train.

In the engineer's cab there is an indicator. The indication is given by the use of three different colored lights, the significance of which is as follows: A white light is displayed when an engine is operated over a track, which is not equipped for train stop operation. A green light indicates clear signal and clear track ahead, and a red light indicates a stop signal or an obstructed track ahead. This cab indicator, therefore, provides advance information of what the engineer may expect to find for one block ahead, and as it is controlled through the track by the signal system it may be considered that the information thus given to the engineer is as trustworthy as similar information displayed by the wayside signal itself.

Wayside Equipment.

The wayside equipment is superimposed upon the existing signal system, and the sections of track governing the train control apparatus on the engine are synonymous with the sections of track making up the automatic blocks of the block signal system. The distinction, however, between the two systems is maintained by the difference in the frequency of the two currents used; that is, a 60 cycle current is used for the wayside signal operation, while 140 cycle current is used for the train control operation, engine equipment being tuned to receive the 140 cycle current, but not the 60 current. The tuning apparatus is somewhat similar as outlined above, to radio receiving equipment. The train control current is governed by the position of the switches as well as the presence of a train on the track ahead, and, a locomotive engineman if the train approaches an obstruction.

The automatic train stop system, so far as possible, has been designed according to standard signal engineering practice in that the failure of any apparatus of the train control equipment will indicate red or danger in the locomotive, and make an application of the brakes, which would bring the train to a stop.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nestler of Ridgewood, N. J., were week end guests of Miss Sue I. Gallup.

Gen. William A. Aiken has returned following three weeks' visit in Marblehead, with his sister, Mrs. Mary Ripley.

Mrs. Frederick S. Camp of Broadway with her daughter, Mrs. Robert B. Chappell and children of New London, are in camp in Maine for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Trever Pring and family of Boston, are visiting Mrs. Pring's mother, Mrs. I. Plummer Taft, of Lincoln avenue.

E. Arnold Smith and Miss Elizabeth F. Smith of Warren street have been spending a short time with their cousin, Mrs. E. A. Farnell at Sekonet, R. I.

The members of the Sewing club were entertained during the week at a luncheon-bridge at Weekapaug Inn by Mrs. Clifford M. Story, of Hackensack, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison C. Noyes, of Williams street motored last week to Roxbury, Vt. They were accompanied back by their daughters, Elizabeth and Carolyn Noyes, who have spent two months at Teela-Wooket Camp.

Mrs. Arthur F. Howard and daughter, Miss Lucille E. Howard, of Lincoln avenue, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Cary of Williams street, are on a tour of the White Mountains in Miss Howard's car.

SOCIETY AT WATCH HILL

Judge Charles Cutting, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bai Lihme at Norman Hall, returned to Chicago Monday.

Lloyd Griscom of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. James Ledlie Hees, Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Doyle, Count and Countess Doubleboff, were among the wedding guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Newington, and John C. Newington of Palm Beach, Fla., and Mrs. J. E. Dietz of New York who came for the wedding will spend a few days at the Ocean House.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry gave a dinner Saturday evening at the Misquamicut Golf Club for Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Vance, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit, who is their house guest at Redtop. Dr. Vance preached in the Union Chapel Sunday morning.

THE

Porteous & Mitchell COMPANY

Preserving

As usual, this Store is headquarters for Preserving Requisites. Everything necessary for canning will be found here in complete assortments — Fruit Jars, Rubbers, Jar Covers, Preserving Kettles, Etc.—all at lowest possible prices.

MASON FRUIT JARS

Pints, a dozen 95c
Quarts, a dozen.... $1.10
Two-quarts, a dozen $1.50

E. Z. SEAL JARS

Half-Pints, a dozen .. 95c
Pints, a dozen $1.10
Quarts, a dozen.... $1.25

PRESERVING KETTLES

Good Luck Jar Rubbers, at 3 dozen for 25c—a dozen 10c
Mason Jar Caps — a dozen 30c
One-third pint Jelly Tumblers—a dozen.. 45c
Half-pint Jelly Tumblers—a dozen 50c

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

DON'T PUT IT OFF!

"NOW" is a more powerful word than "Do It Later." It fills that coal bin today against the cold and snow of tomorrow. Say "Now" over the phone. We'll know what you mean.

SAFE HEAT.

The Edward Chappell Company

Telephone 24.

ARGUMENT IN 4TH CAUSED UMPIRE MORIN TO AWARD GAME TO EAST ENDS

Monday evening's twilight game between the East Ends and the league-leading Centrals resulted in the East Siders winning by forfeit 9 to 0.

The forfeit came about in the following manner. In the last half of the fourth inning, with the East Ends leading 5 to 3, Gaudette led off for the Centrals with a single to left and was forced at second by Lefty Dugas. Davis, the East End catcher then threw to first to get L. Dugas off the bag and Umpire Morin ruled that the Centrals outfielder was out. Cardie then flied out to Austin. The moment the side was retired, the Centrals started kicking over the umpire's decision on Dugas at first and refused to resume the game. Several of the Central's supporters started to rush upon the field and together with the players called "Hank" all kinds of uncomplimentary names, most of which would be unfit to print. At this point, it was necessary to call upon the officer who keeps order at the games to eject one of the most boisterous of the fans, and this served to quiet the mob. The players however continued in their abuse of Morin, and after giving them a certain time to resume the game, Hank awarded the contest by forfeit to the East Ends.

This unhappy incident wrecked what had previously been a hair-raising, hard fought battle, and one that kept the fans on their toes throughout. Both managers were determined to win in last night's battle and had their best twirlers in the box. Manager Holland depended on Lefty Harrell, who had previously turned back the East Siders earlier in the season, while Manager Pedace picked "Chick" Davis, who beat the E. C. P. Co., Friday evening to do the twirling.

Harrell did not have his former good fortune, being touched for nine hits, one of which was a home run by Tim Coughlin. The East Siders also had three doubles to their credit.

Davis was also hit hard, but was stronger in the pinches than his opponent. The Centrals collected eight safeties off the East Side pitcher, but did not have the punch with men on the bases. Each twirler fanned four batters, and neither walked a man.

As a result of their victory, the East Ends are but one half a game in back of Manager Holland's team. The Centrals record stands at eight wins, and three losses, while the East Siders have won one less game, and lost three.

The league-leaders got off to a good start in the initial frame, scoring two runs. With one out, Cardie shot a hit to center which was good for two bases, and when A. Dugas scratched a hit to second, Cardie went to third. Harrell then went out to Walsh, Cardie tallied, and Dugas went to second. Eccleston singled to left, and when Allard let the ball go through him, Dugas counted. Murphy fanned for the third out.

In the second, the East Ends went their rivals one better when they scored three times. Allard singled to left as a starter, and when Lefty Dugas threw wild ove first in an attempt to get Allard, the East Sider went down to the keystone sack. Joe Belair singled to left, and Allard rode home. After Normandin had poped to Harrell, Davis rolled a grounder to the box, and Harrell threw to second retiring Belair. Tim Coughlin, the East Side first baseman then entered the hero class by crashing one of Harrell's shoots for a home run over the left field fence. Davis scored ahead of Tim on the clout.

Walsh then shot what looked like another circuit blow to center, but Gaudette going back fast, contributed the fielding feature of the game by snaring the ball with one hand.

In the third, the East Ends added two more on a single by Harry Noel, and successive doubles by Joe Belair and Allard.

In their half of the frame, the Centrals made the score 5 to 3 by counting once. A. Dugas led off with a screeching two-bagger to right. Harrell fanned, but Eccleston beat out a hit to second, and Dugas went to third. Murphy shot a grounder to Normandin who threw to second, and Eccleston took third, where he remained as Yerrington grounded out to Davis.

The story of this eventful fourth inning has already been related.

It seems exceedingly unfortunate that a team as strong as the Centrals should spoil their chances of winning the league pennant, and injure their reputation as a team of sportsmanlike players by acting as they did in last night's contest. Only a week ago, this same team got itself in bad with the fans by openly stalling in an attempt to avert defeat at the hands of the Hallville nine. Whether Lefty Dugas was safe or out in the eventful play in the fourth inning of last night's game, there was no reason why the Centrals should kick as they did and refuse to go on with the game. They only injured themselves in doing so, and the only thing that would possibly justify their action was the fact they were probably playing under a heavy strain and lost their heads temporarily. The score:

East Ends	ab	h	po	a	e
Coughlin,1b	3	2	13	0	1
Walsh,2b	3	0	1	2	0
Davis,3b	3	2	0	4	0
Austin,rf	3	0	1	1	0
Noel,c	2	1	0	0	0
Allard,lf	2	2	1	0	1
Belair,c	2	0	5	0	0
Normandin,ss	2	0	1	3	0
Davis,p	2	0	0	2	0
Totals	22	9	12	8	2

Centrals	ab	h	po	a	e
L. Dugas,rf	3	0	2	0	1
Cardie,2b	3	1	1	1	0
A. Dugas,1b	3	2	11	0	0
Harrell,p	3	0	1	5	0
Eccleston,c	3	1	5	1	0
Murphy,lf	3	0	1	0	0
Gaudette,ss	3	0	1	3	1
Yerrington,3b	3	0	1	1	0
Totals	24	4	24	11	2

Score by innings:
East Ends ..... 0 3 2 0 0 0 4 0 0—9
Centrals ..... 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 0—3

Two base hits, Coughlin, Allard, Belair, Cardie, A. Dugas. Home run, Coughlin. Struck out, by Davis 4, by Harrell 6.

Tonight's Game

Tonight Hallville and Yantic will meet for the last time and it should be a wild game right to the finish as both of these teams last week surprised the league leaders, Hallville defeating the Centrals and Yantic holding the East Ends to a two to two tie. What lineup the Hallville team will use is more or less of a mystery but should they use the same team as they did last week, Yantic will have to do some tall traveling.

"Cannonball" Gill Jones will pitch and "Jab" Burns will catch for Yantic. Sweet will play first, Hoxie second, Hewitt, short, Rathbun, third and Marchand, Hoxie and McCabe will play the outfield. Yantic of late under the management of George Gaskell has been playing good clean baseball and are earning a great following of fans.

CALLS CENTRALS FOR CRABBING THE GAME

For the first time this season Umpire Morin last night forfeited the game between the Centrals and East Ends to the latter at the last of the fourth inning when "Lefty" Dugas was caught asleep at first base and was called out. Young Dugas instead of taking his medicine like a man immediately proceeded to make faces at the umpire and used profane language. For nearly fourteen weeks Umpire Morin has stood the abuse of the players who have chosen to use it and last night after he warned young Dugas twice with no results he put him out of the game. Again the Centrals led by Trowell from Taftville swarmed onto the field and proceeded to act in a very ungentlemanly manner. From the beginning of the season these boys have crabbed continually but have gotten away with it until last night they carried it the limit.

It must be admitted that last week Hallville slipped one over on these boys although they keep within the laws and rules of the league. This was the cause of much talk and the Centrals were about ready to quit the league, but after thinking it over decided to play their scheduled game against the East Ends last night and those that were present at the game know what happened and now it is rumored that they surely will quit the league. It really is too bad that things should go this way as the Centrals are about as good as there is in the league but rather than have them act the way they did last night perhaps it is just as well if they do decide to quit the league as their conduct last night was the most disagreeable seen on a ball field in quite awhile. Every time that this team loses a game they want to quit and whether they have spunk enough to finish the season remains to be seen. The Centrals still lead the league by half a game and whether they are willing to throw away this lead also remains to be seen.

DISGUSTED

WHAT A FAN THINKS OF THE CENTRAL GAME

Taftville fans think the Centrals are used wrong at Norwich Twilight league. Well I suppose the Duwell Club has everything set for the East Ends. Hank Morin certainly has the power but for an umpire he can or had better be driving cattle. He ordered Lefty Dugas off the ball field but it didn't work. He thought he was down to the state hospital driving nuts. The fans in Taftville are taking up a collection to buy him a horse and a pair of guns so he will be a real Jesse James. Now if the East Ends want to play Taftville Centrals 9 innings to decide who is who in this league get a real umpire and fight it out on a Sunday. And we will give them this forfeit game for a present. So when it is Christmas see that Hank Morin hangs up his stocking.

A FAN.

RUTH NOW LOOKS TO "JAKE" FOR SUPPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 31—Babe Ruth, is on his way to New York tonight for a heart to heart talk with "Jake."

After failing to meet Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball commissioner, here today to protest against the indefinite suspension placed on him by Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees, and a fine of $5,000, Ruth left at noon for his conference with "Jake." The Bambino spoke feeling about "Jake" who is Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees.

"It is all up to Jake," said Babe "Huggins has him bulled," but I think that when Jake hears my story, everything will be all right. Huggins handed me a dirty deal in this suspension and fine. He simply made me the goat for the poor showing of the Yankees this season and I am going to fight for my rights."

Ruth came to Chicago from St. Louis determined to place his grievance before Commissioner Landis but he left just as he came, a suspended former home run king, with a $5,000 fine plastered on him by Huggins last Saturday still sticking.

Landis at his summer home in Burt Lake, Mich., said by telephone that Ruth could come to the Michigan resort if he wished, but Ruth was advised that under the rules the commissioner had no jurisdiction in this case for ten days. So he decided to hurry to New York.

"It was nice of the judge to invite me up there," Ruth said, "but I'll send hime a wire instead and tell him my side of the story. He has been my intention right along that if I could not see the judge here I would get in touch with him in a few days.

"When he hears my side of the story, I am positive he will do the right thing."

Ruth passed a busy forenoon at his hotel rooms. He had left orders not to be disturbed before 10 o'clock and when the flock of newspapermen stormed the room, the first one in line was handed a suit of clothes through a slight opening in the door, with instructions to get it back in an hour.

There were so many newspapermen on hand that Ruth's room was not large enough to hold them so he engaged bigger quarters where, between the booming of flashlight, the "Babe" was kept busy for an hour, telling his side of the story. He made no threats of quitting the game. He did not even emphasize the fact that he wished to be traded to some other club, he former slugger had just one question on his mind, so far as Commissioner Landis was concerned and that was the $5,000 fine and the intimations that he had been keeping late hours and "boozing." He was anxious to prove to the commissioner that the fine was out of proportion to any alleged breaking of training rules; also he wanted it understood that he had not been "boozing."

RUTH'S WIFE DENIES STORIES OF FRICTION

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—Suspended and fined $5,000 by his manager Miller Huggins, defeated in his plan to appeal to baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis and confronted by President Jacob Ruppert's approval of the Yankee pilot's action, Babe Ruth will have in his wife at least one sympathetic audience when he reaches New York tomorrow afternoon.

Denying rumors of a breach with her husband, Mrs. Ruth indicated her confidence in the famous slugger was still unshaken with the assurance that "we are still the same old pals we were when we married."

Mrs. Ruth said she would ask the disciplined home run king about reports concerning an acquaintance with a New York widow, but said that "there is absolutely no friction between my husband and myself."

She also denied rumors that she was preparing to sue her husband for $100,000 and separate maintenance.

"These reports are all nonsense," she concluded.

WAUREGAN CADETS LOSE TO CANTERBURY

The Wauregan B. H. Cadets went to Canterbury Sunday afternoon and played a game with Canterbury losing by the score of 11 to 17, the first game lost out of 9 games played.

The score:

Wauregan B. H. Cadets	ab	h	po	a	e
L. Gibeault,1b	5	1	8	0	0
Delage,3b	5	2	3	1	0
Lache's,2b	3	1	1	0	1
Perrier,rf	4	0	0	0	1
F. Gibeault,p	5	1	1	1	0
Burns,cf	3	1	0	1	0
A. Beaulieu,ss	4	1	1	3	2
F. Beaulieu,lf	4	0	1	0	0
W. Benoit,c	2	1	9	0	0
U. Pelletier,cf	1	1	1	0	0
Totals	36	9	24	5	4

Canterbury	ab	h	po	a	e
Fones,c	5	2	14	0	0
Zeckendorf,lf	5	2	1	0	0
Lavigne,2b	5	2	1	2	0
Hanson,p	5	2	1	3	0
Fran'ais,ss	3	0	1	2	0
Kinsle,rf	3	0	1	0	0
Kinson,1b	2	2	11	0	0
Hanson,2b	0	1	0	1	1
Totals	33	10	27	6	1

Score by innings:
Wauregan B. H. C. 1 5 5 0 0 0 0 0 0—11
Canterbury ..... 2 3 3 3 0 0 0 6 x—17

Two base hits F. Gibeault, A. Beaulieu, Beckette, J. Cote. Three base hits, Lachance, F. Cote.

Today's Calendar of Sports

RACING

Meeting of Westchester Racing Association opens at Belmont Park.

Meeting of Connaught Park Jockey Club, at Ottawa.

Meeting of Business Men's Racing Association, at Chicago.

TROTTING

Meeting of Grand Circuit at Milwaukee.

GOLF

United States amateur championship tournament, at Pittsburgh.

TENNIS

Annual invitation tournament at Narragansett Pier, R. I.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Boston 5, Chicago 2.
Pittsburgh 10, Philadelphia 3.

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	77	46	.626
New York	73	57	.562
Cincinnati	67	58	.536
Brooklyn	61	63	.492
St. Louis	60	68	.469
Chicago	56	71	.441
Philadelphia	54	69	.439
Boston	56	73	.438

Games Today

Chicago at Boston.
Only games scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

No games scheduled.

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	79	45	.637
Philadelphia	74	47	.612
Chicago	68	53	.562
St. Louis	66	55	.545
Detroit	64	60	.516
Cleveland	60	63	.469
New York	59	72	.450
Boston	36	88	.290

GAMES TODAY.

Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Only games scheduled.

EASTERN LEAGUE

Springfield 3, Hartford 4.
Waterbury 8, Albany 3.
Pittsfield-Bridgeport (played Sunday).
Worcester-New Haven. (played Sunday).

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Jersey City 8, Toronto 11.
Reading 0, Syracuse 7.
Baltimore 5, Rochester 2.

American Association

Columbus 2, Minneapolis 5.
Louisville 7, Kansas City 8.
Indianapolis 3, Milwaukee 4.
Toledo 4, St. Paul 5. (13 innings).

Southern Association

Birmingham 6, Little Rock 5.
Birmingham 3, Little Rock 5. (second game).
New Orleans 15, Chattanooga 8.
Others not scheduled.

Exhibition

Philadelphia (A.) 4, Buffalo (I.) 2.

FORT TRUMBULL STARS BEAT KENSINGTON A. C.

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 31—In a game which kept the fans on their toes with excitement the Fort Trumbull Stars of New London defeated the fast Kensington A. C. 4-3 in a ten inning struggle at Morgan Park on Sunday afternoon. The Kensington boys lost no time in going after the game and started in the first inning with a homer by Saltaline after Venture had been retired on strikes. In the second inning Goodrich was presented with a base on balls and scored on Ledike's double to left. In the third the Stars collected a run when Brewer tripled to left and scored on Hutchison's long sacrifice fly to center field. Three hits in the fourth by Ledike, Venture and McCormick netted another run for Kensington.

Next Saturday Hanover will play the Stars at Morgan park and on Sunday Taftville will be entertained by the Stars in a return game.

Yesterday's contest marked the fifth victory in eight days for the Stars. Last Sunday the Sub Base was taken into camp 2-0, Wednesday the K. of C 6-0, Friday the Tabs 7-4, Saturday Pocony 6-0, Sunday, Kensington 4-3.

GRAND CIRCUIT OPENS UP IN MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31—Anna Branford's Girl, a brown mare, owned by the Arden Homestead Stables, Goshen, N. Y., and driven by Dickerson, rambled home an easy winner in the $2,000 feature race of the initial program of the grand circuit at the State Fair park here today. The race meeting marked the first grand circuit racing in Milwaukee.

The winners' time was 2:02 1-4 in each of the two years she won the field of six starters were well bunched nearly all the way, with the Goshen mare getting and maintaining the lead throughout with the exception of the first heat when she placed third.

Only one other race figured in the grand circuit card today, this being the two year old trot for a stake of $600. The race was won by Peter Malt by brown colt, also owned by the Arden Homestead Stables and driven by Dickerson.

WILSON HAS PERFECT DAY AT BAT FOR BRAVES

BOSTON, Aug. 31—(A. P.)—Boston evened up the series with Chicago at two-all by taking today's game, 5 to 3. The Braves bunched hits off Kaufmann, Wilson, recently recalled by the Braves from Worcester, had a perfect day at bat. The score:

Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Adams,2b	4	2	1	2	0
Welsh,rf	4	2	2	0	0
Fagan,ss,2b	3	1	1	1	0
Jahn,lf	4	1	1	0	0
Michaels,2b	2	0	1	3	0
xGriffith	1	0	0	0	0
Mayer,ss	1	1	0	0	0
Grimm,1b	4	0	9	0	0
Gonzales,c	3	1	4	0	0
xxHeathcote	1	0	0	0	0
Kaufmann,p	3	1	0	2	0
Totals	35	11	30	8	0

Boston (N)	ab	po	a	e
Gautreau,2b	4	3	3	0
Wilson,lf	4	3	1	0
Welsh,rf	2	2	0	0
Berry,1b	4	10	0	0
Fillis,cf	3	1	1	0
Mann,cf	1	0	0	0
High,3b	2	0	2	0
Padgett,ss	4	1	3	0
Neis,c	4	1	6	0
Barnes,p	4	0	4	0
Totals	35	12	27	0

(x) Batted for Michaels in 7th.
(xx) Batted for Gonzales in 9th.

Score by innings:
Chicago ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1—3
Boston ..... 1 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 x—5

Two base hits, Marquille, Grimm, Kaufmann, Gautreau. Three base hits, Wilson, Berry, Padgett.

SENATORS WIN FINAL GAME WITH PONIES

HARTFORD, Aug. 31—(A. P.)—Hartford defeated Springfield in the final game of their three game series, 4 to 3 before a large crowd, it being Elks booster day on the program. Before the game the players contested in athletic events. Henri Rondeau, Hartford left fielder, collapsed on the field in the eighth inning. The score:

Springfield ..... 000 011 001—3
Hartford ..... 020 001 01x—4

Two base hits, Dailey, 2. Home runs, O'Neil, Bosse.

NORWICH TENNIS TEAM SCHEDULES TWO DIFFICULT MATCHES DURING WEEK

The Norwich Tennis team, representing the Norwich Golf club fought a losing battle against the pride of the Hay Harbor club of Fisher's Island, Sunday at the Hay Harbor club courts, losing all single and double events scheduled for the day.

Although the Norwich men were losers in the five singles and two doubles played during the day, the Hay Harbor club players were forced to go into extra sets to win their matches. The representatives of the Hay Harbor club in most cases were highly rated men from the metropolitan district, several of them ranking third or fourth. When it is considered that the local tennis teams forced these men into extra sets for a victory the loss of the games reflects no discredit on the Norwich club.

Nine matches were scheduled for the day but owing to the lateness of the hour the two doubles were dropped, Norwich being in the lead at the time the games were called.

The Hay Harbor club proved themselves royal entertainers, sending to Groton Long point in the club launch after the Norwich men and treating them to a dinner at the Mansion after their arrival on the island.

The Norwich Tennis team has several games scheduled for the week. On Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock they will match up against a team representing the United States Submarine base, at the sub-base. Seven matches are scheduled, five singles and two doubles.

On Saturday they will go to Stonington where a seven match game has been scheduled with the team representing the Wadawanuck Country club. These games will start at 4 o'clock and will consist of five singles and two doubles.

The Norwich players fully expect to return victors in the matches scheduled for the remainder of the week. Being in the pink of condition and having offered stiff opposition to the crack players of Hay Harbor club, they intend to strike into a winning streak previous to the opening of the tennis tournament at the Norwich Golf club, which opens this week.

On Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the courts of the Norwich Golf club the men's singles tournament will be opened and it is expected that there will be a large number of entries. Any player desirous of entering these matches should make entry with Russell Clapp, phone 219, before Wednesday night. Competition is expected to run keen in these matches and as the entry list will be large all courts will be in use throughout the tournament.

KID KAPLAN SCHEDULED FOR LOCAL BOUT TONIGHT

In connection with the lawn party to be given by St. Patrick's parish this (Tuesday) evening, several fine boxing exhibitions have been scheduled, a number of local boys appearing in the ring for the benefit. The number of rounds to be fought have not been announced but it is promised that several fine exhibitions are in store for the lovers of the sport who visit the grounds during the evening.

The exhibitions will start about 8.30 o'clock when an opportunity will be given to see Happy Rollinson, world's ameteur flyweight champion in action against Kid Rollinson.

Another fine bout scheduled is that of Frank Busch of Norwich versus Shiek Leonard. Both these boys are fast with their mitts and have creditable records back of them. Rusch has made good in his recent fights, scoring a knockout in his last Boston fight and being signed for another appearance in the ring at the Hub. Leonard fought a draw with Tracy Ferguson at Waterbury last Thursday and is rated as a fast man.

The remainder of the card will include exhibitions by Kid Kaplan, who comes here with his manager and three sparring partners. Kaplan and Babe Herman fought a draw at Waterbury in the main bout of the evening and the appearance of the champion in this city should draw out a large delegation of fight fans.

ULRICH PITCHES A WINNING GAME

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 31—(A. P.)—Ulrich pitched and batted Waterbury to an 8 to 2 victory in the closing game of the series here today, giving the Brasscos the series two to one. Ulrich doubled to score three runs, tripled to send in another and he also hit a home run. Score:

Waterbury ..... 000 020 212—8
Albany ..... 001 001 100—3

Two base hits, Ulrich, Solomon, McCorry. Three base hit, Ulrich. Home run, Ulrich.

ASSAWAGA DEFEATS EAST GLASTONBURY

(Special to the Bulletin.)

DAYVILLE, Aug. 30.—The East Glastonbury team, which has twice previously defeated the Assawaga boys, went down to defeat here today before superior ball playing, being on the short end of an 11- 3 score.

East Glastonbury used three pitchers but could not stop the batting streak of the local boys. The game was full of thrills until the last half of the seventh. Assawaga secured two runs in the first inning. East Glastonbury 2 in the second tieing the score and in the fourth secured one more tally, being one to the good. In the last half of the seventh fourteen men faced three East Glastonbury pitchers and secured eight runs. Again in the eighth the local boys secured another tally.

Nicholson, for the visitors, pitched a good game until the seventh. When he had four hits chalked up against him he was taken out, Chapman, S. Pfau, and Edmonston each had a 2 base hit to their credit.

Lavalle pitching for the Assawaga team allowed only five scattered hits and struck out eight men. Gregoire secured two 2 base hits and R. Foster Mathieu and H. Weaver each got a two base hit. Mathieu also had three stolen bases. O'Neill played a fine game in spite of his bum ankle.

The score:

Assawaga	ab	h	po	a	e
O'Neill,lf	3	1	1	0	0
Edmonston,ss	3	1	2	2	0
R. Foster,2b	5	2	2	3	1
Mathieu,1b	5	2	11	0	0
Gregoire,cf	5	2	2	1	0
H. Weaver,rf	4	2	1	0	0
Frappier	4	1	0	1	1
D. Weaver,3b	4	1	0	1	2
Lavalle,c	3	1	1	6	0
Totals	36	14	20	14	4

East Glastonbury	ab	h	po	a	e
Cowan	4	0	0	4	0
Mahoney,2b	5	1	2	1	0
Chapman,cf	5	2	1	0	0
Pfau,1b	5	1	9	1	0
Weber,lf	4	0	0	0	0
J. Wilson,rf	3	0	1	0	0
Edmonston,3b	4	2	2	2	0
S. Pfau,ss	3	1	0	3	0
O'Neill,c	3	0	5	0	0
C. Wilson,rf	1	0	2	0	0
Totals	36	6	26	11	0

Score by innings:
Assawaga ..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 x—4
East Glastonbury ..... 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—3

BOOSTING MANICE FOR BOXING REFEREE

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, August 31, 1925—That boxing is to be a major sport this winter in New London is now practically certain and with this certainty comes the expectancy of New London boxing fans of seeing a New London man receive a state referees license from Commissioner Thomas E. Donahue.

That this has been long in the minds of local fans, is evident by the surprise they evidenced when commissioner Donahue recently announced his staff of state referees and leaving out a man from his own city. As an excuse Commissioner Donahue is said to have stated that the reason he had not appointed a man from New London was simply that the profession was not a major sport in the whaling city.

But this is now old stuff. During the past month Pinky Burns and his manager, together with other boxing stars have opened a boxing gymnasium in the Bacon Building and are developing a few local boxers for the first card they are to present early in October.

But we started off in regard to a referee from this city. Among those qualified to receive such a license and probably the man that is most capable of holding one is Billy Manice, an old time follower of the tin eared profession and an ardent booster for the spot in this city.

Mr. Manice has been connected with ringside affairs for more than a decade and has had a wide experience in refereeing fights. During the past year he has been the official referee for the bouts at Bradford that are held Wednesday evenings, and has also been engaged to handle the Westerly bouts. In both places his decisions have shown that he is a master of his job, and no question has ever been raised concerning his judgment.

Since he is the most capable man in New London for the license just at present, with the revival of the boxing sport, local fans, are hoping that Commissioner Donahue will come across and hand Billy a license. It is felt that the appointment of a local man as a state referee will not only help the revival of the sport in the city but it will do away with the idea of having to ask referees from other cities to referee championship bouts when a state referee is obtainable in the city wherein the bout is held.

Exhibition

SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 31—(A. P.)—Chicago 11 14 3
Saginaw (Michigan-Ont) .. 3 11 2

ROLAND R. MACKENZIE MAKES HARD OAKMONT COURSE ONE UNDER PAR.

OAKMONT, Penna., Aug. 31—(By the Associated Press)—Oakmont, long and treacherous, repelled the advances of many a budding champion and several veterans of golf in the first 18 hole round of the National Amateur Championship today. Only once did par for the course fall, the youthful Roland R. Mackenzie of the Columbia Club in Washington, D. C., conquering the 172 sand holes in 71, one under stated figures.

Bobby Jones, amateur king, former open champion, and the man who fought the professional and present open title holder, William Macfarlane, through 108 holes under a broiling sun at Worcester, Mass., early in the summer to lose by a single stroke, was his powerful self, although several strokes above the record 67 that he drew from his clubs over the same terrible on Saturday. Jones reported a 73, one over the par figures.

A large gallery on opening day was treated to a pleasant surprise when the "siege gun" of the east, Jessie Guilford of Boston, a champion of the byrone years, routed impending oblivion, and battered his way to a creditable 74 to take third place in the standing, with 18 holes to be played before the championship sixteen is chosen. Few had followed the giant from Woodland, for they recalled what had happened only this year in the open. He failed by a strike to qualify in the eastern elimination rounds at Long Beach, N. Y., but today he was Guilford again, his two-iron wooden shots finding safely in the far fairways and his putter coaxing a touch that conquered the greens.

Next, tied for fourth position Jess Sweetser, another of the champions returned to form after several reverses, found himself locked at 75 strokes with the man from the far Pacific slope who last year lost in the finals at Merion to Jones, George von Elm.

Sweetser played the course twice in practice last week in par 72 and would have done that as well today had his putter cooperated.

Sixteen of 134 entrants will qualify when scores of tomorrow are added to those of today, but had today's scores told the story there would have been great mourning in the land.

Outside would have been one of America's greatest amateur stars and a former champion of this event, Francis Ouimet of Boston who had a 79. Outside along with him would have been Clarke Cockran, the Philadelphia veteran, and Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston, of St. Paul, each with the same total as Ouimet. And still further beyond would have been Chick Evans of Chicago, and Dexter Cummings, the 1924 inter-collegiate champion.

Mackenzie, now 18 years-old, for several months has been shooting poorly and his training stretched into the late evening this week with the professionals, Fred McLeod, and Chris Dunphy, well known Washington amateur at his back.

Six holes stood out in his round. At the second he holed a five foot putt for a birdie three. Another birdie fell to him at the 435 yard fourth when he just missed a chip for an eagle two. Again on the fifth he nearly holed his second and had only an inch to go for his three. The long twelfth, considered the hardest test of the course, found him down in birdie four after a ten foot putt and the seventeenth gave up still another birdie when his drive was just off the green, a smash of three hundred yards. His sixth under par hole came at the eighteenth, another ten foot putt giving him a three.

Jones was one over par on the first four, taking three putts at the third green. He lost another at the short eighth when his spoon shot found a trap but he gained back one of them when he recorded a four at the ninth to make him one over par for the outgoing test. Jones parred the tenth in four but went one over again on the eleventh, birdies at the short thirteenth and the 593 yard 17th brought down his score to respectable figures.

NORWICH DOINGS 75 YEARS AGO

Norwich people took a morbid interest in the execution of Prof. John Webster at Boston during the week of Aug. 25th seventy-five years ago and many from here went to Boston in hopes of getting a glimpse of the execution. Those who did get to the neighborhood of the jail where the condemned man was hung were chased away by police. Interest also centered on the reports coming from the south relative to the slave question which was steadily brewing and was attended by negro uprisings and other acts of violence alleged to be incited by abolitionists.

Extracts from the Courier files of 1850 follow:

Tuesday Aug. 27, 1850—A despatch from Portland states that the legislature of Maine has incorporated the European and North American railway, with an express limitation as to stockholders' liability beyond their stock, an exception never before granted in Maine. They have also appropriated $5000 for a survey as prayed for by John A. Poor, and others.

The gravel train on the Kennebec and Portland railroad was thrown from the track Saturday morning in Cumberland killing four Irishmen and severely injuring several others some so badly as to leave no hope for their recovery. The accident was caused by timber and stone being maliciously placed upon the track by some person unknown.

It is stated that Dr. Hewitt of Bridgeport has undertaken to raise $30,000 for the Theological Institute at East Windsor.

The New Haven papers record the death of Dr. Jacob T. Hotchkiss, a young and promising physician of that city who is well known in Norwich.

Thursday, Aug. 29, 1850—The superior court, Judge Storrs presiding, is now holding an adjourned session in this city.

The peach crop this year is larger in New Jersey than was ever known before and the quantities brought into New York markets are immense. We saw yesterday a lot consisting of 26 baskets, offered for one dollar. The purchaser declined taking them on the ground that they were too dear. We have seen plenty of peaches sold at the fruit stands in Norwich at a cent a piece, which were neither better nor larger than those offered at less than four cents a basket—each basket containing about three-fourths of a bushel—and no buyer at all.

At Pomfret on August 27th John P. Barstow of Norwich and Miss Abigal T. Sharpe, daughter of General Sharpe of Pomfret were married by Rev. Mr. Haynes.

From Virginia and other southern states come fragmentary reports of negro uprisings, horse stealing by the slaves and the escape of slaves through the assistance of certain rabid abolitionists. Rewards are offered for the apprehension of the persons aiding the escape of the slaves and for those found to be guilty of inciting the slaves to violence.

The execution of Prof. Webster takes place tomorrow although the general opinion appears to be somewhat general that he will anticipate the hangman's office.

The valuation of the real estate of Providence is within a small fraction of $32,000,000 and the rate of taxation is $5.30 per $1,000.

Saturday, August 31, 1850—The final act of the tragedy of the life of Prof. Webster has been enacted. Prof. Webster went to his death at precisely 9:35 with a firm step and no perceptible outward show of emotion. He shook hands with his friends while his feet were being strapped and when the rope was adjusted about his neck tears fell slowly down his cheeks, the only display of emotion shown by the doomed man.

The Hon. Thomas M. T. McKennan's resignation was due to ill health.

The officers and instructors associated with the late warden of the Connecticut State Prison at the time of his removal have presented him with a splendid copy of Harper's pictorial Bible, on the cover of which is a silver plate with the following inscription: "Presented to Captain Elisha Johnson, by the officers and instructors of the Connecticut State Prison as a token for and confidence in him."

ASSAWAGA WINS FROM HANOVER 5 TO 4

(Special to the Bulletin.)

DAYVILLE, Aug. 29.—In a hard fought battle played here today the Assawaga boys defeated Hanover 5-4. The Hanover team worked hard all the time did their best but superior ball playing won out. It was one of the cleanest and most interesting games played here this season and was anyone's game till the last ball was pitched.

Greene pitching for the visitors, with his teammate, Hendrick behind the plate, worked like veterans, Green having ten strike outs to his credit and allowing only eight hits. Sullivan hit the pill for a long ride to centerfield in the sixth getting a three bagger.

For the locals La Grace pitched the first five innings allowing only four hits and striking out six. Lavalle pitching the last four innings struck out two and allowed two hits. Baker and Russell playing their first complete game this season did some fine work. The score:

Assawaga	ab	h	po	a	e
Lavalle,lf,p	2	0	1	1	0
Pinsonault	5	0	2	1	0
R. Weber,2b	4	0	13	0	0
Gregoire	4	2	2	0	0
Frappia	4	2	1	2	0
Baker	4	1	1	2	1
D. Weaver	4	0	2	0	0
Russell	4	0	0	0	0
Laguco	2	0	1	1	0
Totals	34	5	27	10	1

Hanover	ab	h	po	a	e
J. Greene,rf	4	0	1	0	0
Sandercock,2b	4	0	2	5	0
Pelkington,lf	4	0	1	0	0
Hendrick,c	4	0	12	2	0
Greene,p	3	0	1	1	0
Totals	34	0	27	8	0

Assawaga ..... 0 0 1 0 0 3 0 0 1—5
Hanover ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4—4

Three base hit, Sullivan. Two base hit, Baker.

WEST ENDS WILL NOW HAVE NEW UNIFORMS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 31—The West Ends, the City of Willimantic's only representation on the diamond this season will wear new uniforms and carry new equipment next year, as a result of their victory on the winner-take-all game, played Sunday at Recreation Park, against the South Windham-All Stars. The game had been on the verge of being cancelled at one time because the West Enders could not come to terms with Manager Porter of South Windham who held out for the winner-take-all basis against Manager Heller's 60-40 basis. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of the locals and rejoicement that the winner-take-all basis now prevails in the West End camp. "Lefty" Smith and Hal Hawes divided innings in the box for the victors, Matthewson, the All-Star hurler pitched a good game and it is prob

EARLY MORNING FIRE AT OCEAN BEACH, NEW LONDON, DOES $20,000 DAMAGE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 31—Three pieces of business were destroyed and the entire central area of Ocean Beach's business center, including 15 restaurants and confectionery stores, Wardell's shore dinner house and Deneland, were threatened with a like fate, early this morning when fire was discovered in Jean Frischman's "Hot Dog" establishment which was in flames. This building, together with Tannenbaum's restaurant and "Izzy's" confectionery store were completely destroyed with their stock and fixtures.

The buildings are owned by Philip S. Hendel and Louis Markow, formerly of Norwich, and the aggregate loss of the owners and proprietors, it is estimated will be close to $20,000.

How the fire originated, is not known, but it is believed that the blaze started from the torch and with this theory being entertained by Fire Chief Charles Rose the police have been requested to institute an investigation. Sergeants Nelson Smith and John Cavanaugh have been assigned to the task of endeavoring to ascertain whether the fire resulted from accidental causes or from incendiarism.

The fire originated in Frischman's establishment, and according to Chief Rose, Frischman is known to have left his establishment within 15 minutes of the time that the blaze was discovered and three hours after the place closed for the night.

The fire was discovered about 3.45 o'clock by Patrolman Michael Dorsey when the officer observed the entire structure ablaze. An alarm was sent in from Box 515, at the approach to the Board walk and within ten minutes a majority of the fire fighting apparatus were at the location of the blaze. The flames, however by that time had communicated to the Tannenbaum and Izzy stores and it was an hour and a half later before the flames were subdued.

When Judge Prince, in the police court this morning, listened to Prosecutor Hollandersky present the facts as to the sale of liquor at the house corner of Washington and Brewer streets Sunday, he just imposed fines that flattened out the bank account of Henry Scheiman and wife. The pair were represented by an attorney, but the latter admitted he had no defense to make, as the accused had been caught with the goods and had admitted in a written agreement they made and signed that they had been selling booze and beer. The attorney made a plea for leniency for Scheiman and wife though it did not secure a sentence that will create the impression that the court is disposed to look with leniency upon such acts as those committed of. It was represented that the Scheimans came from Willimantic, where they bore a good reputation and engaged in business here. They did not prosper and then the came to them. Then they sought to establish themselves in business at Ocean Beach, but that was a mistake, as was soon proven and they gave up. Then they bought the Sawyer house, that in which they were in "business" at the time they were raided and arrested. That house cost some $14,000, but the Scheimans managed to get it for a song and to occupy it. They sold fireworks in a garage there during the week of the 4th of July, and then started the liquor business. Today they were fined $500 and were obliged to pay costs that aggregated $50 more, but they had the money to settle and produced a cigar box filled with the currency that Uncle Sam gives to his people. Two Scheimans had wrappers on them such as are furnished by the banks and had their babies' and quarter-certificates for deposit. There were enough of them to pay the fines and costs. The money payment having been made the Scheimans were released but they went away with more than $100 worth of beer and booze destroyed and the paraphernalia for doing business confiscated. So the result of the capture of the booze joint meant the payment of more than $1,000 to the pair who set out to beat the law that prohibits dealing in liquor. The probability is that Mr. and Mrs. Scheiman are starting again with a good deal less money than they had when they came from the Thread City to battle with the fates they found beside the shores of Long Island Sd. The Scheimans were fortunate that they were not arraigned on charges other than those lodged against them in the sale to liquor. If the police are rightly informed, the couple are guilty of offenses against the laws of morality that would put them and their accomplices behind prison bars for a considerable period. The police mean to keep an eye on the future doings of the occupants of the house, corner of Washington and Brewer streets and to watch them so closely that whatever goes on there will become known. It was evident from the start of the occupancy of the house that the Scheimans meant to commercialize the place, but if they did that lawfully no objection would have been started. Scheiman is a shoemaker by trade and that calling would have afforded him a good living had he followed it in connection with the leasing of apartments.

As was intimated in this column, Monday, Harry Cook was unable to identify the automobile of John William Sousa as the car that hit Cook car near the corner of Pearl and Bank streets, Saturday. Cook did not get the registration number of a car that sideswiped his machine nor did he see the face of the person who was operator of that car, so that when the colliding auto disappeared Cook had without facts that would aid him in detecting the fellow who avoided responsibility for the mishap. The case against Sousa was nolled, as soon as conditions were explained in court this morning.

John Harrington made his "steenth" appearance in court this morning and when he had the opportunity to do so admitted that he was drunk Saturday when arrested. He explained that he had not absorbed any liquor since he was last in court, but frankness compels the statement that the court did not accept that allegation as true. Harrington, however, revealed that he had been working and that there was a week's wages of $30 due him which he could get by going after it. So the court allowed him to settle with the city instead of with the county and fined him $10. That penalty will take 6 per cent. of John's earnings last week. He concluded that he would rather part with the money than spend those 20 days in jail so he was allowed to make his choice.

John Higgins, he of the faithful lit-tle horse, which he drives about the city and frequently abuses, was sent to jail for a stay of ten days. He was on Howard St., where he met Policeman McCaskey who interfered with his progress to the extent of asking him why he did not conduct himself properly and cease to be a nuisance on the highways. John was asked where he was going, and replied that such information was none of the business of the officer. He was drunk, so he was arrested. He attempted to tell the court the same old story he has told a score of times, but Judge Prince had committed it to memory, so he decided that John might as well learn his lesson now as any time.

Samuel W. Rodgers, a Fort Wright soldier, was found drunk at the railway station and was arrested. He had overstayed his leave, so he was allowed to tell his story to the commandant of the fort and take his discipline there.

W. H. Weldon was charged with driving his auto past a trolley car that was discharging passengers without regard to the consequences that might follow such an act. But Weldon was able to explain that he was caught in a jam and that to get out of it without accident he shot his car past the trolley. Judge Prince regarded the excuse as one that had some merit and he suspended judgment in the case.

In a couple of parking ordinance violations judgment was suspended. Alex Wieckorch, the father of nine children, ranging in ages from a year to 17 years, became involved in a row with his wife over baseball, both admitted and she charged him with hitting her. Richard W. Mansfield has settled so many family disagreements that the court thought he could settle this one, so he was given a month in which to try.

Patsy Grillo, charged with violation of his probation, was spared the penalty of serving the term to which he was sentenced last April. Grillo had been in jail a couple of days and admitted that such imprisonment was enough for him. "No more for me: I'll get out of this town if I am allowed to!" he promised. Judge Prince thought that was a good disposition of the matter so he granted the request of Grillo, who has earned the reputation of being the most insulting fellow the police have to deal with.

The New London Country club, which organization recently acquired a large tract of land and a farm house in Waterford from John Burns, has elected its officers and directors. At a meeting of the organization for the purpose Saturday night at the John Winthrop club the following officers were chosen: President, George E. Fisher; First Vice President, James E. Barlow; Second Vice President, Harold Christianson; Secretary, Grant B. Edgar; treasurer, Maurice E. Suarman.

The following directors were chosen Joseph C. Keefe, Waldo Miner, James E. Barlow, Louis B. Doane, Henry L. Wilkinson, Harold Christianson, John C. Geary, Sidney H. Miner, Grant B. Edgar, Maurice E. Sherman, Harold H. Starr and George E. Fisher.

The club has a membership of 150 and has already caused its clubhouse to be opened for the use of members. The club house overlooks Long Island sound and has large acreage, including a superb golf course.

Because of the Savings Bank of New London having caused a huge garage to be erected upon a site owned by the banking institution, which is located directly north of the police station, a force of carpenters today began work of making an additional window in the city's building as the erection of the garage has completely closed up a window in the squad room. The installation of the added window will also bring about a change of location of several of the patrolmen's lockers, which will be transferred from the squad room to a detention room.

Fanny H. Lord and Alice H. Dart have sold a house and lot on Howard street to Joseph Chamberlain.

An automobile owned and driven by H. M. Manwaring, in backing at the corner of State and Main streets this forenoon, collided with a hydrant, smashing one of the house couplings. Manwaring agreed to pay the cost of repairing the hydrant.

A person with malicious intent, removed an American flag from in front of the pharmacy of John H. James, corner of Blank and Pearl streets, early this morning, then taking the flag to Hamilton street, where it was found in the highway. The police caused the flag to be returned to the owner.

Master Russell Brown, 163 Howard street; Walter Goula, 54 Cutler street; Mrs. Nathan Potter and infant son, Old Mystic; Master David Nieb, Sub Mohegan avenue; Miss Stella Mazer, North Plains, and Mrs. Russell Harris Quaker Hill, were patients dismissed at Lawrence-Memorial Association hospital today.

The funeral of Stanley G. Dyer, formerly of New London, whose death occurred Friday at his home, Springfield, Mass., was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at 48 Shapley street. The services were conducted by Rev. Joseph A. Elder, pastor of the Huntington street Baptist church. The bearers were Stanley L. and Henry Dyer Springfield and Walter Staplins and Frank Rogers of this city. Burial was in Jordan cemetery.

An automobile owned and driven by Nazaire Duane, 243 Main street, in rounding the curve at the corner of Colman and Fuller streets late Sunday overturned. The machine was badly damaged and was towed to a garage. Duane was injured, having suffered numerous bruises about the face and shoulders and is now a patient at Lawrence hospital.

Michael Dionato, of this city, employed as driver of one of the trucks of Tait Brothers, was in the Groton town court today charged with reckless driving, under the recently enacted statute, which prohibits the operation of trucks at a speed in excess of 15 miles per hour, providing such trucks are equipped with solid tires. Dionato pleaded not guilty, but probable cause was found and the accused was fined $10 and costs, the latter amounting to $11.37. Judge Costello ordered $5 of the fine remited. According to the testimony of State Police Officer Giles Watson, he had repeatedly warned drivers of the Tait Brothers trucks against exceeding the speed limit and Wednesday last, when he apprehended Dionato operating a truck at between 22 and 25 miles an hour on the military highway, north of the submarine base, the officer ordered Dionato to appear in court today.

Frank Gallahan, formerly of Providence, but who has led the life of a recluse for four years, sleeping in a pig pen in Waterford, was in the Waterford town court this evening on continuance, charged with vagrancy. The case was nolled upon it being arranged for Gallahan to go to work on a Niantic farm. The accused was placed in the custody of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs.

Mrs. Joseph Sermatti, of Norwich; Miss Martha Morgenstern, Stonington, Mrs. Ernest Watrous, Groton, and Mrs. Edward Sousin of Groton, patients at Home Memorial hospital were discharged today.

Daniel DeLong, of Moore Court, and a frequent offender of the law on charges of breach of the peace and intoxication, was arrested today by Sergeant Nelson Smith charged with intoxication. He will be in the city court tomorrow morning.

A girl of 12 was found at the Rudd bathing houses at Ocean Beach this afternoon and in possession of plunder that she had obtained by robbing bathers. The police were notified and Policewoman Jane H. Cassidy went to the beach and took charge of the girl, later turning her over to the custody of her parents. She will probably be in the juvenile court within a few days.

Joseph Zira, a soldier, attached to the 10th Co., C. A., and stationed at Governor's Island, N. Y., was taken into custody this afternon by Motorcycle Officer Augustus Ray, charged with being a deserter. He is locked at the police station and will be delivered to the federal authorities at Fort Wright tomorrow morning. Zira was found in the yard of one of the local coal companies working as a laborer, but his military uniform was found at his rooming place.

PATROLMAN DANIELS SUSPENDED MONDAY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 31—Patrolman Edward Daniels is the latest of the members of the New London police department to violate the rules and regulations prescribed for the workings of that department. Patrolman Daniels was indefinitely suspended from duty, this morning, following Acting Captain James C. Sullivan making charges against the officer to City Manager William A. Holt. The specific charges are that Patrolman Daniels "absented himself from duty without permission and without reasonable cause, Sunday, Aug. 30th." City Manager Holt in suspending the officer made it known that a hearing of the charges would take place in the office of the city manager Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Officer Daniels was supposed to report for duty at 7 o'clock Sunday forenoon, but he failed to do so, communicating with Acting Desk Sergeant Timothy Sullivan at 3.40 o'clock in the morning that he would be unable to report for duty as he had been out of the city and had not returned to New London until a late hour.

As Sunday is an unusually busy day with the police because of the great influx of transients and from the fact that Daniels did not obtain permission, as prescribed by the rules and regulations, to absent himself from the city, Acting Captain Sullivan made the charges in writing to City Manager Holt.

THROWN INTO BARGE HOLD; HERMAN SOUTHLAND INJURED

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 31—Herman Southland, a member of the crew of the barge Bangs, owned by the Southern Transportation company, of New York, which is moored in the harbor, is a patient at Lawrence-Memorial hospital suffering from injuries sustained this morning by falling about 20 feet into the hold of the barge. The man was transferred to the hospital where an examination revealed Southland to be suffering from multiple contusions and abrasions and possible internal injuries. Southland suffered his injuries while handling a hawser and in losing his balance was thrown through the opening into the hold.

BELIEVE INFANT'S SKULL CARRIED OFF TO ASH TRUCK

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 31. — Junk workers on the city dumping grounds off Cedar Grovevenue late this afternoon found the skull of a child and later in the day the Health Department, which had taken charge of the gruesome find turned it over to Medical Examiner Charles Kaufman, who was notified by the police of the find. The skull appears to be that of a male child but a few weeks or few months old. How it came to be deposited upon the city dumping grounds is not known, but it is believed that it was brought there in one of the city's garbage collecting trucks and unknown to the workers of the truck.

CITY COUNCIL IGNORES SHAPIRO-KENYON REQUEST

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 31.—The city council this evening declined to consider the petition of Messrs Shapiro and Kenyon, for permission to build on Jay street on the west side of the street, a store and business place. At a special meeting of the council the matter was adjourned to this evening on the representation that the members of the council desired to visit the site of the proposed building, but whether the site has been visited was not disclosed at the meeting tonight. The petitioners were flatly ignored and the council adjourned before any action antagonistic to that procedure could be taken.

Councilor Whiton introduced a resolution which has a direct bearing upon the matter and which the council had read for the first time, the resolution creating a zoning commission, which commission the city planning board is made. The commission was authorized by the resolution to create zoning districts, and the Jay street section, it is certain, is to be one of those districts. Councilor Fox asked if the petition of Messrs Shapiro and Kenyon was not to be considered, inasmuch as it was postponed until this evening, but a motion to adjourn met his request and the Jay street matter was not considered. The city manager when asked after the meeting for the reason for deferring action on a matter so important, stated that the council did not care to take it up at this time.

A petition addressed to "th court of common please" asked for the removal of a tree from in front of 18 Shapley street and was referred to the city manager with power to grant or deny the request. It is represented that the tree is decayed and of no value to the street.

The city received bids for the hay on the Beckley water shed in Waterford, but the city manager thought the bids too low and all the bids received were rejected. The council voted to sell the hay at auction.

The contract for laying the woodwork on the Alewife cove bridge with creosoted yellow pine was awarded to the New England Wood Preserving company.

Applications for permission to build presented to the council included work on a two-family house and two cottages in various parts of the city. The other applications were for garages and for alterations in existing property. All were granted.

It was voted to extend the sewers on Colman street and on Marshall Place. The Colman street extension is estimated to cost $637, of which the city is to pay $215. On Marshall Place the cost of the sewer is to be $3 a running foot.

The H. Wales Lines company was given permision to install a temporary gasoline tank for the operation of a compressor on the Mercer lot where blasting is to be done in connection with the section of a one-story building, the charter, forbids such permission, but the council deemed it prudent to grant a temporary permit to install the tank is to be removed as soon as the work is completed.

Councilor Woodruff reported progress on the opening and grading of Grenada street in which B. L. Armstrong is interested which he deeded to the city conditionally. E. H. Robbins has bought four lots on the street and desires to build on them but the city will not consent to doing what Mr. Armstrong desires. So there the matter stands. It is said that the council does not want to comply with the agreement of Mr. Armstrong.

LONG TRIP OF NEW ENGLAND BUSINESS MEN AND WOMEN

HARTFORD, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Three people from Hartford, three from Bristol and one from Bridgeport will make the coast-to-coast trip on the special private train, which will leave here September 5 to take a party of New England business men and women on an extensive tour of the United States, under the auspices of the New England state chambers of commerce.

Dr. Philip D. Bunce, of 51 Gillett street, Miss Anna Sands, assistant secretary of the Connecticut Manufacturers' association and Clark Belden, assistant secretary of the Connecticut chamber of commerce, will make up the Hartford delegation, while W. S. Ingerham, president of E. Ingerham and Sons, of Bistol, and John P. Chidsey, president of the Root company, of Bristol and Mrs. Chidsey will go from Bristol.

The objective of the trip, which is under the personal direction of Philip W. Blake, is to give the New England people an idea of the development of the country as a whole, and the effect of this national development on New England.

The trip will take just a month, arriving in Boston October 6. The route will be through Chicago and Glazier national park to Spokane, Vancouver and Seattle. Then down the coast to San Francisco, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles, and southeast to Texas. Visiting Houston and San Antonio the train will return by way of New Orleans and Washington to Boston.

Side excursions have been arranged and as much as three days have been allowed in which to see certain of the larger cities. The train itself will be beautifully appointed, carrying the following special features: A barber shop, a five piece orchestra, phonographs, valet, business office, manicurist and women's maid, and an official physician.

Including all sects, there were 213,578 churches in the United States in 1922.

BREED THEATRE

TODAY
"PROUD FLESH"
—With—
ELEANOR BOARDMAN, PAT O'MALLEY, HARRISON FORD
WEDNESDAY—THURSDAY
CONWAY TEARL and CLAIRE WINDSOR in
"JUST A WOMAN"
A mighty drama of wives and vampires, for forgetful husbands and wandering wives!

PALACE —TODAY— Matinee and Evening
HURTIG and SEAMON Present
"7-11"
THE WORLD'S FIRST AND GREATEST
ALL-COLORED MUSICAL BURLESQUE
With and by AMERICA'S PREMIER COLORED STARS
HOWARD & BROWN, of Norwich
COOK & SMITH and a
24—CHORUS OF REAL CREOLE BEAUTIES—24
15—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA—15
POSITIVELY THE FASTEST DANCING SHOW EVER PRODUCED
65—WORLD FAMOUS ENTERTAINERS—65
PRICES: Matinee 25c, 50c, 87c; Evening, 50c, $1.15, $1.73. Plenty of good seats left at $1.15. Curtain at 2:15 and 8:15.

BROADWAY
TODAY—WEDNESDAY
NOT TO-BE MISSED
5—FINE ACTS—5
Including Those Wonder Juveniles
THREE PALS
Grasp This Opportunity to See the Greatest Act of its Kind on the Vaudeville Stage Today
BRING THE KIDDIES
MATINEE—CHILDREN 15c.
YOU'LL ALSO SEE
4—OTHER EXTRA GOOD ACTS—4
—A Riot of Mirth—
On the Screen
PATHS TO PARADISE
Everyone Roared and Applauded
RAYMOND GRIFFITH
BETTY COMPSON
BE SURE AND SEE IT!

PALACE
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday
Sept. 6, 7, 8 and 9.

With a SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA OF ELEVEN, William S. Jeffs, Conductor.

Jenny Wren Defends Herself

Some folks can always find excuse
For treating others with abuse
—Peter Rabbit.

Peter Rabbit couldn't get over what he had discovered about Jenny and Mr. Wren. You know, Peter had seen Mr. Wren destroy the eggs of Tommy Tit and Mrs. Chickadee while they were away from home. The first chance he had he told Jenny Wren what he had seen and how very dreadful he thought it was. "I just wouldn't believe it when I heard that you and Mr. Wren had done such things," said Peter. "I wouldn't believe it until I saw it done with my own eyes. It is one of the most dreadful things I ever heard of."

"Tut, tut, tut, Peter. It isn't dread-

"Tut, tut, tut, Peter! It isn't dreadful at all," retorted Jenny ful at all," retorted Jenny. "We have just prevented those other folks from having a lot of babies right around us. All they had to do was to go build a nest somewhere else and lay some more eggs. There's nothing dreadful about that."

"I guess you would think it was dreadful if someone destroyed all your eggs," declared Peter.

"I would just like to see them try it," snapped Jenny.

"I thought so," chuckled Peter. "Some one ought to try it so that you might know how it feels. But I don't see yet what you and Mr. Wren have done this for."

"Hoom, Peter, room. If you're going to bring up a family you must have the proper amount of room to bring that family up right. Supposing three or four pairs of rabbits moved into the dear old Briarpatch, what would you do about it?" said Jenny.

"Drive them out," replied Peter. "There isn't food enough for half a dozen families right around the old Briarpatch. Baby Rabbits can't go far to get their living. They have got to be able to eat right close to the old Briarpatch where they will be safe. But you birds can fly around anywhere you please and bring food to your babies."

"Tut, tut, tut," scolded Jenny Wren. "Tut, tut, tut, tut, tut. That's easy to say, but I would like you to know that our babies have to be fed very often and we can't fly any great distance. We must get it just as near home as we can. Now a lot of birds are hunting in the same place. It is going to make food scarce. The smallest ones are going to be driven away. They are going to have to go farther to get food for their babies.

"Now, Mr. Wren and I are too small to fight very successfully with some of the feathered folk around here. But if we can keep them from raising families, they are not going to stay. So that is why we have sometimes destroyed their eggs. I suppose you think we have done it out of pure meanness. It isn't so at all. We have done it just to make sure that when our own babies come along we will be able to take care of them properly. After that we don't care how many neighbors we have or how near they may be."

"Do all House Wrens break the eggs of their neighbors?" inquired Peter.

"I don't know," replied Jenny. "It is no business of mine what other Wrens may do. I don't suppose all Wrens may do. I don't suppose all Wrens do it, but I know some who do. If people don't like it, they can just keep away. That is all Mr. Wren and I ask of them, just to keep away. We may be small, but we certainly are not going to be imposing no. No sir, we are not going to be imposed on." Jenny flirted her head and her tail and looked the very pert, small person she is.

Peter couldn't find anything to say in reply. Jenny Wren had defended herself and Mr. Wren and it was plain to see that she believed that she was right. It also was equally plain to see that it would not be at all safe for any small feathered folk of a gentle, trusting nature to attempt to raise a family in Jenny Wren's neighborhood. "I suppose," thought Peter to himself, "that she and Mr. Wren are the kind of folks who like to be by themselves. I know there are folks like that, but I didn't suspect Jenny Wren of it, because she is such a gossip. Dear me, what a pity it is that neighbors can't get along without squabbling."

With this Peter took himself off to tell little Mrs. Peter all about it.

(Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story—Peter Rabbit Grumbles.

CATARRH of head or throat is usually benefited by the vapors of—
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Cuticura Talcum
Unadulterated
Exquisitely Scented

Children Cry for
Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:— Fletcher's Castoria is especially prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and, by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving natural sleep.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Absolutely Harmless—No Opiates. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

THRIFTY WOMEN WILL COME TO OUR STORE FOR THIS BIG SALE OF HIGH GRADE BON TON AND ROYAL WORCESTER BRASSIERES AND BANDEAUX, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES

Through a special arrangement made by our buyer, with the manufacturers at headquarters, we have secured a large lot of beautiful, high-grade and fashionable Corsets, Brassieres and Bandeaux, under the famous trade-mark names "Bon Ton" and "ROYAL WORCESTER," which are regularly sold at prices considerably higher than quoted here.

These are all new goods, no seconds, made by skilled workers in America's largest and finest corset plant. The Brassieres and Bandeaux reflect the type of the recognized woman designer who has made Brassiere designing her life study, while the Corsets and Girdles are the creations of a Master Parisian designer recognized as the leading one in his art.

These Brassieres and Bandeaux were created to meet the most fastidious tastes and as for fit, workmanship and style, they are unequalled.

Regular Price $5.50
SALE PRICE $3.45

Regular Price $5.00
SALE PRICE $3.45

WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY THAT WILL PROBABLY NEVER BE REPEATED

A wonderful bargain for young ladies is our No. 520 Ribbonette Corset, regular price $2.50—Our Sale Price in this Sale $1.75

After you have read this advertisement, tear it our and slip it into your purse as a reminder and then plan to come to our store during the next three days.

The size range is complete and early comers will, of course, get the first choice.

These values are so apparent and the merchandise so beautiful and high-grade, and the prices so low, that we won't be surprised if the stock will almost disappear in a very short time.

SO—COME EARLY! THIS SALE WILL LAST BUT A FEW DAYS.

Caron's Specialty Shop

TODAY'S EVENTS

Oysters again are in season.

Festival of St. Giles, patron saint of cripples and beggars.

Greeting to the Province of Alberta, which is 20 years old today.

Centenary of the birth of L. Q. C. Lamar, noted Southern statesman, cabinet officer and supreme court justice.

Norway's first national radio exposition, according to announcement from Oslo, will be opened in that city today.

Eminent journalists, publishers and others from all parts of the British Empire are expected in Melbourne today for the opening of the Imperial Press Conference.

The Ulster parliament has been summoned to meet in extraordinary session today to consider ways and means for remedying the unemployment situation in northern Ireland.

In response to a call issued by the French Government official representatives of the principal countries of the world will meet in Paris today to revise the International Telegraph Convention.

Spokesmen for nearly one million traveling salesmen from Maine to California will meet in New York city today to lay plans for "bigger, better business." The occasion will be the annual convention of the National Council of the Traveling Salesmen's Association.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bryad Theatre

An enviable place in the favor of both stage and screen patrons is held by Conway Tearle.

And in "Just a Woman," M. C. Levee's new First National production which will be shown Wednesday and Thursday at the Breed theatre, he scores another hit to add to a list already long.

"Just a Woman," an adaptation from Eugene Walter's stage play, gives Tearle an opportunity to display his unusual acting ability, as the role he portrays, that of a chief clerk in the steel mills who later becomes president of the same mills runs the gamut of emotions.

Tearle first became famous as a star of the spoken drama, having appeared in casts containing such stars as Sir Charles Wyndham and Ellen Terry on the London stage, and Ethel Barrymore, Billie Burke and Viola Allen in New York. One of his greatest screen successes was "The Ultimate Good," a Tech-Art production, made in New York.

Palace Theatre

Since big colored shows have come into vogue, critics, both those of signed article fame and the more ordinary daily grind fellows, have been given to making editorial comments upon the difference between the vari-colored Negro choristers and the Caucasian sisters reputed to be at once the lure and nemesis of the stage door Johnnie.

That there is a difference, other than the mere fact that one is Negro, and the other White is admitted, but few have been able to definitely describe the difference. Yet it is quite simple. There are just two points of difference.

The great distinction is the difference between pose and action. From Zeigfeld down, or up as one may prefer, the choruses to which we have been accustomed have been trained to present beautiful stage pictures. Most of the glory of the eye appeal has been in the spectacular effect of mass beauty presented in cleverly effected rearrangements, each evolving into a pretty pose.

With the Negro chorister, the effect sought, has been precisely the opposite. These girls have been trained into presenting a kaleidescope of cyclonic activity, a veritable riot of movement that is intoxicating, if not bewildering. How, in the world they remember all of the intricacies of their speedy dance steps and the accompanying gestures is in itself enough to give one some mental acrobatics. Therein is the basis of jazz, and the difference between the two types of chorus.

Another difference is physiological. White beauties are either blond or brunette with an occasional drab or red featured damsel.

In "Seven-Eleven" or any other show with 24 colored girls in the chorus, there is likely to be just that many different types of beauty, for the race is a human bouquet with a vast number of color combinations among them.

The producer of more than one of these shows has been disappointed after a nation wide search for exact types, for he knows that no complex can become the present day types of Negro that the word "Colored" in the only descriptive adjective sufficiently comprehensive to describe them.

You will find a rare treat in color and action when "Seven-Eleven" plays the Palace theatre, coming today for a matinee and evening engagement, for Whipper, the stage manager declares that he has the peppiest, jazziest, most enthusiastic working group of chorus girls in captivity. Dorothy Brown, alone puts more rythmatic action int oher dance interpretations, den variety with which we are famtion into her dance interpretations, liars:—and Dorothy is just one girl, the very first one on the other end.

Broadway Theatre

The inauguration of the new season at the Broadway theater met with the greatest of success. Smiles, miles long is what yesterdays audience wore on their happy faces after the conclusion of this memorable program.

Joe Allen opened with a variety of good entertainment.

Then Irving and Elwood followed up with a song recital that pleased.

Marie Ilka and Hamilton Christy in Night in Spring kept all in excellent spirits with their clever comedy vehicle.

Allman and Nally cornered more laughs in a real funny offering.

The Three Pals need no comment. They are even better than usual and to enjoy them you must see them.

A fine crook comedy with a brand new treatment is what is offered this week at the Broadway theater in the Paramount picture, Paths to Paradise featuring Betty Compson and Raymond Griffith.

Paths to Paradise, a Clarence Badger production, adapted for the screen by Keene Thompson from the play, The Heart of a Thief, by Paul Armstrong, is a story of two clever crooks who team up, fall in love and reform, after giving the entire San Francisco police force the chase of their lives.

Picture for yourself the inimitable Ray in such a role. There's not a let-up in the laughs; there's no lagging in the interest; there's no pause in the thrills. Remember Betty as a girl crook in The Miracle Man, the role that skyrocketed her to stardom!

WHITE & ALEXANDER

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

OFFICES

New London ..... Plant Bldg.
Norwich ..... Disco Bldg.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKET WAS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—(A. P.)—Alternate periods of weakness and strength again characterized today's stock market, with net losses exceeding net gains at the close. Despite the growth of bearish sentiment reflected in commission house advices and the activities of professional traders, bullish operations were successfully conducted in a wide variety of stocks, nearly a score of which were lifted to new peak prices for the year.

Although business news continued generally favorable, some disappointment was expressed at the apparent hesitancy of buyers in placing future orders in several lines of business. This was explained in part by the efficiency of most of the large railroads in making prompt deliveries, despit erecord-breaking freight traffic. The suspension of the anthracite mining at midnight tonight also had a restraining influence on bullish enthusiasm.

The day's news was largely constructive in character. It included the resumption of dividends on the common stock of the International Nickel Company, reports of an increased inquiry for railroad equipment and a moderate decline in California crude oil output last week. Failure of the directors of the Chrysler Corporation to take dividend action in the common stock probably accounted for the break of 5 1-2 points to 139, part of which was later recovered. The company reported that August shipments were running fifty per cent. ahead of July and that orders on hand represent sixty days' business at the current rate of production.

A sudden revival of strength in Pierce Arrow securities sent all three issues to new high levels for the year, the prior preferred jumping nearly 20 points on one sale and the other improving fractionally. Foundation company soared about six points to a new high record at 140 1-4 on reports of a substantial increase in foreign and domestic business. S. S. Kresge, National Dairy Products, Reid Ice Cream, Certain-Teed Products second preferred, International Business Machines Phillip Morris and General Railway Signal, the last-named touching 366, or more than 200 points above the year's low established a few months ago. Howe Sound duplicated the year's high.

Midland Steel Products preferred and Otis Steel preferred broke 5 and 4 points, respectively, in reflection of opposition of Trumbull Steel stockholders to the terms of the proposed merger of the three companies. United Railway Investment preferred broke 6 1-4 points and United States Steel common, Mack Truck, General Electric, White Motors, American Water Works, Hudson Motors, Martin Parry, Montana Power, National Biscuit, United Cigar and Willys-Overland preferred were among the many issues to fall back a point or more. Submarine Boat sagged to a new low for the year at 4.

Except for the establishment of a new high record by Gulf, Mobile and Northern preferred, there was little speculative interest in the rial group.

Call money renewed at 4 1-4 per cent and then advanced to 4 1-2, closing at the top. Time money and Commercial Paper rates were unchanged.

Establishment of a new high record for the year by Danish and Norwegian kroner at 24.92 and 20.92 cents, respectively, featured the irregular foreign exchange market. Other European rates moved within narrow limits, demand sterling yielding 1-8 of a cent to 4.85 1-8 and French francs holding steady around 4.69 cents.

STOCKS.

Sales in hundreds

	High.	Low.	Close
3 Adv Rumely	15⅛	14⅞	15⅛
21 Ahumada Lead	10⅞	10¼	10¼
12 Air Reduct	108⅝	107½	1707⅞
2 Ajax Rubber	11	10⅞	10⅞
60 Al Ch & Dye	103⅞	101⅞	102½
1 Al Chem & Dpr	120	120	120
14 Allis Chalmers	57½	57	57
7 Am Agri Ch	23⅞	22	22
7 Am Agri Ch pr	65⅝	65	65
1 Am Beet Sugar	36⅞	36⅞	36⅞
1 Am Br S Fd	115⅛	115⅛	115⅛
82 Am Can	236	232⅛	232½
10 Am Car & Fy	106½	..	..
10 Am Car&Fdy	106½	105	105
7 Am Drug Syn	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1 Am Exp	135	135	135
17 Am & F P	42½	41⅝	41⅝
6 Am & F P pr	91½	90½	91½
3 Am Ice	119	119	119
1 Am Ice pr	83	83	83
4 Am Inter Corp	29¾	28	29
6 Am La France	13	12½	13
6 Am Linseed	34⅝	32⅝	34⅝
5 Am Linseed pr	75⅛	75⅛	75⅛
10 Am Loco	115⅝	114⅞	114½
7 Am Metals	51⅛	50⅛	50½
5 Am Radiator	111	110	110
2 Am Saf Razor	60	60	60
5 Am Ship&Com	6½	6½	6½
32 Am Smelt	110½	109	109½
6 Am Steel Fdrs	40	39⅝	39⅝
1 Am Steel Fds pf	112	112	112
5 Am Sug Ref	66	65⅞	66
9 Am Sug pr pr	99⅞	99⅞	99⅞
2 Am Sum T	9½	9⅜	9⅜
8 Am Tel & Tel	139⅞	139⅞	139⅞
14 Am Tob	98⅝	98	98⅝
3 Am Tob B	97⅝	97⅝	97⅝
2 Am Tob pr	107	107	107
9 Am Wat Wks	60½	59¾	60
5 Am Wool	29⅝	28	29
1 Am Wool pr	86⅞	86⅞	86⅞
5 Am Wtr P pr	2½	2	2
7 Anaconda Cop	41⅞	41⅛	41⅞
2 Archer D Mfg	37⅞	36⅞	37⅞
22 Arm&Co Ill	22⅞	22⅝	22⅞
2 Arnold Constab	10	10	10
4 Asso Dry Gds	51½	50⅛	50⅞
3 Asso Oil	36⅞	35⅞	36
17 Atchison	121⅜	121⅛	121⅜
1 Atchison pr	95⅞	95½	95½
38 Atl Bir & Atl	7⅜	6⅝	7
2 Atl Coast Line	185	184⅞	185
17 Atl Gulf & W I	56⅞	55⅝	55⅝
5 Atl G & W I pr	55	54⅝	54⅝
3 Atlas Tack	12¾	12	12⅛
27 Austin Nichols	29⅝	27½	29
1 Austin Nich pr	94½	94½	94½
34 Balt & Ohio	81¾	81¼	81⅜
60 Baldwin Loco	117⅞	116⅜	116⅜
34 Balt & O	81½	81¼	81⅜
1 Balt & O pr	65⅜	65⅜	65⅜
1 Bang & Aroos	44½	44	44⅜
6 Barns Corn A	20¼	20¼	20⅜
10 Beechnut Pack	74⅜	74	74⅜
13 Beth Steel	41	40¼	40⅜
1 Booth Fish	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜
73 Briggs Mfg	37½	35½	37½
7 Bkyn Man Tr	55½	52⅜	53½
6 Bkyn Man pr	80	80	80
156 Bkyn Un Gas	86⅛	86⅛	86⅛
20 Brown Shoe	134⅜	131¾	134⅜
1 Brown Sh pr	107¼	107¼	107¼
21 Bruns Bal Col	20¾	20	20⅝
45 Bruns Term	6	6	6
1 Burns Bros B	25	25	25
6 Burr Ad Mach	95½	93	95½
2 Bush Ter ctfs	17¾	17¾	17¾
1 Butte & S Cop	11	11	11
1 Butterick	19⅞	19⅞	19⅞
1 Cal Pack xd	123	121	123
16 Cal Pet	26⅛	26	26
6 Cal & Hec	15¼	14⅞	14⅞
2 Case Thresh	44	43½	43½
3 Cent Leather	18½	18¼	18¼
6 Cen Leath pr	60½	60¼	60⅜
9 Cerro de Pasco	52	52¼	52⅝
106 Certainteed	54⅜	54	54⅛
2 Certainteed 2 pr	99¼	99¼	99¼
17 Chandler Mot	31⅜	30⅝	31¼
73 Ches & O	104⅞	103⅝	103⅝
1 Chi & Alton	8½	6½	6½
2 Chi & Alt pr	13⅜	12⅝	12⅝
1 Chi East Ill	36	36	36
2 Chi Gt West	12¾	12	12¼
1 Chi Gt West pr	26½	26¼	26⅛
20 Ch M & S P	8¾	8⅝	8⅛
35 Ch M & S P pr	16½	16	16
9 Chi & N W	67⅛	66⅝	67⅛
85 Chi Pneu Tool	114	109	114
17 C R I & P	49	48⅜	48⅝
6 Childs Co	58⅛	57⅝	57⅝
7 Chile Cop	34½	34¼	34⅛
1 Chino Cop	22⅞	22⅝	22⅞
607 Chrysler Motor	144⅛	139	140⅝
3 Chrysler M pr	A106⅛	106⅜	106⅝
10 Coca Cola	138⅛	138¼	138¼
2 Colo Fuel & Ir	39¼	39⅛	39⅛
27 Colo & South	68¾	65½	68¼
9 Col G & E	73	72⅛	72⅝
1 Colum Carbon	46	46	46
7 Congo Nairn	24¾	24¾	24¾
2 Consol Cigar	38½	38¼	38⅛
27 Consol Dist	4¼	4¼	4¼
4 Consol Gas	85¾	83¾	83¾
17 Consol Textil	3	2⅞	2⅞
8 Cont Can	74	73¼	73⅜
5 Cont Motores	9⅝	9¼	9¼
82 Corn Products	38⅝	35½	36⅜
128 Crucible Steel	75⅝	73½	75
7 Cuba Can Sug	9⅝	9¼	9⅜
20 Cu Cn Sug pr	43	41¾	43
4 Cub Am Sug	24½	24	24⅜
1 Cudahy Pack	96	96	96
3 Cuyamel Fr	52¾	52½	52⅝
19 Davison Ch	42½	41	41
1 Deere Co	104	104	104
2 Del & Hud	145	144⅝	144⅝
1 Del L & W	140	140	140
1 DRG&W pr ctf	44¼	44¼	44¼
3 Det Edison	130¾	130½	130½
33 Dodge Bros A	35	34½	34⅝
49 Dodge Bros pr	83½	83	83⅝
30 Dome Mines	15⅜	15	15⅜
1 Doug Pectin	21½	21½	21⅜
1 D S S & Ar pr	6¼	6¼	6¼
66 DuU de Nem	160⅞	157	160
1 DuP de N deb	101	101	101
3 Du Lt 1 pr	110¼	110	110¼
230 East Kodak	105½	105½	105½
30 Eaton Axle	25⅝	24⅝	24⅝
47 El Pow&Lt ctfs	32	31⅞	31½
3 El Pw&Lt pr cfs	90⅝	90¼	90⅜
1 El P&Lt 40 pr	105	105	105
2 El Stor Bat	64¾	64¾	64¾
3 Emer Br pr	25¾	25	25
3 Endic Johnson	69½	69½	69½
2 Erie R R	32¼	32¼	32¼
18 Erie 1 pr	41¼	40¾	40⅝
1 Erie 2 pr	30	30	30
1 Essex C Mills pr	98½	98½	98½
1 Exch Buf	15¼	15¼	15¼
37 Fam Play Las	105½	103¾	104⅝
2 Fed Lt & Tr	27⅞	27½	27½
1 Fed Mn&Smpr	58	58	58
16 Fisher By	83½	80⅝	81¼
76 Fisk Rub	22⅞	22	22⅛
5 Fisk Rub 1 pr	108	107¾	108
11 Fleischman Co	105½	105	105¼
185 Foundation Co.	140⅛	134½	138½
1 Franklin Sm pr	104¼	104¼	104¼
6 Freeport Texas	16	16	16
4 Gardner Motor	10⅜	9¾	10⅜
5 General Asphalt	53	52¼	52¼
4 Gen Asph pr	95	94	95
7 Gen Baking	177½	173	177¼
1 Gen Cigar	89¼	89¼	89¼
13 Gen Elec	324	320	324
2 Gen El Spl	11⅞	11¾	11⅞
69 Gen Mot	89¼	88	88⅝
12 Gen Pet xd	43⅝	43	43¼
10 Gen Ry Sig	366	355¼	360
1 Gen Ry Sig pr	100½	100½	100⅝
2 Gimbel Bros	56	56	56
7 Ginter Co	47½	46	47⅛
8 Glidden Co	21⅜	21¼	21⅜
2 Gold Dust	43⅝	42⅝	43⅝
36 Goodrich B F	55⅞	52⅜	54⅛
1 Goodrich BF pr	99½	99¼	99¼
3 Goodyr T&R pr	104½	103⅝	103⅞
2 Granby Min	17¼	17¼	17¼
3 Gt North p	73	73	73
6 Gt Nor IGI'rop	28	27⅝	27⅝
2 Gt West Sug	98	98	98
27 Gulf Mob&Nor	34⅞	33	34
12 Gulf Mo&N pr	104⅛	103½	103
4 Gulf Sts St	81¾	81	81¼
3 Hartman Corp	28	27¾	27¾
7 Hd ERL&P	114	223	223
2 Hayes Wheel	30	29	30
3 Helme G W Co	72	72	72
1 Household Prod	41⅞	41⅞	41⅛
1 Houston Oil	63½	63½	63½
3 Howe Sound Co	23⅞	23¾	23⅝
25 Hud & Man	37⅛	36	36½
1 Hud & Man pr	69½	69½	69½
62 Hudson Motors	63⅝	63⅜	63⅝
21 Hupp Motors	18½	18	18⅛
1 Ill Cent	115⅞	115⅞	115⅞
13 Ind O & G	25⅛	25	25
3 Ind Motors	23½	23⅛	23½
7 Inland Steel	42½	42	42
2 Int R T	26½	26½	26½
11 Int Ag Cor	14⅜	13⅞	14⅛
27 Int Bus Mach	147⅜	141	143⅜
11 Int Cement	70	68¼	70
18 Int Comb Eng	47¾	43⅝	47
15 Int Harv Co	124	123¼	123½
8 Int Mer Mar	8¼	8	8¼
1 Int Mer Mar pr	30½	30½	30½
125 Int Nickel	34⅝	32⅜	33⅛
20 Int Paper	68⅜	66⅝	68⅝
6 Int Pap 7 pr	92	90	91
2 Int Shoe	185	185	185
23 Int T & T	127	125	126½
2 Int Corp	21	20⅞	20⅞
1 Iron Prod	70	70	70
1 Jewell Tea pr	109¾	109¾	109¾
34 Jordan Mot	43	41¾	41⅝
11 Kan City Sou	37⅞	37½	37½
5 Kelly Spr	15⅜	15⅛	15⅝
2 Kelly Spr 8 pr	64	62	62¼
2 Kelsey Wheel	94	93	94
74 Ken Cop	55⅛	54⅛	54⅞
9 Keystone Tire	2¼	2¼	2¼
3 Kresge D Stor	25⅜	24⅞	25¼
1 Laclede Gas	156	156	156
2 Lee Rub & T	15¾	15¾	15¾
1 Lehigh Valley	78	78	78
6 Lig & My T B	65¼	65¼	65½
67 Lee&s Inc	34⅝	33½	34½
1 Loft Candy	71⅞	71¼	71¼
1 Long Bell Lu	47⅛	47½	47⅛
5 Lorillard Co	35⅞	35	35⅛
10 La & O Ref	14⅜	14	14
4 Louis & Nash	116⅛	116	116
2 Ludlum Steel	34¼	34⅛	34⅛
102 Mack Truck	219⅞	215	215¾
1 Mackay Cos	128	126	128
37 Macy R H Co	92¼	90½	92⅝
5 Magma Cop	41⅝	41½	41⅝
2 Mallison & Co	26⅜	25½	26¼
2 Manhat El Sup	51¾	51¾	51¾
3 Manh Rd m gtd	45¼	45	45⅛
7 Manh Shirt	27⅜	27½	27⅜
1 Mkt St Ry	8½	8½	8½
1 Mkt St Ry pr pr	47½	47½	47½
26 Marland Oil	41⅝	41½	41⅝
8 Martin Rockw	25⅞	24	24
12 Martin Parry	20½	19½	20¼
13 May Dp Stre	119½	118½	118½
1 McCr Stor pr	108½	108½	108½
6 Mclu Pore M	19	19	19⅛
2 Metro Gld prxd	21½	21½	21½
21 Mex Seab Oil	13¼	13⅞	13
2 Miami Cop	9⅞	9¾	9⅞
11 Mid Cont Pet	27¼	26¾	27⅛
11 Middle Sts Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
21 Mid Stl P pr	144⅞	140	140
4 Minn & St L	3⅜	2⅝	2⅞
58 Mo K & T	42¼	41½	42
11 Mo K & T pr	68⅛	67¾	67¾
17 Mo Pacific	38⅛	37¾	37¾
40 Mo Pac pr	86¼	85	85½
34 Mont Pow	86	86	86
25 Mont Ward	70¼	68⅝	69½
39 Moon Mot	33⅞	32½	32⅝
27 Mother Lode	5⅜	5⅛	5⅜
30 Motor Wheel	30½	29⅞	30⅛
1 Murray Bdy Cp	30¾	30¼	30¼
1 Nash Motors	100⅝	100⅝	100⅝
1 Nat Biscuit	71	71	71
1 Nat Clk& Su pr	101	101	101
72 Nt Dai Pr cfs	67½	65	66
2 Nat Dpt Strs	40⅜	40½	40⅜
1 Nat Dist Prd	33⅜	33½	33½
10 Nat En & St	38⅝	38	38
2 Nat Lead	157	156½	157
1 Nat Ry Mx 1 pr	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
3 Nat Ry Mx 2 pr	2¼	2	2¼
1 Nat Supply	58⅜	58⅜	58⅜
5 Nev Con Con	13¾	13¾	13¾
1 N Or &Tx&M	119½	119¾	119¾
3 N Y Air Br	48⅜	48⅜	48¼
1 N Y Canners	50½	50½	50½
64 N Y Cent	121	119⅝	120
2 N Y Ch & S L	130	130	130
2 N Y C & St L p	94	94	94
1 N Y Dock	32⅞	32½	32⅝
71 N Y N H & H	37⅜	36⅝	36⅝
3 N Y Ont & W	30½	30½	30½
1 N Y Rys pr	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜
2 N Y Ship Bldg	52¼	51½	51½
1 Norfolk Southn	40	40	40
18 Nor & West	124½	124	124⅛
122 North Am	58⅞	57⅝	58⅜
2 North Am pr	60	60	60
10 Northn Pac	70	69⅛	69⅜
1 Nunally Co	10½	10⅝	10⅝
1 Orpheum Col	41⅜	41⅜	41⅜
3 Orpheum Cir	30	29⅞	29⅞
1 Otis Elevator	135⅜	135⅝	135⅝
65 Otis Steel	14⅛	13¾	13⅞
10 Otis Steel pr	82	80⅞	80⅞
4 Owens Bottle	55⅝	55⅝	55⅝
31 Pac G & El	112⅛	111⅝	112⅛
24 Pac Oil	52	52⅜	52⅜
604 Pack Mot	38⅜	37⅛	38⅝
3 Pal Det Mot	21⅜	21	21⅛
1 Pan Am Pet	61	61	61
28 Pan Am Pet B	62⅛	61⅛	61⅛
1 Pan Pr & Ref	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
1 Panh pr	40	40	40
1 Pen C & Ck	14¼	14¼	14¼
36 Penn R R	47⅝	47⅝	47⅝
54 Penn Std Stl	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
1 Pere Marq prpr	82½	82½	82½
5 Phil Co	59¼	58⅞	59
11 Ph & Rd C&Ir	41⅜	41	41
100 Philip Mor&Co	25	23½	25
79 Phil Pet	38¾	38	38¼
2 Phoenix Hos	35	34	35
671 Pierce Ar	40⅝	37⅜	38⅞
55 Pierce Ar pr	89	89½	89⅜
1 Pierce Ar pr pr	200	200	200
6 Pierce Pet	5¾	5⅛	5⅛
1 Pitts Coal	42¾	42¾	42½
8 Pitts Tm Coal	45⅞	45⅝	45⅝
2 Pitts T Cal pr	85½	84½	85½
3 Pitts Util pr	14¾	14½	14⅝
54 Pitts & W Va	73¾	72¾	73¼
5 Postum Cereal	133¼	133⅛	133⅛
1 Pr Steel Car	55	55	55
5 Pr & Ref	13¼	13⅛	13⅛
2 P S Sl&G pr	97⅛	97¼	97⅝
48 Pub Ser N J	104⅛	104	104½
16 Pullman Co	141½	140⅝	140⅝
1 Pr Steel Car	55	55	55
3 Pr & Ref	13¼	13⅜	13¼
2 P S El & G pr	97⅝	97.	97⅜
48 Pub Ser N J	82⅛	80⅞	81
1 P S L & S F pr	91	91	91
31 St Lou Southw	57⅞	56½	57⅞
13 Savage Arms	67	65½	66⅞
8 Schulte R Sts.	103⅞	102⅝	103
114 Seab Air L	46¼	45¾	45
13 Seab Air L pr	49½	48⅝	49
21 Sears Roeb	211½	209¾	210⅞
4 Shat F G Co	81	80¼	79½
18 Sh Un Oil	27¾	27⅜	27⅝
3 Shell Un Oil pr	103	103	103
9 Simmons Co	48⅞	48¾	48⅞
26 Simms Petro	20¾	20¼	19⅞
12 Sinc Con Oil	18¾	18½	18⅜
8 Sinc Con Oil pr	91	90	90
4 Skelly Oil	23	22¾	23
17 Soc Pac xd dv	97⅝	97½	97⅞
10 Southn Ry	105⅝	105¼	105⅜
149 Sou Ry pr	93⅝	93½	93⅝
2 Spear & Co	14⅝	14⅜	14¼
2 Spear & Co pr	14½	14¼	14⅛
12 Spicer Mfg	30	29½	30
40 Std Gas&El	53½	52¾	53⅞
1 Std Mill pr	83	83	83
17 Std Oil Cal	53¾	53½	53¼
21 Std Oil N J	39¾	39½	39⅝
2 Std Oil N J pr	116¾	116½	116½
4 Std Pl Glass	5⅞	5⅝	5⅜
2 Sterling Prod	71	70¾	71
9 Stew War Spd	70	69	70
1 Stromb Carb	70½	70½	70½
74 Studebaker	47⅞	47⅛	47¼
28 Subm Boat	5	4	4⅛
2 Superior Oil	3½	3⅜	3½
1 Symington Co	14⅝	14⅝	14⅜
3 Syming A	21¾	21⅜	21⅜
140 Ten C & C	10½	10⅜	10⅜
23 Texas Co	67⅞	67½	67⅝
11 Tex Gulf S xd	110⅝	109½	109½
21 Tex & Pac	62⅝	62½	62½
2 Tex & PacC&O	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞
3 Tide Oil	31⅝	31⅞	31½
8 Tim Rol Bear	42¼	42¼	42¼
11 Tob Prod	93½	90⅝	91
33 Trans Oil	4	3⅞	3⅞
6 Und Type	45⅜	45½	45⅜
100 Un Bag&Pa	62¼	55½	61½
10 Un Oil Cal	34¼	33⅞	33⅞
13 Union Pac	143½	142⅞	143¼
1 Un Pac pr	77	77	77
212 U S Steel	121⅜	120⅝	120⅝
1 U S Steel pr	124½	124⅛	124⅜
52 Univ P & R	41½	39½	40
3 Un P & R pr	81	80	81
9 Vacadium C	29½	29½	29¼
17 Va Car Ch pr	10¼	9¾	9⅞
1 Va Car Ch B	⅞	⅞	⅞
17 Va Car Ch pr	10¼	9⅞	9⅞
48 Wabash Ry	46	45	46
21 Wabash pr A	71¼	71¼	71⅜
1 Waldorf Sys	15⅝	15⅛	15⅝
1 Ward Bak A	160	160	160
40 Ward Bak B	65⅛	64¼	65⅛
2 Warren Brs Co	48¾	48⅛	48⅛
Web & Heil	63	6..1⅜	63
8 Web & Heil pr	62	61½	62
1 W P P pr	N.107	107	107
6 West El pr	111	111	111
23 Wesmt Mary	17⅛	16⅝	16⅝
1 West Mary 2 pr	23⅝	23⅝	23⅝
71 West Pac	31	29⅞	28⅞
8 West Pac pr	75¼	75	75¼
40 West Un Tel	131	129¼	131
26 West A B	133	130⅝	133
105 West E & M	75⅞	74	75
6 West El In	18⅝	18	18⅛
2 West El In A	25⅝	25¼	25⅝
18 Wh & L E	21	20¼	20¼
8 White Eagle O	25⅛	25⅛	25⅛
152 White Mot Co	99

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

GALLO—In Norwich, Aug. 31, 1925, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bertolo of 59 Central avenue.

FLYNN—In Norwich, Aug. 28, 1925, a son, Burdette Peter, to Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Flynn.

WILL—In Westerly, R. I., Aug. 25, 1925, a son, Ralph William, Jr., to R. W. and Edith May Crandall Will.

CARLSON—In Westerly, R. I., Aug. 25, a daughter, Minnie, to Fred and Santa Strafole Ferraro.

HUBBARD—In Norwich, Aug. 30, 1925, a son, Robert Agnew, to Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hubbard.

LEWANDEWICZ—In Norwich, Aug. 28, 1925, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewandewicz.

YALE—In Meriden, a son Julius Robert Yale, Jr. and Mrs. David H. Yale (Amy Higgs, formerly of Putnam).

MARRIED

PARKER-DESNOYER—In Danielson, Aug. 31, 1925, by Rev. Joseph Desnoyer, Harry Parker, of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Aldama Desnoyer, of Danielson.

SULLIVAN-CURRAN—In this city, by the Rev. William Keefe, Maynard Sullivan and Ethel Curran, both of this city.

DIED

BLYDENBURGH—In Westerly, R. I., Aug. 30, 1925, Annie Blydenburgh, aged 85 years.

LEE—At Spring Lake, N. J., suddenly Aug. 29th, 1925, Charles Northam Lee, of Farmington, Conn., aged 76.

OTIS—In New Haven hospital, Aug. 31, 1925, Robert Beckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Otis, aged 17 years, 7 months.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

FUNERAL NOTICES

CHASE—Private funeral services for the late Canova Chase will be held Tuesday afternoon at his home in Elmville at 1.30 p. m.

LEE—In Needham, Mass, August 29, 1925, Calvin H. Lee, aged 75 years, formerly of Voluntown.

Funeral at his late home Tuesday at 11 a. m. Burial in Pachaug cemetery. Tuesday p. m. on arrival of 4.28 train at Jct. Masonic burial requested.

MELMSTROM—In Baltic, Aug. 31, 1925, Johanna Melmstrom, aged 72 years.

Funeral from the undertaking rooms of George G. Grant, Providence Street, Taftville, Wednesday, Sept. 2, at 2 p. m., p. s. t. Burial in Lovett cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere gratitude for all expressions of sympathy shown in many ways and for the wonderful floral tributes and many acts of kindness so lavishly bestowed, in our recent bereavement, in the loss of our dear sister, Miss Kate A. Thompson; also to express our heartfelt thanks to the staff at St. Joseph's hospital for the many acts of consideration extended during her illness. These evidences of love and sympathy shall ever remain engraved as our fondest memories.

Signed Brothers and Sisters,
MR. CHARLES THOMPSON,
MR. GEORGE THOMPSON,
MR. E. B. THOMPSON,
MISS EUDORA THOMPSON,
MRS. J. E. SCOTT,
MRS. A. L. MILLS.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
UNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
ENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
DANIELSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Special Attention to Every Detail

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290. Lady Assistant.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Sunday at the Plainfield ball grounds, ladies' gold watch with initial S. Finder notify Mrs. Wilfred Allard, Plainfield. septld

LOST—A bunch of keys in front of Barstow's Store. Reward if left at 53 Sixth St., Greeneville. aug31d

LOST—Black and tan dog, half Airedale, half police. Return to C. A. Pain, 342 Laurel Hill avenue. aug31d

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Middle aged man to look after our business in this territory. Pleasant position. Experience unnecessary. Fine proposition for retired merchants, and business men, or anyone looking for something reliable; on spare or full time basis. Oakland Nurseries, Manchester, Ct. septld

CAPABLE, ENERGETIC MAN needed for factory representative to handle our business in Norwich district; wonderful opportunity with future for right person. Experience or capital unnecessary. Write fully. Vulcan Mfg. Co., Battle Creek, Mich. septld

WANTED—10 men unloading coal. Call at E. S. Fitnishing Co. this morning 7 o'clock. A. Siegel. sept1-1

SALES MANAGER, EXPERIENCED organizer, represent manufacturer new specialty; every merchant prospect. Unlimited demand and money-making possibilities. Exclusive territory. Small investment. $2,000 to $3,000 and references required. Those qualified write General Manager, Room 1602, 110 West 40th St., New York. aug.5d

Water! Water!! Water!!!

Do not have your well drilled until you see Trask. We have machine at North Stonington.

TRASK ARTESIAN WELL CO.
Portsmouth, R. I.

WANTED—Female

DRESSMAKERS-MODISTES—By communicating with The Handy Shop, Inc., 1124 Main street, Bridgeport, Conn., a unique plan involving absolutely no investment, by which you can greatly increase your clientele and profits, will be explained. septld

WANTED—By an Academy girl, place as mother's helper for board. Phone 1862-4. septld

WANTED—Housekeeper, Protestant, by widower, 3 in family, no washing, references, one who prefers a home with fair pay than high wages, middle aged. Chas. A. Gray, R. D. 1, Norwich, Conn. septld

WANTED—Experienced sales ladies for steady positions. Good salary. Ideal Cotton Stores, 119 Main St. septld

WANTED—Competent maid for general house work. References required. Tel. 2228 for appointment. aug31d

WANTED—Woman of middle age for general work about house. Apply to the Windham County Temporary Home for Children, Putnam, Conn. Tel. 120. aug29d

WANTED—Woman for general housework to go out of town. Phone 2636d aug29d

HOUSEKEEPER wanted in family of two. Inquire Lock Box No. 7, Central Village, Conn. aug26d

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 103 Franklin St. Phone 553. septld

WANTED—Antiques, tools and second hand furniture. H. B. Tiger, 48-50 Water St. Tel. 2143. septld

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward, 16 Water St., Tel. 34 septld

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 22 Market St. Phone 2158. septld

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves; highest prices paid. Call 1405, septld

WANTED—Good work horse. Weight about 1200 lbs. N. E. Whiting. Tel. septld

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 339, Norwich. Phone 361-12. Norwich; 506, Willimantic. TuThSmay15

GET PAY EVERY DAY: Distribute 150 necessary products to established users. Extracts, Soaps, Food Products, etc. World's largest Co., will back you with surprising plan. Write J. R. Watkins Co., Dept. J-7, Boston, Mass. aug24d

Would like to take small child to board in private family. C. D. care Bulletin Office. aug29d

WANTED—Position by teacher. References. Write Box D27 Bulletin. aug29d

WANTED—Family and fancy washings to do at home. 57 Dunham St. aug28d

WANTED—The public to know that the Norwich Town cider mill is open for business. W. D. Thatcher, 43 Tanner St., Norwich Town. aug26d

A boy in Lebanon sez he don't believe that sayin' "eat an apple a day to keep the doctor away"; he says he et 12 green ones and the doctor came everyday. Van Der Meer Mild cigars, 3 for 20c. Helmar cigarettes, 20 for 20c, a 50c pipe and 16 oz. tin of Tuxedo, all for $1.00. Fagan's Smoke Shop. aug24d

WANTED—Land on state road with or without buildings. Unimproved property will be considered if price is reasonable. Apply to A. C. Burdick, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug31dtf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. nov27d

FLORIDA PROPERTY WANTED—Acreage Lots, Etc., direct from owner; give location, description, lowest price, terms; quick transaction. P. O. Box 354, Springfield, Mass. jy22dtf

WANTED—Property owners to know that under my new real estate system I will buy your property direct or will sell for you on a commission basis. For particulars write Wm. M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg Jewett City. june2d

WANTED!

Watches, Wrist Watches, Clocks of any makes; also all kinds of Jewelry to repair. Work guaranteed and done at once at the lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Write or telephone 2146.

OGULNICK JEWELRY CO.
77 Franklin St., Norwich, Conn.
(Est. 1907.)

FOR SALE—Horses

FOR SALE—Black horse, weighs 1100, good farm horse, also one carriage, good order and driving harness. Frank A. Krug, Preston City. Phone 1666-13. septld

FOR SALE—Good work horse, six years old, 1300 lbs., dark iron grey. Tel. Will, 1036-3 W. F. Jewett, Hampton, Conn. aug30d

Business Notices.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist, Foot Specialist (protect your feet). Suite 7-8, Alice Bldg., 331 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Phone 725. nov21d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—A very fine Hallett & Davis piano in perfect condition; will sell very reasonable. Also several talking machines of leading makes, at half price. Easy terms if desired. Schwartz Bros., Inc. 76-82 Main St., Norwich. ThSatTuneJl

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, gladiolus, asters, straw flowers, dahlias, etc., 50c bunch. 99 Oneco St., Phone 1483-3. aug26d

FOR SALE
MODERN TWO-APARTMENT HOUSE
With Two-Car Garage; desirably located on Laurel Hill Ave., within five minutes walk from Franklin Square.
For Further Particulars Inquire Of
JOHN A. MORAN
Real Estate Broker

FOR SALE
THE NEW TONGREN 7-ROOM COTTAGE, No. 3 JULIAN ST.
Modern and complete in every way.
Large One-car Garage.
Inspection Invited.
James L. Case
REAL ESTATE DEPT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

PRUDENCE BONDS ARE GUARANTEED
as to the full payment of both interest and principal.
They are also secured by First Mortgage on Income Paying Real Estate.
They pay 5½% and 6% interest semi-annually.
Write for Descriptive Circular.
James L. Case
INVESTMENT BROKER
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE.
Eight-room house and garage for two cars, delightfully located on Lincoln Avenue. For information inquire of Thos. H. Beckley
Exclusive Agent.
278 MAIN STREET PHONES

FOR SALE.
Six-room Cottage, all improvements, at 80 Warren street. Low price for immediate sale.
J. A. CUNNINGHAM
THAYER BUILDING.

FOR SALE.
(1) Two-apartment House on Rock St.; (1) Two-apartment House on North Main St.; (1) Two-apartment House on Elizabeth St.; Cottage House of seven rooms on West Town St.
J. K. Panek, Agent.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Room 301-302 Disco Building.
Tel. 2746.

FOR SALE.
AT A SACRIFICE.
ATTRACTIVE BUNGALOW
Six rooms, bath and garage, large lot, modern in every way. Also complete house furnishings. Owner leaving town; will make sacrifice for quick sale. Apply to L. J. BRUETTE, 55 River Avenue.

ONE OF THE BEST:
40-acres, 3-4 mile from village and state road, 10-room house, hardwood floors, open fireplaces, large veranda, also small cottage, barn, 4 poultry houses, buildings extra good, smooth land, excellent trout brook, fruit and wood. Price only $6000—$2000 cash.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—A 1923 Chevrolet, all in first class condition. Can be bought very reasonable. Inquire at 30 Winchester St. septld

FOR SALE—1 Essex touring A-1 condition, see it at the Commercial Garage, price reasonable. septld

FOR SALE or exchange, 1924 Maxwell coach, 1923 Hupp sedan, 1924 Dodge sedan, 2, 1924 Ford coupes, 4, 1924 Ford tourings, 1923 Buick coupe. The above cars are in fine condition and at the right price. Open evenings until 8 o'clock. Small down payment. Balance in 16 months. 62 Shetucket St. septld

FOR SALE—New 1925 Jewett coach, won in contest. Henry Leach, Wauregan, Conn. septld

FOR SALE—Reo touring car, 1921 model good condition. $300. Call 461-2. aug31d

FOR SALE—Jordan touring car (1923 model). Fine condition. Owner leaving city. Address, Box 1923, Bulletin Office. aug24d

ADAMS TAVERN GARAGE—1923 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford touring; 1924 Dodge sedan; 1923 Anderson sedan; 1924 Overland touring; 1923 Buick sedan; 1919 Cadillac coupe; 1919 Cadillac phaeton; 1921 Studebaker small six; 1920 Ford roadster; 1926 Ford sedan, 1924 Ace motorcycle and side car; 1924 Chevrolet roadster; 1923 Overland touring. Open evenings. Cash or terms. aug27d

FOR SALE—Harley-Davidson and Excelsior motorcycles and side cars. $35 to $150. James P. Donovan, 25 West Main St. Phone 770. aug24d

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Crawford range, kitchen chairs, day bed. Phone 2482, 23 Hedge Avenue. septld

FOR SALE—Fairbanks gasoline engine, seven horse power, in good condition $75.00. Emel Deshefy. Tel. 1572-4. septld

FOR SALE—Parlor stove, crib, chair, art square, 531 Main St. septld

FOR SALE—Store, soda, restaurant or tobacco, only restaurant in town, $3.00-00 soda fountain, $1,000 player piano, candy show cases, a complete equipment and stock. Write Store, Bulletin Office. septld

FOR SALE—3 tenement house and garage, with improvements, big lot. 21 Ripley Place. Call after 5 p. m., 70 Boswell avenue. septld

FOR SALE—A good family cow. Guernsey. J. H. Milligan, Danielson, Ct. Tel. 230. septld

CHEAPER, BETTER COAL, available by order Interstate Commerce Commission. New River and Pocahontas. Write for free book. Smokeless Fuel Company. Charleston, W. Va. septld

FOR SALE—Vermont cows, new milch and springers. Fred W. Hoxie, North Franklin. Tel 53-3 Lebanon. aug31d

FOR SALE—Team wagon. Good condition. Silo cutter, 8 horse power. Joe Kominski, R. F. D., Norwich. aug31d

MISS BUYS FISCHER—Another good 5 and C. Fischer upright piano offered at an attractively low price. In excellent condition. Terms as desired. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug31d

PLAYER PIANO $295—Well known Kramer player with mahogany case. A value you cannot duplicate. Small deposit delivers it. Other good used players. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St. Norwich. aug31d

HOFFMAN PIANO $70—A great value in this good make. Easy weekly terms, no interest. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug24d

FOR SALE—Player piano. 15 Bushnell Place. Call evenings. aug31d

FOR SALE—Sand, gravel, stone and loam. O. H. Main. Phone 489. eodtf

FOR SALE—Silo filler. Raymond Stalker, North Windham, Conn. aug25d

FOR SALE—Nine-room house and garage at a low price; in best part of Norwich. Immediate possession. Phone 1431. jel1d

POLICE PUPPIES—Highly pedigreed; ideal farm dogs, playmates for children; come visit the largest German Shepherd Dog Kennels in the world. Phone or write. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly, Conn. julddtf

STOVE PARTS for all makes of stoves we are the best equipped place for stove parts in New London. B. Kaplan, 90 Bank St. feb18d

FOR SALE—No. one Green Mountain potatoes, any amount, $1.50 per bushel at the farm. Put in order early so I can dig them. Amos N. Main, R. D. 1, Norwich. Phone 1852-22. aug25d

VICTROLAS HALF PRICE—Brand new, fully guaranteed. When these are gone there will be no more. Don't delay. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug25d

FOR SALE—A newly built 6-room bungalow, in Jewett City. Price $8,000. William M. McNicol, Maynard Block, Jewett City. tfaug23d

FOR SALE—Farm of 100 acres; 12-room house; good barns with or without stock and farming implements. Also, 5-room cottage with 2 acres. Lot at Groton Long Point. No phone calls. Inquire Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, South Windham, Conn. tfaug18d

PALISADE POLICE DOGS are a special strain of pedigreed dogs, highly developed for the all-around purposes of house guards, automobile companions, children's playmates, women's protectors and men's pals; as German Shepherd dogs they are especially suited for farm, cattle drivers and sheep herders. Exclusively bred by the world's largest Police Dog Kennels. Four miles from Danielson, near Providence pike. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly, Conn. aug1dtf

FOR SALE—A small farm with good buildings and about 20 acres of land on state road, near Norwich. This property is in a class which is in much demand at present and will no doubt change ownership within the next few days. Investigate at once if interested in a very desirable country home. A. C. Burdick, Real Estate Broker, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug1d

FOR SALE—A 9-room house, garage, hen house and garden, near car line, also house lot near Backus Hospital, for every 15 minutes; and 6-room summer cottage at Lord's Point; all furnished. Adams Tavern, Phone 1062-3. jy23dtf

FOR SALE
The dwelling house, 2 barns, various useful out-buildings and 13 acres of good land known as the Martin Place and is located in Lebanon Center on the highway from Lebanon Village to Willimantic. The house is on a picturesque site and has a beautiful and extensive view of the surrounding country and is about two miles from Willimantic and eleven miles from Norwich over good roads. The property is in a good neighborhood convenient to churches, district and high schools. The property is regarded by all persons as a very attractive and charming home place. The price is low and terms of payment will be made convenient to buyer. For all information apply to
WILLIAM H. SHIELDS of Norwich.
Or To
GEORGE E. MARTIN,
Lebanon Center, Conn.

FOR SALE
BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME
In finest residential section: 8 rooms, all latest improvements. Tiled bath superb floors, extra toilet and lavatory, large sun room. House has many novel and up-to-date features seldom seen in homes costing under $25,000. Price most reasonable for such a fine residence.
Archa W. Coit
Telephone 2288-5. Disco Building.

FARM FOR SALE.
The Farm of the late Elizabeth McCarthy, located in Town of Franklin, on the Baltic road, and two miles from Baltic Village, consisting of about 60 acres good land, well divided. There is a wood lot of 10 acres, good six-room house, two barns, garage, henhouse, and about 75 fruit trees mostly bearing. This farm is ideally located and on good road and near to industries. Can give immediate possession. For price and particulars inquire
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block, Norwich.
Phone.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Garage. Inquire at 17 Spruce St. septld

TO RENT—Nicely furnished apartment of seven rooms. Near Chelsea Parade. Write Box C-70, Bulletin. septld

TO RENT—Furnished house in fine location, modern. Address M. J. K., Bulletin Office. septld

TO RENT—Apartment of six or seven rooms just refinished, steam heat, bath, electric lights, located on car line. Inquire of Grace E. Parkhurst. Phone 1460. 57 Cliff St. sept1

TO RENT—Five room flat at 5 Grove street. For particulars, Phone 216-13. septld

TO RENT—Tenement of 4 rooms with all improvements at 52 Union street. septld

TO RENT—Very attractive three room flat; all improvements, steam heat. Inquire 259 West Main St., mornings. aug31d

TO RENT—One light housekeeping room, 4 furnished room. 41 Boswell ave. Tel. 142. aug31d

TO RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. 75 School St. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement with all modern improvements. Cheap rent, address Box A-100 this office. aug31d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. All improvements. Located in Thamesville. Tel. 477-2. aug31d

FOR RENT—Newly furnished rooms. Central location, reasonable. B. V. M. Bulletin. aug31d

FOR RENT—Brand new 5 room flat, with bath, hard wood floors, gas and electric light. Located 430 East Main St., Price $25. Inquire A. V. Covello, 198 Cliff St., Tel 1093-3. aug31d

TO RENT—Five room flat, with all improvements. $25 a month. 107 Washington St. Inquire after 5 p. m. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement in new building. Five rooms and bath, with garage. Apply A. Tezanch, Roosevelt avenue. aug31d

TO RENT—7 room apartment on Raymond Place. tfmar26d

TO RENT—Tenement, six rooms 293 Laurel Hill avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Three room tenement. Inquire 27 McKinley avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Oct. 1, to family of adults, 7 room cottage, modern improvements. 21 Oak St., Call 1484, 7 to 9 p. m. aug27d

TO RENT—Steam heated, 6 room apartment at 75 Washington St., all modern, rent reasonable. Phone 1133-12. aug26d

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping; private bath and private entrance. Tel. 1241-2. tfaug25d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all improvements; also hard wood floors; 330 Franklin St. Inquire 324 Franklin St. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Three or four rooms, not furnished; also garage. 168 Laurel Hill Ave. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Two or three furnished rooms, light housekeeping. Phone 1860. tfaug18d

TO RENT—At 49 Washington St., a 5-room apartment. Inquire Gilbert Bowers, 130 Washington St. Phone 1132-2. aug12dtf

TO RENT—Apartments furnished for light housekeeping; all modern improvements. 27 Division St. aug12dtf

TO RENT—12-room apartment, 48 Church St. Inquire Charles W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. je26tf

TO RENT—Attractive 8-room cottage with garage; modern. Phone 259. jy22dtf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all conveniences; garden, fruit and garage; near school. Phone mornings, 1463. aug4d

TO RENT—Five-story brick building, with freight elevator, suitable for wholesale business or storage. Tel. 1495. aug2d

TO RENT—If a desirable and permanent home is wanted, 7-room apartment in the Steiner Mansion, 77 Church St., or one at 172 Broadway. Rent reasonable. aug1dtf

TO RENT—Tenements, all improvements. 44 Laurel Hill Ave. jy30dtf

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, including heat; with or without garage. Inquire 210 West Main St. from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. jul11tf

TO RENT—Tenements in Greeneville and Franklyn St. Inquire at Goldblatt's Shoe Store, 46 Franklin St. Phone 717-4 may26d

For Rent

From Oct. 1st, 12-room house, 262 Washington street, north of Chelsea Parade. The most desirable residential section in Norwich. All improvements and in first class condition. May be seen by appointment. Tel. 1104

TO RENT

The Thompson Flats, Nos. 48 and 50 Otis St., are now ready for occupancy
Call on or Phone
JOHN F. CRANEY
Real Estate and Insurance
Phones 321 & 621-13 331 Main St.

AUCTION

AUCTION NOTICE
By order of the owner we will sell at public sale on the premises at 54 So. Main St., Danielson, Conn., on Saturday, Sept. 5, at 10 o'clock a. m., D. S. T., the entire stock of dry goods, groceries, canned goods, hardware, preserve jars, show cases, peanut roaster, scales, cash register, paper press, electric fan, etc., in one lot if possible, otherwise in lots to suit the purchasing. Witter Bros., Auctioneers, Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Conn.

LEGAL NOTICE

DISTRICT OF STONINGTON, ss. Court of Probate, August 21st, 1925.

Estate of SARAH M. DAVIS, of Pawcatuck in said district, incapable person. The conservator having applied for an order authorizing and empowering her to sell certain real estate belonging to said incapable person, being an undivided one sixth of that certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon lying and situated in the towns of Preston and Norwich and bounded and described as per application on file fully appears;

Ordered, that the 8th day of Sept., 1925, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the court of probate in Pawcatuck be and the same is assigned for a hearing on the foregoing application, and this court directs the conservator to cite all persons interested therein to appear at said time and place, by publishing the order of notice one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said district in the town of Stonington, at least five days before said day of hearing and return make to this court of the notice given.

FRANK H. HINCKLEY, Judge

Business Notices.

CIGARS

Whitestone Cigars are $70 per thousand. J. F. DUVANT 31 Franklin St.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OLD CARS BOUGHT in any condition. HODES BROS.
Corner West Main and Mt. Pleasant
Telephone 1391
Automobile parts at one-half price apr29d

— STAR GARAGE —
Plainfield
Used Cars Bought and Sold
CHAS. LAVALLEY
Phone 196 Moosup Div

Lumis and Bennett
191 North Main St.
General Auto Repairing
All Work Done by Expert Mechanic. Phone 646.

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.

Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
807 TO 815 NORTH MAIN STREET

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard sawed wood. Tel 489. jy25dtf

WOOD—Best quality hard wood and slabs. Tel. 615-4. H. E. Beard & Son. jan31d

COAL, SEASONED WOOD and kindlings delivered anywhere, 4 baskets for $1.00. Phone 728. Park Wood Yard, 301 Franklin St. 32d

COAL. Seasoned Wood and Kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1343-4. R. Shapiro, Willow St. nov23d

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

IVAR JOHNSON
Carpenter and Contractor. Floor laying and surfacing a specialty. Old floors resurfaced like new. Estimates given. Phone 1162-2. aug27d

AMBROSE SULLIVAN
Telephone 2308-5
We give estimates on
Concrete Foundations and Cellars

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

FOUNDRY

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
—Also—
Pattern Making and Machine Work.
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity.
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.
NEW LONDON, CONN.
Tel. 1120.

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
28 Shetucket Street
Insurance of All Kinds

MACHINISTS

M. A. BARBER
Machinist and Engineer
Steam Engine Repairs

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

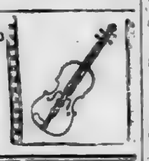
Business Notices.

MUSIC.

CLASSICAL PIANO
Students: Why be tied to the strict-note-reading? The ability to play Unwritten Music will increase your popularity. Taught only at WATERMAN STUDIOS: 149 Broadway, 24 Fairmount, 48 Providence. Tel. Connection. Results Guaranteed.

FRANK DRAGO
Teacher of Violin
of Hartford, Conn.
Will teach in Norwich on Thursday and Friday of each week, beginning Sept. 3d.
Studios: Room 213
93 Windsor Ave. Disco Bldg.
Hartford, Conn. Norwich, Conn.

ERNEST E. BULLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend



MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 58 Franklin Street.

PAINTING AND PAPERHANGING

GENERAL PAINTING and Paperhanging. Phone 2388-13. D. Kudilik. je21d

GEORGE NADOLNY, painting, paperhanging; estimates given. 49 Maple St. Tel. dec29d

TRANSPORTATION

LONG ISLAND SOUND DAY and NIGHT SERVICE
Round Trip Fare $4.00
Via New London Line
Except Sun. & Mon. Daily
Lv. New London 9:00 A.M. 10:00 P.M.
Due New York 4:30 P.M. 6:00 A.M.
Special Midnight and Daylight Trips from New York
(Eastern Standard Time)
Popular One Day Outings
Table D'hote Meal Service
Music and Dancing on Day Trips
Reduced Rates on Automobiles
The New England S. S. Co.

TRUCKING

BROADWAY TRANSFER
Transfers Everything
1357-2—PHONE—377-23
Long Distance Moving and Expressing
Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.
C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main Street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3
LONG DISTANCE TRUCKING. Very low rates. R. Blinderman. Phone 1342. tfapr6d
Established 1874 Telephone 178
ARTHUR H. LATHROP
Auto Trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2c to $5 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. E. McClenathan, Mgr. aug1d

KEEN KUTTER SAFETY RAZORS
Regular $1.00
While They Last, 35c

The HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Building 74 Franklin St.
Telephone 531-4
Bulletin Building, 74 Franklin Street

BULGARIAN OFFICIAL SECURED PROOF OF ROBBER BAND'S WORK

VRASTA, Bulgaria, Aug. 31—(AP)—Minister of Justice Boboshevski recently visited the Vrasta district to assure residents that their complaints of the activities of bandits were unjustified. Summer visitors had been kept away from the district, it was alleged, by reports that the district was overrun with bandits.

Returning to Sofia the minister of justice and his party were attacked by a band headed by Ivan Atanassoff, a former school teacher. The militia went to the aid of the official party, seriously wounded Atanassoff and killed the members of his band.

Many a man who is cramped for time in this world may have it to burn in the next.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WNAC—Shepard Stores, Boston—476.
1 P. M.—Shepard Colonial concert orchestra.
4 P. M.—Broadcast from Copley-Plaza Hotel, Copley-Plaza Trio.
6:30 P. M.—WNAC dinner dance broadcast from Shepard Colonial restaurant.
7:35 P. M.—Road Conditions, D. S. Hickey, Boston Motor Club.
8 P. M.—Talk under the auspices of the Boston Evening American.
8 P. M.—Boston Evening American orchestra, direction William F. Dodge.

WEEI—Edison Light, Boston—348.6
7:20 P. M.—Musicale.
8 P. M.—WEAF program (3 hrs.)

WBZ—Springfield—333.3
7 P. M.—Hotel ensemble, scores.
9 P. M.—Mme. Eugenie Tessier, blind soprano.
9:40 P. M.—Concert.
10 P. M.—Brunswick orchestra.

WJAR—Providence—305.9
1:05 P. M.—Orchestra, under the direction of Erwin White.
7:30 P. M.—Baseball scores.
7:45 P. M.—Miss Mabel Woolsey in the first of a series.
8 P. M.—Donald MacDonald, tenor solo.
8:15 P. M.—Musical program.
8:30 P. M.—Gold and Dusty, relayed from New York City.
9 P. M.—Eveready Hour.

WCTS—Worcester—268
12 M. to 2 P. M.—Noon day luncheon music by the WCTS Trio, under the direction of Mr. Benny Resh and broadcast direct from the Sherger restaurant.
5:15 P. M.—The TwinKle-Twinkle Story teller.
5:30 P. M.—Baseball scores.
SILENT NIGHT.

WTIC—Hartford—475.9
7 P. M.—Travelers' Jongleurs.
8:30 P. M.—Organ recital; ensemble.
9:10 P. M.—Violinist.
9:35 P. M.—Dance music.

WNAF—So. Darthmouth—440.6
6 P. M.—Vincent Sorey's concert orchestra.
7 P. M.—Meyer Davis' orchestra.
8 P. M.—Paul Gallico, synthetic prize fight.
8:10 P. M.—Myrtle Wagner Whitt, The Oklahoma Nightingale.
8:20 P. M.—William Robinson, Voice from the South.
8:30 P. M.—Spanish program, under direction Professor Perez de Vega.
9:30 P. M.—Lony Lyman, concert pianist.
9:40 P. M.—Louis John Johnen, baritone.
9:50 P. M.—Lony Lyman.
10 P. M.—Louis John Johnen.
10:10 P. M.—Lony Lyman.
10:20 P. M.—Louis John Johnen

BULGARIA ISSUES WARNING AGAINST JEWISH HATRED

SOFIA, Aug. 31—(AP)—Gen. Rousseff, minister of the interior, recently issued a warning against demonstrations of hatred toward Jews in Bulgaria, while addressing the Democratic Union, the group of parties in power.

"The government and the citizenship of Bulgaria are greatly disturbed by any display of hatred and persecution against Jews in Bulgaria," said General Rousseff.

"All governments in the past have regarded Jews as good Bulgarian citizens, because our Jews by no manner have shown that they are less devoted to the country than other citizens. The indications, here and there, of anti-Jewish sentiment must be ascribed to a weak sense of patriotism and the absence of a realization of duty to the state.

"On the first demonstration of such a sentiment the minister of the interior has arranged to have vigorous steps taken against the guilty persons. I beg all Jews who are citizens of Bulgaria to communicate such movements to the authorities in order that we may perform our full duty."

BERLIN SURGEONS CLASH OVER OPPOSING THEORIES

BERLIN, Aug. 31—(AP)—Prof. August Bier, the eminent Berlin surgeon who performed the operations of the late resident Ebert and Hugo Stinnes, has stirred up the allopathic fraternity by not only saying a few kind words for homeopathy, but also publishing his personal successes with the homeopathic treatment.

At the last meeting of the Medical Society, Prof. Bier was subjected to a scathing criticism. One member declared: "It is nothing less than unethical for Prof. Bier to champion the cause of homeopathy." Another asserted: "Homeopathy is wrong because its adherents regard it as a system rather than a science. It is therefore to be condemned as a system." Prof. Bier, unperturbed, replied to these and other reproaches with the statement that this problem could only be solved by means of continuous experiments. He declared that after a careful study of the works of Samuel Hahnemann, the originator of homeopathy, he had come to the conclusion that from these text books the greatest wisdom as well as the uttermost nonsense was to be gleaned.

DIGGING BEGUN TO REVEAL SWEDISH POMPEII SECRET

CALMAR, Sweden, Aug. 31—(AP)—Work has been commenced in excavating the Swedish Pompeii, an ancient circular city site from the early iron age, with nine gates and foundations for 92 houses. It is in the center of the island of Oeland. The work is under the supervision of Marten Stenberger, an archeologist, and an appropriation for the expense has been made by the Swedish Tourist Association.

The existence of this old fortified retreat, Jaimantorp, has been known for generations, but practically nothing has been done until this year to determine what the ruins conceal.

The circular outer wall, formed of magnificent limestone blocks, joined with admirable skill without the use of motor, is about 1,200 feet long, 13 feet high and 18 feet thick. It is not likely Prof. Stenberger believes that the wall was ever much higher than it is today.

BRITISH MONEY MAKERS BEST COIN CRAFTSMEN

LONDON, Aug 31—(AP)—The claim is made that the British mint on Tower Hill, where all the British and many of the

FAIR AND COOLER TODAY AND TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1795 1925

NORWICH, CONN. TUESDAY, SEPT. 1, 1925

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich Tuesday, Sept. 1, 1925

THE WEATHER

Conditions

The disturbance that was central over western Quebec Sunday night has moved eastward to the lower Saint Lawrence valley and it has been attended by scattered thundershowers in the lower lake region. The temperature continued to rise Monday in the Atlantic states.

The indications are for mostly fair weather Tuesday and Wednesday in the Washington forecast district. The temperature will be slightly lower Tuesday in the middle Atlantic and north Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Moderate west and northwest and fair weather Tuesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Moderate northwest and generally fair weather Tuesday.

Forecast

For southern New England:—Fair Tuesday and Wednesday, somewhat cooler Tuesday, except on the southeast coast.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Monday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	69	30.10
12 m.	80	30.09
6 p. m.	173	30.10

Highest 85, lowest 64.

Comparisons

Predictions for Monday: Partly cloudy, warmer, probably scattered thundershowers.

Monday's weather: Generally fair and much warmer.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES
(Standard Time)

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
31	5.12	6.24	7.32	2.16
1	5.14	6.22	8.24	3.29
2	5.16	6.21	9.16	rises
3	5.16	6.19	10.05	7.12
4	5.17	6.17	10.54	7.41
5	5.18	6.16	11.46	8.15
6	5.19	6.15	12.34	8.47

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dugas of South A street have returned from a month's automobile trip to points of interest in the Provinces of Quebec, Canada, and New York state.

Miss Belle Grant, R. N. of the Old Canterbury Turnpike is spending two weeks at York Beach, Maine, as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Morrow of North Andover, Mass.

George Beardow, Miss Anna Beardow of Providence street and their niece, Miss Anna M. Morse of Newark, N. J. have returned from a two weeks automobile trip to Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands and Ausable Chasm, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lambert of North B street were in Plainfield recently the guest of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emile J. Dubeau and family.

Mr. and and Mrs. Albert J. Abers and children, Dorothy, Lewis and Harold of North A street are at Block Island, R. I. for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Tracy Clark and son have returned to their home on North Third avenue after spending a few days with friends in New Bedford, Mass.

Miss Gertrude M. Young of North Third avenue has returned from a girl's camp in New Hampshire, where she has been one of the supervisors during the past summer.

Edson H. Hartford of North B street is spending this week at his home in Dover, N. H.

Professor Adolph Dugas of Webster, Mass., has been a recent guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Prime Dugas and family of South Second avenue.

John Seidel of Providence street is enjoying his annual vacation.

Henry Roy, a former Taftville resident and now a member of the police force of Pawtucket, R. I., has returned to his home in that city after a few days stay with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Roy and family of Merchants avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Heselton and children Kendall and Revella of North B street are spending this week with relatives in Baltonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hormidas Benoit moved Monday from North Fourth avenue to Athol, Mass.

Miss Margaret McMillan who has been spending several days with relatives in town has returned to her home in [illegible], R. I.

[illegible] William J. McNally, [illegible] and Miss Majorie [illegible] Third avenue have [illegible]ter's Island, N. Y., [illegible] been vacationing for [illegible] past two weeks.

Miss Elsie Nicholas of New Bedford, Mass., is the guest of Mr. Annie Doetch of Mannerchor avenue.

Mrs. William H. Nolan and her daughter Miss Mary Nolan of Providence street are spending a few days with relatives in Fall River, Mass.

Emile Plante of the Ponemah house has left town to make his home in Three Rivers, Mass.

Ulric Pepin of North A street is enjoying a vacation trip to Canada.

Horedare Fregeau of Danielson spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fregeau of Providence street.

Miss Mary Murphy of South A street is the guest of friends in Holyoke, Mass.

Miss Margaret Hasler of Providence street has returned from New Orleans, La., where she has been spending the past several weeks with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown. Her sister, Miss Katherine Hasler who is also in New Orleans, will remain there for a longer stay.

Alexander Miller of South Second avenue has returned from a few weeks stay in Greenville, R. I., and Attleboro, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gero and family have returned from a two weeks' motor trip to Niagara Falls, Detroit, and Bay City, Michigan.

Miss Blanche Gaucher has returned after spending five weeks with relatives in Woonsocket, R. I.

BRINGS SUIT ON CLAIM FOR $4,500

Edward Krause of Norwich has brought suit on a claim for $4,500 on the common counts against Mary Krause, Bertha and John Pickering, all of Norwich. The suit has been filed in the superior court and is returnable in September.

RHEUMATISM

Rheuma has relieved the agonizing rheumatic pains of thousands who thought nothing would give relief. It should do as much for you. Lee & Osgood and good druggists everywhere sell Rheuma, on the no-cure-no-pay plan.

POLICE WORK IN AUGUST BROUGHT LARGE RETURNS TO CITY COURT

August showed large figures in a number of arrests on the blotter at Norwich police headquarters, where the total arrests numbered 156. This total, which was so much more than the ordinary figure for a month, had a material contribution in the police activity in enforcing parking regulations in the city. There were 53 names which appeared on the blotter for violation of city ordinances as applied to automobiles. Forty eight of these persons had their cases nolled on payment of $5, which brought $240 into the treasury of the city court. Three liquor violation cases in each of which a fine of $200 and costs was imposed added over $600 more to the treasury and one automobile driver paid a fine of $200 and costs for driving a car while he was intoxicated. There were 60 arrests for intoxication and breach of the peace, these paying on an average at least $5 and costs, amounting to $13.50, so that the court receipts for the month would run well up towards $2.000.

The August arrests were for the following causes:

Violation of city ordinance 58, intoxication 41, breach of peace 19, theft 10, violation of liquor law 3, violation of motor vehicle law 14, embezzlement 1, burglary 2, keeping gambling house, 1, frequenting gambling house 4, violation of pure food law, trespass, non-support, indecent exposure, and obtaining money by false pretenses, one each.

Quiet for Fire Department.

The month of August was a light one for the fire department which was called out only 18 times. Twelve of the calls were telephone calls and the other was an oral call. There were no bell alarms for the month.

Reservoirs Dropping

August gave a rainfall of only 1.15 inches, which is far below the average for August, and in consequence the two reservoirs dropped during the month. When measured last Friday, Stony Brook was 9 feet 1 inch down from full pond and Fairview on Monday was 5 feet 7 inches down from full pond.

SANITARY CODE FOR CONNECTICUT REVISED

The code for the general regulation of sanitary conditions in the state has been revised to date by Dr. Stanley H. Osborn, state health commissioner, in accordance with statutes adopted by the 1925 general assembly and regulations passed by the state health council.

The new regulations provide that the following conditions are among those specially declared to constitute public nuisances:

Bakeries, restaurants and other places where food is prepared or served that are not kept in a clean and sanitary condition; or in which persons who have any communicable disease are employed; or in which there is evidence that rats, mice or vermin are present.

Spoiled or diseased meats, whether exposed and offered or kept for sale, or being transported or kept for sale.

Barns or stables, hogpens, chicken yards, etc., so maintained as to be a breeding place for flies.

Exposed sewage, garbage or any other filth in any public place, allowing transmission of infective material. Transportation of garbage, night soil or other filth except in tight, covered wagons which prevents leakage or access of flies.

Stagnant water likely to afford breeding places for mosquitoes within residential districts or within a distance of 1,000 feet therefrom.

Boiling fat rendering establishments, or tallow or soap works, or other grades, when they can be shown to affect public health or produce serious offense.

Buildings or any part thereof, which are in a dilapidated or filthy condition which may endanger the life or health of persons living in the vicinity.

The code provides that "any local health officer upon information or the existence of a nuisance or any pollution occurring within his jurisdiction, or when any such nuisance or pollution come to his attention, shall within a reasonable time investigate and finding such nuisance shall issue his order for abatement of same."

Regulations governing the construction and maintenance of cesspools and other receptacles for domestic sewage are contained in detail in the code with rules for handling of garbage and refuse manufacturing waste, the keeping of animals, public dumps, camp ground and schoolhouse sanitation.

TRUCK EXCEEDED SPEED ALLOWED FOR SOLID TIRES

The first case of reckless driving under the new statute restricting trucks with solid rubber tires to a speed of 15 miles an hour was brought into Groton town court Monday morning when Michael Dionato of New London driver of a truck of the Tait Brothers Ice Cream company, was arraigned on a charge of reckless driving. Dionato was found guilty after entering a plea of not guilty, and was fined $10 and costs amounting to a total of $21.87. Judge C. C. Costello remitted $5 of the fine.

The defendant was placed under arrest last Wednesday by State Policeman Giles F. Watson of the Groton barracks who clocked the truck driver on the military highway north of the Submarine base. According to the arresting officer, the driver of the truck was operating at a rate of about 22 to 25 miles an hour.

State Policeman Watson stated in court that since the enactment of the new statute he has repeatedly warned truck drivers of such offenses, and has directed his admonition particularly to the drivers for the Tait Brothers firm. He stated that all heavy trucks with solid tires are required to be controlled by a governor. The truck driven by Dionato was not thus controlled by a governor, the officer stated.

HARTFORD MAN CHARGED WITH RECKLESS DRIVING

Following a crash between a machine operated by Hal Berman of 26 Blue Hill avenue, Hartford, and one operated by William Hazard, of 46 Vauxhall street, New London Sunday night about 8:20, on the Hartford turnpike, near Chesterfield, Berman was arrested charged with reckless driving by State Policeman Carson. He will be given a hearing in the Lyme court this (Tuesday) morning.

According to the police the two machines collided head-on. Although both machines were badly damaged, none of the occupants were injured.

BUS LOST WHEEL ON ROAD NEAR COLCHESTER

A passenger bus of the Connecticut Transportation Co., running between New London and Hartford on the 6 o'clock trip Monday morning lost a wheel as the result of a broken rear axle when the bus was near Colchester. None of the occupants of the bus, were injured according to the report turned in at the New London office of the company. Another bus was immediately despatched to the scene of the mishap. The passengers were transferred and the trip to Hartford was continued.

Returns From Vacation

Marshall Jewett has returned to his home on Court street, following two weeks' vacation spent at Montville, at "The Oaks," the late age homestead.

Mrs. Jewett's sister-in-law, Mrs. Burdette Kelly, who with her husband and daughter, Miss Mildred L. Kelly has also been spending two weeks at "The Oaks" returned Sunday afternoon by automobile to their home in Worcester.

STATE'S OPERATING EXPENSES KEEP BELOW REVENUE

The per capita payments for maintenance and operation of the general departments of the government of Connecticut were well below the per capita revenue receipts for the past fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, according to figures issued at Washington by the department of commerce. In 1923, the comparative per capita for operation of the government was practically the same as last year, while in 1917 it was about $4.25 less.

Per capita payments in Connecticut for the maintenance and operation of the state government were $11.88, as compared with the per capita revenue receipts of $17.13, making the total payments $16,955,183, and the total revenue receipts $25,524,313. The 1923 per capital figure for payments was $11.61, and 1917, $7.13. Last year's payments for operation and maintenance include $1,284,477 for education to the minor civil divisions of state.

A study of the payments for maintenance and operation in Connecticut reveals that the expenses of public service enterprises amounted to $85,-975; interest on debt, $656,865; and outlays for permanent improvements, $6,160,929, bringing the total payments, therefore, for expenses of general departments and public service enterprises, interest, and outlays to $23,-858,952. The totals, it is pointed out, include all payments for the year, whether made from current revenues or from proceeds of bond issues.

Connecticut highways last year got $8,420,015 of the above governmental costs, $3,437,864 being for maintenance, and $4,982,151 for construction.

Total revenue receipts were $7,826,-290 more than the total payments of the year, exclusive of the payments for permanent improvements, and $1,665,361 more than the total payments including those for permanent improvements.

Property and special taxes collected in Connecticut last year showed a decrease of 9.4 per cent from the 1923 figure in the part of the total revenue derived from such a source, but an increase of 12.7 per cent from 1917 to 1923. Property and special taxes last year represented 25.2 per cent of the total revenue, 30 per cent for 1923, and 38.4 per cent for 1917.

The per capita property and special taxes were $4.31 in 1924, $4.85 in 1923, and $4.82 in 1917.

Connecticut's net indebtedness (funded debt less sinking fund assets) on June 30, 1924, was $4,631,574 or $3.11 per capita. In 1923 the per capita debt was $3.48, and in 1917, $6.56.

The assessed valuation of property in the state last year, subject to ad valorem taxation was $2,144,587,719; the amount of state taxes levied being $1,759,240; and the per capita levy, $1.18.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL TO ROBERT B. OTIS

Robert B. Otis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Otis of No. 323 West Main street, died Monday morning at the New Haven hospital, following injuries he received while diving at Camp Hazen, the Y. M. C. A. camp at Chester. A week ago Monday the youth was diving at the camp when in some unaccountable manner he wrenched his neck, causing a dislocation of the sixth vertebra. He became paralyzed from the hips down and his condition continued to grow worse. He was taken to the New Haven hospital immediately following the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis were with their son when death came. The young man was born in this city, February 4th, 1908. He graduated from the local grammar schools and from the Norwich Free Academy last June. He was a pianist of unusual ability and during his last two years at the Academy was a member of the Academy orchestra. Throughout his four years at the Academy he was the accompanist of the Boys' Glee club. He had begun the study of the pipe organ and was ambitious to be a church organist.

Young Mr. Otis was a member of the Norwich Y. M. C. A. and was a leader at the association among the boys of his own age. He had attended Camp Hazen since it was organized six years ago, was a tent leader and camp accompanist for the past three years as well as office assistant at the camp.

A young man of exceptional ability, especially in musical lines, he had a wide circle of friends among whom he was very popular. In his death a young life of promise is taken from the community. Mr. and Mrs. Otis have the sympathy of many friends and acquaintances in their sad loss. Robert was an only son, and is survived by his parents and his grandmother.

SUES FOR DIVORCE FROM HIS WIFE IN WEBSTER

Divorce from Alice Theroux on the ground of desertion since Aug. 1, 1922, is sought by Nelson D. Theroux of this city in a suit returnable in the superior court in September. Plaintiff and defendant, whose maiden name was Alice Buckley, were married Nov. 25, 1905, and have two sons aged 18 and 17. No claim for custody is made in the suit, notice of which was served by mail upon Mrs. Theroux at Durfee house, Webster, Mass.

Returning Via Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dowsett of River avenue who have been vactioning in and about Cleveland leave today for Niagara Falls, Rochester and Lake Pleasant and will reach home by the week-end.

INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT TO ATTEND ROTARY CONCLAVE

Letters sent out by Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, chairman, and Raymond B. Shattuck, secretary, announce the annual fall conclave for the 30th Rotary district, which will be held again this year at the Griswold, Eastern Point. The dates are September 14, 15 and 16, bringing together Rotarians from this state and portions of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont.

The following is the text of the announcement:

Three reasons why you should attend this conclave:

First—International President, Don Adams, is a 30th district Rotarian and will be on hand at the conclave, and those that have not met him personally will have a chance to do so at this time.

Second—The hotel management has agreed to receive any or all Rotarians as early as September 11th at the same special rates that will prevail during the conclave. Wouldn't this make a nice vacation for our Rotary-Anns as well as ourselves?

Third—Because we are all going to have one wonderful time. Enclosed you will find a roservation card which explains itself and promptness in returning this to Fred Edgerton, properly signed, will be greatly appreciated by your committee.

Here is a tentative program for the three big days of Rotary:

Monday.

September 14th—Registration, 12:30 noon to 2 p. m. Acquaintance luncheon in charge of the New London club. 2 to 6 p. m. qualifying round men's third annual 30th district golf tournament. Start of play in the women's golf tournament, which will be open during the entire conclave. Tennis, clock golf, barn yard golf, horseshoe pitching, swimming, bridge and band concert in charge of J. Walter Wardlaw, 6:30 to 9 p. m. District Governor John Alison's dinner. 9 p.m. to 1 a. m. district governor's ball in charge of the Holyoke club.

Tuesday.

September 15th 8 to 9:30 a. m. breakfast; 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon business section for the men. Continuation of the golf tournaments, boat ride, inspection of the Submarine base (a real treat to ride under water.) 12:30 noon to 2:30 p. m. luncheon in charge of the Pittsfield club. 2:30 to 6 p. m. golf tournament still going strong and during the afternoon a general game of indoor baseball to be played outdoors and opened to all comers. Swimming, tennis, etc. 6:30 to 9 p. m. international president's dinner in charge of the New Haven club. 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. International president's fancy dressed masked ball. (This is going to be a wonderful party.)

Wednesday.

September 16th 9 a. m. Vermont club's breakfast (Waffles, sausages, maple syrup, apple pie, and all the fixings.) Of course you can have your four minute egg if you so desire. 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon. Finals in the golf tournaments. Adjournment until 1926.

Lay aside all your business and household worries and sign up the enclosed reservation cards and come.

Yours in Rotary,
Hugh B. Campbell, Chairman,
Raymond B. Shattuck, Secretary.

TWO STREET DEPT. EMPLOYES GET WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Workmen's compensation agreements as follows have been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donohue:

Carpenter, Mfg. Co., Norwich, employer, and Maryj Wujcik, 21 Starr street, employe, laceration of two fingers, at rate of $8.45.

Eastern Dairies, Inc., New London, employer, and W. J. Graham, New London, employe, severe contusion of hand, at rate of $11.00.

State rivers, harbors and bridges commission, and General Navigation Co., New London, employers, and John Burns, New London, employe, contusion of hip and arm, at rate of $12.24.

Kaybrook Mfg. Co., New London, employer and William McMahon, employe, lacerated scalp, at rate of $9.

Merritt-Chapman & Scott Co., of New London, employer, and C. W. Nixon, employe, infected foot, at rate of $21.

Norwich street department, employer, and Arthur Dayon, 10 Hadley avenue, employe, infected foot from injury, at rate of $12; and Joe De Polo, 137 Chestnut street, employe, bruised foot, at rate of $10.92.

Ufford Textile Mills, Norwich, employer, and Mitchell Cloutier, Sr., Eleventh street, employe, two ribs fractured, at rate of $10.20.

Uncasville-Shelton Co., Uncasville, employer, and Nelson Lepanne, employe, bruises and abrasions on legs, at rate of $7.34.

REUNION OF DESCENDANTS OF EDWARD LARKIN

On Thursday August 27, at Atlantic Beach, about fifty members of the Larkin Family Association, descendants of Edward Larkin (1655), assembled for their annual meeting and reunion. The day was all that could be desired and the small gathering was due to the fact that so many had been visited by the hand of death during the past few months. Several interesting letters were read from absent friends and also the record of the "passing on" of many of the kin since the previous meeting.

During the business session, Irving Larkin was elected president and Mrs. W. Frank Greenman of Westerly vice president for the ensuing year while the other officers were re-elected.

The usual pastimes were enjoyed and the interchange of greetings and recollections between the kin whiled the happy time away till each returned to his or her home hoping to meet again at the same place in August, 1926.

Made Motor Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ancil A. Champion of Fowler Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Union St. motored to Middletown, last week to call on Mrs. Champion's sister, Mrs. Arthur Maynard. From there they went to Ivoryton, to call on Mrs. Champion's sister, Mrs. James Hopper.

Studying in New York.

Dr. Clarence G. Thompson of No. 120 West Thames street, leaves today (Tuesday) for New York where he will take a month's course in diseases of infancy and childhood at the New York Post Graduate hospital. On return to Norwich Dr. Thompson will open his new offices.

Urogen
—URIC ACID SOLVENT—
THE RIGHT AND EFFECTIVE REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM
SCIATICA GOUT NEURITIS
LUMBAGO ECZEMA
YOUR DRUGGIST SELLS IT

MAX HANOVER WRITES OF VALUE OF FRIENDS

While on his vacation in the Catskill mountains, Max Hanover of this city has written to Alexa Pasnik a letter expressing his appreciation of Mr. Pasnik and Abner Schwartz as true friends and going on to speak of what it has meant to find such friends in general as he has made during his business and social relations in Norwich.

Mr. Hanover's letter follows:

Dear Friend Alex:—

In reciprocation of your kindness for thinking of me while in Miami and for writing to me such a fine letter full of friendly sentiments, I am writing this as a return letter: First I am sending to you and to Abner my greetings and the assurance that I am often thinking of both of you, for, somehow, whenever I am out for a good time and if I am really to enjoy it, you and Abner must also be involved. Since the last three years we were brought so closely together that an entertainment without Alex and Abner seems something incomplete and rather strange. I must confes, enigmatical as this may seem, that, although I am amidst a very nice class of people among whom I found some very fine and congenial relations and although entertainments are held here every evening, my vacation appears to me incomplete—there being a void somewhere, probably because I miss my nearest friends.

How many people understand and appreciate the divine pleasure of real friendship, its value and its significance? It is not a thing which you can buy, and having acquired it, it is a priceless treasure worth cherishing and propagating. It is something which comes to you by a mysterious path of association, and many times friendship is cemented by a common view and common pursuit of the same ideal in life with the one towards whom you are drawn in friendship. However, real friendship is rare, as illustrated by Lord Bulwer Lytton, who had a deep understanding of the mystery of human life and its ramification in all its relations. I am here paraphrasing some of his sayings in which he puts emphasis upon friendship Comparing friendship with a sweetheart he said: "Sweet hearts are like nettles and thistless, you can find them everywhere. Did you ever come to a place where you can't find a sweetheart? But a true friend you find only once in a lifetime, and when you neglect the opportunity to bind him close to yu, you may go through life without finding another." I am quoting the foregoing words from memory and they may not be the exact words of the philosopher, but they come near enough in expressing the sentiment he inculcates. I believe that his estimation of real friendship is essentiall ytrue, and yet I am pained to see how little people appreciate the delight of such beautiful human relations—this attraction of the spirit, each heart beating for and being thrilled by the same sentiments, and bound together by a feeling of loyalty and co-operation.

The Unveiled Power ordaining the universe surely rules our destinies; and it is rather strange that after a life of purely business activity in the greatest metropolis of the country I should be planted in Norwich, and, together with my newly acquired friends, to be connected in such numerous social and civic activities. To make up for my separation from my family it gave me an insight into the greatest satisfaction and human delight—that of service, service to humanity, to our community, and to my friends. In this new realm I found a great consolation and gratification, and my greatest reward is the regard of my friends, and my love and esteem for them, and their kind reciprocation towards me.

That I appreciate their esteem is proven by what I think of your kind expressions in your letter from Miami. When I read it I subscribed to the sincerity of every word of it, and with equal sincerity I assure you that I feel that were I in your company on that trip to Miami it would have been a pleasure never to be forgotten by me. I am also sure that were you and Abner here my vacation would have been a real holiday.

Very sincerely yours,
Ever your friend
MAX HANOVER

NORWICH TOWN

At the First Congregational church Sunday morning, Rev. Gurdon F. Bailey preached on The Parable of the Laborers, Matthew 20, using the entire chapter in the course of his sermon. Miss Margaret Chapin was the leader of the Young People's Christian Endeavor service in the evening. The topic was, What Is the Gospel? Why Preach It?

Four from this society attended the picnic of Norwich Christian Endeavor union, Saturday afternoon, at the Taftville Congregational church.

After three weeks, services were resumed Sunday morning at the First Methodist Episcopal church, when the pastor, Rev. James B. Aldrich preached from Job. 23.3. My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly. The Young people's Christian Endeavor service in the evening was in charge of Edward Howe. The subject was, What is the Gospel? Why Preach It? Scripture references were found in I. Corinthians.

Sunday afternoon, in the absence of the supply pastor, Rev. Charles Smith, the service at Montville Centre Congregational church was in charge of Rev. Mr. Aldrich. He spoke from the same text as that used at the morning service. Job 23-3.

Mrs. Lena Gardner Taylor of New London, motored Saturday morning to the home of her mother, Mrs. Thurston B Barber of Peck's corner. In returning Mrs. Taylor was accompanied by Mrs. Barber to witness the American Legion parade. Frederick H. Gardner, youngest son of Mrs. Taylor, recently arrived in New London, on U. S. S. Alexander Hamilton, Coast Guard training ship, after an absence from New London since June 1st.

During the cruise, many European ports were visited including the Azores, Gravesend, England; Cherbourg, France; the Madeira Island, Portugal; Gibraltar, Morocco on the African coast, also the Bermuda Island.

While in New London, Mrs. Barber was greeted by her grandson, who with his mother accompanied her to Norwich town.

Monday afternoon, about 5:30, Frederic H. Wyant, district agent of the Connecticut Humane society was called to 46 Lafayette street to dispatch a dog, in a suffering condition with injury to its back, it not being known how or when the animal was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie of West Main St., Norwich, and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tague of McClellan avenue, left Sunday morning by automobile for a trip to Canada, going by way of Springfield, Mass. They expect to be gone about ten days, returning home by way of Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Daniel Vergason and daughter Mrs. Alfred Linderson of Ashville, also several New York people who are spending the season at Camp Wa-Wog, North Stonington, were visitors last week at Fanning Park dahlia gardens, Oneco street.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rogers and family of Lafayette street are to spend the next two weeks in a cottage at Gardner Lake.

Miss Margaret Ryan and Henry Shahan of Stamford, were guests over the week end at the home of Mr. Shahan's father, David Shahan of West Town street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Herbert of Huntington avenue, are entertaining for ten days Miss Irene Bernis of Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen and son Donald, have returned to their home on Town street, following several days' visit, with relatives on Fishers Island.

ENTIRE McCARTHY FAMILY LOST LIVES ON MACKINAC

At the Sacred Heart Church, Monday morning at 7.30 a requiem high mass, was celebrated by Rev. Charles W. Brennan, for the repose of the souls of the McCarthy family who lost their lives in the recent Mackinac disaster in Narragansett Bay.

Miss Elizabeth A. Malone directed the music of the mass, during which the choir sang. At the offertory, Miss Mary Buckley sang De Profundis. At the conclusion of the mass she sang Consolation. The church was filled with relatives, friends and former neighbors.

Mrs. McCarthy, formerly Mildred Croker, was a niece of Patrick O'Connell and Mrs. John Hayes of West Town street, having spent her girlhood days in Norwich Town, where she was born, and attended church and school. The Croker home for some time was on Huntington avenue.

This terrible fatality which involved an entire family, father, mother and three children, the parents just in the prime of life, has cast a gloom over relatives and friends in this section, where Mrs. McCarthy especially was known to a large circle of friends

Better Refrigeration At Much Lower Cost With

SERV-EL
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION

Proven by authorities to be the finest electric refrigerator made. In complete unit or can be fitted to your present ice box.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.
135-143 Main Street, Norwich
224-236 Bank Street, New London

FINE AND JAIL FOR LIQUOR LAW VIOLATION

Sentenced to 10 days in jail and fined $200 and costs by Judge Arthur F. Libby in the city court Monday morning for violation of the liquor law, James Cirves, 43, Bean Hill, is now serving his jail sentence. He paid his fine which totaled $223.18.

Cirves, who was arrested Saturday night by Constable Lucius Fenton at his soft drink parlor at Bean Hill, pleaded guilty to the charge. His attorney, Thomas J. Kelly, told the court that Cirves had only been running the place a week and had not much money. The attorney stated that past reputation of the place should not be laid against the accused.

Two brothers who hail from Preston were in court on intoxication charges. They were each fined $5 and costs and paid bills amounting, to $14.50 each.

BROTHER OF PRINCESS SUED BY MOTORCYCLIST

Harold H. Lihme, oldest son of Mr and Mrs. C. B. Lihme, of Norman Hall, Watch Hill, and brother of Princess Anita Lihme Lobkowicz is made defendant in a $50,000 damage suit, brought by Edwin D. Vennard, a former member of the United States coast guard service at Watch Hill. The suit is the result of a collision between an automobile driven by the defendant and a motorcycle operated by Vennard in Westerly, Sept. 23, last.

The plaintiff claims the defendant was negligent in the operation of his automobile and that he has been permanently disfigured as a result of the accident.

666 is a prescription for
Colds, Grippe, Flu, Dengue, Bilious Fever and Malaria.
It kills the germs.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

IT'S TIME TO MEET SCHOOL NEEDS

WHAT UNEXPECTED NEEDS ARISE TO WHICH THE ONLY ANSWER IS—THE BOSTON STORE. FOR HERE EVERY APPAREL NEED FOR BOY OR GIRL, YOUNG MAN OR WOMAN, IS PROVIDED FOR FAR IN ADVANCE. HERE EVERY ARTICLE REQUIRED IN THE SCHOOL ROOM IS CONSERVATIVELY PRICED.

Save Time and Money by Coming First to THE BOSTON STORE

Boys' Shop

BOYS' THREE AND FOUR-PIECE SUITS—Each have one pair long pants and one pair Golf Knickers; others have two pair short Trousers, made in newest models and in a variety of materials. Sizes 8 to 18. Priced $9.00, $12.50, $19.50.

BOYS' BLOUSES, made of fine Percales, Madras and English Broadcloths, Kaynee and Model makes, 6 to 16 years. Priced 75c to $1.50.

BOYS' SHIRTS, sizes 12½ to 14, made of fine English Broadcloth, Madras and Novelty Percales, Kaynee and Model makes—

$1.25 to $2.00.

BOYS' CAPS, in a complete assortment of fancy Wool materials, silk lined—

$1.00 to $1.50.

Sturdy School Stockings

Stockings will wear out. That makes it good for us. We sell the best stockings we can get for the lowest price we can. That makes it good for you. Let's Co-operate.

Children's Black-Cordovan Fine Ribbed Cotton Hose, sizes 6 to 10—Pair	19c
Children's Mercerized Derby Ribbed Hose, in Beaver, Champ and Cordovan—Pair	39c
Boys' and Girls' Cordovan-Black Mercerized Ribbed Hose, double knee—Pair	50c
Children's 7-8 Socks, Black, Brown, Gray, Sand	69c
Boys' English Wool Socks—Brown, Oxford, Sand	$1.00
Boys' Cotton Mixed Socks, Brown and Gray Mixed	45c
Boys' Medium Weight Ribbed Cotton Hose, in Black-Cordovan	50c

Removal Sale

to be continued until we move to our new store at 68 Broadway. Furniture and Rugs of known Gilbert quality available at greatly reduced prices. It will pay you to take advantage of this Removal Sale.

N. S. Gilbert & Sons
Shetucket Street.

Norwich Bulletin

1796 1925

VOL. LXVII—No. 210. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1925. TEN PAGES—74 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

FAVORS MEASURE TO PREVENT FUTURE HARD COAL STRIKES

W. W. Inglis, Chairman of Operators Negotiating Committee, Will Insist That Settlement of the Present Strike Be Based on Avoidance of Furthur Suspensions in the Industry—First Day of the Strike Passed Quietly in the Anthracite Regions.

SCRANTON, Penn., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Anthracite operators will insist that a settlement of the present hard coal strike include measures for avoiding further strikes in the industry, W. W. Inglis, chairman of the Anthracite Operators' Negotiating Committee, announced in a statement issued here this afternoon.

Mr. Inglis' statement came as a reply to John L. Lewis' declaration that no other course was open to the miners than to suspend mining operations.

The operators' spokesman said:

"The miners' spokesman says that 'the mine workers deeply regret that no other course is open to them than to suspend mining operations.' There was a way open that the operators have over and over again proposed; namely that operations should go on while negotiations for a new contract were pending. The idea that the miners cannot work unless they have a contract is unsupported by reason of practice.

"All other classes of workers continue on their jobs after a contract expires knowing that sooner or later another contract will be made.

"There are hundreds of thousands of workers in every class of employment that are reasonable enough to go on with their work after a wage contract expires. Mr. Lewis will not permit the miners to do this.

"That is why we have a strike: It is not because there is no other course. It is because a strike is the only course he is willing to adopt.

"This emphasizes the need to insist that a settlement of the present strike shall include measures for avoiding future strikes."

Quiet in Anthracite Regions.

SHAMOKIN Penn., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The first day of the anthracite mine strike passed quietly here today.

Both the Reading and Pennsylvania Railroads are making preparation of coal from the mines.

Supervisors of the reading railroad having charge of lines extending through the anthracite region were notified late today to place all repair crews on a five day a week basis.

MINERS WOULD HAVE THE MINES NATIONALIZED

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1—(A. P.)—Anthracite operators tonight emphasized "the need to insist that a settlement of the suspension beginning today shall include measures for avoiding future strikes."

W. W. Inglis, in a statement to this effect which he made public in Scranton as chairman of the anthracite operators' scale committee assaulted the action of the mine workers in stopping work because no contract had been negotiate dto replace the one which expired last midnight.

Hard coal operators in informal discussion of the conferences of John Hays Hammond with President Coolidge at Swampscott, Mass., on the coal situation took issue with some of Mr. Hammond's reported proposals. They did not believe the government should take over and operate mines in time of industrial conflict, as Mr. Hammond was reported to have advised the president to urge upon congress.

"If men won't work," these operators said, "even the government could not run the mines. If the men will work the operators can run them satisfactorily without the government."

The operators spoke personally and not officially for their group as a whole. They favored recommendations President Coolidge himself enunciated on the basis of the report of the U. S. Coal Commission of 1923 of which Mr. Hammond was chairman. The president wished authority to appoint a commission to deal with emergencies along the line of conciliation and voluntary arbitration, to adjust controversies when collective bargaining failed, and to prevent profiteering through control of distribution.

At the same time a movement was reported under way today among various union groups in the region to revive the question of nationalization of coal mines. Backers of the movement, it was said, wished to continue along the line taken by the nationalization committee appointed by the United Mine Workers of America several years ago.

Christ J. Golden, president of District 9, was one of the committeemen who drafted a plan published December 22, 1922, calling for outright purchase of all anthracite mines and mine lands by the U. S. government for $4,500,000,000. The committee's report has not yet been presented at a biennial convention for approval.

The nationalization plan proposed an independent administration of the coal industry once the government acquired the mines, there would be a secretary of mines, with a place in the cabinet; a federal commission of mines, to control matters of budget and policy on a basis of continuous fact-finding; a national mining council, with jurisdiction over actual mine operation; and a bureau of "wage measurement."

The nationalization committee in pricing American coal holders for tentative purchase by the government valued the bituminous mines at $2,000,000,000; the hard coal fields at $500,000,000, and right of coal land owners who would have to be brought out on a basis of expected production, $1,000,000,000.

None of the international officials of the United Mine Workers, it was observed, has officially endorsed the committee's proposals.

Demobilization today of an army of United Mine Workers without incident in less than twenty-four hours after the anthracite suspension was officially declared effective was taken to substantiate hopes that the stoppage will prove to be a clean one.

E. W. Parker, director of the anthracite bureau of information, today estimated that 30,000,000 gross tons of anthracite had been produced since April 1. He figured the annual net consumption at 70,000,000 gross tons, there should be enough coal available at the present time to keep the country going until the middle of January, in his opinion.

Mr. Parker also estimated that the anthracite industry is paying "board and room" during its idleness at the rate of $190,000 a day, or $5,700,000 a month.

LAURA M. LYMAN ESTATE INVENTORED AT $1,097,091.99

HARTFORD, Sept. 1—(AP)—Inventory of the property of the late Laura M. Lyman, who died February 17, 1925 at her home 22 Woodland street, includes listed stocks, bonds and other securities to the amount of $1,097,091.99 in the document admitted to probate today by Judge Walter H. Clark in the probate court. The largest single item was a block of 750 shares of Hartford Fire Insurance company stock on which value is placed of $506,250. The residue of the holdings include stock in many corporations, both in Hartford and outside, bonds and mortgages. The inventory does not include the value of real estate in the estate which is known to include the residence at 22 Woodland street and a summer home at Norfolk.

Except for bequests of $50,000 outright to each of her four children, who are Miss Helen Lyman and Miss Bertha Lyman, of Hartford, Mrs. and Dr. Richard Sherman Lyman, Baltimore, Md., as established in a codicil of the will, March 6, 1924, Mrs. Lyman's will, devised September 12, 1923, provides for a trust, the income to go in equal share to her children. The Hartford-Connecticut Trust company is named executor and trustee and the trust is to continue, according to provision in the will and confirmed in the codicil, until January 1, 1940, when the estate is to be divided among the income beneficiaries.

The late Mrs. Lyman, who died at the age of seventy years, was the widow of Theodore Lyman. Direct descendant of Richard Lyman, one of the pioneers in the settlement of Hartford and who came to America in 1631.

HANEY AFFIRMS HIS INTENTION NOT TO RESIGN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Commissioner Haney of the shipping board not only affirmed today his intention not to resign under the circumstances set forth in the request of President Coolidge, but, commenting on the reports from Swampscott that Mr. Coolidge felt that, by his course, he had violated the Merchant Marine act, he asserted that he was at least one who had observed it completely.

The reference to Mr. Haney's attitude toward the law was understood to involve his course as a commissioner toward the fleet corporation and his efforts to have Mr. Palmer removed, as its president. Any charge that he had not observed the law, however, Mr. Haney said he could not understand.

Meanwhile, officials of the shipping board and the fleet corporation maintained silence on the situation.

The shipping board at its regular meeting today was told by Mr. Haney for the first time of the complaint, but did not discuss it or take any action in the matter Mr. Palmer also refrained from comment.

Mr. Haney said he had received no communication from Swampscott since the telegram Thursday requesting his resignation, informed through press advices that the president hoped he would reconsider his decision not to tender his resignation, he made it clear that while he would not object to resigning ordinarily, he would not do so "under the implications contained in the president's request" which he regards as "alleging a breach of faith" on his part in the matter of an understanding" that he should not oppose Mr. Palmer.

BRITISH SEAMEN'S STRIKE BECOMING MORE SERIOUS

LONDON, Sept. 1—The unofficial strike fo seamen, today became more serious, half a dozen of the home ports being affected and a number of big liners held up.

The ship owners have decided that it is time to take action and tomorrow morning notification will be given through the press at all ports in Australia that the men on strike must return to duty within forty eight hours.

The ship owners announce they will make no concession on wages nor discuss any settlement through the Australian Seamen's Union, and that, provided the men return to work there will be no reprisals, as they believe the strikers have been misled by their leaders.

The strike is really a manifestation of the quarrel between two unions, the sailors and firemen's union, and Amalgamated Marine Workers union.

The committee of the sailors and firemens union today decided that an unofficial strike had been momented for political purposes by a minority movement.

There is no change in the situation at the home ports tonight, nor any extension of the strike.

DIVORCED WIFE NOW SUES HUSBAND FOR DIVORCE

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 1.—(A. P.)—Milan M. Stone, of New Haven, who obtained a Yucatan divorce from his wife, Rose P. Stone, is being sued by her for a divorce. Papers in the suit have been filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the case will probably be heard this fall. Stone, after getting his divorce, married Alice Lawson, his stenographer, in Mexico.

Mrs. Rose Stone, besides asking for a divorce, seeks custody of her daughter and asks for alimony. She also asks that her name be changed to Rose P. Wipper.

Stone was arrested in Buffalo in June, charged with non-support and in the city court he furnished a bond to provide for the support of his wife and their daughter.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

Italy's Mission Coming in Sept.

ROME, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Italy's mission for the funding of the Italian debt to the United States will proceed to Washington next month. This was decided upon today by premier Mussolini after a conference with count Volpi, minister of finance, and Giacomo de Dartino, Italian Ambassador to the United States. The mission will be headed by Count Volpi ase president. The other members are: Signor Grandi, under-secretary of [illegible] affairs; count Bonin-Longare, former Ambassador to France, who will be honorary Ambassador of the mission; Ambassador De Martino; Dr. Mario Alberti, and Dr. Alberto Pirelli.

President of Portugal Sick.

Lisbon, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The President of ortugal Teixeira Gomes, is suffering from an ailment which will probably necessitate his departure from his own country for a considerable period. Physicians have advised absolute rest and have informed the president that a long stay at Vichy is indispensable.

WARNING TO HUNTERS ISSUED IN PAMPHLET

HARTFORD, Sept. 1. — (AP) — Timely warnings to hunters have been included in the pamphlet containing the state fish and game laws which Superintendent of Fisheries and Game John W. Titcomb has had printed for distribution. The outlook at the present time is for a very dry hunting season, Superintendent Titcomb said today and should drought conditions prevail it may be necessary to ask the governor to prohibit hunting as a precaution against forest fires.

Under the heading, "warning to hunters" the pamphlet says: "The fish and game commission desires your assistance to prevent hunting casualties and brush fires by faithfully observing the following rules:

"Look through the barrels of your gun before going out to see that no cleaning rag has been left in them. Load your gun only after leaving camp and take out the shells when through shooting.

"Always lay your gun down when not in use, so that no mud, sand or snow will get into the barrel. Do not leave it standing against a tree, fence or other object. Remove the shells before laying a gun down in a boat and remove the shells before transferring a gun from one boat to another.

"Put your gun through a fence and on the ground before you climb through Break gun whenever carrying it where you have not solid footing. In brush, cover your trigger guard.

"Shoot only after getting a clear view of the game. Shooting at a movement of the bushes has cost the lives of many hunters. Make sure that your gun contains no loaded shells before handling it when in camp or a round a camp fire.

"When shooting at a target or testing gun, keep at least 300 yards from camp. Do not discharge a gun after dark. Do not point a gun at any person. Carry your gun 'safe.' Keep track of the person with who you are hunting.

"Build a camp fire only on solid bottom of soil or rock. Do not build a fire on muskeg bottom, and when leaving be sure the fire is out and that no fire is left smouldering below the surface. Before throwing away a burned match, cigarette or cigar stump, make sure that they contain no fire.

"Forest fires cause a loss of timber far greater than the entire cut each year. They not only destroy much game but the covers for game.

"Always have your license with you. Do not be a game hog, be a gentlemen. Be sure you have the consent of the landowner before hunting or fishing on his land."

PROBLEMS FOR COUNCIL OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

GENEVA, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The dispute between great Britain and Turkey concerning the sovereignity over the Mosul region, which possesses world wide interest because of the immense oil riches of that area, is the biggest question before the council of the League of Nations, which, preceding the convening of the assembly of the League, will open tomorrow under the presidency of Arisde Briand, French foreign minister.

The assembly opens next Monday.

Although there are twenty-three items on the agenda of the Council, and great interest is directed toward the Mosul problem, the security negotiations between France and England and Germany and their effect upon the Geneva peace protocol which the assembly is certain to discuss in some form, overshadows all other topics.

Indications tonight were that both great Britain and France will endeavor to shelve any serious attempt to revive the protocol at this time, but that the small states are likely to insist on its serious reconsideration.

It is understood that the foreign minister of Greece will inform the assembly that Greece, Jugoslavia and Rumania, and poss Bulgaria, desire to form a regional Balkan pact of guarantees, and will want information as to whether it can fit any framework of some general protocol based on the old principles of arbitration, security and disarmament.

As the great powers were eager for the creation of a protocol last year, it is believed that the lesser states must be assurred that the idea of a general protocol of guarantees has not been abandoned because a Rhineland pact is being negotiated.

HAD THREE WIVES AND SAID HE LOVED THEM ALL

NEW YORK, Sept. 1—Charged with having three wives Walter H. McFarland, 34, a structural iron engineer was held today by the police, for bigamy.

McFarland is said to have married Bertha Milligan in October 1917 in Waterloo, Ia. Several months later he went to Suffren, N. Y., where, it is alleged he married Mary Alfke. He was arrested upon complaint of his second wife, and according to the police, admitted having married a third in Columbus in 1924.

McFarland said he loved them all.

TYPHUS FEVER HALTS EMIGRATION FROM CORK

DUBLIN, Sept. 1—Owing to the appearance of typhus fever in the Schull district of County Cork, persons intending to emigrate to America from that district have been notified by the United States consul at Dublin that their appointments for visas have been cancelled until further notice.

Statistics of Forest Fires in the State

[illegible]red More Than 19,000 Acres During Spring Fire Season—$92,071 Damage.

HARTFORD, Sept 1.—(AP)—More than 19,000 acres of brush and wood land were burned by the 730 forest fires in Connecticut during the spring fire season, causing damage estimated at $92,071, State Forester Austin F. Hawes said today. Forty seven, or six per cent of these fires each burned 100 acres of more, establishing an average of 212 acres for each fire. The other 683 fires burned an average of 13 acres.

This report, shows a marked improvement since the spring of 1922, Mr. Hawes pointed out, when fourteen fires burned an average of 2,000 acres, twenty one fires burned an average of 623 acres and 967 fires burned an average of 39 acres. The fact still holds good, however, he said that a few large fires do more damage than all the small ones.

In 1922 more than half the 79,000 acres burned was by 35 fires. This year more than half the 19,000 acres burned was by 47 fires. This year there were no fires in excess of 1,000 acres.

"A careful study of the 47 large fires, "Mr. Hawes said," showed that the real area burned was slightly more than that reported. It took two hours and twenty five minutes on the average for the warden to reach the fire. By this time the fire had covered about fifty six acres and has such a large front that it was difficult to extinguish. There was an average of two wardens and seventy seven men at each fire with a resultant cost of $70.52 a fire. In ten cases out of forty seven, the fire fighting was rated 'efficient' in twenty six cases 'fair,' in ten cases 'not very good' and in one case 'very inefficient.'

"Seventy two per cent of these bad fires started before 2 p. m., pointing to the desirability of limiting brush burning permits to late afternoon. More than one half started between 10 a. m., and 2 p. m.

"Twenty six of the bad fires started in leaves, 14 in grass, four in slash and three under undetermined conditions. Twenty one were attributed to smokers, 10 to brush burning, six to railroads, four to fishermen, one to a camp fire and one to careless boys, and four to undetermined cause.

"The reported damage from the 683 smaller fires was $28,269 and the damage from the 47 large fires was estimated by experts at $63,802. Of the damage done by the 47 large fires, 72 per cent was to reproduction, 15 per cent to the soil, ten per cent to merchantable timber, one per cent to forest products and one per cent to buildings.

"The lesson of these large fires is that the wardens did not reach them in time and in many cases did not show good leadership in fighting them, or made the mistake of not having a patrolman when the fire was apparently out. As only one fifth of these fires were in territory overlooked by the lookout. As only one fifth of these fires were in territory overlooked by the lookout stations, the desirability of extending this system is apparent."

The fire lookout service will be put in operation on September first, Mr. Hawes said today.

POLITICS IN NEW YORK CITY REER WITH PERSONALITIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—With the primaries but 15 days ahead, the political battle became today more than even a campaign of personalities.

Within republican ranks the three designees, Waterman, Bennett, and Lyon, continued their bitter verbal assaults upon each other.

Governor Smith broke his custom of discussing the local campaign only in addresses to deny Mayor Hylan's statement last night that he asked Governor Smith not to oppose the nomination of William Randolph Hearst for United States Senator at the Syracuse State Convention in 1922. The governor is here observing the campaign and preparing for his fourth appearance in behalf of Senator Walker Thursday night.

"What would Mrs. Harriman and Mrs. Vanderbilt say if I should acquiesce" Governor Smith was charged by the Mayor with having remarked.

"In the first place, Mayor Hylan never saw me at the Syracuse convention," said Governor Smith today. "I was confined to my room with an attack of rheumatism. Every prominent Democrat in our State visited that room some time during the State convention but Mr. Hylan. His faithful slave-like adherence to his politicard boss, Mr. Hearst, was so strong that he could not see his way clear to speak to me.

"In the second place I do not know Mrs. Harriman or Mrs. Vanderbilt well enough to speak to them about political nominations.

"In the third place "acquiesce" is a word that I never use."

Campaign speeches were the order of the day in both Democratic factions today, but the vitriolic comment came in letter and statement.

Both Senator Walker and Mayor Hylan spoke in Brooklyn tonight.

Senator Walker attacked Mayor Hylan's party regularity and challenged the Mayor to state whether he will abide by the result of the primary if defeated.

ABSCONDER ASHAMED TO FACE HIS FAMILY

SAN ANTONIO, Texas Sept. 1.—(A. P.)—"It wasn't worth it I can face bank officials and penitentiary guards, but I cannot face my wife and two children."

Such was the statement of Will Ed Frazer, who confessed to having absconded July 11 from Middlesboro, Ky., with approximately $60,000 in money and negotiable bonds. After which he eloped with a beautiful girl of Lexington.

The man has waived extradiction and will be taken to Kentucky at once.

FIGHTING FOREST FIRE NEAR BIDDEFORD, ME.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Sept. 1—Aid summoned from three cities and towns by riot and general alarm fires brought under control in one hour this afternoon a forest fire in Clifford Park that had swept five acres and threatened nearby houses. Apparatus and volunteers from this city, Saco and Old Orchard answered the calls.

Coolidge Keeps Tabs on Public Questions

Favors Repeal of the Publicity Provisions of the Income Tax Law.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 1—President Coolidge brought the 10th week of his vacation to a close today by greeting at White Court the American delegation to the pan-American congress to highways, holding one of his semi-weekly conferences with the newspapermen and arranged to discuss the transportation situation here tomorrow with Senator Watson of Indiana, ranking republican of the senate interstate commerce committee.

The position of the president on various public questions on which he is keeping tabs from the seclusion of the summer white house, as outlined showed that he favors repeal of the publicity provisions of the tax law, believes the shipping board must put an end to friction among its members and is still determined to take no hand in the anthracite shutdown which became effective today.

It also was disclosed that Mr. Coolidge will hold himself in readiness to return to Washington any time after Labor Day. He has no present intentions of making a trip to the Pacific coast prior to the congressional elections of 1926 and has given no thought to returning here next summer for a vacation.

The making public of income tax returns as was done today by internal revenue collectors in compliance with the law, has the effect, President Coolidge believes, of interfering with the collection of revenue. It was indicated that in December he would renew his recommendations to congress to repeal the publicity requirement.

Dissension in the shipping board and between some of its members and President Palmer of the emergency fleet corporation is due to the fleet corporation the president's opinion due to the fault of some commissioners to follow the spirit of the merchant marine act.

Indications were given that he will make a determined effort to restore harmony, but no inkling was given as to what action if any he will take with reference to Commissioner Haney who has refused to resign. The statement was made on behalf of the president that he believes Mr. Haney after thinking the matter over will conclude that he should for the good of the public service retire from the board.

With reference to the anthracite situation it was reiterated that the administration intends to confine its activity to providing the public with an adequate fuel supply and believes that this can be done at fair prices unless an unwarranted panic results in abnormal buying.

The delegation of the highways conference which will be held in Buenos Aires called at white court to exchange greetings with the president before sailing Thursday for Panama, where a stop will be made on the way to South America.

In the delegation was W. H. Wright, vice president of General Motors Corporation, Chairman Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner of Minnesota; Rep. William E. Hull of Illinois; Dean A. N. Johnson of the University of Maryland School of Engineering; Frank Page of the North Carolina highway commission; Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the bureau of public roads; Dr. G. A. Sherwell, of the Inter-American high commission; and Pyke Johnson of Washington, executive secretary.

BRANFORD MAN ATTEMPTED TO KILL WIFE AND HIMSELF

BRANFORD, Conn., Sept. 1—After he had attempted to take the life of his wife by shooting her in the head and following an attempt on his own life, Phillip Swikobski, who lives in a shack in the so-called "swamp district" of Branford, was arrested this morning charged with assault with intent to kill.

Swikobski shot his wife last night after an argument, but the bullet just grazed the forehead and while it inflicted a deep flesh wound, the injury was not serious. Swikobski then fled from his home and constables searched for him most of the night. This morning he was found walking on the main street here with a bullet wound in his throat. He told the police he shot himself after he had shot his wife.

Because of the nature of the wound, Swikobski could not be questioned regarding his attack on his wife and attempt at suicide and the police here are continuing their investigation.

Swikobski was taken to Grace hospital in New Haven this morning.

WOMAN IN PHILADELPHIA DIED IN HER 107TH YEAR

WALLINGFORD, Pa., Sept. 1—Mrs Sarah Gifford Yarnall of Philadelphia died here yesterday in her 107th year it was learned today. The aged woman was spending the summer with her son, David G. Yarnall of Wallingford.

The centenarian was born in Marshfield, Mass., April 23, 1819. High points in her long life were her remembrance of and contact with the "abolitionists vs. anti" contest in the early decades of the nineteenth century; her interest in the one-time "underground railroad" for escaping slaves, and her presence in the Pennsylvania Hall, Philadelphia, at the time it was attacked and burned by anti-abolitionists.

Eight great grand children survive Mrs. Yarnall. Funeral services will be held here Friday.

AN ESCAPED PRISONER CAPTURED IN BRIDGEPORT

BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 1—(A. P.)—Gilbert Patnode, 30, of 116½ Walnut street, Springfield, Mass., who local police say escaped from federal agents in New Haven about two weeks ago after his arrest for violation of narcotic laws, was arrested here tonight about 11.55 by Detective Sergeant Daniel Broley, of the Bridgeport police. He is being held for the federal authorities without bonds.

EXAMINING A NEW BOOK ON AVIATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(A. P.)—War department officials are examining a new book on aviation written by Colonel William Mitchell, critic-in-chief of the government's air policy.

They are interested particularly in some cartoons contained in the volume which have Secretary Weeks as their central figure.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Robert F. Nichols, Bridgeport, has been appointed chief deputy of Fairfield county sheriffs.

James Ferdinand McCann, 56, of Boerne, Tex., noted painter, died in San Antonio, Tex.

The federal government's demand for the metering of water in Chicago won in the city council 30 to 17.

Strikes at three of the mills of the Cuban Cane Sugar corporation in Camaguey have been virtually settled.

The new Chilean constitution, drafted by President Alessandri and a special committee, has been approved by the people.

Attired in overalls, Henry Ford is devoting all his time on his new $10,000,000 air mail line which will radiate from San Antonio.

In the assembly in Sydney, Australia, the premier denied that the government was paying for food for the striking British sailors.

About 250 delegates are expected to attend the five day national convention of Phi Beta fraternity, which opened in New Britain.

Capt. Alfred C. Gibbs, commanding the steamship Jefferson of the Old Dominion line, shot himself to death on board the vessel.

It is estimated that 33 vessels, with cargoes valued at about $30,000,000, are being held up in Australian ports by the unofficial strike of British seamen.

A movement to build a permanent tomb at Indianapolis for the late Thomas R. Marshall was discussed in Washington by a group of close friends of the former vice president.

[illegible] that of Wilfred Matheus, 22, of Chicopee, Mass., who made an ambulance from the garage of Wesson Memorial hospital in Springfield, Mass.

The American Federation of Teachers will seek compulsory education for all children less than 18 years of age as a remedy for the "alarming increase of juvenile delinquency."

Credit as "company stores" in Hazelton, Pa., for striking anthracite miners has been cut off during the suspension by three local coal companies, it was learned.

Coal dealers in New Haven have been notified of a meeting to be held Friday to discuss local angles of the coal strike. Dealers say there is plenty of hard coal on hand.

State department advices said that Whampo cadets under radical leadership are in complete control of Canton and that the civil administration of that city is badly disorganized.

The Rural Grain company, a subsidiary of the National Farmers Elevator Company Co-operative, a farmer-owned organization, was admitted to the Chicago Board of Trade.

The controversy between Fritzi Scheff, stage star, and her furriers, Stein and Blaine, New York, has been settled and the suit filed in the New Haven superior court will be withdrawn.

Fifteen dead and more than 75 injured is the last week-end toll of accidents throughout the country. The majority of the deaths were due to automobiles, while a railroad wreck brought injuries to 28.

Criminal proceedings have been initiated by the German foreign office against Erwin Piechottka, a reactionary journalist, for wilful defamation of Baron Ago von Maltzan, ambassador to the United States.

Leander W. White, vice president of the Chicopee National bank, Springfield, Mass., and manager of the Clearing House association, was badly injured when both feet were crushed between the elevator and elevator shaft in the bank building.

Notices were posted by the Pepperell Manufacturing company and the Saco-Lowell shops at Biddeford, Me., that both plants will be closed for a week beginning Sept. 7. Approximately 4,500 hands are affected.

The body of Isador Gansburg, a dentist, was found in his office in Worcester, Mass. In his mouth was the end of a rubber tube which was connected with an open gas jet. No cause has been assigned for the act.

The Rumanian government has issued 500,000,000 lei (about $2,850,000) in new money during the present month to tide over the difficult situation caused by practical inability to export the country's grain surplus.

Harry C. Ball, proprietor of a hotel in Winchester, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court in New Haven listing liabilities of $9,313 and assets of $11,325.

An initial blow of the reorganized prohibition forces in the Chicago district was struck when 74 injunctions against as many saloons and soft drink parlors were obtained by Miss Mary D. Bailey, assistant United States district attorney.

Increased express rates on fruit and vegetables between mountain-Pacific and eastern territories, proposed by the American Express company, to become effective Sept. 1, were ordered held in abeyance by the interstate commerce commission until Dec. 30.

Removal of national headquarters of Veterans of Foreign Wars from Kansas City to Washington, D. C., was recommended by Adjutant General Henry J. Lawson, of Boston, in his annual report presented to the national encampment in Tulsa, Okla.

Henry Reiner of Boston had a remarkable escape from death at North Andover, Mass., when the touring car he was driving collided with another car operated by Laurence Allen of Manchester, N. H., and turned over three times before coming to a stop in an upright position.

Charles S. Welles, known as the "California Giant" a quarter of a century ago, when he broke professional bicycle racing records, was killed at Summit, N. J., when he attempted to stop an automobile from rolling down hill after releasing the brakes. He was about 50 years old.

PLANE ALMOST IN SIGHT OF HAWAII WHEN GAS GAVE OUT

Shortage of Fuel Causes Failure of Navy Planes to Make Non-Stop Flight From San Francisco to Honolulu—Three Warships Are Steaming Toward the Place Where the PN-9 No. 1 is Believed to Have Landed in Rough Sea—The Plane Was Forced Down About 6 P. M., Pacific Standard Time, Tuesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1—The U. S. S. Farragut wirelessed the flight commander here that it was proceeding along the line of flight and expects to reach the point where the PN-9 No. 1 is down about 6 p. m., Pacific standard time today. The Farragut is proceeding at 27 knots an hour. The Aroostook and the Tanager also are steaming toward the place where the great seaplane is believed to be buffeting the waves.

Earlier but unofficial messages stated that the sea was rough, consequently the rescue craft are putting on every ounce of steam.

At the time the message was sent the flag plane was believed to be in the sea 35 miles west of the Aroostook.

HEADWINDS REDUCED THE SPEED OF PLANE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1—(By the A. P.)—Her fuel supply nearing exhaustion, the navy airplane PN-9, No. 1 on a scheduled non-stop flight from San Francisco to Pearl harbor, island of Oahu, early this afternoon (Honolulu time) still was struggling along her course.

A rough sea underneath added to the perils of the five men aboard the big flying machine.

About one p. m. (Honolulu time) the airplane was sighted from the aircraft tender Aroosook, on station 1,500 miles from San Francisco and about 220 miles from the nearest Hawaiian island. Radio messages from the plane to the Aroostook evinced the determination of the crew to press on as far as possible toward her original goal.

Other official reports from Commander John Rodgers, of the seaplane to navy officials explained that strong headwinds had been encountered between the 1,400 and 1,600 mile stations reducing the speed of the seaplane to a maximum of 75 nautical miles an hour and thereby increasing the consumption of gasoline beyond previous estimates, running the supply low. The Aroostook and the Tanager, 200 miles nearer the Island of Maui than the former were asked by Commander Rodgers to stand by in the event the seaplane was forced to alight.

NOT DISCOURAGED BY FAILURE OF FLIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1—(A. P.)—Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics, expressed himself here today as "disappointed but not discouraged" at the unsuccessful termination of the first proposed non-stop flight from the mainland to the Hawaiian islands.

"We will try again tomorrow with another plane," Admiral Moffett said "If that does not go through, we will try again. We will keep on trying until we get there."

"The PN-9 number one has remained a longer period in the air than she remained in this test. She has shown that she can make the flight."

Admiral Moffett expressed the opinion that the PN-9 No. 1, would refuse from a destroyer or mine sweeper and complete the flight into Honolulu.

"That is the course she would presumably take," he said.

SUBMARINES AND AIRPLANES ARE AIDING IN SEARCH

HONOLULU, Sept. 1.—(AP)—4.10 p. m. Honolulu time. Three surface ships, two submarines and an airplane, late this afternoon were making fullest use of the last two hours of daylight in an attempt to find the missing navy seaplane PN-9 No. 1.

The three ships nearest the point from which the seaplane sent her last radio signals—the U. S. S. Farragut, the U. S. S. Aroostook and the U. S. S. Tanager—were being aided by submarines R-10 and R-2, and a plane from Lahaina, Island of Maui.

SEASON FOR SWIMMING ENGLISH CHANNEL ENDS

CAPE GRIS-NEZ, France, Sept. 1—There is no possible chance that anyone, either Miss Gertrude Ederle of New York, or Ishak Helmy, the Egyptian, can make any attempt to swim the English channel from this side before Thursday morning.

Today a westerly gale is churning up the channel's waters in a storm which is said to be the worst of this summer and even if the wind dropped now the water would not become suitable for swimming in less than thirty-six hours.

Channel experts here assert that the channel swimming season of 1925 is ended.

FUNERAL OF MATTHEW HALE HELD IN WESTPORT, N. Y.

WESTPORT, N. Y., Sept. 1—The funeral of Matthew Hale, former head of the progressive party and political associate of the late Theodore Roosevelt, who died in Washington Sunday, was held here this afternoon. The Rev. Samuel McCord Crothers of Cambridge, Mass., officiated. Interment was in Elizabethtown, N. Y.

The bearers were Judge Augustus N. Hand, Professor Thomas Reed Powell and Robert Lee Hall, of New York city; Mathew Hale, Jr., of Morristown, N. J., Ralph Crosby Piper, of Boston, Mass., and Harry P. Smith, Arthur Sheldon and George Richards of this village.

"DUTCH" ANDERSON CLUE IS LEADING INTO OHIO

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 1—Geo. (Dutch) Anderson, pal of Gerald Chapman, sought for the murders of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hande at Muncie two weeks ago has crossed into Ohio near Cincinnati, has been established by postal inspectors notified detectives here today. Arrival at Indianapolis today of government operatives who caused arrest of Chapman and Anderson several years ago following a mail robbery in New York, is believed to be the first step in tightening the net about Anderson in Ohio.

SUITS FOR $50,000 FOR DEATH OF GLOUCESTER FISHERMAN

BOSTON, Sept. 1—Two suits for $50,000 each for the death of two Gloucester fishermen when the schooner Rex was run down by the liner Tuscania on the banks last June with the loss of fourteen of the crew of twenty-three, were brought against the anchor line in the U. S. district court here today, alleging negligence on the part of the Tuscania's officers.

One suit was brought in behalf of a brother and a sister to Angus MacDonald and the other in behalf of two miner children of Archie Hill.

36TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE MASONIC HOME

WALLINGFORD, Sept. 1—The 36th anniversary of the founding of the Masonic home here will be celebrated on Grand Masters' day, September 26 at the home. The business meeting will be held at 12.30 o'clock followed by a musical program and speaking. Addresses will be given by Grand Master Helen I. Williams of Silver Lane, Hartford, and Grand Master Walter T. Arnold of Meriden.

SHANANDOAH STARTS ON WESTERN TRIP TODAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Shenandoah's itinerary for her Western trip, which is to start tomorrow, has een expanded to include Racine, Wis., and Flint, May City, Saginaw, Owosso and Lansing, Mich.

Leaving Lakehurst at 4 p. m., tomorrow, the Shenandoah will fly to Scott Field, Ill., where she will land and re-fuel.

$10,000 SUIT AGAINST THE MARYLAND CASUALTY CO

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 1.—(AP)—An echo from the late bandit "Big Mike" Ricciteli runs through the $10,000 damage suit which Samuel Konroff, jeweler and pawn broker of State street, has instituted in the superior court here against the Maryland Casualty company.

Mr. Konroff, to safeguard the jewelry he kept in two safes in his office, on January 15, 1924, took out a burglar insurance policy with the Maryland concern.

The night of February 4, 1925, Ricciteli worked his way into the Konroff store and when he was unable to get into the strong room, waited until the next morning for the clerk to open the store. The clerk was trussed up with wire by Ricciteli, who then rifled the safes, and according to Konroff's complaint, carried away jewelry valued at $21,314.75.

Ricciteli's escape into the railroad yards, his flight on a freight train and his killing in a gun duel with police, were the climax to his sensational career. The police were able to recover $10,641 worth of the loot but $10,673.75 worth of jewelry was never found.

WOMAN FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE SURRENDERS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 1—(A. P.)—A fugitive from justice for three months, Mrs. Theresa Duggan, convicted lure in the so-called Boston blackmail ring, surrendered tonight to her Nemesis, State Officer Edward F. O'Neill, in the East Cambridge House of Correction and will be held there until she appears in Middlesex Superior court on September 14, when she will be ordered to serve five years in Sherborn prison.

Mrs. Duggan defaulted on May 23 last when her petition for a new trial was denied and her five year sentence was upheld by the court she was convicted for attempting to extort money from Kenneth Merrill, wealthy Boston merchant.

PAID $1,500 FOR "JEWELS" THAT PROVED TO BE GLASS

STAMFORD, Sept. 1.—(A. P.)—When Hyman Moorin's $5,000 worth of jewelry" which he had purchased from two strangers for $1,500 turned to glass, he notified police of his "bad bargain."

Early today two men entered Moorin's candy store and showed him some jewelry which they offered to sell him for $1,500. The thre went to a jewelry store, where the articles were appraised at $7,000. Back in the store Moorin handed over his $1,500 and took what he thought was the package containing the jewelr yhe had seen appraised in the jewelry store. Later he discovered they were of the variety found in 9ve and ten cent stores.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

The decentralized prohibition organization took over enforcement.

Analysis of super-power broadcasting failed to solve the mystery of fading.

The agriculture department described the farmer's outlook this year as generally promising.

Union men were ordered by the American federation to stay away from games participated in by the Philadelphia Athletics.

CONCILIATORY STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT OF MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 1—Addressing the opening session of congress today, President Calles said the situation between the United States and Mexico, growing out of the warning given to Mexico last June by Secretary of State Kellogg had been cleared in a friendly spirit and that Mexico and the United States were proceeding along the path of cordial and sincere understanding.

WILLIMANTIC

The series of breaks in one section of the city continued Tuesday to harass the police department, when the 28th burglary within two weeks was discovered in the morning, at the office of the Hillhouse & Taylor lumber company, 47 Milk street. Some thirty cents and an automobile key was all that could be found missing; but considerable ransacking had taken place in the office. The search for more valuable articles was apparently an intensive one. Books, papers and other office appointments had been strew about. The drawers of the several desks in the room were opened and some of the knobs on the hinges of the safe were broken in an attempt to enter the safe. To date, two men, Alphege Potvin and Henry Beaudry have been captured by the police, after entrance had been made into the Bacon store, Union street, early Monday morning. The last break somewhat mystified the police but it is believed that their investigations during the day were not entirely fruitless and clues are being closely followed.

No business was transacted at the weekly luncheon of Willimantic Rotary Club, held Tuesday noon, President John F. Ahern presiding. The guests were Carl Erickson, director of Camp Yankee, Eastford, H. C. Lathrop accompanied by Dr. William E. Hendry and Thomas Meikle, football star, accompanied by Dr. M. D. Riordan. Carl Erickson plans to return to his home in Ridgefield Park, N. J., next Monday and he thanked the club for the many courtesies extended him during his visits throughout the summer. By attending the local club he had gathered many ideas which he would bring to the Ridgefield Park Rotary club, he stated.

Principal George H. Shafer was extended a welcome upon his return from a six weeks' absence, during which he was instructor at Yale University summer school.

When introduced "Tommy" Meikle informed the members that all traces of his illness had left him following his stay on a farm in New Hampshire. He is at the peak of condition and prepared to resume his position when the Windham High School football squad swings into activity.

Dr. R. Bullock Jones was song leader for the meeting, with John T. Quinlan at the piano. Walter Abbe reported progress for the On-To-New-London committee for the fall conclave, September 14, 15 and 16.

Mrs. Mary L. Flynn, widow of Luke Flynn, one of Willimantic's best known residents died at her home 209 Jackson street at eleven o'clock Monday night. She is survived by three sons, John B., Louis J., and William L. Flynn of this city; three brothers, Anthony Hevrin of Willimantic, Martin Hevrin of Hartford and James Hevrin of New York; a sister, Mrs. John McKenna of this city; two grandchildren Gilbert P. Flynn and Elizabeth H. Flynn, also of this city. She was a member of the L. C. B. A. and the Catholic Welfare Council.

A runaway horse sent many pedestrians scurrying to safety, about one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when the animal took fright on the lower part of Valley street and dashed up the street, turning the corner of North street down that thoroughfare to Main street, where it was halted.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Harroun have returned, after spending two weeks at Pine Grove, Niantic, the guest of Miss Anna Beardow and George Beardow.

Miss Phyllis Robinson, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Otto E. Robinson, who have been attending Columbia University this summer, left Tuesday for a college camp at Hinsdale, Mass., where she will spend three weeks. She was accompanied on the trip by her parents and her brother George Robinson.

Vocation Notes.

Miss Ines Paton of Windham Road has gone to spend two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Millett, of New Rochelle, N. Y., at Fratts Island, Norton.

Harold Simonds, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Simonds who has been a counsiller at Camp Pok-o'-Moonshine in the Adirondacks for two months, has returned home.

Mrs. E. C. Little of St. Louis, Mo., is at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. Louis Hall, after opening the summer with Miss Alice Smith, in Hampton.

Misses Gertrude and Therese Girouard, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. Arthus Girouard have returned, after spending a week in Nova Scotia.

Miss Jessica Fenton, daughter of Mrs. Robert H. Fenton is entertaining Miss Doris Brown of East Greenwich, R. I.

Mrs. R. G. Dion and Mrs. S. J. Turcotte, with George Reeves of New Haven, motored to Hartford for the day.

Rev. Charles Dinsmore of New Haven, former local pastor, was recently an overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Summer, with their son Homer and Frank R. Jackson have returned from a three weeks' stay at their cottage at Pleasant View, R. I.

Fred A. Rathbun of Hebron was in this city on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Frederick Persons and three sons, of Melrose Highlands, Mass., have been guests of their cousin, A. C. Persons and family.

Raymond Summers is now clerk at the Frank P. Bradway store and has closed his store on Main street.

Misses Alice and Mildred Rathbun, of Franklin, are guests of Miss Orsan Lee.

Miss Caroline Herzog, of New York is the guest of Mrs. hCarles Mills.

Miss Madeline Shepard is entertaining Miss Jessie Williams, a Mt. Holyoke College friend, from Westfield, Mass.

Edgar A. Bass and family have as guests Arthur Reed and sister, Miss Bertha Reed, of Cortland, N. Y.

Hilda Emma Hendry, daughter of Dr. and Mr. W. E. Hendry has been a guest of Mrs. L. A. Zechiel, of Ripley Hill.

SEPTEMBER TERM OPENS—
MANY CASES DISPOSED OF
(Special to the Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 1—The criminal side of the September term of the Windham County superior court was opened in this city Tuesday forenoon with a docket of seventy-five cases, Judge Christopher L. Avery, of Groton, was on the bench. Prayer was offered by Rev. Andrew S. Muirhead, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. When court convened the spectators' gallery was filled in the majority, by local people interested in the outcome of the several cases involving strikers of the American Thread Company who appealed from the lower court on minor charges, arising from feeling created by the strike situation.

Ten bound over prisoners, eight men and two women, were brought from Brooklyn jail by Sheriff Charles A. Gates, and Deputies John H. Fitts and Frank Tillinghast and Jailer Walter Tripp.

Of the seventy-five cases on the docket nineteen are continued and fifty-six new cases. Thirty of the new cases are those of Willimantic residents. All of the defendants in the cases called Tuesday were represented by Attorney Charles L. Torrey, of Putnam, as county defender, Judge Avery gave notice that due to the death of the state Charles E. Searls the court was without a regular state's attorney and that he would appoint Attorney Howard C. Bradford of Putnam for the term. Attorney Bradford acted as assistant state's attorney at the last session of superior court. Miss Marjorie Bradford, assistant clerk of the Windham county superior court, administered the oath to her brother, Attorney Bradford.

Cases were then taken up as follows:

William Gromes, 18, pleaded guilty to a charge of statutory burglary, committed in Putnam May 28, 1925. Judge Avery imposed a sentence of six months in jail.

Frank Pipak, alias John Rodulski, 17, was charged on eight counts with burglary and theft and pleaded guilty. The acts were committed between May 11 and May 24, of the present year and consisted of breaks in Danielson, Killingly, and Putnam. His arrest followed a robbery of the Putnam News store. Judge Avery sentenced the accused to the state reformatory at Cheshire until he becomes of age.

William Gosslin, Leonard St. Laurent and Robert Langevin, charged with breaking and entering and theft, at the gasoline filling station conducted by John Miller, in Putnam, on the night of June 2, all pleaded guilty. Gosslin, a resident of Woonsocket, R. I., was regarded as the ring-leader of the gang. He has a police record. The sentence imposed on him was a term in state prison at Wethersfield for not less than three nor more than four years. Langevin, aged 20, and St. Laurent, aged 19, were sentenced to Cheshire reformatory.

Helen Morse Anderson pleaded nolo contendre to a charge of theft from the person. She is alleged to have stolen a sum of money from a woman acquaintance at the Putnam Inn, some time ago. The accused stated that she is sorrowing for her misdeed and that Tuesday morning she had made retribution for the amount stolen. She has already spent forty days in jail while awaiting trial. Special State Attorney Bradford recommended a sentence of thirty days in jail and the court so ruled.

Charles H. Rainsford of Canterbury and Mabel Jacques, of Rhode Island, charged with burglary and theft, pleaded guilty. They were living in Canterbury, October 6, last. The couple came over the town line into Scotland and robbed an unoccupied house of a stock of furniture and other goods stored there. Rainsford and his accomplice worked hard during the night of the robbery and by daybreak they had removed three loads of furniture. The goods were found in their possession, at the conclusion of an investigation Attorney Bradford stated that it was his opinion that the woman was more guilty, as it was she who planned and engineered the theft; after she had come from Rhode Island to live with Rainsford. He asked for a more severe penalty in her case. Judge Avery sentenced the Jacques woman to a term of not less than three nor more than four years in state prison. Rainsford was given a sentence of from two to three years in prison.

John Drew of Moosup pleaded guilty to a charge of the theft of a Studebaker Sedan. In his plea that Drew was known to him as good at heart, County Protector Torrey asked for a light penalty in the case. Attorney Bradford and county officials, however, called attention to Drew's bad police record in Wolfboro, where he had robbed cottages. The defendant acknowledged that this was true. Judge Avery deferred imposition of sentence until Wednesday.

Recess was called at this point until 1:03 o'clock and during the period the jury panel for the present term of court was drawn as follows: Putnam, Frank Rich, Lucius P. Merriman; Ashford, John Sunderland; Brooklyn, Frederick F. Maynard; Canterbury, Oliver Sabins; Chaplin, Clifford C. Burdick; Eastford, F. W. Mathewson; Hampton, Merritt E. Gallup; Killingly, Oliver P. Bartlett, Ray A. Whipple; Plainfield, Frank W. Darget; James Coffey; Pomfret, Paul Geissler, Seymour Peal; Scotland, Henry Rackeot; Sterling, Charles E. Baton; Thompson, Oscar Munyon, Arthur Mills, Herbert Dilliber; Woodstock, William Smith, B. E. Edy, Franklin Walker; Windham, Alexis Caisse, Harry C. Brown.

When court was resumed, the cases of the Willimantic defendants were called. But few responded to the charges, however, and none were represented by counsel. County Defender Torrey was assigned to their cases by Judge Avery.

Wilfred Delude, Gilbert Lewis, Everett Sypher and John Morsn, charged with breach of the peace; William Rosse, interefreing with an officer; Mike Renjacowski, carrying concealed weapons and interfering with an officer; Mary Dibaintlot, charged with assault and breach of the peace; Julia Fancher, assault and breach of the peace; Katie Klabua, breach of the peace; Rose Riquier, breach of the peace, and Caroline Kozek, breach of the peace, all pleaded not guilty and elected to have their cases tried by the court. The pleas were made through Public Defender Torrey. These cases had been called during the forenoon but as most of the defendants were not present in court they were allowed to stand until afternoon. At the request of Attorney Bradford, Prosecuting Attorney Harry S. Gaucher routed the names of the defendants and Chief McArthur and Lieutenant Frank McLean of the police department; a tour of the city and notified the accused to be present in the afternoon. Defendants who could not be located and failed to answer in the afternoon are: Clarence Main and John McCarthy, charged with breach of the peace; Sava and Annie Matwinks, resisting an officer and tampering with a witness and Celina St. George and Jeanette St. George, breach of the peace.

Announcement was made that the cases of those who had pleaded not guilty and of those who had failed to answer to the call of the court, would be taken up Thursday forenoon next.

Those failing to appear Tuesday afternoon if they do not answer Thursday will be held for contempt of court and their bonds would be forfeited for non-appearance. It was announced police officers and Sheriff Gates were notified to attempt to have all delinquents present Thursday.

The cases of two other local defendants on the list, Ollie Rock and Mollie Parent, charged with breach of the peace, were announced as settled, when the defendants vacated their appeal from the Willimantic police court and paid fines amounting to $3 and costs in each case.

Other cases stricken off the docket when the defendants withdrew their appeal to superior court from lower court by paying the fines and costs imposed in the lower court sentences were: Rachael Melamed and Saul Melamed of this city, charged with violation of the liquor law. They paid fines of $100 and costs. John Polerk of Willimantic made a settlement on the basis of a fine of $10 and costs imposed in lower court for violation of rules of the road. The assessment amounted to $17.35. John Matohtok of Chaplin paid his fine of $100 and costs imposed in June in the Chaplin town court for violation of the liquor law. A small fine was also paid by Charles H. Potter for violation of the dog law.

Settlements were also made in the cases of Timothy McCruhan and John Caley, of this city, found guilty at Monday's session of the local police court of assault on Arthur Dion. Their fines of $25 and costs, each were paid and the cases were stricken from the docket.

Four cases will be heard at the session of court which opens at 10 o'clock (standard time) Wednesday forenoon. They are: Raymond C. Comings, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor; Lubin Wheeler, reckless driving, Peter Nicholus, sodomy and a sentence to be imposed on John Drew whose case came up Tuesday. It is understood that Peter Nicholas is to be examined as to his mentality.

Court adjourned at 2:45 o'clock.

MYSTIC

Miss Jennie Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Stephen Richards, of industrial place, and John Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia were married in St. Patrick's church Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. Thomas P. Mooney, the pastor. About fifty were present at the reception held Monday night previous to the wedding on Tuesday morning. Immediately after the church ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hughes took an early train for Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in West London. Mr. Hughes is a member of the Coast Guard, stationed at New London.

Mrs. William Baker and son Otis and the latter's wife and son, of Norwood, Mass., stopped here for a visit with their aunt, Miss Vinnie Brigham, on their way home from a motor trip to New Haven recently.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Jackson have had as guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. B. Regenburg, of Hartshorn, N. Y. Mrs. T. A. Robinson of Astoria, L. I., and Mrs. Addie Robinson and son Ralph S Robinson, soloist at the Park Avenue Presbyterian church, N. Y. Ralph Robinson sang a solo at the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday and in the evening he and Walter Jackson sung a duet. Both were greatly enjoyed by the congregation.

Albertus Brown, of Hartford, spent the week end at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary S. Brown. His wife and little son who have been with Mrs. Brown for two weeks, returned home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Burdick, Miss Evelyn Burdick, Harry B. Mackenzie and Walter Hoelnschild motored to Rocky Point Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lamphere and daughter Dorothy, who have been here about three months visiting several relatives, started Tuesday morning by automobile for their home in Los Angeles, Cal. They will stop in Tucson, Arizona to visit Mrs. Lamphere's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bergen L. Green. They expect to reach home October first.

John Stevenson of New York is spending his vacation at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurent Seamans and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Baity are on a motor trip to Canada.

Henry Phillips is doing some carpenter work at Capt. Jimmie's Inn.

Mrs. R. L. Snell, Mrs. L. C. Whitney and Mrs. W. A. Phillips were visitors in New London Tuesday.

The weekly prayer meeting of the Baptist church this evening will be led by the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard W. Keigwin are to build a house on Edgecomb street opposite the residence to G. E. Tingley. The cellar has ben staged out.

Williams Womans' Relief Corps held a meeting Tuesday night after the summer recess.

ROCKVILL

Rockville mill has had electric power installed and the management has started the mill this week by electricity, the water power having failed several weeks ago.

Albert S. Babcock and Mrs. Lulu Palmer have had their houses wired for electric lights.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Kenyon, of Providence, were guests one day last week of Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Kenyon.

Miss Cora Irish and a girl friend from Providence have been guests the past week of Mrs. Carlton Irish and family.

Mrs. Elmer Lanphear of Bradford called on her aunt Miss Olivia Chester, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orndorff, of Providence, and George H. Maxson of Quonochontaug, were recent callers at J. Palmer Greene's.

Misses Helen and Josephine Maxson of Waterford, Conn., returned home last week after being the guest of Mrs. Carlton Irish.

Miss Olivia E. Chester, who has ben confined to her bed for the past four years was taken to a hospital Monday.

The pronghorn antelope herd at Yellowstone National park now numbers more than 400 head, according to a census made by the park naturalist and the chief ranger early this spring.

WESTERLY

Judge Edward M. Burke, of the Westerly Probate court held the first September session in the probate court rooms, Westerly Town Hall Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Matters were disposed of as follows:

Estate of James Burnside Babcock. First and final account, of Alice. M. Babcock, administratrix of the estate of the deceased, whose death occurred May 20, 1924, was presented by Attorney Clarence E. Roche. There being no objection, it was received, allowed and ordered recprded.

Estate Mirian Lee Cochran. Petition received from Lloyd Williard and Grace Willard that Lloyd Willard be appointed guardian of the child, aged 16, of California, her mother being deceased. There being no objection and with order of notice waived the petition was granted.

Estate of Josephine Royster. Petition received from Jessie Royster, daughter of the deceased, who died in New London hospital on June 4, 1925, intestate, that her uncle, Andrew Royster of Bradford, R. I., be appointed administrator. Andrew Royster was confirmed as executor with bond $18,000 with surety. Everett E. Whipple named as appraiser.

Estate of Mary Jane Dower. Petition for probate of will received from A. Beatrice Dower. Will proved, read, and there being no objection A. Beatrice Dower and Leila J. Dower were confirmed as executrices with bond $500 without surety. Everett A. Kingsley named as appraiser.

Estate of John E. Brown. First and final account of John Howard Brown as executor, received, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Dr. John L. May. Petition of executrix, Elizabeth L. May, for release of bonds to herself as an individual received and petition granted.

Estate of Lizette E. Culley. Receipts from distributees received and ordered filed and recorded.

Estate of Edward A. Hart. Petition received from Bankers Trust company of New York that in the estate of the deceased who died June 29, 1925, leaving a will, that letters testimentary be granted them. Petition for probate of will continued to Sept. 15, 1925, at 2 p. m.

In the same estate on petition of the Bankers Trust company, a commission was granted to George E. Brooks of Atlantic City, N. J., to take the depositions of Carlton Godfrey, Philip Godfrey and Philip I. Godfrey.

Records filed in the office of the Westerly Town Clerk, show the following transfers:

Aug. 29. Thorpe and Trainer, Inc., to Hector V. Lough of Hartford, parcel of land on the south side of Atlantic avenue, Pleasant View Beach, east of the lands of Delia Wheeler and Martha W. Wilhams.

Angelo M. Guarino to Pietro Angelo Cafone, tracts of land, Lots Nos. 16 and 17, plan of Oak Street Center.

Aug. 31. Ella W. Carver et al to G. Edgar Tobin and wife, Muriel B. Tobin, Lots Nos. 1 and 72 in Section 12, Bungalow sites, called Musicolony.

In a special session of Third District court Monday evening before Acting Judge M. Walter Flynn, Jr., Joseph McGraw of Carolina was presented. He had been held by the Westerly police since morning, following an automobile accident on Vincent Carr Hill, Main street when he struck Bento Casserius, a workman employed on the roadway improvements, resulting in his leg being broken. He was arraigned on three counts.

Pleas of guilty were entered by the defendant to the charge of reckless operation of an automobile and he was fined $100 on that count. On a charge of the operation of an automobile not equipped with at least two powerful brakes, he was fined $25 and costs and on the charge of operating an automobile without a driver's license he was fined $25 and costs. The total amount of costs and fines paid into the court was $.57.50. At the Westerly hospital to which Casserius was taken it was stated that he would have to remain for ten days.

Misses Etta and Mollie Randell, of Westerly left town Tuesday morning for Jackson, N. H., where they will pass their vacation.

Wells St. Fowler returned to Westerly Tuesday morning from a business trip to New York.

Under the auspices of Westerly Chapter, American Red Cross, with Edward Clarke as swimming instructor, thirty-three persons have earned awards of one kind or another for passing Red Cross swimming and life saving tests during August, it was announced Tuesday by Miss Lucy M. Crowley, executive secretary of the Westerly Chapter.

Bathing suit emblems and silver medallions for passing the senior life saving test have been presented Constance Ruthbun, Edward Hoxie, Augusta Stanton and Frederick Agard. Junior emblems and medallions for passing the junior life saving test have been awarded to Stanley Trotman, Rupert Coleman, Ruth Briggs, Jean North, Lewis Rochette, Grace Thompson, Ralph Briggs, Richard Tetlow, Charles Campbell, Edward Thompson, Zilla Lanagnam, Alcert Spicer, Roger Ahlerandt, Charles Wright, Edward Patnoda, Joseph Patnoda, Rod Jordan, Stephen Zegwarzski, Adam Zegwarzski and Anthony Zegwarzski.

Those who have passed the beginners' swimming test and earned beginners' butters are: Troup Dingnault, Norman Barber, Arthur LaBrecque, Elizabeth McGuinness and Margaret Kenan, Frank Roberts, Hallet Stiles, Russell Collins and Donald Dubuc have passed the advanced swimming test and received buttons therefor.

Tuesday morning, at the rectory of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, High street, at 10 o'clock Miss Jean Fontana of Westerly and Sidney Collins of Groton, Conn., were united in marriage by Rev. Henry Bruno, S. M. The bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth McCormick of Westerly. Jerry Kanonchik of Groton was best man.

The bride wore a gown of tan satin trimmed with gold lace. Her black picture hat was trimmed with French roses and she carried a bouquet of garden flowers. Miss McCormick was gowned in brown satin with brocaded trimmings. She wore a hat to match and carried garden flowers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for about 40 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Main on Spring street. Mrs. Collins received many beautiful gifts. Mr. Collins and his bride left Tuesday afternoon on a motor trip to Canada. Upon their return they will make their home at 17 Spring street.

On Monday evening was held a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ruth Gildea, whose marriage with Ralph Champlin will take place this fall. The shower was at the home of Miss Madeline Sisson. There were about fifteen girl friends of Miss Gildea present and she received many beautiful gifts. The evening was spent in playing whist and prizes were awarded the winners. Lunch was served.

A miscellaneous shower for Miss Mary A. Driscoll of Granite street was given by a group of about 20 young women Monday night at the home of Mrs. Theodore Dionne on Rocket street. Miss Driscoll is soon to become the bride of James O'Brien of Hartford.

The engagement of Miss Blanche Charron of Hartford, Conn., to William Charles Mudge, Jr., of Westerly, has been announced.

JEWETT CITY

Griswold public schools will open September 8th with the following teachers: Riverside Grammar school; kindergarten, Miss Marguerite Bliss; first grades, Miss Clara B. Wells, Miss Catherine Driscoll, and Miss Helen Madden; second grades, Miss May Driscoll, Miss Cecilia Ellis and Miss Kathleen Kelley; third grades, Miss Annie Driscoll and Miss Katherine McNamara; fourth grades, Miss Juliette Richmond and Miss Alice Barnett; fifth grades, Miss Isabel Marshall and Mrs. Edith Soule; sixth grades, Miss S. Nettie Johnson and Miss Mabelle Scott; seventh grades, Miss Alice Brown and Miss Margaret Gohery. Eighth grades, Mrs. Catherine Remick and Mrs. N. M. Johnson; Brewster school, Miss Marion Frink; Pachaug school, Miss Margaret Kelley; Glasgo school, Miss Idella Young and Miss Della Malloy; Burton school, Miss Eleanor Byrne; White school, Miss Blanche Voloshie; Hopeville school, Mrs. Ida Eichelberg; Tyler school, Mrs. Gladys Melady.

Miss Cecil Howes was united in marriage with Ralph Sherman of Shannock, R. I., Saturday evening, by Rev. J. W. Carter at the Methodist parsonage. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howes.

A party from Ashland Cotton Co., took the delightful day trip by boat to New York Tuesday. The party included L. M. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. Gaspard Dugas, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harris, Mr and Mrs. Henry Davis, Mr. and Mrs Charles Cornell and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Duggan.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald spent Tuesday in Wauregan.

James Blair, Jr., and J. Byron Sweet are spending a week at The Red Hen at Beach Pond.

Jay Ricketts has returned to Charleston, Virginia, after a vacation spent with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Chas. H. Ricketts in Greeneville and at P. E. Robinson's here. Mrs. Ricketts and son will remain for a longer stay.

The body of Calvin H. Lee, of Needham Heights, was brought to the borough on the 3:28 p. m. train Tuesday. Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 75, F. & A. M., George T. Bell, Master, took charge of the services at Pachaug cemetery where the departed brother was laid to rest among his kin, with full Masonic honors. The bearers from Mt. Vernon Lodge were Leonard Firth, J. W. Hannan, Harold Field, A. Zegeer, Herbert Wyatt and H. Gordon Willis. Other members of the craft who attended the services were:

E. E. Gilbert, C. E. Maynard, W. B. Payne, F. S. Campbell, G. T. Bell, C. H. Ray, E. H. Hiscox, E. M. Gray, F. D. Downing, E. B. Cheney and Antoine Maynard.

A great crowd assembled in Main street Monday evening to see the Human Fly climb the Maynard block. He didn't climb the building a great deal, that is so as one could notice it. He shinnied up the awning rod, then up the barber's sign, then his wings seemed to give out. A kindly disposed confederate on the upper deck, let down a rope, by which means he went up over the regular hand over hand.

Tonight (Monday) he will attempt to climb a Main street building at Danielson, when his bicycle and table stunts will be given. The climb will start at 7 o'clock.

All the afternoon a smoky haze filled the air in this section. People on the streets rubbed their eyes and wondered where the forest fire might possibly be.

MILK-FED BULL FROG MAY GET INTO THE MOVIES

JEWETT CITY, Sept. 1.—A short time ago, in this column of The Bulletin, there appeared the unusual story of Frank Parent's milk-fed bud frog, still to be seen at his home on School street. The tale was copied by the Metropolitan dailies. Mr. Parent has received, this week, a letter from S. C. De Rochemont, assistant editor of the International Newsreel asking if he may visit Jewett City for the purpose of making moving picture of this remarkable bull-frog, for commercial use.

The present Connecticut law, as it now stands, with all the disastrous results that it promises, is the only thing that stands in the way to prevent Mr. Parent from having his jeans jingling with perfect good New York coin; for he certainly can produce the goods, in the novelty frog of, the Century.

And speaking of frogs, last Sunday night two Jewett City people, sober men and true, had occasion in the way of business, to visit the South part of the town. Returning, at about that dim hour between daylight and dusk, and as they were driving along the low lands that border the Packaug pond below the old Leonard cemetery, they came suddenly upon hundreds of frogs in the road. At this point an arm of the reservoir makes in toward the highway, known as Leonard's cove. Many of the frogs were lying along in a string in the ruts made by passing traffic. Before the driver or his friend noticed the conditions, the wheels of their car had crushed many of the out-of-place visitors. The men alighted and with sticks cut from the fringe of bushes along the road-side, coaxed the frogs to vacate the right-of-way, after which they proceeded with caution.

MANSFIELD CENTER

The first community meeting of the season is to be held at the church Friday evening when plans for the next four months will be discussed. A free supper is to be served.

The auditorium of the church has been renovated, the side walls and ceiling painted buff, with white moldings. Services were held there Sunday for the first time since the work was begun. Rev. Mrs. Jones preached on The Psychology of the Soul.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard James and Nathan of Plainfield, N. J., are guests this week of Mr. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. James.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rose, of Hartford, were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chappell.

Revs. Mr. and Mrs. Jones returned Friday night from their vacation, spent in New York and Torrington.

Alfred Oden and family have returned from Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colburn of Willington returned Sunday from a motor trip to Plymouth, Mass. They met President Coolidge's party there on Friday.

HAMPTON STATION

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Phillips and daughter, Idabelle, spent the week end at Crescent Beach. Miss Idabelle remained for the week as the guest of her grandfather, William Phillips.

Kenneth and Allan Barrows of New London are spending a few days with their cousin Stanton Burdick.

Mrs. Henry Parkhurst of Waterford has returned to her home after ten days' visit with her brother, Byron Colvin and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fitts and family spent Sunday at Pleasure Beach.

Mrs. Haig Iskiyan is visiting three of her sisters at Washington, D. C. She motored there with her brother who had spent a few days in Hampton with his sisters' family.

Guests at Hilliview Farm last week were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Durkee and three children of Willimantic, Mrs. Willis Barrows and sons and Mrs. Edward Geer, of New London.

NOANK

The Noank ball team is playing the West Sides, of Mystic, a post-series of 3 games for the championship of the town of Groton. The first game was played in Mystic and the West Sides won 10 to 0. A hit by Bracel spoiled a no-run and hit game. For Jackson of the West Sides, Teveau was wild and walk 8 men and his team mates backed him only poorly. The battery for Noank was Deveau and Smith for the West Sides, Jackson and Saxson. A large crowd attended. The next game will be played this week in Noank on Williams Field.

The boat Reliance has left for Block Island for a load of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacArthur and two children have returned to their home in Moosup, after visiting local relatives.

Edmund Ellis has gone to New York for a week.

Daniel O'Hara is employed on the railroad.

Raymond Lantmore of Little Falls, N. J., is visiting at the Young cottage, Mason's Island.

Admiral Lamb of Ledyard was a caller here this week.

Leo Harris has returned from Saybrook, after a visit.

Fred Phillips of Newport was home on Monday.

Eli Schoolmaker spent a day recently in Hallville.

Mrs. Carr and daughter of New London were recent callers on Mrs. John Robertson, of Pearl St.

William Tourjee of the Tourjee Bro Trucking Company met with an accident when the truck struck some sand and skidded, on the Old Lyme Road, while he was on his way from New York. He was thrown out and three ribs were broken. He is under the care of a physician at his home on Pearl street.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Michigan have taken apartments at the Elaine Merrill house, Pearl street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson are moving their household goods from Main street to the tenement of George Brown, on Pearl St.

MOHEGAN

At the Wigwam last week a Blue Comfort was given W. Silva of New London; a Thermos Graft Cooler to Mrs. Beatrice Sword, New London a Rose Bud quilt to T. Northdurf, Mohegan; a Windmill quilt to Mrs. Wm. Nason, New London; a Center Piece to Beltie Gray, Groton; a Pillow Top to Gladys Quidgeon, Mohegan and an Indian Basket to T. Conlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Harris and family of Pawtucket, R. I. motored here last week to attend the Wigwam and to visit relatives.

Miss Winifred Quidgeon was the guest of Miss Dorothy Church of Montville recently.

Julian L. M. Harris has returned to Hartford, having spent several days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Francis and family of Jordan Village were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Quidgeon, during the Wigwam festival.

There will be no services at the church on Sunday.

Miss Mabel F. Knight, of Boston, well known lecturer and research worker has returned to her home, having spent a week as the guest of Miss Gladys Quidgeon.

Miss Knight will have charge of the program of Indian dances to be given by the St. Francis Abenaki of Odanak, at their celebration in October which promises to be of great interest to those concerned with Indian affairs.

SOMERS

Dr. Ralph B. T. Thayer has purchased the large handsome colonial house and grounds of Miss E. Louise Patten of Main street. He is to remodel the house into an uptodate general hospital which will be known as the Martha Thayer hospital in honor of Dr. Thayer's mother. The hospital will provide space for twenty beds and will be under the supervision of Dr. and Mrs. Thayer. The latter was a registered nurse before her marriage; she was Miss Helen Cadwell of Enfield. The hospital will be finely equipepd. A high pressure water system will be installed. The wide lawns and beautiful shade trees are a most attractive setting for this beautiful colonial house that was built in 1809 by Dr. Horatio Arnold Hamilton, who was succeeded by his son Dr. Erskine Hamilton and later by his grandson, Dr. Theodore Hamilton. Later Dr. Simeon Houghton and Dr. Alonzo L. Hurd had their offices in this building.

In 1864 Nathaniel Patten purchased the place. His daughter, Dr. Julia Patten one of the pioneer women physicians spent the last of her life in this home.

Miss E. Louise Patten, who is leaving this home will be greatly missed by Somers people. Miss Patten has been very public spirited interested and working to help every good cause. She is secretary of the town school committee, especially active in church and library work.

Dr. Thayer who is a graduate of Bowdoin college and Medical school has several years practice in the marine hospital and a private hospital in Portland, Maine, and in a Waterbury hospital. He came to Somers in April 1921.

Miss Mildred Gummo was a Hartford visitor last week.

Mrs. Arthur Kerry has been entertaining guests from Springfield. Miss Emily Chism of Union and her brother James Chism of Schenectary, N. Y., were visiting local friends last week.

Miss Mabel Avery has been visiting in New Hampshire.

Rev. Edward H. Smith of Ing Hok, China, who with his family has been visiting in this country since June, preached in the Somers Church Sunday morning. Mr. Smith spoke most interestingly of the work being done in China by the missionaries. Rev. Mr. Smith is a native of Norwich Town.

Next Sunday Rev. Edward Jones who is coming to the Somers church will occupy the pulpit.

The C. E. meeting Sunday evening was led by Miss Harriet Pease.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gage entertained the choral society at Piedmont Hall, Monday evening.

A whale caught off the shores of Greenland not long ago had in its body the head of an old harpoon, which experts estimate must have been there at least 50 years.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Four-Day Sale of
REMNANTS

STARTING TODAY AT 8:30 A.M.

A FINAL END-OF-THE-SEASON CLEAN-UP OF ALL SHORT LENGTHS, ODD PIECES, BROKEN LINES, ETC., OF SILKS, DRESS GOODS AND WASH GOODS

In 1 to 5-yard lengths
Approximately One-Half Below Usual Prices.

Here are attractive materials in desirable lengths to successfully carry out this season's conception of the modes for things that relate to Frocks.

So varied is the assortment in the kind of materials represented we cannot begin to name them all.

All Offered at Prices That Spell Big Savings

MAGNETIC VALUES FOR WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Summer Dresses
The balance of Summer Dresses, consisting of Silk and Cotton, several different styles, all up-to-the-minute models, values $10.00— CHOICE $5.00

Men's and Boys' Shop
Men's Fine Quality Rayon Silk Socks, fancy colors, 75c value— 55c, or 2 for $1.00
Men's Brodi Soisette Union Suits, regular $2.00—Each. $1.59
Rocking Chair Union Suits, regular $1.50—Each $1.00
Nainsook Union Suits, 75c grade—2 for $1.00
Boys' Fine Percale Blouses, all neat patterns, "Model" make— SPECIAL 69c
Boys' Fine Quality Percale Shirts, also Oxfords, collar attached and neckband styles, values $1.50— Each $1.00

SILK UNDERARM BAGS— SPECIAL 79c
NATIONAL FACE POWDER, made in France, of the finest and purest ingredients, regular 50c— For 19c
BODY POWDER, good quality, regular 50c—For 39c
WILSMAH FASTENER, black or white, regular 10c—For 7c or 4 for 25c
Cameo Extra Lisle Elastic, 1-4 inch, 6 yards piece— Piece 19c

Downstairs
TRIANGLE POLISH MOP—for cleaning and polishing hardwood floors, painted floors, linoleums, has adjustable hardwood handle—For.... 59c

FRUIT JARS
Atlas E Z Seal
One-half Pints—Dozen 84c
Pints—Dozen 94c

WINDOW SCREENS
Three sizes at special prices:
18x33—For 49c
24x33—For 59c
24x37—For 65c

A delightful flavor for hot weather dishes

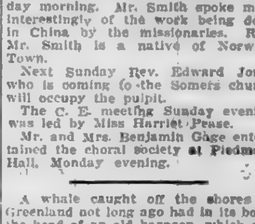
When food palls on jaded summer appetites, try this delicious way to give zest and joy to meatless meals. Add a dash of the new Gulden's Saladressing Mustard, specially blended for salads and entrees.

This delightful mild seasoning has an appetite-provoking flavor, and a delicate digestive-stimulating quality. Its cooling spices are helpful aids to your digestion and your enjoyment of food.

Try it tonight. Your grocer carries it. 15c.

GULDEN'S new SALADRESSING MUSTARD

NEVER BE WITHOUT IT
for it immediately eases sudden, severe, colicky pains and cramps in stomach and bowels, deadly nausea and weakening diarrhoea. For children and grown-ups use
CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC and DIARRHOEA REMEDY
Take it with you when you travel. Keep it always in your home.



These are Parisian!
Manon Lescaut* Face Powder
Ashes of Roses* Rouge
Rouge Mandarine*
FREE!
Write for attractive booklet of Parisian perfumes, powder, etc.
At the Better Stores
Bourjois
BOURJOIS & CO., Inc.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

If one would place implicit confidence in press reports, 158,000 miners from the anthracite fields went on strike Tuesday. That is of very special interest, but it created no more than an insignificant flurry here and hereabouts.

Local coal dealers continued to do business Tuesday. They were not on a strike. At one yard where the price of a certain size of coal has been $16 a ton for many weeks past, it was stated that after this week no more orders would be taken at that price; that there was no way of determining what the price would be next week or in the weeks to come, nor whether the stocks on hand would permit of filling al lthe orders on file.

At two other yards the same size of coal, selling at the $16 per ton rate for some time past, had hopped up to $16 50 a ton.

It is not indicated that Danielson people will suffer serious inconvenience if the coal strike lasts all winter. There are those with money and forethought who have discounted the strike by filling their bins for the coming cold weather. There are others who have a portion of their winter's supply and substitutes to use until real cold weather sets in. This class will buy less coal than usual. There are others who figure to use wood, of which there is an ample supply hereabouts, throughout the winter. These people are heartily sick of coal strikes and will do their best to discourage future upsets of this kind. There are others—as always—who have given no thought to a winter supply of fuel and will not until frost nips their noses and something will have to be done about it.

On the whole Danielson appears to be sitting pretty—at least that is the impression these wonderful September days. The coal strike pe hanged. Thousands of factory workers who earn far less than the average of $1,965 per annum for about forty-five weeks of work in the coal mines have little patience with a strike that punishes them in favor of workers who earn hundreds of dollars a year more than they do—and nearly two months idle time to themselves on the side. This appears to be a particularly good year to try the row in the anthracite field out to a finish. At least that is the viewpoint of a great many hereabouts. Meanwhile, no one here will freeze to death—not with supplies of fuels of various kinds that are available in abundance.

We are fast nearing Labor Day of 1925, and it is to be hoped that you are one fortunate to have on deposit in the savings department of The Windham County National Bank, Danielson, Connecticut, the surplus remuneration for your labors.—Adv.

Rev. James E. McCarthy, M. S., an assistant at St. James' parish, is at Meriden, where the death of his father, Daniel McCarthy, occurred Sunday evening and where funeral services are to be held this (Wednesday) morning. Father McCarthy left Danielson Sunday afternoon, upon receipt of news that his father's condition was very serious and was with him when he died. At St. James' church here Tuesday morning, a high mass of requiem was offered for Mr. McCarthy, long a resident of Meriden.

There is a prospect that the state highway department will build a new bridge over the Assawaga river in Main street, near the filling station of the Gulf Refining company. Surveyors have gone over the ground. The present bridge has been in service nearly half a century. It was never intended to carry such a heavy load of traffic as the present day puts upon it. It has been strengthened from time to time and is regarded as in safe condition, but it is one of the main trunk lines of the state and it is the policy of the highway department to replace old bridges, from time to time, with modern structures.

It was stated here Tuesday that town officials have received no intimation that the state intends replacing this bridge with a modern concrete structure. Nevertheless, the survey has been made, and it calls for a wider bridge, cutting down the present sidewalk area. When the bridge is built, and no one here can forecast when that will be, it will be of concrete.

Proulx's tire repair shop removed to Union street, rear of A. and P. store —Adv.

Nothbound traffic on the Bar Harbor expresses through Danielson has not petered out, notwithstanding the fact that September is at hand. A whole flock of these trains ran through here just before midnight, Monday, and during the first hour of Tuesday morning. Evidently September is not to be sneered at as a vacation month and evidently there is money left, even after the so-called hectic season for meeting the demands for a change of scene and diversion.

John M. Dowe has a check for $25, that has come to him as a first prize for the best window trim advertising a certain very popular periodical. This is of special interest in view of the fact that Mr. Dowe won the money in a nation-wide competition.

A meeting of the Catholic Welfare council was held Tuesday evening in St. John's hall. The council is making an effort to increase its membership.

Eugene Reed of New York is spending a few days in Danielson, where he was formerly a resident.

Next Monday—Labor Day—will be observed as a holiday in Danielson. Business places will be closed for the day, with the usual exceptions, and the postoffice will observe a holiday schedule of hours.

Mrs. Mary Taylor returned Tuesday evening, to her home in Webster, after spending a few days with relatives in Danielson.

Francis McDonald, student for the priesthood at LaSalette college, Hartford, has returned to that city to resume his classical studies, having spent the summer vacation with Michael Head and family, of Academy street.

As they individually happen to view it, next Tuesday will be a day of joy or mourning for hundreds of school children of the town of Killingly, for the schools reopen that day for the fall term.

"A wreck a day keeps the creditors away," might be used as a slogan by the garage men if they were not all so prosperous that a version like that seems preposterous. The point is that a wreck a day is not below the average for motorists negotiating this territory the past week.

Something was said in this column a little more than a fortnight ago about the price sweet corn grown hereabouts was bringing in the Providence market—and it broke the retail price here. Now comment has been solicited for the price at which native new potatoes are selling, but it simply can't be quoted. The potato market isn't so bad for the grower, in fact, it is very good.

Tuesday morning the funeral of Miss Leah Frenette was held from her home in Moosup with services at All Hallows church in that place at 9 o'clock, Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy being celebrant of the high mass of requiem. Burial was in All Hallows' cemetery. The bearers were Napoleon Demers, Raymond Savoie, Edmund Savoie, Raymond Wallace, Edward LaRose and Delphis Lambert. Louis E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

More machinery to be used in the construction of the new state highway between Morin avenue and the bridge at Elmville was on a side track in the local railroad yards Tuesday afternoon Though a steam shovel has been at work for nearly a fortnight on a cut-off of this highway at the old Davis farm, there is no interference as yet with traffic over the road.

Edwin Davis, son of Frank Davis of North Main street, is here from the west for a vacation. Mr. Davis, a graduate of Killingly High School, is a student at Ames University, Ames, Iowa.

Speaking of wasteful women, if there be such, comes the man who relates that his wife uses kindlings to light the gas stove.

For the past ten days it has been dry enough to induce the credulous to believe there is something in the Cloud Digger's long-range weather forecasts, after all. Which suggests another such effusion is due in just a little less than three weeks.

Many a man who likes to work will admit that there is fully as much fun in getting back on the job as there is in chuckling everything and going off on a vacation that may mean everything or nothing at all.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE IN JOSEPH HADDAD'S STORE

(Special to the Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Sept. 1.—Damage that may amount to as much as $600 or $800 was done to a building owned by S Diamond, of Putnam, at 55 South Main street and goods owned by the occupant, Joseph Haddad, early Tuesday morning. An alarm from Box 24 called out the fire department at 4:45 a. m., and the response was unusually prompt.

Frederick Dubue, an early riser, sitting on a bench outside his apartments in the Evans block, saw smoke issuing from the Diamond building, a story and a half frame structure, and pulled in the alarm.

The fire was rapidly gaining headway when firemen started to pour streams of water into the structure. At no time was the fire particularly menacing. It was subdued, after the building had been considerably damaged interiorly and Haddad's stock of goods damaged to some extent.

Haddad had been operating a tobacco store and poolroom in the building for some time past. He had been ordered to vacate, that the store might be turned over to a lessee who had prepared to open another business enterprise there on September 1.

A state police officer checked up the fire, looking the interior of the building over thoroughly, during Tuesday forenoon. Haddad is understood to have had insurance of about $1,000 on his stock and equipment and the building was also insured. The fire was in the midst of a string of frame buildings that would have presented a real problem for the firement to handle, had the balze gone out of control.

CAPT. HAMILTON LONE HERO RESCUED "SEPTEMBER MORN"

(Special to the Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Sept. 1.—As a whole, the public is not brave—even where human life is at stake. This was strikingly demonstrated at Tuesday morning's fire at the Haddad poolroom, in Main street, when Captain C. A. Hamilton of the Captain Put Engine company saw fit to spring a practical joke on the crowd that had gathered to watch the firemen battle against a blaze that was threatening to destroy a building.

Captain Hamilton had made his way to the second floor of the building, seeking the safety of any person who might have been sleeping there when the fire broke out. He found no living thing, but espied a wax-headed figure with brown hair—such a form as is familiar to all observers of windows where dresses and other such garments are placed on display.

"Howdy, September Morn," quoth the captain as he crooked his arm about the waist of the form and carried it toward a front window of the building commanding a view of the street and the crowd below. There with his burden, in view of the proletariat, the captain called lustily for help. The psychology of the situation was perfect. The crowd shrank back in horror. The captain was left to be a hero on his own account. Not a soul wanted a share in the honor of saving the stricken "woman." The captain could bring her down or let her stay, for all the crowd cared—they hadn't signed up as life savers, anyway! It was an interesting situation—one that demonstrated what percentage of chance a person has of getting assistance from on-lookers if one happens to be in serious straits. It was an apt illustration of the old wheeze "Let George do it!"

The firemen had a great laugh about the whole affair and took the "lady" up to the fire station, where she was a guest for the day.

STAFFORD

Fred Tholen of Michigan is the guest of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Tholen.

Miss Iris Webster of Scitico has been the guest of local relatives for several days.

Mrs. J. Depeau and daughter Evelyn, were guests of relatives in Willimantic last week.

Miss Annie Woffecke of Springfield is spending her vacation with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. and A. Easton have returned to Cleveland, Ohio, after being guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lougheed.

Miss Clara Findeisen of Springfield is the guest of relatives here.

Mrs. Jennie Scripture has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sibley.

PUTNAM

Today (Wednesday) is the Windham County Guernsey Association Field Day. The members will visit three farms in Farmington and one in New Britain and will include a visit to the famous Alsop Farm which has 70 acres of alfalfa and 100 head of cattle. There are many people making the trip, which is in charge of Alexander Maitland of Thompson. The round-up is to be at the Willimantic County Court House Wednesday morning. Officers of the Association are: Malcolm Wibley of Plainfield, president; Frank Anderson of Woodstock, secretary and treasurer.

Floyd Scott driving an automobile owned by Luther M. Keith, state road supervisor for this district, was in a collision Monday night with a car owned and driven by a man named Tripp of Jewett City. Scott was coming out of Lamont street into Woodstock avenue; the other car was going west on the avenue. No one was injured; the Keith car was badly damaged, the other slightly.

Miss Theresa Bayer, surgical nurse at the Day Kimball Hospital has returned from a visit to New York.

Hosmer and Miss Veleria Mulford have returned from a visit to Leo Dusseault, at Fitchburg, Mass.

Mrs. Leon Wreft and daughter Pauline, of Webster, Mass. have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson of George street.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Russell and little granddaughter, Nancy Moss, have returned from their summer home at Juniper Point, Maine. Mrs. Russell and Nancy have been spending the summer there and Dr. Russell has been there for the past two weeks.

Miss Margaret Tattersall of New Haven has returned home, having spent several weeks as the Guest of the Misses Dolan and their niece, Miss Catherine Geary, of Chapman street.

Miss Ruth Pelletier was called to Millers Falls by the death of her grandfather. Miss Pelletier is a nurse at the Day Kimball Hospital.

Philip Zaltas has returned from a trip to Florida.

The Woodstock Golf Club is making arrangements for its annual Labor Day tournament.

Mrs. Eric Johnson and daughter, Miss Annette Johnson have been visiting relatives in West Woodstock.

F. Hopkinson Smith and son have been the guests at "Sunset Hill," in Woodstock.

Mrs. Agnes Wood of Pleasant street has returned from a visit to Miss Nellie Chandler, at Woodstock.

W. H. Blackmore and daughter Margaret have returned from a two weeks' trip to Block Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Morrison of New York have ended their visit at the Ben Grosvenor inn and have gone to Kennebunkport, Maine.

Mrs. William Studley and little daughter, of Providence are visiting Mrs. Frank Martin, who is a summer resident at Pomfret.

Mrs. Thompson has returned home spending several weeks with her son Ernest Thompson at Bennington Vermont.

Miss Priscilla Smith of Boston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Smith of Seward street.

Henry S. Lyon, Manager of the local Telephone Exchange, and his family are moving from Center street to South Main street.

Peter Dumas of Monson, Mass. has been visiting Putnam relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Geer of Malden, Mass. have been guests of Mr and Mrs. Jasper Holmes for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene and Miss Darsa Dodge have returned to their home at Belchertown, after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Davis.

Miss Connie Lafortune of Southbridge is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adhemar Benoit of Barber street.

Mrs. Samuel Diamond and daughter Elsie have been visiting friends and relatives in New York.

Miss Mary Potvin of Church street is spending her vacation of two weeks with relatives in Fitchburg, Mass.

Miss Elizabeth Rafferty has returned from a visit to friends at Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter have returned to their home in New York after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Averill of Pleasant street.

Misses Elizabeth and Marguerite Grosvenor, who have been spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Grosvenor, at Pomfret, return today (Wednesday) to their home at Malden, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGarry and son Terence have returned from Block Island.

J. C. Paine of Bridgeport has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Perry Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ray Hurlbut and family are camping at Webster Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tetreault and daughter, Rita, of Woodstock avenue are on a ten days' Motor trip.

Mrs. George H. Perry of Worcester has been visiting Frank Hopkins and family, on the Little River road.

Mrs. Edward Wakefield their daughter have returned from a visit with friends at Brooklyn, Conn.

NEARING "HIDDEN CITY" WITH CHINESE CARAVAN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Sept. 1.—Alan Priest, who is well known in this vicinity and is frequently a visitor with his cousins, the Misses Work, at Pomfret, has been in China for the past sixt months with the Langdon Warner expedition, "adventuring in Art." This expedition, which travels by caravan, has had many adventures with bandits and other perils of the deserts and is now nearing its destination, "The Hidden City."

Mr. Priest is commissioned by Harvard University, where he an assistant professor.

BOLTON

Miss Sara Sally Top of West Haven, has returned to her home after spending a few days with Miss Lavinia C. Fries.

Mrs. Henry J. Thompson, Mrs. J. Wesson Phelps and Mrs. Charles F. Sumner spent Tuesday at Watch Hill.

Mrs. John Conklin of Hartford spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Sumner.

Paul E. Clement spent Sunday in Columbia at Mrs. Kate E. Fuller.

Miss Mary L. Fuller of Manchester who has been spending two weeks with her aunt Mrs. Kate E. Fuller returned to her home Sunday.

Fred D. Finley of Somers was in town Sunday.

Peter Manezzia has returned home after spending a week in New York.

Mr. Howard Sumner of Rockville spent the week end with his aunt Mrs Jennie L. Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lum of New York has been visiting their daughter Mrs. Harley B. Dewolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Howard two sons, Earl and Chester are in Manchester Memorial hospital for minor operations.

Miss Mary Ella Sumner has returned home after spending a week in New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Rich Richard of Manchester were in town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ruggles of Springfield spent Sunday in town the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesson Phelps and Mrs. Abbie Howe motored to Worcester Sunday and their daughter Louise returned home with them after spending a week with her cousin, Edith Waite.

Ceaser Opizzi of Birch Mountain has sold his farm to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lombard of Manchester.

August Frank Frashey has sold his farm to Joseph Waserhoe of Manchester.

Ernest Frederick Strong of Bolton and Ruth Collins of Wapping are to be married Saturday Sept. 5 at the Congregational church in Wapping.

There is to be a dance Saturday evening.

Miss Murial Treat spent the week end with Miss Jeannette Sumner.

Mrs. Elsie M. Jones spent Sunday with Lavinia C. Fries and Sara Sally Top.

Mrs. Walter Howellett of Ashford has been spending a week with her mother Mrs. George H. Fuller.

Miss Lillian Feltman is to teach on Birch Mountain. School will open Sept. 8.

NORTH STERLING

One of the handsome litter, of Palisade Silver Gray Police puppies at William R. Spooner's was sold the past week to a party at Lynchburg, Virginia, the price paid was one hundred dollars.

Some complain of frost the past week which did some damage to gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanford, who have been spending two weeks at W. Fisher's returned to their home at New Britain Sunday.

The brush is being cut along the highway which makes a great improvement to auto drivers.

Telless Benway of Bridgeport called on friends here Saturday.

F. E. Biltgood with his mother from Danielson and Mrs. Earl Young and children of West Haven, visited Mr. and Mrs. George C. Spooner and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crowell, the past week.

CANTERBURY

Grace L. Dawley and Frederick A. Hicks attended the lecturers' conference at Storrs Aug. 25-26. There was a large attendance from New England states.

Plainfield Grange will present the Connecticut Traveling Gavel to Canterbury Grange No. 70 on September 2. All Grangers have been invited to be present.

A local young man went to the Scotland dance Saturday night and won the prize for being the handsomest man at the dance also one of the young ladies was a winner.

William Parkhurst, of Norwich spent the week end with his father and brothers.

Several from the Plains church attended services at Howard Valley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Weller left Monday for ew York after two weeks vacation. They took along their nephew Charles Eastland, for a month's visit.

The Frost school is to open Tuesday Sept. 8.

NORTH LYME

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Gavin are on a motor trip to Bennington, Vt. and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hewitt, Miss Ida Hewitt of Groton were callers at W. M. Sisson's Friday. Mrs. Sisson, Sr., motored to Middletown with them in the morning.

H. A. Gates and family and Mrs. Charles Porter were visitors at G. H. Strong's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sisson and Thomas Hyde were in New London, Monday.

Arthur Warren and family returned the first of the week to their home in Greenwich.

J. R. Warren who is seriously ill, the result of a shock ten days ago, is reported a little more comfortable.

ONE OF OUR POPULAR DESIGNS FOR STOUT WOMEN

Praiseworthy because of its adaptability to the needs of most Stout Women. Low Bust, Very Long Skirt, especially over hips and at back. Six Hose Supporters. Pink Broche. Sizes 26 to 34.

REGULAR PRICE OF THIS CORSET $5.50

SALE PRICE OF THIS CORSET $3.45

CARON'S SPECIALTY SHOP

140 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

New 1926 CHANDLER

"I've owned 8 cars but this is easily the finest!"

A wonderful way to judge and appreciate the new 1926 Chandler is by contrast.

Compare it with all the cars you have ever owned in the way it performs—and note the contrast!

Try out its marvelous Pikes Peak Motor on the longest, steepest hills you can find. Try it out in traffic. Throttle it away down. Step on it. Shift gears. Apply the brakes . . . .

You'll discover, as others discover, that you have never known a car to be so thoroughly and completely delightful.

P. S.—Small payments on long-time terms.

THE CHANDLER MOTOR CAR COMPANY CLEVELAND

DOLCO GARAGE

199 West Thames St. Norwich, Conn.

Do you eat between meals?

Next time you're tempted to "eat a bite" between meals—try WRIGLEY'S.

Don't overburden your stomach—don't humor a false appetite!

Let WRIGLEY'S stimulate a genuine hunger and get you ready for a good meal.

And then use it also, AFTER EVERY MEAL, as a pleasant digestive aid.

WRIGLEY'S "after every meal"

F107

AMERICAN WOOLEN COMPANY

Well Dressed America

No people on earth are more discriminating in their choice of clothing than American men and women. They have decided tastes in style, cut and fabric and their tastes are widely varied.

That is why the fabrics of the American Woolen Company are so popular. They meet every demand for style and color variation and they always give dependable service.

Demand American Woolen Company's fabric for custom-made or ready-to-wear-garments.

American Woolen Company

"Makers of Correct Fabrics for Men's and Women's Wear"

1794 1925

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

129 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 50c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-2.

Willimantic Office, Main St., Telephone 1131.

Norwich Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1925

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 29, 1925:
12,909

THE STRIKE COST.

Just what the effect of the coal strike is going to be in dollars and cents is difficult to tell at this time. Much will depend upon the length of it. Hard coal mining has stopped. There are the needed maintenance men at work but there is no production. This means that there is a daily loss in wages in the 328 mines of something like $1,105,000 each day the strike continues. In addition to that there must be added the loss that will accrue to the coal mining companies and as time goes on there will be others thrown out of work because idleness in the coal mines deprives them of their means of a livelihood.

Those involved in the transportation of coal may not feel the effects right away for it will be possible to move the surplus on hand but as that dwindles and is not replenished there will be less work for the transportation lines in the hard coal region. This will of course mean an added loss as a result of the strike. Business likewise feels the effect of such trouble and the financial effect is invariably far reaching.

If there is a general participation in the use of substitutes there will be an opportunity for such transportation as is curtailed in one locality to be transferred to others. That situation will be a bit different than if there were no fuel to be had but far more than the coal miners and coal operators are due to experience financial losses because of the present inactivity.

The coal strikes in the last quarter of a century have shown what serious financial effects are experienced. And this applies to others than the consumers. The waste piles up in huge sums and is shared in by not only those concerned but by those who are dependent upon that industry. What the effect this year will be depends upon the length of time there is a stoppage of mining activity. It is certain to be larger than it ought to be no matter how short the period of idleness is.

GERMANY'S FIRST YEAR.

Because of the change which was brought about by the Dawes plan there cannot fail to be deep interest in the way it has worked out during the first year. It is not to be held that first year is the one to determine whether the plan is going to be a success. The first year is in fact providing no such test. It is the easy year for consideration has been given to the difficulties involved in putting it into operation, the handicaps of getting it to work smoothly and the decided change which the operation of the plan meant. It addition it is to be realized that Germany has also been given the benefit of a loan during this first year which is not to be experienced every twelve months, while it is required to increase its payments as the years go on. During the first year it has not experienced the peak load of the Dawes plan.

What does furnish a reason for satisfaction is that in following the requirements of the Dawes plan Germany has done what was expected of it. Germany has gone on record as complying, there has been a removal of obstructions which had previously characterized its action and while it has been meeting its obligations it has been creating a much more favorable impression among its neighbors. It is also during this first year that Germany has experienced the relief of the withdrawal of the French and Belgians from the Ruhr.

It seems improbable that Germany has not seen the value of the Dawes plan and being convinced of its merits will put all efforts forward to reap the continued benefits through strict compliance.

The harder years are to come but each year should see Germany in better shape to meet the requirements. The easy terms at the beginning were made for that very purpose. Given a chance to get on its feet, which it is doing if we judge by reports, Germany is getting the aid which it needs now to shoulder a bigger burden which comes in a couple more years. A good beginning gives encouragement for a successful ending.

CLEANING UP BOSTON.

It doesn't appear how long the Boston authorities knew of the existence of the conditions which were disclosed by the raid in Boston Chinatown, but they nevertheless took the proper method of dealing with them when it started its cleanup campaign. The tong outbreaks appear to have been responsible for it, but the discovery of quantities of firearms, opium, liquor, ammunition, deadly weapons and gambling devices shows that there were conditions which were in violation of the law and should not exist, whether they were the property of a tong or any other organization.

While it may be that there are others outside of the Chinese who are engaged in the use and distribution of opium and liquor, and who may be supplied with as interesting a collection of firearms for the purpose of meeting any sudden invasion or any warfare between organizations, there is no justification for any of them and knowledge that such exist is good and sufficient reason for bringing them where they can be penalized under the law.

There is no reason for attempting to justify the wars among the tong members. It is to be expected that they will comply with the law of this country, and when they do not it is time that due efforts were made to impress them with that necessity. But before and while that is being done there is excellent reason for imposing the same obligation upon all others. The law against narcotics, liquor and firearms isn't for just one class. It applies to all and when it comes to enforcement it should apply to all. If we how to the line and let the chips fall where they may there can be no criticism. If on the other hand we pick out the Chinese to make an example of and ignore many others we stand in a bad light and present a distressing picture to those who are guided by what others do and are encouraged to disobey law through laxity of enforcement.

No reason exists for believing that the Chinese are due for any more than they deserve, but it is a dose that should be meted out to all and not to a few.

CANADA'S CHANCE.

What is more logical than that Canada should make a serious effort to obtain a part at least of the surplus population of the British Isles. Conditions in England have been such for a considerable time as to cause unemployment among a large number of people, but it is estimated that there are in the neighborhod of three million in excess of the number that can be provided for through the normal occupational activities. That being the case it is inevitable that there will be unsatisfactory conditions at home or else many of that number will think seriously of moving elsewhere.

There has always been a tide of emigrants from that country to various quarters of the globe. Canada has received some, Australia looks for many and not a few have come to this country while others have gone to various British colonies. Canada has been holding out inducements to settlers for a considerable time. It wants those who will stay there and grow up with the country. It wants those who will make the best Canadians and it is natural that it should seek to get as many as possible from England.

While England may be overcrowded there's no possibility of such a condition being reached in Canada for sometime to come. Those who seek new homes are not always inspired by the offerings of those who are seeking new settlers, and it remains to be seen whether Canada can develop sufficient interest in the surplus three million to get all those it is willing to take or anxious to get. With restrictions upon immigration to this country the advantages of Canada must come in for due consideration. It's Canada's golden opportunity.

BUTLER'S JOB.

It is only a matter of four months to the first of the new year at which time it has been explicitly stated that General Butler of the marine corps, who has been serving as director of public safety at Philadelphia during last and this year, will either return to or resign from that organization. Thus when it is learned through expressions by General Butler to friends that he proposes to abandon his office with the close of this year it is only what was to be expected.

Being loaned by the government to perform this service for the city of Philadelphia he has remained at the post longer than was anticipated and longer that he believed would be necessary. He took the job under the belief that the desired clean up could be quickly effected. He was not aware of the opposition that existed in that city to any such change. It was only by close contact with the job and the many forms of opposition that he could justly appraise the task he had assumed.

General Butler has had his difficulties. He has found that directing a body of marines is far different than tackling undesirable big city conditions, where political influences and and vice influences work in a subtle manner for the obstruction of law enforcement. General Butler has faced many problems. Some of them he has overcome and some he has modified. Philadelphia is unquestionably a different city than when he began his work. He has been able to bring to light the reason for conditions of the past and to indicate the cooperation one in his position must get if there are going to be checked or ended. The lasting effect of his work will depend altogether upon the man who is selected to follow him and the manner in which he is supported.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Are you going to get up early this morning to watch the new dry army go over the top?

The man on the corner says: who can remember the days when touring was done by trolleys?

Gertrude Ederle in deciding to try again to swim the English channel shows the true American spirit.

Another week and the vacation season will be over for those who go to school and those interested in getting them there.

It will soon be time for a careful survey of the strawhats and bathing suits as regards their serviceability for another year.

MacMillan is bringing home a lot of odd arctic creatures. Did he catch them flying about an electric light on a real dog day night?

It is good news when Mexico announces its intention to start paying its debt. It will be still better when the payments are received.

When the estimate was made that the people of this country would be swindled out of a billion dollars this year was the Florida land boom taken into consideration?

With Uncle Same pressing European countries for debt adjustments before congress convenes it is to be realized that the big tourist season should make it easy.

THE JUNGLE LOOK

Despite all her furious tennis and cool golf, Mabel was a home body and desired a nice little home with a nice husband to go with it. But she lacked technique, so she frightened every man she met.

Yet she treated men, she thought, as other girls treated them. She flattered them and allowed them to talk business problems and soul problems, in her flattery, however, the boys saw pitfalls and some of them commented upon the "jungle look" in her eyes.

Jack even succeeded in frightening Tom Miller. Attracted by her skill with a tennis racket, he went to see her one evening. But not again. He, too, had shied from the jungle look.

"What's the matter with me?" Mabel asked one of her married girl friends. "Why do they all bolt? Am I clumsy or something? Is my nose shiny, or what?"

Her friend could not, or would not, tell her. Carrie had had little trouble finding a man, being coy and cuddly from birth, and she declined to discuss Mabel's shortcomings, fearing to lose Mabel's friendship.

But Mabel found out at last. She heard herself being discussed backstage one night during a Little Theater guild rehearsal. The gossipers were men and were talking freely, not realizing that beyond the flimsy canvas back drop were two attentive ears. And she heard the voice of Tom Miller say:

"Mabel? Mabel is too man hungry. I'm scared of her!"

The girl thus heard for the first time of the disadvantage about which the town was talking, and learned at the same time to hate one Tom Miller most cordially.

Presently she decided that she was no longer interested in men. She took up dancing, deciding that she would have a career rather than a husband.

She confided in no one, but with the determination that had made her a junior golf champion and won her a dozen tennis cups she developed her dancing until she was good. And for nearly a year she avoided men with an earnestness that was noticeable.

"What's got into Mabel?" people asked. "She hasn't been to a party for months."

No one could say at that time, but the mystery began to clear up when Mabel appeared as a professional dancer at one of the vaudeville theaters and made such a hit that she was offered three contracts from as many agencies. She accepted a proposition with the Keiths and breezed away.

A year later Tom Miller ran into her in New York and made her take lunch with him.

She was a different Mabel—cool, haughty and bored.

"What's the matter with you?" Tom asked bluntly.

"Nothing," she said in a tone which informed him that it was none of his business.

"But there is," he insisted, "and it's no use trying to upstage me, for I won't be upstaged. . . ."

He assailed her with abuse, humor, anecdote, and natural charm until he almost battered her out of her stage self—and before he left her that afternoon Tom Miller was very much in love with Mabel.

For weeks thereafter, Tom continued the campaign, bombarding her with flowers and candy, compliments and proposals. Before Mabel realized what was going on she had, without an effort, caught the man she so earnestly had wanted a year before.

The choice between a man and a career loomed. The alternatives were pretty evenly balanced. She did not have to flee to the stage for soul comfort. She was on the stage. She did not have to risk the chance of missing a man, for she had a man.

"Tom," she said, "I have my career."

"Bosh!" said Tom. "You may think you will choose a career in preference to the most glorious adventure a woman and a man can have, but I don't believe it. It wouldn't be the sportsmanlike thing to do at all."

She began to break down.

"But, Tom, last year I wanted to be a wife so terribly . . and . . . and you wouldn't even notice me. . . ."

"That was last year," and Tom applied the crown to his argument in the way of a very determined caress. "Listen, darling, and don't get sore at me. . . . Last year your technique was faulty. But now—"

They had a glorious quarrel, then but it turned out well for both.—Chicago News.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

The Duke of Sutherland, who has been asked to come over this month to open the New York Radio Exposition owes the invitation to the fact that he is president of the Radio Association of Great Britain. Though probably the largest landowner in England, the young Duke, who succeeded to the title in 1913, is far from being a man of leisure. He has taken an active part in public affairs, has served as Under-Secretary in the Air Ministry, and during the past few years has taken a keen interest in radio and its development. The Duke was born in 1888, and educated at Eton. In 1912 he was married to Lady Eileen Butler, the eldest daughter of the Earl of Lanesborough. The Duke has visited America several times, the last occasion being in 1923 when he Secretary.
the operation of lighter than air craft in the United States.

Stories That Recall Others

Good Enough

Grocers are accustomed to answering penetrating questions about the merits of their wares, Perkins of Perkinville was no exception to this rule.

"Are they really fresh?" demanded a woman customer who had gone to buy eggs.

"They certainly are," replied Perkins.

"You're sure of that? Because I'm so frightened of bad eggs. I must have them really fresh.

"Boy," called out the grocer to his assistant, "just run to the back room and see if this morning's eggs are cool enough to sell yet."

Faded

Mary, aged three, went over to the neighbors the other day and while walking through the flower garden observed some that were much wilted. She turned to the neighbor and said:

"Your flowers are like ours; they are all tired out."

Today's Anniversaries

1666—Beginning of the Great Fire of London, which almost destroyed the city.

1789—The Treasury Department of the United States was organized, with Alexander Hamilton as 1810—A pair of mummies were exhumed in a cave in Warren county, Tennessee.

1839—Henry George, the celebrated exponent of the single tax, born in Philadelphia. Died in New York City, Oct. 29, 1897.

1862—The San Francisco Stock Exchange was organized.

1893—Great damage resulted from a cloudburst at Guyton, Ga.

1898—Wilford Woodruff, president of the Mormon church, died in San Francisco.

1923—Italy announced she would not submit to the league of nations as an arbiter in the controversy with Greece.

1924—U. S. globe-girdling aviators flew from Labrador to Newfoundland.
Laying of the submarine cable from New York to Rome was begun.

Today's Birthdays

Hiram P. Maxim, president of the American Radio Relay League, born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 66 years ago today.

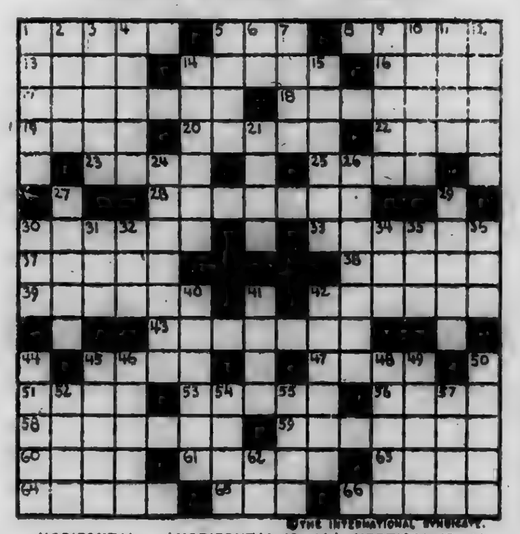
Henrietta Crosman, long a prominent actress of the American stage, born at Wheeling, W. Va., 55 years ago today.

Hoke Smith, former Georgia governor, U. S. senator and cabinet officer born at Newton, N. C., 70 years ago today.

Hiram W. Johnson, United States senator from California, born at Sacramento, 59 years ago today.

The battleship Oregon sailed on its famous cruise "around the Horn" from San Francisco, March 19, 1898. Captain Charles E. Clark, who commanded the vessel during the war of 1898, was the fourth commander of the battleship Oregon.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



(©The International Syndicate.)

HORIZONTAL
1-Quickly
5-Animal's foot
8-Foremost
13-Quintessence
14-The end
16-Close
17-Continued stories
18-Sailors' baggage
19-Emerald isle
20-Earnest
22-Greek god of love
23-Step
25-Organs
28-Eye doctor
30-Combat
33-Qualify
37-Perfect
38-To let
39-Packed in cans
42-Plums
43-Render friable by heat
45-Wagers
47-Steep rugged rock
51-Fibrous plant product
53-Rough to the ear
56-Long color

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)
58-More savory
59-Sagacious
60-Eastern prince
61-Hesitate
63-Dwarf animal
64-Pertaining to nose
65-Conjunction
66-Slight depressions

VERTICAL
1-Terminal recess in church (pl.)
2-Wharf
3-In a position for motion (naut.)
4-Porcelain
5-Italian city noted for tower
6-One, or any
7-Bread
9-Internal
10-Assumes erect posture
11-Granulated food starch
12-Braid of hair
14-Plunder by fraud
15-Most certain
21-Strong wind

VERTICAL (Cont.)
24-Gather
26-Painter's studio
27-Means of communication
29-Besiege
30-Bridle mouthpiece
31-Half a score
32-Brownish
34-Combining form, large
35-State of equality
36-Steep in water
40-Rushed with violence
41-Blemish
42-Make secure
44-Frequently
46-Foundation
48-Additional
49-Burning
49-Famous dam
50-Religious bodies
52-Tibetan priest
54-Territory
55-Spade-like implement
57-Emcee
62-Manganese (abbr.)

SOME MIDDLE-AGED WOMEN ARE AILING ALL THE TIME

Mrs. Ackerman and Mrs. Mayer Tell Women How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Them at This Trying Period

MRS. ELSIE ACKERMAN CONVOY, OHIO

Convoy, Ohio.—"During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisements I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has straightened me right out and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it! It is helping me wonderfully!' And she took three bottles of it. You can use my testimonial if you wish." — Mrs. ELSIE ACKERMAN, Convoy, Ohio.

Mrs. Mayer's Experience

Litchfield, Conn.—"I have given your medicine a fair trial (I am on my fifth bottle) and can truthfully say that it has helped me. I am at the Change of Life and was not able to sleep nights, had indigestion, palpitation of the heart, pains in my right and left sides (more so if I hurried), had a rapid beating in my left ear and dreaded to see night come. I felt smothered if I lay on my left side, I had gas dreadfully, at times felt as if some one had me by the throat, had hot waves through me and sometimes I would shake in spells of nervousness. I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot praise it enough. I can say it does all it claims to do and I can recommend it to my friends. I can sleep much better, the pains in my sides are gone, I am not so nervous, my digestion is much better, and I very seldom have the hot waves. I must say that the Vegetable Compound is the best medicine for women's ills and I will answer letters from women asking about it." — Mrs. JOSEPH MAYER, Sr., Box 36, Litchfield, Connecticut.

Peter Rabbit Grumbles

You naught may ever hope to gain
By grumbling at the falling rain.
—Old Mother Nature.

It was raining. It had been raining all day. It had rained all the day before and the day before that. Of course it didn't rain every minute of all that time, but there wasn't a minute when it wasn't either raining or promising to rain. Peter Rabbit didn't like it. No sir, he didn't like it. It had kept him at home in the dear old Briarpatch. He didn't like so much wetness. Much of the time he spent in a hole in the ground in the middle of the dear old Briarpatch. It had once been the home of Johnny Chuck's grandfather. In there Peter and Mrs. Peter were at least dry.

Now the rain made no real difference to Peter, excepting that it kept him at home. Privately little Mrs. Peter thought this a good thing. She hoped it would keep on raining. It didn't begin to make as much difference to Peter as it did to some other little folks. Of course, there were some who rejoiced in the rain. Jerry Muskrat, Billy Mink, Little Joe Otter, Sporty the Turtle, Grandfather Frog, Paddy the Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. Quack, and a few others who delight in water, enjoyed the rain. Their waterproof coats couldn't be wet through. Besides, this water that fell from the clouds washed a great deal of food into the Smiling Pool and the Laughing Brook for some of these. But there were others whose coats were not so waterproof, like Happy Jack Squirrel and Chatterer the Red Squirrel, and Striped Chipmunk, and Tommy the Flying Squirrel, and Whitefoot the Wood Mouse, and Reddy Fox and Johnny Chuck. And so they did not enjoy the rain.

"Never have I seen such weather," grumbled Peter in the middle of the afternoon, as he poked his head out of the door of Briar-patch for a look around. It had stopped raining but it looked as if it might rain again any minute. "I should think Old Mother Nature was trying to drown some of us out. Goodness, I would like to know what real hot sunshine feels like. Being wet all the time makes me feel shivery, and there isn't anything to do but eat and sleep."

"Hush," cried a squeaky little voice. "You ought to be thankful that you can do that, Peter Rabbit. If you can do that I don't see that you have anything to grumble about."

Peter looked up, for that squeaky voice had come from above his head. Flitter the Bat swooped low just over him. Peter opened his eyes very wide in surprise. "What are you doing out this time of day?" he cried as Flitter swooped down close to him again.

"Trying to get something to eat," squeaked Flitter.

"But I thought you never hunted by daylight," cried Peter. "I didn't know that you could hunt by daylight. I thought light hurt your eyes."

Flitter gave a squeaky little laugh. "All the light there's been for the last three days wouldn't hurt anybody's eyes," he cried. "I've seen more light long after jolly round Mr. Sun has gone to bed behind the Purple Hills than there is now, and it is only the middle of the afternoon. Of course, I ought to be asleep. It is my time for sleeping. People should always be asleep at the proper time. If everybody slept at the time they should sleep it would save a lot of trouble in this world. Yes, sir, it would so. Now I hear you grumbling that you hadn't anything to do but to eat and sleep. My goodness, Peter Rabbit, if I could eat and sleep I certainly wouldn't grumble. I can't see that you have anything to grumble about. No, sir, I can't see that you have anything to grumble about."

"Well, I don't see why you can't eat and sleep if you want to," retorted Peter. "If I can eat and sleep why can't you eat and sleep?"

"On account of the rain" replied Flitter. "On account of the rain. I should think you'd know that."

"But the rain doesn't get you any wetter than it does me," replied Peter. "I don't believe my fur coat is any more waterproof than your fur coat. I may grumble because there is too much rain, but you may be sure that I don't let it interfere with my meals."

"You're lucky," squeaked Flitter. "You're lucky and don't know it."

(Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess.)

"Trying to get something to eat," squeaked Flitter.

The next story—Why Flitter Had to Go Hungry.

Garrote Idle for 19 Years

Capital punishment, unknown in Cuba since 1906, is to have a revival. President Machado recently stated that all future death sentences will be executed. Two cases, both from Pinar del Rio, have been confirmed by the criminal section of the supreme court, sentencing Valentin Martinez and Nasario Hernandez to death.

"I have not yet received the sentence which condemns to death Martinez," said Secretary of Justice Barraque, "but if there exists no reason to the contrary, it is certain that the president and his secretary, of justice will inflexibly comply with the law.

"And the sentence of death of our courts, to whose majesty we all have profound respect, will be complied with quickly and without procrastination, in the form which our legislation places in force."

The Norwich Savings Society

Incorporated 1824.

"A Century of Service."

DEPOSITS MADE ON OR BEFORE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, WILL BE ENTITLED TO INTEREST OR DIVIDENDS FROM SEPTEMBER 1.

LIBERTY BOND COUPONS DUE SEPTEMBER 15, WILL BE ACCEPTED ON DEPOSIT AS CASH.

BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, DIVIDENDS WILL BE CREDITED QUARTERLY—OCTOBER 1, JANUARY 1, APRIL 1, JULY 1.

POETRY

THE BANDSTAND

Many small towns are installing radios in their bandstands, thus eliminating the village band.

How dear to this heart is the band of my childhood,
The band that could never play anything new;
The cornet, the tuba, the flute carved from wildwood,
And the drummer, as proudly she drumsticks he threw;
The cymbals, and likewise the artist who played 'em,
The cross-eyed trombonist, whose tones were dark brown;
Our leader, the barber, who, after he'd played 'em,
Charmed all of the suffering men of the town;
And even the bandstand, the paint-lacking bandstand,
The jackknife-carved bandstand, the pride of the town.

But how to base use has descended this treasure;
A radio hangs from its rafters so bare;
Far-scattered the players who once gave us pleasure;
Our programs now come over miles of thin air;
We get the jazz hits just as soon as they're written—
A tune that's a week old we greet with a frown;
But sometimes with grief o'er the past are we smitten.
When we meet at our radio stand in the town.
The once so-called bandstand, the knothole filled bandstand,
The now bandless bandstand that graces our town.
—Arthur Chapman, in Ladies Home Journal.

MY LITTLE TOWN

Over my little town
White clouds are sailing.
Above my little town
Five steeples cleave the air.
About my little town
Brown hills are calling.
Within my little town
Beasts have their lair.

Over my little town
Great birds go soaring.
Above my little town
The moon floats pale.
About my little town
White birches whisper.
Within my little town
Joy is frail.
—By Mary Edgar Comstock in Scribner's.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

He: Do you like codfish balls?
She: I don't know. I've never been to any.—The Progressive Grocer.

Visitor (listening to man playing saxophone)—Local talent?

The Long-Suffering One—Yes, local and limited.—Michigan Gargoyle.

Mrs. Heck—Don't you think your husband would be happier if you let him have his own way more?

Mrs. Peck—He might be happier, but I wouldn't.—Boston Transcript.

"I love you—"
"Really?"
"But don't tell your husband."
"Why?"
"It might get back to my wife."—University of Oklahoma Pelican.

Slow-paying Customer: I should think you'd give me an extension of time—as loyal a customer as I am.
Hardware Man: Loyal?
Customer: Certainly! I do all my owing at your store.—Good Hardware.

Dora—"May I borrow your new hat, dear?"
Nellie—"Certainly! But why all this formality of asking permission?"
Dora—"Because I can't find it."—Punch.

Mother—"Why aren't you practicing your piece Johnny?"
Johnny—"I've been practicing all the time. There are rests in this march, and I'm practicing them over and over until I know them perfect."

A clergyman advised a parishioner a somewhat morose woman, to take up some subject of study that would lend variety to her daily routine.

"Oh, I could never master any subject," she replied.

"What! Not even your husband?" exclaimed the clergyman, with an effort at humor.

"My husband!" came the retort. "He's not a subject; he's an object."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Halley's comet has a record dating back to 240 B. C.

Gambling is a criminal offense under the Japanese law.

A man by the name of Bolivar established Bolivia in 1827.

Practically nothing was known of England before the time of Caesar.

A Swiss nobleman was made emperor of Germany in the year 1273.

The Mohammedan population of the world is estimated at 227,000,000.

Latitude and longitude are said to have been determined first in 162 B. C.

There are more than 3,000 radio parts manufactured in the United States.

It is said that bloodless operations can be performed with the aid of radio.

A model airplane was recently built from plans drawn by a medieval engineer.

The olive and the avocado or alligator pear, are the only two fruits on man's menu that are rich in fat.

Three-tenths of the earnings of a Belgian convict are given to him on the expiration of his term of imprisonment.

A sturgeon recently caught off the North Carolina coast measured over nine feet in length and had a market value of $300.

Miss Margaret Runciman, a recent society bride in London, defied popular superstition by having her six bridesmaids gowned in pale jade green.

A "secret garden" for the benefit of children, birds and flowers, is planned in Central Park, New York, as a memorial to Frances Hodgson Burnett the novelist.

A law enacted recently in Mexico regulates all the details of production transportation, storage, and sale of milk, and sets up standards for the various grades of milk, especially that to be used for children.

To make an aerial mosaic map of the shore of Lake Okeechubee, Fla. naval photographers took 1,500 photographs from the air, and these were turned over to the coast and geodetic survey which will assemble and make use of the complete map.

The ten most injurious insect pests in the United States, as selected by the votes of 11 government entomologists are the boll weevil, Hessian fly, codling moth, corn-ear worm, mosquito, chinch bug, Colorado potato beetle, grasshopper, the house fly and the San Jose scale.

Recent savings bank figures show that the Germans are beginning to save again and in the last year and a half the number of depositors has grown rapidly. During the inflation period no one in Germany thought of saving money. It was a policy of either "spend it before it is worthless," or of "get-rich-quick." Gradually, however, with the stabilizing of the mark value, the wisdom of economy has begun to reassert itself. Government officials and brain workers furnish the largest percentage of the depositors.

Cuticura Preparations

Unexcelled in purity, they are regarded by millions as unrivaled in the promotion of skin and hair health. The purifying, antiseptic, pore-cleansing properties of Cuticura Soap invigorate and preserve the skin; the Ointment soothes and heals rashes and eruptions. The freely-lathering Shaving Stick causes no irritation but leaves the skin fresh and smooth. The Talcum is fragrant and refreshing.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 17, Malden, Mass."

Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

WEST END ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the West End Community association was held Tuesday evening at the Elizabeth street school, where first vice president C. Edward Carpenter presided and the annual reports showed a most successful year.

The prizes for laying or improving sidewalks were awarded as follows: first, $25, D. Orsthine of Spring street; second, $15, A. Schulman, 267 West Main St.; third, $10, Charles Jaskiewicz, Mt. Pleasant St.

The constitution was amended, enlarging the board of control from three to nine members.

The following officers were elected: President C. E. Carpenter, vice presidents, Chas. F. Wells, John D. McWilliams, Charles W. Parsons, secretary and treasurer, Frank L. Royce, assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Mary E. Coughlin, board of control (1 year) Mrs. F. L. Royce, Morris L. Bergstresser, Dr. C. W. Solomon; (2 years) Miss Lucy A. Murphy, Wm. C. LaRochelle, Carl Krause; (3 years) Miss Nina E. Perry, Robert W. Otis, Fred M. Oat.

Mr. Carpenter asked the co-operation of all members for the ensuing year as he accepted the presidency and a vote of appreciation was passed for the work done as president by Paul A. Brown who is now a resident of Hartford.

A rising vote of thanks was passed to Secretary Royce and the secretary was directed to send a letter of sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Otis in their recent bereavement.

The Star Spangled Banner was sung and ice cream and cake were served. The association has a present membership of 200 and has experienced a markedly successful year.

WILL BEGIN IMPROVEMENT ON UNION STREET

Street Commissioner John C. Donovan will start a force of men at work this (Wednesday) morning on the Union street improvement. The work will be started at the lower end, at Union square, and the entire street to its junction with Broadway will be covered with tar bound macadam. The $12,000 appropriation for this work was approved last June at the annual city meeting.

BECKWITH HOUSE IN MONTVILLE ON FIRE

A house known as the Beckwith house in Montville, was reported to be in flames about 2:15 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning. Owing to the lateness of the hour it was impossible to secure any details up to press time.

Starting for Florida

Three young men of this city started for Florida Tuesday morning. They intend to go by way of the transcontinental highway and their destination is Lake Worth. A Ford coupe is to be the chariot of honor. The young men are Paul Worth, Albert G. Rodgers Lee Talbot.

Returned From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Del LaPre and son Robert D. have returned to their home on Asylum street, following a two weeks vacation spent at Lake Lashaway, East Brookfield, Mass. They were accompanied by relatives and friends of Ware, Mass., and Norwich

OBITUARY

August Peltier

August Peltier, 56, father of Mrs. Philip Augur of Goodyear, Conn., died Sunday night at his home in Easthampton, Mass. Mr. Peltier is survived by his wife, three sons and five daughters, besides nine grandchildren.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Miss Eunice H. Gulliver is spending some time at Nantucket.

Miss Charlotte C. Gulliver is a guest at the Lakeview House, Greensboro, Vt.

Miss Aiken and Miss Jane McG. Aiken are at home, following a visit in Marblehead, Mass.

Grosvenor Ely has joined Mrs. Ely, who, with her daughter, Miss Frances Dana Colt is at Weekapaug Inn for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cranston have returned to their home on Freeman Avenue, after a fortnight's stay at Pleasant View.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Noble (Mary Carlisle) of Washington, D. C., have left town, after a brief visit at the Gulliver homestead, at Norwich.

Mrs. Robert W. Perkins, Miss Osgood, Miss Martha L. Osgood, Miss Mary E. Richards and Miss Mabe. S. Webb have concluded a stay of two weeks at Provincetown, Cape Cod.

Miss Nancy E. Lucas and Miss Mary C. Lucas reached Norwich Monday evening, having been passengers on S. S. Andania which left Hamburg August 19th. They have opened their home on Sachem street, after being abroad since March.

The Misses Cadden, of Broad street, who are spending the season at their cottage in Neptune Park, gave a sailing party Tuesday on the sloop yacht Carolyn, for their guest, their cousin, Miss Bessie Cadden of Montgomery, Ala. The yachting party went to the Clark Studio, Noank, for afternoon tea.

DON'T BE BALD

Thin-haired readers should use Parisian Sage hair tonic and scalp treatment at once and escape being bald. It's guaranteed to stop falling hair and itching scalp, banish all dandruff and make hair grow or money refunded. Lee & Osgood Co. and all druggists sell it. Remember the name—Parisian Sage—best for hair and scalp.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

1706 1925

Norwich Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1925

VARIOUS MATTERS

Tides will be high today, the 2nd.

Light vehicle lamps at 6:51 (S. T.) this evening.

In the shore towns of the county, Sunday was marked as the largest traffic day on record.

Miss Florida St. Cyr, and Misses Eva and Addie Stone of Attawaugan have been visitors at Spring Lake, R. I.

Residents of Moosup, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Salisbury have returned, after a stay of a week at West Dennis, on Cape Cod.

The coming Saturday, Sept. 5th will mean the end of Dog Days, which have not been particularly disagreeable this year.

Sergt. and Mrs. Joseph Eros have issued invitations for a masquerade ball to be held tonight (Wednesday) at Fort Mansfield, Watch Hill.

At Willimantic Camp Ground, the Neal cottage on Haven Avenue has been sold to Rev. E. J. Ayers and daughter of Norwich.

A section of the iron fence at the Otis Library, wrecked when bumped by an automobile several weeks ago, has been replaced.

The fifth annual reunion of the descendants of Robert Francis (1629-1712) is to be held at Grange hall, Nowington, Labor Day, Sept. 7.

September is a month with five Tuesdays, as August was a month of five Saturdays—a fact pleasing to everybody except landlords.

Capt. George Parmelee of Haddam, passed his 101st birthday Saturday. He received calls, congratulations and gifts from many friends.

Already the stores are having demands for articles intended for pupils' use or wear, when the Fall term of school begins, next week.

The republican electors of Willington are to meet in caucus at the Town Hall September 11 to nominate town officers for the next two years.

The revival of the big hat for women is said to have had a stimulating effect on the sales of ostrich feathers, which will be widely used this Fall.

The Rockville Chamber of Commerce is co-operating this year to make the 1925 Rockville Fair one of the biggest in the history of the association.

The mercury recahed 86 degrees during Tuesday afternoon, but there was an absence of much of the humidity which made Monday so uncomfortable.

Regular communication, Somerset Lodge, No. 34, F. and A. M., 7.30, d. s. t., tonight. E. A. Degree.—adv.

Leonard H. Healy, of Woodstock, deputy commissioner of agriculture and secretary of the board of agriculture, is to make an address today (Wednesday) at East Haddam Fair.

Women's silk scarfs for Fall are selling well in a wide range of handblocked futuristic patterns, although the printed scarfs in multi-colored effects are also in demand.

Bobbed Hair looks wonderful with the tiny tint of Golden Glint Shampoo. —Adv.

Advices to the jewelry trade indicate a notable vogue abroad for jade ornaments for formal wear. Among these are long-shaped barrettes, which have an oval piece of jade set in a corolla of leaves.

Renovation of the former Y. M. C. A. building on lower Broadway for the use of the new owners, N. S. Gilbert & Son has reached the stage where painters are touching up the exterior woodwork.

The improvements going on at Norwich Post Office will require at least ten days more for completion. The house-cleaning disturbs the force, but is by department orders and the confusion will soon be over.

Carpet men from Norwich are in New York for the $5,000,000 rug and carpet auction, which began Tuesday. The merchandise offered comprises 93000 bales of Axminster, velvet and tapestry rugs and carpeting.

The September White Ribbon Banner states that a medal contest book on the subject of peace has been published by the National W. C. T. U., which constitutes a special feature of the 1924-25 program for this department.

Stanley Rowe of Cincinnati became the men's tennis champion of Weekapaug by virtue of his victory over William L. Cochrane of Melrose in the final match of the tournament which has been held there. The final score gave the edge to Rowe, 6-1.

Thomas Bedford and daughter of Plainfield, Conn., accompanied by his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Lawton, of Ashaway, visited old home friends at Bradford during the week. Mr. Bedford's childhood was spent in Bradford.

Figures showing the expenditure by the Joint Distribution Committee of nearly $7,000,000 in Palestine during the past ten years for various philanthropic purposes, including the support of schools and hospitals and reconstructive work, were made public Tuesday.

Prince and Princess Edward Joseph Lobkowicz, who were married Saturday at Watch Hill, arrived at the Homestead at Hot Springs, Monday to remain until Thursday. They will sail Saturday on S. S. Paris for Europe to visit Prince Lobkowicz's mother in Vienna.

The Red Cross has announced that it will erect a building at the Sesqui-Centennial celebration to be held in Philadelphia next May in which it will place an exhibit depicting the various Red Cross services. The building will also be used as a first aid station and emergency hospital.

The double house just South of the former Second Congregational church and the house just below, No. 71 Church street, have been vacated by all tenants. It is rumored that the owners, the Plaut-Cadden Co. plan the erection of a big apartment house on the combined site.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison of Lewellyn Park, N. J., who have been at Watch Hill visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sloane, at their cottage returned home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Sloane and family will remain at their Fort Road home until the middle of September.

A number of complaints having been made to the State Police, at Groton Barracks, by motorists who have had near accidents by reason of the unguarded Roche herd of cows, the animals now take their daily morning and evening way along the Military Highway guarded by a man leading and another bringing up the rear.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lansing of Palatka, Fla., who have been spending three weeks with Mrs. Lansing's sister, Mrs. Charles H. Daniels, have left Tolland for New York state, to spend several weeks with Mr. Lansing's brothers and a sister who live in Troy and Schenectady. They will return to Florida by automobile.

A number of firms in Germany are using airplanes, conspicuously marked with the firm trade name, in flying exhibitions as an advertising stunt.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. H. Kane, and family have returned after spending a week at Groton Long Point.

Rev. George C. Chappell of Hartford recently visited friends in Montville, a former pastorate.

Mrs. Clara Fox of Norwich is the guest of Miss Julia Adams at Willimantic camp ground.

Mrs. Harry Storrs, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and Miss Esther Olson of Chaplin have been visitors in Norwich.

District Superintendent Rev. M. E. Genter and family have returned to their home in Norwich from Willimantic campground.

R. P. Stillman of Old Saybrook was in Norwich early in the week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Stillman.

Among the recent guests at Mrs. Ora Brown at Kozy Nook cottage, Poquetanuck, were Mrs. Annie D. Chapman and Master Earle P. Chapman, of 33 Peck street.

Miss Alice M. Ockford and Miss May E. Ockford have returned to Poquetanuck from Thomaston, Conn., where they visited their uncle, Frederick A. Canfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blood of Fitchburg, Mass., who have been motoring through the New England states were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Blood of the Shannon Building over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnes and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton, who have been spending the summer at Tamarack Lodge, Andover, have returned to their homes in Hartford.

W. H. Baturn of Allston, Mass., who has been the guest of Miss Idelia Scott and Mrs. A. F. Drury of 79 School St., has returned to resume his duties as entry clerk at the Custom House in Boston.

The Misses Alice and Mildred Rathbun of Lebanon Road, Franklin, are spending some time with their cousin, Miss Orissa Lee, at the home of the latter's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Nichols of High street, Willimantic.

SEASON HAS ENDED AT CAMP MOHICAN

Tuesday the first of September marked the closing of the fourth season of Camp Mohican on Gardner Lake. It has been a successful and happy season, one which will hold many pleasant memories and caused many steadfast friendships among the boys.

The outstanding event of the past week was the annual burning of the "Grouch." This glorious event was accomplished by many peppy songs, stories and yells and ample refreshments, which played no small part. The boys were happy to have with them many friends of the camp.

A few days ago the traditional hike around the lake was made. The old timers pointed out the places of interest, one of which was the quaint little building and grave yard of the Ruquam Baptist church.

With the end of the season just ahead the boys all gathered those things which were of no particular use to them and piled them together around the camp fire where they then held a regular auction sale, and though many things were bought and sold which were utterly useless to the buyer, all had a lot of fun and it was the scene of much hilarity.

Saturday, the 29th the boys were very kindly invited over to Camp Laurel where they witnessed several splendid plays given by the girls, who are highly commended for their acting.

Sunday the 30th the camp had final Sunday service, conducted by the Rev. Theodore Bachelier of Providence, R. I.

The visitors of the past week were: Mrs. Dollin, Hoboken, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Klugleman, New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Weiner, New York City, Mrs. Arch. E. Olpp, Union City, N. J., Miss Born, Union City, N. J., Mr. Randolph Koyner, Homestead, N. J., Miss Irene Pelsang, Union City, N. J., Mrs. J. C. Roegler, Union City, N. J., Miss Anna Roeger, Union City, N. J.

PAYS $25 FINE ON RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGE

Michael Litynski, of Niantic, driver of a Dodge sedan which overturned twice and resulted in injuries to Mrs. Litynski and Mrs. Nellie Gates of Niantic, Saturday, was arraigned Tuesday in the Waterford court on charges of reckless driving. He was found guilty and fined $25 and costs, which he paid. The defendant was ordered into court by State Policeman Albright, who investigated the circumstances attending the accident.

According to Litynski, he had been traveling behind a large oil truck. Two cars were between him and the truck just prior to the accident. The two machines ahead of him passed the truck and, he stated, when he tried to pass the truck near Graniteville the driver of the heavier machine stepped on the gas, making it difficult for him to find a clear passage ahead. The truck slowed down, he said, when another machine was observed coming in the opposite direction. He made a dash forward to get out of the path of the oncoming machine, but in so doing he lost control of his own machine.

WILL BE IN DISCUSSION AT CATHOLIC COUNCIL

Miss Helen Dodd of this city will be one of those participating in the discussion on educational problems and study clubs at the conference of the Connecticut Council of Catholic Women, which is to be held Friday and Saturday at Lakeville Manor, Lakeville.

The program includes discussion of immigration problems, rural social work, big sister work and educational problems and study clubs. Mrs. James Moran of New London is to participate in the discussion of big sister work and Mrs. Frank L. McGuire, of New London, a member of the state legislative committee, is to take part in the discussion on study clubs and educational problems.

TWO SISTERS MEET IN WAUREGAN AFTER 35 YEARS

After thirty five years Mrs. Delphine Boudreau of St. John, P. Q., Canada, arrived at Wauregan, Conn., Saturday and met her sister, Mrs. Napoleon Chagnon of that place. On a motor trip of 1,340 miles Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Daly and daughter Phyllis of New London, Mrs. John T. Goven of Wauregan, and Albert Chagnon of Wauregan arrived at Wauregan, Conn., Saturday. The party rode in two Ford cars leaving New London Monday August 17, touring to St. Anne de Beaupre via Vermont returning via Vermont and New Hampshire. The remarkable part of the whole trip was that not a penny was expended for repairs to the cars and not one puncture was experienced on the entire trip.

LOCAL BOY WINS MEDAL AT FT. TERRY

Dan Madio who has been training at the Citizens' Military Training Camp at Fort Terry was honored on August 29, by receiving a medal for marksmanship from the hands of Colonel Ferguson, commander of the Coast Defense along Long Island. Madio shot a score of 67 out of a possible 75. He was the highest in his battery. Other boys who were in camp were Danny Girece, George Gulle and Alfred Blake. All had a good time

ST. PATRICK'S LAWN FETE HAS RECORD ATTENDANCE AT K. OF C. HOME

More successful than ever before was the opinion expressed by those in charge of the annual lawn party of St. Patrick's parish which was held Tuesday afternoon and evening at the spacious grounds of the Knights of Columbus on Broadway. Well over 1,500 people crowded the brilliantly lighted grounds Tuesday night. The booths had a record business throughout the evening, until the three boxing bouts, feature attractions, drew the crowd around the raised ring and held their attention for nearly an hour. The staging of the exhibition bouts gave those in charge of the various booths their first breathing spell of the evening. At the conclusion of the boxing exhibition the crowd again surged around the booths and from then on until midnight they did a thriving busines.

The booths were gaily decorated and strings of colored electric bulbs with a large electric lamp over the combined bandstand and boxing ring ring lighted up the grounds. As usual the booths were erected around three sides of the large lawn in the rear of the K. of C. home, with the band stand on side at the left of the entrance to the grounds.

St. Joseph's Boy Scout band of Willimantic, an agreegation of talented boy musicians who handle their instruments in professional style gave a splendid concert programme throughout the evening, greatly enlivening the occasion with their faultlessly rendered numbers. The band, just previous to the opening of the lawn party in the evening, paraded from Preston bridge, through Main street and to the grounds.

Exhibition Bouts.

As the feature attraction of the evening a card of three exhibition bouts was staged under the direction of Rev. John J. Reilly, chairman of the entertainment committee. The bouts were pulled off about 10 o'clock.

With James P. Sheridan, announcing, George Dolan, timekeeper, and Louis (Kid) Kaplan referee, the referee's two brothers, Izzy and Noah Kaplan, staged the opening exhibition bout. In spite of the fact that Izzy and Noah are brothers, there was no stalling and the bout proved to be a real fast fight. Both got in a number of telling blows, and being pretty evenly matched, if a decision had been announced it would undoubtedly been a draw. The Kaplan boys went three fast rounds.

The second go was between Happy Rolanson and Mickey Rolanson, also brothers. Another "family" bout, this event proved to be as fast and exciting as the Kaplan bout. They went at each other as if a championship hung in the balance and were still going strong when the gong at the end of the fourth round brought this event to a close.

After a wait of about fifteen minutes Shelly Leonard of Bridgeport, the well known fighter who has attracted state wide attention, went four exciting rounds with Frank Busch. Busch took a lot of hammering but in return gave Leonard a stiff go. It was a fast and furious bout and both Leonard and Busch went against the ropes several times. Both landed a number of telling blows. During the third round Busch backed up against the ropes and slipped off the platform receiving a nasty scratch on his right leg. As Busch was disappearing off the platform Leonard rushed towards him and grabbed him under the arms. This with aid given by several of the spectators saved Busch from landing on the ground. He was helped back inside the ring and the battle was resumed. No decision was given.

In addition to the boxing bouts, the entertainment committee provided another attractive feature, a programme of snappy songs and dances by a number of the members of the "7-11" troupe of colored singers and dancers which appeared at the Palace Theatre during the evening. After the performance at the Palace a number of the troupe went to the grounds and entertained the delighted audience with a splendid programme that won them instant and hearty applause.

Children's Party

During the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock the grounds were open for the annual children's party. It was the largest crowd of children that ever attended an event of this kind in the parish. A doll carriage parade, running races, potato races, sack race, etc., served to provide amusement in plenty for the youngsters. The booths were well patronized and by the closing hour, 5 o'clock everything on the grounds had been sold, it being necessary to restock for the evening party.

The general committee in charge comprised:

Rev. Myles P. Galvin, chairman; Rev. John J. Reilly, vice-chairman; John P. Corcoran, secretary; Patrick F. Sweeney, Lawrence McGrory, M. C. Higgins, William J. McKnight, George H. Dolan, Alexander A. Kilroy, Morgan Cronin, Daniel O'Brien, Walter J. LaFontaine, Edward Londergan, James P. Sheridan, Henry Davis, Walter Clabby, Dominick Bailey, Jim Casey, Jr.

Leonard Suntheimer, Howard Ryan, Harold Riordan, Patrick Coleman, William Fitzgerald, John Kennedy, Bernard M. Coyle, Richard Marks, Jr., Albert Zeiglemayer, Fred Aldi, Edward Bogue, James J. Dutton, Thomas F. Shea, William LaRochelle, Edward G. McCay, George F. Madden, John P. Lyston, John McKenna, Daniel Mullen, Michael J. Kelly, William P. Ward, James P. Hayes, James Quinn.

William Dougherty, Charles H. Corcoran, Raymond La Fontaine, Terrence Finnegan, Henry Murphy, John Murphy, Matthew Sheridan, Francis T. Diggins, Walter Casey, Michael Kirby, Harry Powers, John R. Tarrant.

Misses May O'Brien, Justine Morrison, Mary Hamill, Mary Ulrich, Margaret Shugrue, Margaret Connell, Loretta Bellefleur, Anna McGrory, Esther Madden, Anna Holmes, Marguerite Ensling, Annie G. Stanton, Madeline Fitzgerald, Alice McKnight, Margaret Sheridan, Anna Connell, Katherine Corcoran and Sadie Kilroy.

Mrs. Thomas McVeigh, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, Mrs. Julia Brock, Mrs. Daniel J. McGillicuddy, Mrs. Nelson C. Disco, Mrs. James J. Dutton, Mrs. James J. Casey.

The workers at the various booths were:

Dolls—John McKenna, Jas. Casey, Kitty Corcoran, May O'Brien, John McKenna Jr.

Bridge Lamps—Thomas F. Shea, William LaRochelle, James Dutton, Raymond Wozniak, Anna Kelly, Helen Toomey, Mary Ulrich, Mary Hamill, Julia Cook.

Candy—Mrs. Thomas McVeigh, Mrs. James Casey, Mrs. James Dutton, Mrs. Roderick Sullivan, Miss Jennie McVeigh, Miss Irene Gallivan, Miss Bessie McVeigh, Miss Catherine Gallivan, Miss Eleanor Donavan, Miss Irene Day, Miss Mary McCrohan, Miss Loretta Gadle, Mrs. Patrick F. Sweeney, John Hanrahan, William Day.

Scooters—Albert Zeigelmayer, R. J. Marks Jr., Edward Bogue, Henry Gorman.

Boston Bags—James Sheridan, Walter Clabby, Henry Davis.

Grab Bag—Miss Anna Connell, Mrs. Jas. Dwyer, Mrs. Leo Jacques, M. B. Peterson, Catherine Coughlin.

Mystery Booth—James Quinn, James Egan, James Crawford.

Ukeleles—Daniel J. O'Brien, Raymond LaFontaine, May O'Brien, Thomas Gleason, Edward Londergan.

Decorations—John P. Corcoran, Kitty Corcoran, Catherine Farrell, Catherine Connell, Mary Kivlin.

Cake Booth:—Miss Annie Stanton, Miss Veronica Wenzel, Mrs. Jeremiah Lynch, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Mrs. Frederick LaFontaine, Mrs. Charles Lee, Miss Margaret Burns, Miss Nellie Murphy, James Fitzgerald, Raymond La Fontaine.

Fortune Teller Booth: — Howard Ryan, Patrick Coleman, Harold Reardon.

Fish pond:—Miss Loretta Bellefleur, Miss Catherine Harnahan, Miss Mary Burns, Miss May Fellefleur, Miss Margaret Burns, Anna Coleman, Miss Catherine Farrell, Miss Mary La Fontaine, Miss Anna Madden.

Blankets:—George F. Madden, Kenneth Skinner, Misses Nettie Holmes, Anna Madden, Esther Madden, Albert White, Margaret Enaling, Jennie McBurney, Helen McBurney.

Ice Cream and Soda:—Charles Corcoran, Terrance Finnegan, Alice McKnight, Margaret Sheridan, Mildred Carroll, John Murphy, Matthew Sheridan.

Lucky Booth: William Fitzgerald, John Kennedy, Bernard Coyle.

Cashiers: John R. Tarrant, Harry Powers, M. J. Kirby, Frank Powers. Tickets returned. Mrs. James J. Casey, Margaret Burns, Margaret Caples.

Hot dogs:—Frank T. Diggins, Edmond F. Lynch.

Ham and bacon:—John T. Lyston, Dominic Bally, John Fitzgerald, Walter E. Corrigan.

Special committees: Booth construction, P. F. Sweeney, chairman. Electrical work, Lawrence McGrory, chairman. Children's matinee, Miss Anna McGrory, chairman. Entertainment, Rev. John J. Reilly, chairman. Domestic booth, Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H. Div. 54, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, chairman. Admission tickets committee, Miss Loretta Bellefleur.

Ticket sellers and takers, M. C. Higgins, William J. McKnight, Alec Kilroy and George Dolan.

To Louis Kaplan goes the credit for the boxing bouts. He not only served the fighters but arranged for the bouts with no expense to the church or parish.

Officers John O'Neil, Daniel O'Neil, William Sharvan and Luke Riley were on duty around the grounds throughout the evening.

WATERFORD COURT DROPS GARRAHAN VAGRANCY CHARGE

Unable to establish any connection with recent breaks into freight cars and the laying of a railroad tie on the tracks near Waterford station several weeks ago, railroad police officials have dropped all charges against Frank Garrahan, 37, Miners Lane hovel-dweller, who was held for two weeks pending an investigation by the railroad police. Garrahan was also held by Waterford authorities on a technical charge of vagrancy but on Monday the charge was nolled by Judge Frederick N. Dimmock in the Waterford town court on condition that Garrahan obtain employment. Garrahan was placed in the custody of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs.

Garrahan is a native of Ireland and a former resident of Providence. For the past four years he has been employed at irregular intervals with a section gang of the New Haven railroad. During that time he made his home in an abandoned pig pen located on the property of Attorney John C. Geary, off Miners Lane and a short distance from the railroad. The shack, surrounded by a dense overgrowth of wild shrubbery, and infested with mosquitoes, represents the most repulsive conditions under which a man has ever been known to live in Waterford. It was the purpose of Waterford court authorities, in holding Garrahan, to seek better living conditions for the man. Garrahan has spent two weeks in the county jail in New London, where he has shown a vast improvement in his general appearance since he was first committed two weeks ago.

Capt. Charles A. Kelley of the railroad police received a complaint Monday that another railroad tie had been placed on the west bound railroad tracks near Mill pond. The tie was found laid loosely across the tracks with a heavy piece of iron upon the tie. Railroad police are investigating the incident which may help in the clearing up of the two previous complaints.

Came Through Operation Well

A. D. Zabriskie of Vergason avenue, Norwich Town, who was taken suddenly ill last Thursday was removed to the Hartford hospital Tuesday morning and an operation performed. Mr. Zabriskie at a late hour Tuesday night was resting as well as could be expected.

LEDYARD MAN BEATS CHILDREN, FIRES REVOLVER AND ESCAPES

State and local police are looking for Charles Medbury, 31, Ledyard, who made his escape after beating his children and firing off a revolver several times Tuesday evening at the house in Ledyard where his wife and family reside. According to what could be learned of the affair, Medbury went to the house Tuesday night and beat his children and shot off his revolver after which he disappeared. It was said Medbury left in an automobile, registration number N-5416 and the local authorities were asked to be on the watch for the machine.

Officer Clifford Crary saw the machine bearing that number in Greeneville, but upon investigation it was found that Medbury was not in the car. Harry Brooks of this city was driving the machine which is registered in the name of Olive F. Maine of Stonington. Brooks, upon being questioned as to how he came to be driving the machine, said that he had taken his machine to Medbury to have work done on it and that Medbury had loaned him the use of the machine he was driving Tuesday night. Up to a late hour last night Medbury had not been located.

ELECTRIC LIGHT SOCIETY MEET AT EASTERN POINT

The New England division of the National Electric Light association will hold its 17th annual convention at the Hotel Griswold September 8, 9 and 10. It will start on Tuesday afternoon with a putting contest for ladies at the Shenecossett Country club. There will be a kicker's handicap, medal play handicap for president's prize and four ball best ball medal play for men. At 2 p. m. the preliminary rounds and open singles of the tennis events will commence.

Address By Governor.

The first general session of the convention proper will start at 8:30 p. m. in the ballroom of the Griswold and will consist of the following program:

Address of Welcome—Hon. John H. Trumbull, governor of Connecticut; address of President—F. H. Smith; N. E. L. A. Activities—M. H. Aylesworth, executive manager; greetings from N. E. L. A. Activities—M. H. president; Committee Reports—Relation of Electricity to Agriculture. Dr. E. A. White, national chairman, Chicago; Educational, E. S. Mansfield, chairman; immediately following the session there will be dancing until 1 o'clock. Wednesday's program for men will be as follows: Commercial Sections Sesion—J. Daniels, chairman.

9.30 a. m. Remarks by chairman. Report of Rate Bureau, A. V. S. Lindsley, chairman. Discussion by Messrs. C. L. Campbell and S. Ferguson. Selling the idea at the Door, G. H. Abercrombie, president Franklin Co., Melrose, Mass., and former executive sales manager of the Fuller Brush Co. Present and Future of Industrial Power in New England, Robert M. Davis, statistical editor, Electrical World, New York, N. Y. Report of Power Bureau, F. K. Simmons, chairman. Report of New Business Bureau, H. J. Walton, chairman.

Program For Wednesday.

2 p. m.—Report of Rural Electric Service committee, H. M. Parsons, chairman.

The New Hampshire Project, F. A. Belden, chairman, committee on Relation of Electricity to Agriculture.

Report of Lighting Bureau, F. J. Gallagher, Jr., chairman.

The Results of the Home Lighting Contest, J. E. Davidson president National Electric Light association.

The Industrial Lighting Campaign, J. F. Becker, chairman, National Industrial Lighting committee, New York, N. Y.

The Simplified Lamp Program, H. Schroeder, The Edison Lamp works, Harrison, N. J.

Appliance Bureau, report of progress. R. Lincoln, chairman.

Stuffers in Bills, O. R. Underbill.

Electric Ragges, L. A. Florant.

Vacuum Cleaners, A. H. Allcott.

Small Appliances, C. A. Dean.

Washington Machines, R. E. Holden.

Electric Refrigeration, C. E. Greenwood.

Report of transportation Bureau, E. S. Mansfield, chairman.

Report of Contact Bureau, T. S. Knight, chairman.

The ladies program for Wednesday includes an 18-hole foursome, a bridge party and for men and women, preliminary rounds, open doubles and consolation singles in tennis at 10 a. m. In the evening there will be a dance in the ballroom from 9 to 12:30 with prizes and favors.

The program for the Thursday session is:

Parallel Sessions.

9.30 a. m.—Technical section session, ballroom, J. F. McKearin, chairman. Report of Accident prevention committee, E. P. Noyes, chairman. Power Factor Correction by L. W. W. Morrow, managing editor Electrical World, New York city. Discussion of Static Condensers with Relation to Power Factor Improvement by the following: H. Hingham, British Insulated & Helsby Cables, Helsby, England; F. D. Snyder, Westinghouse Elec. and Mfg. Co.; Donald Walch, General Elec. Co.; L. S. Horner and Paul B. Valle, National Elec. Condenser Co. Remarks by Colonel William Kelly, director of engineering, National Elec. Lt. Association, New York, N. Y.

9.30 a. m.—Accounting section session, grill room, I. S. Hall, chairman. Remarks by chairman. Report of Stub Accounting Plan Customers' Records C. J. Allen, chairman. Report of Short Cuts committee, P. M. Scott, chairman. Report of Insurance committee, H. P. Hood, chairman. Public relations section session, A. B. Lisle, chairman.

8.30 p. m.—The Utility Powder Puff vs. the Utility Razor—Miss Helen E. Steiner, director of Public Relations, the Ohio Public Service company, Lorain, O. Adjusting Ourselves to a New Era in Business—Harry C. Spillman, education director, Remington Typewriter company, New York, N. Y.

Sports Program Thursday.

Thursday's sports program consists of best selected nine holes, event No. 4; matched play handicap vs. par, event No. 5; for men Best selected nine holes out of 18, event No. 2, and putting contest, event No. 4, for women. For men and women at 8:30 a. m. there will be semi-finals in the singles, doubles and consolation tennis tournaments and at 2 p. m. finals in the singles, doubles and consolation tennis tournaments.

After the general sessions Thursday evening there will be dancing. Many fine awards will be given to the victors in the various golf and tennis tournaments.

The convention committee heads are as follows: Program—F. H. Smith, Florant, chairman. Golf—R. W. Mitchell, chairman. Tennis—C. J. Allen, chairman. Dancing—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Keay, chairmen. Entertainment for the ladies—Mrs. G. E. Nickerson; chairman. Hotel—W. P. Schwabe, chairman. Registration—Miss O. A. Bursiel, Secretary. Miss G. C. Andrews.

WATCH HILL SOCIETY

At Watch Hill Sunday and Monday, the bathing beach presented a lively scene as many who came to attend the Lobkowicz-Lihme wedding remained over Sunday. Prince and Princess Matchubelli, who came from New York, returned Sunday evening. Mr and Mrs. Malcolm Meacham were at the Hotel Plimpton. At the Misquamicut Golf Club were Marquis Pallavigini, Count and Countess George Hoyos, Count Francis Vetter, Prince Ferdinand Lobkowicz, Princess Rospigliosi and Mrs. Marcus Daly.

TWO MEN DROWED ARTER FIRE ON EXCURSION BOAT

WESTFIELD, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(A. P.)—Two men were drowned and a third was reported missing and believed drowned as a result of the fire on the excursion steamer Colonial within two miles of Barcelona harbor, near here this morning. Coast guard rum chasers and fishermen rescued 28 men and a woman who leaped overboard.

The Colonial was carrying no passengers when the disaster occurred but was on her way from her home port, Erie, Pa., to Dunkirk, N. Y., to get an excursion party.

The fire gained such headway before it was discovered that there was not even time to launch lifeboats.

THE CRANSTON CO.
25 Broadway, Norwich.

ACADEMY BOOK LISTS and TEXT BOOKS For The Coming Year Are Now Ready

BUY YOUR BOOKS EARLY

Books, Stationery, Office Supplies, and Gift Merchandise—a complete stock in all of these lines.

New Beauty Cream Gives Lovely Complexion

Amazing new kind of cream quickly gives the texture and appearance of a wild rose petal. You'll notice a startling change the moment you put it on. The effect is lasting—you cannot wash it off. Whitens, nourishes, purifies. Can be left on all night or used as a powder base. Not a bit sticky or oily. Get this new wonderful beauty cream called Mello-glo and try it. Porteous & Mitchell Co.

NOTED WINDJAMMER ENDS CAREER AS FISHING BARGE

NEWPORT BEACH, Cal., Sept 1.—(AP)—The final chapter in the romantic career of the three-masted schooner Muriel is written on the sands of the beach at the entrance of the harbor here where the battered hulk of the craft, once a proud figure in the Pacific Coast commerce of windjammer days, lies a hopeless wreck.

Since her launching at Alameda, Cal., more than 60 years ago, the Muriel has established an enviable record among sailing ships on the seven seas, particularly in her fast passages while engaged in the copra trade in the South Sea Islands. She was once ranked with the finest and most stately sailing ships of the Pacific, and the waterfronts of the coast heard tales of romance and adventure woven about her by scores of grizzled seamen.

Of late she had been serving in the moving picture navy, where venerable ships enact strange roles before the grinding cameras, but at length the world of make-believe also turned its back on the Muriel.

A despondent waif of the sea, stripped of her stately masts, she was recently being towed beyond the breakwater to serve as a fishing barge. But a final heave on a ground swell parted the towline, and the Muriel rode proudly on the breakers to her doom on the beach.

CONDEMNED PRISONER KICKS BECAUSE HEAD WAS SPARED

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Otto Leest, murderer and robber, was highly indignant recently when German officials refused to "chop his head off" and instead commuted his death sentence to life imprisonment. He also berated the lawyer who saved his neck. He has no choice now, however, but to keep his head on for a commutation represents a sovereign act and may not be annulled.

Leest had previously waived the right of appeal and insisted on being executed. In the meantime, an unknown to him, his counsel had petitioned for commutation, which was granted. The moment Leest heard of the change in sentence he became very much incensed and immediately wrote the following petition to the minister of justice:

"I won't accept this pardon and insist on having my head chopped off under all circumstances. It is I who have the right to decide about myself and not my lawyer. He is altogether too officious."

STATE MONOPOLIES PROVE PROFITABLE FOR POLAND

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The establishment of a match monopoly by the Polish government, which, as recently announced will be operated for a period of 20 years jointly by an American and Swedish corporation brings the number of state monopolies in Poland up to four. The others are alcohol, tobacco and salt.

Revenues from existing monopolies during the first quarter of 1925, official reports received by the American Polish Chamber of Commerce show amounted to $150,000,000. The budget estimates for the current year anticipate total net receipts from the existing monopolies, exclusive of the match monopoly at $78,000,000. Profits from the monopolies will constitute about 18 per cent of this government's revenues this year.

The alcohol monopoly is expected to yield $20,000,000 in 1925, the first year of its operation.

GASOLINE TAX IN WASHINGTON BUILDS G

"NAP" LIBERTY LEADING BATSMAN IN TWILIGHT LEAGUE THIS SEASON

According to the latest averages, Nap Liberty, star player of the St. Joseph nine is leading the twilight league batters who have played in five or more games with an average of .533. Spike Liberty is second with an average twenty points below Nap's. Other leading hitters are Clabby, E. C. P., .533, Red Charon, Hallville, .481, and H. Hoxie, Yantic, .476. Charon is the real leader, however, as his average is based on nine games as against five for Nap Liberty.

Harry Mills the East Ends stellar pitcher has made the most hits, sixteen, and is leading in total bases with twenty-one. Normandin, also of the East Ends, and A. Dugas, the Centrals first baseman are tied for scoring honors, with eleven runs apiece.

Sullivan of Hallville is showing the way to the base stealers of the league, having eleven to his credit, two more than his team-mate, Red Charon.

Five homers have been made in the league to date, Sweet and McKiernan of Yantic, Jim Murphy of the East Ends, Jackson of the Palace and Gauthier of the Centrals being responsible for the circuit blows.

The averages which follow include all games played up to and including Friday, August 28th, and are for batters who are hitting for .300 or better.

Name	ab	h	sb	pct
N. Liberty, S. J.	15	7	4	.583
S. Liberty, S. J.	16	9	2	.563
Clabby, E. C. P.	15	8	0	.533
R. Charon, H.	27	13	9	.481
H. Hoxie, Y.	21	10	0	.476
Austin, E. E.	28	12	0	.464
Mills, E. E.	35	16	2	.457
E. Dugas, P.	22	10	1	.455
Kingland, E. C. P.	16	8	0	.444
Allard, E. E.	16	7	1	.438
E. Hoxie, Y.	19	8	0	.421
Oney, S. J.	13	5	0	.417
Fox, N.	17	7	1	.412
Stanley, E. C. P.	23	9	3	.409
Jones, Y.	15	6	1	.400
Eccleston, C.	33	13	5	.394
Smith, Y.	32	12	6	.375
Ainsworth, T.	31	12	2	.387
L. Dugas, C.	27	10	0	.370
Noel, E. E.	19	7	2	.368
Sullivan, H.	28	10	11	.357
Burns, Y.	20	7	3	.350
A. Dugas, C.	36	12	7	.333
Marchand, Y.	33	11	4	.333
Courbois, C.	30	10	6	.333
Normandin, E. E.	30	10	1	.333
Davis, E. C. P.	22	7	1	.318
Jim Murphy, E. E.	19	6	3	.316
Gaudette, C.	26	8	4	.308
Mulcahy, P.	23	7	4	.304
Harris, E. C. P.	10	3	0	.300
Woodmansee, E. E.	10	3	0	.300

Team Averages

According to the latest figures, the Yantic Mills team is leading in team batting with the fine average of .313. The league-leading Centrals are second with .306, and the East Ends are third with an average of .303.

Yantic has made the most hits, ninety-eight, and is leading in total bases with 137. The Centrals have crossed the plate the most times, with 78 runs, and their 37 stolen bases gives them the lead in that department of the game.

The averages which include all the games played up to and including Friday, August 28th, follow:

Team	ab	r	h	sb	pct
Yantic	313	55	98	22	.313
Centrals	291	78	89	37	.306
East Ends	277	59	84	18	.303
E. C. P. Co.	235	49	66	15	.281
St. Joseph's	235	33	68	17	.267
Palace	264	48	68	29	.258
Nuggets	218	41	61	16	.246
Hallville	237	42	57	34	.240

Pitching Averages

The pitching averages which follow show the number of innings pitched, the number of strikeouts, and the number of earned runs made off each twirler. The fourth column denotes the average number of earned runs allowed by each pitcher per seven inning game, and is what determines his effectiveness. Gauthier of the league-leading Centrals is out in front in this respect with the fine average of 0.39, he having allowed but one earned run in the 18 innings he has pitched. Joe McInniss is second with 0.91, and Joe Cranker and Lefty Harrell are tied for third with 1.00 each. Harry Mills, the East Ends star twirler is the real leader, however as his average of 1.08 is based on 52 innings, while the other pitchers have worked in but a few frames. Mills has worked the most innings, 52, and Tommy Simcox of the E. C. P. nine is the strikeout king with 43 to his credit. Mills, and Johnny Greene of the Nuggets are tied for passing the most men with 21 walks apiece.

The following figures include pitchers who have worked in at least 7 innings and are for all games played up to and including Friday, Aug. 28th.

Name	ip	so	er	bera
Gauthier, C.	18	18	1	0.049
Joe McInniss, H.	8	8	1	1.021
Cranker, H.	7	8	1	1.06
Harrell, C.	7	8	1	1.09
Mills, E. E.	52	40	8	1.08
Greene, N.	42 1-3	39	11	1.82
S. Liberty, S. J.	14 2-3	24	4	1.91
Simcox, E. C. P.	45	43	13	2.07
Jones, Y.	35	30	11	2.20
Jero, P.	12 1-3	10	4	2.27
Gaudette, C.	28	30	10	2.50
Lloyd Jarvis, N.	8	3	3	2.65
Shahan, P.	25	26	10	2.80
Leo Jarvis, N.	12 1-3	7	6	3.40
Kozlowski, S. J.	18 2-3	13	10	3.76
West, S. J.	9	13	5	3.85
Spicer, H.	14 3-3	15	9	4.29
Dickson, E. C. P.	20	10	5	4.28
J. Lamphere, Y.	20	18	13	4.55
A. Morin, P.	27 1-3	24	23	5.89
Joe Busch, S. J.	9 1-3	8	9	6.72
Daniels, Y.	7 1-3	10	9	8.05

Leading Pitchers

The following pitching averages show who are the leading twirlers in the twilight league from the standpoint of games won and lost. Gauthier, the Centrals, star pitcher and shortstop, is leading in this respect with three victories and no defeats. Harry Mills of the East Ends, and Tommy Simcox of the E. C. P. Co., are tied for most games won with five each, and have also worked in the most games, nine.

The averages:

Name	G	W	L	Pct.
Gauthier, C.	3	3	0	1.000
Cranker, H.	1	1	0	1.000
Davis, E. E.	1	1	0	1.000
Libera, H.	1	1	0	1.000
Jero, C. and P.	3	1	0	1.000
Harrell, C.	1	1	0	1.000
S. Liberty, S. J.	4	1	0	1.000
Joe McInniss, H.	2	1	0	1.000
Stanley, S. J.	1	1	0	1.000
Gaudette, C.	5	3	1	.750
Mills, E. E.	9	5	3	.625
Simcox, E. C. P.	9	5	3	.625
Greene, N.	8	4	3	.571
Jones, Y.	5	3	2	.500
Daniels, Y.	2	1	1	.500
Mansfield, H.	2	1	1	.500

Fielding Averages

The following fielding averages include all players who have performed at one position in at least four games, and for games up to and including Friday, August 28th.

First Basemen

Name	po	a	e	pct
Coughlin, E. E.	68	5	3	.961
Burke, N.	43	1	2	.957
A. Dugas, C.	56	3	3	.953
Sweet, Y.	43	0	3	.935
Charon, H.	53	6	4	.930
Stanley, E. C. P.	34	1	4	.914
Mulcahy, P.	24	0	4	.818

Second Basemen

Cardle, C.	5	7	0	1.000
Carlin, N.	8	10	1	.947
Davis, E. C. P.	8	6	1	.941
Murphy, E. E.	5	10	1	.938
L. Morin, P.	25	8	4	.893
F. Busch, S. J.	6	7	4	.765
H. Hoxie, Y.	8	6	0	.737

Third Basemen

F. Dugas, P.	9	13	1	.957
Leonard, E. E.	4	6	2	.833
Terrington, C.	8	14	5	.821
Whitney, E. C. P.	2	10	2	.500
Lesseman, N.	3	3	2	.750
Hoffman, S. J.	6	5	5	.688
Almquist, H.	3	2	5	.500

Shortstops

Guillet, N.	14	13	2	.931
Gauthier, C.	13	13	2	.929
Ainsworth, T.	6	8	3	.857
Normandin, E. E.	13	15	6	.824
Moore, S. J.	3	5	3	.813
Ringland, E. C. P.	6	5	5	.688
A. Charon, H.	3	6	4	.667
Simcox, P.	10	8	10	.643

Catchers

J. Hamel, P.	31	7	0	1.000
Smith, Y.	61	9	2	.972
W. Liberty, N.	22	6	1	.967
Boyd, H.	35	12	3	.949
Cormier, E. C. P.	34	6	3	.930
Dilworth, P.	20	4	2	.923
Eccleston, C.	70	13	7	.921
LeBlanc, E. E.	26	6	4	.914

Pitchers

Morin, P.	3	13	0	1.000
Greene, N.	1	13	0	1.000
Kozlowski, S. J.	3	3	0	1.000
Dickson, E. C. P.	1	2	0	1.000
Simcox, E. C. P.	4	27	1	.962
Mills, E. E.	10	36	4	.920
Jones, Y.	2	19	2	.912
Shahan, P.	0	4	1	.800

Outfielders

Jackson, P.	13	2	0	1.000
H. Hull, E. C. P.	9	2	0	1.000
Gilbert, S. J.	6	1	0	1.000
Lesseman, N.	6	1	0	1.000
Clabby, E. C. P.	4	0	0	1.000
J. Hull, E. C. P.	3	1	0	1.000
Noel, E. E.	3	0	0	1.000
Kozlowski, S. J.	2	0	0	1.000
Murphy, C.	10	2	1	.929
L. Dugas, C.	7	3	1	.900
Austin, E. E.	4	3	1	.875
E. Hoxie, Y.	9	2	2	.846
Sullivan, H.	15	1	3	.842
Keenan, P.	4	1	1	.833
Courbois, P.	10	2	3	.800
J. Pedace, H.	3	1	1	.800
Marchand, Y.	10	2	3	.800
J. Shea, P.	3	2	1	.750
Gaudette, C.	2	1	1	.750

The team fielding averages follows:

Team	po	a	e	pct
East Ends	192	100	15	.923
Nuggest	192	83	19	.905
Centrals	195	82	32	.896
E. C. P. Co.	176	88	37	.877
Yantic	216	92	47	.863
Palace	190	80	44	.860
St. Joseph's	184	79	45	.859
Hallville	186	84	50	.841

TODD HART WINNER OF $5,000 FEATURE STAKE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Racing under ideal weather conditions and on a fast track, Todd Hart, black gelding owned by C. D. Hart, Clinton, Iowa, and piloted by Putnam, won the feature, $5,000 stake offered by the Hotel Men's Association 2:10 trot on the second day grand circuit program at State Fair Park here today. The horse won in straight heats in best time of 2:04 1-4. Two seconds time allowance was claimed.

Good time also was made in the three other events in the grand circuit program. In the 2:14 pace, 7-8 mile heats, Mag Abbe, Black Mare, owned by the Murphy stables, Syracuse, N. Y., and driven by Murphy, took the first two heats and race for a 1,500 stake in best time of 1:46 1-2. Bonnie Watts the favorite, placed third.

Guy Trogan, with two seconds time allowance claimed, won the last two heats and race in the third event for a purse of $1,000 after finishing in eighth place in the first heat. The horse was entered by W. K. Dickerson, agent, Goshen, N. Y., who piloted him. The best time was 2:07 1-4.

Beckie Beall, black mare, owned by the Murphy stables, Syracuse, N. Y., piloted by Murphy, won the 2:15 class three year old pace for purse of $800 in best time of 2:06 1-4.

PIRATES INCREASE LEAD TO EIGHT FULL GAMES

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Pittsburgh made it five straight from Philadelphia today, winning the final game of the series, 10 to 3.

This victory increased the Pirates' lead to eight full games and at the same time sent the Phillies tumbling into the National League cellar.

Carlson was no puzzle to the Pirates, who drove him from the mound in the seventh and then continued their attack at the expense of Couch and Pierce. Score:

Philadelphia (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Sand, ss	3	0	3	3	1
Pierce, p	0	0	0	0	0
xxMoran	1	0	0	0	0
Leach, cf	3	2	1	0	0
Wilson, rfss	4	1	2	0	0
Harper, lf	3	2	3	0	0
Fonseca, 1b	0	0	5	1	0
Hawks, 1b	3	2	8	0	0
Huber, 3b	3	2	0	3	0
Klemmk, 2b	1	0	1	1	0
Friberg, 2b	4	1	3	3	0
Wilson, c	3	1	8	0	0
Carlson, p	3	0	1	1	0
Couch, p	0	0	0	0	0
Williams, rf	3	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	11	27	16	2

Pittsburgh (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Moore, rf	5	2	1	0	0
Rawlings, 2b	4	1	3	3	0
Carter, cf	4	2	3	0	0
Barnhart, lf	5	2	1	0	0
Traynor, 3b	5	1	2	3	0
Wright, ss	5	1	2	1	0
Grantham, 1b	4	1	2	9	0
Smith, c	5	3	10	1	0
Aldridge, p	5	3	0	0	0
Totals	45	17	21	6	0

(a) Batted for Wanninger in 8th.
(x) Batted for Sand in 7th.
(xx) Batted for Pierce in 9th
(xxx) Batted for Kimgick in 9th.

Score by innings:

Pittsburgh	0	0	3	0	1	0	1	1	3	—10
Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	—3

Two base hits, Hawks, Home runs, Wrightstone, Aldrich, Moore.

ALBANY AND HARTFORD SPLIT DOUBLE HEADER

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Albany and Hartford split a double header today. Albany winning the first game, 19 to 5 and Hartford scoring a 14 to 2 victory in the second contest. A home run by Phillips with the bases filled gave Albany its first four runs in the opening game. Phillips was spiked by Frazer in the second game and was forced to retire. Bachand's fielding featured. Schinkel got five hits in as many trips to the plate in the second game. Scores:

First game:

Hartford	0	2	1	0	1	0	0	6	1	—5
Albany	7	0	1	0	0	6	2	3	x	—19

Two base hits, Comiskey, Frazer, Heitman, Bachand, 2; Solomon, McCorry. Home run, Phillips.

Second game.

Hartford	0	6	0	0	0	0	8	0	0	—14
Albany	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	—2

Two base hits, Shay, Comiskey, Van Alstyne. Three base hits, Frazer.

Ashland A. A. Challenges

The Ashland A. A. Seconds baseball team of Jewett City, challenges any baseball team, in eastern Conn. averaging 16 or under.

If challenge is accepted, answer through this paper, for a game for this Saturday.

Today's Calendar of Sports

RACING

Meeting of Westchester Racing Association, at Belmont Park.

Meeting of Connaught Park Jockey Club, at Ottawa.

Meeting of Business Men's Racing Association, at Chicago.

TROTTING

Meeting of Grand Circuit at Milwaukee.

GOLF

United States amateur championship tournament, at Pittsburgh.

TENNIS

Annaul invitation tournament at Narragansett Pier, R. I.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

Chicago 0, Boston 2.
Pittsburgh 10, Philadelphia 3.

The Standing

	W	L	Pct.
Pittsburgh	78	46	.629
New York	73	57	.562
Cincinnati	67	58	.536
Brooklyn	61	63	.492
St. Louis	60	63	.469
Boston	57	72	.442
Chicago	56	72	.438
Philadelphia	54	70	.435

GAMES TODAY

New York at Philadelphia.
Brooklyn at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yesterday's Result

Boston 1, New York 2.
Philadelphia 3, Washington 7.

The Standing

	W	L	Pct
Washington	80	45	.640
Philadelphia	74	48	.607
Chicago	68	58	.540
St. Louis	66	60	.528
Detroit	64	60	.516
Cleveland	60	68	.469
New York	51	74	.415
Boston	36	89	.288

GAMES TODAY

Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Washington.

EASTERN LEAGUE

Waterbury 7, Bridgeport 12.
Hartford 5-14, Albany 19-2.
Springfield 0, New Haven 7.
Worcester 0, Pittsfield 6.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Jersey City 3; Toronto 7.
Providence 2; Buffalo 6.
Baltimore 16; Rochester 7.

American Association.

Columbus 0; Minneapolis 5. (First game).
Toledo 9; St. Paul 10. (First games).
Indianapolis 4; Milwaukee 3.
Louisville 11; Kansas City 9.
Toledo 10; St. Paul 4 (second game.)
Columbus 2; Minneapolis 8 (second game.)

Southern Association

Birmingham 3; Little Rock 4.
New Orleans 6; Nashville 14.
Atlanta 11; Memphis 12.
Mobile 7; Chattanooga 3.

ATHLETICS STILL HAVE CHANCE TO WIN PENNANT

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Senators are tonight leading the Philadelphia Athletics, by four and one half games by virtue of today's 7 to 3 victory over the A's. It was the Mackmen's seventh consecutive defeat.

The standing:

Washington	800	45	.640.
Philadelphia	74	48	.607.

While the defeat sent the Athletics further down the ladder it by no means placed the pennant beyond their reach. Any fleeting hope however, is contingent upon an immediate reversal.

Continuing their business-like efforts to make their pennant a mathematical certainty as soon as possible, the Pittsburgh Pirates subjected the hapless Phillies to their fifth straight licking, 10 to 3. The victory increased to the comfortable figure of eight full games the Pirate margin over the New York Giants, who were idle.

The standing:

Pittsburgh	78	46	.629.
New York	73	56	.562.

BRAVES JUMP INTO SIXTH PLACE IN LEAGUE

BOSTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Boston Braves moved out of their cellar position today by defeating Chicago 2 to 0. Alexander and Benton fought a pitchers' battle with fortune favoring the latter. Gautreau's two singles figured in the scoring of his team and Mann and Wilson provided the fielding features. Umpire Klem sent Manager Maranville of Chicago, from the bench and field for oral misconduct. Score:

Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Adams, 2b	4	1	1	4	0
Wells, rf	4	1	3	0	0
Freigau, ss	3	1	2	2	1
Jahn, lf	4	1	2	0	0
Mickels, 3b	3	0	1	2	0
xHeathcote	1	0	0	0	0
Brooks, rf	3	0	1	0	0
xxGriffin	1	1	0	0	0
Grimm, 1b	4	1	10	1	0
Hartnett, c	4	0	2	2	0
Alexander, p	3	1	1	2	0
xxxGrigsby	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	7	24	14	2

Boston (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Gautreau, 2b	4	2	2	3	0
Wilson, lf	3	2	2	0	0
Welsh, rf	4	1	4	0	0
Barrus, 1b	3	0	7	0	0
Mann, cf	3	0	3	0	0
High, 3b	3	0	1	1	0
Padgett, ss	3	0	2	1	1
Gibson, c	3	1	2	1	0
Benton, p	2	0	1	1	0
Totals	28	6	27	10	2

(c) Batted for Michaels, in 9th.
(xx) Batted for Emeks in 9th.
(xxx) Batted for Alexander in 9th.

Score by innings:

Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Boston	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	x	—2

INTER-ZONE DAVIS CUP PLAYERS ARE SELECTED

NEW YORK, Sept. 1—(A. P.)—René Lacoste of France, this year's Wimbledon champion, and Gerald Patterson, cannonading Australian, will be opponents in the first match of the Inter-Zone Davis Cup finals, which start at Forest Hills Friday to determine America's rival in the challenge round.

This was decided today by the draw from singles play in the three-day series, which brings together the winners of the American and European Zone elimination tests.

Jean Borotra, of France, and James O. Anderson, Australian captain will meet in the second singles match Friday. The order will be reversed in the singles on Monday, Labor Day.

The pairings for the doubles match on Saturday will not be made until Friday.

NEW HAVEN WINS EASY GAME FROM SPRINGFIELD

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Morrell pitched wonderful ball and New Haven shut out Springfield, 7 to 0 today. He gave only five hits and was never in danger. Braxton, leading pitcher of the league, was hit hard, the locals bunching long hits to score an easy victory. Lerian split a finger on the second ball pitched in the game. The score:

Springfield	000	000	000—0
New Haven	001	012	03x—7

Two base hits, Bowman, Hauk, Stow. Three base hits, Hauk, Mayer, Gleason.

JOHNSON BOOSTS SENATORS PENNANT CHANCES BY DEFEATING ATHLETICS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—A world series tang charged the atmosphere over the national capital today for the battle between the league-leading Senators and their closest rivals, the Philadelphia Athletics. Washington won 7 to 3, and increased its lead to 4 1-2 games.

A further world series touch was given the game by the presence of four umpires, a number seldom allotted for other than championship contests.

The victory was Washington's fourth in a row, and in losing Philadelphia marked its seventh straight defeat.

Two veterans, Walter Johnson and Rogers Peckinpaugh were the outstanding performers.

Pitching a steady game throughout, Johnson gave no bases on balls, allowed 10 scattered hits, and in four trips to the plate contributed two doubles and a single to the hit column of his own team.

The battle-scarred Peckinpaugh was the power behind the third inning drive of the home team that netted four runs, enough to win the contest. With three on base he smashed out a double which drove in two runs and paved the way for a third when Lamar, the Athletics' left fielder, fumbled the ball. On the error a third Senator crossed the plate. Peckinpaugh himself taking third on the play. A few minutes later he stole home while Harriss was winding up.

The feat brought a shower of straw hats to the playing field, and also gave the 25,000 fans opportunity to exercise willing lung power.

In the seventh inning, Washington again attacked Harriss, and forced a triple by Miller and a sacrifice fly him to give way to Quinn after a run had been scored.

Philadelphia was the first to tally, taking a one run lead in the second by Cochrane turning the trick. After Washington had scored four runs the Athletics again sent a runner home in the fifth, and scored a third in the ninth.

The score:

Philadelphia (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Bishop, 2b	4	1	1	4	0
Lamar, lf	4	2	1	0	1
Rice, 2b	3	0	1	2	0
Smith, 2b	0	0	1	0	0
Simmons, cf	4	1	1	0	0
Miller, rf	4	1	1	0	0
Cochrane, c	3	2	5	0	0
Peckinpaugh, ss	4	2	4	2	0
Boley, lf	4	2	4	2	0
Galloway, ss	3	0	2	2	0
Quinn, p	0	0	0	1	0
xFrench	1	0	0	0	0
xxBagwell	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	10	24	11	1

Washington (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
McNeely, rf	5	1	0	0	0
Harris, 2b	5	2	1	7	0
Miller, cf	5	3	3	0	0
Judge, 1b	5	1	12	0	0
Peckinpaugh, ss	5	2	2	4	0
Manush, lf	3	0	2	0	0
Ruether, 3b	4	1	0	2	0
Ruel, c	4	1	6	1	0
Johnson, p	3	0	0	3	0
Totals	39	11	27	17	0

(x) Batted for Rice in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Quinn in 9th.

Score by innings:

Philadelphia	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	—3
Washington	0	0	4	0	0	0	1	2	x	—7

Two base hits, Rice, Peckinpaugh, Johnson 2, Galloway. Three base hits, Miller, Ruel.

MOOSUP-ASHLAND A. A. SERIES CALLED OFF

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Sept. 1.—Manager William L. Liberty of the Ashland A. A. Wishes to announce that the Moosup-Ashland A. A. series has been called off.

Manager Liberty received a letter from Loughran last night wanting him to advance the admission price from thirty-five to fifty cents, also wanting a bigger guarantee.

This Manager Liberty absolutely refuses to do, so the series has been indefinitely called off.

The attraction at Ashland Park Sunday will be the fast Taftville A. A. The lineups for both clubs are to appear in Saturday morning's Bulletin.

SIXTEEN CANDIDATES WERE CHOSEN FOR NATIONAL AMATEUR TOURNAMENT

OAKMONT, Pa., Sept. 1.—Sixteen candidates for the national amateur golf championship were chosen today on the Oakmont Country Club course but only after seven men, tied in the qualification tests at 158, had fought a heartrending battle over two extra holes to determine which two would be thrown out of the competition.

Francis Ouimet, former national open and amateur champion, was the first to fall in this unparalleled event in American golf, and then, supported by the arms of friends, he wandered along dazedly behind the gallery in the wake of the survivors, and saw H. L. Wintringer of Steubenville, Ohio, go down to defeat. Ouimet's passing was the sensation of a day that had kept watchers on edge.

Perhaps the real story of the qualifying rounds of this annual tournament will be found in those who failed to make the grade rather than in those who qualified, for among those thwarted by Oakmont's sands were five amateur champions of the past—Bob Gardner, Max Marston, Davy Herron, Chick Evans and Ouimet, without them the tournament will lack the colorful veterans and pay tribute to a half dozen newcomers hovering about the age of twenty.

Roland Mackenzie, the Wayington lad, whoted the field yesterday, continued his expert play throughout today's round and captured the medal with 145, a 71 and a 74 making the total. Two strokes behind came the champion, Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, who added a 74 to his 73 of the previous day, and Big Jesse Guilford, of Boston, the old time "siege gun" who battered away throughout his two rounds in executional style, Guilford scored a 73 today, the lowest round recorded.

Jess Sweetser, champion in 1923, progressed to the championship match play with a 75-76—151 to take fourth place in the scoring, and he was followed, three strokes away, by George Von Elm, runner up at Merion a year ago, and Watts Gunn, brilliant young protege of Bobby Jones, another Atlantan.

William Reekie of Montclair, N. J., former metropolitan amateur champion a title now held by Sweetser, negotiated a tie with Jim Manion, the slightly built expert from St. Louis, at 155. Manion was Jesse Guilford's partner throughout the qualifying. Eddie Held, former public links and trans-Mississippi titleholder reached the select sixteen with 156, deadlocked with the lithe blonde from the University of California, Lauren Upson of Sacramento. Held also is a collegian, having represented St. Louis university in the national championship.

Fred W. Knight of Philadelphia had sole possession of eleventh position with 157 and then came the battle which eliminated Ouimet and Wintringer. By their victories in the playoff five men were added to the list—V. L. Bradford, Jr., of Patterson Heights, Pa., Clarence L. Wolff of Sappington, Mo., Richard A. Jones of White Plains, N. Y., William C. Fownes, Jr., of Pittsburgh and Jack Mackie, Jr., of Inwood, N. Y.

The draw for tomorrow's opening match play of 36 holes had Mackie opposing Upson, Richard Jones meeting Mackenzie, Fownes facing Sweetser and Gunn playing Bradford in the upper bracket while in the lower half Bobby Jones and Rekie will clash along with Knight and Wolff, von Elm and Manion, and Held and Guilford.

If the United States Golf Association planned to give new blood an opportunity by reducing the qualifying field to sixteen it succeeded beyond all hopes, despite the fact that many clever youngsters failed to master the difficult course. Among those who bowed to the 72 sand traps were Keefe Carter of Toronto, monarch of the Canadian amateurs. The public links champion, Ray McAuliffe, reported no card yesterday.

The spectators regretted the failure of the ever smiling bespectacled Ouimet, far more, it seemed, than they approved the advent of a quartet of youths in the championship field.

Ouimet left the tee for the playoff without his customary knickers. He wore cream colored trousers, evidently ready for the trip into the city immediately after the question had been settled. His drive, high and far sauntered slightly to the left and when the gallery, a throng of more than 2,000, reached the spot it was found that his ball had struck sand behind a bunker. After taking one in the trap Ouimet reached the fairway with his niblick and proceeded to plant on the green one of the most perfect pitches of the tournament, only three feet from the cup.

On in four, he needed a five to remain in the competition, as all other contestants had gone down in those figures, little attention did Ouimet pay to the crowd, and for that matter to the hole, it seemed, for he stepped up confidently with his putter, tapped the ball ever so slightly and it rolled wide.

In the regular competition there was little to marvel at, unless it was the work of Guilford, who turned a rather rugged card into the best round of the day. Guilford had two sixes on his homecoming round, but he also captured four threes and held firmly to third place. Had Jesse played the first two holes of his final nine in par he would have been the medalist tonight.

Par was at a premium in today's round. Guilford came nearest to equaling the stated figures. His first nine was a 37 par and his second, a 36, one over par. Mackenzie, the medalist, was next with 36-38. Jack Mackie and Dick Jones, had par 73s for the first nine. Von Elm was the lone player to shoot par 35 in the final nine. Any number of the stars had 38s and 39s, one and two over par, at the turn, and quite a few not only one over on the last nine, including Bradford, Lawyer, Bobby Jones, Cummings, and Held with 36s.

Experts are predicting that Bobby Jones, Von Elm, Guilford, Sweetser and Mackenzie will furnish the list from which the champion will come. Bobby and his victim of last year are likely to meet again, but it will not be in the finals, as they are in the same bracket.

RUTH A SPECTATOR AS YANKS DEFEAT RED SOX

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Yankees defeated the Red Sox 3 to 1, today in a pitchers' duel between Bob Shawkey and Howard Ehmke. The Sox took the lead in the second on Prothro's single, Wamby's sacrifice and Lee's double, but the Yanks tied it in the seventh on Bob Meusel's twenty-sixth homer and won it in the eighth on singles by Paschal and Ben Gough and Pinch-hitter Schang's sacrifice fly. The Yankees made only one hit off Ehmke until the seventh.

Babe Ruth was a spectator in the box of Colonel Ruppert, club president. The score:

	New York (A)
	ab	h	po	a	e		ab	h	po	a	e
Williams, lf	5	0	3	0	0	J'hns, 3b, ss	3	0	1	2	0
Fitzgerald, cf	0	1	1	0	0	Meusel, lf	3	0	3	1	0
Carlyle, rf	4	0	4	0	0	Combs, cf	3	0	3	1	0
Todt, 1b	4	1	10

NEW LONDON IS STILL PUZZLING OVER BABY'S HEAD FIND ON DUMP

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 1.—The authorities have abandoned all hope of finding out who was responsible for placing the head of an infant on the city dumping ground, of Cedar Grove avenue. With the finding of the baby's skull there late yesterday afternoon the police are without a clue to work upon and the chances are that the crime of beheading the baby and then mutilating its body will never be explained. Medical Examiner Charles Kaufman and the police are satisfied that a murder was committed in disposing of the child's body and they are of the opinion that the head was placed in a receptacle and brought to the dumping ground by garbage collectors, or else the head was placed among refuse in the dumping ground at night and covered with refuse by the murderer. Medical Examiner Kaufman stated today that the head was that of a child of between eight and 13 months of age and that it was about a year ago since birth occurred.

The skull was found by Daniel Phillips, 133 Cedar Grove avenue, who went to the dumping ground for the purpose of finding a stone and in scattering the refuse he came upon the skull.

Prosecuting Attorney Daniel M. Cronin, who has been under treatment for an affliction of the eyes at his residence at Neptune Park for several months, visited the police station this afternoon the first of the prosecuting attorney being the first he has made in four months. Mr. Cronin's condition is somewhat improved, but it will be a long time before he will be able to resume the practice of law and attend to his duties as the city's prosecuting officer.

Frederick L. Warner, 46, of Rochester, N. Y., where he has been engaged in the manufacture of an oil burning device, died this morning at 30 Pleasant street, this city, where with his wife he was residing temporarily. Mr. Warner is survived besides his wife, by his mother, Mrs. M. Kinnamer, 317 1-2 Brown avenue, Rochester. The body will be forwarded to Rochester for the funeral and burial.

Patrolman John Courtney was unable to perform duty today, being confined to his home by illness.

Another fire of mysterious origin occurred early this morning and while the circumstances attending the blaze indicated incendiarism, it is believed that the fire originated from spontaneous combustion. The fire was discovered when clouds of smoke filled the residence of Macrino M. Albano, the property owned by Guiseppe and Mary Albano, at 92 Truman street. A still alarm was sent to fire headquarters and the Niagara Engine company and Deputy Chief Thomas Shipman responded. When the firemen reached the house the fire was located on the cellar stairs and was extinguished with a small quantity of chemicals. When Deputy Chief Shipman started an investigation he found a quantity of kerosene soaked rags on the stairs, in the kitchen and in the upper part of the house. Mrs. Albano when questioned as to the cause of the rags being deposited in various places about the house, declared that she had used the rags, with the assistance of her daughter, in cleaning several beds and had not destroyed the rags, but had left them when the work of applying the kerosene to the beds had been concluded. The matter was reported to the police, but nothing to discredit the story of the woman was obtained.

James Francis Murphy was in the police court this morning, charged with attempting to rape Helena Tvist, a girl of 17, last February. The complaint alleges that Murphy assaulted the girl and with violence gained her. He was represented by counsel, the lawyers asking for a postponement of the hearing so that they might become more familiar with the facts than they were at present. The case went over to Saturday next, when the testimony will be presented. Murphy's bail was fixed at $5,000, but he furnished it. His lawyers made an effort to have a smaller amount named, but Judge Crandall would not consent to that. Indeed, he told Murphy that he was travelling on dangerous ground and reminded him that he had previously been convicted of a very serious crime. He warned him that if he was accused again the bond would be made larger. Now he would not decrease it a dollar. Murphy's father and uncle became sureties on the bond, and Murphy was released till Saturday, when he will be in the custody of the court again. Murphy was heavily fined for an assault upon an old man in an alleyway some months ago, when there was very strong sentiment against him.

Daniel De Long, who has been before the court often, was fined $10 for intoxication. He was drunk and fell through a window on Atlantic street. He pleaded for leniency, but did not get it, for the court insisted that he should pay for the broken window.

Fred Lynch, a stranger, was fined $5 for intoxication. He had the money to pay so settled with the court.

A case against Ernest Coe, charged with careless operation of an automobile, was continued for three weeks, as the man who was struck by the automobile was unable to be in court. He is in the hospital, where he has been for several weeks. Those who saw the accident declare that Coe was not at fault in running against the man as the latter stepped in front of the Coe car from behind another automobile.

Antonio Bauci has sold a house and lot on Garfield avenue to John F. D'Abnie.

Salvatore Caracausa today sold to Attorney Frank L. McGuire a structure on the west side of Main street, directly next north of the property corner of Main and Masonic street. The price paid was $11,000. The property consists of a store and two tenements.

The condition of Michael Solomon, well known tailor, who has been critically ill some time at his home on Montauk avenue, from an incurable disease of the throat, is such that his family have abandoned all hopes of the recovery of the patient. Harry Solomon, of Norwich, his son has come to New London and has taken charge of his father's business interests.

Frank Sheehan, 96 Sylvan avenue, Waterbury, was committed to Norwich State hospital, this morning by City Physician George P. Cheney for observation, for the condition of the man is such that it was imperative that he be placed under restraint.

Sheehan had been employed several weeks at Wardell's at Ocean Beach and was a lodger at the Arabella cottage there. This forenoon Sheehan displayed unmistakable symptoms of mental affection and the police were notified. Patrolman Carlos Selesnitsky was sent to the Arabella cottage and found Sheehan in a violent state. The officer was compelled to place handcuffs on Sheehan before he could have him taken to the police station. After being examined by Dr. Cheney, Sheehan was committed to the Norwich institution. Sheehan's father, Fenton Sheehan, is residing in Waterbury and he was notified of his son's condition.

Charged with absenting himself from duty and leaving the city without obtaining permission to do so, Patrolman Edward Daniels was given a hearing before City Manager William A. Holt, at the municipal building this morning at 11 o'clock. There were only three witnesses present, other than the accused, City Manager Holt reserved decision, which he will announce within the next 24 hours.

Acting Captain James C. Sullivan, who preferred the charges against Daniels, testified that when he arrived at the police station, last Sunday morning an entry was on the books that Daniels had communicated by telephone with Acting Sergeant Timothy C. Sullivan, at 3:45 o'clock Sunday morning that Daniels had been out of town and had arrived home late and being tired would not be on duty at 7 o'clock in the forenoon. Because of the patrolmen not reporting for duty and acknowledging an infraction of the police rules and regulations in leaving the city without permission, Acting Captain Sullivan preferred the charges. He further testified that Sunday forenoon accompanied by Sergeant Nelson Smith, he went to the home of Daniels, on Howard street, and there Mrs. Daniels stated that her husband was not at home and that she had not seen him since Saturday.

Acting Sergeant Timothy C. Sullivan testified to receiving the telephone message from Daniels, witness inquired of Daniels if the latter was sick and the inquiry brought a negative reply.

Sergeant Smith testified to accompanying Acting Captain Sullivan to the Daniels' residence, corroborating the testimony of his superior officer. He also testified to receiving a communication from Acting Captain Sullivan which contained Daniels' suspension, which witness delivered to Daniels.

Daniels, in taking the stand in his own behalf, stated that he had been to a cottage, not naming the location, but which is understood to be located in Waterford and made the trip there in his car. While attempting to get back to New London Sunday morning Daniels asserted that the car became disabled and was unable to make the trip. He admitted violating the rules and regulations of the department and had no excuse to offer other than that he had committed an error in judgment in not reporting for duty as usual Sunday and in having gone to the cottage in Waterford without obtaining permission from his superior officer. Witness told his story in a straight-forward manner and declared that he was not accompanied by women. Daniels has been a patrolman seven years and never before has been tried on charges.

Acting Lieutenant James D. Gaffney and Motorcycle Officer Augustus Ray started on their vacations of two weeks today. During their absence from duty, Desk Sergeant Frank Howard will be acting lieutenant and Patrolman Clarence Martin will operate a motorcycle at night.

Last night or early this morning an Oldsmobile touring car owned by Frank Jackman, a sailor stationed at the United States Coast Guard Academy, was stolen from the reservation at Fort Trumbull. Jackman reported the theft to the police and the state police at Groton, Centerbrook and the authorities at Norwich, Hartford and New Haven were requested to be on the lookout for the missing machine. About 10 o'clock this forenoon the police were informed by Jackman that he had found the car, a complete wreck, on Williams street, near Grove street, that he knew the identity of the thief, but did not desire the offender prosecuted, provided the thief made a complete confession, but if the latter was not forthcoming, Jackman desired the thief prosecuted. The police, however, refused to act in the matter when Jackman took the stand he did.

Farmers in all the sections about New London are experiencing hardships from lack of water, for the brooks are dried and farmers have difficulty in getting water for cattle. The fields and truck gardens are parched and the hay crop will be short. Farmers in the Montville section are drawing water from Oxoboxo Lake that they may provide enough for their cattle.

It is understood that Messrs. Kenyon and Shapiro, who have not been able to obtain permission from the city council to erect a store on the west side of Jay street between Franklin and Hempstead streets, on property which they recently acquired, began today or will begin on Wednesday excavating for the building they propose to erect. If the city council then interferes with them in the work, mandamus proceedings will be commenced against the city. Messrs. Kenyon and Shapiro have obtained legal advice, it is understood, and they feel absolutely sure of the ground on which they will undertake to make use of the land and property they have acquired. They are proceeding on the premise that there is no zoning law in New London and that they have absolute right to make use of their possessions as they may see fit, if they do not create a nuisance and establish a business as will be a detriment to the property adjoining. It is represented by them that they are at present paying five rentals, whereas if they had their own premises to use, they might avoid this expense, which is both extraordinary and exorbitant. So the city is apt to encounter difficulty at the outset of the introduction of the zoning law.

Gertrude Brown, 40, an inmate at the State Farm for Women, at East Lyme, escaped from the institution late this afternoon and the New London authorities were requested to be on the lookout for the woman. She is described as being abut five feet, five inches in height, brown hair that is turning gray. She wore a dark red sweater and blue checkered dress.

The New London police and the state police, of Groton barracks, tonight are instituting a search for Charles Medbury, Poquonoc Bridge, who is wanted by the authorities of the town of Groton on a charge of breach of the peace. Medbury, it is alleged, became enraged at his wife at their home early in the evening and attacked her with the result that the woman was severely beaten. Complaint was made to the state police, who requested the New London police to maintain watch for Medbury, who disappeared in his automobile, which bears registration, N-5416.

An automobile owned and driven by Morris Elionsky, 25 Moore avenue, and a machine owned and driven by Edward Skoczylas, Gardner avenue, were in collision this evening at the corner of Ocean avenue and School street. Both cars were damaged.

Mrs. Michael Sugrue and infant son, of 11 Jefferson avenue; Fred Bradley, United States Coast Guard service, and Joseph Grilis, Westerly, patients at Lawrence-Memorial hospital, were discharged today.

The condition of Captain of Police Charles A. Pinney, who was operated upon two weeks ago at Lawrence hospital, has improved to such an extent that the patient was able to sit up for a short time today. With the improvement continuing, Captain Pinney will be able to return to his home 63 Howard street some time the latter part of the coming week.

BRANDEGEE HOMESTEAD SOLD TO CORTICELLI SILK CO.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 1—The Corticelli Silk company, in which Benjamin A., and Benjamin L. Armstrong, both of this city, own a controlling interest, will acquire the last of the real estate formerly owned by the late Senator Frank Bosworth Brandegee within a few days. Already the deed transferring the realty is being prepared by Don Lundy, Washington, D. C., administrator of the Brandegee estate.

The property occupies an entire block bounded by Hempstead, Fremont, Walker and Bristol streets. A part of the property was the lifelong home of Senator Brandegee. The senator's father, the late Augustus Brandegee, established his home there. The property consists of the Brandegee homestead and a large tract of land on Hempstead street; a large parcel of land on Freemon street, three dwellings on Walker street, and a garage and large tract of land on Bristol street, with a large number of fruit-bearing trees. The price agreed upon whereby the realty will be transferred to the Armstrong interests, is $50,000. It is intended to allow the houses to remain on the estate and to cut up the three parcels of land into building lots.

Senator Brandegee always occupied the family estate during the summer and whenever he was not engaged in affairs of the nation at Washington.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT MADE TO WRECK EXPRESS TRAIN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 1—Special agents of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad are exerting their efforts to bring about the arrest of a would-be train wrecker, for twice within a month attempts have been made to wreck express trains near the Waterford station. About three weeks ago a tie was placed on the tracks a short distance east of the Waterford station, but instead of an express train hitting the object, it was struck by a light engine and with no damage resulting.

Sunday afternoon another tie was placed across the rails and in almost the same location as was the first. The tie was placed for the supposed purpose of wrecking Train 100 an eastbound express that passes the Waterford station at a speed of about 50 miles an hour. Instead of the express hitting it, the tie was found by a railroad worker and taken from the tracks but a few minutes before the express reached the location picked to wreck the train. Where the tie was placed a 35 foot embankment exists and with a train leaving the rails it would be almost a certainty that it would plunge down the steep incline with a loss of life that can only be imagined. Capt. Kelley of the local special agents and his workers are keen to obtain clues that may reveal the identity of the offender. Two suspects were questioned the past day or two, but a check-up of their movements revealed that neither was in Waterford Sunday, one being in New London and the other in Norwich the entire day.

GALES FERRY

Rev. E. J. Ayer of orwich, conducted the Sunday morning service in the Methodist Episcopal church, in the absence of Rev. George Smith Brown who is on his vacation. Rev. Mr. Ayer took as his text Psalms 39-7. My hope is in Thee. The duet, Rock of Ages, (T. Edwin Solly) was sung by Miss Grace A. Chapman and D. R. Povey. The altar flowers were a basket of gladioli in memory of Frederick Browne Colver given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Colver. The president of the Epworth League, Miss Jennie G. Perkins, was leader of the Sunday evening service with the topic, Where Am I, on the Way. Rev. George H. Wright of Sterling, assisted in this service.

The second and last Silver tea for the season, given for the benefit of the Gales Ferry Public Library, was held in the Library, Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. It was arranged by Miss Grace E. Povey, president of the Library association, and Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, with Mrs. Mary C. Watrous. The flowers for the decorations, were donated from the gardens of Mrs. Frank A. Aplin, Mrs. Bertha A. Hoyt, and Mrs. Lucy B. Hempstead, and included gladioli, velvet marigolds, bachelors' buttons, phlox and zinnias. Velvet marigolds with ferns, predominated, on the mantel and book cases, and were arranged by Miss Povey, Mrs. Marie Renton of Brooklyn, N. Y., poured tea. Mrs Billings F. S. Crandall, served iced tea, assisted by Mrs. E. W. Jones, and Miss Elizabeth Renton. Others assisting were Mrs. Everett Noyes, Mrs. R. Latimer, Misses Adelina Povey and Hettie E. Way. Sandwiches and little cakes and cheese straws were served with the tea. There was a good attendance.

Under the auspices of the Village Improvement association a supper was given at the Country club house, Saturday evening, at 6:30 and was largely attended. Miss Elizabeth Renton of Brooklyn, N. Y., was general chairman of the arrangements. The hostesses were Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, Mr. Walter T. Clark, Mrs. Nelson Parker, Mrs. R. Irving Hurlbutt, Mrs. Billings F. S. Crandall, Mrs. Everett Noyes, Mrs. Joseph DeRusha. Others assisting were, Mrs. Delphine Fish, Walter M. Buckingham and Fletcher Nelson. Tickets, D. R. Povey. The menu was beef loaf, escalloped potatoes, sliced tomatoes, pickles, rolls, ice cream, cake and coffee. Dancing followed to music by the Milton Osborn orchestra of orwich.

Mrs. Clara Nangle, of California who has been a guest of Mrs. A. C. Risdon for six weeks, left Friday for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Colver and family of the Submarine Base, with Mrs. Fanny A. Molthrop of Gales Ferry, moored to Wassus, Est Glastonbury, Sunday afternoon and attended the Centennial Anniversary service for Bishop Francis Asbury, the first Methodist Bishop in America. The service was held in open under the historic oak, where George Washington sat, while journeying through this part of Connecticut. The Historical Asbury Rock, from which Bishop Ashbury preached, in the summer of 1794 is about one mile from this tree off the public highway. The sermon for this service was by Bishop William F. Anderson of the Boston area and the text Thy Kingdom Come. A soloist from Syracuse, N. Y., a cornetist from Hartford with organ accompaniment, added much to the singing, by the assembly. Several hundred were present. Preliminary plans were proposed, and a chairman appointed to form an Asbury Rock association, for the care of this historic place.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert S. Bolles with Rev. J. Elmer McKee, rector of St. Peter's church, Bennington, Vermont, and Mrs. McKee and children, motored here recently from Weekapaug, R. I., to call on Dr. Bolles' sisters, Mrs. Harriet F. Crandall and Mrs. Hallan A. Pierce.

Miss Caroline B. Freeman, returned last week, from a visit of two weeks, in Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Mrs. Hgrace H. Sears, and son Alfred D. Sears, who have spent the summer at Gales Ferry, returned to their home at Hastings on the Hudson Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Lawrence, and two children of Norwich were recent guests of Mrs. Lawrence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pitcher at their cottage here.

Misses Florence and Eleanor Rogers of Philadelphia have purchased from Mrs. Mann, the summer cottage on the Bluff for many seasons occupied by the late J. Harry Mann, and family of Putnam. The Misses Rogers have been spending the summer at the cottage, previous to purchasing it.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Satterlee and daughter, Miss Rebecca Satterlee with friends from North Haven, spent Sunday with Mr. Satterlee's mother Mrs. Charles A. Satterlee and sister, Miss Alice Satterlee, motoring here.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Miss Minnie Wells is visiting relatives and friends in Attleboro, and Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Perry are entertaining relatives from New Jersey.

The Union Picnic of the Sunday Schools was held at Roseland Park.

Sendet-Grange will entertain Chepachie-Grange on Neighbors' night.

Mrs. Gilberton and two children, from Bayonne, N. J., have been visiting Mrs. Henry Lamothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Needham, James Goldman and daughter Mrs. Briggs, from North Attleboro were visitors at H. T. Wells' recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Leary from Providence spent the week-end with George Young and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Green, of Providence, spent the week at their summer home here.

Herbert Nelson of Hartford is spending his vacation with his parents.

Dr. Mackey, of New York, is spending a week with his brother, Richard Mackey.

Mr. McGrath of New York, who is on the Staff of the New York World, is spending his vacation at Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. William of Washington, D. C. are spending their vacation at their summer home at The Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowen have returned from a trip to New Haven.

Betty Putnam Chapter, of the Eastorn Star, has been invited to meet with the Western Chapter September 17th.

Miss Hattie Nelson has returned from a trip abroad.

MARNE THAT SAVED FRANCE TO SUPPLY BIG WHEAT CROP

PARIS, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The battlefield of the Marne, where the Americans helped the French turn the tide of war seven years ago, will furnish a bumper crop of wheat this year. The department of the Marne and the Eure were rated at the end of June at 80 in the official crop estimates, while 80 is exceedingly good and far above the average of recent years. Thirty-three of the 80 departments were rated at 80 to 85, yet government officials are wondering whether they will not again this year be obliged to import some wheat to meet ordinary requirements.

Agricultural experts say that while the crops look good, the rust has done much damage and that an early July estimate of 90,000,000 metric hundred weight of 324,000,000 bushels of wheat must now be reduced to about 288,000,000 bushels. France consumes about 325,000,000 bushels per year.

The harvest which began recently in some departments, is just in time to keep the mills going, the stocks on hand having been practically exhausted, so that if the agricultural experts are nearer right that the official crop judges, France will have to buy abroad nearly as much wheat as she imported last year. It is pointed out, however, that the agriculturalist is always inclined to pessimism and fair judges opine that while France may be a little short of her requirements she will not need as much grain from abroad as last year.

WORKERS IN INDIA BENEFIT BY DRIVE AGAINST LIQUOR

LONDON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Prohibition measures in India have greatly improved the condition of the working classes, in the opinion of C. V. Mehta, a member of the executive council of Bombay, who arrived in England, recently on a visit. Mr. Mehta, who was formerly minister in Bombay the drinking was about a third less than before the dry campaign began.

During strikes or any serious trouble, Mr. Mehta said, all liquor shops in Bombay are closed. Three years ago during the non-cooperation movement when volunteers picketed liquor shops in Bombay and Poona, there was practically no consumption of alcoholics for five months, and the authorities found that the condition of the workers had distinctly improved.

"The majority of Indians have virtually been abstainers for centuries, so it was easy for us to work toward prohibition at a quicker rate," said Mr. Mehta, "and in two and a half years we were able to reduce consumption from 2,800,000 gallons to 1,800,000 and there has been a relative improvement in the condition of the masses as a bulk."

The Largest Rosary

What is believed to be the largest rosary in the world has been presented to Pope Pius by an expert wood carver of Merano, who made it. The rosary measures more than 15 feet in circumference. Each bead, of finely carved wood, is larger than an average sized egg.

NEW LONDON LINE
Day and Night Service To NEW YORK

Round Trip Fare from New London $4.00

Tickets good 48 hours except Saturdays when they are valid on that day only

	Except Sun. & Mon.	Daily
Lv. New London	9:00 a.m.	10:00 p.m.
Due New York	4:30 p.m.	6:00 a.m.

Special Midnight and Daylight trips from New York
Music and Dancing on Day Trip.
Popular One Day Outings Table D'Hote Meal Service
The New England Steamship Company

YOU MUST READ THIS!
71st—Annual—71st
New London County Fair
NORWICH FAIRGROUNDS
17-18-19—SEPTEMBER—17-18-19

Positively nothing like this fair has ever been scheduled by the local society. New and wonderful features: Mercantile Exhibits—Auto Show—Poultry and Stock Exhibits—Farm Machinery—Flowers—Farm and Home Products—Horse Racing and Free Vaudeville.

—MANY SPECIAL FEATURES—

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17th—Governor's Day—Official visit of Governor Trumbull, Senator Bingham and other prominent state officials.
FRIDAY, SEPT. 18th—Morning: 9 a. m., Better Baby Contest for prize loving cups. Afternoon: 1.30 p. m., Beautiful Girl Contest. Girls 17 to 25 eligible. Entries close Sept. 10th at 63 Broadway. Ten big prizes. Free Trip to Washington, D. C.
SATURDAY, SEPT. 19th—Morning: Mutt Show, Doll Carriage Parade. Barnyard Golf Tournament. Afternoon: Decorated Automobile Parade.
ADMISSION—Adults 75c; Children 25c; Autos 50c. Grandstand, 75c and $1.00. Autos Inside Track, 50c.
FREE PARKING SPACE.

BROADWAY
—TODAY—
Be Sure and See This VAUDEVILLE
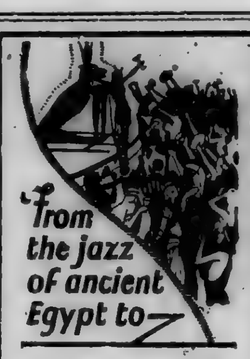
and PICTURE SHOW
5—FINE ACTS—5
—and—
RAYMOND GRIFFITH
BETTY COMPSON
—in—
PATHS TO PARADISE
THURS., FRI., SAT.
COMPLETE PROGRAM CHANGE
Vaudeville—Pictures

6 DAYS 6 NIGHTS
NEW CONNECTICUT
State Fair
HARTFORD
SEPT. 7-12.
—EXHIBITS—
Livestock—State Departments—Implements—Boys' and Girls' Clubs
—SHOWS—
Agricultural — Industrial — Flower—Auto
—RACES—
4 DAYS OF HARNESS
AUTOS SATURDAY
HORSE SHOW FRIDAY
FREE PARKING FOR AUTOS
SPECIAL R. R. EXCURSIONS.

Norwich Grange Picnic
AT MOHEGAN PARK, THURSDAY, SEPT. 3
BASKET LUNCH.
Meet at corner of Rockwall St. and McKinley Ave., at 2:30 (S. T.)
If rainy postponed until later date.

DANCE
TONIGHT
Lakeside Casino
SOUTH COVENTRY LAKE
Lakeside Orchestra
Best and Coolest Dance Floor

MOOSUP POND DANCE TONIGHT.
DANCE EVERY WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT.
IDEAL NOVELTY ORCHESTRA.



PALACE
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Sept. 6, 7, 8, 9. Symphony Orchestra, Wm. S. Jeffs, Conductor.

PALACE
LAST TIMES TODAY
LOU TELLEGEN and ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN in Parisian Nights
COMEDY FABLES
TOMORROW NIGHT IS
Merchants Night
MANY BEAUTIFUL PRESENTS
5 — SPLENDID — 5
ACTS
NANCY FAIR & CO.,
Co-Star with Ernest Truex, in two shows. Feature with Winter Garden, Passing Show, Girl in the Limousine and several other Broadway productions.

BREED THEATRE
Today—Thursday —
CONWAY TEARLE
CLAIRE WINDSOR
PERCY MARMONT
—IN—
JUST A WOMAN
A mighty drama that probes to the soul of mother love. The story of a woman who was willing to suffer shame rather than give up her baby.
Comedy, Looking for Sally
NEWS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Advertising Did It.

Wrigley, the chewing gum man, has explained how he built up a business of millions of packages a day.

He has done it by sticking to his one line and advertising it. He spends over a million dollars a year in buying newspaper space to tell the world about 5 cent chewing gum. He has educated people to chew gum and to chew Wrigley's. He did not stop shouting as soon as he attracted attention.

He says you must keep it up or the buyers will forget you. Whether yours is a 5 cent or a $50,000 business, keep telling about it.

Many Features in N. L. County Fair

The Beautiful Girl contest on Friday) Sept. 18, will be one of the features of the New London County fair, to be held at the Norwich fairgrounds Sept. 17, 18 and 19, and as the prize is a free trip to Washington, D. C., with a letter to President Coolidge, it is expected that many girls from 17 to 25 years will enter the competition, entries for which close on September 10 at headquarters, No. 63 Broadway, Norwich. Appearance twice, once in afternoon, or sport costume, and once in bathing suit of two pieces, with stockings and shoes, is required. Judging is by a prominent actress.

Another feature will be the Better Baby show on Friday morning, in charge of Dr. Elizabeth Ingraham of Hartford and a corps of 15 doctors and nurses. Babies up to two years are eligible for this event and prize cups to be awarded the best babies in the show. One to be known as the Bliss Cup, the other as the Ferguson cup.

Other feature events will be Governor's day Thursday, Sept. 17, when Governor Trumbull, Senator Bingham and a number of state officials are to attend the fair. A Mutt show and baby carriage parade Saturday morning and the decorated automobile parade and barn yard golf finals in the afternoon will also be features. Entries for the Barnyard Golf play should be made before Sept. 12th.

Besides these attractions there will be the usual displays of poultry, blooded stock, pet stock, farm and home products, flower show, automobile show and exhibits by merchants and manufacturers of Eastern Connecticut.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Hungarians today honor the memory of St. Stephen, first man to be crowned king of Hungary, and revered by his countrymen as the real founder of the nation.

One hundred and twenty-five years ago today was born Dr. Willard Parker, a native of New Hampshire, who established the first college clinic in the United States.

Hoke Smith, former governor of Georgia, United States senator, and secretary of the interior in the Cleveland cabinet, celebrates his 70th birthday anniversary today.

Eminent representatives of the bench and bar of the United States, Canada and Great Britain will attend the annual meeting of the American Bar Association, opening today in Detroit.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the great national organization of laymen and the Protestant Episcopal Church, opens its annual convention in Pittsburgh today and will remain in session until Saturday.

Thousands of visitors will throng Asbury Park today to see the Baby Parade, which is the crowning feature of the annual festival which has made the New Jersey resort known throughout the world.

A score or more of international problems of the greatest importance are scheduled for consideration by the Council of the League of Nations at its thirty-fifth session which begins today in Geneva.

Conservation commissioners and representatives of the fisherics industry from all sections of the country will meet at the Hotel Ambassador in Atlantic City today for the annual convention of the United States Fisheries Association.

Old Catholics, a body which broke away from the Roman Catholics in 1870 and has some 50,000 adherents, chiefly in Germany, Switzerland and Austria, will meet today at Berne, Switzerland, for the first international congress held since 1913.

What Is Going On Tonight

Norwich Radio club meets in May building.

Buckingham council, No. 14, Jr. O. U. A. M., meets in Buckingham Memorial Division 56, A. O. H. auxiliary, meets in A. O. H. hall.

Bimmergreen lodge, No. 12, O. D. H. S., meets in Germania hall.

Somerset lodge, No. 54, F. and A. M., meets in Masonic temple.

R. E. Hourigan auxiliary, V. F. W., meets at 2 Market St.

Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows hall.

Mohegan lodge, No. 64, F. O. R. M., meets in Steiner hall.

Woman's Benefit association, Maccabees, meets in Buckingham Memorial.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sale of Real Estate

Real Estate Broker John A. Morar has sold for Miss Louisa M. Case the modern ten room house located at 83 West Town street. The new owner Mr. Daniel M. Young of this city bought the property as an investment and will in the near future remodel it into a modern two apartment house. There is about an acre of land adjoining the property that can be used for building purposes.

Conn. State Fair

The Connecticut State Fair Association offers at Charter Oak Park, Hartford, opening Labor Day and continuing throughout the week, day and night, the greatest fair in the history of the association. Backed by the interest of all state departments the exhibits this year will be on a greater scale than heretofore. Spectacular free attractions will be given daily. Every night superb fireworks displays will be presented. Horse racing events on the program will be of the usual high quality of speed for which the track is famous.

The State Fair this year is aptly described as the New State Fair—on a higher plane. The management has gone to extremes in the arrangement for the fair of this year. Recognizing the importance of agriculture to the state Governor Trumbull has given his active assistance in the preparation of state exhibits. All departments will be represented and people of the state will be given a complete picture of the functions of various state departments.

The most thrilling of free open air attractions is auto polo—the popular polo game played in automobiles. The game furnishes a rapid succession of thrills as the drivers play the game. American and British teams will play.

On Thursday a spectacular sham battle will be staged. Five hundred troops will participate. A combined land and air attack will be made on a fort specially built. The airplanes are expected to demolish it by aerial bombs. This will be governor's day. Governors of New England states will be present, some flying to the field in airplanes. The Shenandoah, the dirigible has been ordered to the fair grounds by the war department.

At the Breed

One of the most striking and very human arguments against the divorce evil ever seen on the screen here is that presented by Just a Woman, the M. C. Levee First National offering which opens today at the Breed theater for two days.

Conway Tearle and Claire Windsor are the featured players, with Percy Marmont heading a particularly strong supporting cast.

While the picture is by no means a preachment for or against divorce, and, obviously, was designed purely as entertainment, it suballes much food for thought for those in the throes of domestic tangles.

The story is an adaption from Eugene Walter's stage success and is based upon life among the workers and their families in a big Pennsylvania steel mill.

Jane and Robert Holton are happy until he becomes wealthy. As an office boy he knows his job, his wife and baby—everything. He thinks that any ordinary couple could do so. Then comes quick wealth and the Holtons move to New York.

They meet a designing actress from the old home town and from that on the story becomes tense. She intrigues through a "friend" to get evidence wherein Jane unknowingly is placed in a compromising position with George Reed, a lifelong friend of the Holtons. In his power she tries to wed Robert and his money.

The ensuing scenes show vividly how divorce evidence can be framed, and how a man may unwittingly be led to suspect his wife.

Miss Windsor and Tearle, in the roles of the Holtons, can be credited with some excellent work—in fact, as good work as they have ever put forth on the screen. Marmont also shows himself to good advantage, as does Miss Dorothy Revere in the role of the actress.

Others in the cast include Baby Dorothy Brock and George Cooper. The latter provides some good comedy relief for the drama.

Automobile fatalities showed a share decrease in a group of 57 American cities during the four weeks ending Aug. 15, the department of commerce reporting the total at 328 as compared with 417 during the preceding four-week period ending July 18.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks irregular; equipment issues strong.

Bonds mixed: Australian 5S break as syndicate dissolves.

Foreign exchanges easy; Scandinavian currencies react.

Cotton higher; trade buying.

Sugar easy; increased spot offerings.

Coffee declined; bearish Brazilian cables.

Chicago

Wheat lower; weakness Winnipeg.

Corn steady; bullish crop estimates.

Cattle irregular.

Hogs declined; slow demand.

BREAK IN STOCK PRICES

NEW YORK, Sept. 1—(A. P.)—Stock prices broke sharply just before the close of today's market after an earlier period of moderate strength which was featured by the bidding up of a dozen or more pool specialties closing quotations disclosed several score losses ranging from one to ten points and a scattering list of one to six point gains.

Selling pressure was particularly acute against such recent strong spots, such as American Can, Dupont, General Electric, Foundation Company, Mack Trucks, International Harvester, Sears Roebuck, Otis Steel preferred, F. G. Shattuck and Westinghouse Air Brake, all of which fell 3 to 7 points below yesterday's final quotations. In some instances, offerings were sufficiently large to sugest urgent liquidation.

There was nothing in the day's news to account for the selling. Commission house observers generally described the reaction as a partial correction of a weakened technical position resulting from the recent sustained advance. Operators on the long side tried vainly to attract a public following by bidding up a number of the equipment, tobacco and merchandising issues, trading invariably turned uil on the rallies. This led to increased offerings and a withdrawal of buying support.

U. S. Steel common closed a point lower at 119 3-8 and losses of one to 2 1-2 points also were recorded by such popular industrial isues as Allied Chemical, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, American Smelting and Refining, Studebaker, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Marine preferred, Texas Gulf Sulphur, Tobacco Produc stand U. S. Realty.

Chicago Pneumatic Tool spurted five points to a new high record at 119 in anticipation of that company's early entrance into the electrical refrigeration field. New York Shipbuilding jumped 1 1-2 points to a new 1925 high at 58. Baldwin Locomotive also developed independent strength, closing 120 and then falling back to 118 1-2, where it was up 2 1-2 on the day. Railway Steel Spring closed two points higher at 130.

Rails declined with the industrials although special buying was noted in a few issues. "Soo" prfeerred jumped six points to a new high record at 72 and the common closed 2 1-2 points higher at 42 1-2. International Railway of Central America common was run up over 4 points to a new high record at 33 in reflection of steadily increasing earnings. Atchison developed a temporary outburst of strength by moving up to 124 and then sagged to 122 1-2, unchanged on the day. Several of the standard rails such as New York Central, Reading, Southern Railway, Northern Pacific, Union Pacific and Lackawanna closed one to 2 points lower.

Call money renewed at 4 1-4 per cent. and then advanced to 4 1-2, closing at the top. Time money and commercial Paper rates were unchanged.

Reactionary tendencies developed in the foreign exchange market. Demand sterling yielded 1-8 of a cent to $4.85 and minor recessions also took place in the Belgian, Dutch, Swedish and Swiss currencies. French francs held steady around 4.69 cents. A better demand was noted for Italian lira which advanced over ten points to .87 cents. Norwegian and Danish krone fell back 20 to 42 points, respectively. Brazilian milreis crossed 13 cents to a new high level for the year.

STOCKS.

Sales in hundreds	High:	Low.	Close
2 Abitibi P & P..	65	65	65
4 Adv Rumely ..	14⅝	14⅛	14⅛
5 Adv Rumely pr	57	56½	56½
10 Ahumada Lead	10⅜	10	10⅛
14 Air Reduct ...	108	105⅛	105⅛
14 Ajax Rubber .	10⅝	10⅛	10⅝
1 Am Am Cable	128	128	128
81 Am Ch & Dye.	102	101	101
18 Al Chalmers .	87⅛	86	86
14 Am Ag Chem .	22¼	21½	21½
13 Am Ar Ch pr .	63⅜	63½	63½
6 Am Beet Sugar	36⅛	35⅞	36
5 Am Bosch Mag	31	30	30
1 Am Br Sh Fy .	115½	115½	115½
122 Am Can	223½	226	223½
45 Am Can pr ..	120⅜	120⅛	120⅜
37 Am Car & Fdy	107⅜	105	105
2 Am Car & F ..	127⅜	127½	127⅜
1 Am Chicle prpf	90	90	90
6 Am Drug Syn .	5¼	5⅛	5⅛
10 Am & F P ...	41⅝	41	41
1 Am & F P pr	90⅝	90⅝	90⅝
9 Am H & L	10¼	10	10
8 Am H & L pr.	61⅛	60	60
4 Am Ice	120	119⅜	119⅜
2 Am Ice pr	82¾	82⅜	82⅜
26 Am Int Cp ...	38⅛	36⅝	36½
2 Am In F Eng	13	12⅝	12⅝
9 Am Linseed .	34	33½	33½
55 Am Loco	117¼	114¾	116
1 Am Loco pr ..	118	118	118
3 Am Metals ...	50⅞	50	50
8 Am Radiator .	111¾	110	110¾
2 Am Ship&Com	6½	6¾	6½
28 Am Smelting .	106⅝	107½	107⅜
1 Am Sm pr	112	112	112
25 Am Steel Fdrs	40⅜	40	40⅜
3 Am Sug Ref ..	65½	65¼	65½
1 Am Sum Toh.	9⅜	9⅜	9⅜
7 Am T & T. ...	140½	139⅞	140½
52 Am Toh x	100	99½	99
58 Am Toh B ...x	100½	98⅞	98⅞
21 Am Wat Wks	60⅜	59	59
7 Am Woolen ...	39½	38⅞	39½
3 Am Wool pr .	87⅛	87	87⅛
1 At Pa pr .....)	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
21 Ana Cop	41⅞	41	41
3 Arch Dan Mid.	37⅛	37¼	37¼
4 Arm&Co Del pr	96	95½	96
181 Ar&Co of Ill.	99¼	98¾	99⅜
13 Arnold Constab	10	9⅞	10
15 Asso Dry Gds.	52¾	51⅝	52
1 Artloom Corp ..	44	44	44
1 Asso DG 1 pr.	96	96	96
3 Asso Oil	35⅝	35¼	35⅜
51 Atchison	124	122½	123½
2 Atchison pr ...	96	96	96
20 Atl B & A	7⅜	6⅞	6⅞
3 Atl Coast L ...	184½	184	184
14 Atl G & W I	58⅜	57¼	57⅜
2 Atl G & WI pr	54⅜	54	54
2 Atl Ref x	100½	100¼	100⅜
2 Atlas Tack ..	12½	12¾	12⅜
373 Baldwin Loco	120⅛	116⅝	116⅜
11 Austin Nichols.	28½	28	28
3 Baldwin Loco pf	110	109½	110
57 Balt & O	80	78¼	78½
1 Bang & Aroos	43⅛	43⅛	43⅛

WHITE & ALEXANDER

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

OFFICES

New London ..... Plant Bldg.

Norwich ..... Disco Bldg.

18 Barnsdl Corp A	20	19⅝	19⅝
1 Bayuk Cigars.	39¼	39¼	39¼
10 Beechnut Pack	74	73	73¾
10 Beth Steel ..	41⅜	40¼	40¼
2 Beth St 7 p xd	96	95⅝	96
6 Booth Fish ...	6⅝	6¼	6¼
3 Bot Cn M A .	42	41⅜	42
77 Briggs Mfg Co	38⅞	36⅛	38⅞
4 Bkyn Un ctfs .	85⅞	85½	85½
2 Bkyn Mh Tn pr	80	80	80
19 Brown Shoe .	135¾	134⅝	135
5 Bruns Balk Col	30⅝	30⅛	30⅝
3 Buff R&Pitts..	80	80	80
5 Bruns Tm & Ry	6⅞	6¼	6⅞
8 Buf P&Pitts pr	80	80	80
2 Burns Bros B.	25	25	25
1 Burr Add Mch	95⅝	95⅝	95⅝
1 Bush Ter ctfsn	17¼	17⅛	17⅛
2 Bush Ter 7 pcdb	85	84⅝	85
6 Butte & S Cop	11	10⅝	10⅝
1 Butterick ...	19¼	19¼	19¼
1 Caddo Oil	⅝	⅝	⅝
2 Calif Pack . ..	1236	121½	121½
8 Cal Petrol ...	25⅝	25⅛	25⅛
3 Calumet & Ariz	50⅝	50	50
3 Calu & Hecla	14⅝	14½	14½
6 Canadian Pcxd	141½	132⅝	142⅝
2 Case Thresh pr	85	85	85
17 Cent Leather .	18⅞	18⅝	18⅝
11 Cent Leather....	18⅞	18⅝	18⅝
11 Cent Leath pr	61½	60¼	61
2 Cent of N J	285	282	285
13 Cerro de Pasco	52¼	52	52¼
50 Certainteed ..	54⅜	54¼	54⅜
27 Chandler Motor	31⅞	30¼	30⅞
41 Ches & Ohio ..	104¼	103½	104
7 Chic & Alton . .	6⅝	6	6
20 Ch & Al pr . ..	12¼	11	11
5 Ch Gt West ..	11⅞	11⅝	11⅝
19 Ch Gt W pr ..	26¼	24½	24½
5 Ch Gt West ..	11⅞	11⅝	11⅝
19 Ch Gt W pr ..	26⅛	24½	24⅝
10 Ch M & St P .	8¼	8⅛	8¼
27 Ch M&StP pr .	15⅜	15	15⅜
14 Ch & N W	67½	66¼	66⅝
55 Chi Pneu Tool	119	114	119
62 CRI & P	48⅝	47½	47⅝
1 Ch Yel Cab ..	47	47	47
24 Child Co	56¾	56⅛	56½
12 Chile Con	34⅛	34	34⅛
156 Chrsler Motor	142½	137½	136½
10 Chry Mot pr A	107	106½	106½
10 Coca Cola ...	138	137	137
18 Colo Fl&Ir	39½	37½	39½
55 Col & Sou 2 ..	70¼	68	68
1 Col & So 1 pr	64	64	64
4 Col & Sou 2 pr	62	62	62
24 Con G & E	72⅝	71⅝	72⅛
1 Com Solv A .	100	100	100
140 Com Solb B .	98½	94	97¾
14 Cong Nairn	4⅛	24¼	24⅜
2 Conley Tm stp .	⅝	⅝	⅝
53 Consol Cigar ..	41⅛	38¼	38⅝
12 Consol Cig pr.	87½	8½	87
31 Consol Dist ..	5	4½	5
24 Consol Gas ..	88	87½	87⅞
2 Consol Textile .	3	3	3
22 Cont Can	73	71¼	72⅜
1 Cont Insur	113⅞	113⅞	113⅞
6 Cont Motors ..	9⅝	9¼	9⅝
112 Corn Product .	37⅝	36½	37½
169 Crucible Stl ...	76	72½	74⅞
3 Cub Can Sug.	9⅜	9¼	9⅜
12 Cub Cn Sug pr	43½	42	43
4 Cub Am Sug .	24¼	24¼	24¼
5 Cuban Dm Sug	4	3⅝	3⅝
1 Cub Dm S pr .	28	28	28
2 Cudahy Pack .	96	96	96
1 Dan BooneWM	1¼	1¼	1¼
12 Davison Chem.	41⅛	40⅜	41⅛
1 Deere Co pr ...	104	104	104
1 Del & Hud. ..	144⅝	144⅝	144⅝
4 Del Lk & W ..	140½	139	140½
8 DRG&W pr ctfs	44	43½	43½
2 Det Edison ...	130½	129⅞	129⅞
19 Dodge Bros A .	24⅞	24⅝	24⅝
71 Dodge Bros pr	84	83	84
1 Dome Mines ..	15⅝	15⅜	15⅝
5 Doug Pec xd.	21½	21	21
1 DuP de N	101	101	101
16 DuP de N deb	156½	151	155
2 Durham Hos ..	16	15⅝	6
25 East Kodak .	165½	165¼	165¼
42 Eaton Axle ..	24⅞	24⅞	24⅜
65 El P & L ctfs.	32½	31¼	32½
3 El P&L prctfs	90	90	90
1 El P&W 40 pr.	105	105	105
5 Elec Stor Bat..	64⅝	64½	64½
5 Emerson Bgt p	24¼	23½	23½
3 Endicot John.	69	68	68
1 Endicot Johnpf	116	116	116
26 Erie R R	31⅜	30½	30½
14 Erie 1 pr	40⅞	39	39
1 Erie 2 pr	38¾	38¾	38¾
27 Fam Play Las.	105⅜	104⅝	105⅜
2 Fed Lt & Tr.	27¼	27	27⅛
2 Fed M & S pr .	58½	56⅝	56⅝
3 First N P 1 pr	102	101½	101⅞
6 Fisher Body..	82	81	81
49 Fisk Rubber ..	22¼	21⅜	21⅞
2 Fisk Rub 1 pr.	109	108	109
58 Fleich Co	108¾	106	106⅜
73 Founda Co xd	135⅞	132½	133½
5 Freeport Texas	16⅝	15⅝	15⅝
6 Gardner Mot .	10⅛	9⅝	9⅝
16 Gen Am Tank	47⅜	46	47⅜
2 Gen Am T pr.	101	101	101
8 Gen Asphalt .	52½	52⅜	52⅜
1 Gen Asph pr .	96	95	95
1 Gen Bak	177	177	177
1 Gen Cigar	89⅝	89⅜	89⅜
42 Gen Elec	323½	318	319½
6 Gen Elec spl .	11⅝	11½	11⅝
106 Gen Motors ..	89¼	87⅝	87⅞
5 Gen Mot 7 pr .	112½	112	113¾
13 Gen Pet	42⅝	42¼	43¼
16 Gen Ry Sig ..	367	350	350
6 Gimbel Bros ..	56⅜	55	55
2 Ginter Co.	46½	46	46
4 Glidden Co	21	20½	20½
28 Goodrich B F .	55¾	54	54½
3 Gdyr T&R pr.	104	103⅜	103⅜
14 Great North pr	72⅜	72¼	71⅝
2 Grt Nor I O Pr	28	27⅝	28
1 Great W S	98	98	98
93 Gulf Mo & No.	33½	31¼	31½
4 Gulf M&N pr.	103¼	103	103
3 Gulf St Stl	81⅝	80¼	80½
1 Gulf St St pr.	103⅜	103⅜	103⅜
2 Havana El	222	220	220
5 Haves Wheel ..	39	38¾	38¾
1 Helme Co	72	72	72
1 Houston Oil ..	63	63	63
2 Howe Sound Co	23⅜	23¼	23⅜
16 Hud & Man ..	36⅞	35½	35⅜
1 Hud & Man pr	69	69	69
44 Hudson Motors	63⅜	62¼	62⅝
24 Hupp Motors.	18⅛	18	18
3 Illinois Central	15⅝	115½	115⅞
6 Indep O&Gas.	25	24¼	24⅝
2 Indian Motorcy	23	22¾	22⅞
1 Indian Refin .	7¼	7⅛	7¼
7 Inland Steel ..	43¼	42⅜	43
5 Inspir Cop	27¼	26½	26½
16 Interb Rap Tns	27½	26	27⅝
5 Int Agri Corp.	13⅝	13½	13½
16 Int Busi Mach	143½	142	143
4 Int Cement ..	70	68¼	68¼
39 Int Comb Eng.	47⅛	46	46⅛
42 Int Harv Co..	122½	120	120⅛
1 Int Harv pr ..	118¼	118¼	118¼
12 Int Mer Mar .	8	8	8
11 Int Mer Mar pr	20¾	20	20
92 Int Nickel	33¾	33½	33⅜
19 Int aper 7s pr	67⅛	64	64
18 Int Rys Ct Am	33	32	33
1 Int Shoe pr ..	116¾	116¾	116¾
12 Int Tel & Tel.	126½	125½	125½
2 Jewell Tea ..	18⅝	18⅜	18⅝
2 Jones Bros Tea	16⅝	16⅜	16⅜
28 Jordan Motors	41⅜	40¼	40¼
15 Kan City Sou.	38¼	35½	35½
3 Kansas & Gulf.	½	½	½
2 Kayser J & Co	30⅞	30	30
1 Kay J & Co p	30⅞	30⅞	30⅞
12 Kelly Spg	15⅜	15⅛	15⅛
1 Kel Spg 6s pr..	59	59	59
1 Kel Spg 8s pr .	62	62	62
2 Kelsey Wheel.	93	92½	92½
46 Kenne Copper .	54⅞	53⅝	53⅝
1 Kresge Dp Str	34½	34½	34½
40 Laclede Gas ..	156	156	156
3 Lee Rub & T .	15½	15	15
4 Lehigh Valley.	78	76⅞	76⅞
6 Lig&My TobB.	65⅝	65⅛	65⅛
2 Lima Loco	64	62	6
72 Loew Inc	34⅞	33⅞	33⅞
9 Loose Wil Bis	92	90½	92
26 Lorillard Co ..	35⅜	34½	34½
15 Lou & O pr ..	14	13⅞	13⅞
4 Lou & Na ...	118½	115⅝	115⅝
2 Ludlum Steel..	34⅛	34	34
99 Mack Truck ..	218	205½	216
1 Mack Tr 1 pr.	112¾	112¾	112¾
32 Macy R H Co.	98½	93¾	94
9 Magma Cop ...	41⅜	41⅜	41⅜
4 Mallison & Co.	26	25½	25½
1 Manati Sug ..	46	46	46
2 Man Ry gtd ..	101¼	101	101
2 Man Ry md gtd	45½	45½	45½
25 Man Shirt ...	29¾	27½	29¼
3 Mara Oil Exp .	21¼	21¼	21⅛
27 Mari Oil	41¾	41	41
5 Mart Parry ...	20½	20	20⅛
28 May Dpt Stor.	120⅝	117⅝	118½
1 McCr Stor B .	91	91½	91½
2 Mex Seab Oil .	13	13	13
7 Miami Cop ...	9⅞	9⅝	9⅝
12 Mid Cont Pet.	27¼	26⅝	26⅞
10 Mid States Oil.	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
5 Mid St Pr pr.	141½	139	139
1 Minn&St L ...	3	3	3
13 Minn StP&SSM	42¼	40	42½
15 Min StP&SSMp	72	66	72
1 Min StP & SSM	60	60	60
126 Mo K & T ...	42¾	41	41½
18 Mo K & T pr.	88¾	87⅞	88⅛
32 Mo Pacific ...	37⅞	36	36
27 Mo Pac pr ..	85½	82¾	82¾
95 Mont Pow ...	83½	83	83¼
146 Montg Ward .	71	68	70
1 Moon Motors .	33¼	31¼	31½
4 Mother Lode .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
4 Motor Wheel .	30¾	30	30
2 Murray By Crp	30¼	30¼	30¼
2 Nash Motors .	409	400¾	409
1 Nat Acme stpd	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
8 Nat Biscuit ..	71½	71	71
2 Nat Bisc pr ..	124½	124½	124½
7 Nat Clk & Suit	69½	69	69
11 Nat Dry Pr ctfs	67½	66	66
7 Nat Dist Pr .	33⅞	33⅝	33⅝
1 Nat Dis Pr pr .	64½	64¼	64¼
15 Nat En & St.	37⅝	37	37
8 Nat Lead	157	153¼	153¼
2 Rys Mex 2pr	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
2 Nat Supply ...	58	58	58
2 New Con Cop .	13¼	13¼	13⅜
6 N Y Air Bk ..	49⅝	48½	48⅝
56 N Y Cent.	120⅝	119	119
2 N Y Dock	32½	32¼	32¼
135 N Y N H & H.	37⅜	36	36
39 N Y Ont & W.	30½	29⅝	29⅝
17 N Y Ship Bldg	58	52½	58
1 Norfolk South.	40	40	40
40 North Am West	135	133	133⅛
1 No Amer pr	50	50	50
13 North Pac	69⅝	68	68
4 Nunnally Co ..	12½	11¾	12⅝
1 Oppenheim Col	41½	41½	41½
2 Orpheum Cir.	29⅞	29⅝	29⅝
4 Otis Elevator .	135¼	135	135
4 Otis Elevator.	135¼	135	135
87 Otis Steel ...	13½	12⅝	12⅝
9 Otis Steel pr.	89⅞	87	87
24 Owens Bottle ..	56	55⅜	55⅜
1 Pac Coast	23⅜	23⅝	23⅜
9 Pac Oil	52⅝	52	52⅞
11 Pac &as & El.	111½	110	111
232 Packard Motor	39¼	38	38⅞
41 Paike Det Mot	21⅜	21	21⅜
6 Pan Am Pet ...	61	60¼	61
61 Pan Am Pet B	61½	60⅜	61
4 Penick & Ford	20½	20⅛	20⅛
7 Penn C & Coke	15	15	15
251 Penn R R	47⅞	47½	47⅞
105 Penn Seab Stl	2	1⅞	1⅞
3 Philip Co	58	58	58
15 P&R Coal&Ir.	41½	40½	40⅞
30 Phil Mor & Co	25¼	24⅝	24⅞
73 Phil Petro ...	33¼	32¾	32¾
585 Pierce Ar	40⅝	38¼	38½
54 Pierce Ar pr..	89¾	88⅝	88⅝
1 Pierce Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1 Pierce Petro.	5¼	5¼	5¼
1 Pitts C pr	86	86	86
7 Pitts T C	46	45	46
6 Pitts & W Va .	73¾	70¼	72½
27 Postum Cereal	136⅜	133	133⅜
7 Press St Car .	57	55	56
3 Press StC pr..	80	79	80
10 Prd & Refin..	14¾	13⅞	13⅞
2 P S E &G pr.	97¼	97⅛	97¼
55 Pub S N J	82¾	81	81⅜
1 P S N J Spc pr	115¼	115¼	115¼
1 P S N J pct pr	105	105	105
69 Pullman Co ...	143	140¾	140¾
5 Punta Al Sug .	33½	33½	33½
6 Pure Oil	26	25⅞	25⅞
2 Pure Oil pr ..	107¾	107¼	107¼
166 Radio Corp	54½	50⅞	53⅝
46 Ry Steel Spr.	131	128¾	130
18 Ray Consol Cop	13⅞	13⅜	13⅜
17 Reading Co ..	86	85	85½
2 Reading 1st ..	18¾	18¼	18⅝
81 Real 2 pr	40¼	40	40
31 Reis & Co Robt	25⅜	24⅝	24⅝
18 Rem Type	81¼	78¼	78¼
1 Rep Steel	14⅜	14⅜	14⅜
11 Rep I & S ...	48¾	47¾	47⅞
2 Reyns Spring .	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜
10 Reyns Tob B.	83⅞	83⅜	83⅜
1 Rossia Ins Co .	89½	89½	89½
3 Royal D N Y .	49	49	49
3 Ruthnd Ry pr	56½	54	54
1 St Jos Lead ..	41	41	41
234 St L & S F ..	101	98	98¾
2 St L & S F pr.	90½	90½	90⅜
9 S L South	57⅝	56	56
1 St L Southw pr	72⅝	72⅝	72⅜
12 Savage Arms..	66⅜	63	63⅝
3 Schulte Rt Strs	105	105	10
3 Schulte Ret St	103½	103	103½
1 Schulte R S pr	113⅝	113⅝	113⅝
131 Seab A L	45½	43⅝	43⅞
35 Seab A L pr .	48⅞	48¼	48⅜
3 Seagr Corp. ...	14⅞	14⅜	14⅝
17 Sears Roeb ...	212	207	207
21 Shat F G Co ..	80½	76	76
7 Shell Un Oil .	22¼	22¼	22¾
6 Sim Co	48⅝	48	48
4 Sim Pet	19⅝	19¼	19⅝
70 Sinc Con Oil .	18⅝	18⅜	18⅝
13 Skelly Oil ...	24	23	24
2 Sh S S & I	99⅝	99½	99⅝
24 Pac	98	97½	97⅝
76 South Ry x	105⅜	103⅛	104
7 South Ry pr ..	92¾	91⅝	92
1 So P R S	85	85	85
1 Spear & Co ...	14½	14½	14½
2 Spear & Co pr ..	80½	80	80⅜
18 Spicer Mfg ..	30	28¾	30
55 Std G & E	53	52¼	53¼
1 Std G & E pr.	53½	53½	53½
1 Std Mill	69	69	69
15 Stan Oil Cal .	53¾	52¾	52¾
35 Std Oil N J ...	39⅝	39½	39½
7 Std Oil N J pr	116¾	116¾	116¾
2 Std Pl Glass ..	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝
1 Sterling Prds .	70½	70¾	70¾
21 Stew War Spd	70⅞	69	69
1 Strom Carb ...	70½	70¼	70¼
68 Studebaker .	47½	46	46
17 Subm Boat ...	4½	3⅞	4⅛
8 Superior Oil ..	3½	3	3
6 Symington Co .	15⅞	15	15⅝
2 Sym Co A	21¼	21¼	21⅜
18 Tenn C & Ch.	10⅝	10⅛	10⅛
19 Texas Co	47⅞	47	47
32 Tex Gulf Sulp	109½	108	108
15 Tex & Pac ..	63¼	61¾	61¾
Tex & Pc C&O	11¾	11	11
1 Third Av Ry .	13⅞	13⅞	13⅞
17 Tide Wat Oil..	33	31	30½
19 Timk Rol Bc.	42½	41½	41¾
66 Tob Prod	92½	89½	89⅝
12 Toh Prod A ..x	104	1205⅞	104
20 Trans Oil	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
10 Under Tvpe	46	45	45
50 Un Bag & Pa.	61⅝	61	61
2 Un Oil Cal ...	33⅞	33⅜	33⅜
12 Un Pacific xd	140	139	139
2 Union Pac prxd	75⅞	75⅝	75⅝
1 Un Tank Car .	119½	119½	119½
25 Uni Al Steel ..	31	30	30
108 Uni Cigar Sto	86½	83	83
1 Uni Dyew pr .	60	60	60
5 United Drug .	127½	127	127
3 United Fruit .	226	224	226
3 Uni Ry Inv	19	19	19
7 Uni Ry Inv pr	68	65	65
39 US Cip & Pdy.	167	162¼	163
2 U S Hoff M .	41¾	41¾	41¾
40 U S Ind Al	88¾	86¾	87⅛
11 U S Real & Im	140½	139¾	140
42 U S Rub	54	52¾	53⅝
9 U S Sm & Ref	45	44½	44½
222 U S Steel	121¾	119⅛	119⅜
3 U S Steel pr ..	124⅞	124⅞	124⅞
112 Univ Pi & Ra	40⅝	36½	37¼
7 Univ P & P pr	84½	79¼	80
4 Vanadium Corp	29⅝	29¼	29¾
8 Va Car Chem.	2¼	2	2⅛
24 Va Car Ch pr.	10¼	9⅞	10
4 Vivaudou Inc .	14	14	14
190 Wabash Ry ..	45⅜	42¾	42¾
31 Wabash pr A .	71¼	70½	70⅝
8 Waldorf Sys .	15⅝	15⅜	15⅝
2 Ward Bak A ..	160	160	160
66 Ward Bak pr	66⅜	65¼	64⅝
1 Warren Brs Co	48¼	48¼	48¼
1 Wells Fargo .	3¼	3¼	3¼
50 West Maryl .	17¼	16⅝	16⅝
2 W Md 2 pr ...	21½	26½	23½
14 West Pacific ..	30¼	29¼	29¼
7 West Pac pr .	75¼	73⅞	74⅞
61 Westh Air Br.	132

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

HOLM—In Norwich, Aug. 30, a daughter, Helen Virginia, to Mr. and Mrs. Lovelock Holm of 41 Convent avenue

FIORA—August 3rd, 1925, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiora (Wilhelmina Morra, of Bolton.)

MARRIED

MOWES-SHERMAN—In Jewett City, August 29, 1925, by Rev. J. W. Carter, Miss Cecil Howes of Jewett City and Ralph Sherman of Shannock, R. I.

McGRORY-SCHULTZE—In Glendale, L. I., August 29th, by Reverend Father Keith, Lawrence McGrory of Norwich, and Miss Elizabeth Schultze of Glendale.

COLLINS-FONTANA—In Westerly, R. I., Sept. 1, 1925, by Rev. Henry Bruno, C. SS. R., Sidney Collins of Groton, and Miss Jean Fontana of Westerly.

DIED

HUGHES—In Howard, R. I., Aug. 31, 1925, William Hughes, aged 59 years.

WARNER—In New London, Sept. 1, 1925, Frederick L. Warner, aged 45, of Rochester, N. Y.

FUNERAL NOTICES

OTIS—In New Haven hospital, August 31, 1925, Robert Beckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Otis, aged 17 years, 7 months.

Funeral service at his parents' home, No. 393 West Main street, Thursday, Sept. 3 at 2:30 d. s. t. Burial in Yantic cemetery.

Meriden papers please copy.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband VICTOR L. CARON who died a year ago today, Sept. 2, 1924. His wife CLARA T. CARON

IN MEMORIAM
Elizabeth Dill Mabrey.
Died September 2nd, 1918.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2729 Providence St., Taftville

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

DANIELSON

Martin T. Burns
Undertaker, Funeral Director
SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT
ACADEMY ST., DANIELSON
TELEPHONE 283

ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director and Embalmer
PHONE 147 DANIELSON

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2.

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290. Lady Assistant.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Sunday at the Plainfield ball grounds, ladies' gold watch with initial S. Finder notify Mrs. Wilfred Allard, Plainfield septld

LOST—A bunch of keys in front of Sisson's Store. Reward if left at 52 Cliff St., Greeneville aug31d

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Salesmen and collectors; experience not necessary. We teach you. Salary and commission. Chance for rapid advancement. See H. C. Lester, 48 Main septld

WANTED—Stone mason who understands stone work and chimney building. 47 West Thames street. septld

SALESMEN wanted. Apply Room 3, Chapman Bldg. 8-9 a. m. and 5-6 p. m. sept2d

WANTED—First class plumber. Apply John Shum, 10 Main St. sept2d

WANTED—Dishwasher. Apply Morgan Restaurant, 255 Main St. septld

WANTED—Man looking for good selling opportunity; not afraid of work. Married man preferred. Write Box 550, Bulletin septld

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Young lady to work in store and postoffice. Norwich Town store. sept2d

WANTED—An experienced bookkeeper. Write Retail Bulletin Office. sept2d

WANTED—Girl for vaudeville sketch. Call Lenox House, Thursday, Mr. Smith. sept2d

WANTED—Experienced stenographer with some knowledge of bookkeeping desires position of responsibility. Address, stating salary, Bulletin Box E-56. sept2d

WANTED—Middle aged Protestant woman for housework, for family of three in the country. Address Miss Phebe Lewis, R. F. D. No. 2, Westerly, R. I. aug31d

WANTED—By an Academy girl, place as mother's helper for board. Phone 1868-4. septld

WANTED—Housekeeper. Protestant, by widower, 3 in family, no washing, references, one who prefers a home with fair pay to high wages, middle aged. Chas. A. Gray, R. D. 1, Norwich, Conn. septld

WANTED—Competent maid for general house work. References required. Tel. 2228 for appointment. aug31d

WANTED—Woman of middle age for general work about house. Apply to the Windham County Temporary Home for Children, Putnam, Conn. Tel. 120. aug29d

WANTED—Woman for general housework to go out of town. Phone 2696J. aug29d

WANTED.
Experienced Saleslades for steady positions. Good Salary.
IDEAL COTTON STORES
119 MAIN STREET.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED to rent a small farm outside of Westerly, near Stonington. Write P. O. Box 413, Westerly or Phone 21-12 Westerly division. sept2d

DRESSES made new or remodeled by expert European dressmaker. Prices reasonable. Write Bulletin Box D-15. sept2d

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward, Box 258, Norwich. Phone 861-13 Norwich, 606 Willimantic. mar7FMW

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 102 Franklin St. Phone 559. septld

WANTED—Antiques, tools and second hand furniture. H. B. Tiger, 46-50 Water St. Tel. 2142. septld

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward, 16 Water St., Tel. 24 septld

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 74 Market St. Phone 2158. septld

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves; highest prices paid. Call 1403. septld

WANTED—Position by teacher. References. Write Box D27 Bulletin. aug29d

WANTED—The public to know that the Norwich Town cider mill is open for business. W. D. Thatcher, 43 Tanner St., Norwich Town. aug26d

A boy in Lebanon says he don't believe that sayin' "eat an apple a day to keep the doctor away"; he says he ate 12 green ones and the doctor cum everyday. Van Der Beer Mild cigars, 3 for 20c. Helmet cigaretts, 20 for 20c, a 50c pipe and 16 oz. tin of Tuxedo, all for $1.00. Faxon's Smoke Shop. aug26d

WANTED—Land on state road with or without buildings. Unimproved property will be considered if price is reasonable. Apply to A. C. Burdick, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. tug12dtf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. nov27d

FLORIDA PROPERTY WANTED—Acreage Lots, Etc., direct from owner; give location, description, lowest price, terms; quick transaction. P. O. Box 854, Springfield, Mass. jy22dtf

WANTED—Property owners to know that under my new real estate system I will buy your property direct or will sell for you on a commission basis. For particulars write Wm. M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. june2d.

WANTED!
Watches, Wrist Watches, Clocks of any makes; also all kinds of Jewelry to repair. Work guaranteed and done at once at the lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Write or telephone 2146.
OGULNICK JEWELRY CO.
77 Franklin St., Norwich, Conn.
(Est. 1907.)

AUCTIONS.

AUCTION NOTICE
By order of the owner we will sell at public sale on the premises at 24 So. Main St., Danielson, Conn., on Saturday, Sept. 5, at 10 o'clock a. m., D. S. T., the entire stock of dry goods, groceries, canned goods, hardware, preserve jars, show cases, peanut roaster, scales, cash register, paper press, electric fan, etc., in one lot if possible, otherwise in lots to suit the purchasers. Witter Bros., Auctioneers. Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Conn.

STANTON L. BRIGGS Auctioneer

AUCTION
I will sell at public auction at my farm located on Town Street, Lebanon Center

FRIDAY, SEPT. 4, 1925
At 10 a. m., Standard Time

The following described property: 21 head of choice stock consisting of high grade Guernsey and Holstein, new milch and nearby springers, 4 very choice Guernsey heifers to freshen in September 2 horses—1 bay horse, weight 1700 lbs. a good one, one other horse, weight 1500 lbs., good worker; team wagon, nearly new, a dandy; one-horse lumber wagon, 1 Democrat wagon, 1 sleigh, rubber-tired Brockway top carriage, nearly new; 1 Hinman milker, new engine; set team harnesses, single harness, 1922 Ford Sedan Wagon in fine condition, Briscoe touring car in good running order, mowing machine, rake, cultivator, International manure spreader, 30 tons of hay and other articles too numerous to mention.

FURNITURE—consisting of chairs, rabies, stands, dishes, all kinds; carpets, hall racks, refrigerators, sideboards, pictures, desks, lamps and other furniture of all kinds too numerous to mention.

EVERETT HEWITT

AUCTIONEER'S STATEMENT: As Mr. Hewitt is giving up farming and has employed me to sell this sale, everything will be sold for the high dollar without reserve or limit. The stock at this sale is a choice lot.

If very stormy, next fair week day. Caterer in attendance.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Farm known as the Conlon Place, located one mile from Baltic consisting of 42 acres land with fair house and barn. Price $3500. William M. McNicol, Maynard Building, Jewett City, sept2d

FOR SALE—140 acre farm on State road with an exceptionally good farm house, located in one of the most picturesque sections of Eastern Connecticut. Owner really wants to sell. Price for immediate sale based accordingly. William M. McNicol, Maynard Building, Jewett City, Conn. sept2d

FOR SALE—Two, full pedigreed, German police puppies. Inquire 44 Forest St. sept2d

120—COWS—120
Large Assortment of Fresh Cows from New York and Vermont.
JAMES H. HYDE
North Franklin, Conn.
Telephone Lebanon 30.

FOR SALE
MODERN TWO-APARTMENT HOUSE
With Two-Car Garage; desirably located on Laurel Hill Ave., within five minutes walk from Franklin Square.
For Further Particulars Inquire Of
JOHN A. MORAN
Real Estate Broker

FOR SALE
THE NEW TONGREN 7-ROOM COTTAGE, No. 3 JULIAN ST.
Modern and complete in every way.
Large One-car Garage.
Inspection Invited.
James L. Case
REAL ESTATE DEPT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

PRUDENCE BONDS ARE GUARANTEED
as to the full payment of both interest and principal.
They are also secured by First Mortgage on Income Paying Real Estate.
They pay 5½% and 6% interest semi-annually.
Write for Descriptive Circular.
James L. Case
INVESTMENT BROKER
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE.
AT A SACRIFICE.
ATTRACTIVE BUNGALOW
Six rooms, bath and garage, large lot, modern in every way. Also complete house furnishings. Owner leaving town; will make sacrifice for quick sale. Apply to L. J. BRUETTE, 55 River Avenue.

FOR SALE
PLAYER PIANO
Absolutely new, high grade Player-Piano, at one-half of its value. A great bargain.
4 ROBBINS COURT, NORWICH

ONE OF THE BEST:
40-acres, 3-4 mile from village and state road, 10-room house, hardwood floors, open fireplaces, large verandas, also small cottage, barn, 4 poultry houses, buildings extra good, smooth land, excellent trout brook, fruit and wood. Price only $6000—$2000 cash.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—Chalmers car, six, 1922, touring sport, disk wheels, motor perfect shape, good rubber, Economical car to run. Mystic. Phone 549. sept2d

FOR SALE—A 1923 Chevrolet, all in first class condition. Can be bought very reasonable. Inquire at 30 Winchester St. septld

FOR SALE—1 Essex touring A-1 condition, see it at the Commercial Garage, price reasonable. septld

FOR SALE or exchange, 1924 Maxwell coach, 1923 Hupp sedan, 1924 Dodge sedan, 2, 1924 Ford coupes, 4, 1924 Ford tourings, 1925 Buick coupe. The above cars are in fine condition and at the right price. Open evenings until 8 o'clock. Small down payment. Balance in 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. septld

FOR SALE—New 1925 Jewett coach, won in contest. Henry Leach, Wauregan, Conn. septld

FOR SALE—Reo touring car, 1921 model good condition. $300. Call 464-2. aug31d

ADAMS TAVERN GARAGE—1925 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford touring; 1924 Dodge sedan; 1923 Anderson sedan; 1924 Overland touring; 1923 Buick sedan; 1919 Cadillac coupe; 1919 Cadillac phaeton; 1921 Studebaker small six; 1920 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford sedan; 1924 Ace motorcycle and side car; 1924 Chevrolet roadster; 1923 Overland touring. Open evenings. Cash or terms. aug27d

FOR SALE—Harley-Davidson and Excelsior motorcycles and side cars, $35 to $150. James P. Donovan, 35 West Main St. Phone 709 jy25d

KEEN KUTTER SAFETY RAZORS
Regular $1.00
While They Last, 35c

The HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Building 74 Franklin St.
Telephone 531-4
Bulletin Building, 74 Franklin Street

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Confectionery store, good business and the bill running full time, best stand. Apply Plainfield, Box. 427. sept2d

FOR SALE—Electric washer, practically new, will sell reasonable, for quick sale. Phone 805-5. sept2d

FOR SALE—White poodle puppies, just the thing to keep the baby quiet. Cheap. Apply at 32 Thames St., upstairs. sept2d

FOR SALE—Shepherd police dog puppies and grown stock, pure bred, registered dogs. Prices are reasonable. Cedar Ledge Police Dog Kennels, Stonington, Conn. Westerly road. sept2d

FOR SALE—Crawford range, kitchen chairs, day bed. Phone 2462, 23 Hedge Avenue. septld

FOR SALE—Fairbanks gasoline engine, seven horse power, in good condition $75.00. Emel Deahefy. Tel. 1572-4. septld

FOR SALE—2 tenement house and garage, with improvements, big lot. 21 Ripley Place. Call after 5 p. m., 70 Boswell avenue. septld

FOR SALE—Rooming house for sale, cheap and a 6 room cottage, Laurel Hill, also several building lots. Burton. Tel 1125. aug29d

CANARIES FOR SALE. Also cages and supplies at Anthony's Bird Store, 199 Central avenue, Tel. 2454-3. sept2d

CHEAPER, BETTER COAL, available by order Interstate Commerce Commission. New River and Pocahontas. Write for free book. Smokeless Fuel Company, Charleston, W. Va. septld

FOR SALE—Vermont cows, new milch and springers. Fred W. Hoxie, North Franklin, Tel 53-3 Lebanon. aug31d

FOR SALE—Team wagon. Good condition. Silo cutter, 8 horse power. Joe Kominski, R. F. D., Norwich. aug31d

$135 BUYS FISCHER—Another good J. and C. Fischer upright piano offered at an attractively low price. In excellent condition. Terms as desired. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug31d

PLAYER PIANO $295—Well known Kramer player with mahogany case. A value you cannot duplicate. Small deposit delivers it. Other good used players. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug31d

HOFFMAN PIANO $70—A great value in this good make. Easy weekly terms, no interest. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug31d

FOR SALE—Player piano, 18 Bushnell Place. Call evenings. aug31d

FOR SALE—Silo filler, Raymond Standish, North Windham, Conn. aug26d

FOR SALE—Nine-room house and garage, at a low price; in best part of Norwich. Immediate possession. Phone 1431 jel1d

POLICE PUPPIES—Highly pedigreed; ideal farm dogs, playmates for children; come visit the largest German Shepherd Dog Kennels in the world. Phone or write. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly Conn. jul3dtf

STOVE PARTS for all makes of stoves. We are the best equipped place for stove parts in New London. S. Kaplan, 90 Bank St. feb13o

VICTROLAS HALF PRICE—Brand new, fully guaranteed. When these are gone there will be no more. Don't delay. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug25d

FOR SALE—Farm of 100 acres; 12-room house; good barns with or without stock and farming implements. Also 8-room cottage with 9 acres. Lot at Groton Long Point. No phone call. Inquire Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, South Windham, Conn. tfaug18d

PALISADE POLICE DOGS are a special strain of pedigreed dogs, highly developed for the all-around purposes of house guards, automobile companions, children's playmates, women's protectors and men's pals; as German Shepherd dogs they are especially suited for farm, cattle drivers and sheep herders. Exclusively bred by the world's largest Police Dog Kennels. Four miles from Danielson, near Providence pike. Palisade Kennels East Killingly, Conn. aug1dtf

FOR SALE—A small farm with good buildings and about 20 acres of land on state road, near Norwich. This property is in a class which is in much demand at present and will no doubt change ownership within the next few days. Investigate at once if interested in a very desirable country home. A. C. Burdick, Real Estate Broker, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug1d

FOR SALE—A 9-room house, garage, hen house and garden, near car line, also house lot near Backus Hospital, car every 15 minutes; and 8-room summer cottage at Lord's Point; all furnished. Adams Tavern, Phone 1063-3. jy23dtf

FOR SALE
The dwelling house, 3 barns, various useful out-buildings and 18 acres of good land known as the Martin Place and is located in Lebanon Center on the highway from Lebanon Village to Willimantic. The house is on a picturesque site and has a beautiful and extensive view of the surrounding country and is about five miles from Willimantic and eleven miles from Norwich over good roads. The property is in a good neighborhood convenient to churches, district and high schools. The property is recorded by all persons as a very attractive and charming home place. The price is low and terms of payment will be made convenient to buyer. For all information apply to
WILLIAM H. SHIELDS of Norwich.
Or To
GEORGE B. MARTIN.
Lebanon Center, Conn.

FOR SALE
BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME
In finest residential section: 8 rooms, all latest improvements. Tiled bath, superb floors, extra toilet and lavatory, large sun room. House has many novel and up-to-date features seldom seen in homes costing under $35,000. Price most reasonable for such a fine residence.
Archa W. Coit
Telephone 2288-2. Disco Building.

FARM FOR SALE.
WITH STOCK & TOOLS
The Farm of the late Elizabeth McCarthy, located in Town of Franklin on Baltic road, and two miles from Baltic village, containing 30 acres good land mostly tillable. There is a 10 acre wood lot, Six room house, two barns, garage, henhouse, all buildings in good repair, about 75 fruit trees on place mostly bearing ones. This farm is ideally located and on good road and near to industries. Can give immediate possession of farm with Stock and Tools, with two barns full of hay. Price $4200.—for particulars inquire:
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block, Norwich.
Phone.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Five room house, modern improvements, 126 Washington St., inquire at 59 Cedar St. sept2d

TO RENT—To family of adults, 5 rooms and bath, all improvements. 82 Prospect St. sept2d

TO RENT—Large furnished room. Telephone 2228. sept2d

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished apartment of seven rooms. Near Chelsea Parade. Write Box C-70, Bulletin. septld

TO RENT—Furnished house in fine location, modern. Address M. J. K., Bulletin Office. septld

TO RENT—Apartment of six or seven rooms just refinished, steam heat, bath, electric lights, located on car line. Inquire of Grace E. Parkhurst. Phone 1460, 67 Cliff St. sept1

TO RENT—Five room flat at 5 Grove street. For particulars. Phone 316-13. septld

TO RENT—Tenement of 4 rooms with all improvements at 52 Union street. septld

TO RENT—Very attractive three room flat; all improvements, steam heat. Inquire 259 West Main St., mornings. aug31d

TO RENT—One light housekeeping room, 1 furnished room, 41 Boswell ave. Tel. 142. aug31d

TO RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. 75 School St. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement with all modern improvements. Cheap rent, address Box A-100 this office. aug31d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. All improvements. Located in Thamesville. Tel 477-2. aug31d

FOR RENT—Brand new 5 room flat, with bath, hard wood floors, gas and electric light. Located 430 East Main St., Price $25. Inquire A. V. Covello, 198 Cliff St., Tel 1093-3. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement in new building. Five rooms and bath, with garage. Apply A. Yezanch, Roosevelt avenue. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement, six rooms, 283 Laurel Hill avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Three room tenement. Inquire 27 McKinley avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Oct. 1, to family of adults, 7 room cottage, modern improvements 21 Oak St., Call 1484, 7 to 9 p. m. aug27d

TO RENT—Steam heated, 6 room apartment at 15 Washington St., all modern, rent reasonable. Phone 1132-12. aug26d

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping; private bath and private entrance. Tel. 1241-3. tfaug25d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all improvements; also hard wood floors; 330 Franklin St. Inquire 324 Franklin St. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Three or four rooms, not furnished; also garage. 168 Laurel Hill Ave. tfaug15d

TO RENT—Two or three furnished rooms, light housekeeping. Phone 1860. tfaug15d

TO RENT—At 49 Washington St., a 5-room apartment. Inquire Gilbert Bowers, 130 Washington St. Phone 1132-2. aug15dtf

TO RENT—Apartments furnished for light housekeeping; all modern improvements. 27 Division St. ag12dtf

TO RENT—13-room apartment, 48 Church St. Inquire Charles W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. jn26tf

TO RENT—Attractive 8-room cottage with garage; modern. Phone 259. jy22dtf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all conveniences; garden, fruit and garage; near school. Phone mornings, 1463. aug4d

TO RENT—Five-story brick building with freight elevator; suitable for wholesale business or storage. Tel. 1495. aug3d

TO RENT—If a desirable and permanent home is wanted. 7-room apartment in the Steiner Mansion, 77 Church St., or one at 172 Broadway. Rent reasonable. aug1dtf

TO RENT—Tenements, all improvements. 44 Laurel Hill Ave. jy30dtf

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, including heat; with or without garage. Inquire 210 West Main St. from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. jul11tf

TO RENT—Tenements in Greeneville and Franklyn St. Inquire at Goldblatt's Shoe Store, 46 Franklin St. Phone 717-4 may26d

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OLD CARS BOUGHT in any condition. HOPES BROS.
Corner West Main and Mt. Pleasant
Telephone 1391
Automobile parts at one-half price
apr20d

— STAR GARAGE —
Plainfield
Used Cars Bought and Sold
CHAS. LAVALLEY
Phone 196 Moosup Div

TIRE REPAIRING, batteries charged and repaired, rental batteries, vulcanizing, old autos purchased for wrecking, auto parts for sale, county agents for Zev tires. A. Proulx, Evans block, Danielson, Conn. je25d

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT
ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
43 N. Main St. Phone 2118.

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.
Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

Now is the time to have the radiator put in A-1 shape for spring work. HERE is the place to have it done. We remove scale, sediment, and rust; we stop PERMANENTLY those leaks. We straighten the weak spots against vibration
We recore or repair ANY TYPE of STYLE.
W. E. SHANLEY
499 MAIN STREET.

THE ROAD HOG
is responsible for a good many dents and jams in cars. If you are one of his victims and the body of your car is dented, fenders bent, lamps crushed, etc., see us. We will straighten and repair these defects and give your car the appearance of having just left the factory.
NORWICH AUTO RADIATOR WORKS 375 Main St. Street

AUCTIONEERS

PUBLIC AUCTIONEERS
WITTER BROS.
PUBLIC AUCTIONEERS.
Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Ct.
Eighteen years of practical experience conducting sales of every known description throughout the Eastern United States.
Telephones:—
Office 32-12.
J. C. WITTER 31-11.
N. A. WITTER 248
Danielson

ARCHITECTS

FRANCIS DE GANGE, Architect
Telephone 1595. New London, Conn.
Consult us before doing any building mar11d

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS
AT THE
AETNA BOWLING ALLEYS
Majestic Bldg. Tel. 1912.

CIGARS

Whitestone Cigars are $70 per thousand.
J. F. CONANT, 11 Franklin St.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

IVAR JOHNSON
Carpenter and Contractor. Floor laying and surfacing a specialty. Old floors resurfaced like new. Estimates given. Phone 1162-2. aug27d

AMBROSE SULLIVAN
Telephone 2503-5
We give estimates on
Concrete Foundations and Cellars

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist, Foot Specialist (protect your feet). Suite 7-8, Alice Bldg., 321 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Phone 735. nov10d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard sawed wood. Tel 439. jy25dtf

WOOD—Best quality hard wood and slabs. Tel. 618-4. H. E. Beard & Son. jan31d

COAL, SEASONED WOOD and kindlings delivered anywhere, 6 baskets for $1.00. Phone 739. Park Wood Yard, 301 Franklin St. 3d6

COAL, Seasoned Wood and Kindlings in large or small quantities, delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1283-4. H. Shapiro, Willow St. nov22d

FOUNDRY

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
—Also—
Pattern Making and Machine Work.
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity.
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.
NEW LONDON, CONN.
Tel. 1120.

INSURANCE

IT IS NOT SO MUCH THE COST OF CARRYING INSURANCE, but what it will cost if you need it and have not carried it.
Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent
91 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

ALL KINDS OF
INSURANCE
HAROLD S. BURT
120 LAUREL HILL AVENUE
PHONE 2121.

MUSIC.

PIANO SYNCOPATION
If we hadn't made good last season we wouldn't be here today. Think that over. WATERMAN STUDIOS: 149 Broadway, 24 Fairmount, 48 Providence. Telephone connection.

MARY D. HODGE
TEACHER OF PIANO
Classical—Leschetizky Method.
Popular, Syncopated, Embellished.
Studio, 3 Grove Place.

HELEN L. PERKINS
TEACHER OF SINGING
Phone 552-2 Studio, Allen Bldg

FRANK DRAGO
Teacher of Violin
of Hartford, Conn.
Will teach in Norwich on Thursday and Friday of each week, beginning Sept. 3d.
Studios: Room 213
93 Windsor Ave. Disco Bldg.
Hartford, Conn. Norwich, Conn.

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 68 Franklin Street.

PAINTING AND PAPERHANGING

GENERAL PAINTING and Paperhanging. Phone 2533-13. D. Kudlik. je21d

GEORGE NADOLNY, painting, paperhanging; estimates given. 49 Maple St. Tel. dec29d

TRUCKING

BROADWAY TRANSFER
Transfers Everything
1357-3—PHONE—977-23
Long Distance Moving and Expressing
Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341

C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main Street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3.

LONG DISTANCE TRUCKING. Very low rates. R. Blinderman. Phone 1342. tfapr6d

Established 1872 Telephone 175
ARTHUR H. LATHROP
Auto Trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2c to 50 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. E. McClenathan, Mgr. aug11d

WELDING

WELDING
Electric and Acetylene. Frames and Axles welded and straightened. Machine Parts and Farm Machinery. Cylinder Blocs welded on car.
No Pre-Heating or Warping.
General Blacksmithing
Truck Bodies
Spring Work.
NORWICH WELDING CO.
95 North Main St. Phone 214.

LEGAL NOTICES

Registrars' Notice

The Registrars of Voters of the town of Norwich will meet in the several voting districts in said town on TUESDAY the 8th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1925 from 9 o'clock a. m. till 5 o'clock p. m. (standard time) or 10 o'clock a. m. till 6 o'clock p. m. (daylight saving time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

Electors in said town of Norwich before the annual town meeting to be held Oct. 5th, 1925.

In the First Voting District—At the Selectmen's Office in City Hall.

In the Second Voting District—At the voting booth Falls Avenue, West Side.

In the Third Voting District—At voting booth Central Avenue and Seventh St., Greeneville.

In the Fourth Voting District—At sub station 2, 204 West Town St., Norwich Town.

In the Fifth Voting District—At Poquonah Large Hall, Taftville.

In the Sixth Voting District—At voting booth, Bishop School, 526 Main St., East Side.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., the 2nd day of September A. D. 1925.
TYLER D. GUY,
CORNELIUS J. DOWNES,
sept2d Registrars of Voters

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the district of Connecticut. In the matter of THOMAS MILARUS, a bankrupt, in bankruptcy No. 7632. To the creditors of the above-named bankrupt, of New London, in the county of New London, district aforesaid, bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 27th day of August A. D. 1925 the above-named was duly adjudicated a bankrupt, and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held before the undersigned, at his office, 58 Church St., Norwich, in said district, on the 10th day of September A. D. 1925, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which time said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint trustee, be heard as to order of referee for care of property of the estate and disposal thereof, at auction or private sale, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.
THOMAS M. SHIELDS, Referee in bankruptcy,
Norwich, Conn., Aug. 31, 1925.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WNAC—Boston—260.3
1 P. M.—Shepard Colonial Concert orchestra.
2:45 P. M.—Broadcast from Braves Field, Braves vs. Brooklyn baseball game.
6 P. M.—Krazy Kat Kiddies' Klub.
6:30 P. M.—WNAC dinner dance, broadcaast from Hotel Westminster Roof Garden. Max L. Kraiee and his orchestra.
7:35 P. M.—On the Trail of the Vagabond, Thomas Drier.
8 P. M.—Concert program.

WEI—Boston—348.6
6:30 P. M.—Big Brother club.
7:30 P. M.—Musicale.
8 P. M.—Baritone.
8:30 P. M.—Equipment program.
9 P. M.—Organ recital.

WBZ—Springfield—333.8
7 P. M.—Kimball Trio; Radio Nature story.
9 P. M.—Concert program.
9:30 P. M.—Oriental music.
10 P. M.—Concert Civil service information.

WPAR—Providence, R. I.—305.9
1:05 P. M.—Studio program, under the direction of Harold Strong, tenor soloist.
7:30 P. M.—Dorothy Hoyle, violinist, and Giuseppe di Benedetto, tenor, relayed from the New Yorok studios.
8 P. M.—Concert by the United States Navy Band, under the direction of Lieutenant Charles Benter, direct from the navy barracks, Washington, D. C.
9 P. M.—Old-Timers' Program, relayed from the New York studios.

WCTS—Worcester—268
12 to 2 P. M.—Noon day luncheon music by the WCTS Trio, under the direction of Mr. Benny Resh and broadcast direct from the Sherer restaurant.
7:15 P. M.—The Twinkle Twinkle story teller.
7:30 P. M.—Baseball scores.

WMAF—South Dartmouth—440.9
6 P. M.—Yerkes' Flotilla orchestra.
7 P. M.—Kink Barry and Michael Stoff, Hawaiian guitars.
7:10 P. M.—Yerkes' Flotilla orchestra.
7:30 P. M.—Doris MacKay, soprano.
7:40 P. M.—To be announced.
7:50 P. M.—Doris MacKay.
8 P. M.—Old time minstrel show.
9 P. M.—Request song program.
9:10 P. M.—Catherine Connolly, Irish soprano.
9:20 P. M.—Vincent Storts and Robert Decesare, violin, piano and vocal duet.
9:40 P. M.—Alfred Seegar, baritone, old time ballards.
9:50 P. M.—Vincent Storts and Robert Decesare.
10 P. M.—Alfred Seegar.
10:10 P. M.—Vincent Storts and Robert Decesare.
10:20 P. M.—To be announced.

A project for the construction of a system of canals in Poland to connect the Baltic and the Black seas is being advanced by a syndicate there.

FAIR TODAY AND PROBABLY TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1786 1925

NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 2, 1925

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1925

WEATHER

Conditions

The northeastern disturbance remained practically stationary over the gulf of St. Lawrence. An area of high pressure covers the lake region.

During the last 24 hours, the temperature changes have been unimportant. The outlook is for mostly fair weather Wednesday and Thursday in the states east of the Mississippi river. The temperature will rise on Thursday in the lower lake region and in the interior of the middle and north Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook—Moderate to fresh northwest and west and weather fair Wednesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras—Moderate north and northwest and weather fair Wednesday.

Forecast

For Southern New England: fair Wednesday and Thursday; not much change in temperature.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Tuesday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	62	30.00
12 m.	80	30.10
6 p. m.	70	30.00

Highest 80; lowest 62.

Comparisons

Predictions for Tuesday: Fair, and somewhat cooler.

Tuesday's weather: As predicted, with northwest wind.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES
(Standard Time)

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
31 ...	5.13	6.24	7.52	2.16
1 ...	5.14	6.22	8.24	2.59
2 ...	5.16	6.21	9.15	Flow
3 ...	5.16	6.19	10.05	7.12
4 ...	5.17	6.17	10.56	7.46
5 ...	5.18	6.16	11.44	8.15
6 ...	5.19	6.15	12.34	8.47

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Miss Mary E. Hill of Redding, Conn., is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Packer and family of North A street.

Junius Greenwood of the Ponemah house has been spending several days with relatives in New Bedford, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pingree, Lester Pingree and Leonard Pingree, Mrs. Everett M. Pingree and little daughter Betty, have returned to their home on North Third avenue after spending two weeks at Groton Long Point, where they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Pingree of Goodyear and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Pingree and daughter of Saylesville, R. I.

Miss Antoinette Tetreault of Providence street is spending a few weeks with friends at Palatine Bridge, N. Y.

John Cyzs of Woonsocket, R. I., a former resident of this village has been visiting friends in town this week.

The committee in charge of decorations for the Pioneer Day celebration which is to take place next Saturday, Sunday and Monday, began Tuesday to put up strings of electric lights on the principal village streets. The decorations are to be most elaborate and will add greatly to the celebration of the big event. The committee members are also anxious that all village residents display their flags over the weekend, especially the residents of Providence street, which is the street through which the big parade will pass Sunday to the clambake grounds on Ponemah Heights, following the Pioneers' business meeting at Ponemah hall.

John Archibald and Irving Archibald have returned to their home on Providence street after spending the month of August at Plum Island, N. Y.

W. Russell Baird of Norwich was a caller in the village Tuesday.

WINS $772.33 JUDGMENT AGAINST HER UNCLE

Judgement for $772.33 against her uncle, Joseph Buturla of this city, is given by Judge C. B. Waller of the common pleas court in favor of Stella Woronuk Sakolowitch, alias Stella Shimbowski, also of Norwich.

According to the complaint, it was on or about Dec. 1, 1923, the plaintiff, Stella Sakolowitch, delivered and entrusted to the defendant the sum of $800 with request that he deposit it in her name in the Norwich Savings Society, and obtain a passbook evidencing said deposit, to all of which the defendant consented and agreed.

On Dec. 1, 1923, the defendant, pursuant ot the request of the plaintiff, made of him, did deposit the $800 in said bank, which pass book was made out in the name of Stella Shimbowski, not Stella Woronuk Sakolowitch, the true and correct nome of the plaintiff, and the defendant kept said pass book as a gratuitous bailee for the plaintiff by mutual consent.

It is further alleged that the defendant withdrew the money from the bank without the knowledge and consent of the plaintiff and appropriated the same unlawfully to his own use. The money was used by Buturla in purchasing real estate from the Shetucket company at 35-37 Second street. The plaintiff emanded the money but the defendant refused to pay the $800.

The decision as handed down by Judge Waller follows:

I find that the plaintiff paid over to the defendant about Dec. 1, 1923, the sum of $700 with the understanding and agreement on the part of the defendant that he would re-pay said sum with interest to the plaintiff upon demand.

I find that the defendant failed to repay sai dsum or any part thereof on demand of the plaintiff, and that the whole amount of $700 together with interest thereon, is due from the defendant to the plaintiff.

Judgment may therefore be entered for the plaintiff to recover of the defendant the sum of $772.33.

Then They Kissed

Two women stood on the corner of the street and looked as if they were waiting for a car. The bus driver drove near the curb and gave them a chance to hail the bus and not receiving any signal he passed on slowly, looked around and stopped.

By this time one of the women had crossed over to inquire as to the route of the bus. Receiving an answer in the affirmative she pointed to where the other woman stood, saying, "That woman there wishes to get on this bus. The driver looked in the direction indicated, noticed several suitcases, looked the wheel of the car, got out, crossed the street and carried the suitcases over and set them in the car.

Then the two women stopped to exchange a few words and to kiss each other goodby. The passengers smiled and the driver satisfying himself that all was well, settled himself down in his seat, unlocked the wheel of his car and the bus went lumbering on.

STATE PRISON SENTENCE ON TWO COUNTS FOR JOHN A. CARBRAY

A four hour session, from 1 to 5 o'clock, standard time, Tuesday afternoon, opened the September term of the criminal superior court here with Judge Leonard J. Nickerson presiding. Ten prisoners were in the steel pen when court opened and one woman who has been in the Norwich jail since her arrest had a seat back of the clerk's desk. Every seat in the spectators' section was taken when court opened and several men stood at the rear of the section of seats.

Judge Nickerson entered the court room with Rev. W. A. Keefe of St. Mary's Memorial church, who offered prayer before Deputy Sheriff George H. Stanton officially opened court.

State Attorney Arthur M. Brown first called the case of Joseph Simboraki of this city, accused of statutory burglary on the night of Aug. 24 at the place of Antonio Siragusa on High street. The accused was represented by Attorney Roderick M. Douglass. The state attorney said that the accused had no bad record, but he got drunk and went into a shed where there were some goats. He was arrested largely because the police were trying to find the person who had been mutilating animals, but it did not seem that there had been anything like that in this case. The state attorney recommended a nolle on the payment of $50, stating that the money had already been paid to him by the attorney for the accused, and Judge Nickerson ordered this disposition of the case.

Uxbridge Man and Woman

Homer Gadbois, 48, alias Owen Wood, and Mrs. Dora Masille, 48, both of Uxbridge, Mass., were put to plea together on the charge of adultery. Both pleaded guilty, the woman in tears as she held a handkerchief before her face. They were arrested May 14 in this city in a place on the West side.

State Attorney Brown told the court that the woman was the wife of a garcheer in Uxbridge and had left her husband last June with Gadbois and had been living in various places with him. Since her arrest and release on bail she had been back with her husband, who is willing to take her back. Gadbois has been in jail since his arrest four months ago.

The state attorney recommended a sentence of two months in jail for the man and two months for the woman, suspended so that she could go back to her family.

Attorney Charles L. Stewart and John S. Durham, a Massachusetts attorney, appeared for Mrs. Marsille, the latter attorney reading a letter from Mr. Marsille's employers who stated that the woman's conduct had been correct since she had been back with her husband.

Mr. Stewart appeared as public defender for Gadbois, stating that he has a wife and five children and his wife hoped that he might be put on probation so that he could return to her.

Mrs. Gadbois was in court and told the judge that she was willing to take her husband back.

Judge Nickerson gave Mrs. Marsile a sentence of six months in jail, suspended under probation, and Gadbois was sentenced to two months in jail without costs.

Two From Griswold.

Mrs. Rose Savigney, 38, of Griswold, wife of Frank Savigney of Taftville, and Delphis St. John of Griswold were put to plea together on the charge of adultery, having been arrested May 9, in a place where they were found living together. Both pleaded guilty.

State Attorney Brown explained to the court that Mrs. Savigney left her husband and lived with St. John in Norwich and had a child by him. Then they moved to Jewett City. She has a husband and five children and her husband wants to take her back. The state attorney recommended a jail sentence of six months for the man and two months for the woman, the latter having been in jail since her arrest, but the former having been out on bonds.

Attorney Thomas M. Shields asked for a suspended sentence for St. John, stating that he had first met Mrs. Savigney in the rear room of a saloon in this city before the war and she did not tell him she was married. They started living together and at times St. John tried to break away from her but she threatened to commit suicide. At length he did leave her, but she met him about a year ago in Norwich and asked him to take her with him as she said she had been put out by her husband. Then they went to live near Jewett City where they were arrested.

Mr. Savigney was in court and stated to the judge that he was supporting all six of the children and he wanted his wife to come back to him. Judge Nickerson made the sentence for each of the accused persons six months in jail, suspended under probation, and Mr. and Mrs. Savigney left the court together with two of their daughters who attended the session. Attorney J. J. Desmond acted as French interpreter when the charge was read to Mrs. Savigney as she cannot speak English.

Carbray Shooting Case

John A Carbray, 31 of this city, pleaded guilty to two counts of assault with intent to kill in shooting his divorced wife, Anna Barrett Carbray, and Herman J. Greiner in the woman's home at 632 Main street on the night of May 29.

State Attorney Brown told the court that he believed Carbray should have a substantial term in the state prison on both counts. Carbray, he said, had a bad record, largely due to his drinking. He had been eight years in the U. S. army and had been dishonorably discharged in Texas, but had served abroad in the World War and had an honorable discharge from there. In 1920 he married a widow, Anna Barrett, with three small children, and he had a long police court record. His wife obtained a divorce, but Carbray was jealous of his divorced wife and of Greiner. He borrowed a pair of wire cutters, cut the telephone wires, removed a screen, got into the house and shot his wife twice through the arms and Greiner in the mouth.

Attorney Stewart, speaking for Carbray, made a strong plea for leniency for the man. It was no more Carbray's fault than it was his wife's that their married relations were not pleasant, Mr. Stewart claimed. His wife followed him up even when he was committed to the state farm for inebriates and wrote to him there. Attorney Stewart read a letter she had written to Carbray saying she wanted to talk over an important ma— with him. After the divorce, the attorney said, Carbray consulted the parish priest and they continued to live together after the divorce.

Speaking of the circumstances of the shooting, Attorney Stewart said that Carbray hired a taxi to take him to his divorced wife's house. He got into the house, stumbled over a chair and heard a voice that was Greiner's say: "My God, he's caught us. I'll get him." Carbray got his wife's pistol from the sewing machine drawer and did the shooting. The course of the bullets plainly showed, said Mr. Stewart, that both were shot as they were in a reclining position in bed. Carbray claimed he only meant to frighten them and shot at the foot of the bed but he believes they were lying the other way around.

Mr. Stewart dwelt strongly upon Carbray's service to his country as a soldier, read a letter from the proprietors of the Norwich Steam Laundry, and spoke of Carbray's old mother who hoped for leniency for her boy. He called to the stand Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer Lathrop, for whom Carbray had worked in the trucking business. Mrs. Lathrop said he was one of the very best work men in his special line and she told of receiving telephone messages for Carbray from some woman, who she believed was Carbray's wife. These messages were to have him come somewhere at a certain hour.

State Attorney Brown gave Carbray's police court record from April, 1923 to March, 1925, seven arrests for intoxication or breach of the peace, and said there was a long record before this time.

In pronouncing sentence Judge Nickerson said that it was clear there had been a serious crime and he felt that Carbray had been shown all the proper leniency when the state attorney charged him with a lesser degree of crime than might have been possible. He made the sentence from three to four years in state prison on the first count and not to exceed three years on the second count.

Given Jail Sentence

John P. Murphy, 30, pleaded guilty to two counts of uttering a forged instrument and was sentenced to jail for three months on each count, the second term to begin at the expiration of the first. The offenses were committed on the 5th and 6th of August.

State Attorney Brown said the man was an unfortunate, a sterno or canned heat drinker. He had made out two clumsy orders which he presented at the Norwich street department to get the pay of two men named Rodden, $9 in one case and about $30 in the other. In one case the rightful owner of the money was right in the line behind him as he presented the order.

Public Defender Stewart spoke for Murphy, asking that a short jail sentence be given. The court followed the recommendation made by the state attorney.

Fine and Jail Sentence

John G. Driscoll, 43, a mill wright of this city, pleaded guilty to operating an automobile on June 6 while under the influence of liquor.

Speaking of this case, State Attorney Brown said that Driscoll is an expert millwright in the employ of the American Woolen Co. Mr. Brown's experience in which more influence said he had never known a case in his had been exerted to give leniency shown for an accused man. Driscoll, he said, had been convicted in November of a similar offense and had been given a suspended jail sentence. He is a second offender, the state attorney said, but I haven't charged h'm as such, but I feel that he should go to jail for some time. If it goes abroad that men with influence behind them go free on this charge, it is a bad situation. The state attorney recommended a 30 day jail sentence.

Attorney Stewart spoke for Driscoll, asking leniency for him as a faithful employe, one of whom his neighbors and friends speak well and who has no blemish upon his character except this charge. He has lost his operator's license for five years and that will be a very substantial punishment for him. He has sold his car and won't drive again.

In passing sentence, Judge Nickerson told Driscoll that he was a dangerous type of man who had not profited anything by his previous experience. Judge Nickerson fined him $500 and gave him a sentence of 30 days in jail.

Jail Sentence For Shooting

Paul Stenkewicz, 30, of this city pleaded guilty to assault with intent to kill for shooting John Bosko on the Preston City road on the night of June 26. Interpreter Malinowski was used by the court to interpret the charge to the accused.

State Attorney Brown explained that the man was married and had seven or eight children. The town had been taking care of his family since his arrest. Bosko was a boarder in the family and the shooting seemed to have been the outcome of a row and fight that took place on an expedition to get some booch that was not found where it was expected. The state attorney recommended a year in jail.

Public Defender Stewart spoke for Stenkewicz, saying that there was considerable doubt about the trouble between the two men; Stenkewicz had a finger nearly bitten off in the melee and it was very nearly a case of mayhem.

Judge Nickerson made the sentence eight months in jail.

Assaulted Prohibition Officer

Francis Antoniak, 21, of East Lyme, and Charles Laskey, 19, of New London, pleaded guilty to aggravated assault on June 12 at Montville upon Federal Prohibition Agent Harry Avery. State Attorney Brown recommended a fine of $100 and 30 days in jail for each, saying that the two were young men who were inclined to go wild and it was time they knew what confinement meant. They had driven through Norwich where they sideswiped an automobile and drove away. In Montville they were stopped by Officer Avery who took them to a store to telephone to state police barracks. They protested against his telephoning and when he drew a blackjack, they took it away from and knocked him out with it. It was possible, the state attorney said, that the men had reason to believe that Avery had no business to be interfering with them. Both young men had been in difficulty with the law before and had been out under probation.

Speaking for them, Attorney Lubchansky asked for remission of a jail sentence if possible. He said that Officer Avery did not tell them or show them any authority for stopping them in their car and when he pulled the blackjack the men did not know he was an officer.

Judge Nickerson made the sentences a fine of $100 and 30 days in jail for each.

Bigamy Case

Mrs. Agnes Landsberg Stone, 25, of New London, wife of Joseph Stone, a prize fighter, was presented on the charge of bigamy to which she pleaded guilty. She married Stone in Brooklyn, N. Y., on August 14, 1922, and married Dennis Murphy, a supernumerary policeman in New London on December 26, 1924.

State Attorney Brown told the court that Stone hadn't treated his wife properly or provided for their child. She left him and came to New London where she married Murphy without having obtained a divorce. Murphy now wants to marry her when either she or Stone get a divorce so that he can be her legal husband. She can't be blamed much for leaving her first husband.

Attorney Brown recommended a suspended sentence of a year in jail and said it was hoped that in that time steps might be taken to free her from Stone so that she could marry Murphy.

Attorney G. C. Morgan spoke for the woman, saying that Stone was a despicable character and she had left him because of his shameful treatment of her. She heard that he had secured a separation and she married Mr. Murphy without verifying what she had heard about the separation. The lawyer said he would be glad to assist her in accomplishing the steps that would make it possible for her to be the legal wife of Mr. Murphy.

Judge Nickerson gave a suspended sentence of a year in jail.

Tony Gaul, 30, Sprague, was given a year in jail when he pleaded guilty to assault to commit rape on Mary Suamski, 12, of Versailles on May 15, and Charles Filosi, 24, of East Lyme, was sentenced to three months in jail when he pleaded guilty to simple assault upon Thelma Beebe on July 25.

Will Be Tried.

Andrew Zawacki of this city pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by the court when he was presented on the charge of illegal sale of liquor to Felix McMahon on May 8. There is a second count in the case on which he will plead later.

His case will come to trial at 11 o'clock, standard time, this (Wednesday) morning.

Wasily Slepicka of East Lyme pleaded not guilty to charges of sale of liquor to Walter Daniels on Aug. 16, to James Kennedy on Aug. 29 and to reputation from June 1 to Aug. 29. He elected to be tried by the court and his trial will be the first court case next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, standard time.

Manslaughter Case Continued.

John Burns, 19, of Jewett City, was presented on the charge of manslaughter for having caused the death of Albert Pajak on June 14 by beating him with his hands and feet and a certain blunt instrument, thereby causing Pajak to sustain a ruptured gall bladder and punctured lung. He pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by the court.

State Attorney Brown said that the state is not prepared to try this case at this time and he moved for a continuance to the January term of court.

Attorney Thomas M. Shields, counsel for Burns, opposed the motion for continuance and wanted the case tried at the present term.

The ground for asking for continuance, according to the state attorney, was in order to give more time to locate a man who several witnesses have said was sitting on a bench beside Pajak just before the alleged assault. No one seems to know who he is, but several are sure there was such a man, and it is believed he could throw much light upon the situation.

Attorney Shields argued that Burns was entitled to a speedy trial and as so much time had already elapsed without locating this witness it seemed likely that he would not be located now.

Judge Nickerson granted the continuance under the bond of $5,000.

PUBLISHES LIST OF WET DRIVERS SUSPENDED

In accordance with a plan announced three weeks ago to be under contemplation as an additional disciplinary measure to help check the increase in the number of drunken automobile operators in Connecticut, the state motor vehicle department desires to be notified if any of five operators whose licenses to drive in Connecticut were suspended last week. All of the suspensions are the result of cases of driving while under the influence of liquor and are for a period of one year each. The department desires to be notified if any of those on the list are seen to be operating motor vehicles during that time. Following is the list:

Averardo Antonelli, West Haven; Austin J. Howell, Hartford; Julius Bonardi, Torrington; John Cavanaugh, Bridgeport; John Dolinsky, Stratford; William H. Jencks, Burnside; Albert Rock, Middletown; Michael Ziomek, Bristol; Archie A. Blatchford, New London; James W. Hennessy, Ansonia; Arvid Johnson, Branford; John Jones, Waterbury; James Lombardi, Waterbury; Matteo Bovino, Waterbury; Joseph F. Flannery, East Lyme; Bruno A. Schubert, Clinton; Leroy A. Goodman, Bridgeport; Frank Johnson, New Britain; Joseph Masselli, New Haven; Henry E. Duchlette, St. Agatha, Maine; Rudolph Stolz, Jr., South Norwalk; Frank Trento, Bantam; William G. Winters, Norwalk; Robert A. Burke, Hartford; Paul Mastrianni, Southington.

All of the drivers listed, except Austin Howell, of Hartford, were convicted in local courts of Connecticut. Howell was arrested in Massachusetts. In the case of the driver from Maine, the department being without authority to suspend his license, suspended his right to operate in Connecticut. The convictions of Joseph Masselli of New Haven, Frank Trento of Bantam and Paul Mastrianni of Southington have been appealed. If their cases are reversed, their licenses will be returned to them.

Invited to Monument House.

The regent, Mrs. William H. Dawley has received from Anna Warner Bailey chapter of Groton an invitation for members of Faith Trumbull chapter to visit the Monument House, Groton, on Sunday afternoon of this week, Sept. 5, between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock. It is expected that a large number of the local members will take the opportunity to visit the Monument House.

Better Refrigeration At Much Lower Cost With

SERV-EL
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION

Proven by authorities to be the finest electric refrigerator made. In complete unit or can be fitted to your present ice box.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

135-143 Main Street, Norwich
224-236 Bank Street, New London

FARM BUREAU CLASSES UNITED FOR PICNIC

One of the pleasant gatherings of the season was held Thursday, Aug. 27, when the members of the Farm Bureau class of Norwich Town, uniting with the Bozrah class held an all day picnic at Vine Coble, the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Vergason, of Vergason avenue. At noon all sat down to a tempting dinner served on the screened-in porch. The menu comprised beef loaf, cold boiled ham, salmon and potato salad, green corn on the cob, tomatoes, pickles, rolls, doughnuts, cheese and coffee and various fruits, watermelon, musk melon, peaches, pears and bananas. At 5 o'clock tea was served with bread and butter, cold ham and salad, with many varieties of cake and cookies, cheese, peaches and cream.

After dinner the party spent the afternoon looking over the several hundred choice varieties of dahlias which Mr. and Mrs. Vergason so successfully raise, also a large variety of choice gladioli and many other flowering plants which make their home the mecca of flower lovers, where all are welcome and an invitation is extended to all who are interested to enjoy the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Vergason to prove the dahlia and gladioli two of the most charming specimens of the flower kingdom.

MACCABEES HELD PICNIC WITH MASSAPEAG MEMBER

The W. B. A. of Maccabees held a most enjoyable picnic Sunday at the home of one of their members, Mrs. Rachel Peterson, of Massapeag. A large number attended. Games were played, also cards and dancing were on the programme. In pinochle the first ladies' prize went to Mrs. Eckstein and the consolation to Mrs. Peterson. First gentlemen's prize went to Mr. Peterson and the consolation went to Mr. Eckstein. In the young lady's running race the prize went to Miss Dorothy Hanson and in the girls' race Miss Alwina Shubert won the prize. In the junior races little Lillian Shubert took the prize. A basket lunch was enjoyed, Mrs. Peterson serving hot corn and coffee, also cold ham, potato salad and tomatoes. In the late afternoon Mrs. Howard Beetham served a large plater of crabs.

Every one had a good time and voted Mrs. Peterson a fine hostess.

WITHDRAWS APPEAL IN OSWEGATCHIE ASSAULT CASE

An appeal to the court of common pleas in the case of Adolphus Leon, negro, of New York city, who was convicted Friday in Waterford town court and fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three months in jail on a charge of assault with intent to kill, committed upon the person of Henry G. Walters, also a negro, at the Oswegatchie house, has been withdrawn, according to Prosecuting Attorney J. James Floyd of Waterford town court. Prosecuting Attorney Floyd was notified of the withdrawal Monday by Attorney Clayton Smith, defense counsel. Bonds for Leon, pending the hearing in the upper court, were fixed at $2,000 by Deputy Judge Frederick W. Jacques, who heard the case. In default of security the defendant was remanded to the New London county jail. The defense has accepted this penalty which will be carried out.

GOODYEAR MAN MAKES RESCUE AT WORCESTER

Wilfred Duval of Goodyear, Conn., dived into Lake Quinsigamond, at Worcester, Sunday afternoon, fully clothed, and rescued Catherine Walsh, 14 of 6 Windsor street, Providence, who had waded beyond her depth and was sinking for the second time.

Duval was standing on the shore near Rezatin Point when he noticed the girl seemed to be having difficulty about 25 feet offshore, and he did not hesitate to plunge into the water while hundreds in bathing suits looked on.

The girl was nearly exhausted when brought to the shore by Duval, but was revived by William Cantwell, George Friel and James Dolan.

PILOT OF PB-1 IS GROTON WOMAN'S BROTHER

Lieut. Commander James Hale Strong, U. S. N., pilot of the PB-1, one of the three navy airplanes in the San Francisco-Hawaii non-stop flight, is the brother of Mrs. P. H. Dunbar of Groton Long Point. Mrs. Dunbar is the wife of Lieutenant Commander Dunbar, executive officer of the U. S. Bushnell, stationed at the Submarine Base at Groton.

Mrs. Leander Strong, mother of the navy pilot, and his sister, Mrs. Albert S. Johnson of Westfield, Mass., will arrive today (Wednesday) at the home of Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Dunbar for a visit.

Lieutenant Commander Strong is a graduate of the Naval academy at Annapolis with the class of 1913. He has been engaged in naval aviation for about seven years, beginning during the World war.

WINS SUIT BROUGHT ON MECHANIC'S LIEN

David Giorge of this city, an employe of John Paracenti, a contractor, wins a judgment for $248.09 against Schwartz & Bros. Inc., and Mr. Paracenti, according to a decision handed down by Judge C. B. Waller of the common pleas court. Giorge sued to collect on a mechanic's lien, having been employed by Paracenti who had a contract to do excavating for Schwartz Bros. on Church street. There are seven or eight other employes who have similar claims.

Judge Waller's decision follows:

I do not find that the plaintiff has established that any sum of money was due to John Paracenti under the contract between the defendant, Schwartz Bros., Inc., and Paracenti as alleged in paragraph 4 of the complaint. Therefore if the defendant, Schwartz Bros., Inc., is liable in this action it must be on the theory that the payments made to the original contractor, Paracenti, were not made in good faith.

It appears that Paracenti was indebted to the plaintiff and others of his employes and that this fact came definitely to the knowledge of the defendant, Schwartz Bros. Inc., on September 12, 1921. Subsequent to September 12, 1921, the defendant, Schwartz Bros., Inc., made payments to Paracenti in the aggregate amount of $3,300. These payments were made with the knowledge that the plaintiff was employed on the job with Paracenti and that Paracenti was indebted to him for labor performed under the contract in question.

It does not seem to be, under the circumstances, that these payments made subsequent to September 12, 1921, were payments in good faith for which the defendant, Schwartz Bros., Inc., is entitled to credit as against the claim of this plaintiff.

Judgment may therefore be entered for the plaintiff to recover of the defendants $248.09.

Paragraph four of the complaint which is referred to in the decision follows:

"That on or about the first day of November, 1920, the plaintiff entered into an agreement with the said defendant, John Paracenti, to do work for him in connection with said contract, in digging and removing dirt and excavating rock from the said premises of the defendant, Schwartz Bros., Inc., for the consideration of $4 per day."

STAFFORD SPRINGS MAN LOSES SUIT AGAINST CITY

Through a decision by Judge C. B. Waller in a case recently tried before him in the common pleas court, George A. Davis of Stafford Springs loses his suit for $1,000 damages against John A. McDonald, state highway commissioner, and the city of Norwich.

Davis sued for damages to his automobile on June 29, 1925 by a manhole cover flying up as he was driving over it on Main street, East Side.

In his memorandum of decision Judge Waller says:

I am satisfied that the damage to the plaintiff's automobile was caused by the fact that the manhole cover flew up and struck the bottom of the automobile. This fact, I think, is established beyond question by the testimony of the plaintiff and the other witnesses to the accident.

The construction of the manhole was of proper and approved type and there was no defect in the cover or manner in which it fitted the manhole. When properly placed I am satisfied that the cover could not be dislodged by the passing over it of an automobile. At the time of the accident the manhole cover must have been displaced and in such a position that the weight of the plaintiff's automobile caused it to fly up.

The real question of fact in this case is what caused the displacement of the manhole cover? It appears that the accumulation and pressure of water in the sewer might lift and displace the manhole cover if there was stoppage in the sewer or if the pipes were of inadequate size to take care of the heavy rainfall, but there is not sufficient evidence before me on which to base a finding that the displacement of the manhole cover on the day of the accident was caused by pressure of water. There is no evidence as to length of time the manhole cover was actually displaced.

I cannot find, therefore, that the city failed to exercise reasonable care in inspecting the manhole and keeping it in a reasonable safe condition.

Judgments may therefore be entered for the defendants.

APPLEBY UNDER ARREST ON RETURN TO CITY

Robert Appleby, 29, of this city, was arrested Tuesday night by Officer Elmer Allen on a warrant charging breach of the peace. He was locked up and later released on bonds of $2,500 furnished by his father. The offense with which Appleby is charged was committed last October, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

Appleby left the city and since that time has been in Westerly and other places. It is understood that he returned to Norwich Tuesday. His case will come up for a hearing in the city court this (Wednesday) morning.

STORIES THAT RECALL OTHERS
Never Been Anywhere Yet

It is always the open season for fish stories and travel yarns in general. But while these tales are of absorbing interest to the principals they are apt to prove a bit tiresome to those who are forced to listen. One hero of many travels was discussing one one of his experiences one evening to the extreme boredom of an unwilling audience. Finally one of the listeners interrupted with: "Say did you ever have the D. T.s?"

"Why, no," was the reply.

"Well, then," replied the other triumphantly, "you've never been any where, nor seen anything." And that silenced the monologuist for a while.

GAVE MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR NORWICH GIRL

A group of more than 30 friend gathered at Mr. and Mrs. Adam O'Tubru's Webster Lake, Monday night and tendered a miscellaneous shower for Miss Sophia Wojtasiak of Norwich.

Miss Wojtasiak was the recipient of numerous gifts, the shower being in honor of her approaching marriage to Herman Yetkie which takes pla Labor Day.

The home was prettily decorated and during the evening musical selections were rendered as part of an interesting program.

Violin solos were played by Miss Barbara Gnoza and Miss Nellie Jarzabski.

Among those who were present were Miss Eva O'Tuba, Miss Barbara Gnoza, Miss Edith O'Tuba, Miss Nellie Jarzabska, Miss Mary Gnoza, Miss Lottie Leslie, Miss Alice Bellerose, Miss Victoria Swartz, Miss Catherine Kraweczyk, Miss Ella Fay, Miss Frances Swartz, Mrs. Mary Lubchansky, Mrs. Helen Steimach, Mrs. Mary Ostrowskski, Mrs. Larry Bennett, Miss Josephine Jerome, Miss Julia Stenkewicz, Miss Anna Thomas, Miss Helen Zaleski, Miss Anna Duvern, Miss Julia Steimach, Miss Helen Steimach, Richard Roy, Blanche Marcum, Peggy Bertolli, Polly Hodgdon, Lulu Grey, Audrey Perkins, Ruth Joyce and Clara Loy.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

TODAY!

A SPECIAL SALE OF Dress Skirts At $2.95

Regular value to $10.00

This is a remarkable offering of Women's Dress Skirts—plain tailored, knife or box pleated, also wrap-around styles.

The materials are Silk Crepe, Wool Crepe, Fancy Stripes, Plaids and Checks.

A splendid assortment of sizes and colors to select from.

Women will appreciate the opportunity to obtain a fine quality Dress Skirt at such a low price. On Sale Today.

Seasonable Food Specials for All Day Wednesday and Thursday Morning

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

Sirloin, Round, Porterhouse STEAKS, lb. 27c

LEAN CUTS CORNED BEEF, lb. 9c

LAMB CHOPS, lb. ... 29c

PORK CHOPS, lb. ... 29c

Fresh LAMB or VEAL, lb. .. 12½c FOR STEWING

Freshly Chopped Beef Hamburg, lb. 12½c

Lean Pot Roast BEEF, lb. ... 12½c

Sliced DRIED BEEF, lb. 52c

Gobel's Sliced BOILED HAM, lb. 65c

5 lbs. SUGAR 31c
1 lb. Dinner Blend COFFEE 37c
Both for 65c

3 Packages JELLO, 3 pkgs 27c ASSORTED FLAVORS

TOILET PAPER, 3 rolls 10c

FIG BARS, 2 lbs. .. 25c

LUX SOAP, 2 cakes 15c

Confectioners SUGAR, 2 pkg. 19c

PEANUT BUTTER, 2 lbs 45c

STRAWBERRY JAM, lb. 20c

GEM-NUT Margarine, lb. 27c

Fresh Creamery Butter, lb. 49c

—Fresh Seasonable Fish—
FRESH COD STEAK, lb. .. 19c

Freshly Opened Chowder CLAMS, pt. .. 39c

DOMESTIC Sardines, 5 cns 25c

ABSOLUTELY FRESH, BROWN EGGS, 2 dozen 85c

FLAKE WHITE Shortening, 2 lbs. ..... 39c A LARD SUBSTITUTE.

Best Red Star SWEET Potatoes, 5 lbs. 25c

Delicious Pink-Meat MELONS, 4 for 25c

NATIVE LIMA BEANS, qt. ... 10c

Best NATIVE Potatoes ..... 45c 15-lb. PECK.

RED-RIPE Each Watermelons . 45c

RED RIPE Tomatoes .... 49c 14-qt. BASKET—NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY FOR CANNING

7 to 12 A. M. (D. S. T.)—Wednesday and Thursday Morning Sale—7 to 12 A. M.

ALL KINDS STEAKS, lb. 19c

Smoked Shoulders, lb 19c

Fresh LIVER, 3 lbs. . 25c

Ripe JUMBO BANANAS, dozen . 19c

PURE WHITE LARD, 2 lbs. 43c

FRESH BLOCK ISLAND MACKEREL, lb. ... 17c

CINNAMON BUNS, 2 dozen 35c

Norwich Bulletin

1796 1925

VOL. LXVII—No. 211. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1925. TWELVE PAGES—84 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

MINERS' PRESIDENT LEWIS GIVES VENT TO FEELINGS

Issues a Tirade Against John Hays Hammond For Making Suggestions to President Coolidge of Methods to Cope With the Fuel Situation—Accuses Mr. Hammond of Designing to Resurrect the Federal Coal Commission—Warns Mr. Hammond That the Federal Congress Cannot Differentiate Between the Anthracite and Bituminous Mines.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—John L. Lewis, miners international president, tonight declared that John Hays Hammond, in "haunting the lawns of White Court pestering the president to breathe life into the recommendations of Hammond's defunct coal commission," has "mixed 'the devil's stew' for the forthcoming congress to sup."

Mr. Lewis charged that Mr. Hammond was urging the republican party to depart from its traditional policy and establish "a semi-regulation of the anthracite industry."

He doubted whether the present financial control of the hard coal business would desire "the prying hand of congress" to lay bare "the amazing profits which they are making for a natural monopoly of a public necessity."

Mr. Lewis further warned that "the federal congress cannot differentiate between anthracite and bituminous mines when dealing with the basic necessity of coal."

Responsibility for revival of talk about nationalization of coal mines originated, Mr. Lewis said, not with the United Mine Workers of America, but with Mr. Hammond himself because of his present activity.

Mr. Lewis' statement, reads in full as follows:

"Press accounts reviving discussion of the theory of nationalization of the coal industry do not originate with the mine workers. The mine workers are primarily concerned only with the proposition of securing a wage agreement that will permit the anthracite industry to resume operation.

Responsibility for the talk about nationalization lies with Mr. John Hays Hammond, who, according to Swampscott dispatches, has been haunting the lawns of White Court pestering the president to breathe life into the recommendations of Hammond's defunct coal commission.

"It is Mr. Hammond and not the mine workers who proposes that the federal administration shall cast overboard its policy of non-interference with business. It is Mr. Hammond who proposes that the republican majority in congress shall depart from its traditional policy and through legislation establish a semi-regulation of the anthracite industry. Surely the astute Mr. Hammond should appreciate that the investment bankers of New York and Philadelphia who control the anthracite industry do not desire the prying hand of congress to bare to a scornful public gaze the amazing profits which they are asking from a natural monopoly of a public necessity.

"Mr. Hammond should also know that the federal congress cannot differentiate between anthracite and bituminous mines when dealing with the basic necessity of coal. It is obvious that any legislation enacted by congress dealing with anthracite must similarly be superimposed upon the bituminous industry. Such a contingency would be decidedly embarrassing to such friends of Mr. Hammond as the Pittsburgh Coal Company, the Consolidation Coal Company, the Bethlehem Mines Corporation and the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway Coal interests, all of whom have torn up their agreements with the United Mine Workers of America with the abandon that William the Absolute destroyed the treaty which protected the neutrality of Belgium.

"Mr. Hammond, by his wild mutterings, has brought the present controversy into the realm of political equations. By the same token he has mixed 'the devil's stew' for the forthcoming congress to sup."

No trouble of any consequence has arisen in connection with the 10,000 maintenance workers remaining in the anthracite mines by mutual agreement of miners and owners, union officials here said tonight. Slight hitches that had arisen in the early stages of the work were being rapidly straightened out, it was said.

President Lewis tonight took exception to publish statements that earnings of $1,936 a year, "Someone is deliberings of 1,936 a year. "Someone is deliberately attempting to fool the public," he said.

Mr. Lewis quoted from the report of the U. S. Coal Commission of 1923, which said that contract miners, the highest skilled and highest paid, averaged $1,700 a year. From this more than $200 had to be deducted annually for tools, powder and supplies.

Of 64,279 miners, he said 30,000 were shown as earning less than $500 a year.

Out of 76,017 contract miners' laborers, he quoted only 247 earned above $2,000; 68,895 less than $1,500; and 5,004 less than $1,500.

U. S. WILL CARRY OUT PROMISES MADE TO CHINA

DETROIT, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Willingness to carry out scrupulously the obligations and promises made to China by the United States at the Washington Armaments Conference was expressed tonight by Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State, in an address before the American Bar Association.

Coupled with this pronouncement, however, was the statement that china at the same time would be required to, "perform the obligations of a sovereign state in the protection of foreign citizens and their property."

Mr. Kellogg disclosed for the first time that Silar H. Strawn, of Chicago had been appointed American Special Commissioner to the proposed Commission of Extraterritoriality, treaty revision and other special privilege questions for which no date as yet has been fixed.

Throwing light on the discussions which have been in progress between the Washington and other interested governments since he put forward the proposal that customs, and special privilege questions be considered under terms of the Nine Power Treaty and Resolution No. 7, negotiated at the Washington Armaments Conference, secretary Kellogg said it was his belief that "The Powers have all come to the conclusion that the (tariff) conference will have to be broadened beyond the strict letter of the Washington (Nine Power) Treaty." The tariff conference will meet in Peking October 26.

ACTRESS JANET BEECHER FACES SEPARATION SUIT

NEW YORK, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—Janet Beecher, star of "A Kiss in a Taxi," a Broadway musical comedy, was sued for separation today by her husband, Dr. Richard Hoffman, who alleged she deserted him. The couple have one son, Richard Wyndham Hoffman, four years old.

Dr. Hoffman charged his mother-in-law with having held "occult influences" over his wife, which resulted in her packing all of the furniture in their apartment and leaving with their son.

A process server employed by Dr. Hoffman's attorney said he was thrown bodily from the theatre in which Miss Beecher in playing, by stage hands when he first attempted to see her. He returned today and found the actress in a taxicab, and served the legal papers.

The actress and physician were married August 11, 1919. Previously the actress had divorced her first husband, Harry B. Guggenheimer, son of the late Randolph Guggenheimer to whom she had been married for six years.

NAMES OF WAITERS TO BE PRINTED ON MENUS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—(AP)—"George" no longer serves as a waiter in the dining cars of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Rudolph, Ethelbert, Maximilian and Alexander have taken his place.

In a statement today the railroad authorities announced that hereafter the name of the waiters in dining cars throughout the system will be printed upon the menus.

"To know their waiter by name should have a decided tendency to make patrons feel more at home," the statement said.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE FAVORS CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROADS

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Railroad Legislation was placed on the administration calendar for the next congressional session by President Coolidge today after a conference with Senator Watson, Republican, of Indiana, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee and assistant majority leader.

The President believes consolidation of railroads will solve the principal problem of this industry. Both he and Senator Watson want to see voluntary consolidation effected and believe the way will be open along this line by approval of the Van Sweringen consolidation scheme now before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

However, they are determined to force the issue if necessary and Senator Watson will propose an amendment to the Esch-Cummings act, next session providing for compulsory consolidation after a period of six or seven years.

The administration is prepared also to clear up other railroad problems which have bothered recent sessions of Congress and will seek to iron out differences over the proposed readjustment of the railroad labor board and short hault rails.

and over the pending dispute on long

The entire legislative program was gone over during today's conference at White Court.

SHOOTING BREAKS TRUCE OF N. Y. CHINESE TONGS

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP) — An On Leong Tongman tonight broke the truce enterged into by the On Leong and Hip Sing Tongs when Sam Wing, a 19 year old member of the former Tong, shot and seriously wounded Tom Woo, a Brooklyn laundryman. The shooting occurred at 9 o'clock tonight when Wing entered Woo's laundry and fired five bullets, three of which hit his victim.

The assailant walked out into the street with his smoking pistol in his hand, patrolman Pavelick, who was in civilian clothes, ran after him. Wing who is less than five feet in height, threw his pistol into the gutter, tripped the policeman and ran, but was overtaken and knocked down with a blackjack.

Apparently unconcerned over the shooting, he told the police, that he came to New York from Chicago with seven other Chinese gunmen, all members of the On Leong Tong several days ago.

Woo was taken to the Kings County Hospital where he was said to be dying.

Leaders of the Tongs previously had been warned by the authorities they would be held accountable for any disturbance prior to the signing of a peaceable agreement which was expected to take place next week.

ELDERLY MAN GORED BY A BULL AT HADDAM FAIR

EAST HADDAM, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—Gored by a bull which he had been observing in a line-up at the Haddam fair here today, Frank R. Davison, 73, of Moodus, lies in the Middlesex hospital at Middletown in a critical condition. Mr. Davison was one of a crowd of several hundred watching the judging of the cattle. When directly in front of one of the animals he slipped on the grass and fell. Before he could be pulled away, the bull gored him causing serious injuries.

Gov. Smith Attacks Wm. Randolph Hearst

Asserted That Mr. Hearst Never Had Any Interest in Any Convention on Any Party Except For Himself.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Activities of the principals in New York's mayoralty fight were obscured tonight when Governor Smith took the center of the political stage with William Randolph Hearst. He made public a letter directly attacking the publisher and characterizing some of the latter's statements concerning the campaign as falsehoods.

The governor's letter addressed to the editor of the New York American, a Hearst newspaper, was in response to one sent to the same editor by Mr. Hearst from California and printed Sunday. In this letter Mr. Hearst accused the governor of injecting the religious issue into the present mayoralty campaign, of calling mayor Hylan a "Ku Kluxer" and of telling untruths in his speeches.

"Mr. Hearst said in his letter that I told a lie," Governor Smith wrote. "It will not be difficult for the people of New York to make a choice between myself and Mr. Hearst when a question of veracity is raised.

"Mr. Hearst's entire statement is a lie and I will prove it. He says that I attacked the mayor as a Ku Kluxer. That is a wicked and premeditated lie. What I did say was the truth and it was as follows: 'While the democrats of the city of New York with the democrats of the eastern part of the country stood day in and day out during the long, hard siege at Madison Square Garden against the forces of racial and religious bigotry, not so much for me as for what I represented in that fight, where was the mayor? In conference with the representative of the klan." Send word on to Mr. Hearst in California that that is the truth.

"I seek no support because of my race or my religion. I seek it on the record.

"Mr. Hearst never had any interest in any convention, or in any party except to help himself. The greatest burden that Mayor Hylan has to carry today is William Randolph Hearst."

OFFICERS OF MACKINAC PLEADED NOT GUILTY

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 3—Captain Geroge W. McVay and Chief Engineer John A. Grant, of the excursion steamer Mackinac, which blew up at Newport, R. I., on August 18, resulting in a death toll of 53 men, women and children, pleaded not guilty to charges of negligence at the opening of their trial in this city today before a board of federal steamboat inspectors.

Captain McVay when on the stand answered questions readily, denying having had previous to the explosion of a defective boiler, any intimate knowledge of the condition of the vessel's boilers, or having been informed by Chief Engineer Grant of a dangerous condition existing on the morning of August 18 before sailing with more than 600 persons aboard.

Chief Engineer Grant, steadfastly refused to testify on the advice of his counsel, John J. Fitzgerald, who said his client was "standing on his constitutional rights." The trial will not be resumed until Second Engineer Mullen of the Mackinac, now in the naval hospital at Newport, is able to talk.

William G. Winsor Jr. of Providence proprietor of the Rhode Island Welding Company, who testified as to his reasons for refusing to do a welding job on the Mackinac's boilers on April 14, 1924, Edward Cassidy, one of the welding crew from the Wholey Boiler works, sent to the steamer to make repairs on the morning of the excursion, William H. Wholey and two defendants were the witnesses questioned today.

GAY RAIMENT WORN AT VENICE'S FAMOUS BEACH

VENICE, Italy, Sept. 2—Brilliant hue bathing costumes and fantastically decorated pajamas constitute the dress de riguer for the aristocratic sojourners at Lido, Venice's famous Beach, this season. The former saving in lieu of the dinner coat and the latter being Lido's frock coat. There are smart dancing and dining places which refuse to admit persons dressed in ordinary street garb.

Lido is more brilliant and daring in its beach costumes this season than ever before, and Lido carries out its aristocratic social round in its bathing suit. The bottom half of a pajama suit will do for formal wear, and a point may be stretched for the vulgar beach robe, which, however, is not considered very swank.

Prices, incidentally, have reached a plane that would make the bonifaces of American resorts green with envy.

DECISION RESERVED ON DEATH OF MRS. D'KUNZ

STAMFORD, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Decision was reserved by Coroner Phelan here today, following his investigation into the death of Mrs. Delia Kunz, of 620 Baker avenue, New York City, who was fatally injured last week when the automobile in which she was riding crashed into a fence on Hamilton hill, on a detour of the Boston post road.

Lamont Dewald, 115 Vermilyea avenue, New York, the driver of the car, who was arrested on a charge of manslaughter, was released by the coroner in the custody of his attorney until a decision is given. At the hearing Dewald told the coroner that he was going about thirty miles an hour at the time of the accident. He said that he was unfamiliar with the detour and came to the sharp curve before he was aware of any danger.

HELD FOR VIOLATION OF FEDERAL NARCOTIC ACT

HARTFORD, Sept. 2—Michael P. Petrizzo, of 52 Shultas place, was arrested this morning for violation of the federal narcotic act on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Frederic J. Corbett. The warrant was served by U. S. Deputy Marshal Albert P. Marsh, and the man brought before U. S. Commissioner Corbett. The case was postponed until September 15 and Petrizzo was released on a bond of $500 to appear at that time to answer charges of selling drugs.

Petrizzo was arrested by the local police August 15 and charged with possession of narcotics.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Five cases of Asiastic cholera with [illegible] were reported from Yokohama.

After 44 years of missionary service in India, Mrs. Sofia Weld Scudder is dead at Vellore.

The New York state home rule for cities amendment to the constitution was upheld by the court of appeals.

The police are investigating the 4th fire at the plant of the Leipzig Fur Company, Norwalk, within the past two months.

The Hannaford inn, at Cape Elizabeth, Me., owned by Isaiah Hannaford, of Hartford, Conn., was destroyed by fire. The loss was $25,000.

The Democratic city convention in Norwalk will be held next Wednesday evening, at which time a candidate for mayor will be nominated.

The pope received fifty holy year pilgrims of the Italian parish of St. Ann's, of Providence, R. I., conducted by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Anthony Bove, pastor of the parish.

The brain of Mrs. Helen Hamilton Gardiner, bequeathed to the Cornell Brain association arrived at the Cornell college of medicine from the hospital in Washington, D. C.

A reduction of the capital stock of the Union Cotton Manufacturing company from $1,800,000 to $1,200,000 was approved by the stockholders at a meeting in Fall River.

Dr. William H. Murray, for 26 years a Plainfield physician died in Plainfield, N. J., from a heart attack. He was a direct descendant of John Alden of Pilgrim fame.

Henry Fry, lawyer and a member of the firm of Dunton, Fry and Gibb, fell from a fourth story window into a lane off St. John street, Montreal, and was instantly killed.

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebr ndt, assistant attorney general, inspected the prison at the Portsmouth navy yard in the course of a study of federal prisons which she is conducting.

The Packard Motor Car Company has announced distribution of $7,282,440 to its preferred stockholders to retire at $110 a share the entire issue of preferred stock of the company.

Stephen Yaros committed suicide by inhaling gas in his home in Passaic, N. J., as a result relatives said, of worry over having falsified an answer in citizenship papers.

Robert Underwood Johnson, former United States ambassador to Italy, poet, and a director of the Hall of Fame at New York University, returned to this country on the French liner Paris.

The situation in British home ports resulting from the unofficial strike of seamen against a wage reduction was somewhat eased yesterday by the sailing of the White Star liner Majestic from Southampton.

Grace Reals, actress and light opera singer was buried in New York. Beginning a stage career with the Bostonians she played later with the E. H. Sothern, John Mason, James K. Hacket and Wilton Lackaye.

Adolph Greenbacker, 67, retired Meriden farmer, who had been making his home in Yalesville, was found dead in the Quinnipiac River at South Meriden by boy bathers at the city's Red Bridge Recreation place.

Between twenty and twenty five miles along the west branch of the Farmington river and its tributary, Sandy brook, have been secured for fishermen under the stream leasing act adopted by the 1925 general assembly.

The Italian royal family is at Peconigi, awaiting the arrival of Prince Philip of Hesse, fiance of Princess Mafalda, second daughter of the Italian king and queen. The prince and princess are to be married September 23.

Roland W. Boyden of Massachusetts, former American observer with the reparations commission, is under consideration to succeed the late Edgar A. Bancroft as American ambassador to Japan.

Reports that Chinese working for or furnishing supplies to Britishers were being executed as one step for enforcement of the anti-foreign boycott were received in the foreign settlement at Canton.

A special meeting of stockholders of the Boston and Maine Railroad has been called for September 23 to pass upon a plan for financial reorganization of the railroad which has been under consideration for several months.

The council of the league of nations was convened at Geneva, under the presidency of Aristide Briand, the French foreign minister. Neither the British nor the Turks were ready to discuss their dispute over the Mosul oil region.

The time limit for the registration of apprentices and students at hair dressing and beauty parlor establishments who have taken up the work since January first, expires Tuesday, the state board of hair dressers and cosmeticians announced.

The department of commerce is going to produce a booster film for the national capital. The expense of producing the film, which will depict the beauties of the capital and its public buildings will be borne by the local chamber of commerce.

Application of the Waterbury Jitneys and Taxis, Inc., for a temporary injunction restraining the New Haven Shore Line Railway from operating motor busses from New Haven to Saybrook was denied by Judge C. L. Avery of the superior court in Waterbury.

Fifteen laborers employed by the Connecticut Company on a Hartford avenue job, at New Britain, have gone on strike in protest against a scale of wages said to be from 10 to 15 cents an hour lower than that paid by the board of public works and private contractors.

Mrs. Luther Burbank, wife of Santa Rosa's plant wizard, has revealed that two large eastern universities, one in the middle west and two on the Pacific coast, as well as several private interests, had offered to provide funds for perpetuation of the work of her husband.

Convicted As 'Fence' For Stolen Bonds

Romeo Forlini Found Guilty On Twenty Four Counts in the United States District in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Romeo Forlini, 40, characterized by police as an international fence and the brains in bond thefts in the United States totalling $1,250,000, was today found giulty on 24 counts in two consolidated indictments charging possession of stolen and forged Liberty bonds.

He was held without bail for sentence tomorrow by Judge Atwell in the United States District court.

The jury deliberated only 15 minutes before returning its verdict of guilty on all counts.

Forlini was arrested after two men and two boys told police that he was behind a gigantic scheme to rob banks and brokerage houses of Liberty bonds.

Messengers were placed in the employ of business houses by Forlini who later received the loot they stole from their employers. Secret service men reported that Forlini was wanted by the Italian government. He had 140,000 counterfeit lire in his possession when arrested and $65,000 in Liberty bonds.

Banks and business houses in Greenwood, Mo., Centerview, Mo., Marissa, Ill., Marion, Kas., Bucyrus., and Elgin, Kas., were victims of his operations. Federal authorities asserted. His arrest in Hamilton, Ont., a month ago occurred when he tried to dispose of $125,000 in Liberty bonds for $50,000.

MACMILLAN FLAGSHIP HAS ARRIVED AT GREENLAND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The Bowdoin, flagship of the MacMillan Arctic expedition, reported to the National Geographic society today that she had arrived at Holstenborg, Greenland, last night, and was awaiting the Peary, which was 300 miles behind with the navy planes.

The trip from a point near Cape York to Holstenborg was made in the fastest aggregate time of the voyage, the message, which was relayed by way of Battle Harbor, disclosing that 175 miles had been covered in 24 hours.

"We hoisted all sails 20 miles north of Cape York in North Greenland," Commander MacMillan related, and we never lowered them until we anchored last night.

"After such a long run we naturally were anxious to stretch our legs on shore. Acting Governor Rasmussen and the future governor have shown us every courtesy and have granted full shore liberty. As soon as the news was announced that we were coming ashore a shout went up in the village and the boats immediately swarmed about the Bowdoin.

"Now our decks are crowded with men, women and children, all awaiting the motion picture show this evening. They are especially excited about the pictures taken of themselves last year which we are going to show them. All well."

NO MORE FLIGHTS TILL FATE OF MISSING MEN IS KNOWN

Washington, Sept. 2.—(AP) Secretary Wilbur will not be disposed to have the naval plane PB-1 leave San Francisco tomorrow as scheduled for its attempt at a non-stop flight to Hawaii, if it should be determined that the men on the missing PN-9 No. 1 have been lost.

The secretary said he would want to confer with officers of the department before reaching a definite decision on the flight, but he expressed the opinion that to order the PB-1 to start would not be proper if lives had been lost in the non-stop attempt of two PN-9 planes. The PB-1 did not accompany the PN-9 planes because of incompleted tests.

If the PN-9 number 1 should still be missing tomorrow afternoon, Mr. Wilbur said the flight of the PB-1 would at least be deferred. If for no other reason, because the surface craft searching for the missing plane could not be in position to guard the flight. He declared, however, he did not regard with grave apprehension at this time the flight of the missing PN-9, feeling it still had a good chance of rescue.

CONN. MANUFACTURERS ARE WELL SUPPLIED WITH COAL

NEW HAVEN, Sept 2.—(AP)—That Connecticut manufacturers profiting from past experiences, laid in plentiful supplies of coal during the past few months, previous to the anthracite coal miners strike yesterday, was indicated today during the discussion of the coal situation at the the meeting of the board of directors of the Manufacturers' Association of Connecticut here.

K. Kent Hubbard, of Middletown, presided over the meeting. After disposal of routine matters, the manufacturers discussed the coal situation. Reports were at hand from a number of factories, but a great many had as yet not sent in their statements. Consideration of relief measures will be delayed until detailed reports from all factories are at hand, the directors decided.

Mr. Hubbard said tonight that as soon as all available data is at hand a report will be compiled and made public.

VETS OF FOREIGN WARS REVIEW PURSUIT PLANES

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 2.—(AP)—While army pursuit planes flew in formation overhead, more than 3,500 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Ladies' Auxiliary, Military Order of Cootles and civil organizations paraded through the business district here today while all traffic came to a standstill for two hours.

Sergeant Samuel Woodfill, of Kentucky, named by General Pershing as the World War's greatest hero, was given a place of prominence in the reviewing stand.

The raid made on the veterans' headquarters by prohibition officers Monday night furnished material for fun, many empty bottles being displayed by the paraders.

DEPORTATION MENACES FORMER BOOTLEG KING

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 2.—(AP)—George Remus, bootleg king of Cincinnati this afternoon was released from the Atlanta federal prison where he has been serving a sentence and taken to the local immigration office for examination.

COMBING THE PACIFIC FOR MISSING NAVY SEAPLANE

Flying, Floating and Submersible Craft Are Traversing the Hundred Square Mile Stretch of Ocean Where They Believe the PN-9 No. 1 is Hidden—Naval Officials Are Arranging For Participation of Private Craft in Search For the Missing Seaplane and Its Five Occupants.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2—(By the A. P.)—The wall of silence around the missing navy seaplane PN-9, No. 1, late today had endured unbroken for twenty four hours.

Navy craft of all types—flying, floating and submersible—have been organized to weave across the hundred square mile stretch of ocean where Commander John Rodgers and his four companions are believed hidden. But reports from ships and airplanes only told of empty observations of an apparently deserted ocean.

Arrangements for participation of private craft in the search also were made by naval officials.

The crew of the PN-9, No. 1 comprised:

Commander John Rodgers Havre de Grace, Md., Lieutenant Byron J. Connell, Pittsburgh, Pa., Skoles N. Pope, Jackson, Pa., William H. Bowlin Richmond, Ind. and Otis G. Straub, Terre Haute, Ind.

NO WORD FROM MISSING PLANE AND CREW OF FIVE

HONOLULU, Sept. 2—(By the A. P.)—Twenty four hours have passed without word from the missing navy seaplane PN-9, No. 1, and her crew of five men.

As yesterday, the final few hours of daylight showed redoubled activity by those searching the vast stretches of the Pacific making every effort to rescue the seaplane's crew before night again shut down.

Meanwhile crowds thronged information centers here seeking late reports of the flyers, whose attempted non-stop jump from San Francisco to Pearl Harbor, was interrupted about 1.45 p. m. (Island time) yesterday while some hundred miles off the coast of the Island of Maui by exhaustion of the fuel supply.

The city was thrown into an uproar today through circulation of a rumor that the seaplane had been sighted. Navy authorities then issued the following statement:

"The seaplane has not been found despite all rumors to the contrary. We are in constant touch with the Arcostook and planes."

The U. S. S. Arcostook, navy aircraft tender, is directing the search by all navy craft, ships, airplanes and submarines.

The Arcostook at a late hour announced she was searching northward on her regular station near the 155th meridian as far as latitude 23-45, and that the U. S. S. Tanager would follow a parallel course at an interval of 15 miles.

The submarine patrol reported at noon that its scouting line was bearing northward along the 155th meridian from latitude 21-30 to 23-30, the Hilo, Lahaina, and Pearl Harbor detachments being assigned to separate sectors. The submarines were ordered to hold their stations during daylight retiring in a line on a course west to the 158th meridian during darkness.

Officers at the Pearl Harbor air station persisted in their hope that the aviators would be rescued, and navy men insisted that failure to sight the seaplane did not mean much because of the great extent of the area to be covered.

Commercial ships, including the Freighter Stuart Dollar and the liner President Polk, today were instructed to keep close lookout for the plane although the lane of commercial traffic is believed too far north to make such ships of much aid in the search.

NEW PROGRAMME FOR RURAL SCHOOL TEACHERS

HARTFORD, Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—To allow school teachers in the rural sections of the state to benefit from the experiences of others teachers from both the rural and city districts, the school supervisors under the direction of the state department of education have arranged a programme for the coming year of a more ambitious nature than has been attempted since 1915.

The teachers, pupils and parents in some ninety-eight communities are to be enlisted in a plan by which it is hoped to solve the problems continually arising to obstruct successful teaching of the individual child and groups of children.

Under the general objective of "improvement in supervising and teaching activities," a series of school visits and conferences are to be held with the specific objects of skillful assistance for the teacher, determining and correcting the defects or problems of the pupils, and the awakening of community interest in school problems.

The programme, which will be carried out under the direction of N. Searle Light, director of rural education, was adopted at the conference of school supervisors held at the capitol last week. It follows, Mr. Light said today, suggestions made by Dr. Albert B. Meredith, commissioner of education, to the effect that the supervisors give unrestricted effort to the building up of satisfactory programmes within the schools, while allowing only the necessary time for advisory administrativ ework in local school affairs.

The plan will be put in operation at the beginning of the school year, Mr. Light said and on October 7, there will be a general meeting at the New Haven Normal school to report on teaching conditions and situations. These will be diagnosed and remedial suggestions offered while there will be general conferences upon the supervisory procedures involved.

Meetings and conferences with individual teachers and groups will be held continuously. The teacher, at these meetings may present the problems that obstruct successful teaching in the class room and the supervisors will offer for use the methods which have overcome similar difficulties in other schools.

STATE LABOR FEDERATION TO MEET NEXT WEEK

HARTFORD, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—An echo of the controversy over the question of endorsing the third party candidacy of Senator La Follette which stirred the last convent on of the Connecticut Federation of Labor, held in Hartford, will be heard at the federation's convention which opens in New Britain next Tuesday.

The subject, it is understood, will be brought up by Patrick F. O'Meara of New Haven, president of the federation, in his annual report. It is expected that he will refer to the recent action of the national council of the American Federation of Labor in acknowledging that the trade union men had not profited by their alignment with the third party campaign. It is likely that the convention will favor a reversion to the old policy of the federation of non-partisanship in state and naational affairs.

The resolution endorsing the La-Follette candidacy was passed after bitter discussion in which the conservatives and democrats and the radicals were ranged against each other. The carpenters of Hartford with 1,400 members, the strongest local in the state, led in the fight against pledging the federation's support to the third party.

The labor bank project, upon which the committee has been working for nearly two years will be one of the most important pieces of business at the convention. The plan contemplates the establishment of a bank in Hartford or New Haven to be operated by the federation with a personnel of experts.

WHY INDEPENDENTS CLOSED MOVING PICTURE EXCHANGES

NEW YORK, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—The Independent Motion Picture Association of America, representing 155 producers, distributors and exchanges, foresees the crippling of the motion picture industry in this country if other states follow the lead of Connecticut and pass film tax laws.

Explaining that the association has no quarrel with the people of Connecticut, Frederick H. Elliott, general manager, said today that the organization contemplates no boycott or other reprisals that would deprive the people of their entertainment.

"As far as the independent motion picture exchanges are concerned," said Mr. Elliott, "some have closed their New Haven offices only because their sum resources were in grave danger of being wiped out. They did not close because of a boycott or in a desire for reprisal. This association is not in favor of any carpet-bagging schemes and will give such aid as is necessary to keep the theatres open and the business running.

"We believe that the entire matter can be left safely to the people of Connecticut without the annoying and blundering aid of paid attorneys representing certain well-meaning but misguided people in the motion picture business. The problem for the movie men of the state is how it is possible for the public to absorb the burden of this new tax and permit operation as before."

DIRIGIBLE SHENANDOAH ON A MID-WESTERN TRIP

LAKEHURST, N. J., Sept. 2—(A. P.)—The United States dirigible Shenandoah left the naval air station here at 4:02 o'clock this afternoon on its mid-western flight of five or more days. Commander Zachary Lansdowne with 35 men and officers was aboard.

The dirigible will land at Scott Field, Ill., and refuel. On Monday she will renew the flight to Detroit, where she will tie up to a new mooring mast erected by Henry Ford.

On Sunday morning she will circle over a few Michigan cities and then fly to Akron.

She is expected back at Lakehurst Monday.

A feature of the trip will be a parachute jump by Chief Petty Officer Frank Master, as the ship passes over Akron on its return voyage. Master will take this means of alighting in Akron for a visit with his wife and to meet his little son who was born last week.

CHARGED WITH ATTEMPT TO BRIBE POLICEMEN

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 2—After an alleged attempt to bribe with $400 two policemen who were about to arrest her on a liquor violation charge, Josephine Lamonski, 50, was arrested here this afternoon on charges of attempted bribery and violation of the liquor law. Her husband, Jacob or Joseph Lamonski, 51, was also arrested on two counts of violations of the liquor law. The arrests followed a raid on the home of the couple in Franklin street where a quantity of alleged liquor was found. According to police records, the Lamonskis have a long career as law offenders.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

The department of agriculture announced that 550,000 farms had radios, compared with 365,000 last year.

National grange review showed the state, county and local taxes rising in contrast to federal levies.

Secretary Work invited the public's suggestions and criticisms of the interior department's activities.

Disapproval of a proposed oil rate revision in the mid-continent field was recommended to the interstate commerce commission.

Secretary Wilbur said he would postpone the PB-1 flight to Hawaii tomorrow unless the PN-9 No. 1 was found.

In ancient times the turquoise was credited with power to read the human mind.

WILLIMANTIC

COMINS FINED $300 AND COSTS IN SUPERIOR COURT WED.

(Special to the Bulletin.)

The case of Raymond C. Comins, of this city, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor was taken up shortly after the opening of the second day of the criminal term of the Windham County superior court in this city today. The case lasted practically throughout the day, being concluded about 5.15 o'clock. The accused was found guilty and fined $300 and costs. The lower court judgment was for $100 and costs, imposed after a demurrer had been entered to the charge.

Preliminary cases were disposed of, when court convened in the forenoon. Sava Matwinks and his wife, Annie Matwinks, charged with resisting an officer and tampering with a witness near the American Thread Company boarding house Judge Christopher L. Avery appointed Charles L. Torrey, county defender to represent defendants in court Thursday morning. The bonds of $50 each were raised to $100, the increase coming at the suggestion of Special State Attorney Howard Bradford.

Clarence Maine and John McCarthy failed to answer when called to plea to a charge of breach of the peace. Judge Avery ordered Sheriff Charles A. Gates to call the bonds amounting to $50 each which had been furnished by Max Scheinman, a local grocer.

Albert Pepin of Putnam pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling personal property held under a conditional sale contract. The case was assingned to the second day Wednesday, September 9, by jury. Attorney Buckley of Southbridge represented the accused. It is alleged that on October 1st, last, Pepin sold a Dodge car to Homer Durand, of Putnam, which was held under a conditional bill of sale by the Putnam Acceptance Corporation. The machine was valued at 350. The case is assigned as the second for the 9th, the first being that of Charles Dansereau charged with receiving stolen property. Dansereau was arrested in Killingly for being implicated in a series of mysterious transactions. In years past he served time in jail for the theft of horses.

John Drew pleaded guilty to the theft of a Studebaker Sedan from Sliby Saad, of Moosup, and, was sentenced to not less than five nor more than eight years in state prison. Saad on the witness stand stated that Drew owned him a board bill and said that he would pay it, but instead came and stole his 1921 Studebaker car. When the recovery of the machine was made, after it had been sold for a small amount by Drew, it was found that the name on the registration had been tampered with. Other crimes in which Drew was implicated were made known to the court.

The Comins case was taken up following a short recess at 11 o'clock. The gallery was crowded in anticipation of this case. As early as eight o'clock in the morning, two hours before court was scheduled to convene, men and women, for the most part strikers of the American Thread Company assembled at the court room. The attorneys in the case were William A. King and Samuel B. Harvey for the defense and Special State Attorney Howard C. Bradford, assisted by Prosecuting Attorney Harry S. Gaucher for the state. Exhibited during the trial was a pint bottle containing about half an ounce of liquor, an empty 16 ounce soda bottle and half a dozen aper drinking cups.

James J. Lee, supernumerary officer of the local police department since 1921 was the first witness on the stand. The circumstances leading to the arrest of Comins were comprised in his desire to make a thorough investigation of alleged immoral conduct among those brought from various cities to be employed at the Thread Company plant and whoever resiidng at The Elms the company boarding house. In the course of this work, on the evening of August 4, he drove to the Elms and saw Comins talking to two girls on the verandia. Comins' Ford roadster was parked on the street. After a time Comins drove to the rear of the Elms, and there two girls got into the car and the party drove off. Comins then drove to Railroad street, and was next seen at the corner of Walnut and Prospect streets and at this point George O. Strong of this city had been added to the party, making two girls and two men riding in the Ford.

In the meantime Lee had met three local young men, William O'Brien, Aime Clouthier and John Krock, who rode with him to the upper part of High street some forty-five feet from the Mansfield town line, where the Comins machine was found parked without lights on the left side of the highway.

Lee got out of his car, after asking what the party was doing there. One girl was sitting in the roadster and holding a cup in one hand and a bottle in the other as if she had just poured out a drink. Comins, Strong and the second girl were standing in the road near the car. Another bottle rested on the running board of the Ford. After a talk with the party during which it was argued as to whether or not they were within the city limits, Lee displayed his police officer's badge and notified the party that they were under arrest. He ordered Strong to drive the car to police headquarters, he stated, as he believed that Comins had been drinking. Lee told them to be at the police station within fifteen minutes and then left in his own car. Comins, he testified, defied him to arrest him (Comins) and was loud in his talk. Lee came back to the police station and waited but the party did not put in an appearance. He and Police Officer Roredick Lariviere then motored to the place and found the bottles and cups in the bushes some five feet from the spot where the Comins car had been parked.

Lee heard the noise, as the bottles were thrown into the bushes. He was severely cross-examined by Attorney Harvey. He denied that he was out "to get" Comins. It was brought out that the party had been parked about fifteen minutes since leaving the business section of the city. Lee insisted that Strong had said that Comins was drunk.

Aime Clouthier and William O' Brien two of the young men who accompanied Lee, testified that they remained in the car and heard little of the conversation between Lee, Strong and Comine. Both stated, however, that Strong came near Lee as the latter was about to drive away and said, "Comins is drunk." Comins also came near to them to see who they were. He said "Hello" and called them by name and they could smell liquor on his breath, although they could not testify that he was drunk.

Officer Lariviere told of finding the bottles in the bushes. The officer said that at the police station, some time later, after Comins had appeared there, defendant staggered when he walked and smelled of liquor.

Motorcycle Officer Arthur Hurley testified to being sent out to locate the Comins car, after the arrest and of seeing it parked near the American Thread Company office. He could not say whether or not Comins was drunk at the police station, but he did smell liquor.

Lieutenant Frank McLean of the police department proved one of the strongest witnesses for the prosecution. He said that Comins staggered and was intoxicated, in his opinion.

At this point recess was called at 1.05 for one hour.

Officer William Hurley testified that he was in charge of the station when Comins and Strong appeared and that Comins showed signs of having been drinking.

Joseph Kurzdzar of 430 High street gave evidence that he had heard considerable laughing and talking near his home. He donned his clothes and went near the car and later complained to the police department about the disturbance.

Raymond C. Comins, the defendant took the witness stand at 2.12 o'clock and his examination was not concluded until 3.13 o'clock.

Comins stated that he was employed by the American Thread Company for the past six years and for some time his duty had been to purchase provisions for The Elms the temporary state police barracks and the firemen's headquarters and to care for these places in a general way. On the night of August 4th, he anticipated a disturbance at the The Elms, due to a rumor that the strikers planned a demonstration in that vicinity at 9 o'clock. At that hour he went to the Elms and upon inquiry found that all was well. In the meantime, George O. Strong, who was sitting in his (Comins) car had struck up an acquaintance with a young lady. Other girls were brought into the conversation and when two of them, Marie Woodward and Bertha Seigel asked for a ride, Comins drove to the rear of the building. The girls h- asked Comins to secure sandwiches for them and the party drove to the New York Lunch on Railroad street, got five sandwiches, returned - for Strong, whom they had left for a few minutes on North street and then proceeded to High street.

When the sandwiches were being eaten, Strong pulled a bundle out of his pocket, which apparently contained a bottle. He then poured out one glass full of homebrew which Comins drank, this constituting the only beverage other than water, which he had taken that evening. Three of the party stood out in the road and laughed and joked while eating. Suddenly a voice from nearby yelled "Shut Up" and Comins had just suggested that the party quiet down when Lee drove up and after a few minutes announced that witness was under arrest for using his car for immoral purposes. This accusation made Comins defy Lee to prove such a charge, according to witness, he did not defy Lee to arrest him after he had been shown that he was within the city limits. Lee also spoke of another charge of transporting liquor in his car. Lee's accusations were such, stated the witness, that one of the girls, Marie Woodward, swooned in the roadway. Coqins called Lee's attention to the girl's predicament and the officer told him to take care of her, with the added suggestion that he take her to the hospital. Comins said that although Lee did not call him by name he was talking to him when he said, "You drive down to the police station and be there within fifteen minutes." Comins said that he had never seen the pint bottle, he was allowed to smell of the draining of liquor it contained and pronounced it as possibly being grain alcohol and coloring matter.

Comins drove the car from High street to Ives street, near the Elms, where the girls left. He and Strong then stopped at the main office of the Thread Company and then came to police headquarters. He denied being intoxicated although the one drink of homebrew possibly did cause his breath to smell. He called Dr. M. D. Riordan to examine him as to his condition, when notified that he was to be held on a charge of driving while drunk. The physician responded, but upon talking with him informed him that he did not need an examination. Dr. Riordan then furnished the necessary bonds for Comins.

Dr. M. D. Riordan was called. He testified that in his opinion Comins was not under the influence of liquor, when seen and talked to by him at police headquarters.

When it was suggested that George O. Strong testify, it was stated that he had gone to Providence, R. I., and had refused to return here for the trial.

A short recess was ordered and the two girls in the case were called to the stand. Marie Woodward said that she had been working at the American Thread Company and residing at The Elms about six weeks. She came from London, England, she said. She fainted when she heard Officer Lee say that he would arrest Comins for using his car for immoral purposes. She saw no liquor whatsoever. Comins, she said, drove perfectly and showed no sign of intoxication.

Bertha Seigel, 21, said that she had been in this city seven weeks. She saw a package which Strong carried, but did not see the liquor and did not know whether or not Comins had partaken of any homebrew. Comins washer partner, or at least, she sat next to him while riding to and from High street and she saw no sign of drunkenness in the man.

At the request of Judge Avery, the arguments in the case were brief. Judge Avery then imposed the fine of $300 and costs.

After a lengthy recess, Theodore Cagne, of this city, charged with indecent assault on May 31, last pleaded guilty. The first count in the case had been nolled. Judge Avery imposed a suspended jail sentence of one year and placed the accused on probation, in charge of Probation Officer S. Arnold Peckham for that time, on condition that defendant pay the costs of probation and report as ordered.

The concluding case of the day to be taken up was that of Lubin Wheeler, of Pomfret, charged with reckless driving, April 18, last, in the town of Ashford, on the North Ashford-Willimap highway. Wheeler was arrested by State Policeman Harris J. Hulbert of Stafford Spring after a four mile chase in which Wheeler is alleged to have driven a Cadillac truck hauling a trailer loaded with oak timbers at the rate of from 30 to 43 miles an hour on narrow roads, and around curves and past intersecting highways. Officer Hulburt was examined at length by Attorney Harry Back, of Danielson, representing the defendant. The case was continued to Thursday morning when court will convene at 10 o'clock (standard time).

Peter Nicholas of this city charged with breach of the peace whose case was to come up Wednesday was examined as to his soundness of mind in the forenoon by Doctors M. D. Riordan, F. E. Wilcox and Clarence E. Simonds and declared insane. Commitment papers were made out for Sheriff Charles A. Gates and Nicholas was taken to the Norwich State Insane Hospital for observation.

Ample provision is being made in the enlargement of the local exchange of the Southern New England Telephone Company, work on which has been started this week. Two two-story additions are being erected and the present structure is being remodeled, giving Willimantic a distinctly modern telephone plant and allowing space for further extension of operating facilities, from to time, to keep pace with the steady growth. Exchange Manager A. L. Weatherhead announced Wednesday that the cost of the work will be about $75,000. The additions are to be of brick. One will be 33 feet, by 15 feet and the other on the rear of the present building will be 13 feet wide by 28 feet long. An enlarged operating room will have space for a switchboard containing 27 operating positions, although all of these will not be put into immediate use. The present switchboard has sixteen operating positions. The lunch room and recreation rooms will be enlarged and modernized in every detail. The grounds about the building will be regraded, to aid to the appearance of that section of High street.

After awaiting trial at the police station for the past week, during the first part of which he was suspected of being implicated in the break at the Grant Grain store, Henry C. Russell was taken before the court Wednesday morning, charged on five counts with obtaining goods under false pretenses. He pleaded guilty. Prosecuting Attorney Gaucher stated that Russell contracted bills to the amount of $154.32 for the most part from public service drivers. Russell owes Herman Colderado $36, Walter Griggs, $37, and John LaMorte $23 for long jitney rides. The jitneymen were hoodswinkled by a life insurance policy and a bank book displayed by Russell. Others to whom he owes money are: the Windham Battery Company, $15; Prag Brothers, shoe dealers, $15; Godfroi Chaput, grocer $13 and Mrs. White rooming house, $20. Judge Foss informed Russell that he was just a shade under a state's prison offense. He imposed fines of $25 in each case with costs. The total amounted to $142.15. Russell is broke and without a job and later in the day he was taken to Brooklyn jail.

Several of the members related their vacation experiences as a source of entertainment at the weekly luncheon of the Willimantic Exchange Club, held Wednesday, with President Clarence E. Simonds in charge. The guests were: Harold, son of President Simonds, and Robert Wiley of Philadelphia, with George Fraser, Rev. T. and Sherman P. Hollister were appointed a committee to arrange a program for an evening meeting in Mansfield, later this month. Rev. Mr. Jones told of his vacation and visit to Ells Island, and how he was mistaken for a bootlegger. A. Wilson Greer related his experiences at a summer school at Harvard University and Allen B. Lincoln gave several interesting anecdotes. Edwin P. Hayes reported for the committee assisting in the placing of the Fresh-Air children.

Mrs. Bridget Hurley died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Wednesday morning, at nine o'clock. She was a highly respected resident of this city. Surviving her are a daughter, Mrs. Mary H. Martin, of this city; a son John F. Hurley of Whittier, Calif., also four grandsons and four granddaughters.

Funeral services for Mrs. Abbie Searles were held at two o'clock, Wednesday afternoon at 62 North street, Rev. A. Stanley Muirhead officiating. Burial was in the Somers Cemetery. The bearers were, Walter R. King, Charles A. Gates, Carl R. Alford and John Wilcox. There was a large attendance at the funeral. Avery and VanZandt were in charge of the arrangements.

Violet Rebekah Lodge, No. 57, I. O. O. F. held its regular meeting in Odd Fellows' Hall Tuesday night. Sister Lovejoy of a Pennsylvania Lodge, was a guest and entertained with the piano selections. The seventy-fourth anniversary of the local lodge will be observed on the evening of September 15 with a special entertainment. Nellie Grand Amy P. Brown was in charge of the meeting.

Louis Lamoitte of this city has brought civil suit against E. J. and Dora Elsie Guay, of the town of Chaplin, to recover damages of $50. Constable Peck attached wages of the defendants to the amount of $35 at the Thread Company.

Homer Carron, 44 Pearl street, South Manchester, was arrested Tuesday night on Union street here by Officer Roderick Lariviere, for driving under the influence of liquor. He was notified to appear in police court this (Wednesday) morning on that charge. He was operating a Buick coupe owned by Mrs. Nyria F. Carron of the same address.

Earle A. Randall, R. F. D., Merrow, was arrested by Motorcycle Officer Arthur Hurley Tuesday night charged with the improper use of registration markers. Randall was using markers used for a Commercial Ford owned by George W. Merrow, of 34 Forrest street, Hartford. Randall's case will be heard in police court Thursday morning.

The Women's Society and men friends met at St. Paul's parish house recently. Whist was played and prizes won by Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Herbert Dawson, Clarence A. Bowen and William A. Foote.

The Sewing Circle of the Baptist church met with Mrs. William H. Peckham Tuesday afternoon and accomplished considerable work.

Milo Lamus has been engaged to restore a panel in the Congregational church at South Windham.

Social and Personal

Frederick R. Noble has returned here after being instructor in Harvard University Summer school for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith have as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Julian H. Horton of Lake Compounce.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moshier have disposed of their home here and will make their home in Hampton.

Charles F. Risedorf has returned, after spending two weeks at Garry Pond, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Andrews are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. George Fuller, of Rockdale, Mass.

The police department of Helsingford, Finland, has bought a large number of American marine motors for use in police patrol boats.

At the end of the day's run

Will you have to take your chances on accommodations; perhaps be turned away from the hotel of your choice to seek other lodgings? Or will you pull up to the door safe in the assurance that your quarters will be ready for you?

The one way to be sure that you will be comfortable at the end of the day's run is to secure your reservations for the night before you start out in the morning.

Toll telephone service makes this easy.

To make certain!

THE SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE COMPANY
BELL SYSTEM
One Policy - One System - Universal Service

WINDHAM

At the C. E. meeting Sunday evening held in the assembly hall in the schoolhouse about 60 were present, who heard an interesting account of the international C. E. convention in Portland, Oregon given by Miss Harriet Ellison of Mansfield, Miss Margaret Bixby sang Face to Face accompanied by Miss Gertrude Arnold. The South Windham and Scotland societies were invited to the service and there were about 20 from Scotland, but no one from South Windham.

After having been closed for five weeks services will be resumed in the Congregational church Sunday. During these weeks the interior of the church and chapel have been cleaned and redocorated at a cost of over $800. All the woodwork, the paneled ceiling, dado and hard wood floor, have been rubbed with benzine and steel wool and varnished. The walls have been washed and given a hard finish of deep cream colored paint and various smaller things have been done. The C. E. society has contributed $100 and the Ladies Aid society is to bear the expense of the rest with the exception of about $72 from the Ecclesiastical society for the floor.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Borchert and daughter, Dorothy of Edgewood, R. I., have been spending several days with Mrs. Josephine Bingham. Mr. Borchert has been preaching at the Episcopal church in Westerly through August and Sunday Miss Bingham and Miss Mary Packer motored down with him.

Miss Mary Packer is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Brown and little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bingham and son started for their home in Buffalo, Monday by motor.

F. R. Lack of Mineola spent Sunday with his wife and daughter.

The Windham Players and a few friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Oehrig at a dog roast Wednesday evening.

Windham friends are to have their annual picnic at Samuel Chesbros cottage at Columbia Lake Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larrabee, Miss Emma Larrabee and Mrs. James Latrop were guests of Groton relatives Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Little of Springfield were at the Little house over Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Plumb and sons and Mrs. Tyler, of Edgewood, R. I., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larrabee.

Rev. Mr. Shirmer preached at St. Paul's church Sunday in the absence of the rector, Rev. F. C. Williams, who was in Boston.

Mrs. A. H. Newton, of Hartford and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and son Leo, of Ithaca, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Robinson.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Wildey of Providence who have been spending their vacation at the Inn returned home Monday.

The work of grading the lawn of the new school house grounds which was postponed because of the illness of the contractor, Charles Larrabee is to be done at once.

Miss Marie Rizzo is the guest of friends in Hackensack, N. J.

JEWETT CITY

The postponed outing of the Eastern Connecticut Power Co., for employes and their families is to be held at Ashland Park today (Thursday). The entire park, grounds and privileges are reserved for the visitors.

Postmaster William T. Crumb has received the following letter this week, of interest to Legion men in the service:

All employes of the postal service throughout the country, who are members of the American Legion, whose services may be spared without detriment to the service may be allowed leave of absence for as many days as may be necessary, not to exceed 30 days to enable them to attend the National Convention of the American Legion to be held in Omaha, Nebr., September 5th to the 9th, inclusive. Such absence may be charged to the employes' annual leave, or, if necessary, leave without pay may be granted.

HARRY S. NEW Postmaster General

Finn's tonight, Lionel Barrymore in "Meddling Women."—Adv.

Fishermen returning, Wednesday from a visit to several of the ponds and lakes in this section find the water receding every 24 hours to lower levels. One man acquainted with the lake and pond system of this vicinity named three ponds Tuesday that are at a record low stage for Sept. 1st.

Pachaug reservoir is between three and four feet below high water mark. Several big potato raisers were seen at Pachaug Wednesday, and were free to state that dry weather was already affecting the yield in the big fields. It was stated that the great number of small rains in June and July, mostly at night time, seemed to accomplish very little in filling up the ponds and streams.

Inquiry has been made in Griswold and Lisbon, if the dahlia blight had made noticeable inroads, so as to cause inferior blossoms or stunted plant foliage. The Pilgrim Gardens, W. R. Palmer's fine display, William Knox's selected plants, The Old Cluey Watson garden, F. C. Whiting's collection and many small house plot blooms have not been affected by the blight.

The attention of several flower lovers was called Wednesday to a flower which came very near having to go without a name, except that one woman acquainted with the old fashioned garden flowers, recalled the name of "Ragged Robin." Some erroneously believed the flower to be Prince's Feather which didn't suit some of the women critics who declared that prince's feather is a cockscomb. Many recall the great 6 to 8 foot high branching shrub of the Ragged Robin. In wild flower life, a pest in the garden, pink knotweed, alias smart weed, will be recognized as Ragged Robin's first cousin, the flowers of which are deep vermilion. Occasionally Ragged Robin is applied to the double cornflower, which Mrs. Dreer declares to be incorrect.

Those who attended the conference of church at Pachaug, from the Jewett City churches, were Rev. G. Keene Gray, Mrs. F. E. Robinson, O. W. Harvey, Mrs. G. A. Haskell, Miss M. A. Burdick, Mrs. Raymond Krug, Elmer Miller, Mrs. R. H. Howard, Mrs. Alice Morgan, T. E. Lee, Mrs. A. P. Anderson, Mrs. E. A. Faust, Miss Ellen Faust, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hiscox, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gray, Mrs. L. D. Howe, Mrs. Mattie Robinson, Everett Thornton, Mrs. Thomas Gray, Mrs. J. B. Palmer, Mrs. Walter Hyde, Mrs. Alice Anthony, Mrs. E. B. Cheney, Rev. J. W. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweetzer, Miss Edith Butts, Mrs. Althea Comager.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burdick and daughter Arlene are in New York for two weeks.

Mrs. James McCusker and children have returned from a two weeks' stay at Beach Pond.

NOANK

Mrs. Annie Chandler, Mrs. Porter Rogers, Mrs. O'Neil and daughter Virginia of Norwich were recent callers on Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Webster, of Elm street Extension.

William Tourjee who had three ribs broken a few days ago when he was thrown from a truck, is reported as resting comfortably.

Ben Chappell has returned from New York, after a brief visit.

Mr. Holly of Groton Long Point has sold his power boat to the Flynn Brothers, of Mystic.

Many of the people who spend the summer at Groton Long Point have left for their homes in different places in Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York. Dances at the Casino are to stop on Labor Day. Groton Long Point has had a busy season.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard of Moosup were recent callers in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanie Park are visiting in Westedly.

Val Atterback has returned to his home in Perth Amboy, N. J. after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Ollis.

August Gillis of Providence is visiting local friends.

Albert Brown, of New York, is spending a week with his parents, Capt and Mrs. Wallace Brown.

Elmer Rathburn of Poin Judith has been visiting relatives here.

Miss Irene Lamb, of Porto Rico, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. A. Beebe.

Miss Mary Kelly has returned to her home in New Jersey, after a visit at Groton Long Point.

Douglas McDonald is visiting in Bradford, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Hill, after spending there vacation at Graves Point, have returned to New York.

Fred Hunt has moved his household goods to West Mystic.

Miss Anna Robertson has returned, after a few days' with in New London.

Mrs. Edward Riley, her daughter Jane Mrs. Harie Carr and Miss Margaret Riley were caller at Mrs. Robertin's recently.

Ralph Lagerquist of Providence is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter.

Mrs. M. Rathburn is confined to her home on Front street by illness.

Miss Irene Jeunsen, after spending several weeks in New York, has returned to her home here.

The Pleasure Boat owned by Gurdon Wilcox has received repairs and repainting, has been jaunched and now is at the North Cove dock.

Boat Katherine, Capt. Fred Fitzpatrick is launched out at Roger's boat yard for panting.

Misses Elaine and Ruth Merritt, of Vincent Haven, Mass. are here on a short visit.

CHAPLIN

The funeral of Herman A. Darling, 59, who was found dead in his bed, was held at the Congregational church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. John H. Knott conducted the service. J. Wilbur Lanphear, Mrs. W. B. Gallup and Burton M. Welch sang, Under His Wings and Rock of Ages. The flowers were especially beautiful in a variety of forms. The bearers were Wilfred E. Burdick, Harry Storrs, Tyler A. Hamilton, Burton M. Welch, Merritt Welch and W. B. Gallup, Mr. Darling had been a resident of the town for a number of years, coming here from Long Island. He was the largest landholder in town, having about fifteen hundred acres. Mr. Darling is survived by three sisters, Mrs. John Divine of Oyster Bay, L. I. Mrs. Evelyn Bullard of Windsor, and Miss Isabelle Darling who lived with her brother.

The body was taken to Smithtown, Long Island, where the burial was on Monday.

Town Clerk B. M. Welch has prepared the annual town report which has been audited and will soon be printed.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Baker and Miss Mabel Baker of Florence, Mass., were visitors, over the week end at W. B. Gallup's.

Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Bennett of Plainfield and Mrs. Lydia Bennett of Central Village were callers Sunday afternoon at W. B. Gallup's.

Rutherford Upton is building a house on the state road, north of the paper mill.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Harvey and son, of Greenport, Long Island, called on friends in town Saturday.

MYSTIC

Tuesday afternoon in the Congregational church, Charles Frederick Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Barnes and Miss Elsie Raynor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Raynor were united in marriage by Rev. Frederick G. Chutter, pastor of the church. The wedding party entered the church at 3 o'clock to music of the Bridal Chorus from Lehengrin, played by Miss Louise Paige, the organist. The procession was led by the ushers, Henry Barnes, brother of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father and the double ring service was used. The bride wore a white crepe satin dress, with duchess lace and pearl trimmings. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and lillies-of-the-valley. The honor maids were Miss Esther Barnes and Miss Doris Raynor, dressed in blue crepe satin trimmed with gold lace. They wore black velvet hats and carired bouquets of Ophelia roses and delphiniums. Clark Browning Barnes was best man. Mrs. Raynor wore black lace over blue taffeta, with hat to match. Mrs. Barnes wore seal crepe and hat to correspond. After the ceremony a reception was held in the parish house with music by Mrs. Mildred Chapman Keigwin and Dorrance Grimes. Many relatives were present especially of the bridegroom who has a large family connection on his mother's side. The church was effectively decorated. The bride has been a popular teacher in Elm street school, Westerly. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left on an automobile trip through New York state.

Miss Prudence Mitchell has returned to New York after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mitchell.

Mrs. Bridget Smith of 59 High street remains very ill.

The friends of Miss Joanna Burnet, principal of Mystic Academy were grieved to hear of her being a surgical patient at Home Memorial hospital where she was operated on Monday. The school opens next Tuesday.

The streets in the center of the village have been cleaned by Conrad Rock.

Mrs. Adrienne Aserhiser has returned to her home in Framingham, Mass., after several weeks' stay at the Berthoff cottage.

Edwin Thompson moved Tuesday from the corner of Pearl street and Grove avenue to a rent farther north on Pearl street, recently vacated by S. B. Rathbun who moved to a tenement on New London road.

Several went to Groton Wednesday evening to attend the last preliminary meeting of the board of trade for the town of Groton.

MOHEGAN TRAIL LEAGUE AT WIL. CAMP GROUND SAT.

The Mohegan Trail Circuit League, composed of Epworth Leagues in Mystic, Noank, Norwich, New London, Niantic, Uncasville, Willimantic, South Coventry, Norwich Town, Gales' Ferry and Westerly is to hold a three day session commencing next Saturday and continuing Sunday and Monday (Labor Day) at Willimantic camp grounds. On the program are prominent speakers in the Methodist denomination, V. V. Sawyer, organizer of this circuit and former dean of Willimantic Institute, and Edwin H. Hughes, Jr. Mystic expects to send a large delegation as in former years.

The theatrical "angel" is wingless, but his money flies just the same.

Here is a message of great importance to those who have never experienced the superior comfort of riding on genuine low air pressure tires.

TODAY car owners want to know just two things about balloon tires—their ability to give greater comfort, and ability to give long wear.

In too many instances one characteristic is found without the other.

That is, many balloon tires must be run too hard for comfort, in order to save them from excessive wear.

Or if the tires are run soft enough to give full balloon cushioning, they wear too rapidly.

In U. S. Royal Balloons this trouble has been entirely avoided by two outstanding achievements in tire building.

Achievements which make it possible to run U. S. Royal Balloons at true low air pressures with absolute safety to the tires.

The new flat "Low-Pressure Tread" distributes the weight evenly over a much larger tread surface than a round tread balloon. The wear is slow and even.

Latex-treated Web Cord construction gives this famous tire that exceptional combination of strength and flexibility which permits perfect balloon cushioning.

As a result of these U. S. Rubber Company developments, U. S. Royal Balloons have been established as "the Balloon Tire Principle at its Best."

United States Rubber Company

U.S. Royal True Low Pressure Balloons

with the New Flat "LOW-PRESSURE TREAD" and built of Latex-treated Web Cord

Trade Mark US

United States Tires are Good Tires

For sale by:

GOLDBERG RUBBER TIRE CO.
114 FRANKLIN ST.

Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

BELL-ANS
25¢ and 75¢ Packages Everywhere

Bumsteads Worm Syrup

"To children an angel of mercy." Where directions are followed. IT NEVER FAILS. Despite scarcity and enormous cost of SANTONIN, it contains full dose. Stood sixty years' test. Sold everywhere or by mail, 50c a bottle.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Following a meeting of a special committee of the town, to investigate as to Killingly's need of increased school facilities, scheduled for Wednesday evening of next week; it is probable that a basis for formulating a report to the annual town meeting on the first Monday in October will have been arrived at.

It appears from such information as is available that the committee, appointed the past spring, has about agreed on a particular plan for the enlargment of Killingly High school. This plan probably will be recommended for the consideration of the electors of the town on the first Monday in October, but the final decision as to what shall be done as to accepting the plan, modifying it or rejecting it rests solely with a majority of the voters. The committee in presenting its report will merely have done what it was appointed to do. The committee has been painstaking, has spent much time, has investigated and in every sought to discharge in highly efficient manner the obligation the town imposed upon it. Its report is certain to be of paramount interest.

Likely such portions of its report as deals with the plan for an enlarged high schol will be made known sufficiently in advance of the annual town meeting and in such detail as to allow everyone am,le time to consider it and pass upon it before it comes up for acceptance, modification or rejection by the annual town meeting. It is understod that the committee purposes to arrange for ample publicity relative to the proposed plan well in advance of the meeting at which its fate will be determined.

As to other schol properties than the high school in Killingly, it is understood that the committee, as plans are at present, will make no recommendations for extensive changes.

Such increased facilities as the committee may propose will have to do with enlarging the high school and its facilities to meet the additional burdens placed upon it in recent years by increased enrollment.

Science and the laboratory have set up their barriers against the plan of the Windham County Agricultural society to have a great cattle show at the annual Brooklyn fair this month, but the obstacles are not insurmountable.

For several years past there has been a drive on in Windham county for the development of tuberculin tested herds. Many such have been developed, praise be, and great have been the attendent results in many ways. These splendid clean herds from which milk and other dairy products go to hundreds of county families are a great asset to the agriculturists and dairymen of the county. They must be protected from contaminamation, or the possibility thereof, by animals from untested herds. That's where the shoe pinches in arranging the cattle show at the Brooklyn fair—the suggested intermingling of tested and untested cattle.

Secretary Marshall J. Frink, of the fair association, said Wednesday afternoon that his organization has, in planning its cattle show, taken every precaution against the association of tested and untested her members. The entire north section of the cattle sheds has been set aside for members of tested herds. In this section only tested animals will face each other. Untested here members will be assigned to quarters in the south section of the cattle sheds—and between the tested and untested herds will be unoccupied space—a sort of neutral zone.

Every exhibitor will be required to use his own pails for watering his animals and no loaning or borrowing of such pails will be allowed. Every precaution has been stipulated to make possible a great catle show with safety for all animals shown. Mr. Frink is very anxious that this should be known to all owners of cattle, tested and untested, that might consider making entries at the fair.

In any event, only a proportion of untested cattle are unsafe for association with tested cattle. Many of the untested animals, probably the great majority, are in perfect health. In view of all these facts the fair association hopes for a realization of its ambition to have the greatest cattle show in years. Co-operation of county cattle owners will make this possible.

"Gawd, gentlemen," said an old-timer in Killingly, Wednesday, "you don't mean to tell me that there are people in this town who figure they're going to freeze to death because hard coal miners have gone on strike down in Pennsylvania. I can't believe it!

"Why, 50 years ago in this town almost every family got along without coal. There being plenty of wood hereabouts, they can do it again. I got to take time out for a hearty laugh over what the people of 1875 would say in this town about a coal strike over in Pennsylvania in those days. Freeze them to death! Why, the most of them never saw any coal until years later; at least, they never used any! The mines could be closed for twenty-years and it wouldn't bother them any!"

And closing them today should not bother Killingly a great deal the coming winter, if people will forego a few modern ideas they think essential to their well being and fight it out with the coal people—mine owners and miners—until they learn that New England can do without them if it will.

The speaker still has the spirit that made New England great and spread its influence, still enduring, throughout this great nation.

What he had to say led to an interview with a man resident in this town for nearly 75 years, and still hale and hearty.

"As I remember," this man said, "the first coal yard in Danielson was opened by O. M. Capron. He is said to have sold only 75 tons of coal the first season he was in business. About everyone was using wood for fuel. In the mills things were much the same. Up at East Killingly, the old Whitestone mill was firing with wood, using 800 cords of wood a year, about three every working day. Other mills were doing the same. Practically no coal was being used excepting in a few homes in Danielson. No one froze to death. There was comfort at every fireside. Things have changed since that day. They can change back again for one winter, if only to justify the principle that no section of the country, least of all one as important as New England, shall be made subject for its fuel comforts to the whims and fancies, the arguments and controversies of the men who own or the men who work in mines in Pennsylvania. There is plenty of wood right here in New England—and many substitutes for hard coal. We can use them and help win a great victory for independence in heating our homes."

Officials charged with the duty are engaged in building up their case for the prosecution of Charles Dansereau, who will be presented in the forthcoming term of the county superior court having criminal jurisdiction, to answer to a charge that he is a receiver of stolen motor vehicles. Mr. Dansereau, who is out under bond, was a at arrested in the early summer and released under bonds of $1,000. More recently he was again arrested to face an additional and similar charge and again was released, under an increased bond.

An audit of the selectmen's accounts of the town of Brooklyn for the fiscal year recently ended shows that the town has reduced his debt by $2,702.08, as against an increase in debt during the previous fiscal year. Of the revenue received, 17 cases in Justice's courts of the town produced $336. It was stated that Tax Collector John M. Bassette had collected all but $25.92 assessed against real estate taxpayers, an enviable showing, probably one of the best made in the state of Connecticut. The selectmen of Brooklyn are E. M. M. Marlor, Hugh Gorman Jr., and Sherwood B. Potter.

Miss Lillie Marshall is spending a vacation in the Adirondacks. In the meantime Miss Monica Lambert is substituting for Miss Marshall in a local store.

Mrs. Mary Reed of New York, formerly a resident here, is visiting in town for a few days.

Several cases of local interest are on the criminal list that will have the consideration of the superior court for Windham county at the impending session.

S. Diamond of Putnam has considered plans for enlarging properties he owns in Main street south of the Railroad crossing to accomdate a business enterprise that is desirous of locating in this town.

The time is almost at hand when property owners here must give consideration to the payment of borough taxes assessed against them.

Henry Delverde of St. Hyacinthe, P. Q., is spending a few days visiting with relatives in Danielson and vicinity.

Manufacturing concerns of the town of Killingly will be closed next Monday in observance of Labor Day.

Motor tourists returning from trips are increasing traffic over trunk line routes leading to the south and west from Danielson for many points in the union.

Included in improvements being made at the Orpheum theater are changes of interest in the lobby of the building.

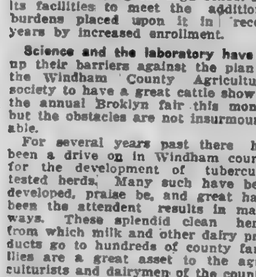
Employes of the town are engaged in filling ruts and holes in borough streets that have had surfacing worn and made ragged by the heavy traffic of the summer season.

A recent underwriters' test of the Capitol Put pumper of the fire department equipment shows the apparatus to be in excellent condition.

HARTFORD RUM RUNNER SPENDS NIGHT IN JAIL

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Sept. 2.—State Officer Edward Streamens, of the Danielson barracks, knocked off the first rum runner caught in this section in months, when he apprehended Michael Ornenstein, said to be resident in Hartford and headed that way in a motor car, from which 129 bottles of alleged Scotch liquor were taken and are now held at the state police barracks here. Ornenstein is believed to have picked up his load in Providence. In a justice's court in the town of Brooklyn he was fined a total of $400 and sentenced by Justice Frank M. Bedard to serve 1 days in the county jail at Brooklyn. Ornenstein appealed at least signified his intention of so doing, so, in default of the required bond or funds, spent Tuesday night at the county jail in Brooklyn. The fine was imposed on two counts—$200 for transportation of liquor and $200 for keeping with intent to sell.



HERE'S INSURANCE THAT SAYS "YOU CAN'T LOSE"

If burglars "clean you out" while you're away, our company pays the loss. It'll make your wife rest easier and may make you feel more at ease.

Reeves' Insurance Agency

Insurance in Any Form.

Exchange Block Room 1.

DANIELSON, CONN.

Chopmist Hill Inn

(Open All Year)

NORTH SCITUATE, R. I.

12 Miles East of Danielson, Providence Pike.

Chicken, Steak and Lobster Dinners.

Accommodations for Clubs, Lodges, Associations.

Private Dining Rooms on Application.

LARGE DINING HALL

Seating Capacity 400.

The Largest Sport Field in Rhode Island.

EAST THOMPSON

George Lockwood is in the Memorial Hospital, Worcester, Mass., where he underwent a minor operation on his face last week. He is comfortable and will be able to come home in a few days.

Miss Rose Nieviedgal is to teach in North Woodstock. She is a graduate from Willimantic Normal school.

Miss Evelyn George of Worcester, Mass., is visiting her aunts, Misses Annie and Marion Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Buell, of Eastford, with Grace and Marion Buell, called on the former's mother Mrs. Abbie Buell, at the parsonage.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Miller attended the funeral of Albert Copeland, Sunday at 2 o'clock. Mr. Miller conducted the services.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

These are Parisian!

Manon Lescaut* Face Powder
Ashes of Roses* Rouge
Rouge Mandarine*

FREE!

Write for attractive booklet of Parisian perfumes, powder, etc.

At the Better Stores

Bourjois

A. BOURJOIS & CO., Inc.

Dept. C38 25 W. 45th St., N.Y. City

PUTNAM

At the meeting of the Putnam School Committe, held at the office of the secretary, Charles L. Torrey, bills for the month were read and approved. The superintendent of schools, Ralph C. Jenkins, read a communication from the State Department of Health relative to sanitary conditions in the outlying schools. After some discussion, the superintendent was instructed to secure further information on the subject and report at the October meeting. The action of the superintendent in changing janitors at the Smith Street School was ratified by the Board.

The school calendar as presented by the superintendent was adopted.

The only changes in the teaching force will be:

J. Vey Merrill to be the new principal at the Israel Putnam school.

Miss Sara D. King, additional teacher of English at the High school.

Winifred Duffee, new eighth grade teacher.

Mrs. Merrill to teach English and history in the seventh grade.

Miss Anna Ash to be supervisor of music.

School Calendar—1925-1926.

All schools, forty weeks.

Fall Term, 16 weeks, begins Wednesday, September 9th, ends December 23rd, Wednesday; Winter Term 13 wekes, bgeins Monday, January 4th, ends Thursday, April 1; Spring Term, 12 wekes, begins Monday, January 4th, ends June 24th, Thursday.

Holidays

Labor Day, Thanksgiving and the day after, afternoon of Washington's birthday (special exercises in the morning), afternoon of Lincoln's birthday (special exercises in the morning).

Visiting Days

Teachers are allowed one day each in the fall and winter terms, to visit other schools. They will be required to make written reports of their visits to the superintendents.

Monthly Reports.

Monthly attendance reports are due promptly on the last school day of each month to conform with the register.

Report Cards for Graded Schools

1st quarter—reports out Monday Nov. 16; 2nd, reports out Monday, February 1; 3rd, reports out Monday, April 19; 4th, reports out Thursday, June 24.

Report Card Dates for High School

1st report Monday, November 2; 2nd, Wednesday, December 23; 3rd, Monday, March 1; 4th, Monday, May 3; 5th, Monday, June 28.

Report cards are to be issued to all children above the third grade

Regular Teachers' Meeting.

School Council, Superintenent and Principals, second Monday of November, March and May. H. S. Library at 3:45 p. m.

High School Faculty, 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. H. S. Library at 2:50 p. m.

High School English Department, first Tuesday of October, February and April at 2:30 p. m. in H. S. Library.

All grades of Kindergarten and 8 included, second Tuesday of each month at 3:45 p. m. in the 8th grade room at the Israel Putnam school.

The following young people from Putnam and vicinity will leave this fall to continue studies for advanced education:

Miss Dorothy Chapman of Pomfret will enter Bay Path Institute, Springfield, Mass.; F. Ryeburn Lynch of North Grosvenordale, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont; Miss Marion Wilson, Brown University, Providence, R. I.; Miss Alice Andrews, Post Business College, Worcester, Mass.; Gerard Cartier, Columbia University, New York; Miss Edith Child, Simmons College, Boston; Miss Rhae de Condres, Brown University, Providence; Miss Edith Peass, Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio; Franklin Perry Amherst College, Amherst, Mass.; Leroy Ames, Merton Ames, Miss Thara Ames, Miss Dorothy Ames, Aurora College, Aurora, Ill.; Miss Frances Obletz, New York Institute of Music, New York, Miss Corinne Wilson, Boston Conservatory of Music, Boston, Rudolph Metty, Rhode Island School of Pharmacy, Providence; Miss Doris Barrett of Pomfret, Bryant and Stratton Business School, Boston; Miss Irene Dugas, Finishing School, Joliet, Canada.

Donald Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson, sails today (Thursday) on steamer Majestic from Paris for New York. Mr. Johnson has been teaching in Southern France this summer and will teach this year at the Suffield Preparatory School, Suffield, Conn.

A map of Windham County which was published in 1856, is hanging in the window of the Cargill Trust Company, Union street. This map clearly shows that the bridge at the Cargill Falls at that time was not a covered one. The map is in very good condition and has been loaned to the Cargill Trust Company by Matthew Whalen, of this city. It is interesting to study, and shows the names of the people who owned land and the location of it

Mrs. William R. Ware was in New York the first of the week to meet her two sons, who came from Scotland with her mother, Mrs. Ware went with her mother to Virginia where the latter will visit another daughter. Mrs Ware brought her two boys to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ware, in Thompson.

J. C. Paine of Bridgeport has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Perry Wilson, in Putnam. Before returning to his home he made a trip to Worcester to see his brother, also visited old friends in Woodstock, Conn.

Miss Esther Stevens of East Thompson spent Wednesday with her sister, Miss Alice Stevens, in Putnam.

A local man was knocked down by an automobile Tuesday night and suffered some slight cuts and bruises. He was taken to the Day Kimball hospital. The car was driven by Cromwell Chase of East Putnam but he is held blameless in the matter as the victim of the accident deliberately, it seemed, walked in front of the machine.

Leo Savage, a boy of 11, who lives with his mother, Mrs. Eva Savage on Church street fell from a tree Wednesday causing a compound fracture of the forearm. He was taken to the hospital where the fracture was reduced.

Miss Grace Edick, a teacher at the Smith street school, was taken to the Day Kimball hospital Tuesday for observation with the possibility of an operation being necessary. The school term begins Wednesday of next week.

"STAR SPANGLED BANNER" MEN ORGANIZE IN COUNTY

(Special to the Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Sept. 3—Charles B. Montgomery, of Oneco, James F. Wallace, of Sterling, Dr. Frank P. Downing of Moosup, James Downing, Hon. James Walker and F. H. Kelly of Plainfield, Chris Wellington of Canterbury and a score of others have organized a society that is to act under the Bureau of American Ideals, of 18 East 48th street, New York. They will smoke out all enemies of the Star Spangled Panner as our National anthem, one of among them being Mrs. Augusta Stetson, of New York City and J. P. Buir, who lately have had printed long articles in the New York and other papers as paid advertising, at $850 an issue, assailing the National anthem.

Every congressman and senator in the United States will be reached before congress meets by millions of signers. The Windham county men now organized propose holding public meetings to spread the patriotic propaganda.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peirpont and family have returned home after spending a week at Brunford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moriarty and children of Hartford were week end guests at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moriarty's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Maloney of New York are guests of Mr. and Mrs F. Wondrasck.

Mr. and Mrs W. H. Brackett, Miss Maggie Brownlee were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kinsman of Stafford Springs.

Robert De Carli of Springfield, Mass, recently visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vitto de Carli.

Mrs. Angelo De Cicco, a patient at Johnson Memorial Hospital, Stafford Springs following an operation for appendicitis is resting comfortable.

Mrs. W. H. Hall and daughter Francis, Mrs. E. J. Holman and Miss Marion McCoy, of Sheriden, Wyo., were recent visitors at Lake Mohawk, N. Y.

Mrs. Thomas Brennan of Boston was a recent guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moriarty.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Birdsall and family were recently visitors at Ocean Beach.

Mrs. Mary Korper, Mrs. Lena Brackett and her daughter Hazel, accompanied by Mr. Leslie Korper of Hartford, who had been spending the summer at Point Hyannis, Mass., have returned home.

Schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mather and family were recent guests of Mrs. Bertha Wiegold at Tolland.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Connell and Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Connell and son of Portchester, N. Y., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moriarty.

Miss Lucy Tucker who was operated on for appendicitis at Johnson Memorial hospital, Stafford Springs, last Thursday is improving and getting along as well as can be expected.

George Mather returned home last week from the Willimantic camp ground, where he had been the guest of Mrs. Edith Mather.

Mr. and Mrs George Bowers of Hartford were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Bowers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Green.

Elmer J. Mathews, a veteran of the Spanish war, has been granted a pension by the United States government.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McBee and children of Adams, Mass., came and Saturday to the home of Mrs. McBee's mother, Mrs. W. H. Hall, Mr. McBee returned home Sunday evening, Mrs. McBee and children will remain for the week.

Mrs. John Neal returned home Monday after a delightful motor trip, visiting many points of interest through Vermont, New Hampshire, across Lake Champlain to Plattsburg and visiting in Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Snow and family and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Attenberger left last Saturday morning on a motor trip to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., returning home Monday evening.

Fourteen on the G. Hall Jr., Co., J. Neal, H. Neal T. Wondrasck, James G. Service, James Service Sr., Walter Wales, R. L. Birdsall, D. L. Rogers, John Richardson, W. H. Brackett, H. Charles Woodworth and Rudolph Tad were the guests last Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones, at their summer cottage at Neptune Park, Ocean Beach. They were entertained by Mr. Jones, aboard his yacht with a sail on the sound followed by a shore dinner.

Mrs. John Richardson was the guest last Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. E. Zinnerman, at South Country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards will leave Saturday for a motor trip to Worcester, Boston, Lowell, Gloucester, returning home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Finn, Mrs. C. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Warruska his mother and his daughter Dorothy of Long Island, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nordweld.

GOLDEN WEDDING SEPT. 7 OF MR. AND MRS. WM. BRACKETT

(Special to the Bulletin.)

SOUTH WILLINGTON, Sept. 2—Mr. and Mrs. William Brackett will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary, Monday, Sept. 7. They will be at home all day to their relatives and friends.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Ernest E. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence V. Rice and son Robert of Barre, Mass. called on J. D. Sauger and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Morse Sunday.

Mrs. Pamela Meek, a former resident now living in East Douglas, with Miss Addie Cornell and Edwin Meek, of Willimsville, Mass. called on friends here last Friday. Mrs. Meek has been an invalid for many years from hardening of the arteries.

Miss Louise Lindeman returned Sunday to Salamanca, N. Y. after a months' vacation at her home.

Schuyler Phillips has been spending a week in Springfield, Mass. with his aunt, Mrs. George Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips motored for him Monday, accompanied by Miss Nettie Phillips who is visiting her brother and his family. She will teach in Thompsonville the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Aldrich with their guests, Harry and Chas Smith, Jack Symonds, Mrs. John Hallman and children, Edith Farrous motored to Narregausett Pier last week Thursday.

Miss Doris Lindeman and Vernon Witherll sang a duet "Hold thou my Hand," for soprano and tenor, Sunday morning at the Congregational Church.

Mrs. Flora Killam and daughter Harriet, of Fairhaven, Mass. who have been spending a month with C. M. Kellam and family returned Sunday to their home. The farmers mother Mrs. Taylor with her son-in-law and daughter coming for them in their car.

Mrs. Dean Bannister who has been spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pike, returned Monday to West Boylston, Mass.

Carl Danielson and George Nisly who are working in Hartford spent the week-end at their homes. Emil Anderson who went with them last week returned home for good, city life not appealing to him.

Callers at C. H. Potters Saturday and Sunday included Harry Potter and family of Ware, Mass.

Mrs. Louise Howard Savage three children and Mrs Whitaker of Berlin.

LYME

Miss Bess Gilbert, of New York, is at Lyme a cottage built on Hamburg cove by Clarence Lee.

All regret the passing of J. Raymond Warren.

The annual concert for the benefit of the Public hall last Monday night was largely attended. The program consisted of solos, vocal, violin and piano. The performers were Miss Ola Rankin of Deep River, Miss Hull of Westbrook, Paul Starling of Lyme, Paul Desmond and Rev. William Allen of Deep River.

Miss Grace Harding was a Middletown visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. Otto Czicowsky and daughter, Clara, of Taftville, were calling on relatives and friends here last week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Brown of West Hartford, spent last week end with their sister, Mrs. L. Bill.

Cecil Bogue went to New York Monday after a truck load of furniture for Miss Bess Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark of Deep River were guests at Lodowick Bill's Sunday.

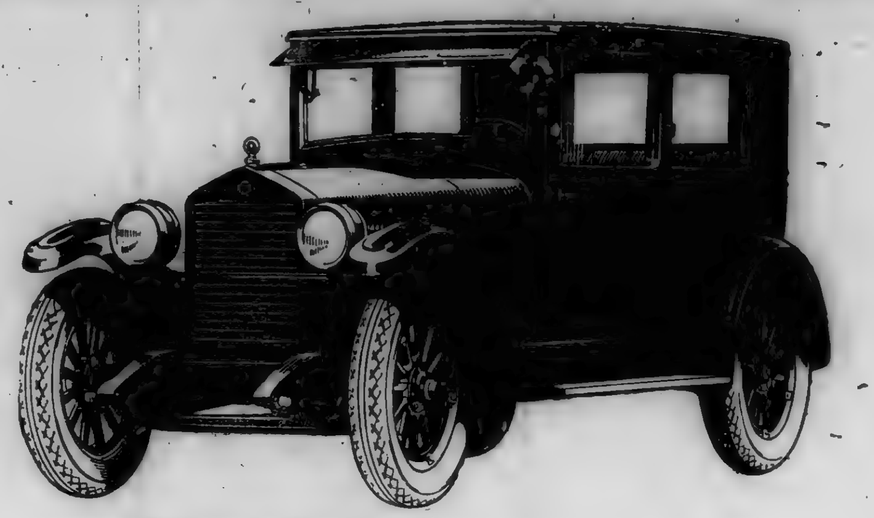
R. F. D. Carrier James Bennett was ill the first of the week. Monte Pierson carried the mail.

The Red Cross Dramatic Club gave an entertainment at Hadlyme last week Thursday night, with satisfactory results.

The dance last Friday night at the Public hall was well attended and provided a good time for all. Saturday afternoon a food sale was held at Grange hall, also for the benefit of the district and school nurse fund.

Miss Merle Daniels and Miss Margaret Jennings of Deep River were callers at L. Bill's last Friday.

A piece of colored glass looks beautiful in a church window, but it does not show up well in a finger ring.



$795 New Low Price Makes It Greatest Value In History

ESSEX COACH

This is the finest Essex ever built. And the price is the lowest for which Essex ever sold. It is made possible only through the largest output of 6-cylinder cars in the world's history.

166,369 Hudson-Essex sales in eight months surpass all former 6-cylinder records by many thousands—the largest increase known in the industry.

This enormous production gives advantages in economical purchase of materials, savings in manufacture and low cost of distribution that are recognized throughout the industry as being exclusive to Hudson-Essex.

New HUDSON PRICES

Coach $1195

Brougham $1495

(Seven Pass.) Sedan $1695

All prices Freight and Tax Extra

World's Greatest Values

Everyone Says It—Sales Prove It

THE NORWICH MOTOR SALES COMPANY

394-400 North Main Street. Telephone 1780

BAILEY'S GARAGE

Associate Dealer 12 Bath Street

How Mrs. V. R. Sweet Lost 40 Pounds—

She explains it below to every reader overburdened with excess FAT

Wonderful French formula works wonders even in most stubborn cases of obesity—NO DIETS—DANGEROUS DRUGS OR EXERCISES.

Hundreds of letters of fat people who have reduced with SAN-GRI-NA tell the same story as Mrs. Sweet, of Albion, Idaho.

"I was able to take off several pounds of fat every week without any effort or harmful effect—at the same time I greatly improved my health—I ate all I wanted, did not have to exercise or take dangerous drugs and thanks to SAN-GRI-NA my dream of getting back to my normal weight is at last realized.

If you are a fat woman let me tell you what to do: Get a box of SAN-GRI-NA today, take two small tablets before your meals and safely lose a few pounds of excess fat each week—It took four boxes of SAN-GRI-NA to reduce me of forty pounds—It made me look at least ten years younger and entirely transformed my health and appearance. I gladly sign my name to this letter because I am happy to be able to help every fat man or woman regain a slender, healthy normal figure.—Mrs. V. R. Sweet."

NOTICE—SAN-GRI-NA is a scientific discovery made up from the formula of one of the best French medical authorities on obesity—It is guaranteed absolutely harmless and not to contain dangerous drugs or chemicals—IT HAS REDUCED HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHERE EVERYTHING ELSE HAD FAILED—SAN-GRI-NA is not a new, untried or unknown formula—it was used for years in Europe by most reliable obesity specialists with remarkable success. It has now been introduced in America and is sold by the leading druggists at a price within the reach of all.

On sale at any good drug or department store. If your druggist does not carry SAN-GRI-NA in stock he can get it from his wholesaler or you can send a money order or check for $1.50 direct to Scientific Research Laboratories, 1541 Broadway, N. Y. C.

1786 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

129 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 50c a month; $5.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-2.

Willimantic Office, Main St., Telephone 1231.

Norwich Thursday, Sept. 3, 1925

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 29, 1925:
12,909

TAX PUBLICITY

[illegible] provision of the recent [illegible] was made for [illegible] taxes paid [illegible]. It was a matter [illegible] through the courts [illegible] that what was [illegible] to publication and therefore the printing of such lists as were provided by the internal revenue commissioner under the law was not a violation of the law.

Considerable [illegible] been sounded as to the merit of the publicity last year and because of the opinion that it accomplished good, most delinquents were not expected to come forward [illegible] of it and that this feature of the law [illegible] abeyance and could [illegible].

The opposition [illegible] has always prevailed and [illegible] it is stronger than ever. It accomplishes no good but it does create false impressions. It gives the [illegible] incomes of individuals are not [illegible] by the income tax paid [illegible] is not the fact, for no consideration is given to the tax exempt [illegible] on which they hold.

From the [illegible] publication of the revenue law [illegible] regarded as giving an opportunity to those who want to pry into the affairs of others, and it will be found that collectors report that [illegible] of the lists are invariably [illegible] who are looking for help in divorce actions, those who are seeking to [illegible] breach of promise cases and those who want to get the names of persons of wealth for the purpose of [illegible] them with all kinds of appeals and [illegible].

The [illegible] of the president to this publicity feature indicates that he will lend his influence to having it abandoned. In such a stand he is certain to [illegible] hearty support throughout the nation. Positive expressions in that direction [illegible] may fail to make an impression upon congress, which will be called upon to deal with this subject at its next session.

COAL STRIKE PREVENTION.

When it is stated in connection with the present coal strike that there should be included in the adjustment when it comes some provision for the prevention of future coal strikes, it would seem to most coal users as a desirable [illegible] But as desirable as it is, the fact that it does not make any move the way or have any [illegible] to be obtained. Strikes are [illegible] as the club to get [illegible] and [illegible] would remove the power [illegible] that it can be [illegible] to [illegible] opposition.

But prevention of the stoppage of the [illegible] coal, or the [illegible] possession of [illegible] is something [illegible] for. If it is [illegible] be tackled [illegible] determination to [illegible] that there will be [illegible] hard coal it is [illegible] that substitutes [illegible] more used [illegible] the use of [illegible].

However, [illegible] overcome the [illegible] when [illegible] takes place [illegible] it would [illegible] between miners [illegible] the facts [illegible] the pressure which [illegible] considerable consumers [illegible] consumer and it would [illegible] appearance of [illegible] pressure which accompanies [illegible].

The [illegible] and mining is sarcastically [illegible] such protective legislation [illegible] the state of Pennsylvania [illegible] federal [illegible] drastically restrictive. There is the possibility of the government [illegible] over the mines, but [illegible] would [illegible] mean putting coal mining [illegible] and the country wants nothing [illegible] it had experience [illegible] government [illegible] during the war.

THE HANEY MATTER.

When the Shipping Board was created to handle the situation resulting from the building of so many ships and the struggle to develop a merchant marine, it was invested with rather far reaching authority to carry out the provisions of the merchant marine act.

From time to time it has been made evident that the board was not producing the desired results. There have been strong evidence of obstruction and a failure to work and in hand with the administration. Differences of opinion among the members have resulted in handicapping the work. Friction has developed and the board has at different times been the object of severe criticism. Personal views have been given preference to national welfare, and it is as the result of the conditions that there has developed the present situation where the president has called for the resignation of the member from Oregon, who it is charged has gone contrary to the understand reached with the president at the time of his reappointment.

Trouble within the board led to a highly undesirable situation there and it is unreasonable to suppose that the president, knowing the part which Mr. Haney had played therein, would have been willing to reappointment him without being assured that he was not going to continue such tactics.

Admiral Palmer was placed at the head of the fleet corporation for the purpose of correctnig conditions in the shipping board. That he has failed to get the cooperation of the board, but is the object of its opposition, is shown by the Haney case. Defiance of the request for his resignation is characteristic of the cat and dog fight that has been going on within the shipping board. Just what the authority of the president under the circumstances is will be determined by this case, but it becomes evident that whether he resigns or not Mr. Haney's membership on the board promises to be short lived. He is there today through a recess appointment. Such an appointment must go to the senate for action. If he persists in his refusal to resign it can be safely said that the democratic place on the board due to be filled by the expiration of his term will mean the nomination of some other than Mr. Haney, and demonstrate theneed of new legislation concerning that board.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Motor busses are increasing in number rapidly. New routes are being established with and without the consent of public utility commissions and highways which a short time ago had nothing of the kind are now subjected to one or more lines of such transportation facilities. Busses haven't become quite as numerous as the trucks but they are fast getting there.

In view of this situation it is not surprising that the motor vehicle commissioner of Massachusetts has requested the police of all cities and towns to report all cases of reckless operation of busses, as he is prepared to suspend the license of every driver who is found to be operating recklessly, and he intimates that 30 miles an hour will be the maximum speed at which they will be permitted to operate in the future.

It is to be realized that consideration must be given to the safety of those who are being transported in busses and also to other users of the highway. Recklessness in any form deserves to be discouraged but there is most certainly need for putting a check upon it when public conveyances are concerned.

The registrar is prepared to deal with the situation if any cases of reckless operation can be attributed to efforts to keep up with the schedule. Safety is justly the first consideration. If schedules cannot be met without endangering the lives of those transported or other highway users the schedules must be altered. It is impossible to get away from the fact that it is the public highway upon which such service is being rendered and public safety must get due recognition.

THE PACIFIC FLIGHT

Disappointment is bound to prevail over the failure of the naval seaplane to accomplish a record breaking non-stop flight from San Francisco to Honolulu and no little anxiety is caused by the failure to locate the plane since being forced to land in the ocean.

This is a case however where failure is to be regarded as only temporary. Getting to a point almost within sight of land and being forced down through lack of fuel indicates that inadequate allowances had been made for the conditions that were encountered and that these will be corrected before another plane is sent on such a test.

Crossing from the continent to the Hawaiian islands means the covering of a long distance over water, and one which has never been accomplished through the air without stopping. It gives some idea of what is to be faced by those French aviators who are contemplating a flight across the Atlantic with the exception that in the case of our naval plane there were vessels stationed at intervals while this precaution is not a part of the plan of the French aces.

The PN-9 No. 1 so far as known developed no mechanical trouble. An insufficient supply of fuel is a handicap on any flight and with the test showing no other trouble the way seems clear for the covering of that distance by another of the planes. With the flights to the Hawaiian islands successfully completed it will not be long before the crossing of the Pacific is effected.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Even though the miners have stopped digging the consumer must continue to do so.

When it comes to political excitement there isn't much that can outdo a New York mayoralty campaign.

Can you picture the boy who is just tingling with joy and anticipation over the opening of school next week?

With a coal strike on it is going to be hard on the fish in the ponds and streams of the state of Pennsylvania.

The man on the corner says: Some people struggle hard to keep work from interfering with their dreams.

With Austria reporting a pink frog with a tail that emits light there is some thing new for Winsted to equal and exceed.

Speed traps are getting to be things of the past. You're liable to arrest in these days if you don't go fast enough.

[illegible] countries for debt adjustments would put us in a temper to deal with the coal strike much quicker than the heated term at home.

HER UNCLE'S BOOTS

"Jack," said Felicia, "I'm almost sorry that you encouraged me to invite Uncle Jed to make us this long visit."

"Oh! I don't mind the work, Jack, and besides Uncle Jed is really a dear about helping with the dishes, and he runs the vacuum cleaner for me, and does everything he can. As for Nancy, you know he dotes on her and she adores him."

"Well, then, Felicia, what's the objection to giving shelter to your old uncle until his own daughter gets fixed so that she can take care of him? I think he's a good scout."

"He is, but he does something that annoys me dreadfully," Felicia sighed. "I'll warrant he's in his room doing it now. He rubs some kind of a horrid oil on his shoes. He declares it's the only way to keep them weatherproof. He says he always did it on the farm, and he reckons rain is just as wet here as it used to be there."

"Well, it is, isn't it? Why do you care, my dear?"

"I guess you'd care, if you saw all the grease spots he's making on that pretty rug on his room, Jack."

"Have you said anything to him about it, Felicia?"

"Yes, I've asked him repeatedly to be more careful, and he always looks hurt and surprised and he promises he will be careful, and then he goes right on greasing the rug. I laid papers over it, but he picks them up. He says he can't bear to step on crackling newspapers."

"The old boy has some nerves himself," grinned Jack.

"I see you think it's funny," said Felicia, reproachfully. "I thought maybe you'd suggest something. Perhaps if you'd speak to him he would pay some attention. You know he still thinks I'm just a little girl."

"He was pretty nice to you when you were a litle girl, wasn't he? I remember hearing you tell how you used to stay at his little farm in Wisconsin. Wasn't it there that you once emptied all the morning's milk from the can into the wash tub and took a milk bath because you'd heard it was good for the complexion? How old were you then?"

"I was 13," Felicia laughed, "That was my first and almost my last attempt at beauty culture."

"I guess it was all you needed, my dear. That one treatment seems to have done the job for you permanently. When Nancy is 12 you'd better give her one of those Anna Held immersions. I only hope it will be as effective as yours was."

"What nonsense you talk, Jack! We aren't talking about complexions; we're talking about the rug in Uncle Jed's room."

"Yes, so we are, but, Felicia, one more question. Wasn't it you who led a raid on his strawberry bed when you were 10 and about finished the crop when the fruit was selling at the highest price? Yes, I thought so, and I seem to remember hearing that it was little Felicia, aged 7, who sat down in a basket of ten dozen eggs and gloried in the golden mess.

"And what were your honorable years," he continued, "when you ate all the beautiful little Deleware grapes that your Uncle Jed was cherishing to show at the county fair?"

"Heavens, Jack, don't you ever forget anything you've ever heard?" pouted Felicia.

"Not when it interests me," answered Jack, smiling. "Now, my dear girl, don't you think that, considering your nefarious past—I don't suppose I know half of it—on Uncle Jed's farm we really owe the old gentleman at least a fraction of the patience he had for you? I've been thinking about what we had better do in regard to that rug. I've decided that we'd better let him grease it to his heart's content and when he goes away we'll get a new one."

"Jack, I wish I were half as nice as you are."

"Gammon, Felicia," oserved Jack, trying not to look sheepish.—Exchange.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

If Prince Henry, the third son of King George, chooses for his bride Lady Mary Scott, as is rumored in London, he will marry into one of the richest families in all Britain. Lady Mary is the fourth daughter of the Duke of Buccleuch, whose estates embrace 450,000 acres in Scotland and England and bring him in, it is reputed, an annual income of more than one million dollars. The Scotts which is the family name of the Duke, were originally a warlike border clan who added acre to acre, and kept them through turbulent centuries before the union and peace. Under the "Bellenden Banner," which is preserved at Dalkeith, and to the old war cry, "A Bellenden," they sailed forth from Branxholme Tower, carrying fire and sword far and near, and bringing wealth and territories under the sway of the chief. Where many an old name is but a name and a poor one, the Scotts maintain their proud preeminence, owning valleys, moors, villages and towns throughout the whole borderland.

Today's Anniversaries

1658—Oliver Cromwell, England's citizen king, died in London. Born April 25, 1599.

1779—Count d'Estaing, with fleet of 33 war vessels, surprised and captured part of the British fleet near Savannah.

1783—Treaty of peace at Versailles between Great Britain, Spain and the United States.

1825—John Drew, one of the most distinguished actors of his day, born in Dublin, Ireland. Died in Philadelphia, May 21, 1862.

1891—Three monuments to Illinois regiments were dedicated on the battlefield of Gettysburg.

1894—The National Irrigation Congress began its sessions in Denver.

1900—Lorenzo D. Lewelling, former governor of Kansas, died at Arkansas City. Born at Salem, Iowa, Dec. 21, 1846.

1923—Dr. C. D. Torriente, of Cuba, was elected president of the assembly of the League of Nations.

1924 — U. S. globe-girdling aviators flew from Newfoundland to Nova Scotia.
Civil war broke out in China, within 20 miles of Shanghai.

Today's Birthdays

Sir George E. Foster, veteran Canadian statesman, born in New Brunswick, 78 years ago today.

James Hartness, former governor of Vermont, born at Schenectady, N. Y., 64 years ago today.

Marcus Kavanagh, for nearly 30 years a judge of the supreme court in Chicago, born at Des Moines, 66 years ago today.

Dr. W. A. Ganfield, president of Carroll College and one-time candidate for U. S. senator from Wisconsin, born in Dubuque county, Iowa, 52 years ago today.

Edward A. Filene, eminent Boston merchant and civic leader, born at Salem, Mass., 58 years ago today.

Stories That Recall Others

Wise Boy

An American and his son were touring Scotland and the father made a special effort to take the boy to see the Burns statue in Aberdeen. The poet is represented holding by the stalk his "wee, modest, crimsontippit," daisy.

"That my son, is Robert Burns," said the father impressively; "Scotlands' greatest genius."

To which the lad replied; "And is he holding a corkscrew in his hand, father?"

An Executive

An aged negro was summoned as a witness in a law suit tried in Baltimore. In the course of his examination these questions were put:

What is your name?
Calhoun Clay, sah.
Can you sign your name?
Sah?
I ask if you can write your name?
Well no, sah, ah nebber writes ma name. Ah dictates it, sah.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Legislation Concerning Neglected Cemeteries.

Mr. Editor: In line with your excellent editorial of last Friday, 28th, concerning "Neglected Cemeteries," may I call your particular attention to a new law, passed by the general assembly of Connecticut, session of 1925, which, if properly interpreted and applied, can give welcome relief in this direction.

In the volume just issued of public acts, passed at January session, 1925, please note carefully "substitute" for House Bill No. 834, Chapter 168, "An act concerning funds intended for the care of cemetery lots," etc:. The Bulletin will do a public service by publishing this act in full and calling public attention to it, also asking the newspapers of the state to make the people acquainted with it.

This law is a result of the persistent and intelligent efforts of Representative Chester B. Jewett of Hampton, who introduced the bill out of which this legislation grew. His intention was at first to place such funds with the state treasurer, but the Hon. E. E. Rogers, present incumbent of the office, did not favor such action, as he said that there was so much of detail in the state treasurer's office now, that he feared that proper attention could not be given to cemetery funds. The judiciary and appropriations committees were not disposed to favor the measure for similar reasons.

But Representative Jewett stuck to it that there was a real need for such a law, and that if such opportunity were offered, persons who did care for permanent honor of the dead and a proper upkeep of old cemeteries and ancestral graves would see to it that funds were provided for such care under such a law. Influential persons appeared for the law and it was finally approved in its present form.

It now remains for those who are interested to see to it that the law functions properly and fulfills its intent. It was objected that after such funds were placed in the custody of the county treasurer, proper application of the funds would ultimately be neglected. This ought to prove so, and if there is a real and abiding interest in honoring the memory of ancestral dead, it will not prove so. That is why at the outset of this communication I have put emphasis upon the proviso that, "if properly interpreted and applied," this act "can give welcome relief" in the matter of neglected cemeteries and graves. Representative Jewett has established the way: now let the law be utilized.

ALLEN B. LINCOLN.
Westford, Conn., Aug. 31, 1925.

From Small Beginnings

Asher Durand, the Watchmaker's Son, Famous American Artist

The famous picture of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, painted by John Trumbull and placed in the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington, D. C., was once to be seen everywhere in the United States in the form of beautifully engraved copies. Many a person will remember how in childhood he used to look every day at the famous group. The engraver of this widely distributed and most popular picture was Asher Durand, a young American artist, who was born just at the close of the American Revolution.

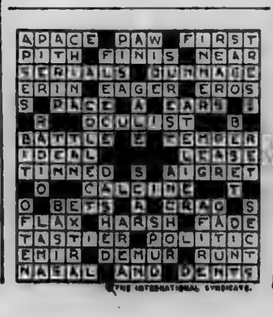
Asher Durand was born in what was then a very small settlement in South Orange, N. J. On all sides the country was farmland, remote from any large place. New York City itself was only a small city occupying the lower part of Manhattan Island, and not to be reached either easily or quickly from South Orange. As a small boy Durand watched his father bend over his watchmaker's bench and work with the delicate tools that had to be held so carefully. Sometimes the father let the boy play with the parts of some old watch or with a few tools, and pretend that he too was a watchmaker. Thus naturally enough, when the boy became old enough, he took his place beside his father and worked over watches and clocks. By doing this he was unconsciously training himself for his life work. He learned how to hold delicate tools with a light and sure touch, and to do careful work.

As the boy showed considerable skill in delicate work the father took him to a friend of his who was an engraver. "Here's a 16-year-old-lad," the father said, "who can do good work. He'll fix a watch as well as I can. Put him at your work and I know you'll find him a good worker."

The old engraver was friendly and helpful, and in a short time taught the boy the art of engraving. In a few years the young man set out for himself as an engraver. He was still a very young man when he made himself famous by his clever engraving of Trumbull's great picture.

"The Declaration of Independence" made Durand famous, and he found more work than he could perform.

Wishing to rise to something better than engraving he devoted himself to painting, and made portraits of many of the great people of the United States. Later in life he turned his attention to painting pictures of beautiful scenes, and in this also he achieved fame. He lived to the great age of 90 years, enjoying his fame, but always making the effort to do something better than he had.



CHILD TRAINING

A MODEL CHILD
Marion Brownfield

Every mother hopes that her child will be a model child, and some secretly think that theirs are models, although they are apt to add that they "don't expect children to be perfect!" But we quote a wise old French philosopher, "Children need models rather than critics." When we come to sift the matter down a model child needs a model mother.

A school teacher readily recognizes those children whose mothers are "on their job" for well-behaved children come from such homes. And while school teachers, friends and relatives have influence with children, the mother's influence is first, nearest and most personal. The hand that tucks the cover in at night is more intimate than the one which corrects the arithmetic paper!

Of course the conscientious mother teaches her child honesty, kindliness, charity, thrift, good manners and many other details of good character and breeding. But the model child is not conscious of such teaching, the model mother teaches by example. Children being extremely imitative naturally, observe and copy whatever is close at hand. The model mother does not say, "Respect your elders," she goes out of her way, herself, to show deference to the grandparents, and the children unconsciously take the cue in their manners toward old age.

If a mother's voice is sweet and gentle, children are far less likely to snarl at each other. If she is scrupulous about paying bills and giving everyone his due, the model child likewise scorns to cheat.

When a mother permits no waste in the kitchen, keeps clothes neatly mended, brushed and cleaned, the model child, though he does not become faultless at once—this is too much to expect—has nevertheless the idea of thrift and orderliness very firmly fixed for the rest of his life.

Children of course, need direction and advice, which can be suggested in a friendly, tactful way. But the model child is really the result of a model mother—for above all "Children need models rather than critics."

BY-PRODUCT OF PULP MILLS USED TO SURFACE STREETS

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Through the use of an industrial by-product which has hitherto been wasted, Stockholm is henceforth to be made a dust-free city.

After conclusive tests the authorities have discovered that by sprinkling streets or roadways that are either macadamized or unpaved with the lye in which woodpulp has been dissolved, they become coated with a resilient substance which holds the dust down even in heavy traffic. At first the streets so treated are a bit sticky, but as soon as the liquid has evaporated the residue forms a brown coating that in many respects excels crude oil or any tar-like substance. The slight odor also disappears very quickly. In the past the pulp mills have been in the habit of pouring this chemical laden liquor away.

In the suburbs of Stockholm a piece of roadway has been treated with the new liquid every two weeks, and now the surface is smooth and hard as though coated with some kind of asphalt.

Norwegian Eat Whale Meat

OSLO, Norway, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Whale meat is a popular form of human nourishment among the poorer classes of Norway. During the spring months large quantities of this food was shipped to Trondhjem, Bergen and Oslo. Only the best and most tender portions are selected for human consumption.

When you lose a friend by lending him a small sum of money you get the best of the bargain.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

THIS IS THE LAST THURSDAY WE SHALL CLOSE IN THE AFTERNOON. BEGINNING WITH SEPT. 10TH WE WILL CLOSE AT THE REGULAR TIME—6 P. M.

Four-Day Sale of
REMNANTS

A FINAL END-OF-THE-SEASON CLEAN-UP OF ALL SHORT LENGTHS, ODD PIECES, BROKEN LINES, ETC., OF SILKS, DRESS GOODS AND WASH GOODS

In 1 to 5-yard lengths
Approximately One-Half Below Usual Prices.

Here are attractive materials in desirable lengths to successfully carry out this season's conception of the modes for things that relate to Frocks.

So varied is the assortment in the kind of materials represented we cannot begin to name them all.

All Offered at Prices That Spell Big Savings

MAGNETIC VALUES FOR WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Summer Dresses
The balance of Summer Dresses, consisting of Silk and Cotton, several different styles, all up-to-the-minute models, values $10.00— CHOICE $5.00

Men's and Boys' Shop
Men's Fine Quality Rayon Silk Socks, fancy colors, 75c value— 55c, or 2 for $1.00
Men's Brodi Soisette Union Suits, regular $2.00—Each. $1.59
Rocking Chair Union Suits, regular $1.50—Each $1.00
Nainsook Union Suits, 75c grade—2 for $1.00
Boys' Fine Percale Blouses, all neat patterns, "Model" make— SPECIAL 69c
Boys' Fine Quality Percale Shirts, also Oxfords, collar attached and neckband styles, values $1.50— Each $1.00

SILK UNDERARM BAGS— SPECIAL 79c
NATIONAL FACE POWDER, made in France, of the finest and purest ingredients, regular 50c— For 19c
BODY POWDER, good quality, regular 50c—For 39c
WILSMAH FASTENER, black or white, regular 10c—For 7c or 4 for 25c
Cameo Extra Lisle Elastic, 1-4 inch, 6 yards piece— Piece 19c

Downstairs
TRIANGLE POLISH MOP—for cleaning and polishing hardwood floors, painted floors, linoleums, has adjustable hardwood handle—For..... 59c
FRUIT JARS
Atlas E Z Seal
One-half Pints—Dozen 84c
Pints—Dozen 94c
WINDOW SCREENS
Three sizes at special prices:
18x33—For 49c
24x33—For 59c
24x37—For 65c

The Norwich Savings Society
Incorporated 1824.
"A Century of Service."

DEPOSITS MADE ON OR BEFORE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, WILL BE ENTITLED TO INTEREST OR DIVIDENDS FROM SEPTEMBER 1.

LIBERTY BOND COUPONS DUE SEPTEMBER 15, WILL BE ACCEPTED ON DEPOSIT AS CASH.

BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, DIVIDENDS WILL BE CREDITED QUARTERLY—OCTOBER 1, JANUARY 1, APRIL 1, JULY 1.

GAS in Stomach Hurts the Heart

Thousands of Cases of Heart Failure Are Caused by Acute Indigestion, Says Medical Writer

Gas pressure from sour, acid, upset stomach is not only nauseating and highly uncomfortable but some day it may prove fatal!

When your meals are followed by bloating, a feeling of fullness or pressure, shortness of breath and pains around the heart, you may be sure that the acid condition of your stomach is producing a GAS that is pushing upwards and crowding your heart. That's the reason for the shortness of breath and sharp, shooting pains.

Whether young or old, the presence of stomach gas is truly serious and should always be given prompt and careful attention.

To quickly banish gas, cleanse and sweeten the stomach, neutralize the acidity—nothing is better than the daily or "as needed" use of ordinary Bisurated Magnesia. It gives almost instant relief.

Any good druggist can supply Bisurated Magnesia, in powder or tablet form, at very small cost—but be sure you get BISURATED Magnesia—recommended by Doctors and Druggists throughout the civilized world for more than 13 years.

NO MORE PILES

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonhardt, the Physician Who Discovered This Common Sense Remedy

If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonhardt's HEMROID.

This Doctor's treatment is internal. By experimenting for years he discovered the exact cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause.

Dr. Leonhardt wants every sufferer to benefit by his discovery and so that there will be no doubting or delay, Lee & Osgood and all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will do as stated or money back.

On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID today.

SIMPLE MIXTURE FOR GAS ON STOMACH

Simple buckthorn bark, magnesium sulph. c. p., glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, helps any case gas on the stomach, unless due to deep-seated causes. The pleasant and QUICK action will surprise you. Because Adlerika is such an excellent intestinal evacuant it is wonderful for constipation—it often works in one hour and never gripes. Engler's Broadway Pharmacy, Cor. Broadway & Main St. In Taftville at Benoit's Pharmacy.

ICE BY WIRE
With
SERV-EL
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION

The modern, convenient, economical, dependable, electric refrigerating system that is rapidly taking the place of the old cake of ice method. Investigate it.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.
135-143 Main Street, Norwich
224-236 Bank Street, New London

Is a bad skin your handicap? Resinol reduces blotches, redness, roughness, etc. and promotes skin health
Resinol

HAVILAND GETS LOW GROSS AT BROOKLAWN

NEW BRITAIN, Sept. 2—Paul Haviland, of Brooklawn today won the prize for low gross of 36 holes in the last of the one day tournaments of the Connecticut Golf association, when he turned in a 148 for the day's play at Shuttle Meadow. By winning today Mr. Haviland will have his name inscribed a second time on the trophy offered to the player winning at three of the tournaments. He won last week at Brooklawn.

Late today it could not be learned whether or not the trophy would be awarded this summer, as W. J. Sweeney, of Shuttle Meadow who won two of the tournaments, tied with two others to get his name on the trophy a third time. Mr. Sweeney and W. K. Reid, of Farmington tied for second today with a low gross of 151.

Some of the songs without words would be made divine—by omitting the music also.

FLY-TOX
Every Bottle GUARANTEED
Developed at Madison Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Fellowship

FLY-TOX will not stain. Has pleasant odor. Harmless to humans and animals. Easy and pleasant to use.
Trial sprayer free with each small bottle. Money back if it does not kill.
Half-pints, 50c; Pints, 75c; Quarts, $1.25.
Sold at all Retail Stores
KILLS FLIES, MOTHS, MOSQUITOES, ANTS, FLEAS, BED BUGS, ANTS

Norwich Thursday, Sept. 3, 1925

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 6.49 (S. T.) this evening.

The mercury kept below 52 degrees during Wednesday and there was a cooling breeze.

The town schools of North Stonington are to open Sept. 8. Wheeler school will open Sept. 15.

Daboll's almanac predicts showers for Friday—and all hope the prediction may prove true.

Today's half holiday will end that privilege for Norwich merchants and their clerks for this season.

Supt. John C. Donovan of the Street Department has the city parks cleaned of leaves, Wednesday afternoon.

The scallop season has arrived. Very shortly they will be appearing on the menus of the hotels and restaurants.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Cole of Stonington will leave this week for Europe where they will spend the winter.

Noted among recent guests at the Andrea, Pleasant View are Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Buckley and family of Norwich.

There will be the usual rush of shoppers this (Thursday) morning to take advantage of the special bargains.

Mrs. Albert Miner has closed the Norwich Town House at Willimantic Camp ground and has returned to home.

John Rirracre who is employed in Plainfield at the Lawton Inn has been at his home in Central Village for a short time.

Next Sunday at the Central Baptist church, Rev. Dr. Pitt will be with his people again. The Lord's supper will be observed.

A marriage license has been issued in Hartford to Nathan Santer of New London, and Bessie Weisman, No. 222 Pleasant street, Hartford.

Bobbed Hair looks wonderful with the tiny tint of Golden Glint Shampoo.—adv.

The summer church schedule for those churches which take vacations has ended and pastors will occupy their own pulpits the coming Sunday.

While schools in some of the outlying districts have opened the fall term, the majority of the schools will begin the year Tuesday after Labor Day.

Regular meeting Mercier Assembly, C. L. of C., tonight, 8 o'clock.—adv.

Harry Lewis, master of Hope Valley grange, and the grange secretary, Mrs. Nellie Burdick, attended the recent lecturers' conference held at Storrs college.

F. B. Green is making many improvements to his residence in Laysville, having a new chimney with a large fireplace, new porch and dormer windows added.

Wednesday evening's census at Norwich State Hospital showed a total of 1983 patients, 1008 males and 974 females. For several days recently the total was over 2,000.

At the Norwich Central Fire station the privet hedge has been nicely clipped, the grass plot is well kept, and asters, hydrangeas, dahlias and morning glories are blooming.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Heywood of Moosup and Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Chamberlain of Norwich have been on a motor camping trip to the White Mts., Quebec and points north.

Families that have boys on the ships will be represented in New York from Sept. 5-18, when one of the largest fleets seen there since the war will arrive, for the celebration of American Legion Week.

Rev. Charles C. Creegan of Northfield, Vt., has declined the call to its pastorate, tendered him by North Stonington Congregational church, his present charge being unwilling to part with him.

Sale and cafeteria supper, Drop In Class, lawn, 1st Cong'l. Chapel, Norwich Town, 5-8 p. m., Friday, Sept. 5 public invited.—adv.

Furs in most demand for the higher-priced coats have been of the light colored variety, while for the cheaper garments all types are wanted, but particularly such pelts as mandels and French conies.

Touring parties continue to run through Norwich, some of the cars equipped with everything from a swinging hammock for the baby to complete kitchenette outfits, for roadside camping.

Men repairing the chimney on the Martin House, on Lower Broadway, let some of the bricks fall in a very dangerous fashion, Wednesday noon. People on the walk below protested in emphatic terms.

Eight institutes are to be held in this state under the auspices of the Connecticut Agricultural College, with the added conference feature, and topics of vital interest to tobacco growers under discussion.

Robert Kelley of West Colt street, New London has resumed his duties at the Groton branch of the New London post office afer 10 days' vacation returning from a motor tour through New York state and Canada.

The new yacht Flavia II built for Joseph F. Joseph of Stonington at Morris Heights has arrived this week. She is 75 feet over all and built on the model of the Flavia, the former boat owned by Mr. Joseph.

The demand for balbriggan garments continues a feature of the buying of knitted outerwear merchants here say. Most factors engaged in their production are of the opinion that this vogue will last through the fall and into next spring.

The places of the families who have felt it necessary to return to their homes for the first of the fall months have for the most part been filled by late vacationists, some of whom plan to remain at Pleasant View well into October.

The planet Mars, which has been too close to the sun to be seen for some weeks, will be in conjunction with the sun on September 13. It will be at its greatest distance from the earth on September 4, when it will be about 247,800 miles away.

After 45 years continuous service with the White, Corbin & Co., division of the United States Envelope Co., Martin Laubscher of Rockville, retired Sept. 1st and plans to take life easy. Mr. Laubscher has been assistant manager of the Rockville division.

NORWICH WOMAN LOST PURSE FROM AUTOMOBILE

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 2—Mrs. Rose Ram, 341 West Thames street, Norwich, operated her automobile to New London this afternoon and in passing the vicinity of Main and Williams street, her purse containing about $8 dropped from the car. The loss of the purse was not discovered until a few minutes later and a report of it was made by Mrs. Ram to the police.

No, Cordelia, mops and brushes are not made from scrub oak.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Ruel M. Hyde of Willimantic has as a guest, Miss Mary McClure of Norwich.

A. W. Buchanan of Mansfield is spending his vacation in Northern Vermont, visiting his sister at Island Pond.

Attorney Austin A. King has returned to New Haven after a month's vacation with his parents on Ward street.

Miss Mary A. O'Neil of Division street, is spending her vacation with friends in New London, Saybrook and at Lord's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Powers left Wednesday by auto for a two weeks vacation in Canada.

Mrs. Mary Kingberger and daughter Mary of Fitchville have been visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Albert Clark of South Coventry.

Mrs. Ernest L. Mills and four daughters of 80 School street are spending a week at Saybrook. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Baker.

Miss Viola Reed and Miss Helen Biggins of Stonington, have left for Springfield, Mass., where they will attend Bay Path institute.

Mrs. Bertha Brewster of Providence has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. King, Ward street and of Mrs. George Draper, No. 95 River avenue.

James W. Moore, a student at the General Electric engineering school at West Lynn, Mass., is spending a week's vacation at his home, No. 264 West Main street.

R. S. Amidon, who has been a patient in the Hartford Hospital for several weeks, will return to his home, in Scotland today (Thursday) slightly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Prentice of Cliff street and son Roger W. Champion of Old Lyme, Ct., have returned from a three weeks trip by auto to the White Mountains, visiting Bethlehem, N. H., Poland Springs, Portland and the Maine beaches.

REPORTED ON MILWAUKEE LUTHER LEAGUE CONVENTION

An address on the Milwaukee convention by Ernest French, missionary secretary of the state Lutheran League, featured the meeting of the Luther League of the German Lutheran church on Franklin street Wednesday evening. The meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Elizabeth Steizner.

Mr. French, who is located in Hartford, spoke in an interesting way of the Milwaukee convention held July 7th, 8th and 9th, which he attended as a state delegate from Connecticut. Mr. French spoke of the success of the convention turned out to be, of the large delegations from all over the country, of the prominent speakers who were heard by the delegates and of the excellent financial condition in which the national league finds itself. He spoke of new leagues organized in South Carolina, Porto Rico, Southern California, Texas and other places.

The speaker told of the various departmental activities of the Luther League. Bible study and reading courses in good books feature the educational department. Mr. French explained the object of the missionary department, the intermediate department and of the junior department. He said the Connecticut leagues must get busy and compete with the activities of the leagues in other states.

At the conclusion of his talk refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO CHARGE OF ARSON

Ralph Yzzo pleaded not guilty to arson in the superior court here Wednesday morning where he was presented before Judge L. B. Nickerson. He elected to be tried by the court and his case will be the second to be tried next Tuesday.

Yzzo and his wife Annie owned a house on Bromley street which he is accused of setting fire to on July 29, 1925. The building was totally destroyed. He had insurance of $4,000 on the place, of which the New London County Mutual fire insurance Co. carried $3,000 in four policies and the Boston Insurance Co. had a policy for $1,000.

Ralph Divito acted as Italian interpreter when Yzzo was put to plea and Attorney C. L. Stewart was counsel for the accused man.

WEDDING
Caffery-Desmond

At St. Joseph's Memorial church Wednesday morning, Thomas Michael Caffery of 60 Prospect street, son of the late John F., and Annie E. Kirby Caffery, and Miss Katherine V. Desmond, daughter of Jeremiah H. and Bridget Haley Desmond of this city, were united in marriage by Rev William A. Keefe, pastor of the church. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends of the couple present. Miss Elizabeth Malone presided at the organ and Miss Sadie Driscoll sang Ave Maria.

The bridesmaid was Miss Mary C. Desmond, sister of the bride and the best man was William H. Harrington. The bride was charming in white chiffon over white satin and wore a veil trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was gowned in peach bloom georgette and carried a bouquet of gladioli. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, No. 129 Cliff street.

The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts. She is a graduate of St. Patrick's school, attended the Norwich Free Academy and graduated from the Norwich Business College. For the past several years she has been employed as a bookkeeper for Forbes, Greiner and Kane of this city. Mr. Caffery is a graduate of St. Mary's school and is employed as salesman for the New London branch of Armour and Co. Following their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Caffery will reside at No. 129 Cliff street.

OBITUARY
Mrs. Farrell Smith

Mrs. Ellen Smith, 81, of 55 High street, Mystic, died Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock at her residence after an illness extending over a period of several months. Mrs. Smith was born in County Cavan, Ireland, in March, 1844, and was the daughter of the late James and Bridget Smith. She was the widow of Farrell Smith of Mystic and Mrs. Smith had been a resident of Mystic for the past 35 years. She is survived by two sons, Patrick and Farrell Smith, and a daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith, all of Mystic.

Mrs. John E. O'Flaherty

Mrs. Ann (Reid) O'Flaherty, widow of John E. O'Flaherty, died at her home, No. 22 Winchester street, Hartford, Wednesday morning. She leaves two sons, James R. O'Flaherty and John A. O'Flaherty of Hartford; four sisters, Mrs. George W. Boyle of Southbridge, Mass., and the Misses Catherine, Mary and Margaret Reid of South Glastonbury, and four brothers, James Reid of South Glastonbury, John Reid of Rockville, Michael Reid of Stafford Springs and Nicholas J. Reid of Norwich.

The first anniversary high mass of requiem for Mrs. Mary Foley was sung in St. Patrick's church, Wednesday at 8 o'clock by the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May.

GREENEVILLE MAN'S LEG BROKEN WHEN STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Benjamin Pyzo, 19, of 7 White St., suffered a broken left leg and other injuries when he was struck by an automobile Wednesday night about 9 o'clock on North Main street near Erin street and the driver of the car that hit him, Edward L. Popham of 306 Laurel Hill avenue, has been summoned to appear in the city court to answer to the charge of reckless driving.

James E. Carey of 235 North Main street, who was driving the Ford roadster of Thomas J. Dingivan of 36 Spalding street, had stopped the car on the westerly side of North Main street in front of a disabled machine to which he and Dingivan were preparing to attach a rope to tow it. Both machines were headed towards the city.

Popham came along from Greeneville driving the Ford touring car of William J. Zahaba, of 57 Sturtevant avenue and struck the left rear mudguard of the Dingivan machine, at the same time knocking Pyzo off the running board of the Dingivan car and knocking down Carey who was standing in the street. The force of the blow knocked Pyzo some distance and it was reported that his head was run over by the machine Popham was driving. Popham slammed on the brakes and his machine slid a considerable distance along the concrete roadway, smashing its left front wheel and axle and the right front wheel.

Just about this time the police patrol wagon was on its way to Greeneville and Officers McAvoy and Quinn commandeered a passing automobile in which they sent Pyzo to the Backus hospital, while they took Popham, Carey and Dingivan to police headquarters to make a report on the accident. Capt. Thomas Murphy found grounds to summon Popham on the charge of reckless driving.

Some one summoned the Backus hospital ambulance but it arrived when Pyzo was already on the way to the hospital.

At the hospital it was found that Pyzo's left leg was broken in the upper part of the thigh and he also had a five-inch gash in the back of his head. An X-ray is to be taken to determine whether there is a possible fractured skull.

Mr. Carey sustained a cut on his right knee.

GETS RELEASE FROM NORWICH STATE HOSPITAL

In habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Leonard B. Nickerson in the superior court here Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, standard time, William Daniels of the town of Groton obtained his release from the Norwich state hospital to which he was recently committed as an insane patient.

Paul B. Lamphere of the town of Groton was the applicant for the writ of habeas corpus, which directed the hospital authorities to produce the patient Daniels before the superior court judge. In swearing to the writ before B. H. Hewitt as a commissioner, Mr. Lamphere stated that he believed Daniels was illegally confined and deprived of his liberty.

Replying to the order of the court to show cause why Daniels was confined in the institution, Dr. Elijah Burdsall, assistant superintendent, answered that the man was detained for treatment by virtue of a temporary committal issued by A. H. Myers, a physician of Mystic, issued in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 310 of the public acts of 1921 or of Chapter 75 of the public acts of 1923.

A copy of the commitment was as follows:

A. H. Myers, M. D.
Mystic, Conn., Aug. 26, 1925.

Dr. Wilcox,
Norwich, Ct
Dear Doctor:

This is to certify that I have seen Mr. William J. Daniels and find he is mentally deranged and unfit to be at large. I recommend that he be placed in the Retreat.

Very Truly Yours,
A. H. MYERS.

The reply of Mr. Lamphere, through his attorney, B. H. Hewitt, was as follows:

1. That said committal is void on its face because in said committment as set forth in Exhibit 1 it appears that the doctors statement was not sworn to.

2. That said committal is void on its face because it appears from said Exhibit 1 that the physician did not certify that after a personal examination made not more than three days prior thereto, he was of the opinion that the person named herein was in need of immediate treatment and give the reasons therefore.

3. That the said physician did not personally examine the said William Daniels within three days of said certificate.

4. That the said William Daniels is not a person who has suddenly become clearly and violently insane.

5. The confinement of said William Daniels is contrary to the provisions of this state and of the United States.

Judgment Given

Judge Nickerson issued the following judgment in the case:

This petition for a writ of habeas corpus was brought by Paul Lamphere as a friend of William Daniels alleging that said William Daniels was and for many days had been confined in Norwich state hospital for the insane by Franklin S. Wilcox, the superintendent thereof or by Elijah Burdsall, the assistant superintendent thereof. The writ was issued and served on the assistant superintendent, Elijah Burdsall, who complied with the writ and produced the said William Daniels before me and made return as on file; and the said Paul Lamphere replied thereto as on file, and the parties were at issue as on file.

The court having heard the parties finds the issue for the petitioner and it is therefor adjudged that the said William Daniels be and he hereby is discharged from custody.

LEONARD J. NICKERSON,
A judge of the superior court.

CONNECTICUT LEADER IN SALES OF LIME

Connecticut, one of the twenty-two leading lime producing states of the country held seventeenth place in the country and third place in New England in the amount of lime sold last year, according to figures issued Wednesday by the department of commerce at Washington. Total sales of lime in the country show a reduction of less than one per cent. from the 1923 figures.

Connecticut's total sales of lime last year amounted to 58,851 short tons valued at $796,541, of which 56,345 short tons valued at $774,453 were for building purposes.

Massachusetts led the New England states and was seventh in the country with sales totaling, 194,402 short tons valued at $2,693,028. Ohio led the country with 934,407 short tons, sold at $9,511,270.

ROBINSON-MANNING FAMILY REUNION IN FRANKLIN

One hundred and seventeen people met as one family, Saturday, Aug. 29 at the Robinson-Manning family reunion held at the Old Homestead, the home of E. Ray Manning situated on the Lebanon Franklin road. The day was all that could be desired for the very pleasant occasion, guests were present not only from the home state but from Massachusetts, Vermont and Rhode Island. The ages of those present ranged from three weeks old to the mature years of seventy eight. A basket lunch was served at noon, games were enjoyed, and the happy hours were spent in a social time.

Workmen's Compensation

Four workmen's compensation agreements as follows have been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donohue:

Ashland Cotton Co., Jewett City, employer and Macy Miss, employe, palm lacerated, July 25, at rate of $12.91.

New London Ship & Engine Co., Groton employe, and O. Haahti, employe, hernia, June 1, at rate of $17.33; R. Penello, New London, employe, contusion of knee, July 21, at rate of $7.76; F. Scanion, New London, employe, fracture of knee cap, June 29, at rate of $11.00.

INCOME TAX PAYMENTS IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT

Included among the income tax payments in eastern Connecticut, according to lists opened at the Hartford office of the U. S. internal revenue bureau are the following:

Col. W. Ellery Allyn, Waterford, $13.13.

Benjamin A. Armstrong, New London, $12,161.32.

Annie C. Atwood, Stonington, $2,535.64.

Alice S. T. Barlow, New London $5,193.40.

Theodore Bodenwein, New London, $3,241.85.

William Booth, New London, $703.67.

William M. Chapman, New London, $271.41.

Mayor and Mrs. Waldo E. Clarke, New London, $12.65.

Senator Daniel M. Cronin, New London, $79.32.

Anna O. Mitchell, New London, $35,138.27.

John Porteous, Norwich, $20,938.37

Frederick W. Mercer, New London, $15,803.89.

Judge Walter C. Noyes, Old Lyme $24,541.93.

George C. Davison, New London $3,262.18.

Thomas B. Enders, Mystic, $8,067.85.

Catherine Farnam, New London $11,306.33.

James E. Fitzgerald, New London $2,351.96.

Will H. Foote, Lyme, $1,119.15

Congressman Richard P. Freeman New London, $104.94.

Mrs. Gertrude Gale estate, Norwich $673.52.

Capt. E. R. Geer, New London $294.82.

Walter S. Garde, New Haven, $125.87.

William Gillette, Hadlyme, $30.54.

E. H. Hellyar, Norwichtown, $1,063.07.

Attorney C. Hadlai Hull, New London, $194.72.

Frances O. Jones, New London, $2,161.97.

Ralph D. Keeney, Lyme, $1,127.21

Harry M. Land, Norwich, $209.76

James W. Latrop, Mystic, $6,711.44

Walter Lewis, New London, $8,212.53.

Katharine Ludington, Lyme, $5,629.07.

U. S. Commissioner Earl Mathewson, Norwich, $10,56.

Cornelia Palmer, New London, $2,094.53.

George S. Palmer, New London, $8,620.80.

Louisa T. Palmer, New London, $4,766.58.

Theodora Palmer, New London, $4,064.52.

Virginia Palmer, New London, $3,921.55.

Maj. Gen. Morris B. Payne, New London, $49.68.

Jacob Munz, Norwich, $16,182.93.

Robert W. Perkins, Norwich, $217.33

State Treasurer Ernest E. Rogers, New London, $212.09.

T. A. Scott, New London, $3,702.53

Charles D. White, Norwich, $2,051.11.

Joseph C. Worth, Norwich, $246.39.

John B. Byrne, Putnam, $32.

Elbert L. Darble, Danielson, $5.28.

Alice H. Hall, South Willington, $2,108.27.

Rosa O. Hall, South Willington, $3,048.07.

Oliver L. Johnson, Norwich, $10,855.28.

Eleanor V. Murray, Pomfret Center $6,670.

Angus C. Park, Stafford Springs $1,881.14.

William Park, Stafford, $9,771.91.

William G. Park, Hanover, $208.37

Charles B. Pinney, Stafford Springs $1,065.55.

Sabin S. Russell, Danielson, $425.19

J. H. Valentine, Stafford Springs, $3,856.26.

Silas M. Wheelock, Putnam, $114.51

Hiram S. Whipple, Putnam, $44.35

Corporations

C. B. Cottrell & Sons, Pawcatuck $60,585.

Conencticut Power Co., New London, $41,850.91.

Atwood Machine Co., Stonington, $21,492.81.

Crocker Hotel Corp., New London, $76.83.

Eastern Connecticut Power Co., Norwich, $3,623.40.

Merchants National Bank, Norwich, $1,415.36.

Mystic River National Bank, Mystic, $233.74.

Mystic Woolen Co., Mystic, $7,823.07

National Bank of Commerce, New London, $1,696.95.

National Whaling Bank, New London, $2,360.70.

New London Northern Railroad Co., New London, $18,541.26.

New London Ship and Engine Co., and subsidiaries, Groton, $13,159.17.

Palmer Bros., New London, $28,479.72.

Thames National Bank, Norwich, $8,710.68.

Uncas National Bank, Norwich, $723.12.

Union Bank and Trust Co., New London, $2,745.35.

Fabyan Woolen Co. Stafford Springs, $12,521.71.

The Floyd Cranska Co., Moosup, $18,806.13.

E. H. Jacobs Mfg. Co., Danielson $3,426.28.

Cyril Johnson Woolen Co., Stafford Springs, $16,354.66.

Killingly Trust Co., Danielson, $66.28

Natchaug Industrial Co., Willimantic, $61.93.

Paris Water Co., Putnam, $922.70.

Smith & Winchester, Mfg. Co., Windham, $6,667.74.

Tubridy Weldon Co., Willimantic, $448.97.

Moran Woolen Co., Stafford Springs, $28,833.24.

Whipple and Gilpatric Corporation, Putnam, $966.

Willimantic Machine Co., Willimantic, $426.52.

Windham Silk Co., Willimantic, $1,862.80.

New Beauty Cream Gives Lovely Complexion

Amazing new kind of cream quickly gives the texture and appearance of a wild rose petal. You'll notice a startling change the moment you put it on. The effect is lasting—you cannot wash it off. Whitens, nourishes, purifies. Can be left on all night or used as a powder base. Not a bit sticky or oily. Get this new wonderful beauty cream called Mello-glo and try it. Porteous & Mitchell Co.

DEATH RATE LOW IN NEW ENGLAND CITIES

New England cities make a gratifying showing in a comparison of the death rates for sixty-six cities of the country included in the department of commerce's weekly health index chart for the week ending August 22, according to figures issued recently. Death rates in all New England cities with the exception of Boston, Cambridge and Providence, were below the average for the country, and the exceptions fell considerably below the highest death rate for the country.

New Haven had the lowest death rate among New England cities surveyed, 6.7 per 1,000, as compared with the average for the country, 10.8 per cent. New Bedford, Mass., followed the Nutmeg state city, reporting 7.7 deaths per 1,000, while another Bay State city, Fall River, took third place, with a rate of 8.2.

Lynn and Lowell, Mass., claimed fourth and fifth places, respectively, with death rates of 8.5 and 9.4 per 1,000. Then came Springfield, with a rate of 9.6, followed by Worcester whose rate was 10.0.

Providence, R. I., reported the highest rate for the New England cities surveyed, 12.1, followed by Boston with a rate of 11.4, and Cambridge with 10.3.

The highest death rate for the country was 20.9 for Memphis, Tenn., and the lowest, 3.9 per cent. for Des Moines.

Bridgeport, Conn., reported twenty-five deaths during the week received and Waterbury, Conn., twelve, but no rate is given for these two cities, pending a more satisfactory establishment of population figures as stated.

CLASSES FOR ADULTS AT HEBREW INSTITUTE

Officials of the Norwich Hebrew Institute [illegible] announced that with the beginning of the new school season there are [illegible] The new year opens September 14. The course [illegible] complete course in Hebrew [illegible] reading, writing and reading [illegible] in the Bible in Hebrew [illegible] and History, and a course in [illegible] and modern Jewish [illegible] There will also be [illegible] of the Norwich [illegible] Association.

A [illegible] given without [illegible] the department [illegible] Hebrew [illegible] Jewish [illegible] Norwich [illegible] Parker [illegible] Hebrew [illegible] Jewish [illegible] Norwich [illegible] Hebrew [illegible] Jewish [illegible] Norwich [illegible] Hebrew [illegible] Jewish [illegible] Norwich

WATTS GUNN OF ALANTA GOES THREE UNDER PAR FOR 15 CONSECUTIVE HOLES

OAKMONT, Penn., Sept. 2—Favorites of the galleries including the present champion and two former titleholders, won their way through the first day of match play in the national amateur golf championship today—yet there was disappointment in the failure of Roland Mackenzie, 19 year old Washington school boy who led the field of 134 in the qualifying rounds, to overcome Dick Jones of White Plains, N. Y., a rugged youth who has seen many tournaments.

Bobby Jones, victor at Merion a year ago, had no trouble in disposing of the former metropolitan champion Bill Reekie of Montclair, N. J., 11 and 10.

In the same bracket with Jones, George Von Elm of Los Angeles advanced and will encounter Jesse P. Guilford of Boston in the round before the semi-finals tomorrow. Von Elm defeated Little Jimmy Manion of St. Louis at the 16th green in the afternoon, 3 and 2, while Guilford eliminated Eddie Held of St. Louis, former public links and trans-Mississippi champion, 7 and 5 by playing steady and almost unbeatable golf throughout the day except for one bad hole at the start—an eight.

Jones' opponent tomorrow will be the present trans-Mississippi champion Clarence Wolff of Sappington, Mo., who thrilled a small gallery by overcoming a lead of five holes held by Fred Knight of Philadelphia in the morning to win by 2 and 1 in one of the day's desperate struggles.

In the upper half, Jess Sweetser, former champion, eliminated another former champion and the oldest man in the tournament. William C. Fownes, Jr., of Pittsburgh, 8 and 3. At 12 time did Fownes gain the lead but he gave his youthful opponent an excellent battle down the stretch. Sweetser's opponent tomorrow is Watt Gunn of Atlanta, another youthful figure, and the youngster from his showing today in conquering Vincent Bradford of Patterson Heights, Penn., by 12 and 10, may be expected to give his much higher rated opponent a sturdy test.

Today Gunn was two down at the end of his first nine holes, but after he recovered himself on the twelfth he gave an exhibition of consistency such as few have shown on this long course and provided therewith what is believed to be a world's record for consecutive hole victories.

For fifteen straight holes Gunn was three under par and he won every one of them, to receive the enthusiastic greetings of the champion, who is much interested in the boy's career.

The other match tomorrow will find Lauren Upson of the University of California engaging Richard A. Jones as the result of his victory by four and three over the New York state amateur champion, Jack Mackie, Jr., of Inwood.

The remarkable recoveries of Gunn and Wolff were duly applauded yet the gallery, more than 3,000 during the afternoon, crowded the footsteps of the Mackenzie-Jones match, Jones was three up on his adversary at the turn into the last nine and appeared to be well on his way to a rather easy victory, but many in the throng recalled the lad's great showing at Merion last year when he squared Von Elm at the home hole after being eight down, and took after him. His followers were rewarded, for Mackenzie, playing in par halved the 38th and 39th. He captured the 40th and halved the 41st regaining a hole.

A 300 yard drive on the 32nd carried him within twenty yards of the green, and his pitch stopped twelve feet from the cup. Jones was trapped to the right from the tee and his cut was short. On his third he went ten yards beyond the green over a bank. A four won for Mackenzie here and he was one down. Both drove far on the 33rd and both found the green with their approaches but the tension drew three putts from the Washingtonian and he was two down again. At the 34th he was 16 feet from the cup off the tee while his opponent, who was short by fifteen yards, reached in two and required two putts. Mackenzie was done in three for another victory amid the cheers of an enthusiastic gallery.

Sweetser reported his victory over Fownes at this time but little attention was paid to it, there was not the usual whisperings as to who were leading in the other matches, Every person in the huge gallery, packed five deep along the line of play was swinging at every ball just as hard as did the participants.

Mackenzie was one down with two to play. A slice took him into difficulty on the 35th but he recovered perfectly and halved in four, the 36th however, was his undoing, his drive, a long shot, went wide and far into the rough at the right. Yet he pitched to within 25 feet of the pin. Jones had driven straight down and was on in two, several feet nearer the cup. Mackenzie's first putt stopped three feet from the flag and he had stymied his opponent, but Jones played safely, tapping the ball fully two feet off the line purposely. Here Mackenzie faltered and missed his easy putt, to drop out of the tournament.

Jones shot a 76 and 78 for 154 against 82 and 78 a total of 160, for Mackenzie, who led the qualifiers with 143, two strokes ahead of Bobby Jones and Jesse Guilford.

Gunn, the 140 pound Atlanta, gave no indication when he started against Bradford that he had any designs on records. His first contribution was a six and his nervousness was apparent, he gained the second hole with a par four, then lost two straight in figures over par, his drives wandering through the sand, at the turn he was two down. At the tenth a hook into the traps cost him one over par figures and he was three behind. The men halved the eleventh in fives and then Gunn squared away for a battle royal with the long twelfth as the objective. His offensive evidently startled Bradford, for the Pennsylvanian started a survey of the sand which is copious in that territory and eventually reported a seven against the par five of the southerner. With the taste of victory his clubs began to perform in championship style and he reeled off threes and fours with regularity for the next fifteen holes, extraordinary pitches, long putts, immense drives—and all without a gallery of any size. It is safe to say, however, that when Gunn and Sweetser clash tomorrow even the champion is very likely to be disregarded.

His victorious fifteen straight holes and those of his opponent, together with par, follow:

Par 5 3 4 4 3 4 4 5 4 4 5 4 3 4 3—55
Gunn—
5 3 4 4 3 5 3 4 4 4 5 4 3 4 3—56
Bradford—
7 4 6 5 4 4 5 6 5 5 6 5 3 6 4—75

Wolff, five down in the morning round, had squared the match when the turn was reached in the afternoon by shooting a 39 against Knight's poor showing of 44. The Philadelphian, a veteran of golf, seemed to go to pieces entirely once his adversary threatened and had a seven and five fives during the nine while Wolff captured two birdies. From this point Wolff drove through eight holes to victory in par style, registering six fours, a five and a three.

Only one veteran remains in the upper bracket tonight—Jess Sweetser—and the most of the serious warfare of the next two days is expected to come from the lower side, where Jones, providing he does the expected and eliminates Wolff tomorrow must face the winner of the Guilford-Von Elm struggle, destined to be the day's feature.

Guilford has shown a return to his old form through the qualifying rounds, where he placed in a tie with Bobby Jones for second and throughout his match today. He finished the qualifying with 147 and today he returned cards of 35, 41 and 37 and on his four other holes before the match ended had 4-4-4-3. Von Elm also has been going well, with a position in the middle of the qualifying list and 40-37—40 for his three complete nines in today's match play.

MOOSUP WILL SEE ACTION DESPITE JEWETT CITY TEAM

(Special to the Bulletin.)

MOOSUP, Conn., Sept. 2—The article in the Norwich Bulletin Wednesday morning concerning the cancelling of the Moosup-Jewett City game, by Spike Liberty, caused considerable feeling in this town, where the true facts of the case are known.

Three weeks ago Manager Loughran of the Moosup team and Spike Liberty, who represented Jewett City, decided to play a three game contest. Manager Loughran wanted the charge to be 50 cents while Liberty held out for 35 cents, the price of baseball in Jewett City. The contest was to go two out of three games. A guarantee of $100 a side was also agreed upon.

Manager Loughran went away and signed up a bunch of fast ball players having all but two ready to announce Thursday. In the meantime a Moosup business man talked with Spike Liberty and informed Manager Loughran that 35 cents was to be the price of admission. Manager Loughran agreed that Jewett City could charge 35 cents for the game in Jewett City, but that he would charge 50 cents in Moosup. He also suggested raising the guarantee to $125 a side. In case of a tie a coin should be tossed to select the field for the final game and here is where the catch came in and Liberty turned down the series. Manager Loughran, feeling that the third game, if one were necessary, belonged to one team as well as the other and he would not play it for the 35 cent price.

As a result of this he received a telegram from Liberty to the effect that Jewett City couldn't raise the price of admission or the guarantee and that the Jewett City players refused to play Moosup.

Manager Loughran then made a trip to Jewett City to endeavor to arrange a settlement and go on with the series. He offered Jewett City the game for Sept. 20th and would take the second game in October. This Jewett City refused and there was nothing left but to cancel the series.

The cancelling of the series left manager Loughran with a team all signed for next Sunday but he cannot use them because the Carpet Grounds are occupied by a boys team that day by consent of the owners.

Manager Loughran had signed for the opening game of the Jewett City series the following powerful lineup: Davis or King Bader, pitch; Johnny Halloran, ex-captain of Prov. College, catch; Frechette, first; Ray Doyle, second on the Prov. College team, second; Cote of Holy Cross, shortstop; Shorty Faulkner, third; Stubbs of the Sub-base, left field; Lee Morrissey, Holy Cross flash, center field and Allard or Kendricks, right field.

This aggregation was all signed for the cancelled Jewett City series but as the series is now called off Manager Loughran will open the local season on Sunday Sept. 20th against some fast team to be announced later, although a series with Jewett City would be accepted even now as there are no hard feelings in Moosup over the dispute on prices and if Jewett City will sign up the series may still be played.

GIANTS CLOUT THIRTY HITS BEATING PHILLIES

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., Sept. 2.—(AP)—New York drew an even break in a double header with Philadelphia today, winning the second game 24 to 9 after the Phillies had captured the opener, 6 to 3.

The second contest developed into a slugging match with the Giants collecting 30 safe hits including three home runs off five Philadelphia pitchers, their biggest inning being the sixth in which nine tallies were scored. The Phillies also made three circuit clouts, all in the eighth. Score:

(First Game.)

New York (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Philadelphia (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Gilhooley,rf	4	2	4	0	0	Sand'rs,ss	3	2	2	3	0
Frisch,2b	4	2	2	3	1	Lesh,rf	4	2	3	0	0
Meusel,rf	4	1	3	0	0	Watson,rf	2	0	0	0	1
Terry,1b	3	2	7	1	0	Barnes,cf	3	0	2	0	0
Kelly,lf	3	0	1	0	0	Bush,1b	3	1	8	0	0
Dalton,3b	4	0	2	1	0	Huber,3b	4	0	2	2	0
Jackson,ss	3	2	1	1	0	Fillmer,2b	3	1	1	4	0
Farrell,ss	0	0	1	0	0	Wilson,c	4	2	8	1	0
Snyder,c	4	0	3	1	0	Ring,p	3	1	0	2	0
Greenfield,p	1	0	0	1	0
Allentoff	0	0	0	0	0	Totals	32	9	27	13	2
Dean,p	0	0	0	0	0
Wisner,p	0	0	0	0	0
xxGrob	1	0	0	0	0
Wisner,p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	10	24	7	2

(x) Batted for Greenfield in 5th.
(xx) Batted for Dean in 7th.
(xxx) Batted for Wisner in 9th.

Score by innings

New York	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	8	—10
Philadelphia	2	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	1	—6

Two base hits, Sand, Meusel. Three base hits, Leach Hunks.

(Second Game.)

New York (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Philadelphia (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Ellsworth,rf	6	4	2	0	0	Sand'rs,ss	5	2	1	0	0
Frisch,2b	4	2	2	2	0	Lesh,rf	4	1	1	0	0
Meusel,rf	6	1	4	0	0	Barnes,lf	4	1	3	0	0
Terry,1b	4	1	13	0	0	Watson,cf	2	1	0	0	0
Kelly,lf	6	2	4	0	0	Williams,rf	1	1	0	0	0
Koehler,lf	1	0	0	0	0	Horner,lf	2	0	1	0	0
Dalton,3b	7	1	0	1	0	Mokan,rf	2	1	0	0	0
Jackson,ss	7	1	2	3	0	Banks,1b	4	2	7	0	0
Farrell,ss	2	2	0	0	0	Bentley,2b	5	2	0	5	0
Deering,c	6	2	2	1	0	Fillmer,2b	4	1	2	2	0
Palm'rm,p	6	2	0	1	0	Wendell,c	2	0	2	1	0
						Ferrier,p	1	1	0	0	0
Totals	58	20	27	8	0	Betts,p	0	0	0	0	0
						Pearce,p	0	0	0	0	0
						Kaighn,p	0	0	0	0	0
						Carlson,p	1	1	0	0	0
						Totals	38	14	27	11	2

Score by innings:

New York	2	0	0	2	4	0	4	1	9	—24
Philadelphia	1	0	1	1	0	0	0	5	1	—9

Two base hits, Frisch 2, Meusel, Terry, Deering, Fitzsimmons, Wrightstone. Home runs, Terry, Lindstrom, Meusel, Williams, Nelson, Carlson.

QUINEBAUG A. A. DEFEATS BROOKLYN, SCORE 16 TO 9

On Sunday afternoon the fast Quinebaug Mill team defeated the Brooklyn team by a score of 16 to 9. Quinebaug is anxious to sign games with Moosup, the American Woolen, Wauregan Grays, Danielson Town team or Mechanicsville.

If any of these teams are interested dates may be secured by getting in touch with J. H. Harvey, 16 South Main street, Danielson, Conn. Open dates for games this season are Sept. 20th and 27th.

The lineup of the Quinebaug A. A. in Sunday's game was as follows: Keech, rf; Deviller, lf; M. Thomas, cf; Gale 1b; Blanchette, 2b; Godreau, 3b; Ragnier, ss; Ashbey, p; Frechette, c.

Today's Calendar of Sports

RACING

Meeting of Westchester Racing Association, at Belmont Park.
Meeting of Connaught Park Jockey Club, at Ottawa.
Meeting of Business Men's Racing Association, at Chicago.
Meeting of Utah Jockey Club opens at Salt Lake City.

TROTTING

Meeting of Grand Circuit at Milwaukee.

GOLF

United States amateur championship tournament, at Pittsburgh.
Michigan Seniors' championship tournament opens at Lansing.

BENCH SHOW

Show of Snohomish County Kennel Club, at Everett, Wash.

TENNIS

Annual invitation tournament at Narragansett Pier, R. I.
Peninsula championship tournament opens at Easton, Md.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

New York 3-24, Philadelphia 6-9.
Brooklyn 2, Boston 4.
Cincinnati 2, Pittsburgh 3.

The Standing

	W	L	Pct
Pittsburgh	75	46	.632
New York	74	58	.561
Cincinnati	67	59	.532
Brooklyn	61	64	.488
St. Louis	60	66	.462
Boston	58	72	.446
Philadelphia	55	71	.437
Chicago	56	72	.438

GAMES TODAY

St. Louis at Pittsburgh.
Cincinnati at Chicago.
New York at Philadelphia.
Brooklyn at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

Philadelphia 5, Washington 8.
Boston 2, New York 4.

The Standing

	W	L	Pct
Washington	81	45	.643
Philadelphia	74	49	.602
Chicago	68	58	.540
St. Louis	66	63	.512
Detroit	64	60	.516
Cleveland	60	68	.469
New York	58	72	.419
Boston	36	90	.286

GAMES TODAY

Chicago at St. Louis.
Detroit at Cleveland.

EASTERN LEAGUE

Springfield 6, New Haven 3.
Bridgeport 1, Waterbury 4.
Worcester 8, Pittsfield 3.
Hartford 10, Albany 3.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Jersey City 5, Toronto 9, (11 innings)
Providence 6, Buffalo 10.
Reading 5, Syracuse 2.
Baltimore 7, Rochester 1.

American Association.

Indianapolis 15-11, Milwaukee 2-9.
Louisville 8-5, Kansas City 3-3.
Toledo 11, St. Paul 16.
Columbus 1, Minneapolis 7.

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

Mobile 10, Chattanooga 7.
Atlanta 2, Memphis 8.
New Orleans 8, Nashville 2. (12 innings, darkness.)
Only three scheduled.

PIRATES WIN EIGHTH CONSECUTIVE VICTORY

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Pittsburgh ran its string of consecutive victories up to eight today in winning the opening game of the series from Cincinnati, 3 to 2. As the Giants split a double bill with Philadelphia the Pirates increased their lead to eight and one-half games. Pete Donohue, usually a Pirate jinx, was driven from the mound in the sixth, in which the locals scored seven runs. Morrison was hit freely, but was given sparkling support. Score:

Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Pittsburgh (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Zitzmann,lf	4	1	1	0	0	Moore,rf	5	2	0	0	0
Pinelli,2b	4	2	1	1	0	Rawlings,2b	4	1	2	3	0
Roush,cf	5	2	1	1	0	Cuyler,cf	4	1	5	1	0
Walker,rf	4	1	1	1	0	Barnhart,lf	3	0	2	0	0
Nicholas,1b	4	1	14	1	0	Traynor,3b	3	0	1	4	0
Veltz,3b	4	0	1	3	0	Wright,ss	3	0	4	4	0
Carey,ss	3	0	3	5	0	Grantham,1b	4	0	11	0	1
Hargrave,c	4	2	1	0	0	Gooch,c	3	1	4	0	0
Donohue,p	3	1	0	1	0	Morrison,p	3	1	0	3	0
Brady,p	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	12	24	17	0	Totals	32	6	27	15	1

Score by innings:

Cincinnati	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0—2
Pittsburgh	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	0—3

Two base hits, Hargrave, Grantham 2, Pinelli. Sacrifice hits, Nicholas, Rawlings, Moore, Gooch. Stolen bases, Wright, Three base hit, Grantham.

COONEY PITCHES FINE GAME FOR BOSTON BRAVES

BOSTON, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The Braves started off with a three run lead in the first inning today and defeated Brooklyn 4 to 3. Johnny Cooney pitched the victory which helped the Boston club tighten its grip on sixth place. Johnston of the Robins hit a home run in the fourth.

Ford and Wilson collided at second base in the fifth and both retired from the game. Score:

Brooklyn (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Boston (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Ford,ss	3	1	1	0	0	Gaitens,3b	3	1	3	4	0
Mitchell,ss	1	0	1	1	0	Wilson,lf	3	1	3	0	0
Mock,3b	4	2	0	4	2	Neis,lf	1	0	1	0	0
Wheat,lf	4	1	2	0	0	Mann,rf	4	0	3	1	0
Fournier,1b	4	2	8	1	0	Harris,1b	4	1	8	0	0
Johnston,rf	4	2	1	0	0	Welch,rf	4	1	0	0	0
Brown,cf	4	0	3	0	0	Padgett,ss	3	1	1	5	1
Taylor,2b	4	0	0	1	0	Ruel,c	3	1	5	1	1
DeBerry,c	3	1	6	1	0	Cooney,p	3	1	1	6	0
Petty,p	2	0	1	3	0	Conroy,p	1	0	1	0	0
xTaylor	1	0	0	0	0
Osborne,p	0	0	0	0	0	Totals	30	7	27	9	2
xxHoyt	1	0	0	0	0
zHargrave	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	9	24	11	2

(x) Batted for Petty in 7th.
(xx) Batted for Osborne in 9th.
(z) Batted for Mitchell in 9th.

Score by innings:

Brooklyn	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	1	—3
Boston	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	1	x	—4

Two base hits, Fournier, DeBerry, Boeckel. Home run, Johnston.

GREB READY TO MEET ALL COMERS IN RING

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Harry Greb, middleweight champion of the world, arrived here today to confer with promoters who seek to match him with Jimmy Slattery of Buffalo, N. Y., in a benefit boxing show at the Polo Grounds on September 23.

Nothing definite on the Slattery bout was agreed upon except that Greb expressed willingness to meet Slattery or any middleweight, light-heavyweight or heavyweight from Mickey Walker to Jack Dempsey. The champion declared, however, that he did not want to box in the week of the World Series.

Greb appeared little the worse from his recent auto accident in Pittsburgh.

Sid Terris, New York lightweight, and Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, N. Y., were today matched to appear in one of the feature bouts of the benefit card which is expected to bring together Greb and Slattery. Terris was awarded a judges' decision over Berstein last Monday night but the verdict was unpopular with the fans.

FALL TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS AT NORWICH GOLF CLUB FRIDAY SEPT. 4TH

Over 40 players have signed up for the men's singles and 24 players have signed up for the men's doubles to be started this week Friday on the tennis courts at the Norwich Country club as dall indications are that the tournament will be one of the best seen on the local courts in many years.

Norwich has produced a number of crack players during the past few years and these men will go into the play favorites over the newer men, who, despite their experience in tournament games, are expected to make the favorites travel to win out.

The singles start Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and continue through Saturday, the second round to start on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The doubles start Saturday and Sunday the same time this, the mixed doubles are scheduled to start and the final playoff comes on Labor Day when Russell A. Clapp, Jr., will notify all contestants of the time of their matches.

The drawings for the singles and doubles took place Wednesday but as the numbers were uneven it will be necessary for eight players to play off a preliminary match to decide who shall start playing in the regular tournament singles. The pairings are as follows:

Mens' Singles

Partridge vs. W. Caron, 2 o'clock Court one. Friday; Connard vs. Roantree, 2 o'clock, Court two, Friday; D Dumont vs. Miner, 3 o'clock, Court one. Friday; Williams vs. Foljambe, 3 o'clock, Court two, Friday; Lewin vs. Sands, 4 o'clock, Court one. Friday; Briggs, vs. Lyman, 4 o'clock. Court two, Friday; Howell vs. Sampson, 5 o'clock, Court one, Friday; Driscoll vs Raymond, 5 o'clock, Court two, Friday; B. Dumont vs. Disco, 10 o'clock, Court one, Saturday; Brown vs. Lewis, 10 o'clock, Court two, Saturday; Powers vs. Streeter, 11 o'clock, Court one, Saturday; Beckwith vs. winner (Connard-Roantree) match, 11 o'clock, Court two Saturday; Kaufman vs. Dole, 1 o'clock, Court one, Saturday; Grayson vs. Harwood, 1 o'clock, Court two, Saturday; Angeles vs. Winner (Williams-Foljambe) match, 2 o'clock, Court one, Saturday; E. J. Caron vs. Clapp, 2 o'clock, Court two, Saturday; Murphy vs. McInnis, 3 o'clock, Court one, Saturday; Chapman vs. Winner (Partridge-W. Caron) match, 3 o'clock, Court two, Saturday; Bridgeman vs. Winner (D. Dumont-Miner) match, 4 o'clock, Court one, Saturday; Weymouth vs. Bates, 4 o'clock, Court two, Saturday.

Requirements

Failure to report on time for match will make it necessary to forfeit to opponent.

In case of rain the play will start at point in schedule where interruption occurred. Scores at that point holdign over.

Entries of players must be checked in on roster before entering upon the courts.

At completion of match, learn from committee when your next match is to be played.

In case of doubtful weather call the Norwich Golf Club for information as to play, not longer than 2 hours before your match.

Men's Doubles

Connard and Driscoll vs. Brown and Lyman, 5 o'clock, Saturday, Court one.

Caron and Caron vs. Angeles and Foljambe, 5 o'clock, Saturday, Court two.

Bates and Miner vs. Dumont and Dumont, 2 o'clock, Sunday, Court one.

Roontree and Clapp vs. Williams and Murphy, 2 o'clock, Sunday, Court two.

Powers and Kaufman vs. Harwood and Disco, 3 o'clock, Sunday, Court one.

Grayson and Bridgeman vs. Partridge and Lewin, 3 o'clock, Sunday, Court two.

Mixed Doubles

First Round will be played Sunday afternoon.

Final Labor Day afternoon.

Players will be notified.

After playing their matches early Saturday the Norwich Golf Club Tennis team, Williams, Powers, Harwood, Disco, Roantree and Clapp, will leave for Stonington where they have a match scheduled with the Wadawanuck Country club, play to start at 4 o'clock. It is expected that a number of local people will go to Stonington to watch the local team in action.

Score Win Over Sub Base.

Going into the men's doubles, on Wednesday afternoon at the Submarine Base courts, with the score standing 3 to 2 in favor of the Base tennis team, the Norwich Golf Club Tennis team evened up by taking the first match and left it to Harwood and Disco to vanquish Dole and Deering of the Sub Base and give the game and match to Norwich. Harwood and Disco played in perfect form and their placing was uncanny the sets being carried off without much trouble 6-2 and 6-1, giving Norwich a victory 4 sets to 2 sets.

In the singles, Brown of Norwich lost to Traxler of the Base, 3-6 and 5-7. The second set came to Norwich when Clapp defeated Deering 6-2, 6-6, the final set being hard fought from start to finish. Disco sent Norwich out in front when he defeated Bannehoff 6-2, 6-2, but the match was evened when Bonny of the Base, playing a beautiful game defeated Roantree of Norwich 11-9 and 6-4. Harwood of Norwich started out for a win by taking his first set with Dole of the Base, 6-4, but Dole evened up the match taking the next set 6-4. The final and deciding set went into deuce games, Dole finally scoring the set and match 7-5.

With the singles leaving Norwich trailing 2 to 5, Clapp and Roantree evened the match in the first of the doubles by their fast play in defeating Traxler and Bonnehoff 6-2 and 6-4.

The match then stood even at 3-all and Harwood and Disco paired against Dole and Deering went out to win set and match. The first set was won by Norwich 6-2, and things began to brighten. Playing with caution and handling their opponents cleverly the two Norwich men made short work of the second and final set, winning 6-1, and giving Norwich the match.

By virtue of this win Norwich stands even in the number of matches won and lost this week, having been defeated Sunday by the Bay Harbor club of Fishers Island, which comprises in its membership many of the leading players of the metropolitan area.

TAFTVILLE A. A. WINS FINAL TWILIGHT GAME

Taftville A. A. easily defeated the West Ends of Willimantic Wednesday evening 7 to 1. Lloyd Jarvis pitched nine-hit ball and turned the West Ends back with the small end of the score. Leo Jarvis featured with a home run. The West Ends didn't get a hit until the last inning when they got three scoring their only run. Rabinowitz knocked a nice clout in the same inning but tried to get home and was caught at the plate. This game was the last Twilight game of the season for the Taftville fans. The score:

Taftville A. A.	ab	h	po	a	e	West Ends Willimantic	ab	h	po	a	e
Lee,2b,3b	4	1	2	2	0	Bennett,2b	3	1	2	3	0
Lloyd,p	3	0	1	1	0	Gilbert,3b	3	0	0	1	0
Cardin,ss	2	1	1	0	0	Hewett,lf	3	0	1	0	0
Stanyer,rf	2	0	0	0	0	A. Heller,ss	3	0	0	0	0
A.Jarvis,3b	3	1	1	3	0	W. Gilbert,cf	2	1	1	0	0
L.Jarvis,c	3	2	2	0	0	Percival,2b	3	0	1	2	0
Kwiatkus,c	2	0	6	0	0	Miele,c	2	0	5	0	0
Yelmini,2b	3	1	0	1	1	H. Heller,3b	3	0	1	2	0
Gaudette,lf	3	0	1	0	0	Hawes,p	2	0	0	1	0
Gauthier,ss	0	0	0	0	0
R.Jarvis,rf	0	0	1	0	0	Totals	29	3	15	9	3
Totals	31	7	18	6	1

Score by innings:

West Ends Willimantic	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—1
Taftville A. A.	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	6	x	—7

Two base hits L. Jarvis, Yelmini, Bennett. Three base hits, A. Heller, Monagny. Home run, Leo Jarvis. Struck out, by Hawes 5, by Jarvis 5.

RIVERVIEW BOOKS TWO GAMES FOR WEEK END

Two of the fastest games of the season in this vicinity will be played on the state hospital grounds over the week end. It has been the policy of the Riverview Club to bring the fastest clubs in the state to Norwich, and in keeping with the above arrangement, the fans will have an opportunity of seeing the fastest semi-pro club in the state when the Cheney Bros. A. A. of So. Manchester plays the Riverview Club this Saturday. The visiting club is led by Brick Kane, former major leaguer, and he is also supported by an array of the fastest college and semi-pro players in these parts. Further particulars about this game will appear in this paper later.

The most thrilling encounter of the season will take place Labor Day when the fast travelling J. B. Martin and their large following of supporters invade Riverview territory. This is the second game of their series.

The Riverview Club will play a return game in So. Manchester on Sunday of this week.

FARRELL WINNER OF QUAKER RIDGE TOURNEY

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Sept. 2—(A. P.)—Johnny Farrell of Quaker Ridge won the one-day open golf tournament at the Stockbridge Country club today playing the 36 holes in 136. He broke the course record in the morning round with a 67. Tommy Harmon of the Hudson River Country club, New York, was second with 139 and Henry Cuici of Westchester Hill, third, with 140.

MEUSEL CLOUTS OUT TWENTY-SEVENTH HOMER

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Bob Meusel, Yankees left fielder, hit his 27th home run of the year in the fifth inning of today's game with the Red Sox at the Yankee Stadium. Pennock scored in front of him.

E. C. P. TEAM BREAKS LOSING STREAK WIN 8 TO 1

The Eastern Connecticut Power team broke their losing streak of two straight games Wednesday evening, defeating the Palace in a one sided game, 8 to 1.

Dickson twirled for the winners and was in fine form. He allowed but three hits, two of which came in first frame for the Palace's only score, and fanned seven.

Zip Gere was on the mound for the Mike Morin's team and had but one bad inning, the second. In this frame, the Power nine bunched six hits, which coupled with several errors enabled them to score all of their eight runs. In each of the other three frames, Zip turned his opponents back without a hit.

The Palace scored their first and only run in the first. Leo Morin led off with a double inside first base and went to third on Simcox's out to Dickson. Mike Morin singled past third, and Leo Morin scored. Ryggs walked, and both he and Morin advanced a base on a passed ball. Dickson tightened however and fanned both Keenan and Jackson retiring the side.

After going out in short order in the initial inning, the Power team went on a rampage in the second and scored all of their eight runs. Dickson, Barry, Davis, Shefflot, Clabby, and Ringland all singled in succession in this frame and aided by errors by Simcox, and Mingo upt the game out of the reach of the Palace outfit.

The score:

Palace	ab	h	po	a	e	E. C. P. Co.	ab	h	po	a	e
L. Morin,2b	2	2	1	1	1	Barry,2b	3	1	1	2	0
Sharry,ss	2	0	0	2	2	Davis,2b	3	1	0	0	0
M. Morin,1b,2b	2	2	3	1	1	Sheffiot,1b	3	1	2	0	0
Ducas,3b	0	0	2	1	1	Clabby,c	3	1	0	0	0
Keenan,rf	2	0	1	0	0	Ringland,ss	3	1	0	0	0
Jackson,cf	2	0	1	0	0	H. Hall,lf	3	0	0	0	0
Gere,p	2	0	1	0	0	Schuler,c	2	0	7	0	0
Hinchen,f	2	0	1	0	0	G. Hall,rf	2	0	2	0	0
Mingo,cf	1	0	1	0	0	Dickson,p	2	1	0	2	0
Totals	15	2	12	5	5	Totals	25	6	13	3	0

Score by innings:

Palace	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—1
E. C. P. Co.	0	8	0	0	0	0	0	0	x	—8

Two base hits, L. Morin. Hit by pitcher, by Gere 2. Struck out, by Dickson 7, by Gere 2.

NO GAME TONIGHT

Owing to unforeseen circumstances, the game between the Nuggets and St. Joseph's scheduled for tonight, is postponed to a later date. Due to the fact that this game was called off at the last minute, it was impossible to arrange another game.

MANY TEAMS ENTERING STONINGTON FIELD MEET

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Sept. 2.—The Lorraine Cadets of Westerly are entered in the first annual track and field meet to be held in

WESTERLY

The new 130-foot Heliner yacht Irwin under lease this year, came into Little Narragansett bay Wednesday afternoon, and proceeded to Watch Hill, to tie up at the Watch Hill dock, near the Yacht club. This is the largest craft to come into Watch Hill this season and attracted the attention and favorable comment of all sailing craft in the bay, as well as the observers from Stonington.

Narragansett Council, No. 21, Knights of Columbus in annual meeting at their rooms on Main street on Tuesday evening, elected Russell A. Lenihan grand knight. Other officers elected were Deputy Grand Knight, Eugene P. O'Neil, Jr.; Chancellor, James H. Jessop; Warder, Napoleon Ledoux; Financial Secretary, James F. Spellman; Recording Secretary, James W. McCormick; Treasurer, John H. McGuire; Advocate, M. Walter Flynn, Jr.; Trustee for Three Years, James A. Donahue; Inside Guard, John Lynch; Outside Guards, John Dobridnia and Antonio Ferando; Delegate to Rhode Island State Convention, Edward J. Butler; Alternates, William Donovan and Peter McGinn; Chaplain, Rev. Vr. J. Cassagne, S. M.; Medical Examiner Dr. Michael H. Scanlon. Following the election lunch was served and a social time was spent. The officers will be installed in about a month. The Rhode Island State Convention of the Knights of Columbus the coming year will be held in Westerly, on some date in May, 1926.

Returning from a week's visit at the Atlantic View Inn, Pleasant View Beach to their homes in Hartford, the past few days have been Mrs. Elizabeth Hallsey, her son Francis and her sister Margaret Sloan, Misses Elizabeth and Ernd Bobrich; and Mrs. Marquard, whose sons George and Henry, are remaining over for another week's visit.

The Watch Hill fire department was called to respond to a still alarm for fire on the property of Henry B. Joy, near East Beach, Watch Hill, about 9 o'clock, Tuesday evening, and soon had the fire out. Workmen in the employ of Iacano and company of Westerly have been engaged for the past month in improving the Joy property, near "Treasure Hill," his summer cottage near the Thatcher cottage, "Longshore," occupied by Congressman Richard S. Aldrich, of Providence. Included in the improvements has been the installation of a six-inch pipe line across the beach and after a continuous pumping of three days and three nights, the water in a small pond there has been drained into the adjacent Atlantic ocean. While the pond was dry, advantage has been taken to clean the mud and muck from the bottom and a stone wall some 800 feet in length has been built around the pond. The material excavated has been used for filling back on the wall and the brush and undergrowth has been cut off so that a smooth lawn around the pond can take the place of the tangle low title level of the ocean to the new thicket. Pipes are to be laid from the pond created and an ocean water swimming pool will be created. It was the smouldering brush, which was fanned into a flame by the wind, that was the cause of the firemen's visit.

Over 100 members of the Rhode Island Medical Society are expected in Westerly today (Thursday) for the quarterly meeting of the organization as the guests of the Washington District Medical Society, of which Dr. Michael H. Scanlon is president.

The day's programme will include inspection of the new Westerly Hospital from 10 until 12 o'clock. The members will then go to the Watch Hill bathing beach before dinner at Oaks Inn, Shore road, scheduled for 2 o'clock.

The committee of arrangements consists of Dr. John Champlin, Dr. C. Grant Savage and Dr. Samuel C. Wehrle, Dr. Halsey DeWolf and Dr. J. J. Leech of Providence are president and secretary respectively, of the state organization.

At the eight's concert to be given by the Westerly Band, C. O. Gavitt, director, given this (Thursday) evening, Master Milton Phalen, the 12-year-old cornetist, will play a solo.

His program

March, Laurels of Victory .....Woods
Overture, Light Cavalry .....Suppe
Fantasia, Excelsio .....Hazel
Popular air—Peter Pan ....Henderson
Cornet solo, Little Pearls ...Humphrey
Master Milton Phalen
Midnight Waltz .....Kahn
Grand selection from Bohemian Girl .....Balfe
Popular air—O, How I Miss You.....
.....Berlin
Trombone Smear, A Slippery Place ..
.....Goodwin
Gems from Rose Marie .....Friml
Popular air—O, Katherina .....Feist
Intermezzo, Afire Sunset .....Pryor
March, Let's Go! .....Woods
Finale, The Star Spangled Banner...
.....Key

Walter F. Higgins, of South Manchester, formerly of Pawcatuck is the guest for the week of Westerly relatives and friends.

Miss Alice Caisse, of Willimantic and Miss Elizabeth O'Connell of Norwich were week-end guests of West Side friends.

MOTHERS OF DAUGHTERS

Will Profit by reading Mrs. Quigg's Letter Telling How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her Daughter

Royersford, Pa.—"My daughter was sickly from the time she was 13 years old, she was irregular and also had severe headaches, and pains in her sides and back. She was this way about six months before I began giving her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped her very much. She is not bothered by headaches, backaches, or cramping any more, and has not missed but one day. We recommend it to other mothers with girls who have these troubles."—Mrs. QUIGG, 210 Main Street, Royersford, Pa.

Another Mother's Letter

Roxbury, Mass.—"At the age of 16 my daughter was all run down, nervous, with poor blood. These troubles made her weak and unfit to work. She tried several medicines, but they did her no good. Finally I induced her to take the Vegetable Compound, too, and she has gained in health and strength and is now working steadily. I have told these facts to many mothers."—Mrs. HUDSON, 252 Eustis Street, Roxbury, Mass.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

MRS. CHARLES O. TREAT DIES AT PLEASANT VIEW

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Sept. 2—The death of Gertrude Nettleton Treat, 7, widow of Charles O. Treat, of South Manchester, Conn., occurred at 5:50 o'clock Wednesday morning at her summer home at Pleasant View. Mrs. Treat has been in poor health for the past four years and for several months had been confined to her bed. She was taken to Pleasant View from South Manchester early in the summer in hope that the sea air might be of benefit to her health. The end came peacefully this morning.

Mrs. Treat possessed a pleasing personality, and her kindness and hospitality won the respect of her husband, who two years ago, built a cottage at the resort several years ago and each season the members of the Treat family had passed their summers at Pleasant View.

Mrs. Treat was born in East Windsor, Conn., Oct. 16, 1854. She is survived by two sons, Robert Treat, of South Manchester, Conn., and Charles C. Treat of Norwich, and by two daughters, Harriet, wife of Dr. William Mills of Danielson, Conn., and Charlotte, wife of Arthur Keeney of South Manchester. A half-sister, Mrs. Fred Beckley, and a half-brother, Henry Nettleton of South Manchester and several grandchildren also survive her.

The body was taken to the Treat residence, 88 Church street, South Manchester today.

COLUMBIA

Mr. and Mrs. James Powell and two sons of Ozone Park, L. I., are spending three weeks at the Avery cottage, on the Green.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Page of Amherst, Mass., spent a day recently with Mrs. Lyman at the home of Mrs. Mary Yeomans.

Mrs. Florence Badge and three daughters are moving into the upper part of the house owned by Mrs. F. A. Hunt.

Mrs. Lillian Rice attended some of the sessions of the N. E. Lecturers' Conference at Storrs. Mrs. Rice was the delegate of the local Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lyman also attended the session Wednesday evening.

Columbia Grange held its annual picnic Thursday, spending the day at Ocean Beach, New London. The attendance was not as large as it is some years, as quite a few of the Grangers are absent on vacations, but those attending report a fine time.

The ways and means committee of the Columbia Improvement Society is planning for a supper to be followed by two short plays given by the Andover Dramatic Club. The Ladies' Aid Society supper held recently was such a success that many of the lake people have asked for another supper.

Mrs. Clayton Hunt and two sons have returned from a few days' stay to Johnston, R. I., where they visited Mrs. Hunt's sister, Mrs. Chester Winsor. While there they motored to Rehoboth, Mass., to attend the annual Re-union of the Goff family. This is the 55th annual gathering, of the descendants of Captain Shubael and Sally Goff, of which Mrs. Hunt is one. Over 250 attended the one this year, and the association has the distinction of being one of the oldest as well as one of the largest family gatherings in New England. Mrs. Hunt's mother, Mrs. Louise Goff, received the souvenir as the oldest woman present, this being the third year she has received it.

Hubert Little of Meriden spent the week end at the home of his brother, Alonzo Little.

Miss Florence Jones is spending a few days with Waterford friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gillette of Spring Hill spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Gillette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isham.

The town schools will open September 8th. Only one of the former teachers is coming back, Miss Marion Holmes at the Center School. Mrs. Bessie Cummings of Hebron has been employed to teach at the Pine Street School, and Miss Esther Johns of Waterbury is coming to West St. At last accounts no teachers have been procured yet for Hop River Village, Old Hop River District, and Chestnut Hill Schools. Clayton E. Hunt has again been given the contract to carry the High School pupils to Willimantic, this being the 8th year he has carried them. Indications are that the town schools will be filled to capacity.

Miss Dorothy Burton of Whitneyville, spent the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Clarke.

Sigmund Adler of Hartford occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday morning. He spoke on Prohibition, in the interests of the Connecticut Temperance Union.

The Christian Endeavor meeting was held Sunday evening at 7:30, the subject being "What is the gospel—Why preach it?"

The sessions of the Sunday School will be resumed Sunday next, having been omitted during August by vote of the Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wolff left Monday morning to join the other automobiles on the poultry tour through Massachusetts and New Hampshire. They will be gone until Friday.

Miss Marion Clough, Miss Margaret Hutchins, and Mrs. Junabel Squiers left Tuesday to spend a few days on Niantic River.

Although the nights are very cool, this section has so far escaped the frosts that have visited parts of Connecticut recently.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Mr. and Mrs. Milan Whitaker and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Geer, of Leonard Bridge.

Gertrude Hall spent two days last week with friends in Putnam. While there she attended the O. M. reunion at Roseland Park.

Mrs. P. H. Caffey, Ruth, Francis and Beatrice Caffey spent a day last week at the beach.

Albert Whitaker and his sister, Bernice are at Leonard Bridge this week, guests of their aunt, Mrs. C. M. Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall attended the annual meeting of L. A. at Rocky Point Wednesday.

Ralph Bradford of Putnam called at The Oaks Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Slater entertained friends from Hartford and Providence Sunday.

The Women's Society of North Sterling church served a salad and bean supper in the Community House Saturday. An entertainment by North Sterling young people followed the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Winsor Barlow of Hillsgrove, R. I., called on local relatives Saturday.

Plans for Old Home Day, to be held on the church grounds September 7th are practically completed. A shore dinner is to be served at twelve o'clock (standard time).

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barlow and son Ernest of Danielson have been spending a few days with Mr. Barlow's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Young of Danielson, visited local relatives Thursday.

The truck manufacturer who marries an actress is probably taking Emerson's advice about hitching his wagon to a star.

Demand for Bentley-trained Men

87 per cent of our 1925 graduates are placed. They are in demand because of the reputation this school has for turning out well trained men.

We are particularly interested in enrolling the clean-cut, upstanding type of man of pleasing personal appearance, fine character, and an abundance of common sense and ambition. There is no difficulty whatever in placing such a man after he has completed our training.

The Bentley School of Accounting and Finance is the largest professional school of college grade in the world devoted exclusively to training men for the duties of office manager, cost accountant, auditor, chief accountant, comptroller, credit manager, and public accountant.

To Be Bentley-Trained Carries Prestige in Business.

There are unlimited opportunities in the great field of business for men who are properly trained. The demand is for specialists,—for men qualified to do some one thing particularly well. A majority of the treasurers and many of the presidents of our large business corporations are products of the accounting department. In this department one has an opportunity to become familiar with all the activities of a business.

It requires two years to complete our courses. Graduates of the classical, general, or commercial courses of high schools are admitted without entrance examinations. Excellent dormitory accommodations are provided for out-of-town students. Classes start September 16th. Send for catalog.

The Bentley School of Accounting and Finance
921 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts
H. C. BENTLEY, C. P. A., President

NORTH FRANKLIN

Mrs. Earl Rogers and children, Barbara and Phillip, of Scotland have been visiting Mrs. Rogers' aunt, Miss Lydia Johnson.

Misses Eleanor and Anita Armstrong have returned to their home after spending a week with her brother, Ralph Armstrong of Chicopee Falls, Mass.

Mr. Rosella B. Harrington, of Rockville, spent the past week with Mrs. Fred Rice.

Bernard Crandall has returned home after spending several days with relatives in Boston.

Mrs. Carrie Spidell and granddaughter, Hazel Spidell of New Rochelle, N. Y., spent several days recently with Mrs. L. A. White.

Miss Etta Babcock has returned to her home in East Greenwich, R. I., after visiting for several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Eugene Clark.

Mrs. L. A. White is entertaining her niece, Miss Florence Barber, of Fitchburg, Mass.

Mrs. Ernest Smith with her daughters, Elizabeth and Isabelle is visiting her mother, Mrs. Isaac Geer of Ledyard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Browning and son, Maurice have returned home after two weeks' stay at Pleasant View.

Mrs. Lillie Avery spent the past week at Eastern Point, the guest of her niece, Mrs. Jay Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis are in Baltimore, Md., called there by the illness of their son, Charles Davis, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kidger and son, Harold have returned to their home in Easthampton, Mass., after spending a week with Mrs. F. Rockwood.

Mrs. F. S. Armstrong was a guest Sunday and Monday of Mrs. Myron Smith of Lebanon Road.

Luther Hoffon has returned home, after spending several days with his brother in Lexington, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Starkweather and children spent several days the past week in New Jersey, making the trip by automobile.

Miss Lydia Johnson left Monday for Providence where she will visit for some time with relatives.

Stephen Armstrong is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Orrin Merry, of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Race with their son Junior have returned to their home in New York, after spending two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Race, Sr.

Mrs. Frank Rockwood and Mrs. Fred Race spent Friday at Rocky Point and Oakland Beach, R. I.

Eugene Clark was a Hartford visitor Monday.

LIBERTY HILL

Mrs. Myra Loomis and sons, Wayland and Lester, of Middletown were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. John Clark's from Tuesday until Friday and called on friends here. Mrs. Loomis' late husband Everett Loomis was the nephew of Mrs. John Clarke.

Leslie P. Clarke put 10 two-horse loads of hay in his barn Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy James of Willimantic was the guest of her brother, J. Earl James and family several days last week.

Mrs. A. O. Sweitzer is a patient in a Willimantic Hospital, for an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Fuller, of Andover and the former's brother, Dwight Fuller, and his son, of Bridgeport, visited relatives here Wednesday for a short time.

Mary E. and Nancy R. Fuller are having their cottage renovated and painted by their brother in law, E. P. Lyman, of Columbia.

Monday, the last day of August the mercury rose to 88 degrees in the shade.

Wallace Cleland of New York, is spending a week's vacation with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnard.

Invitations have been received by friends in this place to attend the wedding of Miss Vivian Frances Cleland and Milton Everett Winsor, this (Thursday) afternoon September 3rd at 4 o'clock, D. S. T. at the Congregational church in Plainfield, Conn.

Miss Marion Clough of Columbia has been engaged to teach the local schol.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Goodrich entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dalton of New London, over the week end. Visitors through the week were Alfred Law of New York, and William Thomas of New London.

Mrs. E. P. Lyman and her sister, Miss Harriet M. Fuller were guests Monday of their sisters, Miss Mary E. and Nancy R. Fuller.

Rev. and Mrs. Elwell O. Mead of here the yearly part of this week.

Guests Sunday at the parsonage were Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Nye, of New Britain, their children, Ronald and Dorothy, and little grandson, Brently Bike.

Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. L. Harris preached from the text Revelations 3-20. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. John Clarke had charge of the evening C. E. Missionary meeting.

SPRING HILL

"Jimmie" O'Sullivan reports that he has cut the grass on 11 farms this season, about 125 acres, and has done it all with his one yoke of oxen.

Miss Mary Storrs returned to Jeffersonville, Vt., last Friday after spending the summer vacation at the home of Mrs. E. F. Storrs.

Joel B. Kenerson and Mrs. Lotta Anderson of Winchendon, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland of Barre, Mass., spent last Friday night at Alanweld, on their way to the Rhode Island shore.

The new autobus of the Storrs Garage Co., which is to run over Spring Hill between Storrs and Willimantic took a party of 23 to the Rhode Island shore as far as Atlantic Beach, Sunday. They took a lunch along.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols went to New Britain Sunday.

W. F. Wildes Jr. and family and Miss Mildred Cummings were in Noank Sunday.

Rev. B. F. Nye of Hampton spent Sunday with friends here.

J. Reynold Beebe went to his old home in Lyme Sunday to attend the funeral of a relative.

The Gillette family were in Columbia Sunday.

The Misses Deming have returned to Hartford after spending August in their summer home.

Monday afternoon, August 31, about 25 friends and acquaintances met at the Bellows summer home and passed a pleasant hour in observance of the 48th birthday of Mrs. Jane Smith. Ice cream and cake was served on the lawn. Mrs. Smith is in good health. She was born in Mansfield, but lived many years in Brooklyn, N. Y., as the wife of Charles E. Smith who died many years ago. She was the daughter of Abner and Sarah Dunham Church and is related to others of the Church family who reside in this vicinity. While spending the summer here she is with her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Bellows.

Among those who were with Mrs. Smith Monday was Mrs. Phebe H. Hanks of Mansfield Centre, who is 88.

STAFFORDVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lyon who have been spending several weeks at their cottage on Willimantic camp ground, returned to their home last week. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller and Mrs. Mantell were guests of relatives in West Dudley, Mass. last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith and daughter, of Springfield and Mrs. Mary Gray of Manchester, were guests of Mrs. Leon Cooley Sunday.

George Taylor and two daughters, of South Coventry, and Herbert Carlson, Ernest Belcher and Donald Brown, of New Britain, were guests Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belcher.

Leo Venturini fell Sunday and broke his wrist. His father Eugene Venturini is spending a few months in Europe.

Mrs. Russell Herrick with her two sons, of Cleveland, Ohio is visiting her sister; Mrs. George Gibson, on Colburn Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Walbridge and Clarence White were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Sawtell in Greenwich, Mass., last Sunday. They visited Mrs. Whitman Green who is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sawtell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Belcher and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Belcher and little son, visited friends in Blackstone, Mass., last Sunday. Mrs. George Belcher and sons remained for a few days' visit with her aunt, Mrs. W. V. Odell, in Blackstone.

WEST KINGSTON

Mr. and Mrs. James Singleton and sons, of Providence were callers on friends here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maine and daughters Elsie of North Stonington visited relatives in this village, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William James of Wyoming visited their granddaughter Mrs. R. H. Bristow, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Louse Denham of Providence is the guest of Mrs. E. B. Kenyon and family.

Master Harris Kenyon and brother Stuart of Providence are visiting their grandparents Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Crandall and children, spent Monday in Providence.

West Kingston Sunday School had a picnic at Charlston Beach, Thursday, of last week. They went in one of E. A. Welcox's trucks, with E. C. Kenyon as chauffeur. It was an ideal day and every body had a good time.

PLAINFIELD

Mrs. Walter Clark of Plainfield and Miss Anna J. Hewitt of Hartford spent Saturday at Providence and Newport, R. I.

Miss Anna J. Hewitt, stenographer for the Noble and Westbrook Manufacturing Company of Hartford has returned to her duties after spending her vacation at Watch Hill and at the home of a school friend, Mrs. Walter F. Clark, of Plainfield.

Mrs. James Adams, and daughter Mrs. Walter Clark and son of Plainfield spent Monday with Mrs. Adams' brother, L. S. Hooker, of Norwich.

FARMER LOSES ON BUMPER CROP OF CORN, SAYS EXPERT

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—A bumper crop of corn does not necessarily mean prosperity for the Iowa farmer. More than likely it means money out of his pocket, says C. P. Reed, director of the weather and crop reporting service.

In his bulletins, Mr. Reed has been repeating "More corn—less dollars." Basis for the statement was found in a fact pointed out by the late Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, substantiated by figures in Mr. Reed's own office. The reverse is equally true, he declared. "Less corn—more dollars."

"Take the crop of 1924," said Mr. Reed. "It was the poorest we have had since 1901. The average yield was only 2 bushels to the acre. Despite the yield being 132,000,000 bushels shorter than the previous crop and that it was of inferior quality, it brought the Iowa farmer $13,000,000 more than the year before.

"The 1921 crop—Iowa's greatest—is another example. The average yield for that year was 43 bushels an acre, a bumper crop even for Iowa, yet the total return to farmers was only $133,000,000, compared with the $238,000,000 which the average corn crop brings."

In that year Mr. Reed said the gross return for land that grew corn was $12.90 an acre, the lowest figure since 1902.

EVERY SHIP ARRIVAL GETS WELCOME AT SPITZBERGEN

BARENTSBURG, Green Harbor, Spitzbergen, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—The arrival of a ship in any of the small Spitzbergen ports is a sufficiently rare event to bring most of the population, male and female, who do not happen to be at work, down to the waterside, for to them it means a welcome touch with the outside world. They know every captain, sailor and ship's dog by name, and effusive greetings are exchanged between old friends, while newcomers are quizzed with kindly curiosity and interest. Also, there may be a few letters from "home," which will be delivered straight from the captain's cabin.

The first ship of the season that manages to struggle through the ice receives of course a special welcome, for Spitzbergen has only heard the world's news for say seven months in tabloid form over the wireless, and there is much to talk about.

Miners who have "done" their winter se winters contract, come trooping down to go home temporarily or for good. The homing fever is catching, and there are many who forfeit good wages and make a rush for the boat on the spur of the moment. This of course places the employers sometimes in an awkward predicament, but fresh forces may be turning up by the next boat.

FORMER HEAD OF DISCOUNT BANK TO FACE FIFTH TRIAL

CLEVELAND, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—Josiah Kirby, who has faced four juries on charges growing out of the collapse of the Cleveland Discount Company, which he organized virtually single handed, will go to trial here again on a federal indictment charging use of the mails to defraud.

Twice juries that sat in judgment on Kirby disagreed and twice he was acquitted. In each case it was said that the defendant "sold himself" to the juries, it being freely admitted that the same personal magnetism and "super salesmanship" which lifted Kirby from a penniless stranger in Cleveland to the head of the $40,000,000 concern, helped to convince the jurors that he was innocent of the charges made against him.

Kirby has started in business in California, while the discount company is being reorganized by the receivers. The company was established in 1913 and $14,000,000 of its preferred stock was sold throughout the state. Shortly after the company purchased the Rockefeller Building, the name of which was changed to Cleveland Discount Company Building, which it still bears.

MEMBER OF COMMONS VIOLATES RULE THREE CENTURIES OLD

LONDON, Sept. 2—When Sir Harry Hope rose in the House of Commons to speak from one of the front benches he was greeted with loud cries of "Order." He sat down, puzzled, but rose again only to be greeted with more shouts of "Order."

A member pointed out that he had violated a 300 year old rule by putting his foot beyond a red line at the edge of the carpet in front of him. These lines, on either side of the chamber, were placed there in Stuart days, when the Roundheads in Parliament were bitterly attacking the Cavalier supporters of Charles I. Members in those days were armed and it was feared that debates might end in violence, so the red line was placed beyond which they were not supposed to pass during debate.

AMERICAN PRINTERS OF BRAILLE HONOR MEMORY OF INVENTOR

PARIS, Sept 2—(A. P.)—The memory of Louis Braille, the blind French savant who invented the system of raised point, universally used in the printing of books for the sightless, is to be perpetuated by the American Blind Relief War Fund changing its name to the American Braille Press for War and Civilian Blind.

This is an American corporation, is supported entirely by American funds, and its directors are all Americans. The printed matter for the blind is produced by the society solely in France, but the output goes to all parts of the world.

The fund was organized during the war for the relief of soldiers and sailors who had lost their sight in fighting for the Allies. For two years the work has been entirely confined to printing books for the blind under the personal supervision of its president, William Nelson Cromwell, of New York and Paris.

ACTIVITIES OF COAST GUARD REDUCE SWEDISH GUM ROW

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, Sept. 2—Sweden's rum-running problems are rapidly decreasing, says Count Posse, head of the coast guard service. In previous years their usually were a dozen vessels in the zone on the west coast, while now there are never more than two or three that need watching. The decrease has been proportional on the east coast.

Count Posse points out that in 1923 the authorities confiscated 150,000 liters of illegally imported liquors, while last year the amount fell off to 90,000 liters. The indications for this year he said, are that these figures will be cut in half.

This particular work of the coast guard service is expected to become easier when the Helsingfors convention signed recently by the Swedish government, goes into effect. The convention, which increases the territorial limit to 12 miles has been signed by 12 states.

Jewett Improvements More than Doubled Our Business

"Never a Car Like This—Never Such Value!"

Actually 131% more business in August this year than last. When you see this latest Jewett at its new low price, you'll know why.

Famous for its unusual roominess and comfort, Jewett Coach is now larger—roomier—even more comfortable. Added length gives greater leg room and substantially better riding quality.

Months ago Jewett took the stand that roominess was what the public wanted in a Coach.

Jewett met that need squarely by producing the country's roomiest Coach. Sales that followed eclipsed all records.

In value—in quality—in roominess—in performance—Jewett Coach then excelled all Coaches.

Even such excellence has now been improved. You relax the moment you enter this great car. Plenty of leg room. No stiffness. Never a cramped position—even when five are riding.

Never Such Performance!

A surge of able, efficient power such as you have never experienced. Silent as it is able. Because it's a Jewett with all the ability that has made a famous name for a famous car.

Respected in traffic—on toughest hills—on the open road. For Jewett is known as the car whose performance cannot be questioned. Costs but little more than ordinary cars. It offers much more in performance, comfort, quality and long life.

See this great car today! Ride in it. Drive it! You'll know why it more than doubled our sales.

Coach Now $1245

More entrance space than any Coach. Enter or leave rear without disturbing those in front

Many Important Improvements

A new air-cleaner adds years of service—insures cleaner air—clean oil—clean cylinders. Greater freedom from carbon, scored cylinders and worn bearings—increased motor life are the results. Light switch is now conveniently at hand on the steering gear. Indirect lighting on the dash eliminates glare. Gear shift and emergency brake levers are moved forward to provide clear floor space in front—and many other improvements.

New lower prices on all improved Jewett models as follows: Coach $1245, De Luxe Touring $1320, De Luxe Coach $1409, De Luxe Roadster $1390, De Luxe Sedan $1660. Prices f. o. b. Detroit, tax extra. Paige-hydraulic 4-wheel brakes at slight extra cost

LOUIS H. MAPLES
61 Shetucket St. Phone 182

Yes—
SAY NORWICH HOUSEWIVES!

There is no Wash Service like the TROY LAUNDRY. Just turn your laundry problems over to them for they are specializing in family washings.

You do not need to worry if the wash-woman is coming for the TROY delivery man is always on time every week in the year. It is by far the cheapest method of doing your laundry and saves you lots of worry and work.

Hundreds of Norwich Housewives are having the washing done out of the house and would not go back to the old fashioned way for anything.

TRY IT AND SEE HOW MUCH MONEY AND WORRY YOU SAVE.

Phone 831.

TROY STEAM LAUNDRY
282 FRANKLIN ST.
F. RUSSELL SMITH, PRES.

AGRICULTURAL INTERESTS

NEW ENGLAND DAIRY INDUSTRY ON SOUND BASIS

Although the dairy industry of New England is on a fundamentally sound basis, it is handicapped by the fact that there is a greater demand for butterfat than for the other valuable food elements in milk. Some new demand for a skimmed milk product that will put the market for the protein of milk on a par market for butterfat is necessary really to solve the dairy marketing problem.

This is the conclusion of a report on the New England dairy market which has just been issued by the U. S. department of agriculture. The report is based on a study made by R. J. McFall, of the Massachusetts Agricultural college under the direction of the New England research council on marketing and food supply in cooperation with the New England colleges of agriculture, health authorities, railways, and many dealers.

There is great seasonal variation in the production of milk in New England. In Vermont, the state with the largest surplus production, the output is in excess of the quantity shipped in fluid form even in the months of shortest supply. This surplus milk must be converted into manufactured products, whose prices are largely determined by the general market for butter. Such surpluses increase the difficulty of bargaining for satisfactory prices, says the report.

In the last 10 years there has been a great increase in the consumption of milk in New England. This has come about partly from improvement in distributing conditions, partly from wider recognition of the value of milk advertising. Nevertheless, the demand for butterfat still far outstrips the demand for the other constituents of milk. Boston, for example, requires more milk out of which to separate its cream than it consumes as whole milk.

Such conditions evidently have something to do with the fact that the wholesale price of fluid milk for household consumption is only a little above the butter value of the milk. As the distance of the producer from markets increases, it becomes more and more difficult for him to ship his milk at a profit, whereas butterfat can be shipped long distances at a relatively small cost. Nevertheless, in recent years New England has found it possible to ship out milk and its equivalent in cream and other products in about the same quantities as these brought in from New York state and Canada. It is therefore evident that distributing problems are being solved in part.

A large industrial population concentrated in a small area puts the dairy industry of New England in a strong position. This population uses more milk, butter and cream per capita than the average for the United States as a whole. Increased consumption, moreover, is expected to keep pace with increases in population. In the past the dairy industry of New England has suffered somewhat from the competition of cheaper-producing conditions elsewhere, and from the fact that its labor supply has been drawn away by high wages in cities. It has recovered, however, from the low point of a decline that began in 1900. Today the demand for manufactured dairy products exceeds the ability of the region to supply it economically. Some parts of New England, however, seem able to produce quantities of manufactured dairy products at a profit.

GREEN COWPEAS AND RYE FLAVOR MILK SLIGHTLY

When for any reason silage is unavailable as a succulent feed for dairy cows a common feeding practice is to supply the succulence with soiling crops. Many of these crops fed green to dairy cows impart a disagreeable or abnormal odor to the milk, depending to some extent on the amount consumed and the time that elapses between feeding and milking time.

Tests by the United States department of agriculture to determine the effect of feeding green rye and green cowpeas on the flavor and odor of milk have been made. These tests showed that when dairy cows consumed as much as 15 pounds of green rye one hour before milking only slightly abnormal flavors and odors were produced in the milk. Increasing the amount to 30 pounds, however, increased the abnormal flavors and odors to a slight extent, but not enough to be objectionable to the majority of consumers. Feeding as much as 30 pounds immediately after milking had practically no undesirable effect on the milk.

While the abnormal odors and flavors produced by these two feeds were slight in both cases by these two feeds were slight in both cases they were more pronounced in the case of green cowpeas than in that of rye. These experiments show that to avoid all disagreeable flavors and odors caused by the feeding of green rye or green cowpeas they should be consumed in an amount not exceeding 15 pounds if fed within an hour before milking. Both feeds may be consumed after milking with but little unfavorable effect.

HEAD LETTUCE SHOULD NOT BE WASHED UNTIL READY FOR USE

Cleanliness as practiced by the average housewife may be a virtue, but when it comes to putting head lettuce in the refrigerator for future use, it is a wise cook who will refrain from washing the lettuce until ready to use it immediately. Head lettuce and many other vegetables as well, as commonly found on the market, are highly contaminated with bacteria of the soil. Washing head lettuce any great length of time prior to using gives these millions of microorganisms the chance of a lifetime in their race to devour the leaves before the family has a chance.

In a number of rather extensive investigations to determine the amount of initial bacterial contamination occurring on head lettuce and the changes produced by the conditions of handling and storage, the Bureau of Chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture found that fresh lettuce is decidedly cleaner, bacteriologically speaking, toward the center of the head, but the central part eventually becomes as highly contaminated as the outer leaves. The spread of the bacteria from the outer leaves to the inner leaves is hastened when the lettuce head is washed, even though it is later placed in the ice box. The bacterial spread may be retarded by keeping the lettuce head in its original dry state and in cold storage.

SANITATION IMPORTANT IN ERADICATING TUBERCULOSIS

Though the influence of sanitary surroundings in preventing disease is widely recognized, the very direct part it plays is illustrated almost daily in federal veterinary activities. One of the most important lines of this work is the eradication of tuberculosis from livestock. Owing to the systematic manner in which the testing is conducted, together with retests of infected herds, definite records now take the place of casual observations.

In one herd tested annually for a period of three years, each test disclosed at least two tuberculous animals. The premises and stable were in such condition that thorough disinfection was virtually impossible, and rather than improve conditions the owner finally quit the dairy business. In contrast to this experience are scores of cases in which infested herds, kept in sanitary barns, are soon freed of tuberculosis and kept so for long periods.

One of the most striking examples reported to the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture, was that of an eastern dairyman who had an excellent herd which he kept in a very old bank barn. The herd numbered between 30 and 40 animals, mostly purebred, and the owner paid several thousand dollars apiece for some of his sires. This was some years ago when public enlightenment concerning tuberculosis was just beginning. Frequent deaths occurred in the herd and finally the dairyman decided to have his cattle tuberculin tested. The first test showed a large proportion of reactors and later tests took still more, indicating that infection was still on the premises. Ultimately his herd, representing years of breeding work and a large investment, was practically wiped out. The cost of a few good cows used in the construction of a modern, sanitary barn would have protected the large investment in the herd and prevented is a new ruling based on an interpretation of federal laws and regulations and on many of the state laws. A thorough clean-up is necessary, of course, before disinfection can be properly performed.

The ruling is expected to be helpful in reducing the number of reactors found on retests of infected herds. Unless disinfection is promptly and thoroughly done following the removal of tuberculous cattle from a farm, there is serious danger of continued lurking infection which may mean more reactors to pay for at a later time. Such a practice is contrary to good business methods and the program of federal economy.

Practical livestock sanitation includes such matters as good drainage removal of manure at frequent intervals, foundations of concrete or other material that does not rot or harbor infection, good light and ventilation, and smooth walls, floors and ceilings that can be easily cleaned and disinfected. The trend of progress is plainly in the direction of better care and housing of farm livestock, since sanitation pays both in a business way and from a health standpoint. But in spite of the excellent progress already made, department officials point out that there is abundant opportunity for more attention to this important subject.

BIRD POPULATION GROWS WHEN NESTS ARE SUPPLIED

For economic as well as for esthetic reasons an effort should be made to attract and protect birds and to increase their numbers, says the United States department of agriculture. Birds feed upon practically all insect pests. They are voracious, able to move freely from place to place, and exert a steady influence in keeping down the swelling tide of insect life.

It is not only possible to attract numerous species of birds by supplying boxes and other nesting facilities, says the department, but it has been amply proved that the total bird population on a given area can be raised far above normal by these and other methods of attraction. The larger the number of birds, of course, the greater the drain upon their food supply. If this food supply consists chiefly of injurious insects man profits; if of the products of his cultivation, he suffers. All things considered, however, it is better to have more birds, for the injurious individuals or kinds can be controlled or suppressed while the useful species, if not present in time of need, can not be hastily summoned. Experience has shown that those who have increased the number of birds on their property have had cause for satisfaction rather than regret.

The average number of birds over the eastern United States is a little more than one pair to the acre, but it seems fairly easy to increase this number in suburban, residential, and parked areas to about 10 pairs to the acre. This has been accomplished at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, for instance, with 404 pairs to 40 acres; at Olney, Ill., 70 pairs to 8 acres; and at Chevy Chase, Md., 224 pairs to 23 acres. Even higher records have been made, as 135 pairs to 5 acres at Wild Acres, Md., near Washington, D. C., and the number may run up to a much higher figure on a single acre where a thriving colony of purple martins is domiciled.

A frequently cited famous European example of the value of attracting birds is worth repeating, says the Biological survey of the department. On the estate of Baron van Berlepsch, in Germany, bird attraction methods of every kind were practiced and among other things more than 2,000 nests were supplied, of which 90 per cent were occupied. During a outbreak of the oak leaf-roller other woods in the region were entirely defoliated, but that on the Berlepsch estate stood out as a green oasis. With this example before them, municipal and provincial governments in Germany took up the providing of nest boxes for birds, and more than 9,000 were erected in the Grand Duchy of Hesse alone.

VALUED PAINTING OF CHRIST DISCOVERED IN NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Father J. J. Hartman, chaplain of St. Anthony's orphanage, has found what he believes to be one of the most important art discoveries of America in recent years, a life-size painting of Christ in a Catholic mission church at the Indian pueblo of Isleta, near here.

Father Hartman has seen the most noted paintings of Christ all over the world, and he considers the work in the mission church the most perfect he has studied. The picture is partly in relief, and the color harmony is remarkable.

He believes the paintings to be of the Byzantine era, preceding any of the European schools. The name of the artist is not known. Farther Hartman is of the opinion that the painting was brought to the Isleta mission by early padres who accompanied Spanish conquistadores on their trips of conquest through New Mexico. The mission church is about 300 years old.

The picture has been temporarily removed from the church because of its great value, until permanent arrangements for its safe keeping can be made.

Championship Bout Recalled

CARSON CITY, Nev., Sept. 2.—(AP)—The gong used at the world championship heavyweight prizefight here March 17, 1897, when Jim Corbett lost the title to Bob Fitzsimmons, has been given by Mrs. Sadie Manton to her son a resident of Texas, whose father was one of Corbett's trainers. Mrs. Manton purchased the old bell from Andrew Todd, Sr., of Carson City, who had had it in his possession since the day of the battle.

Cubans to Honor Washington

HAVANA, Sept. 2.—(AP)—A committee headed by Dr. Oswald R. Guerrero, newspaperman and politician, is raising funds for the erection of a statue of George Washington.

It is proposed to place the statue a short distance from the Maine monument.

Why Flitter Had to Go Hungry

Pity those who fain would eat
But are denied their daily meat.
—Flitter the Bat.

"How am I lucky?" demanded Peter Rabbit of Flitter the Bat. "You say I am lucky and don't know it. Now tell me how I am lucky."

"Have you had any less to eat because of this rain?" squeaked Flitter darting just about Peter's head.

"No," said Peter, "I may not have eaten quite as much, but I could have eaten as much as usual if I had wanted to sit in the rain to do it."

"Certainly, of course," squeaked Flitter. "When you are hungry all you have to do is hop over to the nearest clover patch. You may get wet but you get your stomach full. If you go hungry it is your own fault. But I go hungry because I have to. I don't have anything to say about it."

Peter turned this over in his mind and he was puzzled. He didn't see yet what Flitter meant. Finally he said so. "You can fly if it is raining, can't you?" he inquired.

"Certainly," squeaked Flitter.

"Then what is to prevent you getting your meals just as usual?" Peter inquired.

"The fact that there aren't any meals to get," replied Flitter.

"Why aren't there?" demanded Peter.

"Because of the rain, stupid," squeaked Flitter rather sharply.

Peter turned this over in his mind several times and still couldn't see what the rain had to do with it. Then it occurred to him that not once had he seen Flitter appear to catch anything as he flew about above him. This set him to thinking. "Do you mean," he inquired, "that all your food is washed away?"

"No," squeaked Flitter. "I don't mean just that. You know, of course, that I get all my food in the air."

Peter nodded. "Of course I know that much," said he.

"And you know that my food consists of flying insects," continued Flitter.

Again Peter nodded. "So I have been told," said he.

"Well," replied Flitter, "when it rains and rains and rains the way it has been doing, no insects are flying. All have crept into sheltered places to wait until the rain is over. I tell you what it is, Peter Rabbit, long rains are sometimes pretty hard on some of us who have to catch all our food in the air. Skimmer the Swallow and Boomer the Nighthawk are two pretty hungry people just about now or I'm mistaken. I have known the babies of Skimmer the Swallow to starve to death when very tiny because of wet weather. Skimmer and Mrs. Skimmer simply couldn't find food enough to feed their babies. I ought to be asleep now, but the minute it stopped raining I started out hoping to find something to eat. Now it is raining again. Did you ever see such weather? If the weather doesn't clear pretty soon something is going to happen to some of us. I must get back to shelter. Good by, Peter Rabbit, and don't grumble."

Away flew Flitter the Bat

Away flew Flitter the Bat and Peter hopped back to the shelter of the old Woodchuck house in the middle of the dear old Briarpatch. He felt a little ashamed, did Peter. Yes, sir, he felt a little ashamed. "I won't complain any more," said he. "I have plenty to eat and I can sleep when I want to. But poor little Flitter has nothing to eat and his empty stomach won't let him sleep in comfort. It's queer how in this world we so often find people much worse off than ourselves. I just didn't like the rain, but it never entered my head that so much rain was making anybody suffer. I hope for Flitter's sake the sun will come out soon."

And an hour later, just as if by round bright Mr. Sun had heard Peter's wish, the clouds broke and Mr. Sun smiled down on a wet world. "Hurrah," cried Peter, "Flitter will get a good dinner tonight." Flitter did.

(Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story—Flitter the Bat at Home.

LONDON AND PARIS ORCHESTRA HONOR AMERICAN CONDUCTOR

PARIS, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The Pasdeloup orchestra of Paris and the London Symphony orchestra have paid a distinct compliment to Vladimir Shavitch, conductor of the Syracuse, N. Y., Symphony orchestra. He was one of the guest conductors of the London orchestra this year and has been invited to conduct the orchestra again April 12, 1926. This is the first time an American conductor has been invited to repeat his visit.

Last month in Paris Mr. Shavitch conducted with great success the Lamoureaux and Pasedeloup orchestras and the latter invited him to conduct the orchestra again next year after his London visit.

The wise man seeks a woman with an independent fortune rather than a fortune with an independent woman attached.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WNAC—Boston—230.3

1 P. M.—Shepard Colonial Concert orchestra.
1:50 P. M.—Popular songs, Ted and Dick Waterson, Don Ramsay accompanist.
4 P. M.—Broadcast from Loew's state theatre selections by orchestra and organ.
6:30 P. M.—WNAC dinner dance, broadcast from Shepard Colonial restaurant.

WEEI—Boston—348.6

7:20 P. M.—Lost and found, baritone.
8 P. M.—WEAF program (3 hrs.)

WBZ—Springfield—333.3

7 P. M.—Hotel ensemble; baritone.
8:30 P. M.—U. S. Marine band.
9 P. M.—Piano selections.

WJAR—Providence—305.9

1:05 P. M.—Studio program.
6 P. M.—Baseball scores.
8:05 P. M.—Musical program.
8:50 P. M.—Stephen M. Hannon will give the sixth of the series of talks on Stolen Automobiles.
9 P. M.—Musical program.
10 P. M.—Orchestra, under the direction of Joseph Knecht.

WCTS—Worcester—268

12 M. to 2 P. M.—Noonday luncheon music by the WCTS Trio under the direction of Mr. Benny Resh and broadcast direct from the Sherer restaurant.
4:30 P. M.—Radio entertainment for members of the Indoor Sports Club.
5:15 P. M.—The Twinkle-Twinkle Story Teller.
5:30 P. M.—Baseball scores.
10 to 11 P. M.—Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Knecht, direct from WEAF, New York.

WMAF—South Dartmouth—440.9

6 P. M.—Eugene Jone's Arcadian orchestra.
7 P. M.—Weekly news review, The Independent.
7:10 P. M.—Eugene Jones' Arcadian orchestra.
7:30 P. M.—Boys' Club hour.
7:40 P. M.—Michael Saltpeter, violin.
7:50 P. M.—Clarabel Nordhohn, soprano.
8 P. M.—Carol Stryker, bird talker: Miss Penner, bird calls.
8:10 P. M.—Michael Saltpeter.
8:30 P. M.—Oliver Sayler, Footlight and Limelight, Book and Play Review.
9 P. M.—Paula Fire, soprano.
9:10 P. M.—Carmine Coppola, flute.
9:20 P. M.—Paula Fire.
9:30 P. M.—Warner's theater program.

Employes at Yellowstone

Yellowstone park has a vocabulary all its own and tourists visiting it the first time have many surprises in store for them. An automobile driver is never a chauffeur in the park. He is a "gear-jammer." A waitress is always a "heaver," and a cook is known only as a "meat-burner." Most of the employes in the hotels and camps of the park are students. Twenty universities and colleges are represented among the hundreds of waitresses and housemaids working in the big hotels and camps. There are also many school teachers among the women employes, and this year most of these motored to the park in their own cars. The chauffeurs and other men employes of the transportation and hotel company also came chiefly in their own autos. Many of the students motored all the way from New York, and large numbers of them came from California.

POETRY

He Who Hath Loved

He who hath loved hath borne a vassal's chain,
And worn the royal purple of a king;
Hath shrunk beneath the icy Winter's sting,
Then revelled in the golden Summer's reign;
He hath within the dust and ashes lain,
Then soared o'er mountains on an eagle's wing;
A hut hath slept in, worn with wandering,
And hath been lord of castle-towers in Spain.
He who hath loved hath starved in beggar's cell,
Then in Aladdin's jeweled chariot driven;
He hath with passion roamed a demon fell,
His restless soul hath burned with flames of hell
And winged through ever-blooming fields of heaven.

—Walter Malone

Kathleen Mavourneen

Kathleen Mavourneen! the gray dawn is breaking,
The horn of the hunter is heard on the hill;
The lark from her light wing the bright dew is shaking—
Kathleen Mavourneen! what, slumbering still?
Oh, has thou forgotten how soon we must sever?
Oh! hast thou forgotten this day we must part?
It may be for years, and it may be forever!
Oh, why are thou silent, Kathleen Mavourneen?

Kathleen Mavourneen, awake from thy slumbers!
The blue mountains glow in the sun's golden light:
Ah, where is the spell that once hung on my numbers?
Arise in thy beauty, thou star of my night!
Mavourneen, Mavourneen, my sad tears are falling,
To think that from Erin and thee I must part!
It may be for years, and it may be forever!
Then why art thou silent, thou voice of my heart?
Then why art thou silent, Kathleen Mavourneen?

—Louisa Macartney Crawford.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Millions of women declare they wouldn't marry the best man in the world. And they don't.—Sense and Nonsense.

Does your son show any particular athletic tendency at college?

Oh, yes; he's running through my money.—Boston Transcript.

Father—Is there anything worse than to be old and bent?

His Son—Yes, to be young and broke.—The Progressive Grocer.

Horner—What do you do when your wife grabs the sporting page?

Corner—Oh, I read the dressmaking column.—Good Hardware.

Mrs. Goodsole—What inspired you to adopt the life of a tramp?

Everet Wreat—Why, ma'am, it's my calling. It's the one thing I do best—Life.

Jail visitor (speaking through bars)—Poor fellow! You must find it hard to be caged up this way.

Prisoner—Oh, it isn't so bad. You see I was a bank teller before I came here and got used to being in a cage.—Boston Transcript.

The new guest at the not too exclusive house was being shown to his room.

"I presume — ah — everyone here dresses for dinner?" he inquired of the maid who was taking him up.

"O, yes, sir," replied the maid, seriously. "Any meals in bed are extra."—Boston Globe.

Mrs. Hawkins—And have you made all the arrangements for your marriage, my dear?

Miss Jorkins—Well, not quite all. I've got to buy my trousseau and take an house, and get me designed a lot and buy 'im a good suit o' clothes an' get some regular washing to do. An' then I'm to name the happy day.—Everybody's.

KALEIDOSCOPE

The roof of the famous Crystal Palace in London contained fourteen acres of glass.

Since 1896 in India more than 10,000,000 people have perished from bubonic plague.

The portrait of the late President Harding was recently engraved on the head of a pin.

Despite popular belief, the ostrich does not hide its head in the sand when fear afflicts it.

A man in Mexico, Mo., has attended church for 31 years without missing a Sunday.

The Indian of the Brazilian wilds appeases his hunger with rats, snakes, lizards and parrots.

The hair in violin bows is obtained from white horses, the best supplies coming from Siberia.

New Hampshire has more blind people in proportion to population than any other of the states.

John Campbell, with five helpers, turned 200 horseshoes in 2 hours, 33 minutes at Buffalo, April 26, 1857.

In parts of Europe goats are driven through the streets and milked at the door of the customer.

Experiments have shown that a first-class pianist can touch the keys more than 1,000 times with one hand in one minute.

The sand glass, one of the earliest devices for recording time, was invented about 330 A. D. by a monk of Chartres named Liultbrand.

The Isle of Pines gets its name from its forest of pine trees, said to exist there at lower altitudes than anywhere else in the tropics.

Women in India now exercise the franchise in five out of the nine provinces under British rule, and in several of the native states.

Wedding rings of the cheaper grades are being bought and worn by unmarried girls in England, who imagine either that the sight of the ring attracts men or that the wedding ring protects them in public.

The first Egyptian woman proprietor of a newspaper is Miss Mujida Sabit, a cultured Mohammedan writer on women's, children's and other social subjects, who has received from the Egyptian government permission to issue a French language paper in Cairo.

For the first time in history the development of the embryo of a warm-blooded animal has been carried on under such conditions that it can be watched continuously. This feat has been accomplished by two scientists at the University of Leyden, Drs. J. P. M. Vorstaar and J. B. van den Boogert, who have placed common hens' eggs, with the shells removed in small glass dishes in an incubator and have succeeded in keeping the embryo alive and growing for five days. Hitherto the only way in which such embryos could be studied has been by placing large numbers of eggs in the incubator, and removing and opening them one by one at intervals. By this other method it has been possible to study closely spaced stages of development, but not to observe the growth as a continuous process now made possible by the new way.

Genuine
BAYER ASPIRIN

SAY "BAYER ASPIRIN" and INSIST!

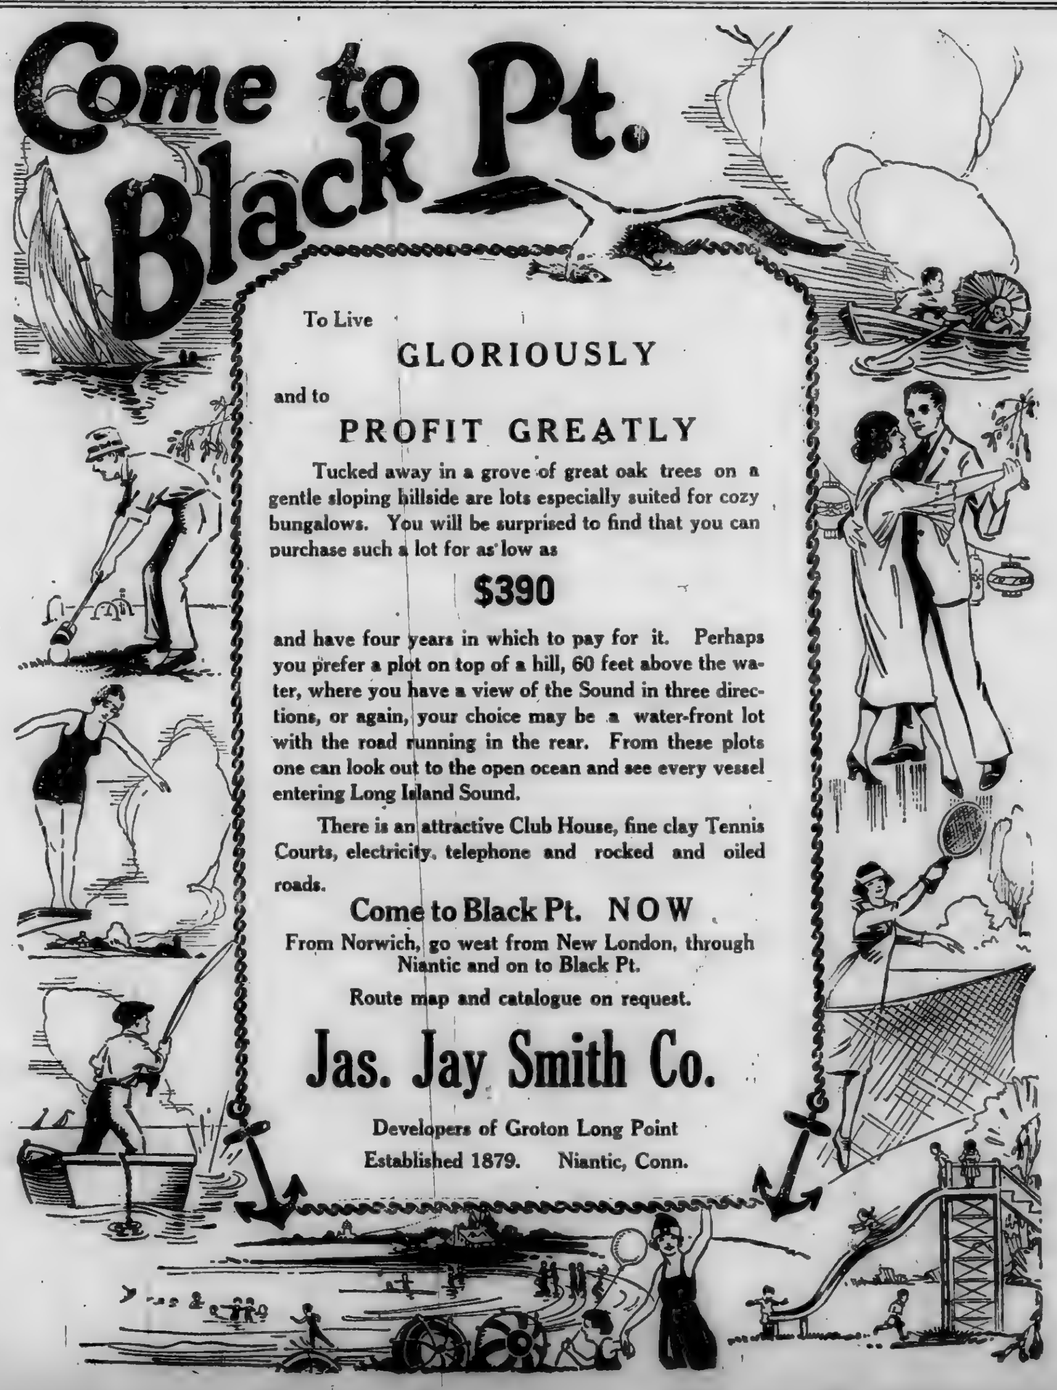
Unless you see the "Bayer Cross" on tablets you are not getting the genuine Bayer Aspirin proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for 25 years.

Safe — Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets
Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

Come to Black Pt.



To Live
GLORIOUSLY
and to
PROFIT GREATLY

Tucked away in a grove of great oak trees on a gentle sloping hillside are lots especially suited for cozy bungalows. You will be surprised to find that you can purchase such a lot for as low as

$390

and have four years in which to pay for it. Perhaps you prefer a plot on top of a hill, 60 feet above the water, where you have a view of the Sound in three directions, or again, your choice may be a water-front lot with the road running in the rear. From these plots one can look out to the open ocean and see every vessel entering Long Island Sound.

There is an attractive Club House, fine clay Tennis Courts, electricity, telephone and rocked and oiled roads.

Come to Black Pt. NOW

From Norwich, go west from New London, through Niantic and on to Black Pt.

Route map and catalogue on request.

Jas. Jay Smith Co.

Developers of Groton Long Point
Established 1879. Niantic, Conn.

KENYON AND SHAPIRO TAKE MEANS TO DECIDE RIGHTS AT NEW LONDON

NEW LONDON, Sept. 2.—Louis Kenyon and Samuel Shapiro, owners of real estate on Jay street, have begun a contest with the city to establish once and for all whether the owner of real estate has possession of it to use as he or she sees fit. In the event that the property is not used for purposes that will establish it as a nuisance to people in the vicinity, or make it a fire menace, or a dangerous place and one that will make the value of property adjoining, deterate. The plaintiffs in this case have applied for permision to erect a store on Jay street about half way between Hempstead and Franklin streets and to make use of the premises in connection with their automobile business. They represent that they are to consolidate a tire shop business with a business of auto repairing and that the change will obviate the hiring of five places, as at present.

The city council considered the application for the permission sought at a stated meeting and then at a special meeting, but did not act upon it further than to represent that the members of the council desired to visit the premises and observe the location. Last Monday evening it was expected that the committee of the council would report and that the Kenyon-Shapiro petition would be acted upon. Such action was not taken, so Tuesday the owners of the premises begun work by excavating for the building to be erected. The Bulletin made known the fact this morning, which intelligence brought the city's building inspector to the premises and with the authority that is vested in him he ordered the sensation of work.

Messrs Kenyon and Shapiro went right out and sought the interference of the courts. They will seek and receive mandamus action in the matter which will leave it where the court will pass upon the facts. The city considered for the first time a zoning ordinance at its meeting Monday evening, but that ordinance is not a law yet nor can the Kenyon and Shapiro claim antedate the petition which they presented to the city council for permission to improve and make use of their property. The mandamus will, it is understod, represent that the petitioners are discriminated against by the council and by the city in as much as there is a business place directly opposite the premises it is proposed to make use of now.

An automobile owned and driven by Alfred Rowland, 31 Thames St., struck a youth on Howard street this morning. Rowland caused the boy to be taken to Home Memorial hospital where it was found that he had sustained only minor injuries and he was taken to him home, 51 Smith St.

An attempt was made early this morning to steal an automobile owned by Allen Tiffany, of Waterford, the thieves abandoning the car a short distance from the Tiffany home, when they were pursued. The machine had been parked in the yard of the Tiffany home for the night. At 3.45 o'clock Mrs. Tiffany heard the machine being driven from the yard. She aroused her husband and then notified the New London police that the car was headed toward New London. Tiffany ran from the house and to the highway and at the same time the machine came to a stop and the two occupants alighted. Observing Tiffany running toward the automobile, the thieves abandoned the car and fled, son disappearing in the darkness.

Andriana Caracausa today sold to Attorney Frank L. McGuire a house and lot on Masonic street, directly west of the corner of Main street. The property was acquired for approximately $13,000, and adjoins property on Main street acquired Monday by Mr. McGuire from Salvatore Caracausa, for $12,000.

Elizabeth J. Bailey has sold to Thomas Sammataro a house and lot on Division street.

Lucius E. Whiton today sold to Cora J. Petrie a house and lot on Brainard street.

A fight among sailors stationed at the local sectional base of the United States Coast Guard academy, state pier, occurred early this morning on Main street, near Federal street. The brawl caused residents of that neighborhood to be aroused from their slumbers and the police were summoned: Acting Lieutenant Frank Howard, Sergeant Patrick Murphy and Patrolmen Howard Sloan and Braxton Hill hastened to the site of the battle, but the fight had ended when the officers arrived, although the sailors were assembled and ready for a renewal of hostilities. The sailors were driven from the street and were followed to the state pier by the officers that a resumption of the fight might not occur.

Floyd Mitchell, of 25 Truman street; Mrs. Max Rosowsky, 36 Reed street; Mrs. Michael Grimaldi and infant son, 19 1-2 Lincoln avenue; Mrs. William Riddle and infant son, 1170 Ocean avenue; Miss Theiman, Perkins, Waterford; Mrs. Carol Stone, Pequot avenue and Parkway; Joseph Christopherson, 35 West Colt street, and Miss Gladys Carter, patients at Lawrence-Memorial Associated hospital were dismissed today.

John D. Glynn, 26, died this morning at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Glyn, 153 Willetts avenue, death resulting from tuberculosis, for the treatment of which Mr. Glynn was a patient at Uncas-on-Thames Norwich State Sanatorium, several months. Mr. Glynn, was employed by the New London Glass company until his health became impaired. Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, Leslie S., Fred L., and Thomas S. Glynn and three sister, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Edward Saier and Miss Alvina Glynn, all of this city.

Patrolman Edward Daniels was to-day suspended one week by City Manager William A. Holt, the suspension dating from last Sunday since which time the officer has been under suspension. The suspension of Patrolman Daniels was made by the city manager as a result of a hearing yesterday on charges preferred against the officer by Acting Captain James C. Sullivan last Monday, following Daniels failing to report for duty the day before and also for leaving the city without permission. The order to Acting Captain Sullivan suspending Daniels was as follows: "You are hereby advised that as a result of the hearing in the case of Patrolman Edward Daniels, charged with failing to report for duty and being absent from duty without permission or reasonable cause, on Sunday, August 30, 1925, said Edward Daniels is hereby suspended from duty for a period of one week; from date of August 30th." "Patrolman Daniels will resume duty next Sunday.

Mazie Williams, a negress, fat and 40, made her semi-occasional appearance in the police court this morning, where she was charged, as she has been accused many time heretofore with conducting a vile place at 58 Hill stret. Mazie is deaf, but she heard all that was said to her and holding her right hand over her head she admitted that she was guilty and was rightly accused. She was scooped up in the police dragnet when it swept along Hill street, last night. In the clutches of the law with Mazie were Grace Wilson and Marie Evanes, both colored, the former claiming to be married and to have a husband in the service of Uncle Sam on a naval vessel. Two sailors, white, John Robertson and John Redmond, seamen on coast guard steamer No. 5, were with the colored women having a fine time when the officers entered. The women were charged like the men with frequenting a disreputable place. The whole bunch pleaded guilty. The Williams woman was fined $100 and committed to jail for a stay of 30 days. Her boarders were fined $10 each, and told that New London could get along nicely without their presence. They paid their fines. The sailors said they had been in the Williams house but 20 minutes when the policemen appeared, so they had slight opportunity to visit with their colored associates. They were turned over to the coast guard authorities. The penalty for frequenting such places as the Williams woman maintained is a fine of $100 and imprisonment for six months or both but the court was lenient in its wisdom and allowed the parties complained of to go with a light fine. The officers making the arrests were Sergeants Howard and Murphy and Policemen Philopena and Sloan.

There were 195 arrests made by the police during August, but all did not get before the court. Some of those arrested were detained for the state police.

A man about 40, a stranger in this city, had the narrowest kind of a call from being crushed to death beneath a locomotive of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad early this evening.

The man was at the foot of John street and intoxicated. He had been standing against the supports of the gates and remained there until the locomotive was approaching the crossing, on the way to the Union Station. Just before the locomotive reached the crossing the fellow staggered to the middle of the tracks where he remained standing, lurching back and forth. The engineer observed the stranger's peril and applied the brakes, with such power that the engine slipped along the rails, stopping less than 10 feet from the inebriate. Patrolmen Howard Sloan and Henry Hick, who had been t othe plant of the Connecticut Power Company to arrest another drunk, saw the narrow escape of the stranger and immediately placed him under arrest. When searched at the police station there was nothing upon his person to indicate his identity, but he had $37 in bills scattered about his clothing, no two of the bills being folded together. He will be given a hearing in the police court tomorrow morning.

John Weimer, 15 Spring street, a baker, was arrested this evening by Patrolmen Braxton Hill, Patrick Sheehan and Howard Sloan, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He will be in the police court tomorrow morning. So drunk was Weimer that he was refused bail. Weimer, who was formerly a railroad employe until he lost part of a leg and who since that time has been employed as a baker in New London and Willimantic, left his machine parked on Church street during the late afternoon. When he returned to drive it away, about 7 o'clock, he was so badly intoxicated that he had difficulty starting the engine. Residents of that vicinity notified the police of Weimer's condition and his attempting to operate the car and when the officers arrived Weimer was in the act of driving the machine from the curb

An automobile, owned and operated by Mrs. Wildred Donnelly, of 152 Lincoln avenue and a commercial car, driven by Carl Nelson, Old Lyme, were in collision late this afternoon at the corner of Methodist and Union streets. Both cars were damaged.

David A. Nagle, 58 Cutler street, complained to the police late this afternoon that a quantity of fireworks had been deposited in the wooded section in the rear of Hillside Home and that the explosives were close to the building used by the city in storing dynamite. Nagle also declared that children had discovered the depository of the fireworks and were igniting them, causing a dangerous condition, both in regard to the children being injured and loss of property. Motorcycle Officer Clarence Martin was sent to where the fireworks were reported to have been placed and found a quantity of the smallest fire cracker manufactured, they being of the size provided for very young children. The fire crackers were water-soaked from being subjected to weather and appeared unlikely to explode. However, the fireworks were destroyed.

Austin T. Sackett, of 94 Glenwood avenue and E. Victor Goldsmith, Hotel Mohican apartments, have been ordered to appear in the police court tomorrow morning charged with violation of the city's traffic ordinances. Messrs Sackett and Goldsmith were ordered into court by Traffic Officer Clyde Murphy when they parked their automobiles on State street for a period longer than 30 minutes.

Frank Greenman, a truck driver residing with his family at 33 Winthrop street, was taken into custody this evening charged with intoxication. He will be given a hearing in the police court tomorrow morning. Greenman returned home from his work about 7 o'clock and was much the worse for drink, so much so that he annoyed members of the family to such an extent that the police were requested to take charge of him. Patrolmen Howard Sloan and Henry Hick were sent to Greenman's residence and placed him under arrest. A member of the family stated that she would appear against Greenman when he is in court tomorrow.

Walter Francis, 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Adams 633 Main street, died today at Lawrence hospital, where the child had been under treatment but a few days.

CLASSMATES HONOR GUARD AT MISS GRAY'S WEDDING

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 2—Raymond L. Manion, son of Mrs. William Manion, of Avon, and Miss Dorothy Baldwin Gray, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Gray, were married this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, 89 Broad street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, pastor of the Second Congregational church, in the presence of relatives and friends. John J. Joyce, of Avon, was best man and the matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Max Underhill, of this city. Little Winifred Underhill, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

During the ceremony a guard of honor, consisting of nine classmates of the bride at Connecticut College, stood at one side of the bride, being Misses May Buckley, of Baltic, Sue Wilcox, of Norwich Town, Grace Cockings, of Bristol, Anne P. Flaherty, of this city, Priscilla Ford Schenke, of New Haven, Esther Barnes, of Mystic, Dorothy Dart, of this city. Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Manion will reside in New York, where Mr. Manion is employed.

BRANDEGEE HOME PURCHASER PROVES TO BE A. C. FULLER

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 3rd—It developed today that the real purchaser of the vast tract of realty, owned by the late Senator Frank Bosworth Brandegee, and bounded by Hempstead, Fremont, Walker and Bristol streets, is not the Corticelli Silk company, formerly the Brainard & Armstrong company, but is Arthur C. Fuller, employed by the New London Real Estate company, with offices in the buildings of the silk company. Benjamin A. Armstrong is at the head of the silk company and is also in control of the real estate company. The deed transferring the property, it is expected, will have been filed at the office of the city clerk the latter part of the present week, after which the land fronting on Hempstead, Fremont and Bristol streets will be cut into building sites. A number of fruit bearing trees will be transferred from the site t othe residence of J. P. T. Armstrong, secretary of the Corticelli Silk Company, on Hillside avenue.

MOTHER'S AID STARTS SON ON WAY TO GOLF CROWN

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 2—The companionship of a boy and his mother opened the way to the winning of the 1925 Western amateur golf championship.

When Keefe Carter, 19-year-old holder of this year's title, was 12 years old, his mother, Mrs. Dorsel Carter, was ordered by her physician to seek outdoor exercise. She took up golf and Keefe went with her as she played around the courses here.

Soon Mrs. Carter developed a fondness for the game and her enthusiasm moved the boy to take a try at it. They played daily and within a short time young Carter was displaying something more than ordinary form for a boy of his age and strength.

But Keefe was not in robust health, and his physician ordered him to stop golf, quit school and rest. For two years the boy did not touch a golf club, but when he was permitted to return to the links, the mother was awaiting him with a lot of new golfing ideas.

The boy soon showed that his long idleness had not spoiled his form. Sandy Baxter, a local professional, awoke to young Carter's ability and took him in charge.

Carter got his first tournament experience in state titular contests in 1922. He qualified in Class D and went through to the finals. A short time later he reached the finals in the state junior championship. The next year he made the lowest qualifying score in the state tournament, but in the second round of match play he went down before Bill Nichols of Muskogee.

Last year, Carter won the state title. In the semi-finals he defeated Nichols, who avenged the defeat this year, taking Carter's measure in the finals. It went to 37 holes.

Carter's success in the Western tournament came on his second entry. Last year at Chicago he qualified, but was eliminated in the first round.

CANADA SEEN AS POLITICAL POWER IN BRITISH EMPIRE

WINNIPEG, MAN., Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—In the opinion of C. M. MacInnes, professor of colonial and economic history at the University of Bristol, England, nothing can stop the North American continent from becoming eventually the chief influence of the future. He expressed that view when he stopped here recently on his way to Calgary, his birth place.

As to Canada's future he said: "I feel that in the years to come there is every likelihood of Canada becoming the center of the British Commonwealth of Nations, with the necessary political power transferred to her.

"There may be some who would advocate that Canada should go forward as an independent nation, outside the British Commonwealth. I fail to see this line of reasoning, for the fact that Canada is within the empire, appears to me one of the chief reasons of her strength."

Prof. MacInnes lost the sight of both eyes as a result of wounds received in the World war.

Alvear Proposes Labor Courts

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 2.—(AP)—President Alvear has sent to congress a bill proposing the institution of labor courts in the city of Buenos Aires. The proposed courts would deal with all disputes relative to salaries and pensions, while decisions from conciliation and arbitration tribunals could be carried by appeal to these courts

Tree Preservative Kills Bees

WERBER, Germany, Sept. 2—(A.P.)—Millions of bees in the Werder district have been killed supposedly from chemicals sprinkled upon fruit trees. Only the insects that were near the orchards died.

CONGRESS ON GOOD ROADS TO MEET AT BUENOS AIRES

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 2—The United States and virtually all the republics of Central and South America have accepted invitations to be represented at the first Pan-American Roads Congress to meet in Buenos Aires from October 8-13, in addition to the official delegates from the various countries representation also is expected from organizations interested in the promotion of building good roads, such as automobile clubs and engineering institutions.

Included in the delegation from the United States will be H. H. Rice, vice president of the General Motors Company; Thomas M. MacDonald, chief of the bureau of public roads, Washington; William A. Sherwell, general secretary of the High Inter-American Commission; Frank Page, president of the Roads Committee of North Carolina; Charles M. Babcock fo the Roads Committee of Minnesota; Frank L. Bishop, dean of the engineering school of Pittsburgh University and William E. Hill of Illinois.

TAXES REVEAL ATHLETIC GROWTH ON WEST COAST

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2—Itex Goodcell, collector of internal revenue, recently announced figures that show noteworthy progress during the last five years in the development of athletic activities in Southern California.

The compilations revealed that there are 69 country and golf clubs in operation in the district, tax collections from which amounted to $545,837 during the fiscal year of 1924-25, as compared with $170,183 in 1920, an increase of $375,704, or 220 per cent. A 27 percent gain over the fiscal year of 1924 was shown.

Other amusements likewise increased in popularity. Indoor sports such as afforded by billiard and bowling halls and shooting galleries showed gains ranging from 23 to 46 per cent. in 1925 over 1924. Riding academies increased 24 per cent. and collections of tax on yachts and other pleasure craft advanced 107 per cent.

TOKYO'S LOWER CLASS SUFFER FROM INDUSTRIAL DEPRESSION

TOKYO, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The condition of the school children in the slum quarters of Tokyo recently has been attracting the attention of the newspapers. Owing to the industrial depression, the poverty of the lower classes is becoming more and more pronounced. It is said that hundreds of children attending the Temahime, Mannen and Hayashi primary schools have been going without lunch daily because of lack of funds. The teachers, learning of the situation, have been soliciting funds to provide the youngersters with food.

Free State Population 3,163,000.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—(AP)—An official estimate gives the population of the Free State as 3,163,000. There is a slight decline in the birth and death rates. The Free State has not yet taken a census.

Argentine Farmers Progressive

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Farm machinery imported from the United States during 1924 is reported to have totaled nearly $17,000,000, an increase of $4,000,000 over the previous year. The imports included 4,685 threshers, 46,497 plows, 4,874 harvesters and reapers and 3,428 tractors.

Famous Old Manuscript Found

LENINGRAD, Sept. 2.—A. P.)—An old manuscript discovered in the archives of the Leningrad library is claimed by the Academy of Science to be the original manuscript of the famous Oriental tales A Thousand and One Nights. As early as the 15th century it was believed that this manuscript had been destroyed. This rare find has now been incorporated in the Russian National Museum of Moscow.

New Sundial

A new form of sundial that tells time to within thirty seconds on an ordinary clock face, has been received by F. Hope-Jones, chairman of the British Horological Institute, in London, from the inventor, Professor W. E. Cooke government astronomer of Sydney, Australia, and is described by Mr. Hope-Jones in the magazine Nature. It consists of a ring which can move on pivots placed in a north and south plane, the position of the gnomon of the usual sundial. On one side of the ring is a small hole which, when the sun is shining, and the instrument is in use, casts a small spot of light on a figure eight curve on the opposite side. This curve is marked with the date for various times of the year, and allows for the "equation of time" or the amount that the sun is ahead or behind its average position. To use it, the ring is turned until the spot of light is on the proper part of the curve, and the hands, which are geared to it, then indicate the correct time.

Floral World Novelty

Roses made of rubber are the latest novelty in the floral world, but they are so scented and tinted that it is difficult to distinguish them from real flowers. Rubber roses are the invention of Mrs. McGarvie Munn of England, who hopes soon to establish work shops in which she will teach disabled exsoldiers the art of making these artificial blossoms. The flowers are washable, and are described by the Rubber Growers association as an "artistic and hygienic novelty."

If women were satisfied with nature's handiwork there would be fewer toilet preparations on the market.

PALACE THEATRE

ANOTHER BIG NIGHT TONIGHT
—WHY?—MERCHANTS' NITE
Many Wonderful and Useful Presents Given Away

5—SPLENDID ACTS—5

NANCY FAIR and CO.
Co-Star With Ernest Truex in Two Shows, Feature With Winter Garden—Passing Show Girl in the Limousine—Oh! What a Girl, No More Blondes and Several Other Broadway Productions.

CARLSON SISTERS & FITZGERALD — In a Hodge Podge of Song—Melody & Dance
DARRELL & HOWELL — A Barrel of Comedy
FULTON & MACK — A Novelty Offering
FRANK PARRISH — Musical Novelties

BEN WILSON IN
HIS MAJESTRY The Outlaw

Greater Movie Season Starts At The Palace, Sunday Night. Watch Tomorrow's Paper

BROADWAY
—NOW PLAYING—
MAT. 2:15—EVENG. 7 to 10:30
"GET THAT BROADWAY GOING HABIT"

A Diversified Program of
5—FINE ACTS—5
VAUDEVILLE

EDDIE WHITE & CO.
COMEDIANS
You'll Laugh and Roar With Them

NILE MARSH
Offers "NEW IMPRESSIONS"

WILBUR & GIRLIE
in "YULETIDE"

SIMON MYERS & KATHRYN AMY in
"ON MY UKULELE."

DEVORE & GRAEF
Herculean Acrobatic Marvels

—On the Screen—
KENNETH M'DONALD
MARGUERITE CLAYTON
JOSEPH DOWLING
EDITH YORK in
"What Love Will Do"
A Thrill-a-Drama
You've Never Seen Such Thrills and Stunts Before.

KINOGRAMS

2 FOR 1
THIS AD AND ONE PAID ADMISSION ADMITS 2 PEOPLE TO
THE MATINEE TODAY

FOR THE BEST SHOW IN TOWN—IT'S HERE

DANCE
GEN. LYON HALL, EASTFORD
FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 4TH
FARMERS' NIGHT
GOOD MUSIC BY
LYRIC ORCH. OF WILLIMANTIC

DANCE TONIGHT
AT
Pearson's Pine-Brook Farm
(BOZRAH ST.)
MUSIC BY
Zimm's Novelty Orchestra

DON'T FORGET
THE DANCE
Friday Night at
HILLTOP CASINO
The Three Bashful Boys
THUMM'S ORCHESTRA
Admission 50 Cents

PALACE
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Sept. 6, 7, 8, 9. Symphony Orchestra, Wm. S. Jeffs, Conductor.

That's—
'THE TEN COMMANDMENTS'
Cecil B. DeMille's greatest
Paramount Picture

BREED THEATRE
TODAY—LAST SHOWING
JUST A WOMAN
With CONWAY TEARLE, CLAIRE WINDSOR, PERCY MARMONT
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
Harry Carey
—IN—
"THE BAD LANDS"
Opening Chapter
PLAY BALL
By JOHN J. McGRAW
GOOD NEWS!
One of Broadway's Greatest Plays is Now a Screen Attraction
"FRIENDLY ENEMIES"
—With—
Weber and Fields
World's Most Popular and Best-Loved Entertainers
COMING SUNDAY
For a Limited Engagement of
3—DAYS ONLY—3

6 DAYS 6 NIGHTS
NEW CONNECTICUT
State Fair
HARTFORD
SEPT. 7-12.
—EXHIBITS—
Livestock—State Departments—Implements—Boys' and Girls' Clubs
—SHOWS—
Agricultural — Industrial — Flower—Auto
—RACES—
4 DAYS OF HARNESS
AUTOS SATURDAY
HORSE SHOW FRIDAY
FREE PARKING FOR AUTOS
SPECIAL R. R. EXCURSIONS.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breed Theater

Coming from a team of comedians whose fun making proclivities have been famous the country over for half a century, it is rather surprising to hear them single out one specific instance when they feel they have been funniest.

Yet Weber and Fields, making their screen appearance in George Melford's Friendly Enemies, an adaptation of the famous Broadway stage success, which is coming to the Breed theater for a three day run starting Sunday, declare that they have never done anything funnier and more diverting than their work in this picture.

It is the story of two German-Americans, bosom friends, who are continually fighting over the war. When America enters the conflict the arguments grow white hot and the two often come almost to the point of blows.

A disaster which almost spells tragedy for the Block and Pfeiffer homes, is narrowly averted through the pluck and daring of a girl secret service agent. This provides the story with a tremendous punch and the incidents which follow might well be calculated to stir the blood of even a jellyfish.

The play was written by Samuel Shipman and Aaron Hoffman and adapted to the screen by Alfred A. Cohn and Josephine Quirk. Supporting Weber and Fields are Virginia Brown Faire, Lucille Lee Stewart, Jack Mulhall, Eugenie Besserer, Ed. Porter and many others of prominence.

Baseball is not played by electricity, yet some teams are in need of a new battery.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Centenary of the birth of John Drew, a favorite of the early American stage and father of the present-day popular player of the same name.

If Eugene Field, the beloved "children's poet," were living today, he would be 75 years old, having been born on this date in the year 1850.

Today's programme of the annual meeting of the American Bar Association in Detroit will be featured with an address this evening by John G. Sargent, attorney-general of the United States.

A three-day pageant commemorating the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the first notable naval engagement of the American Revolution, which took place in the vicinity of Martha's Vineyard, in 1778, will be inaugurated in the town of Oak Bluffs.

What Is Going On Tonight

Norwich Stationary Engineers association, No. 6, meets in Buckingham Memorial.

Franklin chapter, No. 4, R. A. M., meets in Masonic temple.

Norwich lodge, No. 430, B. P. O. E., meets in Elks home.

Canton Oneco, No. 3, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows home.

Clover temple, No. 9, P. S., meets in Buckingham Memorial.

Victory lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. L. M. U., meets in Steiner Hall.

Germania lodge, No. 11, O. D. R. S., meets in Germania hall.

Moulders Union meets in A. O. H. Hall.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Palace Theatre

Egypt. The days of the glory of the Pharaohs. Such majesty and power and corrosive magnificence as existed only in those periods of history when one small class lives upon and in heedless of the blood and tears of tens of thousands of people held in subjection.

The children of Israel in bondage. Bereft of hope they toil in the desert, building walls and temples and pyramids. Faithful to their God despite the vindictive oppression of a ruler and a people who worship graven images, they finally see hope when Moses is raised up to plead for their liberation from slavery.

An old man in flowing robes gains audience with Rameses, but his pleas for justice do not avail, and as a last resort he pronounces—the curse of the death of the first-born. The old man is Moses, but his curse provokes only laughter, and Pharaoh's young son lashes the prophet from the steps of the throne.

Moses' leads the children of Israel forth from the gates of the city of their captivity. By the thousands they stream forth—men and women and children. Most of them are afoot, but here and there one rides an ass or a camel, and some of the aged and infirm are in litters.

As the dust settles figures emerge slowly from a misty background. Departed is the picturesque splendor of the days when history was written in stone; vanished the majesty of the background of Sinai and the lightning which was the sign of the wrath of God.

A primly dressed mother sits at a table in a modern room. She is reading from the Bible to her two sons. It is San Francisco; the time is today, on a just-passed yesterday.

One son, Dan, is bored and cynical. The other son, John, is tolerant and more than half impressed; at any rate, he is deferential to his mother.

"That's bunk," says Dan. He intimates that the Ten Commandments may have been all right for the dead ones, but that the world has changed. The deeply religious mother, a Scotch-American woman who believes in the letter and fails to catch the spirit of religion, is affronted. Hugging her Bible to her flat breast, she turns her son out of her home because he says he does not believe in God. Dan apologizes to his mother, but refuses to apologize to God because he does not believe in God.

Now it so happens that the good son also loves Mary, and in bitterness of spirit he says: "I guess that's all I'm fit for—to be a carpenter."

His mother, her Bible in her hand, overhears his words, and replies: "Many fine men have been carpenters, John."

In the second part of the film takes up the lives of these four people twice years later. Climaxes of thrilling power are reached, and in the end the Eternal Law is vindicated.

Broadway Theater

There are five new B. F. Keith vaudeville acts at the Broadway theater for the last half of this week. The program is one to please the most discriminate theatergoers, for it has everything a well balanced show should contain.

Frank Wilbur in Yuletide is a comedy juggling offering.

Nile Marsh offers New Impressions.

Simon Myers and Kathryn Amy in On My Ukelele is a comedy singing offering.

Eddie White and Co. are comedians with whom you'll roar.

Devore and Graef the Herculean acrobatic marvels, will give you a real thrill.

Realism is demanded on the screen, and sometimes the desire to please the public results disastrously. While shooting an automobile racing with a train, in What Love Will Do, Director Bradbury asked Miss Marguerite Clayton to maintain an even speed of 40 miles an hour down a straightaway, then, just as she pulled up to the train, to turn off the road. Everything went off like clockwork until the turn. A hole in the road jerked the wheel from Miss Clayton's hands, and the car careened madly from side to side. A newly plowed field stopped the car just as Mr. McDonald, the star, made a flying leap and landed at Miss Clayton's side to bring the car under control. An unexpected thrill recorded in the camera. A new Kinogram will also be shown.

Palace Theatre

Nancy Fair and Co. co-star with Ernest Truex in two shows, feature with Winter Garden-Passing Show-Girl in the Limousine-Oh, What a Girl -No More Blondes and several other Broadway productions will be one of the feature acts at the Palace theatre for the last half of the week.

Carlson Sisters and Fitzgerald in a Hodge Podge of song, melody and dance will be another headline act.

Comedy stuff will be furnished by Darrell and Howell.

Fulton and Mack will offer a novelty act.

Frank Parrish will open the show with a variety of musical novelties.

The feature picture will be Ben Wilson in His Majesty the Outlaw.

Many valuable presents will be given away at the theatre tonight, celebrating another Merchants Night.

FOR SALE FOR SALE
A two family house of 12 rooms outside city with 50 acres land plenty of wood. Owner leaving town. Large barn included, electric light and improvements, all for $5500.
NORWICH LAND TITLE & INS. CO.
TEL. 2279.

The Vacation of all Vacations
A Trip to Europe on a Cunarder

NEW ships of greater splendor; manned by the world's best-trained personnel; service in every department of the ship which is of a character that attracts the more experienced of the travelling public—and costs no more.

Cunard and Anchor Lines
Next Sailings from Boston
Columbia Sept. 8—Scythia Sept. 8—Samaria Sept. 19
Frequent sailings from New York & Montreal
CUNARD LINE, 126 State St., Boston

For local agents for rates, sailings and descriptive booklets

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

SMITH—In East Thompson, Aug. 24th, 1925, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Danielson.

MARRIED

BARNES-RAYNOR—In Mystic, Sept. 1st, 1925, by Rev. Frederick G. Chutter, Charles Frederick Barnes and Miss Elsie Raynor.

CAFFERY-DESMOND—In this city Sept. 2, 1925, by Rev. William A. Keefe, Thomas Michael Caffery of 39 Prospect Street and Miss Katherine V. Desmond of No. 129 Cliff street.

MANION-GRAY—In New London, Sept. 2nd, 1925, by Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, Raymond I. Manoin, of Avon, Conn., and Miss Dorothy B. Gray, of New London.

DIED

GLYNN—In New London, Sept. 2, 1925, John D., son of Michael and Almeda Glynn, in his 27th year.

TREAT—In Pleasant View, R. I., Sept. 2, 1925, Gertrude Nettleton, widow of Charles O. Treat, of South Manchester, aged 70 years.

FUNERAL NOTICES

OTIS—In New Haven hospital, August 31, 1925, Robert Beckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Otis, aged 17 years, 7 months.
Funeral service at his parents' home, No. 322 West Main street, Thursday, Sept. 3, at 2.30 d. s. t. Burial in Yantic cemetery.
Meriden papers please copy.

KORENKEWICZ—In Norwich, September 2, 1925, Mrs. Mary Korenkewicz, aged 58 years of 72 Road Street.
Funeral services from her late home, 72 Road Street, Saturday morning at 8.30, s. t. Requiem mass in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Frances A. Wormsley, who died a year ago today, Sept. 3rd, 1924.

(Gone But Not Forgotten)

THOMAS WORMSLEY, husband
MRS. FANNY W. THOMPSON, daughter, and the Grandchildren.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2.

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290. Lady Assistant.

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Sept. 15 good clean, reliable man for general farm work. Must be good milker. Good board and treatment and sixty dollars a month. Edwards Farm, Stonington, Conn. sept3d

SALES MANAGER, EXPERIENCED organizer, represent manufacturer new specialty; every merchant prospect. Unlimited demand and money-making possibilities. Exclusive territory. Small investment, $500 to $1,000 and references required. Those qualified write General Manager, Room 1602, 110 West 40th St., New York. aug28d

WANTED—Salesmen and collectors, experience not necessary. We teach you, salary and commission. Chance for rapid advancement. See H. C. Lester, 48 Main St. sept2d

SALESMEN wanted. Apply Room 3, Chapman Bldg. 8-9 a. m. and 5-6 p. m. sept2d

WANTED—First class plumber. Apply John Blum, 10 Main St. sept2d

WANTED—Dishwasher. Apply Mohegan Restaurant, 252 Main St. sept1d

Water! Water!! Water!!!

Do not have your well drilled until you see Trask. We have machine at North Stonington.

TRASK ARTESIAN WELL CO.
Portsmouth, R. I.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

WANTED—Female

WANTED—A girl to assist in housework and care of baby. Apply mornings between 10 and 12. Mrs. L. R. Ethier, 226 Main St. sept3d

WOMEN—Embroider for us. We furnish all materials. Experience unnecessary. No canvassing. Pleasant work. Standard Mfgs. Sturgis, Mich. sept3d

WANTED—Girl to board. Reasonable price. Write Bulletin Box G-38. sept3d

LADIES! 60c an hour. Distribute samples to every home and office. Send self addressed stamped envelope. Denison, 316 Fountain, Dayton, Ohio. sept3d

WANTED—An experienced bookkeeper. Write Retail Bulletin Office. sept2d

WANTED—Experienced stenographer with some knowledge of bookkeeping desires position of responsibility. Address, stating salary, Bulletin Box E-36. sept2d

WANTED—By an Academy girl, place as mother's helper for board. Phone 1863-4. sept1d

WANTED—Housekeeper. Protestant, by widower, 3 in family, no washing, references, one who prefers a home with fair pay to high wages, middle aged. Chas. A. Gray, R. D. 1, Norwich, Conn. sept1d

WANTED—Competent maid for general house work. References required. Tel. 2226 for appointment. aug31d

WANTED—Woman of middle age for general work about house. Apply to the Windham County Temporary Home for Children, Putnam, Conn. Tel. 120. aug29d

WANTED—Woman for general house work to go out of town. Phone 2696J aug29d

WANTED.
Experienced Saleslades for steady positions. Good Salary.
IDEAL COTTON STORES
119 MAIN STREET.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 22 Market St., Phone 2152. sept3d

MACHINE SHOP WORK. We have a quantity of metal parts to be manufactured and would be glad to let contracts to machine shops capable of doing the work. Sea Sled Corporation, West Mystic, Conn. sept3d

WANTED—Room, must be central, full particulars, rate, size, location. N. J. Gray, 94 Ocean Ave., New London, Ct. sept3d

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 359, Norwich Phone 861-12, Norwich; 406, Willimantic. TuThsMay16

DRESSES made new or remodeled by expert European dressmaker. Prices reasonable. Write Bulletin Box D-45. sept2d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 102 Franklin St. Phone 559 sept1d

WANTED—Antiques, tools and second hand furniture. H. B. Tiger, 48-50 Water St. Tel. 2145. sept1d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward, 16 Water St., Tel. 34 sept1d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 22 Market St. Phone 2152. sept1d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves; highest prices paid. Call 1405. sept1d

WANTED—Position by teacher. References. Write Box D27 Bulletin. aug29d

WANTED—The public to know that the Norwich Town cider mill is open for business. W. D. Thatcher, 42 Tanner St., Norwich Town. aug28d

A boy in Lebanon sez he don't believe that sayin' "eat an apple a day to keep the doctor away"; he sez he et 12 green ones and the doctor cum evryday. Van Der Meer Mild cigars, 3 for 20c. Helmar cigarettes, 20 for 20c, a 50c pipe and 16 oz. tin of Tuxedo, all for $1.00. Fagan's Smoke Shop. aug22d

WANTED—Land on state road with or without buildings. Unimproved property will be considered if price is reasonable. Apply to A. C. Burdick, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. Aug14dtf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. nov2d

FLORIDA PROPERTY WANTED—Acreage Lots, Etc., direct from owner; give location, description, lowest price, terms; quick transaction. P. O. Box 464, Springfield, Mass. ly22dtf

WANTED—Property owners to know that under my new real estate system I will buy your property direct or will sell for you on a commission basis. For particulars write Wm M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. june3d.

WANTED!
Watches, Wrist Watches, Clocks of any makes; also all kinds of Jewelry to repair. Work guaranteed and done at once at the lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Write or telephone 2146.
OGULNICK JEWELRY CO.
77 Franklin St., Norwich, Conn.
(Est. 1907.)

AUCTIONS.

AUCTION NOTICE

By order of the owner we will sell at public sale on the premises at 14 So. Main St., Danielson, Conn., on Saturday, Sept. 5, at 10 o'clock a. m., E. S. T., the entire stock of dry goods, groceries, canned goods, hardware, preserve jars, show cases, peanut roaster, scales, cash register, paper press, electric fan, etc., in one lot if possible, otherwise in lots to suit the purchasers. Witter Bros., Auctioneers, Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Conn.

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—Chalmers car, six, 1922, touring sport, disk wheels, motor perfect shape, good rubber. Economical car to run. Mystic, Phone 549. sept2d

FOR SALE—A 1923 Chevrolet, all in first class condition. Can be bought very reasonable. Inquire at 30 Winchester St. sept1d

FOR SALE—1 Essex touring A-1 condition, see it at the Commercial Garage, price reasonable. sept1d

FOR SALE—New 1925 Jewett coach, won in contest. Henry Leach, Wauregan, Conn. sept1d

ADAMS TAVERN GARAGE—1923 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford touring; 1924 Dodge sedan; 1923 Anderson sedan; 1924 Overland touring; 1923 Buick sedan; 1919 Cadillac coupe; 1919 Cadillac phaeton; 1921 Studebaker small six, 1920 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford sedan; 1926 Ace motorcycle and side car; 1924 Chevrolet roadster; 1923 Overland touring. Open evenings. Cash or terms. aug27d

FOR SALE—Harley-Davidson and Excelsior motorcycles and side cars, '25 to $150. James P. Donovan, 25 west Main St. Phone 709. jy25d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

GOOD UPRIGHT PIANO—Well known make in first class condition with splendid tone. Your own terms. Price only $159. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—$6500 buys one two family house and one cottage of 6 rooms, with all improvements on the best location of the city, good income. Write Box 99-B, Bulletin Office. sept2

GULBRANSEN PLAYER-88 note. Can be bought for $179 on terms. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—8 piece dining room set, white iron bed, rugs, chairs, tables, oil stove, couch. (No dealers). R. H. Jephson, Andover, Conn. Tel. 202-3. sept3d

UPRIGHT PIANO $85—A high grade New England made piano with good looking well finished case and excellent tone. Terms as desired. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—New bungalow, 5 rooms and bath, with six lots of land. Thamesville section. Price $4,000. Inquire 250 W. Thames street. sept3d

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, gladiolus, asters, straw flowers, dahlias, etc., 50c bunch. 99 Otsego St., Phone 1488-3. aug25d

FOR SALE—Farm known as the Conlon Place, located one mile from Baltic consisting of 42 acres land with fair house and barn. Price $2500. William H. McNicol, Maynard Building, Jewett City. sept2d

FOR SALE—Silo filler. Raymond Standish, North Windham, Conn. aug28d

FOR SALE—Farm of 100 acres; 12-room house; good barns with or without stock and farming implements. Also, 5-room cottage with 9 acres. Lot at Groton Long Point. No phone calls. Inquire Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, South Windham, Conn. tfaug18d

FOR SALE—140 acre farm on State road with an exceptionally good farm house, located in one of the most picturesque sections of Eastern Connecticut. Owner really wants to sell. Price for immediate sale based accordingly. William M. McNicol, Maynard Building, Jewett City, Conn. sept2d

120—COWS—120
Large Assortment of Fresh Cows from New York and Vermont.
JAMES H. HYDE
North Franklin, Conn.
Telephone Lebanon 30.

FOR SALE
MODERN TWO-APARTMENT HOUSE With Two-Car Garage; desirably located on Laurel Hill Ave., within five minutes walk from Franklin Square.
For Further Particulars Inquire Of
JOHN A. MORAN
Real Estate Broker

FOR SALE
THE NEW TONGREN 7-ROOM COTTAGE. No. 3 JULIAN ST.
Modern and complete in every way.
Large One-car Garage.
Inspection Invited.
James L. Case
REAL ESTATE DEPT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE.
AT A SACRIFICE.
ATTRACTIVE BUNGALOW
Six rooms, bath and garage, large lot, modern in every way. Also complete house furnishings. Owner leaving town; will make sacrifice for quick sale. Apply to L. J. BRUETTE, 55 River Avenue.

FOR SALE
PLAYER PIANO
Absolutely new, high grade Player-Piano, at one-half of its value. A great bargain.
4 ROBBINS COURT, NORWICH

FOR SALE.
Eight-room house and garage for two cars, delightfully located on Lincoln Avenue. For information inquire of Thos. H. Beckley
Exclusive Agent.
278 MAIN STREET - PHONES

FOR SALE.
Six-room Cottage, all improvements, at 80 Warren street. Low price for immediate sale.
J. A. CUNNINGHAM
THAYER BUILDING.

FOR SALE
1. Cosy Cottage of seven rooms; steam heated; centrally located. Price right if taken at once.
2. Cottage of eight rooms and sun room. All modern improvements. One-car garage. Five minutes' walk from center of city.
3. Two-tenement House on Laurel Hill Avenue. A Bargain.
4. A beautiful home in best section. House has eight rooms and every modern improvement. One-car garage. Inquire about this one if you would have a choice home.
5. Fine residence on Williams street. A bargain if taken this month.
INQUIRE OF
GRACE E. PARKHURST
Phone 1460. 57 Cliff Street.

ONE OF THE BEST:
40-acres, 3-4 mile from village and state road, 10-room house, hardwood floors, open fireplaces, large veranda, also small cottage, barn, 4 poultry houses, buildings extra good, smooth land, excellent trout brook, fruit and wood. Price only $6000—$2000 cash.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—6 room cottage, first class condition, all improvements, including new steam heater. On trolley line. Will be sold cheap. If interested call 265-12. sept3d

FOR SALE—Sand, gravel, stone and loam. O. H. Main. Phone 489. sept1dtf

FOR SALE—A very fine Hallett & Davis piano in perfect condition; will sell very reasonable. Also several talking machines of leading makes, at half price. Easy terms if desired. Schwartz Bros., Inc. 76-82 Main St., Norwich. ThSatTuJe11

FOR SALE—Confectionery store, good business and the mill running full time, best stand. Apply Plainfield, Box. 427. sept2d

FOR SALE—Electric washer, practically new, will sell reasonable, for quick sale. Phone 805-5. sept2d

FOR SALE—White poodle puppies, just the thing to keep the baby quiet. Cheap. Apply at 35 Thames St., upstairs. sept2d

FOR SALE—Shepherd police dog puppies and grown stock, pure bred, registered dogs. Prices are reasonable. Cedar Ledge Police Dog Kennels, Stonington, Conn. Westerly road. sept2d

FOR SALE—Crawford range, kitchen chairs, day bed. Phone 2482, 23 Hedge Avenue. sept1d

FOR SALE—Fairbanks gasoline engine, seven horse power, in good condition $75.00. Emel Deshefy. Tel. 1872-4. sept1d

FOR SALE—3 tenement house and garage, with improvements, big lot. 31 Ripley Place. Call after 5 p. m., 70 Boswell avenue. sept1d

FOR SALE—Rooming house for sale, cheap and a 6 room cottage, Laurel Hill, also several building lots. Burton. Tel 1125. aug29d

CANARIES FOR SALE. Also cages and supplies at Anthony's Bird Store, 199 Central avenue, Tel. 2454-2. sept2d

CHEAPER, BETTER COAL, available by order Interstate Commerce Commission. Now River and Pocahontas. Write for free book. Smokeless Fuel Company, Charleston, W. Va. sept1d

FOR SALE—Two, full pedigreed, German police puppies. Inquire 44 Forest St. sept1d

FOR SALE—Vermont cows, new milch and springers. Fred W. Hoxie, North Franklin. Tel 53-3 Lebanon. aug31d

FOR SALE—Player piano. 18 Bushnell Place. Call evenings. aug31d

FOR SALE—Nine-room house and garage, at a low price; in best part of Norwich. Immediate possession. Phone 1431 jel1d

POLICE PUPPIES—Highly pedigreed ideal farm dogs, playmates for children, come visit the largest German Shepherd Dog Kennels in the world. Phone or write. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly, Conn. jul3dtf

STOVE PARTS for all makes of stoves. We are the best equipped place for stove parts in New London. B. Kaplan, 36 Bank St. feb13o

VICTROLAS, HALF PRICE—Brand new, fully guaranteed. When these are gone there will be no more. Don't delay. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug25d

PALISADE POLICE DOGS are a special strain of pedigreed dogs, highly developed for the all-around purposes of house guards, automobile companions, children's playmates, women's protectors and men's pals; as German Shepherd dogs they are especially suited for farm, cattle drivers and sheep herders. Exclusively bred by the world's largest Police Dog Kennels. Four miles from Danielson, near Providence pike. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly, Conn. aug1dtf

FOR SALE—A small farm with good buildings and about 20 acres of land on state road, near Norwich. This property is in a class which is in much demand at present and will no doubt change ownership within the next few days. Investigate at once if interested in a very desirable country home. A. C. Burdick, Real Estate Broker, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug1d

FOR SALE—A 9-room house, garage and house and garden, near car line, also house lot near Backus Hospital, car every 15 minutes; and 6-room summer cottage at Lord's Point; all furnished. Adams Tavern, Phone 1068-3 ly23dtf

FOR SALE
Gasoline engine, silo cutter and team wagon in good condition.
JOE KOMINSKI
R. F. D. 4, Norwich

FOR SALE
The dwelling house, 8 barns, various useful out-buildings and 13 acres of good land known as the Martin Place and is located in Lebanon Center on the highway from Lebanon Village to Willimantic. The house is of picturesque site and has a beautiful and extensive view of the surrounding country and is about five miles from Willimantic and eleven miles from Norwich over good roads. The property is in a good neighborhood convenient to churches district and high schools. The property is regarded by all persons as a very attractive and charming home place. The price is low and terms of payment will be made convenient to buyer. For all information apply to
WILLIAM H. SHIELDS of Norwich.
Or To
GEORGE E. MARTIN,
Lebanon Center, Conn.

FOR SALE
BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME
in finest residential section; 8 rooms, all latest improvements. Tiled bath superb floors, extra toilet and lavatory, large sun room. House has many novel and up-to-date features seldom seen in homes costing under $25,000. Price most reasonable for such a fine residence.
Archa W. Coit
Telephone 2288-2. Disco Building.

FARM FOR SALE.
WITH STOCK & TOOLS
The Farm of the late Elizabeth McCarthy, located in Town of Franklin on Baltic road, and two miles from Baltic village, containing 30 acres good land mostly tillable. There is a 10 acre wood lot, Six room house, two barns, garage, henhouse, all buildings in good repair, about 75 fruit trees on place mostly bearing ones. This farm is ideally located and on good road and near to industries. Can give immediate possession of farm with Stock and Tools, with two barns full of hay. Price $4200.—for particulars inquire:
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block, Norwich.
Phone.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, 124 Oakridge St. Garage. sept3d

TO RENT—2 small furnished apartments, Mr. Congdon, 82 McKinley Ave. sept3d

TO RENT—4 room tenement or light housekeeping rooms. 6 Carter ave. Call Bellicchi, Phone 2468. sept3d

TO RENT—4 rooms with gas and electric light, located 74 North Main St. Price $15. Inquire A. V. Covello, 135 Cliff St., Tel 1093-3. sept3d

TO RENT—Ground floor tenement of five rooms with electric lights and gas. Adults only. Mrs. Carrie L. Pierson, 327 W. Main St. sept3d

TO RENT—New tenement, 6 rooms and bath, all improvements. 248 West Thames St. Inquire 250 W. Thames. Rent very low. sept3d

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms, at 12 Yerrington avenue. sept3d

TO RENT—7 room apartment on Hazelhurst Place. tfmar16d

TO RENT—Five room house, modern improvements. 138 Washington St. Inquire at 59 Cedar St. sept2d

TO RENT—To family of adults, 5 rooms and bath, all improvements, 32 Prospect St. sept2d

TO RENT—Large furnished room, telephone 2228. sept2d

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished apartment of seven rooms. Near Chelsea Parade. Write Box C-70, Bulletin. sept1d

TO RENT—Furnished house in fine location, modern. Address M. J. K., Bulletin Office. sept1d

TO RENT—Tenement of 4 rooms with all improvements at 52 Union street. sept1d

TO RENT—Very attractive three room flat; all improvements, steam heat. Inquire 259 West Main St. sept3d

TO RENT—One light housekeeping room, 1 furnished room. 41 Boswell ave. Tel. 142. aug31d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. All improvements. Located in Thamesville Tel 477-2. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement in new building. Five rooms and bath, with garage. Apply A. Yezanch, Roosevelt avenue. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement, six rooms, 253 Laurel Hill avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Three room tenement. Inquire 27 McKinley avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Oct. 1, to family of adults, 7 room cottage, modern improvements 21 Oak St., Call 1484, 7 to 9 p. m. aug27d

TO RENT—Steam heated, 6 room apartment at 75 Washington St., all modern, rent reasonable. Phone 1152-12. aug26d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all improvements; also hard wood floors; 230 Franklin St. Inquire 324 Franklin St. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Three or four rooms, not furnished; also garage. 158 Laurel Hill Ave. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Two or three furnished rooms, light housekeeping. Phone 1860. tfaug15d

TO RENT—At 49 Washington St. a 5-room apartment. Inquire Gilbert Bowers, 130 Washington St. Phone 1132-2 aug13dtf

TO RENT—Apartments furnished for light housekeeping; all modern improvements 27 Division St. ag12dtf

TO RENT—12-room apartment. 48 Church St. Inquire Charles W Cassidy 46 Main St. je26tf

TO RENT—Attractive 6-room cottage with garage; modern. Phone 959. ly22dtf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all conveniences; garden, fruit and garage near school. Phone mornings, 1463. aug4d

TO RENT—Five-story brick building with freight elevator; suitable for wholesale business or storage. Tel. 1435. aug2d

TO RENT—If a desirable and permanent home is wanted, 7-room apartment in the Steiner Mansion, 77 Church St., or one at 172 Broadway. Rent reasonable aug1dtf

TO RENT—Tenements, all improvements. 44 Laurel Hill Ave. ly20dtf

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements including heat; with or without garage. Inquire 210 West Main St. from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. jul11tf

TO RENT—Tenements in Greeneville and Franklyn St. Inquire at Goldblatt's Shoe Store, 46 Franklin St. Phone 717-4 may26d

LEGAL NOTICES

Registrars' Notice

The Registrars of Voters of the town of Norwich will meet in the several voting districts in said town on TUESDAY the 8th DAY OF SEPTEMBER 1925 from 9 o'clock a. m. till 5 o'clock p. m. (standard time) or 10 o'clock a. m. till 6 o'clock p. m. (daylight saving time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

Electors in said town of Norwich before the annual town meeting to be held Oct 5th, 1925.

In the First Voting District—At the Selectmen's Office in City Hall.

In the Second Voting District—At the voting booth Falls Avenue, West Side.

In the Third Voting District—At voting booth Central avenue and Seventh St., Greeneville.

In the Fourth Voting District—At sub station 3, 204 West Town St., Norwich Town.

In the Fifth Voting District—At Ponemah Large Hall, Taftville.

In the Sixth Voting District—At voting booth, Bishop School, 526 Main St., East Side.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., the 2nd day of September A. D. 1925.

TYLER D. GUY,
CORNELIUS J. DOWNES,
sept2d Registrars of Voters

Registrars' Notice

The registrars of voters in the town of Voluntown will be in session at Union hall, on Tuesday, Sept. 8th, 1925 from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. to place on list "To Be Made" the names of those, in behalf of whom application is made to either registrar, in the manner provided in the general statutes.

Signed,
THOMAS McDONALD,
LEONARD B. KENNIE,
Registrars of Voters

Dated at Voluntown, this 2nd day of September, 1925.

Registrars' Notice

The registrars of voters of the town of Lisbon will meet in said town on Tuesday the 8th day of September, 1925, from 9 a. m. till 5 p. m. (standard time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

electors in said town of Lisbon before the annual town meeting to be held, Oct. 5th, 1925.

Dated at Lisbon, Conn., the 2nd day of September, 1925.

C. L. BROMLEY,
ARNOLD HEADON,
Registrar of Voters

FOR SALE—Horses

FOR SALE—One horse, either saddle or driving. Price $50. One general purpose horse. Also Federal tuberculin tested cows. Franklin Orcutt, South Coventry, Conn., Tel. Manchester 1064-3. sept3d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OLD CARS BOUGHT in any condition
HODES BROS.
Corner West Main and Mt. Pleasant
Telephone 1291
Automobile parts at one-half price
apr3d

— STAR GARAGE —
Plainfield
Used Cars Bought and Sold
CHAS. LAVALLEY
Phone 196 Moosup Div

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries 75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.

Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work
Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

Lumis & Bennett,
191 NORTH MAIN STREET.
General Auto Repairing.
SPRING SERVICE ON ANY MAKE OF CAR.
NEW SPRINGS REPLACED FREE OF CHARGE.
Phone 646.

CIGARS
Whitestone Cigars are $70 per thousand
J. F. CONANT, 11 Franklin St.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

IVAR JOHNSON
Carpenter and Contractor. Floor laying and surfacing a specialty. Old floors resurfaced like new. Estimates given. Phone 1162-2. aug27d

AMBROSE SULLIVAN
Telephone 2808-5
We give estimates on Concrete Foundations and Cellars

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist. Foot Specialist (protect your feet). Suite 7-8, Alice Bldg., 321 Main St., Norwich Conn Phone 725. nov10d

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE!

The registrars of Voters of the town of Montville will meet in the town hall on Tuesday the 8th day of September from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. to receive applications from or in behalf of persons to be placed on the list "To Be Made."

ROBERT PATON,
EDMOND KILLEN,
Registrars of Voters
Montville, Conn., Sept. 2, 1925.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the district of Norwich, on the 4th day of August, A. D. 1925.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge

Estate of MARIAH H. FAY, late of Norwich, in said district, deceased. John Lynch, by Charles W. Cassidy, his attorney of Norwich, Conn., appeared in court and filed a petition praying for the reasons therein set forth, that commissioners be appointed to receive and decide upon a certain claim presented by the petitioner to said estate, and which claim was by the administrator with the will annexed of said estate rejected and disallowed on July 8th, 1925, and payment thereof refused.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, that said petition be heard and determined at the probate court room in the city of Norwich, in said district, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1925, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said district at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard sawed wood. Tel. 489. ly25dtf

WOOD—Best quality hard wood and slabs. Tel. 615-4. H. E. Beard & Son. jan21d

COAL, SEASONED WOOD and kindlings delivered anywhere, 5 baskets for $1.00. Phone 729 Park Wood Yard, 301 Franklin St. 326

COAL. Seasoned Wood and kindlings in large or small quantities, delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1253-4 E. Shapiro, Willow St. nov22d

STOP! LOOK!
and Read Carefully.
WOOD! WOOD! WOOD!
And Plenty of It.
Buy Now and See for Yourself the Amount of Hard Wood $7.00 will purchase. Satisfaction Guaranteed.
SPECIAL PRICES TO WOOD YARDS.
Delivered Anywhere in Norwich, Jewett City or Taftville.
Tel. Norwich 1886-2.

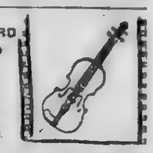
FOUNDRY

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
—Also—
Pattern Making and Machine Work.
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity.
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.
NEW LONDON, CONN.
Tel. 4120.

MUSIC.

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
28 Shetucket Street
Insurance of All Kinds

ERNEST E. BOLLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend.



NOTHING BUT
Complete Satisfaction when you enroll in our Course of Practical Harmony and Professional Piano Playing. WATERMAN, 149 Broadway, 24 Fairmount, 48 Providence.

FRANK DRAGO
Teacher of Violin
of Hartford, Conn., pupil of Pavel L. Bytovetzski, will teach in Norwich Thursday and Friday of each week, beginning Sept. 3d.
Studios: Room 218
93 Windsor Ave. Disco Bldg.
Hartford, Conn. Norwich, Conn.

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 68 Franklin Street.

PAINTING AND PAPERHANGING

GENERAL PAINTING and Paperhanging. Phone 2358-13. D. Kudilk. je21d

GEORGE SADOLNY, painting, paperhanging; estimates given. 42 Maple St. Tel.

TRUCKING

BROADWAY TRANSFER
Transfers Everything
1357-2—PHONE—977-23
Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmermann, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.
C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main Street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3
LONG DISTANCE TRUCKING. Very low rates. R. Blinderman. Phone 1312. tfapr6d

Established 1872 Telephone 179
ARTHUR H. LATHROP
Auto Trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2c to 35 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. E. McClenathan, Mgr. aug11d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

New York

Stocks weak; liquidation of high priced shares unsettles market.

Bonds steady; Frisco income 6S lead upturn in rails.

Foreign exchanges mixed; Italian lira approaches 4 cent level.

Cotton advanced bullish weekly weather report.

Sugar declined: easier spot market.

Coffee firm; higher Brazilian cables.

Chicago

Wheat weak; predictions larger receipts.

Corn steady; less favorable crop accounts.

Cattle irregular.

Pigs steady to lower; packer inactive.

MARKET REACTIONARY

NEW YORK, Sept. 2—(A. P.)—Reactionary tendencies became more pronounced in today's market, which was featured by sharp breaks in the high priced industrial specialties, several of which lost 4 to 12 points. The weakness was accompanied by an increased volume of selling, total sales exceeding 1,850,000 shares, the largest since July 28 when the two million mark was passed for the last time.

The reaction, which was given considerable impetus by the more aggressive tactics of bear traders, was not the result of any adverse news, but widely described as a further correction of an unhealthy speculative condition in many issues. In some quarters there was a tendency to attribute some of the selling to uneasiness over the possible adverse economic effects of a prolonged suspension of hard coal mining, and necessitous liquidation for the account of a large commission house which recently announced a dissolution of partnership, but most observers attached little importance to such explanations.

Two of the most interesting developments of the day, from stock market standpoint, were the announcement that legislation to force railroad consolidations after a period of seven years would be sought by the administration in the next session of congress, and the raising of the Frisco common dividend from $5 to $7 annually, the higher rate being announced after the market closed. The stock showed a net gain of 3-4 of a point at 99 1-2 or 3 points below the record high established last week.

Speculators for the decline centered their activities on stocks which had been leaders of the advance last month. General Electric knocked down from 208 to 200, American Can from 239 1-2 to 228 1-4; General Railway Signal from 350 to 337 and White Motors from 96 1-8 to 89 1-2; most of them closing at or near the low levels of the day.

Net declines of 3 to 8 points also were recorded by American Radiator, Chrysler Motors, Chicago Pneumatic Tool, Dupont, Gulf States Steel, International Telephone, R. H. Macy, Montana Power, Nash Motors, Postum Cereal, F. G. Shattuck, Woolworth and some of the ordinarily inactive issues.

Ineffectual attempts were made to rally the list by bidding up Baldwin, which closed 1-8 higher at 118 5-8, after having touched 120 3-4. Independent strength was shown by American Tobacco, Consolidated Cigar, Foundation Company, Havana Electric and Otis Steel preferred.

Rails again yielded with the industrials, disregarding reports of record breaking car loadings for the week ending August 23. Net losses as a rule, were held to a point or less.

Call money renewed at 4 1-4 per cent, but dropped to four in the early afternoon in reflection of the return flow of funds withdrawn for first of the month requirements. Time money and Commercial Paper rates were unchanged.

Chief interest in the foreign exchange market centered in the market improvement shown by the Italian and Polish rates. Italian lire crossed four cents for a net gain of 15 points in sympathy with the rise of Italian currency in the European market, but it forfeited part of its gain in the late trading. Polish Zloty soared 65 points to 18.25 cents, recovering part of the ground lost yesterday. Demand sterling fell below $4.85 for the first time since the middle of June. French francs rules practically unchanged at 4.69 1-2 cents.

PUTNAM & CO.
MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE
SUCCESSORS TO RICHTER & CO.
6 CENTRAL ROW,
HARTFORD, CONN.

We Offer

International Silver Co.

7% Cumulative Preferred

Price to yield about 6.50%.

WHITE & ALEXANDER
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS
OFFICES
New London ..... Plant Bldg.
Norwich ..... Disco Bldg.

LEGAL NOTICE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the district of Connecticut. In the matter of IDEAL PANTS CO., INC., a bankrupt, in bankruptcy No. 7563. To the creditors of the above-named bankrupt, of Norwich, in the county of New London, district aforesaid, bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 31st day of August A. D. 1925 the above-named was duly adjudicated a bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held before the undersigned, at his office, 58 Church St., Norwich, in said district, on the 12th day of September A. D. 1925, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which time said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint trustee, be heard as to orders of referee for sale of property of the estate and disposal thereof, at auction or private sale, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

THOMAS M. SHIELDS,
Referee in Bankruptcy
Norwich, Conn., Sept. 2, 1925.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the district of Norwich, on the 2nd day of September, A. D. 1925.

Present, NELSON J. ATLING, Judge.

Estate of MARY T. RING, late of Norwich, in said district, deceased. The executrix exhibited her administration account with said estate to the court for allowance; it is therefore,

Ordered, that the 21st day fo September A. D., 1925, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Probate Court Room in the city of Norwich, in said district, be, and the same is, appointed for hearing the same, and the said executrix is directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order once in some newspaper having a circulation in said district at least ten days prior to the date of said hearing and make return to the court.

NELSON J. ATLING, Judge

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.
28 8SS1tyv1—1of1of7$n8otj$jfl.fJelo

NOTICE

STATE OF CONNECTICUT, DISTRICT of North Stonington, ss. Probate Court, August 25th A. D. 1925.

Estate of WILLIAM J. RICHMOND, late of North Stonington in said district deceased. In pursuance of an order of Charles C. Gray, Judge of the Court of Probate for the district of North Stonington, notice is hereby given that said court hath limited and appointed six months from the date hereof for the creditors of the said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate. Those who neglect to exhibit their claims within said time will be debarred. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to HORACE H. MAIN, Administrator.

Mystic, Conn., R. F. D.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—On state road, between Westminster and Plainfield, blue coat, containing check. Please return to Bulletin Office or call Willimantic 141-4. sept3d

LOST—On Norwich road near Bullard's Corner, New London, small brown purse containing about $8. Please call Norwich 311. sept3d

LOST—Wednesday evening near lake at Mohegan Park or on Broadway or Washington St., black handbag containing money and bank book and operator's license. Reward for return to Norwich police headquarters. sept3d

44 Chi Gt West ..	11¼	11⅛	11⅛
42 Chi Gt W pr.	25⅛	24⅞	24⅞
16 Chi M & St P.	8⅛	8	8⅛
20 C M & St P pr	15¼	14⅞	15
25 Ch & N West .	66⅝	65	66
35 Chi Pneu Tool	118¼	118	118¼
99 C R I & P ...	47⅞	45⅝	45⅝
3 CRI & P 6 pc.	85½	85¼	85¼
2 CRI & P 7 pc.	97	96½	96½
15 Childs Co	56¼	55⅝	55⅝
24 Chile Cop xd..	33⅝	33⅛	33¼
1 Chino Cop	22⅛	22⅛	22⅛
18 Chrysler Motor	140	132⅝	135
3 Chrys M pr A.	106¾	106⅛	106⅛
70 Coca Cola	137	135	136⅜
33 Col Fuel & Ir.	35⅝	35⅜	36⅛
7 Colo & Sm	69¼	67⅞	67⅞
80 Col Gs & El.	71⅝	70⅝	70¾
2 Colum Carb ..	46	46	46
1 Com Inv Tr ..	60⅝	60⅜	60⅝
1 Com Sol A. ...	93½	93⅛	93⅛
1 Com Sol B ...	95½	95⅛	95½
7 Cong Nairn ..	24¼	24⅛	24⅛
29 Consol Cigar .	41	39⅝	41
1 Cons Cigar pr	86¼	86⅛	86¼
8 Consol Dist ...	4⅝	4⅜	4½
46 Consol Gas ...	87⅝	86⅝	86⅝
10 Consol Textile.	3	3	3
21 Cont Can ...	72	70⅝	70⅝
3 Cont Ins 1	23⅝	113	113
11 Cont Motor ..	9⅝	9⅛	9⅛
15 Corn Prod ...	36⅝	36	36⅛
1 Coty Inc ..6..	48½	48½	48½
1 Crex Carpet ...	50½	50½	50½
29 Crucible Steel.	74¼	72⅜	73⅛
1 Cruc Steel pr..	96½	96½	96½
24 Cub C Sug pr.	43¼	42¾	43
10 Cub Am Sug..	23¼	24½	24½
5 Cub Dom Sug.	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
1 Cub Dom Sug p	27	27	27
3 Cudahy Pack .	96⅝	95⅞	95⅝
2 Cushm Sons In	75	75	75
5 Cuyamel Fruits	52	52	53
1 Dan Boon WM	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
31 Davison Chem	41	38⅝	39
1 De Beers Cons	24⅛	24⅜	24⅛
1 Deere Co pr .1	04	104	104
4 Del & Hud ...1	43½	142⅜	142⅝
6 Del Lk & W .1	39	138	138
3 Den RG & W pr	43¼	41	41
76 Dodge Bros A .	24⅞	24¼	24½
100 Dodge Bros pr	84⅝	83⅝	84¼
19 Dome Mines ..	15⅛	15	15
1 Doug Pectin ..	21	21	21
3 Duluth SS&At	3¼	3⅜	3⅜
8 DuP de Nem .1	52⅝	146	146
1 Duq L 1 pr ..1	10½	110½	110½
2 East Kodak ..1	05⅞	105⅝	105⅞
61 Eaton Axle ..	24⅜	23	23½
322 El P & L ctf.	31¼	28	28¾
4 El P&L pr ctfs	90⅛	89⅝	89⅞
5 El P&L 40 pr.	105	104½	104½
12 Elec Stor Bat.	64¼	63⅝	63⅞
3 Emers Brant .	5⅝	3⅝	3⅝
2 Emer Btg pr .	22⅝	21½	21½
4 Endic Johnson.	68	67¼	67¼
43 Erie R R	30¼	30	30
38 Erie 1 pr	39⅝	38⅜	38⅛
4 Erie 2 pr	38⅝	37¾	37¾
1 Exch Buf	15¼	15⅛	15⅛
3 Fairb M Co	45	44	44
93 Fam Play Las.	108¼	104⅝	108
1 Fam Pl fl p rts	15	15	15
2 Fed Lt & Tract	27	27	27
3 Fed L & T pr	57½	57⅜	57⅛
2 Fed M & S pr	57½	57⅜	57⅛
2 First N Pic 1st	102	102	102
64 Fisher Body ..	80⅜	79⅛	79⅝
89 Fisk Rubber .	21⅛	21	21
2 Fisk Rub 1 pr	108	107⅝	107⅜
32 Fleischman Co	107	105⅛	105⅜
49 Founds Co ...1	35⅛	141⅛	132⅝
12 Freeport Texas	15½	15⅛	15⅛
15 Gabriel Snub.	33¼	32¼	32⅛
7 Gardner Motor	9¾	9¼	9⅛
1 Gen Am Tank.	47⅜	47⅜	47⅜
27 Gen Asph	52⅝	51⅛	51⅜
4 Gen Asph pr	96⅛	95⅝	96⅜
16 General Bak ..1	76	171	175
38 Gen Electric.	319	305	315
1 Gen Elec spl .	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
143 Gen Motors ..	88⅝	87⅜	87⅝
1 Gen Mot 7pc pr	112¼	112⅛	112⅛
5 Gen Outd AdA	47⅜	46⅝	47⅜
25 Gen Outd ctfs	30⅝	28⅝	28⅝
52 Gen Pet	43½	42⅝	43
52 Gen Petrol ...	43½	42⅝	43
11 Gen Ry Sig ..3	50	337	337
1 Gen Refract ..	44½	44⅛	44⅛
8 Gimbel Bros ..	56¾	56	56
5 Ginter Co	45	45	45
29 Glidden Co ..	20⅝	20¼	20⅛
6 Gold Dust	43	42¼	42¾
26 Goodrich B F .	54⅞	53⅝	53⅝
26 Goodrich BF pr	54⅞	53⅝	53⅜
4 Good T&R pr.1	04	103¾	104
2 Granby Min ..	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛
36 Gt North pr..	71⅞	70½	70⅛
11 Gt Nor Ir O Pr	29⅝	29⅛	29⅛
9 Gt West Sug .	98	97	97
1 Guanta Spg ..	4	4	4
18 Gulf Moh&No.	81⅞	81	81¾
4 Gulf Mo&N pr	102⅛	101	101⅞
36 Gulf Sts Steel .	80⅜	77	77
2 Hartman Corp	27⅝	27½	27½
13 HvEIR L&P ..2	25	219	226
10 Hayes Wheel .	38⅝	38	38
1 Homestake ...	45½	45½	45½
14 Household Prd.	41⅞	41	41
4 Houston Oil .	62⅜	62½	62½
4 Howe Sd Co .	23	23	23
82 Hudson & Mn	34⅝	33⅜	33⅝
1 Hud & Man pr	68⅛	68⅛	68⅛
139 Hudson Motors	62⅜	61⅛	62
17 Hupp Motors..	13	11⅛	27½
2 Illinois Cent .	115	115	115
42 Ind Oil & Gas	24	23⅝	23⅝
3 Indian Ref	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
1 Indian Ref ctfs	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
10 Inland Steel.	42⅛	42	42
5 Inspir Cop	26⅝	25⅝	26
12 Inter Rap T ..	27	26	26
5 Inter Ag Cp .	13	12⅜	12⅜
2 Int Bus Mch..1	39¼	139¼	139¼
1 Int Cement pr.	04¾	104¾	104¾
1 Int Cement ..	69	68¼	68⅜
164 Int Comb Eng	46¼	44¼	44⅝
106 Int Harv Co ..1	22	119½	120¼
2 Int Harv pr ...1	18½	118¼	118¼
3 Int Mer M	8	8	8
19 Int Mer M pr	29¼	29	29
126 Int Nickel	33¼	32⅝	32⅞
1 Int Nickel pr..	99	99	99
24 Int Paper	64⅞	63⅜	63⅝
2 Int Pap 7 pc pr	90⅞	90⅞	90⅝
1 Int Ry CentA.	31⅞	31⅛	31⅛
1 Int Shoe pr ..1	16⅝	116⅜	116⅜
42 Int Tel & Tel.	125	120⅝	120⅝
2 Jewell Tea ...	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛
1 Jones&L Stl ..1	15¼	115⅛	115⅛
3 Jones Bros Tea	16⅞	16¼	16½
27 Jordan Motors.	40⅞	40	40⅛
26 Kan City Sou.	36¼	35⅝	35⅞
4 Kayser J & Co	31	30	31
7 Kelly Spg	15⅜	15⅛	15⅛
1 Kelly Spg 6 pc	58	58	58
8 Kelsey Wheel .	92½	92	92
81 Kennecott Cop.	53⅞	53¾	53⅝
2 Keystone Tire	2¼	2¼	2¼
2 Kresge S S Co.	59	59	599
1 Laclede Gas ..1	58	158	158
9 Lee Rub & T.	15	14¾	14⅞
21 Lehigh Valley.	77⅛	76¼	76⅝
1 Lig & My Tob	65⅝	65⅝	65⅝
11 Lig &My Pfd B	66	65¼	65⅝
6 Lima Loco	64¼	63⅝	63⅞
75 Loew's Inc ...	34⅝	33¼	33⅝
3 Loft Candy	7⅛	7	7
2 Long B LumA	47¾	47½	47½
7 Lorillard Co..	34⅞	34⅝	34⅝
7 Louis & Oil R	14	13⅝	13⅝
12 Louis & Nash	115¾	114	114
4 Louis GE A ..	24	23⅞	23⅞
28 Ludlum Steel .	33⅞	32¾	32⅝
366 Mack Truck ..2	10	197½	198
1 Mack Tk 1 pr .1	99	199	199
1 Mackay Cos ..1	39	139	139
11 Macy R H Co .	96	30¼	91
30 Magma Cop ...	41¼	40¼	40⅝
9 Mallin & Co .	25¾	25	25
1 Man Sug	45	45	45
10 Man El Sup ...	52⅝	51	51
1 Man Ry gtd ..1	01	101	101
3 Man Ry md gtd	44	44	44
3 Man Shirt	29	28	28
2 Man El Cop .	38	38	38
12 Mar Oil Exp ..	20⅝	20¼	20½
3 Mkt St Ry ...	8½	8⅛	8⅛
3 Mkt Ry pr pr..	47¼	46⅝	46⅝
80 Marl Oil	41¼	40½	40½
Marland Rock rts	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
10 Marl Rock rts	1¼	1¼	1⅛
4 Martin Parry .	20½	18	18⅝
90 May Dep Stor.	118	116	116
1 McC Stor B ..	91	91	91
2 Mex Seab Oil.	12⅝	12½	12⅝
10 Miami Cop ...	9⅝	9⅞	9⅝
13 Mid Con Pet ..	27	26⅝	26⅝
15 Mid Sta Oil ...	1⅝	1⅛	1⅛
9 Mid Stl Pr pr	142	139	139
2 Min & St L	2⅞	2⅝	2⅝
4 Min StP&SSMp	71⅝	71⅛	71⅛
300 Mo K & T	42⅛	40⅝	41⅛
8 Mo K & T pr..	87⅛	87⅛	87½
45 Mo Pac	36⅛	35	35
79 Mo Pac pr.	84⅛	83	83
188 Mon Pow	84	79⅛	81½
240 Mont Ward ..	68⅜	867	67
8 Moon Motor ..	31⅝	31⅛	31½
5 Mother Lode ..	7½	7⅜	7⅜
47 Motor Meter A	41⅝	40¼	40¼
6 Motor Wheel .	29⅝	29⅛	29½
1 Mul Body pr.	80⅛	80⅛	80⅜
1 Mur Body Corp	30⅛	30⅛	30⅜
5 Nash Mot 4	01	401	401
28 Nat Ac stpd ..	70⅜	70	70
3 Natl Clk & Sn	89	89	89
1 Nat C&S pr ..1	01¼	101⅛	101¼
28 Nat Dai P ctf	66⅛	65⅝	65⅝
4 Nat Dep Stores	40⅝	40⅛	40½
10 Nat Dist Pd .	33⅝	32⅞	32⅞
7 Nat En & S pr.	36⅛	35	35
7 Nat Lead 1	54¼	153	152
6 Nat Lead pr ..1	16⅜	114½	114½
20 Nt Ry Mx 1 pr	5⅜	4⅜	5⅜
20 Nat Ry Mx 2 pr	2½	2¼	2⅜
13 Nat Supply ..	57⅛	56⅞	57
7 Nev Con Cop .	13⅛	13⅛	13⅛
6 N Y Air Br'ke	48⅛	47	47
14 N Y Canners .	49⅜	48⅛	48⅛
124 N Y Central .1	19⅜	118⅜	118⅜
6 N Y Ch&St L p	93	93¼	92½
6 N Y Dock	31⅜	30½	30½
129 N Y N H & H.	36⅛	35⅛	35⅛
26 NY Ont & W	30	28⅛	28⅛
23 N Y Ship Bldg	58	56	56
3 Nor Southn	40	39⅛	39⅛
59 Nor & West .1	32⅛	131⅛	131⅛
112 No American .	59½	59¼	59½
48 North Pacific.	68⅛	67⅛	67½
29 Nor T & B ..	17⅛	16	16¼
1 Nunally Co ..	12	12	12
7 Onyx Hois ...	35⅛	33½	35⅛
13 Orpheum Circ .	30	29⅝	29⅝
33 Otis Steel	13¼	12⅞	12⅞
20 Otis Steel pr .	95	88	83
13 Owens Bottle .	56¼	55⅞	56
2 Pac Gas & El.1	10⅝	111	111
30 Pacific Oil	53	52⅛	52½
291 Packard Motor	36⅝	36⅜	37⅛
50 Paige Det M ..	20⅜	19⅝	20¼
12 Pan Am Pet ..	60⅛	59⅞	60
173 Pan Am Pet rts	3-16		⅛
66 Pan Am Pet B	61	60⅝	60⅜
4 Park & Tilford	27⅜	27⅛	27⅛
1 Penick & Ford	20	20	20
42 Penn R R	47⅜	47	47
24 Pen Seab Steel	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
3 Peoples Bs Chi	115	114⅜	114⅜
5 Pere Marq	70	68⅝	68⅝
1 Per Marq pripr	82⅝	82⅝	82⅜
26 Phil & R C&O	40⅛	39⅝	39⅝
16 Phila Co	57⅛	56⅛	56½
20 Philip Mor Co	25⅛	23½	24
1 Phillips Jones.	53⅛	52⅝	52⅝
110 Phillips Pet ..	37⅞	36⅞	36⅞
4 Phoenix Hois .	34	32⅜	32⅜
799 Pierce Ar	39⅝	37⅞	38
59 Pierce Ar pr..	87⅜	88	88⅝
5 Pierce Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
14 Pierce Pet	5⅛	5	5
3 Pitts Coal	42⅜	42	42
1 Pitts T Coal .	43⅛	43⅛	43⅜
6 Pitts U p	14⅝	14⅝	14⅝
2 Pitts Util prefsn	13⅛	13	13
9 Pitts & W Va	72	70⅝	71⅛
11 Postum Cereal	134	129	129
4 Press St Car..	56	55⅝	56
6 Prod & Ref ...	13⅝	13⅝	13⅜
8 Pub Ser E&Gpr	97⅜	97⅛	97⅜
1 Pub Ser ElP pr	105⅜	104⅝	105⅜
93 Pub Ser N J.	81⅝	78⅝	78⅝
1 Pub S NJ Spcpf	116	116	116
15 Pullman Co ..1	41⅛	139⅛	139⅛
2 Punta Al Sug.	33¼	33⅜	33⅛
16 Pure Oil	25⅞	25⅝	25⅞
2 Pure Oil pr ...1	07	107	107
167 Radio Corp ...	54⅝	53	53
2 Radio Corp pr.	48¼	48⅛	48¼
15 Ry St Spr ...1	31⅛	130	130
45 Ray Con Cop .	13⅛	13	13⅛
106 Read Co	85	83¼	84
3 Reading rts ...	18	17⅝	18
1 Read 1 pr	39¼	39⅛	39⅜
1 Read 2 pr	40⅛	40	40
45 Reis & Co Robt	25⅛	24	24
8 Rem Type ...	78⅛	77⅛	77½
16 Replogle Stl ..	14⅛	14	14⅛
15 Rep I & S	48	47⅞	47⅝
2 Reyns Spr	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜
18 Rey Tob B ...	83⅝	83	83⅜
23 Roy Dut N Y .	49⅜	49	49
1 Rutland Ry pr	53⅛	53¼	53¼
24 St Joe Lead ..	40⅞	39½	39½
215 St L & S F ...1	00⅝	99⅜	99½
1 St L & S F pr .	90	90	90
81 S L South	56⅛	53⅝	54½
23 Savage Arms ..	65½	63	63
17 Schu Ret Strs.	10⅜	102	102
126 Seab A L	44	42	42⅜
44 Seab A L pr ..	47⅜	45	45
6 Seagrave Cor .	14⅝	14½	14½
97 Sears Roeb ...2	08	200	200
1 Shat & Ariz ..	6	6	6
68 Shat FG Co ...	71⅞	69¼	69¼
18 Shell Un Oil ..	22¼	22	22½
22 Simmons Co ..	48⅞	47⅜	47⅜
1 Sim Co pr 1	03⅛	103⅛	103⅛
24 Simms Pet	19⅝	18½	19
35 Sinc Con Oil .	18⅝	18⅛	18⅛
45 Skelly Oil	25	23⅝	23⅝
13 St S S & I ...	99⅛	98⅛	98½
35 South Pac	97½	97	97
59 South Ry 1	04¼	103½	103
14 South Ry pr ..	92⅛	91¼	91⅛
40 Spicer Mfg	29⅝	28¼	28½
237 Std G & E rts	1⅛	⅞	⅞
97 Std Gas & El.	53⅛	51⅝	52⅜
1 Std Milling ..	68⅝	68⅜	68⅜
14 St dOil Cal ..	52½	52¼	52¼
83 Std Oil N J. ..	39½	38⅞	38⅞
3 Std Oil N J pr	116⅝	116⅜	116⅜
7 Std Pl Glass .	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝
4 Sterling Prod .	70¼	69½	69½
26 Stewart War S	68⅜	67⅜	67⅝
Strom Carb	70½	69	69
9 Strom Carb ..	70½	69	69
66 Studebaker ..	46⅝	45⅛	45⅛
11 Subm Boat ...	4½	4	4½
2 Superior Oil ..	3½	3	3⅛
3 Symington Co .	15⅝	15	15
6 Syming Co A ..	21⅜	21	21⅜
1 Tenn C & Ch.	10¼	10⅛	10¼
36 Texas Co	47⅞	47⅞	47⅞
36 Texas Co	47⅝	47⅞	47⅞
48 Texas Gulf Sul	108½	107	107
73 Tex & Pac ...6	3	50	50⅞
12 Tex & Pac C&O	11	10⅞	10⅞
1 Third Ave Ry .	16⅛	16⅛	16⅝
7 Tide Wat Oil .	30½	30½	30½
12 Tim Rol Bear.	42¼	41⅜	41½
30 Tob Prod	90⅛	89¾	90
10 Tob Prod A ..1	04	103⅝	104
24 Trans Oil	43⅜	43⅜	43⅝
4 Under Type ..	45⅛	44¼	44⅝
11 Un Bag & Pa ..	69	58⅞	58⅞
20 Un Oil Cal ...	33⅜	33¼	33¼
10 Un Pacific 1	29⅜	128⅝	129⅝
2 Un Pac pr ...	75	75	75
1 Un Tk Car 1	18	118	118
14 Un Al St	30	29½	29¾
25 Un Cig Stor..	82¾	81⅜	82¼
14 United Drug .1	26⅞	125½	125⅜
7 Un Ry Inv	20¼	19⅛	20
1 Un Fruit 2	24	224	224
7 Uni Ry Inv ...	20¼	19⅛	20
11 Un Ry Inv pr .	67	66¼	67
48 US CIP&F ..1	65¼	160¼	162
1 U S Dist	32½	32	32
10 U S Hoff	41	40¾	41
26 U S Ind Alco.	57½	55¼	55¼
6 U S Re & Imp	39¼	138	138
84 U S Rub	52¾	50⅝	50⅝
84 U S Rubber ..	52⅜	50⅝	50⅝
2 U S Rub 1 pr.	103	102⅝	102⅝
20 U S Sm & Ref	48¾	48¼	42½
534 U S Steel ...1	19⅝	118¼	118⅜
4 U S Steel pr .1	24⅜	124⅛	124⅛
1 U S Tob pr ...1	14	114	114
56 Univ Pi & Ra.	38⅝	36	38⅝
6 Univ Pi & R pr.	79½	78	78
97 Utili P A	32½	30⅝	30⅝
3 Vanadium Corp	28⅞	28⅜	28⅝
14 Va Car Ch	2	2	2
10 Va Car Ch ...	10	9¾	9⅞
2 Va Ry & Pow	122	122	122
7 Vivaudou Inc..	13⅝	13⅜	13⅝
239 Wabash Ry	42	41¾	41⅝
239 Wabash Ry	42¼	41¼	41⅝
61 Wabash pr A ..	70½	69⅝	70
2 Waldorf Sys ..	15⅝	15⅜	15⅜
2 Ward Bak A ..	60	160	160
48 Ward Bak B .	65⅝	54½	54¾
20 Warner Br Pf .	20⅞	20	20¼
2 Warren Bros Co	48	48	48
5 West Penn Co	110	107	107
2 West Pen Co pr	97½	97½	97½
13 West Penn P pf	07	106	107
1 West El pr ...1	11	111	111
102 West Md	16⅝	15¼	15½
10 West M 2 pr..	23⅝	22	22
81 West Pac	29⅝	28½	28¼
5 West Pac pr .	74⅞	74⅜	74⅝
19 West Un Tel..1	30	129½	129⅝
75 West A Br ...1	28½	122	122
48 West E & M ..	73⅝	72¼	72¾
17 West El Inst .	18⅝	17⅜	18
17 West E Ins A	26½	26	26
38 Wheel & L Erie	19½	17	17
11 Wh & Lk E pr	43	42½	42¼
4 White Eagle O	25⅜

FAIR TODAY AND PROBABLY TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1795 1925

NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, SEPT. 3, 1925

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich Thursday, Sept. 3, 1925

THE WEATHER
Conditions

Pressure continues low over the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Pressure is relatively high over Quebec, off the south Atlantic coast. During the last 24 hours thunderstorms have occurred in the upper lake region. It has become warmer in the interior of the south Atlantic states. Temperature changes have been unimportant.

The outlook is for local showers on Thursday in northern New England and northern New York. Elsewhere the weather will be mostly fair Thursday and Friday.

It will be somewhat warmer Thursday in the interior of the middle Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Moderate northeast shifting to south and weather partly overcast Thursday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh southwest and weather partly overcast Thursday.

Forecast

For southern New England: Partly cloudy and slightly warmer Thursday Friday fair.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Wednesday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	66	30.00
7 a. m.	66	30.10
12 m.	78	30.10
6 p. m.	76	30.10

Highest 78; lowest 56.

Predictions for Wednesday: Fair, not much change in temperature.

Wednesday's weather: Fair, followed by cloudy, variable wind, continued warm.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES
(Standard Time)

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
31	5.13	6.24	7.33	3.16
1	5.14	6.22	8.24	3.23
2	5.15	6.21	9.15	rises
3	5.16	6.19	10.05	7.13
4	5.17	6.17	10.54	7.44
5	5.18	6.16	11.44	8.15
6	5.19	6.15	12.34	8.47

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Desmarais of South A street observed their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday. The day was commemorated by a solemn high mass at Sacred Heart Church at 8 a. m. at which their son, Rev. Wilfred Desmarais was celebrant; Rev. U. O. Bellerose, deacon; Father Malley, sub-deacon and Rev. Henri F. Chagnon, master of ceremonies, and the service was attended by many. During the mass Omer Tellier, Jr. sang Ave Maria. After the church service there was a dinner at Parish hall, with only members of the family present, Mr. and Mrs. Desmarais have nine children, nine grand children and a great grand daughter. The meeting of the family on this event was a most happy occasion.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Desmarais were born in Canada, but came to the United States when quite young. They were married by Rev. Father Russell in Jewett City on August 30th, 1875, as there was no church in Taftville at that time and Taftville people were included in the Jewett City parish. Both are in good health and Mr. Desmarais is still able to follow his employment at the Ponemah mills. They have a host of friends in town who wish them many more years of happy life.

Garde St. Jeanne d'Arc of Union St. Jean Baptiste will give an exhibition drill at the Pioneer's Field Day Saturday and an exhibition of fancy drill formations during the parade up Providence street Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Tarbell and Miss Sallie Tarbell of Pittsburgh, Pa., who spent some time this week with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Young of North Third avenue, have left town.

Mrs. John W. Mather and her daughter, Miss Mabel Mather of North A street are spending a week's vacation in Fall River, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Armitage, Herbert Rennard and Mrs. Jane E. Rennard of Norwich avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead of Boswell avenue spent some time this week at Watch Hill and Weekapaug, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Airey, Albert Airey, Jr.; Herbert Airey and the Misses Phyllis and Elsie Airey of North Second avenue are spending this week in New York.

The streets of Taftville will present a colorful spectacle over the coming week end. Long strings of vari-colored electric lights are being placed in position over the main thoroughfares by William F. Chamberlain, Edmund Ouellet, Romeo Gauvin and Harold Cady.

Rev. Henri F. Chagnon, assistant pastor at Sacred Heart Church has returned from the annual diocesan retreat at Manresa College, Keyser Island, off South Norwalk.

NORWICH TOWN

Katydids have been heard uptown at intervals since August 20.

After passing some time in Norwich Miss Anna Fredenburg left Monday for Torrington.

Mrs. Allen North and daughter Dorothy from Binghampton, N. Y., have been spending a month with relatives at Woodside.

The letter-box at Bliss Place was demolished by an automobile. One will soon replace it in front of the store at Hospital Corner.

Word just received from Miss Faith Bonfoey, a teacher in the academy who is now in France, states that she is having a fine trip.

NEAR EAST HEADQUARTERS APPEALS FOR GIFTS

Word has been received from the Near East headquarters in New York by the local committee that "Unless gifts continue to be received it will be necessary to withdraw our work of mercy among the refugee orphans to whom we are giving one meal a day. If our good American friends forget these children it may be necessary to discharge four thousand children from the orphanages. We are asking that you help provide for their needs as during the summer months the church and local committees are inactive."

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

Send this ad and ten cents to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive a sample bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND for coughs, colds and hoarseness, also sample package of FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, and FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS for constipation and biliousness. These dependable remedies are free from opiates and have helped millions of people. Try them! Lee & Osgood Co.

CONNECTICUT LOST $14,650.17 IN OPERATING ITS TWO RIVER FERRIES

The two Connecticut river ferries owned by the state of Connecticut were operated at a loss of $14,650.17 during the last fiscal year, a statement prepared by the state highway department shows. This deficit is an increase of $4,940.12 over the cost of running the ferries a year ago when the excess expenditures amounted to $9,710.05.

The ferries are the last two remaining in the state. They are located at Rocky Hill-Glastonbury and Chester-Hadlyme. The Chester ferry's deficit was the heaviest, amounting to $11,012.40, compared to $3,906.44 in 1924, while at Rocky Hill the loss was less than a year ago. It totalled $3,637.77, as against $5,803.61 in 1924.

Details of the financial report show that on the Chester ferry the total cash receipts from all traffic, including foot passengers, autos, trucks, horse-drawn vehicles, and motorcycles, reached $2,940.45. Last year this item totalled $3,930.00. Expenditures, which totalled $13,932.85 were largely for salaries of tenders, oil, gas, insurance, repairs, supplies and equipment. A year ago the expenditures aggregated $7,836.44.

Receipts at the Rocky Hill ferry amounted to $925.00 compared to $910.50 during the previous year, while expenses totalling $4,563.77 were mainly for salaries, coal, materials, repairs and freight.

It is shown that 20,226 passengers were conveyed across the river at both points, the majority of whom were foot passengers. The Chester ferry carried 16,435 people and the Rocky Hill boat transported 3,791 persons.

The number of autos crossing the ferries was 10,429, of which 7,730 were passenger cars and 2,699 trucks. At Chester, 4,642 passenger cars and 3,695 trucks used the ferry and at Rocky Hill 2,514 passenger cars and only four trucks were taken across in the entire twelve months.

Horse-drawn vehicles using the ferries totalled 837, of which 398 were at Rocky Hill and 439 at Chester. Motorcycles numbering 181 crossed the river at both points.

From July 1, 1924 to July 1, 1925, the number of round trips made by the two ferries was 7,667 at Chester and 2,363 over the Rocky Hill-Glastonbury route.

Five cents is the rate charged for transporting passengers, while that for automobiles is twenty-five cents.

An interesting point shown by the report is that at Rocky Hill all the automobiles using the ferry, 2,518, were Connecticut-owned cars, while at Chester, of the 7,901 cars crossing the river, 7,278 were owned in this state, the remainder 623, being foreign cars.

COLLEGE FOR CATHOLIC GIRLS TO OPEN AT NEW HAVEN

Girl students from Eastern Connecticut are enrolling at New Haven for the opening of Albertus Magnus college, for Catholic women.

It will begin its first school year Sept. 24 and more than 40 young women have already been registered. Because of limited accommodations, only about 60 will be entered during the opening year. The college has been organized by the Dominican Sisters of the Roman Catholic church and it was announced that Sister Dolorita, of St. Mary's of the Springs in Ohio will be the president, and that Sister Isabelle, who has been sister superior of St. Mary's academy in New Haven will be the dean.

The faculty will include Prof. Nicholas Moseley, who has been instructor in the classics at Yale and who is son-in-law of former President Arthur Twining Hadley of Yale; Prof. John Edward McDonough, instructor in political economy at Yale; Prof. William MacDagar, instructor in geology, and Sister Hilda, formerly of Columbus, O. The curriculum has been prepared by Prof. E. Hershey Speath, of Yale Divinity school.

Ten Acres, the magnificent home of Maj. Louis E. Stoddard, formerly president of the United States polo association, was purchased as the site of the school last spring, and it has been converted into the first of the buildings to be used as the nucleus for the college, which is named for a distinguished European theologian.

OLD SLATER MILL BELL IS TO TOLL OVER RADIO

Tolling of the old Slater mill bell, historic summoner which has been heard but three times during the last century and then only by the people of Pawtucket, will be one of the features broadcast during Textile Appreciation week, next week, through station WJAR, Providence. The last time this bell was rung was on Armistice day morning and night in 1918.

Beginning with the formal opening on Monday, Labor day evening, at which United States Senator Jesse H. Metcalf will be the principal speaker, there will be broadcasting periods twice daily through the remainder of the week in connection with the textile exhibit which is to be conducted in the old Slater mill, Pawtucket, under the direction of the Rhode Island Loyalty league. The programs will be handled by remote control direct from the old Slater mill.

The old bell will be tolled at 7:45 o'clock next Monday evening to mark the formal opening of Textile Appreciation week. A special microphone will be installed in the belfry to accomplish the novelty.

The Slater Mill was owned by Samuel Slater, great grandfather of the late William A. Slater, of Norwich, originator of the cotton textile industry in America.

CONTINUANCE IN CASE AGAINST ROBERT APPLEBY

In the city court Wednesday morning the case against Robert Appleby, 29, held on a technical charge of breach of the peace, on a warrant charging an offense alleged to have been committed last October was continued for a week. Appleby is at liberty on bonds of $2,500 furnished by his father. According to the complaint as stated in the warrant there are two counts, first, that he did unlawfully and feloniously enter the dwelling house of ——— of said Norwich in the night season and with the intent to commit a crime therein.

Second count alleges that he did attempt to seduce and carnally know ——— Norwich, then of the age of — years. The people at the time lived on North Cliff street, which is alleged to be near the home of Appleby.

City Attorney Lee Roy Robbins in asking for the continuance stated that the people who made the complaint have moved out of town and that the police with County Detective William E. Lewis will make an effort to locate them.

One man was fined $5 and costs for intoxication and his bill was paid by a friend as he was without funds.

DANTE CULTURAL CLUB IS ORGANIZED IN CITY

At a meeting held Tuesday evening in Carpenters' Hall, with an attendance of ten, the Dante Cultural Club, was organized and will elect its officers at the meeting next week. Isadore Maran, an organizer, was present to forward the work that has been done all over the country in organizing similar clubs.

Dante was the father of the Italian language and the aim of the club is to keep alive the spirit of the poet which was love for truth, for freedom of thought and for knowledge.

The club has decided to celebrate the Italian Independent Day, September 20, with an appropriate program. The well known St. Jean Baltic band, directed by professor Joe Berghinso, formerly director of the Norwich Italian Band, will march through several streets, and in the evening will render a splendid program at Union square.

For Trip to British Isles

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Mitchell of No. 39 Broad street, will sail Saturday from New York on the Cunard liner Caronia for several weeks' stay in England and Scotland. Mr. Mitchell is now in New York and will be joined by Mrs. Mitchell Thursday. They expect to be gone for six weeks or more.

GUARDING THE OYSTER AS SANITARY FOOD

With reference to oysters as a good food, the weekly health bulletin issued by the state department of health says this week:

Most persons agree that on a cold day a hot oyster stew goes right to the spot and such a stew has been recognized for years back as a highly nutritious meal. Oysters contain protein, calcium, phosphorus, iron, iodine and in themselves are a delicious food.

Statutes have been on the law books of Connecticut for years giving to the state department of health the power to inspect oyster beds and the way in which oysters are handled for the market. During the past few years there has been no occasion where Connecticut oysters were suspected of causing disease. However, with the increase in pollution of the waters of that state, it has been necessary to public health and the sanitary inspection of oyster beds, shucking houses and methods by which oysters have been handled in Connecticut through the regulations of the sanitary code of the state.

The state regulations require all oysters that are sold for food to be taken from beds that are certified by the state department of health as being free from contamination. In so far as it is aware, all oysters that are being handled today and sold in Connecticut, are taken from beds that have been shown by sanitary surveys and laboratory analyses to be free from contamination. The bacteriological analysis of oysters has been carried out and also analysis of the water in which oysters are grown so that persons who consume these can be assured that they have not come from contaminated areas. So far this year only a few oyster beds have been analyzed that have been found to be polluted and the gathering of oysters has been prohibited from these beds. Special precautions are being routinely taken so that no one will handle oysters who may be a typhoid carrier and Connecticut oysters this year should be, as in the past, a safe food for all.

SUES UNCAS POWER CO. FOR WASHOUT DAMAGE

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Because of an alleged artificial flood on August 28, 1922, which caused a washout on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, the railroad company has instituted a damage suit against the Uncas Power company, of Norwich, in the superior court of New Haven county.

The road counsel alleged in the complaint that the opening of the flood gates of the Shetucket river reservoir by workmen of the Uncas corporation caused a flood of water which brought about a washout. According to the road's allegation a serious error was committed in allowing the water to rush out of the gates too rapidly, the result being that the roadbed was washed out to a considerable extent. It is claimed that the road set to work and repaired the damage, the cost being $9,883.38. Under terms of an agreement with the Uncas corporation, entered into by the railroad on July 12, 1907, the power company was called upon to foot the bill. Having failed to do so, the road has brought suit.

MONTVILLE DWELLING IS COMPLETE LOSS BY FIRE

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the unfinished house of Allan Beckwith in Montville early Wednesday morning with an approximate loss of $4,000. The house was a new one, being completed all but the plastering. It is understood Mr. Beckwith carried but little insurance, planning to place more on the house when it was completed.

The house, which is located near the Montville town house on the Palmertown road, was discovered to be ablaze shortly after 2 o'clock in the morning by people living in the vicinity. First Selectman Jerome W. House was notified and under his direction neighbors did what they could to save the surrounding property, but the Beckwith house had such a start that the bucket brigade could not get near enough to give any material resistance to the devouring flames. In a short time the house was a mass of smouldering ruins.

DENIES INJUNCTION ASKED BY JITNEY OPERATORS

Application of the Waterbury Jitneys and Taxis, Inc., for a temporary injunction restraining the New Haven Shore Line railway from operating motor buses from New Haven to Saybrook, was denied by Judge C. L. Avery of the superior court in Waterbury on Wednesday.

The court says its has no power to enjoin the service, inasmuch as it was granted by legislative act. Attorneys for the Waterbury concern stated they would fight the case out along other lines.

GRACE CHURCH RECTOR LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

Rev. Robert B. Day, late rector of Grace Episcopal church, Yantic, left Monday evening for Toronto, Canada, to visit friends and on Saturday, September 5, he expects to sail for England on the Cunard liner Caronia. Upon his arrival in England he will take up his new duties with the Seamen's mission. His parish in Yantic regrets very much his departure from the church as everyone had learned to love him and he leaves for his new duties with the best of wishes from his friends.

TALK ON FISH AS FOOD GIVEN FOR ROTARIANS

Fish, a Useful Form of Food, was the topic of an interesting paper read by Dr. Alfred Richards, the five minute speaker at the weekly meeting of the Norwich Rotary club Wednesday noon at the Wauregan hotel. President J. Nelson Weymouth, who has recently returned from his vacation, presided at the meeting and the divine blessing was asked by Herbert B. Cary. The song leader was James L. Case. Guests and visiting Rotarians were present from Detroit and St. Clair, Mich., Boston, Worcester, Willimantic and New London.

E. H. Marble of the Worcester Rotary club, spoke briefly on Rotary, its influence, and its good fellowship. Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, chairman of the committee in charge of the fall conclave of the Rotary clubs at the Griswold this month, spoke of the plans for the conclave. Further details will be given later by Chairman Joseph C. Worth of the On to New London committee. One new member was extended the right hand of fellowship by President Weymouth.

The felicitations of the club were extended to Manager Frederick A. Watson of the Wauregan hotel, as Mr. Watson is soon to leave Norwich, having been transferred to the executive office in the Hotel Albert, New York city. He is to be succeeded by Manager Hannigan of the Crocker house, New London.

Dr. Alfred Richards, the five minute speaker, read the following interesting paper on Fish, a Useful Form of Food.

While the popular idea that fish is "brain food" has been exploded, recent investigations have shown that sea food possesses nutritive properties hitherto unsuspected. They have shown that proper diet should contain sea food at regular intervals, for the regular consumption of good ocean fish protects us from goiter, many eye troubles and rickets. It also furnishes valuable proteins and fats which are easily digested nad assimilated and which build up the body and keeps us fit.

For more than a hundred years, for example, the therapeutic value of cod liver oil has been recognized. Only in the past fifteen years, however, has it been known that this oil owes its nutritive and therapeutic properties to its high fat-soluble vitamin content. Cod liver oil has been shown to have at least two hundred times as high a fat-soluble vitamin content as butter, which is a very potent source of these vitamins.

While fatty fish and other fish oils have not as high a fat soluble vitamin content as the fish liver oils, yet they contain much larger amounts of these vitamins than most other foods. The importance of the vitamin content of fatty fish can hardly be overestimated. In many countries where dairy products are high priced and vegetables are scarce, as in Alaska, Labrador and Iceland, all of the common foods are deficient in this vitamin with the exception of herring, mackerel and other fatty fish, which are eaten in great quantities.

In recent years a lack of iodine in food and drinking water has been recognized as one of the most important causes of endemic goiter, cretinism and other disorders of the thyroid gland. Thyroxin, the active principle of the thyroid, has been shown to be an iodine compound. Various scientists have demonstrated that it is necessary to have small amounts of iodine in the food or drinking water to enable the thyroid gland to function properly.

Recently a chemist analyzed a large number of sea foods for their iodine content, using a novel method of analysis by which it was possible to measure accurately the iodine content of foods even when this element is present in amounts as small as one millionth of one per cent. The investigation has shown that oysters, clams and lobsters are unusually high in iodine, containing approximately two hundred times as much iodine as beefsteak, and crabs about half that amount. Marine fishes are also high in iodine, containing as much iodine as milk or beef muscle. Fresh water fishes, however, are much lower in iodine, the amount found being about the same as that of meat.

The Japanese eat more fish per capita than any other large nation. Perhaps for this reason goiter is unknown in Japan.

Japanese chemists have tried out many investigations into the character of the amino acids of fish proteins. Our digestive apparatus breaks down the proteins of our food into these amino acids which are used by the blood in building up our tissues.

While fish itself may not be considered as a "brain food," fish eggs, or fish roe, as they are ordinarily called, have a claim to that distinction. For the roe contains certain substances called phospholipins which resemble fats in some ways and which are found in the tissue of the brain. Doubtless these organic phosphorus compounds are used by the body in building up "gray matter."

Both the fat and protein constituents of fish are easily digested. While certain persons may not be able to readily digest certain fish fats, yet it has been demonstrated that the great majority of persons digest fish fats as easily as any other fats. The proteins of fish are as readily digested as those of beefsteak and most other meats.

SIX CHURCH CONFERENCE HELD IN PACHAUG

The Conference of Six Churches was held Wednesday at the First Congregational church in Pachaug, with one hundred and twenty-four present. Mrs. William Edmond had decorated the platform with beautiful old fashioned flowers, a large part of the gladioli, and dahlias being given by William H. Palmer. Cosmos, asters and phlox added to the beauty of the display. The services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Clement, who is supplying the church at present. The exercises were opened with an organ voluntary by the clerk, Mrs. E. H. Hiscox, of Jewett City, who officiated as organist for the day. After the opening exercises, the Scripture from Matthew 22 was read by Rev. J. M. Carter, pastor of the Methodist church of Jewett City. Rev. G. Keene Gray, pastor of the Jewett City church offered prayer.

The morning sermon was delivered by Rev. William Fryling, of Wauregan. His text was Matt. 22:37, "The first and greatest commandment. Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart." He said that moral law is the highest law and the highest principle of law is this commandment. Man who is the only being to understand law seems to be the only lawless being. Many people have ceased to think of God as the ruler of the universe. Jesus reveals God as our Father. He rules, and whether He rules with love depends on us. Think of God as infinitely wise and good, who is trying to help us make the most of our lives, saving souls in the place of which He has placed us. Perhaps the trouble with our churches and the wave of crime in the world is not the result of the war, but the lowering of our own standards, and not keeping the faith. God is our God. We must have warm-hearted, sympathetic, intelligent love to fulfill this law and come up to the Christian standpoint. We shall be better and happier if we try our best to meet the requirement.

Rev. Dwight C. Stone of Hanover pronounced the benediction. Dinner was served in the Pachaug Grange hall, grace being asked by Rev. G. F. Goodenough of Ledyard.

After a praise service led by J. Kellogg Hall of Preston City, the offering was received. The clerk read the minutes of the last conference and called the roll. There were twelve from Hanover, 17 from Jewett City Congregational church, 16 from Newent, 19 from Preston City, 20 from Pachaug, and 30 visitors. None were present from Plainfield, as this was the day of the annual Plainfield Academy reunion. Rev. Mr. Reynolds offered a resolution of thanks for the speeches, music and hospitality, which was voted upon by rising vote. Mrs. William Edmond sang the solo, In My Garden.

The address of the afternoon was given by Rev. Giles F. Goodenough of Ledyard. His topic title was Opportunity of a Country Church in 1925. The main lesson which the speaker sought to bring to the attention of his hearers was drawn from country church experiences and portrayed, not alone their hardships and defeats but their victories as well. The country church in all its varied history never has enjoyed easy times, yet from its farm and fireside influences great men have been brought, that have proven a blessing to the church and a benefit to the world.

In the country church are those who know the soil, they have the active minds which the touch of nature has given, and they are in sympathy with the universe. The speaker declared that the country church has never had the monopoly of character building, and is no longer an authority but is a leavener.

He told of his interest in history because it introduced him to folks. Comparisons and narratives were of interest, as touching incidents of two of Connecticut's leading men of more than two centuries ago, Gurdon Saltonstal and Horace Bushnell. Their were homely pastoral stories, which the speaker understands so well how to relate. Outstanding among these was a word picture of daybreak among his native hills.

Christian character is formed and moulded as we mix with people, not our own kind and with those who view the world through a different class.

At the close of the afternoon session, Rev. J. W. Reynolds, pastor of the Newent church, gave a number of interesting side lights on the topic of the closing speaker, pointing out especially our obligation, as touching the care, education and Christianizing of the children of the immigrant who seeks home upon our shores. Rev. Mr. Clement closed the sessions with the benediction.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

Last Time---Thursday Morning Specials
These Special Values---Thursday Morning Only

Today will be the last of the summer half holidays. To make the occasion noteworthy we will offer the strongest list of "Morning Specials" that we have offered this season. Read this list—then take advantage of the savings which this occasion offers.

Extraordinary Offering of "Beacon" Blankets
For Thursday Morning Only

One Case of size 66x80, "Beacon" Blankets, double-bed size, single blankets. These are solid colors with white line borders—rose, Copenhagen, orchid and tan, strictly fast colors, fleecy and warm.

THIS MORNING AT $2.98

Made to retail at $5.00 (Limit 2 to a customer)

Women's 50c Hosiery, 33c
Women's Ribbed Sport Hosiery, four leading colors—Morning Sale Price 33c—second quality of 50c grade.

$1.00 HOSIERY AT 55c
Women's American Hosiery Co.'s make, Full-fashioned Hosiery, black and white, fall weight—Morning Sale Price 55c a pair, regular value $1.00.

SILK VESTS AT 95c
Women's Silk Vests (Fibre Silk), with picot edge band, in white flesh, peach and orchid—Morning Sale Price 95c, regular value $1.19

SILK VESTS AT $1.29
Women's Pure Glove Silk Vests, in white, flesh, honeydew and orchid—Morning Sale Price $1.29, regular value $1.95.

MORNING SPECIALS FOR MEN

75c Neckwear at 50c
Men's Four-in-hand Ties of fine quality Barathea and other desirable weaves in silk—Morning Sale Price 50c, regular value 75c.

$3.50 Eagle Shirts, $2.19
Men's high grade "Eagle Shirts," with separate collars, beautiful patterns — Morning Sale Price $2.19, regular value $3.50.

$1.39 Boys' Trousers, 75c
Boys' Wool-line Straight Trousers' neat mixtures, sizes 3 to 9—Morning Sale Price 75c a pair, regular value $1.39.

Children's Sweaters, $1.95
Children's Pure Wool Sweaters, small sizes—Morning Sale Price $1.95, regular value $3.00.

Women's Bandeaus, 10c
Odd lot of Bandeaus, some hooked front, others hooked back, sizes 40, 42 and 44—Morning Sale Price 10c, actual value 50c.

COSTUME SLIPS, 98c
Women's Costume Slips of good quality Muslin, with big hems, top trim and with neat embroideries—Morning Sale Price 98c, regular value $1.50.

PARTY SUITS, 89c
Boys' Party Suits, made of Chambray and Kiddie Cloth, sizes 2 to 6 years—Morning Sale Price 89c regular value $1.50.
(Children's Department)

BATHING CAPS AT HALF PRICES
Women's Bathing Caps, choice of our entire stock—Morning Sale Prices, exactly half regular prices

Sanitary Napkins, 34c
Sanitary Napkins, one dozen in a carton—Morning Sale Price 34c a carton, regular value 50c.

CURLING IRONS, 50c
"Flapper" Electric Curling Irons complete with cord and plug—Morning Sale Price 50c.

$5.00 HAT BAGS, $3.49
Women's Black Dupont Covered Hat Bags, with Cretonne lining and pockets, dull finish—Morning Sale Price $3.49, regular value $5.00.

WOMEN'S DRESSES AT $5.00
ODD LOT OF WOMEN'S SILK AND FLANNEL DRESSES BROKEN SIZES TAKEN FROM OUR REGULAR STOCK—PRINTED CREPES, STRIPED TUB SILKS, FLANNEL DRESSES, ALSO A FEW VELVETEEN SPORT JACKETS—MORNING SALE PRICE $5.00, FORMER PRICES UP TO $16.50.

SAMPLE GLOVES 95c
About 300 pairs of Women's Fall Gloves—an importer's sample line of the newest styles in Fancy Cuff Suede Finish Gloves—Morning Sale Price 95c a pair, regular value up to $1.75.

Women's Handkfs. 11c
Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, all the wanted colors—Morning Sale Price 11c each, 3 for 30c, regular value 15c.

59c SATIN STRIPE, 39c
Yard-wide Satin Stripe Lingerie Cloth, for slips and underwear, white, orchid, pink, peach and copenhagen. Morning Sale Price 39c a yard, regular value 59c.
(Silk Department)

$1.00 SILK PONGEE, 60c
33-inch All Silk Pongee, for blouse dress or underwear, in 2½, 3 and 3½ yard lengths, to close—Morning Sale Price 60c a yard, regular value $1.00.

$1.69 Silk Radium, $1.29
Yard-wide All Silk Radium, for slips and underwear, white, black, orchid, tan, navy, rose, turquoise pink and sweet pea—Morning Sale Price $1.29 a yard, regular value $1.69.

35c TEA TILES, 25c
Tea Tiles of Bavarian China, with delft blue floral decoration—Morning Sale Price 25c, regular value 35c.

CONSOLE SETS, $1.10
Console Sets, colored glass, in green, blue and amber—Morning Sale Price $1.10 a set, regular value $1.39.

$1.75 Water Sets, $1.29
Engraved Water Sets, colonial design, floral engraving, two-quart pitcher and six water glasses—Morning Sale Price $1.29 a set, regular value $1.75.

$1.30 BOOK ENDS, $1.19
Metal Book Ends, bronze finish, a variety of subjects—Morning Sale Price $1.19 a pair, regular value $1.39.

Extraordinary Offering NEPONSET RUGS
Thursday Morning Only

Size 6x9 Neponset Rugs—Morning Sale Price $5.50, regular value $9.95.

Size 7 ft. 6x9 feet Neponset Rugs—Morning Sale Price $7.50, regular value $11.25.

Size 9x10 ft. 6, Neponset Rugs—Morning Sale Price $11.50, regular value $16.95.

Size 9x12 Neponset Rugs—Morning Sale Price $13.50, regular value $18.00.

A good selection in every size—including patterns suitable for every room in the house.

OUTING FLANNEL, 22c
36-inch White Outing Flannel (note the width) soft and fleecy—Morning Sale Price 22c a yard.

Dress Ginghams, 22c
32-inch Fine Quality Dress Ginghams, good assortment of new designs—Morning Sale Price 22c a yard.

Communicable Diseases Reported

The weekly morbidity report issued by the state department of health for the week ending August 31 shows the following cases of communicable diseases reported from towns in eastern Connecticut:

Diphtheria, New London, 2; scarlet fever, Lebanon, 1; New London 1; whooping cough, Groton, 2; typhoid fever, Coventry, 1.

SUPERIOR COURT MAKES DISPOSITION OF CASES

Disposition of continued cases that are on the superior court docket was made at a session of the court which was held in this city Wednesday morning.

On the recommendation of State Attorney Arthur M. Brown to Judge Leonard B. Nickerson, nolles were entered in the cases of Joseph Savitsky of Colchester and Joseph Savitsky et al, charged with aggravated assault.

Nolles were entered also in the case of Abraham Hirsch of New London and Malcolm E. Thompson of North Stonington, both having arisen from civil matters which have now been disposed of.

A continuance till the next term was ordered in the case of Gabriel Berker of this city, accused of embezzlement. No explanation was made of the reason for continuance.

A nolle was entered in the case of Charles Pankowski of Norwich, alias Charles Young, who took an automobile without permission and damaged it. The man has been making payments to the owner, the state attorney said.

The following cases were continued on the docket, as the accused are in the Norwich state hospital; John C. W. Wilbur, Salem, murder; Stephen Hunter, Norwich, indecent assault; Charles Loomis, Bozrah, theft of poultry; Newell Vergason, Norwich, robbery.

The case of Ernest Schleifer, accused of sabotage in New London, was continued. State Attorney Brown said the man had been convicted in New Haven county but had been granted a new trial by the supreme court and it was his understanding with the New Haven county state attorney that the case would be continued here until the New Heven case was disposed of.

Court adjourned till next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, standard time, when two trials are assigned.

REV. F. J. O'NEILL'S HYMN POPULAR FOR EIGHT YEARS

The papers mention again and again the singing of the beautiful hymn, "When Evening Comes," written by Rev. Felix J. O'Neill, pastor of St. Edward's church, Stafford Springs, formerly of Norwich. Father O'Neill set his words to music and the hymn was first played by Prof. Frank L. Farrell, of Norwich at the funeral of Fr. O'Neill's father, at Willimantic. This was eight years ago and since that date the melodious composition has been sung in churches all over the country.

CHANGE IN TEACHER STAFF AT ACADEMY

Owing to the illness of a close friend Miss Edna Stewart, who for the past 20 years has been a member of the teaching faculty at the Norwich Free Academy will not return to her class rooms, this year. Miss Beatrice M. Smith of Naugatuck will take her place on the faculty this year and will take charge of Miss Stewart's Latin classes.

Samoan Simplicity

Samoa, where the natives are encouraged to retain their natural mode of life, is the only spot in the Pacific islands where the native population is not dying out; everywhere else clothes and civilization seem to have brought disease.

Norwich Bulletin

1796 1925

VOL. LXVII—No. 212. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1925. FOURTEEN PAGES—98 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

14 KILLED, TWO SERIOUSLY INJURED IN THE SHENANDOAH CATASTROPHE

While Battling With the Elements at Altitude of 7,500 Feet Over Eva, Ohio, the Dirigible Buckled Amidship and Broke Into Three Sections—The Control Cabin Crashed to the Ground—The Main Section, Carrying 26 Survivors, Landed Twelve Miles From Where the Cabin Fell—Survivors Hung to Girders During Their Perilous Ride—All of the Dead Were Instantly Killed.

CALDWELL, Ohio Sept. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Fourteen of the crew of the Shenandoah glan dirigible are dead and two others were seriously injured early today when the pride of the United States Navy cracked during a severe storm on its Western cruise from its Lakehurst, N. J., airport.

Among the dead is Lieutenant Commander ZaZcharay Landswne, Captain of the ship.

After battling the elements for several hours, the huge aircraft suddenly shot upward to an altitude of approximately 7,500 feet from a 2,000 foot level where the dirigible buckled amidship. The pressure and twisting was so great that it broke the ship in three sections.

The control cabin, swung beneath the fore-section of the ship proper, broke away and crashed to the ground while at an altitude of several thousand feet. It carried most of the crew who were killed.

Released from the control cabin, the fore section, measuring about 150 and bearing seven survivors, free ballooned for more than an hour and finally landed near Sharon, twelve miles from where the control cabin crashed near Ava.

The main section, carrying 26 survivors, landed with a crash which sent several of the crew division through the outer covering to the ground. A middle section of some 15 or 20 feet settled down in pieces over the countryside.

A Thrilling Ride.

Those aboard the nose section had a wild and thrilling ride and landed twelve miles from the place where the cabine compartment crashed. Several of the officers had just left the control cabin and were climbing up the ladder into the cat walk of the ship proper when the cabin broke loose.

Suspended in mid-air, and hanging to a girder, they crawled or were pulled to places of comparative safety.

One, not so fortunate, F. J. McCarthy, Chief Rigger, was swept from his perilous pearch in the forward end of the nose to the ground when the motorless craft struck a tree. He is in a Marietta Hospital in a serious condition.

With three men forward and three aft in the nose of the craft it was maneuvered to a safe altitude after brushing trees and at least one farm house. Lieutenant commander C. E. Rosendahl and Lieutenant J. B. Anderson directed the release of the helium gas and gasoline in such a way that the nose landed without severly injuring any aboard.

The dead were then taken to Belle Valley, a nearby village, where they were placed in an improvised morgue. An American Legion guard of honor is on watch there tonight.

Men Were Killed Instantly

The men, it appears were instantly killed. At least one man was torn in two. Others had broken bones and skulls and were otherwise badly mutilated. The bodies will be kept at Belle Valley, until tomorrow when a Board of Inquiry will officially establish the cause of death.

This board will be headed by Commander J. H. Klein, Executive Officer of the Lakehurst station, who is enroute from the Eastern City tonight. Another board is expected to investigate the cause of the accident and to determine what disposition, if any, will be made of the wrecked airship.

The Shenandoah started from Lakehurst, N. J., late yesterday afternoon and had an uneventful trip until it crossed the Ohio River into Ohio.

While on a line between Cambridge and Byesville heading westward the ship encountered a severe electrical storm. It was unable to make any speed. After some maneuvering officers managed to head the ship southward, seeking to clear the storm area.

Near Ava, eight miles north of here, the ship encountered the line squall, the variety of storm most feared by air men, and was carried from a 2,000 foot level to 4,500 feet, where it remained stationary for a few minutes. Then, with the ship's nose headed southward, and four of the five motors going full speed, the pressure again hoisted the ship to a still higher level, about 6,500 feet.

Ordered Motors Stopped

Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne, survivors say, ordered all motors stopped when the ship reached an altitude of about 6,500 feet.

At this point the ship began to break apart. The nose section continued its ascent to about 7,500 feet and then started downward on its cross-country flight. The control cabin was twisted off and dropped to the ground when more than 5,000 feet in the air. The seven men aboard this section were instantly killed.

The big section, carrying 26 officers and men, tossed about in the air for a short time while the crew fought heroically to bring it under control. This section was so unevenly balanced that it settled to the ground where it was further cracked.

The bulk of the mid-section fell into a small grove and three survivors shinned their way down to the ground. Radio Gunner Raymond Cole, who was making his first flight aboard the Shenandoah, was badly injured, when the mid-section fell. He may recover.

Men Worked With Coolness

Officers and men went about their work with coolness doing their best to right the ship to a level keel during the storm and after the break-up. Survivors are loud in their praise for the manner in which the crew conducted itself. There was no disorder. The men sought to release helium as directed and when they crashed to earth they were thrown through the outer covering or scrambling to the ground of their own accord.

Most Thrilling Experience

Colonel C. G. Hall, U. S. army observer abroad the Shenandoah was among the survivors who were carried across the country in the nose of the ship. He was next to the last to leave the control cabin, being followed by Lieutenant A. B. Anderson. Lieutenant Anderson probably had the most thrilling experience. He grabbed a girder when the control cabin broke away. He clung to this girder and finally managed to straddle it. His back was to those who were up in the nose and he was able to turn around and crawl up the girder to a more safe position in the hull. A rope was thrown to him by Lieutenant H. G. Mayer. By reaching over his shoulder Anderson managed to turn around on the girder and crawl to the nose with the others aboard this section. Anderson refused to talk about this adventure and Lieutenant Mayer told of it only after Lieutenant Commander Rosendahl had told him it would be all right. Lieutenant Mayer is the officer who is credited with the responsibility for the safe return of the Shenandoah when it broke away from its mooring mast at Lakehurst on January 16, 1924

Lieutenant C. E. Bauch was in the main section when it crashed to the ground. He says there was no undue hurry or concern aboard. The men, he said, realized their predicament and did everything they could to save the ship. Bauch has a nasty cut on the leg which he sustained when he was thrown from the ship when it crashed.

Hung to a Girder

F. E. Masters, of Akron, Ohio, aviation pilot, hung to a girder until the ship was within a few feet of the ground and jumped to safety. Had he stayed on the girder until it crashed he undoubtedly would have been killed as the girder above the one on which he was hanging piled on top of the one he was riding.

"I thought my end had come," he said, "but had no particular sensation. When it was all over I saw the other men standing on a nearby knoll looking over the wreckage and congratulating each other on their safe landing."

Masters, on the scheduled return trip to Lakehurst, planned to jump by parachute from the Shenandoah as it passed over his home city—Akron—where he expected to visit his wife and week-old son.

Lieutenant Commander Rosendahl, third in command, took charge of affairs after the crash and was authorized by the bureau of navigation navy department, to send more than a score of the survivors back to Lakehurst by train. They left Cambridge, Ohio, early this evening. Two officers and two enlisted men from the Shenandoah are here with Lieutenant Commander Rosendahl to direct the disposition of the bodies and to assist the boards of inquiry.

The body of Lieutenant W. S. Sheppard, who must have been in the mid-section and immediately over the crack when the ship broke anart, was found in a hedge alongside a creek on the farm of Charles Nisewange, a mile or more away from the main part of the wreck.

Clutched in his hand was a piece of rope, which evidently had given away when the crash came.

List of the Dead

CALDWELL, Ohio, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Those killed in the control cabin of the Shenandoah were.

Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne, of Greeneville, Ohio, captain of ship.

Lieutenant Commander Louis Hancock Jr., Austin, Texas, executive officer.

Lieutenant J. B. Lawrence, St. Paul, Minn.

Lieutenant A. R. Houghton, Allstown, Mass.

Chief Petty Officer, George C. Schnitzer, Tuckertown, N. J

Machinist Mate James A. Moore, Savannah, Ga.

Chief Rigger E. P. Allen, St. Louis, Mo.

Others killed were:

Lieutenant E. W. Sheppard, Washington, D. C.

Rigger Ralph G. Joffray, St. Louis.

Machinist Mate B. B. O'Sullivan, Lowell, Mass.

Machinist Mate W. A. Spruttley, Venice, Ills.

Chief Machinist Charles H. Broom, Tum's River, N. J.

Machinist Mate C. P. Mazzuco, Murray Hill, N. J.

Machinist Mate James W. Cullinan, Finghamton, N. Y.

Just where the men not classified were when the ship cracked and when they fell is the subject of conflicting stories by survivors.

Those injured are:

Chief Gunner Raymond Cole, Lima, Ohio, cut and bruised. Thought not to be fatally injured.

Rigger J. F. McCarthy, Freehold, N. He may die.

J., suffering from injuries and cuts.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR EXTENDS SYMPATHY

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 3—On learning of the Shenandoah disaster, Baron Ago Von Maltzan, the German ambassador, who is summering at Magnolia, near here, motored to white court to extend to President Coolidge the sympathy of his government.

Although the Shenandoah was built in this country, its sister ship, the Los Angeles, was constructed at the Zeppelin factory in Germany.

DESCRIPTION OF STORM THAT WROUGHT HAVOC

LAKEHURST, N. J., Sept. 3.—(A. P.)—Meteorological experts here tonight explained to naval air station officials that a line squall, such as that which wrecked the navy dirigible, is a thunder squall which develops in a straight line when winds of different temperatures clash. The "line" is formed when a warm and a cold temperature meet or when the winds from opposite directions collide

(Continued on Page Six, Col. Seven)

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

George A. Parker of Boston was named prohibition administrator for the New England district, with headquarters at Boston.

A goodly stock of whiskey and cognac, which it was intended to ship into the United States, was seized at Bianca, province of Havana.

Mrs. Lucy Cook, aged 103 years, died at the Old Ladies Home in Lowell, where she has made her home for 32 years. She was born in Canada.

The Italian submarine Sebastiano Veniero, missing since the recent manoeuvres of the Italian navy off Sicily, has been officially declared lost.

On the basis of a nationwide survey, the agriculture department estimated that 550,000 farms are equipped with radios, compared with 365,000 a year ago and 145,000 in 1923.

Fifteen Spaniards and thirteen Chinese were deported from Cuba by the immigration authorities after having been convicted of labor agitation and narcotic addiction and peddling.

Henry Hobart Vail, retired publisher died at his home in Woodstock, Vt., at the age of 86 years. He retired in 1911 as editor-in-chief of the American Book Company, New York.

George I. Buxton, prominent G. A. R. member died at Norwalk, Conn. He was 83 years of age. Mr. Buxton was a former mayor of the Old city of Norwalk and a New York broker.

John M. Mulcahy, federal enforcement officer, who was shot during a liquor raid on a camp at Flushing's Pond, Westford, died yesterday afternoon at a hospital in Lowell, Mass.

The permanent commission of the Vera Cruz state legislature has requested president Calles to revoke his order withdrawing federal troops from guarding against attacks by agrarians.

The Hershey interests have acquired another sugar mill in Cuba, having purchased the central carmen at Jaruco, Havana province. It is reported that $2,600,000 cash was paid for the mill.

Official denial of rumors that Clinton L. Bardon is about to return to his duties as general manager, was made in New Haven last night by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Hewitt H. Howland, well known editor of Indianapolis, will become editor of the Century Magazine, succeeding Glenn Frank recently elected president of the University of Wisconsin.

Salvatore Peluso of New York, was sent to jail at Stamford for six months for carrying concealed weapons and assault with a deadly weapon on Motorcycle Officer Harry Curran

Fire destroyed the organ and a number of valuable accessories in the cathedral in Alessandria, Italy, with damage estimated at one million lire. It is believed to have been caused by a short circuit.

All immigrants to Palestine must obtain from Jerusalem permits to enter the holy land. This order has been issued by the Palestine government in accordance with the new immigration ordinance.

Maine coal dealers expressed a willingnss to co-operate in every way with James C. Boyd of Portland, state fuel administrator, in the expected crisis to be brought about by the strike in anthracite mines.

Consolidation of five large public utility companies in the southwest with annual gross earnings exceeding $17,000,000 into a new super-power system under the management of the Insull interests of Chicago.

Motorists arriving in Saranac Lake, N. Y., reported that they drove through a hard snow squall in the Mescham Lake section of the Adirondacks. This is one of the earliest snow falls recorded in this district.

John Troy, Worcester bandit gang leader, was reported to be in Providence, R. I., yesterday morning. Chief Inspector Robert M. Conners immediately sent out a general alarm and every patrolman was notified to be on the watch.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway Wednesday celebrated its 75th birthday. It was on September 2, 1850 that a little wood-burning locomotive pulled a second-hand car from Aurora, Ill., to Turner Junction, over 12 miles of rails.

The Zionist actions committee elected by the Zionist congress at Vienna, last Sunday, has been formally organized. Dr. Leo Motzkin was elected President and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York was chosen vice-chairman of the committee.

Search for Prince Ahmed Stiefeddin, brother-in-law of King Faud of Egypt and missing from an asylum at Hastings was continued in England and on the continent but it was believed that he had been hidden by a group of rich Turks.

The stockholders of the Thorndike Company, manufacturers of cotton goods, in a meeting yesterday voted approval of the proposed removal of the mills in Thorndike village at Palmer, Mass., to West Warren, for consolidation with the company's mills there.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance company of New York authorized loans totalling $9,002,570 for housing, business and farm aid affecting virtually all of the country. The loans provide $6,329,320 for housing, $921,500 for business and $1,691,950 for farm aid.

Amos E. Porter, 81 year old Civil war veteran, died at the Meriden hospital of a fractured skull at 6.20 o'clock last night about four hours after being struck on Colony street here by an automibile operated by Helmuth A. Rebstock, of 137 Sea View avenue, Bridgeport.

King Boris of Bulgaria Is Ill From Poisoning

Court Physican Has Found Bacilli of Typhus Fever in Dessert Prepared For the King.

ROME, Sept. 3—(AP—The Giornale D'Italia today publishes a report that King Boris of Bulgaria is gravely ill from the effects of poison, and that specialists have been rushed to Varna to attend his majesty. The source of the report is not stated.

According to the Giornale D'Italia's report, Princess Eudoxie, the king's sister, said that a court physician found bacilli of typhus fever in a dessert prepared for the king. This dish was served by a cook who is suspected of having been induced to administer poison by members of the Bulgarian military league. These persons, the Giornale D'Italia, says, were seeking retaliation for the king's refusal to sign death warrants for several communists recently convicted of treason and sentenced to die.

MATTERS FOR CONNECTICUT FEDERATION OF LABOR

NEW BRITAIN, Sept. 3—(AP)—Many matters regarded of importance are to be taken up by delegates to the fortieth annual convention of the Connecticut Federation of Labor which will open next Tuesday morning. Already the number of credentials forwarded to Secretary John J. Egan, of Bridgeport, forecasts an attendance exceeding that of most of the preceding ones, and especially that at Meriden in 1918, which was the banner one in this respect.

Resolutions will come before the convention dealing with the following subjects: The world court; the imigration legislation; the labor bank trade and vocational education work; old age pensions; out of work insurance; home rule legislation.

Among those who are expected to address the delegates will be First V. President James Duncan, of the American Federation of Labor, representing President Green; Judge J. P. Wrisley of the United States labor department; Thomas F. McMahon, of the United Textile Workers; C. J. Danaher of Meriden, and Mayor Paonessa, of this city. Fraternal delegates will attend from New Jersey, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

624 HEAD OF CATTLE WERE CONDEMNED IN AUGUST

HARTFORD, SeSept. 3—A total of 624 head of cattle were condemned by the state domestic animals department following tests given during August, according to the monthly report issued today. One hundred and ten herds, containing 2,180 head were tested during the period. The number of head of cattle imported during the month for dairy and breeding purposes was 1,149 and 249 were imported for slaughter.

Accredited herd certificates were issued for thirty herds, containing 550 head, official tuberculin test certificates for sixty two herds with 2,218 head and first test certificates were issued for nine herds with 138 head.

Nine native horses were tested and permits issued for importing 112. Six of these were re-tested there being no reactors. The number of hogs imported during the month was 6,450, while the poultry numbered 78, and sheep four.

PERSONNEL OF THE FRENCH DEBT MISSION ANNOUNCED

PARIS, Sept. 3—Eight members of parliament and two bankers were named today by the cabinet to accompany M. Caillaux, the finance minister, to Washington to seek a settlement of France's war debt to the United States. The party will sail on the steamer Paris September 16.

The preponderance of politics over finance in the mission is understood to be due to the desire of the government so to associate representative groups with the debt settlement as to facilitate ratification.

The mission is composed of Senators Berenger, Chapsal, Dausset and Lupuy, Deputies Auriol, Maoureux, Eckanowski and Marquis Pierre de Chambrun, Maurice Simon, controller of the French treasury and Andre Moreau-Neret, expert of the finance ministry.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

Further changes in the new prohibition enforcement staff were announced.

The commerce department reported increased American imports and exports for July.

Secretary Wilbur ordered indefinite postponement of the PB-1 flight to Hawaii.

Commander Macmillan expressed belief that the Lief Erickson expedition was beyond rescue.

Naval officers were shocked over the Shenandoah disaster, which was also a blow to their hopes for development of such craft.

FRENCH AND SPANISH ARE BOMBARDING RIFFIANS

FEZ, French Morocco, Sept. 3—Franco-Spanish naval forces, in preparation for their big offensive against the coast in the neighborhood of Adjir, on the bay of Alhucemas.

Strong contingents of Riffians and Djebelas are concentrated near Ensiuan in expectation of an attack against the French immediately under the direction of Sidi Mohammed.

Vets Call For 18th Amendment Repeal

Resolution Passed by Large Vote of Delegates to the 26th Annual Encampment at Tulsa, Okla.

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 2—(AP) — A resolution calling for the repeal of the 18th amendment to the constitution was passed by a large vote of delegates to the 26th annual encampment of the Vetflerans of Foreign Wars here today.

A second resolution urging President Coolidge to investigate the raid on the headquarters of the V. F. W. by prohibition officers last Monday, also was passed, with but few dissenting votes.

CHILDREN OF STRIKERS TO HELP SUPPORT FAMILIES

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—(AP)—When puulic schools reopen next week hundreds of anthracite miners' children will be absent. Since the suspension affecting 148,000 men went into effect, according to advices received today from the region, youngsters have been taking jobs to help support their families during the idleness of elder bread-winners.

A marked slump in schools was a certainty, according to a school survey made in Wilkesbarre which was believed to reflect conditions throughout the coal fields.

Working certificates for youngsters had been issued by school superintendents by the score, it was said. All the applicants had convinced the examiners that what wages they could earn were necessary to the comfort of their homes.

School authorities were the more concerned because they feared that the children, having one got out of touch with the school system, would not return when the coal mines were in operation again. For many of them it was apt to bring a premature end to their schooling, they said.

Under Pennsylvania laws, however, minors between 14 and 16 years must attend school at least one day a week, and educational authorities were trusting to this to save as many children for further education as was possible.

Otherwise the third day of the suspension passed without report of marked change in the situation anywhere in the ten anthracite counties. Conditions were described as peaceful but as gradually drifting toward stagnation.

Squabbles arising out of maintenance work in the pits were being adjusted by the officials of the local union boards, it was said. Importance of these hitches was generally minimized.

AUGUSTUS THOMAS ENACTS ROLE IN HIS NEW PLAY

STAMFORD, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—When Augustus Thomas, one of America's leading playwrights, enacted the principal role in his new play, "Still Waters," which opened here tonight, he appeared on the stage for the first time in thirty-five years.

Up until a few nights ago John Craig had been cast for the role of the Senator in the play, but at the last minute almost, Mr. Thomas decided to take the part.

After two more nights here, the play will be given in Washington. Mr. Thomas expects to continue playing the lead.

Just before the curtain went up, William Elliott, the producer in a curtain talk, explained that because of the strike of baggagemen in New York, it had been impossible to get the regular scenery here for the play. That used tonight had been scented from local theatres.

CONDITION OF STRIKE OF BRITISH SEAMEN

LONDON, Sept. 3—So far as British ports are concerned the unofficial seamen's strike is petering out owing to the ease with which men are found to replace the strikers.

At Hull not a single ship is detained. At Bristol and Avonmouth the strike appears to be collapsing. In fact very few ships of any size are detained anywhere, and, although the cross-channel passengers are slightly incommoded by a tie-up of some of the channel steamers there are no serious delays.

At Liverpool the situation is rather more difficult; several vessels have been delayed, but the authorities have refused to pay unemployment dotes to the srikers.

In Australia and South Africa there is little change.

NO CHANGE IN THEATRE PRICES IN BRIDGEPORT

BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Owners of 13 Bridgeport motion picture theatres in a meeting today agreed to continue the present scale of prices in spite of the tax The movie men said their programs suffered due to the failure of Boston and New York films to arrive on time. Some of the smaller houses have been exchanging reels rather than be unable to run their slated pictures. The theatre owners here are looking forward to the meeting Sunday in New Haven when a definite decision is expected on how to cope with the movie tax situation.

"We have no way to beat the film tax," said Jack Schwartz of the Strand Amusement company. He asserted that it was the opinion of the theatre owners here that they would rather pay the tax out of their own pockets than to risk non-delivery of feature films.

REWARDS FOR CAPTURE OF WETHERSFIELD JAIL BREAKERS

Offer of $500 Each Made By State Prison Board For Apprehension of Michael McDonald, Life Prisoner, and Frank Land, Short Term Man—Convicts Escaped by Boring Holes in the Ceiling, Gained Access to Roof and Lowered Themselves to the Ground—Police of Five States Have Taken Up the Hunt For the Fugitivse.

HARTFORD, Sept. 3.—(A. P.)—The police of five states, including all local authorities took up the hunt today for Michael J. ("Lefty") McDonnell, serving a life sentence at the state prison at Wethersfield for implication in the murder of Captain William F. Madden at the Cheney Silk Mills, South Manchester, in 1919, and Frank Land, doing a term of eight to ten years for a previous escape from prison, who both escaped late Wednesday night or early this morning by boring holes through the ceilings of their cells, climbing through the holes and then going through a ventillator to the roof above and lowering themselves to the ground by a rag rope.

The state police of Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, were notified of the escape shortly after it had been discovered. All railroads and automobile roads from this section of the state were closely guarded during the day and tonight, while a detachment of the prison guard closely searched the banks of the Connecticut river for any trace of the fugitives. Returning late tonight, the guards reported they had found no clues that might lead to the whereabouts of the escaped pair.

The board of directors of the state prison voted to offer a reward of $500 for information to the apprehension of either of the prisoners, and notice of the reward was broadcast tonight from Station WTIC in the Travelers tower.

Both McDonnell and Land were employed in the prison shirt factory, where they would not of themselves have access to machine or carpenters' tools with which to bore their way through the steel wall of their cells, and the scource of the tools have not yet been located. Warden H. K. W. Scott, of the prison is conducting an investigation to learn the source of the implements used in the escape and to determine, if possible, at what time the actual escape was made. Warden Scott has also carefully questioned the guards in that section of the prison from which the getaway was made as to the inspection of the cells previous to Wednesday night.

THREE WETHERSFIELD PRISONERS PAROLED

HARTFORD, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Their discharge delayed five hours by the furore caused at the state prison at Wethersfield when McDonnell and Land escaped some time Wednesday night or early this morning, Victor Bonilon, Edwin R. Snellgrove and Vincent Smith, all of New Britain, were paroled at 3 p. m., today after serving about a year and one half of their three year sentences on a charge of embezzlement of $50,000 from the Commercial Trust company, of New Britain by forging checks.

The three men were to have been paroled at 10 o'clock this morning. Snellgrove will enter the employment of the Acking Printing company, of New Britain, Donilan will work for Mayor Paonessa at his city service station and Smith will be employed at the Hartford Sash and Door company.

NINE POWERS SEND NOTES TO THE PEKING GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3—(AP)—The nine governments signatory to the Chinese treaty negotiated by the Washington conference of 1922 notified the Peking government today in identic notes that they stood ready to appoint commissioners at an early date to consider what steps, if any, may be taken with a view to relinquishment of the extra-territorial privileges which their nationals in China now enjoy.

The decisions of the powers, involving readiness to undertake the investigation of China's judicial system, to appoint delegates to the special conference on Chinese tariff matters, and to consider any reasonable proposal that may be made by the Chinese authorities for a revision of the treaties on the subject of tariff, was announced in an answer to the Chinese note of June 24.

At the same time, each of the powers said it desired "to impress upon the Chinese government the necessity of giving concrete evidence of its ability and willingness to enforce respect for the safety of foreign lives and property and to suppress disorders and anti-foreign agitation, which embitter feeling and tend to create conditions unfavorable for the carrying on of negotiations in regard to the desires which the Chinese government has presented for the consideration of the treaty powers."

In this connection, it was made plain to the Chinese government that the mere establishment of courts and the enactment of laws did not meet the requirements of the situation.

"Courts cannot function and develop properly or consistently," the identic notes said, "without the aid of a stable government, capable and willing to maintain them and enforce their findings and decisions. It is regretted that the inability of the Chinese government during the past few years fully to enforce the mandate of its authority has made it difficult for the courts and judiciary already established to function in a normal manner."

NEWS EMANATING FROM SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 3—Robert P. Bass, former governor of New Hampshire, and a prospective candidate against Senator Moses of New Hampshire for the republican senatorial nomination next year called today on President Coolidge.

Mr. Bass has assailed the stand of Senator Moses on the world court issue, describing the latter as an irreconcilable on this proposal. He discussed the world court with the president and declared voters of New Hampshire generally favored United States adherence to the protocol in the form advocated by the executive. Mr. Bass was accompanied by Charles Sumner Bird, former progressive party leader in Massachusetts.

Mr. Coolidge spent the morning at his desk, taking a long walk at noon. He made frequent inquiries concerning the fate of the Shenandoah and was kept closely informed throughout the day by the navy department, and news despatches regarding the wreck.

At luncheon the president was host to W. O. Taylor, business manager of the Boston Globe, William D. Sullivan, James Morgan and M. E. Hennessey of the editorial staff of this paper, William J. Keville, United States marshal for Massachusetts, and Louis E. Kirstein of Boston, old acquaintances of the president were the other callers.

Appointment of Oscar R. Luhring of Evansville, Ind., and a former representative, as an assistant attorney general was announced today.

ANOTHER KILLING IN THE NEW YORK TONG WARFARE

NEW YORK, Sept. 3—Tong warfare broke out again tonight in Chinatown with the killing of a Chinese laundryman and the wounding of his two sons. The dead man was said to be a member of the On Leong Tong and his assailants, the police believe, were gunmen of the rival Hip Sing Tong.

The shootings, the police believe, were acts of vengeance despite the promise made today to District Attorney Banton that the tong would not renew hostilities.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST REPLIES TO GOV. AL SMITH

NEW YORK, Sept. 3—William Randolph Hearst tonight countered Governor Alfred Smith's denunciatory letter of last night by reiterating his charge that the governor dragged in the Ku Klux Klan in opposing Mayor Hylan's campaign for re-election and by repeating his statement that Governor Smith connived with William G. McAdoo to bring about the nomination of John W. Davis at the last democratic national convention.

In a statement telegraphed from Los Angeles, to Joseph A. Moore of the New York American, Mr. Heart caustically replied to what he characterized as "a vulgar tirade that any resident of Billingsgate or any occupant of the alcoholic ward in Bellevue could have written."

Governor Smith in his statement had referred to the earlier charges of Mr. Hearst in his local newspaper by saying: "Mr. Hearst's entire statement is a lie."

"Governor Smith declares that he did not say that Mayor Hylan is a Ku Kluxer; he merely intimated it," Mr. Hearst wrote. "The difference in statement is only one of trickery and cowardice. Either Mayor Hylan is a Ku Kluxer or he isn't. If he is one, Governor Smith should have had the courage to say so directly, if he is not one, Governor Smith should not have the contemptible political trickery to imply it indirectly.

"Governor Smith says that he did not meet Mr. McAdoo at the Ritz hotel in the rooms of Mr. Nixon, the ex-Tammany boss, and the ten cents fare appointee of Governor Smith. I do not know who paid for the rooms—perhaps it was the Morgan interests—but I do know that Governor Smith did meet Mr. McAdoo at the Ritz Hotel and did agree upon Mr. Davis as a compromise candidate, as every guest at the hotel knew at the time and as every employe of the hotel knew and openly discussed."

$25,000 SLANDER SUIT FILED AGAINST NEW HAVEN MAN

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 3—A $25,000 slander suit against John B. Lippitt, wealthy Yale man, of this city, has been instituted by William N. Queal, a former Yale track coach, in the superior court here.

The alleged slanders was the culmination of business disagreements in connection with a 125 acre chicken farm in Woodbridge, which Mr. Lippitt purchased some time ago, and as manager of which he installed Mr. Queal.

On April 5, 1925, Mr. Lippitt had an interview with Mr. Queal at the chicken farm, which is valued at $50,000 and Mr. Queal alleges in his suit that "in the presence of Edward Rowen and a large assembly of persons the defendant spoke the following words concerning the plaintiff: 'You are a moral coward and you have padded your books to the extent of $3,700,' meaning thereby that the plaintiff, who had been manager of the defendant's farm, appropriated to his own use the sum of $3,709. Said words were false and malicious." Damages of $25,000 are claimed.

Mr. Lippitt, who came here from Rhode Island, was a member of the class of 1924. He became a friend of Mr. Queal while training for the track team. Last year he assisted Mr. Queal in coaching the cross-country team.

HARTFORD WOMAN WAS PINNED BENEATH CAR

MERIDEN, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Mrs Wilbur Blake, of 109 Eaton street Hartford, was taken to the Meriden hospital just before midnight tonight suffering from injuries received in an auto accident on the state highway just south of Wallingford. She, with her husband, was returning from the shore to their home, when Mr. Blake who was driving, was blinded by the headlights of an approaching car, ran the auto off the road and crashed into a pole. The car was overturned pinning Mrs. Blake beneath it. The extent of the woman's injuries could not be determined at the hospital

PATROL PLANES FAIL TO LOCATE MISSING SEAPLANE PN-9NO.1 IN HAWAIIAN WATERS

HONOLULU, Sept. 3.—(A. P.)—Perfect weather today gave every aid to the searchers for the missing navy seaplane PN-9 No. 1, but commander John Rodgers and his four co-aviators remained lost.

The seaplane was forced down through a shortage of gasoline during a storm Tuesday afternoon while en route from San Francisco to Pearl Harbor, Oahu, on an attempted nonstop flight.

Lieutenant Commander Millington B. McComb of the Pearl Harbor air station reiterated today that the searchers had by no means given up hope of finding the five fliers and their plane, which if it survived the shock of alighting is believed still afloat. Large sections of the Pacific on which the aviators may be hidden still are to be explored, navy men declared.

Brilliant sunshine and excellent visibility were reported today following the bright moonlight of last night.

Two patrol planes took off from Maui base at 10.15 o'clock this morning. They were assigned to cover an area parallel toand north of the flight base course, 30 miles wide, as far as their fuel supply would permit.

WILLIMANTIC

Earle A. Randall, R. F. D., Merrow, was charged with the false use of automobile registration markers when presented in police court Thursday morning. He pleaded guilty. Officer Arthur Hurley placed Randall under arrest Tuesday night on Chapman street. Randall explained that he was employed by George W. Merrow, of Hartford, and that Tuesday the truck which he was driving broke down in Hartford. He wanted to get home and he transferred the number plates of the damaged car to another machine. Judge Frank H. Foss imposed a fine of $25 and costs, amounting to $30.15, which was paid.

The case of Homer V. Carron, 41 Pearl street, Hartford, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor has been continued to Saturday at the request of the defendant, who desired to secure counsel. Carron was arrested by Officer Lariviere on Union street, Tuesday night, while driving a car owned by Mrs. Myrla Carron, of the same address. Bonds of $500 were named and furnished.

The Social Whist Club of the Maccabees held its first whist party of the season at the home of Mrs. George Shepaum on South Park street this week. Five tables were in play. First prize was won by Mrs. James B. Fogarty; second by Mrs. Rand E. White and the consolation award went to George A. Anthony. Luncheon was served by the hostess.

The schools in the town of Windham, including public, parochial and state normal school will open for the fall term next Wednesday.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary L. Flynn were held from the family home 209 Jackson street Thursday morning. Requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church at nine o'clock was sung by Rev. Charles M. Kelly, Rev. Eugene Coyne, pastor of St. John of the Cross church, Middlebury, was seated within the sanctuary. Arthur Roy and Mrs. Henry Mathieu sang "Abide With Me" as the body was borne into the church. Mrs. Mathieu sang "O Salutaris" at the offertory and Mr. Roy gave "Farewell" as a waiting hymn. As a recessional, Mrs. Mathieu and Mr. Roy sang Nearer My God to Thee. Mrs. Edmund R. Portelance was at the organ. Burial was in the family plot at St. Joseph's cemetery where the committal service was read by Rev. Father Kelly. The bearers were, Dr. Leo McKenna, John F. McKenna, Frank Hevrin, Luke Hevrin, and Roy W. Downer of this city, and Edward J. Fare of Providence. R. I. Delegations of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association and the Catholic Welfare Council attended the services. There were beautiful flowers. Relatives and friends were present from New York, Bridgeport, New Haven, Boston, Worcester, Upton, Mass., Norwich, New London and Providence, R. I.

Angelo Gallo, son of Rosario and Vincenzina Giardina Gallo, of Birch street, died at St. Joseph's hospital Wednesday afternoon. The funeral was held Thursday morning at ten o'clock with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

There is considerable local interest among horseflesh sharps in the special race at Norwich, the coming Saturday between Justin, a black trotter owned by Eli Blanchette of this city and Goldenrod, a chestnut pacer owned by Charles Carpenter, also of Willimantic. Justin holds a mark of 2:22 and Goldenrod one of 2:24 1-4. Justin won a race at Recreation Park here last fall, but Goldenrod's owner feels that his horse is still good for a winner and the special race is the outcome of a friendly controversy. The horses are well known to horsemen. Goldenrod made what is considered a good card at the Brooklyn Fair last fall.

At a meeting of Francis S. Long Woman's Relief Corps, Wednesday night, in the G. A. R. Hall, with President Mrs. Lena Tripp in charge, reports of the officers were accepted. A report of the recent food sale and cafeteria lunch showed that it was a financial success. Mrs. Ruth James was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for a W. R. C. public whist to be held in G. A. R. hall. The members voted to have a covered dish supper previous to one of the meetings, next month. Mrs. George Noble was elected chairman of the supper on the next meeting night. Inspection of the corps will take place in October.

Miss Elizabeth Woodyard of Albany, Ohio, and Ernest McCoy, of Athens, Ohio, were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage here, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. A. Stanley Mahmead performed the ceremony. The bride was gowned in white canton crepe, with hat to correspond. Her gown was trimmed with rosebuds. The bride is a teacher in one of the schools of Albany and is a graduate of Ohio University. Mr. McCoy is employed by the Davey Tree Expert Company of Kent, Ohio. They will make their home at 149 Walnut street, Willimantic.

Miss Madeline Shepard entertained in the afternoon at a porch party in honor of her guest, Miss Jessie Williams of Westfield, Mass. Two tables of auction were in play. Miss Elizabeth P. Everest won the prize. Out-of-town guests were Miss Madelyn Wheeler of Storrs and Miss Frances Hall, of South Willington.

News in General

Mrs. Ellen S. Wilkins and daughter Miss Elisa G. Wilkins, who have been guests of George B. M. Knowlton, of West Ashford, have returned to Boulder, Col.

Miss Irene Vanderman entertained Tuesday afternoon at tea in honor of her college classmate, Miss Katherine Wederoth of Philadelphia.

Firth Rawson and Robert Mueller left by automobile Wednesday for Texas, where they plan to locate permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Potter had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Gay of Hopkinson, Mass. They returned with their daughter Pauline, who visited here.

Ensign William Rafferty and his sister, Miss Elizabeth Rafferty of Putnam called on Mrs. Annie Vandeman Tuesday.

Mrs. Philip Dean and infant daughter, Nancy, of Glastonbury, spent Wednesday with the former's mother, Mrs. T. Frank Howie.

Mrs. John J. Hoey is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barton, in Pawtucket, R. I.

Miss Mary McClune, of Norwich, is a guest of Mrs. Ruel M. Hyde.

State Policeman Edgar A. Ablid of Stafford Springs was in this city on Thursday to give examinations to applicants for motor vehicle drivers' licenses. Over a dozen such applicants appeared during the day.

Mrs. James W. Hillhouse and family have returned from their summer home at the beach.

Miss Marion Hillhouse leaves Saturday for Minneapolis, Minn., where she is to be teacher of art work in the Edison High school.

P. F. Wallace Prater, a sophomore of Syracuse University arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Prater of Mansfield after taking a summer course in forestry at the university's forest school at Cranberry Lake, in the Adirondacks. Frank Chase of Gloversville, N. Y., a classmate, accompanied him here.

Watson A. Burton, a cadet in the Coast Guard Military Academy, New London is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Burton on a 21 day furlough. George Hulst of Omaha, Neb., a cadet friend is his guest.

John Buck, son of Alderman and Mrs. William A. Buck, has returned, after visiting with his sister, Mrs. Edward Eilsberg and family of Brooklyn, N. Y.

James Hillhouse, professor at the University of Minnesota will leave here soon by automobile to resume his duties for the school year.

Misses Nellie and Estella S. Harbison attended the funeral of a relative in Worcester, Mass., Wednesday.

David Nichols, formerly of this city, now of Springfield, Mass., called on friends here Wednesday.

John F. Ahern and Gerard E. Loisell, president and secretary respectively of Willimantic Rotary club will attend an all-day meeting of the Rotary club executives to be held at the Hotel Kimball, Springfield, Mass., today (Friday).

Mrs. J. G. Hayden, of North Windham, has returned home, after two weeks' visit in Orange and Gardner, Mass.

Arthur G. Pierce and Miss Ethel Mellon of Worcester, Mass., were married in that city Monday. Mr. Pierce is a son of Mrs. Nellie E. Pierce of this city.

Miss Maud Hickey of the Southern New England Telephone Company is on her annual vacation.

Miss Grace E. Randall is spending a few days with friends at Sunset Beach, Branford.

Misses Helen Gates and Arlene Weatherhead are at Pine Grove, Niantic, for a week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Bath and the latter's daughter, Doris Armstrong have returned from a motor trip in Maine.

EIGHTEEN STRIKERS' CASES DISPOSED OF IN SUP. COURT

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 3.—The third day of the September session of the Windham county superior court, criminal side, was a busy one for the officials, some twenty-five cases being taken up. When court convened, the cases of Lubin Wheeler, of Pomfret, charged with reckless driving, which was started late Wednesday afternoon was resumed. At 12:30 o'clock Judge Avery noted the case on payment of $75 and costs. Special State Attorney Howard C. Bradford and Attorney Back of Danielson, representing Wheeler, requested leniency, as Wheeler has an excellent record. He earns his living driving trucks and the plan to nolle the case was taken as a course to save his driver's license from suspension. The decision was agreeable to all concerned. Wheeler was arrested by State Policeman Harris J. Hulburt of Stafford Springs, April 18, last when driving a truck owned by Louis S. Ingalls of Pomfret, a lumber dealer. The witnesses for the state were Officer Hulburt who testified Tuesday, Grand Juror Otto Hatch and Constable Howard Goodwin of Ashford. The witnesses for the defense were Louis S. Ingals, Mrs. Ethel Gallup Ingalls, and the defendant. All testified that the truck which Wheeler was driving and which was hauling a trailer loaded with timbers was traveling between 25 and 27 miles an hour. Officer Hulburt testified that the machine was being driven between 30 and 43 miles an hour, on a four mile stretch. John H. Flitts, John Field, Chatfield Kipp and William Converse testified to the condition of the road where the arrest was made.

William J. Jacques of Canterbury was charged with damage to private property, on two counts. He pleaded guilty to the second count of damaging a pump and gasoline machine. County Defender Torrey appeared for the defendant. Jacques' military record was taken into consideration by the court. Judge Avery imposed a sentence of one year in the county jail.

John Dranchas of Worcester, Mass., charged with violation of the automobile law in Groswenodale, by failure to observe the rules of the road in not giving Fred Sterwitosky the right of way, pleaded not guilty. He elected to have the case heard by jury.

Maurice L. Diamond of Hartford, pleaded not guilty when charged with reckless driving, April 5th, in the town of Thompson, on the Thompson-Webster, Mass., highway. He chose to have his case heard by the court.

Earl C. Rogers of Putnam was charged with violation of the automobile law and breach of the peace, on June 17, in the town of Plainfield. He pleaded not guilty and elected to have his case tried by jury.

Alphege Potvin and Henry Beaudry of this city, charged with breaking and entering the Bacon store, last Sunday night, pleaded not guilty and elected to have their cases heard by the court.

The afternoon session of court was not opened until 3:20 o'clock, the delay being caused by a conference of County Defender Charles Torrey and eighteen former employes of the American Thread Company, who had appealed their cases from the lower court decisions. All but three of these defendants had responded Tuesday and Wednesday and pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by the court. In order to avoid lengthy trials, Defender Torrey offered as a proposition that all plead guilty, on the basis that the court should impose the same fines as were imposed in lower court, plus a reasonable assessment necessitated by their appeal to higher court.

The defendants agreed to follow this course and they were presented in the following order and pleaded guilty: Celina St. George and Jeannette St. George, breach of the peace, fine $10 and costs. Rose Riquier, breach of the peace, fine $3 and costs. Katie Klabus, breach of the peace, fine $3 and costs. Clarence Main and John McCarthy, breach of the peace, fine $3 and costs. Mollie Parent, breach of the peace, fine $3 and costs. Julia Fancher, breach of the peace, fine $3 and costs. Wilfred Delude, Gilbert Lewis, Everett Sypher and John Moran, breach of the peace and assault, fine $25 and costs, each. Caroline Kozek, breach of the peace, fine $3 and costs. Mary Dibaintiot, breach of the peace $3 and costs. William Bosse, interfering with an officer, $25 and costs. A suspended jail sentence in the Bosse case was not withheld. Frank Cajka, intimidation, $25 and costs. Sava Matwinks and Annie Matwinks, resisting an officer and tampering with witnesses, $3 and costs.

In the cases of Clarence Main and John McCarthy, charged with breach of the peace, May 13th, their bonds of $50 each, furnished by Max Scheinman of this city, had been called Wednesday, for failure to answer. Attorney Torrey explained that the men were prepared to appear but had misunderstood that they were to be presented Thursday. Judge Avery then restored the bonds to Scheinman.

Scheinman appeared as interpreter in several of these cases in which the defendants were of Polish nationality. Over a dozen state witnesses to testify in these cases occupied seats in the courtroom but were discharged when the agreement to settle was reached.

Oscar St. Laurent, of Putnam, charged with bigamy in that he had three wives, was brought before the court late in the forenoon. He pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by the court.

It is expected that the case of Mike Renejowski, charged with carrying concealed weapons will be taken up at the next session of court.

At 4:20 o'clock Judge Avery ordered Sheriff Charles A. Gates to adjourn court until next Wednesday, September 9, at 10 a. m.

LARAMEE-PEPIN WEDDING ANNOUNCED THURSDAY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 3—Rudolph F. Laramee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Laramee of this city and Miss Yvonne Pepin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zephire Pepin, of Windham Road, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Mary's church, Rev. J. J. Papillon solemnized the marriage also sung the nuptial high mass. Special nuptial music was given by the church choir, J. F. Gaudreau, director. Mrs. Gaudreau was at the organ. The attendants were Miss Loretta Lisee, a cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid and Bonin Gingras as best man.

The bride was daintily attired in a gown of white satin. Her veil was caught up with pearls and she carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. Her maid of honor wore orchid georgette, with a black picture hat and carried pink roses. Following the church service a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, to about forty guests, from Boston, Norwich, Providence, New Britain, Hartford and Willimantic.

The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl rosary. To his best man he gave a gold pen-knife bearing the Knights of Columbus emblem. The bride gave the bridesmaid a white-gold bracelet set with sapphires.

Mr. and Mrs. Laramee left for Boston on their honeymoon and upon their return will reside in a newly furnished apartment on Windham Road. They are well known and popular in this city. Mr. Laramee is a member of the Willimantic Police department. The bride has been employed by the Rossie Velvet company.

JEWETT CITY

Former residents of Pawtucket, R. I. now residing in this borough, were much interested in the item in Thursday's Bulletin, telling of the tolling of the old Slater Mill bell, which is to be broadcasted from that city as one of the features of the Textile Appreciation Week.

Peculiar interest attaches to this occurrence locally, not only for the reason that it is a "Slater" bell, but mainly because this town enjoys during the hourly watches of every night in the year, the beautiful time honored custom of the tolling of the "Slater" bell.

Every passing hour during the night, from curfew at 9 p. m., until 4 a. m., is noted by the watchman as he passes on his rounds, and tolled off on the old bell, reaching the ears of the older residents in a solemn, sweet vibration, that of course might be described, if there were words yet made to express it. Not a few are the persons that have moved from Jewett City, who have returned, ever after the passing of a quarter of a century. To them, as perhaps waking in the night, the soft distant boom of the Slater bell, suggests memories that have slumbered since the care-free days of youth. A visiting cotton salesman the other day doubted, he said, if the beautiful custom was still maintained, in a dozen localities in New England.

You are invited to .05 to .50 special sales, 42 No. Main.—Adv.

Touching mails from Jewett City post office for this week end via Boston, Postmaster William T. Crumb, gives the following information to the patrons of this office: Foreign Mails from Boston—Mails for Northern Ireland and Scotland, including parcel post, via steamer "Columbia," sailing Saturday, Sept. 5, closing at 9.00 a. m.

Mails for Irish Free State, including parcel post; also specially addressed correspondence for other destinations via steamer "Celtic," sailing Sunday, September 6, closing at 6.00 p. m., Saturday, September 5; also via steamer "Scythia," sailing Tuesday, September 8, closing at 9.00 a. m.

Parcel post mails for Newfoundland via steamer "Muneastern," sailing Wednesday, September 9, closing at 7.00 a. m.

Passersby on the Voluntown road are stopping to admire the new bungalow owned by Walter Johnson. It is a model modern home and finely appointed in all its parts. Its especial attraction is to be seen, when it is known that from cellar to chimney, Mr. Johnson was its architect and builder.

Watch for my handbills. First class automobile and truck repairing. See adv. in this paper today. Chas. Glaske. Jewett City Service, Tel 11-4.—Adv.

The committees, superintendents and judges for this year's fair at the Pachaug Grange Association fair grounds are as follows: Superintendent of the grounds, Harold Geer; committee on sports, E. E. Miller, Eino Karjalo and Byron Kinnie; entertainment committee, W. C. Terry, Simon Brewster, Jr., and William Bitgood; advertising manager, Walter C. Tanner; committee on soliciting advertisements for Jewett City, Walter Hyde; Norwich, Byron Kinnie; Voluntown, Alexander Tanner; Griswold, William Edmond; superintendent of vegetable building, F. L. Kanaban; the poultry house, George Palmer; the domestic building, Mrs. F. C. Whiting; superintendent of livestock, Willis Morgan; judge, Irving O. Burdick; superintendent of poultry, George Palmer; judge, Carl Bossin, who is assistant poultry specialist, of the extension service; superintendent of dairy and farm products, Mrs. Eino Karjalo, judge Mrs. R. F. Cheney; superintendent of vegetables, fruit etc. Ransom Young, judge, Henry Dorsey, professor of agronomy of Storrs college; superintendent of flowers, Susie Morgan, judge, Alice A. Brown; superintendent of domestics, Mrs. W. B. Truesdell, judge, Mrs. W. A. Richardson; superintendent of fine arts, Mrs. George Briggs, judge, G. R. Prior; superintendent of antiques, Mrs. Henry Olson, judge, Mrs. F. S. Leonard; superintendent of apiaries, C. T. Armstrong, judge, A. B. Burdick; superintendent of junior exhibit, Mrs. Walter Hyde, a judge to be selected from among the other judges; superintendent of farm machinery etc. W. F. Holmes; speed secretary, Elmer Miller; F. C. Whiting has charge of the hot dog booth, which is to be enlarged as no regular dinners are to be served this year. A race course is in process of construction, a 20x48 poultry house has been built, and pens for sheep and swine will be built. The flower exhibit will be in the former poultry building. The first night of the fair there are to be competitive plays by the Plainfield and Norwich granges. The men who had charge of the building of the poultry house were most appreciative of the help given by the members and others outside the association.

Search is being made in town for a print of an old map of New London county, made close to a century ago which shows the present Reads Island in its original position, with the Quinebaug running around it. A later map made during the years closely following the cut off put through by the river in 1815 or 16 shows this 20-acre tract as Betsy Fanning island.

Miss Susan Terry has returned from a visit with relatives in Preston and Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maynard are on an automobile trip from Lowell, where Mrs. Maynard has been visiting, to Canada.

The weather man proved a false prophet in the plans that were forecasted for this section Thursday. At intervals rain fell all day, although showing less than a quarter of an inch on the gauge. Lights were needed in the mills and stores, nearly the whole of the working hours. The mercury dropped to 58, which went to make a generally uncomfortable day.

MYSTIC

Fanny Ledyard chapter D. A. R. met in Masonic temple, Wednesday afternoon. The opening exercises were conducted by the regent Mrs. Alida S. Hill and chaplain, Mrs. Fanny D. Pendleton. Among business transacted was the voting of money to complete the amount asked for by the state D. A. R. for the bill for Valley Forge church and the upkeep of the Ellsworth home, owned by the D. A. R., and a pledge toward the war memorial which Mystic is planning to erect, when sufficient money is raised. Some members individually are planning to contribute toward the Near East relief, to help save the starving children. After the business session an interesting program was given. Miss Clara Kelley of Pawtucket, R. I., accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Hammond of Stonington sang "Mighty Lak a Rose" and "Philosophy". Miss Constance Fort of Stonington accompanied by Mrs. Hammond sang Asra and Bon Jour, Ma Belle. The singing of both was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Arthur Lamb Stoddard gave a humorous reading entitled "Maggie McCarthy goes on a diet. At the close ice cream and cake were served by the committee. Those present were Mrs Alida S. Hill, Mrs. Mary S. Brown, Mrs. Edna B. Colby, Mrs. Carl Cutler, Mrs. Nettie Hunt, Mrs. Lizzie M. Paige, Mrs. Abbie S. Matthews, Mrs Lizzie Wilbur, Mrs. Marie Dickinson, Mrs. Gertrude Thompson, Mrs. Minnie B. Phillips, Mrs. Mary Haley, Mrs. Mary Noyes, Mrs. Ida F. Crandall, Mrs. Arthur L. Stoddard, Mrs. Abbie Phillips, Mrs. Elsie McGaughey, Mrs. Ina P. Moore, Mrs. Francis Broughton, Mrs. Boylan, Mrs. Annie W. Bradley, Mrs. Mary G. Wilkinson, Misses Geneva Rathbun, Elizabeth Burrows, Juliet Haley, Belle Kellogg and her niece Miss Clara Kellogg, Mrs. Fanny D. Pendleton and guest, Mrs. Katherine A. Shelton of Bridgeport, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John B. Bindloss in Stonington, Mrs. Hallie Bullard of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., the houseguest of Mrs. Lizzie Paige and two other guests of other members. Many members are planning to go to Groton Saturday to the annual observance of Sept. 6th which comes on Sunday so will be noted Saturday by Anna Warner Bailey chapter, D. A. R., of Groton and Stonington.

Mrs. Ellen Smith, 81, died at her home, 57 High street, Wednesday morning after illness of several days. Mrs. Smith was born in County Cavan, Ireland, the daughter of James and Bridget Smith and was the widow of Farrell Smith. She has visited in Mystic for thirty-five years and had made many friends. She is survived by two sons, Patrick and Farrell Smith and a daughter, Miss Mary Smith.

The members of the Congregational church and Sunday school with other attendants had a second field day and picnic at Wheelers Grove Thursday.

Miss Mildred Chutter, librarian of Middlebury college, Vermont, is spending her vacation with his parents Rev. and Mrs. Frederic Chutter, at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGuigan have returned from a trip to Europe.

Mrs. Alida Stevens Hill has been engaged to be principal of Mystic Academy when school opens Tuesday next until Miss oanna Burnet is able to return which it is expected will not be for some months.

EAST HADDAM

Miss Ellen Morgan, who has been visiting her sister, in Hartford, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brooks accompanied Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Carter of South Manchester, to Stonington, on Monday where they visited friends.

Mrs. Askue of Youngstown, Ohio, was a recent guest of Mrs. A. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown recently entertained Miss Madeline Law, of Lincoln, Neb. Miss Law was a niece of Williams Sims, a former resident of this place.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. F. C. H. Wendell have gone on a several weeks' trip to Colorado.

Miss Hulda B. Townsend, who has spent the summer with Mrs. M. W. Plumstead has returned to her home in Albany, N. Y.

Mrs. Jennie D. Comstock and her sister, Miss Ellen Boardman, are on a motor trip through Vermont, Maine and New Hampshire, with their nephew, Frank Williams of Rocky Hill.

Mrs. I. V. Colbligh served tea Tuesday afternoon to her neighbors and some of the former acquaintances of Mrs. I. Newton Cone, of Bellingham, Wash., the guest of honor. Mrs. Cone, (Grace Bigelow of Hamburg) taught school in East Haddam before her marriage. Mrs. Cone will remain east until the last of October.

Recent guests of "Coneacres" include Dr. Frank Gorham of Brooklyn N. Y., Miss Peggie Knapp of New York, Mrs. John Rossiter, Miss Ruth Rossiter and Mrs. Hull of Guilford, also Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rossiter of West Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Starr of this place, Albert Starr and Miss Sophie Starr also Miss Mary Magee, of East Hampton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Starr, Sunday, at their cottage at Gales Ferry.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

The report of the Public Health Nurse for August shows a daily average of six visits with a total of 175 reported for the month. Of this number 157 were nursing visits, 9 were advisory and 9 were social service. There were sixty hours of indoor work completed, 9 of which were devoted to well-baby conference, with an average attendance of 20 babies at each of the four conferences.

During the month 22 patients were admitted, and with fifteen under care at the beginning of the month, a total of 37 received attention during August. Twenty-four patients were discharged 20 improved, two sent to the hospital and two died.

Money received from patients amounted to $43 and from the Metropolitan Insurance company $35.15, totaling $78.15.

Labor Day will be observed by the mills and business places of the town. The banks and library will be closed all day, and the Post Office will observe holiday hours. The offices will be open at 6 a. m. and close at 10 a. m., reopening in the afternoon at 4.30 and closing at 5.30.

There will be a baseball game at Keefe Plains, and dancing at Crystal Lake.

The Republican Town Caucus will be held Monday evening, Sept. 14th, when nominations of candidates for town offices will take place.

A match with the Ludlow Golf Club will be played by the Stafford Golf Club at Ludlow Saturday.

Miss Agnes Cole has resigned as teacher of French and Latin in Stafford High school and will teach those subjects in Palmer High school during the coming year. Miss Cole has been a teacher in the local high school for the past two years and was re-elected at the school committee meeting last spring.

The motion picture "Merton of the Movies" was presented Thursday evening in Warren Memorial Hall under the auspices of Strazza, post, for the benefit of the community playground. The children of the town have been using the playground in Hyde Park during the summer months, in charge of Amos Gingras, of the legion post.

Ronald Mitchell and David Mitchell are in Gardner City, L. I. this week.

Misses Ruth Mullen, Betty Pinney, Harriet Wildey and Eleanor Bissonnette are camping at the Pinney cottage at Crystal Lake. Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick is chaperoning the party. Miss Wildey and Miss Mullen will enter Wellesley College this month.

ONECO

Walter Kennedy and family and William Chuly, of Central Falls, were guests in town Sunday.

Edgar M. Kennedy and son Melvin of Norwich called on local relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Mellor of Centerville were week end visitors here.

Arthur Hawkins with his family, of Bridgeport, has returned home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hawkins.

Tom Brewin is working in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. White have returned to Hartford after being the guest of Mrs White's sister, Mrs. Thomas Brown.

Thomas Brown caught a black bass weighing four pounds 12 ounces, at Beach Pond, recently.

Potato Bug Menace Feared

Fear that the potato bug, which has settled in France, will overrun all Europe, is expressed by the Berlin daily Der Deutsche, with the possible diminishing of the German potato crop by one third at a time when the increase of the crops have become a vital vital question."

"If It's Made of RUBBER, We Have It"

School Opens Next Week

CHILDREN NEED WATERPROOF CLOTHING FOR RAINY DAYS. We carry a complete line of all latest styles and colors of SLICKERS, CAPES, HATS, RUBBER COATS, BOOTS, RUBBERS and OVERSHOES. OUR BOY'S RUBBER COAT AT $4.00 IS A WONDER

Alling Rubber Company

"THE HOUSE OF SPORTING GOODS"

NEW LONDON 191 MAIN ST., NORWICH WESTERLY

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

"We Are Known By the Quality of the Pianos We Sell"

"Every Piano We Sell is Guaranteed By Us and The Makers"

The Plaut-Cadden Group Of

QUALITY PIANOS

Offers for Your Consideration Instruments Which Are the Finest in the World

You can well understand how much it will add to your satisfaction to make your selection from a broad variety of fine instruments, each one of which possesses strong and admirable characteristics of its own, such as you will find displayed in our new Piano Department. It gives you a wonderful opportunity for satisfactory comparison of styles, the various methods of construction, the different qualities of tone, the special features and the prices. And nowhere in Eastern Connecticut will you find another variety quite so comprehensive, nowhere will you find prices lower or terms of payment more attractive—than at PLAUT-CADDEN'S.

It is not an empty claim to say that your choice of a piano can be better made here than elsewhere. It is a fact supported by a great variety of celebrated instruments and proven by the many thousands of music lovers who have chosen their pianos here.

Before You Buy—See These Superlative Pianos!

Not even the largest Metropolitan stores carry such an array of celebrated makes side by side for your selection. We are exclusive Eastern Connecticut representatives for these pianos.

EASIEST TERMS OF PAYMENTS

Arranged to suit your income, payable weekly or monthly.

No Interest or Extra Charges to Pay. Free Delivery.

Liberal Allowance

For Your Old Piano in Exchange for a New Piano.

AMPICO

Electric Re-Enacting Piano

The Last Word in Piano Making

Chickering

America's Oldest and Finest Piano

WASSERMANN, JEWEL, CRAWFORD, FISCHER,

Franklin, Haines Bros., Hallet & Davis, Norris & Hyde, Autopiano, Behr Bros., Merrill, Winton and other standard makes of guaranteed quality.

New Guaranteed PLAYER PIANOS $395

New Guaranteed UPRIGHT PIANOS $295

USED UPRIGHTS

Splendid assortment of fine makes in good condition; $49 to $200.

NORWICH Two Big Stores Linking One Big Buying Organization! NEW LONDON

The Plaut-Cadden Company

EST. 1872

125-143 MAIN ST. Everything For The Home And Everything In Music 224-236 BANK ST.

A delightful flavor for hot weather dishes

WHEN food palls on jaded summer appetites, try this delicious way to give zest and joy to meatless meals. Add a dash of the new Gulden's Saladressing Mustard, specially blended for salads and entrees.

This delightful mild seasoning has an appetite-provoking flavor, and a delicate digestive-stimulating quality. Its cooling spices are helpful aids to your digestion and your enjoyment of food.

Try it tonight. Your grocer carries it. 15c.

GULDEN'S new SALADRESSING MUSTARD

ENJOY your rides. You don't have to put up with tossing.

Ask Your Dealer or Garage

THEY WORK

WATSON STABILATORS

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Warren made this announcement from 2 to 5 o'clock, at the high school building on Broad street, Principal Ernest R. Warren is to interview and consult with pupils and parents relative to courses for the school year, opening of next week. Principal Warren made this announcement Thursday. It is in keeping with a custom long since established and offering an opportunity for pupils and their parents to take up with the head of the school matters of vital importance, pertaining to the further education of young people who will enter upon high school courses of study within a few days. It is an opportunity that will not be overlooked by pupils with serious intent as to their future or parents of students who are about to enter upon four year's of study that should be all important in shaping their future of the young people concerned.

Much money has been spent of late by the Windham County Agricultural society in preparing its fair grounds at Brooklyn for the annual exhibition scheduled for later dates in the present month. Among other things, the horse stables have been renovated. Where new sills were needed they have been put in. Where new shingles were needed, they have been applied. Where any other repair work was deemed necessary, it has been done. The same applies to improvements made to what may be termed the restaurant building and to other structures on the grounds. The association has given as much attention to the upkeep of its plant as it has to the presenting of an unusually fine exhibition. Improvements to the cattle sheds and other buildings on the grounds have been made and patrons of the fair will find evidences that the management is looking forward to preserving this annual exhibition in the front rank of Windham county's efforts to resent its prestige as a long established agricultural with center with something to show and something to talk about.

If there be in the town of Killingly or nearby communities persons who would help three boys who are coming to Killingly High school this fall by an opportunity to work for their board, that they may acquire an advanced education, their opportunity to be philantrophic, at no great loss, and possibly at great gain to themselves, is at hand.

The boys referred to are coming to Killingly High school from neighboring towns, Easter, over the border in Rhode Island, and Brooklyn, from whence have come many youths and maidens to further their education at the local high school.

In the last a number of appeals for homes for such industrious and ambitious students as the three boys who are coming to Killingly High school this year have been broadcast. Not always has the response been such as to be wholly gratifying. Probably better results will be obtained this year. Princial Ernest R. Warren, of Killingly High school, can supply all information in his matter.

There are some good laughs on the sports page of The Bulletin, these days. Take Moosup and Jewett City, for instance, and their dissension over a baseball series, apparently all important, in which the bone of contention is whether the price of admission shall be 50 cents or 35 cents per game. Consider this with hundreds of the fans paying 50 cents a drink for "needle" beer or split alcohol. Well, it is to laugh.

A safe bet is that the New Haven road has a big surprise up its sleeve for Danielson. Periodically, it has a railroad police officer counting automobiles than run over the Main St. crossins of this town—the route of a double trunk line highway. Officers have been counting the cars all summer. Not a person has been killed as yet, though the crossing is without protection of any kind from 9 p. m. until well along the next morning. The New Haven road is a great gambler with this Main street crossing in Danielson. And it will have an explanation no doubt, if a serious accident occurs Otherwise, why all the counting of cars and eight hours of the night when the crossing is entirely unguarded The counters' figures likely will furnish the alibi.

Labor Day, just ahead, promises much, as the closing holiday of the summer season for thousands of persons in this section of eastern Connecticut. Baseball games, outings, carnivals, automobile trips and many other things all figure in the diversions planned. At Wauregan Rev. J. C. Mathieu, pastor of Sacred Heart paris, has planned the usual Labor day events for his community. Baseball games at West Wauregan in the morning—two of them—sports of other varieties and a continuing program promising to make the entire day interesting are on the bill arranged. Labor day will not be so slow for those who want action—of one kind or another.

Just to remind you that all deposits made in the savings department of The Windham County National Bank, Danielson, Connecticut, on or before September 5th, will draw interest from September 1st.—adv.

Numbers of stores that have been closed Thursday afternoons since early summer were open again Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Berthiaume and children, who have been spending a few days on a motoring tri that has taken them into Canada, will return here the first of the coming week.

Coming week will bring the caucuses at which candidates for town offices for the ensuing year will be nominated by the republicans and democrats of Killingly.

This week end numbers of who have been at summer cottages at lakes in this town will be closing their places for the season, though a number will remain over Labor Day.

Danielson has been represented the past two days at the annual fair being held at Oxford, Mass.

There was interest here in the announcement that Secretary J. H. Corbett, Putnam, of the Windham County Y. M. C. A., has resigned his position. Mr. Corbett is known to many in Danielson.

When numbers of manufacturing plants of the town close Saturday noon it will be for a holiday period extending over Labor day.

James C. Bateson of Worcester was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Thursday.

Indication that business continues good for the carpenters in this territory is established by the fact that one local contractor has 50 men at work at the present time in this and surrounding communities.

WHEN BABE RUTH PEEVED CROWD OF PUTNAM FANS

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Sept. 3—Up and down this Quinebaug Valley there are hundreds of fans who are not weeping too copiously over Babe Ruth and his present serious difficulties with the Yankees of the American league. They see in the predicament in which he finds himself another evidence of the fact that he has been over-played in the press as the Sultan of Swat and the Grand Gazabo of diamond lore. They will grin in satisfaction if Miller Huggins keeps that $5,000 fine tacked right against his salary arrangement for the year.

This is all due to the fact that Babe Ruth pulled a stunt at Putnam a few years ago, when he was a member of the Boston Red Sox, that has not been forgotten hereabouts and will not be, as long as baseball gives him his opportunity to bask in the limelight.

Back in the days referred to, Thomas McDermott, now in Danielson, was manager of one of the fastest semi-pro teams that Putnam ever boasted. It was a real outfit, composed of former big league players, minor leaguers and particularly fast amateurs.

For a certain Columbus day game, after, of course, the close of the American league season, Manager McDermott, as he related the story Thursday, had booked Ruth as a special attraction to play with the Putnam team, Hope Council, K. of C., of Providence was to have furnished the opposition, but a Columbus day parade made a change necessary and the fast semi-pro Moosup team was substituted. The fact that Ruth was to play with Putnam had been broadcasted and a great jam of fans congregated on the Putnam grounds, then on what formerly was the old race track near that city. Ruth was the attraction that induced hundred of those fans to pay a premium price to see him in action, but they were denied that privilege.

Manager McDermott told why Thursday about as follows: "I had signed Ruth to play in Putnam for $300 for the game. He had disappointed me on a former agreement to come to Putnam and play, but showed up for this particular game, coming from Buffalo, where he had played in an exhibition on the previous day—a Saturday. I took Ruth down to the grounds, he looked the crowd over and immediately tried to jack me up for $500 for his appearance in the game. I told him to go in there and play for the $300 his contract called for or get off the field—and I gave him just five minutes to decide what he would do. He elected to walk off—and off he went, leaving the fans disappointed and disgusted. The newspapers commented about it the next day, and Ruth has been out of this territory ever since, in so far as being the idol of hundrdes of fans is concerned. We went ahead with the game and won from Moosup, 1 to 0, in a struggle that went 11 innings and was one of the best games of the entire season."

That Putnam episode is a sample of Ruth that always has galled fans up and down the valley, when the press sport sections have raved about him. They have no great love for Ruth, but knowing that he loves money so well, as illustrated at Putnam, they would have been glad if Huggins had doubled the fine, instead of leaving it at a mere $5,000.

PUTNAM

Miss Rhea deCoudres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. deCoudres of Woodstock avenue is to take a special course at Brown University, Providence, in English literature and versification. All that was necessary to secure entrance was to submit copies of some of her poems.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Carpenter have returned from an automobile trip over Cape Cod.

Norman Gagne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Gagne will enter Assumption College, Worcester, Mass., this fall.

The Governor's Cup, 18 to qualify will be played for at the Putnam Country Club, Sunday and Monday, September 6 and 7. The first round will start at 9 a. m. Sunday and the second in the afternoon and on Monday the first round at 9 a. m. and the second in the afternoon.

The qualifying rounds of 18 holes, handicap metal play is being played this week and the 16 holding the best score will play in the match play on Sunday and Monday. The final round of 36 holes will be played Monday afternoon. The cup is now held by E. Guy Howard of Webster, Mass.

Several hundred homing pigeons were released from the High School grounds a few days ago, by parties from New Bedford who brought them here and were conducting a test to see whether or not the birds would go back to their homes.

The Honor Roll on the Memorial Bridge will have 383 names on it. At a conference of the committee named at the town meeting to arrange for the memorial tablets for the new bridge and the research committee that has been engaged in compiling a list of the citizens of Putnam who were in the service, the names were read and passed on.

There has been a great deal of arduous work in securing these names. In addition to this the committee was confronted with two main difficulties; one was to determine whether the military service was during the time the country was at war, the other as to whether or not they were citizens of Putnam at the time of their induction into the service. A minor problem but one that required a lot of time was the correct spelling of the names.

It is believed that the list is practically correct and complete. The name of Arthur W. Kempf, which was added by the general committee makes the number of those who died in the service twelve. They are: Albert J. Breault, Fred V. Carpenter, Adelard Dumas, Henri P. Favreault, Harry C. Hopkins, Arthur W. Kempf, Norman L. Kennedy, Robert E. Marsh, Anselm Mayotte, Joseph H. Muntie, Victor P. Pelland, Damase Veilleux.

The four women who were in the service are Miss A. Isabelle Byrne, Miss Ruth L. Daniels, Mrs. Alice C. Morse and Miss Edna L. Chapdelaine. The first three are registered nurses and the first two were in field hospitals at the front.

The New York Fresh Air kiddies, who have been in this section for the past two weeks, returned to their homes Thursday. There were 41 children in all and there was not a case of sickness or accident reported during the time they were here.

The committee in charge has expressed gratification to all those who helped make these two weeks enjoyable, and especially to the management of the Bradley and Victory Theatres, who gave the children and their hostesses free admission to either theatre. Some of their entertainers seemed reluctant to have the children leave.

The following names from West Woodstock were omitted when the list of the contributors to the Fresh Air Fund was published. Miss E. Williams, Mrs. Frank Carlson, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. George Lyon, Mrs. Harris Milton Chamberlain, Mr. LeClair, J. Potter, Mrs. W. Bingham, Mrs. Franklin Walker, Miss McIntire.

Harold Arnold of South Main street has returned, after spending a month at the Citizens' Training Camp at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., Edward E. Keefe of Ring street, Kermit Howe of Pomfret and Andrew Chilkott of Eastford are also at home after a month spent at Fort Terry, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McAllister have moved to New Milford, Conn., where Mr. McAllister has been appointed supervisor of rural schools. Mrs. McAllister was formerly Miss Ruth Sheppard of the Senexit road.

Chandler Morse, who has been an instructor in a summer camp in the Berkshires is now at home but will leave next week to resume his studies at Amherst College.

At the last meeting of the City Council there was another discussion on repairs and construction of sidewalks. It was agreed by the members of the council that it is unfair to the taxpayers of the city for curbing and gutters to be laid upon petition and with the expectation that the sidewalks would be laid, yet then to have the latter neglected.

Being satisfied that the purchase of the two fire alarm boxes would cause a deficit in the fire department appropriation, it was voted not to install the boxes at present. A motion was passed authorizing the placing of a street light on Woodstock avenue near the Senexit road as recommended by the light committee.

The police report for August showed 18 arrests. Drunks 9; non-support, 2; bigamy, 1; common drunkard, 1; vagrancy, 3; violation of the liquor laws, 1; violation of the motor laws, 1. One of the cases was bound over, eight were committed to jail and one case continued. Fines and costs were paid amounting to $103.26. Lodging was provided for sixteen tramps during the month.

A committee was appointed to confer with the committee from the Chamber of Commerce, in regard to the proposed city parking space. This committee was given power to act in securing lights and police protection for the parking space.

Agnes M. Beauregard applied for a permit to build a store at 361 Woodstock avenue, also for a gas filling station at the same location. Paul Auger asked for the building of a shed at 103 Walnut street and the Hemingway Silk Company asked for permission to build an eight-car garage on Providence street and Luige Di Vincenzo for a bungalow on Walnut street. The applications were referred to the highway committee with power to act. Alderman Carroll and Pigeon were absent.

Aldea Lasleur, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lasleur of Main street, died Monday morning and was buried Wednesday morning from St. Mary's church. Burial was at St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Kent and Mrs. Mary B. Bishop, who have been in Alton Bay, N. H., for the past two weeks, have returned to their homes in this city.

Leroy Ames, Merton Ames, Thara Ames and Dorothy Ames will leave today (Friday) for Aurora, Ill., the first to resume their studies at Aurora College and Miss Dorothy to begin her first year. They will make the trip in a car, the same one that the two boys bought two years ago in Aurora in which to make the trip home.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Board of the Day Kimball Hospital is to be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday next.

Mrs. Mabel Labonte announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Yvonne Brodeur to Frank Tetreault, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tetreault. The wedding will take place September 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson and son Raymond are on a ten days' trip through Maine, by automboile.

Miss Cora Duffey, who is secretary to the chief justice in Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Duffey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cole have been at their summer cottage at Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hall and son, James, Jr., have returned from a two weeks' automobile trip to Douglastown, New Brunswick, where they visited Mrs. Hall's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elliott and son Harold have returned from a ten days' camping trip to Plymouth, Mass.

Major A. D. McIntyre sailed Thursday from New York City for Miami, Florida, where his son Arthur is in business. Major McIntyre and family may locate permanently in Miami.

David Bausoliel has bought the large farm, known as the Nichols farm next to the John O. Fox place, in the Sawyer district and is moving his family there this week.

Miss Esther Rouse, who graduated from the Conservatory of Music at Aurora, Ill., is to be the instructor of music in the Woodstock schools. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rouse, of School street.

UNION

Rev. Charles G. Fogg, a former pastor, called on friends and parishioners here last week. Mr. Fogg has a pastorate in Gloucester, Mass. He has been camping on his island in the lake at Staffordville.

Arthur C. Barrows and Willard Barrows of Providence R. I. were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Ella C. Barrows.

Dr. Paul Baldwin of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Neff of New York spent a few days at Mrs. Lawson's, Eagle Lodge last week. Mrs. Neff was formerly Miss Dora Baldwin. The Baldwin children, Paul, Betty, Dora, Alice and Theodore—spent a few years here with their mother when she came from India with them, and are remembered by friends made during those years.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Sands were guests of friends in Suffield recently.

Mrs Mary Rizner and her family have been entertaining friends form Northampton, Penn.

Mrs. Rinda Burnham and her sister, Mrs. Hattie Phillips, of Southbridge, Mass. are spending two weeks at the Burnham cottage, on Marcy Hill.

Mrs. Fred J. Hunter who has been the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Raymond C. Barrows since the middle of August returned this week to her home in Marion, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Sewanee, Tenn., have been guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Baker.

Rev. Henry A. Coolidge will be taking his annual vacation the next two Sundays—Sept. 6 and Sept 7.

At the vesper service last Sunday, Dr. samuel McCune Lindsay of Columbia University gave a very interesting address on Housing Conditions in New York City.

The Congregational church held its annual business meeting Friday evening, Aug. 2. The following officers were elected—Clerk, Raymond C. Barrows; treasurer, Raymond C. Barrows; prudential committee, L. Morgan Reed, George Heck and William P. Beeching; Sunday school superintendent, Raymond C. Barrows.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dimock and three children, who have spent a vacation at Dolbear camp, on Hemlock island, Lake Mashapaug, have returned to their home in South Willington.

Miss Lucia E. Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Young, and Harold Gilbronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbronson, all of this town, were united in marriage at the parsonage Friday, August 28, by Rev. Henry A. Coolidge.

L. M. Reed, Mrs. Mary L. Reed and her son, T. P. Reed took a motor trip to Wales, Brinfield and Sturbridge, Sunday afternoon.

Rose, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sedlak, was christened at the Catholic chapel at Staffordville, Sunday morning.

Mrs. Henry A. Coolidge has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Duncklee and niece, Miss Dunckle, formerly of Francistown, N. H., for a few days. Last Tuesday, Mrs. Coolidge's guests started for their new home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Burnham and little sons, Arnold and Sheldon, returned Monday night from a very pleasant motor and boat trip to Halesite, Long Island. They were guests for a few days of Mr. Burnham's brother, Marvin Burnham and family. Marvin Burnham is a lighthouse keeper.

"The Flying Machine," first fast stage coach between Philadelphia and New York, made the trip in two days in good weather.

Bugbee and Wulf
DEPARTMENT STORE
PUTNAM, CONN.

SEPTEMBER
MARK DOWN SALE
COATS
For Ladies,
Misses and Juniors
HALF PRICE

NEW SWEATERS FOR SCHOOL WEAR

CUB SWEATERS
Sizes 2 to 8
$2.95

CUB SWEATERS
Sizes 32 to 36
$4.95

FLEECED SPORT JACKETS
Sizes 28 to 34
$1.95

SUEDE SPORT JACKETS
Sizes 34 to 42
$5.50

NEW BALBRIGGAN DRESSES
ONE AND TWO-PIECE—
Sizes 16, 18 and 20 ..... $10.00
ONE-PIECE DRESSES—
Sizes 38 to 46 ..... $13.75

A Wonderful Buy
AND IT WAS NOT BOUGHT IN MIAMI

SWEATERS
Wool and Silk, V Neck, Long Sleeves
Worth $3.98
Special $1.97

LADIES' SWEATERS
With Peter Pan Collars, All Colors
Worth $3.98 and $4.98
Special $1.97

Ladies' Real Felt Hats
All the Latest Styles, Dumbbell Included
Worth $4.97
Special $1.97

LADIES' LINGETTE SLIPS
White and Colors
50c

Ladies' Silk Sweaters
in all the Leading Shades—Pure Silk
Worth $5.98 to $9.98
Special $3.97.

MISSES' FELT HATS
The kind you will pay $3.98 and $4.98 for
Special at $1.97

Silk and Wool Sweaters
Four Styles—Worth $7.50
Special at $3.97

Ladies' Lingette Bloomers
Extra Strong
33c a Pair

THE ABOVE STOCK HAS BEEN BOUGHT BY US AT THE LIQUIDATION SALE OF LEWIS & BASHLOW, 87 FIFTH AVE., NEW YORK CITY.

THE PASNIK CO. CHAIN STORES Sell For Less NORWICH STORE OPPOSITE WOOLWORTH'S 5 & 10c STORE.

LEBANON

Services at the churches will be resumed Sept. 6, at the Baptist church Rev. A. G. Littlefield will take for his subject, The Woman at the Well. At the Sunday school at 11.45, a report of the Ocean Port school of methods will be given by Miss Beatrice Littlefield and Miss Margaret Wyman, who attended at the C. E. meeting at 7.30. George L. Randall is to be the leader.

Rev. A. G. Littlefield and family returned home Monday after spending about three weeks in Maine, at the home of Mrs. Littlefield's mother.

Mrs. Elizabeth Troland is spending a few days with relatives and friends in New London.

Mrs. Mary Williams and Mrs. Ida Abel entertained on Friday, Mrs. Mary Turner and daughters, Miss Gertrude Turner and Mrs. Hortense Park, Jerrison Fred Turner and grandson, Philip Park, all of Willimantic.

Mrs. Pettie and four children of Long Island and Miss Red Moon, who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. William Pultz, returned home this week. Mr. Pettie spent the week end in Lebanon and returned home with them. Mrs. Pultz accompanied them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Goodwin entertained for the day Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Manning of Hillstown, Mrs. Knight Ferris and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Manning and three children of South Manchester, Mrs. Woodbury O. Rogers, Mrs. Ronald Nelson and son of Norwich. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Manning remained for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Taylor Frank King and Harold Bruce have returned, after camping at Poquenoc.

Miss Ella Foster spent the week end in Hartford.

Mrs. M. A. Williams, Mrs. Ida Abel, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Abel and four children were visitors at Point o' Woods Sunday.

There will be a ball game Saturday in Lebanon between South Windham team and Lebanon Inie.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Browning and three daughters, of Charlestown, R. I. and Miss Elsie Clark, of Westerly, R. I., were callers at C. S. Goodwin's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kneeland and three children spent Sunday at Atlantic Beach.

Miss Ruth Lombard of Colchester is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elmer Geer.

Miss Alta Smith of Woburn, Mass., has been spending a week with Mrs. A. C. Hoxie. Miss Phyllis Hoxie returned home with her.

Miss Clytheria Gardner of New London is visiting Mrs. Ella Foster.

Mrs. Fred Bruce, New London, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bruce of Groton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruce.

Albert Whitaker and Miss Bernice Whitaker, of South Killingly, who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. C. M. Geer have returned home.

Harry Bruce of New York is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hallen moved this week into Mrs. Mary Sweet's house.

Mrs. Annie Martin of Willimantic has been spending a few days at C. C. King's.

LEFFINGWELL

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Palmer and children, Eleanor, Natalie and Harry, of Cranston, R. I., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Taylor.

Mrs. Forrest C. Leffingwell recently spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leffingwell, of Groton.

Harold Rose, of Bean Hill, was a visitor Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bedat.

Mrs. R. Trafford Mowrey and daughter, Beulah, spent some time last week with Mrs. Mowrey's mother, Mrs. M. F. Grady, of Laurell Hill, Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Elliott and daughters, Ruth, Justine, Gertrude, and Carolyn, moved this week to Taunton, Mass.

John I. Ross and his assistant, John E. Rogers, have completed their work at the school house in Leffingwell and now are building a house for Bert Beebe, of the Gallows Hill road.

School here will open September 8, with Miss Olive A. Bishop, teacher.

Rev. William B. Oakley and his mother, Mrs. H. E. Francis, returned home this week, the former having had the month of August for vacation.

Miss Zelda Mowrey is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Partridge, of Poquetanuck Drawbridge.

NOANK

A neatly painted warning sign for the railroad crossing, which for several weeks past has been leaning against a tree, is now parked in a new location, on Spicer avenue, at the intersection of Jensen avenue. This section is wide and often used by automobilists as a turntable. It is reported that the sign was removed from that location by an automobile using the reverse gear. The sign is now placed on the south side of Spicer avenue, has a telephone pole to protect it and the warning can be plainly seen.

Mrs. Hugh Keenan of New York is visiting at ther cottage at Cedar Crest.

William Shermacher, of Albany, is visiting Mrs. Walter Mosher.

A. Corey, of Passaic, N. J., is spending some time in the village.

Mrs. Claude Chester is visiting in Old Mystic.

Miss Ada Fitch, of New York, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Ada Fitch, of Ashey lane.

Members of the Silver Links society on the M. E. church were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Jensen, on Jensen court. A regular meeting was held and a work hour followed a social time with refreshments concluded the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Kirsen, Jr., of New London, are visiting in the village.

A fire broke out in High street on Wednesday evening near the trolley bridge. The sky was all lighted up and at first it was thought it was a house afire, but it was brush. The blaze was put out by neighbors. No alarm was sent in to the fire company. The flames covered an acre of land which was all burned over.

Miss Mary Costello was hostess at tea, at her cottage, Glencain, at Groton Long Point, Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Grace Fitzpatrick, of this village. Others present were Mrs. Manuel Joseph, of Groton, Mrs. J. E. Driscoll, of Norwich, Mrs. Joseph Dempsey of Brooklyn, Mrs. Julian Joseph, of New York, Miss Helen Hargan of Philadelphia and Miss Mary Belle Hargan of West Mystic.

Elise Smith has resigned at the tea room at Groton Long Point.

Miss Mary Foley is spending her vacation at Wakefield, Mass.

Mrs. Noyes Hancock of Meriden is visiting her sister, Mrs. Susan Morgan.

Miss Lurene Fowler of Massachusetts was a recent caller at the home of Mrs. Nellie Ebbetts.

The marriage of Miss Jean Fontana of Westerly and Sidney Collins, now of Groton, formerly of Noank, took place at Westerly, September 1. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Bruno, of the Immaculate Conception church, at the rectory.

The fire engine and force of men were out Wednesday evening filling many of the cisterns, which are dry.

GOSHEN

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Spaulding, of South Norwalk, and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stark of Lebanon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Randall Thursday.

A. J. Randall and family have moved to their new home in North Haven.

A number from Goshen attended the Sunday school class reunion held Tuesday September 1st with Mrs. Eva Hyde in Lisbon.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Case and daughter of Danbury were callers here Saturday.

The "old swimmin hole" at the two bridges on the Yantic has been taxed to the limit, these hot days of late summer.

Mrs. C. H. McCall and son Robert, of Colchester, were callers here Saturday.

The boys at Camp Mooween leave for their city homes next week.

Schools in town begin the fall term next Monday.

September the month with the R in it is when the toothsome oyster comes on the bill of fare once more.

There is sadness in seeing the flocks of birds making their farewell calls.

Light frosts and dry weather are noticeable changing the foliage of the forest trees this early.

The Community Club and Ladies' Aid society plan to give a lawn party on Goshen Hill green when the Wild West Circus is billed to give an exhibition.

WILSONVILLE

A number from here attended Oxford fair Wednesday.

The annual fall painting of fences is being done by the state roadmen.

Miss Stella Bourne has returned to her home in Oneida after a visit with her uncle the late Geo. Bourne.

Mrs. Charles Kelly and daughter, Minnie and Miss Anne Jack were in Putnam Saturday.

Mrs. Simmons entertained her sister from New York and one from Webster Sunday.

Excavations at Cyrenus

Encouraged by the remarkable archeological discoveries made by Italians at Leptis Magna and Sabratha in northern Africa, a party of Italian scientists, led by Dr. Ettore Ghislanzoni, of the Roman National Museum intend to begin next fall excavations at Cyrenus, in the Italian colony of Cyrenaica. Cyrene, which has already given to the world the marvelous Venus Anadyomene now in the National Museum in Rome, was the oldest and largest Greek colony in Africa. It was built on the highest part of western Libya, fronting the coast of Marsa Susa where the ancient port of Apollonia was situated. Excavations which were carried on in Cyrenus ten years ago showed that the ancient city contained to excellent state of preservation relics of all the epochs of antiquity, especially the Hellenistic and the Roman. During the Roman era the city has the capital of Crete and Cyrenus.

Stay Home or Pay Double

Those Brattiano brothers who are now governing Rumania have resorted to several new methods to increase the national revenues. For instance, any Rumanian subject who spends more than six months of the year abroad must pay double taxes on his income from securities and on revenue derived from houses and land. As many Rumanians have been in the habit of returning home only for the spring and autumn seasons, the new tax should prove lucrative.

Bomb Squad Puts Bishop In Office

COPYRIGHT KEYSTONE VIEW CO., NEW YORK

Bishop Adam Phillipovsky, who with court ouster papers, and members of the New York Police Department bomb squad, broke down the rectory door of the Cathedral of St. Nicholas and forced Bishop Platon to leave. Court orders and a court case found Bishop Adam the rightful Bishop, claiming that Platon's papers to his post being invalid. The ruling Bishop of the Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church of America controls property valued at $20,000,000 and controls 500,000 members of the Church in America.

1786 1925

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

129 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 60c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-2.

Willimantic Office, Main St., Telephone 1131.

Norwich Friday, Sept. 4, 1925

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 29, 1925:
12,909

THE SHENANDOAH DISASTER.

A disaster which overtops anything which has occurred during the development of aeronautics in this country was the collapse of the Shenandoah with the attending loss in dead and injured while crossing Ohio on its trip to the midwest.

Early despatches furnish very little in the way of definite information as to what occurred to cause the airship to break apart aside from the fact that it had encountered a hard storm and was endeavoring to rise above it when something happened. Whether it was struck by lightning will be determined in the investigation which is certain to follow but if it was the fact that the big dirigible was inflated with helium unquestionably served to prevent an explosion which would only have added to the horror.

The week has been a most unfortunate one for our aviators with the PN-9 No 1 forced down at sea off the Hawaiian Inslands and possibly lost with all its crew, followed by the destruction of the Shenandoah. Such affairs direct attention to the long distance we are from safety in aviation in spite of the remarkably progress that has been made. Both of these aircraft were under the guidance of the best men the country has. Their loss means a tremendous blow to our activities in the air and the destruction of the Shenandoah permits of a decidedly new view being taken concerning the extent to which we may go in the construction of such a type of airship. Much will depend upon the result of the inquiry that will be made. If lightning was the cause of it, or if the storm was worse than others which have been experienced, those are new problems which must be dealt with. Flying today is not without its dangers but the only bit of good fortune in the case of the Shenandoah seems to be that it was not at sea or had not been sent to the north pole.

LANDOWNERS IN MEXICO

One of the great troubles that Mexico has been obliged to deal with is the situation developing from legislation that amounts practically to the confiscation of property. Foreigners have legally acquired property in the Mexican republic but because of changed conditions Mexico has sought to regain it, not by purchase, but by legislative action.

This has raised strenuous objection and caused Mexico no little trouble with the result that President Calles has apparently seen the need of ending such methods and making such reforms as are contemplated apply solely to the future and not become retroactive.

This is to be gathered from the message which the Mexican president sent to congress in which he advocated the restriction of the permission of foreigners to acquire land holdings in Mexico in order to avoid conflict with agragrian laws and the prevent diplomatic reclamations.

Whatever may be said in regard to the advisability of such legislation, it must be admitted that he is going about it in the right way. Such legislation as he contemplates would concern those who plan the acquisition of Mexican land in the future rather than those who are already in possession of it through deals which were in accordance with the law when carried out.

Legislation of a restrictive character must of necessity concern the future. There could be no thought of taking away land without compensation which foreigners have owned for years, any more then the placing of restrictions upon immigration would mean the deportation of all foreigners who had been admitted to a country before the restrictions were imposed.

In his apparent endeavor to overcome difficulties and establish better relations with other countries, President Calles gives indication that he is headed in the right direction in regard to this matter.

THE BROOKHART CONTEST

Recounting the votes in the Iowa senatorial contest between Brookhart and Steck under the eyes of a senatorial committee was not just one afternoon's job. It has trailed along for weeks and has now reached the point where it is claimed that Brookhart has a majority of 174 votes out a total that runs up well toward a million, while the supporters of Steck, the democratic candidate, maintain that the election is his by 54 votes.

The committee hasn't made its report or announced its decision. There are indications that it will make a report of its findings and leave the decision to the senate, but whatever is the outcome the lesson of the election cannot be lost upon Senator Brookhart.

Iowa is a republican state. The contest in that commonwealth is to get the nomination and the republican nominee invariably has a walk away at the polls. Iowa has undergone a change of heart in regard to Brookhart. It has watched his methods and it recognized that if it was going to be relieved of his activities in the next six years it must bring about his defeat at the polls. Even a democrat was preferable under the circumstance for while Brookhart was standing as a republican and seeking republican support he was fighting republican and administration policies. One of the radical leaders, he obstructed legislation and finally, when a republican candidate, declared for La Follettee and his party, and was subsequently read out of the republican party. That was more than the republicans of Iowa could stand and the result was that while he should have had an easy victory he came dangerously close to being defeated, if he has not actually been. Even if he is declared elected after all the facts are laid before the senate there is no question now but what he has heard from home. He knows what his constituents think of his conduct and should he be seated his election will amount to little more than a repudiation of his conduct and policies.

STATE INHERITANCE TAXES.

As the result of a conference of tax officials of the states of Connecticut, New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania it has been agreed that the affidavit of an executor of an estate of a person resident in any one of these states will be accepted without making it necessary for the executor to seek the approval of state officials in these states for the transfer of the stock of corporations doing business in those commonwealths.

That may seem a matter of small importance but it will be appreciated by those who have been obliged to go through such a lot of red tape as has been through around such matters.

This is one of the first moves that have been made for overcoming the great amount of work that has been created, to say nothing of the expense, by the provisions of the state inheritance tax laws. Each state has been determined to get all that was possible. It has watched with particular care each loophole and for fear that something would get by an executor has been obliged to apply to officials of one or all the states for permission to transfer any stock held by the deceased in corporations in those states. It may have meant no tax for those states but it permitted them to keep tabs upon such matters.

The annoyance and expense of such requirements have long been recognized. The tax conference was the outcome and what has been done by the four states is deserving of receiving similar attention by all the others. It is time that a serious effort was made between the states to end the situation which surrounds the collection of inheritance taxes at the present time. There is widespread opposition to the federal inheritance tax but the operation of the state inheritance taxes is such as to cause unwarranted conditions. Correction is greatly needed and if the four states have made a beginning that will be followed it is well.

AN ALASKAN EXPERIMENT

In pursuit of an ideal, congress is apt to spend wildly and not always well, especially if there are the funds that can be tapped and no particular effort made in behalf of economy and reduced taxation.

This is brought to attention by the demand which is being made by Congressman Free of California for the abandonment of the Alaska railroad. He has been making a study of it and finds that the cost of maintenance and operation is much more than is justified. He points to the cost of $60,000,000 and the fact that it is costing $400 each to serve the 5000 persons who are benefited by the road. Much of the time it is impossible to use it and it has never accomplished what was expected of it. In his opinion the railroad should be replaced by a highway.

This is one of the outlays that was expected to open up that vast storehouse of resources in Alaska. It cost much more than was estimated at the beginning, but with a start having been made it was a case of putting the money in until it was finished or make the initial outlay valueless.

Whether congress will look at this proposition in the same light that the Californian does is not certain. With a congressional committee making a study of Alaskan affairs it is probable that this will come in for thorough consideration. If the question was to build or not to build the exercise that has been had would doubtless serve as an excellent guide. As it is a case of throwing away what has been invested and going to additional expense to convert the railroad into a highway another side of the matter is brought to light which deserves careful study before acting.

careful study before acting.

EDITORIAL NOTES

O nice soaking rain but only a small part of what is needed.

Preparations are being made to can about everything except heat.

Florida is displaying no interest in the empty New England coal bins and the opening of the coal strike.

Babe Ruth has been making a lot of threats but manager Huggins has brought him down off his high horse.

The man on the corner says: Some rain must fall, but there are times when it is fightfully hard to get it.

The movement of anthracite substitutes will indicate as time goes on how the consumer is reacting to the coal strike.

The vacation season is fast waning and Labor day will end most of the life at the shore resorts except on week ends.

However you regard the cost of living cheaper gasoline certainly has its good effects in bringing down the cost of motoring.

Whether the presidents recommendation for abolition of the tax publicity law gets any more attention on renewal than in the past, it is certainly a piece of legislation encouraging prying into other people's business which ought to be killed.

FROM LUCILE'S DIARY

Day before yesterday Uncle John telephoned in from the farm to ask Cousin Fannie to go out there for a few days because Aunt Annie had sprained her ankle. I recally think it most inconsiderate the way all our clan imposes upon poor Cousin Fannie. Besides, she was making a frock for me. But she went.

"Oh, by the way, Lucile," said Cousin Fannie just as she was leaving, "I was to have met my old friend Mrs. Granger at Mead's for luncheon tomorrow. She is coming down from St. Paul on her way east. It's too late to let her know that I can't keep the engagement, so I think I must ask you to meet her and take my place. She is a daring old lady—the 'up and coming' kind. I know you'll enjoy her."

I promised to meet Mrs. Granger and entertain her at luncheon.

Early yesterday morning Polly Gray telephoned me to meet her downtown and go with her to a private view of a loan collection of portraits on the near north side. I knew it would be a most exclusive affair, and I said I should be delighted to go. I do wonder how Polly ever came by the tickets. We had a very pleasant morning.

"It's nearly 1 o'clock," remarked Polly as we finally stepped into the street. "Shall we walk downtown and have lunch?"

"Good gracious, Polly! Nearly 1! Why, I had a luncheon engagement at 12 at Mead's."

"I don't believe there's any swain devoted enough to wait so long. You'll have to go into a drug store and make your peace over the phone."

"Oh, but I can't reach my friend by telephone," I said.

"Well, then," laughed Polly, "I fear you're out of luck."

"No, I don't suppose any one would wait an hour. It's too bad, but there's nothing to be done. We may as well enjoy the walk downtown this lovely bright day."

"You're certainly philosophical," said Polly. "I should be actually distressed in your place."

"My dear, what's the use of worrying now? As Shakespeare said, 'Things without remedy should be without regard. What's done is done.'"

"I wish I were more familiar with Shakespeare," said Polly admiringly, and I did not think it necessary to tell her that I got that quotation from an old poet's calendar.

When I got home late in the afternoon I encountered mother on the doorstep, getting out her latchkey. I knew by the coldness of her greeting that I was in disgrace.

"Where have you been all day?" she asked.

"To an art exhibition, to lunch and to the matinee this afternoon. Now may I ask where you have been, mother, dear?"

"I have been downtown with Mrs. Granger. At half-past 1 Mrs. Granger called me on the telephone and asked where Fannie was! She said she knew Fannie was so prompt and punctual that something must have happened to her. I had the extremely pleasant duty of explaining that you were to have taken Fannie's place, Lucile," said mother severely. "I was very much ashamed—"

"But, mother, you see I—"

"I don't care for any excuses, Lucile. You promised your Cousin Fannie to meet her friend and you didn't do it. I am thankful that I was able to make some amends by taking her to tea at your father's club. She and her son are both delightful."

"Her son?"

"Yes, her son, who is taking her east. I don't know when I've met such a charming bachelor."

If Cousin Fannie knew that her son would be with Mrs. Granger I don't see why in the world she did not tell me. Sometimes Cousin Fannie is too exasperating for words.—Chicago News.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Silas H. Strawn, who has been selected as a special commissioner to represent the United States at the Chinese tariff conference in Peking next month, has been a leading member of the Western bar for many years and has made his reputation principally as a corporation lawyer. He has served as president both of the Illinois Bar Association and the Chicago Bar Association and has been chairman of the Committee on Education of the American Bar Association. He was admitted to the bar in Ottawa, Ill., the town of his birth, in 1889 and practiced there until 1831, since when he has practiced in Chicago. He is 57 years old. In addition to his law practice Mr. Strawn has extensive business interests in Chicago, being a director of one of the largest banks in that city and the executive head of one of the great mail order houses.

Today's Anniversaries

1781—Los Angeles was founded, as a pueblo.

1838—John R. Rogers, fourth state governor of Washington, born at Brunswick, Maine. Died at Olympia, Dec. 28, 1901.

1876—Edwin Booth, after an absence of nearly 20 years, reappeared upon the San Francisco stage.

1894—Charles J. Folger, Secretary of the Treasury under President Arthur, died at Geneva, N. Y. Born at Nantucket, Mass., April 16, 1818.

1898—Alfred Dreyfus appealed to the French government for a revision of the court martial proceedings in her husband's case.

1915—Alleged the steamship Hesperian sunk by mine or torpedo off the southern coast of Ireland, with loss of 26 lives.

1916—Lincoln Memorial at Hodgenville, Ky., marking the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, presented to the nation with elaborate ceremony.

1922—The Third Assembly of the League of Nations opened at Geneva.

1924—Seymour Parket Gilbert, American, accepted appointment as permanent agent-general of reparations.

Today's Birthdays

General Count Luigi Cadorna, the chief Italian commander in the late war, born 75 years ago today.

Archbishop Fumasonia-Biondi, the apostolic delegate to the United States, born in Rome, 52 years ago today.

Rt. Rev. Thomas E. Molloy, Catholic bishop of Brooklyn, born at Nashua, N. H., 60 years ago today.

C. Bascom Slemp, late private secretary to President Coolidge, born in Lee county, Va., 55 years ago today.

E. O. Leatherwood, representative in Congress of the Second Utah district, born in Ohio, 53 years ago today.

Stories That Recall Others

Pajamas After This

She has been at the seashore where it was possible to get a good laundress to do the washing. The clothes came back with a neat list of the clothes included with the price after each. She had a favorite blouse that she wore which was often in the wash. It usually headed the list, "Blouse—20 cents."

One day the regular wash woman was sick and a neighbor did the work. This time the list read, "One half a pajama—8 cents." It was the same garment. She hopes the same mistake will be made in the future, because seemingly as much care was taken with the half pajama as with a street blouse.

It Was Locked

With a sudden jerk which caused those inside to wonder what had happened the car stopped and it was seen that an elderly lady, carrying a heavy box, was wearily climbing aboard. She had just managed to signal the car and deposited the box on the seat beside her.

A nervous gentleman sitting next to her with his foot in a shoe which had been cut because of some injury, eyed the box with evident distrust and thinking it might fall to his detriment said: "Do you think that box is quite safe there?"

"Oh, yes," she replied blithely, "It's locked!"

Experience is the comb a man acquires after he loses his hair.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

HOW "HEAVEN WORM'S MAKE MILADY'S SILK

Yokohama is winning back her position as premier silk port of Japan. On September 1, 1923 the earthquake practically obliterated Yokohama as a thriving city of 423,000 souls. In less than a year she had practically recovered her chief business, silk export.

"Japan, the land of rice paddy, became Japan, the land of mulberry orchards, to satisfy the wishes of American women," says a bulletin from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic society. "For thousands of years silk was the cloth of queens. Today what was once a princess' dowry of silks is the property of nearly every stenographer of any metropolis in the United States.

"If a worm shall serve a princess, though she be multiplied by 50,000,000, that worm ought to be lifted above the ranks of common crawling things. Will it make silk stockings any more attractive to American women for them to know that the silk was spun by 'heaven worms'?

"To see these models of perfect conduct in their swaddling clothes the visitor in Japan must adjust his itinerary exactly. He must stop at some farmhouse almost on the very day the mulberry leaves burst from tightly wrapped buds to crinkled tiny leaves, unfroned by the sun. Centuries of selection enable the 'heaven worm' to time his debut with his breakfast. When the silk worm is as thin as a bit of black thread, and as short as the width of a pencil-lead, he must have new, tender leaves, and the precision with which silk worms' eggs hatch and mulberry leaves unfold approaches magic.

"Though the 'heaven worm' fulfils the edict that 'children must be seen and not heard,' he is a perfect pig for food. He eats all night and all day. He must, because he is required to multiply his weight hundreds of times in forty days. The silk worm's discrete silence in youth is broken in his lusty, old age. Japanese, however, love the soft, rain-like sound produced by thousands of worms, earnestly eating.

"Barring gluttony, the 'heaven worm' is as domesticated as a good dog. Silk worms are raised in shallow, rice straw baskets with narrow rims, yet the Japanese keep millions of them on shelves in their homes with perfect assurance that the spark of adventure will never prompt them to roam abroad and underfoot. Scientifically, their fast traveling fuzzy American cousin is wild by comparison.

"Silk culture is a pin-money industry in Japan because it mainly employs mothers, mothers-in-law, grandmothers, great-grandmothers, and children, during a short period of the year, seldom more than a month and a half. On a farm the head of the house may take no part; often he is a government official, a merchant, or an army officer. Silk is a 'velvet' crop for the family coffers because, except for the cost of fertilizer for mulberry trees, the investment is practically nothing. Most farms sell their cocoons direct to agents.

"Rules of hospitality are amended during silk season. Ordinarily a visiting relative or friend is entertained and given tea and food. But in silk season it is perfectly good form for the visitor to go to the kitchen and help himself. The silk worms almost force the family out of house and home. A typical farm may have a house of nine rooms on one floor. It is about 30 feet wide by 50 feet long. While the worms are small and thousands live happily on one tray there is ample shelf room, but when they are fat, old, and juicy only three hundred can enjoy the same bed and board. Then every inch of the house seems filled with trays.

"At the end of 50 day's growth the worms must be furnished with facilities for the spinning of their cocoons. Innumerable tiny rice straw baskets are constructed for the insects. Silk worms are not allowed to fasten their spun houses on twigs because that would cause wastage in the unwinding process. One, two or three worms will frequently spin in each straw basket suspending their cocoons in midair. As in the case of the honey-bee and the chick, the hatching period for the silk moth is 21 days; but if the cocoon is to be used for silk it must be heated over a slow fire to kill the pupa before it bores through the silken walls. At the silk mill or filature the cocoons are divided into lots of 15 to 20, placed in basins of warm water, and the thread ends brushed out. The single strand formed by twisting together the threads from 15 to 20 cocoons when wound with 15 or 20 similar strands forms the silk yarn which is the basis of the raw silk of commerce. Such a strand of yarn thus contains 225 or more threads from as many cocoons.

"Curious tools are used in silk culture—cleavers, sieves, chop sticks, and long feathers. Cleavers are used to chop the tender mulberry leaves into tiny pieces for the young worms. In order that the food may be small enough for the tiny insects it is sifted over the trays with sieves. A soft feather is used to clean the trays. Tending the trays is the most time-consuming operation of silk-worm culture, for the young worms must be changed to fresh trays twice a day, and, when older, at least once a day.

"Soil and climate to support mulberry trees do not alone enable a country to produce raw silk. The country which can best produce silk is one whose people are meticulously careful and patient. To watch a Japanese girl bending over a tray, balancing long, slender chop sticks in her right hand and patiently transferring with utmost delicacy the tiny black specks that are young silk worms from one tray to another, is to understand why Japan is the world's silk producer par excellence."

Some men give according to their means and others according to their meanness.

From Small Beginnings

John Dollond, the Silk Weaver, Improver of Telescope

When anyone looks through a cheap telescope or a cheap pair of opera glasses he is annoyed by noticing a blue haze all around the edge of the circle. That annoying blue haze, caused by the action of the light on the lens, hides a large part of the view. This is most disturbing even in ordinary use of the instrument; in astronomy it is fatal to all exact observation. Today it is possible to buy telescopes and opera glasses that do not have this effect—they are "achromatic," and therefore far superior. The achromatic lens in use on telescopes, opera glasses and cameras is the invention of a man who was the son of an obscure silk weaver, who was too poor to give his son any educational advantages at all.

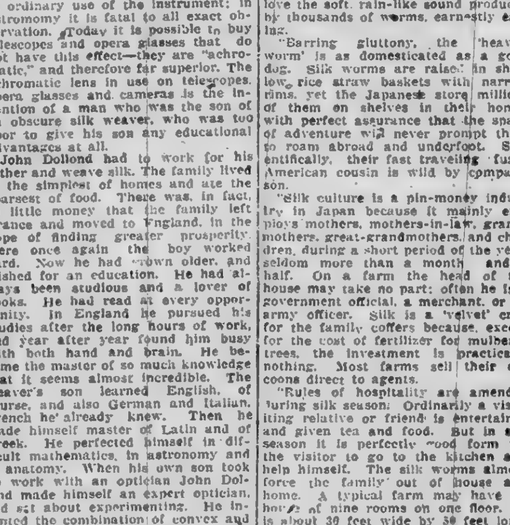
John Dollond had to work for his father and weave silk. The family lived in the simplest of homes and ate the coarsest of food. There was, in fact, so little money that the family left France and moved to England, in the hope of finding greater prosperity. Here once again the boy worked hard. Now he had grown older, and wished for an education. He had always been studious and a lover of books. He had read at every opportunity. In England he pursued his studies after the long hours of work, and year after year found him busy with both hand and brain. He became the master of so much knowledge that it seems almost incredible. The weaver's son learned English, of course, and also German and Italian. French he already knew. Then he made himself master of Latin and of Greek. He perfected himself in difficult mathematics, in astronomy and in anatomy. When his own son took up work with an optician John Dollond made himself an expert optician, and set about experimenting. He invented the combination of convex and concave lenses made of different kinds of glass, that prevents the fogging of color.

This invention was one of the greatest achievements in perfecting lenses for many uses. The silk weaver's son was made a member of the Royal Society, the most honorable scientific body in England. He was awarded a medal for distinguished work, and was honored as a great optician. He did not live long to enjoy his success, for he died at the age of 55.

Elders of Greenland

The northern elder breeds on the islands of the Greenland and Ellesmere Island coasts. Four thousand eggs may often be gathered from one small island in a few hours. The beautiful king elder arrives at Etah in May with the northern elder and frequents the same coasts.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



©THE INTERNATIONAL SYNDICATE.

HORIZONTAL
1-Fuss
4-Native of desert
6-Old spelling of "ashe"
9-To eject
11-Girl's name
14-Denoting more than one
16-Force
18-A flap or tongue
19-Kind of marble
22-Scotch for "no"
23-Thickness
25-To draw in by suction
26-Nickname for "Henry"
27-Rate of travel
29-Close to
30-Pertaining to place
32-Speak
34-Prefix—form of "pre"
35-To bind
36-And not
37-The nostrils
40-Musical note
42-Cracks in the flesh
45-A container
46-Golf term

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)
48-Woman's patriotic society (abbr.)
49-Fitting
50-Imprisonment
53-To recline
54-A fury (Gr. Myth)
55-Fabulous monster (Norway)
58-River in N. France
59-At sea
60-An insect
61-Beloved
62-Royal Naval Reserve (abbr.)

VERTICAL
2-Twice as many
3-Pronoun
4-Volume of maps
5-Barren
6-A drink
7-Ruins of ancient Thebes, Egypt
8-Quick to learn
10-To make weak
12-Hosiery
13-One of the grains
15-Native of Lapland
17-A festivity
20-To polish by friction
21-Frigid

VERTICAL (Cont.)
24-Prefix—"the near past"
26-Dreadful
27-To turn rapidly
28-A raised platform
30-Appearance
31-Not so much
33-Pronoun (old form)
34-Promissory note (abbr.)
38-Slightly open
39-Allowance of food
40-Preposition
41-Part of verb "to be"
43-Mountain range, west of Black Sea, Eur.
44-One of the Great Lakes
46-Melted
47-A ridge of glacial gravel
48-Prefix—through
50-Prefix—hard, bad
51-Fellow of the Royal Society (abbr.)
53-Termination
56-Insect egg
57-Combining form—"air"

HOW IS YOUR BOY PREPARED FOR SCHOOL OPENING?

This is a question to ask all parents. If you need Suits, Pants, Blouses, Shirts and Boys' Wearing Apparel. We can save you considerable on your purchases.

Our Boys' Department comprises hundreds of Suits in all makes and styles, all priced to meet your pocketbook.

BOYS' SUITS—TO CLOSE OUT $3.98

BOYS' SUITS, made with Vest, one pair Long Pants and one Knicker $10.00

BOYS' SUITS—Two pairs of Pants—All Sizes $5.00

BOYS' PANTS—Pair ..... 50c, 75c and $1.00

BOYS' BLOUSES ..... 45c and 69c

BOYS' HOSE Pair 25c

HUNDREDS OF OTHER VALUES.

REMEMBER, BY TRADING HERE YOU SAVE THE MIDDLEMAN'S PROFIT.

THE NORWICH BARGAIN HOUSE

"MORE FOR LESS."

3-5-7 Water Street, Corner Washington Square
Norwich, Conn.

The Factory Gardener

If toil be gladdened by the joys we share,
I know a man of toil with blessing rare—
The Factory Gardener—he who daily goes
To make shop windows kinsmen of the rose.

His is a task not held of common kind.
He has more bosses than The Boss to mind;
The fellows in the shop all seem to know,
And give advice on what he ought to grow.

Jack, at his window, wants a zinnia bed;
Joe longs for roses twining overhead.
They carry to the shop seeds, plants galore,
To make a bed where cinders grew before.

The Factory Gardener thrills with keen delight,
When, by his magic, dark spots change to bright!
Far corners, catch-alls filled with junk and glass,
He soon makes beautiful with flowers and grass.

Once capital was held as prone to feel
It's men's souls hardened as the very steel
With which they daily labored to produce
Tools delicate and things of common use.

Today contented men from windows see
More than the grime and dust of industry;
Employer and employed alike find glow
In flowers—blossoms mother favored so!

William Herschell in Indianapolis News.

LONDON'S "WALL STREET" SHRINKS 97 PERCENT NIGHTLY

LONDON, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The new population of the City of London is 32 times greater than the night population, statistics in the official census of work-places show.

At night there are 13,709 people in the city and during the day 446,715. These latter have to be transported to and from the suburbs morning and night in something less than two hours.

The suburbs of Hornsey and Leyton provide the greatest number of London's day population. Following closely by East Ham, Hanwell and Walthamstow.

The "city" in London is a section in which many of the large financial and banking houses are located and in a measure corresponds to what in New York is called the Wall Street district.

SWEDISH CHILDREN TRAIN ON MILITARY DRILL GROUND

MALMOE, Sweden, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The old military drill ground at Ljungbyhed has been converted into a playground this summer where 8,000 school children, accompanied by their teachers, have been encamped in the army barracks, while receiving instruction in physical culture and outdoor life. It has been the largest mobilization of school children ever seen in Sweden and has been so successful that it will be repeated next year.

Don't mention your misery because of its so-called ability to comfort the misery of others.

The Norwich Savings Society

Incorporated 1824.
"A Century of Service."

DEPOSITS MADE ON OR BEFORE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, WILL BE ENTITLED TO INTEREST OR DIVIDENDS FROM SEPTEMBER 1.

LIBERTY BOND COUPONS DUE SEPTEMBER 15, WILL BE ACCEPTED ON DEPOSIT AS CASH.

BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, DIVIDENDS WILL BE CREDITED QUARTERLY—OCTOBER 1, JANUARY 1, APRIL 1, JULY 1.

Free to Asthma and Hay Fever Sufferers

Free Trial of Method That Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time

We have a method for the control of Asthma, and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development; whether it is present as Chronic Asthma, or Hay Fever, you should send for a free Trial of our method. No matter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, if you are troubled with Asthma or Hay Fever, our method should relieve you promptly.

We especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases, where all forms of inhalers, douches, opium preparations, fumes, "patent smokes," etc., have failed. We want to show everyone at our expense, that our method is designed to end all difficult breathing, all wheezing, and all those terrible paroxysms.

This free offer is too important to neglect a single day. Write now and begin the method at once. Send no money. Simply mail coupon below. Do it Today—you even do not pay postage.

FREE TRIAL COUPON
FRONTIER ASTHMA CO., Room 33C, Niagara and Hudson Sts., Buffalo, N. Y.:
Send free trial of your method to:
.....
.....
.....

Rheumatic Pains Go With One Day's Use of Old-Time Remedy

Long Standing Cases Find Quick Relief After All Other Remedies Have Failed

To those who suffer from the torturing pains of Rheumatism, there is an old-time remedy that has brought quick relief to thousands in every part of the country. This preparation is called Rheuma and is a scientific combination that begins to act on kidneys, liver, stomach and blood within 24 hours, and in many cases seems to banish all pain after the very first treatment.

No matter how skeptical you may be, nor how many preparations you have tried for your pains you owe it to yourself to try Rheuma. It is sold by Lee & Osgood and other good druggists with an absolute guarantee to return your full purchase price if, after a fair trial, your rheumatic pains have not entirely vanished.

To Prevent Baldness

Baldness can be prevented easier than cured. Stop falling hair and itching scalp, banish all dandruff and make the hair grow by using Parisian Sage—the best tonic and scalp treatment. It's guaranteed. Sold by Lee & Osgood Co., and all druggists.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. George C. Butts, her son, Master George Butts and her daughter Dorothy, of Sachem terrace, have been visiting in Boston.

Mrs. William W. Leonard and son, Master William W. Leonard, have been visiting Mrs. Leonard's sister, Mrs. Robert Talbert, at Crescent Beach.

Arthur Brewer Norton, who has been spending a vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Norton at Eastern Point, has returned to Chicago.

Tully Armstrong Joynes, who has spent several days with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colt, of Broadway, has returned to Baltimore.

Charles Paddock Johnson, who sailed for Europe June 12th on the U. S. liner Leviathan, has toured England, France, Switzerland, Germany and Italy and is now in Rome. He will return on the Leviathan from Cherbourg, September 18th.

The marriage of Miss Henrietta H. Gallup, and C. Richard Tillson, of Amherst, Mass. is to take place Saturday at one o'clock, at the home of Miss Gallup's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Gallup, only members of the two families attending.

Miss Margaretta C. Johnson, who has taught art for four years in the South Manchester schools, has been visiting her aunt, Miss Mary H. Paddock, of Washington street. Miss Johnson left town Monday for Walla Walla, Washington where she will be art teacher during the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goodnow, of 37 Brond street, are entertaining Mrs. Goodnow's mother, Mrs. Edward Barr, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who motored to Norwich Thursday from her summer home at Norfolk, Conn. She was accompanied by her other daughter, Mrs. Carl W. Kuehler, from Trieste, Italy, and by Mrs. Carleton Granbery, of Brooklyn and Norfolk, Col. Edward Barr will arrive to spend the Labor Day holiday with his son-in-law and daughter.

No Fractured Skull

Benjamin Pyzo, 19, of 7 White St. who was injured Wednesday night in the automobile accident on North Main street, did not suffer a fractured skull, it was disclosed when X-ray pictures were taken Thursday morning at the Backus hospital. He has a broken left leg and a four inch cut in the back of his head.

Renewals for Veterinarians

Dr. Charles L. Cotton of Hartford, secretary of the board of veterinary registration and examination, is sending out to the veterinarians of the state eligible to practice applications for renewal of license to practice veterinary medicine surgery and dentistry. Some of the Norwich veterinarians received their applications this week.

Wonderful New Face Powder

A new French process powder that is not affected by perspiration—will not let an ugly shine come through; stays on until you take it off; fine and pure; makes the pores invisible; looks like beautiful natural skin; gives a soft velvety complexion. Get this new wonderful beauty powder called Mello-glo.' Porteous & Mitchell Co.

SORETHROAT
Gargle with warm salt water—then apply over throat—
VICKS VAPORUB

1786 1925
Norwich Friday, Sept. 4, 1925

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 6.47 (S. T.) this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sabin Sayles of Bayville are motoring through Canada.

Bruce Ronson of Scotland, has gone to South Manchester to remain during the winter.

The Jewish New Year, which begins September 19th, will be the year 5686 in Hebrew history.

Adjourned meeting of White Cross Council, K. of C. tonight at 8 o'clock. Nomination of officers.—Adv.

Nearly 2600 books from Woodstock library were circulated during the year, many of them in the schools.

The Executive Committee of the Woman's League is to meet at the Central Baptist Church this (Friday) evening.

Bobbed Hair looks wonderful with the tiny tint of Golden Glint Shampoo. —Adv.

Senator Hiram Bingham is to visit the submarine base September 15. He will be shown the various methods of submerging.

The final Thursday half-holiday proved rainy, but in this dry season passed rainy. Out in this dry grass rain was welcomed even by those having the afternoon off.

The coming Sunday is to be communion Sunday for the Children of Mary and Immaculate Conception Sodality of St. Patrick's parish.

Listed among large income tax-payers in Chicago is Mrs. Isabella F. Blackstone, who was Miss Norton, of Norwich, her tax being $29,194.

The Misses Peal and Marshall Peal have returned to New York after two months' vacation in Abington with Mr. and Mrs. Andrews C. Sharpe.

At Scotland, the meeting of Shetucket Grange this (Friday) evening will be "Sisters' Night." Mrs. Susan Willis has charge of the program.

Big bargain in all varieties of fresh fish. boat. Osgood Wharf.—Adv.

One of the finest cement sidewalks on lower Franklin street is that completed along the property to be occupied by the Callahan Oil Company.

Clam chowder dinner, Roy Lathrop's, Fitchville, Saturday, 12 to 6.—Adv.

There are the usual plans for outings during the three-day holiday to cover Labor Day, while there will be the customary number of visitors to town.

Rain which began about 4 o'clock Thursday morning fell steadily until nearly noon, giving parched gardens and lawns the wetting-up which they so badly needed.

Recent residents at theCongregational parsonage at Preston City, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Muttart of Hampton, are on a motor trip to Cape Cod with friends.

Already many Norwich show windows are dressed up with new Fall merchandise, the stocks of apparel and millinery being very full and rich, for this early date.

At New London, this week, Joynt assembly, Catholic Ladies of Columbus, its held regular meeting at Temperance hall, where a large class of candidates was initiated.

Money deposited at Chelsea Savings Bank today and tomorrow will draw interest from Sept. 1st.—adv.

Eastern Connecticut members have been notified that the fifteenth annual council of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa is to be held in New York next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Business increased at Thompson Railroad station to over three times as many freight receipts in August as there were in July. These are influenced by outside business conditions.

A group of Watch Hill women gathered in the ball room of the Ocean House Wednesday morning from 10 o'clock until 13 and made surgical bandages for the new Westerly hospital.

Velvet challies and balbriggan continue the most favored fabrics in garments for children from 2 to 7, according to the United Infants, Children's and Junior Wear League of America.

As the Fall coat and suit season develops it becomes more evident that variety in styles, fabrics and colors is the keynote of the demand, rather than concentration on a few types of garments.

At a meeting of the school board of Hampton, it was voted to open the Howard Valley School. Walter Hoffman is to furnish a bus for the transportation of the high school pupils to Willimantic.

A Thompson correspondent mentions that at the Citizenship School held last Wednesday, at the morning session Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell of Norwich told much of interest about her work for Child Welfare.

Considerable civil business will be transacted at the September term of the Tolland County superior court which will open at Rockville next Tuesday, morning with Judge Isaac Wolfe of New Haven on the beach.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Villiers of Honolulu spent a few days in Old Lyme last week. Mr. Villiers was pastor of Old Lyme Congregational church for several years, about 20 years ago. Mr. Villiers is now an Episcopal rector.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination for Associate Agronomist to fill a vacancy in the Bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture. The salary is $3,000 up to $3,600 a year.

Colored rubber is eing used for some of the popular rickers, but the latest trend is toward fancy figured patterns. Among these are overplaids and floral all-over effects. Rain caps and umbrellas to match may be obtained.

It is noted in Newport society news that Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, (Marie Good Sacket, formerly of The Pequot) who is occupy in gone of the Pinard cottages, gave a luncheon there Wednesday and has cards out for another today (Friday).

Mr. and Mrs. Burdett White of Quonochontaug, R. I. were recent guests in Willington of Mrs. Lincoln White and Mrs. Julia Clark. Mr. White, a brother of the late Lincoln White, left this week for his home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Rose Gilbertson and two children of Bayonne, New Jersey, were recent guests of Mrs. Gilbertson's aunt, Mrs. Henry Lamothe, of South Woodstock. Mrs. Gilbertson was Rose London before her marriage and lived in South Woodstock.

Allen W. H. Sterry of New London and Miss Hull of Storrs called on Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wood at South Coventry early in the week. Mr. Sterry was formerly principal at the Center school South Coventry and the coming year he is the principal of a grammar school in Danielson.

PERSONALS

C. Edwin Douglas of Norwich has been in New York on a business trip this week.

Miss Alice McNally, of Main street, Norwich, is visiting in New York City and Brooklyn.

Miss Rose McWilliams, of Sag Harbor is visiting her cousin Mrs. M. H. Donahune, of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Phillips of Montville are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miner, at Tomaquag, R. I.

Mrs. Nellie Anthony and Mrs. Mary Linell of Scotland were guests early in the week at the home of Mrs. Anna Shephardson, of Moosup.

Mrs. Harold Collings, Mr. Alfred Collings and Mrs. Sarah Darling of Danielson motored to Norwich from Tomaquag, R. I. during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beam of Hartford are spending the week at the Pines, Coventry, while Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haven are on a vaction.

Walter Robitaille of Baltic has just returned from a month's vacation at Groton Long Point where he was the guest of Miss Phyllis Bell and her mother.

Miss Mary T. Good and Miss Julie E. Good of this city and their cousin Miss Catherine Gallivan, of New York city have returned, after several weeks' stay at Block Island.

Rev. Joseph Shields of the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America has returned to Maryknoll, N. Y., after a brief visit with his uncle, Daniel Shields of 85 Cliff street.

Mrs. Sarah E. Woodworth of 156 Laurel Hill avenue is entertaining for a few days, her cousin, Mrs. Eva A. Sims of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been spending several weeks in Norwich.

JUNIOR DAIRY CLUB MEMBERS WILL EXHIBIT

Ten head of dairy calves and yearling heifers grown and owned by New London County Dairy club boys will be shown at the Middlesex County 4-H club fair in Middletown on Friday and Saturday. Seven boys own the stock which is all registered. There are five Jerseys, three Ayrshires and two Holsteins. This is to connete with stock from Fairfield, New Haven and Middlesex counties. The Middlesex 4-H Fair is an exhibition only for boys and girls under 21 who are doing junior club work in this state.

The boys from New London county along with boys from other counties will show their stock at the Connecticut State fair at Hartford beginning next Monday. From there the New London county contingent will exhibit at the New London county fair in Norwich. The boys exhibiting are:

Arnold Manning, North Franklin; Charles Grant, Taftville; George Woods, Waterford; Everett Wade, Baltic; Sylvester Wade, Baltic; Austin Lathrop, Uncasville; Tryon Lathrop, Uncasville.

The county judging team which will compete with other county teams at the state fair is made up of these boys with the addition of Charles Dimmock of Waterford. The stock going to the Middlesex fair is being transported free to the boys. It is through the generosity and interest in junior dairy work of the Tantic Grain company that the boys are obtaining free transportation for their animals.

POLISH CLUB BUILDING BURNED AT JEWETT CITY

(Special to the Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Sept. 4.—The Polish corporation club on Railroad avenue was completely gutted at a spectacular fire which was discovered at 1 o'clock this morning. Chief Wakely and his men handled a bad proposition in a bad position and saved all surrounding buildings, handling the situation with great skill The streams were got on three hydrants in record time laying one thousand feet of hose. When the fire was discovered the building was a roaring inferno so the cause is unknown. The estimated loss is about $3,000.

The building 30x40, was entirely used for a club by the Polish population of the borough. More than a thousand people were at the scene of the fire.

WEDDING
Costa-Souza

At St. Mary's church, Stonington, Thursday morning when Miss Rose Souza, daughter of Joseph Souza, was united in marriage with Joseph A. Costa, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Costa. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James E. O'Brien, pastor of the church. Nuptial high mass was celebrated.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Manuel August as matron of honor and the best man was Manuel August. The bride wore white satin trimmed with pearl beads, wore a veil with orange flowers and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore tan crepe de chine with hat to match and carried yellow roses. Special music was given by Mrs. John H. Murphy, organist. Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom in Omega street. Mr. and Mrs. Costa left on the afternoon express for New York and on their return will make their home at No. 8 Harmony street, Stonington. The bride received many gifts. Guests were present from Boston, Providence and New Bedford.

Mr. Costa is a veteran of the World war and served overseas. He is employed at the plant of the Atwood Machine Co. Mrs. Costa is well known, having attended the Stonington schools.

FUNERAL
Robert Beckley Otis

The funeral of Robert Beckley Otis, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otis, was held Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his parents' home, 323 West Main Street. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends and there were numerous and beautiful floral tributes. The service was conducted by Rev. David A. Pitt, pastor of the Central Baptist church, of which Robert was a member. Rev. Dr. Pitt was assisted by Rev E. C. Dunbar, pastor of the First Baptist church, and remarks were made by F. A. Stanley, secretary of the State Y. M. C. A. and director of Camp Hazen, the Y. M. C. A. camp at Chester.

The bearers were G. Reginald Ashbey and Benjamin H. Palmer, Jr., cousins, Courtney Pitt, Jared Gallup, of this city, and Menedith Morgan and Joseph Wells, two of the boys from Camp Hazen. Burial took place in the Otis family plot at Yantic cemetery. Relatives and friends were present from Hartford, Providence, Meriden, Westbrook, East Hampton and there were a number of the boys from Camp Hazen in attendance. Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral.

Japanese Destroyers Sold

TOKIO, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The destroyers Oboro and Akebono were auctioned off to Yasutaro Kagawa of Kure at 7,109 yen apiece recently at the Kure naval station. The ships originally cost 200,000 yen each. They are for breaking up, the steel to be used for building purposes. The warship Suma and the destroyers Nowake, Matsukaze, Shirayuki and Arare are to be put up for auction at the Sasebo Naval Station shortly. Ensigns and coats-of-arms will be removed and placed in the naval museum to be created on the warship Mikasa.

CORONER FINDS AUTO DRIVER BLAMELESS IN FATAL ACCIDENT

James J. Murphy of Bozrah is declared in a finding by Coroner J. J. Desmond to be without criminal liability for causing the death of four year old Ralph Stark of Putnam, when the child was struck by the automobile driven by Murphy late on the afternoon of June 3, 1925, on the Norwich-Colchester road in Fitchville.

Coroner's Finding

The following is the finding by Coroner:

I, the undersigned, J. J. Desmond, Coroner for New London County, Connecticut, having notice of the death of Ralph Stark, a white male 4 years old, late of the town of Putnam, Connecticut, who came to a violent death on the 3rd of June, 1925, and having made immediate inquiry concerning his death, hereby certify:

That said Ralph Stark died in the town of Norwich, in said county of New London, on the third day of June, 1925, from injuries sustained by him when he was struck by an automobile operated by James J. Murphy, of the town of Bozrah, in said county of New London.

On June 1st, 1925, about 5 o'clock p. m. said Ralph Stark was with his grandmother, Mrs. Jane L. Barber, of said town of Bozrah, in the garden of the Nelson Stark farm at Fitchville in said town of Bozrah, where Mrs. Barber was residing; the child's home was in said town of Putnam, and he was visiting with his said grandmother. The garden is on the southerly side of the Norwich-Colchester turnpike, and directly across the road from the dwelling house of said farm; the child went from the house to the garden with his grandmother, but soon left her to look at some sheep that a neighbor was driving into a barn on the farm; Mrs. Barber told Ralph to wait for her at the barn yard gate, which was on the same side of the road on which were the garden and said barn yard, and he left her, saying he would wait for her at the barn yard gate; but instead of waiting at this gate, he crossed the road to the house, and a little while later he started to recross the road to his grandmother, running as fast as he could, and darted suddenly in front of said automobile and was struck by its forward bumper, and thereby fatally injured. Mr. Murphy stopped his car immediately and aided in every way possible to care for the boy, who was carried to the Wm. W. Backus hospital in said town of Norwich, where he died from his said injuries on June 3rd, 1925.

There was shrubbery on the northerly side of the road, in front of the house, which would conceal the child from the view of Murphy as he was driving eastwardly on the road and before he reached a point directly in front of the house. Mrs. Barber was watching Ralph as he ran across the road, but she did not observe the approach of the automobile as a building on her left on the southerly side of the road obstructed her vision in that direction, until the moment it struck the child. The evidence in this case renders it manifest that this unfortunate accident was due entirely to the sudden darting out of little Ralph from behind the shrubbery, and directly in the path of the approaching automobile. Murphy was an experienced operator, and his car was in good condition, and running at a moderate rate at the time of the accident; and the testimony of the boy's grandmother, Mrs. Barber, as well as that of other credible witnesses, indicates that said Murphy was wholly free from any want of care in any way contributing to cause the accident.

I am satisfied and find that the death of said Ralph Stark was not caused by the criminal act, omission or negligence of any other person or persons.

IS FINED $50 ON RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGE

Found guilty of reckless driving Edward L. Popham of No. 306 Laurel Hill avenue was fined $50 and costs by Judge Arthur F. Libby at the city court session Thursday morning. Popham was the driver of the touring car which struck Benjamin Pyzo of No. 7 White street and James E. Carey of No. 235 North Main street, putting Pyzo in the hospital with a broken leg and a gash on his head, and injuring Carey's leg. The accident happened on North Main street about 9 o'clock Wednesday evening when Popham's machine struck another machine, owned by Thomas Dinglivan which had become disabled and which was on the extreme right of the street. The men were preparing to tow another machine with Dinglivan's and were about to tie the tow rope on it when Popham ran into them.

Mr Carey, Mr. Dinglivan and Or Sergeant Mathew Delaney testified against Popham. Popham stated that he didn't see any lights and did not see the machine until he was almost on top of it. He claimed he couldn't avoid the crash. William J. Zanche, No. 57 Sunset avenue, whose machine Popham was driving, said he did not see any lights and did not see Dingivan's machine until they got to about 10 feet from it.

Prosecuting Attorney Lee Roy Robbins said that in his opinion the Popham machine was traveling at about 40 miles an hour. Popham was found guilty and fined $50 and costs.

Joseph Rajkowski, 14, charged with breach of the peace and intoxication, failed to put in an appearance when his case was called and the $35 bond in his case was called.

Rajkowski appeared in the court room about 9 o'clock and said he wanted a lawyer. He went out to get one but couldn't secure one he said, on his return to the court room. The lawyer went out again and failed to return. Court was prolonged considerable but as the man didn't appear the case was called.

SNAPPY BOXING BOUTS FOR ELKS' SOCIAL

Three snappy boxing bouts, each of four rounds, made the feature attractions Thursday evening at the social session which followed the first business meeting of the fall season by Norwich lodge, No. 430, at the Elks home on Main street. All the boys were willing to mingle and there was action every minute in the ring that was set up in the hall.

Young Agillaro vs. Kid Whitehead led off with four fast rounds and was followed by Young Stanley vs. Young Vit who swapped punches in lively fashion. Young Coulon vs. Young Guyot closed the entertainment with a clever exhibition of fast work.

Jack Wilson was referee, James McCorhuck announcer and Jack Carney, timekeeper.

Coffee and sandwiches were served by the committee which included J. H. Wilson, chairman, James E. McCormick, Nicholas Doyle, F. A. Zelger, Charles McNamara, Louis Gotthelf, Walter Carrigan, Daniel Driscoll and Frank Stager.

ATTENDING CONVENTION OF LETTER CARRIERS

Letter Carrier Albert A. Guile of Kinney avenue, leaves this (Friday) morning at seven o'clock, for Detroit, Michigan, to be absent a week, during which he will attend the National Convention of Letter Carriers. While there, Mr. Guile expects to call on a former Norwich resident, Ernest Iocotson, who at present is organist and choir-master of The Church of the Messiah, Detroit. Mr. Guile will also call on other friends.

Enumerating School Children

Registrars of Voters Tyler D. Coy and Cornelius J. Downes have been assigned by the town school committee to make the annual count of the children in the town between the ages of 4 and 16 years. This means that if the children of a family are 4 years old or over their names should be given to the enumerators when they call at the homes, which they are now doing.

When the children arrive at the age of 16, they do not count in this canvass.

For Driving Under the Inuence

Andrew Klem of Montville will be in the city court this (Friday) morning to answer to the charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested Thursday afternoon at Washington square by Traffic Officer Luke Riley who noticed the man had parked his car on the West Side bridge. As the officer walked towards the machine, Klem started it up and when the policeman stopped him to tell him that he was breaking the law in parking on a bridge, the arrest followed because of the man's condition as observed by the policeman.

School Buildings Are Ready

All the school buildings of the town have been put into good condition and are ready for the opening day of the fall term, which will be next Tuesday, Sept. 8.

E. C. P. FORCES IN FIELD DAY AT ASHLAND

(Special to the Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Sept. 3.—Three hundred and fifty of the Eastern Connecticut Light and Power company, in spite of adverse weather conditions, had a grand outing today and field day at Ashland Park. The number present included all those who could be spared from duty, with representations from Danielson, Putnam, Norwich, Plainfield, New London, Niantic, Scotland dam, and Montville. They were accompanied by their families and friends.

At noon a grand chowder, a la Ashland, with fancy pickles on the side, aided the company to grand good humor, despite the attempts of the weather adjuster to put the affair out of joint.

P. W. Chase, with the experienced aid of Mrs. Chase and other assistants including Mr. Shorey, gave a practical demonstration, including first aid to the drowning, including the latest skilled methods of resuscitating a drowned person. This exhibition was carried out in accordance with the unanimous request of the many guests.

Running races proved of interest, and much pleasure was given by the fancy diving exhibition given from the big float by Miss Mildred Mondeau, Roland Guillett, Louis Sezal, Theodore Raill, and the young brick diver, Master Eugene Shorey, 9 years old.

The morning ball game for the Robert W. Perkins cup, which was between the Danielson & Plainfield Gas and Electric Light team, had to be called off at the end of four innings because of rain, with Putnam leading at the time by the score of 3 to 1. The game will be played off later.

A twilight game, the A. A. vs. a team of skilled players selected from among the visitors, resulted in a tie, 1 to 1 in six innings.

The tug-of war for the championship between the champion Danielson team and Putnam challengers, was full of excitement. The first pull was a dead head and another pull was ordered. The husky teams bent their backs and strained their muscles over the rope again with the result that Putnam won by two inches and took the championship from Danielson.

A salad supper was served, included cold sliced ham, corned beef and ox tongue with Parker House rolls and butter, pickles, coffee, ice cream and assorted home baked cake. Dancing at the Casino till 11 o'clock closed the thoroughly enjoyable field day.

A unanimous vote said, "Good time and more of it, with honors to Hal Chase, the welfare superintendent and L. M. Carpenter, the agent of the Ashland Cotton Co."

ANOTHER BACHELOR PAYS THE PENALTY

At the home of his parents, Thursday evening, Roger L. Worthington, efficient druggist of the Lerou pharmacy, gave a very appetizing dinner to twenty members of the Bachelors Club and invited guests. To say that everyone enjoyed Mr. Worthingtons hospitality would be putting it mildly and can only be appreciated by those who catered to that hungry body of men, who certainly did justice to the vitals.

Mr. Worthington, who is to be married Saturday to Miss Edna Lerou, daughter of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Herbert M. Lerou, is the second member to step from the ranks of the bachelor club during its short existence, and he surely paid his penalty nobly.

Following the dinner Kenneth Fox gave a most appropriate speech during which he emphasized the esteem and friendship of the several members present. On behalf of the Club Mr. worthington was then presented a substantial purse of money. The remainder of the evening was given over to various manners of entertainment and at a late hour the guests departed, all wishing the host success and happiness in his new experiences.

Among these present were, Kenneth Fox, Robert A. Gray, James D. Jones, Howard J. Randall, Joseph Osterby, Virgil Wilson, Joseph Olson, Frank Loomis, Andrew Boyens, Robert Woodsmansee, Eugene Bowe, Leroy Spinard-Tyler Gilbert William Kendall, Albert Friswell, Harold House, Merton Swan William Tanner and James Coleman.

RETURNS FROM CONVENTION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES

Walter F. Lester, secretary of the New London county mutual fire insurance company, has returned from a trip to the Pacific coast where he attended the annual meeting of the national association of mutual insurance companies which was held at Seattle during the first week of August. He was accompanied by his wife.

The entire trip consumed five weeks, going out by the Canadian Pacific route and returning by the southern route. At Portland, Oregon and at Los Angeles, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Lester visited with relatives of Mrs. Lester.

OBITUARY
Raymond J. Jodoin

Following a long period of poor health, Raymond J. Jodoin, widely known traveling salesmen and a prominent politician in the town of Sprague, died Thursday morning at his home in Baltic. His condition which had been alarming since early summer, took a serious turn about two weeks ago and his death had been expected almost momentarily since that time.

Mr. Jodoin was born in St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, Sept. 15, 1865, one of a family of eleven children. The father was a factory operative and young Raymond was but seven weeks old when the family came from their Canadian home to Baltic, where Mr. Jodoin, Sr., found work in the mills. At the age of nine Mr. Jodoin began work in the mills, a day's labor at that time being from six o'clock in the morning until 7.30 in the evening. His wages of $3 a week went to support the family.

Practically no educational advantages were his and whatever he attained in that line represented a vast amount of close study and application. As the years passed on the other children in the family were able to add their wages to the general fund and in time Mr. Jodoin was able to give a part of his wages. These he husbanded carefully, finally having enough to purchase a small livery stock and for several years he conducted a very successful business in that line at Baltic.

RAYMON J. JODOIN

This business did not prove congenial to his tastes and he determined to find some opening in the mercantile line. Going to Providence in April, 1888 he made application for a position in the wholesale grocery house of Waldron, Wightman and Co. He had no influential friends to assist him in his endeavors to secure a position but his earnestness impressed the head of the firm, who hired him at Mr. Jodoin's own terms, "pay me what I earn."

Lack of education proved a serious handicap, but he carefully concealed his deficiency from employers and customers alike, and he spent his spare moments in efforts to improve himself. He made rapid progress and was soon able to meet his duties with greater confidence in himself. He built up a greatly increased trade for his firm on a route that an experienced salesmen had been covering for years, his genial manners winning him friends wherever he went.

His salary was frequently increased and he remained with the firm for 10 years. When he left them it was to accept a similar position with Daniels & Cornell, later Humphreys & Cornell, wholesale grocers of Providence, with whom he remained for years, his territory covering eastern Connecticut, southern Massachusetts and Western Rhode Island. Mr. Jodoin was very popular and his social position won him a large acquaintance. His customers knew him to be entirely reliable and had the utmost confidence in his representations.

Mr. Jodoin was very much attached to his home village, Baltic, and some years ago when he began to invest his savings in real estate there, he met caustic prophecies of financial loss from all his friends, but his judgment has since been justified by the increase in the value of his investments. He was one of the heaviest individual owners of real estate in Baltic and was always ready to back any movement that promised to be of advantage to the town.

Throughout Baltic are seen many evidences of his public spirit. Kindly and charitable he was ever ready to aid those less fortunate than himself. As a public spirited citizen Mr. Jodoin occupied a foremost position in the town. In 1898 he built the Roderick block in Baltic, so named for his son. His modern residence was erected in 1898 and in front of it was laid the first sidewalk in the village. Mr. Jodoin built a cottage at Pleasure Beach where with his family he used to spend the summer season.

Politically Mr. Jodoin was a staunch democrat and a party leader in his town. In 1899 and 1900 he served as chairman of the board of selectmen. In 1903 he was again elected, at that time defeating his republican opponent by 116 votes, the largest majority ever given in the history of the town. Mr. Jodoin handled the town business with the same care which he exercised in the conduct of his own private affairs.

In 1909 Mr. Jodoin represented his town in the state legislature. In the legislature he was instrumental in securing the passage of an act allowing motormen to sit while driving their cars and compelling the trolley companies to provide suitable seats for them. Several years ago he ran for election to congress from the second district, but lost to his republican opponent by a very close vote.

Fraternally Mr. Jodoin was a member of Norwich Lodge, No. 430, B. P. O. E.

Mr. Jodoin married Azilda Bourque, a native of Baltic, and a daughter of Julian Bourque. They adopted two children, Antonia and Roderick. Mr Jodoin leaves his wife, his two adopted children, three brothers, Joseph Jodoin of Taftville, Charles Jodoin of Greenwich and Desire Jodoin of Montreal and one sister, Mrs. Louis Moute of Canada.

Mrs. Warren Curtis.

Following an illness of some duration Mrs. Margaret A. Strain Curtis, widow of Warren Curtis, died Thursday at the home of her son, Joseph W. Curtis, No. 3 Huntington Place. Mrs. Curtis had made her home with her son for 18 years. Mrs. Curtis was born in Wisconsin, June 20, 1859 and was the daughter of Uriah and Mary Mobray Strain. In 1879 she was united in marriage at Sidney, N. Y., with Warren Curtis. They made their home in New York state until about 31 years ago when they came to Norwich. Surviving Mrs. Curtis are two sons, Joseph W., Curtis of this city and Charles Curtis of Minneapolis, one daughter, Miss Anna Curtis of this city and a granddaughter, Miss Curtis, also of this city.

Mrs. Andrew S. Allis.

The death of Mrs. Laura M. Allis, 91, widow of Andrew S. Allis, occurred Wednesday at Randolph, Vt. at the home of her son Herbert H. Allis. Mrs. Allis observed her 91st birthday in January at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Audobon L. Hamlin, of Amherst, Mass., where she also spent the greater part of the winter months, residing for the rest of the year with her son in Randolph, Vt. She traveled from Vermont to Amherst alone last fall.

Mrs. Allis was born at Brookfield, Vt., January 20, 1834, and was married to Andrew S. Allis in 1854, and lived on the ancestral farm of her husband until his death. Since then she had made her home with her two children in Vermont and Massachusetts. She had also frequently visited her other son, Attorney Wales S. Allis of this city. Besides these three children she is survived by five grandchildren.

Rays of Light BY C. A. SPEAR

WOULD YOU SEND HIM TO SCHOOL BLINDFOLDED?

He cannot progress in his studies unless his vision is perfect. We specialize in the examination of children's eyes. Nominal charge for perfect optometric service.

C. A. SPEAR
OPTOMETRIST
Franklin Square Norwich, Conn.

THE CRANSTON CO.
25 Broadway, Norwich.

LABOR DAY

With Labor Day comes a priceless opportunity to get out in the open and take pictures. People, animals, birds, landscape, all are fit subjects for the KODAK. Don't allow yourself to be caught without films, but stock up today from our complete stock.

Books, Stationery, Office Supplies, and Gift Merchandise—a complete stock in all of these lines.

BANKERS TRUST CO.
NORWICH, CONN.

The Board of Directors has declared a Dividend of $1.25 per share, on the capital stock of this Corporation payable October 1, 1925, to stockholders of record September 15, 1925.

JOHN R. TARRANT,
Treasurer.

LITURGICAL MUSIC BY NEW LONDON CHILDREN

An interested group listened to a recital of liturgical music given Wednesday evening by two children choirs St. Mary's, St. Joseph's and Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishes, New London, at the Diocesan Bureau headquarters, Jay street.

Perhaps the most effective of the children's selections was Agnus Dei, involving the singing of a melody by a cantor, the response from a chorus and finally the ensemble of voices.

Guests invited to attend the demonstration included Mrs. Edward D. White of the Pequot, wife of the late Chief Justice White, and her guests Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer of Washington D. C., Rear Admiral and Mrs. C. A. Carr, Mrs. Thomas F. Foran, Mrs. Thomas Durivan, Rose Cook, Mary Dunham, Frances Shea, Mrs. Benjamin Boylan, Margaret and Mary Boylan, Mrs. Peter Eshenfelder and Mary Eshenfelder, Mrs. Jane E. Cassidy, Miss Patrica Cassidy.

NORWICH HAD 19 AUTO ACCIDENTS IN A WEEK

HARTFORD, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—There were six fatal accidents among the 328 reported from fourteen cities to the state motor vehicle department during the period from August 24 to 29. Two fatal accidnets werer reported from Bridgeport and New London also reported two, while Hartford and New Britain each had one. The total number of accidents in the state during the period was 465.

The numbers reported from 41 cities were as follows: Hartford, 56; Bridgeport, 33; New Haven, 33; Danbury, 9; Greenwich, 8; Meriden, 7; Middletown, 3; New Britain, 25; New London, 10; Norwalk, 8; Norwich, 10; Stamford, 17, Waterbury, 16, and Winsted 2.

Whole World Contributes to Medicine

Ginger from India—Iodine from China—Olive Oil from Italy—Epsom Salts from England—Menthol from Japan and roots and herbs from almost every country in the world contribute their share toward alleviating the ills of the race. No other medicine, however, compounded from roots and herbs has ever attained such a marvelous record for success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For over fifty years it has been overcoming some of the most stubborn ailments of womanhood, and is constantly growing in popularity and favor.

Cuticura Loveliness A Clear Healthy Skin
Insured by Every-day Use of Cuticura Soap

REMARKABLE GOLF RECORD OF GUNN THURSDAY'S SENSATION AT OAKMONT

OAKMONT, Pa., Sept. 3—(By the Associated Press)—The blood of two great soldiers of the links was spilled today on the greens of Oakmont on the Allegheny and from the battle there arose a new enemy, determined to bring about a new era in the realm of American amateur golf.

Today Robert T. Jones Jr., of Atlanta, is king but he is beset on all sides and his greatest fear is that his bosom friend, a fellow townsman, will be the one to dethrone him if he is to be carried down. For Watts Gunn, a lad of 13, has proved the sensation with an under par consistency that has seldom, if ever, been equalled on the links of America.

George von Elm of Los Angeles conquered Boston's giant veteran, Jesse Guilford, after a titanic struggle, yet the thrill of such a conquest and the enthusiasm over the fact that Bobby Jones and von Elm, the finalists of last year at Merion, will clash again tomorrow are tempered with an almost pathetic feeling for the loss that has come to Jess Sweetser, the former Yale star, who captured the amateur in 1923.

Sweetser went down today before the severest onslaught he ever has been called upon to withstand. He was the victim of Young Gunn, who drove under par for twenty seven holes and ended the fray at the 35th with a ten hole advantage, after Jess, all confidence gone, had missed a putt of a mere three feet. Although he smiled and seized the hands of the victor as only a good loser can, he was broken in spirit as he pushed his way through a throng of sympathetic watchers to his rooms in the clubhouse and out of the tournament of 1925.

The Joneses, Bobby and Dick, carried on in certain manner, the champion through the best efforts of Clarence Wolff of Sappington, Mo., trans-Mississippi, by six and five, and the latter through good but somewhat erratic golf on the part of Lauren Upton of Sacramento, 2 and 1, dropping an eagle two from a trap at the 17th green to win. 2 and 1. Guilford bowed to von Elm, 2 and 1, after leading the Californian at the end of twenty-seven holes, one up.

While Bobby Jones is playing von Elm in the lower bracket tomorrow, Dick Jones will be facing the latest Atlanta whirlwind, Gunn, and his playing will have to be even better than it has been in this tournament if Little Watts continues his sparkling golf.

Against Sweetser today Gunn never was headed after the fifth hole. Only four times in 42 holes has he been over par and two of these misplays came in his first nine and together, a five at the third and a six at the fourth. Sweetser was in the rough on the third and took a six to give his opponent the hole, but the New York man captured the next. Then Gunn resumed his stride. He had a birdie three at the fifth, when he dropped a long putt. He pared the sixth to half and the seventh went the same way.

At the eighth, 253 yards, Gunn proved that, like his famous townsman, Jones, he was at home in the sand, and came out of a trap to the left to within two feet of the cup while Sweetser took three putts, missing a three foot tap. On the ninth Gunn made his advantage three when Sweetser was far over the green from a trap after slicing with his brassie.

Putting came to the Atlantan's aid, if he needed any, on the home coming round. After halving the tenth, he dropped an eleven foot putt for a victory at the eleventh, and shot a birdie on the long twelfth while Sweetser's clubs kept sand flying through the air. Gunn went into the pits at the thirteenth, but again he chipped expertly and was six feet from the pin, to go down for a half. On the fourteenth Sweetser won when his adversary was trapped twice.

Here came a run of threes for Gunn that called forth rousing cheers from the large gallery, although it must be admitted that luck was concerned in his birdie at the fifteenth, Sweetser, however, was responsible for the situation, when he stymied himself by overrunning the cup. He attempted to negotiate the hole with a niblick, but his ball hit Gunn's and the Atlanta boy's rolled in.

One putt was enough for Gunn on the sixteenth and a 15 footer gave him another hole at the seventeenth. The eighteenth was halved, leaving Gunn seven ahead for the round. Nine holes proved enough in the afternoon, for Sweetser failed to win one of them while three went to the youngster. Jess offered stern opposition at the start with two halved holes but fell before trouble at the twenty-first and required a six, placing Gunn eight ahead. On the twenty-second Gunn was trapped to the left but made what has come to be the usual recovery from the sand, and gained another half.

He added another hole at the twenty fourth by coming out of a trap to the pin end. Jess satisfied with halves the rest of the way.

Gunn's record for 42 straight holes since he started his remarkable advance at the twelve against Vincent Bradford of Patterson Heights, Pa., yesterday, follows:

Par 534 434 454 436 343 544 543 435 445
544 344 544 543 435—168.
Gunn 534 433 444 454 343 545 533 434
435 453 334 544 543 43—163.

It shows that he has gone over par by one stroke on four holes, has made nine birdies and has scared 29 pars.

The real test in the Von Elm-Guilford match came in the final nine. Guilford led the blonde coast star, one up at the last turn and was shooting in his old style, steady and long with his flashing driver, accurate with the irons, and clever with his putter. But at the 29th hole his second shot hooked and he was in a deep trap at the left of the green. Von Elm was off the smooth surface with his second, but the lie was good and his pitch was a foot and a half from the hole.

Guilford failed to come out well, and the match was squared.

Although he drove long on the thirtieth, Guilford found his ball in a depression and had to use an iron over the traps. The shot hit the top of a bunker and rolled into the rough, yet the Bostonian should have had a half on the long hole with a perfect pitch. Von Elm, reaching the green in three, was several feet away and his putt set Guilford a dead stymie, which he failed to make with a niblick.

Now one down, Guilford appeared to fall to pieces. While the Californian parred the short thirty-first Jess overshot and was behind the bank at the green. His first out failed and a second missed the hole by an inch. He was two down.

He went three down at the 32nd with only four holes to go by missing a ten-foot putt after being badly trapped on the drive and coming out short.

With a last desperate effort Guilford halved the thirty-third and gained the thirty-fourth by a par three but on the next hole the match ended as Von Elm shot par for a half.

Dick Jones, the man who eliminated the medalist, Roland Mackenzie yesterday, had a struggle on his hands with Upson today, never more than two holes separating the players.

E. C. P. TEAM FIGHTS ASHLAND TO TIE GAME

The fast travelling Ashland baseball team met a Tartar Thursday afternoon when they ran up against the Eastern Conn. Power Co., ball tossers at Ashland park during the exhibition game at the Power company field day.

Forcing the regulars to go the limit the team from the Norwich twilight league brought the crowd to their feet cheering as they held the Jewett City men to a tie score of 1 to 1.

The game was a pitchers battle between Dixon for the powermen and Stanley for the Ashlanders and was made even more brilliant by the wonderful field work of Gillett of Jewett City, in left field. In the third he made a beautiful catch of Ed Harris' long drive robbing the batter of a sure four bagger and in the fifth he nailed W. Hull's long fly that had three bases written all over it when it left the infield.

The game was one of the best seen at Jewett City this year and it was with regret that time was called at the end of the sixth owing to darkness, for the crowd would have liked to see the game go the limit.

Dixon allowed but 4 safe blows in six innings and fanned 7 Ashland men while Stanley was nicked for 8 hits and fanned 3 Powermen. The first score came in the second and favored Ashland and the tying run was made by the Norwich team in the fourth.

The lineups were as follows: Eastern Connecticut Power Co., Harold Hull, lf; "Bill" Ringland, ss; Clabby, cf, Ed Harris 1b, Joe Hull 2b, Sinacx 3b, Dixon p, Bill Hull rf, Ashland, Gillette rf, Hallie cf, S. Liberty 2b, N. Liberty 3b, W. Liberty c, Benjamin ss, Gilbert lf, Robertson 1b, Stanley p.

Score by innings:

E. C. P. ..... 0 0 0 1 0 0—1
Ashland ..... 0 1 0 0 0 0—1

ROCH SETS FAST PACE IN FREE-FOR-ALL PACE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 3—Pacing the fastest three heats in any race of the grand circuit this season, Sir Roch, bay gelding entered in the classic free-for-all pace by George Loomis, agent, St. Paul, and driven by him today, won in best time of 2.00 1-4. The stake was $2,000.

Hollycrod Leonard, bay gelding driven by Tom Murphy, won the 2.06 class trot event.

Etta Druin, a bay mare won the 2.03 class trot in straight heats. The summaries:

2:06 class trot, pure $2,000, mile heats:
Hollycrod Leonard, bg, by
Chester Peter (Murphy) 1 1 1
Voltege, br g (Childs) 2 3 2
Hollycrod Frisco, blk g (Crozier) 3 2 3
Ethelinda, Favonia, Clyde the Great, and Barksdale also started.
Time 2:05; 2:03 1-4; 2:00 1-4.

Free-for-all pace, purse $2,000, mile heats:
Sir Roch, bg. by St. Roch. (Loomis) 1 1 1
Margaret Dillon, b m (Cox) .. 2 2 2
Hal Mahone, b g (Childs) ... 4 3 3
Sparkle, Bessie McKylo, also started.
Time 2:01; 2:01; 2:00 1-4.

2.03 class trot, purse $1,00, mile heats
Etta Druien, b m, by Etawan (Murphy) 1 1 1
Pearl Benbo, b m, (Denyon) 2 2 4
Fayette National, br g, (McKay) 3 3 2
Cupid's Albingen also started.
Time 2:06 1-4; 2:04 1-2; 2:05 1-2.

2:17 class pace, purse $1,00 1-3 mile heats:
Norman Grattan, b g, by Grattan Royal (Palin) 1 1
Reppert B, ch g, (Crozier 2 2
Caruso, blk g, (Marvin) 3 5
Tarzan Grattan, Zonite, Sadie F. also started. (Only two heats).
Time 1:45 1-2; 1:45 1-2.

SENATORS AND PIRATES LOOK LIKE SURE WINNERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Two straight victories for Washington over Philadelphia seem to make it certain that Washington and Pittsburgh will play in the world series.

The Senators are snugly lodged at the pinnacle of the American league by a margin of five and one half games and the Athletics have lost eight straight.

The veteran spitballer, Stanley Coveleskie, started fro the Senators who won 8 to 5, the Athletics started to pound Covey in the seventh and eighth innings and forced him to retire in favor of Zachary in the last frame.

The Mackmen will have a recess for the next two days and on Saturday they are due at the Yankee stadium.

While Babe Ruth continued to wear sack cloth the Yankees turned out a 4 to 3 victory over the Red Sox. Bob Meusel contributed his 27th home run of the year with one on. It is likely that Ruth will be in the lineup on Saturday, but his $5,000 fine stands.

The Giants came to life after dropping the first game of a double header to the Phillies 6 to 3 and romped away with the concluding number by 24 to 9. In the second game there were five Philadelphia pitchers and 30 safe blows by the Giants, including three home runs. The Phillies also hung up three homers.

The Braves tightened the'r grasp on sixth place by coming out on the long end of a 4 to 2 score with the Robins.

Pittsburgh is making the National league race a runaway affair. The Pirates chalked up their eighth victory in a row by trimming the Reds 4 to 2 and now lead the pack by eight and one half games.

PIRATES INCREASE LEAD TO NINE FULL GAMES

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Pittsburgh's already adequate lead in the National League pennant chase was increased to nine full games today at the expense of St. Louis. While the Pirates were trimming the Cardinals, five to two, the New York Giants were idle, and Pittsburgh gained a half game.

The standing tonight:

	W.	L.	Pct
Pittsburgh	80	46	.635
New York	74	53	.561

Washington and Philadelphia rested today from their two game series. The Senators have a five and a half game lead.

	W.	L.	Pct
Washington	81	45	.643
Philadelphia	74	49	.602

WILLS-TUNNEY BOUT MAY BE ARRANGED

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Harry Wills, heavyweight negro challenger, and Mrs. Wills are due in New York tomorrow on the Aquitania from a tour of Europe. The boxer's manager, Paddy Mullins, expects to take up with Wills immediately offers to fight Gene Tunney here this fall in addition to the prospect of a match next year for the championship with Jack Dempsey.

Today's Calendar of Sports

RACING
Meeting of Westchester Racing Association, at Belmont Park.
Meeting of Connaught Park Jockey Club, at Ottawa.
Meeting of Business Men's Racing Association, at Chicago.

TROTTING
Meeting of Grand Circuit at Milwaukee.

GOLF
National amateur championship tournament, at Pittsburgh.
Virginia open championship tournament opens at Roanoke.
Michigan Seniors' championship tournament closes at Lansing.

TENNIS
Davis Cup interzone finals start at Forest Hills, L. I.
Berkshire County championship tournament, at Pittsfield, Mass.
Eastern Connecticut championship tournament, at Norwich.

BOXING
Eddie Brady vs. Jack Hausner, 12 rounds, at Canarsie, L. I.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

Cincinnati 2-4, Chicago 3-0.
St. Louis 2, Pittsburgh 5.
Boston-Brooklyn (unsettled weather double header Saturday).
New York-Philadelphia (postponed).

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	80	46	.635
New York	74	53	.561
Cincinnati	63	60	.531
Brooklyn	61	64	.488
St. Louis	60	69	.456
Boston	58	72	.446
Chicago	57	73	.438
Philadelphia	55	71	.437

GAMES TODAY

Cincinnati at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Boston.
New York at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

Chicago 3, St. Louis 1.
Detroit 11, Cleveland 9.

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	81	45	.643
Philadelphia	74	49	.602
Chicago	69	58	.543
St. Louis	66	60	.524
Detroit	65	60	.520
Cleveland	60	66	.476
New York	52	73	.419
Boston	36	90	.286

GAMES TODAY

Open date.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Rocheater 5, Toronto 2.
Providence 8, Baltimore 5.
(Others postponed).

American Association

Toledo 0, St. Paul 3.
Louisville 7, Kansas City 6.
Columbus 6, Minneapolis 7.
Indianapolis-Milwaukee game scheduled from today, played yesterday.

EASTERN LEAGUE

Waterbury 2; New Haven 3.
Worcester 4; Albany 1.
Hartford-Bridgeport (Rain).

NUGGETS AND SAINTS WILL CLASH TONIGHT

Tonight's game between the fighting Saints and Leo Madden's Nuggets should without a doubt be the most interesting game of the week. Both of these teams although tailenders are playing great ball of late and are now battling to keep out of the cellar. It was Oney's Saints that last week put a crimp in the E. C. P.'s pennant aspirations defeating them in a hard game by a two to one score.

Another interesting fact about tonight's game is that both managers, Oney and Madden have mostly Jewett City men in their lineups and this is the first time this season that they will play against each other.

For the Saints either young Stanley who last week held the Power Co. to a few scattered hits or either Rainey or "Spike" Libery will pitch, Benjamin will catch, Liberty will be on first, Manager Oney, himself, on second, Nap Liberty leading hitter of the league will play short, Hoffman will play third and Gilbert, Busch and Koslowski will play the outfield.

Either Lloyd Jarvis or Johnny Greene will pitch for the Nuggets with Bib Liberty behind the bat, Burke on first, Benjamin on second, Guillette at short, Leo Jarvis or Lesserman at third and Jarvis, Fox and Karl will play the outfield.

As the nights are getting shorter starting next week an effort will be made to start the games at 6 or 6:15 p. m. in New London they start their games at 6 p. m. and get in seven full innings and it is hoped that starting next week they will do the same here.

REPENTENT RUTH WILL TURN OVER NEW LEAF

NEW YORK, Sept. 3—Babe Ruth spent the sixth day of his most recent baseball exile today renewing his pledges to "turn over a new leaf" and soliciting the aid of Business Manager Edward Barrow to secure his reinstatement in the Yankee line-up on Saturday, when the New York club opens a two-game series with the Athletics, Barrow declined to aid the penitent outfielder, however, leaving the case still in the hands of Manager Miller Huggins.

Ruth even volunteered greater service than he has been called upon to render in the role of champion home run hitter in the past. Declaring that his arm was as good as ever and that he hadn't been given enough work as an outfielder to keep him in the best of condition, Ruth announced he would ask Manager Miller Huggins tomorrow to use him every fifth day on the pitching mound. It was as a pitcher that Ruth first came into major league prominence with the Boston Red Sox.

Although Huggins has informed Ruth that he would call him by telephone tomorrow to discuss the terms upon which his apology for criticising the Yankee manager will be accepted, he would give no indication today as to when he intends to lift the big slugger's indefinite suspension.

TAFTVILLE A. A. BOOKS TWO GAMES FOR WEEK END

The attraction at Taftville Labor Day morning at 10:30 will be the Pioneers of Groton to play the final game of the series, each team having won one game. This game will be a hummer as the Pioneer's have strengthened up to knock Taftville A. A. out of running order. Lloyd Jarvis is picked to oppose these Whale Town boys as he twirled Taftville to a victory over them before. On account of Field Day Saturday there will be no game. On Sunday Taftville A. A. goes to Jewett City to oppose their old rivals, Ashland, starting off a 2 out of 3 series. These two teams show this season they are as fast as any semi-pro teams in this section and the fans who witness the game can say the same.

JIMMY SLATTERY SELECTED TO MEET PAUL BERLENBACH IN TITULAR MATCH

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Jimmy Slattery will get his long-awaited shot at a world's championship, Tex Rickard, today signed the Buffalo Adonis to a 15-round title match with Paul Berlenbach, world's light heavyweight champion, at the Yankee stadium, Friday, September 11.

Slattery will substitute for Mike McTigue, former champion in that class who withdrew from the match today owing to an attack of blood poisoning contracted while training at his Saratoga Springs, N. Y., camp.

McTigue suffered an infection in his right arm during his ring work and was removed to the Saratoga Springs General Hospital this morning. He notified Rickard that he would be unable to fulfill the contract to meet Berlenbach as he would be confined in the hospital for the next week although his condition is not regarded as serious.

The Buffalo boy had originally been signed up to meet Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia in the semi-final match on the same card, but Rickard announced today that he would sign someone else for the Loughran match to enable Slattery to get his chance at Berlenbach's title.

This is the second substitution in the proposed title match. Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., was originally scheduled to meet Berlenbach but illness caused his withdrawal and McTigue was signed in his stead.

Slattery will appear in his first 15 round match in this state when he steps into the ring with Berlenbach.

Heretofore he has been confined to six round exhibitions owing to the fact that he had not reached his majority but August 21 marked the start of his 21st year and therefore makes him eligible to 15 round matches under the Walker law.

FINE LABOR DAY CARD SCHEDULED AT WESTERLY

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Sept. 3. — A number of fast bouts are on the card for the Labor Day bout at Open Air Arena and Manager Joseph T. Grilla has planned to make the attraction the best ever given.

Two star ten round bouts are scheduled, the first between Sheik Leonard of Wallingford and Willie Ferguson of Newark, N. J. Leonard has given a fine account of himself, recently winning over Jack McVey at Providence. A win over Ferguson will mean a bout with Jack Malone in Waterbury later this month. Ferguson has fought two draws with the Sheik and is the only man who has floored him, putting Leonard to the mat for a count of nine, three times during their match at New Haven.

The second feature will be a go between Johnny Saxton of Bridgeport and Pinkie Burns of New London while the others on the card are Young Coulon, Norwich vs Young Dutchie of Providence, 8 rounds; Young Reta of Westerly vs Johnny Pilkington, 6 rounds; Kid De Bartlo vs Chief Stanton, 4 rounds.

PIRATES RUN VICTORIES TO NINE STRAIGHT GAMES

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 3—(A. P.)—By defeating St. Louis 5 to 2 today the Pirates ran their string of consecutive victories to nine. The leaders have won 15 of the last 18 games played. Sherdel was bombarded in the first and second innings when the Pirates scored three runs. A double, a pass and two singles gave the Cardinals two in the sixth. With this exception Kremer kept the hits scattered. Scores:

St. Louis (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Pittsburgh (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Blades,lf	4	2	2	0	0	Moore,rf	4	1	1	0	0
Mueller,cf	2	0	3	0	0	Rawlings,2b	4	1	2	2	0
Bottomley,2b	3	0	2	2	0	Cuyler,rf	4	2	1	0	0
Wheatley,1b	4	2	6	0	0	Barnhart,lf	4	1	1	0	0
Wafer,rf	4	0	2	0	0	Traynor,3b	4	1	1	2	0
Bell,3b	4	1	3	3	1	Wright,ss	4	0	1	1	0
O'Farrell,c	4	2	2	0	0	McInnis,1b	3	1	7	0	0
Thevenow,ss	4	1	1	1	0	Smith,c	3	1	6	0	0
Sherdell,p	2	1	0	0	0	Kremer,p	4	0	0	1	0
aFlagz	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	12	21	7	1	Totals	34	8	24	6	0

(a) Batted for Sherdell in 9th.

Score by innings:
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	2
Pittsburgh	2	1	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	x	5

Two base hits, Kremer, Traynor, Blades, Wheatley, Cuyler.

MARANVILLE RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Walter "Rabbit" Maranville today resigned as manager of the Chicago Cubs. George Gibson, coach of the club, was immediately appointed acting manager for the rest of the season.

In presenting his resignation Maranville said he was anxious to retire as manager as he found the duties of handling the club and playing too strenuous. He will continue with the team as shortstop.

Gibson is coach of the club and formerly was manager of the Pirates. He came to Chicago this season.

MARANVILLE WATCHES AS CHICAGO BREAKS EVEN

CHICAGO, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—George Gibson, newly appointed manager of the Chicago Cubs, broke even on his first day in charge of the club when he defeated Cincinnati 3 to 2 in the first game, which went 11 innings, but suffered a shutout in the second game, 4 to 0.

"Rabbit" Maranville, who resigned as manager of the club this morning, was in uniform and watched the games from the bench. Score:

(First Game.)

Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Zitzmann,lf	4	0	4	0	0	Adams,2b	4	2	2	6	0
xBreuder	0	0	0	0	0	Heathcote,rf	3	2	2	0	0
Walker,rf	0	0	0	0	0	Freigau,3b	4	2	0	5	0
Pinelli,3b	4	0	0	3	1	Hahn,lf	4	1	1	0	0
Roush,cf	3	1	3	0	0	Brooks,cf	4	0	1	0	0
Schulz,rf	3	1	2	0	0	Grimm,1b	4	0	10	0	0
Neis,1b	3	1	11	0	0	Pittenger,ss	4	0	2	2	0
Critz,2b	3	2	3	1	1	Gonzales,c	3	1	4	1	0
Cates,ss	3	1	1	5	0	Cooper,p	4	1	0	3	0
Hargrave,c	3	2	2	3	0
xxRobins	1	0	0	0	0	Totals	36	9	33	21	0
Wingo,c	0	0	1	0	0
Luque,p	0	1	1	2	0
Totals	34	10	30	15	2

(x) Batted for Zitzmann in 10th.
(xx) Ran for Hargrave in 10th.
Score by innings:

Cincinnati	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—2
Chicago	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	1—2

Two base hits, Adams, Critz, Gonzales, Heathcote, Hargrave, Luque.

(Second Game.)

Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Zitzmann,lf	3	3	2	0	0	Adams,2b	4	1	1	4	0
Pinelli,3b	5	2	1	3	0	Heathcote,rf	4	1	4	0	0
Roush,cf	5	1	7	0	0	Freigau,3b	4	0	0	5	0
Walker,rf	5	1	1	0	0	John,lf	4	1	1	0	0
Schulz,rf	1	1	1	0	0	Brooks,cf	4	1	3	0	0
Neis,1b	5	2	9	0	0	Grimm,1b	4	1	13	0	0
Critz,2b	3	1	0	3	0	Pittenger,ss	3	1	2	3	0
Cates,ss	5	0	1	3	1	Hartnett,c	3	0	3	0	0
Hargrave,c	3	1	3	2	0	Blake,p	2	0	0	2	0
Benton,p	3	1	2	1	0	xGonzales	1	0	0	0	0
Wingo,c	1	0	1	0	0	Keen,p	0	0	0	0	0
Rixey,p	3	1	0	1	0
Totals	52	18	27	13	2	Totals	33	5	27	17	0

(x) Batted for Blake in 8th.
Score by innings

Cincinnati	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	0	2	—	4
Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	0

Two base hits, Harnett, Pinelli.

FRANCE VS. AUSTRALIA AT FOREST HILLS TODAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—France will undertake her third successive attempt to win the Davis cup challenge privilege from Australia on the turf courts of the West Side Tennis Club at Forest Hills, N. Y., tomorrow afternoon.

In seven consecutive tournaments for the international trophy, the racqueteers from the antipodes have twice won the cup, once lost in the challenge round. Thrice thereafter earned the challenge right and once reached the final round only to be thwarted by Japan.

Winners of the cup in 1914 from the United States, the men from "down-under" successfully defended the trophy in 1921, the Australians unsuccessfully faced the United States in attempts to regain the trophy in 1922, 1923, and 1924, defeating France in the final round during the latter two years.

On the basis of their plays in the Wimbledon tournament, critics rate the French team as much stronger this year.

TIGERS COME UP FROM BEHIND TO BEAT INDIANS

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—(AP)—After Cleveland obtained a seven run lead, Uhle let down and was driven from the box in the seventh. Detroit winning 11 to 9. Wingo doubled in the last frame with the bases filled and 2 men out. Score:

Detroit (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Cleveland (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Nevin,3b	5	2	0	0	0	Jamieson,lf	5	1	2	0	1
Heilmann,rf	5	2	0	1	0	Summa,rf	3	2	2	0	0
Wingo,c	5	2	6	1	0	Lee,cf	4	1	2	0	0
Gehringer,2b	5	1	2	6	0	McNulty,cf	1	0	0	0	0
Rollins,lf	5	1	2	0	0	Sewell,ss	4	1	1	6	0
Bassler,c	4	1	7	0	0	Sewell,3b	4	1	1	4	0
Rapp,2b	4	1	1	3	0	Chile,p	2	1	0	0	0
Hoyt,p	1	1	0	0	0	Miller,p	1	0	0	0	0
Whitehill,p	1	0	0	0	0	Karr,p	1	0	0	1	0
Dauss,p	0	0	0	0	0	xSpeaker	1	0	0	0	0
Cole,p	0	0	0	0	0
Ehmke,p	0	0	0	0	0	Totals	36	10	27	12	1
Totals	41	11	18	11	0

(x) Batted for Karr in 9th.

Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	9	—	11
Cleveland	0	0	2	1	1	0	1	0	0	—	9

Two base hits, Heilmann, Bassler, Wingo, Burns.

WORCESTER DEFEATS ALBANY, SCORE 4 TO 1

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Bob Kelleher held Albany to seven scattered hits and Worcester won 4 to 1. The hitting of Thomas was a feature. Score:

Worcester	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	2
Albany	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—	1

Two base hits, Thomas, 2; Genin, Hogan.

MOOSUP SIGNS TO PLAY SOUTHERN SEPT. 13th.

(Special to the Bulletin.)

MOOSUP, Sept. 3.—Due to changes made this week since the recent announcement concerning the Moosup team, Manager Henry H. Loughran has received word that the Carpet Grounds will be vacant on Sunday, September 13th and therefore a scheduled game may be played there on that date instead of September 20.

The attraction for September 13th will be the fast Southbridge, Mass., team, a bunch of fast ball players who will make it hot for the Moosup team in the opening game. Games at the Carpet Grounds will be scheduled for every Sunday from September 13th until cold weather strikes in and a number of highly rated semi-pro teams are being booked for future dates.

WHITE SOX POUNDED BUSH TO BEAT ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Ted Blankenship held the Browns to five hits today, while his team mates pounded Joe Bush, and Chicago won 3 to 1. Johnny Kane, brought from Houston of the Texas League, played second base for the White Sox. Score:

Chicago (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	St. Louis (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Mostil,rf	4	0	0	7	0	Rice,rf	4	0	0	0	0
Kane,2b	4	0	2	6	0	Gerber,ss	3	2	1	4	0
Hooper,rf	4	3	4	0	0	Sisler,1b	4	1	10	1	1
Sheely,1b	4	1	9	0	0	Jacobson,cf	4	1	1	0	0
Falk,lf	4	1	2	0	0	McManus,2b	4	0	2	4	0
Barrett,ss	4	0	1	3	0	Bennett,c	4	0	4	2	1
Kamm,3b	3	0	1	1	0	Margrave,c	2	0	5	1	0
Schalk,c	4	2	1	1	0	Roberts,3b	2	1	3	2	1
Blankenship,p	1	0	0	0	0	Bush,p	2	0	0	0	0
						VanGilder,p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	5	27	11	0	xxDauberth	1	0	0	0	0
						xxRobin	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	30	5	27	12	2

(x) Batted for VanGilder in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Bush in 9th.

Chicago	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	—	3
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	—	1

NEW HAVEN VICTORS OVER WATERBURY 3 TO 2

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 3—(A. P.)—New Haven scored a 3 to 2 victory over Waterbury here today in a game marred by much wrangling. Umpires Stafford and Conroy ordered Donahue and Helgeth out of the game, argued with everyone else and even chased a bat boy from the park. The winning run was scored on a double steal by Gleason and Bowman. Score:

Waterbury	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	—	2
New Haven	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	x	—	3

Two base hits, Hauk, Berger. Three base hit, Miller.

TRAVERS-DE MARCO WILL FIGHT TONIGHT

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The boxing bouts scheduled at the Nutmeg stadium here for tonight have been postponed until tomorrow night because of rain.

Up until a late hour, it was expected the weather would clear sufficiently to have the fights which were to feature a bout between Tony Travers, of New Haven and Cuddy De Marco, of Pittsburgh.

NOVA SCOTIA MAY ENTER INTERNATIONAL RACES

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Nova Scotia may defend the international fishing trophy at Gloucester this year if some arrangement can be made whereby the contestants will abide by the decision of the officials concerning the race, W. H. Dennis, donor of the cup, stated today.

WESLEYAN FOOTBALL PRACTICE STARTS SOON

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Sept. 3—(A. P.)—Wesleyan's football squad will have its first practice of the season September 10. The schedule follows:

Sept. 26, Connecticut Agricultural College; Oct. 3, St. Stephen's; 10, Columbia at New York; 17, Bowdoin at Brunswick, Me.; 24, Amherst at Amherst; 31, Trinity; Nov. 7, Williams.

Attention Ashland Seconds.

The Taftville Sluggers accept the challenge of the Ashland A. A. Seconds for a game of baseball to be staged at the J. B. Martin grounds at 2 o'clock on Labor Day.

SPORT WORLD BRIEFS

Pennsylvania has more trapshooting clubs than any other state.

The American Bowling Association was organized at Jersey City in 1889.

Annette Kellerman, twenty years ago, was the first woman to attempt the English Channel swim.

This is the thirty-fourth season for Professor Alonzo A. Stagg as head football coach at the University of Chicago.

The jockey clubs in New Zealand declare they are facing collapse as a result of the high government taxation on horse racing.

In 1877 Captain Matt Webb, seated on a floating canvas mattress, with sail and paddle, twice crossed the English Channel in 19 hours.

Worth approximately $75,000 to the winning horse, the Coffroth handicap to be run at Tia

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Flitter the Bat at Home

Just a place wherein to sleep
Is all the home that some folks keep.
—Old Mother Nature.

When Flitter the Bat left Peter Rabbit he very quickly disappeared. You remember it was raining and Flitter was in a hurry to get home. Peter wondered where that home was. He hadn't the least idea where Flitter the Bat lived. He would have been considerably surprised if he had followed Flitter and seen where he went.

Straight over to Farmer Brown's flew Flitter. He flew across the barnyard straight to Farmer Brown's big barn. Way up in the gable a window was open. Flitter flew straight through that open window into the barn. High up in a dark corner, Flitter hung himself up by the heels to a rafter.

"What luck?" squeaked a very squeaky voice. It was the voice of Mrs. Flitter, who already was hanging there to that same rafter.

"No luck. No luck at all," squeaked Flitter. "What luck did you have, my dear?"

"None, my dear," replied she, and gave a funny little sigh. "I never was more hungry. And the youngsters are no better off than we are. They both gave up before I did and were here before I got home. But we are not the only ones in trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Forktail have had very little better luck than we have. I have been listening to them over there on their rafter. It is a lucky thing that their babies are big enough to look out for themselves. Just listen to them chatter."

Straight over to Farmer Brown's flew Flitter.

Flitter listened. Mr. and Mrs. Forktail the Barn Swallows and their four children were sitting on a rafter only a few feet away and the children were complaining. Finally their father lost patience. "Stop your whining," said he sharply. "Weather is something we have to take as it comes. It wasn't pleasant to have to go without food, but when the sun comes out you will find all the more because of the present rain. All the insects that fly will be out to try their wings the moment the sun shines. Meanwhile we will have to make the best of things. You don't hear those Bat children over there fretting and whining, and probably they are just as hungry as you."

Flitter yawned. Then both he and Mrs. Flitter began to make their toilet. Flitter went all over those wonderful wings of his. He stretched and pulled that rubbery membrane, which, you know, is a kind of elastic skin. In his effort to get it thoroughly clean and to get at every part of it he looker sometimes as if he had wrapped it right around his head. He combed out his fur. To do this he used the little hook on the top of each wing. These two little hooks made very good little combs. Mrs. Flitter did the same thing. When they had finished they yawned two or three times and then, hanging heads down, they went to sleep.

About an hour later they were awakened by the excited chattering of their neighbors the Barn Swallows. They opened their eyes just in time to see the last of the Swallows dart out of the open window, and they were darting right straight into a bar of golden sunshine. The rain was over.

"It isn't often that I envy anyone," squeaked Flitter to Mrs. Flitter, "but just now I do envy those Swallows."

"Why?" squeaked Mrs. Flitter.

"Because they don't need to wait until dusk before hunting for something to eat," replied Flitter. "If it wasn't so very bright out there I would be tempted to go out myself. However, it will be good hunting after jolly, round, bright Mr. Sun goes to bed, and at last we will be sure of full stomachs. On the strength of that I am going to take another nap."

So the Bat family went back to sleep again, but you may be sure that just as soon as it was dark enough they were out. In fact, they went out just about the time the Swallow family came in to go to bed for the night.

(Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story—Hop-Hempered Folk.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WNAC—Boston—280.3

1 P. M.—Shepard Colonial Concert orchestra.
4 P. M.—Shepard Colonial dance orchestra, direction Billy Losser.
4:35 P. M.—Vocal and piano solos, Jimmie Gallagher.
6 P. M.—Krazy Kat Kiddies' Klub.
6:30 P. M.—WNAC dinner dance, broadcast from Shepard Colonial restaurant.
8 P. M.—Musical program.
9 P. M.—Harry Clark and assisting artists.

WEEI—Boston—348.6

7:15 P. M.—Lost and found; scores.
7:30 P. M.—Musicale.
9 P. M.—Dance orchestra.

WBZ—Springfield—333.3

7 P. M.—Kimball Trio; scores.
9 P. M.—Talk;
9:30 P. M.—Boyle's entertainers.
10 P. M.—Orchestra concert; talk.
10:30 P. M.—Bulletins; scores.

WJAR—Providence—306.9

1:05 P. M.—The Woodstock Entertainers.
8 P. M.—Alice Keyes, story teller, from the Elmwood Public Library
8:15 P. M.—Musical program.
8:55 P. M.—Baseball scores.
9 P. M.—Maine Creamery Hour.
10 P. M.—S. S. Leviathan Concert orchestra, under the direction of Richard Kraetka, assisted by male quartet.
11 P. M.—Orchestra under the direction of Erwin White.

WCTS—Worcester—268

12 M. to 2 P. M.—Noon day luncheon music by the WCTS Trio, under the direction of Mr. Benny Resh, and broadcast direct from the Sherer restaurant.
7:15 P. M.—The Twinkle-Twinkle story Teller.
7:30 P. M.—Baseball scores.
Silent Night.

WTIC—Hartford—475.9

7 P. M.—Travelers' Jongleurs; soprano.
8:55 P. M.—Mme. Eugenie Texsier, blind prima donna.
9:30 P. M.—Dance music.
10 P. M.—S. S. Leviathan orchestra.

Court Audiences Frees Prisoner

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Mayor Hugh Gilmore, presiding in police court, recently adopted a novel method to determine whether a defendant charged with intoxication should be fined. There were seven persons in the court room and the Mayor referred the question to them for the release of the prisoner. The case was dismissed.

Man Fasts 70 Days.

BUDAPEST, September 3.—(AP)—Another long-distance food abstainer has been found here in the person of Bela Vicsey, who existed for 70 days without food of any kind and with only a few sips of water every day. He then started on a lecture and propaganda tour with the object of making converts to his sect.

Liggett's
THE Rexall Stores — The Safe Drug Stores — THE Rexall Stores

MAIN AND SHETUCKET STREETS

SEPTEMBER SALES

Candy—Stationery—Toilet Needs—Medicines
At much reduced prices!
A few examples—many more bargains not advertised.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
ONE EIGHT-CUP ALUMINUM COFFEE PERCOLATOR
ONE POUND LIGGETT'S COFFEE
$1.36

Sugar Coated Jordanette Almonds
Delicious selected almonds in a shell of pure sugar.
Regular 59c Pound Box
Special During September 49c

Rubberset Shaving Brush
Here's a brush that will suit you. Strong—well made—real bristles set in hard rubber. Won't come out.
Regular at 98c
Special During September 69c

Riker's American Petrofol
A superior quality white Mineral Oil for the treatment of constipation. Colorless—orderless and tasteless. Positively thorough and complete in its lubricating properties.
Full Quart Regular at $1.00
Special During September 89c

Harmony Narcisse des Alpes Perfume
In miniature size—handy and convenient for ladies' hand bag—a fascinating, exquisite perfume.
Regular at 75c
Special During September 59c

Harmony Quinine Hair Tonic
Tones the scalp and aids nature in keeping the hair strong and abundant. Also refreshes and invigorates.
Regular 50c
Special During September 39c

MILITARY HAIR BRUSHES
Exceptional Quality
$2.98 to $4.49

Buy and Save!

Thrifty people will not fail to take advantage of these very low prices on Nationally Known Toilet Needs and Family Remedies.

Size
$1.25 Coty's Face Powder	75c
60c Mulsified Cocoanut Oil	35c
50c Pepsodent Tooth Paste	29c
50c Pebeco Tooth Paste	29c
50c Ipana Tooth Paste	39c
25c Kolynos Tooth Paste	19c
50c Squibb's Dental Cream	35c
65c Kotex	49c
25c Syke's Comfort Powder	23c
50c D. & R. Cold Cream	43c
25c Cuticura Soap, 3 for	55c
Brick Ice Cream— 20c pint; 40c quart
15c Lux	10c
$1.00 size Gillette Blades, 10's	77c
35c Palmolive Shaving Cream	29c
$1.25 Father John's	87c
$1.50 Mary T. Goldman Hair Color Restorer	$1.14
25c Atwood's Bitters	23c
$1.50 Maltine Combination	$1.00
75c Mellen's Food	59c
$1.50 Scott's Emulsion	75c
40c Castoria	25c
$1.00 Waterbury Compound	69c
$1.20 Syrup of Pepsin	79c
$1.00 Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound	79c
$1.00 Beef, Iron & Wine	79c
15c Rexall Toilet Soap—Friday and Saturday 2 for	16c
Thermos Lunch Kit	$1.98
50c Forhan's Tooth Paste	33c

AT OUR CIGAR DEPARTMENT
7-20-4—J. A.—Harvard
Peter Schuyler
12c—10 for 99c.
Blackstone—Quincy
11c—10 for 94c.

Time Saving!!
LUNCH TODAY AT LIGGETT'S
Each day more and more busy men of affairs, shoppers, salespeople are appreciating the advantages of lunching at Liggett's.
Quick service, economy, adequate, wholesome nourishment.
A steaming cup of aromatic Coffee served with cream 5c
Delicious sandwiches from 10c to 20c

QUALITY AND ACCURACY are our first thoughts in prescription work—but our Prices are Reasonable.

SPECIAL SUITS

For Men and Young Men
WORSTEDS
SERGES
FLANNELS
CASSIMERES
Priced $10.00, $15.00, $18.00.
Look at our stock before buying—2500 Suits to select from.

THE NORWICH BARGAIN HOUSE
"MORE FOR LESS."
3-5-7 Water St.
Cor. Washington Square
Norwich, Conn.

LOOK!

At Plaut-Cadden's Tomorrow
FURNITURE VALUES
You Cannot Equal Anywhere

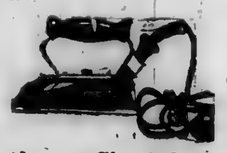
Walnut Bedroom Suite At a Very Low Price
The attractive set we are offering at this low price consists of Bowfoot Bed, Dresser and large Three-Mirror Full Vanity. Of good looking pleasing design and embodying excellent quality materials and workmanship. Our Special Price for Three Pieces $135

Good Quality Bed Outfit
A splendid outfit of dependable quality consisting of continuous post bed of strong metal tubing, National spring and comfortable cotton mattress that will give a long period of excellent service. THREE PIECES SPECIAL $25.90

Parlor Tables—Many Styles

New Mahogany finished tables in Queen Anne, Renaissance and Turned leg styles. See the handsome davenport table we are offering for.. $19.50

BATH STOOLS
$1.49
Reg. $2.00 values. Rigidly built and finished in white enamel.



Hotpoint Electric Irons
6-lb. size, fitted with heel rest and thumb rest. With cord and plug $4.95

Solid White Gold Watch
14"and 18-K gold rectangular case with 15 and 16 jeweled movement. A very beautiful watch, absolutely guaranteed $25
Join Our Watch Club. Pay $1 Week

17-19 Jewel Men's Watch
Values $40 to $50
Special Now at.. $29.50

20 and 25-year thin model, white, green or yellow gold-filled case. Adjusted and fully guaranteed.
Join Our Club. Pay $1 Week.

ANSCO CAMERA with 16 Exposures—Special Now at... $1.49

Makes clear, sharp pictures 1⅝x2½. Uses reg. roll film.

CARD TABLES
Mahogany frame and legs with 28x28 leatherette top. Folds compactly ... $2.39

WOOD BEDS
A splendid range of choice in styles and finishes. Fine chance to get real value. Values to $30. Prices from... $12.50

EXTRA SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY ONLY
Floor and Bridge Lamps of Unusual Beauty
Made to Sell For $55 and $65. Our regular price $45—Offered Tomorrow at the Remarkably Low Price of $27.50
The greatest value in the most strikingly beautiful lamps we have ever offered! The shades are hand made of georgette in the most unique styles and are trimmed with gold combined with the following colors: Ebony, Chinese Red, Jade Green, Blue and Light Blue. The stands are of wrought iron finished to match the shades. If you want something out of the ordinary in lamps this is your opportunity to get them.

Solve Your Heating Problem by Installing
WILLIAMS OILOMATIC HEATING
We sell and install this new type of perfected oil burner — and GUARANTEE IT. It is the finest oil burner made. Burns any kind of fuel oil and works automatically. Investigate it.

SERV-EL ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION
The Finest Electric Refrigerator Made
See SERV-EL in operation here and learn about its many wonderful conveniences and money-saving advantages.

Another Great Suite Special

Beautiful Mohair Suites Built For Solid Comfort
We have just received another lot of these magnificent mohair suites and are placing them on sale tomorrow at this very special price. Each piece—large sofa, arm chair and Wingback Chair—is luxuriously upholstered in fine quality mohair with velour backs and sides to match. All pieces have spring seats, backs, edges and loose spring cushions. SPECIAL TOMORROW $189

3-Piece Velour Suite A Remarkable Value
When you see this suite you'll hardly believe it possible to get such beauty, quality and comfort in a suite to sell at this price. The three pieces—sofa, arm chair and wing chair—have spring-back seats, edges and loose spring seat cushions wonderfully upholstered in fine cut velour in choice of colors. THREE PIECES $119

Distinctive 9-Piece Walnut Dining Suites
Here is a suite that will add distinction to your dining room at very moderate cost. Its design and fine finish give it a very handsome appearance. Consists of Oblong Extension Table, semi-Enclosed China Closet, Buffet, Arm Chair and five side chairs with genuine leather seats $176

Fine Cogswell Chairs
Mahogany arms and legs. Very fine quality velour upholstering in backs and seats. Best spring construction. Tomorrow—

$42.50

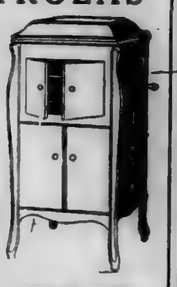
Sectional Bookcases

In Mahogany, Walnut or oak with disappearing glass doors. See our fine display. Priced as low as $9 PER SECTION

WOVEN SEAT ARM ROCKERS

High slat backs and wide arms. In natural finish. Closely woven seat. VERY SPECIAL— $3.95

Your Choice of These NEW VICTROLAS
$55
Formerly $110
Brand New and Fully Guaranteed



GET ONE NOW

HEAR THE NEW VICTOR RECORD HITS

ASK ABOUT OUR BUDGET CREDIT PLAN.

Plaut-Cadden's
135-143 Main Street. (Complete Home Furnishers) Norwich.

BUY ON OUR EASY BUDGET CREDIT PLAN.

WESTERLY

Dr. Leonard E. Norris of Providence escaped injury when, in attempting to turn his Reo sedan, 35-507 R. I., at the juncture of the Main street, at Avondale and Champlin road, near the residence of Charles P. Champlin, in Avondale, Thursday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock, the brakes were reported as not working and the automobile backed down a 12 to 15 foot steep embankment into the waters of the Pawcatuck river. Action of the tide, wind and river bed worked the car out into the river so that at high tide just the top of the automobile with stored doors was visible from the river bank. The fact was reported to the Westerly police department and Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown and Patrolman George Madison, investigating found a notebook with the name of the doctor on it.

It was some time later that a telephone call to the Rhode Island garage from Providence located the owner and salvage operations were started. The car was drawn to the river bank and it was then found that the rear end was completely smashed. Several hours' work was necessary before the automobile was gotten back to the road above.

The teaching staff of the public schools of Westerly, following the September meeting of the Westerly School Committee has been announced as follows:

High School: Charles E. Mason, principal; Laura E. McIntyre, vice principal, history and mathematics; K. M. Sturtevant, French and Spanish; E. F. Roche, mathematics, Lena J. Russell, stenography, typewriting; Mary C. Burke, commercial English; Margaret E McWeeney, Latin; Dorothy C. Beckert, commercial subjects; Dorothy Hanson, English; Harold S. Rice, science; George E. Ham, science; Idyla F. Gould, history and civics; Ethel M. Simmons, English and French.

Elm Street School: Herman F. Driggs, principal; departmental, gr. VII and VIII; Annie M. McNelly, Katharine V. Nestor, Beatrice I. Guvitt, Charlotte S. Larkin, Elsie Larkin, Doris Rayner, Lucy Jessup, Florence A. Hope, Bertha Peckham; grade VI, Eliza H. Syme; grade VI, Zella E. Shea, grade V, Maud Binnie; grade IV, Gertrude C. Kelcher.

Pleasant Street School: Margaret S. Oatley, principal, grades I and II; Dorothy D. Beal, grades I and II; Carolina W. Hazard, grades I and II; Dorothy E. Staniels, grades I and II; Mae Murphy, special class.

High Street School: Pauline W. Stahle, principal, grade VI; Helen U. McWeeney, grade VI; Grace M. Charles, grade VI; Sarah R. Read, grade V; Elsie Raynor, grade V; Dorcas M. Williams, grade V; Bessie West, grade IV; Ethel L. Bishop, grade VI; Joan McDonald, grade IV; Elizabeth M. Marr, grade III; Glenna E. Suddarth, grade III; Ethel M. Daley, grade III.

Park Avenue School: Mary L. Kelcher, principal, grade V; Mary E. McAvoy, grade IV; Ruth Rockwell, grade III; Kathryn A. Wilbur, grades I and II.

Chestnut Street School: Jeanne R. Dey, principal, grades I and II; Jennie B Montague, grade III.

Quarry Hill School: Jessie S. Berry, principal, state critic teacher, grades 3 to 6; Marion A. Westenburg, grades I and II.

White Rock School: Lillian Thomas, grades IV, V, VI; Helen M. McCarthy, grades I, II, III.

Shadford School—Ella C. Elderkin principal, grade VIII; Maud E. True, grade VII; ary R. Doe, Grade VI; Charlotte E. Percy, Grade V; Louise Frechette, grade IV; Helen G. Marshall, grade III; Mary R. Hilton, grades I and II.

Dunn's Corners—Lillian K. Greene, grades I and VIII.

Industrial School—Samuel W. Slocum, Laverne D. Dangworthy, Elwot T. Avery, Raymond Dowd.

Special Teachers—Robert Valentine, music; Harriet M. Hood, writing and drawing; Jennie B. Stanton, oral English; Gertrude M. Slocum, substitute and individual teacher.

Beach Street School—Beatrice W Madison.

The Beach street school, closed since June 1908, will be opened this fall for school children residing on Clark st, or the territory south of Clark St. The building has been renovated during vacation!

One room will be used, the first second and third grades to occupy it.

The teacher will be Beatrice W. Madison, who last year taught at Pleasant street.

Miss Reba May Talbot, daughter of Mrs. Ella Talbot of High street and Willis Whewell of Lower Pawcatuck were united in marriage at 11 a. m., Tuesday by Rev. A. L. Schoning at the parsonage of the Broad Street Christian church. Only relatives and friends were present.

Miss Elizabeth Whewell, a cousin of the groom was bridesmaid, and Le-Roy Talbot, brother of the bride, was best man.

The ceremony was followed by luncheon at the home of the bride's mother. Upon their return from a motor trip Mr. and Mrs. Whewell will reside at 213 High street.

A Republic truck owned by the Westerly Ice company and drvien by Charles M. Walker of 8 Lincoln avenue, skidded on Liberty street at about 9.30 o'clock Thursday morning when the driver applied the brakes.

The machine struck a telegraph pole, splintering it badly. Two springs on the car were broken and the radiator was smashed. Walker escaped injury.

The accident was investigated by Officer C. Wilson Brown of the West Side force.

W. J. Higgins of Hillside avenue is the delegate of Westerly Local Painters' Union, No. 680, to the 13th national convention of Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America, at Mount Royal Hotel, at Montreal, Canada. He is accompanied by his wife to the ten days' session.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Allen, formerly of Westerly arrived in town by auto having left Bethel, Vt., Thursday, to be the guests of relatives and friends on a vacation visit.

Mrs. William Kuehl, after being the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. A. Stillman and family in Pawcatuck, returned Thursday to her home in Detroit, Mich.

Station Agent Earl S. Bavier resumed his duties at the Westerly station this week, after a two weeks' vacation visit in Binghamton, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Matthews and son returned Thursday to their home in Providence after being the guest of several weeks of relatives and friends in Westerly.

Winifred Francis has returned to her home in Westerly after being the vacation guest of relatives and friends in Lawrence and Concord, Mass.

After a week's camping at Atlantic Beach, Arthur Portlance and Everett Gee have returned to their homes in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. V. Clark (Miss Ethel Burnet) who were guests at the Narragansett House at Watch Hill for the Lobkowicz-Lihme wedding, having accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burnet to Manchester, N. H., by automobile, have returned to Westerly and are now guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Bettle.

Narragansett Commandery, No. 27, Knights Templar, Arthur E. Thompson commander, held a regular conclave at their asylum on High street Wednesday evening. A report from the pilgrimage committee to the 100th anniversary celebration of Worcester County at Worcester, Mass., showed an attendance of 130 from Westerly.

Crawford

70th Anniversary Sale for 70 days

The Victory Crawford

Celebrate and Save!

THERE are many ways by which we might celebrate the Crawford 70th Anniversary but we have adopted the best one of all. Until November 9 we are going to put a Crawford Range within reach of every housewife in town.

You can buy a Crawford during our Anniversary Sale as low as $70 cash. When you consider that there are Crawfords in use today after 40 years' constant service you will appreciate this opportunity.

The Crawford oven guarantees good baking results. For its heat is controlled by a single damper—an exclusive Crawford feature. You can set it at "Bake," "Check" or "Kindle" with a single adjustment.

Don't delay. Come in and pick out your Crawford now!

70 Dollars buys a Crawford
Years of dependability
Days of opportunity

70th ANNIVERSARY 1855 Crawford Ranges 1925

The PLAUT-CADDEN CO.
HOURIGAN BROS.

Monday, Sept. 7th—Labor Day—This Store Will be Closed All Day.

THIS OF COURSE MEANS A DOUBLE HOLIDAY.

Please bear with us and anticipate your wants Friday and Saturday that we continue to give you along with Quality and Lowest Prices, Prompt Service.

Sirloin, Round, Porterhouse
STEAKS, lb. 27c
CUT FROM WESTERN DRESSED BEEF

Armour's Sugar Cured Smoked
Shoulders, lb. 21c

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

Finest Meadow Gold Creamery Print
BUTTER (in quarters) $1.05

LARGE BROWN
EGGS, 2 dozen 85c
EVERY EGG FRESH

Prime Rib Roast
BEEF, lb. .. 27-29c
BONELESS — ROLLED
READY FOR THE OVEN

FRESH
FOWL, lb. 27c
FOR FRICASSEE.

Lean Cuts CORNED
BEEF, lb. 10c

ARMOUR'S lb.
Frankfurters . 27c

Armour's Sugar Cured
HAMS, lb. ... 29c

Genuine Spring Legs
LAMB, lb. 35c

Meaty Forequarters
LAMB, lb. 28c

Fresh VEAL or
LAMB, lb. .. 12½c
FOR STEWING

Lean Pot Roast
BEEF, lb. .. 12½c

Freshly Chopped Beef
Hamburg, lb 12½c

TOILET
PAPER, 3 rolls 10c

5 lbs. Granulated
SUGAR 31c
1 lb. Fine Dinner Blend
COFFEE 37c
Both for 65c

ASSORTED
JELLO, 3 pkgs. 27c

Campbell's BAKED
BEANS, 3 cans 25c

Fancy Table
APPLES 49c
12-lb. PECK.

Best Red Star SWEET
Potatoes, 6 lbs. 25c

Fancy Concord
GRAPES 35c
3-lb. BASKET

Native Shell
BEANS, 3 qts. 25c

RIPE
Tomatoes, 2 lbs, 5c

Best Native
Potatoes 39c
15-lb. PECK.

—HOT FROM OUR OVENS DAILY—

Delicious Cinnamon
BUNS, 2 doz... 35c

RYE
BREAD, loaf. 10c

MOHICAN
Bread, 3 loaves 20c

Old Dutch Coffee
CAKE, each . 18c

Hot Baked
BEANS, lb. 10c

BROWN
Bread, loaf.. 8-12c

Imported Swiss
CHEESE, lb.. 59c

Flake White 2 lbs.
Shortening ... 39c
A LARD SUBSTITUTE.

Philadelphia Cream
Cheese, 2 pkgs. 25c

Mild, Tasty
CHEESE, lb.. 32c

Fresh NATIVE
EGGS, doz. .. 59c

Gobel's Pure
LARD, 2 lbs. .. 45c

FRESH SEASONABLE FISH FOR THIS WEEK END

Fresh Block Island
Mackerel, lb.. 17c

SEA
TROUT, lb. .. 20c

Fresh Red
SALMON, lb.. 39c

SMALL
CLAMS, 2 qts. 25c
FOR STEAMING

Fresh Cod
STEAK, lb. .. 19c

LIVE
LOBSTERS, lb 49c

SWORD
FISH, lb. 45c

Fresh Steak
TILE, lb. 28c

CHICAGO HUB OF WET MOVES SAYS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

CHICAGO, Sept. 3—(AP)—The Anti-Saloon League of America will open its convention here the first day after the November election, which F. Scott McBride, general superintendent, said would have an important bearing on the future program of the league. The league has not met here since 1909, when national interest was directed towards Illinois because of the development of the local option movement.

"Now Illinois, and particularly Chicago, has become the center of national interest because this state has been made the center of wet movements to break down prohibition enforcement," the league said.

The convention will come to Chicago at the invitation of the Chicago Church Federation.

On Sunday, November 8, scores of regular Anti-Saloon League speakers will occupy the pulpits at the morning services in the churches of Chicago, and the leading cities of Indiana, Michigan, Missouri, Iowa and Wisconsin. Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Detroit, national president, will preside. The bishop and Mr. McBride formerly were located here.

Securing the consent of an heiress to a matrimonial alliance is a promising business engagement for a young man.

Famous Runner Returns To United States

UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Loren Murchison, Newark Athletic Club runner and holder of many titles, returned from his trip around the world recently. He denounced the Germans in no mild terms and denied that he and Paddock had run up their expense accounts to an unreasonable figure. He also claimed that in his races against Houben, German sprinter, that the German had his own starter and that he beat the gun by three yards. When the runners arrived in England, they were informed that they were suspended, but a protest resulted in their reinstatement in time for the English championships, but no prizes were allowed the Americans.

MEAT EATING ENDORSED BY STANFORD SCIENTIST

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal. Sept. 3—(AP)—Prof. James R. Slonaker of the physiology department at Stanford University has emerged from eight years of experimenting with the conviction that meat eaters, as compared with vegetarians, will live longer, have more children and be of more hardy physique.

Prof. Slonaker confined his laboratory research to 40 pairs of white rats but he said that the conclusions he reached coincided with reports of the results of restricted diet on people in many localities after the World war.

He divided the rats into two equal groups, feeding one set an ordinary diet including a portein, the other the same diet minus the protein.

He found that withdrawing meat from the rats' diet caused males to weigh 35 per cent less than those fed meat, the females 28 per cent less. The vegetable diet shortened the male's life 33 per cent, the female's 40 per cent, caused 29 per cent fewer rats to be born and brought about loss of the power of reproduction by the third generation. The proportion of males to females was reduced among the vegetarian rats.

U. S. Gets Old Japanese Books

SEATTLE, Sept. 3—(AP)—Twenty-five volumes of Japanese poetry depicting vividly life in Japan in the early fourteenth century recently, were presented to the University of Washington library by Professor Apesaki, librarian of the University of Tokyo.

The volumes, which took nine years to compile, are part of an edition made from two copies of a collection saved from destruction in the Japanese earthquake in September, 1923. All but two unbound sets were destroyed by the earthquake.

Goose Egg Produces Twins

VISCOUNT, Sask. Sept. 3—A. P.)—From a setting of five goose eggs, Mrs. J. J. Elliot of this district, was agreeably surprised to find six fine goslings had been hatched, one egg having produced a splendid pair of birds.

The egg from which the pair was hatched weighed half a pound and was included in the setting primarily as an experiment.

It is said that a burned child dreads the fire. A newly married man avoids his old flames.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breed Theater

Harry Carey is undoubtedly the finest actor of Western roles on the screen today. Any doubt about this is assuredly cleared up by his performance in The Bad Lands, his latest production made under the supervision of Hunt Stromberg, which opens today at the Breed theater for a two days run.

In this production Carey unquestionably gives the finest performance of his long and successful screen career. In every phase of his presentation he is the direct opposite of average actors of similar parts, whose chief claims to fame are that they look well on a horse.

The Bad Lands, is a story of pioneer days. Carey plays the part of Sergeant Patrick Angus O'Toole, famous as a soldier and admired as a man sent to Fort Sumner to clear up a smuggling situation, he falls in love, falls in hard luck, and fights his way tooth and nail to a successful termination of both.

Action galore in this picture—but an unusual sort of action—running on surely and steadily over the throbbing undercurrent of drama and emotion that thrills and delights. The wonderful scenic effects are new and different, smacking not at all of the usual Hollywood hills we have come to know so well via the screen.

The Bad Lands, released through Producers Distributing Corporation, was directed by Dell Henderson, under the supervision of Hunt Stromberg. Tribly Clark pays opposite Harry Carey and the supporting cast includes Alfred Lucas, Gaston Glass, Jack Hoxie, Lee Shumway and Joe Rickson.

Voters to be Made

Your attention is called to the notice of the registrars of voters about the making of voters this month.

Those citizens of the town who are not voters may make application on or before Tuesday September 8. There is a place given in the notice in each of the six voting districts where between the hours of 9 and 5 o'clock, standard time, you may file your application. After that time it will be too late.

The making of voters will be announced later by the selectmen.

The man who looks for difficulties will find two where he expected one.

Children Cry for

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:— Fletcher's Castoria is a pleasant, harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, especially prepared for Infants in arms and Children all ages.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

What Is Going On Tonight

Lady Bucklingham council, No. 14, D. of A., meets in Buckingham Memorial.

R. O. Fletcher post, No. 4, A. L., meets in Shetucket street hall.

Hugh H. Osgood lodge, No. 6250, I. O. O. F., M. U., meets in Stone's hall.

Lodge Oscar, No. 18, W. O. of A., meets in 25 Shetucket street.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Seventy-five years ago today Chicago was lighted by gas.

Today the sun is at its greatest distance from the earth—about 247,800 miles away.

The French Republic is 55 years old today, having come into existence with the overthrow of the Empire on this date in 1870.

The annual convention of the American Fur Association, which has held forth in Detroit this week, will conclude its business today and adjourn.

Italy today will pay tribute to Count Luigi Cadorna, the chief Italian military commander in the late war, on the occasion of his 75th birthday anniversary.

Highway motor transportation will be the chief subject of consideration at the meeting of the Southwest Shippers' Advisory Board, to be held today in Oklahoma City.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MAKE ENTRIES NOW FOR COUNTY FAIR FEATURES

Make your entries as soon as possible and not later than Sept. 10th for the Beautiful Girl contest to be held Friday, Sept. 18th at the New London County fair, by writing to 63 Broadway, Norwich. The splendid prizes are to be awarded the winners in this contest and a first prize of a free trip to Washington, D. C., is the feature prize.

All entries for the Horse Shoe pitching contest should be made to W. A. Anderson, 63 Broadway, Norwich, as soon as possible, entrance fee $1.00 which includes entrance to fair.

All boys owning dogs and bringing them to the fairgrounds Saturday Sept. 19th before 9.30 o'clock will be admitted to the fair without charge and may compete for prizes. Dogs must be on leash and wear strong collar.

The decorated automobile entries should be made at 63 Broadway as quickly as possible to compete for the prize of $100 in gold and this is open to all societies, clubs and individuals.

These special events must be entered as quickly as possible in order that the committees may prepare for handling the entrants.

Entries for the Better Baby contest should also be made as soon as possible in order to compete on Friday morning, Sept. 18th, for the Ferguson and Bliss cups offered the best girl or boy baby in the show. Babies up to two years are eligible to compete and doctors and nurses will be in charge of the judging.

Do not fail to enter now thus insuring acceptance and a chance to win one of the beautiful prizes offered in the several events.

Palace Theatre

Clergymen of all denominations are urging their congregations to see "The Ten Commandments."

The Reverend Dr. Chester C. Marshall wrote of it in "The Educational Screen" as follows.

"When it was reported many months ago that a commercial company was filming "The Ten Commandments," many of us felt that this was apt to be something of a travesty on one of the sublimest and most epochal events of history.

"Two hours and a half later we emerged from the theatre onto the Great White Way, to be suddenly forced back into the world of realities. The evening rush hour was on, the floods of humanity were sweeping in two mighty currents, and there at the entrance stood a woman selling copies of "The Athiest."

"No, let us rather say we came from the world of realities as spread before us on the screen out into a world of unrealities. God has rarely been more real to us than he was for the space of one afternoon.

"If one message above another is needed by our pleasure loving, law breaking age, this picture brings just that message."

"There is one question we can not avoid asking. Why, when such sublime and holy things can be presented in such an entertaining and fascinating manner, must we have such trash, slush, trash and stupidity unfolded before our eyes as we have in the average film?"

Broadway Theater

Don't forget to see the new show B. F. Keith's Vaudeville commences on five acts and the photoplays at the Broadway today and Saturday.

The Paul Horn production for Paramount. Grounds for Divorce coming to the Broadway theater next Saturday is claimed to have better picture than it was a stage play.

It does not take one well up on matrimonial affairs to recall this expression, authored by Guy Bolton from the play by Ernest Vajda, which got all New York to laughing during the 1921 season.

Briefly, the story concerns a society divorce lawyer and his wife who also divorces him because he neglects her to obtain divorces for other men's wives whose husbands have neglected them.

Here's a bright and breezy comedy drama of married life with more laughs in a single scene than are found in six average pictures. Florence Vidor, Matt Moore and Lowell Fazenda are featured in the leading roles. Harry Myers, remember him in A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court? heads the supporting cast of players.

In Grounds for Divorce Miss Vidor is given a chance to display the success she scored as a featured player with Adolphe Menjou and Betty Bronson in Are Parents People? shown at this theater but a short time ago.

Matters reached a crisis in the picture on the soldiers first wedding anniversary when Maurice busies with the affairs of a client, inadvertently breaks up a theater party his wife has planned for the occasion. The wife's suit for divorce follows, and the ensuing scenes heap laugh upon laugh.

Here's a picture that makes divorce a laughing matter!

Palace Theatre.

Merchants Nite is surely becoming a great feature at the Palace every Thursday night. Last night there were some beautiful presents given away. Manager McEvoy announces that this weekly event is going to be a steady feature throughout the season.

Nancy Fair and Co. head the vaudeville for the last half of the week with a very pleasing singing act. Miss Fair has been co-star in several leading Broadway productions such as The Girl in the Limousine—No More Blondes—Winter Garden and many other successful shows. Second honors on the bill are given to Carisef Sisters and Fitzgerald, a very clever dancing act. Frank Farish opens the bill with a very clever balancing act performing on an accordion at the same time.

Darrell and Howell furnish the laugh in regular fashion only a great deal different than seen at the Palace in some time.

Fulton and Mack close the show with a marvelous act of feats of strength.

The man who wants to bet $5 on Saturday night usually wants to borrow that amount Monday morning.

CHANGE PRODUCTION TO MEET THE CHANGE IN DEMAND.

(Written Specially for The Bulletin)

The other day, a high official in the steel industry told an inquiring newspaper man that the eight-hour day is now a virtually accomplished fact in that industry.

Its adoption has resulted, he said, "in increased efficiency, better spirit among employes, and an increased cost of manufacture of steel ranging from $2 to $3 a ton."

"No indication was given," says the scribe, "as to whether the increased cost would be absorbed by the mills or passed on to the consumer."

No need of any "indication," I sniffed, when I read that. The consumer will pay in the end, as he does for everything else. Of course he will. And I laughed a hollow, contemptuous laugh, after the manner of the heavy man in the melodramas.

Almost the next thing I read was an article on automobiles, their cost, their value, their prices. And this reading developed a simply astounding fact, to wit, namely, that is to say, the fact that automobiles are actually cheaper, today, than they were before the war. Cheaper to buy, cheaper to run, cheaper to keep up.

What d'ye say to that for a financial conundrum?

While 52 cents would have brought us much clothing in 1913 as a dollar will today, and 48 cents as much as a dollar today, and 41 cents go as far towards paying rent as a dollar today,—you can buy $1.11 worth of automobile, $1.01 worth of gasoline, and $1.23 worth of tires today with the same dollar which would have bought only 100 cents worth in 1913.

That is certainly a most amazing state of things. While the cost of food and fuel, of rents and clothing, of boots and bricks, of tools and transportation, of wages and income taxes has soared and is still soaring, the cost of automobiles and aautomobile supplies has fallen.

The manufacturer explains some part of this as due to the increased economies effected by resorting to machine work in place of hand labor, by saving in cost of materials through larger purchases, by standardization of parts, etc., etc.

The purchaser tee-hees with satisfaction, and promptly proceeds to buy a new auto in place of his old one.

And the famous man up a tree, who looks on and tries to make out the real whys and wherefores of things, scratches his head and wonders "How come?"

Well, I don't pretend to unusually sharp eyes or phenomenally shrewd reasoning powers. But I can put two and two together and get four, most of the time.

And it looks to me as if the auto makers had accomplished this seeming miracle of increased out-put and reduced prices in the face of high wages and exhorbitant material costs by the simple, old-fashioned and now-a-days seldom observed plan of refusing to make hogs of themselves when they saw the trough was full.

They haven't tried to get rich off one sale to one customer. They have seen that a great number of small profits add up to as comfortable a figure as a small number of big profits. At the same time, they've appreciated that the wider market call, induced by low prices, leads to constantly greater manufacturing economies and increased percentage of profit.

As a purely imaginary illustration of what I mean, take the case of the Dingbat auto, a purely imaginative buzz-wagon. Pricing it at $1,000 the manufacturer makes a profit of $200 on each car made. And he sells, we'll say, a thousand cars a year at that price. Now suppose, instead of doing that, he prices the same car at $820. As a result he makes a profit of but $20 on each single car.—But also as a result of that decreased price, he sells 10,000 cars a year instead of 1,000. He makes but one-tenth as much profit on each car, but he makes exactly the same gross profit on the year's total business.

That is how it would work out in theory. In practice, it results in a greater total profit. For, by reason of his enlarged output, he has been able to reduce the labor and material costs of each car by an appreciable degree and his gross profit is increased to just that extent. He is actually better off, at the end of the year, making only a small charge for profit on a large number of cars, than he would have been, demanding ten times as great an individual profit on a smaller number.

We all remember the old chestnut about the dealer who was assuring the customer that he sold goods for actually less than they cost him. "But how can you do that and make a living?" queried the skeptical customer. "Ah," said Mawruss, with a deprecatory shrug, "because I sell so many!"

Of course that sort of talk is a give-away. I never fooled anybody and never will. But a hundred one-cent profits on a hundred separate sales amount to just as much as a one dollar profit on a single sale. Moreover, the man who makes the hundred sales soon discovers that business is booming with him, while the greedy-guts who must make a dollar profit off each sale is wondering what keeps business so slack.

Now the moral which all this seems to me to teach is just this: That it pays better in the end to both give and take than just to take and keep on taking. That it is actually more filling and satisfying to eat one's soup with a spoon out of a soup-plate than it is to guzzle it down out of a trough with all one's snout and both forefeet in that trough at the same time.

—But what has that sort of talk got to do with farming and farmers? you may ask. Well, dear, if the coat doesn't fit you, you don't have to wear it. If it doesn't suggest anything to you in regard to your dealings with your customers, just pass it along to some one on whose shoulders you think it does belong. I'll bet a good doughnut against a dinosaur's egg that you know some such fellow.

Honestly, I'll admit that I don't see how the average farmer can cut his "profits," when they are, even now, apt to be like Mawruss, mostly on the wrong side of the ledger. But I have known some few up in this neck o' woods where I live, to refuse a reasonable profit and the chance they wanted to hog things. And I have known some others who wasted so much time and labor through badly planned and inefficiently conducted farming campaigns as to change a possible profit to an actual loss. It may be that there are others of that sort even among the fertile intervals and spreading prairies of Lantern hill or Gungawump swamp. One never can tell.

Despite the continent-wide depression in agriculture, and the general wailing which rises from the rural districts, I have met one or two farmers who respond to my inquiries as to prospects: "Oh, well, I've no reason to complain: I'm doing tolerably well." Such are admittedly rare. But they exist. Perhaps there is something cognate and related between their reports and that of the automobile industry. That, too, has nothing to complain of. Perhaps what has provided fat feasts for the one may be affording an occasional steak dinner to the other. It's worth thinking over a bit, anyway.

Seems to me I've already told you of one of these uncomplaining farmers. He used to raise potatoes and onions and cabbages and the like for the nearest city market. Now he raises mostly strawberries and gladioli. Why? Simply because he found that his customers were willing and eager to pay him a bigger profit on a box of strawberries or a bunch of gaudy gladioli than on a bushel of potatoes. He couldn't quite understand it, when he first discovered it. He can't, yet. But there's no denying the fact. And, said fact being what it is, he simply takes advantage of it. He doesn't keep on raising what he prefers to raise, but what his customers prefer to buy. He doesn't take them what he thinks they ought to want, but what they do want and are glad to pay handsomely for. He doesn't try to cut the coat according to the cloth he has, but he cuts the cloth according to the coat he can sell.

The automobile makers have been doing that. They seem to be getting along fairly well, thank you. This farmer is doing much the same thing in a different field. He, also, seems to be getting along fairly well. Again, thank you.

S'pose there's any chance of there being a suggestion or a thought for you in that? If there is, mull over it a bit. If there isn't, as I said once before, pass it along to that other fellow whom you know to be in need of it.

So far as farm prosperity is concerned, the slogan "We've got to do it ourselves" is gaining daily more and more adherents. The government can't ring it about by enacting laws, the capitalists of the cities can't effect it, no matter how liberal they may be with their wealth. Both can help by getting out of our way and by not only refraining from putting stumbling-blocks in that way but by preventing others from doing so. But whether we "get there" or not along that way is solely for us to determine.

Our great practical problem is how to get producer and consumer within hand-shaking reach of each other,—Whether the consumer can ever be waked up to see that this is his problem, too, is another question. If we keep awake to it we've done our share.

As I look at it, the automobile makers have furnished a good many of us a pointer for our course. They found out what the big majority want, viz: cheap and good automobiles. Then they supplied that want. Supplied it so well that registration figures show there is now an automobile to every seven or eight inhabitants of the United States.

When a farmer finds that his customers want gladioli more than potatoes and will pay better, proportionately, why in the name of common sense shouldn't he sell 'em gladioli instead of potatoes? If they wanted sweet peas instead of sweet corn and the sweet peas were less trouble and more profitable to sell, why shouldn't he supply 'em with sweet peas at a profit, and let old Stick-in-the-Mud sell 'em sweet corn at a loss?

Some years ago a firm not far from me sold several dozen farm wagons every month. Now that same firm sells several dozen automobiles every month and doesn't dispose of one farm wagon a year. As the demand changed they changed to meet it.

We farmers must do something of that same sort.

If our customers want something that looks pretty and smells sweet more than they do something that tastes good and fills up, why, let 'em have it!

Certainly if they're willing to pay us better for it.

THE FARMER.

Secretary Work invited the public to submit suggestions, criticisms and complaints of interior department activities through a complaint division under the direction of the department's chief inspector.

OUR SEMI-ANNUAL COMBINATION SALE
FOR ONE DAY ONLY

Your Choice of Any
Dress and Hat, $15.98

Any Hat... Any Dress BOTH $15.98

DRESSES WORTH UP TO $25
THIS INCLUDES ALL OF OUR NEW FALL DRESSES AND HATS

BARNEY'S
112 Main Street.

The Lyons Co.
WAUREGAN BLOCK
NORWICH, CONN.

SCHOOL TIME
Means New Dresses, Suits, Socks, Hosiery, Etc., for the Little Folks.

Boys' Peter Pan Suits at $1.85.
Better quality in the Kaynee
At $2.98
Sizes 3 to 8 years.

Girls' Bloomer Dresses
2 to 6 years
At $1.50, $2.00 to $4.50.

Special Bloomer Dress for 7 to 11
At $1.95
An Excellent School Dress.

Sweaters for Boys and Girls.
Sizes up to 14 years.

STATE GOVERNMENTS INCREASE DEBTS HALF BILLION

The state governments of the United States have increased their bonded debt nearly 50 per cent in the past three years, according to a nationwide survey of state finance just completed by the Bank of America, New York. The huge debt now amounts to $1,568,742,423 68, or $13.59 for every man woman and child in the country.

New York state's population, prosperity and great permanent improvements are reflected in its bonded debt which aggregates $320,991,000.

Massachusetts is second with $125,046,961.93, of which a large proportion represents the value of its metropolitan district improvements and highways. Following these are Illinois with a debt of $112,671,100; North Carolina with $105,547,600, California with $83,500,000, Kentucky, Nebraska and Wisconsin have no bonded indebtedness. Kentucky owing $5,679,999.58 on outstanding warrants and Wisconsin being indebted only to its trust funds to the extent of $1,963,760.

The highest per capita debt of any state in the Union is that of South Dakota, the share of each inhabitant being $93.93, nearly six times as great as the national per capita debt, Oregon is second with $72 per capita, North Carolina third with $38.87, Delaware fourth with $36.76, North Dakota fifth with $36.67, and Massachusetts sixth with a per capita debt of $30.66.

The Pacific group, comprising the states of Washington, Oregon and California has the highest per capita debt of any section, the Bank of America finds in grouping its figures according to geographical areas. Its debt per inhabitant is $25.83, nearly twice the average for the United States. At the opposite end of the country the New England states hold second place with a per capita debt of $22.

The Middle Atlantic group of states —New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania—have a per capita debt of $18.03, and the South Atlantic states—Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Georgia and Florida—are next with $15.41.

Below the average for the country as a whole are the East North Central division with a debt of $9.48; East South Central with $6.48; West South Central with $5.81 and Mountain division with a debt of $7.82 for every inhabitant.

Yucatan's Ancient Ruins

Le Plongeon, who deciphered the hieroglyphics among the ruins of Yucatan, in Central America, came upon inscriptions describing a catastrophe which submerged the old Atlantean continent, legends of which have survived in literature from very early times.

The catastrophe is supposed to have taken place about 9,000 B. C., and at that time there was a highly organized civilization in Yucatan, which would seem to be a remnant of the lost continent. The ruins of 172 cities have been discovered. Some of these are so extensive that it is said they must have contained half a million inhabitants, and it is possible that pyramids found in the jungle gave the pattern at a much later date, to the Pharaohs of Egypt.—Detroit News.

Prehistoric Workshop Found

A complete prehistoric workshop, containing 17 heaps of flint tools and weapons, numbering altogether 4,000 pieces, was discovered recently, by British and American geologists at Frindsbury in the Valley of the Medway. The tools, according to reports of the find published in Popular Science Monthly, include hand axes of large flint flakes, hammer stones of quarts and large rounded pieces of flint.

AMONG OUR LEADING NUMBERS IN THIS CORSET SALE IS OUR FAMOUS
BACK LACE MODEL 1524
Which many women know, called the "MADALLION." For average figures. Size 20 to 32. Regular price of this Corset was $5.50—
SALE PRICE $3.45

Ask our corsetierre if we have your size in stock before they are all gone.

CARON'S
SPECIALTY SHOP

FEATURE No. 1
$10
Allowance for your old COAL RANGE in exchange for a new GLENWOOD
Regardless of its condition during this club sale we will make this allowance.
SAVE $10

Shea & Burke's
SEMI-ANNUAL GLENWOOD CLUB
is now open for new members with three remarkable features
Join Now—Pay Weekly Dues
Enjoy the pleasure and comfort of cooking with a modern range.
Special Terms During This Club Sale
On any Coal Range—Dues $3 Weekly.
On any Combination—Coal and Gas or Enamelled Range—Dues $5 Weekly.
Delivery Now or Later at Your Convenience.

FEATURE No. 2
SPECIAL DISCOUNT
10%
Allowed to Club Members.
BUY NOW AT CASH PRICE AND PAY WEEKLY.

FEATURE No. 3
FREE TRIAL
—FOR—
FIFTEEN DAYS
in your own home. Prove to yourself the superiority of the new GLENWOOD
EASY—ISN'T IT?

Last Week—Furniture Sale
Saturday marks the close of this big event—so come in Today or Tomorrow and secure your share of these bargains. Never again can we promise such genuine savings and we know a glance will convince you, too.

Look At These Values
They are only typical of hundreds of others to be found by a visit to our store and an inspection of our large and varied stock.

Living Room Suites
3 Piece Suite in Taupe and Rose Jacquard—$140 value $112
4-Piece Fibre Suite in Blue and Gold, with davenport table—$110 value $89
3-Piece Suite in Tan and Blue or Blue and Taupe Jacquard—value $215 $185
3-Piece Suite in special Taupe Velour with black piping—value $198.. $162
3-Piece Suite in Brown Mohair with reverse cushions of brocatelle—value $220 ..... $179
3-Piece Frame Suites with Velour seats at cost—As Low as $67

Dining Room Suites
9-Piece Adam Suite in American Walnut—round table, brown leather chairs—value $242 ..... $172
8-Piece Queen Anne Suite, with blue or brown leather seat chairs—value $198 ..... $112
9-Piece Queen Anne Suite with oblong table and choice of chairs—value $198 ..... $157
9-Piece French Walnut Suite, lacquer finish, blue leather chairs—value $250 ..... $202
9-Piece American Walnut Adam period Suite, in two-tone finish—value $240 ..... $196
9-Piece Queen Anne Oak Suite, with brown leather chairs, $215 value—SPECIAL $147

Bedroom Suites
3-Piece Two-tone American Walnut Suite with full vanity and large dresser—value $198 ..... $159
4-Piece Queen Anne Suite in American Walnut, with semi-vanity and wardrobe—value $175—NOW $139
8-Piece French Walnut Suite, with full vanity and large dresser—value $135 ..... $108
4-Piece Queen Anne American Walnut Suite with full vanity—$255 value $207
7-Piece French Walnut Suite of highest grade, massive and attractive—$350 value $283
4-Piece French Walnut Suite with full vanity and wardrobe—$187 value $153

CONVENIENT CREDIT ARRANGEMENTS MADE IF DESIRED.
Shea & Burke
37-47 MAIN STREET.
FREE STORAGE FOR LATER DELIVERY IF YOU WISH.

KEEN KUTTER
SAFETY RAZORS
Regular $1.00
While They Last, 35c
The HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Building 74 Franklin St. Telephone 691-6
Bulletin Building, 74 Franklin Street

HUMOR OF THE DAY

The only thing worse than being in a rut, is being on no road at all.—Sense and Nonsense.

How to make a little money go a long way—

Send five cents by express to San Francisco.—Exchange.

The boss recently received a letter from one of his clerks who was on a wedding trip—"I am sitting by the Niagara Falls drinking it all in."—Good Hardware.

She—If ever I marry, it will be a man whose income has at least four ciphers in it.

He—That's good, dear. My income is all ciphers—as many as you like.—The Progressive Grocer.

He looks like a fool.

But, papa, he has asked me to be his wife.

He has? Well, don't ever tell me that I can't size up people.—Boston Transcript.

Deadeye—You say Joe got killed? How come?

Dick—Well, he stuck his head in that saloon and hollered fire.

Then what?

They did.—Amherst Lord Jeff.

Fussy Old Lady—At last, just just what I want.

Tired salesgirl (Who has pulled out every roll off the shelf.)

I'm so glad. How many yards do you want?

Fussy old lady—Oh, I just wanted a little piece to go over the bottom of a bird cage.—Exchange.

"The only worker I ever knew who would work when the boss was away was the old-fashioned American hired man," declared a professor at Grand Rapids. We have known a couple of them to sit on a fence at such times and work until their jaws were totally exhausted.—E. C. A. in Detroit News.

KALEIDOSCOPE

The seven years' war cost Europe 1,000,000 lives.

Jerusalem was captured by the British in 1917.

The Balkan states made war on Turkey in 1912.

The Caesars ruled Rome from 30 B. C. to 14 A. D.

The slave trade was abolished in England in 1807.

The city of Cheyenne, Wyo., was founded in 1867.

Boston was first settled in 1630 by John Winthrop.

The first woman crossed the Rocky mountains in 1836.

The world war, in the end, embattled 28 nations.

The Assyrians were the first to equip an army with iron weapons.

A Frenchman with wooden legs is making a walking tour of the world.

Walt Whitman, the poet, was the second of a family of nine children.

Portland, Ore., is spending $50,000 on a forty-acre camp for auto tourists.

In the battle of Manilla bay the United States did not lose a ship or a man.

The name Michigan is derived from Indian words meaning "a weir of fish."

A gorilla four feet six inches in hight has the strength of four strong men.

The production of steel rails in the United States last year showed a decrease of 16.22 per cent, as compared with the output in 1923.

Miss Kibe Shigeno, one of the few Japanese women aviators, has petitioned the government for support of her plans to establish an aviation school for women in Japan.

Miss Ikna L. Larusdottir is the only woman editor in Iceland. She edits the one woman's paper in that little country. It is published under the unusual title of The Nineteenth of June, because its first issue appeared on June 19, 1915, to celebrate the enfranchisement of women in Iceland.

The first number of the women's paper published in Turkey has just appeared in Constantinople. Its editor is Mme. Nexhie Mouhiddine, and gathered about her are some of the most accomplished women in Turkey—the unveiled progressive women who have been inspired by the example of their sisters in other countries.

Malaria, which has caused so much trouble in other parts of the world, is now practically unknown in Sweden, but the Royal Bacteriological Institute, of Stockholm, is engaged in making a study of the Anopheles mosquito, which carries its germ. This mosquito is harmless unless it has sucked the blood of a person with the disease, and has had time to develop the parasites in its own system. Not being located in a malaria zone Sweden is in slight danger of infection, but if an epidemic should break out abroad, travelers might bring the disease. In such a case, the institute is prepared to take immediate measures to check it.

BIRTHS IN JAPAN AVERAGE NEARLY FOUR A MINUTE

OSAKA, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Illustrations at the recent national statistics exhibition showed that the population of Japan is increasing at the rate of approximately three persons every two minutes. Calculating apparatus of the latest invention was exhibited as also were charts and drawings illustrating all kinds of statistics.

In the population section it was shown that births in Japan are at the rate of 3.58 a minute while deaths occur at the rate of 2.4 a minute, leaving a net gain of 1.48 a minute. The Japanese birth and death rates, figured in that way, were shown to be the highest among the nations of the world.

As to births, Germany came after Japan with slightly less than three a minute; Britain was next with a little more than two and France showed a rate of one and one-half a minute.

Other statistics which attracted attention showed that in 1913 Osaka consumed luxuries valued at 3,200,000 yen, while the value of luxuries consumed in 1923 had increased to 7,500,000 yen.

WINNIPEG RENAMES STREET TO HONOR THREE HEROES

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 3—The bravery of three Winnipeg warriors, who fought with the Canadian forces during the world war, will be impressed upon posterity with a permanent and unique memorial.

It was recently discovered that three of Winnipeg's sons who earned the Victoria Cross had lived on the same street within a block of each other during peace times. Residents of the street, determined upon honoring their memory, petitioned the civic authorities for permission to change the name of the street to "Valor Road." The request was granted and on the initiative of the Women's Canadian club a memorial lamp has been unveiled at the intersection of the newly named street and Portage avenue.

Only one of the three returned at the cessation of hostilities, that being Lieut. Col. Robert Shankland. The other two, F. W. Hall and Leo Clark, paid the supreme sacrifice.

Italian Foreign Trade Slumps.

ROME, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Treasury department statistics show that the adverse trade balance, which in April, 1924, had reached 373,964,066 lire mounted in January, 1925, to 708,446,218 lire. It improved slightly during February, and then slumped to 1,267,231,187 lire in April, 1925.

A legal light is usually some wily chap whose clients are in financial [illegible]

Toilet Goods Specials

10c Lux Toilet Soap .... 4 for 25c
25c Seidlitz Powder 18c
50c Hinds Cream 33c
45c Dickensen's Witch Hazel, pint size 35c
50c Watkins' Shampoo 35c
50c Father John's 39c
60c Danderine 39c
75c Princess Pat's Cream 49c
75c Wampole's 65c
79c Scott's Emulsion 69c
89c Lydia Pinkham's 75c

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

5c Pads, Composition Books and Pencils ..... all 6 for 25c
10c Pads, Composition Books and Pencils ..... all 3 for 25c
Pencil Boxes, filled with Pencils, at 25c, 35c, 50c and up to $1.50.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

The Last Shopping Days Before The Holiday—LABOR DAY

Practically complete assortments of New Fall Goods are being shown in every department of the store. The economy of supplying your needs for Labor Day, here, is emphasized by the combination of dependable quality with Lowest Possible Prices.

HERE ARE SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CANDY SPECIALS

5c Chewing Gum, assorted flavors ..... 2 packages for 5c
19c Jelly Beans, 2 lbs. for 25c
19c Assorted Gum Drops, 2 lbs. for 25c
25c Assorted Chocolates, 2 lbs. for 25c
40c Chocolates 29c
40c Cream Mints 29c
50c Pennant Brand Jumbo Salted Peanuts 39c

SCHOOL HANDKFS.

Children's School Handkerchefs, white and colored borders, good values ..... 6 for 25c
Children's School Handkerchefs, white and colored borders, excellent variety .. 3 for 25c

Our Men's Store

Everything in Men's Wear—Outfitters to Men and Boys

Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery, Neckwear, Etc.

Men's New Fall Hats

We are sole agents in Norwich and vicinity for the celebrated "Youngs" Hats—"the sky line of the Nation"—none better made.

Leading shapes, including the "Hollywood," in pearl gray, with wide brim and black band, a snappy model for Young Men, at $6.50—the "Howdy" in pearl, light tan and soft green shades, at $5.00.

Other good makes in all shapes and colors—at $3.95.

600 NEW FALL SHIRTS

ARE FEATURED IN A SPECIAL SALE
TWO DAYS ONLY—FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

A fortunate purchase is responsible for this offering. Fifty dozen of the well known "Clermont" Shirts, in neckband and collar attached styles:

EVERY SHIRT IS BRAND NEW! THE LATEST FALL STYLES! Size range is 14 to 17! $1.59 3 for $4.50

This is a regular $2.00 Shirt, and one that is sure to give satisfaction. We advise an early selection, as this Special Sale is for two days only—Friday and Saturday.

BOYS' SCHOOL APPAREL

Inexpensive prices and complete assortments will help greatly in getting the Boys outfitted for School—if you visit our Boys' Department.

Boys' Caps, newest Fall Styles—our prices are $1.25, $1.00 and 65c

Boys' Blouses, in all the new styles—our prices are $1.95, $1.25, 95c and 65c

Boys' Ideal Underwaists 65c

Boys' Kazoo Suspenders, with garter attachment 65c

Boys' Sweaters, sizes 3 to 8—price range is $2.95 to $4.95.

Boys' Heavy Slip-on Sweaters, sizes 8 to 16, value $7.00 ..... at $6.00

Girls' Fine Coat Sweaters, with belt, sizes 6 to 12, value $7.00 ..... at $6.00

Boys' Straight Trousers, all sizes—price range 95c to $1.95.

Boys' Knickerbocker Trousers, all sizes—at $2.95, $1.45 and .. $1.25

Boys' Wash Suits, sizes 3 to 8—price range $1.25 to $2.95.

Boys' Wool Middy Suits, sizes 3 to 8—pice range $1.95 to $4.95.

Boys' Norfolk Suits, with two pairs of Trousers, neat mixtures, regular value $9.50—special price $6.50

Boys' Navy Serge Norfolk Suits, with two pairs of knickerbockers, sizes 8 to 16, regular value $13.50—special price $10.50

Boys' Four-piece Suits—Coat, Vest, pair of Knickerbockers and pair of Golf Trousers—also Coat, Vest, pair of Long Trousers and pair of Golf Trousers—
At $10.50—value $13.50.
At $13.50—value $18.50.
At $18.50—value $21.50.
All of these in sizes 8 to 16.

50c CHILDREN'S 3-4 SOCKS, 29c

Children's fine Mercerized Three-quarter Socks, with fancy tops, in all the wanted colors, sizes 6 to 9½—these are regular 50c grade subject to slight irregularities—all at 29c a pair.

CHILDREN'S HOSIERY 25c Pair

Children's Ribbed Lisle Hosiery, fine ribbed and English ribbed, black, white, cordovan, fawn and camel's hair—at 25c a pair.

CHILDREN'S HOSIERY 39c Pair

Children's finest Mercerized Hosiery, black, white and cordovan, all sizes—at 39c a pair.

BOYS' HOSIERY 29c Pair

Boys' extra heavy, Black Ribbed Hosiery, the well known "Chieftain" make, sizes 7 to 11—at 29c a pair.

BOYS' HOSIERY 39c Pair

Boys' two-thread, Ribbed Hosiery, black and cordovan, extra good wear, sizes 7 to 11½—at 39c a pair.

A REMARKABLE OFFERING OF SILK HOSIERY, FULL-FASHIONED, AT $1.39

This is a splendid service weight in women's Full-fashioned or "three-seam" Silk Hosiery, every pair perfect, in a good range of colors, including black, white, Airedale, beige, Deauville, nickel, French nude, thrush, etc.—all at $1.39 a pair.

(Special table—main aisle.)

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

75c box LADY BETTY COLD CREAM FACE POWDER 29c

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT WILL BE PLEASING NEWS

We have made an arrangement with the manufacturers of Lady Betty Cold Cream Face Powder which gives our patrons an opportunity to obtain a regular 75c size box of this alluringly different complexion aid for 29c.

LADY BETTY COLD CREAM FACE POWDER is prepared from a formula that is recognized by dermatologists as being of real value in protecting the complexion against the ravages of sun, wind and dust. During the milling process a small amount of cold cream is incorporated which gives the powder unusual inherent qualities—it clings without caking and is invisible when properly applied. Its delicate, fascinating bouquet perfume appeals to discriminating women.

This Coupon is Worth 46c to You

THIS COUPON AND 29 CENTS WILL BE TAKEN IN EXCHANGE FOR A REGULAR 75¢ SIZE BOX OF Lady Betty COLD CREAM FACE POWDER

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

We suggest that you purchase a box of Lady Betty on our recommendation. If you do not find it pleasing in every way, we will cheerfully refund the purchase price.

New Gloves for Fall

TREFOUSSE AND BACMO MAKES

Our Fall showing of New Gloves is ready—the celebrated Trefousse French Kid Gloves, our own importation—and the dependable "Bacmo" street wear Gloves. All the new style cuffs in every wanted Fall shade.

Trefousse French Kid Gloves, at $2.50, $3.00 and up to $4.00—Bacmo street wear Gloves at $2.00, $2.50 and up to $3.50.

Your Final Opportunity TO GET ONE OF THESE

Weather Prophets

This advertisement will not appear here again. If you haven't mailed or brought in your order, act quickly, for our supply will not last long. Our price, while they last, only 69c.

THIS Coupon AND 69c GOOD FOR ONE $1.00 WEATHER PROPHET

Made in America—Guaranteed the Best

AN EXCELLENT GIFT FOR ALL OCCASIONS

When the weather is fine, the two children will be out, and when bad weather is approaching, the witch will come out 8 to 24 hours ahead of rain or snow. The hygrometer will forecast the weather better and more reliably than general weather reports. It also has Thermometer, Elk's Head, Bird's Nest, etc. Mail orders 8c extra for packing and postage.

NEW FALL FASHIONS

DRESSES and COATS

It's time to select your fall Dress—your fall Coat, or both. We are now showing the smartest fabrics and newest colorings in Coats and Dresses. These few suggestions:

BALBRIGGAN DRESSES

Featured particularly in our Fall showing are the one and two-piece Balbriggan Dresses in all the new Fall colorings—also the new Figured Delaine Sport Dresses that are so attractive. Prices are—

$8.50, $10.00 and $15.00.

Very smart, indeed, are the new Fall Dresses of Satin-face Crepe, some self-trimmed, others with gold embroidery, brocaded chiffon velvet and fur-trimmed in every wanted Fall color. Prices are—

$19.75, $25.00 and $35.00.

FUR TRIMMED COATS

We are now showing the newest models in Women's and Misses' Fur Trimmed Coats. The materials are Cashinere, Fortuna, Deerona, Ormadale, Needlepoint, Velva Rose Montebello, Cashmir Imperial—trimmed with all the various popular furs.

EXTRAORDINARY SPECIAL OFFERING

Women's Dresses

Women's Dresses, suitable for Street or Porch wear—Materials are Plain Color LINEN, Checked Tissue, Gingham and Broadcloth stripes—in several pretty models. The size range is 38 to 50, but not every size in every style—On Sale Friday and Saturday

At $1.98

Regular $3.50 Dresses. None sent on Memo.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL FROCKS

Children's Dresses, made of plain and figured Linen, sizes 6 to 12 years—Special value at $1.98 each.

Children's Dresses, with Bloomers, made of pretty Ginghams, also of English Prints, in a large assortment of styles, ages 2 to 10 years—at $2.25, $2.50 and $2.95.

Misses' Dresses, made of Gingham and Broadcloth, in a large variety of new fall styles, sizes 12 to 19 years—Special price $4.50, regular value $5.50 and $5.98.

Extraordinary Special Values DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT Friday and Saturday

Another lot of that wonderful Saxony Wool Flannel that we had a short time ago—Next quality to our best silk and wool, cream color only, and perfect in weave and finish. This is an ideal quality for all uses, including Baby Squares and fine Underclothes, regular $1.50 quality—SPECIAL PRICE A YARD..... 79c
(Limit 5 Yards to a Customer)

250 yards of fine quality Berkley Nainsook, in 5 to 10-yard lengths, value 39c—SPECIAL PRICE, A YARD 25c

500 yards of 81-inch Brown Sheeting, a good medium weight for every-day sheets, mattress covers, etc. (Note the width and price) regular value 59c—SALE PRICE A YARD 39c
(Limit 10 yards to a customer.)

10 dozen high grade Pillow Cases, these are genuine English Percale, regular size, value $1.00 each—SPECIAL PRICE... 59c

15-inch Round Thread Art Linen—another offering of those superb Linens suitable for every kind of embroidery purpose—easily drawn for Italian hemstitching, in white and oyster, regular value $2.00—SPECIAL PRICE A YARD..... $1.19
(Limit 5 Yards to a Customer)

ADOPTED WHITE GIRL, NEW LONDON NOT TO BE LEFT WITH COLORED MOTHER

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 3.—Although legally adopted, a white girl of 12, will probably be taken from her colored mother, for steps along those lines were formulated by the New London authorities this morning when the girl was in the police court on a charge of theft. The case was referred to the juvenile court and the girl placed in the custody of Probation Officer Richard W. Mansfield.

The girl was taken into custody several days ago at Ocean Beach where she robbed bathers of articles of trivial value. Following the arrest of the girl and her arraignment in court today it was revealed, according to the police, that the colored woman and the girl, formerly resided in Willimantic and that the probate court of the latter place awarded legal adoption of the girl to the colored woman, who later removed to New London with the child. The woman and the girl have since been residing on Green street. At the time of the adoption of the child, it was stated, the whereabouts of the girl's parents was not known.

Dr. Morton E. Fox, of Montville, today sold a building and a small parcel of land on Crystal avenue, to Elmer E. and Annie M. Kenerson.

Julian D. Moran, administrator of the estate of James and Ella O'Neil, today sold to Theodore Bodenwein the property on the west side of Main street, corner of Masonic street. The price paid was $20,000. The property consists of a two story wooden structure in which there are two tenements and two stores. Attorney Frank L. McGuire earlier in the week acquired property on Main and Masonic streets adjoining that which was acquired by Mr. Bodenwein today.

Raymond Abbott, of 82 Sixteenth street; Samuel Field, United States Revenue Cutter Walter Q. Gresham; Gerdin and La Rue, United States Coast Guard destroyer McCall; Henry Amundsen, 118 Willetta avenue; Joseph Christopherson, 35 West Pleasant street; Alice Nelson, 97 Green street; Francis Coles, Blackhall; Constance Armstrong, 100 Howard street and Mrs. Mario Tasci and dauchter, Lena, 87 Walbach street, patients at Lawrence-Memorial Associate hospital, were discharged today.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today caused the operator's license of Frank Boyd, 97 Truman street, to be suspended.

Mrs. James O'Donnell, of 195 Huntington street, was aroused shortly after 4 o'clock this morning by a strange noise at the front entrance of her home. Peering from a window Mrs. O'Donnell saw a man fumbling at the lock and informed the police of the endeavor of the intruder to gain admission to the place. Patrolman George Laboue was dispatched to the house in the police speed car, but when the officer arrived there the man had disappeared. A search in that vicinity failed to find anyone roaming about.

Two children were reported to the police as missing from home late last night and early this morning. One of the children was later found, but no trace of the other could be obtained by the police. At 12.15 o'clock last night, Mrs. George Crane, 100 Green street, reported that her daughter, Mary, aged 9, had been missing since 5 o'clock in the afternoon. While the police were making a search for the child and shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, Mrs. Crane communicated with the police, stating that the child had been found asleep in the hallway of a house close to where the girl resides.

This forenoon Mrs. Katherine Andres, colored, residing at 37 Pearl street, notified the police that her son, Harold Newell, 15, was missing, the boy having disappeared Monday. It is believed the youth has left the city.

A test case that will determine whether the owner of land or building can make the use he desires to make of such property will come before Judge Allyn L. Brown of Norwich, through mandamus proceedings as soon as the superior court, civil side, convenes next week at Norwich. Messrs. Kenyon and Shapiro bought land and the buildings thereon on Jay street recently. They then decided that they would consolidate two business enterprises in which they were engaged and establish one in the newly acquired premises. To do that they desired to erect a store on the land and to engage in business. They realized that a zoning law might some day be put into effect in this city, but they were also aware that none was in effect at the time, so they applied to the city council for the privilege of building or at least they made it known that they desired to erect the proposed store building. They complied with every requirement of the building code but their request for the right to construct was not granted. It was not denied, but it was deferred. Tuesday they began excavating on the land with the idea that there was no doubt about the council allowing them to build. They were then stopped by the building inspector, who made the claim that they were without the right to build until such time as the city council should approve their plans and tell them to go ahead and build. The stopping of work brought on a crisis and they instructed their attorney to test the case. This is the matter that will come before Judge Brown. Every one in New London is interested in the case, as it will determine what is and what is not a "residential" district within which no commercial business shall be carried on. If the decision of the court is that Messrs. Kenyon and Shapiro have been discriminated against, they will win their suit. If a contrary view of the latter is taken by Judge Brown, the parties will have made their investment in the property without gaining authority to use it for store or other commercial purposes.

John Weimer, a baker, formerly employed at Willimantic, was convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and was fined $100. He is employed now in New London. He was on Church street yesterday and there complaint was made of his condition. He paid his fine with the attending costs today.

Harman Beckwith of Niantic, was fined $5 for intoxication today as was William Poor, a sailor at the coast guard. Beckwith has been a frequent visitor to the police court of late.

John McKern, a stranger, was on the tracks of the New Haven railroad last evening when a freight engine bore down on him. John did not mind a situation of that sort as he was very much intoxicated and did not realize his danger. The engineer tooted for him to get away, but John did not heed so the locomotive was stopped and McKern was arrested. He was fined and paid.

There were three prosecutions for violation of the parking ordinance today, the result being that judgment was suspended in each case.

Charlie Carroll, a negro, went into the bootlegging business and out again in a single day. When he went out he went to jail, because he was unable to pay a fine of $200 imposed upon him by Judge Crandall. Carroll fell into a trap so easily that his intelligence was under suspicion. Money was given to a fellow to go and buy liquor from Carroll and the latter sold it just as he would sell candy.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad operated several special trains to Bar Harbor, Me., today, each train consisting of unoccupied passenger coaches and parlor cars, which will be used to transport the thousands of pleasure-seekers, who will return to their homes Labor Day and next Tuesday. When the railroad transported the major portion of summer visitors to Bar Harbor in July the Bar Harbor express trains were operated in sections of nine and 10 trains for several nights.

Bicycle thieves continue to operate without detection, for this evening Morris Snyder, 196 Main street, complained to the police that his wheel had been stolen from in front of his home while he was in the house for a brief time.

Several New Londoners went to New Haven this evening and witnessed the boxing bout between Tony Travers, New Haven lightweight, and Cuddy De Marco, of Pittsburgh.

The condition of Captain of Police Charles A. Pinney, ill at Lawrence hospital several weeks continues to improve and Wednesday he was in the open air for a short time. It is now planned that Captain Pinney will return to his home, 93 Howard street, next Tuesday.

Several hatchways in the center of the city are in need of immediate repair for some of them are in a condition that creates a danger to pedestrians. Particularly is this the case in front of the Salvation Army building, Main street and in front of a confectionery store on State street, between Bank street and Railroad avenue.

Benjamin Fargo of State street, employed by the Thames Transportation company, suffered a painful injury to his right hand this afternoon when that member was jammed by a piece of bulky freight which he was assisting in handling.

Two automobilists have been ordered to appear in the police court tomorrow morning and answer charges of violations of the city's traffic laws. Both auto drivers, Virginia C. Lamarche, of Golden Spur, and Henry W. Muzzy, 13 Crown street, Springfield, Mass., were ordered to appear in court by Traffic Officer Clyde Murphy. Miss Lamarche is charged with violation of the parking restrictions on Main St., it being alleged that her machine was parked in the restricted area two hours. Muzzy's car is alleged to have been parked on State street longer than 30 minutes, the time prescribed by ordinance.

A valuable dog owned by Morris Grubner, 15 Culver street, was struck and killed this afternoon, on Ashcraft road, by a machine operated by W. H. Macomber, 15 Ledyard street. Macomber was trying out the engine of it and before Macomber could apply the brakes the animal was struck and died almost instantly. Mr. and Mrs. Grubner are in New York and the body of the dog was taken charge of until Mr. Grubner returns to New London in order that he can dispose of it in such manner as he desires.

Mrs. Ellen Patton Lane, 81, widow of William H. Lane, died late yesterday at her residence, 11 Pacific St., of a weakened condition of the heart caused by her advanced years. She was born in Philadelphia, but had resided in New London about 60 years. Mrs. Lane is survived by three sons, John Lane, Pacific street; James Lane, Salem and William Lane, Los Angeles, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. Christopher Culver, Harris court; Mrs. Harold H. Heyer, Colt street; Mrs. Alice Bother and Miss Marion Lane, of Pacific street. Two sisters and a brother who reside in Philadelphia, also survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Davis, 124 Ocean avenue, are spending several days in Atlantic City and Washington. They will return to New London after Labor day.

SPECIAL ELECTION PROBABLE—PETITIONER ALREADY SIGNED

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 3—The circulators of the petitions requesting the city council to call a special election, for the purpose of permitting the voters to express themselves as being in favor of a continuance of the present form of city manager government or return to the former municipal form of government, declare that they have obtained a sufficient number of signatures to cause the calling of the special election. Matthew Keenan and Pietro Loscano, the two principal circulators, assert that they have several hundred more signatures than necessary to call the special election and that the petition will be handed to the city council immediately following the holding of the annual city election this month. The circulators also assert that within a few days the task of determining whether all of the signatures attached to the petitions are bona fide will be established by the names being checked off according to the city's voting list.

There is no doubt that many of the signatures will be invalidated because of the names of the signers not appearing on the voting list or through faulty writing of the name, address or date of the signer, but in view of these conditions which invalidate a signature, the circulators declare that they have a number more than that necessary to compel the calling of the election.

BOOTLEGGER GOT ALCOHOL IN VISIT TO WESTERLY

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 3.—John Henry Quinn, who has a record in the courts of this city and New London county that is unenviable, is again in the public eye—this time as a bootlegger, in that he transported alcohol for sale or exchange for the coin of the thirsty with an appetite for that which burns, as it finds its way to the stomach. John Henry resides with his mother. An aged woman in the property which the late James O'Neill had erected on lower Bank street, near Shaw. The tenement is reached by a narrow and dark stairway, which anyone would hesitate to enter at dark but it is said that Quinn has conducted a place where jovial spirits in the flesh assembled and had their pleasures with the cup that cheers and inebriates also. With him as his housekeeper resides Anna Kennedy Ericsson, a woman also with a police court record that is unenviable. John and Anna left home last evening in an automobile that was operated by Clarence Banta, employed in a market on Shaw street. He is but 18 years old. Quinn is alleged to have told Banta that he desired the young man to drive him and Anna to Westerly for a pleasure trip, and that when the journey was made Quinn observed that he was not to return home empty-handed so he proposed to obtain a few gallons of alcohol which would pay his expenses. This he did obtain and brought to New London. The party did not arrive till well along toward morning and when they reached the Quinn domicile they found that Banta's father was on hand to greet them. He objected to the employment of his son in the capacity in which he was serving Quinn, and immediately sent Elinor Banta, a child of tender years to the police station to notify the sergeant at the desk of what was transpiring. The sergeant got together a trio of police officers and they raided the Quinn place, finding the alcohol that was brought here. They also found bottles that might serve for holding alcohol. The whole lot was confiscated and with Quinn and Mrs. Ericsson was brought to the police station. Later Quinn was presented with Banta in the police court and they were charged with violation of the prohibition laws. Their attorney asked for a continuance of the hearing until tomorrow and it was granted.

Quinn was able to obtain a bail bond of $1,000, but Banta was lodged in jail. Anna Ericsson was held in $500 as a material witness.

Quinn is in pitiable condition. His legs are of abnormal size and he has little use of one of them. It is understood that the elder Banta, in goodness of heart, has ministered to Quinn and has helped him very materially. Quinn has now one or more complaints to answer to in the upper courts of the county. If he can keep out of jail this time he will be fortunate.

Using New Colors

To aid the color blind in distinguishing light signals at railroad crossings, the swedish state railways have decided, after an exhaustive investigation, to abolish the green light in favor of bluish-White and to adopt a special shade of red which tests have shown to be most easily recognized by all automobile drivers. Furthermore, the lights installed at crossings owned by the state will be additionally differentiated by blinking at different speeds when there is no danger and when there is one approaching, so that even if a person cannot tell any color from another, he cannot fail to observe the frequency with which the light flickers.

The state railways' eye specialist, Dr. C. G. Bostrom, has conducted the experiments and has found that between 5 and 6 per cent of all males are color blind, and that since practically every one in Sweden wants to drive a car it would be unjust to deprive these men of the privilege, as seriously proposed in the Riksdag. At the same time many accidents have been found to be due to the inability of drivers to tell the green lights from the red, so that from July 1 this year the new double precaution will be adopted.

Another device to safeguard railroad crossings has been invented by a swedish engineer A. Westfeldt, and tests have been made at certain crossings on the state lines. It consists of a bar that swings out 7 feet above the ground whenever a train approaches and a row of short chains that strike any car trying to pass under without injuring it. Being placed about 8 feet from the crossing, the bar gives the driver warning in time to stop before reaching the tracks, but at all times it remains high enough in the air to escape being crashed into. It is operated automatically by the approaching trains and when danger is over it swings back alongside the roadway.

Monkeys at Work

In Pattani, a southern province of Siam, and in Kelantan, one of the unfederated Malay states, monkeys are trained by the natives to pick cocoanuts and edible seed pods for their masters, according to Dr. Bourke of the Indian Forest Service, who has made an interesting observation of a new commercial use of trained domestic animals.

The romantic notion—derived from literature of the Swiss Family Robinson type—that monkeys naturally climb cocoanut palms and throw down the nuts out of mischief or from desire to oblige is pure fiction. The monkeys must be caught young and carefully trained to their jobs by attaching them to a long pole on the top of which is fastened a bunch of fruit. The animals quickly learn to run up to the fruit and throw it down for their own food. Having once mastered the central idea, as it were, they can then be perfected in their profession in the palm tree.

Only the larger monkeys are successful with the cocoanuts. It requires considerable effort and frequently the use of teeth as well as hands to detach the nuts. But the smaller monkeys can readily manage the pods which grow in small clusters on the ends of the branches of the sataw tree, and which provide the natives with an important food item. The seeds resemble a broad bean and are eaten as a vegetable, both raw and cooked. It is said that a well trained monkey can pick as many pods in a day as a man, thus enabling his fortunate owner to earn a full day's wages with a minimum amount of effort.

Saving Hot Gases

Themendously hot gases, from cement kilns formerly discharged into the air and wasted, are now utilized by manufacturers, and a saving of 775,000 tons of coal a year has resulted. Discharge into the air of hot gases from powdered coal combustion in the kilns is a waste of heat which Portland cement manufacturers have long sought to eliminate, but practical means of utilizating this lost energy has appeared only in the last decade. Temperatures in the kilns range from 2,500 to 3,000 degrees, and the gases emerge, after heating the ingredients of cement to melting point, at about 1,300 degrees Fahrenheit. Formerly this heat went up the chimney, but now some forty-three of the 140 American Portland cement plants use this excess to make steam which, in many cases, supplies all the power needed in their mills.

Mount Where Lies Moseeh

About 15 miles from Maseru, the capital of Bastoland, stand Thaba Bosigo, "the mountain of the night." Used as a rooyal burial ground, where rests the Great Mosesh, his son and grandson, this impregnable mountain was the scene of the great battle in which Mosesh—who founded the Basuto nation nearly 100 years ago—defeated with great loss the warriors of the cruel Umziligazi. Not far away are the Naluti Mountains—which extend for about 30 miles toward the natal border—with the peak of Machacha reaching to a height of 11,000 feet. This peak was named after the chief of that royal house of the Zulus, and where, so runs legend, he and his followers were reduced to cannibalism in a cave near the summit.—London Post.

Warship to Become Museum

The warship Mikasa, which waas to have been scrapped, will be converted into a naval museum off Tokosuka. So far as the scrapping regulations are concerned, the old vessel will be made utterly useless as a warship. The hulk however, will be reconstructed into a floating museum for the exhibition of various relics, papers and other articles having to do with the Russo-Japanese war.

Eastern States Exposition

Springfield, Massachusetts

September 20-26, 1925

The Eastern States Exposition is regarded by visitors and exhibitors as a quality show. No expense or effort has been spared. It is the finest agricultural and industrial exhibition in the East.

Quality is evident in its classes for dairy and beef cattle, draft and show horses, sheep and swine. State exhibits, home department, speed programs, fireworks spectacle, industrial arts show, fruit and vegetable displays, entertainment features and attractions are in a class by themselves.

Its work among boys and girls is a national standard. This year there are 17 junior divisions with 1500 boys and girls.

There are features, exhibits, demonstrations, and entertainment every hour of every day for old and young. Everything possible has been done to provide well balanced programs.

The result is a quality exhibition. The Eastern States Exposition of 1925 may be anticipated and accepted as the best in Exposition history. It is the premier show of the North Atlantic States.

Reserved seats for the Springfield Horse Show, Harness and Automobile Races and Outdoor Evening Fireworks Spectacle, "Rome Under Nero," now on sale at Exposition offices, 292 Worthington Street, Springfield, Mass. Mail orders given personal attention.

REDUCED RATES ON ALL RAILROADS

FOR THE BEST SHOW IN TOWN—SEE IT AT THE

BROADWAY

TODAY—SATURDAY

5 —GREAT ACTS— 5

VAUDEVILLE

—On the Screen—

A Comedy Thrill-O-Drama

WHAT LOVE WILL DO

With KENNETH M'DONALD

COMING SUNDAY

FLORENCE VIDOR

MATT MOORE in

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

BOYS and DOGS

Every Boy who owns a dog of any kind and will bring it to the FAIR GROUNDS before 9.30 A. M., Saturday, Sept. 19, will be admitted to the Fair free and may enter his pet in the Mutt dog show for prizes. Every animal must have a strong collar and heavy leash. Dogs will be benched at 10 o'clock and grand prize awarded by His Honor, Mayor Waters, at 3 P. M.

PALACE

FOUR DAYS

Sun., Mon., Tues., Wed.

September 6, 7, 8, 9

STORY BY JEANIE MACPHERSON

PRESENTED BY ADOLPH ZUKOR JESSE L. LASKY

Cecil B. DeMille's Cinemasterpiece

"THE TEN COMMANDMENTS"

With the greatest cast ever assembled in any one picture.

Richard Dix	Leatrice Joy
Theodore Roberts	Nita Naldi
Estelle Taylor	Robert Edeson
Agnes Ayers	Rod La Rocque
Terrence Moore	Julia Faye
Charles Ogle	James Neil

Presented in the same lavish manner as in New York with a symphony orchestra of eleven.

WM. JEFFS, Conductor

A Paramount Picture

Automobile Pageant

Societies, Clubs, Business Houses, Individuals—Everybody! Should enter the Beautiful Automobile Pageant to be held SATURDAY, SEPT. 19th, at 1.30 P. M., on the FAIRGROUNDS. The committee must know now how many to prepare for. Call up 2424 or send word to the Superintendent today that you intend entering.

FIRST PRIZE—$100.00 IN GOLD.

Prizes Subject to Scale Based on 50 Cars.

FREE TRIP —TO— Washington, D. C.

All young ladies intending to enter the BEAUTIFUL GIRL CONTEST at the Norwich Fair, must send in their entries before Sept. 10. ADDRESS—63 BROADWAY, NORWICH, CONN.

BARNYARD GOLF

The first Annual Horseshoe Throwing Contest at the Norwich Fair will take place Saturday, Sept. 19th, beginning at 9 A. M. Entrance Fee, including admission to the Fair, $1.00. Notify W. A. ANDERSON, 63 BROADWAY, NORWICH, at once if you intend entering.

BREED THEATRE

TODAY—SATURDAY

Harry Carey

—IN—

THE BAD LANDS

Never before was there a Harry Carey picture with such action—such speed—such thrills—such melodrama.

Opening Chapter

PLAY BALL

The Giant of All Serials!

Story by John J. McGraw

With ALLENE RAY, WALTER MILLER, JOHN J. M'GRAW and THE N. Y. GIANTS as members of the cast.

COMEDY—NEWS

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday

Joe Weber and Lew Fields

Comedian Entertainers for Half a Century, in

"FRIENDLY ENEMIES"

PALACE

—TODAY—

5—SPLENDID ACTS—5

NANCY FAIR & CO.

Character Singing Star of Many Broadway Successful Productions

CARLSON SISTERS & FITZGERALD

Singing, Dancing—Special Scenery

DARREL & HOWELL

COMEDY SKIT

A Scream from Start to Finish

FRANK PARRISH

Musical Acrobat.

FULTON & MACK

Europe's Famous Athletes

BEN WILSON in

HIS MAJESTY, THE OUTLAW.

GREATER MOVIE SEASON STARTS AT THE PALACE SUNDAY NIGHT.

DANCE TONIGHT

ASHLAND CASINO

JEWETT CITY.

IDEAL ORCHESTRA

SEVEN MEN.

HENRY FORD

ENJOYS SQUARE DANCES

ENJOY YOURS AT

Scotland Road Hall

FRIDAY EVE.

DON'T FORGET

THE DANCE

Tonight at

HILLTOP CASINO

The Three Bashful Boys

THUMM'S ORCHESTRA

Admission 50 Cents

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

MARRIED

McCOY-WOOYARD—In Willimantic, Sept. 3nd, 1925, by Rev. A. S. Muirhead, Edward McCoy of Athens, O., and Miss Elizabeth Woodyard, of Albany, O.

LARAMEE-PEPIN—In Willimantic, Sept. 1st, 1925, by Rev. J. J. Papillon, Rudolph F. Laramee, and Miss Yvonne Pepin.

WHEWELL-TALBOT—In Westerly, R. I., Sept. 1, 1925, by Rev. Arnt L. Schoning, Willis Whewell, of Lower Pawcatuck, and Miss Reba May Talbot, of Westerly.

DIED.

ALLIS—At Randolph, Vt., Sept. 2, 1925 Mrs. Laura M. Allis, widow of Andrew S. Allis, aged 91 years.

FUNERALS

FRINK—In Preston City, Sept. 2, 1925, Agnes C., widow of George A. Frink, aged 78 years.
Funeral from her late home, Saturday, Sept. 5 at 2 o'clock S. T. Burial in Preston City.

CURTIS—In Norwich, Sept. 3, 1925, Margaret A. Strain, widow of Warren Curtis, aged 66 years.
Funeral from the residence of her son, Joseph W. Curtis, 3 Huntington Place, Friday afternoon, Sept. 4 at 4 o'clock. Burial in the family lot in Morris, N. Y., at convenience of the family.

JODOIN—In Baltic, Sept. 3, 1925, Raymond J. Jodoin, aged 61 years.
Funeral from his late home, High St., Baltic, Monday, Sept. 7th at 9.30 a. m. (s. t.). Requiem high mass at Immaculate Conception church at 10 o'clock (s. t.). Burial in St. Mary's cemetery, Baltic.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2729 Providence St., Taftville

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
DANIELSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Special Attention to Every Detail.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2.

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290. Lady Assistant.

LEGAL NOTICE

Registrars' Notice

The Registrars of Voters of the town of Norwich will meet in the several voting districts in said town on TUESDAY the 8th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1925 from 9 o'clock a. m. till 5 o'clock p. m. (standard time) or 10 o'clock a. m. till 6 o'clock p. m. (daylight saving time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

Electors in said town of Norwich before the annual town meeting to be held Oct. 5th, 1925.

In the First Voting District—At the Selectmen's Office in City Hall.

In the Second Voting District—At the voting booth Falls Avenue, West Side.

In the Third Voting District—At voting booth Central Avenue and Seventh St., Greeneville.

In the Fourth Voting District—At substation 2, 204 West Town St., Norwich Town.

In the Fifth Voting District—At Ponemah Large Hall, Taftville.

In the Sixth Voting District—At voting booth, Bishop School, 526 Main St., East Side.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., the 2nd day of September A. D. 1925.

TYLER D. GUY,
CORNELIUS J. DOWNES,
sept2d Registrars of Voters

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

WANTED—Male

LIVE WIRE SALES MGR.—For Florida real estate, also salesmen; good opportunity. Give phone number. Write to Box N. L. H., Bulletin. sept4th

WANTED—Work to locate water, for building wells. Have machinery for locating water. George Benoit, Riverside Taftville, Conn. sept4th

WANTED—Young man for work at Norwich Fair. See E. V. Ross, 63 Broadway, Saturday morning. sept4th

WANTED—Man looking for good selling opportunity; not afraid of work. Married man preferred. Write Box 550, Bulletin. augSMWFtf

WANTED—Sept. 15 good clean, reliable man for general farm work. Must be good milker. Good board and treatment and sixty dollars a month. Edwards Farm, Stonington, Conn. sept3d

WANTED—Salesmen and collectors, experience not necessary. We teach you. salary and commission. Chance for rapid advancement. See H. C. Lester, 48 Main St. sept2d

SALESMEN wanted. Apply Room 2, Chapman Bldg. 8-9 a. m. and 5-6 p. m sept2d

WANTED—First class plumber. Apply John Blum, 10 Main St. sept2d

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Experienced girl to work at Sellas Spa, Franklin Square. Apply from 12 to 8 p. m. sept4th

WANTED—Housework to do by the day. Tel 2521-J. sept4th

WOMEN—Embroider for us. We furnish all materials. Experience unnecessary. No canvassing. Pleasant work. Standard Mfgs. Sturgis, Mich. sept3d

WANTED—Girl to board. Reasonable price. Write Bulletin Box G-38. sept3d

WANTED—An experienced bookkeeper. Write Retail Bulletin Office. sept2d

WANTED—Experienced stenographer with some knowledge of bookkeeping desires position of responsibility. Address, stating salary, Bulletin Box E-36. sept2d

WANTED—Competent maid for general house work. References required. Tel. 2228 for appointment. aug31d

WANTED—Woman of middle age for general work about house. Apply to the Windham County Temporary Home for Children, Putnam, Conn. Tel. 1120. aug29d

WANTED.
Experienced Saleslades for steady positions. Good Salary.
IDEAL COTTON STORES
119 MAIN STREET.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—An upright piano or player. Please give description, condition, age and price wanted. Will pay cash and pay cartage. No dealers. Box 509, care Bulletin. sept4th

WANTED—Children to board from 1 to 7 years old, for terms, address Mrs. Merrie, Stafford Springs, Conn. sept4th

HIGHEST prices paid for good furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward. Box 388, Norwich. Phone 461-12 Norwich 406 Willimantic. mar17MWF

MACHINE SHOP WORK. We have a quantity of metal parts to be manufactured and would be glad to let contracts to machine shops capable of doing the work. Sea Sled Corporation, West Mystic, Conn. sept3d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 102 Franklin St. Phone 559. sept1d

WANTED—Antiques, tools and second hand furniture. H. B. Tiger, 48-50 Water St. Tel. 2143. sept1d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward, 16 Water St., Tel. 34 sept1d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 72 Market St. Phone 2158. sept1d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves; highest prices paid. Call 1405. sept1d

WANTED—Position by teacher. References. Write Box D27 Bulletin. aug29d

WANTED—The public to know that the Norwich Town cider mill is open for business. W. D. Thatcher, 42 Tanner St., Norwich Town. aug26d

A boy in Lebanon sez he don't believe that sayin' "eat an apple a day to keep the doctor away"; he sez he et 12 green ones and the doctor cum everyday. Van Der Meer Mild cigars, 2 for 20c. Heimar cigarettes, 20 for 20c, a 90c pipe and 16 oz. tin of Tuxedo, all for $1.00. Fagan's Smoke Shop. aug22d

WANTED—Land on state road with or without buildings. Unimproved property will be considered if price is reasonable. Apply to A. C. Burdick, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug13dtf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 8 Bath St. Tel. 2462. nov27d

FLORIDA PROPERTY WANTED—Acreage Lots, Etc., direct from owner; give location, description, lowest price, terms; quick transaction. P. O. Box 454, Springfield, Mass. jy23dtf

WANTED—Property owners to know that under my new real estate system I will buy your property direct or will sell for you on a commission basis. For particulars write Wm. M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. june2d.

WANTED!
Watches, Wrist Watches, Clocks of any makes; also all kinds of Jewelry to repair. Work guaranteed and done at once at the lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Write or telephone 2146.
OGULNICK JEWELRY CO.
77 Franklin St., Norwich, Conn.
(Est. 1907.)

AUCTION.

AUCTION OF ANTIQUES
Saturday, Sept. 5th, 1:00 P. M. (D.S.T.). At the Porter Home (formerly the old Tavern) consisting of early mirrors, cupboards, chairs, chests, bureaus, prints, glassware, etc.

FOR SALE—Horses

FOR SALE—One horse, either saddle or driving. Price $50. One general purpose horse. Also Federal tuberculin tested cows. Franklin Orcutt, South Coventry, Conn., Tel. Manchester 1064-3. sept3d

FOR SALE

ONE OF THE BEST:
40-acres, 3-4 mile from village and state road, 10-room house, hardwood floors, open fireplaces, large veranda, also small cottage, barn, 4 poultry houses, buildings extra good, smooth land, excellent trout brook, fruit and wood. Price only $6000—$2000 cash.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Parlor stove and baby crib. Inquire 351 East Main St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Brand new Victrolas, $25 model $12.50; $35 model $17.50; $50 model $25; $75 model $37.50; $110 model $55; $150 model $75. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Radiola III $17.50; Radiola III A $21.00; Ware 3 Tube Neutrodyne $35; Chelsea 6 Tube Tuned Radio Frequency Sets, $37.50. Many others at bargain prices. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Crosley Triadyn radio set, complete with tubes, storage battery, B batteries, head phones, loud speaker and aerial installation $85.00. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Cote 88 note player piano, golden oak case, $145. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—An upright New England piano in good condition. A nice piano to start a child on lessons, $69 on easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—8 room house and garage including 1 1-2 acres or more of land suitable for chicken place. 1-2 mile from depot on the old Canterbury turnpike. Inquire for Mrs. Rose Ouillette, Plainfield, Ct., Tel. 27-13. sept4th

GOOD UPRIGHT PIANO—Well known make in first class condition with splendid tone. Your own terms. Price only $159. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept2d

FOR SALE—$6500 buys one two family house and one cottage of 6 rooms, with all improvements on the best sections of the city, good incomes. Write Box 99-B, Bulletin Office. sept3

GULBRANSEN PLAYER-88 note. Can be bought for $179 on terms. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept2d

FOR SALE—8 piece dining room set, white iron bed, rugs, chairs, tables, oil stove, couch. (No dealers). R. H. Jepson, Andover, Conn. Tel. 202-3. sept3d

UPRIGHT PIANO $85—A high grade New England made piano with good looking well finished case and excellent tone. Terms as desired. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—New bungalow, 5 rooms and bath, with six lots of land. Thamesville section. Price $4,000. Inquire 256 W. Thames street. sept1d

FOR SALE—Farm known as the Conlon Place, located one mile from Baltic consisting of 42 acres land with fair house and barn. Price $2500. William M. McNicol, Maynard Building, Jewett City. sept2d

FOR SALE—Farm of 100 acres; 12-room house; good barns with or without stock and farming implements. Also, 6-room cottage with 3 acres. Lot at Groton Long Point. No phone calls. Inquire Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, South Windham, Conn. tfaug18d

FOR SALE—140 acre farm on State road with an exceptionally good farm house, located in one of the most picturesque sections of Eastern Connecticut. Owner really wants to sell. Price for immediate sale based accordingly. William M. McNicol, Maynard Building Jewett City, Conn. sept2d

120—COWS—120
Large Assortment of Fresh Cows from New York and Vermont.
JAMES H. HYDE
North Franklin, Conn.
Telephone Lebanon 30.

FOR SALE
MODERN TWO-APARTMENT HOUSE
With Two-Car Garage; desirably located on Laurel Hill Ave., within five minutes walk from Franklin Square.
For Further Particulars Inquire Of
JOHN A. MORAN
Real Estate Broker

FOR SALE
THE NEW TONGREN 7-ROOM COTTAGE. No. 3 JULIAN ST.
Modern and complete in every way.
Large One-car Garage.
Inspection Invited.
James L. Case
REAL ESTATE DEPT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE.
AT A SACRIFICE.
ATTRACTIVE BUNGALOW
Six rooms, bath and garage, large lot, modern in every way. Also complete house furnishings. Owner leaving town; will make sacrifice for quick sale. Apply to L. J. BRUETTE, 55 River Avenue.

FOR SALE
PLAYER PIANO
Absolutely new, high grade Player-Piano, at one-half of its value. A great bargain.
4 ROBBINS COURT, NORWICH

FOR SALE
1. Cosy Cottage of seven rooms; steam heated; centrally located. Price right if taken at once.
2. Cottage of eight rooms and sun room. All modern improvements. One-car garage. Five minutes' walk from center of city.
3. Two-tenement House on Laurel Hill Avenue. A Bargain.
4. A beautiful home in best section. House has eight rooms and every modern improvement. One-car garage. Inquire about this one if you would have a choice home.
5. Fine residence on Williams street. A bargain if taken this month.
INQUIRE OF
GRACE E. PARKHURST
Phone 1460. 57 Cliff Street.

Private Sale
Household Goods Consisting of tables, chairs, beds, china, kitchen range, feather pillows and square piano at 23 Coit street—
Sale Monday and Tuesday at 10 o'clock sharp.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

POLICE PUPPIES—Highly pedigreed; ideal farm dogs, playmates for children; come visit the largest German Shepherd Dog Kennels in the world. Phone or write. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly, Conn. sept4th

FOR SALE—Cider apples. Phone 1852-13. sept4th

STOVE PARTS for all makes of stoves We are the best equipped place for stove parts in New London. B. Kaplan, 80 Bank St. sept4th

FOR SALE—40 bushels of Dutchess pears for table or canning. T. H. Waid, Lebanon Station. Phone 21-14. sept4th

FOR SALE—Nine-room house and garage, at a low price; in best part of Norwich. Immediate possession. Phone 1431. sept4th

FOR SALE—6 room cottage, first class condition, all improvements, including new steam heater. On trolley line. Will be sold cheap. If interested call 265-12. sept2d

FOR SALE—Confectionery store, good business and the mill running full time, best stand. Apply Plainfield, Box. 427. sept2d

FOR SALE—White poodle puppies, just the thing to keep the baby quiet. Cheap. Apply at 35 Thames St., upstairs. sept2d

FOR SALE—Shepherd police dog puppies and grown stock, pure bred, registered dogs. Prices are reasonable. Cedar Ledge Police Dog Kennels, Stonington, Conn. Westerly road. sept2d

FOR SALE—3 tenement house and garage, with improvements, big lot. 31 Ripley Place. Call after 5 p. m., 70 Boswell avenue. sept1d

FOR SALE—Vermont cows, new milch and springers. Fred W. Hoxie, North Franklin. Tel 53-3 Lebanon. aug31d

VICTROLAS HALF PRICE—Brand new, fully guaranteed. When these are gone there will be no more. Don't delay. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug25d

PALISADE POLICE DOGS are a special strain of pedigreed dogs, highly developed for the all-around purposes of house guards, automobile companions, children's playmates, women's protectors and men's pals; as German Shepherd dogs they are especially suited for farm, cattle drivers and sheep herders. Exclusively bred by the world's largest Police Dog Kennels. Four miles from Danielson, near Providence pike. Palisade Kennels East Killingly, Conn. augldtf

FOR SALE—A small farm with good buildings and about 20 acres of land on state road, near Norwich. This property is in a class which is in much demand at present and will no doubt change ownership within the next few days. Investigate at once if interested in a very desirable country home. A. C. Burdick, Real Estate Broker, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. augid

FOR SALE—A 9-room house, garage, hen house and garden, near car line; also house lot near Backus Hospital, car every 15 minutes; and 6-room summer cottage at Lord's Point; all furnished. Adams Tavern, Phone 1062-3. jy22dtf

FOR SALE
Gasoline engine, silo cutter and team wagon in good condition.
JOE KOMINSKI
R. F. D. 4, Norwich

FOR SALE.
(1) Two-apartment House on Rock St.; (1) Two-apartment House on North Main St.; (1) Two-apartment House on Elizabeth St.; Cottage House of seven rooms on West Town St.
J. K. Panek, Agent.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Room 301-302 Disco Building.
Tel. 2746.

FOR SALE
The dwelling house, 8 barns, various useful out-buildings and 13 acres of good land known as the Martin Place and is located in Lebanon Center on the highway from Lebanon Village to Willimantic. The house is on a picturesque site and has a beautiful and extensive view of the surrounding country and is about five miles from Willimantic and eleven miles from Norwich over good roads. The property is in a good neighborhood convient to churches, district and high schools. The property is regarded by all persons as a very attractive and charming home place. The price is low and terms of payment will be made convenient to buyer. For all information apply to
WILLIAM H. SHIELDS of Norwich.
Or To
GEORGE B. MARTIN,
Lebanon Center, Conn.

FOR SALE
BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME
In finest residential section; 8 rooms all latest improvements. Tiled bath superb floors, extra toilet and lavatory, large sun room. House has many novel and up-to-date features seldom seen in homes costing under $35,000. Price most reasonable for such a fine residence.
Archa W. Coit
Telephone 2288-2. Disco Building.

FARM FOR SALE.
WITH STOCK & TOOLS
The Farm of the late Elizabeth McCarthy, located in Town of Franklin on Baltic road, and two miles from Baltic village, containing 30 acres good land mostly tillable. There is a 10 acre wood lot. Six room house, two barns, garage, henhouse, all buildings in good repair, about 75 fruit trees on place mostly bearing ones. This farm is ideally located and on good road and near to industries. Can give immediate possession of farm with Stock and Tools, with two barns full of hay. Price $4200.—for particulars inquire:
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block, Norwich.
Phone.

FOR SALE FOR SALE
A two family house of 12 rooms outside city with 50 acres land plenty of wood. Owner leaving town. Large barn included, electric light and improvements, all for $5500.
NORWICH LAND TITLE & INS. CO.
TEL. 2279.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Furnished rooms, 3 North Main street. sept1th

TO RENT—5 rooms, improvements, also garage. Tel 2661-W. Mrs. James Hewitt, Laurell Hill. sept4th

TO RENT—5 room tenement, modern improvements. 27 Elm St. sept4th

FOR RENT—5 room flat with hard and electric light, hard wood floor, set tubs. Located 420 East Main St., Price $21. Inquire A. V. Covello, 193 Cliff St., Tel. 1093-3. sept4th

TO RENT—Tenement with four rooms, gas and electricity. 47 5th St., Norwich, Conn. sept4th

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, 124 Oakridge St. Garage. sept3d

FOR RENT—4 room tenement or light housekeeping rooms. 6 Carter ave. Call Bellicchi, Phone 2468. sept3d

TO RENT—4 rooms with gas and electric light, located 74 North Main St., Price $16. Inquire A. V. Covello, 193 Cliff St., Tel 1093-3. sept3d

TO RENT—Ground floor tenement of five rooms with electric lights and gas. Adults only. Mrs. Carrie L. Pierson, 327 W Main St. sept3d

TO RENT—New tenement, 6 rooms and bath, all improvements. 248 West Thames St. Inquire 250 W. Thames. Rent very low. sept3d

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms, at 12 Terrington avenue. sept3d

TO RENT—Five room house, modern improvements. 138 Washington St., Inquire at 59 Cedar St. sept2d

TO RENT—To family of adults, 5 rooms and bath, all improvements. 82 Prospect St. sept2d

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished apartment of seven rooms. Near Chelsea Parade. Write Box C-70, Bulletin. sept1d

TO RENT—Furnished house in fine location, modern. Address M. J. K., Bulletin Office. sept1d

TO RENT—Very attractive three room flat; all improvements, steam heat. Inquire 259 West Main St. sept3d

TO RENT—One light housekeeping room, 1 furnished room. 41 Boswell Ave. Tel. 142. aug31d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. All improvements. Located in Thamesville. Tel 477-2. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement, six rooms. 253 Laurel Hill avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Three room tenement. Inquire 27 McKinley avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Oct. 1, to family of adults, 7 room cottage, modern improvements. 21 Oak St., Call 1484, 7 to 9 p. m. aug27d

TO RENT—Steam heated, 6 room apartment at 25 Washington St., all modern, rent reasonable. Phone 1153-13. aug26d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all improvements; also hard wood floors; 330 Franklin St. Inquire 324 Franklin St. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Three or four rooms, not furnished; also garage. 168 Laurel Hill Ave. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Two or three furnished rooms, light housekeeping. Phone 1869. tfaug10d

TO RENT—At 49 Washington St., a 5-room apartment. Inquire Gilbert Bowers, 330 Washington St. Phone 1332-2. aug13dtf

TO RENT—Apartments furnished for light housekeeping; all modern improvements. 27 Division St. ag12dtf

TO RENT—12-room apartment, 42 Church St. Inquire Charles W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. je26tf

TO RENT—Attractive 8-room cottage with garage; modern. Phone 759. jy22dtf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all conveniences; garden, fruit and garage; near school. Phone mornings, 1463. aug4d

TO RENT—Five-story brick building with freight elevator; suitable for wholesale business or storage. Tel. 1495. aug3d

TO RENT—If a desirable and permanent home is wanted, 7-room apartment in the Steiner Mansion, 77 Church St., or one at 172 Broadway. Rent reasonable. augldtf

TO RENT—Tenements, all improvements. 44 Laurel Hill Ave. jy20dtf

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, including heat; with or without garage. Inquire 210 West Main St. from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m jul11tf

TO RENT—Tenements in Greeneville and Franklyn St. Inquire at Goldblatt's Shoe Store, 46 Franklin St. Phone 717-4 may26d

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1-ton truck, just been painted and overhauled. Price $125 Phone 345-3. sept4th

FOR SALE—1924 Dodge sedan, 1924 Hupp sedan, 1924 Maxwell coach, 1924 Ford coupe, 1924 Ford touring, 1923 Dodge roadster, 1923 Maxwell touring, 1923 Essex touring. These cars have been put in A-1 condition and are ready for your inspection. Small down payment; balance in 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. sept4th.

FOR SALE—Chalmers car, six, 1923, touring sport, disk wheels, motor perfect shape, good rubber. Economical car to run, Mystic. Phone 549. sept2d

FOR SALE—1 Essex touring A-1 condition, see it at the Commercial Garage. price reasonable. sept1d

ADAMS TAVERN GARAGE—1925 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford touring; 1924 Dodge sedan; 1923 Anderson sedan; 1924 Overland touring; 1923 Buick sedan; 1919 Cadillac coupe; 1919 Cadillac phaeton; 1921 Studebaker small six, 1920 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford sedan, 1924 Ace motorcycle and side car; 1924 Chevrolet roadster; 1923 Overland touring. Open evenings. Cash or terms. aug27d

FOR SALE—Harley-Davidson and Excelsior motorcycles and side cars $35 to $150. James P. Donovan, 25 West Main St. Phone 703. jy25d

USED CARS

1923 Chevrolet Sedan	$385.00
1918 Oakland Sedan	75.00
1918 Vim Truck	$70.00
1922 Overland Touring	$120.00
1923 Overland Touring	$260.00
1922 Ford Touring	$95.00
1922 Willys-Knight Touring
1920 Nash Touring
Hudson Touring
1922 Harley-Davidson Motorcycle	$90.00
1921 Harley-Davidson Motorcycle	$65.00
1922 Ree Speed Wagon	$375.00
1915 Cadillac Touring	$160.00
1920 Ford Touring	$90.00
1925 Ford Coupe

STAR GARAGE
PLAINFIELD, CONN.
Phone 196. Open Evenings.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—On state road, between Westminster and Plainfield, blue coat, containing check. Please return to Bulletin Office or call Willimantic 141-4. sept2d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OLD CARS BOUGHT in any condition RODES BROS.
Corner West Main and Mt. Pleasant
Telephone 1391
Automobile parts at one-half price
apr20d

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
43 N. Main St. Phone 2118.

STAR GARAGE
"Make Your Dollar Have More Cents"
42 cars wrecked within two weeks. Buy used parts at half price. Phone 156 Plainfield, Conn.

ATTENTION!
I WANT THE PEOPLE TO KNOW THAT I DO ALL KINDS OF AUTOMOBILE AND TRUCK REPAIRING OF ALL MAKES. IGNITION STARTING AND LIGHTING SYSTEM REPAIRS ARE OUR SPECIALTY. BATTERIES RECHARGED AND REPAIRED. WE HAVE RENTAL BATTERIES, TIRES AND TNBES, SOLID AND VULCANIZED. ACETYLENE WELDING AND CARBON BURNING. ALL WORK FIRST CLASS AND SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.
CHARLES GLASKE
Tel. 11-4 Jewett City.
Service, North Main Street, Jewett City, Conn.

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.
Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

ARCHITECTS

FRANCIS DE GARDE Architect
Telephone 1695. New London Conn.
Consult us before doing any building mar11d

AUCTIONEERS

PUBLIC AUCTIONEERS
WITTER BROS.,
PUBLIC AUCTIONEERS,
Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Ct
Eighteen years of practical experience conducting sales of every known description throughout the Eastern United States.
Telephones:—
Office 32-12.
J. C. WITTER 31-14.
N. A. WITTER 248.
Danielson

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS
AT THE
AETNA BOWLING ALLEYS
Majestic Bldg. Tel. 1812.

CIGARS

Whitestone Cigars are $70 per thousand. J. F. COSANT, 11 Franklin St.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S. Chiropodist, Foot Specialist (protect your feet). Suite 7-8, Alice Bldg., 321 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Phone 735. nov10d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

IVAR JOHNSON
Carpenter and Contractor. Floor laying and surfacing a specialty. Old floors resurfaced like new. Estimates given. Phone 1162-2. aug27d

AMBROSE SULLIVAN
Telephone 2308-5
We give estimates on
Concrete Foundations and Cellars

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE BECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard sawed wood. Tel. 439. jy25dtf

WOOD—Best quality hard wood and slabs. Tel. 615-4. H. E. Beard & Son. jan31d

COAL, SEASONED WOOD and kindlings delivered anywhere, 6 baskets for $1.00. Phone 729. Park Wood Yard, 301 Franklin St. 23d

COAL, Seasoned Wood and kindlings in large or small quantities, delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1353-4. H. Shapiro, Willow St. nov23d

FOUNDRY

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
—Also—
Pattern Making and Machine Work.
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity.
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.
NEW LONDON, CONN.
Tel. 1120.

INSURANCE

IT IS NOT SO MUCH THE COST OF CARRYING INSURANCE, but what it will cost if you need it and have not carried it.
Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent
91 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

MUSIC.

FRANK DRAGO
Teacher of Violin
of Hartford, Conn., pupil of Pavel L. Bytovetzski, will teach in Norwich Thursday and Friday of each week, beginning Sept. 3d.
Studios: Room 213
93 Windsor Ave. Disco Bldg.
Hartford, Conn. Norwich, Conn.

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 65 Franklin Street.

PAINTING AND PAPERHANGING

GENERAL PAINTING and Paperhanging. Phone 2358-12. D. Kudlik. je21d

GEORGE NADOLNY, painting, paperhanging; estimates given. 49 Maple St. Tel. dec29d

ROOFING

Roll Roofing, $1.00 Per Roll
Slate Surfaced, $1.00 Per Roll
C. A. Ransom, 527 Concord Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Dept. M.

TRUCKING

BROADWAY TRANSFER
Transfers Everything
1357-2—PHONE—977-23
Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.
C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main Street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1582-3.
LONG DISTANCE TRUCKING. Very low rates. R. Blinderman. Phone 1362 ttapr4d
Established 1872 Telephone 17.
ARTHUR H. LATHROP
Auto Trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Hartford Street

A Bulletin To Let
Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICES.

STRIKE ON AT THE MYSTIC WORSTED COMPANY, AND ALL WEAVERS REQUESTED TO KEEP AWAY
PER ORDER OF COMMITTEE
Mystic, Conn., Sept. 3, 1925.

NOTICE

The Registrs of Voters of the town f Bozrah will meet in the town hall on uesday the 8th day of September from o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. to receive applications from or in behalf of persons to be placed on the list "To Be Made."

PATRICK J. SULLIVAN,
OLIVER C. GARDNER,
Registrars of Voters
Bozrah, Conn., Sept. 3, 1925.

DISTRICT OF COLCHESTER, ss. ourt of Probate, Sept. 3rd, 1925.
Estate of ANTHONY MESKAUSKAS, ate of Colchester, in said District, deased. Upon the application of Kamilia Meskauskas, praying for reasons set forth at administration may be granted in id estate represented intestate, as per pplication on file more fully appears, It

Ordered, that said application be heard nd determined at the probate office in Colchester in said district, on the 8th day f September A. D. 1925, at 10 o'clock n the forenoon, and that notice be given of the pendency of said application nd of the time and place of hearing hereon, by publishing the same once n some newspaper having a circulation in said district.

JOHN CONDREN, Judge

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at North Stonington in and for the district of North Stonington, on the 2nd day of September A. D. 1925.

Present, CHARLES C. GRAY, Judge.

Estate of FREDERICK J. APPLEY, late of North Stonington in said district deceased. The administrators having exhibited their administration account with said estate for allowance by this court, Ordered, that the 10th day of September A. D. 1925 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at a court of probate to be held at South Stonington probate room in the town of North Stonington in said district, be appointed for a hearing on the allowance of said account, and that notice of the time and place of said hearing be given, by publishing this order once in some newspaper having a circulation in said district, and by posting a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where the deceased last dwelt, and on the same town, and that due return be made to this court.

CHARLES C. GRAY, Judge

NOTICE!

BROOKLYN CENTER FIRE DISTRICT

At the annual meeting of the Brooklyn Center Fire district held Wednesday evening, August 19, at 8 o'clock, a tax of 3 1-4 mills was laid on the all property within the limits of the Fire District, on the assessment of October, 1924.

The purpose of this tax is to provide money for the maintenance of street lights, tax to be due September 9, 1925. It will be at the selectmen's office, Brooklyn, Thursday and Friday, September 10 and 11, from 6 to 8 p. m. to collect the above tax.

MARSHALL J. FRINK,
Secretary-Treasurer
Dated at Brooklyn, Conn., September 2, 1925.

Business Notices.

TRANSPORTATION

LONG ISLAND SOUND DAY—NIGHT SERVICE
Round Trip Fare $4.00
Via New London Line
Except Sun. & Mon. Daily
Lv. New London 9:00 A.M. 10:00 P.M.
Due New York 4:30 P.M. 6:00 A.M.
Special Midnight and Daylight Trips from New York (Eastern Standard Time)
Popular One Day Outings
Table D'hote Meal Service
Music and Dancing on Day Trips
Reduced Rates on Automobiles
The New England S. S. C

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2c to $5 Roll. Only new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut sts. T. L. McClenathan, Mgr.

WELDING

WELDING
Electric and Acetylene. Frames and Axles welded and straightened. Machine Parts and Farm Machinery. Cylinder Blocs welded on car. No Pre-Heating or Warping.
General Blacksmithing
Truck Bodies
Spring Work.

NORWICH WELDING CO.
35 North Main St. Phone 214.

LEGAL NOTICES

Registrars' Notice

The registrars of voters in the town of Preston will be in session at the town hall, on Tuesday, Sept. 8th, 1925 from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. to place on list "To Be Made" the names of those, in behalf of whom application is made to either registrar, in the manner provided in the general statutes.

Signed,
W. R. McCLIMON,
C. L. DAWLEY,
Registrars of Voters

Date at Preston, this 3rd day of September, 1925.

Registrars' Notice

The registrars of voters of the town of Colchester will meet in said town on Tuesday the 8th day of September, 1925, from 9 a. m. till 5 p. m. (standard time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

lectors in said town of Colchester before the annual town meeting to be held on 5th, 1925.

Dated at Colchester, Conn., the 3rd day of September, 1925.

JOHN J. SHEA,
FRED S. BAKER,
Registrars of Voters

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

RALLY IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—A complete reversal of form characterized today's stock market which rallied briskly under the leadership of the high priced industrial specialties. These so-called "rich men's stocks" showed net gains of 3 to 8 points, with more moderate advances taking place in the standard rails and industrials. General Railway Signal soared 23 points to 360. Trading was in smaller volume, the day's sales aggregating about one and one quarter million shares.

The recovery apparently was influenced by the raising of the Frisco dividend, lower call money rates and favorable trade news. Bear traders made another attempt to unsettle the general list, but encountered strong support and eventually rushed to cover when they became convinced that necessitous liquidation had been completed at least temporarily.

American Can closed 6 5-8 points higher at 224 7-8; Du Pont 6 at 152; General Electric 4 at 309 1-2; Mack Truck 7 at 205; Nash Motors 6-4 at 407 1-4 and Sears Roebuck 8 at 208. One of the features of the session was the sudden revival of activity and strength in the shares of bituminous coal companies, probably in reflection of an increased demand for that product as a result of the anthracite strike. Pittsburgh Terminal Coal soared nearly ten points to 53 1-4, closing within a point of the top, and Pittsburgh Coal showed a net gain of 2 1-2 points at 44 1-2.

Frisco common responded to the announcement of the higher dividend by climbing over two point to 101 7-8, or within a small fraction of its record high, and then yielding to 101 on profit taking. Net gains of a point or two were recorded by a number of other popular rails including New York Central, Erie common and first preferred, Western Pacific, Western Maryland, New Haven and Rock Island.

Further evidence of the improving earning power and increased operating efficiency of the railroads was provided in a report of the bureau of railway economies which showed that the net railway operating income of the class 1 roads in July was $39,462,735, compared with $74,368,289 in July last year, an increase of $25,094,446. For the first seven months the total net operating income was $537,165,541 as against $466,718,335 in the same period in 1924.

Reports of expanding steel operations coincided with an advance in the steel shares. Common stock of the United States Steel Corporation, which is expected to make public one of the best tonnage statements of recent months next week, closed 1 1-4 higher at 120. Sloss-Sheffield rallied over 3 points on a few sales.

There were a few weak spots scattered throughout the list, notably American Agricultural Chemical preferred, Brown Shoe, Mathieson Alkali, New York Shipbuilding, Otis Elevator and United States Hoffman Machinery, off 3 to 4 points.

Call money was in plentiful supply, the renewal rate being lowered to four per cent., which remained unchanged throughout the day. Time money and commercial paper rates held steady.

There were several interesting demarket. Demand sterling fell below velopments in the foreign exchange $4.84 1-2 to within a small fraction of the so-called "gold point" below which it would be profitable to import gold. Norwegian and Danish kroner each rallied over 50 points to new high records at 21 and 25 cents respectively. French francs were slightly lower around 4.68 1-2 cents. Brazilian milreis dropped about half a cent to 12 1-2 cents, the lowest figure in about a week.

STOCKS.

Sales in hundreds	High.	Low.	Close
4 Adv Rumely pr 55	54	55
3 Ahumada Lead	10⅝	10⅛	10⅜
8 Air Reduct	105⅜	104⅜	104⅛
14 Ajax Rubber	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛
38 Al Ch & Dye	101⅝	106⅛	101½
7 Allis Chalmers	86⅛	85	86
1 Al Ch & D pr	120	120	120
1 Allis Chalm p	107½	107½	107½
7 Am Ag Ch	21⅜	21¼	21¼
7 Am A C pr	63⅞	62⅜	63⅝
1 Am Beet Sugar	34⅜	34⅜	34⅜
4 Am Bosch Mag	31½	31¼	31½
212 Am Can	225	220	224⅞
3 Am Can pr	121	120⅝	121
5 Am C & Fdy	106	105⅜	106
6 Am Chicle	42⅜	42	42
3 Am Drug Syn	5	5	5
18 Am & F P	39⅜	38⅝	38½
3 Am & F P pr	90½	90½	90½
2 Am H & L	10	9⅝	10
2 Am H & L pr	60½	60¾	60½
4 Am Ice	119¼	118	119¼
2 Am Ice pr	82½	82¼	82¼
13 Am Int Corp	37⅞	37⅛	37½
4 Am La F Fl E	13⅝	12⅞	12½
3 Am Linseed	33	32⅝	33
34 Am Loco	117	116¼	116⅞
2 Am Metals	50½	50	50⅜
1 Am Repub	55⅜	55⅜	55⅜
10 Am Saf Razor	60½	59½	60½
2 Am Chip&Com	6¾	6½	6⅞
52 Am Smelt	108⅜	107⅜	107⅜
1 Am Smelt pr	112⅛	112⅛	112⅛
6 Am St Fdrs	69⅞	69⅛	69⅞
27 Am Sug Ref	65⅞	65	65⅝
18 Am Tel & Tel	140⅛	140	140⅜
70 Am Tobacco	104	100½	103⅜
11 Am Tob B	100¼	99⅜	100
3 Am Tob pr	107⅞	107⅞	107⅛
8 Am Tob pr	107⅛	107⅛	107¼
1 Am Type Fdrs	115½	115⅛	115⅛
35 Am Wat Wks	61	57½	60
18 Am Woolen	39½	38⅜	38⅝
6 Am Wool pr	39½	38⅝	38⅝
6 Am Wool pr	87⅞	87⅜	87⅝
2 Am Zc L&S	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
80 AG&WI S pr	5⅞	5¾	5⅝
21 Anaconda Cop	41⅝	40⅝	41⅜
1 Ann Arbor	40⅞	40¾	40⅞
1 Ann Arbor pr	55	55	55
4 Archer D M	37⅜	37½	37⅜
1 Arch D M pr	98	98	98
4 Arm&Co Del pr	96⅛	96	96⅝
66 Arm Co Ill	23½	22⅝	23½
2 Arnold Constab	9¾	9⅝	9⅝
5 Asso Dry Gds	51	50½	50½
7 Asso Oil	35⅜	35⅛	35⅜
21 Atchison	122	121	122
18 Atl Bir & Atl	6⅞	6½	6⅞
17 Atl Coast Line	184⅞	180	184⅝
52 Atl Gulf & W I	58½	55⅜	57½
2 Atl G & W I pr	54½	54½	54½
1 Atlas Powder	50	50	50
11 Austin Nichols	27⅝	27	27
199 Baldwin Loco	120⅜	119⅝	118⅝
1 Baldwin Lo pr	110	110	110
21 Balt & O	78½	77⅞	78⅛
1 Balt & O pr	65⅜	65⅜	65⅜
12 Bang & Aroos	43¼	43	43
5 Barnsdall Cp A	19½	18⅞	19⅜
2 Barns Cp B	16¼	16⅛	16⅛
1 Bayuk Cigars	39⅜	39⅜	39⅜
1 Bayuk 1 pr	96	96	96
27 Beechnut Pack	72⅝	71⅞	72
2 Belding Bros	27⅞	27½	27¾
13 Beth Steel	40⅝	40¼	4 40⅛
1 Beth Stl 7 pr	96	96	96
2 Booth Fish	6¼	6¼	6¼
21 Briggs Mfg Co	36⅞	36⅝	36¾
3 Bkyn Edison	136⅝	136½	136⅞
25 Bkyn Man Tran	54⅛	53	53⅞
6 Bkyn Un Gas	85	84⅜	84⅞
11 Brown Shoe	132	128	132
8 Bruns Bal Col	30½	30⅛	30⅛
2 Burns Bros B	26	26	26
28 Burr Add Mch	98½	98	98½
1 Bush Term ctfs	17	17	17
1 Bush Tr 7pcdb	85	85	85
8 Butte Con	6	5⅞	6
4 Butte & S C	11⅝	10⅞	10⅝
5 Calif Pack	119	119	119
26 Cal Petrol	25½	26	26
5 Callahan zc Ld	2½	2½	2½
3 Calu & Ariz	49⅜	49⅜	49⅜
2 Canad Pac	140⅞	140⅞	140⅞
3 Case Thresh pr	86¼	86¼	86¼
9 Cent Leather	18⅝	18⅝	18⅝
10 Cent Leath pr	61½	60½	61⅛
1 Cent Rib Mills	31	31	31
10 Cerro de Pas	51¾	51¾	51¾
19 Certainteed	53⅛	52½	53
1 Certant 1 pr	110	110	110
2 Certainteed 2 pr	99⅞	99½	99⅞
7 Chandler Mot	31	30¾	31
48 Chen & O	104⅜	102⅞	104
1 Chi & Alt	6	6	6
3 Chi & Alt pr	11⅞	11¼	11⅝
7 Chi & Gt W	12	11⅝	12
11 Chi Gt West pr	25⅝	24⅞	25⅛
24 Chi M & St P	8¾	8	8
18 Chi M & St P p	15⅝	15	15⅝
11 Chi & North W	66	66	66
68 Chi Pneu Tool	119¼	116⅞	119¼
39 C R I & P	47½	46⅜	47½
1 CRI & P 6pc pr	85⅝	85⅜	85⅝
9 Childs Co	56	55½	56
12 Chile Copper	33⅞	33⅛	33⅝
3 Chime Cop	22	22	22
117 Chrys Motor	138⅝	134	137½
1 Chrys Mot prA	106⅛	106⅛	106⅛
31 Coca Cola	138⅝	138	138⅛
4 Col F & I	38⅛	37	37½
1 Col & South	68¾	68¼	68¼
1 Col & So 1 pr	63⅛	63⅛	63⅛
71 Col G & E	71¾	70½	71⅜
1 Col Car	46⅞	46⅝	46½
2 Com Solv A	96	96	96
24 Con Nairn	24¼	23⅝	24¼
1 Conley Tin st	⅞	⅞	⅞
99 Con Cigar	43⅞	40⅝	41
7 Con Cigar pr	59	58¼	59
3 Cons Dist	4⅝	4⅜	4⅜
22 Consol Gas	87¼	86⅝	87
24 Cont Can	72⅞	71	72⅞
13 Cont Mot	9⅛	9	9⅛
77 Corn Prod	37⅛	36½	37⅛
12 Cruc Steel	74	72⅛	72⅞
19 Cuba Ca Sug	9⅞	9⅛	9⅞
35 Cub C S pr	45⅞	43	44
17 Cub Am Sug	24⅞	24⅜	24½
4 Cub Dom Sug	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
4 Cudaty Pack	96½	95¼	96½
6 Cuyamel Fruit	52	51⅝	51⅝
3 Dan Bodne WM	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
18 Davison Chem	39⅞	39½	39⅛
1 Deere Co pr	104	104	104
1 Del & Hud	143½	142½	142½
59 Dodge Bros A	24⅝	24⅝	25⅛
63 Dodge Bros pr	84½	83⅝	84½
5 Dome Mines	15	15	15
2 Douglas Pectin	21¼	21	21¾
26 DuP de N	152¼	146	152
106 East Kodak	106	106	106
26 Eaton Axle	23⅞	23⅝	23⅝
116 El Pw&Lt ctfs	29⅜	28⅝	29¾
1 El P&L 40pcpr	104	104	104
5 Elec Bat	104	103	103
1 Emers Brant	4	4	4
1 Em Fr pr	23	23	23
3 Endicot John	67½	67¼	67½
1 Endi John pr	115¼	115¼	115¼
11 Erie R R	31¼	30⅞	31¼
18 Erie 1 pr	40¼	38⅞	40¼
3 Erie 2 pr	38	37⅞	38
1 Fair Morse&Co	44⅛	44⅛	44⅛
1 Fam Pl F prrc	104	104	104
46 Fam Pl Las	107⅝	106	106⅜
4 Fed Lt&Tr	26⅜	26¼	26⅜
3 Fed M & Sm pr	58	58	58
25 Fisher Body	81½	79½	81½
70 Fisk Rub	22	22	22
34 Fleisch Co	107½	107½	107½
19 Foundation Co	134¼	132½	134¼
5 Freeport Texas	15⅝	15	15
22 Gab Snub	32⅞	31½	32
1 Gardner Mot	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
1 Gen Am Tk p	101	101	101
14 Gen Asphalt	52¼	50⅝	52¼
3 Gen Asph pr	96	95⅝	95⅝
5 Gen Bak	176	175	176
1 Gen Cigar	89	89	89
46 Gen Elec	310½	305	309½
23 Gen El spl	111¾	111¼	111¾
104 Gen Motors	90⅞	87⅜	90⅝
4 Gen Mot 7 pr	113½	112	112
5 Gen Outd AdA	47⅝	47¼	47⅜
19 Gen Outd A cf	30⅝	29½	30
25 Gen Pet	43½	43	43⅜
19 Gen Ry	360	340	360
4 Gimbel Bros	57¾	55½	57
4 Ginter Co	45¾	45¾	45¾
15 Glidden Co	20½	20½	20⅝
15 Glidden Co pr	20¼	20¼	20⅜
22 Goodrich B F	54⅜	53⅝	54⅜
10 Goodrich BFpr	100	99½	100
2 Gdyr T&R pr	104	104	104
1 Gdyr T&R p pr	107	107	107
3 Granby Min	16½	16⅛	16⅛
14 Gt North pr	71⅜	70⅝	71⅜
6 Gt Nor I O P	27⅝	27⅜	27⅝
8 Gt West Sug	100	100	100
1 Greene Can Cp	12⅜	12⅜	12⅛
26 Gulf Moh&No	34½	31⅝	34¼
15 Gulf St&F pr	103⅝	102	102⅝
8 Gulf Stn Steel	79⅜	77⅝	79
1 Hartman Cp	27⅝	27⅜	27⅜
7 Hayes Wheel	38¼	38	38¼
2 Homestake	45½	45½	45½
8 Household Pd	41	41	41
5 Houston Oil	62⅜	62⅛	62⅛
9 Howe Sd Co	23¼	22⅞	23⅛
14 Hud & Man	35	33⅞	35
1 Hud & Man pr	69½	67½	69⅜
80 Hudson Motor	62⅞	61⅞	62⅜
13 Hupp Motors	18	17⅝	17⅞
3 Illins Cent	115½	115	115½
33 Ind Oil & Gas	24½	23½	24
4 Ind Motorcycle	21	21	21
1 Ind Refin	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
2 Ing Rand	275	276	275
19 Insp Cop	26⅜	25⅝	26⅜
4 Inter Rap T	26⅞	26⅝	26⅞
4 Int Rap T	26⅞	26⅝	26⅝
8 Int Ag Cp	13½	13	13⅛
6 Int Cement	69¾	69½	69
2 Int Cem Pr	104	104	104
36 Int Comb Eng	45½	44½	45½
36 Int Harv Co	124⅜	120⅝	123⅝
1 Int Mer Mar	8	8	8
2 Int Mer Mar pr	29¾	29¾	29¾
61 Int Nickel	33	32½	33
1 Int Nickel pr	97¾	97¾	97¾
27 Int Pa	66¾	64½	66⅜
1 Int Pa 7 pc pr	90¾	90¾	90¾
4 Int Ry Cop Am	31⅝	31½	31½
1 Int Shoe pr	116⅜	116⅜	116⅜
26 Int T & T	124½	121¼	123½
1 Jones Bros Tea	16¼	16¼	16¼
1 Jones Tea	16¼	16¼	16¼
9 Jordan Mot	40⅜	40	40⅜
31 Kan C Sug	37⅞	36½	37½
1 Kan & Gulf	⅝	⅝	⅝
3 Kayser J & Co	31	30⅝	30⅝
1 Kayser J & Co	95	95	95
44 Kelly Spg	17¼	15¼	15½
1 Kel Spg 6 pc pr	60	60	60
92 Kenn Cop	54⅜	53⅞	53⅞
1 Keystone Tire	2	2	2
1 Kin Co pr	100	100	100
1 Laclede Gas	161	161	161
7 Lee Rub & T	15¼	15	15⅞
4 Lehigh Valley	7⅞	7	7⅞
3 Lig & My Tob	67	66¼	67
21 Lig & My TbB	66½	66	66½
2 Lima Loco	64½	63⅞	64½
36 Loew Inc	34⅝	33½	34⅛
4 Lorll Co	35⅝	34⅝	35
1 Lorillard pr	116	116	116
20 Louis&O Ref	14⅜	13⅜	14
11 Louis G&E A	24½	23¾	24½
3 Louis & Nash	115	114	115
60 Lud Steel	33¼	32½	33¼
192 Mack Truk	205½	197⅜	205
1 Mack Tk I pr	113¾	112¼	113
1 Mackay Cos	129½	129½	129½
6 Macy R H Co	93½	93½	93⅝
9 Magma Cop	41¼	41	41¼
4 Mallison & Co	25½	25½	25⅝
4 Manati Sugar	46⅜	46	46⅛
4 Man El Sup	51⅝	51	51⅝
2 Manh Shirt	29¼	29	29
3 Mara O Ex	21	21	21
7 Marl Rock rt	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
37 Marland Oil	41	40⅜	40⅜
4 Marl Rockwell	24½	24⅜	24½
6 Martin Parry	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
3 Mathie A Wks	76	76	76
5 May Dept Sts	117½	117⅛	117½
1 McCr Strs B	91⅝	91⅜	91⅝
5 Mcln Porc M	19	18⅝	18⅝
4 Metro Goldw pr	21	20¾	20¾
1 Metro Ed pr	116	116	116
5 Mex Seab Oil	12⅝	12½	12⅝
6 Miami Copper	9⅝	8⅝	9⅝
25 Mid Cont Pet	28	26⅞	28
11 Mid Sts Oil	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
7 Midl St P pr	128	136½	138
1 Min SP&SSMp	70⅞	70⅞	70⅞
150 Mo K & T	43¼	41½	43⅛
8 Mo K & T pr	88¾	87⅝	87¾
19 Mo Pac	35¾	35⅛	35
19 Mo Pac pr	85¾	83	83¾
128 Montana Power	84⅛	79⅝	84
100 Montg Ward	68½	67¼	68½
9 Moon Motors	32¼	31½	32
4 Mother Lode	7⅝	7¼	7¼
15 Mot Met A	41½	40⅝	41¼
7 Mother Wheel	29½	29½	29½
2 Nash Motors	407¼	406¼	407¼
26 Nat Biso	71¼	70½	70½
20 Nat Dair P ctfs	66¾	65	65¼
1 Nat Dpt	40½	40½	40½
2 Nat Dist Pr	33	32⅞	33
1 Nat Dist P pr	64½	64½	64½
4 Nat En & St	36½	35¼	36⅛
1 Nat Rys M 1 pr	57½	57½	57½
13 Nat Rys M 2pr	2½	2½	2½
9 Nev Con Cop	13⅝	13⅛	13⅜
80 N Y Air Bk	47¾	46¾	47⅓
2 N Y Air B	54½	54½	54½
5 N Y Can	49⅝	48⅝	48⅝
46 N Y Central	119¾	119⅛	119½
2 N Y Ch & St L	129¾	128½	128½
4 NY C & St L p	94	93¼	94
3 N Y Dock	31⅝	30	31¾
81 N Y N H & H	36⅜	35½	36⅛
25 N Y Ont & W	29½	28¾	29
12 N Y Ship Bldg	55¼	55¼	55¼
5 N Y State Ry	5	5	5
85 Nor & West	134	131½	133½
57 No American	58	57½	58
1 No Amer pr	50¼	50⅜	50½
24 No Pac	68⅞	67¾	68⅝
23 Nor T & R	16⅝	15⅝	16⅜
2 Orph Circuit	29½	29½	29½
1 Orpheur Cir pr	101	101	101
7 Otis Elevator	131	129	131
16 Otis Steel	13	12⅜	12⅜
9 Otis Steel pr	93	90	90
10 Owens Bottle	56	55⅜	55⅜
1 Pacific Coast	23½	23½	23½
1 Pac G&E	110	110	110
31 Pacific Oil	53¼	52⅝	53¼
1 Pac Tel & Tel	113	113	113
176 Packard Motor	38⅝	37	38⅛
1 Paige Det Mot	20	20	20
14 Pan Am Pet	61¼	59½	61
107 Pan Am Pet B	62	60⅝	62
2 Panh PrAR	13¼	13⅛	13⅛
5 Park & Til	27½	27	27
6 Penn C & Ir	15⅜	14⅞	15⅜
29 Penn R R	47¼	47	47⅜
3 Peop Gas Chi	114½	114⅜	114⅜
3 Perg Marq	69	68½	68½
1 Pere Marq pr	74	74	74
6 Phil Co	57⅝	57	57
26 Phil&Rdg C&Ir	41⅝	40¼	41⅜
22 P Mor & Co	24⅜	23⅝	24¼
78 Phillips Pet	37⅞	37	37⅞
1 Phoenix Hos	33	3	33
398 Pierce Arrow	40	38½	39½
38 Pierce Ar pr	87½	85⅞	87
3 Pierce Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
113 Pierce Pet	5¼	5	5⅛
12 Pitts Coal	44½	43⅜	44⅛
2 Pitts C pr	85⅝	85⅝	85⅝
22 Pitts Term Cl	53¼	46	46
1 Pitts Util pr	14¼	14¼	14¼
7 Pitts & W	73	72¾	72⅞
16 Postum Cereal	131½	127⅞	130½
2 Press Stl Car	55⅜	54⅝	55⅛
8 Prod & Ref	14⅝	13⅞	14⅜
1 P Ser E P pr	105⅜	105⅜	105⅜
53 Pub Ser N J	80⅝	79½	80⅜
1 P Ser N J 8pcpf	116	116	116
3 Pullman Co	141½	140½	131¼
10 Punta Al Sug	34⅛	33	33¼
14 Pure Oil	26⅝	25⅝	26¾
2 Pure Oil pr	108	108	108
115 Radio Corp	54⅜	53½	54⅜
1 Radio Corp pr	48	48	48
31 Ry St Spring	131⅝	130	131⅝
18 Ray Con Cop	13⅜	13	13⅛
21 Reading	84⅜	83¾	84⅛
5 Reading rts	18⅜	18	18⅜
1 Reid Ice Cream	94	94	94
2 Reid Ice Cr	51⅞	50½	50½
13 Reis & Co Robt	24⅝	23½	24⅛
1 Reis Co 1 pr	90	90	90
1 Rem Type	78	78	78
4 Rep Steel	14¼	14	14¼
5 Rep I & St	47½	47½	47½
1 Rep I & S pr	90⅛	90⅛	90⅛
7 Ry Spring	85⅜	85⅜	85⅜
20 Rey Tob B	83	82¼	82⅝
3 Rossia Ins Co	89½	89½	89½
6 Roy Dutch NY	49⅝	49	49⅛
10 St Jos Lead	39½	38⅝	39½
298 St L & S F	101⅞	101	101
30 St L Southw	56⅜	55½	56
14 Savage Arms	64⅜	63	64⅝
7 Schulte R Stor	102	101⅜	102
39 Seab Air L	44	43	43½
23 Seab A L pr	46⅜	45½	46
4 Seagrave Corp	14½	14⅜	14⅜
52 Sears Roeb	205	199⅛	204⅜
39 Shat FG Co	73¾	70½	73⅜
18 Shell Un Oil	22½	22⅛	22⅜
1 Shell Un Oil pr	103¾	103¾	103¾
20 Simmons Co	47⅜	47⅜	47⅜
38 Simms Pet	19¼	17⅝	19¼
34 Sinc Con Oil	18½	18½	18½
5 Sinc Cn Oil pr	88½	87½	87½
59 Skelly Oil	25⅝	24½	25¼
5 Sloss Sh H&Ir	99	97½	99
25 South Pac	97½	97½	97⅜
64 South Ry	104⅜	103¾	104⅛
10 Sou Ry pr	91⅞	91⅝	91⅞
32 Spicer Mfg	29	28	29
57 Std Gas & El	54⅞	53⅝	54⅜
1 Std G&E pr	53	53	53
30 St G & E rts	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
21 Std Oil Cal	53	52	53
54 Std Oil N J	39	38⅞	39
10 Std Oil NJ pr	116⅜	116⅜	116⅜
2 Std Pl Glass	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
3 Sterling Prod	69½	68½	68½
18 Stew War Spd	68½	67⅝	68½
1 Sthomb Carb	69½	69½	69½
52 Studebaker	46⅝	45½	45⅝
6 Sum Boat	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
1 Super

PARTLY CLOUDY TODAY; FAIR TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN. FRIDAY, SEPT. 4, 1925

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich Friday, Sept. 4, 1925

WEATHER

Conditions

During the last 24 hours showers and thunderstorms have occurred in portions of the middle Atlantic and north Atlantic states.

It has become warmer in the lake region and the Ohio valley. Elsewhere changes have been unimportant.

The outlook is for showers in New England on Friday, it will be warmer on Saturday in New England.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh southeast and south and weather partly overcast with occasional showers Friday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh south and southwest and weather partly overcast with occasional showers Friday.

Forecast

For New England: Partly cloudy Friday; probably showers; Saturday fair and warmer.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Thursday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	58	30.00
12 m.	62	30.00
6 p. m.	62	29.90

Highest 62; lowest 58.

Comparisons

Predictions for Thursday: Partly cloudy, slightly warmer.

Thursday's weather: Rainy, and cooler.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES
(Standard Time)

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
31	5.13	6.24	7.32	2.16
1	5.14	6.22	8.24	3.29
2	5.15	6.21	9.15	rises
3	5.16	6.19	10.05	7.12
4	5.17	6.17	10.54	7.44
5	5.18	6.16	11.44	8.15
6	5.19	6.15	12.34	8.47

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic J. Werking of Atlanta, Ga., have been visiting friends in town this week. Mr. and Mrs. Werking who made the trip north by motor and who are now en route for Atlanta, were former residents of North Second avenue, at the time when Mr. Werking was superintendent of the Wequonnoc School of this village.

Miss Mabel Hodgkinson of North Second avenue is spending this week in New York.

Louis J. Frechette of New Haven, a former Taftville resident spent some time this week with friends in the village. Mr. Frechette has recently been elected assistant secretary of the Elm City Building & Loan Association of New Haven.

A New England textile journal in referring to the death of the late Lewis A. Tillinghast says in its current issue. "Lewis A. Tillinghast of New Haven, formerly employed at the office of the Taftville mills for over fifty years, passed away last week after an operation. Mr. Tillinghast had been for the full period of service, a faithful man for the Ponemah mills Co., and at his retirement last spring, all regretted that the genial friend and fellow worker was obliged to relinquish the work. He was known by every worker and citizen of Taftville, and was of strong character, firm friendship and gentle in his dealings with others."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knowles and son of Norwich avenue moved this week to one of the apartments in the house owned by James B. Jackson, on lower Norwich avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Newsham of Terrace avenue have taken a house on Norwich avenue.

Frank Hodkinson of Providence street has accepted a position with the American Railway Express Co. of Norwich, and with his family has moved to School street, Norwich.

For the past few days men employed by the Connecticut Co., have been welding the car tracks on North and South second avenue.

Rev. U. O. Bellerose, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church and Rev. J. M H. Bastien, pastor of Notre Dame church of St. Johnsbury, Vermont, will sail from Montreal, Canada, next Wednesday for Cherbourg, en route for Rome.

Miss Louise Sigrist, R. N. of Merchants avenue was in Jewett City Thursday.

Thomas Whitehead and Miss Lillian Snell of Westerly, R. I., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Whitehead of Boswell avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Armand Chenette and son Leon of Norwich Ave., have left town Thursday, and are going to Rochester, N. Y., where Mr. Chenette has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene K. Rosa and son Francis, have returned to their home on Norwich Ave., after spending the month of Aug. at Hamilton and Syracuse, N. Y.

Workmen's Compensation.

The following workmen's compensation agreements have been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donohue:

The Aspinook Co., Jewett City, employer, and Napoleon Derosier, Glasco, employe, wrenched back, Aug. 6, at rate of $10.15.

Spoke at Rotary Conclave.

J. Holland Larrabee of Newburyport, formerly of this city, was a speaker at Concord, N. H., Tuesday, at the conclave of the eighth district of Rotary clubs.

Magnificent parrots peculiar to certain of the Lesser Antilles are threatened with extinction.

Safe Milk and Diet For Infants, Invalids, The Aged

For Growing Children

Contains the valuable muscle and bone forming elements found in the grain and whole milk. Raises happy, robust children. Nutritious and easily assimilated.

Prepared at home by stirring the powder in hot or cold water. No cooking.

NORWICH JEWELRY THIEF HAS ESCAPED FROM STATE PRISON

Frank Land, alias Harry Johnson, who was sent to state prison at Wethersfield from the superior court in this county for theft at the Sandford jewelry store in this city, in May, 1917, escaped from Wethersfield some time Wednesday night by sawing a way out of the top of his cell. Escaping with him was Michael J. McDonnell, who was serving a life sentence for the murder of William J. Madden, a guard at one of the silk storehouses of Cheney Brothers in Manchester. After the men got out of their cells they made their way through ventilators to the roof and then dropped to the ground.

Johnson was sent to state prison in September, 1917, when he was sentenced to from 4 to 5 years for jewelry theft and 3 years for attempting to break jail.

He was one of three men who went into the Main street jewelry store of James Sandford of this city on May 24, 1917, grabbed a tray of diamond rings and dashed up into Church street where they had an automobile waiting. His accomplices were Edward Johnson, alias Edward Morrissey, and James Cunningham. They got away from the store with four diamond rings and a gold watch, worth all together $427.50. Fleeing towards Colchester, they were pursued in another automobile by Norwich policemen whom Chief Linton sent on their trail, and at Colchester the robbers threw away the tray of jewelry. The three men were caught at Middletown by the Middletown police as the fugitives were crossing the bridge. They were returned to the Norwich jail to await trial and while there the two Johnsons gave Turnkey William Simpson an unmerciful beating, took his keys away from him and attempted to make their way out of jail. But they were thwarted because the bunch of keys they took from Simpson did not contain a key that would fit the outer door.

When the men were put on trial in the superior court each got a sentence for attempting to break jail in addition to the sentences for theft. Edward Johnson, alias Morrissey, was given 2 to 3 years for theft and 2 more years for jail breaking. Cunningham was sent to the reformatory at Cheshire.

Land, alias Johnson, has made one other escape from Wethersfield. This was on the night of December 23, 1919, with three other prisoners. He in some way secured a hacksaw and, using chewing gum to deaden the noise sawed out three bars in his cell. He went to the other men's cells and helped them pry the locked bars The men broke into the store room and secured a bolt of cloth, and escaping through the bathroom from the lock to which they unscrewed the bolts, and into the yard they used the bolt of cloth to go over the wall. Three of the men, among them Land, were captured in Meriden the following day. The fourth is now serving in Massachusetts, where he was later caught.

Ast soon as the escape was discovered Thursday alarms were sent to all parts of the state with the additional warning, it is understood, that McDonnell is a desperate man. It is also understood tha Land was regarded as a very capable man by prison officers and as a fugitive may be able to make his way out of the state.

McDonnell has used the aliases Peter J. Brennan, "Lefty" Brennan, "Lefty" McDonnell and John Brennan. He is 45 years old, weighs 127 pounds, is five feet, four and a quarter inches in height and has gray hair and blue eyes. He is married.

Land is 29 years old, weighs 152 pounds and is five feet, eight and one-half inches in height. He has blue eyes, blonde hair and a light complexion. Land is a Norwegian and is single. His alias is Harry Johnson.

Prison authorities Thursday afternoon announced two rewards of $500 each for the appresension of the escaped prisoners.

ROAD CONDITIONS AND DETOURS ARE REPORTED

Road conditions and detours in Eastern Connecticut where highway work is in progress are reported as follows in Eastern Connecticut by the state highway department:

Montville, Norwich-Hadlyme road is under construction. Open to traffic shoulders incomplete.

Plainfield, Putnam-Norwich road, section is under construction. Open to traffic, shoulders incomplete.

Lyme-East Haddam, Norwich-Hadlyme road, section is under construction. Open to traffic.

East Lyme-Shore Road, to avoid construction work follow detours as posted.

Colchester-Hebron, Amston road is under construction. Detour over unimproved road.

Montville-Raymond Hill Road, grading is being done. Detour posted via Dolheare Hill Road.

Bozrah-Norwich, Colchester road, section being paved with concrete in village of Fitchville. Traffic going from Norwich to Colchester will pass through the work; traffic from Colchester to Norwich will use detour as posted.

Chaplin-Willimantic, Hampton road, grading is being done. Open to traffic.

Putnam-Pomfret Street Bridge is under construction. Detour posted.

Colchester-Colchester-Norwich, concrete road is under construction. Detours posted.

Eastford-Phoenixville Road, traffic being taken care of on the road. Proceed with care. Traffic will be held up while asphalt is being applied.

Norwich-Gallows Hill Road, grading is being done. Closed to traffic.

Killingly, Putnam-Norwich road, construction work started. Open to traffic.

Bozrah-Bozrah street is under construction. Open to traffic.

Norwich-Montville, Norwich-New London road is under construction Open to traffic.

Portland, Glastonbury-Portland road is under construction. Road is open but is very rough.

East Hampton, Portland-East Hampton road is under construction. Optional detour through part of the way.

Stafford and Union, Stafford-Union Turnpike is under construction, but is open for traffic.

Enfield, Prospect Hill road is under construction. Road closed for through traffic but local traffic is accommodated.

Cromwell, River road is under construction. Short detour.

Glastonbury, New London Turnpike is under construction. Short detour.

COMPENSATION FOR INJURY TO HAND

Workmen's compensation for four weeks at $10.56 per week, a total of $42.24, has been awarded by Commissioner J. J. Donohue to Frank W. Brown of 18 Warner street, Groton, an employe of the New London Ship and Engine Co.

Brown had his left hand burned on April 14, 1925, while at his employment but the respondent insurer claimed that the disability following May 20 was not due to the injury of April 14, but it was found by the compensation commissioner that the claimant's disability from May 20 to June 16, 1925 was clearly due to his injury while in the employ of the Ship & Engine company, also that the claimant was entitled to compensation for the period, as well as the payment by the employer of any reasonable medical bill which may be presented by Dr. Barnum of Groton, who was the physician furnished by the employer.

FIRE IN SHED WAS QUICKLY PUT OUT

A small fire in a one story shed owned by the Uncas Paperboard company off West Thames street, was responsible for a bell alarm from box 13 at 11.48 o'clock Thursday morning. The shed is occupied by Francis W. Higgins and is located in the rear of 251 West Thames street. It is said that boys playing with matches set fire to a small quantity of hay in the shed. A two and a half inch water line was laid and the flames more quickly squelched. This was the first bell alarm in over a month.

Closed Evangelistic Campaign.

The evangelistic campaign which has been conducted in the Franklin street park was closed Wednesday evening. Rev. E. C. Dunbar, pastor of the First Baptist church spoke in English and Rev. V. Panizzoli explained in Italian the pictures on the last events of the life of St. Paul, including his imprisonment at Jerusalem, his trials before the Roman governor, Felix, and the King Agrippa, his voyage to Rome and his death.

If gossips would stop to think their tongues would get a much needed rest.

ALLOWS WIDOW'S CLAIM FOR WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Workmen's compensation in the sum of $436.80 has been awarded to Mrs. Eva Belle Cox of Noank, widow of Andrew T. Cox in her claim against the Groton Iron Works by Commissioner J. J. Donohue, This is compensation at the rate of $14 per week for 31 1-5 weeks for loss of 15 per cent. of the use of the decedent's arm, constituting a full and final settlement of all claims attributable to the injury of Jan. 8, 1919, to the woman's husband, who was an employe of the Groton Iron Works.

On the date named Andrew T. Cox sustained injuries to his back, left wrist and elbow while at his employment. On May 15, 1925, Cox made claim for the loss of use of the injured member, at which time an estimate of 15 per cent. of the loss of use was made, which estimate, was satisfactory to the employe, and the matter was taken up with the insurer-respondent that a suplemental agreement might be submitted for approval, in order that the case might be definitely closed. It is found that shortly after May 15 the employe in question was taken ill, and before he could sign an agreement for permanent injury he became seriously ill and died on July 5, 1925, his death not being attributable in any way to said injury, and no claim was made by the widow for anything but the specific loss of use of the injured arm to which the decedent had been found entitled before his death. Evidence was introduced by the respondents at the hearing which would tend to corroborate the estimate of 15 per cent. loss of use of the employe's arm, and in view of a recent decision of the supreme court of errors of this state. it is found that the claimant, as widow of the injured employe, is entitled to compensation for permanent injury as stated above.

STEEL WORK HERE FOR NORWICH TOWN BRIDGE

The steel work for the Norwich Town bridge, which has been closed to traffic for several weeks, has arrived in town from the Berlin Construction company's plant and it is expected that work on the installation of the new trusses will be started today (Friday). First Selectman William S. Murray said Thursday evening that he expects the steel workers from the construction company to arrive in Norwich today. Selectman Murray said the bridge repairs will be pushed along as rapidly as possible and that he is in hopes to have the bridge again open to traffic in time for the county fair.

Selectman Murray has had a gang of men at work for the past three days removing the old planking on the bridge and this work would have been completed Thursday had it not been for the rain. Nine new steel I-trusses have been constructed especially for the bridge and they will replace the present trusses which have outlived their usefulness. The new steel trusses are special 20-inch trusses. It was decided that the ordinary stock trusses are too heavy for the bridge. The new trusses will have the same strength but are considerably lighter than the stock trusses.

The bridge which accommodates considerable traffic to and from the Norwich Town over what is known as the "back road," has been closed since July owing to the fact that it sagged badly as two of the trusses were found to be broken, making the bridge unfit for traffic.

CALCIUM CHLORIDE MAKES CEMENT DRY FAST

Street commissioner John C. Donovan has finished the Main street cement highway between Market street and Washington square, except for a little trimming work in some places along the edges. The last block of cement was laid in Washington square on Tuesday and this has now been thrown open to traffic as it is not necessary to allow this patch of cement to dry for eight days before vehicles can run over it.

Just as he was about to finish the job, Street Commissioner Donovan was informed of a new discovery that has been made by engineers in laying cement, which makes it possible to use a highway 48 hours after the cement has been laid. Calcium chloride is put into the cement mixture, which has the effect of making it dry out in 48 hours and gets rid of the long wait of eight days before a cement highway could be used.

If angels fear to tread where fools rush in, they might use their wings.

BICYCLE SALE STARTING ON SATURDAY, SEPT. 5th.

We will sell any Bicycle in our store for $30.00 for one week only. The regular price of these Bicycles is from $35.00 to $48.50.

We have the Largest and Best stock of Bicycles in the city of Norwich. Come and see for yourself.

Also regular $5.00 Scooters for $2.95.

TOYS—WAGONS—KIDDIE KARTS.

Jack's Sport Shop

11 Ferry Street. Telephone 820.

LYME TOWN TREASURER SUFFERED FATAL SHOCK

Joshua Raymond Warren, who died at his home in Grassy Hill, Lyme, Sunday evening as the result of a shock which he suffered a week previous, was born in Pleasant Valley, Lyme, March 5, 1850. He was the son of the late Dr. William J. Warren. His father was a prominent physician and through his parents he descended from families long prominent in the affairs of New London county. From 1868 to 1875 the deceased was clerk in a large wholesale dry goods store in New York. Later, for 25 years, he was engaged in the hotel business, being steward of the West End hotel at Long Branch, N. J., for 12 summers and clerk in hotels at Watch Hill, Fall River, New Bedford and New London. For many years he was correspondent for newspapers. He wrote entertaining articles dealing with earliest history of Lyme and surrounding towns.

Mr. Warren was clerk of the First Congregational church of Lyme since 1901 and clerk and treasurer since 1913. He held numerous town offices and at the time of his death was assessor and treasurer. He was elected judge of probate in 1901, receiving the nomination of both parties, and was three times re-elected, resigning because of business which called him away for a year.

Although a democrat and his town strongly republican he was elected a representative to the legislature for the sessions of 1899, 1903 and 1907 and always took a active art in the deliberations. He was a school teacher at various times when a young man and in later life served in a fiduciary capacity upon numerous estates in this town and elsewhere. He was of a most genial disposition, ready of wit and had a broad acquaintance and a host of friends to whom he as known as Rayme.

On April 24, 1890, he married Miss Carrie B. Royce, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Royce of Lyme, who survives him. Two brothers, William J. Warren and Walter Warren, and a sister, Elizabeth, died within the past few years, while another sister, Jennie Warren Morgan, wife of Dr. J. R. Morgan of Providence and several nephews and nieces survive him, The funeral services were held in the Grassy Hill church Wednesday afternoon and burial was in the cemetery there.

LIONS ROAR FAREWELL TO DEPARTING MEMBER

With the usual large attendance the weekly meeting of the Norwich Lions club was held Thursday noon at the Wauregan hotel. In the absence of President William A. Anderson, Vice-President John Barry presided and the meeting opened with the singing of America, Louis Fontaine acting as song leader. Pete Ethier presided at the piano. Secretary Edward Rich read several communications and the club voted to provide ice cream for the W. W. Backus hospital, Labor Day.

Vice-President Barry informed the club that one of the prominent members of the club, Manager Frederick A. Watson of the Wauregan hotel, is soon to leave town, having been transferred to the Knott executive offices at the Hotel Albert, New York city. On behalf of the club Mr. Barry expressed regret that Mr. Watson is leaving Norwich and at the close of the meeting the Lions roar was given in his honor.

Mr. Watson expressed his regret at leaving Norwich and thanked the club members and all his friends for the support they have given him in his work here. The following were appointed an entertainment committee for the remained of September: Edward Carpenter, Joseph Panek and William O'Neil. The meeting closed with the salute to the flag and the singing of The Star Spangled Banner.

TO MIAMI AND RETURN BY AUTOMOBILE

John Johnson, Daniel Welton and Elmer Myers, all of this city, have just returned from a three weeks tour to Miami, Florida The time taken going was six days but the homeward trip took only five days, the mileage being, 800 miles both ways. The trip was made in Mr. Johnsons new 1925 Chandler coach.

The principal places at which stops were made were Washington, D. C., Richmond, Va. and St. Augustine. At the latter place the for and the oldest house in the United States were visited. The party brought back cocoanuts with them which were picked from the tree on the property of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, formerly of New Haven, who have made their home at Miami for the last eight years and at whose home the party roomed.

A thoroughly enjoyable trip was experienced by all yet all were glad to get back home once more. Chester Manchester accompanied them on the way down but secured employment while there as salesman for lots at Hollywood-by-the-Sea.

Thirty-three Irish Laws Passed

During the session of the Free State three acts were passed, covering every variety of national activity. One of the most notable was that authorizing the use of the River Shannon to supply electricity. Another act which provoked much controversy was the Treasonable and Seditious Offenses Act. It provides the death penalty for treason and graded penalties for various other offenses against the state.

It's the gentle quiver in a girl's voice that may hold her beau.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS ON CONN. COLLEGE GROUNDS

A large sum of money has been expended during the past few months by the business administration department of Connecticut college at New London to beautify the grounds and get the buildings into shape for the fall opening. Colonial House, the new dormitory is entirely completed and the furnishings for the house are gradually beginning to arrive.

The field in front of Colonial house, which used to be the soccer field, has been entirely cleared of boulders, smoothed and planted with grass seed. The area behind the new dormitory facing the state road and the driveway is being rapidly cleared and graded. A new athletic field in the meadow region behind the tennis courts and nearer the state road is in the process of construction.

A new flag pole occupies the center of the smoothly graded and fine looking lawn sloping down to the stone wall from New London Hall, on the river side. Shrubs are being planted here and there and the campus presents a smooth, well-kept, spick and span appearance, ready to welcome the crowds of returning students, old and new.

NORWICH TOWN

At the Sacred Heart church this (Friday) morning at seven o'clock, there will be mass for the first Friday of the month. This evening at seven-thirty, devotions in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus will take place. After a vacation of two months the choir at this church resumed activities September first.

Jerry Casey, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, of 46 West Town street, who recently spent a few days at his parents' home, left by automobile Tuesday morning for Orlando, Florida, where he has purchased ten acres of land from Sylvester Wilson. Mr. Casey who has been foreman in a painting business in Boston, for the last five years, expects to start an orange grove on the land purchased, having gone to make preliminary preparations in advance of two of his brothers, Jack and William Casey, who for the past five years have been located in Toledo, Ohio. They expect to join him, together with the two brothers in Norwich, James and Walter; all will leave for Orlando in another month. Accompanying Mr. Casey when he left Norwich Tuesday, was Officer Charles Smith of the Norwich police force a cousin of the Casey boys' mother.

Precipice a Slaughter House

When what is now North Dakota and Montana were inhabited solely by Indians the natives utilized a high precipice at the foot of an incline between two in-sloping hills for their slaughter house. The buffalo were rounded up and started on stampede down the incline, only to tumble headlong over the precipice. The fall killed hundreds of buffalo every time. The Indians then cured and dried their winter's supply of meat. When the railroad was put through and the town of Granville, N. Dak., started it was necessary to haul thousands of carloads of buffalo bones away from this spot.

Population of Moscow Grows

The population of Moscow on January 1, 1925 was 1,811,000, as compared with 1,772,000 on January 1, 1924, and 1,617,000 in 1912, official statistics received by the Russian Information bureau here show. The area of the city was 71,250 acres, as compared with 42,700 acres in 1912. The death rate for last year showed a decrease of 9.2 per thousand from 1913, the marriage rate showed an increase of more than 100 per cent, and the birth rate showed a small falling off.

Turks Order Submarines

The Turks have placed an order with the Fijenoord Co. of Rotterdam for two submarines, and for a 26,000-ton floating dock with the Flender Bruckenbau Co., of Lubeck, says the London Times.

There were several competitors including British firms, for both orders, but the failure of these latter is taken as another indication that the Turks are fighting shy of Britain in dustry pending the Mosul settlement.

On the Breast of the Sleeper

Honor to the dead in the form of monuments of carved stone is carried out in the United States. Last year more than 400,000 tons of stone were used in building monuments to the dead and for gravestones. Some of the monuments represented work by accomplished sculptors, while many were the work of ordinary stone cutters.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Surprise Special No. 19

ONLY EXCEPTIONAL MERCHANDISE VALUES FEATURED IN THESE ONE-DAY SPECIALS. TO PROPERLY IDENTIFY THESE UNUSUAL VALUES WE HAVE NAMED THEM

Surprise Specials

SEE OUR MAIN STREET WINDOW FOR TOMORROW'S ITEM.

1000 Yards 27-inch
OUTING FLANNEL
MEDIUM, LIGHT AND DARK STRIPES
REGULAR 25c VALUE
SURPRISE SPECIAL
17c per yard

ANNOUNCEMENT

OPENING OF

Point Service Station

Boswell Ave., and North Main St.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 5, 1925.

FREE! FREE! FREE!

ONE GALLON MOTOR OIL TO EVERY PURCHASER OF FIVE GALLONS GASOLINE.

On account of limited space, no oil changed or containers filled on this day.

HOOD TIRES TUBES ACCESSORIES
CRANKCASE SERVICE FREE AIR
A. CLENDENIN. GEORGE CLENDENIN.

MAIL-AD

FILL OUT AND MAIL TO

THE NORWICH BULLETIN

NORWICH, CONN.

10c a Line, Average 5 Words to a Line — Wants, To Let, For Sale, Etc.

Name..... Classification.....

R. F. D. or Street..... Number of Insertions.....

Post Office..... Am't Enclosed.....

Write complete ad below including name and address — Or if blind address is wanted mark X here ☐

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVII—No. 213. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1925. FOURTEEN PAGES—98 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

WRECKED SHENANDOAH THE PREY OF SOUVENIR HUNTERS

Twenty Silken Gas Cells, Each Costing Several Thousand Dollars, Have Been Ripped From the Framework and Carried Away By Despoilers—Search is Being Made For the Barograph, a Device Vital to the Investigation of the Cause of the Crash—Bodies of the Victims Are En Route to Their Final Resting Places.

CALDWELL, OHIO, Sept. 4—(AP)—Two years ago today the Shenandoah, spotless and tuned to perfection, her silvery bag glistening in the sunlight made her premier flight from her Lakehurst, N. J., station.

Today, twisted and torn by a gale which wrecked her early yesterday morning with a loss of 14 lives she lay carrion to the whims of souvenir seekers.

Intensive search for the dirigible's barograph, an instrument which automatically records air pressure, atmospheric moisture and temperature, was begun today by Commander J. H. Klein Lakehurst, N. J., who arrived here today. He declared the device is vital to the investigation into the cause of the crash.

The barograph is believed to be in possession of one of the thousands who carried away mementos of the scenes of demolition, some miles apart. The twenty silken gas cells of the ship, many of them undamaged, each costing several thousand dollars, were ripped apart from the framework and carried away by pillagers.

Authorities from the naval air station at Lakehurst spent all day at the scenes of the wreckage, consulting with the five survivors who remained in Caldwell, and endeavoring to draw conclusions which will be used in officially determining the cause of the accident.

Heading the board of investigation was Commander Jacob H. Klein. He was accompanied by Commander G. Fulton Commander S. M. Krauss, Lieutenant Commander William Nelson, and C. P. Burgess, expert technicist on airship construction.

Lieutenant R. G. Mayer, member of the crew which survived the drifting of the prow, accompanied the board to the Sharon Hill where the demolished nose was examined from tip to the section further aft.

It was the unofficial opinion of the investigators, after studying the wreckage and hearing Mayer's story that the ship buckled as the result of air rushing into holes torn in the hull by the wrenching loose of the raido and control cabins in the gale.

Early tonight eight of the victims' bodies were enroute to their final resting places, three of them bound for the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va., Two more bodies were to be sent from the improvished morgue at Belle Valley on their way to the keeping of their relatives. The naval authorities gathered here were awaiting further word as to the disposition of the remaining four bodies.

Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne, in command of the dirigible, will sleep his long sleep in Arlington among the nation's heroes. The bodies of E. W. Sheppard, Washington, and Lieutenant J. B. Lawrence, St. Paul, also were on their way to the historic burial grounds.

Commander Klein was reticent in giving out any information as to his beliefs or speculations as to the cause of the accident. He declared that if the cause were known he would be bound to withhold the information until its release was sanctioned by the navy department.

If any salvaging of the wreckage is done, it will be done for the purpose of melting up the duro-aluminum framework, in the opinion of Commander Klein. The only parts of the wreckage believed worth while to navy officials other than those carried away by plunderers, were sections that might be studied in working out plans for prevention of further mishaps. Commander Klein said.

No part of the wreckage can be used in constructing another dirigible, the investigators agreed.

Much of the outer covering has been stripped from the framework, laying bare the Duro-Aluminum structural girders and braces.

Hundreds of feet of the duro-aluminum has been carted away by those who came to view the wrecked monster of the skies. The ship's log and scientific instruments are missing. Whether they fell from the control cabin during its drop after this gondola was wrested from the airship or were plundered is not known.

Tonight soldiers guarded all sections of the wrecked dirigible and looting has been stopped, but the relic hunters already had satisfied their desire.

Commander Klein was very bitter tonight in his denunciation of those who stripped the Shenandoah.

Reports that department of justice operatives were coming here to investigate looting of personal effects of the victims were denied at Washington, Cincinnati and Columbus, as well as by Commander Klein. Efforts of some of the victims as well as some of the survivors were lost during the wild flight and crash, but it was denied that the bodies had been looted.

When the dozen or more naval officers here will return to their home stations was unknown tonight. Several Lakehurst men expressed the opinion that they might return tomorrow while others said they may be here until the first of the week.

Among civilian spectators to view the remains of the Shenandoah today was G. H. Prodden, aeronautical engineer for the Ford Motor Company

BUDGET OF NEWS FROM SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 4—(A. P.)—The administration intends to do all it can during the next few years to encourage voluntary railroad consolidation in the hope that it will not be necessary to force grouping of carriers.

This program of President Coolidge was outlined today at White Court with the added statement that in his opinion consolidations are a necessary forerunner of a readjustment of the nation's freight rate structure.

The president, who on Wednesday discussed the transportation problem here with Chairman Watson of the Senate Interstate Commerce committee, was represented today as believing that the immediate concern of Congress should be to pass whatever legislation is needed to help bring about voluntary mergers. In the event results contemplated are not obtained it was indicated that the president would favor legislation designed to force consolidation. After the president's talk with Senator Watson it was stated that they thought the carriers should have five or six years to work out their own consolidation plans.

Mr. Coolidge realizes that it would be impossible to pass a law forcing one railroad to take over another but he believes legislatin could be enacted making it to the advantage of one system to absorb additional lines.

The views of President Coolidge on other subjects, as outlined to callers, showed that while he has not been advised as to the navy department's plans, he expects that it will favor reinforcement of the Shenandoah with another dirigible.

Mr. Coolidge, it was stated, believes that the new tax law should make reductions applicable on this year's incomes and is definitely committed to the creation of a department of education and relief, although some educators are advising against including it in the relief activities of the government.

It also was announced that while Mr. Coolidge expects to return to Washington next week he has not fixed a day for his departure and may decide ot prolong his stay here until the middle of the month.

ACCUSATIONS BY HYLAN AGAINST GOV. AL SMITH

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—Governor Smith faced another scathing attack in New York's mayoralty campaign tonight when Mayor John F. Hylan, speaking at Staten Island, accused him, along with Senator James J. Walker, Tammany choice for mayor, of being involved in food adulteration cases at Albany, and charged him with neglect in the matter of upstate fare increases, criminal paroles and garbage and sewage disposal.

FLOODS ARE COVERING VAST FIELDS OF COTTON IN TEXAS

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 4—Several hundred additional acres of cotton were flooded today when dikes broke between El Paso and San Elizario, Texas. At San Elizario where 500 men are working to stem the tide, the dike broke, flooding nearly 1,000 acres on the upper end of San Elizario Island. Glendale, a hamlet near here was wiped out this morning. The Red Cross cared for five hundred flood refugees last night.

MINE WORKERS DECLINE SEPARATE SETTLEMENTS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—That the United Mine Workers will not make a separate settlement with individual coal companies was emphasized today in reports from the idle anthracite fields.

Rinaldo Cappellini, president of District Number 1 of the Miners' Union, at Scranton, admitted that the Traders Coal Company, which operates a mine with five hundred employes at Ridgewood, Luzerne County, has offered to grant the demands of the miners including the check-off with the understanding that the company could run its mine while the other collieries were idle. The union leaders promptly rejected the proposal, Cappellini said.

This is the second concern that is reported to have been willing to grant the miners' demand on condition that it could operate The other company is located in Scotch Valley in District 7 of the union. District leaders also rejected the proposition.

The Traders' Coal company mine had been idle twenty months prior to the suspension because the employes there had refused to accept a reduction in wages. It was said the company desired to mine coal for local sale.

Warning was issued in District 7 today against members of the union going to the anit coal fields for employment.

CEILINGS IN WETHERSFIELD PRISON TO BE "TOOL PROOF"

HARTFORD, Sept. 4—The ceilings of the cells in the east wing of the state prison at Wethersfield, from which Michael J. McDonnell and Frank Lang escaped Wednesday night or early Thursday morning by boring triangular holes in the tops of their cells are being reinforced with another thickness of "tool proof" sheet steel to prevent the repetition of the escapade, Colonel Norris G. Osborn, of New Haven, president of the board of directors said tonight.

Prisoners who have been quartered in the east wing have been removed to vacant cells in other sections of the building while repairs and reinforcements are being made. Upon completion of the work; this section of the prison will be just as impregnable as any part of the building, the president of the board stated.

There will be no changes in the personnel of the prison guard as a result of investigations that have been conducted by Colonel Osborn and Warden H. K. W. Scott, the former said.

"We have absolute faith in the integrity of every member of the prison guard and have no reason for making any changes in its personnel," Colonel Osborn stated. "We are now directing all our efforts in an attempt to track the fugitives."

No further clues as to the whereabouts of the two men have been received by the state police since the telephone message Thursday night from L. B. Gray, of West Hartford, who said he thought he had seen the men on the Middletown road, after he had heard of the escape broadcast from the radio station of the Travelers Insurance company.

It is the belief of the state police however, that the prisoners had aid from friends on the outside.

Why do they speak of a man's downfall when his business goes up?

Domestic Quarrel Ends In Tragedy

Angello Bella Valli Shoots His Wife and Himself in Torrington in Presence of Their Four Children.

TORRINGTON, Sept. 4.—(AP)—A domestic quarrel of long standing culminated here tonight in the fatal shooting of Concetta Bella Valli by her husband, Angelo Bella Valli, who then took his own life by shooting himself in the head with the shotgun he had twice discharged at his wife. Four of their five children witnessed the double tragedy.

The shooting occurred at their home in the Newfield section of the town of the Winchester road, hortly before eight o'clock, Bella Valli, after continually quarrelling with his wife, drove her out of the front door according to neighbors, and then followed her into the yard with a double barrelled shotgun. As she ran around to the side of the house, he fired twice, the first shot, although it hit the woman, did little injury. The second shot tore into her side and breast. She pulled herself through a side door of the house, where she was found by police when they answered a summons by neighbors. She died while being taken to a hospital.

The father in the meantime threatened with the empty gun his sixteen year old daughter, Jennie, who yelled at him from the front yard. Bella Valli re-entered the house by the front door and evidently went to the kitchen where he reloaded the gun. One or two shots were heard, and he was found dead a few minutes later on the kitchen floor, the shots having torn off part of his head.

They were about forty years old. Their children's ages range from 9 to 18, and it was the four younger ones who saw the shooting. The children were in the front yard at the time, having been driven out by the quarrelling of their parents, the police were informed.

18 MORE DESTROYERS ARE TO SEARCH FOR THE PN-9

HONOLULU, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—Fast fading hopes for rescue of the five aviators of the missing navy seaplane PN-9 No. 1 were revived today by news that 18 more destroyers were coming to aid in the search.

The U. S. S. Whippoorwill's report of sighting supposed flares last night also served to spur on the tired searchers, who have been operating almost continuously since the seaplane disappeared about 1.45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The PN-9 No. 1, which was trying to make a non-stop flight from San Francisco to Pearl Harbor, ran out of fuel and was lost in a rainstorm.

The 18 destroyers, coming to Hawaii from Samoa, were not due until September 10, but it was supposed here today that they had been ordered to put on top speed.

In the midst of the orderly haste with which the search is being conducted, the work of the navy radio has been an outstanding feature. Some operators who have been at their keys and ear phones continuously since Monday night, listening in and handling thousands of messages, still are carrying on. Hundreds of radio dispatches are being applied daily giving position reports, instructions, orders, suggestion and information upon which the fate of the missing seaplane may depend.

FOUR INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT PALMER

PALMER, Mass., Sept. 4—(A. P.)—Four persons were injured early this morning when an automobile which contained Alden J. MacFawn of 194 Enfield street, Thompsonville, Conn., and his three children crashed into the abutments of the under-pass east of Palmer. According to the police, the accident was caused by the father falling asleep while at the wheel, after many hours of driving.

Vivian, aged three, youngest daughter of MacFawn, was the most severely injured, the others receiving only slight injuries.

MEXICAN DEPUTY KILLED BY FELLOW CONGRESSMAN

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—Deputy Marin Perez died in a hospital today as the result of wounds received in a pistol fight last night with Deputy Wenceslao Macib. The two deputies fought on the street following the adjournment of yesterday's session of congress, which had been markedby hot debate over agrarian crimes in the state of Puebla, which President Calles condemned Tuesday.

Political feeling is running strong as a result of the killing.

"PET" RATTLESNAKE WAS CAUSE OF BOY'S DEATH

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—Efforts of F. L. Tuttle, 19, to make a pet of a rattlesnake cost him his life.

He caught the snake in a cotton field and stroked it gently. The reptile became docile.

Several hours later the boy screamed as he threw the snake from him. The rattler landed in a coil and sprang instantly, sinking its fang in the boy's face. The boy died five hours later.

Cheerful News For Income Taxpayers

President Coolidge Believes the Proposed Reduction in Taxes Will Be Made to Apply to Incomes 1925.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 4.—(AP)—The proposed reduction in taxes will be made applicable to incomes of this year on which levies will be paid during the next year, in the opinion of President Coolidge.

If this plan is approved by congress, pressure will be brought to bear to have the new revenue act enacted into law before March 15, when first tax payments of the new year are due.

While the president hopes the reduction will be made to apply on this year's income, it was reiterated today at White Court that he is leaving the tax program in the hands of the house ways and means committee and treasury experts. Mr. Coolidge unerstands Chairman Green will call the committee together, probably next month, to start work on the revenue bill.

Shop Windows on Parade.

There's no doubt about it. The modern way to shop is to read the advertisements, then make notes of the stores and the particular offerings that appeal to you. What a lot of time and bother such a method saves. You know before hand what you want to look at, who has it, and what you will have to pay.

Read the advertisements in The Bulletin. Make it a daily habit. The regular reader of advertisements is better informed, makes the family budget stretch farther, has more time for recreation, gets more value for her money, and profits in many other ways. Advertisements furnish some of the most interesting news in the paper.

Every day the shop windows are lined up for your inspection in The Bulletin.

During the past week the following news matter has appeared in The Bulletin's columns:

Bulletin	Telegraph	Local	General	Total
Saturday Aug. 29	144	157	456	757
Monday Aug. 31	133	112	414	664
Tuesday Sept. 1	132	156	339	628
Wednesday Sept. 2	137	96	334	567
Thursday Sept. 3	131	127	348	606
Friday Sept. 4	126	124	360	610
Totals	808	774	2250	3832

DEATH OF "REGGIE" VANDERBILT RECALLS HIS UNUSUAL CAREER

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—(AP)—Another passing, this time of human figure from the aura of romance which enveloped the sporting life of fashionable New York during the early years of the present century, as represented by Delmonico's Madison Square Garden and Canfield's establishment, was chronicled today in the death of "Reggie" Vanderbilt at his summer home, Sandy Point Farm, at Portsmouth, R. I.

Delmonico's has closed, Madison Square Garden is being pulled down, Canfield's gaming establishment for long has been no more, and now Reginald C. (Reggie) Vanderbilt has passed, along with the inanimate landmarks of that period which have made way for another day. He belonged to the fifth avenue which now is rapidly passing.

Best known for his activities in sports and his social position, he also had more serious interests. Long an enthusiastic horseman, Mr. Vanderbilt late in the World War called attention to the serious situation in agriculture caused by the wholesale destruction of horses by the war, and the steady drain of horse power from the United States. He appealed to breeders, livestock organizations and agricultural societies through the United States and Canada for co-operation in conserving horses

He was born in New York in 1880, the youngest son of Cornelius and Alice Claypool Vanderbilt, a grandson of William Henry Vanderbilt, and great grandson of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, ferryman and founder of the Vanderbilt family in America.

With an inheritance of $10,000,000 from the railroad millions of the Vanderbilt fortune, Reggie Vanderbilt was born to a life of ease. The luxury and expense of his apartments occasioned widespread comment. The older folk of New Haven, Conn., still recall the roar of his racing roadster over the night street when the young multi-millionaire returned from parties which were noted for their somber decorum.

Within a year of his graduation from Yale with an A. B. degree, young Vanderbilt married Cathleen Nielson of New York, and embarked on his social career which gained him international repute. During the following year he gained notoriety during the campaign of District Attorney William Travers Jerome against Canfield's gaming establishment in East Forty-fourth street. It was reported that young Vanderbilt had lost between $1,000 and $125,000 there in a single session, and that within the space of a few months he had dropped more than $220,000.

When Mr. Jerome sought to subpoena Mr. Vanderbilt as a witness the latter evaded process servers by acting in disguise to Philadlphia where he attended the horse show, of which he was president.

In 1919 Mrs. Vanderbilt was granted a divorce, on grounds of desertion, and received custody of their only child, Cathleen. Subsequently she married Sydney J. Colford, Jr.

Mr. Vanderbilt, in 1922, married Gloria Morgan, daughter of Harry Hays Morgan, former United tates ambassador to Belgium. By this marriage he had one child, Gloria Laura, born February 20, 1924.

In the intervening years he had become sportsman extraordinary horseman and polo player. His stables boasted some of the choicest thoroughbred stock in the stud book. He was president of the American Horse Shows, Inc., and the American Hackney Horse Society, and director of the National Horse Show Association. His annual stag dinner, given for the officials of the Newport Horse Show was one of the bizarre fixed features of the summer colony there.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

Secretary Work announced awards in the Red River oil dispute.

Further changes were effected in the prohibition field force.

The Detroit customs force was ordered augmented to combat smuggling from Canada.

The weather bureau said the storm that destroyed the Shenandoah was purely local and could not have been forecast.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

There are 1,406,068 legal voters in Massachusetts, against of 13,461 over last year, a report.

Edward R. Stettinius, a partner in the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., died a his home in Locust Valley, N. Y.

Operators for the recovery of all treasure lost at sea since the time of the Spanish Armada are planned by salvage experts.

Yesterday was the hottest day Columbia, S. C. has had in more than twenty five years, the temperature climbing to 105.7.

Whether another dirigible will be built to replace the Shenandoah was declared by Secretary Wilbur to be purely a budget question.

Philo T. Platt, state senator from the 25th district, and state commissioner of agriculture, is in a critical condition in Danbury hospital with ulcer of the stomach.

Official denial was made in Sofia, Bulgaria, of the report, circulated from Rome, that King Boris had been poisoned through the placing of bacilli in fod that was served to him.

A detachment of 200 Italian troops fect is estimated at $60,000 pounds, aled the frontier and camped in the Austrian village of Thoerl, nothwithstanding protest by the frontier guard.

The cost of the British government subsidy to the coal industry during the first month that it has been in effis estimated at $60,000 pounds, although there has been a decrease in the output.

President Doumergue of France sent a cablegram to President Coolidge expressing his "profound sorrow over the terrible accident" which has befallen the Shenandoah and offering his condolences.

Four hundred delegates are expected in New Haven today for the opening day of the annual convention of the Connecticut branch fo the Polish Falcons Alliance. The convention continues until Monday.

Philo T. Platt, state commissioner of agriculture, passed a comfortable night, it was stated at the Danbury hospital where he was brought from his home in Newton for treatment for ulcers of the stomach.

To promote co-ordinatinn in federal law enforcement representatives of half a dozen federal departments are preparing to submit to President Coolige a proposal that he organize a law enforcement council.

William Regan, of Norwalk, one of the four arrested by state police in a raid upon a carnival given by New Hope Fire Company at Glenbrook, was fined $25 for keeping a place for gambling. He pleaded guilty.

Rocco Calvi, a resident of the Italian colony at Hingham, Mass., was shot to death by one of two men who had engaged in a quarrel with him. The pair then flew from the scene of the shooting in an automobile.

H. M. S. Armentieres, a mine sweeper from the Canadian naval base at Esquimalt, struck a rock and sank at noon in Pipestem inlet, Barkley sound on the west coast of Vancouver island. All the crew reached shore safely.

Captain George A. Parker, head of the Massachusetts state police patrol, who was named as permanent prohibition administrator for New England took the oath of office and will asume the duties of his new office today.

The Anti-Evolution League of America in Louisville, Ky., chose William Jennings Bryan Jr. of Los Angles, as president andappointed a committee to wait upon him and determine if he would accept the office.

The United States Treasury has entered the silver market for the first time in several months. It has purchased 350,000 ounces of the white metal, 250,000 at 72.625 cents an ounce and 100,000 at 72.75 cents lots.

Forty employes of the Lawrence Machine company, Lawrence, Mass., who struck in protest to the discontinuance of a five minute period for washing up at noon and night, returned to work under a compromise with the company.

Frederick E. Underwod, president of the Erie Railroad system, has been a patient at a Milwaukee hospital since August 29. His physicians declined to state the nature of his illness but it is not considered serious.

Because of the shipping strike in Australia which has delayed sugar shipments from that country, British importers have purchased between 50,000 at 60,000 tons of raw sugar in Cuba for October and November. deliveries.

Funeral services for Wilbur S. Johnson, vice-president of the Prudential Insurance Company, who died of heart disease at his East Orange, N. J. home Thursday night, will be held at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon at his home.

Belmonte, considered the worlds premier bull fighter, was gored by a bull while performing at Zumaya, Spain, at a benefit bull fight. He was taken to a hospital where examination disclosed that muscle of the right thigh was injured.

No promise of relief from present drought throughout the south is in sight before December, C. F. von Herrman, meteorologist in charge of the weather bureau at Atlanta, Ga., said in a survey of drought conditions, said to be the worst in 50 years.

Jurisdictional difference between Bricklayers and plasterers, which have caused tie-ups in construction work valued at millions of dollars in Chicago, has spread to tile- setters, marble-setters and fire-proofers unions, which have ceased work.

Howard M. Dumbell, former Protestant Episcopal rector of St. Luke's church in Darien who divorced his wife under a Yucatan decree, married a singer of his parish, and is now defendant in a divorce action here, has filed a plea in abatement to the libel.

A lease to cover a period of 80 years, the longest ever filed in the town clerk's office, was recorded at Greenwich. It will permit H. C. Conicker, of New York City, to carry out a big theatre project for Loew's interests which will involve several million dollars.

NEGRO ABDUCTED A 4-YEAR OLD GIRL AT MONTCLAIR, N. J.

Mary Daly Was Seized While Playing With Her Little Brother and a Girl Companion—Three Attempts to Kidnap the Child Had Been Made Within Three Months—An Airplane and the Radio Are Being Utilized in Hunt For Kidnapper—Missing Girl is Daughter of D. F. Daly, President of a Hardware Company in New York.

MONTCLAIRE, N. J., Sept. 4.—(AP) With an airplane and the radio doing their part a man hunt was being conducted in the Watchunk Mountains tonight for a negro who today shot his way to liberty after kidnapping six-year-old Mary Daly.

The little girl, daughter of David F. Daly, president of the Washington Hardware Company of New York City was playing with her little brother and a girl companion when the negro jumped from an automobile and seized her. It was the fouth attempt to abduct the child within the past three months, neighbors told police.

John Sandin, a chauffeur, pursued the negro for ten miles and was crowding him into the ditch when the kidnapper shot him in the head and continued his flight. Sandin's condition was critical tonight.

As soon as word of the kidnapping spread all possible forces were marshaled to run the negro down and restore the little girl to her prostrated parents. Police, state troopers, armed deputies of the sheriff's office and posses of enraged citizens set forth upon a determined hunt of the mountains toward which the negro was last seen driving. Assistance was requested of New York City police and a description of the Daly girl was broadcast from the Municipal Radio station there. An airplane was called into service to fly about the mountains.

NEGRO SUSPECT WAS KILLED BEFORE ABDUCTION

MONTCLAIR, N. J., Sept. 4.—(AP)—Raymond Pierce, a negro suspected of being the one who at noon today kidnapped six year old Mary Daly was found dead tonight in a Culvert in Cedar Grove. An autopsy revealed that he had been dead at least 4 hours before the kidnapping occurred.

BELIEVE ABDUCTOR MADE MISTAKE IN THE GIRL

MONTCLAIR, N. J., Sept. 4—Mrs. Joseph Bower, a neighbor of David F. Daly, whose little daughter was kidnapped today, received a telephone call tonight directing the return of her niece Dorothy Coates for $4,000. The Coates girl resembled the Daly girl and police believed that the abductor kidnapped the wrong girl by mistake and was not yet aware of the fact when he called Mrs. Bower. Mr. Bower is vice president of the New York Trust company.

AGAINST CHRYSLER AUTO DEALERS AND SALESMEN

HARTFORD, Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—Chrysler automobile dealers and salesmen in this state are acting in violation of the Connecticut insurance agency laws in selling the Chrysler-Palmetto plan of fire, theft and liability insurance on automobile in the opinion of Insurance Commissioner Howard P. Dunham, according to a statement issued this afternoon. No action will be taken by the state insurance department, however, pending the decision of the federal court on the legality of the new insurance plan which is expected soon.

The Chrysler-Palmetto insurance plan calls for the issuance of the insurance at the Michigan factory of the Chrysler company under the form of a "master" contract, which covers every automobile sold. Subsequently the policy is issued to the ultimate buyer of the automobile, either at the time of sale or after payment of an amount under terms of installment plan insurances.

Agents of the Chrysler company said at a hearing before Commissioner Dunham that the plan was the outgrowth of the company's desire to be free of the details of "financing dealers," and of "insurance business," while still giving these services to the purchasers of Chrysler cars.

The Palmetto Insurance company is not licensed under the laws of this state. The home office of the company is at Sumter, S. C.

LAND FICTITIOUS NAME OF ESCAPED CONVICT

BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 4—Frank Land who escaped from Wethersfield prison Thursday with Michael J. McDonnell, Madden murderer, is Harry Jackson, who about ten years ago lived in this city, with his widowed mother and two brothers, Eddie, suspected of being later associated with him in crime, and one other, whose name police will not give out, as he has never been connected with any of Harry's criminal exploits. This was learned from the police records here tonight.

They show that Johnson, suspected of the theft of automobiles in this city, at that time, later committed a $8,000 jewelry hold up in New Brunswick. After being arrested for this in Westfield, Mass., three weeks later, he was brought to New Brunswick. There he instituted a sensational escape from the county jail, in which he and his brother, Eddie, and about thirty five other prisoners made a getaway. The greater part of the jewelry stolen in New Brunswick was recovered at his Bridgeport home, on Barnum avenue, before his escape from the jail. It was shortly after this episode that he was arrested for the Norwich holdup. He was to go back to New Brunswick after finishing his terms at Wethersfield.

YACHT WA SBURNED AT A DOCK IN GREENWICH

GREENWICH, Sept. 4—(AP)—The yacht Quo Vadis, owned by Morgan Barney, measurer of the Indian Harbor Yacht Club, was practically destroyed by fire off the Standard Oil company's dock here today. The boat had just started after the tanks had been filled with gasoline when an explosion occurred. Captain Edward Minick, who was in the cabin, was badly burned. The yacht was valued at 12,000. The fire was similar to one that destroyed a yacht owned by Morgan P. Remus at the same dock two months ago.

NON-COMMERCIAL FILMS ARE BEING CANCELLED

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 4—(AP)—Movie theatre men today had little information additional to what had been given out on the working out of the movie tax law situation from their viewpoint. It was said that a number of theatres at summer places are closing in advance of the expected closing dates because of expense involved.

Eugene Treiber, secretary of the Operators Union, today said that many non-commercial entertainments which use films are being cancelled.

NEW YORK RADIO STATION WNYC CLOSED TO POLITICS

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy, today signed a stay preventing the broadcasting of political addresses over the city's public radio station WNYC.

NEW ENGLAND HAS ITS QUOTA IN THE CABINET

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 4—President Coolidge thinks New England is a good place to turn to in seeking government officials but he made it known emphatically today that he considers this section well enough represented in the cabinet by two officers, Secretary Weeks, and Attorney General Sargent.

He does not intend to offer Senator Butler of Massachusetts a cabinet post and should one of the two present cabinet officers from this section resign, he will look to another part of the country far a successor.

Mr. Coolidge told visitors today that he favored New England, naturally, but realized that he was president of the entire country. He recalled that he attempted to get a cabinet officer recently from Michigan but when the senate turned down Charles Beecher Warren for attorney general he came back to New England in the pinch. He had no regret either about coming here for Attorney General Sargent in that emergency.

The president's remarks were prompted by newspaper stories that he was considering offering Senator Butler the post of secretary of war in the event that Mr. Weeks, who has been ill since spring, should resign.

MOSUL REGION CONTROVERSY REFERRED TO SUB-COMMITTEE

GENEVA, Sept. 4. — (A. P.)—The dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over the Mosul region, has temporarily disappeared from the Geneva horizon through the action of the council today in referring it to a sub-committee. League circles, are uneasy over avoidance by Tewfik Bushidi Pasha, the Turkish foreign minister, of any assurance that his country would abide by the eventual decision.

The sub-committee will use Geneva methods of conciliation, trying to satisfy both countries.

The problem goes to the sub-committee with the views of Great Britain and Turkey apparently irreconcilable, both claiming the disputed territory in its entirety.

Austria's economic condition was said to look brighter tonight after the meeting of the council's sub-committee on Austria, which was attended by Premier Painleve of France.

Next Monday will see the opening of the assembly of the league, and it was predicted in league circles tonight that Raoul Dandurand, of Canada, will be elected president.

PRAYING FOR RAIN IN THE SOUTHERN STATES

ATLANTA, Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—Prayer for rain was invoked in two southern states as a means of relief from suffering caused by one of the most disastrous droughts in this section of the country in half a century.

At Columbia, S. C., Governor McLeod issued a proclamation setting aside Sunday as a day of fasting and prayer for rain.

In Atlanta, representatives of the suffering people described conditions in the drought area as desperate. In many instances they said, farmers were cutting down young trees to feed the foliage to livestock. At other places farmers were said to be keeping hogs alive by feeding them nag weed.

VATICAN'S WAR AGAINST IMMODEST DRESS FOR WOMEN

ROME, Sept. 4—(AP)—The most important definite step yet taken in the vatican's war against immodest dress for women was taken today when the authorities of Santa Maggiore, one of Rome's four basilicas, posted on the front door the following notice:

"Entrance is forbidden to women who are not properly dressed that is to say, those who do not have the head covered and do not wear high-necked dresses with long sleeves."

HEAVY RAINFALL WITH THUNDER IN FALL RIVER

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—Fall River was visited by a miniature flood following a thunder storm of unusual severity shortly before noon today. Streets in the center of the city were ankle-deep in water and in the eastern section and on the lower levels near the Taunton river all traffic was suspended for a time No extensive damage has been reported.

WILLIMANTIC

Plans are under way for a big Labor Day celebration by the Central Labor Union in this city. President Thomas F. McMahon, of the United Textile Workers of American and other visiting labor leaders will be in attendance. The purpose of the celebration is to give the people aligned with the labor movement and its friends in general an opportunity to come here and witness the fight being waged by the American Thread Company strikers. In the morning at ten o'clock, a parade will take place, in which two bands and a drum corps will participate. A band concert will start at 1.30 in the afternoon. The speaking and entertainment will follow the parade. During the day, a program of sports will be provided by a special committee at the "tented city."

This week, Arthur and Edmund Rondeau of this city purchased the business of Solomon F. Haddad and Micholas Mezaway. The new proprietors took immediate possession. The Haddad-Mezaway partnership had been engaged in the business for about five years.

According to a warning issued Friday by Charles A. Gates, chairman of the Republican town committee, the caucus for the nomination of party candidates will be held in the town hall Friday evening of next week.

The Democratic caucus will be held Wednesday, evening of the same week. Chairman Frank P. Fenton issued the call. The election will be held the first Monday of October.

A resolution calling for a special city meeting next Thursday evening for the purpose of asking for an additional $10,000 appropriation for sidewalk and gutter construction, was adopted at a special meeting of the board of aldermen in the common council chamber Thursday evening. Four aldermen were in attendance. Mayor George W. Hickey presided. The resolution, the context of which will be incorporated in the call for the meeting, also requested the voters to sanction the transfer of another appropriation of a similar amount from improvements on West Main street to permanent improvements on Church street, between Velley and Main streets. Some of this appropriation has been expended on West Main street. The city officials desire to construct a roadway with a tenace base and an asphalt covering, on the section of Church street, in question. It was deemed inadvisable to make permanent improvements on West Main street at present. That thoroughfare is in better condition now than it has ever been. The contemplated improvements on Church street, in the event they are sanctioned by the electors will require about a week.

A force of men employed by the Connecticut Company is engaged in making repairs along the company's South Coventry trolley line.

With the big influx of children of school age, who are members of families who have come here to work at the American Thread Co. plant, the question of adequacy or inadequacy of the present school space in the town arises. St. Joseph's School and the Oak's School were crowded last year. The Natchaug School with its new addition was nearly filled, at the close of last term. The same statement applies to the Windham Street Model School which comes under state supervision. The problem this year has become more complicated because of the fact that about one hundred and fifty school children have arrived in the city from Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New Hampshire with their parents, as a result of the strike at the American Thread plant. Over eighty per cent of the families formerly residing in the thread company tenements still live within the confines of the town and must send their children of school

The Windham Industries are planning their seventh annual exhibit of patchwork quilts copied from old designs in the Old Webb House at Windham. A loan exhibition of children's furniture, clothes and toys will also be a feature.

Albert E. Harmon, chairman of the Republican town committee for the town of Coventry, has issued a call for the Republican town caucus to be held next Friday evening.

Thomas Donahue, chairman of the state athletic commission was the guest of E-Mayor Oscar O. Tanner this week. Referring to the weighing in of both boxers in the recent big bout, Mr. Donahue said that both men were inside of 126 pounds.

A wedding of local interest was solemnized at 11:30 in New York, when Miss Mary J. Sullivan of New York City became the bride of Louis Henry Ashton of this city. The ceremony was witnessed by several local friends and relatives. The best man was Sigfried Peterson of this city. The groom is in the employ of John T. Ashton, and has a wide acquaintance here. He and his bride left on a honeymoon trip following the wedding and reception and upon their return will reside in Willimantic.

The several weeks' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Yonclas of this city was baptized Friday at their home 5 John street. Peter Zikas of 55 Borad street, who was godfather, named the baby Kathleen. She is the fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yonclas. The christening was at one o'clock and the party continued until late Friday night.

John Howlett of Ashford and Madeline Bussey, of East Willington, were united in marriage at Westford Friday by Justice of the Peace J. B. Bicknell.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bridget Hurley were held Friday morning. Requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church was sung at nine o'clock by Rev. Paul Bartlewski. As the body was being borne into the church, Arthur Roy and Miss L. Monica McKeon sang "Nearer My God to Thee." At the offertory, Miss McKeon sang "Pie Jesu." As a waiting hymn, Mr. Roy gave "I Come To Thee" and with Miss McKeon sang "Lead, Kindly Light" as a recessional. Mrs. Edmund R. Portelance was at the organ. Burial was in Hurley burial plot in St. Joseph's cemetery where the committal service was by Rev. Father Bartlewski. The bearers were J. Edmund, William and Arthur Hurley and William Lennon.

According to an announcement made Friday, services will be resumed at the Congregational Church house September 13, instead of the sixth. The preaching will be by Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock.

Miss Mary Hamlin of Hartford formerly of Willimantic wil spend the week-end and holiday at her cottage on the Camp Ground.

Mrs. Bell Riggleman and her sister, Miss Jessie Baldwin, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. John Gutterson of Hanover, Mass., formerly of Willimantic were among the passengers sailing from France on S. S. Majestic after spending the summer abroad.

Walter V. Gavigan, of the faculty of Xavier College, Cincinnati, is visiting friends and relatives in this city. Mr. Gavigan recently completed an art Lewiston, Me., where he was associated with the College Players at the Little Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. John Navin of Parish Hill are entertaining Miss Dorothy Hassley and Miss Marion Barrett of Springfield, Mass., over the week-end. They motored down with Edward J. Murphy of Springfield and Samuel Green of Washington, Mr. Green is U. S. consul to Bulgaria.

Personal Mention

Mrs. John Cogswell of Providence is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Perry.

Mrs. D. K. Clark is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bernice Loomis, and family in New Britain.

Kenneth Avery, son of Fred Avery of East Hartford, is a guest for several days of his aunt, Mrs. George F. Taylor.

Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock and Mrs. Arthur S. Wheelock expect to return month at Giant's Neck.

Mrs. Thomas J. Little is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Louise E. Kinney, and family in Mystic, for a week or ten days.

Miss May Turner, bookkeeper for the Jordan Hardware Company, is spending her vacation at Marblehead, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Church of Grove Place have returned from a two weeks' automobile trip through the White Mountains and northern Maine, to Montreal and Quebec.

Mrs. M. M. Brewster and daughter, Miss Adelaide Brewster, of Brooklyn, N. Y., spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Jordan and family.

Mrs. Darius M. Bennett of "The Ridges" and daughter, Miss Lila Webster of Hartford, have returned after a trip to Providence.

Euclide Martineau left Friday for his home in Quebec, accompanied by his niece, Miss Jeanne Chollett, after visiting at the home of his brother, Aime J. Martineau.

Kenneth Harroun, son of Principal and Mrs. J. L. Harroun, is motoring to Washington, D. C., to be the guest of his sister, Miss Lucille Harroun, over Labor Day. Mr. Harroun resides in Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kenney and son, William left Friday morning by automobile for Nilford, Pa., where they will be joined by other members of the family for a reunion.

FOUR BIDS FOR NEW HOTEL ARE ALL THOUGHT TOO HIGH

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 4.—Alterations in the specifications for the new community hotel were not sufficient for the acceptance of one of the four bids, three of which were opened for the second time, at the office of the architects, George B. Post & Son in New York City, Monday of this week. One of the contracting forms who submitted bids did so for the first time. All proved to be too high to meet the specifications. The firms submitting bids were Tracy Brothers Company of Waterbury, Hoyt Construction Company of Holyoke, Mass., Harris Construction Company of Stamford, and the Amsterdam Building Company of New York City.

BENONI BATES, of WINDHAM, IS FOUND DEAD IN BED

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLMANTC, Sept. 4.—Benoni Bates, 81, was found dead in bed at his home in Windham this morning, about seven o'clock. The discovery was made by his daughter, Mrs. Albert E. Saunders, of Westfield, Mass. Medical Examiner Dr. Louis L. Mason was summoned, and pronounced death due to heart failure. Mr. Bates had been dead about six hours, in the opinion of Medical Examiner Mason. He was born in Coventry, R. I. October 13, 1843, a son of Solomon King and Alsa Nichols Bates. He leaves two sons, Ellery A. of New York and John C. of Putnam; two daughters, Mrs. Albert E. Saunders, of Westfield, Mass. and Miss Abigail Bates of New York; and three grandchildren.

CLARK'S CORNER

Mrs. Martin Navins and Will Robbins were ill during the week.

Mrs. Amos Stone visited her niece, Mrs. Eva Kent, last week.

Mrs. Charles Fillmore with her son has returned to Fishers Island, N. Y., after spending a vacation at her parents' home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howard and guests, Mrs. Eva Upton and daughter, Miss Gladys Upton were at Rocky Point, R. I., Sunday.

Other Rocky Point visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wade, Allen Jewett and daughter, Mrs. Robert Clapp, were guests of Mr. Jewett's nephew, W. H. Stebbins, in Norwich, last week, returning home on Sunday.

Mrs. Jeremiah McCarthy, of Willimantic is at the home of her father this week.

The grammar school will open on Monday with Miss Olga Sokol teacher.

Mrs. Voght and grandchildren have left for New York city.

Fred Colburn of Willington visited at Wesley Colburn's recently.

Mrs. Wesley Colburn and children visited at Thomas Colburn's in Westminister last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurdon Watson of New London were at Mrs. John Howard's Wednesday.

THOMPSON

The woman's missionary society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Carrie M. Brott. Miss Annie Dunning was the leader.

Mrs. S. T. Livingstone and son Putnam have been for a motor trip to Maine.

Tuesday evening, representatives of Auburn, Worcester and Killingly granges were entertained here. They furnished an excellent program.

Mrs. Ida F. Blackmar is entertaining her aunt.

Frank Elliott has gone to Hartford.

Mrs. Warren is visiting Mrs. Shippee, in the Sawyer neighborhood.

H. P. Amidon and family spent Sunday at Westford Hill.

Public schools here open September 8th.

Freight receipts at the Thompson Station were over three times a much for August as for July.

Miss Florence Paine is to return to Mt. Holyoke College this Fall.

Mrs. Arthur Mills was in Worcester Wednesday.

ASHFORD

Miss Elsie Bates, who has been at Timothy Lynch's, returned to her home in Perryville, Mass., Sunday.

Miss Leola Poole is visiting in Framingham.

Joseph Memic and brother, William, have gone to New York for employment.

Gator Kosa is building a new corn house.

A number from here attended the Sunday school picnic at Camp Eastford, Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, from Waterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Lynch and two children visited in Perryville, Mass., and East Thompson, Sunday.

If a man tips the scales at 300 his opinion carries dreat weight with it.

WILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parizek, Frank Parizek, Jr. and Miss Emily Parizek who have been in Europe all summer, arrived home Saturday.

Louis Reed and family, of New Haven, visited his mother Mrs. Lucy Reed and sister Mrs. Fred Tyler, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdett White, of Quonochontaug, R. I., were recent guests of Mrs. Lincoln White.

Mrs. Grace Case of Middletown and Mrs. Taylor and children of Windsor, visited Miss Genevieve Gardner Saturday.

Charles Lyon spent the week end with his sister Mrs. Robert White, at Plainville.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Edgerton and Starr Edgerton, of Bristol, Mr. and Mrs. John Edgerton and Mrs. Romeroy, of Vernon, visited Mrs. Lincoln White and Mrs. Julia Clark recently.

Miss Mildred Mirti will furnish the flowers at church during September.

There was a meeting of the Young People's Society Friday evening at the church. Miss Emily Parizek, who has been abroad gave an address on "What I Saw In Europe."

The common was mowed this week for the second time this year by Frank Luchart.

Miss Daisy Wraight of Winsted, accompanied by a friend, Miss Mabel Goodenow, has been the guest of her brother, Ernest Wraight.

Miss Doris Amidon will attend the Baptist Institute at Philadelphia to prepare for religious work.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Soukup and children, Lillian and Godfrey, left Tuesday by automobile for St. Petersburg Florida, where they will reside at the home of Mrs. Soukup's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hak, who are now in Europe.

Lillian Soukup will enter the St. Petersburg high school.

Julius Meyer of New York has had a silo built at his farms, and has corn 16 feet high. Ernest Wraight is manager of the farms.

The Misses Ellis, of New York, are guests of Mrs. George V. Smith.

George Flagg of Hartford came to town on business Wednesday.

The parsonage, which has been occupied by Mathew Soukup and family, is again vacant.

The Men's Civic Club, of Willington has made plans for a community gathering to be held on the common, on Willington Hill, Labor Day. The program will consist of athletic events, with music by Nedwied's orchestra. Two ball games will be played, the first at 10 o'clock a. m., the second in the afternoon. A concert will be given at one o'clock p. m., and later music will be furnished in the gymnasium for those who wish to dance.

Every effort is being made to make of Labor Day another home-town day for Willington people and their relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ide, of Pawtucket, R. I., are guests of Miss Jessie Bennett.

Miss Dow, of New York has been spending several weeks at Hillside Farm.

Miss Vernetta Coleman has closed her Gift Shop and will return to New York next week for the winter.

CANTERBURY GREEN

Shools in town will begin Tuesday next Sept. 8.

The roll call and supper of the church members will take place this (Saturday) evening. Supper will be served about seven o'clock the exercises following.

A delegation from Canterbury Grange was in Plainfield Tuesday evening and with Brooklyn members gave the program. Wednesday evening about forty members of the Plainfield Grange visited here and presented the Conn. traveling gavel. After the lecturer's hour of music and readings, refreshments were served. Several visitors from Pachaug were present. Worthy Master Barstow, of Pomona, was also a visitor from South Killingly.

Mr. and Mrs. James Towne were week end visitors with relatives in North Haven. On Tuesday with Mrs. Minnie Towne and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larkham they motored to Mason's Island for a day's outing.

George Bowland a former resident and deacon of the church, is spending several days in town staying at Mr. Thad Wilson's.

Mrs. C. C. Frink who started on a motor trip to West Virginia with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wright was taken ill and came home by train, Mrs. Wright accompanying her to Putnam and then returning to finish the vacation trip. Mrs. Frink is improving, since reaching home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Graves spent the day at Rocky Point recently.

Frank Nelson lost his family cow this week. The animal seemed all right in the evening when Mr. Nelson went out to water her, but in the morning she was found dead. It is supposed she had been eating something to cause poison.

Rev. M. H. Jones and a friend, Miss Truman, of Providence are spending part of their vacation at the Barker bungalow, near the Green. They returned recently from a stay in Maine.

Michael Shea and his sisters, Misses Theresa and Josie Shea, were in Norwich last week to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Marion A. Shea, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Shea.

James Appley has returned from a western trip. Thursday the Appley families were in Plainfield, guests at the wedding of Milton Winsor and Miss Vivian Cleland.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew T. J. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brown were among those present at the Academy reunion at Plainfield Wednesday.

Miss Stoughton of Woodstock addressed a company of women at the home of Mrs. Howes Thursday, in the interest of the League of Women Voters. An association was formed, with Mrs. James Lathrop temporary chairman.

SOUTH GRISWOLD

C. H. Lathrop of Franklin, state fire patrolman, visited town far warden, I. O. Burdick Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Richardson and Misses Dorothy and Vivian Richardson were visitors at Weekapaug, R. I., Friday, August 28th.

Sterry H. Kinnie and Otto A. Anderson, Jr., were recent business callers in Norwich.

Albert G. Green was a recent caller in Canterbury and Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clark, Stephen Evelyn and Maria Clark were callers at Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Billings' in Stonington, Sunday, August 30.

LAUREL GLEN

Mrs. Louise Shinner and Mrs. Evangeline Skinner, of New York, are being entertained by Mrs. Skinner's mother, Mrs. William Puttiker and her sister, Mrs. Emil Gladfelder.

Fourteen from this place attended the grange meeting at North Stonington Friday night. Much interest was shown in the Babcock test given by Maurice Perry. Dancing was enjoyed after the meeting.

Mrs. Grace Slocum of Westerly was the guest of Miss Hattie White Wednesday and attended Pendleton Hill Sunday school picnic, at Beach Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. John Geer, Bourdon Geer, Miss Emma Main and William Main were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Slocum, of Westerly.

Fred Eberhardt, of New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Puttker.

Miss Evangeline Skinner spent Tuesday with friends in Norwich.

Miss Grace Congdon, of Norwich, was a visitor at the home of her father last week.

William Palmer was a caller in Voluntown Wednesday.

PHOENIXVILLE

F. H. Bennette has purchased of the Latham estate a large tract of land adjoining his farm.

Rev. Mr. Thurber, of Boston, preached at the Congregational Church Sunday morning. He took as his text Cor. 1-6-20 "Ye are bought with a price," and presented his subject very effectively.

A line of thirty-four cars passed through here Mon. When these arrived at the new piece of road being built between this place and Abington. The drivers were given instructions by Traffic Officer Latham, who promptly haled into court three or four drivers who neglected to obey instruction. The driver who leaves the straight and narrow path on this piece of road regrets so doing at once.

A large tract of land has been purchased of F. H. Bennette to enlarge the school ground. The school house will be moved to this newly purchased land and the children will not be in danger, as heretofore.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bennette and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Curtis were Putnam visitors Saturday.

Mary and Henry Schmigelski returned to their home in Willimantic, after spending their vacation with their grand parents.

Visitors Sunday at Roy Clemens' included Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Munyan and Mr. and Mrs. A. Tabor Davis and daughter, Miss Hazel Davis, of Thompson.

While excavating for the removal of the school building the workmen have unearthed numerous varieties of the reptile species commonly known as "snakes". As yet the men have been able to dispatch or annihilate these so as to carry on their work.

FRANKLIN

The public schools will open for the fall term Tuesday September 8.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ayer entertained a number of friends in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. Duing the evening whist was played. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. George Beckwith. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Mr. and Mrs. Ayer received many useful gifts.

Mrs. Lura Adams, of New Haven, is visiting at the home of Fred Johnson.

Mrs. L. A. Robinson is visiting friends in Brattleboro, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren were visitors in Hartford recently.

Misses Ruth and Harriet Robinson have returned home after visiting their uncle, Lloyd Robinson, of Brattleboro, Vt.

Misses Eleanor and Aanita Armstrong are guests of friends in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Robinson and children, Christine and John, of Brattleboro, Vt. attended the Robinson-Manning reunion held Saturday at the home of E. Ray Manning.

Miss John Rodman is visiting friends in Albany, N. Y.

EAGLEVILLE

Albert Rounds, of Stafford Springs, visited his daughter Mrs. George Eaton Sunday.

The C. E. meeting Sunday evening was held at the home of Mrs. George Reynolds. Next Sunday the meeting will be in the hall at 7 p. m. Wilbur Rivers will lead the meeting.

There will also be preaching services in the Hall Sunday at 9.30 a. m. Rev. Mr. Claypool is to be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leitch of Westfield, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and children, of Hartford, and Mrs. A. B. Porter of North Coventry were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams.

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson and son Edgar of New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Meriden, Margaret and Gladys Anderson of New Britain.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson and daughter and Carl Warren, of Hartford and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goodman and family, of Eastampton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds were recent callers on Mrs. Lucy Tucker, of South Willington at Johnson Memorial Hospital in Stafford Springs. Mrs. Tucker was recently operated on for appendicitis.

BOZRAH

Mrs. B. G. Remington of Colchester was the guest of Mrs. E. A. Bishop recently.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Grandy Sunday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drake and son, and Mr. and Mrs. William Huntington, and children, all of Norwich.

Several from here attended the meeting of the Norwich C. E. Union held with the Taftville society Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bishop spent Sunday in Colchester.

The regular meeting of the Grange was held Wednesday evening. C. B. Davis, master was in the chair, after an absence of several meetings. He returned Wednesday from Baltimore where he had been called by the serious accident to his son Charles.

Services at the Center Church will be resumed Sunday.

All schools in town open September 8. The following changes have been made in teachers this year: Mrs. Crapeau, of Norwich, is to be at Rudd, Mrs. Cole of Norwich at Bozrahville and Mrs. Reed of Providence at the Center.

LISBON

There was a large congregation at Newent church Sunday morning to hear Rev. Maurice Reynolds. He preached from the text, Happy is that people whose God is the Lord.

Rev. and Mrs. Maurice Reynolds left Wednesday for visits with other relatives, after spending nearly a week at the parsonage. They expect to return the 22nd of this month for another week's visit.

Miss Dorothy Barber returned to Waterbury Sunday after spending the summer months with her grandfather, E. E. Barber and her aunt, Miss Mattie Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Nelson of Middletown, were callers at Miss Duncan McKay's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin, of Fiskdale, Mass., called at R. B. Barber's, Sunday.

Those from Newent church who attended the six church conference in Pawtuxet Wednesday, were Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds, Miss Lucy Baldwin, D. Helen Baldwin, Miss Sarah L. Hadley, Mrs. Charles Learned, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hyde, Miss Clara Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kendall, Mrs. Charides Johnson, Mrs. Mattie Robinson, Mrs. A. F. Reed, Mrs. W. A. Read.

for Economical Transportation

The Coach $695 F. O. B. Flint, Mich.

The Public Acclaims this the finest Low Priced Coach

Built on the new Chevrolet chassis with construction typical of the highest priced cars—powerful motor; a new disc clutch, the easiest-acting you have ever handled; extra strong rear axle; long semi-elliptic springs—this car provides a remarkable combination of strength, power and comfort.

But in addition it is a beautiful car. Its fine Fisher body meets your ideals of fine appearance and comfort. It is finished in sage-green and black Duco whose lustre and color last for years. For such a coach to be priced so low is truly an achievement in motor car manufacture. See this car today.

Touring $525 Coupe $675 Chassis $425
Roadster 525 Sedan 775 Express Truck Chassis 550

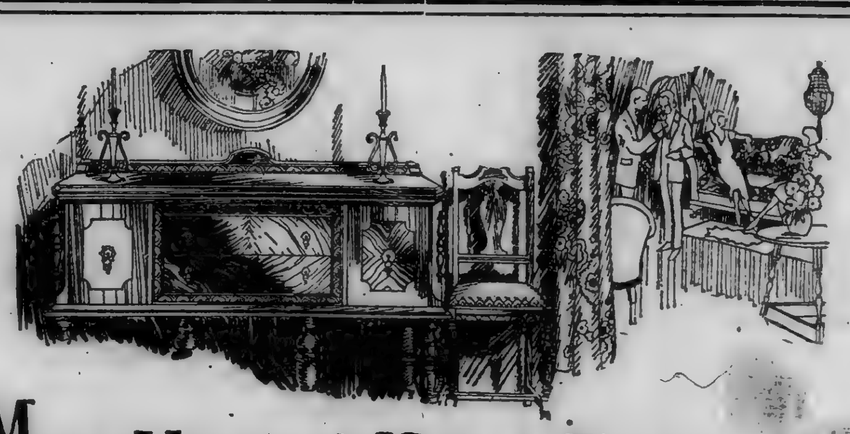
ALL PRICES F. O. B. FLINT, MICHIGAN

ROSOFF MOTOR MART

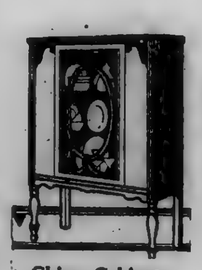
321 Main St.

Norwich, Conn. Phone 2042

QUALITY AT LOW COST



MAKE YOURS A HOME BEAUTIFUL!



China Cabinets

"Dress up" your dining room for the Fall and Winter social season by adding one of these beautiful china cabinets in a distinctive design and finish. The price is way low!

Do you honestly realize how little it often takes to make Home more than a place to eat and sleep—and what a wonderful feeling it would be to live in a home that is furnished charmingly and in modern style in every respect! Moderate prices prevailing throughout our stocks will be a wonderful help to you in making yours a Home Beautiful—bearing in mind, too, the limitations of your purse and making each dollar go farther! Let us help with many practical suggestions for your home!

HOURIGAN BROS.

COMPLETE HOME FURNISHERS

62-66 MAIN STREET.

Octagonal Tables

What better time could you possibly choose than the present to secure one of these handsome octagonal tables, featured now at such a decidedly low price.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

In advance of the annual Old Home day observance at South Killingly, Rev. William S. Beard whose family was along associated with the affairs of this town, is to deliver an address at the church in that place Sunday evening. This service, it is anticipated, will attract one of the largest congregations of the year.

Monday, Labor Day, South Killingly will be the Mecca of hundreds of persons whose associations or former residence in that community will bring them back for an Old Home day that is an event of each late summer period.

Old Home day at South Killingly is one of those happy events free from the frumperey and tinsel of later-day affairs. It is reminiscent of days when the simpler and more essential things of life held sway.

In observing Old Home next Monday, South Killingly people and those who come to spend the day with them are assured of a happy experience. If tradition holds good. There will be an Old Home day meeting at the church at 2.30 in the afternoon. Rev. William S. Beard and Rev. Edward P. Ayer will be the principal speakers.

The committee in charge of the arrangements has provided for a clambake to be served at noon. The fact that King George Jacques of East Killingly will prepare the dinner is ample assurance that it will be seductive. The tables are to be arranged in the Community house, and assurance against sun or rain militating in any way against the comfort of those who dine.

Danielson and all other parts of the town of Killingly will be represented by large delegations at the South Killingly Old Home day, one of the last affairs of the kind to be held in this section this season.

Danielson relatives and friends recently were at Fitchburg to attend a solema high mass, at which Miss Katherine F. Moran made her profession in the order of the Sisters of the Presentation. Rt. Rev. Thomas Leary, bishop of Springfield, was celebrant of the mass. Miss Moran, who will be known as a religious as Sister Mary Regis, was one of four postulants to take vows. Sister Regis, before entering the convent, was employed here in the office of the Eastern Connecticut Power company. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Moran, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Delima Turnenne, 46, is dead at her home in Moosup, after a long illness. Mrs. Turnenne had been a resident of Moosup for about three years and came to that place from Canada. She is survived by her husband and several children.

The fact that there are to be two new grade crossings over the trolley line in one section between Elmville and Danielson, when the new state highway under construction at the present time is opened, is of interest to motorists. Future developments likely will make this less to be concerned about than now seems apparent.

Indications are that the enrollment in the schools of Killingly will reach a new high figure, when studies are resumed the coming week. An enumeration to be within a few weeks will establish definitely what the increase in the number of children of school age has been over the figures for last year. Illingly has not been hard hit by industrial depresion, as have many New England towns and cities, so an increase in the enrollment is anticipated.

Following is a list of teachers in the schools of Killingly for the school year opening next Tuesday.

High: Ernest R. Warren(Ralph D. Brundage, Louise W. Danielson, Marion D. Chollar, Roberta A. Horton, Adah A. Danielson, L. Virginia Wakeman, Eva M. Bryant, Flora E. Shippee.

Grammar: Allen W. H. Stery, Catherine Deviney, Grace M. Stanton, Emma J. Eath, Alma K. Sayles, Elizabeth R. Woodworth, Anna M. Hammel, Beatrice B. Beckett, Edith L. Fuller, Esther C. Holley.

Dayville: Mary Elizabeth Ransonm, Mildred E. Kelley, Maude D. Capron, Arline E. Babcock.

Goodyear: Carl Lefko Sears, A. Laura Chase, C. Ella Day, Grace E. Janes, Mabel C. Frink, Agness W. Jacobs.

Attawaugan: Margaret M. MacConnell, Mary E. MacConnell, Rena B. Moore, Corinne A. Lamphin.

Ballouville: Marion P. Burnham, S. Eloise Shelton.

East Illingly: Ruth B. Keath, Sophia H. Burdick.

Killingly Center: Annie L. Page, Thelma Bruce.

Valley: Gladys Brownell.

South Illingly: Ruth Ella Spaulding.

Supervisor of usic: Leona G. Kraus.

Brooklyn—East Brooklyn: Cora M. Loge, Ethel G. Lyon, Marjorie R. Yates, Helen D. Nash.

Brooklyn—Mabel Ennis, Ella E. Lawton, Bertha G. Spaulding.

Supervisor of Music: Emma A. Burbank.

Registrars of voters in the town of spending the week-end with friends the coming week. They are to meet in the various districts of the town. Harold C. Benson of Providence is spending the wee-kend with friends in Danielson.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. is to be held at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Miriam Musgrave is spending a few days at Three Rivers, Mass.

Miss Mildred L. Leach of Wauregan, who has been employed by Danielson Trust company here has resigned to enter the Boston School of Physical Education.

Joseph LaBelle has been on a motor tour to Canada with members of his family, during the present week.

Saturday, September 19, has been set as the date for the annual flower show at East Killingly, always an interesting event and likely this year to be better than ever.

Tenth annual field day plans for today at Goodyear are of special interest to the people of the village. A program of sports has been arranged.

From Attawaugan invitation have been sent out for the marriage of Miss Irene Harquoil and Homer Beaulac.

Sidney H. Perry, collector of borough taxes, has given official notice that the time for meetings there obligations is near at hand.

Motorists riding from Hartford to Danielson Thursday evening, told of encountering four automobile wrecks between Manchester and Willimantic, the crashes due to slippery highways.

Monday being a holiday, Danielson's bank will be closed for the day.

Users of telephones and radio receiving sets remarked on the great amount of static in the air Friday.

Sales of school supplies are heavy in Danielson these days, against the opening of the schools next Tuesday morning.

J. Carl Witter was at Newington to conduct with his brother, N. A. Witter, an important sale of cattle.

Joseph Garsau, manager here for the Max Gordon and Son corporation has been receiving treatment at the hospital in Putnam.

The Danielson Town team and the Old Timers' team likely will play the first a series of baseball games here, September 13.

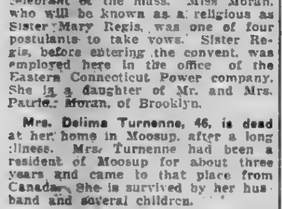
In another week Max Bretschneider will return to his studies in an engineering course at Northeastern university, Boston.

Preparations have been made for applying road oil to the state highway between Killingly Center and East Illingly, a stretch of highway that eventually will be part of a trunk line highway.

Very heavy rain Friday morning served to relive the dry conditions that had prevailed for about ten days.

It is anticipated the case of state vs Charles Dansereau will be heard in the superior court at Willimantic next Wednesday.

A concert by Diggett's band, composed of musicians from Goodyear, Danielson, Putnam and Attawugan, will be given at Davis park next Thursday evening. The concert will be featured by special numbers.



"The Polonaise"

Five Tubes. Inherently neutralized. Designed and built by Splitdorf Electrical Co.

to give the utmost in radio reception. Metal panel richly done in new crackle finish. Encased in attractive hinged-top cabinet finished in the latest two-tone effect, dark walnut and light natural grain. Battery cable.

Price $75

The Grande Speaker, illustrated with set—$22.50 extra

Radios — Hardware — Sporting Goods — Paints

D. BLUMENTHAL

Town Hall Building

Danielson.

PUTNAM

Raymond J. Jodoin, who died at Battle Thursday, was very well known in Putnam where, prior to five or six years ago, he was a weekly visitor. When he was nominated for congress from the second district in 1912, he had the solid support of Windham county. The convention was held in Norwich and he was placed in nomination by J. Harry Mann of this city, who died a few months ago. Jodoin came within a few votes of being elected.

Ensign W. J. Rafferty and his sister, Miss Elizabeth Rafferty have been guests of relatives in Willimantic this week.

Mission Groups A and B of the Baptist church, are to meet next Wednesday afternoon, September 8, at the church. A program for the year has been arranged by the president and the vice-president.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams of this city and Mr. and Mrs. C. Sherman Putnam of Westboro have returned from a 1200 mile automobile trip which took them as far as Niagara Falls. From Niagara Falls they motored into Canada and returned home through northern New York, Vermont and the White Mountains.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Kent are on a ten days' automobile trip through the Catskills.

The Christian Endeavor Society meetings which were discontinued during the summer months will begin again Sunday evening at 7.30 in the Congregational chapel. The leader is to be the pastor, Rev. J. F. English and his subject will be "Learning How to Pray," Matt. 6:5-15. This is the monthly consecration meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turner and children of Springfield have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carpenter of East Grove street.

Miss Bertha Child, daughter of Mrs Annie Child of South Main Street, has returned from Sargent Camp, Peterboro, N. H., where she has been an instructor during the summer. She will return to Simmons College, Boston, for her junior year.

Walter Gardner of Hartford is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner of Arch street.

James E. Murray and Kenyon C. Cotter have returned, after two weeks' vacation.

The Shippee Hill Motor Club, "Mike" Coleman, Dona Thibeault, Arthur Vickers, Fred Moriarty, Frank Sayles, Fred Wells, Frank Lamondy, "Bud" Fortney, Charles Rhodes attended the motorcycle hill climb conducted by the Connecticut Motorcycle Association at Thomaston, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Warren of East Providence are visiting Mrs. Warren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Maryott of Seward street.

Miss Edith Pease of Fremont street, was in Worcester Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Myers are moving into the house on Grove street recently vacated by Dr. and Mrs. Harry Houghton, who have moved into their own house at 90 Grove street.

The committee named at the special town meeting to provide honor rolls and plasters for the new Memorial bridge, placed the order for them with the firm of William Highton & Sons Co., of Nashua, N. H. The tablets are to be of bronze, 38 by 46 inches and will contain the names of 383 men and women who were in the service from the town of Putnam. The cost is $2,-392, the lowest of three bids, and delivery is guaranteed by November 1st.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad has filed a petition with the commissioner of public utilities in Boston for permission to operate and maintain motor service between Putnam and Worcester. With the petition was filed a certificate stating that "public necessity and convenience" warranted the granting of such permit.

This is the first move on the part of the New Haven road to enter into active competition with the motor vehicle lines in this section. There are now three privately owned motor bus lines runping into Putnam, one is between Worcester and Putnam, one between New London and Putnam and one between Springfield, Mass., and Providence, R. I., with Putnam as a regular stop.

That these lines, which give good service in the matter of running time number of trips daily, and the fare charged, have taken a big proportion of local passenger business from the New Haven is apparent to everyone. It is the kind of service that the public wants and the only way the railway can compete is by giving just as good or better.

That the New Haven road, with its millions of dollars property investment would quietly submit to having this traffic taken away from it no one believed. That it has waited this long and allowed the new lines to become so firmly established is a matter of surprise, or would be, if it were any other railroad. Although credit is due for the successful fight that the road has waged to regain its short haul freight traffic that the motor truck took away. A great part of this has gone back because of the very excellent service that it is giving in this field. The same answer is necessary to solve the present problem.

Rev. H. G. Allder, minister in charge at Philips' Episcopal Mission and his family have moved into the house owned and formerly occupied by Mrs. Marshall Kenyon. Mrs. Kenyon expects to spend the winter in the south with her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn. Mr. and Mrs. Allder are making this only their temporary home until the completion of the new rectory, soon to be erected on Pleasant street, near the church.

Sunday, the Methodist and Congregational churches will hold regular services. During August, the two churches had union services. For the first two Sundays of the month services were at the Methodist church and for the last three at the Second Congregational.

The Second Congregational church is to hold its regular morning service at 10.30 and at 7.30 the Y. P. S. C. E. S. meeting will be held in the chapel.

At the Methodist church, services Sunday will be as usual. Morning services at 10.45. Sunday school at 12 and in the evening at 7.00 o'clock. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service.

Miss Rose Weeden and Miss Belle Weeden, of Perth Amboy, N. J., are guests of Miss Elsie Diamond of Grove street.

Mrs. Harry J. Harlow of Schrewsbury, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. H L. Pease of Fremont street.

GALES FERRY

The schools opened Tuesday September 1st with the same teachers as last year. Miss Evelyn E. Whipple teacher of the grammar school, and Mrs. Rufus W. Hurlbutt, teacher of the primary school in rooms at her home. State Supervisor S. Hussey Reed, of Norwich, visited both schools, on opening day. There was no session of the schools Wednesday afternoon, as the teachers were in attendance at the teachers' meeting of the schools of the town, at Ledyard Center. Both schools here have a large attendance of pupils it is considered.

Miss Jennie O. Perkins, president of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, entertained the members of the cabinet, at a frankfurter roast, on the grounds, at her home at Perkins place, Monday evening. Those present were Mrs. Andrew F. Miller, Mrs. Nelson Parker, Mrs. Rufus W. Hurlbutt, Mrs. R. Irvine Hurlbutt, and Misses Helen L. Colver, Gertrude D. Allen, and Margaret Parker. Miss Perkins, served rolls and pickles with the frankfurters, and doughnuts and cheese with cocoa.

The exodus of the summer residents has begun, Tuesday, Misses Marion Brogan, and Marion Brown of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who have spent a month at Bide-a-Wee cottage, and entertained a house party for the week end, closed the cottage and returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Frost and son Charles W. Frost, and daughter Miss Dorothy Frost, with Master George Frost, closed their summer home on the Bluff and left in their car Wednesday to motor to their home in Montclair, N. J. September 9, Charles W. Frost enters Culver Military Academy, in Culver, Indiana. His sister, Miss Dorothy Frost, enters the Nurses' Training School at Johns Hopkins' hospital, Baltimore, Md., on the same date. Miss Ethel Frost, another daughter, remains here, with her aunt, Mrs. Richard B. Ames of Yonkers, N. Y., at the Marguerite cottage, where they will be joined by Mrs. Ames son, Richard F. Ames, also of Yonkers, for Labor day, after which they also will return.

E. W. Jones, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., is having his vacation at the cottage of the family on the Bluff.

Mrs. Emma S. Bennett and granddaughter, Miss Em-Beth Bennett, who have been spending some time, at the home of Mrs. Byron A. Maynard, at Anthony, R. I., returned to their home in the place, Monday accompanied by Mrs. Maynard.

Mrs. John Ferguson of Norwich, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferguson, of Dean's college Franklin, Mass., were callers on Mr. and Mrs. J. Otis Winchester, at Perkins place Wednesday, motoring from the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, at Groton Long Point.

Miss Alice Satterlee and her niece, Rebecca Satterlee of North Haven, who is spending a week at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Charles A. Satterlee and her aunt, went to Greenport, L. I. by steamer Wednesday.

Miss Lillian Raymond, second trick operator at the railroad station here, entertained her parents and family of Oxford, Mass., who motored here the first of the week.

Recent guests of Prof. Chester E. Dimick, and Mrs. Dimick, were the latter's brother, William B. McKelden of Washington, D. C., and her sister, Mrs. George Kauffman, of Montreal, and niece Miss Alice Kauffman.

Miss Mary Brush, who has been a guest for three weeks, of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davidson, in the Stoddard district returned Sunday to her home in Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Vincent Jones of New Haven, who spent the week end at the cottage of the family on the Bluff, will return for Labor day.

Miss Marjorie M. Frink of Washington, D. C., a niece of Mrs. Chester E. Dimick arrived from West Point, Tuesday, where she had spent a week to visit Prof. and Mrs. Dimick.

Mrs. Walter Albertsen, of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. C. Risdon for a week, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Howell S. Bailey and sons Howell P. and Mahlon E. Bailey, of Voluntown are guests for the week of Mrs. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pitcher at their summer home on the Bluff.

WESTMINSTER

There was a good attendance to welcome Mr. Croft of Hanover, when he supplied Westminster church Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. DeGrenier and two children and their friends Mr. and Mrs. Beaver and son of Norwich had motored out to attend the church of the girlhood of Mrs. DeGrenier (Sibyl Rathbun) born and until marriage a resident. The Rathbuns owned the Coulter place for many years.

Amos Green had a serious mishap Wednesday, Aug. 26th. He was beginning to plough at Ben Davies' (the former George [illegible]) with young steers. It was their first exprience of the kind and being frightened by the noise of the machine they ran and threw Mr. Green, still confined at his home by a seriously injured leg, made worse by his pluckily walking back to his place after the accident, as few men very much younger would have had grit to do.

Charles Dewing spent a night at the Linnell's this past week.

Edith Stahlberg was given a birthday party last Tuesday, by her aunt, Mrs. Helstrom; the children of the neighborhood being her guests and all enjoying the celebration.

Mrs. William E. Davies of Elm Arch farm, and her brother, Mr. Albin, were end of the week guests of their sister, Mrs. Andrew Nash, in Darien, Conn. a week ago, returning Tuesday of last week. This was their second trip by automobile to Darien, this summer.

Mr. DeValley, and his brother, with his wife and three children were guests at Fred Green's Sunday.

Raymond Green and Walter Jones were visitors in New London Sunday.

Mrs. Agnes Wood visited Willimantic Tuesday, going by automobile with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bingham.

Mrs. Everett Moulton has returned from the hospital, but has yet to recover her strength.

Mrs. Parmela Lachapelle has New Haven guests, relatives and others.

Columbus Smith, of Norwich, spent last week as a guest of the Deans, at his former home, Brookside, and was again at Morning worship, Sunday, at Westminster, where he retains his membership.

Mrs. William Connolly of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Chat Lawson's for a fortnight, returned home Saturday.

An adjourned meeting of the Ecclesiastical society was held Monday at the church.

Miss Julia Green and George Weeks motored to Rocky Point Sunday.

Mrs. T. Edward Davies is more comfortable this week though still unable to turn or sit up. She very greatly appreciates each of the many calls, and the fruit, flowers and dainties received.

Rev. Marion Hastings Jones and Miss Imogene Truman, of Providence who are spending part of their vacation at the Green, Miss Fannie E. Brown, Miss Emily Hopkins and Miss Helen Brown were recent callers at the temporary parsonage.

The Westminster Hill school-house has been receiving further repairs in readiness for the first day of the new school year next week.

Mr. Tebo, his daughter, and son-in-law and four children from Wilkinsonville were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis last Sunday.

Mis Viola Taylor is spending her vacation in Hartford.

Miss Malvina Margitis of Hartford, has been spending a part of her vacation at her former home here.

Edward Green has been employed at Lawton Inn, since early in July.

Canterbucy W. C. T. U., Buell Union is to meet Wednesday, Sept. 9 at 2:30 P. M. at the Plains.

Mr. Croft will preach again at Westminster next Sunday morning.

NOANK

Mrs. Carrie Latham and daughter Mrs. Charles Dewey are spending a few days at Lantern Hill.

Neil Kimish is visiting in Providence.

George Moore has left for Boston for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Forber, of Norwich are visiting local friends.

Fred Morgan of Ledyard has been a caller in the village.

George White has returned from Edgartown, Mass.

Miss Mary Reed after spending August at Groton Long Point, has returned to her home in Springfield.

The registrars of voters for the 3rd District are Myron J. Chester, and Moses W. Rathbun.

A Ford sedan headed toward Mystic bearing a Connecticut number was parked at the foot of Ashly street very close to the trolley track, Thursday evening. A trolley car coming along could not get by so the motorman went out to see what was the matter. The Ford had no gas. It was moved by man power and the trolley continued on its way, 20 minutes late.

Capt. Henry Langworthy of the schooner Pioneer is spending the rest of the week with his family.

Herman Fisher is employed at the Noank mill as watchman.

Misses Elizabeth and Caroline Spicer, after spending the summer in Europe, have returned home.

A collecting truck of the Salvation Army paid the village a visit Thursday.

Lighter Jason was loaded with lumber at the shipyard and left for Mystic.

The boat Reliance has left for Block Island.

Word was received in the village of the illness of Walter Christensen who is in a hospital in Michigan. He is Chief Engineer of a yacht and while in port was taken ill. Although much improved he will not be able to come to his home for a few weeks yet.

Judge and Mrs. Arthur P. Anderson and family are spending a week at Lantern Hill.

Mrs. Alden Adams is entertaining relatives from Mass.

Mrs. Albert Jones and daughter, of Hartford have returned home, after a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Prudence Chesebro, of Pearl street.

Harry Eide, of Cornfield Lightship, is spending ten days' vacation at his home.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Complete in every feature.

Scholars' Companions

10c up to $1.50.

SCHOOL BAGS

50c to $1.00.

FOUNTAIN PENS

$1.00, $2.00 Up to $10.00.

Everything for the class room.

DOWE'S

(Established 1860.)

112 Main Street

Danielson.

Here is a message of great importance to those who have never experienced the superior comfort of riding on genuine low air pressure tires.

TODAY car owners want to know just two things about balloon tires—their ability to give greater comfort, and ability to give long wear.

In too many instances one characteristic is found without the other.

That is, many balloon tires must be run too hard for comfort, in order to save them from excessive wear.

Or if the tires are run soft enough to give full balloon cushioning, they wear too rapidly.

In U.S. Royal Balloons this trouble has been entirely avoided by two outstanding achievements in tire building.

Achievements which make it possible to run U. S. Royal Balloons at true low air pressures with absolute safety to the tires.

The new flat "Low-Pressure Tread" distributes the weight evenly over a much larger tread surface than a round tread balloon. The wear is slow and even.

Latex-treated Web Cord construction gives this famous tire that exceptional combination of strength and flexibility which permits perfect balloon cushioning.

As a result of these U. S. Rubber Company developments, U. S. Royal Balloons have been established as "the Balloon Tire Principle at its Best."

United States Rubber Company

U.S. Royal True Low Pressure Balloons

with the New Flat "Low-Pressure Tread" and built of Latex-treated Web Cord

Trade US Mark

United States Tires are Good Tires

For sale by:

LANE MOTOR SUPPLY

170 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

THE ADAMS MOTOR CO. Baltic, Conn.

WOLFS GARAGE Jewett City, Conn.

MYSTIC

Mystic Grange, No. 171 met in G. A. R. hall Thursday evening, Worthy Master J. W. Pollard in the chair. Among the items of business was a letter read from State Assistant Steward Charles M. Adams, asking the Grange to entertain New London County Pomona Grange in February. It was voted to invite the Pomona members to meet with Mystic Grange in February, 1926. Two applications for membership were received. At the lecturer's hour, Mrs. Ellery Burdick gave a reading. Worthy Lecturer Miss Schroder gave an interesting report of the New England lecturers' conficence held at Storrs College, Aug. 24 to 27. Mrs. Medbury acted as pianist, in the absence of the regular one.

The water main on the bottom of the river is receiving repairs and it is hoped by those living on the hill that they will receive better service. It has been very annoying, and worse since the large increase in water rates that consumers are obliged to pay.

Mystic country club entertained Thursday evening with cards. The committee in charge was Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Mrs. N. S. Gates, Miss Kariska Gates, Dr. Clara McGuigan, and Dr. L. M. Allyn.

Mrs. Marion Pomeroy and grandson, Theodore Moser came from Hartford Wednesday and opened their house on High street. It has been closed during Mrs. Pomeroy's stay in Hartford.

Miss Anna Larkin was stung by a bee on her forefinger causing the finger and hand to swell badly and it was very painful.

Mrs. Silas Fish who is spending the summer at Lord's Point, called on friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb visited relatives in Westbrook recently.

The monthly covenant meeting was held in the vestry of the Baptist church Thursday evening.

Harry Hank, employed at Flynn Brothers' garage, corner of Bank square, left his car parked on the side street Thursday. A passing autoist crashed into it, doing considerable damage.

Walter Morgan of Stonington was in the village Thursday evening.

The picnic of the Congregational Sunday school had to be in the parish house instead of the grove as announced, on account of rainy weather Thursday.

Miss Eleanor Davis, physical instructor at Mystic Academy last year, has been engaged to teach in Florida the coming year.

Small Johnny—Say, ma, can't I have another cake?

Ma—How many have you had?

Small Johnny—Only two round ones with holes in them.

Ma—Well, I guess that's enough.

Small Johnny—But, ma, can't I have just one more square unholy one?

THIS BANK WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY—LABOR DAY

DEPOSITS MADE IN OUR SAVINGS DEPARTMENT TODAY WILL DRAW INTEREST FROM SEPTEMBER 1st.

THE DANIELSON TRUST COMPANY

OPEN SATURDAY EVENING FROM 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK.

POETRY

Frenzice

Fear death?—to feel the fog in my throat,
The mist in my face,
When the snows begin and the blasts denote
I am nearing the place,
The power of the night, the press of the storm,
The post of the foe;
Where he stands, the Arch Fear in a visible form,
Yet the strong man must go;
For the journey is done and summit attained,
And the barriers fall,
Through a battle's to fight ere the guerdon be gained,
The reward of it all.
I was ever a fighter so—one fight more,
The best and the last.
I would hate that death bandaged my eyes and forbore,
And bade me creep past.
No! let me taste the whole of it, fare like my peers,
The heroes of old,
Bear the brunt, in a minute pay glad life's arrears
Of pain, darkness and cold.
For sudden the worst turns the best to the brave,
The black minute's at end,
And the elements rage, the fiend-voices that rave,
Shall dwindle, shall blend,
Shall change, shall become first a peace out of pain,
Then a light, then thy breast,
O thou soul of my soul! I shall clasp thee again
And with God be the rest!
—Robert Browning.

Silkweed

Lighter than dandelion down,
Or feathers from the white moth's wing
Out of the gates of bramble-town
The silkweed goes a-gypsying.

Too fair to fly in autumn's rout,
All winter in the sheath it lay;
But now, when spring is pushing out,
The zephyr calls "Away! Away!"

Through mullein, bramble, brake and fern
Up from their cradle-spring they fly,
Beyond the boundary wall to turn
And voyage through the friendly sky.

Softly—as if instinct with thought
They float and drift, delay and turn,
And one avoids and one is caught
Between an oak-leak and a fern.

And one holds by an airy line
The spider drew from tree to tree,
And if the web is light and fine,
'Tis not so light and fine as he!

And one goes questing up the wall
As if to find a door; and then,
As if he did not care at all
Goes over, and adown the glen.

And all in airiest fashion fare
Adventuring, as if, indeed,
There not so grave a thing to bear
The burden of a seed!
—Philip Henry Savage.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

I suppose your wife always wants the last word.

Yes, especially the last word in hats, gowns and hosiery.—Boston Transcript.

Wife—Darling, how would you like to have mother for lunch

Husband—No, thanks. My digestion isn't what it used to be.—The Progressive Grocer.

First Customer (describing a catch)—The trout was so long—I tell you I never saw such a fish!

Second Customer—No. I don't suppose you ever did.—Good Hardware.

Lady—I suppose you have been in the navy so long that you are accustomed to sea legs.

Sailor—Lady, I wasn't even looking.—Exchange.

I made a big hit with that woman introduced me to.

What did you say to her?

Nothing. I just kept still and listened.—Boston Transcript.

"I want my name in bigger type," declared the dancer.

"I can't see it," retorted the manager. "Why, you've got your name now in bigger type than if you had committed a murder."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

First Doctor—He sleeps naturally. He will recover.

Second Doctor—I think so, too. We have got over the worst!

First Doctor—No. The worst is yet to come. We have to inform his relatives!—Dorbarbier, Berlin.

Little Boy—Papa, let me see your hands.

Father—All right. There they are

Little Boy—Why, they're not dirty

Father—Of course not.

Little Boy—Well, I heard Mr. Stephens say that you had been down town this morning slinging mud.—Oklahoma Whirlwind.

KALEIDOSCOPE

President Hayes was born in Ohio

President Madison was a farmer's son.

President Polk declined re-election.

President Van Buren had four sons.

President Van Buren's father kept a tavern.

President Taylor was in the army 40 years.

There are 130 public baths in Constantinople.

Benjamin Franklin was his father's fifteenth child.

George Washington quit school at the age of fourteen.

President Johnson was married at the age of 18.

A world forestry congress will meet in Rome early in May 1926.

President Tyler at 54 married an orphan girl of 24.

The deposit of the Mississippi is estimated at 400,000,000 tons annually.

The first book defending tobacco was written by Dr. Bellamy in 1603.

Much of the sugar content in bread and ice cream is derived from corn.

It is estimated that there are now over 1,000,000 radio receiving sets in France.

Traffic towers like those used in New York city are being erected in Berlin.

The duchess of York has created a craze for hand painted slippers in London.

The heliograph is a new instrument used in taking photographs of the sun.

Queen Maud, of Norway, has had one novel published and is working on another.

Annually the Mississippi river carries 145 cubic miles of sediment to the gulf.

Two life masks were taken of Abraham Lincoln, the first at Chicago in 1860.

When in school George Washington devoted himself chiefly to mathematics.

The telescope was invented by Hani Loppershey, a Dutch spectacle maker, in 1609.

State colleges and universities increased in attendance 309 per cent from 1890 to 1918.

Umbrellas were not used in Europe until the early part of the eighteenth century.

Former soldiers of Canada who have been established on farms of their own number 20,604.

Russia grows sunflowers exclusively for the potash that can be obtained from their stalks.

1766 1925

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

129 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 50c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-2.

Willimantic Office, Main St., Telephone 1131.

Norwich Saturday, Sept. 5, 1925

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 29, 1925:
12,909

THE WEEK'S AVIATION LESSONS

It is not to be expected that this country is going to give up its efforts in the fields of aeronautics just because of the distressing collapse of the Shenandoah, or what may be the loss of the PN-9 No. 1 off the Hawaiian islands.

It is a well known fact that progress in aviation as well as in many other lines of endeavor has been accomplished in some measure through large sacrifices. Some have been openly regarded as more dangerous than others and yet in neither the case of the Shenandoah nor the PN-9 No. 1 was there believed to exist any such danger as developed. In fact it was supposed that what has happened in these instances had been guarded against. This means of course that man has not as yet gotten to the point where he has completely harnessed the elements. He has tried with a wonderful degree of success but he is not in control. Further efforts at safeguarding must and will be made. It has been a distressing and deplorable experience but it serves as one more of the lessons to be derived from similar experiences in this or other countries.

A significant statement was made the other day, which of course could not have been influenced by what has occurred this week, that "If more emphasis were put upon aviation as a science and as an industry rather than as a sport, it would number fewer casualties."

In the light of what has happened this is worthy of serious consideration. It was not in the stunt doing that either type of airship was involved. Each was being put to a test, nothing usual in the case of the dirigible, but in the nature of endurance for the seaplane. The tests were rigid ones and each failed. From the inquiries it will be disclosed what is necessary to meet such conditions in the future.

Much that we learn is at a heavy cost. That certainly is the case in connection with the Shenandoah and the PN-9 No. 1 Those who gave up their lives did so in the line of duty and it must be so regarded, and yet in view of such great loss in highly trained men if there is ground for the above claim that more emphasis should be placed upon aviation as a science and industry let us by all means do it. We have had a costly lesson.

ELECTORS' APPLICATIONS

Have you given heed to the notice of the registrars of voters in which they are advertising the dates and places where they can be found by those who are entitled to and desire to become voters? Next Tuesday is the day which has been fixed when they and their deputies will be in their respective districts prepared to receive applications from or in behalf of those desiring to be made voters.

In order to participate in the coming town election it is necessary for the non-voter who has resided here long enough and complied with other necessary preliminaries, to comply with the legal requirements in being made a voter. If eligible he must make application through the registrars in order that his name may be included and posted among the to-be-mades. That must be followed up by actually appearing before the registration board later, qualifying and taking he elector's oath, the same being required, of course, of the women as of the men.

Too often is it the case that those who just before election decide they want to vote suddenly discover that they have failed to comply with the necessary preliminaries in time. Filing the application is one of these preliminaries and it ought not to be neglected. Many have become 21 since the last chance to be made, many have completed the required term of residence here and many may have awakened to the fact that it is time to do what should have been done a long time ago.

It isn't possible to be made a voter every week or every month. The opportunities are few and far between but they ought to be improved by those for whom they are interested in lending his influence for good government to comply with the simple requirements involved in being made a voter, and to make the best possible use of the franchise once it is obtained.

It is important to remember that voters have to be "made" they are not born that way, and that it is time to carry out the first preliminary—the filing of the application.

BRANDED BY RESULTS.

When the opinions of the collectors in the various districts throughout the country was sought relative to the benefits under the publicity feature of the income tax law, it cannot fail to be noticed that it was invariably replied that there was no benefit but much mischief caused by it. It was to be expected that the collectors would be aware of any good accomplished through the publication of the lists of those paying taxes and that they would see the delinquents coming forward but such has not been their experience.

It was quite right to expect that they would notice the effect of the publicity and they have. They have noted the increased expense which is entailed by such a provision, they have seen the horde of snoopers, curiosity seekers, flock about the lists and they have noted also that many of the men of wealth who have paid large income taxes in the past are not doing so any more. They have been made aware of the fact, even as have the newspapers, that it is provided a great opening for salesmen, collecting agencies and others who are desirous of getting lists of names for circularization purposes. They have seized it as a good opportunity and the effects of their activity will be shown later.

But the opinion of the collectors is much the same as that which is generally held. While there was strong opposition to any such opening of returns when it was being considered that opposition has greatly increased, and particularly so since it can be seen through experience that there have been no benefits but many detrimental results from the law.

With nothing gained by it, the necessary support for the abolition of the publicity provision of the law ought to be available in the coming session of congress. There are laws which do not amount to anything which are generally ignored, but in this instance it serves as a nuisance and will continue to be one as long as it is allowed to remain. The results urge its quick abandonment.

GUARDING BAD MEN.

Escapes have been made from the state prison before and it is expected that there will be others in the future. There are those who are placed in positions which make their escape much easier than for others. That isn't usually the situation when bad men are concerned and that is the classification which is given to the two who made their get away this week from Wethersfield.

While efforts are being made to effect their capture too thorough means cannot be taken to determine where they got the tools with which they bored their way to freedom and who was responsible for extending such important assistance.

For prisoners to bore through the steel covering of their cells requires time, getting into unusual positions and the possession of not only drills but a brace of some sort to operate them. No steps can remain untaken to determine where their aid came from, how their got it and who contributed it, and then the taking of such action as will properly penalize then for their acts.

From the investigation it should be determined where the trouble lies, whether there has been laxity in the institution or whether the particular prisoners have been too clever for their keepers through the utilization of such advantages as they were permitted to have. The escape of prisoners who are known as bad men and whose records call for the closeest guarding indicates that conditions exist which ought not to and that adequate remedies should have been taken to prevent such a break.

NEEDLESS NOISE.

In Philadelphia at the present time there is underway a campaign which has its merits for many other communities. Philadelphia is trying to bring about a reduction of the noise in the vicinity of its hospitals. There are isles of safety, and there is no reason why there should not be regions of silence.

While there will be many to say that it is not solely in the vicinity of hospitals that there ought to be less noise, it must be agreed that about the hospitals, especially when they are close to much traveled highways and intersections, needless noise ought to be dispensed with and by the exercise of a little care and forethought it will be possible to get along with a small amount of what would otherwise be the case.

Rubbered tired vehicles and the replacement of block pavements have served to end some of the clatter of the days of horse drawn vehicles, but there are noises which have come with the motor vehicles which are as bad if not worse. There are the many horns, the rattle of aged cars the chugging and clatter from the empty trucks and the shivering of the buildings as the heavily loaded vans go by. There is also the annoying noise from the running of engines on pleasure cars and trucks as they stand at the curb.

Noise may be one of the accompaniments of these days of increased speed but whether there is general cooperation for its reduction elsewhere there is sufficient reason for doing so in the neighborhood of hospitals. The sick have enough to contend with, whereever they are, without being obliged to stand so much needless noise.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There is some difference between planing the flight from Frisco to Hawaii and actually carrying it out.

Now that France is ready to talk debt payment Minister of Finance Caillaux wants no prolongation of the negotiations.

The man on the corner says: Finding an occasional hairpin on the walk indicates the disappearance of bobbed hair.

It will be a happy day if the time ever comes when there will be eliminated distressing friction in the shipping board.

Even if there is a coal strike on only one kind of fuel substitute will make it unnecessary to carry out the ashes later on.

Both sides are displeased with the boundary decision in Ireland. As long as there is no agreement there will be no surprise.

Even though the auto fatalities in 57 American cities show a decrease in the past four weeks the 328 deaths represent too great a toll and there is no certainity that the decrease will be maintained.

There are members of the shipping board, like members of congress, who figure they are doing their duty when they obstruct and make trouble for those striving for more efficiency and less waste.

THE MAN WHO TALKS

The weight of modern scholarship is doubtless in favor of evolution; not, however, in favor of all the theories concerning evolution. By its very nature it cannot be wholly separated from hypothesis. There are still many questions being asked about it in the realm of scholarship. No one has yet suggested whether there is likely to be produced by this process a being superior to man, or if evolution ceased to function when man arrived. Is man the ne plus ultra of the evolutionary process? Is it possible to conceive of any form of life more perfect than the human species? We would at once answer in the negative if the human species were only flawless. But this is very far from being the case. Now then if man is as we see him from all angles very imperfect, evolution has yet a big job to do. Is it doing it, or it is tumbling down on its job? Are modern armies physically stronger or braver than Caesar's legions? Is the average intellect keener today than in the age of Plato? Are twelve average Christians today better than the twelve apostles? Is evolution going out of business, or is it working on a superman?

When Jeremiah wrote the following words: "How wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?" he probably had no idea that they would be applied to the problems of life 3,000 years after his day. The rest of the verse reads thus: "If thou has run with footmen and they wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? "In modern language if you fall down before trifles what will you do before great obstacles? The swollen Jordan was then looked upon as an insuperable barrier, but modern science has made is possible to cross the mightiest river. Many things seem impossible until we attack them with skill and and courage.

Bluff or Business—Which? This is quite an important question in the varied activities of life generally. The other day the writer saw three of his most conscientious hens seated on their nests. There was such a perfectly satisfied look on their faces that he was constrained to ask: "Biddies, is this bluff or business? Somehow down in my heart I feel that it is a case of pure bluff." Soon after he visited this scene again, and found that they had done the biggest things hens can do, i. e.: they had produced to the very limit of their hen capacity. The least the writer could do was to apologize for his error of judgment. There was some excuse for him because he had known hens as well as people who had cackled when there was no production. Have we not a right, then, to ask this question, bluff or business—which? when our fellow beings are purporting to be delivering the goods?

Students who go to college in the near future will take up the subjects of seismology and geophysics as they now study geology and astronomy. Several months ago the public generally was amazed with the accuracy with which the total eclipse of the sun was foretold, and the exact sphere of its visibility. It has been definitely stated that the time will soon come when earthquakes will be predicted as to time and place with the same strict accuracy that marks the occurance of eclipses. It cannot confidently be said that any place in the world is immune from earthquakes, in the past they have occurred in some places more frequently than at others, but this may not continue. It is believed by scientists that the vast amount of oil taken from the earth leaves a vacancy that the weight of the earth's crust seeks to fill hence the tremors. At present the most that science can do is to tell us what to do as precaution.

It is reported that at a certain Bible class in X—the following question was debated: "Can business be conducted on moral principles?" During the debate a man threw the class into an uproar by remarking that "if all the business men in X went according to the Golden Rule in business they would be bankrupt in three months." The class as a whole was quite indignant at the statement. But the point is. Why did he make the statement? Nobody claims that using the Golden Rule in business will, in itself, insure great business prosperity. The Bible nowhere claims that living the Christlike life is going to develop great financial sagacity. Christian men have made great successes in business but this is only partly due to their Christianity. They have also many times failed, but their Christian belief and practice have had nothing to do with their failure. There is not a case on record where a man has been penalized because of his fair dealings.

There can be no valid reason why those who can afford it should not make a trip around the world. Traveling is an educative process all its own. One comes into contact with phases of life that cannot be gleaned from books or orally taught by any professor. It gives a personal touch to life that is not to be acquired in any other way. Westminster abbey and the Matterhorn may be correctly described by pen and brush, but the real thrill comes only as the eye beholds them. But many cannot afford this luxury, and none are entitled to it who have not seen some of the beauties of their own land. The place to begin is right where one lives, and those to whom I write are, for the most part, living in southeastern Connecticut. There is no portion of the earth's surface of equal area, more charming or of greater variety than ours. We ought to see it from all possible angles.

And what is true of this section of country is equally true of New England generally. England and France may be more highly cultivated, the Alps more rugged, the Canadian Rockies more majestic, the Appalachians more picturesque, but no scenery in all the world is more beautiful than ours. Who has exhausted all the viewpoints possible here in Norwich? Have you ever seen the city and its wonderful environment from the roof of the Elizabeth street school? Have you taken in the prospect east from Overlook or west from Liberty hill? Have you ever stood on the highest point between Taftville and Norwich Town? Have you ever been beyond Fairview to take in the long range to the south and west? These and many others like them are not so very remarkable because New England abounds in them. One will get very little out of these views if the love of the beautiful is not in his soul.

Now just a word to you boys and girls about the open schoolhouse. At the mention of the word "schoolhouse" do you scowl, or does your face lighten up with joy? I hope you don't scowl, for that shows that something is wrong somewhere. Haven't you had a good time during the long vacation? If you are a thoughtful boy or girl you cannot reasonably expect to play all the time. You must know that in order to be successful in life today you must have at least a fair education. You have had since the middle of June to play and there is no reason for scowling when you hear the school bell ring. Isn't there, on the other hand, every reason why you should rejoice? You have had a long season of rest from study. Play has put color into your cheeks and strength into your bodies. Now isn't it time for your minds to step in from the field and take their place at the bat?

BURDENSOME TAXATION DIRECT AID TO RADICALS

Taxation and radicalism are two subjects more closely linked, than is generally imagined, and the surest way to help the agents of Moscow in this country is to keep up the foolish and futile practice now so popular in taxation of "soaking the rich."

This seemed to me a very extraordinary doctrine, but it represents the substance of what was said to me by Edward N. Hurley, the war chairman of the United States shipping board and a business man noted for his liberal views.

I had already discussed radical propaganda and the method of dealing with it in this country with a great labor leader and a great social student of social philosophy, and I wanted the views of a great practical business man writes Drey Pearson in the Washington Star. And I must confess that I was hardly prepared for such a diagnosis of the question as Mr. Hurley gave me. The gist of his analysis was this: That the country needs the industry and energy of its business men more than it needs their money, and that under the present system of high surtaxes business men were losing their interest in organization and enterprise and turning to tax-exempt securities and golf, with the net result that the nation is getting neither their taxes nor their services. We don't "soak the rich," because they dodge the blows. We don't soak them. We merely make them lazy.

Has Unbiased Attitude

Edward N. Hurley has some claim to a more unbiased attitude toward business and labor than any other man in this country.

In the first place, his father was a workingman who was not afraid to get his hands dirty, and Edward N. Hurley's first job was that of a locomotive fireman. He became an engineer, and later a salesman. Then he organized his present business, which has netted him a comfortable fortune.

Mr. Hurley not only knows business and labor from both sides, but knows it from the government's side. He was once chairman of the federal trade commission and also acted with Samuel Gompers as a delegate, representing business, to the international labor conference in Paris during the peace negotiations in 1919.

American Workman Different.

"The American workman has nothing in common with his more radical fellow worker in Europe," said Mr. Hurley after I explained my mission. "I saw that when I attended the labor conference in Paris. There were all shades of delegates there, red pink and white, but the majority were conservative and it was easy to see that the minority's objective was to get control of and nationalize the basic industries of every country. They wanted to capture the coal mines of the world, particularly.

"But our workmen won't stand for that sort of thing. They are intelligent and reasonable, and I am not greatly concerned that socialism will ever make great progress, as long as we have our present labor leaders and as long as business men will do their part."

Then Mr. Hurley made his interesting statement about radicalism and taxes.

Secretary Mellon's fight to reduce the surtax was a step toward preventing the sowing of the seed of socialism, and if congress had passed the Mellon tax bill, we would have less industrial money in tax- exempt securities and more efficient methods in business today."

I was surprised at this statement and asked him what bearing the reduction of the surtax would have upon socialism.

"Well, let us analyze the situation," he continued. "Our success before the war must be attributed, in a large measure, to the hard work of the president's and other officials in industry. They were giving their personal attention to every branch of their business. Their wealth was in their business, and the salaries and dividends paid by their companies were their chief means of support. The sporting thrills were derived from leading a successful organization, and their method of doing things forcefully we reflected all along the line, down to the day laborer. Salesmen were hustling, and when, one of them procured a fair-sized order, there was rejoicing throughout the organization.

War Changed This

"As chairman of the federal trade commission, I met thousands of business men whose sole objective was to learn from the government ways to improve their business methods and be helpful to the industry of which they were a part. Many of them had started their enterprises with only a few dollars, but by courage and hard work had accomplished wonders, not only for themselves but for the country. Then came war profits and war taxes.

"After the war started in Europe we began to make enormous war profits, which were greatly increased after our entrance into the war.

"With plenty of money, all made without any great effort on the part of presidents, managers and salesmen, we begun to feel that we were the most efficient and greatest business men in the world. This feeling was shared by almost every business organization after the war. If enormous profits could be made without hard work, why not continue the same methods? This would necessitate less time around the office and factory, and allow plenty of time for travel and outdoor sports. The opinion prevailed that about the only change necessary was that the wages of labor must be readjusted.

"The government had placed a heavy tax upon war profits and a high surtax on incomes, and thousands of business men purchased large amounts of tax-exempt securities in order to escape the heavy toll of taxes. They quit putting money into their plants. In many cases they sold the securities of their companies, thereby substantially reducing their holdings in the properties they managed.

Weapon Against Reds

"Although alarming in itself, the withdrawal of millions of dollars from industries for investment in tax-exempt securities was not as serious as the fact that it was frequently responsible for efficient executives becoming less active in directing the management of their old organizations and losing direct contact with their workmen, who had heretofore followed their advice and counsel—a powerful weapon against the radicals.

"This country was built by pioneers upon a foundation of efficiency. Efficiency enables us to compete with foreign countries. Efficiency on the part of management and workmen produces greater returns and permits higher wages. Inefficiency results in low wages, and, as a consequence workmen become discontented and listen to socialistic arguments.

"If our leisure class does not increase in number too rapidly—if the business men of the country will not become overindulgent in their sports too early in life—with taxes, particularly surtaxes, further materially reduced along the lines of Secretary Mellon's recommendation, which will lessen the amount of money diverted from industry—and if the chief business executives will keep in close touch with their organizations and workmen, radicalism will not make much progress in this great country of ours."

Today's Anniversaries

1791—Giacomo Meyerbeer, the eminent composer, born in Berlin. Died in Paris, May 1, 1864.

1802—Anthracite coal was first burned in grates in Philadelphia.

1837—Count Barowloski, famous Polish dwarf (35 inches in height), died at the age of 93 years.

1869—Jonathan Worth, governor of North Carolina in the years immediately following the civil war, died at Raleigh. Born at Guilford, N. C., in 1802.

1873—A convention met at Austin to frame a new Constitution for Texas.

1894—Trial of Eugene V. Debs and other officials of the American Railway Union was begun in Chicago.

1906—The British Trade Union Congress declared in favor of the 8-hour day for all organized labor.

1923—The Prince of Wales left London for Canada.

1924—U. S. globe-girdling aviators landed at Mar Point, in Casco Bay, Maine.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Havelock Wilson, who is now visiting Canada, has been for more than a quarter of a century one of the most influential leaders of organized labor in Great Britain. As general president of the National Seamen's Union his influence has been felt in every quarter of the globe. With years of personal experience before the mast in his youth and early manhood, Mr. Wilson knows all of the hardships in the life of the sailor and it has been the aim of his life to improve these conditions. Born in Sunderland, seventy-five years ago, he started on his career with only a meagre schooling. While following the sea he read on economic subjects and with the knowledge thus acquired and his native gift of leadership he soon became a power among the members of his craft. Through organization he has won many material benefits for British seamen and as a member of parliament for many years he has helped to enact numerous laws for bettering the condition of the working classes in general.

Today's Birthdays

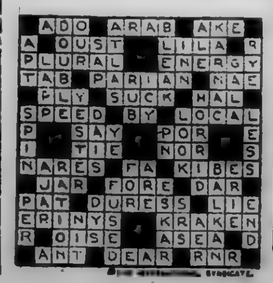
Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, Episcopal bishop of Connecticut, born at Windham, Conn., 77 years ago today.

William B. McKinley, senior United States senator from Illinois, born at Petersburg, Ill., 69 years ago today.

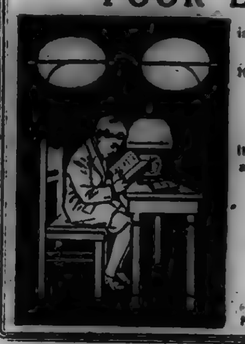
Thomas C. Powell, the new president of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railway Co., born in Cincinnati, 60 years ago today.

Ex-Archduke Charles Stephen, former commander of the Australian imperial navy, born 65 years ago today.

Tobias Crawford Norris, former premier of Manitoba, born at Brampton, Ont., 64 years ago today.



POOR EYESIGHT



is one of the greatest drawbacks to the health and development of Children.

It is also responsible for a goodly percentage of backwardness in school.

Perhaps your youngster's sight is defective.

It won't require much effort to find out and you will be better satisfied to know.

BRING YOUR CHILDREN TO US.

JOHN F. MARCH
Optometrist and Optician
Dime Building, Rooms 201-204,
Norwich, Conn Phone 1312

Hot-Tempered Folk
Who for defense is fully armed
You'll find is very seldom harmed.
—Old Mother Nature.

In the Long Lane leading from Farmer Brown's barnyard down to the Green Meadows and the cornfield live certain little hot-tempered people. They had been there all summer. At first there had been only a few of them, but now there were many of them and each one carried a sharp little lance. They lived beside the road in a mossy bank. They were Yellow-Jackets, which, you know, are a kind of Wasp.

Now, at first no one had bothered them and so they had bothered no one. But as they grew more and more numerous they began to make some trouble. Twice Farmer Brown's Boy was stung by them when he happened to stop close beside the little holes in the ground which were the entrances to their homes. Then one day Farmer Brown drove down the Long Lane and Bowser the Hound trotted along beside the wagon. Presently Bowser ran ahead. He thought he smelled something up on the bank, and, as is his way, he run up with his nose to the ground. He ran right over the homes of the Yellowjackets. Out they came, each with his little lance ready for business. But Bowser had passed on and they didn't see him. They saw Farmer Brown and his two big horses, who were just passing.

Things happened in the Long Lane! My, my, my, I should say they did happen! Sammy Jay saw it all and tells about it to this day. You see those horses always had been treated kindly, and they didn't know what to make of the Yellowjackets. Farmer Brown himself fared no better. But he could pay no attention to anything but those horses. Such a prancing and dancing and kicking and squealing! Such a plunging. It was a wonder that that wagon wasn't upset. But finally Farmer Brown managed to quiet the horses and by this time they had left the Yellowjackets behind.

Farmer Brown got some mud and put it on the wounds made by those sharp little lances. That made the horses feel better. He put some on his own wounds, too, and that made him feel better.

It was after dark when Farmer Brown ventured to drive back up the Long Lane. The Yellowjackets had all gone to bed. There was no more

They lived beside the road in a mossy bank trouble, but he knew that there was likely to be trouble whenever any one passed that way. "We'll have to smoke them out," said Farmer Brown. "We'll have to go down there and smoke them out."

Now, some one besides Sammy Jay had seen all that had happened. That some one was Jimmy Skunk. Jimmy had been taking a nap hidden in the thick bushes that grew beside the Long Lane. Of course he had waked up at the sound of all that racket which the horses had made when they were stung.

"Now, what does that mean?" said Jimmy Skunk to himself. "What can have happened to have upset those horses so?"

He lazily yawned and stretched. Then he ambled out and looked up the Long Lane. "I don't see anything," said Jimmy, "I don't see anything to have frightened those horses so. They certainly were frightened. I wonder what it means. I think I'll have a stroll up that way by and by. Meanwhile I'll go back and finish my nap." When he awoke it was just the right time for jolly, round red Mr. Sun to go to bed behind the Purple Hills. Jimmy ambled out into the Long Lane and then turned up the Long Lane. He hadn't forgotten that he was going to try to find out what had frightened Farmer Brown's horses.

(Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story — Jimmy Skunk Proves Himself Useful.

Sunday Morning Talk

OUR VACATIONS

Are you spending your summer by the seaside or among the mountains? Do not let your time be crowded as it may by your friends? Take some hour of daily quiet and solitude, to listen to the voice of God. Insist upon it that you have time enough away from other human beings to get caquainted with God. It is no that God does not speak to us, but that we do not hear. We have only to be quiet now and then in the dewy morning or in the evening stillness, to hear His voice in every wind and wave, to see His touch in the many beautiful and varied colors of the flowers which are scattered so profusely at our feet. Let nature have her way with you once in a while; let nothing hinder you from her beneficient touching. Gradually you will come if you listen amid the silence to hear the voice of the living God. We may talk as friend with friend. He will tell us what He would have us do. His love and goodness are so deep and so free that if we will, it may be a summer that we may get our spiritual strength renewed, to work for the spiritual uplift of those around us. We all ought to be children of the King, about our Father's business. Some of us are working in one portion of His harvest field and some in another and yet all caring more for the gathering in the sheaves than for anything else in the world.

Stories That Recall Others

Nothing to Wear

Without any preliminaries Jim asked this question of his wife as he reached home one evening last winter, "My dear, you haven't anything decent to wear, have you?"

It came as a bit of a surprise to his wife but she quickly replied, "No indeed, I haven't. I'd be ashamed to be seen anywhere. My newest party dress has been worn three times already."

"Yes, that's just what I told Bill when he offered me two tickets for the theatre. I knew if I took them they'd be wasted. So I just got one. Well, I must hurry!"

Too Old to Play a Drum

The car was so well filled that when a woman and her little daughter came aboard they could not sit together. The child sat with a woman who had a round hat box on the floor beside her. The little girl after other preliminaries looked up to the woman with a smile and said naively, "I see we're going to have some music."

"Music?" asked the woman, not catching the meaning of her remark.

"Yes," said the girld, "I see you have your drum."

Laughingly the woman explained that it was a hatbox, not a drum.

"Oh," said the little girl. "Well, I looked at it when I got on the car and said to myself, I wonder what that woman is going to do with that drum. She's too old to play it herself. Maybe she's going to give it to some one."

The woman laughed all the rest of the way into the center.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

WHAT ARCTIC FLYERS EAT

Navy beans went with the Navy flyers into the Arctic.

They constitute one of the innovations in Arctic menus introduced through the MacMillan-National Geographic Expedition.

Powdered orange, powdered lemon, powdered milk, tomato paste, and American cream cheese are other novelties in food carried by the flyers. The only two concessions to the usual Arctic food requirements are pemmican, or dried meat, which makes up one-third of the food supply, and biscuit.

The food list of the explorers is the answer to a difficult problem the navy dietitians had to solve. Minimum weight had to accompany maximum caloric value. Foods had to be such that they would require little or no cooking. Furthermore, the menu-makers had to consider the possibility of a prolonged stay. This meant heavy stress on proteins and fats.

What would the housewife, who ponders what she shall have for dinner, do with an order like that?

This is the ration the explorers depend upon every time their planes fly: for one man for one day: one-seventh of a pound of pilot bread (polite name for hard tack,) tenth of a pound of bacon, third of a pound of powdered milk, twentieth of a pound of navy beans, twentieth of a pound of oatmeal, twentieth of a pound of chocolate, twentieth of a pound of cream cheese, one pound of pemmican, spoonful of powdered orange and lemon, fifth of a pound of sugar, tenth of a pound of tinned butter, and small portions of tea, coffee, salt and pepper.

Pemmican is explorers' food. The word comes from an Indian name for their variety of dried meat. Originally it contained only meat and suet. White men and various tribes in America have added vegetables, currants, raisins, currants, sugar, and cheese and honey. MacMillan Expedition pemmican is flavored with raisins and sugar.

For his earlier expedition by dog sled out into the same Ellesmere Island the planes explored, MacMillan took nutritious pemmican put up in eight-pound tins for the dogs and in six-pound tins for the men. A record of a march the frozen blocks of meat would be carved with an axe. No crumb ever escaped.

Don't Slander New England

That New England is slowly dropping, or at least standing still, is another of the long list of popular fallacies. As a matter of fact, the census shows that it is almost keeping pace in population growth with the rest of the country, notwithstanding the migration to the south. And just look at this: New England roads, with their small mileage, carried more forest products than the vast Pacific and California roads with twice the mileage. And as for [illegible] comparable. The little Bangor and Aroostook, 216 miles long, carried 25,804 cars of potatoes last year, while four principal railroads, with 15,028 miles in Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin, carried 25,185, the place for young coming country, the place for young men!—Nation's Business Magazine.

The Norwich Savings Society

Incorporated 1824.

"A Century of Service."

DEPOSITS MADE ON OR BEFORE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, WILL BE ENTITLED TO INTEREST OR DIVIDENDS FROM SEPTEMBER 1.

LIBERTY BOND COUPONS DUE SEPTEMBER 15, WILL BE ACCEPTED ON DEPOSIT AS CASH.

BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, DIVIDENDS WILL BE CREDITED QUARTERLY—OCTOBER 1, JANUARY 1, APRIL 1, JULY 1.

MRS. FULLER MADE STRONG

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped when Other Medicines Failed

Walpole, N. H. — "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it has improved my health wonderfully. For months and months I was not regular and had terrible pains. They used to affect my side so I could not work. I read of others being helped by the Vegetable Compound, so I thought it might help me. I am very much better now, strong enough to do my own housework, and have two dear babies to care for besides. I tried other medicines before taking the Vegetable Compound, but I was never treated for my troubles. I speak highly of the Vegetable Compound to my friends and recommend it to any woman for rundown and nervous condition." — Mrs. T. H. FULLER, Walpole, New Hampshire.

Over 200,000 women have so far replied to our question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 out of every 100 of the replies say "Yes," and because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women it should help you.

Ye Chocolate Shoppe

18 BROADWAY

of 49 Broadway has moved to 18 Broadway, opposite the Wauregan Hotel.

Special Today for Opening

HONEY NOUGATINES, regular 59c—per lb.	39c
WALNUT STUFFED DATES, regular 79c—per lb.	49c
COCOANUT CARAMELS, regular 59c—per lb.	39c
FULL CREAM PECAN CARAMELS, lb.	79c
80c ASSORTED CHOCOLATES	59c
CHOCOLATE ALMONDS, lb.	69c

MANY OTHER SPECIALS TOO NUMEROUS TO MENTION.

LUNCHEON SERVED DAILY.

Ye Chocolate Shoppe

18 BROADWAY

STONINGTON

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wayland and of Mrs. Elton Wayland and Mrs. Beard, who have been occupying the Wayland house on Main street this summer, assembled Wednesday afternoon to listen to a piano recital by Mrs. Winifred Young Corbin.

September 2 was the ninth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Friedman.

Rev. Albany J. Smith left this week for the south to engage in evangelistic work. His family plans to spend the winter in Philadelphia.

Rev. Wallace M. Gallup, minister of the Second Congregational church, has completed his work as chaplain at Fort Terry, where he has charge of the religious and social welfare of 275 boys and young men. The work was so exacting that Dr. Gallup has found it necessary to take a vacation before resuming his ministry at Stonington and his teaching at Connecticut college.

Accordingly he will not return to his pastoral work in Stonington until Sunday, Sept. 20, at which time he will conduct the morning service.

Sept. 13, as well as next Sunday, the 6th, Rev. Edward M. Chapman of New London will preach.

Missionary Will Speak

Miss Clara L. Huntington, who for 16 years has been engaged in missionary work in India, will speak at the Ledyard chapel, Ledyard, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Huntington is spending a furlough in this country.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hubbart of Boston, formerly of Ledyard, are having a vacation in Ledyard. Rev. Mr. Hubbart will conduct the services on Sunday.

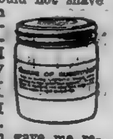
Miss Huntington has been connected with an Indian mission under the direction of the Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Whipple, whose relatives have long been residents of Ledyard and Groton.

DIED

LUCAS—In Norwich, Sept. 4, 1925, Phillip Lucas, aged 28 years, of 11 South B Street, Taftville. Funeral notice later.

Had skin trouble so bad was ashamed to appear in public

Resinol completely healed it



Entriken, Pa., March 4:—"Last summer I had a skin affection on my face, hands and arms. It kept spreading until I could not shave and hated to be seen in public. The itching was very annoying and nothing I tried gave me any relief. A friend recommended your Resinol Ointment and I bought some at once. The first application gave me relief, but I continued using it freely and in a very short time the itching disappeared and the trouble was completely cured. Needless to say, I have great faith in "Resinol" for skin disorders." (Signed) J. H. Ketterman.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Norwich Saturday, Sept. 5, 1925

VARIOUS MATTERS

Dog days end today, September 5th.

Native eggs are selling in Norwich at 65c.

Light vehicle lamps at 6:46 (S. T.) this evening.

Camping and picnic parties continue to spend glorious days at Lantern Hill.

The Fall Term of St. Patrick's parish school is to open Tuesday, the 8th.

After it cleared Friday, following the cloudy morning, the mercury kept about 72 degrees.

About Saybrook Point, Rock crabs are in great demand for black fishing. Small catches are reported.

A healthy situation in linoleums and other hard surfaced floor coverings is reported by dealers here.

On Labor Day there is to be a treasure hunt, for the benefit of the Old Lyme Fire department.

Much shopping will be crowded into business hours today (Saturday) because of the holiday Monday.

Invitations have been sent out at Attawaugan for the marriage of Miss Irene Harnois and Homer Beaulac.

It is mentioned at Mystic that Mrs. Harry Meyers and sons have returned fro ma visit with friends in Stafford Springs.

Money deposited at Chelsea Savings Bank today will draw interest from Sept. 1st.—adv.

On Bath street, the fence has been removed from the site of the buildings recently torn down and the lot is being graded.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bottomly of Plainfield expect to leave for England September 10 for a six weeks vacation visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLean of South Glastonbury are spending a few days at their cottage at Cornfield Point, Saybrook.

Kitemaug Elberta peaches for canning will be ripe early next week.—Adv.

Arthur Roberts who has been the Norwich Bulletin news boy at Central Village, left Wednesday for Canada, where he will attend school.

A special meeting of Moosup Valley Grange earlier, paved the way for the third and fourth degrees this week, with several visiting granges.

Crabs, scallops, lobsters, clams at Powers Bros.—adv.

The sum of $2,151.57 was realized from the tag day given by the board of management of the New London Day Nursery recently, it was reported.

Misses Ida A. Heebner, Mabel Corrigeux, Olga Giebe, Helen Curran and Mrs. John Blair of Norwich are spending the week at Horicon Lodge, Lord's Point.

An East Killingly correspondent states that Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Chase and Mr. and Mrs. Eggleston of Norwich have been callers on Mrs. Eliza Chase, at Ledge cottage.

Plans are being made by the American Road Builders' Association for a Good Roads Week to be observed throughout the United States, beginning January 11, 1926.

Kitemaug Elberta peaches for canning will be ripe early next week.—Adv.

Mrs. Will S. Taylor of Brooklyn, after a stay in Minot and Salem, Mass., has returned to her cottage in Pleasant Valley, Lyme. Mr. Taylor has been abroad all summer.

Misses Gertrude and Grace Sistare of Quaker Hill have returned from a visit in Vinal Haven, Me., with Dr. and Mrs. Freeman F. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman A. Brown.

At Wamphassuc Point, Stonington, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Manning of Mystic have purchased a lot just north of the Griffin property from John C. Gallup and others and contemplate building later.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company announced Friday that it would operate 122 extra trains into and out of New York to accommodate extra travelers over the Labor Day holiday period.

During Friday the scaffolding was removed from the remodeled Y. M. C. A. building, Broadway, and the fine plate glass windows are now uncovered. The new owners, N. S. Gilbert & Son will soon move to their new property.

Men's gloves are expected to remain conservative for the most part, although merchants are anticipating a greater call than ever for the lighter shades, in keeping with the general trend in this direction in men's clothes.

Groton residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Adams and son, Morgan, are on a ten days camping trip in North Belgrade, Me. They are staying at the camp owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchins of New Jersey, formerly of Groton.

One of the fields of silage corn being harvested at Charles Tyler's farm at Moosup pond has a big percentage of the stalks averaging 15 feet in height; most of the lower ears of corn are beyond the reach of a man standing beside the stalks.

The Sterling Center school opened Monday with the following teachers, Mrs. Medbury of Central Village, first and second grades, Miss Enora Ellis, third and fourth, Miss Sylvester of Maine fifth and sixth and Mrs. McDonald, of Maine, seventh and eighth.

It is gratifying to Eastern Connecticut mill men that a more confident feeling is shown in the cotton goods trade over the prospects directly ahead. The general opinion is that busines over the next few weeks is likely to show substantial improvement.

At Rockville, is the Tolland Co. superior court next Tuesday, ten criminal cases will be put to plea by State's Attorney Thomas F. Noone. There will also be a naturalization session Tuesday in charge of Commissioner Allen F. Church of Boston. Thirty-eight are seeking citizenship.

Several Ellington girls took summer courses at Connecticut Agricultural college. Sewing and cooking were the favorites and one girl specialized in nature study. The girls are Ruth Hamilton, Esther Heinz, Evelyn Lanz, Ellen W. Young, Ernestine Kupferschmidt, and Mary Davis.

CLOSING OPTIONS ON RESERVOIR SITE FARMS

Routine business was transacted Friday evening at the monthly meeting of the board of water commissioners which was held at the water department office at the court house.

Reports were made that the options held on the farms where the new reservoir is to be built and for the pipe line were being closed up and that the common council committee on the issue of the water bonds is to go to Boston next week to consult with Boston bankers about issuing the bonds.

PERSONALS

Calvin L. Swan, who has been seriously ill, has recovered and is able to be back to business.

Miss Catherine Goldberg of Leffingwell attended the Phi Beta convention at New Britain Thursday.

Miss Grace Hooper returned to Uncasville recently, after spending some time with relatives in Maine.

Gerald Corcoran and Thomas Hamil of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting John P. Corcoran, of 405 Main street.

Mrs. Harold Duerr has returned to her home in Franklin, after spending a week in Worcester, with Mrs. John Reichert.

Miss Katharine Simpson, who has been visiting Mrs. Arthur D. Hinds, at Hampton, has returned to her home in Groton.

Mrs. Katherine Reichert Pulaki and daughter Rita, of Worcester, have spent a week with Mrs. Harold Duerr, of Franklin.

Miss Estelle Booker of Meriden is visiting Mrs. Eunice A. Gifford in Salem for the first time in thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Saffer, of Astoria, L. I., have returned home, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. G. Muckensturm, of Franklin.

John Kennedy and family of Norwich, have returned to their home after a month at Clair Ledge, the Leahy bungalow, on James street, Lord's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Dowsett, their daughter Dorothy and Mrs. Herbert Norton of Groton are taking a ten days' motor trip to the White mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reichert and daughter Miss Mary Reichert and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pulaki, all of Worcester, were guests Sunday of Mrs. G. Muckensturm, of Franklin.

Mrs. Margaret Ellis of Lakewood, R. I., Mrs. Eva Hobart of Providence, and Miss Catherine McCarthy of Philadelphia have returned home after a few days' visit with Mrs. M. A. Donahue of Main street, Norwich.

FUNERALS

Asahel H. Young

(contributed)

With relatives and friends present from Providence, Hope Valley, Wakefield, Greco, Packer, North Stonington and neighboring towns, funeral services for Asahel H. Young, 81, were held at Voluntown Baptist church Wednesday at two o'clock. Rev. Jos. W. Carter of Jewett City officiated at the services. There were beautiful floral pieces. The bearers were Frank and Leon Young, two nephews and Archie Dawley and Irving Main husbands of two nieces. Burial was in the Robbins cemetery Voluntown, where a committal service was read.

Asahel Hiram Young was born in Voluntown, Aug. 12, 1844, the eldest child of Benj. Young and Eliza Hoxsie. He was educated in the schools of the town and at an early age began the trade of a carpenter which he followed for a considerable time. Being of musical tastes, the violin became his specialty and forty years ago, and more, many social gatherings about the country for miles were enlivened by his music. Even in his later years his violin was a source of much pleasure to him His death followed closely after days and nights of exposure from being lost in the woods.

He is survived by two brothers, Grayson, of Packer, Henry of Voluntown, a sister, Mrs. Ella F. Young, of Providence and twelve nephews and nieces, besides eight great nephews and nieces and three great great-nephews.

Mrs. Warren Curtis

With relatives and friends present the funeral service for Mrs. Warren Curtis was held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her son, Joseph W. Curtis, 3 Huntington Place. There were a number of very beautiful floral forms. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Eldred Brown, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. Today (Saturday) the body will be taken by automobile cortege to Morris, N. Y., where burial will take place. Relatives and friends will accompany the body to Morris. Undertaker C. A. Gager has charge of the funeral arrangements.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Frank A. Sargent.

Mrs. Amy Cooper Sargent, 56, wife of Frank A. Sargent of 15 Grand street, New London, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Richards of Clinton, Mrs. Sargent had been in failing health for nearly a year but her condition was not considered critical. She had been visiting her daughter in Clinton when she suffered a relapse.

Mrs. Sargent was born in England Oct. 6, 1868, and was the daughter of the late Charles and Elizabeth Cooper. She had been a resident of New London for the past 35 years. She was a member of the Companions of the Forest with which organization she held the office of past chief companion. She was also a member of Orient Rebekah lodge in which she held office at the time of her death.

She leaves, besides her husband three sons, Benjamin F., William O. and Harold Sargent of New London, and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Riley of New London and Mrs. Richards of Clinton. Two brothers, Henry Cooper of New Haven and Oliver Cooper of Quaker Hill, and two sisters, Mrs. William F. Reed of New London and Mrs. Henry Dunn of Norwich, also survive her.

WEDDING

Maynard—Hickey.

Miss Grace Mae Hickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hickey of 262 Willetts avenue and Herbert F. Maynard, son of Mrs. Nettie Maynard Raynor of 22 Viets street, all of New London, were married Thursday in that city by Justice of the Peace Perry J. Hollendersky at his office in State street. The witnesses were Mrs. Raynor, mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Hickey, mother of the bride, and Donald West. Mr. Maynard is employed at the J. N. LaPointe Co., and the couple will make their home in New London.

Eagles At Pinochle Again.

Another eight nights series in pinochle has been commenced by the Eagles at their new home on Cliff St. The daily prize winners were:

W. O'Brien, 7625; Thos. Fields, 7060; J. Sautler, 6960; H. Swget, 6900.

The last tournament closed last week with the prizes for the series going to the following:

H. Marcus, 1st Thos Fields, 2nd; J. Levich, 3rd; H. Congdon, 4th.

Soloists at Baptist Church.

Charles Cameron Bell of Rochester, N. Y., is to be the tenor soloist Sunday at the Central Baptist church and will have charge of the music for the church services. Howard S. Arnold of Cliff street whose guest Mr. Bellis for several days, will be at the organ.

Recovering After Operation

Friends of William H. Callahan, water department superintendent, will be pleased to learn that he is recovering well from a serious operation performed a week ago to remove a large abacess from the back of his neck.

Forty-seven per cent of all immigrants now enter the United States by way of New York, 36 per cent by the Canadian border, and 10 per cent by the Mexican border.

SUMMONED TO COURT AFTER AUTOMOBILE CRASH AT TAFTVILLE

Charges of reckless driving were made against Arthur Sartori of Versailles and he was summoned to appear next Tuesday morning in the Norwich police court by State Policeman Whitmarsh after an automobile accident Friday evening about 7 o'clock at Taftville.

The Essex coach driven by Sartori, who was coming towards the city, was in collision on Norwich avenue near the Lisbon bridge with a Buick touring car driven by Lionel Morin, 17, of 91 Butler street, Springfield, Mass., and owned by Romeo Gendron of Lexington avenue, Springfield. The Springfield man was here to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mandoze Morin, and was driving the touring car out of a driveway between the Ponemah Co., tenements onto Norwich avenue as the Versailles car came along. The Versailles car was struck in the right side by the other, causing the coach to lay over on its left side across the trolley tracks and block the trolley line.

There were nine persons in the two cars but none of the occupants of either machine was hurt. Sartori had with him his wife and child and his sister-in-law, Miss Heemina Scala. In the other machine besides the driver were his father, his brother Jos., sister Cloreine and a friend, Ludovig Leboux.

Word of the accident was telephoned to the state police barracks at Groton and Officer Whitmarsh responded in fast time to make an investigation.

Until the wreck was cleared up after the arrival of the state policeman, Arthur Thurlow of Taftville took charge of the direction of traffic and kept the cars moving carefully through the narrow part of the street that was left open.

The two drivers made report of the accident and the damage to their cars at police headquarters. The Springfield man, who could not talk English, had a friend speak for him. He reported the frame of his car sprung, tire and rim torn off the left front wheel, right front mudguard and radiator damaged. The damage to the Versailles car was reported as rear housing sprung, windshield broken, and three mudguards damaged.

SOCIETY WEDDING FOR WATCH HILL CHAPEL

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WATCH HILL, R. I., Sept. 4.—Miss Elsie Schreiber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Schreiber of New York and Watch Hill, will be united in marriage with John William Moore Robbins of New York, son of Mrs. Edward R. Robbins of Greensburg, Penn., Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the Watch Hill Union Chapel. The officiating clergyman will be Rev. Edward S. Travers, D. D., of St. Peter's Episcopal church, St. Louis, Mo. The single ring service will be used and the chapel will be decorated in a color scheme of pink, blue, and yellow.

The bride who comes from a famous New England family will be given in marriage by her father. The maid of honor will be Miss Ottilie Schreiber, a sister of the bride, and her attendants will be the Misses Dorothy Rhodes and Suzanne Anderson of Detroit, Mich., Miss Alice Lee Beadleston of New York, and Mrs. Everett Cady of New York. Edward Robbins, brother of the groom will be the best man. The ushers will be Montgomery Deaver of Philadelphia, Ralph Isham of Chicago, James Ingram of New York, George Kennedy of Pittsburgh, William Richardson of Ardsley, New York, B. Piermont Schreber, brother of the bride, and the flower girl will be Miss Barbara Glazier.

The bride will be gowned in white satin with pearl girdle and trimming with a court train of white satin lined with pink satin and her bouquet will be white orchids with pink roses in the center. Her veil will be of Old Rose Point lace caught with bandeau, which was worn by her mother at her wedding. The maid of honor will wear blue chiffon, with blue hat and shoes and bouquet of blue flowers. The bridesmaids gowns will be of pink chiffon and they will wear large blue velvet hats, with shoes, and their bouquets will be of pink and blue flowers.

Following the wedding ceremony there will be a reception at the Watch Hill summer residence of the bride's parents and the home will be beautifully decorated with summer flowers. Music will be furnished by Organist William G. Hamson of New York and Watch Hill, and Mr Whitestein of New Haven, violinist. The bridal couple will pass their honeymoon on an automobile tour of the south and the bride's traveling gown will be of brown crepe de chine with hat to match. On their return from their wedding tour the bride and groom will reside at Ardsley Park.

The bride attended Miss Porter's school at Farmington, Conn and the groom is a graduate of Yale, Sheffield, class of 1924, and was manager of the 1924 Olympic team. Guests from many cities and members of the Watch Hill summer colony will attend. Four hundred guests are expected at the reception. Guests will include:

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Glazier, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen all of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Ward B. Allen, Mrs. Samuel G. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dunham all of Hartford, Miss George A. Driggs, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Driggs of Waterbury, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. English, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Owsley, Dr. and Mrs. William Rhynam Townstend, Mrs. Henry H. Van Cleve and Henry H. Van Cleve, Jr. and Wm. R. T. Van Cleve, of New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip B. Stanley of New Britain Mr. and Mrs. Truran Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mellon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Joy of the Watch Hill colony, Representative to Congress from Rhode Island and Mrs. Richard S. Aldrich of Providence and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Larkin, Dr. and Mrs. John Champlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Champlin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sherman, Robert Sherman and Miss Esther Sherman, Dr. and Mrs. Albert H. Spicer, Miss Florence Nichols and David Robertson of Westerly.

WILLIMANTIC CAR STOLEN, DRIVER WAS AT SHOW

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 4—A Buick touring car bearing Connecticut registration number, 92300, was stolen from Broad street, near the Strand theatre, about 9.30 o'clock Friday evening. The car is owned by Mrs. Mary Shea of this city and had been left on Broad street by her son, Richard Shea, while he attended the theatre. The car, a 1922 model, color black, has a spot light on the left side of the windshield. The local police have notified police departments in the vicinity.

Killed Sheep on Gager Farm.

Some unknown person killed, skinned and dressed one of the sheep from the flock on the farm of C. A. Gager at Mohegan hill inn on the Norwich-New London turnpike about two weeks ago. The butchering of the sheep was discovered within a few hours after it had been done, but the thief had gotten away with the dressed meat and the fleece, leaving the discarded portions of the animal in a lot adjoining the Gager farm. The state police have been trying to find the theif but have little chance as there is no clue to work on.

Wet Driver Pays Fine

On a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor, Andrew Klem, of Montville was fined $150 and costs in the city court Friday evening, the fine being pronounced by Judge Arthur F. Libby. He paid $160.50. Klem was arrested Thursday afternoon by Officer Luke Riley on one of the bridges over the Yantic river on West Main street. A Greeneville man paid $5 and costs, total $14.50 on an intoxication charge.

The delta of the Mississippi covers 12,000 square miles.

AGED STONINGTON MAN'S DEATH BY SUICIDE

A verdict of death by suicide was returned late Friday afternoon by Dr W. H. Gray of Mystic in the case of Jeremiah Bourdeau, 75, whose lifeless body was found Friday morning in a swamp near the man's home on a farm adjoining the Hinckley hill road, Stonington. There were three deep gashes in the man's throat, but efforts to find the weapon that had been used were unsuccessful.

The dead man was found at about 9.30 a. m. by Harry Burdick, who keeps his cows in a barn on the Bourdeau farm. Attracted by the continued barking of Bourdeau's dog while he was milking a cow in the barn Friday morning, Burdick's curiosity was aroused and he went to the portion of swamp and brush land from which the sounds proceeded. Near the dog he was amazed to come upon the body of his old neighbor, lying on the ground near a small brook.

After a hasty investigation and finding that the man was dead Burdick notified Officer C. Wilson Brown, whose home is directly opposite the Bourdeau farm. Officer Brown had already spent nearly two hours searching for his aged neighbor, whose daughter, Mrs. Flora Cotey, became alarmed at not finding her father in his bed or about the house early Friday morning. The policeman in his search had passed only a short distance from the spot where Bourdeau's body lay and later had inquired about the streets, up Westerly, hoping that some one had seen the missing man.

Medical Examiner W. H. Gray of Mystic and Deputy Sheriff William H. Casey were notified shortly after the discovery of Bourdeau's bdoy, and together with Officer Brown and neighbors of the victim they examined the body carefully and searched about the swamp for possible clues to determine whether the aged man had met death by murder or suicide. Although the officers dammed up the brook and removed all of the loose mud from that portion of the stream, they found no knife or other weapon.

After completing his preliminary examination Dr. Gray gave permission for removal of the body to the Charles H. Gavitt funeral home on Granite street.

It is known that Bourdeau did not leave the house until after 2 a. m. for at that time one of his grandsons, Arthur Cotey, returned home and noticed the old man lying in bed, apparently asleep. Bourdeau's absence was first noticed when the family arose Friday morning and he failed to put in an appearance.

SAMUEL JENNES MADE LEGION POST COMMANDER

At the regular semi-monthly business meeting of the Fletcher Post, No. 4, American Legion, held Friday evening in the new post rooms, Shetucket street, First Vice Commander Samuel Jennes was elevated to the office of post commandr as successor to Webster D. Copp, resigned. Commander Jennes will complete the unexpired term of Mr. Copp.

The new commander presided at the business meeting which was well attended. The usual reports were given and in addition there were reports by John A. Cunningham, chairman of the On-to-New London committee and by Delegate William A. Anderson, one of the four delegates who attended the state convention of the Legion in New London last week.

Mr. Anderson was appointed chairman of a committee to make arrangements for the staging of a theatrical entertainment this fall, probably on Armistice Day night. He will name his own committee. The post meeting came to a close about 10 o'clock.

Laramee-Pepin Wedding Thursday

Through an error it was stated in the Willimantic news that the wedding of Rudolph F. Laramee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Laramee, of Willimantic and Miss Yvonne Pepin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zephire Pepin, of Windham Road, was solemnized in St. Mary's church, Willimantic, Tuesday morning. The date should have been Thursday morning.

Will Attend 56th Regt. Reunion

Norwich members of 56th Coast Artillery Corps will be in Norwalk Sunday to attend the reunion of the regimental association.

K. of C. Deputies Appointed

Included in the appointment of district deputies for the Knights of Columbus by State Deputy William J. Mulligan are Henry P. Duduc, Danielson; John F. Hennon, Jewett City, Timothy J. Sullivan, New London; and T. Frank Cunningham, Willimantic.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Miss Mary T. Almy, of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Almy, of Lincoln avenue.

Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Prentice had friends in for an informal evening of four tables of auction, at their home, 191 Washington street.

At an evening of cards Wednesday, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Manley Eastwood, Jr., 152 Broadway, the prizes went to Mrs. Walter G. Hitchon, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Sevin.

Mrs. Norris S. Lippitt entertained Friday afternoon at her cottage in Neptune Park with three tables of cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. Rollin C. Jones and Mrs. John E. Hawkins.

Misses Gwendolyn and Pauline Jones of Bliss Place have returned from Camp Tahoma, Pike, N. H., where they spent August. Miss Gwendolyn Jones has been the guest for several days of her campmate, Miss Helen Earle, of New York, at the Earle cottage on Fishers Island.

If all thieves were compelled to wear prison garb stripes would always be the prevailing fashion.

TEACHING STAFF FOR DISTRICT RURAL SCHOOLS

The rural schools in the district that includes Bozrah, Preston, North Stonington and Ledyard, will have the following corps of teachers when they open for the fall term next Tuesday:

Bozrah.

Fitchville — Catherine M. Murphy, principal; Mrs. Grace S. Latimer, assistant. Leffingwell (Demonstration school)—Alice A. Bishop. Bozrahville—Mrs. Margaret M. Cole. Johnson—Mrs. Ethel B. Abel. Center—Mardelle M. Reed, Rudd—Mrs. Winifred Crepeau.

Preston.

Poquetanuck Grammar—Mrs. Jane H. Taylor. Poquetanuck Primary—Mrs. Elizabeth Beckwith. Fort Point—Louise Muench. Crary — Freida Muench. Kimball—Evelyn Butler. Brown—Edythe Pierce. Preston City—Mrs. Pauline K. Wininger. Palmer—Mary Kelly; Haskel—Elsie M. Dombroski.

North Stonington.

Center Grammar—Anna L. Chapman. Center Primary—Mrs. Helen W. Greenwood. Hewett—Clark A. Coon. Wheeler—Helen G. Kahn. Boom Bridge—Lelia Wheeler. Shunoc—Esther C. Beebe. Miner—Edith Palmer. Clarks Falls—Dorothy Lester. Laurel Glenn—Carolyn Stedman. Pendleton Hill—Lucy Lester, Williams — Ella Norman. North West Corner—Merle Woodmansee.

Ledyard.

Long Cove—Bella Rifkind. Gales Ferry Primary—Mrs. Iva E. Huributt. Gales Ferry Grammar—Evelyn E. Whipple. Geer Hill—Bertha Ademan. Church Hill—Mrs. Carrie Mansfield. Cider Hill—Vinton O. Ackley. Gallup—Leslie R. Holdridge. Unionville—Helen Thompson. Lambetown—Gertrude A. Watrous. Lantern Hill—Ruby Swan. Health director for the district—Miss Frances Kingberger, R. N.

The school calendar for the year is as follows:

First term: Sept. 8, 1925 to Dec. 18, 1925; Second term, Dec. 28, 1925 to Feb. 10, 1926; Third term, March 1, 1926 to April 23, 1926; Fouth term, May 3, 1926 to June 18, 1926.

Rosenberg Injures Hand.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—Charlie Phil Rosenberg of New York, world's bantamweight champion, injured his hand in an exhibition match last night and as a result will not be able to fulfill his contract to meet Carl Tremaine at Cleveland, O., September 22, Rosenberg's manager announced today.

His manager said, however, that the champion would not meet any other opponent in the ring until he faces Tremaine at Cleveland. It is expected that a postponed date will be agreed upon next week.

MCTIGUE UNABLE TO FIGHT FOR ONE MONTH

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Mike McTigue, former world's light heavyweight champion, will not be able to box again for a month. The former titleholder is suffering from blood-poisoning in the Saratoga Springs Hospital.

Commissioners representing the state athletic commission, visited McTigue at the hospital today to ascertain his condition and make this report officially to the commission.

NEW HAVEN DEFEATS PITTSFIELD SCORE 7 TO 2

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Sept. 4.—(AP)—New Haven turned out a 7 to 2 victory over Pittsfield today, batting rallies in the eighth and ninth innings netting the visitors six runs. Mills allowed only three scattered hits for seven innings but weakened in the eighth. Score:

New Haven	000	001	03x—7
Pittsfield	001	100	000—2

Two base hits, Stow.

CADDIES' TOURNAMENT WON BY SEGAL AND SKELLY

The finals in the two divisions of the caddies' tournament at the local golf club were played yesterday. In the first division E. Segal defeated Goodman 5 and 4. In the second division Skelly defeated Gilman 5 and 4. Various prizes made possible by contributions of the club members will be awarded on Labor day.

ALBANY SCORELESS IN WORCESTER GAME

WORCESTER, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Worcester blanked Albany today 3 to 0, through Goldsmith's effective pitching and the Panthers' ability to hit Snover when his meant runs. Thomas' work was a feature. He hit safely four times and stole five bases. Score:

Albany	000	000	000—0
Worcester	210	300	02x—3

Two base hit, Goldsmith.

MEUSEL CLOUTS OUT HIS TWENTIETH HOMER

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—Emil (Irish) Meusel, Giants, outfielder, hit his 20th home run of the year in the fifth inning of today's game between New York and the Phillies. None was on base at the time.

FRENCH CHALLENGER SEEKS SPEED BOATS GOLD TROPHY

DETROIT, Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—With the conclusion of negotiations between T. A. Clarke, French challenger for the British International (Harmsworth) Trophy and the Yachtsmens Association of America, the Detroit Gold Cup Committee has assurance of an international flavor to the speed boat races here September 6-7, in connection with the annual Detroit Regatta.

The trophy race to be run on the Detroit river under the auspices of the Yachtsmen's Association and the Detroit Yacht Club will be the 13th contest for the treasured symbol of motor supremacy, originally offered by the late Lord Northcliffe, then known as Sir Alfred Harmsworth.

It marks the second race in American waters for the trophy and the second in fresh water. It has been held five times in English waters, once in French waters, and once off Queenstown, Ireland.

Clarke challenged a team to be composed of Gar Wood, who brought the trophy to this country in 1924 and captured it again the following year; his son, Garfield A. Wood, Jr., and H. Alex Johnson of New York City.

The present world's record, held by Wood, is 80.567 miles an hour. During the 18-year period in which the Harmsworth Trophy has been run—twelve times in all—it has been captured by Americans six times.

GERMAN SCIENTISTS OBTAIN DATA ON DEEP-SEE CURRENTS

HAMBURG, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—A scientific deep-sea expedition which left Hamburg in April recently arrived at Cape Town after a successful cruise. The expedition traversed the Atlantic between America and Africa 14 times and succeeded in studying scientifically submarine currents. The claim is made that this is the first time this has been accomplished. Reports from the expedition declared that its investigations proved that warm currents from the North Atlantic flow at a considerable depth for a distance of about 2,000 miles south of the Equator where they rise to the surface. Similar currents from the southern Polar regions pass northward.

The waters of these currents were found to contain such forms of organic food as is sought by whales and certain other fish. The expedition, financed entirely by private subscription, is in charge of Dr. Merz, director of the Berlin Institute of Oceanography. It will proceed to the southern Pacific regions, making Bouvet Island its base and sailing eastward from there.

MUSICAL STUDY FOR EPISCOPAL CLERGY URGED AS NECESSITY

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Episcopal church clergymen are not particularly musical, intimates the report which a joint commission on church music has just completed for consideration at the General Convention of the church which will meet in New Orleans October 7 next.

The report asks in effect how can a minister exercise the sole authority for administration of church music in his parish, which church law gives him, when he does not know anything about music? Renewal is made of the recommendation of three years ago that courses in the history and practice—and appreciation—of music be established in all the theological seminaries. Some progress along these lines has been made, the report adds, but there is still great room for improvement.

Japanese to Climb Rockies

Under the joint auspices of the Rokio Nichi Nichi, the Osaka Mainichi and the Japan Mountaineering society, an attempt will be made by a party of Japanese mountain-climbers to ascend the heretofore insurmountable peaks of the Canadian Rockies. The party, which will be captained by Mr. Maki, one of the leading mountaineers of Japan, will include representatives from the Peers' school and Keio university.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

Send this ad and ten cents to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive a sample bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND for coughs, colds and hoarseness, the sample package of FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, and FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS for constipation and biliousness. These dependable remedies are free from opiates and have helped millions of people. Try them! Lee & Osgood Co.

WE ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR

CANNING SUPPLIES.

Drop in and take a look at our Canners, Fruit Jars, Preserving Kettles and Jelly Strainers.

We have a complete line of Atkins Saws, Maydole Hammers, Stanley Planes and Starrett's Combination Squares.

Buy a Coal Hod or an Ash Can now.

If it is a Hardware Item you can count on finding it at our store—129 Main Street.

EATON CHASE CO.

Telephone 173-174.

STORE CLOSED ON LABOR DAY.

TIRES!

Big Tire Bargains

30x3½ USED TIRES $4.75

31x4 USED TIRES.. $6.75

32x4 USED TIRES.. $7.50

33x4½ USED TIRES $8.25

34x4½ USED TIRES $8.50

We also have a complete line of new Tires and Tubes at Bargain Prices.

T. J. HEALY

Marguerite Block at Preston Bridge

Tel. 2110—Norwich, Conn.

Pilgrim Dahlia Gardens

Are Open to All Visitors Every Day of the Week. You owe it to yourself to see the most beautiful Dahlia garden in New England and one of the most beautiful in all the world.

WILLIAM J. REYNOLDS

R4 NORWICH, CONN.

KEEN KUTTER SAFETY RAZORS

Regular $1.00

While They Last, 35c

The HOUSEHOLD

Bulletin Building 74 Franklin St. Telephone 531-4

Bulletin Building, 74 Franklin Street.

KOZLOWSKI PITCHES SECOND NO HIT NO RUN GAME IN TWILIGHT LEAGUE

Eddie Kozlowski, pitching for St. Joseph's twirled the second no-hit, no-run game in the Twilight League, Friday evening, when he blanked George Madden's Nuggets 8 to 0.

Harry Mills, the East Ends star twirler, shut out the Palace without a hit in six innings on August 10th, and was the first "Twi" hurler to do the trick. Kozlowski pitched two less innings than Mills in whitewashing the Nuggets.

Not a ball was hit out of the infield off the Saints pitcher during the entire game, and only four succeeded in reaching first. Three of these were the result of walks, while the other got on through an error. In turning in his "no-hit" performance, Kozlowski fanned three batters.

In losing, the Nuggets dropped to seventh position but one-half a game ahead of St. Joseph's in last place.

The Saints got off to a three run lead in the first inning on a double by Nap. Liberty, and cingles by Paul, Oney and Kozlowski.

In the second, Manager Oney's cohorts made a run-away of the game by counting five more times. The scoring in this frame was made on doubles by Busch and Nap Liberty, singles by Oney, and Spike Liberty and an error by George Madden.

The Nuggets came closest to counting in the second stanza. Bill Liberty led off in this inning by walking, and stole both second and third while Madden was fanning. Benjamin shot a grounder to Nap Liberty who threw out at first. Bill Liberty holding third on the play. With Burke at bat, Liberty attempted to steal home, but was caught, Kozlowski to Paul.

Burke led off in the third with a grounder to short, and when Spike Liberty jugged the throw Burke was safe. He stole second, but was caught stealing third, Paul to Robinson. No other Nugget batsmen succeeded in reaching second during the game.

Nap. Liberty featured for the Saints both at bat and in the field. The Saints shortstop crashed out two doubles in three attempts, and accepted four chances at short without a slip. Manager Oney also featured with two singles out of three trips to the plate.

The score:

Nuggets	ab	h	po	a	e	St. Joseph's	ab	h	po	a	e
Coffettes, c	2	0	1	1	1	Paul, c	3	1	4	1	0
Freeman, 2b	2	0	0	2	0	S. Liberty, ss	3	2	1	4	1
Burke, rf	2	0	2	0	0	Oney, 3b	3	2	1	2	0
W. Liberty, lf	2	0	1	0	0	Oney, rf	3	2	0	0	0
Murray, ss	2	0	2	3	1	Kozlowski, p	3	1	0	4	0
Benjamin, 3b	1	0	0	1	0	Krakowski, 2b	2	0	1	3	0
Burke, 1b	1	0	4	0	1	Busch, lf	2	1	0	0	0
Rivers, rf	1	0	0	0	0	Robinson, 1b	2	0	1	3	0
Grover, p	0	0	1	0	0	Keller, rf	2	0	0	0	0
Totals	15	0	12	7	3	Totals	25	9	12	9	1

Score by innings:

Nuggets	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
St. Josephs	3	5	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	8—8

Two base hits: N. Liberty 2, Busch. Hit by pitcher: by Greene (S. Liberty). Struck out: by Kozlowski 7, by Grover 1, by W. Liberty 1. Base on balls: off Kozlowski 2.

Standing of Norwich Twilight League

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Centrals	8	3	.727
East Ends	7	3	.700
E. C. P. Co.	6	4	.600
Hallville	5	5	.500
Palace	4	6	.400
Yantic	4	6	.400
Nuggets	4	7	.364
St. Joseph's	3	7	.300

WILLS CLAIMS TO BE IN SHAPE TO MEET DEMPSEY

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Harry Wills returned from a tour of Europe today on the Aquitania with a bucket of cold water for his proposed heavyweight championship battle against Jack Dempsey.

Asserting he was ready for a fight with the titleholder at any time, the negro challenger nevertheless expressed himself as being convinced that Dempsey does not intend to return to the ring.

"I am in shape to fight Dempsey anywhere and I would be there when the last gong sounds, too" said Wills confidently. "But I don't think that he will ever fight me. I have been trying to get him in the ring with me for five years, but it looks as though I am doomed to dissapointment."

Discussing the negotiations to stage the proposed bout in the mid west under the promotion of Floyd Fitzsimmons of Michigan City, Ind., and of Dempsey's refusal to fight in New York, Wills said:

"Dempsey has been doing nothing but dictating for the past five years. I am ready to fight. Why doesn't he either defend his title or get out of the boxing game?

"What do you think of the suggestion that Dempsey should have a few preliminary fights before meeting you?" the challenger was asked.

"I can't see that" Wills said. "I am in condition all the time. A fighter should always be ready. That is his business. It he gets out of shape, that is the end of him, he never gets back again."

Assuring interviewers who met him at the pier that he would be ready at any time to meet Gene Tunney, the New York heavyweight who knocked out Tom Gibbons, Wills said that he had kept in trim in Europe as well as on the trip across the Atlantic by shadow boxing. He announced his weight as approximately 219 pounds.

The husky negro said that he and Mrs. Wills who accompanied him, visited Warsaw, Paris and Cristiad. Town were ahead slightly less than six months.

WARRIORS SIGN TO PLAY SHAMROCKS SUNDAY

Influenced by rumors of the strength of the Warriors, champs of Junior Twi-League the New London Shamrocks have challenged Warriors to series of games, the best two out of three to decide Eastern Connecticut Junior League Championship. The Warrior have accepted challenge and will meet the Shamrocks next Monday, Labor Day at Calkensheld, New London. The game will be called at 2:30 (D. S. T.).

The second game will be played in Norwich Sunday, Sept. 13, will be tentative date of the game, the playing field will be announced later on in week.

The Shamrocks of New London are a much touted team, consequently Labor Day's game at New London should be a real drawing card as the Norwich boys promise to bring home a victory.

NATIONAL MATCHES ARE OF GREAT VALUE

Captain William R. Denison, Headquarters Detachment, Camp Perry, Ohio, writes the Bulletin concerning the arrival of the Connecticut team on Sunday and that they are rated by Col. Gadd, as the best team he has ever had.

Relative to the matches the following article has been issued on the value of the national matches:

Strictly speaking the "National Matches" represent only the four culminating events of the Camp Perry program, the National Individual Pistol Match, the National Individual Rifle Match, the National Rifle Team and National Pistol Team matches. All of these events have been specifically authorized by acts of congress and are therefore "National" in the truest sense. However the term "National Matches" has come to mean much more than these four events to the citizens of the United States. A citizen's Military Training Camp for the instruction of civilians and open to every citizen of this country is established and maintained at the Ohio state Rifle range, the best equipped in the world, between the dates of Aug. 22nd and Sept. 20, 1925, under the provisions of section 47 of the National Defense Act of June 3, 1916, as amended by the act of June 4, 1920. This camp of instruction or Small Arms Firing School was made part of the National Match program six years ago.

It was realized that the mere bringing together of rifle and pistol shooters from all parts of the country for shoulder to shoulder competition while a most powerful incentive to increase interest in marksmanship was not in itself giving the government in tangible results all that might be obtained for the money spent in holding the annual gathering of marksman. The most important function of the Small Arms Firing School is to develop instructors who can return to their companies, their regiments, their reserve organizations or to their civilian clubs and properly train others in the use of small arms.

Students in the School of Instruction are divided into small groups, each in charge of an experienced instructor. The course starts with basic principles and includes plenty of actual firing. Rifle firing is a mechanical operation which any-one who is physically and mentally fit can learn to do well if properly instructed. The student is taught the various steps in their proper order, he is carefully watched and is corrected whenever he starts to make a mistake.

Men instinctively do the wrong thing in firing the rifle. They give the trigger a sudden pressure which is the cause of flinching, consequently, men can not be taught to shoot by placing them alone on the firing line with ammunition to expend and targets, at which to shoot, in front of them. The idea that mere practice will ultimately make them perfect is wrong. Such procedure merely fixes the instinctive bad habits in the average man and makes it extremely difficult for anyone to teach him to shoot, even with the proper methods. If he has, however, been thoroughly instructed and drilled in the mechanism of correct shooting and then carefully and properly coached when he begins firing, the correct shooting habits rapidly become fixed and replace the instinctive incorrect habits that he would have developed if left alone.

It is easier to make an excellent shot out of a man who has never fired a rifle than it is to correct the errors of a man who has done a good deal of shooting under improper supervision.

The value of these National Matches to the nation is impossible to estimate. The man armed with the rifle, is the backbone of the national defense.

The lessons of the World War demonstrated this fact as conclusively as did any preceding conflict.

The National Matches do more than any one thing to interest the citizens who meet from all parts of the country, he need know nothing about firearms when he appears on the range. While he is learning how to shoot he will also be learning how to teach others. To those completing the school a suitable certificate is issued and an important cog in the organized National Defense machine of his country truly a pleasant duty to every American.

SENATORS INCREASE LEAD IN PENNANT RACE

CHICAGO, Sept. 4—(AP)—Advancing with confidence the Washington Senators today defeated Boston Red Sox to win their sixth consecutive victory 9 to 3 and increase their lead for the American League pennant to six full games. The Athletics were idle.

The standing.

Washington	81	48	.628
Philadelphia	74	49	.602

Pittsburgh, desisted for a day from the dizzy pace that has marked its play since it gained the upper hand on New York. The Cardinals interrupted the Pirates nine game winning streak by chalking up a nine to three victory.

For the first time since the recent series which marked their downfall, the New York Giants were able to take advantage of a misstep by their conquerors. They defeated Philadelphia 6 to 5 in the tenth inning and reduced Pittsburgh lead to eight games.

The standing.

Pittsburgh	80	47	.630
New York	75	51	.564

GIANTS TO PLAY GAME IN NEW HAVEN SUNDAY

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 4—(AP—The New York Giants, four times champions of the National league, and two times world champions, will play the Profs an exhibition game here on Sunday, on September 13. President George Weiss announced today. The exhibition will follow a regularly scheduled Eastern league game between Bridgeport and the locals.

Tournament Called Off

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—(AP)—It was decided today by the executive committee of the Western Golf Association that the senior championship set for Sept. 19-20 at French Lick, Ind., would not be held owing to lack of time for arrangement.

Today's Calendar of Sports

RACING

Meeting of Westchester Racing Association, at Belmont Park.

Meeting of Montreal Jockey club opens at Montreal.

Meeting of Business Men's Racing Association at Chicago.

TROTTING

Meeting of Grand Circuit at Milwaukee.

ROWING

European international championships begin at Prague.

GOLF

National amateur championship tournament, at Pittsburgh.

Virginia open championship tournament opens at Roanoke.

TENNIS

Davis Cup interzone finals start at Forest Hills, L. I.

Oklahoma State championship opens at Oklahoma City.

Saginaw Valley championship opens at Saginaw, Mich.

Yakima Valley championship opens at Yakima, Wash.

CYCLING

National amatur championships begin at St. Louis.

MOTORBOAT

Ninth annual Detroit Gold Cup Regatta opens at Detroit.

SWIMMING

National A. A. U. five-mile men's championship, Bayville, L. I.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results.

New York 6, Philadelphia 5, (10 innings.)
St. Louis 9, Pittsburgh 3.
Cincinnati 2, Chicago 1.
Brooklyn-Boston, rain.

The Standings.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	80	47	.630
New York	75	51	.564
Cincinnati	69	60	.564
Brooklyn	61	64	.488
St. Louis	61	69	.469
Boston	58	72	.446
Chicago	57	74	.435
Philadelphia	55	72	.433

GAMES TODAY

Cincinnati at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Boston.
New York at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Pittsburgh.

GAMES SUNDAY.

St. Louis at Cincinnati.
Pittsburgh at Chicago.
Boston at Brooklyn. (2)

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

Washington 9, Boston 3.

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	82	45	.646
Philadelphia	74	49	.602
Chicago	69	58	.543
St. Louis	66	60	.524
Detroit	65	60	.520
Cleveland	60	69	.466
New York	52	72	.419
Boston	36	91	.283

GAMES TODAY

Chicago at St. Louis.
Detroit at Cleveland.
Boston at Washington.
Philadelphia at New York.

GAMES SUNDAY.

Chicago at St. Louis.
Detroit at Cleveland.
Boston at Washington.
Philadelphia at New York.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Louisville 8, Kansas City 4.
No others scheduled.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Rochester 2, Toronto 4.
Syracuse 3, Buffalo 2.
Others postponed.

EASTERN LEAGUE

Albany 6, Worcester 9.
Hartford 6, Waterbury 5.
New Haven 7, Pittsfield 2.
Bridgeport-Springfield wet grounds.

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

Little Rock 2, Chattanooga 7.
Memphis 5, Nashville 12.
Mobile 3, New Orleans 2.
Atlanta 10, Birmingham 13.

PIRATES WINNING STREAK HAS BEEN BROKEN

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—St. Louis broke Pittsburgh's winning streak today, 9 to 3, after the league leaders had won nine straight. Yde opposed Reinhart until the ninth inning, when Yde was succeeded by Bob Adams, who went to the mound with the bases loaded. The Cardinals hammered Adams for four hits, including a double, which went for five runs.

Rogers Hornsby featured the game by knocking out his 35th home run of the season with a homer into the right field stands. Score:

St. Louis (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Blades, lf	4	1	3	0	0
Shinners, rf	4	1	2	0	0
Bottomley, 1b	5	3	3	5	0
Ritter, 2b-lb	5	0	1	1	0
Hafey, c	4	1	1	6	0
Bell, 3b	3	1	0	2	0
O'Farrell, c	2	2	0	0	0
Thevenow, ss	4	2	2	5	0
Reinhart, p	1	0	0	1	0
Totals	36	11	12	20	0

Pittsburgh (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Wilson, cf	4	1	2	0	0
Hemingway, 2b	4	0	1	3	0
Traynor, 3b	4	0	0	2	0
Meusel, rf	4	0	2	0	0
Grantham, lf	4	0	2	0	0
Gooch, c	3	1	5	1	0
Yde, p	2	0	0	1	0
Adams, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	3	12	7	0

(a) Ran for McInnis in 8th.
(b) Batted for Gooch in 9th.

Score by innings:

St. Louis	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	—9
Pittsburgh	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	0	—3

Two base hits, Traynor, Meinnis, Wright, Bernstein. Three base hit, Bell. Home run, Hornsby.

HARTFORD GOES INTO LEAD IN EASTERN LEAGUE

HARTFORD, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Hartford went into first place by beating Waterbury 6 to 5 here today in the first game of a two game series. The Senators bunched hits off Moose Fuller, while Johnson's stuff was a puzzle except in the seventh inning when Yordy hit a home run over the center field fence with two men on. Score:

Waterbury	100	000	400—5
Hartford	022	020	00x—6

Two base hits, Shay, Uteritz. Home runs, Yordy, Schinkel.

VINEZ AFTER BOUT WITH JOHNNY GOODRICH

PARIS, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Lucien Vinez, lightweight champion pugilist of Europe, announced today that he would sail for the United States on the Leviathan September 12, with the intention of fighting his way through to the world's championship, now held by Jimmy Goodrich.

Slattery Kayos Carpenter

BUFFALO, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo light heavyweight, tonight knocked out Frank Carpenter of Rockaway in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout. Fifteen thousand persons saw the match. Slattery weighed 166 and Carpenter 173.

MANY FAST BALL GAMES SCHEDULED IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT OVER WEEK END

There will be plenty of baseball games over the week and as most of the clubs in this section of the state have games scheduled for one of the three days ahead, ending Labor Day, Riverview leads all local teams in the number of games scheduled for the week end, with three bookings.

This (Saturday) afternoon at the Riverview diamond they will match up against the fast South Manchester team and a return game will be played at South Manchester on Sunday. Labor Day afternoon Riverview and J. B. Martin will fight it out on the hospital diamond.

Ashland A. A. has two stiff games booked when they tackle Taftville A. A. at Jewett City on Sunday afternoon in the opening game of a three game series and line up against Roy Rock crack Attleboro, Mass., team on Labor Day afternoon.

Taftville A. A. besides their game at Ashland Sunday will have a game Labor Day, the final and deciding game in the Taftville-Groton Pioneers series. The game is to be played Labor Day morning at the Providence street grounds.

J. B. Martin company besides their Labor day game at Riverview have signed an out of town game for Sunday, going to Mystic to meet the Rossie Velvet team.

Riverview vs. South Manchester

This afternoon, the Cheney Bros A. A. of South Manchester led by Brick Kane, former major league outfielder will be the opponents of the Riverview club on the hospital grounds. The game will be called at 2.45 p. m. This club comes to Norwich with a record of 21 wins, 10 losses and 3 ties. They have defeated the Checker Cabs, New Departure three games, Brooklyn Royal Giants and other fast clubs. The visiting aggregation this afternoon is no doubt the fastest semi-pro club in the state, and the Riverview club has gone to great expense to bring them to Norwich and hope that the fans will turn out strong for this game. Their pitching staff consists of "Art" Johnson former Eastern Leaguer, Steinhilber of Dartmouth and Comets of Lynn, Tracy also of Dartmouth, Cotter of Villa Nova, and other fast semi-pro players. They will go to the plate in the following order:

Kotsch rf, Wright ss, Sippes cf, Kane lf, Scrimminger 1b, Budnick 3b, Cotter 2b, Lamprecht c.

Manager Bill Donovan has secured the services of Eddie Goodridge of the New Departure to twirl against this aggregation, and the Riverview Club will go to the plate in the following order:

Moore lf, Mills 3b, Stubbs, cf, Goodridge p, Normandin ss, Hawes, 2b, Clabby rf, Harrell 1b Belair c.

This same Riverview team will play a return game in Manchester on Sunday with Tony West on the rubber for the Riverview club.

Riverview vs. J. B. Martin

One of the most exciting games of the season will take place on Monday afternoon at the state hospital, when the fast travelling J. B. Martin club plays the Riverview club in the second game of their series. This club although it doesn't play sensational ball has the fighting spirit that wins many ball games in the late innings. They have just disposed of Troland's Taftville A. A. which is leading the Norwich Twi-league his reinforcements from the Fiske Red Tops of Chicopee Falls failed to stem the tide of defeat.

The pitching assignment for the Riverview club will be announced before the game. Joe Belair will do the catching. The infield will be taken care of by Harrell 1b, Hawes 2b, Normandin ss, Mills 3b, Moore lf, Stubbs cf and Clabby rf.

Morin and Curran will officiate.

Jewett City vs. Taftville

Sunday afternoon at Ashland Park the Ashland A. A. opens a three game series with the fast Taftville A. A. After much paper talk and arguments there was a doubt whether there two clubs would play together again this season.

Both managers (Liberty and Troland) being unsatisfied with the games played umpires, etc., the only way to get the clubs together again was to arrange a three game series.

Each club has won two games and it would be advisable to call out the fire company and police department to conduct order on the field when the ump yells "play ball" as this game will no doubt be a hummer.

Taftville will lineup: Sheffiott or Eccleston c, Lefty Dugas, p, A. Dugas 1b, Gauthier ss, Cardle 2b, Mille 3b, Loo Jarvis lf, Lloyd Jarvis cf, Chick Stanley rf. Ashland: "Bill Liberty c, Spike Liberty p, Robertson 1b, GuGillett ss, Chip Dugas 2b, Nap Liberty 3b, Gilbert lf, Ralli cf, Benjamin rf, Tommy Corcoran will umpire.

The attraction at Ashland Park labor day will be Roy Rock crack Attleboro, Mass., team. Lineup to be announced in Monday's Bulletin.

Taftville vs. Pioneers

Monday morning at 10.30 o'clock Taftville A. A. and the Groton Pioneers meet in the third and deciding game of their series. Each team has won a battle and will fight it out to win the victory. The Pioneers will present a greatly strengthened lineup for the contest but Lloyd Jarvis, who pitched Taftville to victory over the Groton team, has been chosen for the moundsman for the Labor Day game and Taftville feels sure he can repeat the trick.

HUGGINS NOT READY TO TALK WITH RUTH

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Babe Ruth's expectation of reinstatement today by Manager Miller Huggins for the Yankees' series with the Athletics opening here tomorrow, failed of fulfillment.

The suspended home run king telephoned to Huggins, asking whether he should report for duty tomorrow.

"I am not yet ready to talk to you," Huggins replied. "When I want you I will call for you."

The Athletics, in the grip of a long losing streak, will play two games in New York tomorrow and Sunday. After which they will return to their home field for a final stand against the Senators. The leading clubs will meet at Philadelphia in a four-game series, playing the first two games on Monday.

J. W. ROBBINS WINS MAINE OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

POLAND Spring, Me., Sept. 4.—(AP) J. W. Robbins, Philadelphia and Bar Harbor amateur, gained the Maine open golf championship today when he won the concluding 36 holes in 15 for a total of 297. Daniel Boardman's third round of 7 one under par, and his total of 298 put him in runner-up position. He is the professional at Summit Spring.

H. C. Lagerblade of Bristol, Conn., and Willie Ogg of Worcester, Mass., both former Maine open champions, were tied for third at 300.

FRANCE REMAINS IN DAVIS CUP FIGHT

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 4—(A. P.)—France stayed in the fight for the Davis Cup, international team tennis trophy today when Jean Borotra conquered James O. Anderson, captain of Australia's team, after his countryman, Rene Lacoste, had fallen before the bombarding of Gerald Patterson.

Battling to determine the opponent of the United States in the challenge round at Philadelphia next week, these rivals split even in two matches which confounded all advance predictions. France tasted a bill pill when her favorite, Lacoste, the Wimbledon champion, went out at the hands of Patterson in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, but Australia met an unlooked for reverse when her leader, Anderson, bowed to the fiery attack of Borotra, also in straight sets at 6-4, 6-3, 8-6.

The ranking stars of both nations thus met their waterloo in the first two matches of the interzone series and the outcome of the battle is in as much doubt as ever. Tomorrow the same players who competed today will meet in the doubles and on Monday, Labor Day, the final two singles encounters will be played, with Lacoste facing Anderson, and Patterson opposing Borotra.

Australia is favored to take the doubles and gain an edge tomorrow.

Such cannonading as Patterson turned loose today against Lacoste has seldom been seen on the courts of the West Side Tennis club. The burly Australian took the heart out of his little rival with a succession of battering service shots and booming forehand drives, then completed the rout with a baffling mixture of chops and lobs.

Lacoste was seldom able to more than deflect Patterson's smashes, then, after he had set himself for a hard drive, the Australian tricked him with a soft lob or sliced return. The stroke analysis showed that the Australian rolled up the amazing total of seventeen service aces and twenty-three placements, a total of forty earned points as compared to sixteen for Lacoste.

Against such tremendous power—the most impressive exhibition Patterson has ever given in this country—Lacoste was helpless. Beaten back and unable to take his favorite post at the net, France's pride wilted and finally went to pieces in the final set, dropping five games in a row to lose the match.

The downfall of Lacoste, however, seemed to inspire Borotra for he came out and played Anderson off his feet with a dashing, brilliant attack. Anderson never was able to get his shots working effectively for more than two or three games in a row, while Borotra was all over the court.

Anderson rallied gallantly toward the close of each set, staving off defeat four times in the final set with Borotra needing only a point to win, but the gaunt Australian lacked the steadiness to sustain these spurts.

No better example of Borotra's dauntless spirit occurred than in an incident of the first set when he fell heavily but turned in time to hit the ball from a sitting posture. The return went out but was typical of the aggressive courage that carried Borotra through to triumph.

DE MARCO-TRAVERS BOUT A DRAW FIGHT

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Cuddy De Marco, of Pittsburgh, and Tony Travers of New Haven, in the final bout at the Nutmeg stadium here tonight, fought ten rounds to a draw. With the exception of a few rounds the bout was slow. Referee Dan Buckley called it a draw. De Marco weighed in at 136, his opponent a half pound less.

Joe Currie, of New Haven, was given the referee's decision over Izzy Cooper, of New York in the eight round semi-final. They are lightweights.

Frankie Schuman, of Newark, won on a technical knockout from Jiggers Palladino of Waterbury in the third round of a six round bout when the towel was tossed into the ring by Palladino's seconds. Schuman's weight was announced as 132 and Palladino's 129.

Sammie Cooper, 142 1-2, of New Haven, won on a technical knockout from Young Emmons, 145, of Waterbury, in the fifth round of a six round bout. Emmons was in a bad way and the referee stopped the fight, giving it to Cooper.

GIANTS PICK UP FULL GAME ON PITTSBURGH

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept 4—(A. P.)—The New York Giants nosed out the Phillies today, 6 to 5, Terry's home run in the 10th breaking a 5 to 5 deadlock. Irish Meusel slammed his 20th homer of the year in the fifth inning. Relief pitching by Art Nehf who followed Bentley and Wisner was a feature of the game. Nehf did not allow a run after the fourth inning and retired six batters on strikes, three of them in the tenth. Score:

New York (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Stephenson, rf	5	1	1	0	0
Frisch, 2b	5	2	2	1	0
Meusel, lf	5	2	2	0	0
Terry, ss	4	2	7	1	0
Kelly, 1f	6	2	1	0	0
Lindstrom, 3b	4	1	0	1	0
Jackson, cs	4	1	1	2	0
Snyder, c	4	0	2	0	0
Bentley, p	3	0	0	0	0
Wisner, p	1	0	1	0	0
Nehf, p	2	0	1	1	0
xKircher	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	53	12	30	8	0

Philadelphia	ab	h	po	a	e
Sand, ss	5	2	2	3	0
Leach, cf	5	2	3	0	0
Burns, rf	5	0	0	0	0
Williams, rf	3	1	1	1	0
Mokan, lf	1	0	1	0	0
Harper, lf	4	2	0	0	0
Fonseca, 1b	5	2	10	0	0
Klumpp, 2b	4	2	4	2	0
Fitzpatrick, 2b	0	0	2	3	0
Henline, p	4	1	0	3	0
Wilson, c	2	0	3	2	0
Ulrich, p	2	0	0	2	0
zWendell	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	40	12	30	14	0

(x) Ran for Snyder in 9th.
(z) Batted for Fuhr in 10th.

Score by innings:

New York	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	1	—3
Philadelphia	0	0	0	2	3	0	0	0	0	0	—5

Two base hit: Leach. Home runs, Meusel Terry.

REDS BUNCH THEIR HITS TO DEFEAT CHICAGO 2 TO 1

CHICAGO, Sept. 4—(A. P.)—Cincinnati defeated Chicago 2 to 1 today by bunching hits in the fourth and ninth innings. Walker drove in the first run with a single and the other run with a double.

A double play in the ninth inning started by Bohne broke up a promising Cub rally.

Jahn's catch of a long fly by Pinelli near the fence in left field as the outstanding feature. Score:

Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Smith, lf	4	0	2	0	0
Fittsmann, lf	0	0	0	0	0
Pinelli, 3b	3	0	0	2	0
Roush, cf	4	0	3	0	0
Walker, rf	4	2	4	0	0
Heilie, 1b	4	0	12	0	0
Critz, 2b	3	2	4	2	0
Bohne, ss	2	0	2	7	1
Kroger, c	3	0	5	0	0
May, p	3	0	0	5	0
Totals	32	4	27	16	1

Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Adams, 2b	4	0	1	4	0
Hostetler, rf	4	0	1	0	0
Fregan, 3b	2	1	2	2	0
Brooks, cf	4	0	1	0	0
John, lf	4	1	2	0	0
Gonzales, 1b	3	1	14	0	0
Pittenger, ss	4	0	4	0	0
Hartnett, c	3	0	5	1	0
Bush, p	2	0	0	4	0
xGrimm	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	3	27	10	0

(x) Batted for Bush in 9th.

Score by innings:

Cincinnati	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	—2
Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	—1

Two base hits, Walker.

Double Header Sunday

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 4.—(AP)—The game between Brooklyn and Boston National League clubs posponed in Boston today on account of rain will be played at Ebbets field in a double header Sunday.

JONES AND GUNN, CHAMPION AND PUPIL WILL MEET IN OAKMONT FINALS TODAY

OAKMONT, Pa., Sept. 4—(By the Associated Press)—Georgia, through which a great general cut a swath to the sea more than a half century ago, had revenge today on the field of Oakmont, scene of the national amateur golf championship, for two of its sons, the mighty Bobby Jones, and the sensational Little Watts Gunn, continued their march from Atlanta to victory.

They started where Sherman started so many years ago and they came to the battle of Oakmont side by side, the greatest of friends, one the pupil, the other the champion. And tomorrow, far from home, they will meet as golf enemies on the same field they swept clean today, for the amateur crown.

Champion Bobby, victor in 1924 at Merion, conquered the same foe that he faced there in the finals, George von Elm, of the Rancho Golf club of Los Angeles, but the margin was somewhat narrower. Von Elm bowed last year 9 and 8; today the score was 7 and 6.

Little Gunn, who eliminated the former champion, Jess Sweetser, by an overwhelming margin in yesterday's play, had a more serious contender in Dick Jones, but finally conquered the White Plains star, dropping a 45 foot putt at the thirty-third green to end the tussle, 5 and 3. At the end of the morning round he led by one hole.

The champion went at von Elm like a tiger today and rounded the first turn in two hundred par figures.

Fog hung low over the fairways as the match started, with von Elm shooting a vicious drive into a trap at the right from which he barely emerged to reach home in three, just too late to halve the speeding Jones, for Bobby was down in a birdie four after an iron second that halted at the Green's edge. Across the bridge spanning the railroad the gallery thronged to see the second test but here again the champion's second was hole high four feet away and he was down for a second birdie, winning the hole despite a creditable par on the part of his opponent.

After a half at the third, von Elm's ball again hurtled into the traps at the right and only a mighty cut with his niblick lifted it to the fairway. Again he lost. A half at the fifth was followed by wandering on the part of von Elm and a bad break in the pits that perhaps threw him far off his game. At least the smile left his face as he pointed condemningly to a hole in the sand where his ball had been buried so deeply that no golfer alive could bring it out well.

It is a short hole, 172 yards, with a narrow-necked green sloping away from the tee. Jones found the green but the Californian, fighting desperately to regain lost ground, saw his ball hit the sand with a thud and go out of sight. He chopped from one trap to another three times and then gave up in disgust.

The coast entrant cut into the champion's lead by sinking a 35 foot putt at the short thirteenth for a birdie 2.

The end of the morning round found von Elm four holes behind.

In the afternoon they played into a heavy wind but the champion again went after birdies and found his first at the 19th, with drive, iron and two putts, while his adversary's putter failed and his disadvantage was greater. After halving two Jones gained still another when he came out of a trap at the twenty second to within six feet of the cup and went down in one putt.

For a time thereafter there was a letup in the champion's offensive which was punctuated by one of the best shots made in the tournament when Von Elm, coming out of trouble with a spoon at the twenty-fifth sent his ball sailing 200 yards to come to rest four inches from the cup. The resultant birdie three cut his opponent's lead to six holes and another birdie at the twenty-eight reduced it to five. On his hole, 461 yards, his iron was dead to the pin.

But this was the end—a last desperate effort of a greater little golfer to reach the finals of the National Championship for the second time in two years. Jones carried the twenty-ninth and thirtieth easily, scoring another birdie at the long downhill hole which ended the match.

Gunn was not in the form that carried him into the qualifying list and then brought about the defeat of Vincent Bradford on Wednesday and Sweetser yesterday, but he played a capable, conservative game.

The first nine of the morning was a battle all the way, first one and then the other showing in front.

They halved the tenth and the eleventh and on the twelfth Jones gained the advantage, with a poor six, after reaching the green in four and going around a Stymie. Gunn arrived on the green in five. Again the match was squared on the 14th, a super drive by Gunn reaching the edge of the green, zero yards. Two putts gave him a par four. Both were in trouble on the fifteenth but finished in fives to halve and on the next hole Gunn regained the advantage, although he drove into a ditch, with Jones at the edge of the green. Gunn came out beautifully and went down for his three while Jones' short tap was wide of the cup.

Gunn sank an eight footer for a birdie at the 17th to take a lead of two but Jones cut it down at the home green when he negotiated a thirty foot putt.

In the afternoon Gunn loosed an offensive that would not be denied. At the nineteenth, with little chance of obtaining the hole, his ball shot into a Stymie and Jones was unable to jump the ball although his niblick attempt just missed the cup and Gunn was again two up. He made it three when Jones sliced to a bank on the twentieth, but dropped back to the twenty first when his drive drove into the sand at the right and he was cut short.

Jones made it only one behind, by making a birdie at the twenty second in four while Gunn took six, with three putts. Gunn captured the next three in succesion, with Jones journeying about the countryside, but missed in the traps at the twenty seventh sent them into the final nine with Gunn holding a good advantage.

The Atlantan, however, had his turn at touring the traps at the twenty-eighth and lost the hole when he missed an eight foot put

THE SOCIAL CORNER

ALWAYS STRIVE TO KEEP YOUR BAD TEMPER DOWN.

SOCIAL CORNER POETRY

Old Letters

Burn them wholesale! Ancient scars
Will bleed and throb if you delay;
Thrust them in between the bars,
Tied up in their packets. Stay!
I see my mother's writing, and
My father's; aye, 'tis their's indeed.
Though lettered in a large, round hand
That their little son might read.
How I prized them: New to school
How my very sould did ache!
Grief had killed a little fool.
If the heart could really break.

Cllasold's whiting! "Dear old boy.
Whatever happens, I'm your friend."
He meant it, too; without alloy
Our friendship was, and feared no end.
How oft, while creeping down the stream
Or idly stretched among the heather,
We shared in youth's presumptuous dream,
And vowed to storm the world together.
O fool! to trust a boyish word;
O fool! to feel a boyish sorrow;
That Clissold, walking with a lord,
Would cut me if we met, tomorrow.

Burn the letters! Ancient scars
Will bleed and throb if you delay.
Thrust them in between the bars.
Tied up in their packets. Stay!
That hand so delicate and small,
Traced upon paper pinky white,
Does like a happy dream recall
A time of heavenly delight.
"My life! My love!" (O tender girl!)
"Twill kill me if you are not true."
And here's a brown and silky curl,
Tied with the faithful colon blue.
The honest silk has faded quite;
For would this only love of mine
Shed, if she saw me dead tonight,
A single tear for auld lang syne?

Burn them wholesale! Ancient scars
Will bleed and throb with this delay;
Thrust the letters through the bars,
Open not another, stay!
That foreign sheet I cannot burn;
'Tis Tom's last letter, give it me!
He writes in it of his return
To those—he never again should see.
Burn it—burn all; for they who traced
The lines with such keen pleasure read,
Whose love can never be replaced,
Are false, are fickle, or are dead.

Burn them wholesale! Ancient scars
Will bleed afresh with each delay:
Thrust them in between the bars,
They belong to yesterday.

Author Unknown.

Sent in by MABS.

My Creed

I want to love as gently as I can,
And be—no matter where—a man.
To take what comes of good or ill,
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best and let us stand—
The record of my heart and hand—
To hope and work for victory.

To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame and sin
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known
To live undaunted, unafraid.
Of every step that I have made—
To be without pretense of sham—
Exactly as men think I am.

To leave some simple mark behind,
Of thoughts like these for men to find.
And then if enmity I show,
To be an honest, generous foe;
To live my little life—not whine
That greater honors are not mine.
Have faith in God—just what all need
With their theology and creed.

—Anonymous.

Sent in by NORMA.

Keep a Goin'

If you strike a thorn or rose
Keep a-goin,
If it hails or if it snows
Keep a-goin,
'Tain't no use to sit and whine
When the fish ain't on your line
Bait your hook an' keep a'trying
Keep a-goin,

When the weather kills your crop
Keep a-goin,
Though its work to reach the top
Keep a-goin,
S'pose you're out o' ev'ry dime
Gettin' broke ain't any crime
Tell the world you're feeling fine
Keep a-goin,

When its looks like all is up
Keep a-goin,
Drain the sweetness from the cup
Keep a-goin,
See the wild birds on the wing
Hear the bells that sweetly ring
When you feel like singing sing.
Keep a-goin,
Sent in by RURAL AUNTY.

Our Engineemen

Now that we've scattered
The flowers of May
Over the graves
Of the Blue and the Gray
Over the graves where
The women weep,
Over the mounds where the heroes sleep.
Now let us turn to the graves of those
Who lived and died in their overalls.
Are they not heroes?
They who have died
Under their engines buried alive
Throttle and brake where they bravely stood,
Thoughtful of naught save their passengers good
Life below duty they chose to die as they lived
In their overalls.

We would not take from an old soldiers grave
Even the humblest bloom nor wave
One word from the tribute that is his right
For the bravery 'midst the stirring fight,
All honor due him! But forget not those who lived and died in their overalls.

No martial tunes their battles inspire,
The pound and hiss of th' steed of fire
Speeding along through the dreary night
While the hours drag in their leaden flight,
Is the only song the engineman knows
Who fights and dies in his overalls.

When the moon's cold rays glow dim and pale
And the lightning leaps o'er the glistening sail,
When the sharp sleet furrows each eager face,
As o'er the mountains and hills they chase!
Ah! dreary indeed are the battles of those who have fought
And died in their overalls.

Poets of chivalry knights may sing,
Their fancy to brilliant weights take wing,
But we shall strive in our feeble way

SOCIAL CORNER EVENTS

Sept. 8—Club No. 1 meets in Chamber of Commerce rooms, Willimantic.

Sept. 16—Picnic at home of Too Late, Pleasant Valley, near Willimantic.

To tell of the heroism night and day.
Of the knights of work, ah, those
Who have gone down to death in their overalls.

—By A. C. Cormies.

Sent in by BALSAM FIR.

SILVER LEAF: Your name has been added to the Social Corner.

ANSWERS AND INQUIRIES

FOXGLOVE: Letter sent as requested.

DIANA: Matter has been attended to.

PEG A' WAY: Your name has been listed as a Corner member.

YANKEE IN CRACKER LAND: Your name has been added to the Social Corner list.

WINDHAM, Me.

Dear Solal Corner Friends: I thank you for the interest you are taking in my stories.

This week I'll write about Windham.

Windham (formerly New Marblehead) was settled November 20th 1734 and from its founding, until May 14, 1756 the inhabitants suffered greatly from the indians of the various tribes and being in such fear a fort, called Province fort was ready for accupancy in the summer of 1744.

Stephen Manchester was one of Windham's first settlers and was of great help in keeping up the spirits of the often discouraged early settlers and a rough shaft of rugged granite was erected in the town's burying ground in honor of this staunch pioneer whose deeds of daring were in a great measure contributory to the permanent establishment of the town of Windham.

The first mill was built on the rocky bluff at what is now called Mallison Falls, but known to the Indians as Naguamgueeg. The Indian name of the falls is said to mean "canoe landing." The settlers named the falls horse beef. Why it was named horse beef was because when a gang of men worked on the building of Oxford and Cumberland Canal which connected Sebago lake with tide water at Portland, the cook opened a barrel of corned beef and made it ready to eat the men found the ribs were round. Horses' ribs are round and neat stock ribs are flat, and so they knew they knew they were eating horse beef. It is a hundred years ago since the canal was built and the same name is in use now by many people, especially the older people.

Although the principal occupation of the inhabitants of Windham has ever been that of agriculture, various other industries have flourished here. Previous to the Revolution, lumbering along the Presumpscot river was carried on quite extensively by the early settlers. Tanning was also an early industry. The first society organized in the town was known as the "X" Rechabites which was a temperance society but finally disbanded, and an order of Good Templars flourished for several years.

Windham at present is a thriving village with cosy and comfortable homes and pretty surroundings. There are mills and manufacturing places and a general atmosphere of prosperity prevails. Windham is 12 miles northwest of Portland and has a population of about 2,000.

Windham consists of four equipped villages, namely Windham Center, Windham, East Windham, South Windham and also the village of Newhall. The town boasts of good schools and several denominations.

BALSAM FIR.

EXPERIENCES IN FLORIDA

Dear Social Corner: I am not a member of your Corner but I always read the letters and enjoy them so much every week. Quite a few of the sisters I know, and have attended some gatherings. Now I am down here in the tropics and don't know any one and wonder if any of the sisters have friends or relatives here in Miami, Florida. If so I'd like to get acquainted because I am frightfully lonesome for Connecticut.

This is a charming city, but O, my! food is so high I hate to go to the stores because a loaf of bread and one other article just wrecks a $5 bill. And rents, why you should see the shacks that people are glad to pay $50 a month for. Some are not so fortunate and they pay $35 for a couple rooms or even one. The wages are good but one can't save it costs too much to live. If you could put some into real estate and keep up your payments in a few years you are sitting pretty but we all don't have much to start with. And so many are right on your neck clamoring for the last dollar.

I warn you all not to come to Florida unless you are supplied with money for your needs and a return ticket, because it is impossible for working people to live here unless they can get work. There is so much building one would think a mechanic need not be idle but it is often pitiful to see the circumstances some are in here with the man of the house out of work.

Coral Gables is a new city in the south western part. Everything in there is nice, the homes and business blocks all of concrete with gorgeous tile roofs. I understand George E. Merrick, the developer came from Connecticut. I would like to live in that part of the town to be near that wonderful development. But lots all about are higher than $3,0000 and in Coral Gables proper none less than $4,000.

As I said I'd like to meet some people from Connecticut because most of the people here are not like the Connecticut stock. You think you have a friend but no he or she is just working you for a reason. No favors. Ask any one to do something and it's always the same answer, "What are you going to give me?" I truly never saw people so crazy over money and care so little for any one's real friendship. In such a big city with people from all states surely there must be some from our old Nutmeg state who are used to what I am.

Good wishes to the editor and sister.

YANKEE IN CRACKERLAND.

PINE TIME AT WILDWOOD PARK

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Just a few lines to say that I had a fine time at the Social Corner picnic at Wildwood park.

Primrose: Had a good time. Thank you. Glad to see the sisters from Putnam and Danielson and Moosup. Hope that we shall all meet again.

SHINNEY.

YUM YUM CAKE AND SALAD DRESSING

Dear Corner Sisters: Didn't we have a page of interesting letters Saturday, Aug. 22. I though those were fine by Doris on Mother and Daughter and the letters on how to make silk and paper lamp shades from Kitty Lou and Ethelyn. What would we do without our Corner page, its greetings and helps from a big united family.

U. C. E.: I wondered why the water was so high when I was down in R. I. Now I know if you went in it surely must come up shore a little higher and if I went in it might run over. Ha, ha.

Neighbor Eveready: So your daddy had an 86th birthday. Well mine has one Sept. 21 his 83rd and every morning he is down city at his G. A. R. rooms all day. He can beat me walking and is fresh as a May morning in looks and health and has lived with me 16 1-2 years since we lost our dear mother.

True Blue: My plants of yellow daisy you gave me are full of blossoms and so pretty. Thanks to you for the roots.

E. L. M.: I have had some of the loveliest hollyhocks all around my back yard and house—white, pink and three shades of lovelies tred double and single. They don't come the same color and blossom every time. The color is caused by bees going from one flower to another I'm told and I believe it for last year every plant was pink centered with white edge. They have loads of seeds but having plenty of seeds we cut flower stalks as soon as done blossoming and throw away.

Canterbury Bell: Could I buy a plant of your name from you? I have seen them but don't know only you that raise them. Let me know what you think of it as to a plant for my garden.

U. C. E: You must listen into WJAR, Providence and get the hot water pie crust. I and another Norwich lady listen in on the housewife's department and we pick up a lot of household help from it. Here is a cake given over radio and it is as its name says in eat it:

Yum Yum Cake: Light part, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 1-2 cup butter or substitute, 1 whole egg, 1 white (beat light) of another egg, 1-2 cup sweet milk, pinch salt, 1 large cup pastry flour (can use bread flour) small teaspoon baking soda, vanilla flavor. Mix in order given.

Dark Part, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 2 1-2 table spoon cocoa, 1-2 cup sweet milk; put on stove and boil until it dissolves. Remove and add yolk of egg (left over from white part of cake). While hot turn dark mixture in white part of cake. Mix well if batter is thin its all right. Bake about 25 minutes, either as shallow loaf or 2 layer cake.

I also have repeated on this dressing several times and we like it.

One quart Salad Dressing: 4 eggs, 1 can condensed milk (rinse can filled with cold water) 4 cups vinegar (if too sharp or sour dilute with water to make the 2 cups vinegar.) Mix dry, 1 level teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 tablespoons ground mustard, 2 tablespoons corn starch. Now put the wet mixture above to this and beat all well with egg beater. Then cook in double boiler until smooth and thick. Remove and add about 1-4 pound of butter.

I want to thank the editor for my yellow paper. It surely was a surprise to me.

Wild Flower: So you and Canterbury Bell have lost another member of your family. Our sympathy to his wife and brother and sisters.

CALLA LILY.

GREETINGS FROM DIANA

Dear Editor and Corner Sisters: How are you all? I have not written for some time because I have not felt that I could, but I have read the letters and enjoyed them as usual. I have been sorry and sympathized with those who have been sick or in sorrow. I trust that the sick are better and that the others have been given strength to bear and do. I owe quite a few letters which I shall now endeavor to answer. If any sister doesn't receive an answer to her letters believe me it will be because it has been misplaced. Write again and I will surely answer.

Well Wisher from Augusta. Me: I received your few lines and contents for which I was very grateful. It was a great help. I was sorry you gave no address so this is the only way I can answer and thank you. Please write again and this time give me your address.

Theoda: Where art thou?

Brave: I trust you are now out of the hospital and home.

Anna Mell: I hope you have improved a lot.

Aunty No. 1: Have you fully recovered from your sickness?

It has been a busy time with the frequent rains. Haying was prolonged, but hope that there will be a little let up for the busy ones.

I am glad that so many can enjoy the picnics too.

Soon they will be in the past for fall is fast advancing and winter will follow and you will have to meet in halls.

Huldy: I think it is your turn to write. I do not know your address.

Everything here in the country has looked and is looking beautiful and I suppose many of you have been away for a change and rest. If so, I know you have enjoyed it. A rest and a change is good for one and they return with new zest and courage for their work. By the autos passing here, there are many people at the beaches and mountains, and it seems as if nearly every person has an auto.

I enjoy the Corner letters, so write often and I shall be pleased to hear from any and all the sisters at any time. Best wishes to all.

DIANA.

N. H.

CALLS FOR OLD TIME WRITERS

Dear Social Corner Friends: It has been some time since I have taken a little space in the Corner page, not because I have forgotten the Corner family as I have a life ticket and expect to add my mite to help fill the Corner page from time to time for it would seem like going away from home to drop out from the Corner family, and all the letters with much interest, which gives me pleasure every Saturday afternoon. While I do not see many of the old writers names, as in years gone by, the letters are interesting. It would be very pleasing to me if all the old writers would make a date and all take one week and fill the Corner page with old time letters. Perhaps it would be pleasing to the young writers to know who started the ball rolling from New England to Seattle Wash. Having had sickness in our home the past summer I have not been able to attend any Corner picnics, which would have been very pleasing to me as the Corner people always make one feel at home when they meet.

I was sorry to learn of accident and deaths to Corner members during the summer. My sympathy goes out to those left to mourn their loss. The summer is fast fading away and vacation times are nearly over. It will not be long before the snow will be here and then it will be business before pleasures. I will not take any more space this time as there are new writers coming in nearly every week to fill the Corner page. With all kinds of good wishes to the editor and the Corner family I remain the same.

RURAL DELIVERY.

DELICIOUS PIE CRUST AND HOW TO MAKE IT

Dear Social Corner Sisters: I often wonder why women with plenty of milk and cream in their pantries do not make more and better uses of those valuable helps to almost any part of any bill of fare.

Many people cannot eat pie because it distresses them; I mean the crust, yet there is a way by which if the crust is the objectionable part, the result need not be other than the very cream of a pie and while it may be out of reach of the city dwellers generally, there are among the readers of this paper, a vast number of country and village matrons who have on hand the article peculiar to its construction: This is cream. A little salt, as much thick cream as will be necessary as a mixing element to go with enough flour to make the quantity wished are all the materials required.

The method from a scientific standpoint is a success. With its simplicity—the article used except the pinch of salt and 1 tablespoon of sugar being only three ingredients—failure is impossible. This even to the expert is a commendation, but to the young matron the happiest relief.

To get just the right proportion of lard and water, and to mix and roll so the crust will be neither tough nor soggy, short enough, yet not too short and flaky and tender, is the most difficult feat in cookery.

I am not where I can have access to cream. I use this recipe. It is called a dyspeptic pie crust. 3 cups of flour, 1 teaspoon of baking powder, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1 tablespoon of sugar sifted three times, then mix in 1 cup of lard until like meal stir up with not quite one half cup of top milk. I have had three prizes for this crust although there may be better recipes, I don't say there aren't, but it is the best one I've had.

You think it pretty good, don't you Lily C.? Remember how you used to hide the recipe on the rest of the family. H. got the best of you for a while. You came down to the beach and she came and found it with me. I wonder if she uses it now.

Louise H.: I cut out some pictures and thought I would send them to you but thought you might be too busy to read them.

Corn Dainties: 3 ears of corn, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, mix all together and fry in butter, dropped out with a spoon, or fry all together.

Salt Codfish Croquettes: 4 large potatoes, 3 ears of corn, yolk of one egg, 1-2 teaspoon of pepper, 1 teaspoon of sugar, 1-2 cup of codfish.

Boil potatoes, mash, add corn scraped from the ear, then pepper, yolk of egg, sugar and codfish (after having soaked codfish 2 hours and boiling it 10 minutes, chop fine.) just to flavor them. Stir up until like cream then make in croquettes, fry in butter (you want to use raw corn and scrape it as the corn is not cooked but a little and that gives the flavor.) Now dip in the white of the egg, then in cream of wheat and fry brown.

Cut bread in slices and toast. Separate the whites from the yolks, keeping yolks whole. Beat whites to a stiff froth, dip toast in hot water, arrange the beaten whites around nicely on the toast, drop yolk in center of white, salt and put in hot oven to bake a few minutes, remove from oven and pour a little melted butter over toast.

Carrot Salad: 3 cups of shredded raw carrots, 3 cups of shredded raw cabbage, salt, pepper, French dressing. Chill carrot and cabbage by placing in ice box. When ready to serve add dressing. Serve on a crisp lettuce leaf.

I have always been taught you should always put your potatoes in boiling water but I find they are much improved by putting them in cold water and letting them come to a boil quickly. Then boil until done. You'll find they are much more mealy than when put over in boiling water.

Peanut Butter Fritters (A substitute fro bread and meat): 1-2 cup peanut butter, 1-2 cup corn meal, 1-2 cup barley flour, 2 level teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 egg, 1-2 cup of milk, pepper. 1 egg, 1-2 cup of milk, pepper. Sift the flour meal, baking powder, salt and sugar.

Rub the peanut butter, now add the milk well beaten egg and pepper. Mix into a smooth batter and drop by spoons on a well greased griddle and fry to a golden brown.

UNCLE SAM'S DAUGHTER.

CRANBERRY MARMALADE

Dear Social Corner Friends: I am wondering where all the sisters have gone that they don't write and tell us about their vacations. I always like to read of the different places where they visited. It doesn't seem so that the summer is most ended and fall most here. I think we have had a pretty good summer take it all through. I have no fault to find.

Kocha: Where have you been all summer? You didn't get up here berrying. Missed your smiling face.

Free Air, we are told, is going to leace us and go to Florida to reside. Sorry to have her go but hope she will write a letter once in a while and tell us something about the sunny south. A great many people are going down there. If they keep going there wont be very many left up this way.

Primrose: How are you and hubby? Have you eaten any more ice cream?

I will tell you of a never failing recipe for cranberry marmalade as the season is nearly here.

Cranberry Marmalade: Pick over and wash berries, put them in a kettle, almost cover them with water and cook until done. Then press them through a colander, put them on the stove and cook about one half hour before putting sugar to them. Sweeten to taste and cook for one-half hour or until it comes thick. Put into tumblers.

RURAL AUNTY.

HOW TO KEEP GRAPES

Dear Sisters: Many of you would like to know how to keep grapes. Try this.

Select perfect bunches of grapes and see that the fruit is solid on the bunch. Carefully remove the little spiders and webs but do not wash the fruit. Wrap each bunch carefully in dark blue tissue paper, twisting the ends together so as to exclude the air. Then pack away in a box or basket. Keep in a cool, dark, dry place and cover closely. Treated in this way grapes can be kept as late as February.

Grape Jam: Separate the skins from the pulp, put the pulp in a preserving kettle and bring to a boiling point. Then press through a colander, add the skins and measure, and for every pint allow a pound of sugar. Put the sugar and jam back into the kettle and boil for 20 minutes, stirring to prevent burning. If desired it can now be pressthrough a sieve, but this is not necessary. Pour into jelly tumblers and seal exactly the same as jelly.

ETHELYN.

ANOTHER CORNER MEMBER

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: I have been to your meetings and enjoy them so much and would like to join.

And for my pen name I'll take.

SILVER LEAF.

WAYS TO USE TOMATOES, COOKED AND UNCOOKED

Dear Social Corner Editor and Sisters: Time flies so rapidly that it is time to send in the Social Corner letter before one can think what to write.

Glad to hear of the many pleasant trips many of the members have taken this summer. It has been a wonderful summer in many ways, with lots of rain and lots of sunshine, which kept the gardens yielding splendidly. Now as summer is waning and frost not so far away we turn to canning once more. Here are two ripe tomato recipes where no cooking is required.

Cold Catsup: 1-2 peck ripe tomatoes sliced fine, sprinkle lightly with salt, let stand 2 hours then drain. 1-2 small teacup of white mustard seed, 1-2 small teacup of black mustard seed, 1-2 small teacup of celery, 1-2 teacup of sugar, 2 teaspoons of ground cinnamon, 1 teaspoon of ground cloves, 1 tablespoon of black pepper, 3 bunches of celery cut size of dice, 2 pints of cider vinegar. Salt to taste. Mix thoroughly and put in tight jars. Do not cook.

Ripe Tomato Cold Pickle: 16 medium ripe tomatoes, 4 small green peppers, 4 small onions, chopped fine; then add 1 cup sugar, 1 cup vinegar, 1-2 cup salt (scant.)

Mix thoroughly and put up cold. In both recipes turn boiling water on the tomatoes as the skins will come off easier in peeling. These recipes are especially handy for people who raise their own tomatoes and have made the usuals and they are still ripening. Splendid as a relish with cold meat and baked beans.

Here also are two green tomato recipes.

Green Tomato Relish: 1 pound green tomatoes, 1 pound green peppers, 1 pound cabbage, 1-2 pound onions.

First put the tomatoes through the food chopper, sprinkle with salt and let stand while you prepare the other ingredients, after which drain thoroughly. Then take 2 cups of vinegar, 1 small cup of sugar and scald; then add to the above mixture. Bring all to a boil and put into a stone crock.

Green Tomato Pickle: Chop 4 quarts tomatoes, and sprinkle with 1-2 cup salt, and let stand over night, in the morning drain and squeeze dry. Then add 1 teaspoon each of cloves, cinnamon, mustard seed, celery seed, allspice, 1 cup sugar and vinegar enough to cover all. Mix and boil 30 minutes. Put into a crock or quart jars.

I guess by this time I have exhausted more than my allowance of space. But must extend my deepest sympathy to all who are in sorrow, and also to all shut ins.

To the latter I will say after you have read your paper each day and on Saturday the letters from the Social Cornerites, as a pastime solve the cross word puzzles in the Bulletin every other morning. (I am thankful not to be a shut-in.) But I do enjoy the crossword puzzles and never mean to miss studying every one they publish. I do not always get a whole one right. But I enjoy the next one just the same and look up the answers in the following issue with as much interest as if it was a set task.

Thanking the editor for so much space, I will ring off.

ECLIPSE.

GREETINGS FROM BLACK EYED SUSIE

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Howdy this nice rainy morning.

Well we are having some more rain for a change.

Chocolate: How did you enjoy yourself Wednesday. I had an invitation Tuesday evening to go to the beach Wednesday and as little Susie loves the water I accepted the invite and we had a lovely time and a lovely day. I looked all around but did not see any Social Corner sisters that I knew.

Balsam Fir: You should see our taters. Some crop I tell you. Have some that weigh 1 1-4 pounds.

Bumble Bee: Was glad to see you and U. C. E. I always look for some of the sisters when I am out.

Savilla was so busy looking for bargains Dollar day that she didn't even hear my hello.

Scottie: Did you tell Mr. Scottie that you were buying you know for other women's husbands. I'll bet he laughed.

I hope all the sick ones are on the road to recovery and that we will see them at the next meeting which I hope to attend.

Free Air: Have you blown all away that we don't hear from you?

I did not see any Bug's around when I passed that way Sunday.

Ma of Greene Gables: Did you see me? I waved my hand to you as I shot by.

Well I wonder if Aries or some other sister has the poem, Beautiful hands are they that do the work of the noble, good and true, and also, I remember. I remember the house where I was born I would thank any one that would send them.

Rosy Posy: Why so silent?

Well, Butterfly, I didn't get to see you this summer. Would love to see your collection. Has Esmaralda returned from her trip yet? Am sure she enjoyed it. Maine is beautiful at this time of the year. I'll never forget my trip up the river with the pines on both sides. It seemed you could almost lean over the sides of the boat and touch them. I remember stopping at Freeport that Balsam spoke of.

Well will have to love and leave you and like Maggie in Bringing up Father will say "Au Reserse."

BLAC KEYED SUSIE.

FAVORS A CHANGE

Dear Cornerites: I was some disappointed while visiting in Norwich to know that on Social Corner day preparations for the September meeting in Odd Fellows hall were upset. For my part owing to the difficulties experienced by the hostess at the Buckingham Memorial in getting the dinner as the members have to be seated at both sides of the table long before dinner is ready to be served as there is no other place for them to sit, I would be in favor of another hall.

I myself think that carrying your own dishes and silver means a big saving and the hostess clearing off the table and doing dishes as we do at picnics and other club gatherings. Why not carry out the idea just as it was planned and written up in the Social Corner page the last three Saturdays in August?

I feel as if I had a right to write on this subject being an old member of Club No. 2 and still attend the meetings.

TIGER LILY.

DINNER THAT MADE A HIT

Dear Editor and Social Corner Members: Here is a recipe for a one-dish dinner which is very good, especially in the cooler weather, as it is an oven dish. It has made a big hit with all my friends who were at my home when I happened to serve it. The ingredients are: Eight large carrots, 10 large onions, 1 slice of round steak or about 1 1-2 pounds, 1 can tomato soup, slice layer of carrots in bottom of baking dish or casserole. Cover with layer of onions cut straight across. Cut steak in pieces, salt and pepper. Lay layer of steak on onions and dot with butter. Cover steak with another lay of onions. Put remaining steak on top, salt, pepper, butter. Pour over all can tomato soup. Rinse can with little water and add. Cover tightly and bake slowly from two to two and a half hours. Keep tightly covered and do not have oven too hot or you will lose all the juice which makes such good gravy for potatoes.

By baking potatoes in oven and having a pie or pudding baking at the same time, lots of time and gas are saved and dinner is all prepared with the same heat and at the same time.

FRED'S WIFE.

PICNIC SEPT. 16 AT TOO LATE'S HOME

Dear Social Corner Sisters and Editor: I am a new member to the Social Corner clubs and I have not been to any of the home picnics but have been to the beath both trips and I had a fine time. Now I would like to have the sisters all come to my home on Wednesday, Sept. 16. I live at Pleasant Valley. From Willimantic you take the Coventry trolley and go as far as the city line. It is only a short walk from the trolley track and there will be someone at the trolley to meet you and show you the way. Please bring plate, cup, knife, fork and spoon and something for the table. Please come one and all, for a jolly good time. Sisters from all clubs come. Lots of room.

TOO LATE.

READING MATTER

Dear Social Cornerites: Much has been said about good reading and much can well be said about the early formation of the habit of reading worth-while things.

Of course in summer it seems easy and natural to limit our porch reading to the newspapers and magazines and there are many worth-while articles as well as interesting stories in the current magazines.

I want my boys to have a better acquaintance with the classics than I had," and want them to keep their memories unimpaired by a hit-and-miss habit of light reading.

So with the coming of autumn my intention is for my family to read more good books, including some poetry, history, some nature studies, some of the classics, and occasionally some fiction.

I am preparing a list for fall and winter reading, which, of course, will include books for the little boys. There is so much stuff written which is so silly, so suggestive, and withal so utterly flat, that it seems strange that so much of it "gets by."

Let's read more good things ourselves and let us see that our children early form a taste for good literature.

MABS.

KEEP AWAY FROM DDESTS

Dear Corner Sisters: This being the month of many weddings, tempts me to write this plea to young couples starting housekeeping. Do not accumulate so many debts that you have nothing left for clothes or pleasure. I really believe if people would put more on pleasure they would be more satisfied with their lot.

What is life without friends, a good show, or some sport one is fond of? And it is when we are young that these things are enjoyed most. When one starts married life there are years ahead to accumulate a bank account, home and beautiful furniture, and how much less work it is to go along gradually as one can afford.

One can't enjoy a grand piano in the parlor, an eight cylinder car in front of the door, if every time she looks at it, she thinks how hard it will be to meet the next payment. And I believe that trying to live beyond one's income is the cause of a great deal of unhappiness of married life.

There are couples living in garage houses, having no debts that are lots happier than those in expensive houses with loads of worries and debts.

With best wishes to the Corner.

NORMA.

A CHEAP AND EXCELLENT DINNER

Dear Social Corner Sisters: Here is an original recipe that is timely just now.

Corn Codfish Croquettes: Boil 1 dozen cobs (after cutting the corn from the cob) with eight good sized potatoes. When cooked take 4 potatoes, mash them and add 1 teaspoon of sugar, 1 pinch of mustard, 1-2 cup of codfish, after it is freshened, boiled and chopped, yolk of one egg, 1-4 teaspoon of pepper. Mix this together until like cream, then make into croquettes dip in the white of the egg in which you have added 1 teaspoon of water. Then in meal, fry brown in deep fat. Then take the corn after cutting off the ear, mix this with 2 eggs and fry in bacon fat to serve with the croquettes. Mash the other four potatoes and return to the water that you have boiled your potato and corn cobs in, strain and add 1 cup of cream or 1-4 pound of butter and 1 cup of milk. Reheat and serve with this dinner; it is certainly a delicious soup.

I always boil the corn cobs with my potatoes when making codfish balls. They give them a wonderful flavor.

The above expense is 80 cents for a dinner for five, and it is certainly a wonderful dinner.

KITTY LOU.

HELPER'S PICNIC GREATLY ENJOYED

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Well, how is everybody this lovely weather? It has been quite some time since I have written but I think of you all many times.

Whirlwind and I went to Helper's picnic and though I was not feeling well I would not have missed it for a good deal. We met lots of new sisters and some brothers, too.

Helper: Such a lovely time and such an ideal spot as well as lovely home. I did enjoy the picnic.

Olga: I had one fine visit with you and I am looking forward to spending the day with you in the future.

Sis Hopkins: We were delighted to hear you say you would still advocate a picnic at your home. I wish Whirlwind and I lived near enough to help then I know you would have one. If you do have one we'll be there if nothing happens.

Effie M.: Hope to see you at every picnic we go to. Why aren't you sport enough to go to Norwich once in a while.

Bachelor Maid: How is your eye coming along? Hope everything will be lovely when that old black bandage comes off.

Have a date with Whirlwind so must run along.

FOXGLOVE.

PLEASED WITH THE PIN.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: I want to thank the editor for my pin. Am so delighted with it. When my granddaughter and husband came in with it I couldn't think what the letter was, but when I opened it and found the pin I was glad and thankful.

I haven't been to the Social Corner gatherings very much this summer. Went to the picnic at Twice Twenty's and had a very nice time. My granddaughters sang two selections during the entertainment. We had a very nice dinner and got along nicely until we got left. I don't like the mixed up time and will be glad when we all have one time again.

VIDA.

GREEN CORN FRITTERS

Sisters of the Social Corner: I have met no many pleasant people in your Corner that I want to join you, and will pay my entrance fee with my recipe for

Green Corn Fritters: Beat 1 egg light and mix with one cup grated green corn, 1 teaspoon baking powder and one half teaspoon salt, sifted with two heaping tablespoons bread flour, and stir into corn and egg. Drop by spoonsful and fry in just enough salt pork to cover bottom of frying pan.

We like them with butter and pepper on them.

Hoping my fee is adequate, I am your new sister.

PEG A' WAY.

OXFORD CLAIMS INVENTION OF TELESCOPE AS ITS OWN

OXFORD, Eng., Sept. 4—Not satisfied that credit for the invention of the telescope had been properly placed, the subject has been gone into recently at Oxford with the result that a claim is made that the instrument was invented at Oxford by an Englishman, and that the only question to be decided is whether that Englishman was Roger Bacon, or the Elizabethan philosopher, Leonard Digges.

Supporters of the Oxford claim credit Galileo with being the "greatest advertiser" of the telescope but insist that he did not invent it, nor did the Dutch spectacle makers, who are accorded credit as the first who made the telescope an article of commerce.

In favor of the Oxford claim it is pointed out that in the thirteenth century Roger Bacon wrote: "Glasses or diaphanous bodies may be so formed that the most remote objects may appear just at hand, and the contrary, so that we may read the smallest letters at an incredible distance, and may number things, though ever so small, and may make the stars also appear as near as we please."

However, it is admitted that at this time it is impossible to know whether Bacon actually invented a telescope or merely worked out the theory upon which all magnifying glasses are based.

As to the possibility of Digges, an Oxford man, being the inventor, it is said that in the middle of the 16th century he found Bacon's ideas in a Bacon manuscript, now lost, and went to work to produce glasses in accordance with them. Digges died young with his work unfinished and it remained for his son, Thomas, to assert the father's claim as an inventor. The son is quoted as saying his father often demonstrated his glasses by reading from a distance the numbers and letters on coins thrown by friends on open fields.

AMUNDSEN AT SPITZBERGEN GOT AMERICAN WELCOME

NY-AALESUND, Kingsbay, Spitzbergen, Sept. 4—Nowhere could a party of explorers, polar or otherwise, find a heartier welcome than at this "half way house to the pole," where Director Knudsen of the Kingsbay Coal Company holds sway.

Intensely patriotic and a warm admirer of Amundsen personally, Knudsen's feelings got the better of him when the explorers landed here from the sealer Sjoliliv, and he pressed them all to his breast in turn, shedding tears of joy.

Director Knudsen is the Grand Old Man of Spitzbergen, and he is as hard as nails. Back in the "seventies," his home was in Seattle, Wash., and later he joined the gold rush to Klondyke, where his iron constitution saw him through all kinds of adventures and privations.

Knudsen, who has not lost his American accent, took an almost fatherly interest in Lincoln Ellsworth, the only American member of the Amundsen expedition, whom he solemnly initiated into the rite of blood-brotherhood, which ends with the drinking of a glass of wine with linked arms. Not lightly will a Norwegian confer this privilege upon a stranger.

55 MILES OF WIRE USED ON EIFFEL TOWER ELECTRIC SIGN

PARIS, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Wiring the Eiffel Tower for advertising purposes required more than 20 miles of thick wire, 35 miles of fine.

When it was first reported that the tower was to be used to display an electric advertisement, it was said that the state had consented to the scheme for the sake of the tax it would receive, which in the present condition of the treasury would be welcome. Later information, however, showed that the Eiffel Tower Company is not obliged to ask for authorization for such action, having only to satisfy the Paris Municipal Council that no scheme could be adopted that would be in any way an eye sore to the town.

The company receives a lump sum of 250,000 francs or about $17,000, of which the city gets ten percent.

NEW YORK MAN GIVES TRAVELING SCHOLARSHIPS

LONDON, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Scholarships which each year will permit three British elementary school teachers to travel about in the United States for six months or more have been established by Irving T. Bush New York business man. Each scholarship has a value of $1,500. The recipients will be selected by the authorities in charge of the city of London vacation course.

The first three holders of these new scholarships probably will leave for America early in 1926. They will tour as much of the country as possible, visiting schools, delivering lectures and keeping their eyes and ears open for American methods and manners that might recommend themselves for transplanting into British educational soil.

CANADA IN YEAR INCREASES BUTTER PRODUCTION 13,000 TONS

OTTAWA, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Steady increase in butter production in Canada has taken place in recent years a report of the bureau of statistics showing that 81,000 tons were manufactured in 1924, against 73,000 tons in 1923 and 68,000 tons in 1922. To this an average of 45,000 tons a year may be added for butter made on the farms and in the homes.

Imports of butter have averaged 1,500 tons annually, the report says, and exports 3,500 tons, while there has been a steady increase in stock.

Creamery butter production last year amounted to 152,161,347 pounds, an increase of 11.2 per cent. over 1923.

WARM WEATHER DRIVES SHARKS TO NO. EUROPEAN WATERS

OSLO, Sept. 4.—(AP)—The prolonged spell of warm weather here has brought a considerable number of sharks into northern waters, where, under normal conditions they are seldom seen. Several schools have been sighted off the southern coasts of Norway and in the Skagerak, and in several coastal towns warnings having been issued to bathers. In the Porsgrund the sharks have made their appearance close in shore and at times when many people have been bathing.

When a man has an opportunity to become a hero he is usually busy at something else

WESTERLY

In the Friday morning session of Third District Court, Clerk M. Walter Flynn, Jr., read the following: New writ—Sante Guidice vs. George W. Binns. By agreement of council decision was given for the plaintiff in the sum of $100, the case being one of trespass in which a minor was involved.

Civil docket, Michael H. Scanlon vs. Peter DePerry. Answered by Attorney Ferguson and continued one week.

Ray S. Lockwood, p. a. vs. Louis Deutsch.

Ray S. Lockwood vs. Louis Deutsch. William A. Gunning gave notice of his appearance for the defendant.

George A. Burdick vs. Washington Trust Company. Answered by Attorney Ferguson and continued one week. Jury trial claimed by Attorney Roche for plaintiff.

Criminal docket, State, Frank H. Brown, chief of police of Hopkinton vs. Clifton D. Hall continued temporarily.

State, Frank H. Brown vs. Frank Grasso.

State, Thomas E. Brown vs. Fiore. Continued one week.

State, Sheriff Fred T. Mitchel vs. Bert Wiley. Marked ready. Third Assistant Attorney General Louis V. Jackvony for the state and Attorney John J. Dunn for the defendant.

State, Sheriff Fred T. Mitchell vs. certain liquors and vessels seized in the raid on T cottage, Charlestown, R. I.

Judge Turano in the Third District court Friday morning called the case of Fred O. Frost, 24, compained of as operating an automobile on August 29th on Board street, Ashaway, at a speed unreasonable and improper. He pleaded guilty. Judge Turano fined him $20. and costs amounting in all to $25, which he paid.

Clifton D. Hall was called and his cas continued.

Frank D. Mayo, who should have been in court last week, failed to make an appearance. Chief of Police Frank Brown, of Hopkinton, told the court that he preferred to move in this automobile case through the state board of public roads. The court decide to send a summons to the police department of the city of Providence.

The complaint against liquors seized on the place of the T cottage at Charlestown, one-fourth of a mile east of Cross' Mills, was considered and the liquors were ordered forfeited to the state.

After a long hearing in the action of Sheriff Fred T. Mitchell vs. Bert Wiley for possession of intoxicating liquors, he was found guilty and fined $100 and costs.

A Brooklyn wedding of interest to people in Westerly and Pawcatuck was that of Miss Kathleen E. Mackay of Westerly, and James J. Staples of Brooklyn, married August 27 at 9 o'clock at the Church of Sts. Simon and Jude, by Rev. Peter L. Richard. The bride was attended by Mrs. Elizabeth Mackay, her mother, and William H. Staples, father of the groom, was best man. The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe, and carried a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Mackay was gowned in gray canton crepe wore a black velvet hat, and carried a bouquet of garden flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Staples left after the ceremony on a motor trip and upon their return they will reside in their new home at 4823 Bay Parkway, Brooklyn.

The Annual report has been made of Westerly Public Library for the year ending August 15, 1925, being issued in printed form this week for general distribution. The report shows a great increase in the number of books circulated and a steady growth in all departments of the institution.

During the past year 154,403 books were borrowed for home use, as compared with 148,522 during 1923-24. The average public library circulates five books per capita, says the report. The Westerly library circulates nearly ten books per capita. Twenty-five per cent of the books read this past year were non-fiction as compared with 18 per cent during 1923-24. In 1914-15 24 per cent of the books circulated were from the children's department; in 1919-20, 33 per cent; in 1924-25, 45 per cent. Branches of the Westerly library, which are maintained in Bradford, Clarkville and White Rock, have proved extremely popular during the year.

Miss Betty Brown Alger entertained Friday at her home six girls in honor of her seventh birthday. Among the out of town guests was her cousin, Jarvis Alger, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

T. Edward Peabody of Pawcatuck left Westerly Friday to be the guest of relatives in Wakefield, R. I., over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Merrill of Albany, after spending a short vacation at Pleasant View Beach, are now at the Trainer cottage, Quonochontaug.

Mrs. Othniel F. Nichols of Brooklyn, N. Y., after three week's visit at Newport, R. I., has returned to Westerly to visit, also at Weekapaug with relatives and friends.

J. Alonzo Peabody and daughters Misses Edna and Ethel Peabody of the West Side are guest of relatives in Waterford, Conn., over the week-end.

Rev. Lewis A. Walker, pastor of Calvary Baptist church in Westerly, his wife returned home Wednesday, after passing several months on a visit to California.

Misses Mary L. and Ruth C. Burdick of Westerly are guests of New London relatives over this week-end.

Miss Dorothy P. Stillwell, who has been an instructor at a Girl Scout camp near Syracuse, N. Y., is spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stillwell, in White Rock, before returning to Syracuse to take up her duties as musical accompanist at the Washington Junior high school for girls.

A knuckle in the coupling at the rear of the tender of the locomotive of the Quaker express broke Friday morning at 1 o'clock, at the Westerly station of the New Haven road and the locomotive went but a short distance before the brakes set, bringing it to a stop. The broken casting was replaced by one taken from a car in the freight yard and the express proceeded, after a half hour's delay.

Nicholas Mullen and Joseph Murray left Westerly Friday for South Lanshire, Pa., where they begin their studies for the priesthood at the Mariast school.

Mrs. Louis Faverio of New York, their daughter Katherine, and son, Louis, Jr., are guests of the family Joseph Gervasini on Oak street. Mr. Faverio is also accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. B. Faverio.

Miss Dorothy Lincoln will leave, Westerly today Saturday, for a visit over Labor day in Hartford, where she will be the guest of Holover Hansom and daughter Mildred of Oakland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Geary, Herbert Geary and George Wilds will leave Westerly today (Saturday) on an automobile trip to visit Newall Geary and family in Beverly, Mass., over the week-end.

Miss Gladys Lawton and Mrs. Stanley Laing returned to Westerly Friday morning from a business visit in Providence.

The private combination observation Pullman car "National" with Mrs. Charles Cooper and party, for Bennington, Vt., was attached to the 1.26 train Friday morning at Westerly where the express made a special stop to have the car taken to New London. At New London the car was attached to another express and the return trip to Vermont was made by way of New York city and Troy, N. Y. Mrs. Cooper is mother-in-law of Charles Coleman Cilley, who occupies his Watch Hill cottage, "Dormers," on Everett avenue, during the summer, returning to Vermont for the winter.

UNCASVILLE

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held the first meeting of the season Thursday afternoon in the chapel. Ten members were present and plans were made for a succotash supper to be held on the church lawn.

Rev. Charles Smith, pastor of the Methodist church has returned from his vacation and on Sunday, September 6th, will hold the usual service. Communion will be administered.

At the Montville-Center-Congregational church Rev. Charles Smith of Uncasville will conduct worship Sunday and the Lord's supper will be administered.

The sacrament of Confirmation is to be administered by Rt. Rev. John J. Nilan at ten o'clock Sunday morning, September 20th, at St. John's church. A class of 111 is being prepared by the pastor, Rev. James A. O'Meara, to receive the sacrament.

Everett Cogswell formerly of Uncasville is the guest of Dr. M. E. Fox.

Thursday, the 10th, the September meeting of the W. C. T. U. is to be held at the home of the president, Miss Nellie J. Starr at 2.30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Perkins of West Palm Beach, Florida, have been visiting relatives and friends in Uncasville and vicinity and have left for a short stay in Providence. They expect to return to Florida in October.

Miss Henrietta Browning, who has been spending the summer with her parents at Kitemaug, has returned to Spartanburg, S. C., where she is physical director in a woman's college.

Wilfred St. Germain recently completed a very attractive new home now on the Norwich road and moved into it during the past week.

Miss Barbara Starr who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Starr, of Jerome place, has returned to her home in Providence.

In spite of the extremely dry weather the dahlia farm of W. F. Brown is in wonderful condition and very beautiful with the large number of dahlias, gorgeous with blossoms of many colors. There as also many beautiful asters in bloom.

LEDYARD

Much sympathy has been extended Chester Pierce and family who lost their house and nearly all its contents by fire, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Pierce had shod a horse in the early forenoon in a building which is in close proximity to the dwelling. Later in the day Mr. Pierce and his family went away. A party in a passing automobile noticed the fire which seemed to have started in the shop where the horse was shod and the blaze was getting near the house. Help was summoned but the fire had commenced on the house which could not be saved and was a total loss. The house had been insured, but Mr. Pierce had let the insurance expire some time ago. Mr. Pierce thinks he will build a bungalow upon the site of the dwelling burned.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Spafford and family and Olin H. Avery, of Glastenbury, were recent callers on Earl B. Geer.

Amos Avery, Miss Chapman, of Groton, were recent callers of Mrs. Isaac G. Geer.

Eugene Houghton of Vermont, who married Miss Bertha Lamb of this town was a recent caller at Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Clark's. Mrs. Clark returned with him to visit her sister, Mrs. Houghton. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Lamb have returned home. Mrs. Lamb has been staying for several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Houghton, in Vermont.

Miss Nellie Gallup, who has been staying with her uncle and aunt, Deacon and Mrs. Isaac G. Geer during the past summer left Friday for her home in St. Paul, Minn., where she is a teacher of music in the school.

PLAINFIELD

At the First Congregational church in Plainfield, Milton Everett Winsor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Winsor, and Vivian Frances Cleland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Cleland, were united in marriage on Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Rev. William C. Prentiss, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony. The double ring service was used. The groom was attended by his brother, Clarence E. Winsor, as best man. The maid of honor was Miss Marion I. Cleland, sister of the bride. She wore a dress of pink crepe de chine and a black picture hat. The bride's gown was of white satin trimmed with lace. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was also attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Ruth C. Cleland, a sister, wearing a frock of lavender over yellow crepe de chine and a black picture hat, and Miss Ruth Marjorie E. Winsor, sister of the groom, who wore honey dew crepe de chine and a black picture hat. The ushers were Clifford E. Marston and Ralph E. Hopkins. The processional was the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" played by Mrs. Henry Leach, the organist, who also played for the recessional, the wedding march by Mendelssohn. The church was beautifully decorated.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception at the home of the bride for near relatives. Light refreshments were served. Many beautiful wedding gifts were displayed.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Winsor left on a wedding trip by motor through the Adirondack and Green Mountains, visiting Syracuse, Niagara Falls, Burlington, Vt., and other points of interest.

When they return, they will reside in their new home on Pleasant street.

Services are to be resumed Sunday morning at the Congregational church with preaching by the pastor. The Sunday school will reopen at noon in charge of Cecil L. Butler, in the absence of the superintendent.

Christian Union service is planned for Sunday evening at Packer in charge of Rev. George H. Higgins. The speakers will be Rev. Leon Wells, Rev. S. Nightingale, Rev. William C. Prentiss. There is to be music by the Odd Fellows' Quartet. The service is at (standard time).

Morden T. Prentiss, returned Friday after spending a few days visiting friends in New Haven. He served as an assistant cook for the Sarragamon Boys' camp in Vermont, for two months, filling the duties of chef, during the illness of the regular cook.

JEWETT CITY

The current issue of the Fibre and Fabrick reports the recent death of Varnum T. Barber, 74, of Pawtucket, R. I. Until its discontinuance a year or more ago, he was superintendent of the B. B. and R. Knight mill at Dodgeville, Mass. He had been for some years overseer of spinning in mills in New Bedford and Fall River, and in 1882 was superintendent of the old Pawtucket mill, which history declares was the first cotton mill in America. A daughter and son survive, also two brothers living in Jewett City, Henry and George Barber. For long term of years, during his early life in the cotton mill business, Mr. Barber was overseer here of the spinning in the old mill, (long since in disuse) of the Ashland Cotton Co. Varnum T. Barber married Miss Carrie Sherman, of Jewett City.

The late Raymond J. Jodoin, of Baltic had many warm friends in Jewett City who were sorry to read of his death in Friday's Bulletin. Only a few years ago Mr. Jodoin made regular weekly business trips to this town.

In connection with the search to locate a map, made previous to 1815, which shows what is now Read's island, when it was a part of Shipman's grove, in Griswold, some fine old maps have been found. Mrs. Ida B. Ladd has a finely preserved map, made in Philadelphia in 1854. The towns of Lisbon and Griswold are shown in much detail. All the farms are drawn out and their owners at that time noted. Read's island is shown with the Qinebaug parted at its head, with a large stream encompassing its entire circumference. Today, its claim is lost forever; it is an island in name only. Interesting facts will yet be published, which will tell of the determined efforts of one Woodmansee, and another Lisbon man. One declared, that the island after the cut off in 1816, should remain in Griswold. While the other, was equally persistent to maintain its acreage in Lisbon. During the night Woodmansee would dam the stream at the head of the island, throwing the stream into its original banks. Next day the other would destroy the job of the preceeding night, and restablish the new cut off channel.

Edw. Blanchard will rent a modern, lighted, Garage. Phone 136-—Adv.

Services at the Congregational Church are to resumed Sunday. The communion service was postponed by vote of the church until the third Sunday, when Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, of Greeneville, will receive the pastor and his wife into the church, and others will be admitted into membership. Rev. G. Keene Gray leads the Christian Endeavor service which is a consecration meeting. The evening service follows.

With Many local ponds showing extreme low water, for September, 1st., it is gratifying to learn that A. A. Young, superintendent of the Jewett City Water Co. reports the reservoir only 36 inches off normal, and at much better levels than on September 1, 1924.

A full line of school supplies at Lester Blanchard's.—Adv.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Rainville returned Friday evening from a two weeks' stay in Canada. Their son, Faure, who has spent nine weeks there at his uncle's farm, returned with them.

Hundreds of people from Jewett City and the outlying country, Friday visited the site of the early morning fire which destroyed the furnishings and completely gutted the Polish club, on Railroad avenue. The atmosphere was dense with a heavy white fog, and when the flames broke through the roof, the illumination of the whole heavens with a crimson glow, was a sight to see and was visible in Voluntown from whence people called to learn if this whole town was burning. Several people remarked that the ribbon must be handed to The Bulletin. The fire was not under control until 1:30 a. m., yet a comprehensive account appeared in this paper, and was being read here at 5:45 the same morning.

QUEUE WRAPPED IN 1795 PAPER AT PLAINFIELD REUNION

(Special to the Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Sept. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ross and Miss Kate Ross, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fench, and Mrs. M. E. Shea attended Plainfield Academy reunion in Plainfield Wednesday.

Mr. Ross had with him an ancient article which was of much interest. It was a queue of hair which once was on the head of Bucklin Mathewson. He attended this Academy in his youth, and because of the laughter his queue caused, his mother cut it off. When shorn, the queue was wrapped in an old paper, the United States Chronicle, published on his birthday, January 15, 1795. His own handwriting is seen where he wrote Bucklin Mathewson's hair, August, 1804 or 1805. The paper which is two hundred years old, is most interesting reading. The third congress of the United States authorizes the treasury to audit the account of the late Edward Blanchard, deceased. This is signed by George Washington and John Adams. The variety of articles advertised are like words from a foreign language—Grenada, New England, St. Croix and Surinam rum by the hogshead and barrel, excellent spermacetti lampoil, hogs' bristles, Turk's Island salt, varieties of whips among which are twigs, chaises, phaeton and coach, and a few fashionable loaded short handles with large thongs, supper dishes, genuine pure old port, sherry, Lisbon and Malaga wines, etc.

EAST COLCHESTER

Quite a frost for August was noticed last Friday morning in low lands, cutting corn and pumpkin vines.

Rain is much needed as water is getting low, grass land and vegetables are drying up.

A flock of pheasants is seen quite often near a corn-field. The birds appear very tame.

Camp Mooween closed Sept. 1st, after a prosperous season. About one hundred and fifty boys went by bus to Hartford, then took he train to New York.

WICKED FLEA STICKS TIGHT TO LONE STAR STATE CHICKENS

During the recent spring there has appeared throughout central and south-western Texas an unprecedented outbreak of the sticktight flea. The loss has been especially severe among young chicks, resulting in a scarcity of fryers on many markets. Egg production has also been severely cut, the reduction ranging from 5 to more than 50 per cent. The tojal loss this spring is estimated at over $1,000,000 according to the Bureau of Entomology of the United States department of agriculture.

CAGED BIRDS SUFFER FROM HEART TROUBLE IN WARM SUN

"May I warn the owners of caged birds against the dangers, and unintentional cruelty, of exposing their pets to the sun's rays during the hot weather?" asks "Bird Lover" a correspondent of The London Post. "Many caged birds suffer from heart trouble, a disease the presence of which may be detected by a discoloration of the nostrils near the base of the beak. In sunny days birds should be kept in the shade between the hours of 9 a. m. and 7 p. m."

REO

GOLD STANDARD OF VALUES

ANNOUNCING

Price Reductions and New Models

PASSENGER CARS

	f. o. b.
SEDAN	$1565
SEDAN DE LUXE	$1745
COUPE	$1495
ROADSTER	$1665
Speedwagon Chassis, 4 cly.	$1035
Speedwagon Chasis, 6 cyl.	$1185
Speedwagon, heavy duty chassis, 6 cyl.	$1985
SEDAN BUS	$5250
CAR TYPE BUS	$5025
INTER-CITY COACH	$5675

WE KNOW THAT WE ARE NOW OFFERING THE GREATEST VALUES IN THE ENTIRE INDUSTRY—DEMONSTRATION WILL CONVINCE YOU.

W. R. Frisbie SALES AND SERVICE 190 NORTH MAIN STREET.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

TODAY!

The Last Shopping Day Before Labor Day

Values are unusually attractive. Practically complete assortments of New Fall Goods are being shown in every department of the store. The economy of supplying your needs for Labor Day, here, is emphasized by the combination of dependable quality with lowest possible prices.

TODAY—THE LAST DAY

75c box LADY BETTY COLD CREAM FACE POWDER 29c

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT WILL BE PLEASING NEWS

We have made an arrangement with the manufacturers of Lady Betty Cold Cream Face Powder which gives our patrons an opportunity to obtain a regular 75c size box of this alluringly different complexion aid for 29c.

LADY BETTY COLD CREAM FACE POWDER is prepared from a formula that is recognized by dermatologists as being of real value in protecting the complexion against the ravages of sun, wind and dust. During the milling process a small amount of cold cream is incorporated which gives the powder unusual inherent qualities—it clings without caking and is invisible when properly applied. Its delicate, fascinating bouquet perfume appeals to discriminating women.

This Coupon is Worth 46c to You

THIS COUPON AND 29 CENTS WILL BE TAKEN IN EXCHANGE FOR A REGULAR 75¢ SIZE BOX OF Lady Betty COLD CREAM FACE POWDER

TODAY IS THE LAST DAY

We suggest that you purchase a box of Lady Betty on our recommendation. If you do not find it pleasing in every way, we will cheerfully refund the purchase price.

EXTRAORDINARY SPECIAL VALUES

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT

FOR SATURDAY ONLY

Another lot of that wonderful Saxony Wool Flannel that we had a short time ago—Next quality to our best silk and wool, cream color only, and perfect in weave and finish. This is an ideal quality for all uses, including Baby Squares and fine Underclothes, regular $1.50 quality— Special Price a Yard 79c
(Limit 5 Yards to a Customer)

250 yards of fine quality Berkley Nainsook, in 5 to 10-yard lengths, value 39c— Special Price a Yard 25c

500 yards of 81-inch Brown Sheeting, a good medium weight for every-day sheets, mattress covers, etc. (Note the width and price). Regular value 59c— Sale Price a Yard 39c

10 dozen high grade Pillow Cases. These are genuine English Percale, regular size, value $1.00 each—Special Price 59c

45-inch Round Thread Art Linen—another offering of those superb Linens suitable for every kind of embroidery purpose—easily drawn for Italian hemstitching, in white and oyster, regular value $2.00—Special Price a Yard $1.19
(Limit 5 Yards to a Customer)

50c CHILDREN'S 3-4 SOCKS, 29c

Children's fine Mercerized Three-quarter Socks, with fancy tops, in all the wanted colors, sizes 6 to 9½—these are regular 50c grade subject to slight irregularities—all at 29c a pair.

CHILDREN'S HOSIERY 25c Pair

Children's Ribbed Lisle Hosiery, fine ribbed and English ribbed, black, white, cordovan, fawn and camel's hair—at 25c a pair.

CHILDREN'S HOSIERY 39c Pair

Children's finest Mercerized Hosiery, black, white and cordovan, all sizes—at 39c a pair.

BOYS' HOSIERY 29c Pair

Boys' extra heavy, Black Ribbed Hosiery, the well known "Chieftain" make, sizes 7 to 11—at 29c a pair.

BOYS' HOSIERY 39c Pair

Boys' two-thread, Ribbed Hosiery, black and cordovan, extra good wear, sizes 7 to 11½—at 39c a pair.

A REMARKABLE OFFERING OF SILK HOSIERY, FULL-FASHIONED, AT $1.39

This is a splendid service weight in Women's Full-fashioned or "three-seam" Silk Hosiery, every pair perfect, in a good range of colors, including black, white, Airedale, beige, Deauville, nickel, French nude, thrush, etc.—all at $1.39 a pair.
(Special Table—main aisle.)

NEW LONDON BOY OF SEVENTEEN BUYS LIQUOR WITHOUT DIFFICULTY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 4—Charles M. Santos, a Main street youth of 17, was in the police court this morning charged with the theft of $16 from Charles Whittemore, also of Main st. Because of the fact that the youth had been employed of late by Rev. Joseph Raniszewski, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and that the pasor was willing to become responsible for the acts of the youth, Santos was given a sentence of three months in jail, but the execution of the sentence was suspended.

Santos' admission of stealing the money and the statement that he had spent some of the money for liquor, resulted in his declaring that he purchased the liquor at the residence, 16 John Street, occupied by Henry Ellison and Nellie Jones, negroes. This afternoon Santos was provided with funds and instructed to go to the John Street house and purchase a half pint of liquor. This he did. A search warrant was then issued by acting Prosecuting Attorney Perry J. Hollandersky, Sergeant John Cavanaugh and Patrolmen Thomas Lyden and William Riordan went to the house, where they conducted a systematic search, finding a quantity of liquor. Ellison and the woman were taken into custody and in default of a surety on their respective bonds, were made prisoners, to await hearings in the police court Saturday morning.

James McTough, operator of a motor truck used in conveying coal from the yard of a dealer to the cellars of those who buy fuel, appeared in the police court today and accused the operator of a pleasure car, a woman, of having run down his coal cart and occasioned damage to the cart. McTough was in turn accused by the sedan's operator, Lydia Schweurlein, a young woman who is playing an engagement at the Capitol theatre and by Gene Carlsen, an actress at the threatre and by Jess Weiss an actor at the same house.

The motor vehicles came together near the corner of Main and Williams street, when the touring car reached here from Norwich. In the mix-up the sedan was damaged by the loss of mudguards and the scratching of the body, also damage to the running board. McTough claimed that the steering apparatus of the coal carrier was put out of order and was in that condition now. There is no record of a coal truck having been damaged by a pleasure car, so Mr. McTough established such a memorandum.

Leroy Newbury, residing at 181 Howard street, was fined $5 in the police court for a technical breach of peace. He had been a party on a picnic the day before and when he returned home he was not as discreet as to what he did as he should have been. In that he offended.

Three violators of the parking ordinance were presented for prosecution, but not one of them drew a fine. They were all non-residents. A couple of drunks were fined $5 each.

John Henry Quinn got his punishment in the police court this morning for selling and transporting alcohol. He is a cripple in that he has practically lost the use of one leg from rheumatism, so it would not be telling the truth to say he did not have a leg to stand on. The best he could do was to demurr to the complaint against him and this he did. Judge Crandall was on the bench and ordered Quinn to pay a fine of $200 and the costs of the trial. Judge Crandall intended to send Quinn to a term in jail, but the condition physically of the man led the judge to show a degree of leniency toward him. So he suspended execution of a jail sentence for a period of six months. Quinn has a bad record in the courts of this city and county. He has been convicted before of selling liquor and he has been prosecuted for drinking it and carrying on from the effects of drinking. Forced the costs Quinn has paid into the courts would make a good-sized bank deposit. His former friend, Marie Merino, turned against him in the case today. She has been a patron of the Quinn resort and there she had encountered her troubles. Quinn was stabbed when the father of a young man who drove an automobile to Westerly, that Quinn might get alcohol complained at the moment the booze raid was being taken into the Quinn place. The case left no chance for Quinn to escape by any subterfuge. Witnesses were on hand to testify and the police found the alcohol where they were told they would find it.

Joseph P. Sullivan, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, died this morning at the Mitchell ward of Lawrence-Memorial hospital, following a lingering illness with tuberculosis. He is survived, besides his parents, by four brothers, John L., Daniel F., and Leo A. Sullivan, of this city, and Thomas J. Sullivan, of Washington, D. C. Mr. Sullivan was a letter carrier for several years until his health declined. He underwent a lengthy treatment for the malady at Uncas-on-the-Thames, Norwich and a few months ago returned to his home here. When Mr. Sullivan's condition became critical recently he was transferred to the Mitchell ward.

This afternoon a public service machine owned and operated by Joseph Leon, 440 Ocean avenue, killed a dog on Broad street. The owner of the dog was not made known.

Lucy Juardon, 24, colored, residing at 24 Golden street, was taken into custody this afternoon, charged with breach of the peace. She was made a prisoner in default of a surety on her bond of $100 and will be given a hearing in the police court tomorrow morning. An occupant of the same apartment as that occupied by the negress complained to the police that she had suffered the loss of a fountain pen by theft. Patrolman William Riordan, who was assigned to the case, went to the Golden street house, where he ordered the woman to accompany him to the police station, that she might be interrogated regarding the theft of the pen. All the way to the station the woman abused the officer with a flow of strong language, but she did not become demonstrative until she reached the station house. Once inside the building the woman began to scream and at the same time she attacked Officer Riordan in realistic style. Because of the fact that he was dealing with a female the officer could not handle his prisoner in the manner that he would like, but with Acting Captain James C. Sullivan and Acting Desk Sergeant William Allcock at hand the woman was quickly placed under restraint and locked in a cell.

Patrick Stone, a member of the crew of the government transport General Timothy Picking; Mrs. Clifford Bean, Round View; Anthony Goyetche, a member of the crew of the United States lighthouse tender Hawthorne; Nelson Clark, Hartford; Mrs. Jane Chapman, Old Lyme; Mrs. Myrtle Turner and infant daughter, Crescent Beach; Pietro Fortunator, Jay street, Joseph Goldie, 647 Bank street, and Mrs. Sam Destisano, 36 Thames St., Norwich, patients at Lawrence-Memorial Associated hospital, were dismissed today.

Miss Ella Howard of Walker street, employed as stenographer by City Manager William A. Holt, resumed her duties at the municipal building today, having concluded her vacation of two weeks, the greater part of which time was spent at Niagara Falls and in New York.

Mrs. Mary Hammell, widow of Edward Hammell, died this morning at her residence, 16 Amity street, death ending a long illness. Mrs. Hammell was of advanced years and is survived by a son and daughter, the former being William Hammell, of Norwood avenue.

The funeral of John D. Glynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael H. Glynn, 152 Willetta avenue, was held this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church and was attended by a large assemblage of mourners. A mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. William C. Fitzsimons the pastor. The bearers were Frederick Keefe, Frank McCormick, Edward McInniss, James Cleary, James Drudy and John Nellan, members of New London Lodge of Elks, of which organization Mr. Glynn was a member. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Abraham Bland was taken into custody this noon by Sergeant John Cavanaugh at the request of United States Immigration Officer McDermott, Boston, charged with violation of the immigration laws. Later in the day Bland was delivered into the custody of McDermott and will probably be deported within a few days.

L. V. Dodge, 2 Park street, Adams, Mass., was ordered to appear in the police court Saturday morning, by Traffic Officer Clyde Murphy, this afternoon, when the officer detected Dodge's automobile parked on Main street for a period longer than is permitted by law. Dodge furnished a bond of $10 for his court appearance.

W. H. Vrodman of 11 North Ferry, street, Schenectady, N. Y., reported to the police late this afternoon that while he was operating his machine across the Thames river highway bridge the machine struck a dog the owner of which was not known to him, and that he believed that the animal was dead. A short time later Patrolman William Graham reported that the dog was not killed and that it had been removed by the owner to his home.

Railroad travel this evening was very heavy as trains east and west had extra cars and they brought people to pass Labor day in this city and vicinity. The section about the railway station and the lower part of State and Bank streets resembled the streets on the busiest days of the year.

Acting Desk Sergeant Samuel Hick is confined to his home Blydenburg avenue, by illness.

James Francis Murphy, known as "Dutch," will be prosecuted for attempting rape. His victim is Helen Zeist, a girl residing near Murphy's home. She is only 17, her birthday having been the 28th of February last. Murphy is held in $5,000 bail.

Evers and the Alteria woman were brought to Norwich by the chauffeur of Mrs. Alteria, but they did not find the accommodations they wanted, the hotels there and they came on to New London, where they were discovered by the wife of the one and the husband of the other. When a detective went to the room in which the pair were registered and demanded admission he was told to wait till the room door could be opened. Then, it is claimed Mrs. Alteria had the opportunity to don her street clothing and to pass into the hallway be the hotel in full street garb to greet the detective. Her acts are declared to have destroyed any evidence that might have been procured that she was guilty of adultery. But that is to be determined when the case is presented in the court at 9:30 tomorrow morning. Mrs. Alteria's husband is reputed to be a well-to-do real estate broker. He is understood to have sought evidence on which to procure a divorce, and his friends say he has now obtained it.

Murphy has before been in trouble. Judge Crandall was not disposed to show him any consideration when the bond was fixed to hold him for trial tomorrow, for he set the amount of bail at $5,000. Murphy's father and his uncle became surety on the bail bond, offering real estate to guarantee his appearance in court. The Zeist girl has had a conference with police sergeants and is understood to have made a full admission of all that transpired. That testimony will be presented tomorrow, probably.

John Heikel will come to trial tomorrow for alleged evasion of responsibility when his car ran down, near Shaw street, Louis Pensa, residing at McDonald and Elm streets, who was crossing the street near the corner of Shaw and Truman streets. Pensa was knocked down. An examination of his injuries at Lawrence hospital disclosed concussion of the brain, and he has been a patient at the hospital since then. The Heikel car seems to be an unlucky one, for some months ago, with Mrs. Heikel operating the machine, it ran down a child on Jefferson avenue, inflicting fatal injuries.

NORWICH STUDENT NURSES REGISTER AT HOSPITAL

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 4—Included among the 13 young women who have enrolled in the school for nursing at Lawrence Memorial Associated hospital for the September term are Miss Genevieve Kane, 53 Roath street, Norwich, and Miss Margaret McLaughlin of Fitchville. The New London young women to enroll are Miss Dorothy Dedrick, 18 Blackhall street; Miss Florence Firmin, 224 Montauk avenue; Miss Ann Kiely, 2 Richards street, Miss Catherine Desmond, 690 Main street; Miss Annie Hanson, 19 Cliff street and Miss Mildred McPartland, 85 Jefferson avenue. Those to enroll from Groton are Misses Louise Marshall, 98 Baker avenue and Miss Winifred Poppe, 22 Monument street.

ADOPTED WHITE GIRL SENT TO LONG LANE FARM

(Special to the Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 4—The 12-year old girl, who was legally adopted by a Green street colored woman some time ago, which fact was revealed this week, as the result of the girl having been detected stealing wearing apparel from a bath house at Ocean Beach, was before Deputy-Judge Lewis Crandall in chambers in the police court this forenoon. She was committed to Long Lane farm, Middletown. The girl will be taken to the farm Saturday morning by Policewoman Jane Cassidy. Since the girl was taken into custody, she has been residing with a family on Howard street and today she was provided with proper clothing, something she did not possess when arrested, for she was most scantily clad. Tonight she was allowed to attend a motion picture show, because it will be the last motion picture she will be privileged to witness in a long time. Steps will be taken within a short time tending to obtain an annulment of her adoption.

TWO SERIOUS CASES DOWN FOR HEARING IN CITY COURT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 4—The police court will have two of the most serious cases it has had in a long time, to pass upon Saturday. Arthur Evans and Ruth Adrian Alteria, both of White Plains, N. Y., will be presented on a charge of adultery, they having been found to be registered at a local hotel a week ago as husband and wife, and presented in the court on that charge then. The case was continued till tomorrow, and the accused gave bail in the sum of $1,000 each.

SPITZBERGEN TOWN CONDUCTS CONTINUAL CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

BARENTSBURG, Green Harbor, Spitzbergen, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Holland has carried a bit of its own atmosphere into these outlying arctic regions. The settlement here belongs to a Dutch concern, and it is named after Willem Barents, who discovered Spitzbergen in 1596.

"Clean up," is the slogan here, and perpetual warfare is waged, after the Dutch fashion, against the dirt and grime inseparable from a mining village. Barentsburg is the only place that has made an attempt at making a paved road, the first in all Spitsbergen. It is still in the embryo stage, but is encouraging to the weary traveler who knows the rough and slippery tracks that pass for roads elsewhere on these islands.

Great propects are afoot for the storage of coal at The Barentsburg mine. Against the steep mountain slope, a solid concrete wall is being built which will form a container for 500,000 tons of coal.

SAMOAN PARLIAMENT BARS CRICKET PLAYING ON SUNDAY

APIA, Samoa, Sept. 4.—(AP)—The House of Faipule (Samoan parliament) has passed a law prohibiting the playing of cricket on Sunday. The measure was adopted at the request of the New Zealand Administrator, General Sir George S. Richardson.

Recently the Rev. G. S. Shinkfield of the Methodist mission made a complaint against children of the Roman Catholic persuasion, alleging that they were playing cricket on Sunday. The secretary of native affairs, who is clothed with judicial functions and is an ex-member of the London Missionary Society, fined the Catholic Catechist and the school children $30. Bishop Durand of the Catholic mission protested, and the matter is to be carried before the high court of Western Samoa to determine whether the fine was justified.

The incident is causing much excitement.

EATING PLACES IN TOKYO TOTAL MORE THAN 23,000

TOKYO, Sept. 4.—(AP)—The statistics of cafes and restaurants for Tokyo and its environs indicate that hunger should not be among the things suffered by the residents, provided they have the price.

There are 5,733 so called "foreign restaurants," which means places where supposedly foreign food is served in an alleged foreign style. There are 1,208 restaurants serving Chinese style food, and 16,414 Japanese style restaurants.

The total for all the public eating places in the city, exclusive of hotels, clubs and semi-private places, is 23,352. In only one ward, Kojimachi, do the foreign restaurants exceed the Japanese in number, the figures being: foreign style, 206; Japanese style, 173.

WILL TEACH AMERICANS HOW TO EAT RICE

TOKYO, Sept. 4—(AP)—Dr. K. Sugimoto, a rice expert attached to the Tokyo Nutrition Laboratory, one of the three special scholars of the Rockefeller Foundation, said that one of his missions abroad would be to teach the people of the United States "how to eat rice." He has been making a special study of the nutritive value of rice for the past five years and has experimented on 30 persons.

The Mussolini Of Turkey

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, President of Turkey, in his first picture taken without his strange looking hat, which resembles an inverted fez at first glance. Kemal, the supreme leader of Turkey, has shown his power in his recent divorcing of his wife, Latife Hanoum, with as much trouble as in putting on his hat. In Turkey the custom was for a man divorcing his wife, to call a witness, and say: "In your presence I divorce my wife," and the job was done, no court, lawyers, publicity, etc.

THURINGIA WINS IN COURT CONTEST FOR STRADIVARIUS

WEIMAR, Sept. 4.—(AP)—A famous Stradivarius violin, mute for years in a safe deposit vault, recently passed definitely into the possession of the Thuringian government, which had been bequeathed the instrument but was later sued for its recovery by heirs of the donor. The litigation continued many years.

Fabulous offers made for the Stradivarius led the heirs to start suit on the strength of the clause in the will of the donor, Concertmaster Koempel of the Weimair Court Theatre, that they should have an option on the purchase of the violin whenever it was offered for sale. The heirs rejected one compromise made by a lower court and appealed to the supreme court, which refused their claim.

Herr Koempel, who was the favorite pupil of Ludwig Spohr, had first given his beloved instrument to the Thuringian Asylum for the Blind, a government institution but now it has been intrusted to the care of Professor Reitz, present concertmaster of the German National Theater of Weimar.

Cost of Living in Rumania Rises

BUCHAREST, Sept. 4—(AP)—There is a conspicuous rise in the cost of living in Rumania as compared with last year. The Argus points out that food has risen 18 points over the level of August last year, nearly 56 points and such articles as soap, firewood, paper, petroleum, 31 points.

The average of prices in 1925, the Argus points out, is about 46 per cent higher than a year ago.

Nurmi Now a Knight

HELSINGFORS, Sept. 4—(AP)—Paavo Nurmi, the champion distance runner, is now a Finnish knight and possessor of the Order of the White Rose. These honors were conferred upon the athlete by President Relander upon Nurmi's return from America and were in recognition of his advancement of Finnish interest through his athletic prowess.

The man who tells you that all men are alike really believes that he is a little better so.

A Good Place to Invest Your Money

PRINCIPAL IS SURE

INTEREST PAID PAST THREE YEARS 4½%

STATEMENT OF CONDITION

After Crediting September 1 Dividend September 1, 1925

LOANS REAL ESTATE, NOT OVER 50% VALUE	$7,725,914.00
LOANS, ALL OTHERS	198,751.20
BONDS	5,836,276.98
BANK STOCKS	403,085.50
BANKING HOUSE	125,000.00
CASH ON HAND AND IN BANK	285,779.89
TOTAL ASSETS	$14,579,807.57
WE OWE 18,345 DEPOSITORS AND OVER 1,000 CLUB MEMBERS	13,235,832.50
SURPLUS AND PROFIT	$1,343,975.07

The Chelsea Savings Bank

FRANKLIN SQUARE NORWICH, CONNECTICUT

"THE BANK OF COMMUNITY SERVICE"

EXCURSIONS TO BLOCK ISLAND

STEAMER NELSECO II.

Daily Round Trips Between Norwich, New London and Block Island—June 25th to Sept. 9th. One way fare $1.50. Round trip on same day $2.00. Children under 12, half fare. Special rate excursions every Tuesday and Thursday, $1.50. Fare between Norwich and New London Only 35c.

Eastern Standard Time Schedule

TO BLOCK ISLAND	FROM BLOCK ISLAND
Lv. Norwich, 8:00 A. M., Mon. to Fri.	Due Norwich ..... 5:30 P. M.
Lv. Norwich.... 10 A. M., Sat. Only	Due Norwich ..... 7:30 P. M.
Lv. Norwich.. 9:15 A. M. Sun. Only	Due Norwich..... 6:30 P. M.

For Daylight Saving Time add one hour

SCHEDULE OF OPERATIONS IN EFFECT APRIL 26, 1925 (Standard Time) NORWICH—STATE LINE, WESTERLY, R. I.

Bus Terminal—Pawcatuck Bridge.

NICK MOONEY, Proprietor.

WESTERLY TO NORWICH

Miles	Fare	Leave	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.
0.0	$0.00	Westerly	7:15	10:15	2:15	5:15	8:15
5.0	0.25	North Stonington.	7:35	10:35	2:35	5:35	8:35
18.0	0.70	Norwich, Arrive ..	8:15	11:15	3:15	6:15	9:15

NORWICH TO WESTERLY

Bus Terminal—338 Main Street, Norwich

Miles	Fare	Leave	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.
0.0	$0.00	Norwich	8:30	11:30	3:30	6:30	9:30
13.0	0.45	North Stonington	9:10	12:10	4:10	7:10	10:10
18.0	0.70	Westerly, Arrive.	9:30	12:30	4:30	7:30	10:30

All Trips Connecting to and from Hartford-Colchester Buses. Telephones—Residence 4494; garage 4622, Westerly. Bus Terminal 2119, Norwich. Approved by Public Utilities Commission.

THE BOSTON STORE

THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY

NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Once Again—the School Bell—

ARE YOU READY?

Long before the school bell rings mother has been preparing, as only a mother knows how.

For every step of the way, from school togs to pencils, from sturdy hose to colorful ties, The Boston Store has prepared, with varieties truly noteworthy, with understanding which comes from years of experience.

To Correctly Tog Him Out For School Days

BOYS' TWO-PANTS SUITS

$9.00 to $19.50

New Models and Patterns for fall are here in Suits, well made and strongly reinforced where most needed. In all the popular fall shades, in light and dark effects, sizes 8 to 18 years. Some suits have one long and one short pants, others have one Golf and one pair of Knickers.

LARGE ASSORTMENT OF BOYS' SEPARATE PANTS—In fancy mixtures and corduroys—

$1.50 TO $3.00

BOYS' BLOUSES — Fine Percales, Madras and English Broadcloth, in all the wanted colors—Kaynee and Model makes—

75c TO $1.50

RUFFLED CURTAINS

$1.19 a Pair

Ruffled Voile Curtains, fine quality, hemstitched, complete with tie-back, 2¼ yards long—Special $1.19.

Marquisette Curtains

$1.00 a Pair

Lace Edge Marquisette Curtains, fine quality, hemstitched, complete with tie-back, 2¼ yards long, $1.00.

FLAT CURTAIN RODS

Brass Finish, 24 to 44 Extension

SINGLE RODS—Each 10c

DOUBLE RODS—Set 19c

The Smartest of Hats

FOR MISSES, 6 to 16

One tilting up in front reveals the childish eyes beneath, another upturned at the back, gives a glimpse of bobbing curls, still another is bell shaped. Every one in the most wanted colors—Priced

$1.98 to $4.95

Men's Furnishings

MEN'S SPRING NEEDLE KNIT UNION SUITS—Ecru color, short sleeves and ankle length, $1.00 value—Saturday only—2 for $1.00

MEN'S PURE SILK LION BRAND SOCKS—Seamed down the back, but plain foot, double heel and toe, plain colors and new shades, regular 75c—Saturday, Pair 59c

CHILDREN'S HOSIERY For School

CHILDREN'S BLACK CORDOVAN FINE RIBBED COTTON HOSE—Sizes 6 to 10—Pair... 19c

CHILDREN'S MERCERIZED DERBY RIBBED HOSE—In beaver, champ and cordovan—Pair.... 39c

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CORDOVAN BLACK MERCERIZED RIBBED HOSE—Double knee—Pair.... 50c

BOYS' ENGLISH WOOL SOCKS—Brown, oxford, sand $1.00

BOYS' COTTON MIXED SOCKS—Brown and gray mixed 45c

BOYS' MEDIUM WEIGHT RIBBED COTTON HOSE—In black, cordovan..... 50c

Last Day of the REMNANT SALE

This is a sale of the most unusual values offered at an opportune time for fall sewing. Hundreds of customers have taken advantage of the surprising cut in prices. We urge you to be on hand this last day of the sale if you wish to economize greatly.

CUBAN GOVERNMENT GRANTS PRIVILEGES TO U. S. TOURISTS

HAVANA, Sept. 4—(AP)—Citizens of the United States will receive the same privileges given Cuban citizens by the immigration authorities, under a recent department ruling.

The treasury department has exempted tourists and other travelers from payment of the one-quarter of one percent tax on money above $50 taken out of the country by travelers. Secretary of the Treasury Cartaya authorized steamship companies to issue identification cards to passengers which, on their leaving the country, absolves them from either making a statement as to the amount of money they are carrying or payment of the tax.

Irish Republicans May Not Vote

DUBLIN, Sept. 4—(AP)—Eamon De Valera and the Republican party executive committee have issued notice to party electors to abstain from voting or taking part in the Free state elections in September. At that time 19 members of the senate are to be elected.

Bulgaria Fights Profiteering

Bulgaria's minister of the interior Russeff has directed the chief commission of provisions to begin proceedings against fruit and vegetable merchants in half a dozen cities to compel them to sell their produce at a reasonable price. Complaints had been made that prices three times as large as they should be were being charged.

Wool Consumption Higher

Despite the decline in woolen and worsted machinery between June and July, more raw wool was consumed by manufacturers in this country in the latter month than in June, according to reports compiled by the department of Commerce, which show total of 40,780,856 bales (grease basis) consumed during July, against 38,176,337 in June, 1925, and 33,777,635 in July, 1924. Of the wool used by manufacturers in July, 48.3 per cent was of domestic origin.

U. S. Has Half of Telephones

Statistics compiled recently by the Southern California Telephone company show that the United States, with approximately 16,000,000 instruments, leads the world in telephone development. Of the world's telephones, 82 per cent are in the United States, 6 per cent in the countries of Europe and 11 per cent in countries of other continents.

"Where is your mother, Freddy?" asked his father.

"Oh, she's out in the back yard whittling," came the reply.

"Whittling! Why what do you mean?" queried the father.

"Well, she's trying to sharpen a pencil," explained the youthful observer.

If this Signature

E. W. Grove

is NOT on the Box, it is NOT

BROMO QUININE

IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

Fifty years ago this week William Burton was elected foreman of the Shetucket Steam Fire Engine company, with William Cramer as second assistant. The same week Charles Witter of Preston became principal of the Sachem street school which opened the fall term that week. As a whole the week was a rather quiet one in Norwich. Interesting extracts from the files of The Bulletin are as follows:

Monday, Aug. 30, 1875—Prof. Hutchison is expected home from Europe next week.

Very good peaches sold on the street Saturday for five cents a quart.

The Sachems of Norwich played a game of ball with the Actives of Norwich Town, on the green at the town, Saturday. The game resulted in favor of the Sachems, 23 to 7.

There will be a meeting of the street committee at the mayor's office this evening for the purpose of receiving suggestions from citizens, regarding the proposed changes in the names of streets in the annexed portions of the city, and to consider and act upon the same.

A gentleman on Broadway Saturday noticed a pigeon entangled in some string on a tree so that it could not extricate itself. A number of boys were throwing stones at it but the kind man rebuked them for their cruelty and drove them away. Then he got a ladder and tenderly took the frightened, fluttering little creature in his hand and the next day he observed that it made one of the best pigeon pies he ever had eaten.

We notice by the Sheffield, England, papers that Consul Webster, of this city, was among the select guests of the Cutlers banquet to the Prince and Princess of Wales, on the occasion of their recent visit to that city.

Tuesday, Aug. 31, 1875—The Sachem street school commenced its fall term yesterday. Charles Witter of Preston supersedes H. L. Gard as principal and Miss Elmira E. Eaton, one of its most popular teachers for six years after a respite the past year, resumed a connection with the school as assistant in the senior department.

A bed in a small house in Greeneville, owned by the Thames company and occupied by a family named Kearns, took fire last evening from a lamp. The fire was put out with a few palls of water, but the department turned out.

The privilege of furnishing refreshments at the next county fair was granted yesterday to Jacob Leyrer of Preston for $439,—$62 more than was paid last year.

Wednesday, Sept. 1, 1875—W. W. Kinne, the well known auctioneer, died suddenly yesterday. He sustained a paralytic stroke a few days ago, but rallied from it till within a few hours of his death. He was about 50 and had been engaged in business in Norwich for many years.

At a meeting of the Shetucket S. F. E. company No. 7, the following officers were elected for the year: William Burton, foreman; William J. Graham, first assistant; William Cramer, second assistant; John Bresnin, secretary; Stuart Murray, treasurer; William Bell, engineer; Edwin Smith, fireman; John Metzger, steward; John Cochran, John McWilliams, fire police.

Yesterday was an extremely warm day, the thermometer showing from 90 to 96 degrees in different parts of the city. There was little wind blowing and all fish was a burden.

Thursday, Sept. 2, 1875—Seth Conning, the baggage master on the Norwich and Worcester road, who was so badly burned a year ago, has sued the company for $25,000 damages. The writ which was served on one of the directors, comes from the office of General Butler.

The many friends of S. L. Leavitt will regret to learn that his retirement from business has been caused by ill health. Mr. Leavitt has been engaged in the drygoods and carpet trade in this city some four years and has proved one of the most obliging and successful merchants the city has known during that time. His successors, Messers. Simpson, Campbell and Watson, who open their stock to the public tomorrow, are gentlemen of experience and will undoubtedly receive the patronage formerly enjoyed by Leavitt and Ellis. Mr. Leavitt intends to go to the Pacific coast for his health.

The Point saloon at Greeneville, kept by Frank Halliday, was entered through a window some time Tuesday night, and several gallons of liquor stolen.

Friday, Sept. 3, 1875—The quarterly payments to United States pensioners begin tomorrow. Every soldier who has not lost an arm or a leg, must be examined by the examining surgeon. Dr. Elijah Dyer occupies the office for this district.

The annual fair and festival of the Mohegan Indians will be held at Mohegan next Wednesday and Thursday.

Edward Colgrove of Voluntown was attacked by a tramp, Tuesday night, who fired a revolver at him so close as to set fire to his clothes. A scuffle followed and the tramp ran into the woods and escaped.

The many friends of Mrs. John T. Clark who was thrown from a carriage a week ago will be glad to know that her condition is slowly improving.

The sidewalk on the east side of Williams Park is to be renewed and the park itself brushed up generally.

The peach trade shows no sign of falling off. Twenty carloads of peaches went over the N. Y. and N. E. road yesterday morning.

Saturday, Sept. 4, 1875—J. E. Woodward, for some time connected with the New Yoork boats, has returned to the line as clerk of the City of Norwich.

The sale of the celebrated patent purse-meter has been purchased by a few leading gentlemen of this city, who are ready to sell state and county rights.

The track at the fairground has been thoroughly repaired by Lyman Randall. It is in good condition now and every evening horsemen are on it trying their horses.

The work of setting up the organ for the Park church has commenced. During its progress, the regular Sabbath services will be held in the chapel, beginning with tomorrow.

It is said that the old railroad bridge over the Shetucket may in course of time be altered to one for foot and horse travel instead of being entirely removed.

SARGENT'S WORK WILL NOT DEPRECIATE, SAYS BRITON

LONDON, Sept. 4.—(AP)—It is sheer nonsense to suggest that the late John Singer Sargent's pictures will be worth less in a hundred years than they are today, Sir William Orpen, declared when told of a rumor that some of the pictures which fetched such high prices recently already showed signs of deterioration of modern pigments.

"Modern pigments are just as good, and certainly as durable, as those used by any of the old masters," continued Sir John. "A great deal of nonsense has been talked about those Sargent prices," he added. "Six thousand pounds is none too much to pay for a copy of a masterpiece, if Sargent was the copyist. I should have paid it myself if I had the money.

"After all, it is Sargent's interpretation of a great work, and it has a tremendous artistic interest on that account. It is not merely slavish imitation. I have not seen this particular work myself, but he has surely breathed something of his own spirit into it.

"He was not, however, like Manet, another great copyist. Manet used original works in the same way that a great pianist uses a theme on which to improvise. Sargent did not improvise. He merely interpreted. And I should like to see the same work copied by other masters, just as I would like to hear a dozen pianists play the same Beethoven sonata.

"As far as I know, this is the first sale at which a copy has fetched a high price. It will not be the last."

EMPRESS OF JAPAN TAKES CARE OF OWN SILK WORMS

TOKYO, Sept. 4.—The Empress is as much devoted to sericulture as are the numerous women of Japan's rural districts. There is a special cocoonery constructed in the palace compound and, since the beginning of this spring, the Empress has personally busied herself with taking care of the silk-worms and feeding them on mulberry leaves.

The transfer of the matured silkworms to the cocoon beds of the royal cocoonery will be made shortly and it is estimated that the cocoon yield this year will be not less than 50 bushels. By order of her Majesty the cocoons will be taken to the Tokyo Silk Reeling school to be converted into silk thread. When this is done the silk skeins will be sent to the Higher Technological school at Kyoto to be carefully women into Habutae. It is said that the Emperor now wears a kimono woven from this Habutae cloth which came from her Majesty's cocoonery.

Dog Cemetery Established

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 4.—(AP)—Dogs, whose deeds and loyalty have been immortalized in song and story, have been given a salient tribute in the establishment of a dog cemetery in a shady nook near here. It is said to be the second in the United States.

A score of former pets of residents already have been placed in graves in fenced plots with markers. There is provision for many others.

A session of congress requires from 200 to 400 gavels.

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOMS

ELKS.

At the meeting of Norwich lodge, No. 430, held at the Elks home on Thursday evening with exalted ruler Charles W. Cassidy presiding, a very interesting report of the grand lodge session was made by John E. Fitzgerald, P. E. R., who was the lodge's representative at the grand lodge at Portland, Oregon. The next grand lodge reunion will be in Chicago by which time the newly elected Grand Exalted Ruler, William H. Atwell of Dallas, Texas, hopes to see 150,000 new members added to the order. Each lodge is asked to do its part towards the accomplishment of this end.

Two new members were initiated at the meeting of Norwich lodge and a social session with three boxing bouts as the feature, closed the evening.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY

Norwich grange, No. 172, will hold its annual grange fair at the next regular meeting on Wednesday evening, September 9, and the committee in charge is working for a large list of entries and exhibits to make this event one of the attractions which it has always proved.

PYTHIAN SISTERS

Clover Temple, No. 9, held its regular meeting Thursday evening at the Buckingham Memorial with M. E. C., E. Grace Fowler in the chair.

Routine business was transacted and there was balloting for a candidate. Plans are being made for a sale and whist which is to be held at a later date.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY.

The first meeting of the fall of the R. E. Hourigan Auxiliary, V. F. W. was held Wednesday evening in the new post rooms on Main street, formerly the community club rooms, with the president, Mrs. Annie B. Turner, presiding.

Various routine business was transacted. It was decided to hold a food sale in the very near future so as to add funds to the treasury in order to continue the good work in aiding the disabled veterans.

GRAND ARMY.

John B. Inman of Springfield, Ill., past department commander of Illinois, was chosen commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. to succeed L. E. Arensberg of Pittsburgh, Pa., at the annual National encampment in Grand Rapids, Mich., this week. A two-thirds vote of delegates elected Mr. Inman over Bernard Kelley of Kansas.

Other officials elected were:

Oscar Gates of Michigan, senior vice commander-in-chief; William O. Allen of New Jersey, junior commander-in-chief; John McKinney of Indiana, chaplain-in-chief. Other officers were re-elected.

JUNIOR AMERICAN MECHANICS

Buckingham Council held its regular meeting Wednesday with Junior Past Councilor F. B. Schappee presiding and 40 members present. The state council is having its next meeting in New London Sept. 21 and 22. Every member from Buckingham council is to be present. There is to be a big delegation from about every city in the state. There is to be a parade and big feed, the evening of the 21st. The big meeting is the 22nd.

Buckingham Council has signed a lease of the old Cadillac hall, Roseland on Market street for two years. The Council will ocupy their new rooms the first of October.

The side issue of Dusty Knights of New London which was to hold its first meeting Sept. 5 has postponed the meeting to Oct. 3, when they will put on the work in full.

A. O. H. AUXILIARY

The regular meeting of Division, No. 54, Ladies' Auxiliary was held Wednesday evening, in the hall, 99 Main street, with Mrs. Julia Brock presiding and was largely attended.

A very interesting report of the state convention held in Bridgeport the 19th and 20th of August was read by the secretary Miss Catherine Coughlin.

It was decided to hold the county convention in this city the last of September.

Before adjournment, Mrs. Brock was presented a beautiful wrist watch in honor of the state office she received at the convention.

The presentation was graciously made by Mrs. Dingavin, a charter member of the auxiliary.

Although greatly surprised Mrs. Brock responded in a fitting manner and takes her office with the hearty co-operation of her members.

Proposition of two new members were read.

LONDON ERS TO WAGE WAR ON RECKLESS DRIVERS

LONDON, Sept. 4.—(AP)—In consequence of the increasing number of road traffic casualties, which have almost trebled in the past seven years, a "Pedestrians Protection Society" has been formed with the object of insuring its members against street accidents and to provide legal advice for them.

The society asserts that figures collected show cases of death and personal injury totalled 8,15 last year. It contends those accidents should decrease, and intends to take steps to prevent dangerous and reckless driving as well as to control the speed of motor vehicles in towns and villages.

Bulgarian Emigrants Duped

SOFIA, Sept. 4.—(AP)—A number of arrests were made recently in which the persons were charged with issuing fraudulent certificates of emigration for Bulgarians to enter the United States.

The Bulgarian emigrants, numbering 42 were stranded in Bremen where they were cared for by the Bulgarian Legation in Berlin. The legation has sent a request to Sofia for 600,000 leva for the care of the victims.

Ants as Communists

The human sluggard is told to go to the ant to learn industry. The human sociologist might be told to go to the ant to learn sociology, for the ants have carried one form of social life to a degree not yet nearly approached by any group of human beings. This is that form called communism. Perhaps we can learn from the ants whether we ever want to go as far as they have in the way of communism, at least this is the suggestion of Dr. Vernon Kellogg, secretary of the National Research Council in the current issue of The Scientific Monthly. Dr. Kellogg explains how with all the ants and with those kinds of bees and wasps which have adopted a communal life, there is an entire closing up of the life of the individual for the life of the community. Each worker ant or bee or wasp works not for himself but for the community. The worker collects food not for itself but for everybody. It has no children of its own; but it helps take care of the children of the community, which are all produced by the queens. Biologically, the communal insects are very successful. Their communities thrive; their species persist and increase. They live in all the lands of the earth except in extreme Arctic and Antarctic regions, and on the summits of lofty mountains, and their numbers probably exceed those of all other insects. They have often called the most successful of insect kinds. But are they happy? Nobody knows.

DATES AND GRAIN GROWN ON OASIS IN SAHARA

The Oasis of Adrar is in the western part of the Sahara Desert in North Africa, east of the Spanish possession of Rio de Oro, of which it formerly constituted a part. A considerable portion of its 30,000 square miles is fertile land on which dates and small grain. Ostriches are raised for their feathers and salt is mined. Due to its position on the caravan route of Morocco, it is of considerable commercial importance. The inhabitants are for the most part Berbers, says The Dearborn Independent.

An immense system of subterranean aqueducts, whose origin is lost in antiquity, supplies the oasis with water. Not even the legends of the most ancient native tribes contain a history of their beginning. Adrar lies at the bottom of a basin depression that a marvelous drainage system controls. With irrigation feeding the sun, smiling plains at a higher elevation. The natives with no better implements than rude scoops and picks have dug, at a depth of from 150 to 200 feet below the surface of the desert, spacious tunnels that extend for miles.

It rains but once in ten years at the seven points in the Sahara, and this meager rainfall is conserved by collecting the ground moisture from a great drainage of territory at Adrar.

Cuts Third Set of Teeth

Miss Carrie Reynolds, of Prattville, Ala., says The Birmingham Age-Herald, is now cutting a third set of teeth, having had her first and second set taken out several years ago, and for the last ten or twelve years she has used altogether false teeth.

But strange as it may appear she is now cutting a full set of teeth, many of them are "through" and the others are coming through from day to day. It is said that she is suffering sickness as babies usually suffer from cutting new teeth.

There are now 15,000 public high schools in America.

Children of Zoologists Wed

The names of two families noted in the zoological and animal world were united recently with the marriage of Hildegard Hagenbeck, daughter of the celebrated Hamburg animal collector, to Heinz Heck, son of the director of the Berlin Zoo. Both children were born in a zoological garden and both grew up among wild beasts.

Tree Protection Urged.

On subject are trees to being struck by lightning that the rodding of valuable trees to protect them from possible destruction is advised by the experts of the department of agriculture, says Popular Science Monthly.

Studies in various localities have shown that the oak is struck by lightning more often than other trees. Then elm, ash and poplar also are susceptible.

Bobby Has No Easy Task Defending His Title

Bobby Jones starts on August 31 to defend his National Amateur Golf championship title at the Oakmont Club, Pittsburgh. Bobby showed his real form in winning the title in 1924. It is figured that he will retain it, for taking into consideration his playing against Willie MacFarlane, at Worcester, where he lost the open golf title by an eyelash. Bobby has steadied down into one of the most formidable of America's players. He will have plenty of opposition in Quinet, of Boston; Marston, Platt, Corkran and Herron, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Jess W. Sweetser, Von Elm, of Salt Lake City, and a host of others.

New!
LUCKY STRIKE
IT'S TOASTED
CIGARETTES
IT'S TOASTED
To Win More Friends
50 Lucky Strikes
TAX FREE
We invite every smoker in this city to take advantage of this startling offer. We've told you about Lucky Strike superiority. Your friends have told you. Now know for yourself the value of the toasting process! We make this proposition to win more friends:
The regular price of a tin of 50 Lucky Strikes is 40c
We pay the Government Tax of 15c
You pay the dealer only 25c
Act quickly, as the dealer's allotment at this price is limited.
Get one tin [only one to a person] for home or for office.
The regular price will be in effect when the dealer's supply on this offer is sold.
Smoke these 50 Lucky Strikes. Then you'll know how the 45-minute toasting process adds to the flavor and improves the taste.
LUCKY STRIKE
The American Tobacco Co.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Today begins the last big summer holiday

One year ago today the U. S. globe-circling aviators landed at Mer Pulat, Maine.

A direct cable line from San Francisco to London is to be formally opened today.

The Fourth International Medical Congress of Industrial Accidents and Diseases opens today at Amsterdam.

The seventh annual reunion of the Society of the Thirty-seventh Division Veterans opens today in Cincinnati.

The Society of the Fifth Division, commonly called the Red Diamond Division, opens its annual reunion today in Chicago.

Vice President Dawes is scheduled to speak in Seattle today in advocacy of a revision of the rules of the U. S. senate.

Eminent scientists from all parts of the world have been invited to Leningrad today for the centenary celebration of the Russian Academy of Science.

The California Diamond Jubilee celebration, for which preparations have been making for many months, is to be formally opened tonight with a grand ball in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco.

SUNDAY

Annual observance of "Labor Sunday."

Eleventh anniversary of the battle of the Marne.

Twenty-fourth anniversary of the assassination of President McKinley.

The secretary of agriculture and Mrs. William M Jardine celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary today.

Jesse Pomeroy, serving a life sentence in Massachusetts State prison for murder, today begins his fiftieth year in confinement.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MAKE ENTRIES NOW FOR COUNTY FAIR CONTESTS

Entries for the Beautiful Girl Contest to be held at the Norwich Fair on Friday, Sept. 18th, should be made at 63 Broadway, Norwich, not later than Sept. 10th, by young women from 17 to 35 years of age who desire to compete for the ten big prizes, the first a free trip to Washington, D. S. This feature of the fair is certain to be a banner one and it is anticipated that many girls of this section of the state will avail themselves of the opportunity to entering the first beauty contest to be held in Norwich, thus paving a way for future conquests in state contests.

Entries for the decorated automobile parade scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 19th should also be made as quickly as possible in order that the committee may know how many to anticipate in the parade for the prize of $100 in gold. This event is open to societies clubs or individuals, in fact to anyone who has a car or a truck and wishes to compete in the parade.

The Dog Show entries should be made soon and all boys bring their pets to the fairgrounds by 9.30 o'clock Saturday morning will be admitted without charge. A strong collar and a leash are required for dogs entered in the show and the prize will be awarded in the afternoon by Mayor Milo R. Waters.

Entries for the Horse Shoe pitching contest on Saturday should be made to William A. Anderson, 63 Broadway as soon as possible. Entrance fee is $1.00 covering admission to the fair. Prizes are also offered in this event.

Entries for the Better Baby contest and Doll Carriage parade should also be in as quickly as possible to give notice to the committees to make preparation. Doctors and nurses will be in charge of the judging of the babies and babies up to two years of age are eligible to enter.

PALACE THEATRE

Egypt. The days of the glory of the Pharaohs. Such majesty and power and corrosive magnificence as exist only in those periods of history when one small class lives upon and is heedless of the blood and tears of tens of thousands of people held in subjection.

The Children of Israel in bondage, bereft of hope they toil in the desert, building walls and temples and pyramids. Faithful to their God despite the vindictive oppression of a ruler and a people who worship graven images, they finally see hope when Moses is raised up to plead for their liberation from slavery.

An old man in flowing robes gains audience with Rameses, but his pleas for justice do not avail, and as a last resort he pronounces—the curse of the death of the first-born. The old man is Moses, but his curse provokes laughter, and Pharaoh's young son lashes the prophet from the steps of the throne.

Is not Pharaoh's son himself of the race of gods?

Are not his golden sandals beaten from the crowns of conquered kings?

But in the night the angels of the Most High visit the plague upon Egypt, and when, the next morning, Pharaoh holds his first born dead in his arms, and hears the wailing of the mothers and fathers of his land, he orders the liberation of the Jews.

Moses leads the Children of Israel forth from the gates of the city of captivity. By the thousands they stream forth—men and women and children. Most of them are afoot, but here and there one rides an ass or a camel, and some of the aged and infirm are in litters. With them they take their goods and chattels, their cattle and their sheep and their goats. They are a liberated people on the march—a nation exalted with hope of the Promised Land and with the knowledge that the word of their prophets has come true.

Then Pharaoh suffers a change of heart, and orders his war chariots to start in pursuit of the Jews. The children of Israel are at the Red Sea and those who are wavering in their faith revile Moses, the leader. Death or captivity seem inevitable, but Moses prays, and then the Lord sends a pillar of fire to stop the charge of the Egyptians and at the same time divides the waters of the sea so that His Chosen People pass in safety and dryshod to the other shore.

The war chariots start in pursuit but the waters close over their heads.

"The Ten Commandments" will be featured at the Palace Theatre four days, beginning Sunday.

First Evangelical Lutheran Church

Sunday afternoon at 2.30, meeting of the church board, Wednesday, Sept 9th, meeting of the Ladies Aid Society at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Thursday, Sept. 10th at 7.30 in the evening, meeting of the Luther League. Friday evening Sept. 11th at 7.30, Choir rehearsal, Saturday, Sept. 12. First instruction of the confirmation class, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. Sunday Sept. 13th at 7.30, p. m. the first English evening service of the season will be held. A valuable English pupil bible, which was presented to us by a friend, will be dedicated in this service. Everybody welcome.

House Cat Nemesis of Snakes

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Sep. 4.—(AP)—James Beatty of Dickerson Run, near here, claims to have the champion snake-hunting cat of this section. Three times within the past several weeks the cat has brought to the house live snakes, which were killed by members of the family. The first was of the common garden variety, while the other two were black snakes.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breed Theatre

The story of how Weber and Fields, after successfully running their Music Hall as the most popular theatre in New York for many years, dissolved partnership, recalls what is still probably the most remarkable farewell performance in the entire history of the stage. The two comedians had, through sheer force of untiring effort, raised themselves from the rank of dime museum entertainers to the most popular team on the variety stage.

May 29, 1904, marked the final performance of "Whoop-dee-Dee" at the New Amsterdam Theatre in New York and the dissolving of the partnership of the famous team. As the Herald reviewer wrote on that occasion:

"A Broadway audience is not particularly sentimental but the tears that streaked the painted and powdered faces of the stage, were multiplied many times in the audience as "Auld Lang Syne" became the final musical number.

But Weber and Fields were destined to come together again and their recent vaudeville tour, interrupted by a break of three months during which time the team assumed the leading roles in George Melford's "Friendly Enemies" which comes to the Breed Theatre for a three day run starting Sunday, was a veritable riot throughout the country.

Weber and Fields are an institution in the American theatre. Their comic antics, their slapstick comedy, is as genuinely American as "ham and." From coast to coast the public sings their praise and waits with impatience for their numerous appearances in the Keith circuit of theatres.

Not often have they put aside their comedy lines to assume dramatic roles but those few occasions have always been successful.

They are now appearing in a screen version of one of the most popular Broadway successes produced during the war, "Friendly Enemies," and as the two German-Americans who are continually squabbling, they are superb. "Friendly Enemies" jealously guards the distinction of being commended as a splendid play by Woodrow Wilson, who was so moved by the production that he rose in the audience and publicly acclaimed it.

Broadway Theater

The Paramount picture, Grounds for Divorce, a Paul Bern production, which is the feature starting Sunday at the Broadway theater, proves that it is the first year—and not the first hundred—that is the hardest, when it applies to married life at any rate.

Grounds for Divorce was written for the screen by Violet Clark from Guy Bolton's adaptation of the play by Ernest Vadja, who wrote Fata Morgana, The Harem, etc.

The story is laid in France and has to do with a prominent divorce lawyer and his beautiful wife, who turns right around and divorces the "divorcer" when she thinks that he is not paying her the attention she deserves—she believes that he is entirely too interested in his career in general and a certain female client in particular.

Alice is free but a few months when she remarries—this time it is a well meaning but absolutely hopeless count, whom she accepts more out of sympathy than anything else. Where it took her a year to decide that she had made a mistake when she married her first husband, it is but a few hours before Alice discovers that her latest acquisition is a confirmed radio addict—that once he gets looking for DX there's no pulling him away—result, a second divorce, with the first husband acting as his ex-wife's attorney.

Unusual situation!—and a laughable one!

If you don't enjoy Grounds for Divorce, you're not human.

Florence Vidor, Matt Moore and Louise Fazenda are featured in the leading roles. Harry Myers (the Connecticut Yankee) heads the supporting cast as Miss Vidor's second husband.

An augumented orchestra is again featured with a good variety of shorts including Kinograms, comedy No Fooling and Hodge Podge Topsy Turvy Travel.

PAGEANT TO RECALL WESTERN TRAIL BLAZERS' EFFORTS

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 4.—(AP)—Descendants of pioneers who blazed a trail through the wilderness more than a century ago will take part in a pageant featuring the Lafayette-Tippecanoe centennial, September 27-30.

More than 3,000 persons will participate in the spectacle showing the growth and development of Lafayette, since its foundation by Robert Johnson, a tavern keeper. The battle of Tippecanoe, marking the breaking of Indian power in western Indiana, will be shown in pantomime. The celebrators also will honor the hero of Tippecanoe, William Henry Harrison, who later became president of the United States. Tippecanoe battlefield, now a state shrine, is but a few miles from here.

Lafayette was named after Marquis de Lafayette, the French nobleman, who aided the colonies during the Revolutionary war.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WNAC—Boston—280.3

6:30 P. M.—WNAC dinner dance, broadcast from Hotel Westminster—Hotel Westminster orchestra, direction Max I. Krulee.

8 P. M.—Broadcast from State Ballroom—State Ballroom orchestra, direction Lambert Brothers.

9:30 P. M.—Dance music, broadcast from Copley-Plaza Hotel—Copley-Plaza orchestra, direction W. Edward Boyle.

WJAR—Providence—305.9

1:05 P. M.—Studio program by the Harmony Five.

Silent Night.

WGTS—Worcester—268

12 M. to 2 P .M.—Noon day luncheon music by the WGTS Trio, under the direction of Mr. Benny Resh and broadcast direct from the sherer restaurant.

5:15 P. M.—The Twinkle-Twinkle story Teller.

5:30 P. M.—Baseball scores.

Silent night.

Sunday

WBZ—Springfield—333.1 Meters

3 P. M.—Program by Dorothy Curtis, pianist and Elmer Curtis, cornetist, broadcast from the Estey Organ studio.

8:30 P. M.—Organ music from the Estey Organ studio.

9 P. M.—Clarinet solo by A. Canata, assisted by Howard Slayman, pianist, Broadcast from the Estey studio.

KDKA—Pittsburgh—309 Meters

5, 5:30 and 6 P. M.—Baseball scores of the National and American leagues.

7 P. M.—Interdenominational service from the lawn of the Calvary Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh.

WEEI—Boston—348.6

7:20 P. M.—From New York, Major Bowes and His Capitol Theatre Gang.

9:15 P. M.—From New York, Musicale.

LABOR DISPUTES CAUSE LOSS OF MANY DAYS IN ENGLAND

DONDON, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Over 8,000,000 working days were lost during 1924 in England owing to labor disputes, which numbered 709 and involved 612,000 work people, says the Ministry of Labor Gazette. The annual loss of working time owing to industrial disputes during 32 years averaged 12,400,000 days, equivalent to less than one day per head of the whole employed population. During 1919-22 the figures were much above the average, but in 1923 and 1924 as well as the first six months of 1925 they have fallen to considerably less than an annual average of one day per head of the employed population.

In 1921 nearly 86,000,000 days were lost through disputes mostly in the coal trade.

The patent office in Washington still receives from 25 to 30 applications a year for patents on perpetual motion.

6 DAYS 6 NIGHTS
NEW CONNECTICUT
State Fair
HARTFORD
SEPT. 7-12.
—EXHIBITS—
Livestock—State Departments—Implements—Boys' and Girls' Clubs
—SHOWS—
Agricultural — Industrial — Flower—Auto
—RACES—
4 DAYS OF HARNESS
AUTOS SATURDAY
HORSE SHOW FRIDAY
FREE PARKING FOR AUTOS
SPECIAL R. R. EXCURSIONS.

Wildwood Park
DANCING TONIGHT
MUSIC BY MURPHY'S PARAMOUNT ORCHESTRA OF WORCESTER.

PALACE THEATRE
—TODAY—
5—SPLENDID ACTS—5
NANCY FAIR & CO.
Co-Star With Ernest Truex in Two Shows—Feature With Winter Garden—Passing Show Girl in The Limousine—Oh, What a Girl—No More Blondes—and Several Other Broadway Productions.
CARLSON SISTERS & FITZGERALD
In a Hodge Podge of Song, Melody and Dance
DARREL & HOWELL
A Barrel of Comedy
FULTON & MACK
A Novelty Offering
FRANK PARRISH
Musical Novelties
BEN WILSON in
HIS MAJESTY, THE OUTLAW
—GRAND OPENING—
Sunday Night
OF GREATER MOVIE SEASON
WATCH MONDAY'S PAPER FOR OUR NEW SEASON ANNOUNCEMENT.

BROADWAY | TODAY—Con. 2 to 10:30 MAT., CHILDREN 15c.
5—Splendid Vaudeville Acts—5
PHOTOPLAYS—DON'T MISS THE BEST SHOW IN TOWN
SUNDAY NIGHT
—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA—
With a Gay Comedy of Love, Lawyers and Lunatics
—With—
FLORENCE VIDOR
MATT MOORE
LOUISE FAZENDA
ADOLPH ZUKOR and JESSE L. LASKY present
GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE
—a—
PAUL BERN Production
a Paramount Picture
KINOGRAMS
COMEDY
HODGE PODGE
MONDAY — CONTINUOUS SHOW
AN EXCEPTIONAL HOLIDAY PROGRAM OF VAUDEVILLE AND PICTURES

—TODAY—
HARRY CAREY
—in—
"The Bad Lands"
BREED THEATRE
—TODAY—
Opening Chapter PLAY BALL
Comedy — News
SUNDAY—MONDAY—TUESDAY
FRIENDLY ENEMIES
With WEBER AND FIELDS
An adaptation of a brilliant Broadway stage success, featuring the world's funniest comedians and most lovable and popular personalities.
Sunshine Comedy—Topics—Up-to-the-Minute News

DANCE
TONIGHT
Lakeside Casino
SOUTH COVENTRY LAKE
Lakeside Orchestra
Best and Coolest Dance Floor

MOOSUP POND DANCE TONIGHT.
DANCE EVERY WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT.
IDEAL NOVELTY ORCHESTRA.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

BOYS and DOGS
Every Boy who owns a dog of any kind and will bring it to the FAIRGROUNDS before 9.30 A. M., Saturday, Sept. 19, will be admitted to the Fair free and may enter his pet in the Mutt dog show for prizes. Every animal must have a strong collar and heavy leash. Dogs will be benched at 10 o'clock and grand prize awarded by His Honor, Mayor Waters, at 3 P. M.

Automobile Pageant
Societies, Clubs, Business Houses, Individuals—Everybody! Should enter the Beautiful Automobile Pageant to be held SATURDAY, SEPT. 19th, at 1.30 P. M., on the FAIRGROUNDS. The committee must know now how many to prepare for. Call up 2424 or send word to the Superintendent today that you intend entering.
FIRST PRIZE—$100.00 IN GOLD.
Prizes Subject to Scale Based on 50 Cars.

FREE TRIP
—TO—
Washington, D. C.
All young ladies intending to enter the BEAUTIFUL GIRL CONTEST at the Norwich Fair, must send in their entries before Sept. 10. ADDRESS—63 BROADWAY, NORWICH, CONN.

BARNYARD GOLF
The first Annual Horseshoe Throwing Contest at the Norwich Fair will take place Saturday, Sept. 19th, beginning at 9 A. M. Entrance Fee, including admission to the Fair, $1.00. Notify W. A. ANDERSON, 63 BROADWAY, NORWICH, at once if you intend entering.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Greatest Dramatic Spectacle of all The Ages-
ADOLPH ZUKOR
JESSE L. LASKY
PRESENT
CECIL B. DE MILLE'S
"THE TEN COMMANDMENTS"

Story by JEANIE MACPHERSON
From the splendors and orgies of the Pharaohs to the humor and tragedy of this jazz-mad age —
A Paramount Picture
Palace Theatre
Four Days—Sun., Mon., Tues., Wed.
September 6, 7, 8, 9
PRICES—Evenings; Adults, 50c First Balcony, 75c. Children 25c when accompanied by an adult. Matinee: Adults, 35c; Children, 25c. Sunday Night Show Starts 8:00 (D. S. T.). Feature Starts 8:20. Doors Open 7:30.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

MURTHA—In Hallville, Sept. 2, 1925, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Murtha, of Hallville.

JACOBSON—In Norwich, Sept. 2, 1925, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobson, of 120 Routh street.

SCANLON—In New London, Sept. 2, 1925, twin daughters to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Scanlon.

MADIGAN—In New London, Sept. 3, 1925, a son to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Madigan.

PALMER—In Hope Valley, R. I., Aug. 31, 1925, a daughter Kathleen Verna, to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred A. Palmer.

SEYMOUR—In Pawcatuck (Stonington) Aug. 31, 1925, a son, Amos Charles, to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Seymour.

MANDELL—In Westerly, R. I., Sept. 3, 1925, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Mandell.

MARRIED

WASHBURN-HAGSTROM—In Niantic, Aug. 17, 1925 by Rev. J. Edgar Montgomery, R. B. S. Washburn of Norwich and Mrs. Annie Hill Hagstrom, of Niantic, Ct.

STAPLES-MACKAY—In Brooklyn, N. Y., August 27, 1923, at the church of St. Simon and St. Jude, by Rev. Peter L. Richard, James J. Staples of Brooklyn and Mrs. Kathleen E. Mackay of Westerly, R. I.

WINSOR-CLELAND—In Plainfield, Ct., Sept. 3rd, 1925, by Rev. William C. Prentiss., Milton Everett Winsor and Miss Vivian Frances Cleland.

DIED

HAMMELL—In New London, Sept. 4, 1925, Mary, widow of Edward Hammell.

SULLIVAN—In New London, Sept. 4, 1925, Joseph P. Sullivan, aged 28 years.

BOURDEAU—In Stonington (Pawcatuck) Aug. 4, 1925, Jeremiah Bourdeau, aged 75 years.

WATROUS—In Westerly, R. I., Sept. 3, 1925, Samuel Dickens Watrous.

MACGREGOR—In Stonington, Aug. 27, 1925, Mrs. Janet R. MacGregor, aged 80 years.

SMITH—In Mystic, Sept. 2, 1925, Mrs. Farrell Smith, aged 53 years.

LANE—At New London, Sept. 2, 1925, Ellen M., widow of William P. Lane, aged 81 years.

SARGENT—At Clinton, Ct., Sept. 4, 1925, Amy, wife of Frank A. Sargent, formerly of New London.

HALEY—In Old Mystic, Sept. 2, 1925, Andrew Haley, aged 56 years.

BATES—In Windham, suddenly, Sept. 4th, 1925, Benoni Bates, a native of Coventry, R. I., aged 81.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation for the many kind acts of sympathy shown us during the illness and following the death of Miss Bertha Ella Slater, also to thank those who kindly send floral remembrances to the funeral. These acts of kindness will ever remain a cherished memory.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BICKNELL.

FUNERALS

JODOIN—In Baltic, Sept. 3, 1925, Raymond J. Jodoin, aged 61 years. Funeral from his late home, High St., Baltic, Monday, Sept. 7th at 9.30 a. m. (s. t). Requiem high mass at Immaculate Conception church at 10 o'clock (s. t.). Burial in St. Mary's cemetery, Baltic.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
322 Main Street.
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2.

DANIELSON

Martin T. Burns
Undertaker, Funeral Director
SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT
ACADEMY ST., DANIELSON
TELEPHONE 283

ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director and Embalmer
PHONE 147 DANIELSON

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290. Lady Assistant.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Good farm with buildings between Norwich and Colchester. Write Box H. C. R. Bulletin. sept4th

SELL GREETING CARDS—Christmas line now ready. Write for illustrated folder. The Charles H. Fischer Co., New Haven, Conn. sep5d

MAKE $1,000 before Christmas taking orders for our distinctive line of personal Christmas cards. New. Individual. Everybody a prospect. Selling outfit free. Write now. Wetmore, Janes & Sugden, Rochester, N. Y. sep5d

AGENTS—Write for free samples. Sell Madison "Better-Made" Shirts for large manufacturer direct to wearer. No capital or experience required. Many earn $100 weekly and bonus. Madison Mills, 562 Broadway, New York. sep5d

AMAZING PROFITS through new methods. Big line stylish guaranteed shirts 3 for $4.95. Sell on sight. Complete outfit absolutely free. Cash earnings in advance. We deliver and collect. Inexperienced make big money. Experienced double earnings either as main or side line. Write quick. Fashion Wear Shirts, Dept. B300, Cincinnati. sep5d

I NEED AN AGENT to sell my candies, chocolate bars, mints and gum; large profits; experience unnecessary; free samples. Write today. Milton Gordon, Cincinnati. sep5d

LONELY little widow, tired living alone, very wealthy; I dare you write: M. U. Club, Box 305 (75), San Francisco, Calif. sep5s

CATHOLICS WISHING TO MARRY, wanting introductions, write C. C. Club, Grand Rapids, Mich. sep5d

MARRY—Lonely hearts, join our club; we have a companion for you; many worth from $5,000 to $50,000; descriptions, photos, introductions free; send no money. Standard Corr. Club, Grayslake, Ill. sep5d

LEADING CLUB, largest, most reliable for lonely people, confidential descriptions free in plain sealed envelope; thousands wealthy members; if sincere, write; established 20 years. Mrs. Matthews, Box 26, Oakland, Calif. sep5d

CHARMING YOUNG WIDOW, worth $38,000, lonely, will marry. (Eva), B-1022, Wichita, Kansas. sep5d

GET PAY EVERY DAY—Distribute 150 necessary products to established users; extracts, soaps, food products, etc. World's largest Co. will back you with surprising plan. Write J. R. Watkins Co., Dept. J-7, Boston, Mass. sep5d

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 389, Norwich. Phone 361-12, Norwich; 506, Willimantic. TuThSmay16

LONESOME?—Make desirable friends everywhere; join oldest, largest, most successful club; stamp. Elsa Thorpe, Box 43, Ridgewood Station, Brooklyn, N. Y. fri18

EXCHANGE LETTERS, make new friends; private introductions; particulars free. Ladies and gentlemen, write Good Fellowship Club, Reading, Pa. jy18s

WANTED—Vaults and cesspools to clean. H. L. Harris, R. F. D. 1, Box 138. apr3d

DO YOU WISH TO BUY, sell or exchange your farm, home or business? Terms if desired. Loans negotiated. Geo L. Briggs, Lebanon, Conn. aug29d

WANTED—An upright piano or player. Please give description, condition, age and price wanted. Will pay cash and pay cartage. No dealers. Box 500, care Bulletin. sept4th

WANTED—Children to board from 1 to 7 years old, for terms, address Mrs. Bierrie, Stafford Springs, Conn. sept4th

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward. Box 389, Norwich. Phone 361-12 Norwich. 506 Willimantic. mar7TuW

MACHINE SHOP WORK. We have a quantity of metal parts to be manufactured and would be glad to let contracts to machine shops capable of doing the work. Sea Sled Corporation, West Mystic, Conn. sept3d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner. 102 Franklin St. Phone 559. sept1d

WANTED—Antiques, tools and second hand furniture. H. B. Tiger, 48-50 Water St. Tel. 2143. sept1d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward, 16 Water St., Tel. 24 sept1d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Welsinger, 22 Market St. Phone 2158. sept1d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves; highest prices paid. Call 1405. sept1d

WANTED—Position by teacher. References. Write Box D27 Bulletin. aug29d

WANTED—The public to know that the Norwich Town cider mill is open for business. W. D. Thatcher, 43 Tanner St., Norwich Town. aug26d

A boy in Lebanon sez he don't believe that sayin' "eat an apple a day to keep the doctor away"; he sez he et 12 green ones and the doctor cum evryday. Van Der Meer Mild cigars, 3 for 20c. Heimar cigaretts, 20 for 20c, a 50c pipe and 16 oz. tin of Tuxedo, all for $1.00. Fagan's Smoke Shop. aug26d

WANTED—Land on state road with or without buildings. Unimproved property will be considered if price is reasonable. Apply to A. C. Burdick, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug13dtf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 6 Bath St. Tel. 2463. nov3'd

FLORIDA PROPERTY WANTED—Acreage Lots, Etc., direct from owner; give location, description, lowest price, terms; quick transaction. P. O. Box 364, Springfield, Mass. jy22dtf

WANTED—Property owners to know that under my new real estate system I will buy your property direct or will sell for you on a commission basis. For particulars write Wm. M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. june3d

SWEETHEARTS CLUB
Stamped envelope for proposal.
The Lily Club, Station H, Cleveland, O.

WANTED

BOARD FOR A FAMILY OF THREE, WITH AMERICAN PEOPLE, LOCATED IN OR NEAR NORWICH. PHONE BULLETIN OFFICE, LEAVE NAME AND ADDRESS. R. M. L.

MANUFACTURER
of Famous "Well Finished" Children's Dresses and Boys' Suits, now selling direct. No capital or experience required. Merely show our line of over 100 exclusive styles and take orders. Collect your profit immediately. This is positively the easiest selling line on the market. Every customer recommends another. Complete selling outfit free. Exclusive territory to those that mean strictly business. Write William Freedman, 560 Broadway, New York. sep5d

WANTED!

Watches, Wrist Watches, Clocks of any makes; also all kinds of Jewelry to repair. Work guaranteed and done at once at the lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Write or telephone 2146.

OGULNICK JEWELRY CO.
77 Franklin St., Norwich, Conn.
(Est. 1907.)

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Beautiful new two-family house, 6 an 7 rooms, all improvements, hardwood finishing, reasonable price, easy terms, rent basis. Phone 311, 341 West Thames Street. sept5th

FOR SALE—9 wks. old pigs. 72 Elijah St., Greeneville. sept5th

FOR SALE—A very fine Hallett & Davis piano in perfect condition; will sell very reasonable. Also several talking machines of leading makes, at half price. Easy terms if desired. Schwartz Bros., Inc. 76-82 Main St., Norwich. ThSatTjune11

FOR SALE—Sand, gravel, stone and loam. O. H. Main. Phone 489. sept1d

FOR SALE—Parlor stove and baby crib. Inquire 351 East Main St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Brand new Victrolas, $25 model $12.50; $35 model $17.50; $50 model $25; $75 model $37.50; $110 model $55; $150 model $75. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Radiola III $17.50; Radiola III A $31.00; Ware 3 Tube Neutrodyne $35; Chelsea 5 Tube Tuned Radio Frequency Sets, $37.50. Many others at bargain prices. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Crosley Triadyn radio set, complete with tubes, storage battery, B batteries, head phones, loud speaker and aerial installation $85.00. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—Cote 88 note player piano, golden oak case. $145. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—An upright New England piano in good condition. A nice piano to start a child on lessons, $69 on easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. sept4th

FOR SALE—8 room house and garage including 1 1-2 acres or more of land suitable for chicken place. 1-2 mile from depot on the old Canterbury turnpike. Inquire for Mrs. Rose Ouillette, Plainfield, Ct., Tel. 27-13. sept5th

GOOD UPRIGHT PIANO—Well known make in first class condition with splendid tone. Your own terms. Price only $159. Plaut-Cadden Co., 125 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—$6500 buys one two family house and one cottage of 6 rooms, with all improvements on the best locations of the city, good income. Write Box 99-B, Bulletin Office. sep3

GULBRANSEN PLAYER-88 note. Can be bought for $179 on terms. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—8 piece dining room set, white iron bed, rugs, chairs, tables, oil stove, couch. (No dealers). R. H. Jephson, Andover, Conn. Tel. 202-3. sept3d

UPRIGHT PIANO $83—A high grade New England made piano with good lokoing well finished case and excellent tone. Terms as desired. Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. sept3d

FOR SALE—New bungalow, 5 rooms and bath, with six lots of land. Thamesville section. Price $4,000. Inquire 350 W Thames street. sept3d

FOR SALE—Farm known as the Conlon Place, located one mile from Baltic consisting of 42 acres land with fair house and barn. Price $2500. William M McNicol, Maynard Building, Jewett City. sept2d

FOR SALE—Farm of 100 acres; 12-room house; good barns with or without stock and farming implements. Also, 5-room cottage with 9 acres. Lot at Groton Long Point. No phone calls Inquire Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Scotts Windham, Conn. tfaug18d

FOR SALE—140 acre farm on State road with an exceptionally good farm house, located in one of the most picturesque sections of Eastern Connecticut. Owner really wants to sell. Price for immediate sale based accordingly. William M. McNicol, Maynard Building Jewett City, Conn. sept2d

120—COWS—120
Large Assortment of Fresh Cows from New York and Vermont.
JAMES H. HYDE
North Franklin, Conn.
Telephone Lebanon 30.

FOR SALE
MODERN TWO-APARTMENT HOUSE
With Two-Car Garage; desirably located on Laurel Hill Ave., within five minutes walk from Franklin Square.
For Further Particulars Inquire Of
JOHN A. MORAN
Real Estate Broker

FOR SALE
THE NEW TONGREN 7-ROOM COTTAGE, No. 3 JULIAN ST.
Modern and complete in every way.
Large One-car Garage.
Inspection Invited.
James L. Case
REAL ESTATE DEPT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE.
AT A SACRIFICE.
ATTRACTIVE BUNGALOW
Six rooms, bath and garage, large lot, modern in every way. Also complete house furnishings. Owner leaving town; will make sacrifice for quick sale. Apply to L. J. BRUETTE, 55 River Avenue.

Private Sale

Household Goods Consisting of tables, chairs, beds, china, kitchen range, feather pillows and square piano at 23 Coit street—
Sale Monday and Tuesday at 10 o'clock sharp.

300 ACRE FARM
BORDERING TIDE WATER
Situated near Mystic, Conn. 100 acres stone free, 100 acres pasture and 100 acres heavy timber land; 12-room house, improvements, large barn, 60 stanchions; fruit and berries in abundance.
WILLIAM A. WILCOX
Tel. 2385. Westerly, R. I.
Choice of 400.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, gladiolus, asters, straw flowers, dahlias, etc., 50c Lunch, 39 Osceo St., Phone 1468-3. aug26d

POLICE PUPPIES—Highly pedigreed; ideal farm dogs, playmates for children; come visit the largest German Shepherd Dog Kennels in the world. Phone or write. Palisade Kennels, East Killingly, Conn. sept4th

FOR SALE—Cider apples. Phone 1552-13. sept4th

STOVE PARTS for all makes of stoves We are the best equipped place for stove parts in New London. B. Kaplan, 90 Bank St. sept4th

FOR SALE—40 bushels of Dutchess pears for table or canning. T. H. Ward, Lebanon Station, Phone 21-14. sept4th

FOR SALE—Nine-room house and garage, at a low price; in best part of Norwich. Immediate possession. Phone 1131. sept4th

FOR SALE—8 room cottage, first class condition, all improvements, including new steam heater. On trolley line. Will be sold cheap. If interested call 385-12. sept3d

FOR SALE—Confectionery store, good business and the mill running full time, best stand. Apply Plainfield, Box 427. sept2d

FOR SALE—White poodle puppies, just the thing to keep the baby quiet. Cheap. Apply at 35 Thames St., upstairs. sept2d

FOR SALE—Shepherd police dog puppies and grown stock, pure bred, registered dogs. Prices are reasonable. Cedar Ledge Police Dog Kennels, Stonington, Conn. Westerly road. sept2d

FOR SALE—3 tenement house and garage, with improvements, big lot. 21 Ripley Place. Call after 5 p. m., 70 Boswell avenue. sept1d

FOR SALE—Vermont cows, new milch and springers. Fred W. Hoxie, Norto Franklin. Tel 53-3 Lebanon. aug31d

VICTROLAS HALF PRICE—Brand new, fully guaranteed. When these are gone there will be no more. Don't delay. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. aug25d

PALISADE POLICE DOGS are a special strain of pedigreed dogs, highly developed for the all-around purposes of house guards, automobile companions, children's playmates, women's protectors and men's pals; as German Shepherd dogs they are especially suited for farm, cattle drivers and sheep herders. Exclusively bred by the world's largest Police Dog Kennels. Four miles from Danielson, near Providence pike. Palisade Kennels East Killingly, Conn. augldtf

FOR SALE—A small farm with good buildings and about 20 acres of land on state road, near Norwich. This property is in a class which is in much demand at present and will no doubt change ownership within the next few days. Investigate at once if interested in a very desirable country home. A. C. Burdick, Real Estate Broker, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug4d

FOR SALE—A 9-room house, garage and house and garden, near car line; also house for rent Backus Hospital, car every 15 minutes; and 6-room summer cottage at Lord's Point; all furnished. Adams Tavern, Phone 1062-2. jy23dtf

FOR SALE

Gasoline engine, silo cutter and team wagon in good condition.
JOE KOMINSKI
R. F. D. 4 — Norwich

FOR SALE

The dwelling house, 2 barns, various useful out-buildings and 13 acres of good land known as the Martin Place and is located in Lebanon Center on the highway from Lebanon Village to Willimantic. The house is on a picturesque site and has a beautiful and extensive view of the surrounding country and is about five miles from Willimantic and eleven miles from Norwich over good roads. The property is in a good neighborhood convenient to churches district and high schools. The property is regarded by all persons as a very attractive and charming home place. The price is low and terms of payment will be made convenient to buyer. For all information apply to

WILLIAM H. SHIELDS of Norwich,
Or To
GEORGE E. MARTIN,
Lebanon Center, Conn.

FOR SALE

BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME
In finest residential section; 8 rooms, all latest improvements. Tiled bath superb floors, extra toilet and lavatory, large sun room. House has many novel and up-to-date features seldom seen in homes costing under $25,000. Price most reasonable for such a fine residence.
Archa W. Coit
Telephone 2288-2. Disco Building.

FARM FOR SALE.
WITH STOCK & TOOLS
The Farm of the late Elizabeth McCarthy, located in Town of Franklin on Baltic road, and two miles from Baltic village, containing 30 acres good land mostly tillable. There is a 10 acre wood lot, Six room house, two barns, garage, henhouse, all buildings in good repair, about 75 fruit trees on place mostly bearing ones. This farm is ideally located and on good road and near to industries. Can give immediate possession of farm with Stock and Tools, with two barns full of hay. Price $4200.—for particulars inquire:
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block, Norwich.
Phone.

FOR SALE FOR SALE
A two family house of 12 rooms outside city with 50 acres land plenty of wood. Owner leaving town. Large barn included, electric light and improvements, all for $5500.
NORWICH LAND TITLE & INS. CO.
TEL. 2279.

FOR SALE.
Six-room Cottage, all improvements, at 80 Warren street. Low price for immediate sale.
J. A. CUNNINGHAM
THAYER BUILDING.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Tenement five rooms, improvements. 9 Elm St., also one at 30 Cliff St. sept5th

TO RENT—Furnished rooms, light housekeeping. 70 Oak St. sept5th

TO RENT—One 5 and one 6 room apartment at 310 Main St., all improvements, including heat. sept5th

TO RENT—6 room tenement, modern improvements. 14 Orchard St., Inquire 54 Division St. sept5th

TO RENT—Tenement of 7 rooms with all improvements. Reasonable price. 324 West Main St. sept5th

TO RENT—2 small furnished apartments. Mrs. Congdon, 82 McKinley Ave. sept5th

TO RENT—Flat in Breed building. Inquire of N. E. and M. C. Lucas. Tel. 686, before 10 a. m. sept5th

TO RENT—Three rooms and bath reasonable. 305 Main St. sep5d

TO RENT—Tenement, 7 rooms, new improvements. 64 Roosevelt Ave. sep5d

TO RENT—Three or four rooms, to small family; not furnished; heat and light; also garage. 168 Laurel Hill Ave. sep5d

TO RENT—2 small furnished apartments, Mr. Congdon, 82 McKinley Ave. sept3d

TO RENT—7 room apartment on Raymond Place. tfmar25d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms, 3 North Main street. sept1th

TO RENT—5 rooms, improvements, also garage. Tel 2661-W. Mrs. James Hewitt, Laurell Hill. sept4th

FOR RENT—5 room flat with bath and electric light, hard wood floor, set tubs. Located 420 East Main St., Price $35. Inquire A. V. Covello, 198 Cliff St., Tel. 1093-3. sept4th

TO RENT—Tenement with four rooms, gas and electricity. 47 5th St., Norwich, Conn. sept4th

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, 123 Oakridge St. Garage. sept3d

FOR RENT—4 room tenement or light housekeeping rooms. 6 Carter ave., Carl Bellicchi, Phone 2468. sept3d

TO RENT—Ground floor tenement of five rooms with electric lights and gas. Adults only. Mrs. Carrie L. Pierson, 327 W Main St. sept3d

TO RENT—New tenement, 6 rooms and bath, all improvements. 248 West Thames St. Inquire 250 W. Thames. Rent very low. sept3d

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms, at 12 Yerrington avenue, sept3d

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished apartment of seven rooms. Near Chelsea Parade Write Box C-70, Bulletin. sept1d

TO RENT—Furnished house in fine location, modern. Address M. J. K., Bulletin Office. sept1d

TO RENT—Very attractive three room flat; all improvements, steam heat. Inquire 259 West Main St. sept3d

TO RENT—One light housekeeping room, 1 furnished room, 41 Boswell ave. Tel. 142. aug31d

TO RENT—Tenement, six rooms. 253 Laurel Hill avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Three room tenement, inquire 27 McKinley avenue. aug27d

TO RENT—Oct. 1, to family of adults, 7 room cottage, modern improvements 21 Oak St., Call 1454, 7 to 9 p. m. aug27d

TO RENT—Steam heated, 6 room apartment at 35 Washington St., all modern, rent reasonable. Phone 1132-12. aug26d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all improvements; also hard wood floors; 330 Franklin St. Inquire 324 Franklin St. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Three or four rooms, not furnished; also garage. 168 Laurel Hill Ave. tfaug18d

TO RENT—Two or three furnished rooms, light housekeeping. Phone 1349 tfaug15d

TO RENT—At 49 Washington St., a 5-room apartment. Inquire Gilbert Bowers, 130 Washington St. Phone 1132-2. aug15dtf

TO RENT—Apartments furnished for light housekeeping; all modern improvements. 27 Division St. ag12dtf

TO RENT—13-room apartment, 48 Church St. Inquire Charles W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. je26tf

TO RENT—Attractive 8-room cottage with garage; modern. Phone 759. jy22dtf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, all conveniences; garden, fruit and garage; near school. Phone mornings, 1463. aug4d

TO RENT—Five-story brick building with freight elevator; suitable for wholesale business or storage. Tel. 1495. aug3d

TO RENT—If a desirable and permanent home is wanted. 7-room apartment in the Steiner Mansion, 77 Church St., or one at 172 Broadway. Rent reasonable. aug1dtf

TO RENT—Tenements, all improvements. 44 Laurel Hill Ave. ly20dtf

TO RENT—Five rooms, all improvements, including heat; with or without garage. Inquire 310 West Main St., from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. jul11tf

TO RENT—Tenements in Greeneville and Franklyn St. inquire at Goldblatt's Shoe Store, 46 Franklin St. Phone 717-4 may26d

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Choice dahlia blooms, 50c per dozen, at Sunnyside Dahlia Farm, Stonington Road, R. I. Mrs. Ralph W. Gallup. sep5d

FOR SALE—Rooming house for sale, cheap and a 6 room cottage, Laurel Hill, also several building lots. Burton. Tel 1125. aug29d

CANARIES FOR SALE. Also cages and supplies at Anthony's Bird Store, 139 Central avenue, Tel. 2454-3. sept2d

FOR SALE.

Eight-room house and garage for two cars, delightfully located on Lincoln Avenue. For information inquire of Thos. H. Beckley
Exclusive Agent.
278 MAIN STREET - PHONES

Do you want to rent a well located, stocked and equipped farm where the owner is more interested in having the place well farmed than the amount of rent obtained. Write or call for further particulars.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE—Horses

FOR SALE—One horse, either saddle or driving. Price $50. One general purpose horse. Also Federal tuberculin tested cows. Franklin Orcutt, South Coventry, Conn., Tel. Manchester 1064-3. sept5d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

ARTESIAN WELLS

Water! Water!! Water!!!
Do not have your well drilled until you see Trask. We have machine at North Stonington.
TRASK ARTESIAN WELL CO.
Portsmouth, R. I.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OLD CARS BOUGHT in any condition
HODES BROS.
Corner West Main and Mt. Pleasant
Telephone 1391
Automobile parts at one-half price
apr20d

STAR GARAGE
"Make Your Dollar Have More Cents"
42 cars wrecked within two weeks. Surused parts at half price. Phone 19o Plainfield, Conn.

TIRE REPAIRING, batteries charged and repaired, rental batteries, vulcanizing, old autos purchased for wrecking, auto parts for sale, county agents for Zev tires. A. Prouix, Evans block, Danielson, Conn. je25d

LUMIS & BENNETT, 191 North Main St.—General Auto Repairing. Free Brake Inspection. Get our price on brake relining. Phone 646.

Battery Service

The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.

Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK

OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

Now is the time to have the radiator put in A-1 shape for spring work. HERE is the place to have it done. We remove scale, sediment, and rust; we stop PERMANENTLY those leaks. We straighten the weak spots against vibration.
We recore or repair ANY TYPE of STYLE.
W. E. SHANLEY
499 MAIN STREET.

THE ROAD HOG
is responsible for a good many dents and jams in cars. If you are one of his victims and the body of your car is dented, fenders bent, lamps crushed, etc., see us. We will straighten and repair these defects and give your car the appearance of having just left the factory.
NORWICH AUTO RADIATOR WORKS 375 Main St. Street

ROOFING

Roll Roofing, $1.00 Per Roll
Slate Surfaced, $2.00 Per Roll
C. A. Ransom, 527 Concord Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Dept. M.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

CATERER

MRS. RICHARD BERKOFF
CATERER.
WEDDING AND DINNER PARTIES RECEPTIONS
Phone 1098-2
18 Fourteenth Street.

CIGARS
Whitestone Cigars are $70 per thousand. S. F. CONANT, 11 Franklin St.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist, Foot Specialist (protect your feet) Suite 7-8, Alice Bldg., 321 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Phone 735 nov18d

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

T. R. TONGREN
Contractor and Builder
Estimates Cheerfully Given
Phone

IVAR JOHNSON
Carpenter and Contractor. Floor laying and surfacing a specialty. Old floors resurfaced like new. Estimates given. Phone 1162-2. aug27d

AMBROSE SULLIVAN
Telephone 2808-5
We give estimates on Concrete Foundations and Cellars

PUKALLUS
BUILDER

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard sawed wood. Tel 489. jy25dtf

WOOD—Best quality hard wood and slabs. Tel. 615-4 H. S. Beard & Son. jan31d

COAL, SEASONED WOOD and kindlings delivered anywhere in baskets for $1.00. Phone 729 Park Wood Yard, 301 Franklin St. 35d

COAL. Seasoned Wood and Kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere Phone 504 or 1252-4 | R. Shapiro, Willow St. nov22d

FOUNDRY

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
—Also—
Pattern Making and Machine Work.
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity.
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.
NEW LONDON, CONN.
Tel. 1120.

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
28 Shetucket Street
Insurance of All Kinds

ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE
HAROLD S. BURT
120 LAUREL HILL AVENUE
PHONE 2121.

P. H. KENYON, General Agent.
GEO. N. DELAP, Special Agent.
JAS. L. FOORD, Special Agent.
A. N. PREMO Special Agent.
Hartford, Conn.
New York, New Haven

WHO PAYS WHEN YOU have auto accident?
YOU DO
Unless insured. Let us insure you and cease those sleepless nights.
Complete Protection.
No waiting for our adjustor.
No assessment clauses in our policies.
B. P. Learned & Co.
(Est. May 1846.)

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let
Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS

THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE

We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.

New England Equity Corp.

Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 54 Franklin Street.

PAINTING AND PAPERHANGING

GENERAL PAINTING and Paperhanging. Phone 2368-12. D. Sudlik. je21d

GEORGE NADOLNY, painting, paperhanging; estimates given. 49 Maple St. Tel. dec24d

TRUCKING

BROADWAY TRANSFER
Transfers Everything
1257-2—PHONE—377-23
Long Distance Moving and Expressing
Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1241

C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main Street
We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1553-2.

LONG DISTANCE TRUCKING. Very low rates. R. Blinderman. Phone 1242. tfapr4

Established 1873 Telephone 176
ARTHUR H. LATHROP
Auto Trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

MUSIC.

Pavel L. Bytovetzski

TEACHER OF VIOLIN

OF PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

Will Teach in Norwich, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week

Rooms at 19 Alice Building

321 Main Street, Norwich.

MARY D. HODGE

TEACHER OF PIANO

Classical—Leschetizky Method.
Popular, Syncopated, Embellished.
Studio, 8 Grove Place.
Phone 1159-4.

POPULAR—SYNCOPATED

Novelty and Trick Piano Playing taught in 20 private lessons. Satisfaction Guaranteed. Not taught by Classical Teachers. WATERMAN, 149 Broadway, 2-24 Fairmount, 48 Providence. Low rates.

ERNEST E. BOULARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend.

HELEN L. PERKINS
TEACHER OF SINGING
Phone 652-2 Studio, Alice Bldg.

TRANSPORTATION

LONG ISLAND SOUND
DAY and NIGHT SERVICE
Round Trip Fare $4.00
Via New London Line
Express Sun. & Mon. Daily
Lv. New London 9:00 A.M. 10:00 P.M.
Due New York 4:30 P.M. 6:00 A.M.
Special Midnight and Daylight Trips from New York (Eastern Standard Time)
Popular One Day Outings
Table D'hote Meal Service
Music and Dancing on Day Trips
Reduced Rates on Automobiles
The New England S. S. Co.

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2c to $5 Roll. Any new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co. cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. E. McClenathan, Mgr. augtf14

LEGAL NOTICE

STATE OF EDWIN A. GAY, LATE OF Montville in the probate district of Montville deceased.
The administrator having exhibited his administration account with said estate to the court of probate for said district for allowance, it is Ordered, that the 9th day of September, 1925 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Probate Office in Montville be and the same is assigned for a hearing on the allowance of said administration account with said estate.
DAN D. HOME, Judge

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—On state road, between Westchester and Plainfield, blue coat, containing check. Please return to Bulletin office or call Willimantic 141-4. sept3d

A Bulletin Want
Advertisement Will Get It

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Tailor or tailoress, steady work all the year round guaranteed. Inquire Trovato Bros., Canal street, Tel. 3765, Westerly, R. I. sept5th

NEW GASOLINE FILLING STATION accessory; advertised nation-wide; sells on sight; liberal commissions. Park Sales Co., 7 Oak St., Ridgefield Park, N. J. sep5d

WANTED—Middle aged man for outdoor position; opportunity for right party in New London county and adjoining counties; no investment. Heath & Co., Manchester, Conn. sep5d

WANTED—Reliable middle aged men to solicit orders for fruit and ornamental trees, shrubs, roses; district superintendent's proposition for workers; pay weekly; write or wire for proposition. Fruit Growers' Nurseries, Newark, New York State. sep5d

WANTED—Active man to sell nursery stock in Norwich and vicinity; big five-year replacement feature; outfit free; pay weekly; no investment required. Knight & Bostwick, Newark, New York State. sep5d

OCEAN LINERS—Clerks, storekeepers, watchmen, waiters, bellboys, busboys, dishwashers, etc.; send self-addressed envelope for list. Write Box 30a, Mount Vernon, N. Y. sep5d

SALES MANAGER, EXPERIENCED organizer, represent manufacturer new specialty; every merchant prospect. Unlimited demand and money-making possibilities. Exclusive territory. Small investment, $500 to $1,000 and references required. Those qualified write General Manager, Room 1602, 110 West 40th St., New York. aug15d

WANTED—A responsible partner to handle our interests in your territory. Big income, easy. No investment. Write quick. Style Arch Shoe Company, Dept. F560, Cincinnati. aug29d

LIVE WIRE SALES MGR.—For Florida real estate, also salesmen; good opportunity. Give phone number. Write to Box N. L. H., Bulletin. sept4th

WANTED—Work to locate water, for building wells. Have machinery for locating water. George Benoit, Riverside Taftville, Conn. sept4th

WANTED—Young man for work at Norwich Fair. See E. V. Ross, 63 Broadway, Saturday morning. sept4th

WANTED—Sept. 15 good clean, reliable man for general farm work. Must be good milker. Good board and treatment and sixty dollars a month. Edwards Farm, Stonington, Conn. sept3d

WANTED—Salesmen and collectors experience not necessary. We teach you, salary and commission. Chance for rapid advancement. See H. C. Lester, 48 Main St. sept2d

WANTED—First class plumber. Apply John Blum, 10 Main St. sept2d

WANTED—Female

WOMAN WANTED FOR TRAVELING position; must be entirely unincumbered, with high school education, between ages of 25 and 40; salary, bonus and transportation; give full information first letter. F. E. Compton & Co., Garland Bldg., Chicago. sep5d

WANTED—Middle aged Protestant woman for housework, for family of three in the country. Address Miss Phebe Lewis, R. F. D. No. 2, Westerly, R. I. aug31d

WANTED—Experienced girl to work at Sellas Spa, Franklin Square. Apply from 12 to 8 p. m. sept4th

WOMEN—Embroider for us. We furnish all materials. Experience unnecessary. No canvassing. Pleasant work. Standard Mfgs. Sturgis, Mich. sept3d

WANTED—Girl to board. Reasonable price. Write Bulletin Box G-38. sept2d

WANTED—An experienced bookkeeper. Write Retail Bulletin Office. sept2d

WANTED—Competent maid for general house work. References required. Tel. 2228 for appointment. aug31d

FOR SALE—Automobiles

I HAVE SOME good bargains in used motorcycles, taken in trade for 1926 models. J. P. Donovan, 185 No. Main St. sept5th

FOR SALE—1925 Dodge Sport Roadster at a sacrifice. Excellent condition; 1924 Willys Knight sedan, always personally owned. Time payment arranged. 62 Shetucket street. sept5th

FOR SALE—1-ton truck, just been painted and overhauled. Price $125. Phone 345-3. sept4th

FOR SALE—1924 Dodge sedan, 1924 Hupp sedan, 1924 Maxwell conch, 1924 Ford coupe, 1924 Ford touring, 1925 Dodge roadster, 1923 Maxwell touring, 1922 Essex touring. These cars have been put in A-1 condition and are ready for your inspection. Small down payment; balance in 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. sept4th.

ADAMS TAVERN GARAGE—1925 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford touring; 1924 Dodge sedan; 1923 Anderson sedan; 1924 Overland touring; 1923 Buick sedan; 1919 Cadillac coupe; 1919 Cadillac phaeton; 1921 Studebaker small six; 1920 Ford roadster; 1924 Ford sedan; 1924 Ace motorcycle and side car; 1924 Chevrolet roadster; 1922 Overland touring. Open evenings. Cash or terms. aug27d

LEGAL NOTICES.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Canterbury, within and for the District of Canterbury, on the 3d day of September, A. D. 1925.
Present—A. HALE BENNETT, Judge.
Estate of Frederick L. Bennett, late of Canterbury, in said District, deceased
The Administrator exhibited his administration account with said estate to the Court for allowance; it is therefore Ordered, That the 11th day of September A. D. 1925, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Probate Court Room in Canterbury, in said District, be, and the same is appointed for hearing the same, and the said Administrator is directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order in the Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation said district, and by posting a copy hereof on the public sign-post in said Canterbury nearest where said deceased last dwelt, at least five days prior to the date of said hearing and make return to the court.
A. HALE BENNETT, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest: A. HALE BENNETT, Judge.
sep5d

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Montville, within and for the district of Montville, on the fourth day of September A. D. 1925.
Present, DAN D. HOME, Judge.
Estate of LOUIS HOLT JEROME, late of Providence, R. I., deceased, Harriet M. Hastings of Providence, R. I., by her attorney, Charles A. Jerome, appeared in court and filed a petition praying for the reasons therein set forth, that administration upon said estate, alleged to be intestate, be granted, in the state of Connecticut, as per application on file more fully appears.
Whereupon, it is ordered, that said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in Montville in said district, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1925, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in the Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said district at least four days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this court.
DAN D. HOME, Judge
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, SUSAN F. PLOUFFE, Clerk

STRIKE ON AT THE MYSTIC WORSTED COMPANY, AND ALL WEAVERS REQUESTED TO KEEP AWAY
PER ORDER OF COMMITTEE
Mystic, Conn., Sept. 3, 1925.

A Bulletin For Sale
Advertisement Will Sell It

LEGAL NOTICES

Registrars' Notice

The Registrars of Voters of the town of Norwich will meet in the several voting districts in said town on TUESDAY the 8th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1925 from 9 o'clock a. m. till 4 o'clock p. m. (standard time) or 10 o'clock a. m. till 6 o'clock p. m. (daylight saving time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

Electors in said town of Norwich before the annual town meeting to be held Oct. 5th, 1925.
In the First Voting District—At the Selectmen's Office in City Hall.
In the Second Voting District—At the voting booth Falls Avenue, West Side.
In the Third Voting District—At voting booth Central avenue and Seventh St., Greeneville.
In the Fourth Voting District—At sub station 3, 204 West Town St., Norwich Town.
In the Fifth Voting District—At Poquetanuck Large Hall, Taftville.
In the Sixth Voting District—At voting booth, Bishop School, 536 Main St., East Side.
Dated at Norwich, Conn., the 2nd day of September A. D. 1925.
TYLER D. GUY,
CORNELIUS J. DOWNES,
sept2d Registrars of Voters

Republican Caucus

The electors of the town of Plainfield who are registered to participate in republican caucus of primary are hereby notified to meet at the town hall in said Plainfield on Monday, Sept. 14, 1925 at 7 o'clock p. m. Standard Time, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following town offices: One assessor for 3 years, member of board of relief, two selectmen, town clerk, town treasurer, auditor, collector of taxes, four constables, registrar of voters, two members town school committee for three years, one member town school committee to fill vacancy and to act upon any other business proper to come before said caucus.
By order of the Republican town committee.
GEORGE McKENZIE, Chairman
Dated at Plainfield this 4th day of Sept. 1925.

Registrars' Notice

The registrars of voters of the town of Lisbon will meet in said town on Tuesday the 8th day of September, 1925, from 9 a. m. till 5 p. m. (standard time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

electors in said town of Lisbon before the annual town meeting to be held, Oct. 5th, 1925.
Dated at Lisbon, Conn., the 2nd day of September, 1925.
G. L. BROMLEY,
ARNOLD HEADON,
Registrar of Voters

Registrars' Notice

The registrars of voters of the town of Colchester will meet in said town on Tuesday the 8th day of September, 1925, from 9 a. m. till 5 p. m. (standard time) to receive applications from or in behalf of those persons to be placed on the list

TO BE MADE

electors in said town of Colchester before the annual town meeting to be held Oct. 5th, 1925.
Dated at Colchester, Conn., the 3rd day of September, 1925.
JOHN J. SHEA,
FRED S. BAKER,
Registrars of Voters

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the district of Norwich, on the 4th day of September A. D. 1925.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge
Estate of SAMUEL W. HECHT, late of Norwich, in said district, deceased. Esther Hecht of Norwich, Conn., appeared in court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that administration be granted upon the estate of said deceased, alleged to be intestate.
Whereupon, it is ordered, that said petition be heard and determined at the probate court room in the city of Norwich, in said district, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1925, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said district at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD in Norwich, within and for the district of Norwich, on the 4th day of September, A. D. 1925.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge
Estate of ELLEN DOWNING, late of Norwich in said district, deceased. Mary C. Sullivan of Norwich, Conn., appeared in court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, be admitted to probate.
Whereupon, it is ordered, that said petition be heard and determined at the probate court room in the city of Norwich, in said district, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1925, at four o'clock in the afternoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said district at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made of this court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

AUCTIONS.

Auction Notice

By Witter Bros., Auctioneers, Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Conn. There will be an important sale of farm implements, live stock from accredited herd, household goods, etc., at the David Clarke farm, 2 miles southeast of Putnam, Conn., on Danielson state road on Friday, Sept. 11, at 10 o'clock a. m., e. s. t.

AUCTION OF ANTIQUES

Saturday, Sept. 5th, 1:00 P. M. (D.S.T.). At the Porter Home (formerly the old Tavern) Hebron, Conn., consisting of early mirrors, cupboards, chairs, chests, bureaus, prints, glassware, etc.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

New York

Stocks strong; Dodge preferred at new high.
Bonds firm; German and French issues at new tops.
Foreign exchanges irregular; Scandinavian rates continue rise.
Cotton declined; bearish weekly statistics.
Sugar featureless.
Coffee lower; Easier Brazilian markets.

Chicago

Wheat lower; Hedge selling.
Corn easy; Predictions better weather.
Cattle firm; Light receipts.
Hogs steady to higher.

MARKET WAS STRONG

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—(AP)—An urgent retreat of an overcrowded short interest in the moderate-priced motor stocks featured today's stock market, which made further recovery from recent weakness. Trading generally was of the usual quiet pre-holiday character, the day's sales barely exceeding 1,900,000 shares.
Motor shares have been freely offered by bear traders ever since the price cutting campaign of leading manufacturers began last month. In view of increased automobile sales large current earnings and higher dividend prospects of several companies, holders of long stock were reluctant, in many cases to take profits with the results that shorts had to bid high in order to cover their commitments.
General Motors and Studebaker advanced more than two points while Chrysler, Gardner, Pierce-Arrow preferred, Mack Trucks, White and Dodge Brother common each moved up a point or more, the last named touching a record high.
Rails displayed a strong undertone on buying influenced by the unusually favorable July income report of the class 1 carriers Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio Chicago & Northwestern, Great Northern preferred, Northern Pacific, Pittsburgh & West Virginia, eading, Seaboard Air Line and Union Pacific all showed net gains of one to nearly 3 points. Gulf, Mobile and Northern common and preferred attained new 1925 high prices at 35 3-4 and 106, respectively. Frisco common was heavy on profit taking.
Strong buying support again was in evidence for the high priced specialties. American Can rallied nearly five points to 229 3-4; Du Pont moved up over 4 to 156 1-4 and then fell back a point; Sears Roebuck closed 4 points higher at 212, after having touched 213 1-4, and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe showed a net gain of 2 1-2 at 164 1-2. General Railway Signal was an exception, breaking 20 points to 340 on the announcement of a recapitalization plan and the declaration of an extra dividend.
Stocks of Public Utilities companies operating in the Metropolitan district developed sudden activity and strength. Brooklyn Union Gas was run up over 4 points to 58 3-4 and Brooklyn Manhattan Transit showed an extreme gain of nearly 3 points at 57, while Consolidated Gas and the Manhattan Elevated shares advanced a point or two.
Further accumulation of U. S. Steel common in anticipation of a favorable tonnage report next week sent that stock up one point to 121. Good buying was also noted in Burrough Odding Machine, Goodrich Rubber, Liggett and Myers B., R. H. Macy., Owen Bottle, Railway Steel Spring, Remington Typewriter and Republic Steel, all of which went up a point or more.
Call money held steady at 4 per cent. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged with business in small volume.
Except for sharp advances in the Norwegian and Danish currencies, which again established new high records for the year, there was little interest in the foreign exchanges, which fluctuated within rather narrow and irregular limits. Demand Sterling held fairly steady around $4.84 1-2 and French francs were slightly easier around 4.68 cents.

STOCKS.

Sales in hundreds

	High.	Low.	Close
1 Abitibi P & P..	63½	63½	63½
1 Adv Rum pr ..	55½	55½	55½
A Ahumada Lead	10¾	10¾	10½
15 Air Reduce ...	105½	104	105
8 Ajax Rubber ..	10¾	10½	10¾
1 Alaska Jn Gold	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
49 Al Ch & Dy ..	101⅞	100½	101⅜
1 Al Ch & D pr	120	120	120
12 Al Chalmers...	86½	85¾	86½
2 Al Chal pr ...	108½	107¾	108
9 Am Ag Chem .	22½	21¾	22½
11 Am Ag Ch pr.	66	65½	65¾
2 Am Beet Sug .	35	35	35
2 Am Bosch Mag	30½	30¼	30¼
142 Am Can	229¾	224	229¾
1 Am Can pr ...	120½	120½	120½
42 Am Car&Fdy	107	105¾	106½
1 Am Chile	42½	42½	42½
1 Am Drug Syn .	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1 Am Exp	135	135	135
3 Am & F P	41½	40½	41
2 Am & F P pr	91	91	91
1 Am H & L pr	61¾	61¾	61¾
1 Am Ice pr ...	82	82	82
20 Am Int Corp .	37½	37	37½
1 Am La Fr F E	12½	12½	12½
4 Am Linseed ..	33¾	32¾	33¾
6 Am Linseed pr	79¾	79	79¾
16 Am Loco	119¾	117¾	118¾
3 Am Metals	50½	50¼	50½
1 Am Radiator ..	111	111	111
1 Am Saf Razor..	60¼	60½	60¼
42 Am Smelt	109	107⅝	108¾
3 Am Smelt pr ..	112¾	112¼	112¾
10 Am Stl Fdrs ..	40¾	40	40¾
4 Am Sug Ref ..	65½	65¼	65½
8 Am Sub Toh ..	10½	9½	9½
10 Am Tel & Tel.	150¾	149⅝	149⅝
12 Am Tob	103⅞	102	103
9 Am Tob B	102⅝	102	102½
6 Am Type Fdrs	117	115½	117
14 Am W W	62	61	62
6 Am Wool	39	38⅞	39
4 Am Wool pr	87½	87	87⅝
42 Anaconda Cop .	42½	41	41⅝
1 Ann Arb pr ...	58	58	58
26 Arm&Co Ill ..	23¾	23	23¾
17 Asso Dry Gds .	52	51	51½
2 Asso Oil	25⅝	25¾	25⅝
11 Atchison	122¾	121⅝	122¾
1 Atch pr	96	96	96
20 Atl Bir & Atl .	7	7	7
10 At Coast L ..	185	184	185
30 At G & W I ...	58⅝	56¾	58½
11 Atl G&W I st rts	6¾	6	6½
11 At G&WIstrts.	6¼	6⅛	6¼
14 Atl G&W I pr	55¼	54½	55¾
1 Atl Ref	100	100	100
3 Atlas Tack ...	12½	12½	12½
4 Aus Nichols .	27½	27½	27½
87 Bald Loco ...	120¾	118¾	119
40 Balt & O	79¾	78½	79½
1 Balt & O pr..	65¾	65¾	65¾
2 Banc&Aros pr	94	94	94
2 Barnsd Corp A	18½	19¼	19¼
9 Beechnut Pack	73	72¼	72¾
13 Bedling Bros..	37⅝	37	37⅝
21 Beth Steel ...	41	40½	40⅝
11 Booth Fish ...	6¼	6⅛	6¼
16 Briggs Mfg Co	36⅞	36¼	36⅛
1 Bklyn Edi	137	137	137
208 Bklyn Man Tr.	57	54¾	56⅝
58 Bklyn Un Gas .	88⅜	85⅝	88⅛
8 Brown Shoe ...	134	133	134
1 Bruns Blk Col.	30	30	30
1 Buf R & Pitts	85½	85½	85½
12 Buff and Sus..	78	76	78
1 Burns Bros B.	25⅞	25¾	25⅞
18 Bur Add Mch	102	100½	101
1 Bush Tm ctfs B	17	17	17
1 Bush T 7pc deb	85½	85½	85½
5 Butte Cop	6⅛	6	6⅛
3 Butterick . ..	19	19	19
2 Caddo Oil	⅝	⅝	⅝
25 Cal Pet	26¾	26¾	26¾
5 Cal & Hec	14⅞	14¼	14⅞
4 Canali r ⅝	....	....	....
4 Canadian Pac .	141¾	141¾	141¾
3 Case Thresh pr	86¼	86¼	86¼
103 Cent Leath ..	19⅝	18¾	19¾
15 Cent Leath p.	63¼	62	62
5 Cerro de Pas .	53	52¾	53
36 Certainteed ..	53⅝	53	53⅝
7 Chandler Mot .	31⅝	31	31⅝
95 Ches & O	105⅝	104⅝	105¼
1 Chic & Alton .	6	6	6
4 Chic & Alt pr.	12	12	12
2 Chic East Ill .	37½	37	37½
7 Chic E Ill pr ..	46½	45	46
4 Chic Gt West .	12¼	12¼	12¼
12 Chic Gt West p	25⅞	25¾	25⅞
50 C M & St P. .	8¾	8¼	8½
107 CM & St P pr	16½	15⅝	16½
27 Chic & N W .	66⅞	66½	66⅜
24 Chic Pneu Tool	120	117¾	118½
33 CRI & P	48½	47¾	48¼
1 CRI & P 7pc pr	96¼	96¼	96¼
7 Childs Co ...	57½	57	57¼
5 Chile Copper .	34	33¾	34
31 Chrysler Mot.	139¼	136⅝	139½
7 Chrys M pr A	106⅝	106	106
1 CCC & St L	150½	150¾	150¾
6 Coca Cola	138⅝	138¾	138¼
6 Col Fu & I ..	38½	38⅝	38⅜
11 Colo & South .	68¾	68	68⅜
101 Col Ga & El .	72⅜	71½	72⅜
1 Col G & E pr	109¾	109¾	109¾
1 Col Carb	46¼	46¼	46¼
3 Com Sol A	97	96	96
7 Com Sol B ...	94⅞	94½	94⅝
1 Coms P ctfs ..	15	15	15
6 Cong Nairn .	24¼	24⅜	24⅜
1 Con Tin spd ...	⅞	⅞	⅞
46 Cons Cigar .	42⅝	41¾	42
3 Con Dist	4½	4½	4½
19 Con Gas	88⅝	87	88¼
4 Cont Text ...	2¾	2¾	2¾
21 Cont Can	74⅜	72⅜	74¼
3 Coty Inc	48¼	48	48
1 Colt Ins	112¾	112¾	112¾
3 Cont Mot	9¼	9¼	9¼
34 Corn Prod	36⅞	35½	36⅜
32 Crucible Stl .	74⅝	74½	74⅝
2 Cruci St pr ...	97⅞	97	97½
1 Cu Can Sug ..	9½	9	9½
3 Cu Can Sug pr	44¼	44	44
3 Cub Am Sug .	24⅞	24⅝	24⅝
1 Cub Dom Sug	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
1 Cub Dm Sug pr	26¼	26¼	26¼
1 Cush Sons Inc	75	75	75
28 Davi Chem ..	40½	39½	40¼
2 Del & Hud ...	142½	142¾	142½
2 Del Lk & W .	138½	138½	138½
4 Den RG&W pr	45½	43½	44
7 Det Edison ...	130	129¾	130
41 Dodge Bros A.	27½	25¾	26¾
98 Dodge Bdo Im	3...	rct	013
98 Dodge Bros pr	85	84¾	85
9 Dome Mines ..	15	14¾	14¾
5 Doug Pectin .	21¾	21¼	21¾
39 DuP de Nem .	156¾	152	156¼
64 El P&Lt ctfs..	30¾	29¾	30¾
2 El P&Lt pr ..	90¾	90	90¾
1 El P&Lt 40pcpr	104½	104½	104½
1 El P&L fl pd .	105	105	105
3 El Stor Bat ..	54⅛	544 4	5 5 66
3 Elec Stor Bat .	64⅛	63¾	63¾
2 Emer Brant pr	23¾	23	23
3 Endi Johns ...	68½	68¼	68½
1 Endi John pr .	116	116	116
8 Erie R R	31½	31⅜	31⅜
28 Erie 1 pr	40¾	40¼	40¾
2 Erie 2 pr	38	38	38
6 Exch Buf	105½	105½	105½
6 Fair Mfs & Co	45½	45	45⅜
48 Fam Play Las	107¾	106¾	106¾
2 Fam P Pl pr crt	104	104	104
3 Fam Play pr .	117	117	117
16 Fed Lt & Tr .	27¼	26½	27¼
10 Fed Mn & Smp	59¾	58¼	509⅝
32 Fisher Bdy ..	82¾	82	82⅜
97 Fisk Rub	22¼	21	21⅜
1 Fisk Rub 1 pr	107	107	107
12 Fleischman Co	108½	107⅝	108⅝
43 Foundation Co	135	132½	134¼
7 Freeport Texas	15⅞	15⅝	15⅝
16 Gab Snub	33¼	32⅝	33
14 Gardner Motor	10¼	9¼	10¼
1 Gen Asphalt .	52	52	52
1 Gen Bak	172½	172¼	172½
1 Gen Cigar	89¾	89¾	89¾
112 Gen Electric .	311	307¼	310
7 Gen El spl ..	11¾	11¾	11¾
475 Gen Motors ..	92½	89⅞	95⅝
9 Gen Mot 7 pr .	112½	112	112¼
7 Gen Outd Ad A	47⅜	47¼	47½
7 Gn Outd A ctf	30½	30½	30½
34 Gen Pet	45	44	45
6 Gen Ry Sig ..	350	339	340
1 Ginter Co	45½	45½	45½
3 Glidden Co	21¾	20½	21
2 Gold Dust	42½	42½	42¾
67 Goodrich B F.	56¼	55½	55⅝
3 Gdy T&R pr .	104¼	103⅞	104¼
1 Granby Min ..	17	17	17
80 Gt Nor pr	75	72⅝	74⅞
2 Gt Nor I O Pr	28	28	28
9 Gt W Sugar ..	100⅞	99⅝	99⅞
1 Gt West Su pr	111	111	111
10 Greene Cn Cp.	14¼	13¼	14⅛
82 Gulf Mo & Nor	35⅜	34¼	35
10 Gulf M&N pr.	106	104	106
14 Gulf Sts Steel	80¾	79¼	78¾
1 Hanna Co 1 pr	44½	44½	44½
1 Hv ER L&P ..	225	225	225
1 Hv ERL&P pr.	115	115	115
29 Hayes Wheel .	40	37¾	39
1 Homestake ...	45¾	45¾	45¾
1 Household Pr .	40¾	40¾	40¾
1 Houston Oil ..	63½	63½	63½
1 Howe Sd Co ..	23¾	23¾	23¾
10 Hud & Man ..	35¼	35	35¼
40 Hud Motors .	63¾	63¾	63¾
19 Hupp Motor .	18¼	18	18¼
44 Ind O & G	24½	23¾	23¾
4 Indian Motorcy	22	21	22
6 Ind Ref ctfs ..	6¼	6	6
1 Indian Ref	7¼	7¼	7¾
1 Inland Steel ..	42	42	42
12 Insp Cop	27¼	26¾	27½
48 Inter Rap T .	26⅝	26¾	27½
1 Inter Agr Cop	13½	13½	13½
2 Int Bus Mach .	139¾	139¼	139¾
1 Int Cement Pr	104	104	104
4 Int Cement	69¾	69¼	69¾
41 Int Comb Eng .	46	45½	46
41 Int Harv Co ..	126⅝	122¼	124⅝
1 Int Harv pr ..	118¼	118¾	118¼
14 Int Mer Mar p.	30	30	30
54 Int Nickel ...	33⅝	32¾	32⅝
16 Inter Paper ...	66⅞	65¼	66⅝
2 Int Pap 17pcpr	90⅜	90¼	90¼
1 Int Shoe pr ..	117	117	117
18 Int Tel & Tel	123⅞	121⅝	123⅝
23 Jordan Motors	40¼	40	40
2 Kan CP&L pr.	107¾	107¼	107¾
5 Kan City So .	37⅞	37⅝	37⅞
1 Kelly Spg	17	17	17
2 Kelly Spg 5pcp	61	61	61
2 Keiney Wheel .	97	94	97
19 Kennecott Cop	54¼	53⅜	54¼
16 Keystone Tire	21¼	21¼	21⅜
3 Kresge S S Co.	595	595	595
1 Kresge S S pr.	115	115	115
10 Lehigh Valley.	79⅝	77¼	79⅝
3 Lee Rub & T	15¼	15¼	15¼
7 Lig & My Tob	69¼	67⅝	68½
32 Lig&My T B .	68¾	67	68⅝
32 Lima Loco	66⅞	65	65⅜
18 Loew's Inc	34¼	33¾	33⅝
3 Long B Lum A	47⅛	46¾	46¾
6 Lorillard Co .	35	34⅜	34⅜
34 Louis & O ref	14¾	14	14¾
2 Louis & Nash .	115⅝	115	115
4 Lv G & E A .	24½	24½	24¼
8 Ludlum Steel .	33⅝	33⅛	33⅝
107 Mack Truck ..	107⅞	106	106
20 Macy R H Co .	96⅛	95	95⅞
20 Magma Cop .	42	41⅝	42

FAIR TODAY; PARTLY CLOUDY TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1766 1925

NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, SEPT. 5, 1925

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich Saturday, Sept. 5, 1925

THE WEATHER.

Winds.

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh northeast, weather partly overcast with occasional showers Saturday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh north and northeast and weather partly overcast Saturday.

Conditions.

During the last 24 hours showers have occurred in the New England states.

The outlook is for fair weather on Saturday in the states east of the Mississippi and for showers on Sunday in the lower lake region and the Middle and North Atlantic states. Cooler weather is indicated on Sunday for the lower lake region.

Forecast.

For eastern New York: Fair Saturday; Sunday partly cloudy and warmer, followed by showers in afternoon or at night.

For New England: Fair Saturday; Sunday partly cloudy and warmer, followed by showers.

Observations.

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Friday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	60	29.90
12 m.	72	29.90
6 p. m.	62	29.90

Highest 72, lowest 60.

Comparisons.

Predictions for Friday: Partly cloudy, probably showers.

Friday's weather: Mostly cloudy, some warmer.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES
(Standard Time)

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
31	5.13	6.24	7.32	2.16
1	5.14	6.23	8.24	3.39
2	5.15	6.21	9.15	rises
3	5.16	6.19	10.05	7.13
4	5.17	6.17	10.54	7.44
5	5.18	6.16	11.44	8.15
6	5.19	6.15	12.34	8.47

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Postmaster D. C. Murphy has announced the hours at the local postoffice for Labor Day as follows: 7 to 8 A. M.; 12:30 to 1:30 P. M. and 6 to 6:30 P. M.

Miss Florence Livingstone of Pawtucket, R. I., is to be the soloist at the Taftville Congregational Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitehead and William H. Whitehead of Boswell avenue, Herbert Rennard and Mrs. Jane E. Rennard of Norwich avenue, Thomas Whitehead and Miss Lillian Snell of Westerly, R. I., are enjoying a motor trip to Lake Champlain and Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Sharples and Thomas L. Sharples of South second avenue have been spending several days at Block Island, R. I.

Rev Edwin G. Crowdis who has been spending his vacation at N. E. Margaree, Nova Scotia has returned to his home on North Third avenue.

Herve Heroux of South B street has resigned his position with the weaving department of the Ponemah company.

NORWICH TOWN

Miss Nellie Kingsley of Huntington avenue, left Norwich Town Monday for Hartford where she is to reside. Thursday, Miss Kingsley entered St. Agnes' Training School for nurses, where she is to take an eighteen months' course in obstetrics and pediatrics, specializing in these two branches. The school is conducted by the Order of Sisters of Mercy, with the Mother Superior at the head.

Miss Kingsley has been a popular member of the Altar Society of the Sacred Heart parish, being its president. The success of the recent lawn fete on Huntington Green, under the auspices of this society was due largely to Miss Kingsley's management as general chairman. A host of friends in Norwich and vicinity are wishing for her success in her new field of activity.

Following a visit of three weeks with relatives in Norwich, principally at his sister's home Alexander Kilroy, R. N., of Bellevue Hospital, is to return to New York today (Saturday.) Mr. Kilroy will be accompanied by his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Brosofske and children Misses Evelyn and Kathleen Brosofske and Masters William Jr., and George Brosofske, of Town street. The trip will be by automobile, the Brosofske family returning to Norwich on Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Sullivan and two small sons, for the past year residents on Sentry Hill, having occupied the middle apartment in the former Hagland Mansion, have moved to a location down town.

Mrs. A. Maud Smith, left Friday evening to spend the week end and Labor Day in Hartford, the guest of Mrs. Alexander Thompson. Mrs. Smith's daughter, Miss Beatrice Smith, has returned after a three weeks' visit at the Thompson home.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lamb, of Town street, will have as their guests over the week end and Labor Day, Dr. Lamb's relatives, Mrs. Harriet E. Brainerd and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gremley of Mystic, who will motor to Norwich Town today (Saturday.)

Miss M. Baines Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema

"Eczema broke out on my fingers in a rash, and on my arms, face and neck in pimples. The breaking out itched and burned causing me to scratch and scratching caused eruptions. I could not put my hands in water, and was unable to do much work. I lost my rest at night on account of the irritation. The trouble lasted about six months.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment so purchased some. After using them about two weeks I got relief, and in about three months I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Margaret Baines, R. 4, Box 75, Littleton, N. H., Feb. 6, 1925.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse and purify, Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal and Cuticura Talcum to powder and refresh are ideal for daily toilet purposes.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. B, Malden, Mass." Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

PIONEER BOYS OF TAFTVILLE WILL HOLD THREE DAY CELEBRATION

The stage is all set for the three days celebration of the Pioneer Boys of Taftville, with a big field day on the Providence street grounds this (Saturday) afternoon, having an interesting programme of 20 high class events that should keep the spectators on edge from the start. There are to be high grade drilling exhibitions by the Turner section of the Taftville Maennerchor club and Garde St. Jeanne d'Arc of Council Gagnon, No. 208, Union St. Jean Baptiste. Sensational bar work by the boys' class of the Turner section and a band concert by Swahn's band, will complete the afternoon programme.

Tonight (Saturday) in Ponemah hall there will be an old fashioned dance for the Poineer Boys with the Scotland Road orchestra furnishing the music and Professor Tinkham prompting. Sunday's programme will open with the usual meeting of the Pioneers in Ponemah hall at 12.30 p. m. at which time General Chairman John B. Benoit will extend a welcome to the visiting Pioneers, then turning over the meeting to William Thomas, president of the Pioneer Boys organization.

After the business meeting all will form in line for a march up Providence street to Ponemah Heights for an appetizing clambake by King George Jacques of East Killingly, the famous clambake king, and a band concert to be given by Swahn's band of 25 pieces. There are to be vocal solos by James B. Jackson, Omer Tellier and Omer Tellier, Jr., and community singing and exhibition drilling by the girls' class of the Turner section and Garde St. Jeanne d'Arc.

In the parade up Providence street headed by Swahn's band and the Old Pioneers' band, the different societies of the village will act as escort, with their flags and banners, and Garde St. Jeanne d'Arc is to give an exhibition of fancy drill formations in the line of march. Prominent city and town officials will be present to make this occasion in the history of Taftville, one never to be forgotten.

Monday morning at 9.30 on the Providence street grounds, there will be a five inning ball game between the visiting Pioneers and, the local Pioneers, to be followed by a regular game between the Pioneers of Groton and the Taftville A. A.

CHARGES VANDALISM HAS MARRED LANTERN HILL

Vandalism at Lantern Hill aroused the ire of Frederick K. Detwiller of New York city, who stopped to admire the beauty of the place while on a tour of eastern Connecticut. He was so interested in the matter that he wrote a communication to the New York Evening Post, the full text of which follows:

"Upon a recent sketching trip in North Stonington, just out of Westerly, R. I., my attention was directed by some local nature lovers to a place called Lantern Hill. This locality in Colonial days was used as a landmark at sea by mariners in the American navy and to this day is used by fishermen in the vicinity of Noank and Fisher's Island. When I arrived at this spot I was amazed at its character. The formation of these hills was of a great and rare beauty, unusually odd in its elevation. On the heights above the large facade of cliffs, which rise to about 500 feet, was a grove of rugged pine trees oddly shaped, veterans of many storms. At the base was a pond full of lilies surrounded by a dense forest. For miles around the approach to this place was through a region of lakes.

"To my disgust progress had hit this place a foul blow, and across these imposing cliffs engineers had blasted and cut an ugly railroad to reach a slick mine far in the rear. Upon investigation I found the mine could have been reached and worked without this destruction and vandalism. Lantern Hill has been forever disgraced and destroyed, though it for ages had been reverenced by prehistoric men as a religious shrine and as a place where the North American Indian had communed with the Great Spirit. At last came the modern degenerate who, not seeing its charm, had destroyed all in his worship of the almighty dollar.

"Does it not seem that the state of Connecticut should have a board or commission for the protection of national beauty at Hartford; that no group should be allowed to destroy beauty without appearing before a court or commission for permission to operate without unnecessary destruction and annihilation of a beautiful spot? Should not some one be responsible for the violation of nature? Let Connecticut take example from New York state, which saved the Palisades; or Stockbridge, Mass., which preserved its Laurel Hill, the Glen and Monument Mountain. Indiana has a state conservation committee whose great work is well known. Virginia and many other of the several states of the Union of a more enlightened and progressive type have solved this problem.

"In a country where religion is fast becoming fanatical and art neglected, what does the future hold out? And is it any wonder that the people rush to Europe by the hundreds of thousands to see these very lovely things which we have annihilated and desecrated?

slol?fuOts

"FREDERICK K. DETWILLER."

MINISTERS' CONFERENCE ON LIVE CHURCH ISSUES

On Monday and Tuesday, September 14 and 15, the eighth annual pastor's Conference for clergymen of all denominations of Central Connecticut and Western Massachusetts will be held at Hartford Theological Seminary. Previous conferences have drawn from two to three hundred ministers and have provided profitable opportunity for discussion and fellowship.

The leader this year will be Professor Raymond C. Brooks, head of the department of religion at Pomona College, Claremont, California. He has gained wide recognition as a religious leader of insight and power during his pastorate at the First Congregational Church at Berkeley, California, and as leader of Conferences and Assemblies in the West.

Dr. Brooks' theme for the five sessions of the conference will be, "Is Christianity sufficient for the Modern World," under which he will discuss such timely subjects as "How has our Conception of Christianity been modified by our Modern World?" "Breaking old Molds", "The Outline of a Universal Religion," "Can the Religion of Jesus become the Religion of Humanity?", and "Can we reasonably hope to make our Modern World Christian?"

Accommodations will be provided for those ministers who desire to spend the night at the Seminary, and the meals, together will be part of the delightful fellowship of the Conference.

PAASCHE-SHAW WEDDING AT NARRANGANSETT PIER

Mrs. William Burton of 147 Prospect street, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burton, of 744 North Main street and Mrs. Stewart Murray of 45 Golden street will leave today (Saturday) for Narragansett Pier, R. I. to attend the wedding of Miss Alice Shaw of Providence, R. I. a niece of Mr. Burton to Norman Justin Paasch of Providence.

The wedding will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Church of Saint Peter by-the-Sea, Narragansett, R. I. followed by a reception at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander F. Shaw at Hale Place, On he Cliff. The bride was born in this city and lived here for a number of years when her father, Alex F. Shaw was manager of the Greenveille plant of the United States Finishing Company.

America's third printer, Samuel Green was for 30 years an officer in the Cambridge militia company.

BAPTISTS OF COUNTY TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The New London Baptist association, which includes the Baptist churches of New London county, will hold its one hundred and eighth anniversary meeting next Wednesday with the Central Baptist church of this city. The sessions, which will be held morning, afternoon and evening, will be presided over by Rev. George W. Borden of Quaker Hill as moderator. Evangelism will be the general topic for the morning session, Missions for the afternoon and Training for the evening.

The programme will be as follows with the morning session beginning at 10 o'clock, d. s. t.:

EVANGELISM

10 a. m. Devotional Rev. Andrew G. Littlefield.
10:25 a. m. Words of Welcome, Rev. David A. Pitt.
10:30 a. m. Reading of Letters.
11:30 a. m. Annual Sermon, Rev. Horatio J. Chase.
12 n. Conference on Evangelism led by Rev. E. E. Gates.
Appointment of Committees
12:30 p. m. Prayer and Benediction, Rev. Peter S. Collins.

MISSIONS

Afternoon Session, 2 o'clock

Woman's Hour

2 p. m. Devotional, Mrs. Frank Tyler
2:15 p. m. Building for the Future, Miss Bertha Bridgeman, Hartford.
2:30 p. m. Work Among the Indian. Miss Isabel Crawford.
2:55 p. m. Our Golden Anniversary Plans, Mrs. G. O. Gadbois and Golden Anniversary Chairmen.

Foreign Missions

3:10 p. m. News from the Fornt, Rev. P. E. Alden of New York City.
3:45 p. m. Planning for the Year, Rev. H. B. Sloat.
4:45 p. m. Business.
4:30 p. m. Missionary Message, Rev. W. B. Oakley.
5 p. m. Prayer and Benediction, Rev. J. C. Gavin.

TRAINING

Evening Session, 7 o'clock
7 p. m. Out-of-Doors Praise Service, Rev. O. F. Campbell, presiding.
7:15 p. m. Snap Shots of Ocean Park by the New London County Delegates
7:30 p. m. Baptist, Young People in Training for Service,

ADDRESSES BY

Rev. Luther B. Grice
Rev. Sanford Fleming, of Berkeley, Cal.
9:00 p. m. Prayer and Benediction, Rev. George R. Ferguson.

Dinner is to be served by the women of the church at the close of the morning session in Bushnell chapel, and supper is to be served at 6 o'clock.

EPISCOPAL BISHOP ASKS TO HAVE PROPERTY SOLD

Relief from the terms of the warranty deed which conveyed a small tract of land in Staddle Hill to the Episcopal diocese of Connecticut is sought by Bishop Chauncey B. Brewster, according to a document filed at the office of Attorney General Frank E. Healy, in Hartford. Bishop Brewster and Rev. Frank F. German pastor of Holy Trinity parish, Meriden, have requested to be relieved of their trusteeship of the property and desire that it be sold or conveyed to Holy Trinity parish to be held in trust for religious purposes.

The land which is 180 feet by 60 feet, was given to the diocese in 1873 by Oliver Markham, with the provision that a church or chapel be erected upon it. Subsequently a chapel was erected, where services were held for the members of Holy Trinity parish residing in the neighborhood.

The rapid transportation provided by automobiles has allowed these parishioners to attend Holy Trinity church and the services at the chapel have been discontinued. "By reason of the changes in circumstances," the document says, "it is now apparent that no new parish will ever be organized at this point and the present trustees desire to resign and request that the property be disposed of as nearly in accordance with the wishes of the donor as possible."

Three of the original trustees, Joseph Gleason, Charles E. Jackson and James Ridgewell, are now dead. The attorney general will act for the state in the matter under the statute which says that he "shall represent the public interest in the protection of any gifts, legacies or devices intended for public or charitable purposes."

POST OFFICE HOURS FOR LABOR DAY

The Norwich post office will be open from 8 till 9 a. m., standard time, on Labor Day. The money order, postal savings and carriers windows will be closed all day, outgoing mails will close as usual. The last mail for Boston and New York will close at 7 p. m. A collection from the same street letter boxes as those collected on Sundays will be made at 4 p. m.

As this is a National holiday no deliveries will be made by either city or rural carriers.

No money order business will be transacted at any of the stations.

PROVIDED DAINTIES AT UNCAS-ON-THAMES

Mrs. Joseph Burns, chairman of the visiting committee of the Connecticut Council of Catholic Women, visited Uncas-on-Thames this week and provided ice cream and other dainties for the 165 patients. Mrs. Burns was assisted by Mrs. James O'Neil, Mrs. Chester Wright, Miss Mary Coughlin, and Miss Ruth Mullen. The patients were very much pleased with the treat and expressed their appreciation to the committee.

5,498 DRIVERS IN ACCIDENTS IN 3 MONTHS

Slightly more than 5 per cent. of the motor vehicle operators involved in Connecticut accidents in three months were from out of the state. Records of the motor vehicle departments show that 5,498 drivers figured in Connecticut accidents during that period and that 535 of them hailed from other jurisdictions.

In the seven months up to August 1, Connecticut operators were involved in 21 accidents out of the state, of which eight proved fatal. Eighty-six were in Massachusetts, eighty-six in New York state, twenty-seven in Rhode Island, five in Vermont, three each in New Hampshire and Pennsylvania and one each in Canada, Georgia, Iowa, Maryland, New Jersey, Virginia and Wisconsin.

The Connecticut department has reciprocal relations with many of these states, under which provision is made for the disciplining of operators for accidents when out of the jurisdiction of their own department.

Operators whose experience was limited to one-half year to a year figured in by far the least number of accidents in Connecticut during the two months' period of observation. The figures in this check-up were kept during May and June and showed that operators whose experience ranged from one to five years got into most accidents. The total number of accidents for that class was 2,236, followed by a total of 978 accidents chalked up against operators of from five to ten years experience and then came what might be called the novice class operators with experience of six months or less, who had 534 accidents, while those of ten years experience or more were in 354 collisons, and those with experience of six months to a year figured in 153. In the same period, accidents revealed eighty-nine operators to be driving without licenses for which offense they were furnished by the courts.

GEN. WM. A. AIKEN HEARD FAMOUS JENNY LIND

Gen. William Appleton Aiken, of Washington street, Norwich is one of the few Connecticut residents interested in the Jenny Lind anniversary, to be celebrated in New York. Gen. Aiken heard the famous Swedish singer the first night of her appearance in America.

The seventy-fifth anniversary of Jenny Lind's first concert in America is to be celebrated Sept. 11 at the Aquarium, formerly Castle Garden, New York, where an audience of 10,000 greeted the Swedish nightingale Sept. 11, 1850. That night people paid $20 to sit in rowboats out in the bay to catch the sound of her voice.

Dr. Johannes Hoving, President of the Jenny Lind Association, which already has plans under way to erect a statue to the singer in Battery Park, will preside, Dr. Charles H. Townsend, Director of the Aquarium, will receive the guests. Swedish Consul-General Weidel will respond to the brief tributes to his famous countrywoman. A laurel wreath sent by Madame Frieda Hempel, now singing in Europe, will be placed on the bust of Jenny Lind. St. Erik's Society and the Jenny Lind Historical Centennial Committee, headed by Mrs. John W. Alexander, Colonel Selden E. Marvin and Leonidas Westegvelt, will share in the program which begins at 4 o'clock.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC HELD AT POQUETANUCK

The Sunday school of St. James' Episcopal church of Poquetanuck held its picnic Wednesday on the lawn at the rectory of the church with the members, parents and friends attending. During the afternoon different games were played, the prizes for which were won by Donna Kinmouth, Myrtle Brayman, Clair Weeks, Christina Kingsley, Gladys Perkins, Stephen Petrola, Howard Nye and Rose Perkins. The feature game was the peanut hunt, which offered considerable merriment in that the peanuts were concealed among the flowers and shrubbery on the lawn. Luncheon was served, consisting of sandwiches, assorted cake, ice cream and watermelon. Miss Marguerite A. Miller, teacher and secretary of the Sunday school, had charge of the games assisted by Rev. Thomas H. M. Ockford, pastor of the church. The committee in charge of the arrangements comprised Mrs. Arthur Smith, Miss Fannie Peck and Miss Marguerite A. Miller.

PATENTS FOR TWO NEW LONDON MEN

List of patents issued by the United States patent office to citizens of Connecticut, as contained in the Official Gazette, dated Tuesday, September 1, 1925, is as follows:

Phillip G. Darling, Bridgeport, safety valve. Henry M. Hull, Fairfield, liquid-level gauge. Lewis J. James, Waterbury, collapsible last. Simon Lake, Milford, method of and apparatus for molding concrete. Hans J. Lovenston, Hartford, device for determining angles. Robert L. Morrow, Meriden, safety device. Friederich Muller, Hartford, power transmission chain. Harold L. Nash, South Norwalk, electric furnace. Samuel H. Page, Stratford, design for lace. (Two patents.) Edward W. Shepherd, New London, spark plug. Daniel C. Smith, Milford, refrigerating device. Lawrence Y. Spear, New London, internal combustion engine. Leverett E. White, Southington, chuck for bit braces.

PALISADE POLICE DOG IS RIBBON-WINNER

An East Killingly correspondent writes:

Bruche is a young police dog, born in East Killingly, a product of the Palisade Kennels. Most police dogs are barbarians and show their wolfish pedigree in every line of their countenance and every movement of the body. But Bruche was always different—civilized and humanized.

He was owned by Mrs. Stella Vigeant while she resided here, and early established a record as a winner at various dog shows, has won 18 ribbons at seven shows and is now rated in the $500 class.

When Mrs. Vigeant moved to Pawtucket last winter, she sold the dog to Dr. Frank Birtwistle of New Bedford, who entered him at the aristocratic all-Monarch dog show, held in Newport, Aug. 15 where he took first prize, also a special prize of $10.

Escaped Farm Women's Farm.

Elsie Brown, 16, was reported as having escaped from the State Farm for Women at East Lyme Thursday night, departing in her night gown, a coat and slippers. She was described as having dark bobbed hair and dark eyes.

berry, while the flavor is like a loganberry.

A MOTHER MADE HAPPY

"The children and I had colds," writes Mrs. Nancy Mather, Richwood, Ohio, "and the first dose of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR helped us right away. We surely got quick results. I shall keep it on hand all the time." Thousands of mothers have found in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR the ideal cough and cold remedy for their children. Contains no opiates. Children like it. Sold by all druggists. Lee & Osgood Co.

BEIT BROS. MARKET

Free Delivery — Phone 454.

DO YOUR HOLIDAY SHOPPING AT THIS MARKET AND TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR SATURDAY SPECIALS!

Eastern Cut Fresh Pork Shoulders, lb. . 22c Skinned and Shankless

Fresh Killed Native FOWL, lb. 35c

Sugar Cured Boneless HAMS, lb. ... 23c

Best Top Round STEAK, lb. .. 35c

Bottom Round STEAK, lb. .. 30c

Armour's Sugar Cured Smoked Shoulders, lb. . 19c While they last.

Extra Fancy Pot Roasts, lb. .... 24c Boned and Rolled.

Cloverbloom, Brookfield, Wedgwood BUTTER, 2 lbs 97c in Prints

Closed All Day Monday—Labor Day

LABOR DAY RALLY OF METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE

The young people of the Epworth League of the Norwich district are to spend Sunday and Monday at the Willimantic Camp Ground in a rally programme which will consist of a model social, inspirational addresses, recreations and a closing banquet.

On Sunday morning, September 6, Rev. V. V. Sawyer of Attleboro will deliver an address and in the evening Rev. Holt Hughes, Jr., will bring a message.

Monday will be given over to a programme of games and sports. A closing banquet will be held at 7 p. m.

Trinity Methodist church of Norwich has arranged to have the church house on the grounds open with a chaperon in charge.

BAND CONCERT AT PARK LABOR DAY AFTERNOON

A Labor Day band concert will be given at Mohegan Park in the afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock by the Italian band, Professor P. Luca, director.

The following is the programme to be given:

March—Up the Street	G. Morse
Overture—Light Cavalry	Evon Puppe
Waltz—Lotus Flowers	E. J. Evans
Selection—Traviata	G. Verdi
Fox Trot—Cecelia	H. Ruby
Edward T. Connelly Tenor Solo
March—Tesno	G. Manente
Fantasia—Baritone Solo,	A. Pancaid
Waltz—Rita	G. Cosset
March—Symphonique Ideal	P. Puca
Gavotte—Guglielmina	L. Montagne

LETTER FROM SEATTLE COMES IN 76 HOURS

(Special to the Bulletin.)

Mystic, Sept. 4.—James Freeman, supervisor architect of the federal building under construction has received a letter by airplane from his sister in Seattle, Washington, this week, in 76 hours from the time it left Seattle until it was received in Mystic post office. This was the first letter received that way. He has shown it to friends, in olden times it would probably have taken four months by way of Cape Horn, now by rail it takes six to seven days a great change since '49 when many went to California.

Rock plants are covered by stellate hairs that protect them from sun, damp or cold.

WEALTHY ENGLISH IMPORTER BEING SUED FOR ALIENATION

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—The first intimation that Lionel Lacey, a wealthy English importer, is being sued by Henry De Jan for the alienation of the affections of his wife, Mrs. Winifred J. De Jan, a novelist known by the pen name of Mrs. Winifred James, came today when Lacey filed an answer in the supreme court denying De Jan's charges.

De Jan, who was former attache of the United States embassy at Madrid, Spain, made his counter suit for divorce to his wife's suit for separation, had alleged that Mrs. De Jan was guilty of misconduct with Lacey last spring in New York.

Lacey in his answer alleges that Mr. and Mrs. Fe Jan separated long before he first met the novelist.

GAELIC NAMES FOR TOWNS OF FREE STATE UNPOPULAR

DUBLIN, Sept. 4.—A. P.)—The changing of the names of Irish towns into Gaelic forms has received a check by the decision of Bray, which has been altered to Bri Chualann, to revert to its familiar designation. It is a favorite watering place and visitors, especially strangers, were unable to recognize it under the Gaelic name.

Kingstown has not thought it necessary to abandon its new-old name of Dun Laoghaire. The name Kingstown, 100 years ago replaced the old name of Dunleary, but Dunleary is again the accepted name and the only objection is to the spelling of it which puzzles a stranger.

Many of the Gaelic names though they have received official sanction and appear on the postage have not come into general use. Dublin is still Dublin and not Baile Atha Cliath, while comparatively few people recognize Navan as An Uaimh. But Cobh, pronounced Cove, has permanently displaced Queenstown as the southern port was called in honor of Queen Victoria.

Unclaimed Letters

Unclaimed letters in the Norwich, Conn. Postoffice for the week ending September 5, 1925: Miss Helen Butterworth, Mr. Laurice Foster, Mrs. Fannie Goldberg, Miss Irene Palmer, S. D.

LABOR DAY

Falls on Monday, September 7th.

BUY YOUR REQUIREMENTS NOW FOR YOUR WEEK-END TRIP

ALL OUR TIRES AND TUBES AND ACCESSORIES REDUCED.

30x3½ Murray Cords	$12.75
30x3½ Kelly Cords	$13.95
30x3½ Murray Extra Heavy Tubes	$2.85
30x3½ Kenyon Cords	$12.95
30x3 Kelly Fabrics	$9.75
30x3½ Kenyon Tubes	$2.45

YOU CAN ALWAYS DO BETTER AT

HENSCHEL TIRE & RUBBER CO.

Tel. 1299. 331 Main St. Norwich, Conn.

BICYCLE SALE STARTING ON SATURDAY, SEPT. 5th.

We will sell any Bicycle in our store for $30.00 for one week only. The regular price of these Bicycles is from $35.00 to $48.50.

We have the Largest and Best stock of Bicycles in the city of Norwich. Come and see for yourself.

Also regular $5.00 Scooters for $2.95.

TOYS—WAGONS—KIDDIE KARTS.

Jack's Sport Shop

11 Ferry Street. Telephone 820.

SUNDAY SUBJECTS

At St. Andrews Church morning prayer at 10:30 a. m. conducted by Lay Reader.

At Trinity Episcopal Church the will be Holy Communion and sermon at 10:30 a. m.

At the United Congregational Church Alexander H. Abbott, minister, Morning Worship at 10:30. Mr. Abbott will preach.

At Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church J. Harlow Graham minister, morning worship, with sermon at 10:30 a. m. The church school at noon.

At the Christian Science chapel, Thayer building, Sunday service at 10:45 a. m. subject, "Man. Sunday school at 11:45 open to pupils up to age of twenty.

The service of Sunday morning worship will be reopened at the "Church of the Good Shepherd", Universalist on Sunday morning, September 13th, at 10:45 o'clock.

At Christ Church 13th Sunday after Trinity Holy Communion, 8 a. m. Holy Communion and sermon, 10:30 a. m. Special music. Junior Church will open Sunday September 13.

At the Taftville Congregational Church Rev. Edwin G. Crowdis, minister, regular morning worship and sermon at 10:30. Young People's meeting at 7 p. m., led by Mr. Victor Davis, Topic, "Learning How to Pray."

At the Greeneville Congregational Church public worship will be resumed Sunday morning at 10:30. The pastor, Rev. Charles H. Ricketts will conduct the service. Subject, "Vacation and After. The Sunday school will meet at 12 o'clock.

At the Central Baptist Church, Rev. David Alexander Pitt, pastor, Dr. Pitt will preach morning and evening. Sunday school and City Bible Class for men at noon. B. Y. P. U. at 6. Italian Sunday school at 3. Italian preaching service at 10:30 a. m.

At the First Evangelical Lutheran Church, service beginning at 10 o'clock sharp. Singing by the choir. The text of the pastor H. Hunzinger will be "The Great Promise by Faith in Jesus Christ." After the service the first session of the Sunday school in Bible class will be held in the church parlor.

At the First Baptist Church Rev. E. C. Dunbar, minister, 10:30 a. m. Morning worship with Lord's Supper. The topic is "By-products of the Christian Religion." 12 m. Church school. Graded Bible study for all ages. 7:30 p. m. Evening worship with sermon. The topic, "The Wedding Feast at Cana" is the first of a series.

At the Third Baptist Church Greeneville, Rev. G. R. Ferguson, pastor, 10:30 a. m. Morning service with sermon by the pastor, subject "Is it well with Thee?" 12 noon Bible school with classes for all ages. 6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor. 7:30 p. m. evening service with sermon by the pastor followed by the ordinance of the Lord's Supper.

NEW LONDON COUNTY

Montville. Montville Center Congregational church, worship with sermon at 1 p. m. by Rev. Charles Smith. The Lord's Supper will be administered.

Uncasville M. E. church, Rev. Chas. Smith, pastor. Morning worship at 10:45. Sermon and Holy Communion. Sunday school at 12. Epworth League at 7 p. m.

At the McKinley Avenue A. M. E. Zion church, morning worship at 10. Church school at 12:15. Sermon and Holy Communion at 7:45 p. m.

Pawcatuck, Congregational church, Rev. Ernest E. Morrill, pastor. Morning worship and sermon at 10 o'clock; subject, The Christian Objective in Daily Work.

Gospel Hall, West Broad street. Christian gathering in the name of the Lord, worship at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school and Bible class at 3 p. m. Evening worship, gospel service at 7:30 o'clock.

Mission, West Broad street, Saturday evening prayer and testimony meeting at 7:30 o'clock with talk by Elder West.

Clarkeville chapel, Sunday evening service at 7:45 o'clock with talk by Miss Whewell.

Seventh-day Adventist church, Lafayette avenue. Sabbath school promptly morning at 10 o'clock. Sabbath morning worship at 11 o'clock.

WINDHAM COUNTY

Wauregan. Congregational Church, Rev. William Fryling, pastor. The church has been beautifully remodeled and redecorated and services will be resumed Sunday. Morning sermon followed by Holy Communion. Church school at 12:15. The Union Service in the evening will be at Packerville. Leffingwell. Baptist church. Morning worship at eleven o'clock. The pastor, Rev. William B. Oakley preaching. The B. Y. P. U. at 7 o'clock will be led by Miss Carolyn Leffingwell Beebe. Subject, "William Booth: The Friend of the Lowly." Isa. 42; 1-7.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

Westerly. Broad Street Christian Church, Rev. Arnt L. Schoning, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. Sermon subject, The Divinity of Jesus Christ. Sunday school at 11:45 o'clock.

Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. Leon A. Walker, pastor. Warning sermon at 10:30 o'clock with sermon subject, When the Holy Spirit is Come. Bible school at 12 m.

Christ Episcopal church, Rev. Edgar Tobin, rector. Holy communion at 8:30 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:30 o'clock.

First Baptist church, Rev. Byron H. Hatfield, pastor. Morning worship and sermon, 10:30. Subject: The Bible Can we believe it? Welcome to new members. Ordinance of the Lord's Supper. Bible school and men's class, 12. Y. P. S. C. E., 6:30. Evening worship and sermon, 7:30. Subject; Sharpen your faith.

Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, D. D., pastor of the Pawcatuck Seventh day Baptist church. Men's class at 12 noon.

Pawcatuck Seventh-day Baptist church, Rev. Clayton A. Burdick. Saturday morning service at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by the pastor. Sabbath school at 11:45 o'clock. Young People's Christian Endeavor Society at 3 p. m.

Quonochontaug, First Baptist church of Charlestown, Rev. Alva L. Davis, pastor. Sunday morning worship at 11 o'clock; sermon subject, The Secret of Power.

Ashaway. First Hopkinton Seventh day Baptist church, Rev. Alva L. Davis, pastor. Sabbath morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with communion service, and sermon; subject, Greater Than Service. Bible school at 12 noon. Junior Christian Endeavor at 2 o'clock. Senior Christian Endeavor at 4 o'clock.

Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, George street. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock with Elder Johnson as speaker.

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVII—No. 214. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1925. EIGHT PAGES—64 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

6-YEAR-OLD MARY DALY WAS SLAIN BY HER ABDUCTOR

Harrison Noel, 18, a Former Student, Also Confesses Murder of Raymond Pierce—Led Police to a Thicket Near Van Geisen Gap, N. J., Where the Child's Body Was Found With a Bullet Wound in the Temple and another in the Neck—The Youth at One Time Had Been an Inmate of an Insane Asylum.

MONTCLAIR, N. J. —Sept. 6—(A. P.)—Harrison Noel, 18 year old son of a prominent Montclair family, and for a few months last fall, a Harvard student, late this afternoon led the police into a wilderness of thickets near Van Geisen Gap where they found the body of Mary Daly, the six year old girl who was kidnapped near her home Friday noon.

Standing over the body, he pointed to the two bullet wounds, one in the temple and the other in the neck, of the dead child, and, according to the police, declared: "Well, I put two in her."

Then, the police alleged, he turned away as he admitted that he had fired the shot which killed Raymond Pierce, 16, whose body was found in a culvert, where it had been crammed prior to the kidnapping.

"Noel confessed that he killed Pierce Thursday afternoon, shortly after he had induced the negro to borrow the car, a taxi from its operator. It was 24 hours later that he swooped down upon Mary and carried her away in the car.

Following his confession, Noel was returned to Montclair police headquarters and was slipped in through the back way, to avoid a crowd of several thousand persons, some of whom were heard to utter threats against his life.

The police however, were convinced that there would be no violence.

Noel, who at one time was the inmate of an insane asylum, was earlier in the day identified by John Sandin as the man who had wounded him during the chase which followed the kidnapping. Sandin, chauffeur of Joseph Bower, a neighbor of the Dalys, was shot in the head when he drew his car alongside of the kidnapper's automobile after a ten mile chase through Montclair and the Orange mountains.

Noel, who would give no motive that impelled him to plan and commit the crime, was grilled by the police all night and again today before he finally confessed. Even then he tried to bargain with them by assuring them that Mary was alive and unharmed, and offering to lead them to her hiding place for $4,000.

Police refused to bargain with Noel and finally took him in an automobile to the spot where Pierce's body was found in an effort to make him divulge the little girl's hiding place. Noel would make no statement and gazed off vacantly into space apparently suffering frequent lapses. On a second trip he led the police to Cedar Grove, then out Tompton Turnpike until they reached Preakness mountain. There, twenty feet from the main road near an abandoned hut the little girl's body was found.

Mary was lying on her back. Her clothing was slightly ruffled, but physicians stated that the two bullet wounds were the only injuries she had suffered. The body was in a tangled thicket of weeds. Police believe the child was murdered Friday night within a few hours after her kidnapping, although Noel said he fed the child until Saturday morning.

Noel pointed out the body to the police with no show of emotion, and then confessed to the murder of Pierce.

When police told Mrs. Daly that her daughter was dead she fell over in a faint. Mr. Daly uttered no sound but clinched his hands tightly. He refused to make any statement. Mrs. Daly was under care of a physician at her home tonight.

A police guard was established at the Daly home when more than 2,000 persons gathered there this afternoon.

Mrs. Noel bore her son's arrest calmly. She was not told at that time of the murder. "I have known for some time that my son was demented. I thank God that he has confessed. I hope the little girl is uninjured," she said.

Police refused to make public the confession said to have been made by Noel but stated that it substantiated earlier statements made by them as to how he killed the girl, and Pierce and wounded Sandin.

While at the spot where Mary's body was found Noel described how he killed Pierce.

"I hired Pierce to drive me around Thursday," Noel said. "I sat in the back seat while Pierce drove me down Bradford avenue and until we came to the Little Falls road at Cedar Grove. It was about 2 o'clock then. While still seated in the rear seat I put my revolver to the back of Pierce's head and fired. He toppled over. Then I jumped across the rear seat and seized the emergency break bringing the car to a standstill.

"I pushed Pierce's body over to the right hand side of the car and drove on."

Police said this accounted for the blood stains found on the front seat, which were at first thought to have been the blood of the child.

"I went down the Little Falls road," Noel said, "until I came to a bridge over a small stream called the Techam river. There I stopped and placed Pierce's car and took my own and went home."

"I didn't stop there very long but hurried on to Van Geisen gap where my own car had been parked. I abandoned Pierce's car and took my own and went home."

Noel told the police that he returned Friday, parked his own car and took Pierce's machine. It was in this machine that he kidnapped Mary Daly.

The girl was kidnapped Friday noon while she was playing near her home with her little brother. The kidnapper, at first believed to be a negro, jumped from the automobile he had stolen after killing its driver, Raymond Pierce, and seized Mary.

Mrs. Josephine Bower, a neighbor, heard Mary's screams and ordered John Sandin her chauffeur, to take up the chase. Sandin followed the kidnapper for about ten miles, both traveling at a high rate of speed.

When it became apparent that Sandin was about to force him into a ditch, the kidnapper whipped out a revolver and shot Sandin through the head, and escaped.

The automobile in which the kidnapper escaped was found yesterday in a wood near Van Geisen gap, two miles from the spot where the kidnapping took place. Suspicion was first directed toward Noel when a woman gave police the license number of an automobile that she had seen standing near the spot where the car that was stolen from Pierce was found. Investigation disclosed, according to the police, that the second car was the one which Noel had been driving.

In the meantime, Mrs. Bower told police that she had received a telephone call telling her that her child was being held for $4,000 ransom. This led police to believe that the kidnapper's original intention was to take Dorothy Coates of New York. Mrs. Bower's niece, who was visiting her, and that he had kidnapped the wrong child.

Dr. Guy Payne, supervisor of the Overbrook Insane Asylum accompanied the police and Noel on their trip to the spot where the little girl's body had been hid.

"Last fall, he said, the Harvard authorities requested Noel's parents to remove him from the school after he began acting "queerish." He was sent home and his parents placed him in a private sanatorium. Noel was kept there for several months and then returned home. He is alleged by Montclair detectives to have attacked his father with an axe soon afterward. Montclair police then requested that Noel be sent to the Overbrook Asylum.

Six months ago Noel escaped from the Overbrook Asylum. A week later he returned in custody of his father who requested that his son be allowed to remain at home. Since young Noel apparently was cured, this was permitted.

When detectives searched his room at his parents' home in an exclusive residential section this afternoon, they said they found a box of cartridges of the same calibre that killed Mary Daly and Pierce. A revolver, said to have been recently fired and reloaded, was found in his room, the police said.

Because of the two murders committed in different counties, authorities tonight were preparing to file murder charges in Passaic and Essex counties. Pierce was murdered in Essex county while the little Daly girl was killed just over the county line in Passaic county.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE IS DEVOTING HIMSELF TO REST

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 6— With his vacation stay here approaching a close President Coolidge is devoting himself almost entirely to rest, in preparation for the White House grind he will face on his return to Washington, probably late in the week.

The president spent a quiet Sunday, leaving White Court only to motor with Mrs. Coolidge and their son, John, to Salem to attend morning services at Tabernacle Congregational church. He has no engagements listed for tomorrow, labor day and intends to remain in the seclusion of the summer white house grounds. Until his departure for the capital, only a limited number of callers, most of them old Massachusetts friends will be admitted to White Court, an exception being the visit on Tuesday of Adolph S Ochs, publisher of the New York Times.

While Mr. Coolidge is taking full advantage of the opportunity to rest, he is keeping in touch with governmental affairs, as he has throughout the summer, but there is little probability of any important actions on his part at the fag end of his vacation. He is expected to wait until his return to Washington to select a new ambassador to Japan, and when again at his desk in the white house, he will size fact the necessity of shaping up his conclusions as to tax reductions, budget allotments for the coming fiscal year, including determination as to whether money should be appropriated for a navy dirigible to replace the ill-fated Shenandoah and as to what action, if any, should be taken with regard to the anthracite suspension.

No comment was available here today regarding the statement of Colonel William Mitchell, taking the war and navy departments to task for their aviation policies and it was indicated that President Coolidge will leave the matter to war department officials supporting them in any action they might see fit to take.

PLAINVILLE MAN KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY AUTO

BRISTOL, Sept. 6. — (A. P.)— Harry Marcinek, 33, of Plainville, was killed early this morning when struck by an automobile on Main street, Forestville. The driver of the car, leaving Marcinek stretched out on the highway with his skull crushed, had not been located by police up until a late hour tonight.

Marcinek and a companion had been in Bristol until well after midnight. They started to walk the five miles to Plainville where Marcinek is employed at a Plainville foundry. Marcinek's companion was a little distance ahead of him on the road at the time of the accident, but he observed a small car speed past him a short time before he discovered that Marcinek had been hit. The latter was picked up by a motorist who had seen the small car in Bristol. The police have the number of the car and they believe the driver lives in Hartford.

PYTHIANS ARE PLANNING FOR A HOME IN CONNECTICUT

HARTFORD, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Plans for the establishment of a Pythian home in Connecticut will be considered at the annual convention of the grand lodge of Connecticut, Knights of Pythias, which will be held in Seymour Tuesday, October 20. A demonstration as to how a farm can aid in supporting such a home will be given Sunday on the Woodbridge-Mumford farm in Salem. The entire membership of the state with their families have been invited to be present.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

Pope Receives Boy Scouts

Rome, Sept. 6—(A. P.)—One of the most picturesque of the many ceremonies Rome has seen during the 1925 holy year took place today when several thousand Catholic Boy Scouts from a dozen nations of Europe and Asia were received by the Pope.

Annual Austrian Fair

WARSAW, Poland, Sept. 6—(A. P.) —The annual fair at the former Austrian city of Lemburg, which was awarded to Poland under the peace treaty, opened yesterday.

Police Quelled Riot in Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—(A. P.)— Four thousand people took part in a near riot tonight in their eagerness to obtain admission to the opening session of the International Spiritualist Congress, and police reserves had to be summoned to handle the crowd trying to force an entrance into the already packed hall. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle was the principal speaker, and most of those attending were more interested in seeing the creator of Sherlock Holmes than in spirits, and they did not spare jocular comments when lantern slides of "spirit photographs" went wrong, as they frequently went wrong, as they frequently did in the hands of an unskilled operator. The photographs included many of the Boston Medium Margery and one of Sir Arthur with the "spirit" face of his son who was killed in the war.

LABOR DAY STATEMENT BY LEADER OF MINERS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6—The American worker is the best in the world said John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, in a labor day statement, and his daily or yearly output is larger than that of any other worker in any other country, Mr. Lewis added.

The statement follows:

"Labor day is purely an American institution, born of an American idea founded upon the rock of American liberty and celebrated by American citizens. That is what makes labor day an occasion of the utmost importance in the yearly cycle of American history. Out of it all has come a deeper realization of the rights of those who toil, a broader recognition by everyone of what labor has done and is doing for this great country of ours. Labor is and must be constructive. It must build, not destroy. Labor makes all the things that are conducive to greater prosperity and happiness for all the people.

"The American worker is the best in the world. He is more productive and more efficient. His daily or yearly output is larger than that of any other worker in any other country. This fact is proved by statistics from everywhere. The American worker is more progressive than any other. He takes pride in advancement in skill and knowledge. He aim and hope being to reach the pinnacle of achievement in his particular line of endeavor.

"The American worker may well boast his high degree of intelligence and education, which fits him for the realities of life. American affords him opportunities in that direction that are not found in any other country. Here in this beloved land of ours there are schools for everyone, where man, woman or child may enjoy the benefits of development and opportunity. Moreover sons and daughters of workingmen are in colleges and universities here in America than in any other country on earth.

"When we lay down our tools to celebrate labor day each year we should recall all of these advantages that we enjoy as American workingmen. We should allow our minds to wander over the vast domain of labor in America and visualize the wonderful blessings of American citizenship and American opportunity. Such thoughts will cause us to hold our heads a little more erect and it will make our step firmer and steadier when we march in the ranks with our fellow workers. Labor day is labor's day."

LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO CONVENE IN GENEVA TODAY

GENEVA, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Paul Painleve, premier of France, this morning will call to order the sixth assembly of the League of Nations. Delivering an address in which he will review the league's achievements and say something of its hopes for the future.

Geneva is crowded by visitors drawn from all lands, especially the United States. Although this year's agenda is less spectacular than that of last year, the assembly is expected to indulge in a kind of review of the world's political affairs.

The presence in Geneva of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who is here to attend the sessions of the assembly, gives a special American note to the proceedings. Senator Arthur J. Capper of Kansas and Senator J. Walsh of Montana, with a large number of other Americans, will attend the opening.

Foreign ministers of fourteen nations are in Geneva to attend the assembly.

On the eve of the assembly there are indications that the ministers representing the great powers will have need of considerable diplomatic dexterity to ward off embarrassing discussions of the Geneva peace protocol, evolved by last year's assembly. They are anxious to keep the decks clear for the hoped for conclusion of a security pact with Germany, but the smaller states seem to be eager that the Geneva protocol not be entirely abandoned.

Greece's delegation is here anxious to get through a pact of guarantee and security with her Balkan neighbors.

BLUEJACKET WAS KILLED BY FALL FROM A ROOF

NEW YORK, Sept. 6—(A. P.)—The body of a man wearing a uniform of the United States navy, in the pockets of which were found cards indicating that he was J. E. Allen of the Destroyer Raleigh, was found today in the rear courtyard of a seven story tenement house in East 126th street. Police said the man was killed by falling from the roof of the building where he apparently had engaged in a fight, which apparently had engaged in a fight in which The Destroyer Raleigh anchored in the Hudson river yesterday.

MAN AND WOMAN KILLED WHILE IN BED UNCLOTHED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 6.—(A. P.)— The bodies of an unidentified man and woman were found today in a three room club house near Lake Hill, St. Louis county. They were unclothed in a bed. The man was about 28 years, was penetrated by five bullets in the breast and one in the hand. The woman was 23 years old, was shot in the chest and neck.

Salvaging Wreck of Dirigible Shenandoah

Certain Portions Have Been Marked For Salvage—Men at Work.

CALDWELL, Ohio, Sept. 6.—(A. P.) Salvaging of wreckage of the Shenandoah was begun here today by naval officers directed by Commander Jacob H. Klein, of the Lakehurst naval airport.

Armed with blue prints of the ill-fated dirigible, which fell in widely separated sections near here early Thursday morning the commander and other members of the board of investigation visited the wreckage near Avar. They marked certain portions to be salvaged and set men to work with saws and axes to procure them.

The salvaged parts will be sent to Lakehurst. They will be used, Commander Klein said, more for study in planning future dirigibles than in determining the cause of the accident. The board of investigation has not swerved in the least in its belief that the crash was inevitable in the face of the storm that was encountered, it was indicated by its members.

Admiral C. W. Dyson, who has been conducting a seprate inquiry at the behest of Curtis D. Wilbur, secretary of the navy, left Caldwell this afternoon for Washington. He will report, personally, to Secretary Wilbur tomorrow or Tuesday.

The admiral declared that he would not be justified in making any statement here but indicated that his views of the cause of the disaster were in accord with those of the board of investigation headed by Commander Klein.

Commander S. M. Kraus, who arrived Friday with Commander Klein left for Lakehurst with Admiral Dyson. Besides Commander Klein there remain in Caldwell Commander Nelson and the paymaster sent from Lakehurst.

Commander Klein has asked Lakehurst for two lieutenants to assist him. They are expected to arrive tomorrow. The board of investigation will continue its inquiry for several days at least.

When the salvaging is completed, bids will be received for junking the remainder of the ship's debris. Several dealers, it was learned, have already spoken for junking rights but formal bids will be necessary.

"The Shenandoah is no longer a part of the navy," the chief investigator said. "She is stricken from the list. We will make the best disposition of her that we can."

Before he left Admiral Benson was asked for his opinion on the statement made by eastern officials that the Shenandoah was out of date and that the Los Angeles might have weathered the storm.

"That is a piece of my oldest son is no good but I expect great things of my youngest," was his reply.

"There is no way of telling what the Los Angeles might have done except by subjecting her to exactly the same conditions."

NO TIDINGS FROM THE MISSING EAPLANE PN. 9 NO. 1

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—(AP)— The sixth day since the missing Naval seaplane PN-9 No. 1 vanished in the Pacific ocean off Hawaii brought no word of the craft or its crew of five. The reports reaching navy headquarters here late today had to do only with the movements of the many vessels engaged in the search. While there was little hope that Captain John Rodgers and his four intrepid companions could have survived such a long exposure to the open sea, the search was prosecuted as vigorously as during the first few hours. There was no let up in the scrutiny in a non-stop flight from an Francisco to Honolulu, disappeared after notifying adjacent guardships that it was out of gasoline and would have to descend.

SEVEN PERSONS KILLED AT GRADE CROSSING IN TENN.

RIVER, Tenn., Sept. 6.—(A. P.)— Claude E. Warren, a farmer, living near Beardstown, Tenn., his wife, two children, his father-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Cude, and Tom Curl, were killed near here today when an Illinois Central passenger train struck the automobile in which they were riding at a grade crossing. A two year old daughter of Warren escaped unhurt.

It was at first believed the victims were the family of J. C. Cude, who is a farmer living near Beardstown. The correct identification was made later by Beardstown officials.

All were killed instantly, the body of Curl was found several yards down the track. The automobile was splintered.

NINE PERSONS OF ONE FAMILY IMPLICATED IN DISORDER

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 6.—(A. P.)— Not one but nine persons helped wreck the domestic tranquility which prevailed at the home of Abraham Hasheesh of the Turkish colony, who has brought suit in the superior court here against eight brothers, and one other. Abraham set forth that he was living happily with his wife, Mary, when the defendants "butted into" his private life and alienated the wife's affections. He complains that he not only lost his wife, but he also lost his own health and happiness, hence $9,000 damages are claimed in the line of heart balm.

EXCURSION STEAMER SANK AT THE PIER IN HOBOKEN

HOBOKEN, N. J., Sept. 6.—(AP)— The excursion steamer Machgonne sank today while tied up to her pier at the foot of 17th street, where she was being made ready to take an excursion party from New York. Three members of the crew, on board the steamer at the time she suddenly lurched and sank, jumped to the pier.

COUPLE DROWNED AFTER DIVING OFF BLAZING BOAT

CAMDEN, Me., Sept. 6.—(AP)— After diving overboard from a blazing motor boat, Francis Light, 16 year old Camden High school girl, and her escort, Clyde Leighton, 17 lost their lives today in Mekunticook Lake, despite the latter's heroic attempt to carry the girl ashore. His partly removed sweater as mute evidence of the attempted rescue.

Telegraph Pole Was Split by Automobile

Car Was Demolished on Berlin Turnpike—Two Persons Slightly Injured.

HARTFORD, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A telegraph pole was split its whole length, a touring car was almost completely wrecked and two persons were slightly injured when Tony Paolo, of 56 Myrtle street, New Haven, driving north on the Berlin turnpike about four miles south of the Hartford city line was said to have been crowded off the road by a south-bound automobile attempting to pass another going in the same direction early this afternoon.

Paolo's nose was cut by flying glass and a woman who was riding in the car with him was cut on the lip. She was given medical attention at the home of a nearby doctor.

One side of the car was demolished by the impact with the pole and the chassis was considerably mangled. The pole, in addition to being split, was raised six or seven inches from its foundation. State Policeman Hansen investigated.

ADDRESSES IN CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

NEW YORK, Sept. 6—(A. P.)— Sound judgment, common sense and the interests of all the people call for co-operation, in a spirit of understanding and good will, on the part of all elements making up the industrial life of the nation, William Greene, president of the American Federation of Labor, said today in a Labor Sunday address in the cathedral of St. John the Divine. Bishop William T. Manning made an address of welcome to the labor president.

"We must recognize," said Mr. Green, "that the forces of capital and labor have passed into a new era, an era of co-operation and reciprocal relationship. x x x x".

"The safety of our nation, the security of our institutions and the happiness of our people call for serious thinking on the part of employing interest. Deep down beneath the surface of every militant movement may be found the germ of revolution. True, it may be embryonic but if it is allowed to wreckup, it will grow and multiply until it menaces the very existence of the republic."

Bishop Manning in his address said that it was the duty of the church to bring "the spirit of Christ, the spirit, not of warfare, but of fellowship and co-operation, into the problem which capital and labor have to solve."

"In such an unfortunate situation as the present coal strike," he said, "But wherever there is clearly unwise, church cannot justly speak without full knowledge of the facts on both sides. Along and injustice, it is not only the right but the duty of the church to speak."

POLITICIANS IN NEW YORK WERE QUIET ON SUNDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(AP)—All was quiet along the political front in New York's many-sided contest for the mayoralty nominations as the various candidates rested today in preparation for a strenuous week of campaigning.

State Senator James J. Walker's following claimed another district in Brooklyn for the Tammany designee for Mayor as the Thomas Jefferson Democratic Club of the 22nd Assembly District withdrew its invitation to Mayor Hylan to address its members and endorsed the candidacy of the Tammany designee. The club is said to comprise 4,500 members.

Senator Walker yielded to the demands of a delegation of amateur baseball fans and attended a game at Dexter Park, Brooklyn.

The good government league issued a statement from its head-quarters in the Waldorf Astoria announcing that an intensive campaign will be conducted for Mayor Hylan in Harlem and predicting that he will sweep that section.

Both the Mayor and the Tammany designee prepared to meet for the first time on Common Ground tomorrow at the annual Labor Day celebration at Forth Forthamilton. Governor Alfred E. Smith will speak on Mr. Walker's behalf.

William P. Bennett, a candidate for the Republican nomination, gave out a statement in which he attacked Mayor Hylan and Governor Smith for dealing with "irrelevant matters" and Mr. Waterman for claiming that he would make a good Mayor because he had been a successful business man.

DAGGER AND FLATIRON USED IN FRACAS IN NEW HAVEN

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 6.—(A. P.)—A fight with a dagger, a flat iron and a cane nearly netted fatality for one of the participants here today. According to police, Pasquale Guilano, 35, and Augustus Harrison, 2, negro, both of 159 Washington avenue, got into a fight and Guilano slashed his opponent across the face. Harrison is said to have held up his end of the argument by hitting Guilano over the head with a flat iron and finishing the job with a cane. Guilano is in the New Haven hospital and Harrison is in the cent a lockup, charged with breach of the peace and held under bonds of $1,000.

PLENTY OF CRUDE RUBBER IN FORESTS OF LIBERIA

NEW YORK, Sept. 6—(A. P.)—The forests of Liberia, the only independent republic on the continent of Africa, constitute a huge, undeveloped store house of crude rubber which easily could be made to supply a large portion of American requirements, in the opinion of the Rt. Rev. Walter Henry Overs, missionary bishop of the Episcopal church in that country. Bishop Overs arrived here recently to attend the general convention of the Episcopal church at New Orleans, October .

The great problem of Liberia is that of education, he said.

CHASED AND CAPTURED AFTER ATTEMPT AT THEFT

HARTFORD, Sept. 6—(A. P.)— After a chase through a number of streets on the west side of the railroad station early tonight, Railroad Policeman Coyle, captured a man who gave his name as Jake Meyer and arrested him on complaint of Nicholas Paioli, of 140 Woodland street, Meriden. Paioli said that Moyer had stolen a wallet from his pocked while they were on the Springfield-New Haven train. Paoli turned quickly and recovered the wallet before Moyer had a chance to escape with it.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Danish waiters are rejoicing over the recent ruling of a provincial court that they have a legal claim to tips for their services.

Somerset, Mass., claims one of the largest tax rate decreases in the state. The rate for this year, is $22 compared with $33.50 last year.

The Rev. Thomas B. Neely, retired bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, died at his home in Philadelphia. He was 84 years old.

Abraham Rosenthal of Newburgh N.Y., was reelected grand superior of Phi Beta fraternity at a session of the national convention in New Britain

Important manouvres by the soviets near the western frontier of Russia, are told of in the local newspapers, which say that three armies are participating.

Deaths by automobiles in Massachusetts fell to 15 in the past week, a drop of four from the previous week and 10 below that of the corresponding week of a year ago.

Mrs. Solon H. Borglum of Winton, Conn., is announcing the engagement of her daughter Monica, to A. Mervyn Davies, of London, son of Sir Alfred T. Davies and Lady Davies.

The department of agriculture has received an avalanche of applications for the $238,000 of excess profits it recently announced was unclaimed on account of wool sold in 1918.

The allied and German legal experts who have been in London since Monday discussing the technical details of the proposed Rhineland security pact began leaving for home Saturday.

Synthetic beefsteaks made from cottonseed are forecast by Dr. David Wesson, of New York, former president of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers in Ottawa, Can.'

Charles Pournarous, a foreman of the Mildred Shoe company, Brooklyn, was shot and killed when he resisted a robber who held him up in the factory and demanded the $5,500 payroll he was carrying.

Miss Julia F. Tichenor filed suit in the supreme court in White Plains, N. Y., against John C. McCambridge of New York city, alleging breach of promise to marry and asking damages of $100,000.

Edward H. Bonsall, Philadelphia, was re-elected president of Ihe Brotherhood of St. Andrew, men's organization of the Episcopal church at the annual convention of the brotherhood in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. William Gerry Slade, 78 years old, member of an old New England family and for 40 years a leader in the world of philantic and historical societies, died at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria, New York.

When the automobile in which he was riding took fire following a collision, Joseph Martinello, 36 of Newark, was burned to death. Peter Zaccardi, 32, also of Newark, died later as the result of injuries.

The Virginian Railway applied to the interstate commerce commission for authority to issue $7,500,000 of first mortgage five per cent. fifty year gold bonds and nominally to issue $3,836,000 of the same securities.

The industrial workers of the world, have placarded Sydney, Australia, urging the workers to organize a general strike to prevent the threatened deportation of leaders of the unofficial British seamen's strike.

Forty acres of land in the busy west end of London have been sold to Lord Howard de Walden for a price said to be in excess of 4,000,000 pounds ($19,200,000), making it one of the largest land deals in the history of London.

William Bryant, 37, colored of East Norton, Mass., pleaded not guilty in district court to a charge of murdering his employer, Benjamin Green, 46, colored. The police say he admits shooting Greene twice but claims self defense.

Imprisoned in an oil-saturated sedan, and with his hands tied behind his back, an unidentified man was burned to death in East 81st St., New York. Before setting the automobile on fire, the supposed murderers removed the license plates.

Lieutenant Colonel Will D. Wills, U. S. infantry, and Assistant Range Officer of the National Rifle association matches, fell dead at Camp Perry. He had been ill since his arrival. He declined to go to a hospital. His home was in Philadelphia.

Nine city blocks, embracing more than 250 dwellings in which lived more than 1,000 persons were leveled at Shreveport, La., by a fire which broke out shortly after some mighty force had wrecked the city water mains in three places.

Old Glory, a duplicate of the American flag authorized by the continental Congress in 1777, was run to the top of the flagstaff of Independence Hall in Philadelphia, in honor of the 168th anniversary of the birth of the Marquis de Lafayette.

Tony Bernaree, of Oak street, Stratford, reported to the police that some time Sat. night, someone or maybe more than one, made a raid on his garden and evidently with the aid of a scythe or some such instrument cut down and took about $200 worth of various kinds of vegetables.

Some members of the Mexican congress are ready to propose a bill prohibiting congressmen and senators from carrying pistols during the sessions of parliament, because of a push to fight between two deputies after a heated debate in the chamber Thursday night, Martin Perez was killed.

It became known Saturday that about two months ago $75,000 in active checks mailed by the Home National Bank of Meriden to New York and Chicago banks disappeared and no trace of them has been found by the post office department. None of the checks has been presented for payment.

Demands for wage increases made by cigar makers in Havana have been rejected by the Union of Tobacco and Cigar Manufacturers of Cuba. President Martin Dosal, head of the employers organization has informed the union, that owing to the present business conditions in Cuba, it is impossible to pay higher prices and make a profit.

BINGHAM WOULD REGULATE AERONAUTICS IN THE NAVY

The Senator Recommends That Flying Schools and Airplane Carriers Be Placed in the Hands of Flying Officers Instead of Non-Fliers—Feels That Colonel Mitchell's Statements Are Unfair And Enaggerated—No Tidings From the Missing Seaplane BN-9 No. 1.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 6.—(AP)— United tates Senator Hiram Bingham, a student of aviation for the past nine years and the commander of the largest American flying field in Europe during the World War, said today that many of the statements of Colonel William Mitchell in his charges against the war and navy departments are exaggerated.

Since congress adjourned Senator Bingham has devoted nearly all of his attention to the condition of aviation in this country. He just recently completed a visit to the majority of air stations of the army and navy on both the Pacific and Atlantic coast. He is a member of the senate committee on military affairs, and also of the committee on commerce.

Senator Bingham's statement follows:

"I feel that many of Colonel Mitchell's statements are exaggerated and that his attack on the army and navy is very unfair to many loyal and patriotic officers who are devoting their lives just as unselfishly as he is to the grave problems of national defense.

"He seems to me to be particularly unfair to the conscientious naval aeronautical engineers who designed the flying boats for the Hawaiian flight. As a matter of fact, they represent the last word in that type of aircraft.

"I would be better satisfied if the navy placed their flying schools, airplane carriers and aeronautical operations in the hands of flying officers instead of non-fliers. The army did this long ago. I believe that the army and navy air services should each constitute a separate corps with different promotion lists and separate budgets. The marine corps furnishes an example of efficient and successful operating on the basis of a separate corps.

"Before making any criticism I think it would be better to wait for the official report of the board of investigation which is making a very thorough study to the accident of the Shenandoah.

"We must remember that this country has so far provided virtually no aids to air navigation at all comparable to what we have furnished ocean navigation. Air navigation is still in its infancy.

"Colonel Mitchell has been unfair in his failure to give the army air service credit for their extremely successful operation of the many airways over which one million miles of flying have taken place in the past three years without a single fatal accident.

"He has also neglected to give proper credit to the remarkable progress made by the army engineering laboratory at McCook field in Dayton, where several hundred improvements have been made during the past five years."

DAYVILLE BOY KILLED BY AUTO NEAR PUTNAM

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Sept. 6.—George Rogers, four and one-half years old, son of Fred Rogers of Dayville, was struck by an automobile just outside of the city limits this afternoon and died shortly afterwards at the Day Kimball hospital.

The car that struck him was owned and driven by George H. Marc-Aurele of 648 Hamilton street, Worcester, Mass. With his mother and three young sisters he was on his way to visit relatives in Norwich.

The Rogers boy was riding with an uncle who also lives at Dayville; opposite the farm of R. L. Bullard on Killingly avenue a tire went flat. All of the occupants of the car alighted while the break was being repaired. The boy made a sudden dash across the road just as the Worcester car came along and was struck and crushed beneath the wheels.

Mr. Marc-Aurele had all of his party alight and left them by the side of the road, and put the boy in his car and rushed him to the Day Kimball hospital. He died a few minutes after reaching there. One arm was broken, his head was crushed and he was injured internally.

Mr. Marc-Aurele was deeply distressed over the accident which, according to statements of those who saw it, was unavoidable.

RIFFIAN CHIEFTAIN IS LAUNCHING SMALL ATTACKS

FEZ, French Morocco, Sept. 6.—(A. P.)—Tbd-El-Krim, the Riffian chieftain, by means of small attacks at different points along the line from which he believes the impending Franco-Spanish offensive in Morocco will start, is trying to find out the plan of attack of Marshal Petain, the French commander-in-chief, so as to forestall the drive of his enemies or create a diversion.

In pursuance of this plan he already has attacked along the Teldan-Fondak-Rgai line in the Spanish zone, while the Andjera tribesmen are attacking the Spanish line of communication between Ceuta and Tetuan. All these points are in the northernmost portion of Spanish Morocco.

Extensive reconnaissances carried out by the French and Spanish troops in the region of the Loukkos river have revealed that the enemy is ready to offer an energetic resistance.

WATERBURY MAN WAS KILLED BY AUTO TRUCK

WATERBURY, Sept. 6.—(A. P.)— James Zuella, of 322 Bank street, this city, was killed and Fred Alcut, of Wolcott road, was injured when a truck on the Watertown road was driven through a crowd which had gathered about cars which had been involved in an accident. Louis J. Letsky, of Morris, driver of the truck is held for examination by the coroner.

According to Mrs. Alcut, wife of the injured man, who, herself, sustained an injured leg, the car driven by Alcut and another car in which Zuella was riding collided: a crowd collected, and a large truck carrying several people approached the scene of the accident and struck the two men who were standing in the road, Alcut's injuries are not serious.

Deputy Coroner Theobald E. Conway is conducting an investigation.

LION'S HEAD CONCEALED PIPE LEADING TO LIQUOR

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—(A. P.) —Police who raided the saloon of Anthony Zalis today found a bronze lion's head ornamenting the bar, but no liquor. Searching the building they said, they discovered a tiny lead pipe which connected the lion's head with four-gallon container on the third floor filled with what they declared was whiskey. When a policeman poked the king of beasts in the eye the liquor ran from his mount. Zalis and his bartender were arrested.

TWO TOURSTS KILLED BY A TORNADO IN ILLINOIS

Springfield, Ills. Sept. 6.—(AP)— Two tourists were killed and five persons seriously injured this afternoon when a tornado hit Brownstown, a village of 500 located eight miles East of Vandalia, the telephone operator at Vandalia reported to the State Journal by long distance telephone at six o'clock tonight.

THEATRE PATRONS NOT TO BEAR PAYMENT OF FILM TAX

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 6.—(AP)— Theatre patrons will not have to bear any part of Connecticut's new motion picture film tax, at least for some time to come, it was decided at a meeting of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners' association here today. While the association did not go on record as definitely opposed to an increase in the price of tickets at this time, it was voted to table the matter indefinitely.

The majority sentiment among the 150 theatre owners present today was against a price increase to pass part of the burden along to the public. Some of the members favored a price increase as the most effective means of arousing the theatre going public to resentment against the law. Others believed that the public might not have such an all-embracing view of the situation.

Discussion of technical problems arising out of the removal of film exchanges from this city, occupied considerable time of those present. The arrangement whereby the exhibitors will establish a fund by weekly payments from all theatre owners, to pay the tax on all films shown throughout the state, was approved and will continue in force until the expiration of present contracts, when there may be a change in the situation.

Blank forms for the purpose of making a survey of just how every theatre owner is "fixed" for films were distributed to the members and will be filled out and returned to the special committee handling the tax situation.

ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF BATTLE OF THE MARNE

MEAUX, France, Sept. 6.—(AP)— The eleventh anniversary of the battle of the Marne was celebrated in Meaux today, but not with the full ceremony which has marked the day in previous years.

Hitherto the annual celebration always was profited by competition between the church and municipal authorities, who have vied with each other in their efforts to make it successful. The municipality this year, chiefly on the grounds of economy, took no steps toward organizing the celebration until a few days ago, when it was found that the church leaders were preparing a program.

CAR TUMLED OVER CLIFF AFTER COLLISION WITH DEER

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Henry Dunning, guide at Piseco Lake in the Adirondacks, was driving his automobile around a sharp bend in the road along the shore of the lake Saturday, when he was confronted by a large deer directly in his path. Unable to avoid a collission, Dunning ran squarely into the animal, knocking him to one side of the road. The car, tumbling over a fifty foot embankment, struck a tree at the bottom and was wrecked beyond repair. The deer fled into the woods. Dunning's left elbow as broken.

SIX DROWNINGS DURING WEEK-END IN NEW ENGLAND

BOSTON, Sept. 6—Death ended the celebrations of nine Labor day weekenders in New England today. Six of the victims were drowned and the others lost their lives in automobile accidents.

Scores of other vacationists were injured in automobile accidents and several others had narrow escapes from drowning. In sight of hundreds of canoeists on the Charles river at Newton, Mass., Max Freedman, a Revere beach life guard, plunged in fully clothed and rescued two small children who fell into deep water off the bank.

SPECTATOR AT BALL GAME KILLED BY BATTED BALL

ELIZABETH, N. J., Sept. 6.—(A. P.)—John Dowd, 34, was killed today during a baseball game at Pearl oval, when a batted ball caromed into the bleachers and struck him in the head. Perry Scott, second baseman of the opposing team who hit the ball, was arrested and released when police decided the accident wash unavoidable.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed fifty acres of tobacco tent cloth on the plantation of the American Sumatra Tobacco company in West Suffield early yesterday, causing a loss of about $15,000

WILLIMANTIC

The Labor Day demonstration, including a morning parade, speaking and athletic events at the Tent City planned by the former employes of the American Thread Company, will be the only formal observance of the day in the city. The plans for the demonstration are complete. At 10 o'clock in the forenoon the parade will start. Members of the building trades union in the city will participate, also many visitors expected from Union locals in a number of New England States. President Thomas F. McMahon and Secretary Sarah A. Conboy of the United Textile Workers of America are expected here to head the activities and to speak at the grounds on the North Windham Road. The parade will include two bands and a drum corps. At 1:30 o'clock a band concert at Tent City is scheduled and this will be followed by speeches by noted labor leaders. Lastly will come a program of athletic events, open to all comers.

There will be a general suspension of business in the city. All manufacturing plants, general stores and the banks will close for the day and mail service at the postoffice will be curtailed. There will be no city or rural deliveries during the day. The money order, postal savings and registry departments will close all day. The stamp, general delivery and carrier windows will open from 8 to 10 a. m. Mail will be collected and dispatched as usual.

The Rubber game of baseball at Recreation Park this (Labor Day) afternoon between the local West Ends and the All-Stars of South Windham with the Town of Windham Baseball Championship at stake, promises to be the ace attraction for the fans.

EFFORT TO HOG THE ROAD CAUSES BAD ACCIDENT

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Alfred M. Burnamd of 1417 Main street, Worcester, Mass., sustained cuts about the face and hands Saturday afternoon about four o'clock when a Ford sedan overturned, in a ditch, about one hundred feet west of Sherman's Corners, on the Willimantic-Danielson highway, in South Chaplin. The Ford sedan was being operated in a westerly direction by Alfred M. Burnamd, husband of the injured woman. Another Ford car going in the same direction and operated by Edwin C. Carlson of 200 Gallup street, Providence, R. I., passed the Worcester machine but the driver cut in too sharply, with the result that the rear of the passing car sideswiped the front of Burnamd's machine. The Burnamd machine left the highway, veered sharply to the right of the road, plunged down a three-foot embankment and capsized on a pile of rocks. Mrs. Burnamd was cut by glass and Mr. Burnamd was severely shaken up. The Ford was wrecked. The entire top was ripped off making the sedan appear like an empty glass box. Considerable of the glass was broken when the car fell on its side on the rocks. The damage to Carlson's car was minor. State policemen Merrill Keith and Rose of the Danielson barracks responded to a call and following an investigation presented Carlson before Justice of the Peace Charles B. Russ of the Chaplin town court, on a charge of reckless driving. Carlson pleaded guilty and was given the minimum fine of $25 and costs. It is understood that he will settle for the wrecked machine. The damaged Ford was hauled to Leonard's Garage here for repairs.

While State Officers Keith and Rose, of Danielson were investigating the accident in which the Ford car owned by Alfred M. Burnamd of Worcester, Mass., was wrecked, Alex Whitehead of Arlington, N. J., a summer resident in Scotland drove by the location of the collision at a rapid speed. One of the officers gave chase and after a run Whitehead was returned and taken before Justice of the Peace Charles B. Russ, of Chaplin. Whitehead pleaded guilty to speeding and paid a fine of $10 and costs. Grand Juror Frank W. Landon prosecuted. The case

A puzzling case developed Saturday when Clarence Ellison, of Windham Center, a chauffeur for Dr. F. E. Guild, was in the police court on the unusual charge of attempt to secure credit of payment on a contracted bill of conditional sale of a purchased automobile. Considerable evidence was introduced. At the conclusion of the trial Judge Frank H. Foss stated that he believed that there was circumstances in the case which warranted the attention and final decision of a higher tribunal. He found probable cause and bound Ellison over to the next term of the Windham county superior court under bonds of $500, which were furnished by Nelson Potter.

At the conclusion of a ride with Harry Baker, Ellison called at the office of the Bozza Chevrolet Motor Sales Company of this city. According to Ellison's testimony he entered into a transaction by which he traded a car which he already had and gave in addition one hundred and fifty dollars in cash to Rudolph Bousa and then drove off with his new Chevrolet sedan, after completing arrangements for further payments. He maintained throughout cross examination that he had paid the $150 in cash.

Nelson Potter, of Windham Center, testified that on the forenoon of September 1 when Ellison purchased the new car, the latter had come to him and borrowed $240 which he said was to be applied on the purchase of a Chevrolet. Potter gave Ellison a $100 bill and two $20 bills. Ellison stated that he gave Bousa a $100 bill, two $20 bills and two, $5 bills.

Bousa testified that Ellison spoke about giving a check for $150 but the check nor the money was not given to him. Mrs. Bousa, who is bookkeeper for the company, said that she gave Ellison credit for $150 on the invoice credit or receipt of sale of the new car, when Ellison informed her that he had given Mr. Bousa a check for that amount. After Ellison had left she spoke to her husband about the check and he was startled, stating that he had not received one. A search was made for Ellison, but he was not located until the next day. Ellison insisted that he had given the money and as no trace of it could be found, Bousa requested a warrant for his arrest.

Thirty-five members of St. Joseph's Boy Scout Band of this city will participate in a contest for juvenile bands, the members of which are under twenty-one, at the Eastern States' Exposition at Springfield, Mass., September 24. The prizes are: first $100; second $50, third $30.

Judgment by default was given the plaintiff in the case of Attorney Samuel E. Harvey versus William Sarnowski, by Justice of the Peace Curtis Lean, Saturday morning. The damages amounted to $74.57 and the costs to $12.04. The case was to recover an unpaid bill for services rendered.

Blanche Montigny was given a mystery box, at the meeting of Mary Todd Lincoln Tent, No. 15 D. of V. held in the G. A. R. Hall Friday evening.

Funeral services for Benoni Bates were held at his home in Windham Center, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. James G. Graham, of Windham officiated. Burial was in Windham cemetery. The bearers were: Antino Antram, Harold Leffingwell, Alfred Harvey and Edward Bailey. Avery and VanZant had charge of the arrangements.

Notice of the recovery of a black touring car owned by Mrs. Mary Sweet, of this city, and stolen from her Friday evening, was telegraphed the local police department Sunday Corporal Short given orders from the Springfield, Mass., police department. The machine had been abandoned on one of the streets of that city and had apparently not been damaged by the thieves. The recovery of the car maintains a clean slate for the local department which holds the enviable reputation of never having failed to restore to its owner any car stolen in this city. Most of the recoveries were made within a short time.

Martin Shea, of parts unknown for about two months, was notified upon his return to this city over the weekend to appear in police court Monday morning to answer to a charge of non-support, instigated by his wife, from whom he has been separated for some time. Shea has been in court on a similar charge, several times within the past few years.

Constable Goodwin of Ashford came to this city Sunday and placed Joseph Sabo in the local lock-up for safe keeping. Sabo, who is a resident of Warrenville, was arrested there in what is termed a crazy-drunken condition, and he gave the constable plenty to think about before he was landed safely behind the bars. He will be brought before the Ashford town court today (Monday) or Tuesday.

Judgment for the plaintiff was rendered Saturday, by Justice of the Peace Dean in the case of Frank Rosen versus Frank Paterek, to the amount of $15 and costs. Attorneys Fuss and Arthur T. Kelly represented the plaintiff and defendant respectively. Constable Joseph Peck testified on behalf of the plaintiff. The case arose as the result of an unpaid bill for a tire which Mr. Paterek claimed was defective and which he returned to Mr. Rosen but received no adjustment.

The local police officers were on the watch Saturday for a Chrysler touring car bearing Massachusetts registration markers 30-5041 which was stolen in Westfield, Mass., early in the afternoon and which it was thought was being driven toward this city.

The scheduled race between Justin, owned by Eli Blanchette and Goldenrod Charles Carpenter's stepper, which was to be run Saturday afternoon on the Norwich fair grounds track has been postponed to September 19. It is understood that the side bets are piling up and one horseman has promised to eat another fellow's shirt if Justin comes in second.

Brief Paragraphs

Supt. and Mrs. Edward J. Graham of Norwich and Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Frisbee and Miss Ella Trumble of Andes, N. Y., were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. William E. Hendry recently.

John A. Williams of the U. S. Naval Academy, at Annapolis, Md., is spending a three weeks leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Livesay have as holiday guests, Mr and Mrs. D. C. Hoe and daughter Mary Elizabeth and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price, of Warren, Mass.

Mrs. Ora Ellsworth is spending the holiday at her home in Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Pare of Providence, are spending Labor Day with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hevrin.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Storrs are on a motor trip to Cape Cod.

Leslie Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Daniels is spending the holiday with Stanley Storrs, of Storrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dubeau are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. James Lavigne of West Warwick, R. I., for the week.

The case of Edward F. Casey versus Morris H. Jones was continued to September 12, by Justice of the Peace Dean at a hearing, Saturday.

The father of Daniel Defoe, author of Robinson Crusoe, was a butcher. Daniel became insane in his old age.

New—and what a "kick" it gives to salads!

How you enjoy food with a rich, piquant, appetizing taste! Here's a better way to get that taste in salads and all mild-flavored foods.

For sauce or dressing, or mixed as an ingredient, use Gulden's new mild Saladressing Mustard. A mild mustard taste from the world's finest mustard seeds, a spicy tang, the richness of fine oils! What an improvement this delightful new seasoning makes in your enjoyment of your food. Try it tonight. At all grocers. 15c.

GULDEN'S new SALADRESSING MUSTARD

7:25 4 Time for a good Cigar

YOUTH OF 20 CONFESSES FREIGHT AND HOUSE BREAKS

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 6.—A series of breaks in the city was cleared up Saturday, in the arrest of Mike Wawer, 20, of 23 Brick Row who admitted thefts from local freight station of the New Haven railroad, August 29 and 30, also at the home of Mrs. Frances Williams of 283 Lewiston avenue, during May. Wawer broke down during a cross-examination by Chief of Police Allen McArthur and Captain Thomas Grady. He said that he had systematically stolen antiques, crockery, glassware and various other articles from the Williams home. Wawer has been employed at Snyder's bakery, in a building next to Mrs. Williams' home. At the conclusion of his day's work he would hide pieces of crockery or glassware under his coat and take them home. The value of his thefts from that place is estimated at $500.

From the freight station he stole canned goods and candy billed to local merchants. The breaks were reported to Arent Harry A. Blanchette, who in turn reported them to the local and state police departments. Captain James Carroll and Lieutenant Thomas Moran of the New Haven force and local officers have been working on the case. Suspicion led to Wawer on the occasion of the first break and when the theft was repeated August 30th he was directly implicated and arrested.

In police court Saturday morning, Probation Officer S. Arnott Peckham was appointed guardian ad litem for Wawer. The latter admitted his guilt. Judge Frank H. Foss bound the accused over to the next term of the Windham county superior court, placing him under bonds of $1,500. It is possible that the case may be added to the present docket of the criminal court.

CONGDON AND FITZPATRICK SURE OF REAPPOINTMENT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 6.—Well grounded rumors here Sunday established the fact that William S. Congdon of this city and Joseph F. Fitzpatrick of New London could rest practically assured of reappointment as Federal Prohibition Officers, in the general shake-up of the federal forces being conducted throughout the country. Although the rumored reappointments could not be officially confirmed certainty persisted that these two Eastern Connecticut officers would be reinstated and possibly advanced in authority.

Interview by a representative of The Bulletin Sunday, Federal Officer Congdon stated that he had received no notice of a re-appointment and he declined to make any statement regarding his own position, or that of any of his brother officers. The situation as it affects Officers Stanton L. Briggs and Harry W. Avery remains uncertain yet and their fate could not be surmised. The salaries under the reorganized system will be from $3,500 up to $7,500 with an intermediate salary of $5,500. Officer Fitzpatrick was not communicated with regarding the information received.

BOY LOST HIMSELF FEARED HE WOULD BE FOUND

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Sept. 6.—George Menditto, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Menditto of High street was source of anxiety and alarm to his parents and to a small army of neighbors when he took to the woods near his home about 10:30 o'clock Friday night and remained in hiding for over three hours, while a search was being conducted for him. The boy had been playing with other children and in the course of an argument he threw a stone at a little girl playmate causing a slight cut under the child's ear. At the sight of running blood the Menditto boy became frightened and fled, disappearing in the bushes. A preliminary search failed and the police department was called in to assist. Officers Orland and Leo Piche responded and directed the movements of a posse of neighbors. When the child was finally discovered he was near the roadway and during the three hours had been watching the movements of the searchers with anxious eyes, fearing that he would be found and spanked for his misconduct.

JEWETT CITY

Mrs. Jane Lester, of Pachaug, is visiting Mrs. G. A. Haskell.

Mrs. Grace Webster and three children are guests of Mrs. Webster's aunt, Mrs. George Cooley, of Enfield, Mass.

Robert and Herbert Smith, of Phenix, R. I., were week-end visitors at H. I. Jeffers' in Sylvandale.

Abraham Zegeer went to Portland, Sunday, and will return today (Monday) with his family who have been spending two weeks there.

Flinn's tonight. Lois Wilson in Welcome Home.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Bishop, of New York, were week-end visitors at their son's home on School street.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Davis are visiting relatives in Boston and Lowell.

The postoffice is open today (Labor Day) from half past five to nine o'clock in the morning, and will close at nine for the rest of the day.

Arrangements are being made with the Norwich Tennis Club for a series of games with the Jewett City players.

One of the greatest improvements to Main street is to be made shortly. Cement walks are to be laid in front of the Slater Library, and down the hill, around on Railroad Avenue to the end of the Polish Corporation property, comprising about thirty-five hundred square feet. The flagstone walk to the library entrance is to be leveled.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montross and family from Plainfield, N. J., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geer. Mrs Lina Montross is the guest of Mrs William Paxton.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

The town court, Judge Torrey presiding, has been busy the past week. Zigmund Zigursky of Moosup was fined $5.00 and costs for intoxication. Thomas Flarity, of South Coventry, charged with reckless driving, was fined $5 and costs, about $75.00 in all. Edward Navin of the same town was fined $5 and costs for intoxication. Prosecutor Danielson and County Health Officer King presented W. D. McCormick for practicing medicine without a license from the state board of health. Lawyer King asked to have the case continued as the state had to summon witnesses. The doctor was not put to plea. The doctor appeared with several attorneys who are said to represent the Eclectic doctors in the state, whom the Supreme court has decided should not have their licenses restored to them.

George Craft, of Central Village, arrested for assault and intoxication and was sent to the State hospital at Norwich for examination mentally. His case was adjourned to Sept. 17. Wm. Hillis, fell 8 feet from a loan of sand being carted on Chas. Hopkins' team and had the muscles of his legt injured by a wheel. Dr. Gardner attended him.

Both railroad crossings have been filled in with broken stone and tar, to replace the old planking.

Don't be afraid to use good advice for fear of spoiling it.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Delano P. Parkhurst, 83, died Saturday night at his home on the West Side. Mr. Parkhurst had been in poor health for a long time. He was a native of the town of Brooklyn, born February 15, 1842, a son of Charles S. and Hannah Graves Parkhurst. Various activities engaged the attention of Mr. Parkhurst during his years of industry. He was for a long time engaged in a manufacturing business in a small plant at his West Side property, this business being continued by his son, who has made his home with his father and has given him solicitous care during his declining years.

There is a prospect that the special committee of the town charged with the duty of investigating and reporting as to Killingly's need of increased school facilities, will, after a meeting it has scheduled for Wednesday evening of this week, be prepared to complete the report that will be made to the town, at the annual town meeting on the first Monday in October. This forthcoming report is of such importance that it will be awaited with genuine interest.

If the weather proves favorable, there should be a large gathering of people at South Killingly today (Monday) for the annual Old Home day observance in that community. From distant points numbers who are to attend had arrived here Sunday. A program of exercises has been arranged and there will be such a shore dinner as only King George Jacques of East Killingly can prepare.

At one of the masses at St. James' church Sunday morning, cars bearing registrations of five different states—Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and New Jersey—were parked in the long row of vehicles outside the church.

For the reopening of Killingly's schools, Tuesday morning, teachers who have been away from town during the long vacation season will return to take up their duties.

Chief John McFarland has a request from the state to check closely on the speed of motor busses operating through Danielson. It so happens that there can be little complaint over the manner in which such vehicles operate through this town.

Work trains of the New Haven road continue to be engaged in ballasting operations on the line south of here, work being done in connection with the recent installation of heavier rails. Frost already has touched foliage in low places in this territory, bringing the first tints of autumn to the countryside.

A number from Danielson were at South Killingly for the Sunday evening service at the Congregational church, this service preceding the Old Home day observance scheduled for today.

Another holiday event will be the annual Labor day fete arranged by Sacred Heart parish at Wauregan. Two baseball games are scheduled to be played this morning as features of the program of the day.

Prayers of the congregations were requested at St. James' church, Sunday morning, for Daniel McCarthy, who died at Meriden the past week. Mr. McCarthy was the father of Rev. James E. McCarthy, of St. James' parish.

Snapping back of the long lash of a whip he was using caused a severe injury to an eye of Hugh Gorman, Jr., a selectman of the town of Brooklyn and resident on a farm in the Barritt Hill section of that town.

Progress is being made in Broad street in installing a new sewer line recently authorized at a special borough meeting.

Henry Babson, who has been at Princeton, Mass., during the summer, is here to remain until the latter part of October, when he will go to Florida, as is his annual custom, to remain during the winter.

A careful patrol of state highways radiating out of Danielson was maintained over the week end, when traffic was very heavy, by members of the force of state officers at the Danielson barracks.

Services of thanksgiving are to be held at St. James' church today—labor's holiday—for the favored position Danielson has enjoyed as to general employment during the past year.

Today (Labor Day) 6 holiday schedule of hours is in effect at the post office, with the usual regulations for such days.

St. James' parochial school opens Wednesday morning for the fall term. The enrollment this season is likely to approximate nearly 50 pupils.

Miss Katherine Thayer will visit friends at West Hartford during the coming week.

A number from this section will be at Hartford today (Monday) attending the state fair at Charter Oak park.

George C. Grover of Fall River is spending the holiday with friends in Danielson.

Traffic through Danielson the present holiday period appeared to have established a new peak for the present season.

Next Friday, republicans of Killingly will name their candidates for town officers and the democrats will do likewise on Saturday.

In spite of the handicaps imposed by the state's newly effective film tax law, motion pictures continue to be given with the usual regularity in Danielson.

Today will mark the closing for the season of a number of camps at lakes in Killingly and other neighboring territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bragg of Central Village have returned from a motor tour to Montreal.

GEORGE ROGERS, DAYVILLE, STRUCK AND FATALLY INJURED

(Special to the Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Sept. 6.—George Rogers, 5 son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers of Dayville, died of injuries received Sunday afternoon, when he was struck by an automobile operated by George H. MarcAurelle, of 348 Hamilton avenue, Worcester. The accident happened on the state highway near the Clarke farm, about two miles east of Putnam on the route to Attawaugan.

The child had been out for a motor ride with his uncle, Alfred Hill, who had stopped his machine to change a tire. The boy clambered out of the car and crossed to the other side of the highway and had started back when the Worcester machine came along and struck him, according to reports made to state officers who investigated the case.

The child was taken to the Day Kimball hospital, in the hope that his life might be saved, but the injuries were of too serious a nature.

Mr. Rogers father of the dead child, is employed at Wpnoosocket, coming to his home in Dayville for week ends. Mrs. Rogers was visiting with friends at Pascoag when the accident happened.

The body of the dead boy was brought from the hospital, in charge of Undertaker L. E. Kennedy.

After meeting with a riding accident which rendered her totally blind, Countess Czacki, member of one of the oldest and noblest houses in Poland, has founded a Catholic sisterhood exclusively for blind women.

PUTNAM

Malcolm M. Willey, professor of sociology at Dartmouth and Mrs. Willey are expected home from a European trip within a week. They have had a delightful trip spending nearly all the time in England and France, in London and Paris they knew in advance for the most part, the places they wished to visit and no time was lost in determining sight-seeing plans.

For the past few weeks they have been in northeastern France where, as most authorities now agree, are the oldest traces of man's habitation. Although the late Mr. Bryan would probably deny the truth of it, the evidence that men lived there at least 30,000 years ago that is accepted by all scientists. How much further back is problematical. From Les Eyzies Dordogne, Professor Willey sends a postcard with a picture roughly drawn of a Bison, described on the card as a Bison de la Grotte de Font-de-Gamme. Professor Willey says, "this is the capital of our prehistoric world. Hereabouts are all the famous stations where the traces of primitive man are found. This particular painting which we have seen on rock in a glacial cave, dates back to the Magdelenian era, 10,000 years ago."

Alderman and Mrs. Edmund Budois and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Budois have returned from a two weeks' trip through New England, New York state and Canada.

Miss Sara C. Tuckaberry of Lewiston, Maine, announces her engagement to Owen J. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. White of Eden street, this city. Miss Tuckaberry who has been French teacher at the Putnam High school for the past three years and will teach again this year, is a graduate of Bates College, Lewiston. Mr. White attended the Woodstock Academy and Clark College, Worcester and has been principal of the Israel Putnam school in Putnam.

The last regular meeting of Putnam Boy Scout Troop, No. 1 was held at the state armory. Seven more boys were made scouts: Kenneth Burgess, Stanley Tourtelotte, Carolus Tourtelotte, Sheldon Carpenter, Frank Donavan, George Herrick, Fred Alvord, George M. Lewis, chairman of the troop committee was present to help the scoutmaster with his duties. There are still six places left open for membership in the troop.

Mrs. Eldon S. Johnson and daughter Bernyce of Willimantic, have been guests of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams of South Main street for the past week.

Mrs. Harry Carrell of South Weymouth, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. F. Prince.

Miss Lavina Falkins, head nurse at Day Kimball hospital has been at Lord's Point for a few days and will go from there to visit at her home in Moncton, Nova Scotia.

J. E. Shennon of Nashua, N. H., who has been in Putnam for the purpose of completing the order for the memorial tablets to be placed on the new bridge, spoke at the meeting of the Putnam Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon. He told in a very interesting way of the manufacture of bronzes. The resignations of Royce D. McAllister and Jacob Albert as members of the club were read. Mr. McAllister is moving to New Milford and Mr. Albert's business will take him to another town on Rotary meeting days. The club has several new members in prospect.

Miss Sophie Harrison of Worcester, Mass., spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Harrison of Bridge street.

Junior Devine who has been visiting relatives in Springfield for the past three weeks, has returned to his home on Fremont street.

Miss Dorothy Keefe of Ring street has returned, after a visit with relatives in Northampton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dwight Sharpe have returned from a two weeks' outing spent at Quonochontaug, R. I.

A son born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Halford Letters has been named Frank G. Letters for his grandfather, The late Postmaster Frank G. Letters, one of the leading citizens of Putnam.

OWEN J. WHITE MAKES RECORD AT THE GOLF CLUB

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Sept. 6—At the Putnam Country club this afternoon, Owen J. White made the second hole in one. The distance is 130 yards and par is three. This is the first time in the ten years since the club has been established that a hole has been made in one.

Mr. White is one of the most enthusiastic golf players among the members.

For the past two years he has been principal of the Israel Putnam school and is second lieutenant of Headquarters company of the 43rd division, National Guard.

JAMES BIBEAULT, CRANKING CAR, CRUSHED TO DEATH

(Special to the Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Sept. 6—James Bibeault of Woodstock avenue met death in a peculiar automobile accident Saturday afternoon. He was past 70 but as active and vigorous as a man of 50. Just after lunch he went to his garage located near his home and started to crank his automobile. The handle flew back and struck him with such force that he was thrown against the edge of a work bench at the side of the garage. He had started the engine, however and the machine began to move. Either rendered partially or wholly unconscious by the blow from the crank, he was caught between the bench and the radiator of the car and crushed so seriously that death resulted within a few minutes.

One of the members of his family saw the accident and stopped the car. There was an immediate response to a shout for help and a physician quickly arrived, but death had been almost instantaneous.

Mr. Bibeault was one of the best known citizens of the town, and had made his home here for many years. He was formerly a shoe cobbler but afterwards became a carpenter and contractor. He had amassed considerable property, owning the house on Woodstock avenue in which he lived and another valuable residence on that street. He had just completed building a three story tenement which he owned and on which he had done considerable work himself, although he gave up regular daily employment five years ago.

Besides his wife he is survived by eight children.

It was first reported that the crank of the machine had struck him and thrown him against the bench in such a way as to break his neck, but later this report was found to be incorrect.

Mrs. Arthur Strong, who recently retired from the post of assistant director of the British school in Rome, is said to possess honorary degrees from more universities and honors from more learned societies than any other woman in the world. Mrs Strong has a world-wide reputation as an authority on art, ancient and modern.

WESTERLY

Anthony R. Ruisi of 36 High street, Westerly, reported to the Westerly Police department Sunday noon that on his return to Westerly Sunday morning from Pleasant View Beach his Ford coupe had been stolen, sometime between Saturday at 7 p. m. and Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The coupe was described as registry 41206 R. I. engine number 3,547,624 of 1920, red coach stripe around the body below the windows. A brand new set of Norwalk cord tires was on the rear wheels and a spare tire on the rear and there was a windshield wiper. The theft of the automobile was reported to the Rhode Island state troop barracks at Wakefield, and the Connecticut barracks at Groton, also to the Nofwich police department. While the United Theatres block is in progress of construction on Canal street, driveway to the garage at the rear of 36 High street cannot be used, so the automobile was left parked on High street headed toward Grove avenue with but a small quantity of gasoline in the tank. This is the second Ford coupe stolen from High street, the past month, the first being that of George Benjamin Spargo taken Monday night, August 3rd, when parked in front of the Brown building and the store of the P. H. Ople Company in which Mr. Spargo is employed.

Pawcatuck fire alarm whistle, No. 62, from the box corner of Liberty street and Stillman avenue, was sounded Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock on the whistle of the Pawcatuck Fire Department at the press works of C. B. Cottrell & Sons Company. The alarm was for a fire ignited blowing curtains in the bath room of the house, 24 Robinson street, occupied by Antonio Toskas. The fire truck of the P. S. Barber Hose Company responded, but the flames were extinguished before the arrival of the firemen. The heavy north wind blowing caused the fire alarm to be barely audible in the northern section of Pawcatuck and Westerly but it was clearly heard at the beaches.

William Whewell, of Lower Pawcatuck, was given a hearing in a special session of Stonington town court, on Saturday morning, before Judge William A. Wilcox, having been summoned into court by Patrolman King, who is substituting for regular Patrolman Ostman of Stonington borough, on the complaint of speeding his motorcycle, Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock on Water street, Stonington borough. The motorcyclist had visited the Atwood Machine Shop, making the trip at a rapid rate of speed, but his apprehension did not take place until his start to return. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs amounting in all to $23.46, which he paid.

Members of the graduating class of 1925 of Westerly High school who are planing to enter other institutions of learning are: Elizabeth Lucille Bonner, Northfield Seminary; Ruby Ella Brearly, Rhode Island College of Education, Providence; James Hatton Brindle, Rhode Island State College, Kingston; Gwendolyn Annis Buddington, Rhode Island College of Education; Thomas Joseph Capalbo, Dartmouth College, Hanover; Ernest Nicholas Cappuccio, Providence College; Joseph Coduri, Jr., Rhode Island State College; Ralph Burdick Cornell, Rhode Island State College; Marian Charlotte Dawley, Rhode Island College of Education; Westerlina De Rocco, Boston University, Boston; Joseph Deutsch, Rhode Island State College; Samuel Farago, Providence College; Ellen Frances Frye, Rhode Island College of Education; Leo John Grills, Suffield Academy, Suffield, Conn.; Gladys May Holdsworth, Rhode Island College of Education; Louis Harry Kaplan, New York University; Emma Gertrude Kingsley, Women's College Brown University, Providence; Ethel Marjorie Krelle, Columbia College; William Ledward, Rhode Island State College; Elizabeth Maxson, Westerly Hospital; Julian Lowell McKenzie, Rhode Island State College; Mary Grace Murphy, St. Elizabeth's College, Washington, D. C.; Carrie Frances Panciera, Katharine Gibbs' School, Providence; Frederick Panciera, Rhode Island State College; Samuel Giles Payne, Rhode Island State College; Minnie Rosen, Rhode Island College of Education; Mary Elizabeth Smith, Rhode Island College of Education; Roberta Solomon, Alfred New York University; Thomas Visgilio, Jr., Rhode Island State College; Helen Louise Walsh, Rhode Island College of Education; Betty Janet Whitford, Alfred University; Dorothy Ruth Wilcox, Rhode Island College of Education.

Automobile accidents in and about Westerly over the week end were light ones so far as personal injuries were concerned but the destruction of vehicles in many cases resulted in considerable loss.

Sergeant of Police Michael Curtin of Westerly was called to that section of the new cement highway between Westerly and Hopkinton City, about a mile and a half from Westerly, on the approach to the old south road to the Meeting House bridge. A long line of automobiles was found stopped and the Mooney bus unable to proceed towards Hope Valley, about 10:30 o'clock Saturday evening. A Ford touring car, 315553 Mass., reported as owned and driven by Lloyd Edmund Stevens, of 14 Capron street, Uxbridge, Mass., accompanied by his 19 year old Nelson Carlson of 8th avenue, Woonsocket, R. I., who was asleep on the front seat, bound for Weekapaug, was found tipped over on its side, on the north shoulder, of the highway, with the front wheels across the roadway. The machine was pretty generally smashed with glass scattered over the roadway for a distance of some 150 feet. On the same side of the road about 100 feet towards Ashaway was the Oakland five passenger coach 5V2455, N. Y. driven by Victor Oschese of 67 Popular street, Yonkers, N. Y., owned by Frederick Catullo, 192 Linden street, of the same city on its way from Westerly. The coach had as other passengers on the front seat Alphonse Catullo, 22, and Daniel Catullo, 177, and on the rear seat Mr. and Mrs. A. Catullo, Jr., all of the same address. This car had pitched down the embankment, smashing all the glass and running gear. The occupants of both machines escaped without a scratch.

Near the place where the head-on collision between the two automobiles occurred was parked, on the south shoulder of the highway, the Ford touring car 16-862 R. I., owned and driven by John B. Jacobson of Chase Hill and with him were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jacobson and John B. Jacobson. While tire trouble was being cared for this car had only the rear left wheel a few inches on the metal highway surface.

Although there was plenty of room for both machines to pass, the bumper of the touring car came in contact with the forward door on the left side of the coach with such force as to hurl the glass over the road and both automobiles off the road bed. In the absence of wheelmarks on the road surface and proof of reckless driving, no arrests were made, but directions were given by Sergeant Curtin, who investigated the accident, to have the automobile removed immediately and the glass taken from the highway. Patrolman George H. Champlin who was also called, cared for the traffic congestion.

Saturday [illegible] Stutz tour-ing car of the Providence caterer at the Robbins-Schreiber wedding at Watch Hill was in collision with the Ford touring car of Harvey Arsenaski, on the Watch Hill road, near the ice plant. The caterer's car was bound toward Westerly and when the brakes were set it is stated the automobile skidded for a distance of some 120 feet before the crash, in which considerable damage was done both automobiles.

Friday night, a Jewett touring car, occupied by four passengers left the highway near Solomonville, on the Stonington-Westerly road. Just missing a telephone pole, the automobile stopped when it was balanced on the stonewall by the roadside. Patrolman Vernon A. Burdick of Pawcatuck investigated the accident. When the driver was reported as under the influence of liquor, he was examined by Dr. M. H. Scanlon and Dr. John Ruisi who gave their opinion that the man was not under the influence of liquor. Members of this party escaped injury.

Stephen D. Brown, of Port Salonga, L. I., N. Y., is the guest for several weeks of his brother-in-law, Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown of Westerly. Chief Brown will, undoubtedly, add some Long Island tricks to his "bag" of fox-hunting exploits before his brother-in-law's return home.

Mrs. James F. Wicks of Providence was an automobile visitor in Westerly Sunday morning. She was accompanied by her brother, James H. Hodson and his wife, of White Rock to Taftville, where they were visitors on Pioneer Day Sunday. Forty years ago the Hodson family were Taftville residents.

Frank A. Titus of Longmeadow, R. I., president of the Rhode Island Association of The National League of Masonic clubs, has announced an official visitation to Westerl Masonic club, No. 175, for some date in October. Through Secretary H. C. Smith of the R. I. A. N. L. M. C. announcement is also made of the proposed visit of the degree team of the Providence Square club, for degree work.

Diligent search has been made for the razor with which Jeremiah Bourbeau is thought to have taken his life on his farm on the Hinckley Hill road in the early hours of Friday morning. The empty razor case was found in his left pocke and his cap was on a rock beside the brook from which his body was taken with cuts on his wrist and throat. Deputy Sheriff William H. Casey, Day Patrolman G. Wilson Brown of Pawcatuck, State Patrolman Vernon A. Burdick and a number of others have made careful search in the near-by field and woods at hand. It is thought that the high grass and brush will have to be burned over before the razor with white handle can be spotted missing, from Bourbeau's room can be located, inside newspaper correspondents have been in Westerly, attracted by a reported mystery in the death of the Civil war veteran, who had informed acquaintances that he was in dread of long continued illness.

Ticket Agent Reuben H. Austin after a several days' vacation from duties at the Westerly station of the New Haven railroad, will return Tuesday.

Deputy Town Treasurer Miss Mary E. Quinlan, of Westerly, was an automobile business caller in New London Saturday.

Miss Pauline K. Schwerin has returned to Westerly after a vacation visit with relatives in Brattleboro, Vt. and Norwich, Conn.

Misses Josephine E. and Alice King and Miss Bessie M. Gavitt leave Westerly today (Monday) for a several weeks' vacation visit in and about Jackson, N. H.

Miss Lillian T. Clarke, Misses Clara A. and Arline Strong and Leslie Stronz, of Westerly, are automobile visitors to Stony Creek, Conn., over Labor day.

Miss Mary Brodie returns today (Monday) after a summer vacation visit in Westerly to resume her duties as a teacher in the public schools of Plainfield, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Fisk and daughters Nancy and Phyllis Fisk, returned Sunday to their home in Stafford Springs, Conn., after two months' vacation at Miriam cottage, Pleasant View.

Ernest M. Hall of Westerly was at Crescent Park on the Providence River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Strong their sons Herbert and Frederick and Mrs. Everett Strong were automobile visitors from Westerly to Stony Creek Saturday, to remain over Labor day.

Mrs. Annie A. Noble left Sunday morning to be the guest of relatives in Providence over the holiday.

Miss Fannie E. Wilcox, assistant librarian at Westerly Library, was a Sunday morning visitor in Kingston, R. I.

Douglas Bonner was a week end visitor in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith of New York, formerly of Westerly were the Labor Day vacation visitors with relatives and friends in Westerly.

Maurice E. Kent of Pawcatuck left Westerly on Sunday afternoon for a visit in Providence.

Elmer Richmond of Pawcatuck left Westerly Sunday, accompanied by a friend from New London for New York for a Labor day visit and to return by a steamer of the New England Navigation Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cloe of Stonington were Westerly visitors Saturday.

Horace Gavitt, his sons Munson and Stanton and daughter Ruth, of Westerly, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brooks in Waterford, Conn.

Heavy traffic Saturday and Sunday was the cause for east and westbound express trains of the New Haven railroad, stopping at Westerly, to be run in several sections. Some of these were delayed by the vast amount of baggage which had to be taken.

Alexander B. Robertson, cashier at the Westerly branch of the American Railway Express Company completes his duties Tuesday, to enter the employ of the Washington Trust company.

BEACH MAIDEN'S SUIT-CASES HELD SUSPICIUS CONTENTS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Sept. 6—Sheriff Fred T. Mitchell of Washington county was called from his Westerly home to Quonochontaug Saturday, when a report was made to him that numerous small articles were missing at the Eldridge House, Quonochontaug beach. Proprietor Thurman Eldridge has had complaints of bathing suits being missed by guests and his wife has missed fine linen pieces. Suspecting that the job was an inside one, the rooms of the hotel help were visited and serv

ASHLAND, RIVERVIEW AND TAFTVILLE HAVE GAMES SCHEDULED FOR TODAY

Three Eastern Connecticut teams are lined up for diamond battle today, each with home games and there should be plenty of action for baseball lovers at any of them.

In the morning Taftville A. A. plays the Pioneers of Groton in the final and deciding game of a three game series. In the afternoon Ashland plays Attleboro, Mass at Jewett City and Riverview takes on J. B. Martin, winner of the Taftville series, this game to be played at the hospital diamond.

Ashland vs. Attleboro.

This afternoon at Ashland Park the Ashland A.A. meet a tough proposition in "Roy" Rock's Attleboro, Mass. team "Roy" Rock's Attleboro, Mass. team Rock is a big favorite in Jewett City having played here every season for the last four years and always bringing with him a mighty good ball club

This club comes here with wins over such teams as: Beacon Mills of Fall River, Framingham, Mass. Saxonville, Mass., Newport Town Team and many other fast aggregation

They defeated the fast North Adams Props, champions of Western, Mass. in North Adams Wednesday 2-1 in a twilight game.

The Baystaters will lineup:: McDermott C. McCarthy, former Sub. Base twirler or "Tommy" Leach formerly with Reading's International league p., Applin, 1b, Desrosiers who had a trial with Providence International League, ss; Hardie, 2b; "Moonie" Manning, 3b; Rylander, lf; Shea, cf; Fleming, rf. Ashland, A. A. "Pop" Liberty c, Stanley young right-hander who has recently joined the club will pitch. This kid has been pitching wonderful ball this season having defeated Taftville A. A. and the past Eastern Conn. Power nine of the Norwich Twilight League. This is his first real test against a fast semi-pro. club and it is hoped that he will come through with flying colors Robertson, 1b; Guillett, ss. This will be Guillett's last game with the local club as he leaves next week to resume his studies at St. Thomas Seminary Capt. "Nap" Liberty, 3b "Chip" Dugas, 2b; Gilbert, lf; Raill, cf; Benjamin, rf; "Tommy" Corcoran will hold these indicator.

Riverview vs. J. B. Martin.

One of the most exciting games of the season will take place this Monday afternoon at the state hospital, when the fast travelling J. B. Martin club plays the Riverview club in the second game of their series. This club although it doesn't play sensational ball has the fighting spirit that wins many ball games in the late innings. They have just disposed of Truland's Taftville A. A. which is leading the Norwich Twi-league his reinforcements from the Fiske Red Tops of Chicopee Falls failing to stem the tide of defeat.

The pitching assignment for the Riverview club will be announced before the game. Joe Belair will do the catching. The infield will be taken care of by Harrell 1b, Hawes, 2b, Normandin ss, Mills 3b, Moore lf, Stubbs cf, and Clabby rf.

Morin and Curran will officiate.

Taftville vs. Pioneers.

Monday morning at 10.30 o'clock Taftville A. A. and the Groton Pioneers meet in the third and deciding game of their series. Each team has won a battle and will fight it out to win the victory. The Pioneers will present a greatly strengthened lineup for the contest but Lloyd Jarvis, who pitched Taftville to victory over the Groton team, has been chosen for the moundsman for the Labor Day game and Taftville feels sure he can repeat the trick.

ASHLAND A. A. DEFEATS TAFTVILLE, SCORE 9 TO 5

Sunday afternoon at Ashland Park the Ashland A. A. took a fall out of the fast Taftville A. A. in the first game of the series, 9-5. Ashland drew first blood in the fourth when Benjamin socked one against the garages in left for two bas s. Raill was hit by a pitched ball. On a wild pitch Benjamin took third and Raill second Gilbert flied to Yerrington who fumbled and Benjamin scored.

Taftville opened in the fifth. Eccleston filed out to N. Liberty, Yerrington singled, Leo Jarvis hit to N. Liberty and was safe at first on a low throw. Lloyd Jarvis hit to left for a double scoring Yerrington and Leo Jarvis. Cardle faned, Stanley singled scoring Lloyd Jarvis. Ashland scored another run in the fifth when "Chip" Dugas hit a homer over left field fence. Taftville scored two more in the sixth: Counihan singled. Gauthier sacrificed Counihan to second, Eccleston filed out to Guillett, Yerrington hit a double scoring Counihan, Leo Jarvis hit a double scoring Yerrington.

Ashland scored again in the sixth, Raill singled, Gilbert hit to Yerrington who threw out Raill at second. "Babe" Robertson, next man up hit over the garages in left field for a homer, scoring Gilbert ahead of him. With the score 5-4 in favor of Taftville, Ashland staged another one of their famous rallies, scoring five runs. Nap. Liberty singled, Bill Liberty doubled to center, Benjamin singled scoring Nap. and Bill Liberty, Raill walked, Gilbert singled filling the bases, Robertson singled scoring Benjamin and Raill. When Lloyd Jarvis tried to nip Robertson at first, Gilbert scored. "Spike" Liberty on the mound for Ashland was touched for thirteen hits but kept them pretty well scattered.

One of the features of the game was that every man on the Ashland team hit safely.

Taftville used three pitchers, Lefty Dugas, Gauthier and Lloyd Jarvis. The score:

Taftville A. A.	ab	h	po	a	e	Ashland A. A.	ab	h	po	a	e
LeoJarvis,lf	5	2	1	0	0	Guillet,ss	5	1	2	3	0
L.Jarvis,rf-p	5	2	3	2	0	C. Dugas,2b	3	1	4	2	0
Cardle,2b	5	0	4	0	0	N.Liberty,p	4	1	1	3	0
Stanley,rf	4	2	2	0	0	W.Liberty,3b	4	2	1	4	1
A.Dugas,1b	4	0	8	1	0	R.Liberty,c	5	1	9	0	0
Counihan,ss	4	2	0	1	0	Benjamin,rf	4	3	0	0	0
L.Dugas,p	3	1	0	0	0	Raille,cf	3	1	2	0	0
Gauthier,p	0	0	1	0	0	Gilbert,lf	5	1	0	0	0
Eccleston,c	4	1	6	1	0	Robertson,1b	4	2	10	0	0
Yerington,3b	4	1	0	1	1
Gauthier,cf	1	0	0	0	0	Totals	37	15	27	11	1
Totals	39	10	21	11	1

Score by innings:
Taftville A. A. .....0 0 0 0 3 2 0 0 0—5
Ashland A. A. .....0 0 0 1 2 5 0 0 1—9

Two base hits, Benjamin, R. Liberty, Leo Jarvis 2, L. Jarvis 2, Stanley, Yerrington. Home runs, C. Dugas, Robertson.

RIVERVIEW BREAKS EVEN OVER THE WEEK END

Riverview and South Manchester split even in their week end games, the locals taking Saturday's game by a score of 5 to 3 while South Manchester took Sunday's game 6 to 4.

In the Saturday game Riverview had things pretty much their own way after the third inning, then bunched hits bringing in four runs up to the third while South Manchester continued to trail them. The only threat made by the visitors came in the ninth when a man reached first. This try at a rally was nipped in the bud almost immediately by a fast double play Normandin to Harrell, which ended the game.

At South Manchester, Sunday Riverview had many chances to score but seemed to lack the ability to hit when they were needed. Tony West had a bad day also, two bad throws resulted in runs which practically defeated him. Sipples, a fast ball pitcher seemed to have the jinx on the Riverview batters fanning them at will.

Another game between these two teams would draw a large crowd as they seem to be about evenly matched

Riverview will stack up against the J. B. Martin team at the hospital grounds today and endeavor to defeat the vanquishers of Taftville. A. A. The score:

Riverview	ab	h	po	a	e	South Manchester	ab	h	po	a	e
Counihan,rf	2	1	0	0	0	Shiok,rf	6	2	2	0	0
Hawe,2b	4	1	3	3	0	Wright,c	5	2	4	1	0
Mills,3b	4	0	0	3	0	Sipples,cf	5	2	3	0	0
Clabby,rf	4	1	3	0	0	Kane,lf	4	1	1	2	0
Goodridge,p	1	1	0	4	0	Cater,2b	4	1	1	2	0
Normdin,ss	3	1	1	3	1	Devine,1b	4	0	12	0	0
Moore,lf	3	1	0	0	0	Burdick,3	4	2	0	2	0
Harrell,1b	4	2	13	0	0	Sweet,ss	4	1	1	2	0
Belair,c	3	1	1	1	0	Johnson,p	3	0	1	3	1
Hamel,cf	1	0	2	0	0
						Totals	35	8	21	9	1
Totals	29	11	27	18	1

Score by innings:
Riverview .....1 2 0 0 0 0 2 0 x—5
South Manchester .....2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—3

Two base hits, Goodridge, Hawe, Clabby. Hit by pitcher, by Johnson 1. Bases on balls, off Goodridge 2, off Johnson 2

Riverview	ab	h	po	a	e	South Manchester	ab	h	po	a	e
Moore,lf	4	1	5	0	0	Shiok,rf	4	0	2	0	0
Hawes,2b	4	1	4	1	0	Wright,c	2	0	3	1	1
Mills,3b	4	0	1	2	0	Sipples,p	4	0	0	2	0
Clabby,rf	4	2	1	0	0	Cotter,2b	3	3	1	3	0
Wesip	4	0	0	1	0	Kane lf	1	0	2	0	0
Normandin,ss	4	0	1	1	1	Devine,1b	1	1	7	0	0
Riglio,p	4	0	0	0	0	Rudnick,3b	1	2	1	1	0
Harrell,1b	4	1	7	1	0	Hamilton,c	1	2	12	0	0
Blair,c	4	0	3	0	0	Hanna,cf	4	1	0	0	0
Hamel	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	36	9	27	6	1
Totals	36	7	31	6	2

Score by innings:
Riverview .....1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—2
South Manchester .....3 0 0 2 0 1 1 0 x—6

Two base hit: Clabby. Three base hit, Moore Struck out, by West 2 by Sipples 12.

SENATORS DEFEAT BRIDGEPORT 3 TO 0.

BRIDGEPORT., Sept. 6—(AP) — Lem Owen pitched masterful ball and Hartford defeated Bridgeport, 3 to 0, here this afternoon, scoring all their runs in the eighth inning on three hits, a pass and an error.

The batting of Shay and the fielding of Schinkel and Fraser stood out. Score:

Hartford .....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 0—3
Bridgeport .....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

NEW HAVEN ROMPS AWAY WTH GAME 22 to 5

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 6.—(AP)—New Haven scored eleven runs in the first inning of today's game with Springfield, wining easily 22 to 5. Everyone except Hauk got at least two hits. Woodard pitched his first game for the locals and had an easy time with the visitors. Score:

Springfield .....0 1 0 0 1 0 3 0 0—5
New Haven ...11 0 4 0 0 5 2 0 x—22

Two base hits, Bowman, Woodward. Three base hits, Mayer, Berger. Home run, Bowman.

BASEBALL

THIS MORNING—10:30.
At the Providence Street Grounds, Taftville.

Pioneers, Groton vs. Taftville A. A.

(LAST GAME OF SERIES.)

Batteries—Taftville: Eccleston, cj Jarvis, p. Pioneers: Scroggins, pj Whiton, c.

BASEBALL

TODAY ASHLAND PARK
ASHLAND A. A. vs.
ROY ROCK'S
—ATTLEBORO MASS. CLUB—
GAME CALLED AT 3.30 (D. S. T.)
BATTERIES:
ASHLAND: "BILL LIBERTY C. STANLEY P.
ATTLEBORO: M'DERMOTT C. M'CARTHY or LEACH P.

BASEBALL

TODAY—STATE HOSPITAL DIAMOND
RIVERVIEW CLUB
vs. J. B. MARTIN
BATTERIES—Riverview: Davis and Belair; J. B. Martin, Lemieux, Popin and J. Murphy.
Game Called at 2:45 (D.S.T.)

Today's Calendar of Sports

RACING
Meeting of Westchester Racing Association, at Belmont Park.
Meeting of Montreal Jockey Club, at Montreal.
Meeting of Business Men's Racing Assn. closes at Chicago.
Meeting of West Virginia State Air opens at Wheeling.
Meeting of Maryland State Fair opens at Timonium.

TROTTING
Meeting of Grand Circuit opens at Indianapolis.

BASEBALL
Western Association, Texas Association Southwestern League Florida State League and Eastern Shore League close the season.

TENNIS
Davis Cup interzone finals start at Forest Hills, L. I.
Girls national turf court championship, at Philadelphia.
Southern Ohio championship tournament, at Cincinnati.

GOLF
Canadian women's closed championship opens at Ottawa.
Irish open amateur championship opens at Portrush.

MOTORBOAT
Harmsworth Trophy race at Detroit.

AUTOMOBILE
National 250-mile championship race, at Altoona.
Seventh annual Pike's Peak climb.

BENCH SHOW
Annual show of Spokane (Wash.) Kennel Club.

BOXING
Mike Ballerino vs. Lew Paluso. 10 rounds, at San Francisco.
King Solomon vs. Jack Renault. 15 rounds, at Long Island City.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results.

Pittsburgh 9, Chicago 2.
St. Louis 9, Cincinnati 3.
Boston 14-11, Brooklyn 1-4.
Only games scheduled.

Saturday's Results

New York 14, Philadelphia 10.
Pittsburgh 6, St. Louis 5.
Chicago 6-1, Cincinnati 5-4.
Brooklyn 5-3, Boston 5-4.

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	82	54	.603
New York	76	58	.567
Cincinnati	70	62	.530
Brooklyn	62	67	.481
St. Louis	62	70	.470
Boston	61	73	.455
Chicago	58	76	.433
Philadelphia	55	73	.430

GAMES TODAY

Cincinnati at St. Louis.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.
Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Brooklyn.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results

Philadelphia 3, New York 4.
Cleveland-Detroit rain.
Boston 3, Washington 3
Chicago 4 St. Louis 2.

Saturday's Results

New York 8 Philadelphia 1.
Washington 7, Boston 6.
Detroit 6, Cleveland 4
St. Louis 10, Chicago 8

The Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	83	46	.644
Philadelphia	74	51	.592
Chicago	75	59	.542
Detroit	70	61	.534
St. Louis	67	61	.523
Cleveland	66	70	.485
New York	64	72	.429
Boston	37	94	.282

GAMES TODAY
(No Games)
St. Louis at Detroit.
Chicago at Cleveland.
Washington at Philadelphia.
New York at Boston.

EASTERN LEAGUE

Saturday's Results

Waterbury 5, Hartford 2.
Worcester 4-7, Springfield 3-0.
Springfield 3-4, Bridgeport 2-2.
Pittsfield 7, New Haven 1.

Yesterday's Results

Worcester 0, Waterbury 2.
Hartford 3, Bridgeport 0.
Springfield 5, New Haven 22.
Pittsfield 15 Albany 12.

American Association.

Columbus 12; Toledo 5.
Minneapolis 1; St. Paul 4.
Louisville, 0; Indianapolis 3.
Kansas City 6, Milwaukee 4

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

Littlerock 3, Chattanooga 4.
Memphis 2, Nashville 5.
Birmingham 7, New Orleans 2.
Atlanta 4, Mobile 0.

BRAVES CLOUT BALL TO WIN TWO FROM DODGERS

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept 6— (A. P.) —The Boston Braves took both sections of a twin bill from Brooklyn today, 14 to 1 and 11 to 4. The Robins used four pitchers in the first three innings of the opener during which the Braves scored 10 runs on seven hits. Cantrau tripled with the bases full.

In the second game, the Braves pounded three Robins' twirlers for 15 hits including a homer by High and two triples by Bancroft. Score:

(First Game.)

Boston (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Brooklyn (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Gautreau,2b	6	2	4	2	1	Mitchell,ss	4	2	2	3	0
Connery,lf	6	0	2	0	0	Stock,2b	4	1	3	4	0
Barnes,1b	1	0	2	1	0	Wheat,lf	4	0	2	0	0
Felix,lf	5	1	6	1	0	Lotus,lf	2	0	1	0	0
Neis,cf	4	2	2	0	0	Fournier,1b	4	0	10	1	0
Welsh,rf	4	1	4	1	0	Cox,rf	4	0	2	0	0
High,2b	4	2	0	1	0	W.Brown,cf	4	2	2	0	0
Pagerett,ss	2	1	0	0	0	Johnston,2b	4	2	0	1	0
Padgett,as	3	1	3	2	0	DeBerry,c	1	0	1	0	0
O'Neill,c	2	1	3	0	0	Hargraves,c	2	2	3	1	0
Benton,p	2	2	1	0	0	Petty,p	0	0	0	1	0
						—Cantrell,p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	39	14	27	8	2	xxTaylor	1	0	0	0	0
						Ossinger,p	0	0	0	0	0
						L. Brown,p	0	0	1	0	0
						Totals	36	9	27	13	2

(a) Batted for Cantrell in 2nd

Score by innings

Boston	0	5	4	0	0	0	0	3	1	—14
Brooklyn	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	— 1

(Second Game.)

Boston (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Brooklyn (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Gautreau,2b	5	0	2	4	0	Mitchell,ss	5	3	2	4	2
Connerott,rf	5	3	1	3	0	Stock,2b	4	0	4	4	0
Padgett,ss	0	0	1	1	0	Wheat,lf	4	1	2	0	1
Felix,lf	4	2	2	0	0	Fournier,1b	4	1	7	1	1
Barnes,1b	5	4	10	0	0	Cox,rf	2	0	1	0	1
Welsh,rf	4	1	1	0	0	Brown,cf	3	2	3	0	0
High,2b	5	3	1	1	0	Tierney,3b	4	2	0	1	0
Neis,cf	5	1	5	0	0	Taylor,c	4	1	6	1	1
Gibson,c	5	1	3	0	0	Ehrhardt,p	2	1	0	2	0
Kamp,p	0	0	0	1	0	Petty,p	0	0	0	0	0
Maynard,p	0	0	0	0	0	Johnston	1	0	0	0	0
aSmith	0	0	0	0	0	Cantrell,p	0	0	0	0	0
Ryan,p	3	1	0	1	0	azzBargraves	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	38	15	27	12	0	Totals	36	13	25	16	3

(a) Batted for Maynard in 3rd.
(aa) Batted for Petty in 7th.
(aaa) Batted for Cantrell in 9th.
(aaaa) Welsh out, hit by batted ball.

Score by innings

Boston	0	0	3	1	0	3	1	1	0	—11
Brooklyn	0	3	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	— 4

Two base hits Felix Mitchell, Ehrhardt. Three base hits, Bancroft 2, Barnes. Home run, Rich.

BOBBY JONES BY DEFEATING GUNN RANKS WITH SPORTDOM'S SUPER MEN

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The ranks of sportdom's super men were opened tonight to receive a great amateur golfer in Bobby Jones among the Cobbsof the diamond, the Thorpes of the gridiron and the Tildens of the tennis courts.

There are still amateur flights ahead of the scoring Georgia marvel. As a two-tie champion, Bobby still has two more journeys to make over the title trail to equal the achievement of Jerry Travers, and one more up to tie the performance of Walter J. Travis, but in the youthful Atlanta master's conquest of his twenty-year old neighbor and pal, Watts Gunn, at Oakmont yesterday, Jones established a mark for low scoring which has amply justified the acceptance of this Southern Star as the game's most famous amateur.

To his grand average of 74- 1-25 in the national open, which has placed him in front of the nation's foremost amateur and professional players by more than one full stroke, Jones yesterday added an average of a fraction over 75 for thirty-four medal rounds in two major links competitions—the national amateur and national open. How easily he outstroked the Oakmont field is only too apparent in view of the match play, which shows that none of his contests reached within five holes of the final green. He distanced Reekie, 11 and 9, Wolfe by 6 and 5, Von Elm at 7 and 6, and finally his brilliant protege, Gunn, 8 and 7.

Failing as swiftly as Jones' opposition before the champion's powerful shots, the 16 player qualification limit went down to defeat before the fury which thronged the fairways to see the trial of the new testing plan fail to deliver for match play such championship possibilities as Olmet, Johnston, Gardener, Kneper, Cummings, Herron, and a host of others. Absence of the stirring struggles between well known favorites which had marked the tournmant in other years turned even Jones, who had approved the reduction in qualifiers, against the innovation.

Spikes driven in the Dempsey-Wills fight's hopes by failure of Floyd Fitzsimmons, Michigan City, Ind., promoter, to supplement his early negotiations by depositing with the negro's management a $100,000 guarantee of good fair, coupled with the return from Europe of Wills bearing a dipper of pessimistic views to dash upon the proposed match, turned fistic followers to prospects of other battles as a closing salvo of outdoor boxing.

Trailing a light-heavyweight title match next Friday night into the ring will be a welterweight struggle later in the month between Mickey Walker, title-holder, and Dave Shade, as well as a middleweight clash between Harry Greb and Jimmy Slattery.

In spite of the failure of his padded mittens to fashion an impressive championship showing in his first defence of the crown against young Warnlle, Paul Berlenbach tonight ruled a favorite over Jimmy Slattery, whose challenge was accepted after illness had stricken from the lists Jack Delany of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mike McTigue, the former light-heavyweight king. The rise of the new champion's stock was attributed not so much to Paul's tremendous punching power as to Slattery's failure to convince metropolitan fans that he had profited by his defeat earlier this summer at the hands of Dave Shade.

Although his decisive victory over Frank Carpenter last week dulled the edge of disappointment left by his failure to impress pugilistic followers in his "comeback" bout against Maxey Rosenbloom, critics stressed the fact that the Buaffalo fighter had apparently failed to sense the necessity of constructing a satisfactory defence to preclude a repetition of the Shade upset.

Apparently unshaken in confidence Slattery has continued with easy grace to flout the approved fistic custom of leading from a stance with his hands well in front of his body as a defensive precaution. Relying almost entirely on his fleetness of foot to escape punishment, he boxes with both left and right dangling loosely at his sides, a tempting though elusive target for straight right hand punchers.

Prospects of a Wills-Gene Tunney heavyweight match in New York this fall, sped by the sharp public thrusts of Tunney's management and gave encouragement by the consent of the negro, were confronted by a tall mudle in the form of verbal agreement entered early this year between Wills and promoters of Newark, N. J., released by the latter to engage in a recent fight with Charley Weinert, Wills now has been called upon to fulfill the terms of the unwritten New Jersey contract. Abandoning hope of drawing Dempsey into the same ring with him after his five-year pursuit of the title, Wills sees in the Tunney bout a match of tremendous drawing power whose exploitation apparently waits largely upon diplomatic handling of an involved situation.

Baseball turned from the major league races, as the Senators and Yankees steadily widened the margin of their advantage over faltering challengers, to view with mixed emotions the fall from favor of its home run monarch. The indefinite suspension of Babe Ruth with a $5,000 fine was accompanied by apologies from the disciplined outfielder, scoldings from the New York club officials and an abundance of critical comment offering many-sided explanations for the king's tumble.

The reduction of the highest paid player in the game and the idol of youthful America to a pathetic figure was accepted in many quarters as the outcome as the glorification of baseball greatness which failed to reflect in Ruth a full conception of the ideals associated with diamond fame by imaginative youth.

The old excuse for Ruth's previous departure from training regulations—that he was just a good natured and sometimes disobedient boy—at last was rejected by the New York club as the Yankee management reached the conclusion that Babe had helped to throw away the team's standing as a pennant contender while tossing off money and health. That his punishment has at least brought Ruth up sharply to a contemplation of his failure to maintain the standard set out for him by the diamond hosts seems evident in the big outfielders' apparently sincere apologies. Only the future will say, however, whether moral might lurks behind batting strength in proportions sufficient to dissolve the past with a new shower of home runs.

An opportunity of reach into the challenge round of the Davis cup competition for the third time in French tennis history today beckoned strongly to Jean Borotra and Rene Lacoste after their unexpected victory in the doubles of the inter-zone finals yesterday against the Australians, Gerald Patterson and J. B. Hawkes. Lacoste's defeat at the hands of Patterson balanced by the overwhelming triumph of Borotra against J. O. Anderson, fired interest of American net followers as the racqueters of the two nations prepared to enter final singles struggles tomorrow for the privilege of facing the United States team.

France, with a lead of one match, 2 to 1, ruled a favorite, but Patterson's return to the lights of brilliance he ascended in former years and the possibility of Anderson reaching the peak of his hard-driving game opened a door of doubt contributing the necessary element of uncertainty for a dramatic tennis finish.

YANKS HAND PIRATES 10TH STRAIGHT BEATING

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The New York Yankees defeated the Athletics today, 4 to 3, giving the Hugmen the two-game series and also counted as their fourth consecutive victory. It was the 10th straight defeat for the Mackmen.

Shocker argued with umpire Hilderbrand in the seventh on Bishop's pass and was banished, Pennock replacing him in the box.

It was announced that manager Miller Huggins had reinstated Babe Ruth and that he will probably play in Boston tomorrow as will Mark Koenig, the new shortstop, recently purchased from the St. Paul club of the American Association. The score:

Philadelphia (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	New York (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Cochrane,c	4	1	5	2	1	Johnson,2b	3	1	2	2	0
aPerkins	0	0	0	0	0	Meusel,lf	5	0	1	0	0
Bishop,2b	3	0	2	4	0	Combs,cf	4	0	4	0	0
Simmons,cf	4	1	1	0	0	Gehrig,1b	4	1	8	0	0
Lamar,lf	4	1	2	0	0	Paschal,rf	4	1	2	0	0
Rolt,3b	3	1	1	1	0	Ward,3b	3	2	1	1	0
Keaser,1b	3	0	1	7	0	Bengough,c	4	0	7	2	0
Hale,2b	4	1	0	3	0	Walker,ss	3	0	2	2	0
Miller,rf	4	1	2	0	0	Shocker,p	0	0	0	0	0
Galloway,ss	2	0	1	2	0	xPennock,p	1	0	0	1	0
Galloway,ss	2	0	1	2	0
xFrench	1	0	0	0	0	Totals	38	5	27	8	0
Smith,ss	0	0	0	0	0
xxBoley	1	0	0	0	0
Gray,p	2	1	1	2	0
xxPoole	0	0	0	0	0
Walberg,p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	12	21	14	3

(a) Batted for Galloway in 7th.
(x) Batted for Gray in 9th.
(xx) Batted for Smith in 9th.
(xxx) Batted for Walberg in 9th.
(x) Batted for Cochrane in 9th.

Score by innings:
Philadelphia .....0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0 0—3
New York .....0 0 0 0 0 4 0 0 x—4

BROWNS WITHIN HALF GAME OF THIRD PLACE

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—(AP)—By right of conquest over Chicago White Sox the Browns drew within one half game of third place. The score was 9 to 4. Neither team counted until the sixth inning, when the Sox grabbed a one run lead, scoring four to the Brownies three. The Browns came back with two tallies in the next inning and lead to the finish. The score:

Chicago (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	St. Louis (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Mostil,cf	4	0	1	0	0	Rice,rf	5	2	4	0	0
Kamm,ss	5	0	2	4	0	Gerber,ss	4	1	2	1	0
Hooper,rf	3	0	0	0	0	Rigler,1b	4	1	8	0	0
Sheely,1b	4	1	10	1	0	Jacobson,cf	4	1	2	0	0
Falk,lf	3	1	2	0	0	McManus,2b	4	2	0	1	2
Harrell,2b	3	1	2	4	0	Bennett,lf	3	1	3	0	0
Kamm,2b	3	1	1	4	0	Wilson,c	2	0	4	0	0
Schalk,c	1	0	5	0	0	aHarrover,c	1	0	1	0	0
Grosse,c	1	0	3	0	0	Roberts,p	1	0	1	0	0
Faber,p	2	0	0	0	0	Roberts,2b	1	0	1	3	0
Connally,p	2	0	0	0	0	Gaston,p	1	0	0	1	0
Lyons,p	1	0	0	0	0	Wingard,p	2	1	0	2	0
						xTobin	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	5	31	14	0	Totals	31	10	27	8	2

(a) Batted for Gaston in 8th.

Score by innings:
Chicago .....0 0 0 0 0 4 0 0 0—4
St. Louis .....0 0 0 0 0 0 3 2 4 x—9

Two base hits, Harrell, Wingard. Three base hit, McManus. Home run, Tobin.

BRADY'S WILDNESS AIDS IN ST. LOUIS WIN

CINCINNATI, Sept. 6.—(AP)—St Louis beat Cincinnati 9 to 3 mainly through the wildness of Neal Brady and a timely triple with the bases filled. Jim Bottomley lined a three bagger into right in the second inning with all of the bases occupied and the visitors scored a total of six runs in that inning. A chest of silver was presented to Ivy Wingo by Cincinnati Shibboys before the game. The score:

St. Louis (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Blades,lf	4	2	1	0	0	E.Smith,lf	3	1	1	0	0
Mueller,cf	4	1	2	0	0	Pinelli,3b	2	0	1	2	0
Bottomley,1b	5	2	7	0	0	Dressen,2b	3	0	0	2	0
Ritchey,2b	5	2	7	0	0	Roush,cf	4	2	3	1	0
Rafey,rf	5	1	5	0	0	Walker,rf	3	2	3	0	0
Bell,3b	5	1	2	3	0	Bolke,1b	3	0	7	1	0
O'Farrell,c	3	1	3	0	0	Niehaus,1b	1	0	4	1	0
Thevenow,ss	4	1	1	3	0	Critz,2b	4	0	2	5	0
Haines,p	3	0	0	1	0	Rohrer,ss	4	2	1	4	0
						Ragware,c	4	0	4	0	0
Totals	41	10	27	7	0	Brady,p	0	0	0	0	0
						May,p	2	1	1	3	0
						xBressler	1	1	0	0	0
						xxHitmann	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	36	10	27	13	1

(a) Batted for May in 9th.
(xx) Batted for Bressler in 9th.

Score by innings:
St. Louis .....0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 1—3
Cincinnati .....1 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0—3

Two base hits, Roush, E. Smith, O'Farrell. Three base hits, Bottomley, Hornsby. Home run, Walker

RED SOX END WINNING STREAK OF WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The champions broke a winning streak of seven straight games by losing today to Boston 8 to 6. The loss did not prove expensive to the Nationals in their race for the pennant, however since Philadelph

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

129 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 13c a week; 50c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-3.

Willimantic Office, Main St., Telephone 1121.

Norwich Monday, Sept. 7, 1925

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING SEPT. 5, 1925:
12,887

STATE FOREST FIRES.

Somehow there seems to be a much better understanding of conditions where there concrete facts of figures to consider. Anyone can appreciate what a loss is bound to follow a forest fire but it means more when it is set forth in the area actually covered and the amount lost is put down in dollars and cents.

Thus when it is stated by the state forester that there were 730 forest fires in Connecticut during the spring fire season, involving more than 19,000 acres and causing damage to the amount of $92,071 it indicates both the extent of the menace and the opportunity which exists for more people to contribute preventive measure.

Happily last spring showed a marked improvement over 1923 when 79,000 acres were burned, but conditions surrounding the fires vary and comparisons are therefore rather uncertain.

For the most part the causes of the fires were determined and it is evident that a large percentage of them might have been prevented had there been the proper amount of care exercised. Many were the outcome of brush burning, the firing of leaves, grass and the like, while numerous instances showed that smokers, fishermen, campers and railroads were responsible for some of the bad ones.

Provisions for the detection of forest fires through lookout stations are highly valuable but it is important that this work should be backed up by effective fire warden and fire fighting service. And yet while the provisions for fighting such fires cannot be neglected it is to be realized that the most valuable efforts can be put forth in the line of prevention. If fires can be prevented, and it is shown that this is posible in a great number of instances, there is no need for the fire fighters. Thus it should be realized that care is one of the best means of stopping the needless and the to numerous forest firest.

PREPARING FOR SECURITY.

For various reasons interest will surround the sixth assembly of the league of nations which opens today at Geneva. There cannot fail to be interest even in this country, though we are not a member and have no intention of joining, because of the effect which its deliberations and its acts may have upon Europe and the furtherance of international peace.

It is to be expected at this meeting there will be some discussion of the security pact which Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy are endeavoring to get with Germany. It was be strange if there wasn't, even though such anagreement has not as yet been affected, for under the plan which has been advanced Germany would become a member of the league along with the other nations and the league is of course much concerned with the future peace of Europe.

Representatives of the nations that would be a party to the pact have been in session. They have exchanged views and it seems possible that it will be followed by a call for a meeting this fall to negotiate a security treaty to insure peace along the Rhine, and as the result of that encourage other understandings with a view to giving greater assurances for peace elsewhere in Europe, through treaty revisions or adjustment of boundary disputes.

That the league of nations should be disposed to display keen interest in such an important move is inevitable. It is a matter to which it should be anxious to give all possible support. The league may well lend its heartiest encouragement to such an undertaking. In view of the league session coming before the contemplated treaty conference it may have no chance to act upon Germany's application for membership at this session but considering all that is involved in the security movement it is too much to expect that the league will meet without carefully reviewing the situation among other things.

STRIKING AT CRIME.

While most states have compulsory education law the demand is being made by the Chicago Federation of Teachers for a law that will make it obligatory for children to go to school until they are 16. This is based upon the belief that education is the cure for crime.

There can be no question of the need for doing something that will lessen crime but it is not so certain that the remedy lies in keeping children in school until they are 16. It seems unlikely to work out any more that the idea that our smartest and most successful men have been college bred.

Should the time ever come that children cannot go to work until they are 16 it would be highly advisable that they be kept in school if for no other reason than to have them make the best use of their time under the circumstances and keep them out of mischief. Idleness unquestionably lends encouragement to crime but there are those for whom schooling is a waste of time after they have completed the grammar school. Their education from then on can best be obtained in the school of hard knocks for which they have a liking and where they may be expected to shine.

When it comes to the reduction of crime and the belief that it lies in increased education, there are those who seem to think, that the school is a reformatory and that even though the parents fail to shoulder their responsibility to their children such can be safely entrusted to the school teachers. There is no doubt but what the schools will do their part and do it well in teaching the children but there are other influences which need to be brought to bear. Criminals are by no means ignorant. Some of the worst are well educated persons.

The Chicago teachers may be persistent in their endeavors but they know that education didn't prevent in the cases of Leopold and Loeb of their own city while it would be difficult in the cases of other young criminals to show that it was because they were not kept in school until 18 than they set out on careers of crime.

TRAFFIC UNIFORMITY

Whenever a move is made for uniformity in state laws it means that there must be long consideration and rather unsatisfactory results in the end. States are disposed to hang to their rights and look with fear upon any concessions that are sought by others. But when it comes to obtaining uniformity in highway traffic laws of the various states there cannot fail to be a recognition of the merits of such a proposition.

In any section of the country one cannot fail to be impressed by the number of cars that are seen every day from other states. This is general throughout the country and it is not solely confined to the vacation period, even though it is during that time that the various resort sections and states get a larger number of such visitors.

But with this great volume of travel from state to state a deeper appreciation of the need of uniformity in highway regulations is felt. It furnishes a concrete demonstration and those who experience such things quickly become advocates.

It is not to be supposed that there can be traffic regulations that would govern all states except in a general way but there are requirements which should be common in regard to general highway rules, lights, signals and possibly speed. City traffic regulations cannot be made uniform, but with proper manners and traffic police such should be able to adjust it self, especially with the tendency these days to route traffic around instead of through cities.

Efforts in behalf of uniformity may require some time, but they are justified and bid fair to succeed. The problem grows worse the longer it remains unsolved.

RESULTS FROM CANAL

When the Panama canal was constructed it was made clear that it was not being built with the ideas of making a profit. It was a waterway that would increase our defenses, making it possible for the fleet to be shifted from one ocean to the other, and it would at the same time be a big contribution to world commerce.

The canal was constructed and put into operation ten years ago, and it is no display of undue enthusiasm when it is declared that it is doing more business and getting better results than were anticipated.

When the question is raised as to whether the canal is paying there is more than one way of looking at it. It can pay in a financial sense and it can pay in results obtained. Also it can pay both financially and in results.

As far as the results are concerned the canal has justified the outlay that was made to construct it. It is a short cut that has stimulated much commerce and is constantly attracting more. It is a tremendous advantage to this country as a naval defense but it has encouraged much business in new fields. It is thus doing just what was expected of it.

From the financial standpoint it is producing gratifying results. It has shown a growth in the ten years from a tonnage of five million to nearly 24 million and in tolls it has jumped from four and a third million to more than 21 million. It hasn't gotten as yet to the point where the revenue is sufficient to pay interest on the construction cost but in the last year or two it has approached the point where that seems within the bounds of possibilities even though it was not aimed at. There are certainly no regrets for having built such an important transportation facility.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Labor day, and may there be a general participation.

Now that the reduction in gas rates has gone into effect, is everything satisfactory?

The man on the corner says: It would be interesting to know how the positive man gets that way.

Figuring out from the income tax what a neighbor's income was is harder than solving some of the cross word puzzles.

A motor ride through Main street these days, over the new pavement causes no yearning for the return of the Belgian blocks.

The Price of Wales fortifies himself against an invasion of "How-to-grow-thin" agents by declaring that he is not growing fat.

Those who are crowded out of Florida will be just in time to participate in the land booming which is being undertaken in Taxes.

When a man purchase $5,000 worth of jewelry for $1,500 from strangers his credulity runs higher than the thermometer on a hot August day.

The dryness which is being experienced in a number of New England cities cannot be attributed to the working of the new prohibition administrators.

The interesting part of this New York mayoralty campaign is that many who were backing Hylan in the carrying out of his policies are now giving him the cold shoulder and much adverse criticism.

BURDENSOME TAXATION DIRECT AID TO RADICALS

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

A little salt added to dried fruit when cooking improves the flavor.

To prevent cream from turning to butter when whipping always add a little sugar before starting to whip.

When cleaning fish to do, let it soak in water or the flavor will be spoiled.

The white of an egg applied to a burn or scald is most soothing and will cause the burn to heal quickly.

Add salt to steaks when nearly cooked. Added when steaks are beginning to cook salt draws out the juices which may be lost.

A few drops of oil of lavender sprinkled on the shelves of your bookcase and closets will dispel the odor of mold which frequently arises in damp weather.

To prevent fruit from settling at the bottom of cake always pour boiling water over the fruit, squeeze it dry with the hand and roll in flour.

A too rapid boiling ruins the flavor of any sauce. It must boil up once, but should merely simmer afterward.

Rub the top of your stove with a piece of newspaper occasionally and it won't have to be blacked so often.

When butter is hard and you wish to make sandwiches, thoroughly heat a bowl and turn it over the butter. It will soften the butter throughout.

To clean a bread mixer pour boiling water into it, cover with a towel, put the cover on and let stand ten minutes. It shortens labor.

The white of an egg will remove chewing gum from anything. Rub the egg white on the gum and it will remove it from cloth, hair or hands without leaving a spot.

A steak intended for grilling, if suspected of being tough, should be well rubbed with olive oil an hour or so before using. Those who do not like the idea of oil may use melted butter, but oil is much more effective.

FOOD LISTS HELPFUL

The clever housewife finds it convenient to list kinds of food for quick reference. Have a list of garnishes, a list of meats for dinner, another for luncheon; a list of salads, desserts, and so an.

Also it is well to have a list of the various ways potatoes may be served, and of the various vegetables. These lists should include only those dishes which the family will eat and that the budget will allow you to have. Other lists may be planned for guests.

When planning meals for a day or for a week, or for a special guest, she has only to run down these lists and very easily select that which is wanted. In this way company menus and everyday menus as well will be more interesting and varied.

WAXED FLOORS

Water marks on waxed floors are eyesores to the particular housewife, but they can be removed easily by rubbing in a circular motion with a cloth dipped in turpentine. Dry with a piece of clean flannel.

LAMP WICKS

Don't try to trim a lamp wick with scissors, it always results in an uneven wick. Rub the burned part off with an old cloth.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Don't ever seal up cuts. It the cut, however slight, has been made with an unclean object, you are simply sealing infection into the wound. Sometimes it may be several days before there are indications that it is infected.

For a child who shows symptoms of any illness a dose of castor oil is usually the first and safest treatment but until a physician is consulted no solid food of any kind should be given. The doctor will advise just what broths and other simple foods are required. All sick children should have a doctor as early in the disease as possible.

There is nothing better than lemon juice for bleaching the face and neck when darkened by the summer sun, and if freckles are at all removable lemon juice will banish them as well as any thing. If it makes the skin sore, the lemon can be mixed with a little rose water. For cleansing and whitening the teeth, especially when at all discolored, lemon juice is excellent. It should be diluted with a little water for this purpose.

Brushing is one of the greatest aids to hair health and beauty. Nothing else brings out so effectively the gloss of silk, the exquisitely blended lights and shades of the hair, as the "one hundred strokes a day" of our mother's regime. It also has its more mundane office of keeping the hair clean and healthy by removing all impurities and stimulating circulation. Keep your brushes as immaculately clean as possible. Brush from the crown of the head, using long, even strokes.

VACATION HINTS

When planning your vacation do the contrary of what you would usually do. For instance, if your daily life brings you in contact with many people, spend your vacation in the country or at some quiet resort. Thus you will get the greatest benefit out of your vacation.

Before packing your trunk, spread a sheet in it allowing the ends to fall over the edges of trunk. When packed fold the sheet ends and pin them together. This will keep trunk contents in place.

PURCHASING WOOLENS

Avoid buying woolen materials having a series of holes along the selvedges. This usually means the fabric has been stretched and is therefore likely to shrink when washed.

A BETTER CHOICE

In large cities it is wise to do one's meat marketing for the week end on Friday. One has a better selection at that time, as the meat is in for the week and will keep just as well in the housewife's icebox as the butcher's.

WHY TAKE A CHANCE?

Clean the garment with gasoline in the great out-of-doors. Why take any chances when the job is perfectly safe if done outside in the air?

TO MAKE IT FIT

If the candle seems too large for the candlestick, dip the end for a minute in very hot water. This will soften the wax and it can be easily pushed into the holder.

DICTATES OF FASHION

Practical as well as pretty are nightgowns of pink crepe de chine with inserts of cream color net footing.

A serviceable little step-in and brassiere combination is made of pale pink glove silk. It is trimmed (?) wide bands of violet silk.

Striking looking handkerchiefs for men are made of polka-dot silk with wide borders of plain colors. They are very attractive in navy blue and white or tan and white.

Navy blue, after a rather prolonged effort to keep it in the background, has reasserted itself and is even more firmly entrenched in fashion's favor than it has been for several seasons.

Old books whose bindings are shabby can be made very decorative by the addition of covers of hand-blocked papers in fascinating little designs. When each book is covered with a different pattern the effect is extremely gay.

The modest violet will indeed shine at the beaches this summer if all the attractive bathing suits in violet and flowered silks whose predominating tones are purple and violet now on exhibition are worn.

White lisle stockings for sport wear have clocks of color, while silk stockings have a band of blue just below the knee in the center of which are small dolls heads edged with frills of lace.

An envelope bag of moire silk which comes in navy or brown, is lined with leather. There is a practical hand-strap across the back and a large decorative crystal ornament in front.

Another dress bag of brocaded black silk is held securely by a thumb-strap at the back. Bands of plaits, a jeweled clasp and a rich silk lining add distinction to a design that is decidedly smart.

COLORS FOR FALL

Shades of brown are to be much in vogue in the autumn and winter and in tone range from pale warm biscuit shades to the deep Havana and earth tones. Very smart effects are achieved by combining two tones of brown.

A model of this type would be quite as attractive if developed in navy blue with touches of rose on the blouse of blue crepe or with the entire blouse made of plaited crepe in a shade of old blue.

ROSETTES OF RIBBON

Hand-made rosettes of moire ribbon enhance the front of a new model seen in one of the 5th ave. shops. This frock is made of faille crepe which is slashed at sides and displays an intriguing underslip of a pleasantly contrasting color. This frock is seen in black and blue; navy and tan; sand and titan, and several other combinations.

BELTS FOR FALL

Belts will be important accessories of the fall wardrobe, according to late Paris fashion gossip. The prevalence of sports clothes in new French designs is largely responsible for this conclusion. Most of the models call for a narrow belt or one of medium width.

LAUNDRY HINTS

Folding napkins, towels and table linen in thirds lengthwise instead of quarters when ironing gives a much handsomer appearance.

To loosen dirt, soak clothes over night in tub of cold water and add one tablespoon of best quality ammonia to each pail of water. In the morning wring the clothes into another tub or washing machine. The ammonia removes most of the dirt without rubbing.

When boiling the clothes, add two tablespoons to one-half boiler of water. When washing blankets and woolens, do not soak over night, but add one-half cup of ammonia to tub of warm, suday water. This will prevent skrinking, leave the woolens soft and fluffy, and prevent attacks from moths.

Art muslin curtains should never be washed in warm water. Make a lather with hot water and when it is nearly cold wash the curtains. If these are green, add a little vinegar; if lilac or pink, a little ammonia.

TO WASH PILLOWS

Many people do not realize that feather pillows can be washed successfully at home. The only requirement is a tub sufficiently large so that the suds may be worked up and down through the pillows freely. Make a great quantity of lukewarm suds. A mild soap flake is desirable for keeping the feathers soft and pliable. Soak the pillows in the suds for several hours, then wash by swishing the suds up through the pillows. This may be accomplished with the hands, with one of the mechanical appliances devised for the purpose or a washing-machine, if one as accessible. Change the suds as soon as it becomes soiled, repeating the washing until the water remains comparatively clear. Rinse thoroughly in clear water and hang in a sunny place to dry, turning frequently to change the position of the feathers in the tick.

POPULARITY OF RINGS

Finger rings continue to be the most popular of jewels. These may be of platinum or a platinum shank on 18-karat white gold. Then there are others with a yellow gold shank and platinum top. These rings are set with a sapphire and two diamonds, the quality depending on the price, or two sapphires and one diamond or three diamonds or five diamonds, just as you prefer. A beautiful ring has a sapphire and six diamonds. Another striking ring has a cluster of seven blue diamonds.

TO CLEAN SHADES

To clean parchment shades rub lightly with a cloth dipped in olive oil and you will be surprised to see them come out looking like new.

CONCERNING WOMEN

Fashionable women in Paris are having their eyelashes permanently dyed.

Chinese women are demanding a larger part in the affairs of their country.

Though she is past 81 years of age, Mrs. A. T. Harrmann of San Jose, Cal., has just taken up golf.

Miss Hilda Hechie of London is probably the only woman mountain painter in the world and is happiest when she is making wonderful pictures of the Alpine heights.

Dr. Owens Adair, woman physician and eugenics advocate, of Warrenton, Ore., could neither read nor write when she was 18 years of age.

The Turkish government has issued a decree dismissing all Christian and Jewish telephone girls throughout Turkey.

Women and girls of more than six months' experience working in bread and bakery establishments in Massachusetts must be paid a minimum wage of $.3 a week.

FROCK FOR LITTLE GIRLS

The very little girl will revel in a frock of sheer net simply trimmed with embroidered net and worn over a pale pink crepe de chine slip.

FURNITURE FOR NURSERY

Sensible and decorative as well is the Dutch furniture for the nursery consisting of a table and chairs. The round table is painted either blue or lavender and has a tin top, upon which is painted the alphabet and the numerals up to 10, and an engaging little rabbit.

Today's Birthdays

Pietro Mascagni, the composer of "Cavalleria Rusticana," born in Leghorn, Italy, 62 years ago today.

Mario G. Menocal, former president of Cuba, born in the Province of Matanzas, 59 years ago today.

Cecile Sorel, one of the most celebrated actresses of the French stage, born in Paris, 53 years ago today.

John Coolidge, son of the President and Mrs. Coolidge, born at Northampton, Mass., 19 years ago today.

Charles F. Scott, a former Kansas representative in Congress, born in Allen county, Kas., 65 years ago today.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Cardinal Gasparri, who is expected to visit America next year to attend the great Eucharistic congress to be held in Chicago, is the papal secretary of state and one of the most influential members of the Sacred College of Cardinals. In his younger days he taught theology in the pontifical Roman Seminary and canon law in the University of Paris. In 1898 he was as apostolic delegate to Ecuador, Peru and Bolivia. After four years he returned to Rome secretary to the congregation for extraordinary ecclesiastical affairs. When Pope Pius X decreed the codification of the canon law Gasparri was selected to be president of the commission. In recognition of his merit he was made cardinal in 1907 and seven years later succeeded Cardinal Ferrata as secretary of state. Cardinal Gasparri is considered the best authority on canon law now living.

Today's Anniversaries

1817—Queen Louise of Denmark, who was called the "mother-in-law of half of Europe," born in Hesse-Cassel. Died in Copenhagen, Sept. 29, 1898.

1850 — Hesse-Cassel was pronounced in a state of war by the Elector.

1867—Bismarck announced that the German nation would not submit to interference of guidance on the part of any foreign power.

1869—Cheyenne was designated as the territorial capital of Wyoming.

1874—Frederick B. Conway, celebrated actor, died at Manchester, Mass. Born in England, Feb. 10, 1819.

1887—William Aiken, former governor of South Carolina, died. Born at Charleston, Aug. 4, 1806.

1894—Captain Stephenson, of the New York police force, was dismissed for accepting bribes.

1923—The strike settlement plan offered by Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania was accepted by the anthracite mine workers.

1924—General Chang, the Manchurian leader, formally declared war against the Peking government.

From Small Beginnings

William Crawford, the Surveyor, George Washington's Companion

Every schoolboy knows that George Washington, the first president of the United States began life as a surveyor, working in the wilderness. Washington, however, came from a family of wealth and position. With him on some of his surveying expeditions was a young man named William Crawford, who knew something about surveying and who had the courage to go into the hills and mountains and to brave the dangers from the Indians.

On one of the expeditions in which George Washington and William Crawford had gone for the purpose of surveying lands that lay at a distance from the settlements the two young men sat down under the shade of some great trees and talked about the work of the day. Presently they drifted into conversation concerning the future that lay before each one.

"I like this life," said Crawford. "It suits me. I like the outdoor's world, the trees and the mountains and the touch of danger. 'Tis a sort of game to watch the Indians, to keep them at a distance, to let them know that my long rifle is ready and to show them that I am not afraid."

"I should like to be a soldier," said Washington. "I should like to command men. I like to see the orderly marching of troops. I like to ride a horse and to go galloping over the fields."

Fate had in store for those two boys very different lives. The leader of the surveying party was to become the great general and the first president of a new country. The other, William Crawford, was to serve gallantly in war, and at last to be tortured and burned to death by Indians, at the age of 50.

When young Crawford had finished his work as surveyor he became a soldier, and at 23 was one of the men who served under Braddock. Before the Revolution he saw much fighting with Indians. Naturally he served in the Revolution although he never attained high rank. He was looked upon as a loyal, patriotic and daring soldier, but did not rise to a position higher than that of a colonel. Less than a year after the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown William Crawford was sent to fight the British and the Indians in the west, in what is now Ohio. His troops were overwhelmed by superior forces, and he himself was taken prisoner by the Indians who tortured him to death. When George Washington heard of this he must have thought of the gallant young man who had been so intimate with him in his days of surveying, and have mourned the death of a patriot.

Stories That Recall Others

Squandering the Time.

Bert was a mere lad but he had agreed to carry a paper from the box to the home of a neighbor up a lane. He was to get two and a half cents a week and he was true to his trust for four long weeks when he concluded it time to ask for his pay. The mail driver had hardly finished blowing his bugle when Bert got busy, delivering his paper and got two new nickels.

He was much impressed and as he spied his grandfather walking slowly along with a cane he yelled, "Hi, grandfather." Approaching the old man with his hand in his pocket, Bert did his best to jingle his wealth and then said: "Is there anything you want today?"

"Why, yes, son," was the surprising answer, "grandfather is out of tobacco."

Going through with his brave pose of generosity, Bert gave his grandfather the whole of his fortune with a smile; but, the lump that was in his throat chokes him even now as he, a grown up man, tells about it.

How One Sheik Was Cured.

Henry has been relating some of his college experiences during his vacation. One has to do with the curing of a sheik.

A young chap had just come into the school. He had a car and was accustomed to draw up to the curb and invite the coeds to go for a ride. Necking parties were very much in line.

College boys decided it was time to call a halt, so one of them doled up as a queen and sallied forth. He spotted her, drew along side and "she" coyly smiled and jumped in. The sheik was enchanted and out a little way suggested a kiss. The fair damsel lisped her disapproval but the sheik snuggled closer and just as he grabbed her she pulled out a revolver on him, lisping "handth up." He complied and she forced him to get out of the car whereupon she took the wheel, stepping on the gas and drove into town. The footsore sheik arrived about 3 a. m. It was a long time before he found out that his Amazon was not a girl but "the cure" worked like a charm.

Don't think that because a man holds a position of trust he will trust

PALACE

ADOLPH ZUKOR
JESSE L. LASKY
PRESENT
CECIL B. DeMILLE'S
Greatest Paramount Picture
'THE TEN COMMANDMENTS'

PALACE THEATRE
TODAY—TUES. and Wed.
CONTINUOUS TODAY
2:00 TO 10:30

STORY BY JEANIE MACPHERSON

THE PALACE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, ELEVEN PIECES WAS A SENSATION LAST NIGHT. Wm. S. JEFF'S CONDUCTING, WAS A REVELATION.

COMING SUN. MON. TUES. & WED.

THE GREATEST IN HIS LATEST
The Funniest Picture Harold Lloyd Has Made
DON'T FORGET MERCHANTS' NIGHT THURSDAY

Harold Lloyd in The Freshman
A Pathe Picture
Harold Lloyd Corp

WATCH TOMORROW'S PAPER FOR THE BIGGEST ANNOUNCEMENT EVER MADE BY ANY THEATRE IN EASTERN CONN.

BROADWAY
—TODAY—
Continuous—2 to 10:30
EXCEPTIONALLY FINE HOLIDAY PROGRAM
THE ONLY VAUDEVILLE IN TOWN
FIVE ACTS—VAUDEVILLE
"INDOOR SPORTS"
With RALPH BAILEY & CO.—A Modern Comedy Romance
MORAN & STERLING in "On the Mezzanine Floor"
EDDIE & EARL in a Whirl of Variety Dances
JACK HALL Presents A BOY AND A CLARINET
EQUILLO BROS. Extraordinary Exponents of Equilibrium
Screen Offering with Which You'll Laugh and Grin
GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE
A Paramount Picture With
FLORENCE VIDOR, MATT MOORE, LOUISE FAZENDA
REMEMBER—CONTINUOUS SHOW TODAY

Automobile Pageant

Societies, Clubs, Business Houses, Individuals—Everybody! Should enter the Beautiful Automobile Pageant to be held SATURDAY, SEPT. 19th, at 1.30 P. M., on the FAIRGROUNDS. The committee must know now how many to prepare for. Call up 2424 or send word to the Superintendent today that you intend entering.

FIRST PRIZE—$100.00 IN GOLD.

Prizes Subject to Scale Based on 50 Cars.

FREE TRIP
—TO—
Washington, D. C.

All young ladies intending to enter the BEAUTIFUL GIRL CONTEST at the Norwich Fair, must send in their entries before Sept. 10. ADDRESS—63 BROADWAY, NORWICH, CONN.

BARNYARD GOLF

The first Annual Horseshoe Throwing Contest at the Norwich Fair will take place Saturday, Sept. 19th, beginning at 9 A. M. Entrance Fee, including admission to the Fair, $1.00.. Notify W. A. ANDERSON, 63 BROADWAY, NORWICH, at once if you intend entering.

LABOR DAY PICNIC

The Polish Societies of St. Joseph's Parish will hold a joint picnic in the Parish Grove, 120 Cliff Street, Labor Day.

The features of the picnic will be Games, Races, Good Music, Dancing and Refreshments.

Everybody is Welcome.

ADMISSION 25c
CHILDREN 10c

Wildwood Park
DANCING TONIGHT
MUSIC BY MURPHY'S PARAMOUNT ORCHESTRA OF WORCESTER.

BREED THEATRE
TODAY—TUESDAY
Continuous Show Today
"FRIENDLY ENEMIES"
—With—
WEBER and FIELDS
World's Master Entertainers with a Wonderful Supporting cast, including VIRGINIA BROWN FAIRE, JACK MULHALL AND STUART HOLMES.
Sunshine Comedy—News

BOYS and DOGS

Every Boy who owns a dog of any kind and will bring it to the FAIRGROUNDS before 9.30 A. M., Saturday, Sept. 19, will be admitted to the Fair free and may enter his pet in the Mutt dog show for prizes. Every animal must have a strong collar and heavy leash. Dogs will be benched at 10 o'clock and grand prize awarded by His Honor, Mayor Waters, at 3 P. M.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

BUTTERICK PATTERN
INCLUDING DELTOR

STORE CLOSED TODAY
in Observance of
LABOR DAY

A carbonaceous fuel of heat—dependability—that's what our anthracite is. Enables your heater to send out heat waves that you can regulate. Coal that makes a science out of heating instead of guesswork. Order of us—Now!

SAFE HEAT

The Edward Chappell Company

Telephone 24.

Mrs. Mose Smith, 90 years old, has received the honorary degree of master of arts from Mt. Holyoke college, in recognition of her church and missionary work.

THE CRANSTON CO.
25 Broadway, Norwich.

LABOR DAY PICTURES

Your holiday pictures will nowhere be better finished than in our developing and printing department. 24-hour service at the hands of an expert of long experience.

BRING US THOSE LABOR DAY PICTURES TODAY.

Books, Stationery, Office Supplies, and Gift Merchandise—a complete stock in all of these lines.

GRASS SEED

New Stock Just Arrived.

ELDREDGE HARDWARE COMPANY.

ROSEN RYE

NEW CROP ROSEN RYE.

Car to arrive week of September 7th.

Eldredge Hardware Co.

Norwich Monday, Sept. 7, 1925

VARIOUS MATTERS

The workingman's own holiday!

Light vehicle lamps at 6.43 (st. t) this evening.

The village of Thamesville now has a resident tailor.

The September moon quarters Wednesday the 9th at 7.13 p. m.

The planet Jupiter continues evening and morning star until September 9th.

Renovation and improvements are going on at the houses opposite the Richmond Radiator Company, on Thames street.

The cleaning up of Washington square goes steadily on and the Main street improvement is appreciated by all travelers.

Several from Norwich were among those attending a masquerade dance at Mabrey's hotel, Ocean Beach, Saturday evening.

The meeting of Brooklyn League of Women Voters is to be held at the home of Misses Dyer on the afternoon of September 8.

The recent national convention of florists at Buffalo, N. Y., was attended by Otto F. Ernst, of the Geduldig Greenhouses, Cedar street, Norwich.

The Flynn-McClellan tablet in honor of Mrs. F. W. Flynn and Miss Jessy T. McClellan has been placed in position in Woodstock Public library.

Automobile traffic in Norwich streets reached a new high record Saturday, the stream of machines being almost continuous in all directions.

Maurice F. Childs, principal of Woodstock Academy, visited his brother, Rev. Irving H. Childs, and family, at Ellerslie, Lord's Point, during the week.

At Weekapaug recently, Mrs. Joel L. English opened her studio in her cottage, Bramble Brae, for an exhibition of her summer sketches of Weekapaug.

It is stated in the local stores that beaded and embroidered bands and applique effects are leading the sale of trimmings for the fall, with the outlook continuing good for an active season.

Dr. F. D. Coles will be out of town until after Sept. 15.—Adv.

